Magic Presto (Trevor Henry) served notice that she's going to be tough to beat in Ontario and beyond with a dominant, career-best 1:54.3 victory in the S.B.O.A. final for three-year-old trotting fillies.

The finals of the S.B.O.A. Stakes for Ontario-sired three-year-old fillies highlighted the racing portion of Fireworks and Family Fun Night Saturday at Mohawk Racetrack.

A large crowd flooded Mohawk to celebrate Canada's Victoria Day long weekend. Despite cool and windy conditions, excitement filled both the grandstand and paddock for the evening's festivities.

The first on-track feature was the $130,130 S.B.O.A. Stakes for three-year-old trotting fillies in race-two.

Magic Presto lived up to her 1-5 billing by scoring a two-and-three-quarter lengths victory in a career-best 1:54.3.

Trevor Henry guided the Richard "Nifty" Norman trainee to the stakes victory. Magic Presto was sent to the front and held a narrow lead at the opening quarter. Henry allowed post-10 starter Holiday Promise to clear, but quickly circled around to retake the lead heading to the half.

Mohawk's annual fireworks night to celebrate Canada's Victoria Day holiday weekend was a hit with the fans.

Magic Presto proceeded to post fractions of :57.4 and 1:27.1, before trotting home in :27.2 for the victory. Gravitator finished second, while Royal Witch was third.

"I think she was a little sharper this week," said Norman after Magic Presto's triumph. "It was kind of a strange race and a funny night with the wind, but she was very good."

Owned by Mel Hartman, Herb Liverman, David McDuffee and Jeff Gural's Little E LLC, Magic Presto (Kadabra—In The Mean Time) now has two wins in three starts this season to give her six victories overall in her career. Hartman, Liverman, McDuffee and Norman are the same connections that campaigned 2013 U.S. and Canadian Horse of the Year Bee A Magician, who was retired earlier this year.

Gural, the owner of the Meadowlands Racetrack, Tioga and Vernon Downs, said Hartman invited him to buy in on a few of the group's horses the last couple of years.

"We did okay, but last year they came up with two good ones in (Magic Presto) and Glitzey Gal who seems to have her act together this year and won a sire stake at the Meadowlands (Friday) night," Gural wrote via email. "So, it's a good way to start."

The S.B.O.A. victory pushes the Magic Presto's career earnings to over $470,000.

Norman noted that Magic Presto will return to Mohawk on June 8 for an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series event before returning to the Meadowlands for Grand Circuit action.

Magic Presto paid $2.50 to win.

A pair of Casie Coleman trainees were the story in race-eight's $132,130 pacing filly final, but it was the underdog of the two that stole the show.

Fade and driver Travis Cullen came through at 10-1 for a 1:53.1 score. The daughter of Shadow Play—Breathe had won her elimination a week ago, but received little buzz due to her stablemate Windy Sport's dominating 1:51.3 victory in her preliminary.

Windy Sport, who was 1-5, and driver Louis Philippe Roy cut the mile with Fade following in the two-hole. Dancing Shadows K came first up to battle with the heavy favorite on the far turn and Windy Sport was feeling pressure at three-quarters in 1:26.1.

In the stretch, Windy Sport couldn't deliver another large performance and gave way to her rivals. Fade was able to shoot up the rail and Soiree Seelster charged home on the far outside to set up a great finish. At the wire, Fade secured to the victory by a neck.

Fade (Travis Cullen) posted a 10-1 upset in the S.B.O.A. final for sophomore pacing fillies with a 1:53.1 score.

Windy Sport finished third.

Fade had the driving services of Cullen for the first time Saturday and the duo immediately connected.

“He did a great job,” said Coleman about Cullen. “Obviously Windy Sport was 1-5 and he got the two-hole trip behind her and couldn’t have driven any better. He got the perfect ground saving trip and got her up in time for the money.”

Coleman trains Fade for owners West Wins Stable and Calhoun Racing Ltd. The filly’s S.B.O.A. score gives her two wins in four starts this season and three victories in her career.

Fade’s career earnings now sit at $225,752. She paid $22.10 to win.

Also on Saturday, the red-hot seven-year-old pacer Fool Me Once jumped up to the Preferred and scored a strong 1:50.4 victory.

Since moving into the Moreau barn and onto the WEG Circuit, Fool Me Once has now won three starts in a row for owner Brad Grant. His latest victory gives him 35 career visits to the winner’s circle and pushes his career earnings to over $963,000.

Sortie (Andrew McCarthy) won his $48,876 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes division in 1:53.1 at The Meadows on Saturday. It is the fastest mile for a sophomore trotting colt on a five-eighths mile track so far in 2017.

Sortie super in Super Bowl PASS

Despite having to race without his Cornell Collar at The Meadows, the Hambletonian hopeful posted the fastest victory by a sophomore trotting colt so far this year on a five-eighths mile track.

by Evan Pattak / The Meadows and Ken Weingartner / HRC

They couldn't collar Sortie in Saturday's $146,628 Pennsylvania Sires Stake (PASS) at The Meadows — literally.

The Hambletonian hopeful, one of the most promising freshmen of 2016, had been racing with a Cornell Collar to help his breathing. Moments before Saturday's race, however, trainer Noel Daley was informed that Cornell Collars can't be used in Pennsylvania, and the device had to be removed.

It didn't seem to bother Sortie, who raced beautifully in his seasonal debut, jogging off to victory for Andrew McCarthy in 1:53.1, fastest this year for a 3-year-old colt on a five-eighths-mile track and a life mark. The event known as the Super Bowl was contested over three divisions, with Andy M and Common Parlance also taking splits.

Daley said he added the Cornell Collar for Sortie, who won a Breeders Crown elimination and finished third in the final, after a vet's diagnosis.

"They said everything looked good on him, he just had a short epiglottis," Daley said. "So rather than do surgery, we just put the Cornell Collar on him. I didn't realize until five minutes before he raced that they're illegal here.

"I did an interview the other day where I mentioned the collar — I guess that's how they knew we used it. I have to watch what I say to you fellas."

In the Super Bowl, the son of Explosive Matter—Win B moved first over from third and drew off smartly, downing Giveitgasandgo by 3-1/2 lengths. High Glider was third. McCarthy indicated Sortie did not experience labored or noisy breathing during the race.

Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Mario Mazza and Sortie Stable campaign Sortie, who pushed his career bankroll to $146,493. Sortie was a $65,000 yearling acquisition.

Last year, Sortie went off stride in three of his first four starts (he won the only race in which he did not) before starting to put it all together. He finished fourth in a division of the International Stallion and then hit the board in his final three races of the campaign. For the year, he finished with $122,055 in purses from eight starts.

"He always showed talent, but he would throw his head or when you pulled him off a horse he just wanted to go a hundred (miles per hour)," Daley said about last year's breaks.

"We've been concentrating on that. When we qualified him, (driver Andy McCarthy) pulled him out, put him back, pulled him out, put him back, a couple of times. He seems better. You just have to watch that he doesn't want to spin his wheels too quickly. He's a good gaited horse. He just wanted to get going."

Sortie prepped for his seasonal debut by winning two qualifiers, one at the Meadowlands and the other at Harrah's Philadelphia. Daley said the horse will stay near his base in central New Jersey as he works toward the $1 million Hambletonian on Aug. 5 at the Meadowlands.

"We'll try not to overdo it," Daley said. "It's a heavy schedule; I don't want him to be in everything. I'd rather keep him here. He can go (to Canada) later. If he's good enough, he's got everything late. I don't want to have too many tough trips when we're just trying to get him set up."

The early favorite for the Hambletonian is Linda Toscano-trained New York-bred Walner, who won seven of eight starts last year and received the Dan Patch Award for best 2-year-old male trotter. Walner won each of his races by at least one-and-three-quarter lengths, including a four-and-a-half-length triumph in the Breeders Crown.

"Linda's horse is obviously the horse to beat, but I legitimately think that if (Sortie) can breathe he's a top five horse, definitely," Daley said. "After Linda's horse, there's no one else I'd swap him for. We'll see. It depends who steps up. He's got to step up and do it now."

In other PASS divisions Saturday... Andy M pulled the pocket down the backside for Aaron Merriman and quickly put away the leader, Monteverdi. Though he tired late, the son of Andover Hall—All In The Muscles held off Gustavo Fring by a half-length in a career-fastest 1:54.1, with Stealth Hanover fourth-placed-third.

"I didn't want to have to race him that hard," Merriman said, "but this horse really impressed me today. I never got the plugs out. He was getting a little bit tired late, but he's supposed to. That's as fast as he's ever been by a couple seconds."

Chris Beaver trains Andy M, who soared over $100,000 in career earnings, for Mark Moger and Albert Delia, Jr.

Common Parlance performed well in the PA Stallion Series at 2, but this was his first shot at the big boys. After grabbing the early lead and enduring a slight shuffle, he poured through the Lightning Lane to score for Mike Wilder in a career-fastest 1:54.4. Brown Bear was second, two-and-a-quarter lengths back, while Brand New Key completed the ticket.

"We'll keep going with him in this series," said Joseph Skowrya, who trains the Crazy—Angevine gelding for Wade Wyatt and Francis DiMondi, Jr. "He's a nice, sound horse, well behaved, and he's fast."

Favored Downbytheseaside (David Miller) stayed perfect in 2017 with an easy win in his Art Rooney elim.

Downbytheseaside, Agent Q top Rooney, Lismore elims

The rich finals are set for next Saturday at Yonkers.

by Frank Drucker / Yonkers

World champion Downbytheseaside (David Miller, $3.10) was as odds-on advertised Saturday night (May 20), winning Yonkers Raceway's lone $40,000 elimination for the 27th Art Rooney Pace for 3-year-olds.

Starting from the second tier in the nine-to-get-to-eight foray, Downbytheseaside found himself three-wide at the half in a race that had much more movement than expected. Last season's Lawrence B. Sheppard Pace winner, Summer Side (Ray Schnittker), made the first lead, stuffing Stealth Bomber (Brent Holland) in behind before a :28.1 opening quarter-mile.

However, Stealth Bomber wanted to no part of the pocket. That one made the lead, with last season's New York Sire Stakes champion Funknwaffles (Brian Sears) and 'Seaside' in hot pursuit.

Downbytheseaside fronted the fray right at the :55.4

intermission, than continued toward a 1:24.3 three-quarters. Stealth Bomber then moved again, vacating a three-hole in front of Miso Fast (Matt Kakaley).

Downbytheseaside opened a coupled of lengths in and out of the final turn, winning by a length-and-a-quarter in 1:52.2. Miso Fast snapped Stealth Bomber for second, with Summer Side and Mac's Jackpot (Jason Bartlett) rounding out the payees.

Funknwaffles tired to sixth, with Henry the Dragon (Montrell Teague) and rank outsider Rollin' About (Brent Holland) also earning invites to next Saturday night's (May 27th) $300,000 final. Heaven's Gait (Jordan Stratton) made a filthy break passing the three-quarters, winding up last and not making the finale.

For Downbytheseaside, a son of Somebeachsomewhere out of Sprig Hanover trained by Brian Brown for co-owners Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco, Richard Lombardo and Diamond Creek Racing, it was his second win in as many season starts (career 10-for-15). The exacta paid $7.70, the triple returned $57 and the superfecta paid $341.50.

"I was pleased with the race," Miller said. "I had to use him some early and ran in a bit in the turns, but we can work on that before the final.”

Miller also won a Lismore elimination with Agent Q.

Miller began his evening drilling seven inside rivals (:28.4, :59.1, 1:27.4, 1:55.1) with Agent Q ($6.80) in the first of two, $20,000 elims for next Saturday’s $115,000 Lismore (3-year-old pacing fillies).

Last season’s NYSS frosh champ, even-money choice Tequila Monday (Sears), wound up second from second-over, with Caviart Ally (Andrew McCarthy) a first-up third. Ashlee’s Spitfire (Dan Dube), at 50-1 the longest shot on the board, was fourth. That quartet returns for next Saturday night’s $140,770 final.

“Handy,” was Miller’s succinct description of his date.

For second choice Agent Q, a daughter of Western Terror—Teenage Paige co-owned by Martin Scharf, Rochetti Racing and Robert Muscara, she’s now two-for-two this season.

The second elimination for the Lismore, complete with no show wagering, saw the reason for same — 3-10 favorite Ain’t Three OK (Sears)—jump it off in the first turn and trail throughout.

Pole-sitting Big City Betty (Jim Marohn Jr., $21.60) went the distance (:28.3, :58.1, 1:27, 1:55.2), whipping Gotthisone Hanover (George Brennan) by two-and-a-quarter lengths in a two-speed number. Warrawee Sunshine (Miller) was a ground-saving third as the 29-1 longshot, with Caviart Cherie (McCarthy) fourth and back for the final.

For third choice ‘Betty,’ a Bettor’s Delight—Jated Love miss co-owned by (trainer) Steve Salerno and Bruce Potter, it was her second win three ‘17 tries. The exacta paid $149, with the triple returning $965.

“This filly has a quick turn of speed, but she has the manners of an older horse,” Marohn said. “I never even saw what happened with Brian’s (Sears’) horse (Ain’t Three OK), but mine was very comfortable.”

The open draw for both stakes finals takes place Monday afternoon (May 22).

Broadway Donna takes first Graduate leg

The two-time Dan Patch winner out-duelled Dayson in the stretch.

by Dave Little, for the Meadowlands

Broadway Donna outlasted Dayson after a stirring stretch duel to capture the first leg of the Graduate Series for 4-year-old trotters at the Meadowlands Saturday night.

The 6-5 favorite Dayson, who bled after failing one week ago in his Graduate prep, was sailing along on the lead with Lasix added as Broadway Donna inched closer racing on the rim after vacating the five hole just after the half. The pair were on even terms at the head of the stretch as Broadway Donna, a daughter of Donato Hanover out of Broadway Schooner, continued to wear down the leader before going on to a half-length win in 1:52.1. Tight Lines was third.

Broadway Donna, the 2016 Breeders Crown champion, returned $5.60 to win as the 9-5 second choice in the wagering with David Miller in the sulky for trainer Jim Campbell.

"That's what she's going to do for the rest of the year," said winning owner Jules Siegel (Fashion Farms).

'LYONS' ROARS:

The betting public wasn't deterred by the fact that Lyons Snyder had gone off stride in both of his starts this year, and they were rewarded for their loyalty.

The 4-year-old son of Well Said—Armbrø Cachet was bet down to 4-5 and went right down the road in a $17,500 conditioned pace. The time for the mile was an eye-popping 1:48.3, which equaled the sport's seasonal best established by Rock N' Roll World at Hoosier Park on May 12.

Lyons Snyder paid $3.80 to win for owners Jeff Snyder and Geoffrey Lyons Mound, trainer Jimmy Takter and driver Yannick Gingras.

BUZZWORTHY

Long Tom provides more Hambletonian buzz for Melander

by Garnet Barnsdale

While many eyes were on returnee Ariana G this week – and she lived up to her billing – there was a sophomore trotting colt that made his seasonal debut that caused a buzz by trotting to a season's record 1:52.1 mile at the Meadowlands Friday night.

Long Tom, a Muscle Hill colt out of the Windsongs Legacy mare Ilia, went postward as the 4-5 favorite in a $20,000 New Jersey Sires Stakes dash, and the Marcus Melander trainee didn't disappoint; far from it.

Leaving from post five in a field of six, Long Tom was sent for the lead off the gate, but it took until just past the :27.1 opening quarter for him to clear to the front. But Deacon Tony – who closed as the strong second choice at 3-2 – was hot in pursuit and Yannick Gingras sent that gelding to the front in a snappy :54.4 half.

Tim Tetrick pulled Long Tom before the three-quarter pole and he eased by the leader as they trotted past the station in 1:24. From there, driver Tim Tetrick had the whip at his side as Long Tom trotted a :28.1 kicker on his way to a new season record. The mile time was one tick faster than last year's two-year-old filly champion Ariana G's sophomore debut performance on the same card. Long Tom, who is owned by Amg Stable Oy, of Vantaa, Finland, was winning for the fourth time in eight starts and he boosted his lifetime earnings to just under $71,000.

The performance got some prominent people from the industry people buzzing on social media.

"Long Tom looks like the real deal. Easy rigged. Fluid moving," posted Art Zubrod of Brittany Farms.

"That was an excellent effort; a lot better than I expected," said Meadowlands morning-line maker and broadcaster Dave Brower.

"Isn't he a classy colt, wow," remarked Stanley Prakas

So, trainer Marcus Melander now has at least two contenders for this year's Hambletonian as his undefeated colt Enterprise – a previous subject of a Buzzworthy column here – has already won twice at the meet and was a previous season's record holder.

This dynamic duo may have only begun creating a buzz and will surely be heard from again as the season progresses.

Even drivers loaded with talent sometimes need to have a magic horse on their side.

Fittingly, the horse that changed David Miller's life was Magician, who came into the Ohio native's life in 1999 when the driver moved from his home state to New Jersey to drive at the Meadowlands.

"I always said that he was my stepping-stone," Miller said of the gelded son of Royal Prestige out of Incredible Charm who earned $3.58 million lifetime. "He was a great horse for me, a very solid horse for three or four years. He's the one that got me rolling. I had a lot of fond memories with him and he won a lot of big races for me. I was fortunate enough to get him the first year that I was (at the Meadowlands)."

Magician was four when Miller started driving the trotter, who went on to post some significant stakes victories against some significant competition.

"He was tough. He raced against Moni Maker. That was his biggest rival when I first started driving him and he beat her. He beat her in the Breeders Crown and Maple Leaf Trot," Miller said of Magician who won the $1 million Crown open trot in 2000 and the $582,500 Maple Leaf Trot the same year. "He was a great horse. He was solid for a good three or four years. That's a lot of great memories and the people associated with him were great, Earl Cruise and the groom. He was such a fun horse to drive and a great horse."

Magician also provided a welcome springboard for Miller, who wound up being enshrined in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame 15 years later.

2. In the 1989 dead heat Hambletonian, who was the only driver of the 11 entered who either did not have a prior Hambletonian win, nor would win one later on?
3. In 2007, the first crop of Andover Hall appeared and he won both the Hambletonian and the Hambletonian Oaks. Can you name the first four post positions in the Hambletonian — all by offspring of Andover Hall?
4. Only July 1, 1994, the very first claimer to better the 1:50 barrier won. He was driven by Jack Moiseyev and trained by James Mullin. Who was he?
5. Roy Marohn has been competing in the amateurs at the Meadowlands. Can you recall whom he drove to victory locally all the way back in 1980?
6. McCluckey dead-heated with Magic Lobell in the 1991 Yonkers Trot. McCluckey had a six-for-seven record going into that day with five different winning drivers. Can you name them?
7. He was the first driver north of 60 years of age to win a race with a horse in sub 1:50. (HINT-the horse was the favorite in the North America Cup)
8. Del Miller debuted in the 1946 Hambletonian. Forty-six years later, he finished up at the Meadowlands in the Hambletonian as the trainer of a colt. Which colt gave Miller his swan song?
9. Art Major, in 2003 and his own sire Artsplace, in 1992, both went periods that, despite their excellence, with a revolving list of drivers. Who was the only common driver on both during this merry-go-round?
10. In the past quarter century, can you name the Triple Crown race winner who did not win another race all year?

Answers

1. Romeo Hanover in 1966 was driven by William Myers and George Sholty
2. Berndt Lindstedt. He drove Demilo Hanover (eighth and sixth). Lindstedt's barn won the Hambletonian the year before with Armbro Goal, but Jan Johnson trained and John Campbell drove. The other 10 drivers had 20 Hambletonians between them when all was said and done: John Campbell (drove Peace Cops that year and has six Hambletonians); Bill O'Donnell (Egyptian Gentleman, one); Mike Lachance (Bon Vivant, four); Ron Waples (Park Avenue Joe, one); Billy Fahy (Probe, one); Tommy Haughton (one); Ben Webster (one); Howard Beissinger (three); George Sholty (one) and Jimmy Takter (one driving).
3. Don't Blink Twice, Donato Hanover, Adrian Chip and Pampered Princess
4. New Bucks, a son of Nihilator, won in 1:49.3 in this $50,000 claiming handicap.
5. Sabalist.
6. Joe Holloway, John Campbell, Jack Moiseyev, Mike Lachance and Wally Hennessey.
7. Dick Stilling with Georgia Pacific in 1:49.3.
8. Tarport Mark, who just the week before shocked the Meadowlands faithful with a 61-1 win with Dick Stillings at the controls in a three-year-old open.
9. John Campbell.
10. In 2006, Palone Ranger won the Messenger for Greg Peck. Palone Ranger was one-for-nine on the year for better than $336,000.

BREAKING STRIDE

Five plays for the Neophyte

by Trey Nosrac

Prelude

Let me predict that you will not complete reading the following paragraph. Try it.

“From a little after four o'clock until almost sundown of the long still hot weary dead September afternoon they sat in what Miss Coldfield still called the office because her father had called it that – a dim hot airless room with the blinds all closed and fastened for 43 summers because when she was a girl someone had believed that sight and moving air carried heat and that dark was always cooler, and which (as the sun shone fuller and fuller on that side of the house) became latticed with yellow slashes full of dust motes which Quentin thought of as being flecks of the dead old dried paint itself blown inward from the scaling blinds as wind might have blown them.”

I would place a small wager that most of you did get halfway through until you became distracted. This has little to do with intelligence; it has plenty to do with time, with patience and with waiting.

Our test paragraph opens a novel that won the Nobel Prize written by William Faulkner that is titled Absalom, Absalom! Often considered the finest book written on the American Civil War, Faulkner's first sentence was not the only “wordy” sentence in the book. The Guinness Book of World Records says the “Longest Sentence in Literature” is a sentence from Absalom, Absalom! checking in at a staggering total of 1,288 words.

In 1936, this was a very popular book. This is not 1936 and marketing Absalom, Absalom! in a Twitter world would be a very heavy lift. What played well, and sold well, almost a century ago struggles in today's marketplace. This is true of books, movies, sports and life in general. A 2017 novel would open more quickly, something like -

“Across from me at the café, Laurie's latest romantic conquest sipped a beer. I might kill him tonight.”

Harness racing is a poster child for not keeping pace with the times. We live in a world where attention is hard to get.

It is a world where you have a few precious seconds to hook your audience, and should you hook them, you must somehow keep their attention constantly. The slow reveal just does not work. This sort of stinks, but as the cliché goes, “It is what it is.”

The two most powerful warriors are patience and time - Leo Tolstoy

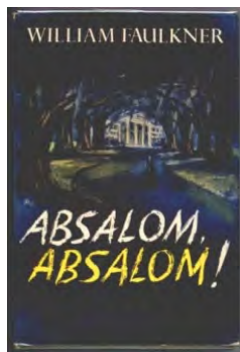

Leo (another author who wrote very long books) got this one wrong. Waiting is not what it used to be. In 1936, people waited for the delivery of the Atlantic Monthly Magazine and slowly savored every word. They would read the magazine twice, share it with friends and neighbors, then eagerly anticipate the delivery of the next issue.

Today I get riders that whine if I hit a few traffic lights and it takes one minute longer than predicted to reach the calculated pickup point. They are irritated when their app takes an extra nanosecond to load. They check their cell phone a dozen times each hour. These folks are not traveling in 1936, they are not likely to read Faulkner, nor will they latch onto a sport that moves at the speed of a glacier.

I have several faults. My ex-girlfriend has a Facebook page full of them, but impatience is not one of them. Since I rarely know where I am going, I see no point in rushing. Maybe that is why this sport grabbed me, but slow is not for normal people. Our sport is out of step with the times, we struggle to adapt. Slow is the MO in harness horseracing. Consider some waiting periods and how they look to a person who for some unfathomable reason takes a look into joining our merry band.

- Insemination to the starting gate (years with a 50/50 chance to race)
- A yearling purchased at sale (a 10-month project before it reaches the starting gate)
- Seriously handicapping the races in a race program (at least an hour)
- The time between races (20 minutes)
- The time from post time until the actual start of the race (several more minutes)

That is a lot of waiting. In 1936, these waits were tolerable, even embraced. In 2017, those of us willing to wait are as rare as canoes in the Kalahari Desert. We have to change the structure of this sport to fill these voids. We have to get new people to play our game. What are we waiting for? We have to begin to partially jettison true handicapping and find new ways for new people to spend money on horseracing. If they are to play our game, they will likely play it on a hand-held device.

If you are a traditionalist, the next several columns that will run in this space will seem ridiculous. If you are a fan of incrementalism, please skip them. We are going fast and we are going crazy. We will not paying much attention to those of you with patience.

Even the style of the next string of ideas will be more Twitterature than literature; a few brief lines, odd formats, no overthinking, no over explaining, a few emoji's, a few forwarded photos, wham, bam, in and out. You know, short and snappy – like modern life. Each pitch will target people under the age of forty who live on their phones and in their social networks.

Each of the entries in this series are written for people who might be willing to have a gambling fling but will not endure agonizing over a race program. The theme will be ways to engage people who do not know us, but to whom we desperately need to remain relevant.

Ontario Racing's new commercial drawing big buzz

A new commercial showcasing harness racing is now airing in Ontario and available for viewing online.

The commercial, titled The Thrill of Winning, is a collaborative effort between the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG) and Ontario Racing (OR). The ad was filmed in December 2016 at Flamboro Downs and unveiled for the first time at a special screening at the Dundas, ON track on April 20, 2017. The 60-second version of the ad (above) will be shown in movie theatres around the province and a 30-second spot has also been produced for TV.

The commercial stars harness driver Scott Young as a competitor experiencing the agony of defeat, resiliently bouncing back and eventually emerging victorious: a classic, powerful yet approachable and familiar feeling.

"It's the feeling of winning, the feeling of being at the track and it produces these up and downs and this range of emotions, and I think that's what attracts us to sports in general," said Rana Chatterjee of BBDO Toronto, the marketing agency that worked with director Jason Van Bruggen of film house Suneeva to produce the spot. "In a way we kind of wanted to show that horse racing, in all its beauty and majesty, has all these ups and downs and ebbs and flows of all the other great sports that we love to watch. And wanted to associate that with victory, that feeling of watching your horse cross the finish line first."

Ariana G dominant in NJSS

Ariana G gave notice Friday night at the Meadowlands that the road to the Hambletonian Oaks goes through her as she crushed seven overmatched foes in a division of the first leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for three-year-old trotting fillies by seven-and-three-quarter lengths in 1:52.2.

The Jimmy Takter trainee was more than prepared for her seasonal debut as driver Yannick Gingras put the daughter of Muscle Hill–Cantab It All on the lead just after the quarter. Racing unpressured, the winner of 10-of-12 lifetime starts opened up an insurmountable edge after pocket-sitting Ice Attraction broke at the head of the stretch. She then sprinted home in :27.2, paying $2.10 as the 1-9 favorite for owners Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. Dream Baby Dream was second with Southwind Prius third.

"She was really good," said Gingras. "I couldn't be any happier with her. She was as good as I expected her to be. I'm crossing my fingers she stays healthy and let her talent do the rest."

Glitzey Gal ($7.40 to win, 1:52.3 for the mile, David Miller driving, trainer Nifty Norman) and Colorful Jasmine ($2.40, 1:54.1, Corey Callahan, Thomas Cancelliere) were victorious in the other two NJSS filly divisions.

Ron Burke trainee What The Hill lowered his lifetime best by two-and-two-fifth seconds, impressively taking one of three NJSS divisions for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters.

Driven by David Miller, the son of Muscle Hill—K T Cha Cha stopped the clock in 1:52.2 to stay perfect in two seasonal starts. He returned $2.40 as the 1-5 public choice.

Every Way Out ($2.10, Dylan Davis) and Long Tom ($3.80, Marcus Melander) won the other sophomore colt and gelding divisions in identical clockings of 1:52.1. Both were driven by Tim Tetrack.

Meadowlands Super High Five hit for $43,642

One lucky patron at the Meadowlands-owned off-track wagering facility Winners at Bayonne walked off with a monster score in Saturday night's fifth race.

That lucky bettor had the correct combination of 9-10-5-3-4 in the Big M's 20 Cent Jackpot Super High Five and walked away with a payoff of $43,641.50. The race winner, Prepatty, paid $10.40 to win.

First Turn Stable finds winner's circle at Hoosier

G's High Shooter made his second start for Hoosier Park Racing & Casino's fractional ownership group, First Turn Stable, on Friday (May 19) and found the winner's circle in thrilling fashion to the delight of many of the First Turn Stable members that were in attendance. With driver John DeLong in the bike, G's High Shooter stopped the timer in 1:53.1 and established a new lifetime best in the process.

G's High Shooter left alertly from post three to find a spot along the rail in sixth throughout the early stages of the mile while Frass Bluegrass and driver Todd Warren dictated early fractions of :26.4 and :56.2. As the field approached the third station, DeLong tipped G's High Shooter to the outside to grab a second-over seat behind the heavily favored Mike's Hope and Trace Tetrack.

Utilizing a :27.1 final quarter, G's High Shooter surged past his rivals late in the lane to win by three parts of a length over Scary Harry and Ricky Macomber Jr. Mike's Hope held on to round out the trifecta. G's High Shooter returned $8.00 to his backers at the betting window.

"What an amazing opportunity," First Turn Stable member, Art Small noted in the winner's circle after the victory. "The winner's circle is a beautiful place to be and we are so thrilled to be a part of this group."

Trained by Jeff Cullipher, G's High Shooter recorded his second win of the season from 18 outings. The five-year-old son of Sand Shooter—High Season has now earned $67,494 in lifetime purse earnings.

The first of its kind in the state of Indiana, First Turn Stable returned for a second season at Hoosier Park in 2017 and was designed to provide fans an easy and affordable way to experience the excitement of horse ownership for a one-time, $250 buy-in.

Updates for First Turn Stable will be posted weekly and via email so members can follow along with the racing action throughout the season. Along with interactive social media pages, monthly financials will be shared with the group to provide a transparent and behind-the-scenes look into the real costs of owning a racehorse. On-site teaching tools and other resources will also be made available to the members.

Grand River Raceway donates $250,000 to hospital

In a great example of horse racing helping others in their community, the owner/operator of Grand River Raceway in Elora, ON has committed $250,000 to the construction of a new hospital.

On May 16, the Grand River Agricultural Society (GRAS) presented the first of three donation commitments to Groves Memorial Community Hospital Foundation to be paid over three years.

The funds will benefit the new hospital which will replace the existing Groves Memorial Community Hospital in nearby Fergus, ON. The new facility is expected to open in 2019. It will be located in Aboyne (between Elora and Fergus).

"We are very thankful for the Grand River Agricultural Society's support of this critical initiative," said Lori Arsenault, Executive Director of Groves Memorial Community Hospital Foundation. The GRAS donation will be used to fund the New Groves Hospital Healing Gardens.

The GRAS donation brings the fundraising total to $14.4 million, which represents 72 per cent of the Foundation's commitment to the Ministry of Health to raise $20 million.

"Every day, people at Groves Memorial Community Hospital make a difference. They are part of pivotal moments in the life of each family — all of our families — and they happen at Groves every day," Arsenault explained.

"Groves is a unique hospital because of the values it embraces. Our personalized patient care is one to which larger hospitals can only aspire."

OSS season opens on Confederation Cup night at Flamboro Downs

The 2017 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) season will kick off tonight (Sunday) at Flamboro Downs as part of the track's $460,600 Confederation Cup program.

Ontario's best three-year-old trotting colts and geldings will highlight the Confederation Cup pre-show, competing in the Gold Series season opener. Waterdown, ON resident Scott McEneny will send out Tycoon Seelster in the first of three Gold Series divisions. The Angus Hall—Travelin Lavec gelding was a three-time OSS winner as a two-year-old and finished second in the season ending Super Final.

"He's come back pretty good this year," said McEneny, who conditions Tycoon Seelster for Chris Storms of Picton, ON. "He was a little bumpy last year, he didn't have the best gait, but he seems to be coming back a little better this year. He got a lot bigger, a lot thicker, over the winter."

Tycoon Seelster and regular driver Paul MacDonell of Guelph, ON will start from post four in Race 1 of the Confederation Cup program, going postward at 7 pm, with the other two $65,600 Gold Series battles scheduled for Races two and five.

Also making their 2017 Ontario Sires Stakes debut on the Confederation Cup undercard are the three-year-old pacing colts and geldings, competing in the first Grassroots event of the season in Races four, six and eight. Prairiecreekprince and driver James MacDonald of Guelph will lead the pacing colts onto the half-mile oval, starting from post one in the first $18,450 division for trainer Dave Menary of Cambridge, ON.

"He's a nice big strong colt, he doesn't have very many lifetime starts so I'm hoping that he can kind of mature into a useful horse," said Menary, who trains the Mach Three—Orchid Beach gelding for Ryan Morefield of Brighton, MI. "I was happy with his second qualifier (May 15) and he drew really good on Sunday — the exact opposite of Sintra — so I'm super happy about that."

In addition to first-time Ontario Sires Stakes starter Prairiecreekprince, Menary will also send out former OSS star Sintra from post eight in the evening's main event. Another son of Mach Three, Sintra, out of Dancin Barefoot, was a commanding two-and-a-half length winner in his Confederation Cup elimination, halting the Flamboro teletimer at 1:52.4.

"That's a big hurdle to overcome, but if anybody can do it I think he can," said the trainer of the gelding's outside post position in the $176,000 Final.

Menary, whose operation is based at a farm no further than a Dustin Johnson tee-shot from the Flamboro Downs entrance, shares ownership of Sintra with Brad Gray of Dundas and Michael Guerriero of Brampton, ON. The gelding heads into Sunday's final undefeated in the first three starts of a four-year-old campaign that has seen him triumph in an April 29 overnight event at Mohawk Racetrack, the May 6 opening leg of the Graduate Series at The Meadowlands, and last weekend's Confederation Cup Elimination. Regular reinsman Jody Jamieson of Moffat, ON will pilot Sintra in his bid for a fourth win on Sunday.

"The four-year-olds are really lucky, most of the starts are front loaded," said Menary. "The Confederation Cup, and the Graduate Series, and even the Prix D'Ete in Quebec, they're all a little bit earlier in the year so before they have to test, you know these are nice horses, but before they have to test the real deep waters it gives them a chance to get started with their own kind."

McEneny will also harness a starter in the Confederation Cup Final, sending out Mr Wiggle Pants with Doug McNair aboard from Post 7 in the eleventh race. Mr Wiggle Pants, owned by Brad Grant of Milton, ON, finished third behind Western Fame in his elimination.

In addition to Sunday's outstanding program of racing, Flamboro Downs fans will be treated to a host of trackside activities including giveaways and prize draws, stilt walkers and face painters to entertain the youngest fans, a miniature horse race and live music by local band Speakeasy. Details about the Confederation Cup program are available at http://www.flamborodowns.com/confederation_cup.html.

Quebec-bred action on tap at Hippodrome 3R

The second round of the $100,000 Quebec-Bred Series for four and five-year-old pacers are the main event at the Hippodrome 3R today with two full fields of 10 starters going over the half-mile oval.

After four weeks of preliminary action, the top eight money earners will return on June 11, for their respective $30,000 finals.

The older mares are first in the limelight in the sixth race and are once again headed by the entry of HP Sissy and HP Pandora, both of whom are bred and co-owned by Claude Hamel of Ayer's Cliff, QC. HP Sissy is co-owned by Hamel with Michel Damphousse of Louisville.

HP Sissy got the best of her stablemate last week, coming on in late stretch over the sloppy track to win by three-quarters of a length after HP Pandora had led the field from the start.

This week, HP Sissy starts from post five and will have the driving services of top reinsman, Guy Gagnon, who makes his first appearance at H3R this year. HP Pandora goes from post two for regular driver Stephen Brosseau.

The older horses get underway in the eight race where Half A Billion is the race favorite once again after his impressive six-length triumph over the sloppy track last week in the opening round.

The five-year-old gelded son of Sportswriter starts from post four for driver Francis Picard and has nearly $40,000 earned already this year for trainer Francis Richards.

First race post time is 12:40 pm. For more information, visit www.quebecjockeyclub.com.

TRACK NOTES: After the dust has settled from last week's amazing eight-win track record performance by defending leading driver Louis-Philippe Roy, Roy is back on top of the driver standings at H3R and has an amazing driver rating of .778. Stephane Gendron, who is now just four wins away from his 4,000th career win, is in second place with seven wins and Richard Simard is in third place with six wins.

Defending leading trainer, Yves Tessier, is on top again among the trainers with five wins from his stable. Daniel Martin is right behind him with four wins. Daniel LaFlamme is in third place with three wins after sending just four horses to post this meet.

Drive a racehorse at Grand River

Back by popular demand, Grand River Raceway will play host to its ninth annual backstretch Open House on Sunday, May 28. Guests are invited to drop-in any time from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for a rare glimpse of horse racing behind-the-scenes.

A full tour of the Open House's six main stations will last approximately one hour. The itinerary includes the unique opportunity to drive a racehorse.

Other interactive stations include a tour of the judges' stand and announcer's booth high atop the grandstand with track announcer Gary Guy.

Back in the barn, visitors will learn about the basics of breeding, owning, training, driving and caring for racehorses in sessions led by industry experts.

Local reinsman Bob McClure will host a station explaining the role of a racehorse driver and the skills required to communicate with horses during the race and navigate them to victory.

All kids will receive a lucky horseshoe during a blacksmith demonstration graciously sponsored by System Fencing, Stalls & Equipment.

Machinery enthusiasts will enjoy the opportunity to view and learn about the equipment and techniques required to maintain the racetrack surface. The starting car will also be on display, and open for photo opportunities.

No registration is required for the Open House. The event is suitable for all ages, but children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. The Open House will run rain or shine. Participants are urged to wear closed-toe shoes and casual, comfortable clothing.

Admission is free, but participants are urged to make a $2 donation at the door to support the Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society. A BBQ lunch and beverages will be available for purchase between 11:30 – 1:30.

The Grand River Raceway Open House is presented in cooperation with the Hands On Horse Program and the Ontario Harness Horse Association.

Nearly 2,500 people have attended Grand River Raceway's Open House events in the past eight years.

For more information, visit <http://grandriverraceway.com/open-house/> or call (519) 846-5455 x238 or email info@grandriverraceway.com.

Spots available in race calling workshop

Spots are still available in a workshop for those who would like to learn to call a horse race. The United States Trotting Association, in conjunction with the Meadowlands Racetrack, is sponsoring the educational event on Saturday (June 17) at The Meadowlands in East Rutherford, NJ.

The workshop, open to all ages, will be conducted by Meadowlands and Freehold Raceway announcer Ken Warkentin, who has called standardbred and thoroughbred races, including 17 Hambletonians. Warkentin, who started calling races at age 16, anchors the Meadowlands show on SNY and has also been on racing broadcast teams for CBS, NBC and ESPN. He provides voice overs for a variety of outlets and has a website, www.kenvoice.com.

The workshop was last conducted in 2015 with announcer Tom Durkin as the instructor. Video of that workshop can be seen here. The two-hour workshop has been logged so viewers can skip to the segments of most interest to them if they do not want to watch the entire segment.

The day's events will start at 8 a.m. at the track and wrap up with students who wish to do so calling one of the non-betting, non-purse races for 2-year-olds that will start at 10 a.m. If the number of students who want to call a race exceeds the number of races that day, a random draw will be held to match a student with a race.

Tuition is $40 for adults and $10 for high school and college students. Tuition will take the form of a tax deductible donation to the Harness Horse Youth Foundation. Class size is limited to 30.

As a tribute to Sam McKee, the late Meadowlands announcer who started calling races at age 14, the USTA and the Harness Horse Youth Foundation have teamed up to provide travel grants, if needed, for high school and college students attending the class.

For more information or to sign up, contact Ellen Harvey at ellen.harvey@ustrotting.com or call 732.780.3700.

Canadian HOF names Modesty as 2017 Legend Honouree

In this the 250th Anniversary of Horse Racing in Canada, the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame's Legends Committee unanimously named a mare called Modesty who won the first advertised and reported horse race on Canadian soil, as the 2017 Legend Honouree.

The official unveiling of the display panel for Modesty, who won the historic race held on the Plains of Abraham on July 1, 1767, took place at a reception this evening in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame.

An advertisement in the June 25, 1767 issue of the Quebec Gazette called for entries for a horse race scheduled to take place July 1 for a purse of $40 to take place at "Five O'clock in the afternoon Precisely: The best of three heats, once around the course each heat."

Results of the race were announced in the July 9 issue of the same publication as follows: "The purse of $40 was won with greatest ease by Captain Prescott's Mare Modesty. It was termed an upset, "much to the discomfiture of those, who purporting to know about such things, had wagered against her and were thereby parted from their money. The contest did afford much pleasure and there were no accidents save that some few riders were thrown from their mounts, from which circumstance it appeared that they suffered more fright than injury."

More complete information about that initial horse race can be found here.

It is from this race, held 100 years to the day before Canada's Confederation that all horse racing in Canada has evolved, bringing us to this tremendous 250th anniversary and celebration in 2017.

The Legends category in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame was originally established in 2000 as a millennium project, created to honour the early pioneers of horse racing in Canada. It has been carried on to help bring attention to those horses and people dating back at least 50 years before the year of recognition.

In addition to the announcement of the 2017 Legend honouree, the reception also included the unveiling of display panels belonging to those inducted to the CHRHF in 2016 and the public introduction of the 2017 Inductees, announced earlier. The CHRHF Class of 2017 includes Mach Three, Happy Lady and Elegantimage, as well as trainer/driver Blair Burgess, and builder Dr. Gordon Gilbertson.

Induction ceremonies of the 2017 inductees will be held at a Gala scheduled to take place Wed., Aug. 9 at the Mississauga Convention Centre. Tickets can be ordered by contacting (416) 417-9404.
