Family First

Two great Canadian harness racing families teamed up to post an emotional victory when Marion Marauder won the 91st Hambletonian and completed the mission started by Hall of Famer Bill Wellwood.

story by Dave Briggs, photos by Dave Landry

Paula Wellwood was euphoric to finally win the Hambletonian and do it with (from left) driver Scott Zeron, her mother Jean, son Devin and husband, Mike Keeling.

She waited patiently through the many presentations, but when it finally was her turn, Paula Wellwood was anything but her usual quiet, reserved self. Raising the Hambletonian trophy over her head, sweet euphoria swept over her face and spilled out of her for all to see.

Just a few minutes after Marion Marauder stuck a couple of nose hairs in front of favored Southwind Frank to win the $1 million Hambletonian Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6) at the Meadowlands, Wellwood, who cares for the colt and shares his training duties with her husband, Mike Keeling, was undergoing a complete transformation in the winner's circle.

It did not go unnoticed by the couple's 19-year-old son, Devin Keeling, who owns Marion Marauder with his grandmother, Jean Wellwood, the widow of U.S. and Canadian Hall of Famer Bill Wellwood.

"I've seen (my parents) win big races their whole lives and be happy, but I've never seen the look in my mom's eyes that she had when she picked that trophy up," Devin said. "She's been chasing it since she was a child, my grandpa was chasing it, and just the look in her eyes, was almost like my grandpa radiating through her. It wasn't just happiness, it was eternal bliss. It was just completeness," Devin said.

Marion Marauder defeated favorite Southwind Frank by the narrowest of margins in both their elimination and the $1 million final.

Asked about it later, Paula said the magnitude of the moment, "was finally sinking in. I was speechless through the whole race. I couldn't even cheer."

Nearby, Jean was crying. Bill Wellwood died in 2003 without realizing a dream to win the Hambletonian, despite a number of attempts.

"We've tried a lot times. We really have tried, and this one's for William. I've got tears," Jean said, pointing to the sunglasses hiding her red eyes. "We finally got it done and you have no idea how happy I am because it's been a long time coming. My daughter is an excellent horselady and Mike trains and they both are a good team and they really work well together."

Meanwhile, 27-year-old driver Scott Zeron was kicking himself for not being emotional enough, but said it had more to do with not knowing whether he had won or just missed.

"I thought, 'Oh my God, did I win?' I wish I knew I won, because I would've been a bit more excited and could have celebrated," Zeron said. "I looked and (Southwind Frank's driver) Yannick (Gingras) said, 'Hey, congratulations,' but some of us drivers will do that just to tilt it over, like 'Oh yeah, you got it, you got it' and then when it comes around you'll be disappointed. So it was a long wait, but then I saw all my connections jumping up and then it hit me."

Zeron is the eighth driver in the Hambletonian's 91-year history to win the race in his first attempt. Paula Wellwood joined Linda Toscano as the only women to train a Hambletonian champion.

It was Jean that first zeroed in on Marion Marauder in the 2014 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale catalog while watching the sale on her laptop. She liked the pedigree (Muscle Hill out of Spellbound Hanover) and asked Paula to check out the trotter originally named Marion Monopoly. The colt was a little small, but Jean asked Paula to buy the colt anyway if the price was right, and it was at $37,000.

The family renamed the trotter Marion Marauder, "because Devin is going to McMaster University (in Hamilton, ON) and he's a football player on the Marauders," Mike said. "Jean's name is Marion Jean Wellwood. It just kind of lined up."

The victory improved Marion Marauder to 7-5-3 in 20 career starts and pushed his earnings over $1 million lifetime. Marion Marauder won the final in 1:51.4, just one-fifth of a second slower than he won his elimination four races earlier with a career-best 1:51.3 performance that was a half-length better than Southwind Frank.

Scott Zeron gave thanks to Marion Marauder after the driver won the Hambletonian in his first attempt.

But that elimination victory was anything but easy or pretty. Marion Marauder had traffic trouble early, leaving Paula wondering just where her colt was in the mile as she watched from the paddock.

"The TV wasn't on when they were going behind the gate. So then I tried to watch the first heat out on the tarmac and he wasn't getting called. I couldn't see him. So I ran in and I saw Mike standing at the TV and I said, 'Where is he?!? Oh my God, what's happening?'"

"It was kind of a crazy trip, but he showed the kind of horse he is," Mike said. "I don't think it's a trip that either one of us envisioned, but that's horse racing and you take what you get and you hope you've got the horse to do it."

Bar Hopping handily won the first Hambletonian elimination by five-and-a-quarter lengths in 1:51.4 for trainer Jimmy Takter, driver Tim Tetrick and owners Christina Takter of New Jersey, Hatfield Stables of Columbus, OH, Marv Katz of Toronto and Al Libfeld of Pickering, ON.

In the final, Zeron said he "didn't want to push my horse out of his comfort zone. I'd love to just push to the front and try to sit two-hole to Bar Hopping or Frank, but it wouldn't have been that easy. So I elected to take back and I inevitably knew he'd be first up, but this horse is a grinder. He gradually picks up his speed throughout the race, so I was confident that first up wouldn't hurt him as long as it didn't turn into a third-quarter sprint. And it didn't. Bar Hopping was a little vulnerable when I got up to him, and I decided to pull the trigger and just try to sprint away on the field. God, he delivered.

"When I got closer to Bar Hopping I saw that Timmy was weakening. My horse started grabbing on, grabbing on so I couldn't help myself and I just let him go early. I let him go too early, which is why we only won by a nostril, but by the same token, he fought all the way down the lane."

Zeron, the son of successful Woodbine circuit trainer/driver Rick Zeron, had his mother, Joyce, in the winner's circle, but Rick was at home in Oakville, ON, just as he was in 2012 when Scott also won the Little Brown Jug in his first attempt, driving Michaels Power to victory.

Earlier Saturday, Scott drove his father's pacer Shamballa to an upset victory in the U.S. Pacing Championship over the Big Three of Always B Miki, Wiggle It Jiggleit and Freaky Feet Pete.

"For sure, (dad) was crying and he's going to say he's proud of me. The last thing he'll talk about is (Shamballa). We have a great relationship and I wish he was here for that race and as well for the Hambo, but I know he's crying back home," Scott said.

Sure enough, Rick said "the waterworks started" when Marion Marauder hit the wire a nose hair in front of Southwind Frank in the Hambletonian final. "It's a big day. I was really happy with him winning with Shamballa, but I was more happy with him winning the Hambletonian."

Scott, the leading driver at the Meadowlands, said he hopes winning the Hambletonian will be a further boost to his career. His parents couldn't be prouder.

Joyce said she is "so excited and so proud of (Scott). I missed the PEI Gold Cup and Saucer the first time he won that. I wasn't supposed to be at the Jug, but I had a feeling he was going to win so I went and he won. This time, I wasn't supposed to come... but I had a feeling he was going to win, so I said 'I've got to go'. And I'm so happy that I did come and I'm so proud of him and grateful to the owners for believing in him and the connections."

The driver said he was mostly thrilled for Paula and Mike, "because they have developed trotters their whole lives. They've been in this race, finished third. It's their end-all, be-all race. And for me it's the first time I've been in it. I haven't lost it 20 times or anything, but at the same time, I got it out of the way early and I don't know where I go from here."

Scott Zeron may have a knack for winning big races the first time out, but before this year's race, Mike Keeling still was feeling the heartburn of Keystone Ludwig making a break in 1992 while poised to post a Hambletonian victory.

"He was my horse. I took care of him. He was a big, beautiful horse. He was circling them around the last turn (in his heat) and he threw a shoe. It was back in the days of leather rim pads and the leather rim pad in the hot weather, the nails didn't stay the way they should have and the shoe came flying off and I was heartbroken... Ron Waples was driving him and he said, 'I had so much horse.' He just blew up off the last turn."

Twenty-four years on, Mike said Marion Marauder makes up for that day. Not that he had many doubts. He knew his family finally had karma on its side.

"I do believe in that," Mike said. "You put good out into the world and sometimes good comes back... and we work hard, you know."

"He drew the four-hole, that's my favorite number, and it was the 13th race. Thirteen is a very lucky number for us. (Devin) was born on (March) 13th."

Then, as if he was verbally pinching himself, Mike grinned. "I just won the Hambletonian," he said, laughing. "Not many people get to say that."

Especially not that many Canadians can say they have won a Hambletonian in its 91 years. Mike said it helped to have many Canadians cheering for them.

"The good will from everybody at home, it wasn't fake, it was 'We really want you guys to go down there and win that.' We slayed some dragons today, too."

Paula and Mike have a 12-horse stable in Cambridge, ON.

"I'm hoping that it brings a little bit of recognition for everybody to keep the hope and to keep involved. You can have the big dream. I hope people see that you can dream the dream and it can happen," Paula said.

"It sends a message that it's not just the big boys that win all the races," Rick said. "The little people can win them, too."

Devin Keeling, who is entering his second year of university, said he hopes some of the money will help him pay for his education, but "it's not about the money anymore, it's about so much more than money," especially for his grandmother.

"I think it's like an out-of-body experience for her," Devin said of watching Jean light up the winner's circle. "I remember talking to her last night about all the other chances we've had and how hard my grandpa worked at this and how he was devastated with the losses or even happy, but still not complete without the wins. I'm just so happy for her and I can only imagine what she's feeling."

What does it mean to have the Wellwood/Keeling names on the famed trophy?

"It means a lot. It means the world, especially when you train trotters and that's all we train," Paula said.

Not far away, her mother was swinging between elation and sadness as she dedicated the Hambletonian to her husband.

"I couldn't help but think about William today," Jean said, crying.

Devin said winning the Hambletonian was as much about unfinished business, as anything.

"When (grandpa) didn't accomplish it then my mom basically took it upon her shoulders, and my grandma as well when he passed," Devin said. "It's that internal drive. It's not something that we wanted to do, it's something that we had to do."

Mike, the man who believes in karma, said he was struck with a strange, peaceful feeling all day.

"I just knew we had the right horse and it was out of my control at that point," Mike said.

Divine intervention, perhaps?

"I'm sure he was the one that gave him that last push," Paula said of her late father, adding that if William Wellwood was alive he likely would have been, "a little quiet at first, but then he would have had lots to say, you know that."

Then Paula smiled — not as sweetly as when she radiated pure bliss picking up the trophy, but enough to suggest the family's long journey was finally complete.

Big day for Canada

Canadians have traditionally done well on the Hambletonian Day card, but this year may go down as one of Canada's best performances.

Topped by the all-Canadian crew winning the $1 million Hambletonian with Marian Marauder, Canadian-connected horses won six of the 11 stakes on the card.

The $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks winner All The Time is a homebred owned by Marv Katz and Al Libfeld of Toronto. The pair also teamed up to win the $306,500 Jim Doherty Memorial with All The Time's two-year-old full-sister Ariana G.

Cane Pace winner Control The Moment has Canadians among his ownership, including trainer Brad Maxwell.

The Canadian father-son team of Rick and Scott Zeron teamed up to post the upset in the $225,550 U.S. Pacing Championship with Shamballa.

Finally, the $235,950 Lady Liberty was won by Canadian-connected Lady Shadow.

Oaks Three-Peat

Jimmy Takter and Yannick Gingras teamed up for their third straight Hambletonian Oaks triumph while delivering a third career Oaks win for owner/breeders Marv Katz and Al Libfeld.

by Lou Monaco and Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

All The Best (Yannick Gingras) winning the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks

Creamy Mimi (2008) and Fern (1998).

"Fantastic job by Jimmy Takter," Katz said. "(All The Time) had some bumps along the way. She was great training down and started off the season great. She won the Breeders Crown last year and, obviously, is tremendously talented. We're just thrilled."

Yannick Gingras rallied in the stretch with All The Time in 1:52.1 to win by three-and-three-quarter lengths over Caprice Hill to win the $500,000 event.

It was the third straight victory for both Takter and Gingras who teamed up to win the Oaks in 2015 with Wild Honey and in 2014 with Lifetime Pursuit.

Takter now has six victories overall in the Hambletonian's sister event.

"I was hoping to follow Brian Sears (with Windowshopper), I thought his filly was one of the fillies to beat, and they had a little bobble on the backstretch," said Gingras. "She felt so strong and she was able to catch the gap really quickly. I was just hoping not to be first up around the last turn. I figured John (Campbell) would come (with Celebrity Eventsy) and when he did it, it made my job really easy."

Takter said All The Time "was really sharp today. She had a good week and the timing had to be perfect. I know I had a ticket that was very strong with a couple of good fillies. We pulled the front shoes on her, which I think might have kicked her up a little bit. It was the first time she ever did that. There were three horses in the race that I had tremendous respect for. We were the lucky ones."

Marv Katz said he was "just speechless" after All The Time, the homebred filly he shares with fellow Canadian Al Libfeld, won them their third Hambletonian Oaks title to go with ones won by Tetrick had Caprice Hill on the lead at the top of the stretch, but Gingras had another gear and was able to cruise to the finish line as All The Time (Muscle Hill—Cantab It All) improved to 11-for-19 all-time, snapping a two-race losing streak.

"It's special," said Libfeld. "We're into trotting broodmares and she's going to be at the top of the food chain for, hopefully, another couple of generations."

As proven by the fact her full-sister, Ariana G won the $306,500 Jim Doherty Memorial final for two-year-old fillies earlier in the card.

"You can't diminish the fact that the sister won the Doherty earlier today as well," Katz said. "It's just a fantastic family, two filly sisters that you could build a breeding operation off of. We've got others we are very proud of, as well."

Dave Landry

Gingras and trainer Jimmy Takter teamed up for their third straight Oaks title and Takter's sixth lifetime.

Shamballa upsets the Big Three

Rick Zeron's Canadian import pulls off a big upset in the U.S. Pacing Championship

by Ken Weingartner

Dave Landry

Scott Zeron pulled off the upset driving his father's pacer Shamballa to a 1:47.1 victory in the U.S. Pacing Championship.

With the focus on harness racing's "Big Three," Shamballa proved to be the one in Saturday's (Aug. 6) $225,550 U.S. Pacing Championship for older pacers at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

Shamballa, sent off at odds of 8-1, upset Wiggle It Jiggleit by one length in a career-best 1:47.1, with Dealt A Winner third and favorite Always B Miki fourth.

Scott Zeron drove Shamballa for trainer Rick Zeron, his father, and owners Rick Zeron Stables, TAO Racing, Howard Taylor, and Cool Cat Racing.

Wiggle It Jiggleit, the 2015 Horse of the Year, went to the front from post six and hit the opening quarter in :27.2. Always B Miki challenged Wiggle It Jiggleit and the two engaged in a brief duel before Always B Miki wrestled the lead at the half, reached in :53.3.

Freaky Feet Pete -- who with fellow world champions Wiggle It Jiggleit and Always B Miki has made up the "Big Three" this season -- launched a first-over bid and the group hit three-quarters in 1:20.3. Freaky Feet Pete looked to grab the lead in the stretch, but Shamballa and Zeron were rolling on the outside.

Shamballa reached the front and then held off a late bid from Wiggle It Jiggleit, who split horses to get up for second.

"A second-over trip made all the difference," Zeron said. "My dad always told me if you can keep him covered up, he'll move his little legs as fast as he can all the way down the stretch, and he did just that.

"At the three-quarter pole I was thinking, 'I couldn't possibly be in a better spot, I just hope this horse isn't sick today.'"

Shamballa, a six-year-old son of Somebeachsomewhere--Bolero Takara, has won 23 of 53 career races and earned $683,133. The gelding has won three of nine races this season.

Hambletonian Day Moment

Control The Moment handily won the Cane Pace off a three-week layoff.

by Ken Weingartner

Control The Moment won the first jewel in Pacing's Triple Crown, capturing Saturday's $320,000 Cane Pace for three-year-old pacers by one length over Manhattan Beach at the Meadowlands. JK Will Power was third, nosing out filly Pure Country for the show spot.

The race featured a field of 11 horses and was contested at 1-1/8 miles. The time was 2:02.4.

Control The Moment was sixth in the early part of the race, which saw Big Top Hanover lead to the first quarter in :25.4 before JK Will Power took the front and guided the field to the half in :54.2.

From there, JK Will Power and Manny engaged in a battle for the top spot, hitting three-quarters in 1:21.4. But Control The Moment made a big move on the final turn and took control for the victory. The time to the mile was 1:49.

Pure Country, who was trying to join Countess Adios as the only filly to win the Cane Pace, started the race from the trailing position and was eighth through the first half of the race.

Control The Moment, who was racing for the first time since winning the Meadowlands Pace on June 16, was driven by Brian Sears for trainer Brad Maxwell. The colt has won four of eight races this season and 12 of 17 in his career.

"He hadn't raced in a couple weeks and they were racing aggressive enough early in the race," winning driver Brian Sears said. "He was a little keyed up when he came third over, I had him three deep a little earlier than I wanted, but he's a really nice horse and paced right to the wire."

Asked about the extra eighth of a mile, Sears said, "With the time off, he probably wasn't super tight but he was really fresh, anyway."

Maxwell said he wasn't worried about the layoff.

"Last year I didn't train him at all and he won eight in a row. I didn't think (the layoff) would hurt him," Maxwell said.

Control The Moment, a son of Well Said—Life'sliltreasure, is owned by the Control The Moment Stable. He has earned $1.02 million lifetime.

Dave Landry

Control The Moment (Brian Sears) winning the Cane Pace.

Part-owned David Heffering of Tara Hills Stud in Port Perry, ON said winning on Hambletonian Day was likely good for Control The Moment's visibility and future stallion career wherever the horse ends up standing.

"I think it's a great day. Everyone from the industry is here and they get to see a great horse do something great. And it's the first leg of the Triple Crown," Heffering said.

The rest of the Big M stakes

by Dave Little

All-source wagering on the Hambletonian Day program at the Meadowlands totaled $5,656,698.

What The Hill emerged late on the scene from off the pace and now assumes the role of early Hambletonian favorite for 2017 after winning the Peter Haughton Memorial for two-year-old colt and gelding trotters for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke. The Muscle Hill—K T Cha Cha colt paid $18.60 and trotted the mile in 1:54.4.

Here's a quick look at the balance of the major races on the card, with winner, driver, trainer, win price and time:

Shady Daisy (three-year-old pacing fillies): Darlinonthebeach, David Miller, Nancy Johansson, $4.80, 1:49.1

Fresh Yankee (free-for-all trotting mares): Hannelore Hanover, Gingras, Burke, $2.20, 2:05 (1 1/8 miles)

Jim Doherty Memorial (two-year-old trotting fillies): Ariana G, Gingras, Takter, $3.20, 1:53.1

John Cashman Memorial (free-for-all trotters): Resolve, Ake Svanstedt (driver/trainer), $4.40, 1:50.2

Lady Liberty (free-for-all mare pacers): Lady Shadow, Gingras, Ronald Adams, $3.80, 2:03 (1 1/8 miles)

Racing resumes at the Big M on Sept. 9.

Gurfein's final word

by Ron Gurfein

It's nice to be right, but don't think for a minute I am going to start a new career handicapping. If you didn't read my pre-Hambletonian article I said that Marion Marauder would be the champ and Southwind Frank would push him to the utmost. Pretty good for an amateur.

However, it may not have been like that. A funny thing happened to me on the way to the typewriter. I texted Casie Coleman for Paula Wellwood's cell phone number. Coleman replied she didn't have it. Now if I did get it and I spoke to Paula as laid back and humble as she is I may not have felt so strong about my opinion.

Congratulations to the Wellwoods and young Scott Zeron for a fabulous performance. You have a wonderful horse and prepared him perfectly for a very difficult race.

To the Burkes and Jerry Silva and the rest of the Southwind Frank team it was a very tough loss. But he is a very good horse and will give you all much pleasure in the months or years to come.

There are two other horses that deserve mention. Young trainer Andrew Harris did a very good job with Weightlifter K in his first attempt at Hambletonian glory, not to mention the top driving performance by Matt Kakaley. Sutton and Andy Miller also put in a very good race.

It's a shame that the World Trotting Derby isn't around the corner now we must wait till the Kentucky Futurity for the rematch at The Red Mile it's must see show this year.

Preferred Equine grads have banner Hambletonian Day

The Preferred Equine Marketing team said it was extremely pleased with the efforts of many sales grads on the Hambletonian Day Card at the Meadowlands.

Starting with the $294,000 Peter Haughton, What The Hill won by open length for Team Burke and driver Dave Miller in 1:54.4. Bred and raised by longtime clients Stan and Tim Klemencic, this Preferred Equine sales grad by leading sire Muscle Hill sold at the Lexington Selected Sale for $65,000. Additionally, the Moni Marker-bred Rubio and Lexington Sales grad finished a game third after being parked the mile.

Next up, Resolve captured the $ 273,000 John Cashman Memorial in 1:50.2 to continue his impressive resume. Bred by Michael Pozefsky and Edward Wilson and owned by Hans Enggren, he was sold as a yearling by PEM.

Preferred Equine grads finished 1-2 as Marion Marauder edged out Southwind Frank to capture the $1 million final of the 91st Hambletonian in 1:51.1. Bred by longtime owner / breeder William Milligan, Marion Marauder was purchased by Jean and Devin Wellwood from the Lexington Selected consignment. Runner up Southwind Frank, racing for the Southwind Frank Partners put in a game effort to just miss in the classic final. Bred and raised by Southwind Farms, he to is a graduate of the PEM Lexington consignment.

Preferred Equine's Dave Reid said he was more than pleased with the day's results.

"We are proud to represent some of the finest breeders in the sport and are equally proud to see such results for the purchasers of these fine equine stars," Reid said. "Mrs. Wellwood has been a longtime friend and client of ours and to see her accomplish a dream like today along with her grandson Devin, Paula and Mike makes it even more special. She is one classy lady and I am ecstatic to see her win this historic race."

Earlier in the card, White Birch Farms Darlinonthebeach was victorious win the Shady Daisy in 1:49.1. The nursery will be offering a full brother to this exceptional filly this fall in Lexington.

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

- 1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
- 2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.
- 3. Write more letters. One of the most popular features of HRU is Sunday's Feedback section. We want to hear from you!

THANKS from the new HRU Team!
