

Just 10, Owner Has Big Horse, Big Dreams, Big Heart

By Bill Finley

Before you get any further into the story of Breanna Carsey and the undefeated Ohio Sire Stakes champion MJB Got Faith, you first must know this: 10-year-old Carsey really does own the horse. She makes all the decisions, has turned down lucrative offers to sell the trotter, decides what to do with the money she has earned and has told trainer Steve Carter to put the son of Trainforthe future away for the winter and rest him up until next year. This is not one of those "wink, wink" situations where the horse is merely listed under the name of a child while the parents really own the horse and call the shots.

Breanna Carsey and MJB Got Faith

"At first, we thought, 'Ok this is your horse, but maybe in reality it isn't going to be your horse,'" Breanna's father, Brian said. "We didn't think she could really manage the horse. But my daughter had so much faith in this horse. My wife (Debra) and I had conversations about this and decided we needed to teach her that you can't always get everything you want out of life and sometimes you need to make tough decisions, and that is what would be best for her. We decided she is going to be in charge, she is going to make the decisions."

She may be a 10-year-old managing the career of an undefeated horse who has earned $192,500 after the win Saturday at Scioto in the $225,000 Ohio Sire Stakes Championship for 2-year-old trotters. But that doesn't mean she still isn't very much a little girl at heart.

The story actually begins when Breanna was eight and she told her parents she wanted a horse for her birthday. Not just any horse but a "mommy horse."

Brian Carsey

went to a Blooded Horse mixed sale in Delaware, Ohio to find his daughter a birthday present. She had picked out three from the catalogue but two were out of the sale and the third sold for more than Brian Carsey had in his budget, which was $2,000. Carsey thought he was going to come home empty-handed and disappoint his daughter but he was able to reach her after her school day had ended. There were a handful of horses left to be sold. Breanna told him to buy a horse named Imageofasweetgirl.

"She opened up the sale book and she picked out Imageofasweetgirl," Carsey said. "She didn't know anything about the pedigree or even if it was a racehorse or a broodmare. It was a broodmare, in foal to Trainforthe future, so I told her she made a good pick. We were able to buy her for $1,700."

"She was just reading the names. She just went through the catalogue and saw 'Imageofasweetgirl' and said, 'Daddy, I want to grow up to be a sweet girl. This is a perfect match.'"

Nine-hundred ninety-nine times out of 1,000, the story pretty much ends there. Imageofasweetgirl had had four previous foals and they had combined to earn $25,700. Foal number five didn't figure to amount to anything, either.

The dam returned to Indiana, where the Carsey family lives, and Breanna made sure she was there to see the foal born, even though it was 2:30 in the morning. She loved him and played with him and insisted the horse was going to be something special.

Her parents had been in the business a long time and knew the odds were stacked against the colt ever amounting to anything, but they didn't want to do anything to burst their daughter's dreams. Her favorite phrase when it came to the horse was "you've got to have faith."

When it came time to name the foal Breanna came up with MJB Got Faith. The "M" is for her sister Mackenzie, the "J" for her brother Jordan and the "B" for her. "Got Faith" came, of course, from her favorite saying.

As the family and Carter started to prepare the colt for the races, it was quickly apparent that he was, at the very least, above average. Others noticed, too, and started to offer the Carseys money. Understanding the virtues of making a quick and easy profit, Brian encouraged his daughter to sell MJB Got Faith. Each time, she said no. No matter what figure was offered, she told her father that the horse would make much more racing. After all, you've got to have faith.

"I got a call three weeks ago someone called me up asked if MJB Got Faith was for sale," Carsey said. "I said, 'I don't know, I'll let you talk to the owner.' I handed her the phone, and they had a discussion. I don't know if she got the numbers mixed up or not but she said she turned down $150,000. I have never second guessed her."

When asked if there were any price she would take for MJB Got Faith, even $1 million, Breanna replied: "No way. He's not going to be sold."

MJB Got Faith won his first four starts, all of them in Ohio Sire Stakes company. But he didn't appear to be the best horse in his division. Chris Beaver had a colt named Kanthaka, who was also undefeated and winning everything very impressively. Brian Carsey knew beating Kanthaka in the final would be a huge challenge.

"Absolutely, I was worried," Brian Carsey said. "I had had many conversations with her about Chris Beaver's colt and told her he was a really nice horse and I don't know that anybody can beat him. Coming into the final we had never raced (against) him and there were some other nice horses in there. It was going to be tough to win. I told her that if he were third she should still be very proud of him. She said she would be proud if he were third but added, 'He's not going to be third. He's going to win. God's got this.' It wasn't that she was cocky. It's just the faith she has in the horse."

Breanna was right. With Peter Wrenn driving, MJB Got Faith won by a neck over Emerald Chip. Kanthaka was third. The 10-year-old's horse had just earned $112,500.

After the race, something even more remarkable happened. When asked what she was going to do with the money, Breanna didn't say anything about going to Disney

World or buying the most expensive toys should could think of. She said "I'm going to give it to the people who need it."

That was all her own doing. No one told her to say that or prepped her in any way beforehand. The next day she made a $2,000 donation to a fund set up for driver Brad Hanners and his family. Hanners passed away Tuesday night after a battle with kidney cancer. She also donated money to a local family who was struggling to come up with the money for funeral expenses for their child who had just died.

"My wife and I truly believe you have to pay it forward, that you have to give to receive," Carsey said. "That has been instilled in her, but it's truly in her heart. She wants to help people. That's just who she is."

Her biggest concern after being interviewed for this article was that she had forgotten to thank Wrenn.

"I just want everyone to know how much I appreciate Peter Wrenn for driving this horse and how much faith he has in him," she said.

She's still got a lot of money left, more than any 10-year-old could imagine. She has decided to put some away for a college fund, but her real dream is to buy a proper farm where MJB Got Faith can live.

"I've been taking her around the last two weeks looking at farms," Brian said. "She wants to buy a farm and I told her you could sell MJB and have enough to buy a farm. She said, 'No, MJB is going to buy the farm for us. She wants to keep making money with him and her ultimate dream is to buy a farm for him."

Brian Carsey thought it might be a good idea to supplement into some open stakes the remainder of the year to give the horse a shot against tougher competition and in bigger money races. His daughter said no, that MJB Got Faith had done enough and deserved a break.

So the story will not resume until next year. Will the fairy take come to an end?

Come on. You've got to have faith.

Magic Tonight Out of Yonkers International, On Track Piraten Is In

The field for the Oct. 10 Yonkers International continues to take shape.

The connections of 2015 Elitlopp Magic Tonight have informed Yonkers officials they will pass the race. Yonkers Racing Secretary Steve Starr said they informed him that with their horse not in top form right now they have decided to pass. He was to represent Sweden, and his place in the line-up will be taken by On Track Piraten. He is 19 for 74 lifetime and coming off a fourth-

Finnish star Seabiscuit, who is by Credit Winner, is heading to the Yonkers International place finish in the Gr. I UET Masters Series Final in France.

"He's a good horse who has been racing well against the very best in Europe, like Timoko, Oasis Bi and Creatine," Starr said.

On Track Piraten is the 2015 Prix du Luxembourg winner.

Starr said he has also gotten commitments from French star Timoko, Bee A Magician, and an Italian horse named Rod Stewart and a Credit Winner horse named Seabiscuit. Seabiscuit races in Finland and just won the Finnish Derby.

Other horses considering the race are Creatine and Oasis Bi. Starr said other invitations will be handed out after this Saturday's Maple Leaf Trot. | share this story |

Blue Chip Farms Leads Goshen Yearling Sales
Results Sales Topper Nets $67,000 (press release)

Wallkill, NY-On the heels of the first ever Goshen Yearling Sale, Blue Chip Farms (agent for Blue Chip Bloodstock) led the auction in two important categories - highest combined farm owned and agent average and the auction's top two sales toppers.

Outkast Blue Chip, a Rock N Roll Heaven colt out of Armbro Savannah went for $67,000 to Joe Bellino while Obsessed Blue Chip, a Chapter Seven filly from Gluteus Maximus was signed for by Eugene Kurzrok for $47,000. These top priced yearlings helped Blue Chip tally the highest combined farm owned and agent average of $22,500 per yearling.

Tom Grossman, principal of Blue Chip commented, "I am very happy with the results of the inaugural GYS. It confirmed my suspicion that if you brought the right yearlings they would get bought for the right price by the right trainers and owners. The timing, location and general efficiency of the sale will be a solid foundation in the future to help all breeders, big and small, see the payoff of the daily grind."

Grossman further said, "nothing would make me happier than to give a $100,000 yearling credit via the Blue Chip Breeders Crown Challenge to one of the 11 buyers who signed for a BC bred."

Blue Chip will have a total of 14 yearlings on display at the Lexington Selected Sale including seven yearlings that are eligible for the Blue Chip $100,000 Breeders Crown Challenge.

Muscle Mass to Tara Hills Stud (press release)

Kentuckiana Stallion Management is excited to announce that leading Ontario stallion and former World Champion

Muscle Mass

MUSCLE MASS (b.h. 2005), by MUSCLES YANKEE out of GRACEFUL TOUCH will stand the 2016 breeding season at Tara Hills Stud, located in Port Perry, Ontario. Kentuckiana Farms will continue to serve as Syndicate Manager and along with Tara Hills Stud will manage his breeding career.

With four crops of racing age, Muscle Mass has established himself as the leading trotting sire in Ontario. Muscle Mass was the leading first crop sire of Ontario Sire Stakes winners in 2012 and followed it up with spectacular years in 2013 and 2014 as the leading Ontario sire of two-year-old trotters in overall earnings, also being the overall leading trotting sire in 2014. This season, Muscle

Mass continues his championship ways as the current overall OSS leading sire.

Muscle Mass is the sire of multiple Ontario Sire Stakes Gold Champions including Riveting Rosie ($889,510), Motown Muscle ($447,979), Muscle Matters ($382,925), and Muscle Baby Doll (341,587), to name a few.

"We are extremely excited to bring Muscle Mass back to Ontario. He is a premier young stallion that has consistently shown that he can sire champions. His ability to cross with a wide variety of mares is proven by the numbers," says David Heffering, owner of Tara Hills Stud.

Muscle Mass retired to stud duty as the fastest two-year-old son of super-sire Muscles Yankee having established his world-record mark of 1:53.4 in only his second career start. Muscle Mass won five major stakes in an undefeated season at 2 winning all seven of his starts, including back-to-back wins in Lexington and a 10-length, track and stakes record in the American-National.

Here Comes Herbie to Stand in New York

WALLKILL, NY - Blue Chip Farms is pleased to announce that it will stand Here Comes Herbie in 2016. With a mark of 3,1:52, he is the second fastest son of Credit Winner and a Hambletonian Elimination winner. And like his dad, he has shown himself to be a stakes caliber sire having produced such top trotters as millionaire Mister Herbie and 2015 Maple Leaf Trot Elimination winner, Natural Herbie. Twenty percent of his starters greater than 2 years of age have made over $100,000 and/or trotted in 1:55. Here Comes Herbie also boasts a royal pedigree. Out of D Train, he is a half- brother to $3 million earner and top PA sire, Donato Hanover.

With such credentials, new owners Dr. Herb J. Burns and Blue Chip, chose to do a joint venture with the horse on a private treaty basis. Tom Grossman stated, "I am thrilled to have Herbie (the horse) back in the Blue Chip Family. Herbie's (THE man) passion is matched only by my own. It goes without saying that the unique abilities of Blue Chip's crew brings out the very best in stallions in general, and Credit Winner line stallions in particular. I think we stand a very good chance of writing a storybook ending to this special horse's life for our team and the legion of true Herbie believers."

Grossman continued, "This is an exceptional opportunity to leverage the substantial investment we have made in behaviorists, therapeutics, and other tools in effectively managing his father's career with a stallion that has already proven he can produce elite horses. We look forward to the challenge of putting together, and effectively servicing, a limited boutique book of our own and selected partners mares that will represent a huge step forward in Herbie's opportunity."

Here Come Herbie has settled in well at Blue Chip from his former home in Indiana. For more information please contact Jean Brown at jbrown@bluechipfarms.com.

All Systems A Go For Artspeak in the Jug

Coming off a win in the Simcoe Stakes, Artspeak will go

Artspeak will tackle Wiggle It in the Jug

next in the Little Brown Jug, trainer Tony Alagna has confirmed. The Simcoe was Artspeak's first win since June 27 and a sign that Alagna may have him back on top of his game.

Alagna made headlines when not racing Captaintreacherous in the 2013 Jug, but the connections say the situation is different this time.

"When the year started I always knew that racing six, seven weeks in a row was going to be tough on him," Alagna said. "He had the misfortune of not being at his best in the North America Cup elimination and drawing the 10-hole in the final. I told people all along the horse is racing better than you think. He just hasn't had things go his way. He had a couple weeks to freshen up and I think he's back to his old self."

Myron Bell, who helped managed the careers of both Artspeak and Captaintreacherous, explained why one horse went in the Jug and the other did not.

"Captaintreacherous was a syndicated horse," Bell said. "I managed him. This horse is not a syndicated horse. He's not the dominant colt in the country. We're racing against a bunch of geldings like Wazishai Hanover and Wiggle It Jiggleit. They could race every hour. They are geldings, they have nothing to lose. This horse, a lot of farms want. But we have to win a Jug, we have to win a Breeders Crown, win at Lexington, to drive his value up. He was a great 2-year-old but hasn't won a lot of major races at three. Right now he is on top of his game and I expect a great performance from him."

LEXINGTON, KY - Richard "Dick" Macomber, 80, died Sept. 14, 2015, at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Ricky Macomber Jr. and Jamie Rucker, who race at Hoosier Park in Anderson, Ind. He had been diagnosed with ALS, more commonly known as Lou Gehrig's disease, early this summer.

Mr. Macomber was adopted as a young child and reared in Maine, but at age 15 decided to leave home to create a new life for himself. He ended up in California and served in the U.S. Air Force from 1952-56 before he started working with horses on a full-time basis and became an assistant to Forrest Gerry.

In the 1960s Mr. Macomber took his colors, which he had adapted from Gerry's, and moved to western New York, where he raced at Buffalo Raceway and Batavia Downs. That was also where he met the Hauck family and his future wife, Carol. Their first child, Ricky, was born in Buffalo in 1970.

Mr. Macomber's first top horse was the stakes-winning trotter Nevele Impulse, a 10-time winner at age three in 1980 and the winner of the Yonkers Trot that year. Then came Trim The Tree p,2,1:53.3 ($528,098), who set a world record in Grand Circuit action at The Red Mile in the fall of 1982. The colt by High Ideal won three heats in Lexington, which came two weeks after he had captured the Kentucky Pacing Derby at Louisville Downs.

At age three Trim The Tree began his season by winning the $300,000 Shelly Goudreau Memorial Championship at Los Alamitos, with his winning time of 1:55.2 the fastest ever at Los Al. He was shipped east and won the Windy City Pace at Maywood Park in May, but suffered an injury and the Chicago race was the last victory of his abbreviated 10-start season. He was syndicated and retired to stud at Almahurst Farm in Kentucky.

While Trim The Tree's sophomore season was cut short, Mr. Macomber had another major stakes winner in the pacing filly Milynn Hanover p,3,1:53 ($488,269). Owned by Ed Gold and Joe and JoAnn Thomson, Milynn Hanover won 13 of 17 starts as a 2-year-old in 1982 and seven of 10 starts at age three.

"He got weaker throughout the summer, but he loved being here and seeing the grandchildren," said Jamie Rucker.

In addition to son Ricky and daughter-in-law Jamie, Mr. Macomber is survived by his wife, Carol; daughters, Kelly (Steve) and Kim; and grandchildren, Nate, Aubrey, Taylor, Blake and Sarah.

The family will celebrate Mr. Macomber's life on Sunday (Sept. 20) starting at 1 p.m. and throughout the day at 2538 East 550 South, Anderson, IN 46017.

Safe from Terror Upsets Again in $170k Nadia Lobell at the Meadows

By Evan Pattak

WASHINGTON, PA - When Safe From Terror surprised the field and bettors by winning the Sept. 5 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes championship at 45-1, some may have dismissed it as a fluke.

Safe From Terror

They likely won't be saying that about her any longer, as she scored her second consecutive upset, this time at 5-1, in Wednesday's $170,000 Nadia Lobell for 3-year-old filly pacers at The Meadows — and took the overland route to do it.

Sassa Hanover wanted the lead from the rail, but she was pressured early by Divine Caroline and Storm Point, forcing her to step a lively opening half in 26.3/54.4. With all that early speed, winning driver Matt Kakaley knew the front end might collapse but wasn't sure third over was the place to be.

"I was a little worried," Kakaley said, "but I wanted to get her out in the flow of the race anyway. It worked out perfect, really, because the front end kind of fell apart off the last turn."

Safe From Terror moved four wide through the stretch to down another closer, The Show Returns, by a length in 1:50.4, a career best. Divine Caroline was full of pace but lacked room and had to settle for show.

The back-to-back upsets by the daughter of Western Terror-In A Safe Place didn't surprise Kakaley.

"I've won a lot of races with this filly, and she's always been very, very good," he said. "There was a point for a few starts where she was just okay, not great, but she was very good today."

Ron Burke trains Safe From Terror, who now boasts $449,992 in lifetime earnings, for Our Horse Cents Stables, Stable 45 and J&T Silva Stables.

In the $20,000 Filly & Mare Not Listed Preferred/Preferred Handicap Pace, Certified Ideal collected a front-end victory — her third in the last four starts — in 1:51.2 for Tony Hall, trainer Randy Bendis and owners Mike Novosel, Jr., Tom Pollack, James Walton and Bendis. Do Me Honor was second, 1/2 length back, with Jaded Dream third. The 5-year-old daughter of Western Ideal-Areba's Last soared over $400,000 in career earnings.

It was one of four wins for Hall on the 15-race card.

Dime A Dance sets a world record at Batavia Downs

By Tim Bojarski, Batavia Downs Media Relations

BATAVIA, NY - A lightning-fast track and 80 degree temperatures greeted the New York Sire Stakes 2-year-old pacing fillies at Batavia Downs where two divisions offering a total of $109,000 in purses, along with important points needed to make the NYSS final, were up for grabs on Wednesday night (Sept. 16).

Prohibitive 2-5 favorite Dime A Dance didn't disappoint her backers as she put on a show in her $54,500 division, winning in definitive style and resetting the world's record for a 2-year-old pacing filly over a half-mile track.

Dime A Dance (Roll With Joe-Hat Dance Hanover) took off the pace fourth and watched as No Clouds Bluechip (Kevin Cummings) and American Ivy (Mark Macdonald) duked it out for the lead in a fast :26.4 quarter. From there, the field remained stagnant until the half when Mother Of Art (John Cummings Jr.) pulled first over from third and Dime A Dance (Matt Kakaley) took cover second-over behind her.

The group picked up the pace with a :28.4 third panel but that wasn't fast enough for the eventual winner. Dime A Dance swung three-deep at that station and circled the field to clear and pull away by three-lengths in an impressive and uncontested victory in 1:52.4.

The time was a new world's record for 2-year-old pacing fillies, besting that of Isabella Blue Chip's 1:53.1 at Delaware, Ohio in 2006. It was also a new track record for Batavia Downs, smashing the old standard of 1:54.2 set by Sassa Hanover just last year.

"She's definitely one of the better fillies this year. She was just awesome tonight; she could have paced faster" said driver Matt Kakaley.

It was the third win in eight starts for Dime A Dance ($2.90) and it pushed her earnings to $101,513 for owners Our Horse Cents Stable, Blue Chip Bloodstock and J&T Silva Stables. The filly is trained by Ron Burke.

In the first $54,500 division, Encore Deo hung on strong down the lane for a close victory over Art Critic.

Wishy Washy Girl (Ray Schnittker) took a quick, early lead before yielding to Encore Deo (Matt Kakaley) before the quarter that went in :28. The field remained single-file to the half before the heavily favored Upside Surprise (Mike Micallef) pulled from fifth to start her outside trek.

Upside Surprise got to third and hung and couldn't gain anymore as the leader took the field to three quarters in 1:25.4. Positions stayed the same to the top of the stretch and Encore Deo was riding a short lead when Art Critic (Jim Morrill Jr.) swung inside the fading Wishy Washy Girl and came up the pylons. The two battled in deep stretch with Encore Deo just hanging on by a nose in 1:55.1.

"I wanted to try her on the lead tonight. At three-quarters I thought I was going to win but it got a little close there at the end" said Matt Kakaley.

It was the second win in eight starts for Encore Deo ($13.40) and the winning time was a new lifetime mark for the filly. The winner's share of the purse pushed her earnings to $56,578 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Jason Melillo and Lawrence Carr. Ron Burke mentors the filly.

There were also two divisions of the $15,000 NYSS excelsior series on Wednesday.

The first split was won by Major Millie (Art Major-Gravity) in 1:57. The filly is trained by Erv Miller and was driven to the victory by Matt Kakaley. Major Millie ($9.10) is owned by KDM Stables Corp.

The second stanza was won by Milky Way Rae (American Ideal-Aurora Borealis) in a swift 1:55.3. She is trained by Tracy Brainard and was driven by Jim Morrill Jr. Milky Way Rae ($3.90) is owned by Fortunate One LLC.
