Tension heats up over NJ casino issue

Jeff Gural responds to accusation that he reneged on a promise to thoroughbred horsepeople to give them a 10 per cent cut of revenue if a casino comes to the Meadowlands.

by Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

The Meadowlands was busy on Hambletonian Day, but owner Jeff Gural said the track faces a bleak future without a casino.

Meadowlands Racetrack chairman Jeff Gural said Thursday that he is “really shocked” that (Monmouth Park) advisor Dennis Drazin “came out and tried to make me look bad” this week.

In an Asbury Park Press story by Stephen Edelson published Thursday, Drazin was quoted as saying Gural has reneged on an alleged promise on casino revenue to be directed to purses should New Jersey voters authorize casinos in the north of the state and the Meadowlands is selected as a site for one of the casinos.

“Gural looked for our support to get all the votes from the Monmouth and Ocean county legislators to get the referendum on the ballot,” Drazin said. “He promised us he would insure that we would get at least 10 per cent by making up the difference between the two per cent (currently allocated to go to purses) and 10 per cent out of his end if he had to, which would be $80 to $100 million, to be split between thoroughbreds and standardbreds. And no sooner did the referendum get passed did he renege on that promise. And now he is trying to solicit our support from the referendum and he basically has refused to discuss giving any type of guarantee to Monmouth Park.”

When contacted by Harness Racing Update Thursday afternoon, Gural said he didn’t make a specific commitment to either the thoroughbred or standardbred horsepeople on casino revenue sharing because he does not know, exactly, how much is even possible. “I don’t know what the tax rate is, I don’t know who my partner is going to be,” he said.

Gural said he did not understand Drazin’s strategy.

“I don’t see how he’s better off if (the casino initiative) doesn’t pass,” Gural said. “I’ve made it clear to Dennis that I’m a horseman. I will not do anything that would not allow horse racing to be viable... Dennis is a friend of mine, but I don’t understand his logic... Fortunately, the (Asbury Park Press) story was okay because the reporter quoted me correctly as saying that I would guarantee that the horsemen are not left out and the industry is able to survive and support itself. But for Dennis to say he wants me to promise him $150 million, I don’t think that makes a lot of sense.”

Monmouth Park thoroughbred horsepeople are in line to share the horsepeople’s cut of the revenue if a casino is granted at the Meadowlands. Gural said any perceived friction between the two struggling breeds in New Jersey, “doesn’t help and the whole thing frustrates me.”

This week it was also announced that Triple Five, the developer behind the much-delayed mega-mall project adjacent to the Meadowlands and Met-Life Stadium will receive an $800 million bond offering from the state designed to help put the long-stalled American Dream Meadowlands shopping and entertainment complex back on track. In a story on newjersey.com, reporter John Brennan wrote, “the $800 million is in addition to $350 million in tax breaks that the state Economic Development Authority has already approved, along with another $1.5 billion in private financing.” The article quoted Tony Armlin vice-president of development for Triple Five as saying, “Triple Five was brought in to revive the project in 2011 after two previous developers failed to complete it. Since then, it has spent $600 million, with much of those costs related to the construction of the foundation for a 639,000-square-foot indoor water and amusement park – with DreamWorks Animation characters in starring roles – similar to a park complex at Triple Five's West Edmonton Mall in Alberta."

Triple Five has also indicated that, if voters approve casinos in the north of the state, it would likely bid to have a casino at the mall – like the one it has at the West Edmonton Mall – in direct opposition to Gural's site.

"I'm not really that worried about Triple Five," Gural said. "They just got the state, somehow, to get involved in trying to raise another $800 million in bond financing. They said that if everything goes right, they wouldn't complete the project until late 2018. So, my sense is that they've got their hands full just getting this project completed. We're up and running. We could convert to a casino in a few months. I think we're on the right side of the (sports complex)."

Asked for his thoughts on how the mall project, which has been stalled for 15 years, could receive help to the tune of $800 million when horse racing is struggling in the state, Gural said, "It's frustrating. The only one that has really accomplished anything is me. The money that was diverted to Atlantic City didn't accomplish anything. Atlantic City went down the tubes and took our money with it and, at the same time, destroyed our breeding industry. Triple Five is still floundering. We opened on schedule and we continue to operate. It's frustrating, but that's life."

Gural said polling on the casino question continues to be "a toss up," but his pro-casino lobby just started its campaign this week, with the opposition set to ramp up its message next week.

"They're basically tying into the mood of the country, which is, 'All government is bad and why would you trust the people in Trenton to actually use this money the way they promised.' It's interesting. It's obviously a message that appeals to the voters. I don't know. We'll see."

Gural called on all horsepeople to support the casino initiative – including financial support – saying a casino at the Big M is critical to horse racing's survival in the state.

Hambletonian Day wrapup

The top eight money-winning horses in North America were in action at the Meadowlands on Hambletonian Day.

That goes along with an impressive stat that six of the last seven Horse of the Year winners had a start on Hambletonian Day at some point in their careers.

Hambletonian Day marked both the fastest and richest wins for 27-year-old driver Scott Zeron. He drove Marion Marauder to victory in the $1 million Hambletonian the same day he piloted his father's pacer, Shamballa to a 1:47.1 upset in the U.S. Pacing Championship.

Zeron is the eighth first-time driver to win the Hambletonian since it moved to the Meadowlands in 1981. The others are: Ray Remmen (1981), Ulf Thoresen (1986), Bill Fahy (1989), Jack Moiseyev (1991), Trevor Ritchie (2000), Stefan Melander (2001) and Eric Ledford (2002).

This year's Hambletonian marked the first time since the race came to the Meadowlands in 1981 that the race was decided by a nose. The last Hambletonian decided by that margin was in 1975.

Two female trainers have won the Hambletonian and both times Shelly Grieco was paddocking – 2012 for Linda Toscano and 2016 for Paula Wellwood.

Muscle Hill sons won both Hambletonian elims, the Peter Haughton, Jim Doherty the Hambletonian Oaks the Cashman and went 1-2 in the Hambletonian final. The last time a stallion had this kind of day was in 2007 when Andover Hall's first crop was 1-2 in the Hambletonian (won by Donato Hanover with Adrian Chip second) and his daughter, Danae, won the Hambletonian Oaks. And that doesn't even count Pampered Princess, an elim winner who opted for the Hambletonian against the boys and didn't get a check.

mile-and-an-eighth, marking the first time since 1962 that any Triple Crown event has been at a distance other than a mile. The 1962 Yonkers Trot won by A Cs Viking and the Cane Pace won by Ranger Knight were both contested at a mile-and-sixteenth.

Christoforou close

Driver Chris Christoforou and Flanagan Memory gave it a good try in the Cashman, finishing third. Christoforou was trying to win his first Meadowlands race in 13 years.

Legendary longevity

Howard Beissinger and Keith Waples have both been alive for all 91 Hambletonians.

Reverse history

Broadway Schooner was three-for-14 lifetime when she won the Hambletonian Oaks in 2009. Her daughter, Broadway Donnas was 11-for-14 heading into this year's Oaks and didn't win, finishing fourth.

How Swede it is

Swedish-born trainers Jan Johnson and Jimmy Takter now have six Hambletonian Oaks victories apiece.

Against the odds

Twenty-six horses entered Hambletonian Day with a lifetime winning percentage better than 50 per cent and only three of them won — Hannelore Hanover, Control The Moment and All The Time.

Dan Patch Dandy

Hoosier Park has a dynamite field of nine on tap tonight for the 23rd edition of its Dan Patch Stakes highlighted by The Big Three.

by Emily Gaskin / Hoosier Park publicist

A field of nine will be sent postward in the $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes at Hoosier Park Racing & Casino tonight (Aug. 12) in what is undoubtedly the most talented field ever assembled for that stake.

Dave Landry

Hoosier Park is expected to be hopping for tonight's 23rd edition of the Dan Patch featuring The Big Three.

The 23rd installment of Hoosier Park's signature event will highlight the 14-race program that is set to begin at 5:45 p.m. Boasting an increased purse of $325,000 for 2016, The Dan Patch stakes will serve as Indiana's richest harness race of the season and mark the biggest purse offering in the history of the race.

With combined career purse earnings over $12 million, the talented field of nine includes six world champions and six millionaires. Fellow Indiana-sired world champions Freaky Feet Pete, Wiggle It Jiggleit, and Always B Miki have made up the "Big Three" in the aged pacing ranks this season and will lead the list of Dan Patch entrants.

Always B Miki, the number one ranked horse in harness racing's weekly poll, will play the role of morning line favorite in the field of nine at odds of 8-5 from post nine. The five-year-old world champion pacer will make his 10th seasonal start with regular pilot David Miller in the bike for trainer Jimmy Takter. Takter, who trained the 2015 Dan Patch Stakes winner JK Endofanera, will look to be the first trainer to score back-to-back victories in the Dan Patch Stakes since Nat Varty scored with Ready To Rumble and Pacific Rocket in 1994 and 1995.

Defending Horse of the Year Wiggle It Jiggleit will make his way back to Hoosier Park for the first time this season and has drawn the coveted rail position for trainer Clyde Francis. As the richest horse in the field with over $3 million in lifetime purse earnings, Wiggle It Jiggleit has been tabbed 2-1 on the morning line with driver Montrell Teague at the lines. Last season, Wiggle It Jiggleit won 22 of 26 starts for earnings of over $2.2 million. His list of accolades includes victories in the Meadowlands Pace, the Little Brown Jug and the Progress Pace. The four-year-old Indiana-sired gelding set the Hoosier Park track record for three-year-old pacing geldings last year and has won 10 of 16 starts thus far this season.

Hoosier Park's all-time leading driver, Trace Tetrack, has been enlisted to drive Freaky Feet Pete from post two for trainer Larry Rheinheimer. Freaky Feet Pete, the winner of the 2015 Breeders Crown final for three-year-old pacing colts, is a winner of over $1.4 million in lifetime earnings and has been assigned odds of 5-1.

Also joining the stellar cast of entrants is Shamballa who will start from post seven with Scott Zeron in the bike. Trained by Rick Zeron, the Canadian pacing sensation proved he is a main contender for the 2016 Dan Patch title after pulling the 8-1 upset over "The Big Three" in the $225,550 U.S. Pacing Championship for older pacers at the Meadowlands Racetrack last week.

Each wager has a minimum bet of 10 cents and is available through the cooperative efforts of the United States Trotting Association, Hoosier Park Racing & Casino and the Indiana Standardbred Association.

Five lucky racing fans will also have the opportunity to place a $1,000 win bet on the horse of their choice in the Dan Patch Stakes. Slated as the 12th race on the card, estimated post time for the Dan Patch Stakes is 10:07 p.m.

The race will be part of a special weekend tagged as "Dan Patch Festival Weekend". Hoosier Park will showcase some of the most notable names in harness racing alongside special wagers, free fireworks, giveaways, and interactive family-friendly entertainment.

In conjunction with free helicopter rides, zip-lining and roaming entertainment on Saturday, legendary country music group, Asleep At The Wheel will perform a free concert in Hoosier Park's Outdoor Music Center as part of the summer concert series line-up. The entire weekend will culminate with a free fireworks show.

Fresh off his win in the Battle of Waterloo, Sports Column and Chris Christoforou won an OSS Gold event Thursday night at Mohawk.

Sports Column and Streakavana repeat in Gold action at Mohawk

Freshman pacers were in the spotlight at Mohawk Racetrack on Thursday evening (Aug. 11) as the Campbellville, ON oval played host to two $105,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold divisions for the colts and four $18,000 Grassroots divisions for the fillies.

In the Gold Series battles, Sports Column and Streakavana picked up their second OSS trophies and moved to the top of the division standings.

Sports Column led off with a commanding four length victory in the first $105,000 split. The Sportswriter—Lady Leslie son and driver Chris Christoforou took control of the race heading by the three-quarter pole and pulled away from the field in spite of a steering issue that saw the colt leaning heavily on the inside line. Yogi Bayama and Manceiver finished four lengths behind the fan favorite in second and third.

“There’s something small bothering him that we’ve got to get fixed up,” said trainer Blake Macintosh. “We’ve got a month to the Champlain, so he’ll have an easy week this week and he’ll go up to Dr. Ruch’s Monday or Tuesday next week, and hopefully he can figure him out.”

Macintosh selected Sports Column out of the 2015 Lexington-Selected Yearling Sale, offering up $20,000 for the colt, and he opted not to pay the colt into the Metro Pace or the Nassagaweya Stake. Sports Column’s next start will come in the Sept. 10 Champlain Stakes at Mohawk and then he will finish up the OSS season with Gold Legs at Grand River Raceway on Sept. 19 and Mohawk on Oct. 1, and the season ending Super Final at Mohawk on Oct. 15.

“In one way I’m happy that we didn’t pay him into the Metro, because now I’ve got a month to try and get him right and have him right for the Super Final and the Champlain and his last two Golds,” said Macintosh. “Have him ready for that, then put him away, and hopefully we’ve got a nice three-year-old for next year.”

The Cambridge, ON resident conditions Sports Column for his partners Hutt Racing Stable of Paoli, PA (Joe and JoAnn Thomson) and Daniel Plouffe of Bromont, QC. Through six starts the colt has four wins, including two in Gold Series action and his elimination and the final of the Battle of Waterloo, and two seconds for earnings of $222,000.

In the second division, driver Sylvain Filion fired fan favorite Streakavana away from post nine and settled the Big Jim—Stonebridge Madonna son on the rail in fourth as Calvin K rolled out to a :27.3 opening quarter. Opting not to sit and watch Calvin K do all the work, Filion sent Streakavana to the front before the :56.1 half and the gelding led the field to a 1:25.2 three-quarters and then sailed down the stretch to a 1:53.1 victory. Calvin K finished one length back in second, just ahead of Machin A Trick.

Filion crafted the win, Streakavana's third straight, for trainer Scott McEneny of Waterdown, ON and owners Brad Grant and Teresa Davidson of Milton, ON. In four starts, the pacer has posted three wins and one second for earnings of $117,500. With two Gold Series wins he sits second in the division standings with 100 points, while Sports Column holds down top spot with 125 points.

Both Christoforou and Filion also scored wins in the pacing filly Grassroots divisions. Christoforou kicked things off in the first race, guiding White Dancer to a come-from-behind effort that saw her sprint home in :27.3 to snatch a nose victory away from pacesetter Dudesalady. Fan favorite Treasures Pearl was one-half length back in third in the 1:55.4 mile.

"She's been plagued with small issues this season," said Campbellville resident Christoforou. "Dustin Jones gets all the credit for her performance tonight, he had her prepared to benefit off a decent trip, and being back on a seven day rotation helped as well."

Waterdown resident Jones conditions White Dancer for owner/breeder Emerald Highlands Farm of Mount Vernon, OH. The grey daughter of Big Jim—Dancing Inthe Park missed her July 25 Battle of the Belles elimination due to sickness, but returned to action in an overnight event at Mohawk on Aug. 4, finishing seventh and setting herself up for Thursday's victory.

Filion got his Grassroots win in the second division with P L Kahluaa, who bounced back from a bout with sickness to post her first lifetime victory. Like Christoforou did in the first division, Milton resident Filion sent the fan favorite up the outer lane and used her sharp last quarter speed to reel in the front runners and post a 1:54.2 victory. Odysseus finished one and one-quarter lengths back in second and Sports Beauty was six and three-quarter lengths back in third.

Richard Moreau of Puslinch, ON took over training duties on P L Kahluaa following her first two Grassroots starts. The Sportswriter—B R Dot Cam miss was second in the July 18 season opener at Mohawk and fifth in the July 17 event at Clinton Raceway. Numbered company 9303 3868 Quebec Inc. of Blainville, QC owns P L Kahluaa, who was a $6,000 purchase out of last fall's Lexington-Selected Yearling Sale.

Mohawk fans were treated to another close finish in the third division as Daenerys Hanover powered up the outer lane and down the stretch to a 1:55.2 victory. Favored Sports Leader settled for second by a neck and Today's Sports completed the top three.

Making her debut in the Ontario Sires Stakes program, Daenerys Hanover was piloted to the win by Guelph, ON resident Paul MacDonell for trainer Sean Mehlenbacher of Hamilton, ON and owner John Mehlenbacher of Burlington, ON. In two starts the Camluck—Dragon Moon daughter, a $12,000 purchase at the 2015 Harrisburg Yearling Sale, has posted one win and one third for earnings of $10,680.

The last Grassroots trophy went home with favorite Shewearsthepants, who got away from the field around the final turn and hit the wire a five and three-quarter length winner in 1:55.1. Snappy Dresser and Fashion Writer finished second and third.

"She's been a little warm, so they rigged her up a little different tonight and it helped," said driver Doug McNair of Guelph. "She has a big motor in her if you can use it at the right time."

McNair's father Gregg conditions Shewearsthepants for owner/breeder Anatolia Farm LLC of New Holland, PA. The win was the filly's first in Grassroots action and boosted her record to two wins and two thirds in five starts for earnings of $20,500.

The freshman pacing fillies will be back at Mohawk on Aug. 22 for their fourth Grassroots event, while their Gold Series peers arrive at the Campbellville oval tonight (Aug. 12) for a pair of $105,000 divisions. The freshman pacing fillies will be joined by the two-year-old trotting colts, who will line up in three Gold Series divisions. Post time for Friday's program is 7:30 pm.

Oaks winner All The Time recovering

Hambletonian Oaks winner All The Time appears to be doing well as she recovers from emergency colic surgery, trainer Jimmy Takter said Monday (Aug. 8).

All The Time displayed symptoms of colic early Sunday (Aug. 7), roughly 14 hours after winning the Hambletonian Oaks at the Meadowlands Racetrack, and was taken to Mid-Atlantic Equine Medical Center, where intestinal surgery was performed. Takter said he was notified Monday that the three-year-old female trotter was recovering nicely and normal intestinal function appeared to have resumed.

"We were very fortunate," Takter said. "They did a fantastic job at Mid-Atlantic to do what they did. She is going to be there for four or five days so they can monitor her. But as of this morning everything was working well, so that is good."

All The Time is owned by Torontonians Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld, who also bred the filly. She won Saturday's (Aug. 6)

$500,000 Hambletonian Oaks by three-and-three-quarter lengths over Caprice Hill in 1:52.1, giving Takter his third consecutive win in the Oaks and his sixth champion overall, tying Jan Johnson for the most in history.

A daughter of stallion Muscle Hill out of the stakes-winning mare Cantab It All, All The Time has won 11 of 19 career races and earned $827,616. In addition to the Hambletonian Oaks, her victories include the 2015 Breeders Crown for two-year-old filly trotters and the 2015 New Jersey Sire Stakes championship.

All The Time was the first foal out of Cantab It All. The second, Ariana G, is undefeated in four races and won Saturday's Jim Doherty Memorial at the Meadowlands. She is a full sister to All The Time.

Takter was uncertain of All The Time's future, saying it would take more than a month for the filly to recover from surgery.

"The chances that she is going to race again are 50-50 at best," Takter said. "Maybe I can have her ready for the Breeders Crown (in late October) but she will let me know. I'm not going to do anything to jeopardize her health. She is such a unique horse and her family is great. We are grateful for what she has done."

Hambletonian numbers down

Despite a hot, humid day with storms predicted for the afternoon, some 20,000 patrons attended last Saturday's (Aug. 6) Hambletonian Day card at the Meadowlands Racetrack in East Rutherford, NJ.

With some international betting numbers still to come in, the total North American handle for the Hambletonian Day card was $5,656,698 — with $1,216,846 bet on track and $4,439,852 wagered through Meadowlands export.

Compared to 2015, the total North American handle was off 15.6 per cent. The North American handle is off 19 per cent from the 2014 total of $6,995,047.

"The truth is, we've seen a slow decline in our export here in North America," said Meadowlands chairman Jeff Gural. "I think it's a result of the fact that our customers are old and some of them are no longer around, coupled with the fact that we get no press anymore. Basically, I don't think anyone even knows the Hambletonian exists other than the hardcore fans. At least the thoroughbreds get press. How many people know that we exist?"

For this year's Hambletonian Day card, add in nearly $1.2 million in non-commingled foreign handle to date, as of Thursday (Aug. 11) — $833,061 (in U.S. dollars) through France PMU; $212,047 through Sweden ATG; $94,207 in Italy; $42,464 in Norway (for pools not commingled with PMU); $12,434 through TabCorp Australia; $1,330 through UBET Australia and $1,354 through RWWA Australia — and the total bet to date is $6,853,595 without the French online numbers that are not reported until November. The final non-commingled tally likely will be available after the Harrisburg Sale.

Soft Idea, Dime A Dance win NYSS events

Thursday (Aug. 11), Yonkers Raceway played host to the $164,874 New York Sire Stakes Bruce Hamilton Pace for three-year-old fillies.

Two, $82,437 divisions made up the event, which once again honored the memory of a certified mover and shaker (as well as a fairly decent soul) in the state's racing and breeding program.

The opening Hamilton group saw Soft Idea (Scott Zeron, $15.40), from post position four work out a perfect, second-over trip. She was able to get the lane jump on pocketeer Milky Way Rae (Jim Morrill Jr.), edging that one by a neck in 1:54.3. Encore Deo (George Brennan) was third.

Time on My Hands (Jason Bartlett), as the 4-5 favorite, led the lasses (:27.4, :57.2, 1:26), but caved badly through the stretch and finished last among the seven.

For third choice Soft Idea, an American Ideal—Walk Softly filly trained by Linda Toscano for co-owning stables South Mountain, Bay's, Radio Racing and Little E, it was her third win in eight seasonal starts. The exacta paid $85, with the triple returning $283.

"The trip worked out great and she seems to race better from off the pace," Zeron said.

The second sire stakes soiree saw pole-sitting, odds-on Dime a Dance (Matt Kakaley, $3, part of entry) take over from fresh Lasix Wishy Washy Girl (Morrill Jr.), then complete her civic duties (:27.4; :57.3, 1:25.4, 1:53.3).

Dime a Dance defeated 27-1 shot WWG by a length, with No Clouds Bluechip (Zeron) a first-up third.

Dime a Dance, a Roll with Joe—Hat Dance Hanover filly trained by Ron Burke for co-owners Our Horse Cents and J&T Silva Stables and Blue Chip Bloodstock is now four-for-nine this season. The exacta paid $38.20, with the triple returning $96.

"She's much better now," Kakaley said. "Early in the season, she was flat, but she's finishing better the past few starts."

Sire stakes continue tonight (Aug. 12), with the $150,224 Milt Taylor Trot (2-year-old colts/geldings). Two divisions (races 6 and 7) at $75,112 each comprise the event.

JK Endofanera to stand at Victory Hill

JK Endofanera p,3, 1:48.2 ($2,049,580), the winner of the 2014 North America Cup and numerous other major stakes, has been retired to stud duty at Victory Hill Farm in Indiana.

A now five-year-old stallion, JK Endofanera arrived at Victory Hill on Monday, Aug. 8, and is scheduled to lead the post parade for the Dan Patch free-for-all — a race he won last year — on Friday night at Hoosier Park.

JK Endofanera was bred and campaigned by the 3 Brothers Stable of Steven, Alan and Ron Katz. They have sold a significant interest to a group comprised of the same principals who brought Always A Virgin to Indiana. A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

"He's brought my family enormous pleasure," said Alan Katz, "and now we look forward to his next career in Indiana."

A son of the Artsplace stallion Art Major, JK Endofanera is out of the Presidential Ball-sired Presidential Lady, who is also the dam of 2014 Horse of the Year JK She'salady.

"We are very excited to add JK Endofanera to our stallion roster," said Jeff King, who operates Victory Hill Farm with his wife, Dr. Maria King. "His talent speaks for itself and he's a magnificent individual. I believe he will prove to be a top sire in North America and he brings the incomparable Artsplace sire line to Indiana."

Trained by Ron Burke at ages two and three and Jimmy Takter during his 4-year-old season, JK Endofanera beat every top colt of his generation. As a two-year-old he won four of seven starts, among them the $534,500 Governor's Cup at the Meadowlands, when he took his freshman mark of 1:51.4. At age three he captured the $1 million (Cdn) North America Cup, defeating a field that included He's Watching and McWicked. He also won a Meadowlands Pace elimination over Always B Miki and later in the season captured the Tattersalls at The Red Mile.

In 2015, at age four, JK Endofanera won more than $500,000, including the Dan Patch free-for-all at Hoosier Park by two-and-a-half lengths in 1:48.4, exploding past his rivals with a :26.2 final quarter.

Foiled Again to PEI classic

Harness racing's richest horse, Foiled Again, is heading for Prince Edward Island to contest the Sobeys Gold Cup & Saucer trials that will lead up to the 57th running of Prince Edward Island's premier race on Saturday, Aug. 20 at Red Shores' Charlottetown Driving Park.

The winner of more than $7.4 million lifetime has drawn the rail in Trial 1 to be contested Saturday (Aug. 13).

"This shows the calibre of talent the Gold Cup attracts year after year," Lee Drake, marketing manager with Red Shores, told the CBC. "We are pleased to have Foiled Again in the starting lineup."

The second trial will be raced on Monday (Aug. 15).

The post positions for the two trials is as follows:

Sobeys Gold Cup Trial 1

1. Foiled Again
2. Ys Lotus
3. D Gs Camme
4. Big Surf
5. Shades Of Bay
6. Highland Tartan
7. Senior Market

Sobeys Gold Cup Trial 2

1. Limelight Beach
2. Alexas Jackpot
3. Mr Massimo
4. Big Boy Dreams
5. Go Daddy Go
6. Paparazzi Hanover
7. Dialamara

John Eades dead at 67

John R. Eades, 67, a lifelong harness horseman, died on Saturday (Aug. 6) at his home in London, OH.

It was perhaps fitting that Eades, who dearly loved training trotters, died unexpectedly while watching the broadcast of the Hambletonian.

Eades had started horses in the Hambletonian, and trained in Italy where he achieved success.

His father was a diehard harness racing fan, and took his sons, David and John, to the opening night of racing at Scioto Downs in 1959.

John began working for Hall of Fame horseman Delvin Miller in the 1960s as a groom while was attending the University of Kentucky in Lexington. John often spent his

He later served as an assistant to another Hall of Famer, John F. Patterson, Sr., and worked in that capacity for many years on the New York circuit.

John had such a strong interest in European racing, that he attracted the attention of legendary French horseman and breeder J-P Dubois, and he later trained many horses for Dubois in the United States.

John was also involved in exporting horses, and accompanied the great stallion Supergill when that horse was flown across the Atlantic from the U.S. to Italy in the 1990s.

In 1996, John campaigned the Supergill trotter Tony Oaks, who won the Colonial Stakes and started in the Hambletonian against Continental Victory and Lindy Lane. Tony Oaks later became a leading sire in Eastern Europe.

Fillgood, a grandson of Valley victory, was also another top stakes star developed and trained by Eades. He won the Florida Breeders Stake final.

In recent years, he has trained a small stable, including trotters owned by his brother David, who was mayor of London, Ohio for more than 25 years.

Yvon Giguere passes

Yvon Giguere passed away on Monday (Aug. 8) after a short battle with cancer. He was 63.

Giguere was the Simulcast Manager for Grand River Raceway since 2010.

The Quebec native was a highly esteemed executive throughout the global harness racing industry.

He was an enormous asset to the Elora, ON track with extensive expertise in tote, simulcast and related fields garnered from his 20-year racetrack career in Quebec.

A former VP of Racetracks Of Canada and director with Harness Tracks Of America, Giguere held several management titles within Attractions Hippiques, Société National du Cheval de Course (SONACC), and Hippodrome de Montreal/Blue Bonnets.

Beyond his thorough knowledge of the harness racing industry, and his thirst for gathering new ideas and concepts, Giguere was a devoted and enthusiastic member of the Grand River Raceway team. He was committed to harness racing and the growth of Grand River Raceway and its employees.

While in Quebec, Giguere also owned, trained and drove standardbreds and was a passionate advocate for the sport. He was a third-generation horseman. His father Jules, and uncle Georges are both members of the Canadian Horse Racing Hall Of Fame.

Yvon is survived by his wife Michelle, sons Frederic and Francois, daughter Andreann and brothers Guy, Robert and Michel.

A private funeral will be held in Quebec City.

Ronald Ingrassia dead at 75

Ronald Ingrassia, a loving husband, father, grandfather, and horse trainer/driver at the Monticello Raceway, passed away on Thursday (Aug. 4) at his home in Hurleyville surrounded by his family. He was 75.

The son of the late Charles Ingrassia and Elizabeth Cerullo Ingrassia, he was born Nov. 7, 1940 in Corona, NY.

Ron was first a family man — he loved being with his children and grandchildren. He was also a lifelong horseman. Harness racing was in his blood from an early age. He raced professionally as driver for 30 years from 1962 until 1992, and continued on as a trainer until his death. With over 900 wins as a driver, his best year was 1982 where he had 862 starts and 160 wins.

Ron leaves behind his wife Carol, his daughter Barbie, his sons Ricky & Randy, eight grandchildren - Hailey (14), Richie (14), Hannah (13), Kaytlyn (10), Lilly (9), Ashley (9), Anthony (7) and Joey (2), his son/daughters in law Jake, Jennifer, and Kathleen, his brother Frank and Jacquie Ingrassia, his brother Robert and Carol Ingrassia, his sister Lenora and Jay Sperling, and his sister Betty Lou Ingrassia Carroll and Danny, and his many nieces and nephews to numerous to mention.

A graveside service was held Sunday (Aug. 7) at the Hurleyville Cemetery.

Hertrich, Katz, Mossbarger to Hambletonian Society

At the annual meeting of the members of the Hambletonian Society held Aug. 5 in Rutherford, NJ, the board of directors of the Society approved the conditions of Hambletonian No. 94, the stake for foals of 2016 to be raced in 2019. In addition to the approval of the conditions for 2019 Hambletonian (and Oaks) and 2020 Hambletonian Maturity, three vacancies on the board were filled.

Frederick W. Hertrich III of Seaford, DE, Marvin Katz of Toronto and Dr. John C. Mossbarger of Washington Courthouse, OH were all elected to serve on the board of the Hambletonian Society. All have extensive racing and breeding backgrounds, and are deeply committed to the future of harness racing.

Hertrich heads an enterprise that operates car dealerships in Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey and has been selling and raising yearlings under the All American Harnessbreds name for more than 25 years. Last year, Hertrich bred the winners of $4.3 million, and notables he's bred or owned include Allamerican Native, Boston Red Rocks, Spirit To Win, Bettor Be Steppin, Travel Playlist, Allamerican Nadia and the richest pacing mare of all time, Eternal Camnation. Hertrich owns shares in 90 per cent of all the major pacing and trotting stallions and has ranked in the top 10 of all U.S. breeders in the last two years.

Katz, has been a dominant owner and breeder in harness racing in North America for more than 30 years. He has won every major race – from the Meadowlands Pace to the Hambletonian – and developed, along with partners Al Libfeld and Sam Goldband, one of the more elite trotting broodmare bands in the sport. Katz bred full sisters All The Time and Ariana G who won the Hambletonian Oaks and Jim Doherty Memorial respectively last Saturday, and also shared ownership on 2010 Hambletonian winner Muscle Massive and 2008 Hambletonian Oaks winner Creamy Mimi.

Dr. Mossbarger is a veterinarian and the vice president of Midland Acres, Inc., a family-owned 500-acre breeding farm in Bloomingburg, OH. Midland Acres has become one of Ohio's largest nurseries, and is currently home to eight of the most in-demand stallions in the Midwest, including Breeders Crown champions Broadway Hall, Manofmanymissions and Break The Bank K. A second-generation horseman, Mossbarger is a director of the USTA, the past president of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association and the Ohio Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association. He is a member of the Fayette County Harness Horsemen's Association, and serves as a state trustee on the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Big double on Hambletonian Day for Libfeld and Katz

Standardbred owners from around the world dream of a victory on Hambletonian Day at the Meadowlands, the most prestigious program of harness racing held the first weekend in August every year.

Long time partners Al Libfeld and Marvin Katz of Pickering and Toronto, Ontario, respectively, had that dream fulfilled last Saturday when their undefeated two-year-old filly Ariana G captured the Doherty Stake to give her four victories to date in her young career.

However, that wasn't the end of the celebrating in the winner's circle for them. A few races later Ariana G's full sister, All The Time, impressively captured the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks, the filly companion race to the $1 million Hambletonian.

Not only do Libfeld and Katz own these talented distaffers, they also are their breeders.

They operate a boutique breeding operation with some of the most well bred broodmares in the sport in residence.

The operation sells yearlings annually and this year's group includes a full brother to Ariana G and All The Time called Fleet Admiral. He'll be part of the 18 colts and fillies consigned to the Lexington Select Sale being sold by Kentuckiana Farms, Agent.

The Libfeld/Katz partnership has a very active website (<http://www.libfeldkatz.com>) to promote their yearlings and racehorses. The site is updated regularly and features race videos of the graduates of their breeding operation.

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.
3. Write more letters. One of the most popular features of HRU is Sunday's Feedback section. We want to hear from you!

THANKS from the new HRU Team!
