Walner will not contest Hambletonian

Minor injury has knocked the pre-season favorite out of next Saturday's big race.

by the Hambletonian Society and harnessracing.com

Dan Patch Award winner Walner will not race in the upcoming Hambletonian Stakes because of a minor injury, trainer Linda Toscano said Thursday, five days before entries are due for the sport's premier event for 3-year-old trotters at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

Toscano said the injury was not career threatening, but there was no timetable for Walner's return.

"It's tough," Toscano told Harnessracing.com (full story here) "He came out of the last race and he had a little filling in his right front leg. We watched it and treated it for a few days and it looked great. We jogged him every day and he's been 100 per cent sound on it... but I trained him a couple trips and it was little bigger. The bottom line is that if (the Hambletonian) was a one-heat race we might have chanced it, but it's a two-heat race. We got together as a whole and we don't want to take a chance and risk him. He's too special to us. We don't want to see him hurt himself. He's sound and his future is still there."

Although the entry box for the Hambletonian doesn't close until Tuesday (Aug. 1), Toscano felt it necessary to first inform Hambletonian Society president John Campbell and then the rest of the industry.

"We wanted to make the announcement earlier as opposed to later as we understand how important this day is to the industry," said Toscano, who won the 2012 Hambletonian with Market Share. "We thought perhaps he might scare people away and we don't want to do anything to take away from the festivities of the day. We wanted to give everybody ample time to race if they want to. Just because we're not going to be there we still think the show should go on."

Walner was unbeaten in two races this year. In his most recent start, Walner won a division of the Stanley Dancer

Pre-season Hambletonian favorite Walner has suffered a minor injury and will miss the big race.

Memorial in a stakes-record 1:50.2 at the Meadowlands on July 15. The victory pushed his win streak to seven races dating back to September, with all of the wins by a minimum of three lengths.

For his career, the colt has won nine of 10 starts and earned $567,652 for owner Ken Jacobs. Tim Tetrick has driven Walner in all his races.

“We have to do what is best for the horse,” Toscano said. “He’s special. I can’t do anything that might hurt him. I can’t take a chance. We talked about it and collectively made the decision. It is what it is.”

Entries for the Hambletonian (open) are due by 9 a.m. Tuesday (Aug. 1), at the Meadowlands Race Office (877-782-2537 or Canada 201-460-4000.)

The post position draw for the Hambletonian and the Hambletonian Oaks will be digital streaming only at 2 p.m. Tuesday on the Meadowlands Facebook page and YouTube channel.

Incredible Propulsion

Fourth in the Prix d'Amérique and second in the Elitloppet, on Tuesday night it was time for an incredible performance from Propulsion – a 1:49.2 record for a 5/8ths mile track in Europe.

by Thomas Hedlund

Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro racetrack in Malmö, Sweden, is one of the most prestigious races for the elite in Europe and over the mile, this year's edition saw many good horses behind the starting car.

In post position one, Propulsion started as favorite and much of the talk before the race was about how and if the son of Muscle Hill should take the lead.

Propulsion (Muscle Hill–Danae) had no chance to protect the lead and it was Twister Bi (recently winner in two big races in Norway) who surprisingly was the quickest behind the gate. The driver of Twister Bi, Christoffer Eriksson, got company on the outside by Dante Boko and Adrian Kolgjini and Propulsion was served a trip second outside by Örjan Kihlström.

The fractions were quick and Propulsion had to do his best to keep going in the back of Dante Boko, but when Örjan Kihlström left for three-wide Propulsion, the horse picked up the hunt for the leader. In the home stretch, Propulsion had done the job and when he crossed the finish line, he did it in the best time ever on a 5/8th of a mile track in Europe: 1:49.2!

“So much is circulating in my head right now. The last two weeks have been tough with the history of Delicious and everything. It feels like Propulsion is lifting her up right now”, trainer Daniel Redén said after the race, referring to the premature retirement of star mare Delicious due to stomach problems (full story here).

“I’m so grateful over my horses, my staff and every person around me in this moment. To win this race one time is so big and I would like to give this feeling to everyone in the business. Now we've done this twice, with the same horse and it's like a dream," Redén said.

Driver Kihlström was more than impressed by the horse. "Daniel told me that the horse was in his best shape ever and that we could go for a real good performance. He was right, as usual, and Propulsion is just a champion, a really good and strong horse", Kihlström said.

Jerry Riordan trained horses Ringostarr Treb and Twister Bi took second and third place in the race, respectively.

Special HRU print edition to celebrate Campbell's final drive

Harness Racing Update (HRU) is proud to celebrate the final drive of John Campbell's career with a special 52-page print edition that will be distributed to fans on Sunday (July 30) at Legends Day at Clinton Raceway. The issue will also be distributed digitally Sunday morning to HRU subscribers separate from a regular Sunday edition of HRU.

With deep gratitude to our advertisers for supporting the publication of this special print edition, HRU is proud to donate $2,000 U.S. to the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation. That total represents all proceeds of the production of this issue after costs were calculated. The Clinton Public Hospital Foundation is the charity of choice for Legends Day, a popular fan event that pits active Hall of Famers against each other in the $15,000 Legends Day Trot after meeting fans and signing autographs.

The eight legends have put up some astronomical numbers. Using Standardbred Canada statistics, the legends, combined, have won nearly 69,000 races and collected purse earnings of $1.15 billion.

BETWEEN THE LINES

In Adios, sophomore pacers are reminiscent of famed rivalry

by Brett Sturman

There's been some truly great rivalries in the annals of harness racing history. Some that come to mind are Albatross and Nansemond, Silk Stockings and Tarport Hap, Cam Fella and Its Fritz, and more recently Bettor's Delight and Real Desire.

This Saturday, the rivalry of Huntsville and Fear the Dragon resumes in the 51st edition of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids at the Meadows and while these two alone don't draw comparison, just yet, to the legends previously mentioned, there are similarities to another famed rivalry when Downbytheseaside is considered into the mix.

In the year 1993, that I'll admittedly remember far more for the Philadelphia Phillies improbable run to the World Series more-so than harness racing, perhaps the best single season rivalry between three horses took place when all-time greats Presidential Ball, Life Sign and Riyadh all took turns slugging it out with one another. It was one of racing's best (if not the very best) 3-horse rivalries in the course of a single season.

That year, Presidential Ball was ultimately able to emerge as the 3-year-old pacer of the year, successfully defending the divisional honors he won the year prior at 2. In just those two seasons, Presidential Ball banked over $3 million in earnings. Looking to turn the same trick this year is Huntsville.

Presidential Ball defeated both of his arch rivals Life Sign and Riyadh in the Meadowlands Pace, and Huntsville was able to gamely win his Meadowlands Pace against nemesis Downbytheseaside. But Presidential Ball (who also won the North America Cup that year; a race in which Huntsville was second this year), was defeated at times in his battles throughout the year just as Huntsville has been so this year. It happens when racing continuously against such a high level of near equals.

Still only in July, this season's rivalry amongst the top three 3-year-olds could approach the special place that harness racing has for Presidential Ball, Life Sign and Riyadh before this year is all said and done.

To date, Huntsville won the Meadowlands Pace over Downbytheseaside, but lost to Fear The Dragon in the North America Cup. Fear The Dragon also beat Huntsville in a Pennsylvania Sire Stake race at Pocono in May. Downbytheseaside is yet to beat either of those rivals this year, although to his credit he's won the Rooney final, a North America Cup elimination and a Hempt elimination. He also bested Huntsville a single time last year when he won the Governor's Cup at Woodbine. Both Huntsville and Downbytheseaside accomplished 1:49 records as freshmen last year, and Downbytheseaside also set a new world record by winning in 1:50 over the Delaware County Fair half mile track – Fear The Dragon was a distant second in that race.

The Adios, which is to be run on Saturday, was won 24 years ago by Riyadh. In addition to the Adios, Riyadh won the first two jewels of the pacing Triple Crown that year, the Cane (over Presidential Ball) and the Messenger (over Presidential Ball again). But Riyadh was denied the Triple Crown in the Little Brown Jug by Life Sign in what would go down as one of the best harness races of all time. In that race, Life Sign overcame an impossible trip to surge past Riyadh at the wire with Presidential Ball being right there for third. That fall, Life Sign completed his year by winning the Breeders Crown at Freehold in a race not remembered in such regard as his Jug win, despite the fact he still went an almost equally tough first-over trip.

In addition to the records, similarities between the groups of horses a generation apart exist based on the conditioners behind them. Both Presidential Ball and Riyadh came from the same barn (Bill Robinson) as does two of the top three horses this year with Fear The Dragon and Downbytheseaside (Brian Brown). Interestingly enough, Life Sign picked up his win in the Little Brown Jug for trainer Gene Riegler who is an Ohio native and a win in the Jug by either Fear The Dragon or Downbytheseaside would give another Ohio native a Jug victory as that is where Brown is from. Huntsville is not nominated to the Little Brown Jug.

Since winning the North America Cup, Fear The Dragon has been atop the Hambletonian/Breeders Crown poll, but Huntsville cut into that lead and peeled away some first-place votes after winning the Meadowlands Pace. If Huntsville were to win the Adios, he might vault all the way from his current position in sixth to first.

There is still much racing between now and the rest of the year and all three of these horses are likely to rack up wins in signature races, but with conflicting schedules it's possible that we don't see all three again in the same race until the Breeders Crown at Hoosier towards the end of October – they are all staked to the event.

At that time, not only bragging rights and divisional honors could be on the line but also how history views this group of talented pacers. Just the way it was for Life Sign, Presidential Ball and Riyadh.

Hambletonian Oaks thoughts

With breaking news on Thursday that prohibitive Hambletonian favorite Walner will no longer enter the race due to injury, it suddenly opens up a new set of possibilities for the filly Ariana G. Elected to stick with fillies in the Hambletonian Oaks, Ariana G will still race on Saturday in her elimination, but depending on how she comes out if, it's possible she could still point to the open Hambletonian the following Saturday.

For purposes of this week, she comes off another solid win from two weeks ago and is likely to go off at around 1-9 or perhaps 1-5. Perhaps the real value could be trying to play against Glitzey Gal from the rail in the exotics who comes off a break in her most recent although I'm not so sure how well she was going to do regardless. Dream Baby Dream took a bold run at Ariana G in the Del Miller in her most recent and hung in there pretty well; not without a chance. Fine Tuned Lady comes off a lifetime best win and trainer Butenschoen is having a noticeably good year.

In the other Oaks elimination, Overdraft Volo closed in :26:4 last out and that was on the heels of her perfect trip to win in 1:52:2 two weeks ago on Pace night. She's in sharp form for team Miller and will be going right to the front early. Feed Your Head has really put it all together in her last couple for Takter although the price is far shorter now than it was as recent of two starts ago; another that'll be going forward early. Magic Presto was able to track right in behind Ariana G last out and will probably go off as the favorite on that basis alone. That's All Moni was flat last out but closed the week before in :26:1; go figure that.

Burke's incredible numbers now include 8,000 wins

by Bob Heyden

Trainer Ron Burke surpassed 8,000 career wins this past weekend and had 8,017 victories as of Wednesday night with lifetime earnings of $177,596,400. Both are, far and away, the most by a trainer in harness racing history.

Huntsville in rare air

Huntsville won the Meadowlands Pace and the most interesting note might be this: Only two of the last 25 freshman pacing colts of the year have come back to capture the Pace at 3 – and all three were driven by Tim Tetrick: 2012-2013 Captaintreacheraus; 2013-2014 He's Watching and 2016-2017 Huntsville.

On the trotting side, only two of the first 25 "Trotting Colts Of The Year" won the Hambletonian at the Meadowlands from 1981-2005: 1986-1987 Mack Lobell and 1996-1997 Malabar Man. With Walner officially out of the Hambletonian, that number will remain at two, for now.

Winning a major five times by 35

Thanks to Huntsville's win in the M. Pace, only Tim Tetrick has won the same major race five times by age 35.

Only John Campbell was close, winning his fifth Adios in 1994 with Cams Card Shark at age 39. Here's a look at the ages of the drivers when they won their fifth major stakes race:

- Campbell – Messenger – age 40, 1995 with Davids Pass
- Campbell – North America Cup – age 42, 1997 Gothic Dream
- Campbell – Hambletonian – age 43, 1998 Muscles Yankee
- Campbell – Meadowlands Pace – age 44, 1999 The Panderosa
- Campbell – Three Diamonds – age 44, 1999 Arts Virtue
- Campbell – Mistletoe Shalee – age 45, 2000 Arts Virtue
- Stanley Dancer – Yonkers Trot – age 45, 1972 Super Bowl
- Campbell – Governor's Cup – age 46, 2001 Western Shooter

- Campbell – Kentucky Futurity – age 46, 2001 Chasing Tail
- Ralph Baldwin – Kentucky Futurity – age 47, 1963 Speedy Scot
- Mike Lachance – William Haughton – age 49, 2000 Western Dreamer
- Campbell – Valley Victory – age 49, 2004 Diesel Don
- Campbell – Cane Pace – age 49, 2004 Dead Heat with Western Terror (Timesareachanging)
- Billy Haughton – Little Brown Jug – age 50, 1974 Armbro Omaha
- Lachance – Little Brown Jug – age 50, 2001 Bettors Delight
- Haughton – Messenger – age 50, 1974 Armbro Omaha
- Campbell – Merrie Annabelle – age 51, 2006 Gerris Joy
- David Miller – William Haughton final – age 52, 2017 Mach It So
- Joe O'Brien – Kentucky Futurity – age 56, 1973 Arnie Almahurst
- Ben White – Kentucky Futurity – age 60, 1933 Meda
- Berndt Lindstedt – Peter Haughton – age 64, 2000 Yankee Mustang

Records made to be broken

John Campbell is now going to be in a spot – like anyone who recently retired – of seeing some of his records surpassed.

Here are the two leading drivers of the 21st Century in earnings:

#1 Dave Miller $189,896,251

#2 Tim Tetrick $181,443,501

Campbell had the 20th century record of $176,466,322

David Miller's Hambo history

David Miller has only two Hambletonian elimination winners to his credit: Malabar Maple in 2003 ($22.80) and Symphonic Hanover in 2009 ($31.40).

Can he join Billy Haughton as Hall Of Famers who win their first Hambletonians after going into the Hall? Haughton went into the Hall in 1969 and broke though in the Hambletonian in a big way in 1974 with Christopher T, and then won it an amazing five times in nine years as a trainer, the first four doubling as the driver, as well.

Fear The Dragon's owner Bruce Trogdon (right with David Miller after winning the North America Cup) said he's thrilled to be contesting the Adios Saturday at The Meadows.

Bruce Trogdon's 40-year love affair with the Adios

The owner of Fear The Dragon said he is looking forward to having a top horse in the race where four decades ago he got engaged to his wife.

by Ken Weingartner / Harness Racing Communications / USTA

When a teenage Bruce Trogdon first began attending the Adios more than four decades ago, he never imagined he would someday own a horse in the race. On Saturday, he will. But even if it never happened, the Adios would always be special to him. That's because 41 years ago, Trogdon got engaged to his wife Sabrina there.

"All this, it's a pretty neat situation," said Trogdon, who will return Saturday to The Meadows with Sabrina for the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids and watch Fear The Dragon – the No. 1-ranked horse in harness racing's weekly poll – compete in the $400,000 race for 3-year-old pacers. "We're looking forward to it."

Fear The Dragon, who has won eight of nine races this year, including the North America Cup and Hempt Memorial, was raised at Trogdon's Emerald Highlands Farm in Mount Vernon, OH. The colt is a son of stallion Dragon Again out of the mare Armbr Cinnamon, who Trogdon purchased five months prior to Fear The Dragon's birth in April 2014.

Trogdon, a longtime newspaper publisher, started Emerald Highlands Farm in 1982 with 30 acres. The farm expanded gradually to 260 acres and now is home to 37 broodmares.

"I wanted to learn to do the horses myself and I basically started from scratch," said Trogdon, who bought his first horse in 1975. "I just loved the sport. I've spent a lifetime doing it. I mostly kept a few fillies every year and didn't do much racing. Now that I've gotten older, I've held on to more of the colts. Dragon was just a colt that I liked. I just got lucky. In most years, in previous years, all my colts sold. I just picked the right year to keep him."

Fear The Dragon, trained by Brian Brown, won five of 11 races last year and finished worse than third only once. His top victory came in the Elevation Stakes, but he also had a win over Dan Patch Award recipient Huntsville in a division of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes. He finished third in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship, behind Huntsville and stablemate Downbytheseaside.

This year, Fear The Dragon topped Huntsville and Downbytheseaside in the North America Cup, and also beat Huntsville in a division of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes. His only loss was a second-place finish to Miso Fast in his Hempt Memorial elimination.

“We knew last year that he was as good as these other horses,” Trogdon said. “Winning the North America Cup was big to me. It gave him a chance to show the world how good he is.”

Fear The Dragon and Huntsville both won their respective eliminations for the Adios last weekend. Fear The Dragon, who was returning from a scheduled three-week layoff, captured his division by a half-length over Western Hill in 1:50.3. Huntsville, fresh off his victory in the Meadowlands Pace, won his division by a neck over Blood Line in 1:49.3.

Huntsville, trained by Ray Schnittker and driven by Tim Tetrick, is the 9-5 morning-line favorite in the Adios final while Fear The Dragon, with David Miller in the sulky, is the 2-1 second choice.

“We knew we might go in a little short (in the elimination), and the horse was a little dull,” Trogdon said. “He wasn’t himself; he didn’t have quite as much punch as usual. By rights he should come back this week and be tighter, be good. We’re cautiously optimistic.”

“Of course we’re racing against a great horse in Huntsville. We’ve beaten him before so we’re not afraid of him, but we certainly respect him because he’s a great horse. I think Huntsville, (Downbytheseaside) and Dragon are just three superstars in the same year. I just think they’re three great horses.”

And Trogdon is just thankful to be part of the group.

“Even when I had just claimers we would drive to The Meadows, about 2-1/2 hours from where we lived in northeast Ohio at the time, and watch the races and I’ve always loved the Adios,” Trogdon said. “I just loved to see the great horses. Never did I think I might have a horse like that.”

“Dragon is a champion. It’s been quite a thrill with him.”

The Adios Day card begins at noon and includes six Grand Circuit stakes. The Adios is race 11 with post time at 4 p.m. approximately.

Burke will start two millionaires in Spirit of Massachusetts Trot

by Tim Bojarski, for Plainridge Park

Perennial Grand Circuit dash and money leading trainer Ron Burke and his "Burke Brigade" will be well represented in the $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot at Plainridge Park today (July 28) as he will start both Hannelore Hanover and Crazy Wow in the biggest harness race in the history of the state.

Hannelore Hanover won seven major stakes in 2016 including the $471,200 Hambletonian Maturity, $208,260 Armbro Flight, $188,350 Fresh Yankee, $170,000 Muscle Hill, $220,000 Centaur Trotting Classic, $200,000 TVG Free For All and the $250,000 Breeders Crown.

On the strength of winning 17 of 20 starts last year, Hannelore Hanover was named the 2016 Dan Patch Trotting Mare of the Year. In 2017 she picked up right where she left off and has won four out of five starts so far this year, including a victory in the $184,690 Armbro Flight final at Mohawk Raceway.

In her last start at the Meadowlands on July 15, Hannelore Hanover won a leg of the Miss Versatility running away under wraps by five lengths in 1:50.3 which was a new lifetime mark for her and for a week, a new track record for aged trotting mares at the Meadowlands.

Hannelore Hanover comes into this race as sharp as she could possibly be and looks to take the boys to task once again.

"Right now Hannelore Hanover is the best trotting mare in the country and until somebody dethrones her, that's just what she is. And she is as good as just about any trotter going right now. She's very consistent, she does everything you ask of her; she's just a good horse," Burke said.

"She's seen all these horses before and she always gives you a fight. It's going to be tough though; you know these are really good horses in this race. But a five-eighths mile track suits her as she set a track record (1:52.3) at Miami Valley last year. Yannick (Gingras) is trying to come and that's a big deal to me that Yannick gets there."

For her career, Hannelore Hanover has won 30 of 46 starts and has earned $1.585 million in purses.

Stablemate Crazy Wow was a NYSS champion at two before becoming a Grand Circuit star. He is a multiple major stake winner including the $500,000 Colonial Trot at Pocono Downs defeating Hambletonian winner Pinkman in 2015.

This year Crazy Wow got off to a fast start. He finished second in the $200,000 Cutler at the Meadowlands in early May before scoring three consecutive victories in the $150,000 Maxie Lee at Harrah's Philly, $200,000 Charlie Hill Memorial at Scioto Downs in a track record time of 1:52 and the $185,000 Cleveland Trotting Classic at Northfield Park. Then, after being off for three weeks, Crazy Wow qualified at the Meadowlands in 1:51.1, which tied his lifetime mark taken two years ago.

"Crazy Wow is a horse that just gets better all the time. Last year was a bit of a disappointment for us, but this year he found himself again early," said Burke. "We qualified him the other day because we couldn't find a race for him anywhere. That's a problem for horses like this; it's tough to get them raced. But right now I couldn't be happier with where he is. He gets around any size track and he can trot with any competition. He's a real nice horse."

Crazy Wow has 18 lifetime wins, a mark of 1:51.1 and earnings totaling $1.865 million.

The Burke Stable is no stranger to Plainridge Park. His trainees have won the Bert Beckwith Memorial four times in five years with Maltese Artist (1:49.2, Bruce Ranger) in 2005 while setting the all-time pacing track record with his effort, Santastic's Pan (1:51.1, Jim Morrill Jr.) in 2006, Maltese Artist (1:50.4, Greg Grismore) in 2007 and Foiled Again (1:50.3, Dave Palone) in 2009.

"Plainridge is a great track and it's awesome that they have it turned around and headed the right way. I've considered racing there full time but basically I'd have to stable there because it's too far to ship from New Jersey," said Burke.

Homecoming for Kelley and Obrigado

Meanwhile, it will be a homecoming for Kelley and Obrigado in the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot.

Obrigado is a Maine-bred and trainer Paul Kelley was raised in Massachusetts.

Kelley lived in Maine but grew up in Walpole, MA just minutes from Foxboro Park. His father Jack Kelley and Bill Bauer raced ponies together at the New England fairs over the summer each year and from there, got interested in trotters at Bay State Raceway (aka Foxboro Park). And that's how the younger Kelley got involved in the sport.

"As a kid I used to go over there on summer nights and just sit on the knocker's bench to see guys like Bucky Day, Al Langille, Bob Tisbert and a whole slew of guys that I started watching and that got me interested in the sport," said Kelley.

After getting his career started at New England tracks, Kelley has since moved his base of operation from Massachusetts to New York State near Saratoga and now races at every track on the Grand Circuit. However occasionally he has returned to his Massachusetts roots and really likes what he sees at Plainridge.

"I have raced at Plainridge intermittently over the past four or five years so I have a pretty good feel for the place and the track itself. Last year, I thought the surface was tremendous. It had a nice bounce to it and I thought it was something the horses would like so I think it is going to play out to be a great race," said Kelley. "I think they are going to go a heck of a mile over there because all the horses will like the surface."

Kelley will start his millionaire gelding Obrigado and will certainly have his share of fans in the stands rooting for them.

Obrigado is winless this year in four starts but it's certainly not from lack of effort. In the $200,000 Charlie Hill Memorial at Scioto Downs he sat in behind fast fractions set by Crazy Wow and just couldn't catch the leader coming for home and finished second by one and a half lengths.

In the $185,000 Cleveland Trotting Classic at Northfield Park, Obrigado led the whole mile and battled Resolve giving Crazy Wow the trip along the way. He then watched that one go by him in the stretch to win and tie the all-age trotting mark of 1:52.3 at Northfield. Obrigado hung on for third just one length behind.

And in his last start at Yonkers he left from post seven in a 12-horse, mile and a quarter contest and led the entire race before just getting caught at the wire by Hemi Seelster and Homicide Hunter to finish third again by a neck.

"Obrigado got started a little late so he may still be playing catch-up this year. Some of the horses he raced against may have more of a foundation under them right now, but he has raced very well and like himself in most of those starts. He came out of his last race at Yonkers in great shape and I think it's going to set him up really well for this race," said Kelley.

"I tried to shorten the season up a bit because last year it went right to the end of November and that makes it a long, drawn-out year. Plus, he's a year older so I just want to pick my spots. And the fact that this race came up on the calendar this year where it hadn't been before, made my decision easier to not start so early with him."

Barbara Livingston

The Spirit of Massachusetts Trot is a homecoming for Maine-bred Obrigado and former Massachusetts resident Paul Kelley.

Last year, Obrigado won eight starts, earned $873,300 and took a mark of 1:50.3. All that earned him the 2016 Dan Patch aged male Trotter of the Year award.

For his career, Obrigado has won 42 of 83 starts and has banked $1.7 million in purses. His lifetime mark of 1:50.3 was taken at the Meadowlands last year in the $273,600 Cashman Memorial where he defeated JL Cruze, Crazy Wow and Resolve.

"It's going to be an exciting race for the locals to see the best trotters in North America at Plainridge Park," said Kelley. "They are all just fantastic horses and they are all capable of putting forth tremendous effort. It's going to be exciting."

There will be some special promotions on tap for fans who attend the Spirit of Massachusetts day card.

Plainridge Park will be giving away inaugural edition Spirit of Massachusetts Trot baseball caps starting at 3:30 p.m. in the grandstand. They are limited to one per customer and will be available while supplies last.

Live racing fans will also have the opportunity to win tickets to the Super Bowl rematch between the New England Patriots and the Atlanta Falcons to be played at Gillette Stadium on Sunday (Oct. 22).

In order to win, customers must place losing Plainridge pari-mutuel tickets with their name and telephone number printed on the back in boxes numbered 1-9, corresponding with the nine horses in the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot. After that race, a winner will be drawn from the corresponding numbered box as the winner of the race. Only losing Plainridge tickets can be used for entry.

Post time for the first race is 4 p.m. The Spirit of Massachusetts Trot is race nine on the card and is slated to go off at 6:40 p.m.

Ariana G poised to set a few records in Oaks

The star trotting filly could become the first full sister of an Oaks winner to win the Oaks, among other records.

by Ken Weingartner / Harness Racing Communications / USTA

Award-winning Ariana G will take a step toward trying to follow in her older sister's hoof prints when she competes in Saturday's first of two eliminations of the Hambletonian Oaks at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

The Hambletonian Oaks, for 3-year-old female trotters, attracted 18 horses. The field was divided into two nine-filly eliminations, each with a purse of $40,438, and the top five finishers from each division advance to the $500,000 final Aug. 5 at the Big M.

Ariana G's full sister All The Time won last year's Hambletonian Oaks. Full sisters have never won the Hambletonian Oaks, let alone accomplished the feat in back-to-back years.

The only daughters of the same dam to win the Oaks were three-quarter sisters Marita's Victory and Passionate Glide, who did it six years apart. Marita's Victory (by stallion Valley Victory) won the 2000 Hambletonian Oaks and Passionate Glide (by Yankee Glide) won in 2006. Both were out of the mare Miss Marita.

Ariana G, who has won 13 of 16 career races and finished worse than third only once, is trained by Jimmy Takter and owned by Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. The connections considered racing Ariana G in the $1 million Hambletonian against male rivals, but opted for the Oaks.

"It was really Jimmy's decision and both of us are very supportive of the decision," Katz said. "When you consider all the factors, it's clearly the right decision. The Oaks is as prestigious a race as there is for trotting fillies. We're comfortable that she's demonstrated that she's capable of racing with the colts at this point. We'll save that discussion for perhaps another day."

Ariana G, a daughter of stallion Muscle Hill out of the mare Cantab It All, beat male rivals in an elimination of the Earl Beal Jr. Memorial and finished third from post eight in the final on July 1 for her only setback in five starts this season. She heads to her Hambletonian Oaks elimination off a 1:51.4 win in her division of the Delvin Miller Memorial for 3-year-old female trotters on July 15 at the Meadowlands.

She is the fastest 3-year-old female trotter this season, with a mark of 1:51.1, and second-fastest 3-year-old trotter overall, behind only colt Walner at 1:50.2.

Ariana G's Oaks elimination also includes Glitzey Gal, Ice Attraction, Dream Together, Fine Tuned Lady, Dream Baby Dream, Treviso, Cool Cates, and Sunshine Delight. Glitzey Gal is the second-fastest 3-year-old female trotter of the season, with a mark of 1:51.2, while Fine Tuned Lady and Dream

Baby Dream also are among the top eight. Treviso is unbeaten in five races this year, all on the Pennsylvania circuit.

The second elimination includes Ontario standout Magic Presto, Miller Memorial division winner Overdraft Volo and Tompkins-Geers Stakes winner Feed Your Head. The remainder of the field is Hillarmbro, Thats All Moni, Southwind Avanti, Caviart Wonder, Broadway Idole, and Evelyn.

"The Oaks is a great race, a great venue, and it deserves all the acclaim it should get," Katz said. "The winners of that race are a who's who of trotting fillies. There's a tremendous amount of luster to it all. We're looking forward to it."

Takter, who trains Thats All Moni and Feed Your Head in addition to Ariana G, shares the record of six Hambletonian Oaks training wins with Jan Johnson and has won the last three editions of the race. Katz and Libfeld, who bred Ariana G, have three Hambletonian Oaks trophies, one shy of the owner record held by Castleton Farm.

Yannick Gingras, who drives Ariana G, has teamed with Takter on the three most recent Oaks victories. Gingras is tied with Glen Garnsey and Ron Pierce for the second-most wins in the event, trailing only Berndt Lindstedt's four.

Elimination winners draw for inside posts 1-5. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw. Post positions for the $500,000 final will be drawn and morning lines assigned on Tuesday, Aug. 1, during a Facebook live event at 2 p.m. on the Meadowlands Facebook page. The draw will be streamed live on the Meadowlands website.

New York suspends trainer Michael Sinclair two years for alleged cruelty

In a follow-up to a story HRU published on June 24 (full edition here): the New York State Gaming Commission (NYSGC) has suspended harness trainer Michael J. Sinclair, 47, of Sayre, PA, two years for cruelty to his trainee Sharp As A Tack on June 10 at Tioga Downs.

In a notice released on June 16, the NYSGC alleged that while training Sharp As A Tack – a two-year-old Credit Winner filly out of Smarter Than Smart – Sinclair “cruelly mistreated the horse by using brutal and excessive force, unjustifiably whipping the horse, overworking the horse in a difficult environment (heat and humidity) and knowingly and intentionally causing the horse to become physically injured, exhausted, overwrought and frightened” in violation of a number of state rules.

The notice further alleged Sinclair “knew that the horse was prone to becoming easily frightened and unmanageable” and his alleged “behavior created an unreasonable and unnecessary risk the horse would panic and become uncontrollable.

“Upon returning from such training on the track the horse became violent and uncontrollable, sustained physical injuries, damaged the barn, endangered itself and persons in the vicinity and was humanely euthanized.”

The notice said Sinclair’s “participation in pari-mutuel racing is inconsistent with the public interest... and with the best interests of racing generally” and concluded that Sinclair “should be excluded from all New York race tracks whether as a licensee, participant or patron.”

The trainer has career earnings of more than $4.3 million with a record of 623-701-625 in 4,746 starts.

Funknwaffles sets Saratoga track record

After HRU went to press last Saturday night (July 22), Funknwaffles (American Ideal–Hatsoff Hanover) set a 1:50.4 track record for three-year-old pacers with a victory in a New York Sire Stakes event. Corey Callahan drove Funknwaffles to victories for trainer John Butenshoen and Crawford Farms Racing of Syracuse, NY.

The mile was a career best for Funknwaffles, who sports a record of 3-1-2 in seven starts this year and earnings of $222,699. Lifetime, Funknwaffles has earned $479,983 with 11 wins in 16 starts.

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.
3. Write more letters. One of the most popular features of HRU is Sunday's Feedback section. We want to hear from you!

THANKS
from the new HRU Team!
