Heavyweight Title Fight – Round 3

A week after a slugfest at Pocono, Wiggle It Jiggleit and Freaky Feet Pete will battle again tonight in the $250,000 Graduate Series championship at the Meadowlands reserved for four-year-olds (Sorry, Always B Miki)

by Ken Weingartner / Harness Racing Communications

Trace Tetrick doesn't have to go far to see the impact that horses such as Freaky Feet Pete and Wiggle It Jiggleit are having on harness racing. And it has nothing to do with talking to people at the stables or racetrack. He just has to look around his neighborhood.

"My neighbors don't really know much about racing, but they know I drive Pete and they all want to know when he's racing," said Tetrick, who lives in Anderson, IN, and drives Indiana-based Freaky Feet Pete for trainer Larry Rheinheimer and owners Mary Jo and Marty Rheinheimer.

"They all want to know about Pete. People want to follow him and root for him. The sport needs this, something people can follow."

Tetrick will be alerting his neighbors to watch the races at New Jersey's Meadowlands tonight (July 9) because Freaky Feet Pete and Wiggle It Jiggleit are ready to go at it again. A week after meeting in a memorable edition of the Ben Franklin Stakes, the two headline the $250,000 Graduate Series pacing championship at the Big M.

The Graduate Series is for four-year-old horses, so Ben Franklin winner Always B Miki – who is five – will not be joining Freaky Feet Pete and Wiggle It Jiggleit for tonight's drama. But that shouldn't diminish the interest of fans, who watched Freaky Feet Pete and Wiggle It Jiggleit split four previous encounters prior to the Franklin.

Freaky Feet Pete finished second to Always B Miki in the Franklin's world-record-equaling 1:47 mile at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. The stallion, a son of Rockin Image—Skyway Lori, has won 29 of 34 lifetime races and earned $1.34 million. He has finished worse than third only once in his career.

Delaware-based Wiggle It Jiggleit, a son of Mr Wiggles—Mozzi Hanover who was the Horse of the Year in 2015, finished third in the Franklin. Trained by Clyde Francis, the gelding has won 31 of 39 career races and earned $2.69 million for the father-son team of co-owner George Teague Jr. and driver Montrell Teague. Wiggle It Jiggleit also has finished worse than third only once.

Wiggle It Jiggleit, who is the number two ranked horse in the current Hambletonian Society / Breeders Crown poll and Freaky Feet Pete, who is fifth in the rankings, both are world-record holders.

"Pete has a big following here in Indiana; people always watch him," Tetrick said. "In Delaware, everyone's got Wiggle. Everyone wants to follow him and George and Montrell. It's nice because people get attached and want to follow it that way. We need hype like that, where it gets people involved and gets them to want to come out and watch the races. It's just great to be a part of it."

Wiggle It Jiggleit will start tonight's Graduate final from post three. Wiggle It Jiggleit has won eight of 12 starts this season, including the Battle of Lake Erie, Dorothy Mullin Invitational, and a preliminary round of the Graduate Series at Tioga Downs.

"He came out of the (Franklin) well," Montrell Teague said. "The draw was good to us, so we'll be up close and see how it goes."

Driver Trace Tetrick said even his Indiana neighbors are following and rooting for Freaky Feet Pete.

The Franklin was the focus of the harness racing world's attention, and received national coverage as well from the Associated Press, as it brought together a star-studded field highlighted by Always B Miki, Freaky Feet Pete and Wiggle It Jiggleit. It was the first time all three of those horses met in the same race.

"I thought it was fun," Teague said. "It's always more fun when you win, but you're not going to win them all. Third is better than nothing. I was happy with him.

"I'm just glad I've got one of the horses causing a lot of buzz right now, along with Miki and Pete and Mel Mara. I think it's all good promotion for the sport."

Freaky Feet Pete will start the Graduate from post eight. He has won five of seven races this season, including a preliminary round of the Graduate at Mohawk. Saturday's race will mark his first start at the Meadowlands.

"I think he'll be able to hold his own," Tetrick said. "We drew outside, but Pete's versatile and that makes him a big threat. That's what makes all three of those horses (Always B Miki, Freaky Feet Pete, and Wiggle It Jiggleit) great horses. They're fast off the gate, they can carry their speed for a long distance, and it doesn't have to set up perfectly for them to win."

Tonight's card at the Meadowlands, which begins at 7:15 p.m., also includes the $250,000 Graduate Series trotting championship, a single elimination for the Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace and two Reynolds Memorial divisions for 3-year-old female trotters.

The following is the field for the Graduate Series pacing championship:

PP. Horse - Driver- Trainer

1. In The Arsenal-Brett Miller-Kelvin Harrison
2. Artistic Major-Tim Tetrick-Steve Elliott
3. Wiggle It Jiggleit-Montrell Teague-Clyde Francis
4. Rockin In Heaven-David Miller-Ian Moore

Baker's Dozen of great Meadowlands Pace eliminations

In honor of tonight's lone elimination for the Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace, here's a look at some of the greatest moments from past Pace eliminations:

1. Riyadh, in 1993, was the first horse to win his Pace elimination in sub-1:50 when he posted a 1:49.4 victory. That year, all three Pace elimination winners went 1-2-3 in the final. Presidential Ball, Life Sign and then Riyadh
2. John Campbell with Hilarion in 1982 and Mike Lachance with Matts Scooter in 1988 won the Meadowlands Pace final before they ever won a Pace elimination.
3. Miss Easy in 1991 was the last female to test the boys in the eliminations. She made a break and had to settle for the Pace consolations, which she won easily over a horse you might have heard of: Cambest.
4. In 2008, Somebeachsomewhere and Art Official went 1-2 in their elimination – five lengths apart. The final was a different story, with that finish reversed, in a world record 1:47 and only a neck separating them in a race some think is the greatest in Meadowlands history.
5. The last time the great Niatross lost a race was the 1980 Meadowlands Pace elims, when he was fourth. Niatross was parked by Safe Arrival through brutal fractions and just did gain the last spot. Clint Galbraith called this race – a fourth-place finish – the best race Niatross ever went.
6. At Point Blank and Odds On Equuleus were both Meadowlands Pace runnerups in 1997 and 2013. Not bad, considering that neither would win a single heat all season.
7. Matts Scooter finished fourth in his 1988 Meadowlands Pace elim, but bounced back in the final to dominate, the first for Mike Lachance and likely the horse who got his career going full blast. Lachance had only relocated to the Meadowlands full-time a few months earlier.
8. Sixty-five per cent of the Meadowlands Pace elimination-winning favorites do just that– win. That's about 25 percentage points higher than the final.

9. Brett Pelling won his first Meadowlands Pace as the 6-5 choice in 1995 with Davids Pass (the first of four). But he needed some good fortune. David's Pass and CA Connection each finished fourth in the same time, so a coin toss decided it. Davids Pass won it and then the Pace. CA Connection lost the coin toss, but won the Pace consolation.

10. The first two years at the Meadowlands for the Pace (1977 and 1978) the elims and the final were the very same night. Escort in 1977 won only the final, while Falcon Almahurst won both in 1978 – over Horse of the Year Abercrombie – in the final.

11. Holborn Hanover was fourth in the 2004 Pace eliminations and nobody gave him much of a chance in the final. But he did win it, at a Meadowlands Pace all-time high ticket of 58-1.

12. Remember that eliminations are just that – eliminations. In 2004, not winning his elimination might have cost trotter Windsongs Legacy, the 2004 Hambletonian winner, the Horse of the Year title (passing on the Breeders Crown didn't help either). He was 11-for-14 on the year and won all six finals he competed in. His three losses all came in eliminations for those finals.

13. Finally, a quiz... Q. Name the two trainers who can say the following: I won the Hambletonian twice, the Meadowlands Pace twice, the HOY twice and had a Triple Crown winner. A. Blair Burgess and Billy Haughton.

In a generational sport such as harness racing, the father-son dynamic can be especially important when passions, stables and farms pass from one generation to the next. When your father is a legend, the horse that helps you achieve a measure of independence and success of your own can be particularly powerful.

So it is that a pacing-bred trotter named Decked came to be the horse that changed the life of the talented and quotable veterinarian Dr. John Hayes, who trained – and sometimes drove – such greats as 1981 Meadowlands Pace winner Conquered and 1984 North America Cup champion Legal Notice.

Hayes, formerly of Beamsville, ON and now living in Grimsby, is the son of the late John Hayes, Sr., the Canadian Hall of Fame trainer perhaps best known for winning the 1972 Little Brown Jug with Strike Out. Apart from being a talented horseman, Hayes, Sr. also served 10 years as the president of Standardbred Canada's predecessor the Canadian Trotting Association, where he was instrumental in computerizing racing records.

Decked was foaled in 1978 at a pivotal point in the relationship of the two horsemen.

"Let's just say it was a father-son relationship thing. Father was cutting back, phasing out and I was taking over the operation," Hayes said. "But it didn't all happen in one day."

Dr. Hayes said his father started out with nothing but trotters, but, "once he became a horse racing politician, president of Standardbred Canada, etc., he became acutely aware that the public tends to be happier betting on pacers than trotters. So, he became somewhat anti-trotter. He had an anti-trotter period.

"I was young and wanting to expand my wings and there was no opportunity to do it with a trotter. So, we had this two-year-old, who was by the first crop of Penn Hanover called Decked. His mother was an Adios mare (named Battling Bess). She was from the last crop of Adios. He was made to pace, but he loved to trot.

"We were stabled at the fairgrounds in Beamsville... and when I jogged him, I didn't put the hobbles on. One day, father comes driving in the fairgrounds and I was going a training mile with (Decked) and was training him on the trot. He gave me s--- and he said, 'You're wasting your goddamned time. How much you going?' I told him. I can't remember what it was. He said, 'You can hold him together in 2:20, but he's bred to pace and he'll switch over to the pace as soon as you chirp to him going some speed.'"

Dr. Hayes was undeterred. "Another day he drove in and I just finished training him on the trot and I had gone a mile in 2:10. He said, 'Yeah, yeah, you got away with it today. You just put him behind the starting gate with a field of horses and he'll switch right over to the pace.' So, I put him behind the starting gate and he trotted.

"The bottom line is he won his first pari-mutuel start, in London, in an Ontario Sires Stakes event in October. That was the day that I somewhat gained a level of independence from my father where I was able to make a decision and he didn't have to tell me I was full of it."

Decked raced at both gaits in his two- and three-year-old seasons, but stuck to the trot after that. In six racing seasons, Decked earned $140,000 as a trotter and a little more than $3,000 on the pace.

Popular horseman Ben Stafford, Jr. dead at 45

Benjamin C. Stafford Jr., 45, of Felton, DE, passed away on Wednesday (July 6) at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

Stafford was born Aug. 4, 1970, in Stratford, N.J., to Benjamin Stafford and Kathleen Holmes Stafford.

He was partners with his father for nearly 30 years, owning, training and driving standardbreds, where he was well known and liked in the racing community. He won 693 races in his career as a driver and piloted quality horses such as Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund champion Badlands Jenna, Good Bet, Badlands And Art, Mudslide and Scout Hanover.

He also enjoyed playing golf, hockey, rooting for the Philadelphia Flyers, and hunting.

Stafford is survived by his parents, Ben and Kathy; his wife of 18 years, Christy Johnson Stafford; son, Benjamin; sisters, Lauren (Shaun) Williams and Stephanie; brother, Trever (Peggy) Donaldson; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins; and a large extended family.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 1 p.m. on Monday (July 11) at Torbert Funeral Chapel South, 1145 E. Lebanon Road (Rt.10), Dover. Friends may call from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Interment will be in Hopkins Cemetery, Harrington.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to adoptahorse.org for the Standardbred Retirement Foundation.

Rock It Scott posts fastest NYSS division

Rock It Scott won the fastest of four $40,000+ New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) divisions for two-year-old pacing colts Friday (July 8) at Saratoga with a 1:54.3 victory. It was the pari-mutuel debut for the son of Roll With Joe out of Vanite Semalu who was driven to victory by Matt Kakaley for trainer Ron Burke.

The colt is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Our Horse Cents Stables of Melville, NY and J&T Silva Stables, LLC of Long Beach, NY.

Miso Fast (Roll With Joe—Sakura Hanover) won the first NYSS division with a 1:55 victory for the exact same connections, while Music Is Art (Art Major—Music Row) won his NYSS division gate-to-wire with Wally Hennessey at the helm for trainer Steve Elliott and owners Peter Blood of Pompano Beach, FL and Rich Berks of Boca Raton, FL, who purchased Music Is Art for $85,000 at the 2015 Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

Pointomygranson (American Ideal—Sangaal) made a break near the wire, but hung on to win the final division in 1:55.1 for driver Jim Morrill, Jr., trainer Chris Ryder and owner Gold Standard Equine LLC of Greenacres, FL.

Fillies Impress in Indiana Sires Stakes Action

After a week's worth of stakes action, the pacing fillies took their turn in the spotlight Friday (July 8) as Hoosier Park Racing & Casino played host to the $75,000 Indiana Sires Stakes finals for both the two and three-year-old pacing fillies. It was the opening round of the $75,000 finals for the two-year-old competitors and the second round of $75,000 finals for the sophomore competitors.

The three-year-old pacing fillies kicked off the stakes action for the evening and it was Seventimesavirgin and John DeLong who delivered as the heavy betting favorite to score in a new lifetime best of 1:51.1. Using the Hoosier Park passing lane to her advantage, Seventimesavirgin notched her second consecutive victory to make a clean sweep of the second round of the stakes action.

Leaving from post three, Seventimesavirgin protected her inside position, but Endeavors Fantasy and Sam Widger also left alertly to grab the first call in :26.1. It was a bit of give and go as DeLong sent Seventimesavirgin back out to the front but just as she grabbed command at the half in :54.2 Topville Cadillac and Tyler Smith were up to take the lead.

Topville Cadillac continued to call the shots at the three-quarter clocking in 1:23.3, but the rest of the field was closing in. Seventimesavirgin sat patiently in the pocket before DeLong found late racing room up the passing lane and she powered home using a :27.1 final quarter. Seventimesavirgin finished three lengths in front of a hard-charging Aux D Lox Bluegrass while Topville Cadillac held on for third.

"The trip never works out like you think it will," DeLong said with a smile in the winner's circle. "She raced very well, she doesn't like having to wait, she always wants to go but she loves to pace home. She's just awesome."

Owned by Jesse DeLong, the daughter of Always A Virgin—Mrs Grant Seven is also trained by John DeLong and notched her fifth victory of the season from six starts. Seventimesavirgin has now amassed $182,240 lifetime while winning 10 of 18 lifetime outings.

A little later in the evening, Rockin Serena and Trace Tetrick powered off cover to score as the longest shot on the board in the $75,000 Indiana Sires Stakes final for two-year-old pacing fillies. Sent off at odds of 44-1, Rockin Serena was able to overcome post position nine and used the long Hoosier Park stretch to her advantage to score in a new lifetime best of in 1:55. The victory was also one of five winners on the program for Tetrick, Hoosier Park's leading driver.

Owned by Kales Co., Dolne Farm Services, S&R Racing Stables, and Wrenn Racing, Rockin Serena is trained by Melanie Wrenn and notched her first win from two starts. The daughter of Rockin Image—Day Lily Hanover has now earned $37,900 lifetime for her connections.

With the wins, both Rockin Serena and Seventimesavirgin also earned points for the $200,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Finals slated for Oct. 15 at Hoosier Park. The Indiana Sires Stakes program will culminate with the top 10 point earners from the previous $75,000 finals in each division returning to compete in the super finals.

Indiana Sires Stakes action returns to Hoosier Park tonight (July 9) with the second of five $75,000 Indiana Sires Stakes finals for the three-year-old pacing colts. With a daily post time of 5:45 p.m., live racing at Hoosier Park Racing & Casino will follow a Tuesday through Saturday schedule and be conducted through Nov. 12.

She's A Billionair sets Buffalo track mark in NYSS

She's A Billionair's front-running style paid big dividends in the New York Sire Stakes for the two-year-old filly pacers on Wednesday night (July 6) at Buffalo Raceway as she set a new track record for that classification with an easy three-length win over Artrageous in 1:56.2.

The time erased the old mark of 1:56.3 established in 2011 by Silky Purse and tied by Summertime Lea in 2012.

It was also great night for driver Tim Tetrick, owner Ken Jacobs and trainer Linda Toscano, as the trio teamed up to win two Sire Stake divisions. Robin J was the fastest winner for the connections with a gate-to-wire victory in 1:57.2 while stablemate Planet Rock covered the fast Hamburg half-mile oval in 1:58.

Okidoki Blue Chip (Jim Morrill Jr.) took the final $27,750 leg by rolling to a 1:59.0 triumph over Rollingndiamonds (Brett Miller).

She's A Billionair ($10.20) was in command the entire mile as she stepped off panels of :29, :58.4 and 1:28.1. There was little doubt who the winner was going to be in the stretch as Brett Miller was in a prone position under the wire with She's A Billionair in 1:56.2. Artrageous (Jim Morrill Jr.) was second best while Yourlipstogodsears (Tetrick) took third.

The Winbak Farm-bred She's A Billionair (Artiscape—She's Game) is owned by Frank Chick and trained by Dylan Davis.
