Remembering harness racing's perpetual motion man

It was 30 years ago today that the legendary Billy Haughton died.

by Dean A. Hoffman

The incomparable Billy Haughton

No one — absolutely no one — could ever imagine Billy Haughton in a rocking chair.

The man simply had so much vitality that retirement and relaxation just didn't seem to fit him. He was harness racing's perpetual motion man.

Fittingly, Haughton's life ended in a sulky not a rocking chair as he died 30 years ago today - July 15, 1986 - as a result of a racing accident at Yonkers.

I recall that his sudden death evoked memories of an Emily Dickinson poem for me:

Because I could not stop for Death –

He kindly stopped for me –

The Carriage held but just Ourselves –

And Immortality

The loss to harness racing was incalculable. Afterwards many speculated on what young horseman might be “the next Billy Haughton.”

No one ever filled Billy's boots. Billy Haughton was sui generis, one of a kind. Irreplaceable.

Haughton brought a blend of great horsemanship and personality and an indefatigable work ethic to his profession that allowed him to scale the highest peaks of the sport.

He managed a large stable with numerous assistant trainers and dozens of owners. Billy had the gift of making each owner feel important. Owners wanted to have a horse with Billy Haughton because he made each one feel special and thus they relished their association with the legend.

Every owner knew, of course, that Billy could not personally sit behind each horse in his vast stable every morning. But if an owner inquired about his horse, chances are that Billy knew exactly where the horse was in training, what rigging it wore, and its flaws and its attributes.

Billy's ability to remember details on a horse was remarkable. He might not train a young horse for several weeks, then slide into the jog cart seat and ask the groom, “Didn't I tell you last time to take his overcheck up two holes?”

The groom might not have remembered, but Billy did.

My last conversation with Billy came in the spring of 1986 when I told him I wanted to interview him in depth at his winter base in Pompano about his career, the horses he'd raced, and those he raced against.

“Yeah, sure, Dean,” he said.

I knew how agreeable Billy always was, so I cautioned him it would take hours, maybe spread over a couple days.

“Okay, just let me know when you're coming down,” he said.

Alas, that interview never took place.

In lieu of interviewing Billy, I spent several days instead with Stanley Dancer for an article that appeared in Hoof Beats in the fall of 1987.

Haughton and Dancer's career were a parallel in many ways in that they rocketed to fame when harness racing was soaring in the 1950s at Yonkers and Roosevelt, the twice-arounds in the Big Apple.

But Stanley and Billy had different personalities and took different paths to greatness. Dancer came to concentrate on buying the blue-blood yearlings and had the well-heeled owners to back his selections. His stable was the cream of the crop.

Haughton, by contrast, appraised virtually every yearling in a sale and often plucked gems from the bargain basement section.

When competing in a major stake, Haughton could get beat with a heavy favorite, hang up the lines and move on to the next race. Billy realized that he could not change the results of the last race.

Decades after Albatross was upset in the '71 Little Brown Jug, Dancer brooded over that defeat and what he might have done differently to change the outcome. Stanley knew he had the best horse and fretted that he had asked too much of Albatross before Jug Day. Stanley Dancer did not like to finish second.

Haughton won his first Jug in 1955 with Quick Chief. It was the first time he'd ever been to Delaware, OH. He would later win the Jug four more times.

Because of its vagabond status in recent decades, the Messenger Stakes has lost much of its prestige, but it was the richest prize for pacers in its first few decades. And Billy Haughton practically owned the Messenger Stake. He won the inaugural edition in 1956 with the great filly Belle Acton, then from 1967-76 he won six of the 10 Messenger Stakes – triumphing with Romulus Hanover, Rum Customer, Silent Majority, Armbr Omaha, Bret's Champ, and Windshield Wiper.

Success in the Hambletonian took longer for Haughton to achieve: his first win came with Christopher T in 1974 and then he added victories with Steve Lobell (1976), Green Speed (1977) and Burgomeister (1980).

America's oldest trotting classic, the Kentucky Futurity, eluded Haughton, however. He came with a whisker of winning the Futurity and Triple Crown with Steve Lobell in 1976, but he was defeated by his son Peter, driving Quick Pay.

I asked Billy about that loss a few months later and he laughed and said with pride, "Peter just outdrove me."

Tragedy struck the Haughton family and the harness world in early 1980 when Peter Haughton died in an auto accident. Later that summer, Billy won the Hambletonian driving Burgomeister, a colt co-owned by Peter.

That was the final Hambletonian at Du Quoin, IL, and I don't think that there was a dry eye in the crowd as Billy and his wife Dottie choked back their emotions in the winner's circle.

Six years later, everyone in harness racing choked back tears when we learned of Billy's death.

Ironically, he died as a result of a racing accident, yet Billy Haughton contributed immeasurably to perhaps the greatest improvement in harness racing safety in the last half-century.

In late August, 1984, I sat down with Billy in the stable area at the Indiana State Fair. Billy was there to race his stock in the Fox Stake and the other Grand Circuit events.

I cornered him just long enough to ask him about the prospect of removing hub rails at harness tracks. It was a timely topic for Billy because he recently had an unfortunate encounter with the low hub rail at Roosevelt Raceway.

Wholly Arnie, a top-ranked Haughton-trainer sophomore trotter, was one of the favorites for the $388,343 Dexter Cup when he shied and went over the low rail, and fell. He was not injured at all, but New York rules dictated that any horse falling prior to a race be scratched.

When I spoke with Billy at Indianapolis, he said that if there had not been a hub rail, Wholly Arnie would simply have shied off the track briefly and been able to start.

Billy and I talked about the fact that many tracks in Europe had no hub rail and horses got along fine. Billy had raced on some of those European tracks.

I took notes of what Billy said that morning at the Indiana State Fair and put them into an article for Hoof Beats.

I deliberately wrote the article under Billy's by-line, not mine. I often ghostwrote articles for others, and certainly in this case I knew that the plea to remove hub rails would have far greater impact and credibility coming from Billy Haughton than from a mere typewriter jockey like me.

The article indeed had an impact. Billy's former home track Saratoga was the first to remove its hub rail. Then I think the redesigned Rosecroft was next.

In time, hub rails would become a thing of the past at harness tracks and people would ask, "Why did we think we needed them?"

Not only was this a giant step forward in safety for drivers and horses, but it also gave the public far better sightlines for watching the races.

Alas, Billy never lived to see the widespread removal of hub rails, but no doubt his article was the impetus.

No, Billy Haughton never lived to spend time in a rocking chair, but he left a lasting mark on harness racing and his name will be remembered and revered as long as trotters and pacers race.

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.

The Book on Billy

Thirty years ago today, Billy Haughton died. In recognition of the anniversary of his death, here's the book on a legend:

- Born 11/2/23 Gloversville, NY.
- Lived in Oyster Bay Cove, NY.
- Home base for many years was Roosevelt Raceway.
- First win came in 1942 with Hollyrood Arrow.
- Inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 1968.
- His first Hambletonian victory came six years after he was inducted into the Hall (1974 Christopher T). It was the first of four driving and another training (Speed Bowl 1982)
- Campaigned a Triple Crown winner in 1968 (Rum Customer).
- For eight straight years (1952-1959) he led the nation in earnings (nobody has ever topped this – Tim Tetrick at seven was the next best (2007-2013)).
- Twelve times overall he led the nation in earnings (Only John Campbell (16) has topped that figure).
- Trained the fastest male and female ever – Handle With Care 1:54.4 (1974) and she did it in California versus the boys and 1:49.3 for Nihilator in 1985, the first ever sub-1:50 race winner.
- Only two trainers ever can make the following statement: Two Meadowlands Pace wins; two (or more) Hambletonians; two Horses Of The Year; one Triple Crown winner – Billy Haughton and Blair Burgess.
- Drove one million-dollar race winner McKinzie Almahurst (1981 Wilson – $1,760,000)
- Drove 4,910 winners who earned $40,160,336, which was fifth all-time at the moment of his passing.

- Two sons won Triple Crown races, both setting the "youngest ever" record: Peter Haughton with Quick Pay in the 1976 Kentucky Futurity is the youngest driver to ever win a Triple Crown event (22) and Tommy Haughton at 23 is the youngest driver to ever win a heat of the Hambletonian – 1980 Final Score. Tommy Haughton, 25, is the youngest driver to ever win the final of the Hambletonian 1982 Speed Bowl.
- In 1984, $2,161,000 Woodrow Wilson won by Haughton's Nihilator in 1:52.4, is still the richest race ever contested.
- Is the first driver ever to win the Hambletonian one year and the Meadowlands Pace the next – 1977 Green Speed and 1978 Falcon Almahurst.

Big 5 on the Big M

Five expert handicappers break down the biggest stakes on the Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace card.

Saturday at the Meadowlands Racetrack (post time 6:30 pm. Eastern time), harness racing fans will be treated to another terrific card of racing on a stakes card featuring 13 races and over $2.6 million in purses. Apart from the main event, the $732,050 Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace, the $471,800 William R. Haughton Memorial offers a rematch of The Big 3 – Always B Miki, Wiggle It Jiggleit and Freaky Feet Pete. As well as the extra handicapping dimension of having five races with at least one trailer and three stakes raced at a distance of a mile-and-an-eighth, race 12 offers the Super High Five Jackpot featuring a carryover of $267,769.

In order to celebrate this tremendous card of racing, Harness Racing Update is proud to bring you handicapping of the four biggest stakes from our five experts – Sam McKee, the Hall of Fame race caller from the Meadowlands Racetrack; Chad Rozema, a lead standardbred analyst and broadcaster with the Woodbine Entertainment Group; Hall of Fame handicapper, statistician, broadcaster and historian Bob Heyden and HRU columnist Dean Towers, an officer with the Horseplayers Association of North America (HANA) and Meadowlands race caller extraordinaire Ken Warkentin.

Race 9 - William R. Haughton Memorial

BOB HEYDEN

SELECTIONS: 7 - 10 - 5 - 3

7 FREAKY FEET PETE – Can anyone definitively separate the Big Three at this point? I know I cannot. Two straight seconds for FFP, he's maintained his form, which surprised many, and he'll be right in the mix again.

10 WIGGLE IT JIGGLEIT - Post 10 for 1 1/8 miles is perfect for him. He comes off yet another gargantuan effort – in a downpour – posting a lifetime mark dueling with FFP in the lane very much like 20 years ago when Jennas Beach Boy and Riyadh slugged it out in a 1:47.3 World race record. How can HE maintain his form for 40 career starts? Amazing.

5 ALWAYS B MIKI - Comes off consecutive 1:47 wins, is beyond talented and is the likely favorite because of the draw. The fans have to be hoping we get to see a handful of these matchups. Who can remember three standouts in the same race like this prior? (Side note: Anyone notice the irony of possibly Always B Miki showcasing his incredible talent on Pace Night, the very night in 2007 that his sire, Always A Virgin, appeared to be a winner in the Meadowlands Pace as the favorite but made the untimeliest of breaks?)

3 DEALT A WINNER - Quietly was the fastest three-year-old of 2015 (1:47.3 Cane Pace). His form is deceptive and he can handle the rest of these at a box car mutuel. Mark Silva is ever so quietly appearing in both the Pace and the Haughton. Nice.

CHAD ROZEMA

SELECTIONS: 5 - 2 - 7 - 10

5 ALWAYS B MIKI - Went another big trip in the Ben Franklin and has stamped himself as the top older pacer in NA. He's been well prepped by Takter who has been able to keep him at the top of his game. He draws well and I don't think the added distance will be an issue. He keeps the good times rolling.

2 SHAMBALLA - Wasn't at his best in his latest and will be aiming to rebound for team Zeron. He's one of the best closers of the field and should stand to benefit from the extra eighth of a mile. He finished 2nd to Miki three starts back and I'm pegging him for the same result in his Big M debut.

7 FREAKY FEET PETE - Put up a good fight in the Graduate Final but was simply second best in another WR mile. Trace is likely to keep him forwardly placed and his perfect in the money record at the Grand Circuit level makes him tough to leave out of the top 3.

10 WIGGLE IT JIGGLEIT - Was sensational again last weekend equaling the world record of 1:47.2 in heavy rain over rival Freaky Feet Pete. He can do things a lot of horses can't do, but will be challenged tonight racing from this post. It would be special if he won from out here.

DEAN TOWERS

SELECTIONS: 5 - 7 - 10 - 12

5 ALWAYS B MIKI - Is currently the undisputed King of harness racing, and it's very well deserved. Unlike in the Franklin final, this time he has a post edge, with his two main foes drawing to the outside of him. If he brings his "A" - or probably even his "A minus" game - he'll be very tough to beat.

7 FREAKY FEET PETE - Seems to be in a nice spot, and like in the Franklin, has a chance at a two hole trip behind Always B Miki. If so, and if Miki does not fire his best shot, I don't think it would surprise too many if he converted.

10 WIGGLE IT JIGGLEIT - Has a tough post and will have to work hard, and/or get some nice racing luck from outside to be victorious against his salty rivals. I was tempted to leave him off my top three, but that shows ill-gotten disrespect to a horse who always shows up, leaves it all on the track, and has a world of talent.

12 ALL BETS OFF - Was probably born in the wrong year, because he is fast, very sharp, and in most Haughtons would be a deserving top choice. He's just really up against it, with the top three being some of the best pacers the sport has seen in some time.

KEN WARKENTIN

SELECTIONS: 10 - 5 - 7 - 2

10 WIGGLE IT JIGGLEIT - The defending Horse of the Year has not only come back in stellar form as a four-year-old, he's proven to be resilient. Last week, he simply overpowered arch rival Freaky Feet Pete, by stinging him to a :25.3 quarter and still had a :26.2 bullet in his arsenal en route to another world record of 1:47.2, while coming hot on the heels of his fierce battle with Always B Miki. Look for him to blast off from post 10, and as George Teague, Jr. said, "Great horses do great things." Wiggle It Jiggleit is great right now.

5 ALWAYS B MIKI - The ultimate Comeback Kid has started to string together a Sweet Lou type streak, with back-to-back world records of 1:47 at Pocono, and an all-time Canadian mark of 1:47.1 at Mohawk. Obviously, a very dangerous horse when able to take control, he can also grind all day and explode from off the pace. With only four starts last year, we surely haven't seen his absolute best yet, and that's scary.

7 FREAKY FEET PETE - The Breeders Crown champion has continued to do extremely well when venturing away from his Indiana base. His world record of 1:47.1 on June 25 at Pocono was a cruise control romp. He was right there with "Miki" in the Ben Franklin Final, took a lot of heat and just missed to "Wiggle It" last week. Pete is just finding his best stride and completes a power trio of great horses.

2 SHAMBALLA - The Mohawk sensation was a bang up second to "Miki" in the Mohawk Gold Cup record mile, and advanced to the Ben Franklin Final with an excellent elimination, flashing sharp speed at both ends, yet wasn't able to finish with the same vigor and clearly had an off night going for $500,000. Draws well for his Meadowlands debut, but needs a big rebound effort.

SAM MCKEE

SELECTIONS: 5 - 10 - 7 - 3

5 ALWAYS B MIKI - This horse is a monster and can keep right on rolling at top speed for a long, long way. Takter has him in peak physical condition, plus he never seems to get tired so the mile-and-an-eighth plays right into his wheelhouse. With a decent post draw inside his main rivals and a week off since the Franklin, the road to the winner's circle goes through him.

10 WIGGLE IT JIGGLEIT - Love his courage, his desire, and his toughness week in and week out. With an extra eighth of a mile off the wings, I think he can get pretty good position since he's a horse others would love to follow into a striking spot.

7 FREAKY FEET PETE - A fantastic horse that may well blast out of there and yield the lead only to Always B Miki. Never seems to go a bad race, figures to be sitting close to the front, and certainly has a puncher's chance come crunch time.

3 DEALT A WINNER - Very lightly raced so far this year and getting sharper. Has some late pop as we saw last year finishing fourth in the Pace and upsetting in the Cane off those torrid fractions. Capable of chasing home the top trio at a price.

New Image Media

One of the great stories on Pace Night is Hannelore Hanover's connections paying the $50,000 supplement fee so she (and driver Yannick Gingras) can take on the boys in the the Hambletonian Maturity.

Race 10 – Hambletonian Maturity

BOB HEYDEN

SELECTIONS: 4 – 9 – 2 – 10

4 HANNELORE HANOVER – The only female in the race. She absolutely brings back memories of Buck I St Pat for the Burke stable. She's 8-for-9 this year after an 8-for-17 season in 2015. Remember that her only loss this year was versus the boys, but she trotted home in :26.4 even then).

9 MUSICAL RHYTHM - Is a son of two Breeders Crown winners – Cantab Hall and Musical Victory. He's got a serious winning habit – 21-for-37 – and John Campbell's drive last week was one of his best, and that is saying plenty. Great race brewing and a very nice way of rewarding those who didn't bask in the 2015 Hambletonian picture.

2 CENTURION ATM - Five starts in 2016 with five different drivers. Now Trace Tetrick sticks, and why not? His perfect steer last week got the stable second money. One of three representatives of the Svanstedt stable, who in year three in the USA is showing that the Sebastian K showcase was anything but a fluke.

10 HONOR AND SERVE - Doesn't figure to see the lead at any point starting from here in a powerful field. Still, he's got talent, and despite the 6-for-27 slate, shows two sub-1:52 miles in his last four starts.

CHAD ROZEMA

SELECTIONS: 5 – 9 – 4 – 2

5 CRESCENT FASHION – Needed his latest start having missed the previous month due to sickness. I'm predicting better Saturday and he should be set up for a late surge with plenty of early action expected. His only win this year was at a mile and a quarter and he's capable of upsetting.

9 MUSICAL RHYTHM - Earned the biggest win of his career last week after capturing the Graduate Final in 1:51.2. He was able to overcome a post 10 beginning giving me more confidence as he once again draws outside. Campbell won this event last year with JL Cruze and is well positioned to make more noise.

4 HANNELORE HANOVER - Will try to become the first female to capture this event after Shake It Cerry (third) and Bee A Magician (second) both attempted. She equaled the world record at Mohawk two starts ago without even breaking a sweat. Ron Burke thinks she has plenty left in the tank and I wouldn't take her lightly.

2 CENTURION ATM - Got off to a slow start this season but he appears to be on track following back to back top two results. Trace Tetrick is aboard for the second outing and he will be one to watch out for over the final quarter. Svanstedt has done well in this event and sends out three starters.

DEAN TOWERS

SELECTIONS: 3 – 4 – 9 – 2

3 WINGS OF ROYALTY - Started the year with a bang with a sub-1:52 score at the Meadowlands, but seemed to have some issues after that race, losing his edge. After a brief freshening, the son of RC Royalty came back strong in the Graduate Final, looking sound on the racetrack, only fading late. That might tighten him up for this week. He's my price play.

4 HANNELORE HANOVER - Has done absolutely nothing wrong in 2016 and deserves her shot against the boys. She has flashed speed on both ends and has looked good doing it. She's a formidable opponent to her male rivals on Saturday.

9 MUSICAL RHYTHM - Was flat-out awesome last week in the Graduate. He was hung wide early, took a lead, gave it up in a speedy third panel, and came back on to win in a romp. If I wasn't price shopping he'd be my top choice.

2 CENTURION ATM - It appears he has found his footing in 2016. Last week's nice close is hopefully signaling he's ready to contend in these types of races. He has always had talent.

KEN WARKENTIN

SELECTIONS: 4 – 9 – 7 – 5

4 HANNELORE HANOVER - Another top Indiana-sired performer comes bursting onto the major stage, a winning machine for Team Burke draws inside for her Meadowlands debut. A $32,000 bargain and a $50,000 supplement was completely wrapped up in the Miami Valley Distaff and Armbr Flight in a Canadian record 1:51 at Mohawk. Connections believe she can trot in 1:49.

9 MUSICAL RHYTHM - Excellent drive paid off with a career best 1:51.2 from post 10 for Campbell's second straight Graduate Trot. $33,000 buy with Breeders Crown champions on both sides, turned into a WEG circuit terror, winning his first nine starts this year for Team Baillargeon. Gets a bit steppy on the turns, and needs another quick start from post nine to stay on a roll.

7 CRAZY WOW - Fresh from a million-dollar campaign at three for Team Burke, evidently over his early season breaking issues, stretched out and regained his winning form in an overnight here last week. Thrives when he is forwardly placed either on or near the lead and ready for a serious test for stamina from a demanding post.

5 CRESCENT FASHION - Hats off to Ake Svanstedt for sending out a trio of longshot contenders, and this one may be best of the three. Solid runner up in back-to-back legs of the Graduate before the recent sick scratch. Second try off that point with Scott Zeron possibly a few weeks away from his first Big M driving title.

SAM MCKEE

SELECTIONS: 4 - 7 - 9 - 3

4 HANNELORE HANOVER - The Burke brigade ponying up $50,000 to supplement this monster mare against the boys shows just how much they think of her and how confident they must be. Has literally destroyed her distaff rivals and I see no reason she can't keep right on rolling Saturday. They get their supplement money back if she's third or better. We're leaning toward better.

7 CRAZY WOW - Can win this race if on his best game. Really had no chance chasing from the back off a slow half in the Cutler and didn't have enough money earned in the Graduate to get into that final.

9 MUSICAL RHYTHM - Have to respect a horse that can get passed on the turn and battle back in the stretch to win like he did in the Graduate final last week. Overcame an outside post, as well. Loves to win and it's hard to imagine him not pushing off the wings for position.

3 WINGS OF ROYALTY - Did some serious work in the middle stages of the Graduate final, but tired late. Looks like he has the speed to outkick his two inside rivals off the wings. With a wait, rate and rally strategy and some White Knight magic, he could be a factor for a share.

Michael Lisa

After he exploded to victory in the lane in the lone elimination for the Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace, Control The Moment (Brian Sears) is the pick of three of our five handicappers.

Race 11 – Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace

BOB HEYDEN

SELECTIONS: 3 - 4 - 6 - 4

3 CONTROL THE MOMENT - Uncorked an eye-popping final 3/16ths last week opening the eyes of anyone not quite sure about his ability – like me. The 67 per cent lifetime winner set his lifetime mark last week too, with tank on “Full” while finishing. Sears has only one Pace win on the bio – 2005 with Rocknroll Hanover – and can become the fifth driver to win the Meadowlands Pace the year after capturing the Hambletonian.

4 RACING HILL – Is the “now” horse and took the bye last week. He's wicked fast off the gate and Tony Alagna has been here before, winning in 2013 with Captaintreacherous. Tom Hill from the UK has the horse to beat here, and Brett Miller is poised for his Pace moment.

6 BOSTON RED ROCKS - Is the defending freshman champion, but so far in 2016 has been efficient but not spectacular. But, the only horse in the field with both the driver and the trainer with multiple Pace trophies. Steve Elliott won this in 2006 (Artistic Fella) and 2009 (Well Said) and Tim Tetrick is an astounding four-for-nine with a chance to win his fifth Meadowlands Pace prior to turning 35.

4 LYONS SYNDER - Was a solid second in the prep for this and looks to get Dave Miller his first Meadowlands Pace the same year he won his first North America Cup (Betting Line is not Pace eligible). Part-owner Jeff Snyder has seven combined trophies between the NA Cup (four) and the Meadowlands Pace (three)

CHAD ROZEMASELECTIONS: 3 - 4 - 9 - 8

3 CONTROL THE MOMENT - Didn't look like he was going to reach last week, but he unleashed an eye-catching rally over the final eighth to get up. He finally lands in a good post with the big money on the line and I'm looking for him to take full advantage. Brian Sears will look for his second Pace title.

4 RACING HILL - Is arguably the second best colt in the Glamour Boys division right now and will aim to keep the ball rolling with his third straight win. His connections opted for the bye into this final and that could pay off as he was able to freshen up. He should be right there.

9 CHECK SIX - Overcame a slow start in the elim to nab fourth with a strong final quarter rally when adding Lasix. He could be eyeing a quicker beginning tonight and is one I see challenging for the ticket. This is one of three chances for trainer Ron Burke to earn his first Pace title.

8 JK WILL POWER - Has only raced on the Grand Circuit this year over his past three outings where he's managed to hit the board each time. He's quick off the gate to gain position and can fight right to the wire. He's in good hands with Gingras at the helm and could crack the ticket.

DEAN TOWERSSELECTIONS: 5 - 4 - 3 - 9

5 LYONS SNYDER - Looks to avenge his no-chance trip in the North America Cup with a nice one here, and I think he may get it. The Crawford Farms Meadowlands Pace field does not look as deep as in year's past and I expect him to be near the front, and tighter than he was in his elimination. I think he's an excellent price play.

4 RACING HILL - Is the now horse in the sophomore division. After having a little trouble at race speed early in the year - not uncommon for young horses - he's been virtually unbeatable the last few weeks. He should be the controlling speed and will be tough to pace by.

3 CONTROL THE MOMENT - Was the wow horse in his elimination, but I think that was overblown. He got a covered trip with a :55.2 back half to close into, and others looked to be not near their best. He's a super-nice horse, but I think he'll be overbet, and I will leave him off the top two slots.

9 CHECK SIX - Like my third choice, had a slow back half to close into last week so the running line probably flatters him, but he looked great doing it. That strong finish will probably give driver Matt Kakaley a license to be more aggressive in the final.

KEN WARKENTINSELECTIONS: 3 - 4 - 9 - 6

3 CONTROL THE MOMENT - O'Brien Award winner has been the victim of post position blues this season, but added Brian Sears and absolutely exploded to a new mark of 1:49.2 to take the single elimination from post nine. Sears noted he was very relaxed and another stalking trip may be imminent. Possibly the fifth Metro winner to take the Pace, and post three has produced five Pace winners, including his sire Well Said. Could be a Real Desire-like turnaround with the switch to The White Knight, who won the 2005 edition with Rocknroll Hanover.

4 RACING HILL - Fresh and hot, and from the first crop of 2011 Pace champ Roll With Joe, and has emerged as Tony Alagna's top colt. Rested taking the bye and romped to a career best 1:49 in the Hempt. Brett Miller said he didn't have to pop the earplugs and he's very handy. Runner up in the North America Cup after a making a miscue and Alagna made shoeing adjustments. Alagna loves his demeanor and reaped Pace glory in 2013 with Captaintreacherous. Wiggle It Jiggle It won last year's Pace from post four.

9 CHECK SIX - Team Burke's best colt after battling through a chronic foot infection at two, came to prominence winning the Pennsylvania Classic back on May 7. Added Lasix, forced wide coming from last and finished strong in the Pace elimination. Capable of blasting off, settling in for a trip or could create some mayhem.

6 BOSTON RED ROCKS - Last year's champion colt hasn't quite broken through this season, while still racing competitively. Too far back in the North America Cup, shuffled in the Hempt Final and conservatively handled in the Pace Elimination. Banks on a speed target. Steve Elliott goes for his third Pace, and Tetricks guns for his fifth Pace in 10 tries.

SAM MCKEESELECTIONS: 5 - 4 - 3 - 6

5 LYONS SNYDER - No question he's a fast horse who can carry his speed. Got roughed up in a cutthroat pace duel in the North America Cup Final and may actually move forward off the elimination start which he probably needed. Dave Miller is in a great groove driving right now and whenever he steps on the gas, this colt will go. Slight upset selection.

4 RACING HILL - Has earned a ton of respect with his dead-game runner-up effort in the NA Cup and was never threatened in the Hempt final. Alagna and company showed their confidence in him taking a bye into the elimination and showing their willingness to risk a poor position. Can do it on the lead, stalking or rallying and Brett Miller has plenty of options with his main rivals on either side at the start.

3 CONTROL THE MOMENT - That was some vicious kick he showed in the last 100 yards to win the elimination. More importantly, it was the perfect trip to braven him back up after being used hard in the NA Cup and Hempt finals. Tremendous raw talent in the right spot and the right hands.

6 BOSTON RED ROCKS - Has been right there with the top colts but hasn't quite had the punch to outpace them recently. Had what I thought were some slight traffic issues up the inside in the stretch last week. Certainly seems to figure on the gimmick tickets.

Lady Shadow is one of the top picks to win the Golden Girls.

Race 12 – Golden Girls

BOB HEYDEN

SELECTIONS: 10 – 11 – 2 – 7

10 KATIE SAID - Nobody benefits more from the added distance on any of the stakes finals more than Katie Said. The daughter of 2009 Pacer Of The Year and Pace winner Well Said, she finishes her races like a runaway locomotive, and that was actually her undoing in the 2015 Breeders Crown or she would be coming into this race as the defending Crown champion. Use her confidently on all tickets.

11 SOLAR SISTER - For the father/son tandem of Gregg/Doug McNair. Gregg, at midweek, was about $35,000 from the $40 million milestone lifetime (by USTA accounting). Solar Sister was third in the Roses Are Red and is some $10,000 from $750,000 lifetime. She looms as a real contender in what might turn out to be an advantageous starting spot.

2 VENUS DELIGHT - The Breeders Crown favorite qualified in good form indicating readiness. Team Bamond love this race – and remember, too, that her last pari-mutuel start was a win, so the freshening up for the past five weeks was with this race in mind.

7 INITTOWINAFORTUNE – I know 0-for-19 is not going to cut it here. But, she is the fastest female in the sport off the wings, and lately she's been hanging tough come payoff time.

CHAD ROZEMA

SELECTIONS: 5 – 2 – 10 – 12

5 LADY SHADOW - Scored her third straight win last time and has regained top form since rejoining the Ron Adams outfit. She's a versatile mare but will likely remain forwardly placed from this post. Canadian invaders have won two of the past five editions of this race so I will back her on top.

2 VENUS DELIGHT - Didn't have her best day in the Roses Are Red elim, but she's bounced back with two strong lines. She will likely appreciate this starting spot over the second tier, which she drew in each of her past two added distance events here. I'm expecting to hear from her late.

10 KATIE SAID - Draws another 10-hole in a rich final and will be hoping to see more action up front than she did in the Roses Are Red. She finished fast for second in her tune-up for this event to give her confidence a boost. A good trip can have her in play.

12 ANNDROVETTE - The ageless wonder will be looking to successfully defend her title in this event. It will be tough for her to work her way to the front from the second tier and she could be on the move early. She's two for two at the distance and always seems to come up big in the marquee events.

DEAN TOWERS

SELECTIONS: 10 – 5 – 8 – 4

10 KATIE SAID - Has had almost no chance to win her last few, because she's been in impossible spots. With post 10 we may see a replay of those tough trips in the Golden Girls but at the price she will land at post time, we'll swing. She's very sharp and much better than her lines show.

5 LADY SHADOW - Deserves favoritism, but with a long stretch along with her propensity to drift in the lane, I think she's vulnerable.

8 FROST DAMAGE BLUES - Is a lovely mare, who shows signs she can jump into the deep end of the pool against these world class older mares. She exemplified prodigious talent last year, and this season seems fast, confident and looks like a real bearcat.

4 DEVIL CHILD - Raced very well in the Fan Hanover and was really the only mare moving forward at the wire. Driver David Miller will no doubt have her in a better spot this time against a similar group.

KEN WARKENTIN

SELECTIONS: 5 - 2 - 11 - 3

5 LADY SHADOW - The "now" horse in this often wide-open division romped to her second straight Roses Are Red at Mohawk in a career best 1:48.1 on a night when the front end wasn't too kind. Then kicked home in a crisp :26.2 as a perfect tune up for this. The midpack draw in a bulky field gives her some options, yet she does thrive when in control and there's not a lot of serious speed in here.

2 VENUS DELIGHT - The 2015 Dan Patch Award winner sparked the second half of her season with a rousing score in the Betsy Ross at Harrah's Philadelphia. Rallied to win at Mohawk on Roses Are Red Night with a :26.2 to vault past $1 million, then won a qualifier here with a :26.4 sprint. Gets another inside draw and seems prepped for a top effort. Seventh from post 11 last year behind stablemate Androvette, who pulled a 36-1 upset from post 10.

11 SOLAR SISTER - Ontario Sires Stakes product has quickly graduated to the open ranks this season. Scored fresh out of the box in the Sam Noble III Memorial at Miami Valley, upsetting Yagonnakissmeornot. A solid third in the Roses Are Red and just missed to Lady Shadow last out. Only needs to find a way out of second tier city to contend again.

3 DIVINE CAROLINE - 2015 Dan Patch Award winner has finally come around in her last two here against inferior competition. Now that Joe Holloway has her figured out, she can push off from an inside post and stalk the speed. This Breeders Crown champion rallied to win the Tarport Hap here last November at a mile and one eighth.

SAM MCKEE

SELECTIONS: 5 - 10 - 12 - 8

5 LADY SHADOW - Would like to get cute and go for a bomb in the mandatory Jackpot Super Hi5, but this mare has been dominant lately at Mohawk. She can win on the lead or from off the pace. Tends to drift out in the stretch, but she does it fast. Gingras is back up and is a master at using as little horse as possible to get to the lead.

10 KATIE SAID - A ruthless rallier who is always rolling late. That being said, the lack of early speed makes her pace dependent. Here's another case where the mile-and-an-eighth could benefit her with more time to settle into position on a straightaway.

12 ANNDROVETTE - The defending champion loves the Meadowlands and sits right on the back of stablemate Venus Delight at the start. She's like the female Foiled Again... tough as nails if she can lean on the leaders. Tetric's choice over Venus Delight.

8 FROST DAMAGE BLUES - Big step up in class, but she is both fresh and sharp right now. Loves to win and paced in 1:50.4 in a qualifier despite being bothered and checked briefly in the stretch. Draws in off the also eligible list, but is hard to leave off the bottom of Jackpot Super Hi5 tickets.

Last week we asked you:

Other than Brian Sears, what person not already enshrined in the U.S. Harness Racing Hall of Fame most deserves the honor and why?

Here's some of the responses we received:

Joe Holloway:

This man has brought to the track such notable greats and fan favorites as Jenna's Beach Boy, Badlands Hanover, Three Olives (the good year!), Always A Virgin, Always B Miki, Life Source, Lady Macbeach and I'm sure I am forgetting all kinds of other divisional and national high level pacers and trotters. Year in and year out, from New Jersey, by way of Indiana, to Kentucky each and every racing and sales season. And I would be remiss if I did not mention that we never even got to see, his quote, "best ever" horse Louie Louie Too compete as a three-year-old due to the colt's tragic passing as he was prepping early that spring. Talk about attributes, accomplishments and contributions to the sport on the national harness scene every year that are HOF deserving!!! Hello!

George Teague:

Another obvious one is George Teague with two Horses of the Year — Wiggle It Jiggle It, Rainbow Blue — and Pacer of the Year Total Truth.

Ted Wing, Steve Elliott, Joe Holloway, Linda Toscano:

I'd like to see Ted Wing, Steve Elliot, Joe Holloway and Linda Toscano get their chance in the Hall Of Fame. All four have tremendous accomplishments in the sport. Ted is an all-time super driver/horseman. Elliott is the developer of several Horses of the Year honorees colts and fillies with colts who have changed the breed in their stud careers. Holloway has also developed and trained numerous champion colts and fillies such as Jennas Beach Boy, Always B Miki and She's A Great Lady and Toscano with her world champions Chapter Seven, Market Share and Heston Blue Chip. I'd like it explained to me why this has not happened for them yet.

Proposed racino in western PA denied gaming license

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette reported Thursday that the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board has voted unanimously to deny a gambling license to Endeka Entertainment, which holds a harness racing license for Lawrence Downs near New Castle in the western part of the state.

"The future of the 250-acre site in Mahoning Township near New Castle remained unclear after the board's decision, but the prospects of opening the state's first casino-racetrack facility were not looking good," the Post-Gazette reported. "Since 2004, Lawrence County has watched the project pass through the hands of six different investment groups. The developer for the past few years, Endeka Entertainment, was purchased last year by Procacci Local Gaming LLC, owned by Philadelphia magnate Joseph Procacci, who put up a $50 million bond along with the casino license.

"In March 2015, a partnership between Endeka and Penn National Gaming fell apart, with Penn National abandoning the project due to declining market conditions in the regional casino industry."

Dayson and Dante tops in NYSS

Short-priced pole-sitters Dayson (Yannick Gingras, $2.60) and Dante (Ake Svanstedt, $2.80) delivered in New York Sires Stakes action for male sophomore trotters Thursday (July 14) at Yonkers Raceway.

Dayson, racing in a money start for the first time since adding trotting hobbles, allowed Smalltownthrowdown (Dan Daley) the initial lead in the opening ($80,937) division. Dayson then retook right before a :29.4 opening quarter-mile, with none of his five rivals electing to press the issue. After a :59.2 intermission and 1:27.3 intermission, Smalltownthrowdown pulled an early pocket in the final turn. Dayson met that challenge and widened, open to 2½ lengths in 1:56.1. Royson (Jim Marohn Jr.) skimmed the cones to grab second, with “Throwndown” third.

For Dayson, a Conway Hall–Nervey’s Taurus gelding co-owned (as Burke Racing) by (trainer) Ron Burke, Our Horse Cents and J&T Silva Stables and Rossi Smith, it was his fifth win in eight seasonal starts. The exacta paid $15.20, with the triple returning $35.40.

“It was nice and easy,” Gingras said. “The straps definitely helped him keep his mind on business.”

As for Dante in the $82,437 second division, he was content to sit pocketed to uncoupled stablemate The Royal Harry (Mark MacDonald) though intervals of :28, :58.2 and 1:28.1.

That one had a length-and-a-quarter lead entering the lane, but Dante edged out and edged by. He beat his barn neighbor by a length in 1:57.2, with Credevie (George Brennan) third.

For Dante, a son of Credit Winner–Michelle’s Angel trained by his driver for owner Courant A B, he’s four-for-six this season. The exacta paid $7.60, with the triple returning $105.50.

“He doesn’t pull as much as he did (at 2),” Svanstedt said. “He’s a better horse to drive now.”

Pure Country dominates PASS

Pure Country dominated her six-filly $79,880 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes division Thursday afternoon (July 14) at Harrah’s Philadelphia, romping to a 1:51.1 victory over I Said Diamonds in 1:51.1.

Driver Brett Miller drove the homebred daughter of Somebeachsomewhere–Western Montana to victory for trainer Jimmy Takter and owner Diamond Creek Racing of Wellsville, PA.

Pure Country improved her record to 5-1-2 in eight starts this year. She is now 15-1-2 in 18 starts lifetime with earnings exceeding $1.2 million.

Newborn Sassy won the second PASS division for sophomore pacing fillies, taking her $80,280 test in 1:51.4 with Tim Tetrack at the helm.

Newborn Sassy, a daughter of Western Ideal–Sass Newton, went off at 9-2 and upset 2-5 top choice Call Me Queen Be, who were a half-length back in second. Princess Fabulosa was third.

It was the second win of the year in nine starts for Newborn Sassy, who is trained by Jo Ann Looney-King, who co-owns the filly with CC Racing (Ray Kusinski). Newborn Sassy has lifetime earnings of $341,625.

Summer Mixed catalogue now available

The main catalogue and past performances booklet for the Meadowlands Summer Mixed Sale is now available for download on the Tattersalls Sales Co. website, tattersallsredmile.com, and on the EquineLine Sales Catalog App for the iPad.

The print catalogue will be mailed later this week, and also priority shipped to racetracks and training centers in both the U.S. and Canada. Sale manager David Reid said that with the current postal situation in Canada, buyers there are asked to use the website or EquineLine app for download, or pick up the print versions wherever they train and race.

The sale is the kickoff to Hambletonian week at the Meadowlands, as it will be held Sunday, July 31 at noon, in the racetrack’s back paddock. There are 149 horses in the sale, including 49 2-year-olds, plus an expected supplement.

“We have racehorse reductions from large operations that are planning for the fall yearling sales, and offering high-quality horses that are ready to go on and be profitable for their new owners,” Reid said.

“I believe I’ve seen more of that ‘continued success’ from horses bought at our recent Meadowlands sales than I ever have before.”

The sale includes reductions from Jules Siegel’s Fashion Farms, Burke Racing and partners, and Tony Alagna and partners.

Reid urges customers to take a good look at the significant number of 2-year-olds in the sale, as there are several stakes colts and fillies that will be offered.

“Like we always say, there’s something for everyone at these Meadowlands sales, and buyers will find horses with outstanding earning potential for wherever they race,” he said.

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.
3. Write more letters. One of the most popular features of HRU is Sunday's Feedback section. We want to hear from you!

THANKS
new HRU Team!
