Upset in Elitloppet

Timoko scored his second victory in Sweden's top race by grounding French Triple Crown champion Bold Eagle at Solvalla.

Timoko (Björn Goop) winning the Elitloppet final in front of more than 30,000 fans at Solvalla.

French superstar Bold Eagle showed no mercy in the Elitloppet Sunday afternoon (May 28) at Solvalla. But it was another French horse, Timoko, that pulled off the upset in the final to claim his second Elitlopp title to go with the one he earned in 2014.

After Bold Eagle survived being parked by Delicious in their Elitloppet elimination (replay #1) and powered to a 1:50 victory that is the fastest time ever recorded on a five-eighths mile track in Europe, it seemed like the 30,103 spectators were witnessing a horse from another world. Few thought the son of Ready Cash—Reethi Rah Jet, who was racing in Sweden for the first time, could be beaten.

Even Bold Eagle's driver, Franck Nivard, thought an upset was unlikely.

"The horse is just so much better than all the others, I am pretty sure that he will be even better in the final," Nivard said after the first heat in which U.S.-based Resolve finished second, D.D.'s hitman was third and 12-year-old Spring From was fourth.

Nuncio, the 2016 Elitlopp champion, was in front early in the second heat (replay #2) allowing driver Örjan Kihlström to slow down the pace considerably. Propulsion was on the outside after 600 meters and gave cover to Timoko. Nuncio fought well and Propulsion never got close enough to challenge seriously. Nuncio, a son of Andover Hall—Nicole Isabelle that was bred by USTA president Russell Williams of Hanover, PA, won the heat in 1:52.4.

Nuncio's trainer, Stefan Melander, looked satisfied after the race and driver Kihlström smiled to the cameras when he got the question if anything would be changed in the equipment for the final.

"We have to do something and probably Nuncio will race without shoes in the final. If there was any doubt by choosing number one behind the gate in next race? No, that's the only chance we got if we want to beat the French horse," Kihlström said with a smile.

Propulsion finished second, Timoko was third and In Vain Sund finished fourth.

The Elitloppet final (replay #3) was a story the large, enthusiastic Solvalla crowd could not have foreseen.

Timoko, with Swedish driver Björn Goop at the controls, was in front right after the gate left the field of eight horses. Nuncio did the job on the outside and Bold Eagle snuck up second over.

From third over, Propulsion got the back of Bold Eagle in the last turn, but Bold Eagle, who was superior in the elimination, was not the same horse in the final. Propulsion had to leave four wide in the last turn and at the same time Timoko got full gas from Goop.

Timoko came home in 1:51 to earn three million Swedish crowns (about $347,000 U.S.).

"What a horse, what a driver. It's totally unbelievable," said Timoko's trainer Richard Westerink. "When (Timoko) is in form, he is not the same horse. Everything went so perfect and it's so incredible. Timoko is a real champion. Björn Goop is also a champion."

Goop said, "Timoko has been beaten so many times by Bold Eagle, but he always stand up afterwards. He is like Rocky Balboa. Timoko is like a king to me."

Timoko, the 10-year-old son of Imoko—Kiss Me Coulonces, has wrestled with the best horses in the world since he was three years old.

Propulsion (Muscle Hill) finished second for Johan Untersteiner.

"With a quarter to go I thought for myself: we have this race in our hands, but Bold Eagle was not as good as I thought he would be in the final and when Timoko disappeared we were too many lengths behind him. Propulsion was incredibly good in the two heats," Untersteiner said.

Propulsion's trainer Daniel Redén said, "It's like a victory. I'm so glad for the people around Timoko's sake. He's a champion and my horse raced very well today."

Resolve (Muscle Hill—Anikawiesahalee) and Åke Svanstedt finished third. Bold Eagle was fourth and Nuncio fifth.

Love Matters in Fyraåringseliten

Hambletonian horse Love Matters (Explosive Matters—Lotsa Love) was served a trip second over in Fyraåringseliten (replay #4) and was strongest after a last turn three wide for Örjan Kihlström.

The Daniel Redén horse came home in 1:52.3 and earned 500,000 Swedish crowns ($58,000 U.S.).

"The horse has everything. He's been better after every race and today he had to do a lot of work to get the victory," Örjan Kihlström said.

The Maxie Lee Memorial Invitational at Harrah's Philadelphia Sunday afternoon proved to be the perfect remedy for Crazy Wow's early-season bout of seconditis.

Crazy Wow, who was second in each of his first three races this year, picked up his first win of the campaign in the $150,000 event for older trotters, defeating JL Cruze by two-and-three-quarter lengths in 1:52. Charmed Life, the only mare in the race, was third. Tuonoblu Rex, the second choice behind 3-2 favorite Crazy Wow, went off stride while challenging for the lead on the final turn and finished sixth.

The Maxie Lee was part of a stakes tripleheader at Harrah's Philadelphia. Lady Shadow won the $150,000 Betsy Ross Mares Invitational and New Zealand-bred Mossdale Conner won the Ben Stafford Jr. Invitational for older male pacers.

A 5-year-old stallion, Crazy Wow got to the front from post five in the opening quarter mile and set fractions of :27.3, :56.4, and 1:24 on his way to victory.

Crazy Wow's first three races this year were on the mile oval at the Meadowlands and winning trainer Ron Burke said the switch to Philly's five-eighths-mile track was a benefit.

"I was happy," Burke said about Crazy Wow, who had a streak of four consecutive second-place finishes dating back to last year and won for the first time since July. "He's been good every start this year. On a little track he's going to get a little more of a breather in there. And it was big getting the half in :56.4.

"(Tuonoblu Rex) had already left and had to be first up.

Obviously JL Cruze wasn't as sharp today as he's been the last couple weeks. You just hope you're good when you need to be good."

Yannick Gingras drove Crazy Wow, a son of Crazy Out of the mare No Pan No Gain, for owners Our Horse Cents Stables, Stable 45, J&T Silva Stables, and Deo Volente Farms.

Crazy Wow, who paid $5.00 to win, has won 16 of 46 lifetime races and earned $1.67 million.

Earlier this month, Crazy Wow finished second to Resolve in the Cutler Memorial at the Meadowlands. He entered the Maxie Lee off a second-place finish to JL Cruze in the Preferred at the Big M on May 19.

"Hopefully this is the start of him winning a few and not being second as much," Burke said. "A couple things didn't go quite perfect (in his earlier races) and in this group it's going to have to go perfect for him because he's not that much better than these horses. But he's as good as any of them.

"Who gets the better trip, who gets a little luckier, that's who is going to win."

The Maxie Lee is named after longtime horsemen Maxie Lee. A native of North Carolina, Lee made a name for himself as a trainer and driver in the Philadelphia area at Liberty Bell and Brandywine. He had back-to-back Delaware Valley Harness Horse of the Year winners in the mid-1970s with Black Gamecock and Valley Ken. In 1990, Lee became the first African-American with a starter in the Hambletonian, with the Peter Haughton winner Backstreet Guy.

Jordan Stratton drove Mossdale Conner to victory in the Ben

Mossdale Conner wins Stafford

Peter Tritton wasn't looking for another horse, but the trainer is happy New Zealand-bred Mossdale Conner found his way to his stable. After watching the 8-year-old gelding win Sunday's $150,000 Ben Stafford Jr. Invitational to extend his U.S. win streak to four, Tritton said "he's the best horse I've ever had."

Mossdale Conner and driver Jordan Stratton won the Stafford by two lengths over long shot Jins Shark in 1:49. Christen Me, another New Zealand-bred import, finished third followed by All Bets Off.

Tritton and Harry Von Knoblauch, who owns Mossdale Conner with Ellen Kinser, have enjoyed success with New Zealand-bred horses. On Friday their New Zealand-bred 8-year-old stallion Bit Of A Legend N won the Molson Pace in Canada (full story here).

So when Tritton's Down Under agent called him recently and implored him to buy Mossdale Conner, Tritton decided it would be best to listen.

"He told me not to miss this horse," said Tritton, an Australia native based in upstate New York. "The stars aligned and we got him."

Mossdale Conner, who won the 2015 Taylor Mile, a Group 1 event in New Zealand, started his U.S. career with three consecutive wins at Yonkers Raceway. He won his debut in 1:51.3 and his most recent at The Hilltop in 1:51.4.

In the Stafford, Mossdale Conner, the even-money favorite, battled Jins Shark for the lead in a :26.1 opening quarter-mile. After securing the top spot, Mossdale Conner and Stratton parked Somewhere In LA around the second turn and posted fractions of :54.1 and 1:21.1.

"It almost looked like I knew what I was doing," a smiling Stratton said in the winner's circle. "The horse was going to overcome anything today. He was really good today and the front end was holding up all day. Since they resurfaced the track it's been unbelievable. Everything worked out.

"Only time will tell (how good he might be), but right now it seems like he doesn't know where the wire is. Every time a horse comes at him, he waits on me to call him and he wants to race them again. I think down by the wire if a horse would have headed him, he would have gone (1):48."

Tritton agreed.

"He's been racing two miles over there and I think he appreciates the shorter distance," Tritton said. "He's the best horse I've ever had. I knew that a month ago. He's got no bottom. I don't know if it will stay that way, but right now he's got no bottom. He's got speed, but he's strong. He just keeps going."

Mossdale Conner, a son of Bettor's Delight out of the mare Mossdale Kara, has won 17 times in his career and earned a total of $478,500. His four victories in the U.S. have been worth $126,000.

The invitational was named in honor of Stafford, a popular local horseman who raced predominantly in Delaware and at Harrah's Philadelphia. He passed away in July 2016 at the age of 45.

Lady Shadow (Yannick Gingras) winning the Betsy Ross.

Lady Shadow takes Betsy Ross

In the Betsy Ross, returning Dan Patch Award-winner Lady Shadow raced to an early lead and never looked back. She defeated New Zealand-bred Nike Franco by two-and-a-half lengths in 1:49. Blue Moon Stride finished third.

Yannick Gingras drove Lady Shadow for trainer Ron Adams and owners David Kryway, Carl Atley, Ed Gold, and BFJ Stable. The 6-year-old mare was the even-money favorite and paid $4.00 to win.

"Right now maybe she's a little sharper than the others are and she's older," Gingras said. "A couple of these mares are only 4 so it's tougher for them. We've got the age advantage and we're definitely going to take advantage of it for a while.

"She couldn't be any better. She's really relaxed and sound. All systems go. If she was on her game I didn't think they could catch her."

Lady Shadow, a daughter of Shadow Play out of the mare Lady Camella, is two-for-two this year and has won 30 of 57 career races. Her lifetime earnings are $1.71 million.

Simon Allard scores 3,000th driving win

Driver Simon Allard, coming to The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono Sunday night one sulky success short of 3000 for his career, wasted little time getting the milestone triumph, taking the second race at the mountain oval with San Jose Hanover, rallying the pacer from the pocket and giving him a new mark of 1:54.3.

The 35-year-old Quebec native now living in Pittston PA, started the weekend with 2,993 wins, but a four-bagger at The Downs Saturday night and a double Sunday afternoon at Harrah's Philadelphia put him on the verge of the notable victory, and fittingly he won with a horse owned and trained by his brother Rene. Simon is currently second in the Downs standard behind perennial leader George Napolitano Jr., while Rene is atop the trainer colony.

Best Open House yet at Grand River Raceway

Grand River Raceway in Elora, ON played host to its ninth annual backstretch Open House on Sunday (May 28) and attendance topped last year's record.

More than 500 people of all ages came for a rare glimpse of horse racing behind-the-scenes.

A full tour of the Open House stations included: a tour of the judges' stand and announcer's booth; a tour of the paddock, testing areas, starting car and track maintenance vehicles; a blacksmith station which included free horseshoes for kids compliments of System Fencing, Stalls & Equipment; a booth hosted by the Canadian Horse Racing Hall Of Fame; kids' crafts and face painting, and local reinsman Bob McClure hosted a station explaining the role of a racehorse driver.

The most popular activity of the day was the unique opportunity to drive a racehorse with the Hands On Horses Program and the Ontario Harness Horse Association.

Grand River Raceway extends its gratitude to the following horsepeople and other volunteers who graciously committed their time and horses to help with this event: the Hands On Horses Program (Stacey Reinsma and Brian Tropea of the Ontario Harness Horse Association), Tanya Martin, AJ Moore, Linda Rainey, Bob McClure, Emilia Hautakorpi, Ben Hollingsworth, Jackie Panko, Keith Klages, Stacey Currie, Lynn Gibbings, Esa Myllymaki, Paula McGuire, John Braid, Chris Polifroni, Jane Belore, Debi O'Brien Moran, Kyle Bossence, and George Ketros.

McNiven gets 1,000th training win at Clinton

After a damp start to the 2017 season at Clinton Raceway last Sunday (May 21), the sunny skies known to Clinton Raceway fans returned for Sunday's (May 28) race card and trainer Scott McNiven scored his 1,000th training win.

The milestone victory came with Black Jack Killeen in race five. Driver Travis Henry steered the five-year-old gelding in a gate-to-wire victory in a time of 2:00.4, paying $13.30 on the win ticket. The long-time trainer from Putnam, ON trains out of the Dorchester Fair Grounds and has accumulated over $8 million dollars in purse earnings.

Unfortunately, the race card ended on a sad note, after Jemba Jemba suffered a shattered cannon bone in the final turn of the eighth race, resulting in euthanasia.

Next week, the Clinton Spring Fair moves into town, resulting in a break in the harness season. Live racing will resume Sunday June 11, 2017 with a post time of 1:30 pm details can be found at clintonraceway.com
