Race 4 - Prix d'Amérique Marionnaud

- Royal Dream - Is the most progressive runner in the field and has won his past three in succession including a traditional lead up race last start on January 15 in a quick time. Is now reaching peak maturity and is one of the main chances.
- The Best Madrik - Only two five year old horses in the race this year and he is continuing to improve. He has won at Gr2 level and ran a speedy lifetime mark from behind the mobile gate two starts ago on Christmas Day when third in a Gr1. The eighth-place finish last time was disappointing and he may lack the maturity at this stage of his career, but cannot be left out of those horses having a chance to complete exotic wagers.
- Roxane Griff - One of the most consistent horses to have been racing in France during the past year. He failed at his only Gr1 attempt last year and apart from that race his Gr2 form cannot be faulted. Expect him to be trotting on strongly at the end of the race and is a top chance to hit the board.
- Noras Bean - Classy Swedish horse who has not competed in any of the traditional lead up races at Vincennes. The win two starts ago from behind the mobile gate at Aby(SWE) in a lifetime mark (over a shorter distance) was promising, but could only manage fifth in a Swedish feature race last start on January 14. Is mature enough to win but his class is the question.
- Punchy - Not racing well enough to compete here. A DQ for breaking stride in the Prix de Cornulier last week followed on from a Gr2 thirteenth-place finish on New Year's Day. Unlikely to win.
- Severino - This horse is peaking at the right time. Placed in a Gr1 in September, it has been a while since his last victory, but he bounced back with a solid win in a Gr2 on January 15 over the same journey as today's race - 2700m. This prep race is traditionally one of the guides to the Prix d'Amérique and based on current form he rates as one of the main chances here.
- Main Wise As - A very consistent horse. A Gr2 winner four runs ago in November from behind the mobile gate, he has been thereabouts in all subsequent starts and recorded a lifetime mark two races back (again behind the mobile starting gate) on New Year's Day when finishing second. His form over longer trips is quite good and he deserves to be one of the considerations here. A good chance to complete the exotics.
- Private Love - Is consistent but currently struggling to win another race. Ran third in the Gr2 mobile start on New Year's Day in a lifetime mark and then reverted to ridden-races and wasn't disgraced in finishing third in last weekends' Gr1 Prix de Cornulier. Back in front of a sulky, he is the type of horse that could trot a big race at big odds.

9. Quif de Villeneuve - Won three driven races in succession up to Gr2 level in December. Came out last weekend and won the Gr1 Prix de Cornulier at his first attempt at ridden-race to the surprise of many and in a lifetime mark. He is a talented horse who is obviously versatile at both disciplines and now that he has a Gr1 victory against his name, there is no reason why he can't complete the successive Gr1 classic race double.
10. Save The Quick - Better known as a top ridden-race performer, he started favorite in last Sunday's Prix de Cornulier and finished second. Has a fourth in the mobile Gr2 on January 1st in a lifetime mark and is a previous Gr1 (but ridden) winner. On paper it would be a surprise to see him win, but he does have good enough credentials to give him an outside chance in this race.
11. Iceland - Swedish horse that has failed to produce his best form in three Vincennes starts in France; will be one of the outsiders here.
12. Timoko - The most progressive youngster of the race being five years old. A multiple Gr1 winner last year in age-restricted races, this horse is all class. This is his big maturity test and based on his 2011 efforts he is right up to open class Gr1 level and can win the Prix d'Amerique.
13. Perlando - A horse with plenty of talent, he does not appear to be racing at a level good enough to win this race.
14. Orlando Sport - One of the oldest runners in the race at 10 years of age and based on his current efforts this appears beyond him.
15. Lisa America - A classy Italian filly, she has been racing well both at Vincennes and in Italy where she won in Rome two starts ago. She was trotting on into seventh place in a 2850m Gr2 on January 15. A previous open class Gr1 winner, she is good enough to cause an upset here.
16. Maharajah - This Swedish horse has more than 20,000 syndicate owners, many of whom will be at Vincennes to cheer him home on Sunday. A previous Gr1 Vincennes winner in February 2011, he finished second in this race last year and is reaching peak form again. A top effort when fourth last start in the 2850m Gr2 over on 15 January, he is ready to reproduce the run he put in this time last year and is capable of going one better.
17. Oyonnax - Oldest runner in the race who has been finishing mid-field in the Gr2 lead up races; then fourth in the Prix de Cornulier (ridden-race) last weekend. It would be a major surprise if he was to win.
18. Ready Cash - The horse to beat. He won this race last year and then went on to win another Gr1 at Vincennes in February. There are four traditional prep races leading up to the Prix d'Amerique, all at Gr2 level, and he was able to win three of them. His only defeat was in the Gr2 Prix de Belgique on January 15, where he had to concede his rivals a 25-meter handicap at the start. He finished third but his kilometer speed-rating (1:12.8) was significantly quicker than all other runners in the race. He had previously given away 25 meters in a Gr2 at Caen(FR) on December 10 and beat many of the runners he meets here again today. A worthy favorite and based on current form he can make it back-to-back victories in this classic race.

Analysis: This is an excellent field for France's biggest race. (18) READY CASH won this race last year, appears to be trotting in better form and is the horse to beat. There are four traditional lead up races to the Prix d'Amerique Marionnaud all at Gr2 level and he has been able to win three of them and consistently beats many of his rivals. His only defeat was last start where he had to concede a 25 meter handicap at the start and finished third, recording the best time rating in the race. (16) MAHARAJAH is a Swedish horse who is a previous Gr1 Vincennes in February and was runner up in this race last year. He is reaching peak form again after a top effort when fourth last start in a Gr2 over the longer 2850m earlier this month. (1) ROYAL DREAM is the most progressive trotter in the field and has won his past three in succession, including a traditional prep race last start. (6) SEVERINO had a solid win earlier this month in a Gr2 while (7) MAIN WISE AS has form over longer trips, which is good. (12) TIMOKO is the joint youngest in the field and is all class. While he must be brought into calculations, he may not have the maturity for this classic. (3) ROXANE GRIFF has been one the rising stars in France these past six months and again is an excellent play for exotic wagers. (9) QUIF DE VILLENEUVE could be the surprise value runner.
