With the first crops of four new stallions set to begin selling tonight at the Fasig-Tipton Pavilion in Lexington, KY, the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale has a decidedly different complexion to last year's record auction in which very few progeny of new stallions went through the ring.

This year, the first crops of pacers Captaintreacherous, Sweet Lou and Sunshine Beach will be sold, along with the initial offerings of trotters Trixton, Father Patrick, Uncle Peter, E L Titan and Royalty For Life.

"It's pretty exciting to have the first-crop sires out there," said David Reid of Preferred Equine, who also shares the sales manager role with Randy Manges.

All five sale sessions – running on consecutive nights through Saturday – start at 7 p.m.

Consignors and potential buyers at Fasig-Tipton on Monday said they were particularly excited about the first offerings of Captaintreacherous and Sweet Lou, Father Patrick and Trixton.

"Overall, the buzz is positive for all four of them," said Adam Bowden of Diamond Creek Farm "We've got two on the trotting side, two on the pacing side, on a national level... I think there is going to be a lot of opportunity for people to buy a nice prospect."

Last year, Somebeachsomewhere on the pacing side and Muscle Hill on the trotting side were even more dominant in the ring than in previous years. The two accounted for $10,769,000 in sales, 33 per cent of the total sale gross despite representing just 16 per cent of the total number of yearlings sold.

Muscle Hill led all sires in gross with $5,948,000 from 52 yearlings, an average of $114,385.

Somebeachsomewhere led the sale in average with $123,615 from 39 yearlings that sold for $4,821,000 combined.

"Basically, it was a laser beam to those two and everybody focused on those horses. This year, you have four new stallions to spread out the money," said Steve Stewart of Hunterton Farm. "I think it's a good thing for everybody. I don't think it's a perfect scenario when you have total, total domination of one trotter and one pacer. I think it's better when you spread it out, but then you might go back to the laser beam if those four don't do anything. We'll find out."

Bob Brady of Kentuckiana Farms said, "I think these

TO BUY A "BIG HORSE" IS WITH PREFERRED

You'll be hearing a lot about Captainteacherous this week. And every time you do, remember that in 2011 he was sold as Hip No. 53 on opening night at this very sale, after being led to the Fasig-Tipton auction ring from Barn 1 in Preferred Equine's consignment area. You know where to look for your big horse.

first-crop stallions are going to get a real good look. The Trixtons are very nice, the Captains are nice, the Patricks are nice, the Sweet Lous are nice... it's going to help be a more balanced sale."

"Just because they are first-crop sires doesn't mean the amount of money that we are going to sell them for is going to double," said Steve Jones of Cameo Hills. "It's just in how the money will be distributed and that will probably be less to Somebeachsomewhere and Muscle Hill."

Bowden said, "I think these new stallions kind of provide some competition, at least starting in the sales ring, and then we'll see on the track next year. I think it makes it more exciting."

In 2016, 573 yearlings were sold at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for a gross of $32,262,000 and a record average of $56,304 that smashed the previous average record of $45,220 set in 2015. Despite 69 fewer horses being sold in 2016 compared to 2015, the gross was up $3.23 million and 11 per cent from the $29,031,000 fetched in 2015 when 642 horses were sold. The 2016 gross was the second highest in sale history behind only the $35,648,962 set in 2007 when 791 yearlings were sold – 218 more than in 2016.

Last year, the sale also produced an $800,000 yearling when a Muscle Hill—Southwind Serena colt named Tactical Landing sold for the second highest price in harness history for a yearling at auction and. Meanwhile, Come See The Show, a Somebeachsomewhere—Put On A Show filly, sold for $550,000.

Reid said the new mix of first-crop sires, “gives buyers different choices that they haven’t had in the past. You’ll have some people who can’t wait for first-crop sires and some people who want to go back to the old reliables, Muscle Hill and Somebeachsomewhere.”

Brady said it should mean a solid sale through all five sessions ending Saturday night.

But can this year’s sale top last year’s sale?

“I’m a bad guy to ask, because I always say that we’ll be down,” Reid said. “Any time you sell a horse for $800,000 and a pacing filly for $500,000, it’s always a tough feat to repeat. I would predict that we’re not going to repeat that this year. That being said, I do believe that we’re going to have a solid market. The market is going to be what it’s going to be when they get in there, but I know there’s a lot of nice horses here. I know there are future champions and buyers just have to come and find them.”

Tactical Landing was sold by Hunterton, but Stewart predicted Hunterton would not top the sale again this year.

“We don’t have the horses that we had last year. We have a lot of nice horses... but last year was pretty much all trotters and this year is a pretty good mix of trotters and pacers for us,” Stewart said. “We had an $800,000, a $550,000. We had the two highest-priced trotting fillies of the year, as it turned out. We don’t have that (this year), but it doesn’t mean that we don’t have a lot of good horses to sell... I think the sale will be good. I think there is tremendous demand.”

Jones said the Lexington sale features, “the strongest catalogue in the industry, by far, and that gap seems to be widening every year for some reason. I guess because the consignors here have made a tremendous investment in their broodmares, at least I know I have."

"The quality of the catalogue is exceptional," Reid said. "I think people will come to the sale and have done their homework and I look forward to a good sale."

Though the new sires are getting some buzz, Reid was quick to point out that there will be plenty of Muscle Hills on offer. "He's a dominant sire, obviously. You can't have too many of those, I can tell you that," Reid said.

Top Ontario-based, Quebec-born trainer Luc Blais said the Lexington sale is, "the place for trotters, if you're looking for that. There's lots of good breeding here."

Leading Ontario Sires Stakes trainer Mark Steacy said if he had the bankroll, he'd like to take home some "really nice Father Patricks and Muscle Hills... (But) I think pacing fillies are a little weak, as far as U.S. bred."

Steve Williams of White Birch Farm predicted the sale numbers would be "very close" to last year's numbers.

"There's no better place to sell a horse," he said.

Brady said the impact of the revised Kentucky Sires Stakes program (full story here) on buyer interest in Kentucky-eligible yearlings has been "huge. There's a lot of guys doing the double-dip deal, racing in New York and then coming down (to Kentucky) for a couple of legs. It's a big, big plus. People are actually seeking them out, looking for Kentucky-eligibles — and asking why they are not — so I think it's a big help.

"I would have never thought, in the rest of my life, that I would hear somebody say, 'Show me your Kentucky-eligibles' and we're hearing that now and it is such sweet music to my ears to hear people asking for Kentucky-breds. It's been a long time. I'm very happy to hear it."

Brady said the eligibility requirement that mares more reside in Kentucky for 180 days has led to an increase in boarding business in the state.

"We have an outstanding group of trotting broodmare bands on the farm and that's being driven by the Libfeld/Katz group and it's going to continue to push the top for us," Brady said. "I have to turn people away, guys that want to be in the program (and board at our farm). We've got 150 mares on the farm and we are trying to keep it at that number. It's been great."

Brady said Kentuckiana will sell some 80 yearlings and has, "a great group of trotters to sell. We've got the Muscle Hill out of To Dream On and he's a standout colt... That will be our sale-topper and, I think, the overall sale-topper."

"Then we're well-represented with the Father Patrick out of Designed To Be. He's another outstanding colt. Then the Captaintreacherous, we've got a great group of those."

Preferred Equine will sell 141 yearlings.

"It's up a little bit from last year, but it's in line for the last four or five years," Reid said. "As usual with Preferred, we always have a wide range of horses in all categories. We have a strong contingent of Muscle Hills. We have a lot of nice trotting colts and nice trotting fillies. On the pacing side, obviously, we have Captaintreacherous and some Sweet Lous and some nice Somebeaches. We really have a good mixture and a lot of nice horses."

Winbak Farms will sell some 300 yearlings this year, 68 of them in Lexington.

"At Winbak, the horses we have are really good and consistent. We are really big on breeding in four different places... we love to breed in Pennsylvania, we love to breed in Ontario and we love to breed in New York and we love to breed in Delaware, all of which have slots," said Winbak owner Joe Thomson. "The people, if they don't make the Grand Circuit, have the best fallback. We've been number one in New York. We've been number one in Canada. We've been number one in Delaware."

"We're particularly fond of what we've done in Canada. We love the Canadian program. They continue to have more racetracks than most anywhere to share in their Sires Stakes program, so we are very, very strong with our Canadian consignment here. Two weeks from now, we'll be selling more Canadian horses in Canada and we're very optimistic about the outcome for them."

Bowden said Diamond Creek will sell 35 yearlings exclusively at this year's sale.

"That's normal for here, but we're selling just here this year," Bowden said of Lexington. "It's a nicer place for me to sell, it's close and convenient. Our farm is 10 minutes from here and it's a beautiful place to sell."

Bowden said the highlight of his consignment is hip 56.

"It's a Captaintreacherous colt, first colt from a mare (Loving Caroline) that's given us a Dan Patch winner so far. I think he's the real deal," Bowden said. "He's a big colt, but he's elegant and graceful and light on his feet out in the field. He moves like a good horse, so I think he's the real deal."

"Then I've got a colt on Day Two. He's an A Rocknroll Dance colt from Somewhereoverainbow. It's her first foal and he's pretty close to being a perfect horse."

White Birch will sell 13 yearlings – nine on opening night – through Preferred Equine.

"We'll know after Tuesday night how it comes out, but I'm very excited about the group we brought this year," Williams said. "I think, collectively, it's the best bunch we've ever brought here from White Birch."

"Just great individuals, to begin with... We've got the full brother to Captaintreacherous, got the Muscle Hill brother to Bee A Magician. I've got the three-quarter sister to Darlinonthebeach. Just up and down the line, as far as our pedigree, it's never been better," Williams said.

Jones was also bullish on his Cameo Hills consignment.

"We've got five fillies that we are selling opening night. It's the best group of fillies we've ever brought down here," Jones said. "In that bunch is a Muscle Hill filly out of a sister to Dejarmbro and a Trixton filly out of Check Me Out. A Captaintreacherous filly out of Glowing Report. A Sweet Lou out of Yellow Diamond. I think all four of those fillies are very correct and well-bred. I think they will be very well-received."

Hunterton will sell 80 yearlings.

"We probably have a stronger (sale) from beginning to end," Stewart said. "Last year, it was stronger at the beginning, but we probably have stronger throughout the sale, deeper this year.”

David Heffering of Tara Hills Stud is selling three first-crop yearlings in Lexington – two by Royalty For Life and one by Uncle Peter.

“We’re pretty excited. The Royalty For Lifes look really good,” Heffering said of the stallion that stands at his Port Perry, ON farm. “We’ve got a bit riding on this, a fairly large investment and we want our investors and the people who stood behind us to make out well.

“Hopefully people remember how good Royalty For Life looked when he won the Hambletonian.”

Despite thinking the string of Hunterton selling the sales topper will be broken, Stewart said the vibe in the industry is one of optimism.

“In past years, I remember people saying, ‘Who’s going to buy all of these horses?’ But there is zero negativity right now. Not a hint, not a thought,” Stewart said. “We’ve been swamped at the farm and it’s so refreshing when people come and get excited. That’s the best part of the business. A lot of times the racetrack feeds that negativity... you might hear breeders complaining, but when you’re on the farm it’s more of a positive atmosphere and it’s encouraging. We’ve spent as much as anybody, probably more than most people, and you know as well as I do that the one who buys mares is the most confident about the business because it’s such a long-term.”

Thomson is quick to point out the great opportunity that awaits yearling buyers.

“I don’t know that it’s any more than in the last several years, but there is a ton of money available,” Thomson said.

“When you look at Pennsylvania, there’s $16 or $18 million, just in the Sires Stakes program. Ontario’s got an equal amount of money. New York’s got a ton of money. Ohio, which we have ignored in the past, but I don’t think we are going to ignore it in the future because they are doing a lot of things right. They’ve got too many stallions and not enough good mares, but that’ll improve over time. You’ve got a lot of smart people out there that do the right things. They put together this program that has nothing but positives attached to it.

“Compared to the thoroughbreds, you can buy the top mares and you can get to the top stallions. People are so friendly and they’ll help you out. There are a lot of racetracks that you can race the horses and so forth. You can have a lot of fun and you can make some money racing horses in our sport.”

Joe Thomson: Two major reasons it will be a great sale

Winbak Farms owner Joe Thomson on why it will be a great sale:

"If you're following the markets, the trends have been optimistic. The stock market is probably at an all-time high. Usually when the stock market is good, the horse market is good. The other thing is that the thoroughbreds, over at Keeneland, had a terrific year. Their prices were up. They did over $300 million dollars, which is unheard of, and is great."

3 years leading to this moment

On the eve of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, several consignors talk about the three-year journey it took to get their yearlings from a planned mating to the sale.

by Dave Briggs

Adam Bowden

Adam Bowden of Diamond Creek Farm:

"I'm not sure I get nervous, it's more excited and anxious. I just want it to start. We've put the work in, the staff has put the work in and the horses are what they are, so now I just want everyone else to like them as much as I do... It's three years from the time we decide on breeding, breed the mares, foal them out and prep them. It's a long process."

Dave Landry

Bob Brady of Kentuckiana Farms:

"We're so excited. When you get lucky and the stars line up with an outstanding individual and the pedigree is there and conformation is there, it's just fun. It's a lot of fun. But we're not there yet because the hammer has not fallen."

Bob Brady

Steve Jones of Cameo Hills:

"It depends on the horse. If you invest all that time and money and then the night before the sale the horse has got a leg that's as big as a football, then it's not as exciting as if they get to that day unblemished. If you get to that point (unblemished), then it's the culmination of a lot of hard work and time and investment and you hope for the best."

Steve Stewart of Hunterton Farm:

"We bought Mission Brief (as a broodmare) for $650,000. We don't have visions of selling the first foal for $650,000 and that's three years away. (My wife) Cindy said yesterday, 'I was driving through the barns and they were all empty and it was so depressing'. I said, 'What are you talking about? It's a time to rejoice, we've done it. We've accomplished it.' It's probably like the mother saying, 'Aw, my baby's gone off to college,' but it's like 'We win. It's done. We finished our tour of duty.' So that might be the difference between the maternal response and the paternal response."

Steve Williams on rooting for a “sentimental favorite”

Nearly two years after White Birch Farm owner Michael Parisi died, farm manager Steve Williams said he has a “sentimental favorite” among the 13 yearlings he has consigned to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale via Preferred Equine.

“It’s a Sweet Lou filly, number 80. Naomi’s Treasure, out of the full sister to Captaintreacherous. Michael, God rest his soul, spent over $100,000 saving that mare’s life. She had a lung infection, three surgeries. I treated the mother every four hours for close to two months. She gave us this as a return thank-you – a beautiful, beautiful Sweet Lou filly that is probably got the best attitude of every filly that I’ve ever been around. She’s just happy all the time, so I look from big things from her. She might not be my most expensive one, but she’s the one I like the most.”

Slot tracks and accountability - an ongoing racing problem

by Dean Towers

The profit motive is not necessarily a pro-racing motive, and it shows.

I was on the social media machine on Sunday evening, perusing what topics people were discussing. Most, of course (hey, it was Sunday), were speaking about the NFL. But at about 8 p.m. I noticed a few harness fans mentioning they just stumbled upon the fact that the Pompano Park meet was opening in just minutes.

The replies were, well, interesting.

"Pompano Park is opening? I had not heard."

"I think this is fake news."

"I like Pompano and I would've played tonight if I knew they were opening!"

Thinking people must be mistaken, I put on my detective cap. I popped over to the Pompano Park Twitter Feed but saw their account had not been active for over a month. I searched Google News for press releases and found nothing. I queried twitter for "Pompano Park" and saw that the casino has a new guaranteed hold 'em tournament starting up, a Pompano surgeon is rated the best in the area for breast augmentation, and trees were down in the county due to Hurricane Irma. But I saw nothing about Sunday's so-called "opener".

Then, this modern day Matlock decided to check Gabe Prewitt's twitter feed. Gabe would be saying something about the meet because he's Director of Racing at Pompano, and he's always promoting the place (hell, I think I wagered $10k last season because Gabe would inevitably pop up on my feeds telling me to "send it in"). There, however, I found nothing once again; other than the fact that Gabe doesn't list Pompano as a current employer.

Finally, I logged into my betting website, and sure enough, right in front of me showing 10 minutes to post was Pompano Park. After navigating this maze I was happy I uncovered the truth – that yes, Pompano Park's fall 2017 opener was indeed right now – but I was disappointed I didn't earn a piece of cheese.

UPDATE

It appears I was more of an exception than the rule, because last year's opener had a decent sized $6,000 pick 5 pool and a nice $6,000 pick 4 pool. This year those numbers were much smaller.

Let me say that I have no idea who is running Pompano Park and I also completely understand that mistakes are made; that things are forgotten or glossed over; that every "i" is sometimes not dotted, every "t" is not always crossed. We are all human, and we're all not perfect, in life or at work. I don't want to throw anyone under the bus.

But my question is simple: why does this always seem to be the pattern?

Why is it that when a new bank of slot machines open – or there's a new promo at a poker table – do we have to be living under a rock not to know about it, but if the race part of the racino opens we have to become Sherlock Holmes?

Why is it that when there's a power outage and the track lighting goes down everyone is sent home, but if there's a similar power outage in the casino portion (who are we kidding, there's never one of those) it's like Kim Jung Un just released a missile and we have to scramble the Black Sheep Squadron?

Why do we hear about slots takeout lowered to 7 per cent to help customers play more (and have a better experience) being good business, but if you ask the same people to lower takeout on the other side of the racino from 30 per cent to 25 per cent (to do exactly the same thing) you're considered crazy?

Time and time again, month after month, year after year, if something goes wrong, it tends to go wrong on the racing side of the business. The data is far too plentiful to chalk up to randomness.

In my view, the immutable truth is that the casino side of the horse racing business is owned (for the most part) by a corporation. That corporation is owned by shareholders, and shareholders fund capital projects because they want a rate of return. Because corporations make little or no money on the racing side of the business, only minimal resources are placed into the racing side of the business. Such is life, and unless you're Bernie Madoff, such is an income statement.

However, this is not the way it should be. The casino portion of the business is only there – for that company and that set of shareholders – precisely because it is a part of a racetrack, and when these deals were written they needed to be more in-tune with that truism. Yes, some deals mandate a portion of revenue to fund capital projects and the like (and of course money goes directly into purses), but these agreements were broad, extremely weak, and easy to get around.

It's not like this at all racinos – Centaur Gaming at Hoosier Park comes to mind as a company who does more than they're mandated to do – but for many others, it's just the way they do business.

In the coming years there's a chance slot revenue will be a thing of the past, but there's also a strong possibility that these agreements will be extended and reworked. If the latter happens, racing should be very cognizant to write deals that hold the racino managers explicitly accountable. If that's accomplished, I think the sport will be a whole lot better off.

French horse upsets in Grand Prix de l'U.E.T.

by Thomas Hedlund

Three European harness racing association (U.E.T.) races were held at Solvalla on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 30) and in the big European Derby for the 4-year-olds, Drole de Jet, driven and trained by Pierre Vercruysse, won in 1:55.4 (mile rate) over 2.140 meters (1.3 miles).

Four horses came home in 1:55.4 and it was the leader Drole de Jet (Coktail Jet—Likely Jet) that kept his opponents close behind. Vercruysse had some difficulties keeping Drole de Jet on a straight lane in the home stretch, but the judges did not consider that this special incident interfered with the horses that attacked on the outside.

Norwegian bred Born In The U.S.A (Muscle Hill—Christina Rose) finished strongly three wide and was close to the winner. Monark Newmen (Orlando Vici—Lady Value) was strong outside the leader and Gareth Boko (Make It Happen—Vanilla Boko) finished fourth as locked in behind the winner.

"I think this is a horse for the big European races in the future and so far I haven't stressed (Drole de Jet) in any way. He's quick behind the gate for being a French horse and I had some hope of getting to the front. The next big objective for Drole de Jet is Kriterium Continental in Paris in December," Vercruysse said after the big victory.

The U.E.T. arranged two additional races during the afternoon in Stockholm. The $123,000 European Championship for 5-year-olds over 1.3 miles saw a big favorite in Readly Express (Ready Cash—Caddie Dream) post an easy 1:55.4 (mile rate) victory. The Timo Nurmos trainee is the big star in the Swedish 5-year-old crop and came into the race off a magnificent performance in Jubileumspokalen at Solvalla in August. This time, driver Jorma Kontio controlled the field of six horses from the lead and Ready Express sprinted to his 11th straight victory.

In the $123,000 European Championship for 3-year-olds, Jerry Riordan-trained Vamp Kronos (Ready Cash—Only Kronos) won in a knock out from third over. Björn Goop put in the highest gear with 600 meters to go and Vamp Kronos sat in front when a quarter of a mile remained of the race. The eight-length victory in a 1:56.1 (mile rate) impressed trainer Riordan, who continues to make this year successful for his stable.

"I have had many fillies that have been mean to handle, but this one is completely different, which is a little bit strange since Ready Cash is her father. She's like a dream to be around and I'm grateful for that," Riordan said.

World record in Swedish Kriterium

The $492,000 Kriteriet for Swedish-bred 3-year-olds was held at Solvalla last Sunday (Oct. 1) and the spectators got to witness a spectacular performance from a new star trained by Timo Nurmos.

Nurmos can look back at a weekend where his star Readly Express (Ready Cash) won the European Championship for 5 year olds on Saturday, followed by an impressive win by Villiam (Muscle Hill—Gold Strike) in the Swedish Kriterium on Sunday.

Villiam tried the distance of 2,640 meters (1.6 miles) for the first time in his elimination for the Kriterium two weeks before the final and from outside leader Very Kronos he fought strongly and took a place in the final behind Very Kronos.

For the Kriterium, Nurmos tried to let Villiam race without shoes and with earplugs for the first time. That was a move that worked out well.

Driver Jorma Kontio, with over 10,000 victories, placed Villiam in front early and he let the Muscle Hill son keep a good pace through the whole race. In the last turn, Villiam had 1 1/2-length lead and although Coin Perdu (S.J.'s Caviar) finished strongly from third over, Villiam was unthreatened in the home stretch. Villiam won in a world record time of 1:55.4 (mile rate).

Nurmos was touched by the moment and it's easy to understand why. This was his sixth winner in the Kriterium since 2006, but Villiam is a special horse since Nurmos not only is the trainer, he is also the breeder and owner. Nurmos also trained and owned Villiam's mother, Gold Strike, who won 12 out of 24 starts in her career.

"This is the biggest thing for me. My own breeding, my own horse and I knew that Villiam was something special the same day he was born. He is a star and I named him after my grandfather," Nurmos said with tears in his eyes after the victory.

Svante Båth had five horses in the race and finished second with Coin Perdu, while one of the favourites, Very Kronos, got stressed and never really found his gait behind the car.

Joakim Lövgren's Husse Boko (Chocolatier) finished third.

Candy la Marc wins Swedish Oaks

As in the Kriterium, a Hambletonian winner also sired the winner of the $344,000 Swedish Oaks for the 3-year-old fillies. Scarlet Knight mare Candy la Marc, owned and trained by amateur Lars Marcussen in Denmark, followed up her strong victory from the lead in the elimination by winning the final from the position behind heavy favorite Dibaba (Ready Cash).

Driver Erik Adielsson made a smart move when he let Dibaba get the front position. In the home stretch, the horse outside the leader was affected by the pace and Candy la Marc got the space she needed to sprint down the leader. This was an upset winner in the Oaks and a dream come true for the people behind the horse.

"With 100 meters to go, I felt that we were going to get it. My horse had a little bit easier trip compared to Dibaba and Candy la Marc was really good. I'm thankful that I got the opportunity to drive this horse in this race," Adielsson said.

Candy la Marc was the only mare in the race that not had the chance of double prize money and she earned $172,000. The mile rate over the distance 2.140 meter (1.3 miles) was 1:56.4.

Dibaba finished second and earned 172,000 dollars while Run Chica Run (Scarlet Knight) took the third place.

Kriterium Sale

Offspring of 2014 Hambletonian winner Trixton continue to top the sales in Scandinavia.

Leave Your Sox On, a colt by Trixton out of Lindy's Got Back was sold for $61,500 and the filly Cute And Charming, out of Onika L.B. was sold for $52,000. The new owner of the colt Prometheus, out of Västerbo Collect, paid $49,000. The first crop from Trixton have been desirable so far.

The Kriterium sale was presented in a new format this year. Usually the breeders and buyers spend three days together in connection to the Kriterium, but 2017 has been different. Wenngarn yearling sales opened their doors in 2016 with a one-day of sale in August and many well-bred horses were sold last year. For that reason, Wenngarn offered two sale days in 2017. That made the Kriterium sale one day shorter and the selected sales in Sweden are now concentrated to Kolgjini sales in the end of July and at Wenngarn sales.

The average price at the Kriterium sale was $11,400 (down 15 per cent from 2016) but it's yet too early to make any conclusions about the climate of the harness racing business after one year with these new conditions. Over all, many expensive horse have been sold in Sweden and Europe this year and for the breeders in Sweden, there is always a chance to get more money after the sale. Breeders of 2-, 3-, and 4-year-old horses earn 20 per cent of purse money, so the chance of a profit does not end when a horse is sold.

International Moni, Lindy The Great take Bluegrass tests

by Ray Coto for Red Mile

Trainer Frank M. Antonacci and Lindy Farms took two of three divisions of the $216,300 Explosive Matter Bluegrass 3-year-old colt and gelding trot — presented by the Explosive Matter Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms — on Sunday (Oct. 1) at Red Mile, winning the first with Lindy The Great in 1:52.1 and the third with International Moni in 1:51.4.

Going the quarter in :27.3 and a half in :55.3, Lindy The Great expanded his lead over pocket-sitter Jake moving around the far turn, holding a four-length advantage over Jake and Moonshiner Hanover, first over in third, at three-quarters in 1:23.4.

Cruising in the stretch, Lindy The Great's lead diminished as Guardian Angel As weaved into contention off a rail trip, reeling in the leader coming to the line while Bill's Man followed suit, rallying from second-over into third. Guardian Angel As, marching to try and overtake Lindy The Great in the final strides, was a neck shy of victory, while Bill's Man, the even-money favorite, finished a length behind in third.

Winning his fourth race in 11 starts, Lindy The Great, by Crazyed out of the Muscles Yankee mare Highscore Kemp, has amassed $127,033 in earnings for owners K R Breeding LLC and Robert Rudolph. Driven by Scott Zeron, he paid $25.80 to win.

Antonacci's other win came with International Moni, who gained control in the stretch and bested 7-5 favorite What The Hill in 1:51.4.

What The Hill, Long Tom, and Devious Man vied for the early lead, with Long Tom and Devious Man yielding to What The Hill through a :27 quarter. Unchallenged on the front, What The Hill hit the half in :54 seconds while International Moni, trotting fifth, moved first-over, soon matching strides with the tempo setter at three-quarters in 1:23.1 before overtaking him into the stretch.

International Moni trotted clear from a wall of horses, with King On The Hill closing towards the center of the track to take second, while Devious Man weaved off the rail and through horses to take third.

Owned by the Moni Maker Stable, International Moni, by Love You out of the Speedy Crown mare Moni Maker, won his seventh race in 22 starts, earning $482,442. Driven by Scott Zeron, he paid $10.60 to win.

Commandeering the field after the half, 2-1 favorite Dover Dan blew away his competition in the second of three divisions, romping by 8-3/4 lengths in 1:51.3.

Getting away fourth, Dover Dan made his move for the top following a :28.1 quarter set by Shake It Off Lindy. Tracking the backside brush by New Jersey Viking prior to a :55.2 half, Dover Dan progressed uncovered to take the lead into the final turn, gaining a wide lead while New Jersey Viking faltered at the rail in second.

Past three-quarters in 1:23.1, Dover Dan continued to grow his lead in the stretch, finishing clear of Snowstorm Hanover, rallying from the center of the track, in second and Rubio, sneaking up the inside, in third.

Owned by William Wiswell, Jean Goehlen, and Eugene Schick, Dover Dan, by Andover Hall from the Royal Troubador mare Cr Kay Suzie, won his ninth race in 27 starts, earning $510,695. Trained by John Butenschoen and driven by Corey Callahan, he paid $6.60 to win.

Ariana G glides in Bluegrass filly trot

Going off as the 1-9 favorite, sophomore filly trotting giant Ariana G continued her reign over the division, taking the second of three divisions of the $183,900 Cantab Hall Bluegrass 3-year-old filly trot, sponsored by Hanover Shoe Farms and Brittany Farms, by 4-1/2 lengths in 1:52.2.

Yannick Gingras floated Ariana G towards the top, wide before clearing the lead past a :28.4 opening quarter. She remained in front on an uncontested lead, going a half in :57.1 and three-quarters in 1:26 before drawing away from pocket-sitter Fine Tuned Lady, who finished second, and Dream Together, chasing in third.

Winning her 19th race in 23 starts, Ariana G, by Muscle Hill out of the Cantab Hall mare Cantab It All, is a homebred for owners Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld, earning them over $1.5 million in her career. Trained by Jimmy Takter, she returned $2.10 to win.

Thats All Moni, also trained by Takter, took the first division of the Bluegrass filly trot in 1:52.2.

Evelyn set the pace, going fractions of :28 and :56.1 unchallenged on the lead. Highland Top Hill, sitting third, edged first-over moving into the turn, marching toward the pacesetter at three-quarters in 1:24.3 while carrying Thats All Moni into contention from second over.

Circumventing stalled cover, Thats All Moni rallied wide in the stretch, overtaking Evelyn and striding to a two-length lead over Overdraft Volo, pulling out of the pocket to take second, with Evelyn fading to third.

Dave Landry

Ariana G (Yannick Gingras) extended her dominance in the sophomore trotting fillies' division with a 1:52.2 victory in her Bluegrass division Sunday at Red Mile.

By Cantab Hall from the Pine Chip mare Mom's Millionaire, Thats All Moni, won her ninth race in 21 starts and has earned $455,914 for owners Brittany Farms, Marvin Katz, and Al Libfeld. Driven by Tim Tetrick, she paid $4.80 to win.

Sweeping first-over around the final turn, Ice Attraction held off 8-5 favorite Dream Baby Dream to win the final Bluegrass filly trot at 10-1 by a nose in 1:52.4.

Trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt positioned Ice Attraction fourth off a :28.2 quarter set by Feed Your Head. After a :57 half, Ice Attraction committed first over, drawing alongside Feed Your Head after a 1:25.1 third-quarter and took a narrow lead into the stretch.

As Feed Your Head dropped out of contention, Dream Baby Dream rallied from third over, overtaking pocket-sitter Treviso in third and rushing toward Ice Attraction trotting to the line, with Ice Attraction holding a slight advantage on the line while Treviso chased two lengths back in third.

Returning $22.20 to win, Ice Attraction, by Muscle Hill out of the Conway Hall mare The Ice Queen, won her seventh race in 23 starts, earning $213,772 for owners Ake Svanstedt Inc., Douglas Sipple, Mal and Janet Burroughs LLC, and Little E LLC.

Grand Circuit racing continues at Red Mile on Thursday (Oct. 5) with the International Stallion Stakes for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters. First race post is 1 p.m. EDT.

Dalliance Seelster (James MacDonald) led a John Bax sweep of the top three positions in the $50,000 OSS Grassroots championship for two-year-old trotting fillies Saturday at Mohawk.

OSS Grassroots Championship recap

Eight $50,000 finals were held Saturday at Mohawk.

by Sandra Snyder / OSS publicity

Eighty of the best trotters and pacers in Ontario gathered at Mohawk Racetrack on Saturday evening (Sept. 30) for the 2017 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Championships, competing for a total of $400,000 in eight divisional battles.

The two-year-old trotting fillies kicked things off in the first race and trainer John Bax swept the top three spots with his entry of Dalliance Seelster, Warrawee Trip and Gradabra. In rein to James MacDonald, Dalliance Seelster left smartly from Post 2, yielded to P L Layla just after the quarter pole and then circled out around that filly and Warrawee Trip before powering down the stretch to a one-and-three-quarter length victory over her stablemates in 2:00.

"James gave that filly a great drive,. I mean you couldn't have mapped it out any better than that," said Bax, also complimenting the efforts of drivers Steve Byron and Paul MacDonell. "She's been half sick all summer so the stars all lined up tonight. I'm happy for all the owners, including Matt and I. It couldn't be any better than that."

The Bax Stable, the trainer and his son Matt, shares ownership of the daughter of Holiday Road and Desi Sweet Sixteen with Glengate Farms of Mississauga, ON. A $30,000 purchase at last fall's Forest City Yearling Sale, Dalliance Seelster wrapped up her freshman campaign with one win, two seconds and two thirds in 10 starts and earnings of $40,487.

"John (Bax) does a great job with them. I give him a hard time because that's the one I picked out you see. The two he picked out were second and third," said Glengate Farms' Jim Bullock with a chuckle. "No, I don't buy anything without him looking at it, and we've been together a long time."

After the win, MacDonald recorded one second, a pair of thirds and three off-the-board results before returning to the Grassroots winners circle in the last showdown with three-year-old trotting filly Delcrest Magicstar. Starting from Post 9, the recently-crowned World Driving Champion had Delcrest Magicstar in high gear as soon as the wings folded and the pair rang up all the fractions on their way to a one-and-a-half length victory in 1:56.1.

The Ontario Sires Stakes' leading trainer Mark Steacy came close to replicating Bax's result from the first race as Ticket To Seattle and Stritch finished third and fourth behind their stablemate. Bustingattheseams broke up the Steacy trio, shadowing Delcrest Magicstar from start to finish and collecting the second-place share of the $50,000 purse.

"I really thought, as long as she got an okay trip, I thought she was the one to beat so I raced her like that and she didn't let me down," said MacDonald, who shares ownership of the Majestic Son—Star's Balance filly with Johnathan McKinnon of Guelph and Peter Porter of Port Dover, ON. "Front end's not her cup of tea and then coming back in four days, but it just didn't matter, she was the best tonight."

Delcrest Magicstar, who finished second in a Canadian record mile against the Gold Series fillies at Grand River Raceway on Wednesday evening, wrapped up her Grassroots season with a flawless record of four wins in four starts and boosted her season earnings to $103,617 with the victory.

Driver Jonathan Drury of Guelph also piloted two division winners, scoring with two-year-old pacing filly Love Kills and two-year-old pacing colt Pretty Handsome.

Love Kills (Badlands Hanover—Btwnyurheartnmine) reeled in division point leader and fan favourite Neon Moon with a 1:54.1 effort for trainer Carmen Auciello and owner Denarben Stables. Ashlees Sport was third.

In the two-year-old pacing colt contest, Pretty Handsome was elevated to the top spot when winner Phantom Seelster was ruled to have caused interference while manoeuvring from the rail to an open lane in the stretch. Pretty Handsome finished one length ahead of Letjimmytakeover and two lengths up on Sprocket in the 1:54 mile. Andrew McCabe of Guelph-Eramosa conditions the Mach Three—Pretty Thing son for owner Glenview Livestock Ltd. of Wallenstein, ON.

Like Delcrest Magicstar, three-year-old pacing colt Wildriverbumblebee wrapped up his Grassroots campaign with a flawless record and a commanding gate-to-wire performance. The Sportswriter—Alcor Semalu son cruised to a three and three-quarter length victory in 1:52.1, with The Dark Shadow and Dream Of Luck battling it out for second and third. Sylvain Filion engineered Wildriverbumblebee's third Grassroots win for trainer Francis Richard of Becancour, QC and owner-breeder Dr. John Bradbury of Cookshire-Eaton, QC, boosting the fan favourite's sophomore earnings to $87,125.

Just two division point leaders converted their regular season success into a division crown — two-year-old trotting gelding Stormont Ventnor and three-year-old pacing filly Shewearsthepants.

Stormont Ventnor delivered an impressive effort to earn the freshman trotting colt title, sitting in the outer lane for the better part of the mile before pulling away in the stretch to a one and three-quarter length victory in a personal best 1:57.4. James MacDonald piloted John Bax trainee Chief Justice into second and Barney Mac rounded out the top three.

"He raced huge," said Phil Hudon, who drove the Justice Hall—Lady Grenville gelding to the win for trainer Kevin Benn of Napanee and owner/breeder Eric Baker of Long Sault, ON. "I didn't want to be locked in, but I wouldn't have minded being second over. It didn't work out, but I was pretty confident in the colt."

Sent off the fans' top choice, Stormont Ventnor wrapped up his freshman Ontario Sires Stakes campaign with two wins and four seconds in six starts, for earnings of $52,937.

Favourite Shewearsthepants also delivered an impressive effort to claim the sophomore pacing filly crown, taking command at the :55.3 half and then battling all the way down the stretch to a 1:53 victory, one and one-half lengths ahead of Manhattan Play and Treasures Pearl.

"I actually did think we were in a little bit of trouble at the head of the stretch, because you can't torture her that way. I know she's got a lot of wins this year, but a lot of them have been off cover or like a first over or something. She hasn't win too many off the front the whole way, but she dug in tough," said driver Doug McNair. "She knows how to win, that's for sure. If she'd come in not winning as many she probably would have stopped in the stretch, but she's brave so she was good."

McNair engineered the win for his father, trainer Gregg McNair and owner/breeder Anatolia Farm LLC of New Holland, PA. In seven Grassroots starts the daughter of Big Jim and Simply Liz recorded five wins and two seconds and Saturday's victory boosted her season earnings to $119,182.

The other Grassroots trophy went home with three-year-old trotting gelding Yo Yo Mass, who squeaked up the inside to nab pacesetter Charmbo Chrome at the wire in 1:56.3. Vesuvio Bi came up the outside for third and the three colts were separated by a lean neck at the wire.

"All week I figured, this horse, he's better off the front end, we're better just to roll him and play catch me if you can," said trainer Kyle Reibeling. "But Jody (Jamieson) was patient, he gave him a great drive, everything worked out. I'm just tickled pink with the way things worked out."

Jamieson piloted Yo Yo Mass to the win for Reibeling and Nancy Grimble of Newcastle, ON. The Muscle Mass—Stonebridge Entice son was the runner-up in the point standings with two wins, two seconds and one fourth in five regular season Grassroots starts. His championship victory boosted the gelding's sophomore earnings to $81,780.
