Harrisburg Yearling Sale Up Sharply

The yearling sale concluded Wednesday with an average of $38,608 that was the highest in nine years and up 25.3 per cent over last year.

by Dave Briggs

As the last handful of yearlings headed for the auction ring Wednesday at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, Standardbred Horse Sales Company senior vice-president Jim Simpson, who doubles as the president of Hanover Shoe Farms, was looking extremely pleased with the results.

"It looks like we're headed for the second best sale we've ever had in average. I'm ecstatic," Simpson said.

The three-day yearling sale concluded with Wednesday's eight-and-a-half hour session. In all, 868 yearlings sold for a total gross of $33,511,501 to produce an average of $38,608 that was the highest in nine years – the 2007 sale averaged $40,784,000 – and the second highest average since at least 2002. This year's average was up 25.3 per cent, though 142 fewer horses were sold this year compared to 2015.

Sale president and CEO Pete Spears said it was a "great sale" because of "the adjustments on supply and demand. People have to have horses now. They are getting very close to having racehorse shortages and the breeders are not breeding as many horses. Ontario has yet to really ramp back up again (in terms of breeding numbers), after their disaster a few years ago, so people were still slugging until the very end here."

Hanover Shoe Farms led all consignors with gross sales of more than $10 million.

Serge Godin's Determination Stable based in Montreal led all buyers by spending more than $1.1 million to purchase nine yearlings.

Preferred Equine's David Reid agreed the strong sale is probably due to supply and demand.

"Any time we have a reduction it's with the lesser-quality horses, which is good," Reid said. "Now, in the next few years, we'll have to concentrate on supply and demand for the racetrack owners, because it will be interesting to see what happens."

Wednesday's session saw 389 yearlings gross $7,970,501, an average of $20,490 that was up 33.4 per cent from the 2015 third-session average of $15,364 produced when 360 yearlings grossed $5,531,000.

The Wednesday sale topper was a Chapter Seven colt out of Final Countdown named Alarm Detector that sold to Benoit Baillargeon of Guelph, ON for $110,000. Alarm Detector was consigned by Concord Stud Farm, agent. Another Canadian bought the second-highest yearling sold on Wednesday. Casie Coleman purchased Sportswriter—Ever Western colt Western Passage for $80,000. Coleman was the sale's fifth leading buyer. She spent $571,000 on 11 yearlings over three days.

Serge Godin's Determination Stable of Montreal was the sale's top buyer. He spent $1,140,000 on nine yearlings. The

The Winbak Farm team sold 98 yearlings for over $2.6 million.

Burke Racing Stable LLC was the second leading buyer, parting with $954,000, total, for 16 yearlings. Jimmy Takter, agent, was next on the list with $710,000 spent to take home four yearlings, followed by Jeffrey Synder, who spent $630,000, total, on four yearlings.

Heading into the Harrisburg sale, which started Monday (Nov. 7) and continued Tuesday (Nov. 8), sale organizers were confident the sale would be up for two reasons: 1. The Lexington Selected Yearling Sale posted record numbers and other regional sales mostly had positive results and 2.

Last year's Harrisburg sale numbers were impacted when the Pennsylvania governor threatened to shut down racing.

"We felt fairly confident because all of the other sales were strong," said sale vice-president Russell Williams. "They tend to move together, rising tide floats all boats, as they say. We stayed off the governor's horizon this year and we had a nice catalogue so it worked out."

"Last year was troubling because of the political situation," Simpson said. "Now we have legislation all passed with a combined commission that looks like it's very functional. We've got two standardbred horsepeople on the commission and two thoroughbred people on the commission."

This year's number were positively impacted by a select opening session in which 170 yearlings grossed $13,375,000 total for a record opening-session average of $78,676 that was up 41 per cent over the $55,781 opening session average in 2015.

"We did have a primo sale on Monday, selling fewer in order to start the momentum and, sure enough, it did carry through to the next day. Now today, it's an alphabetical day," Williams said.

Hunterton Farms' Steve Stewart said it was "a very good sale from start to finish, just like it was in Lexington. When the supply is reduced, the prices go up and that's what has happened... Last year, (Harrisburg) went to three days, but the supply stayed the same with just as many horses (as the year before). This year, they reduced it 10 per cent or more. Going to fewer horses the first day was the key, because it got the sale, just like Lexington, off to a rocking start."

Simpson said the sale would likely replicate the format next year.

"I think having the power on the first day and distributing the next two days somewhat evenly is a good formula," said Simpson. "Every year is different, but this formula has worked this year. I'm certainly leaning towards doing that next year."

"I think the buyers like us to stratify the horses, so people looking for money horse, we are doing a lot of their work for them. I think the same at Lexington, it's a good formula and a lot of people looking today don't bother looking Monday. I think it's good and it works out."

Most buyers and consignors agreed that a select Monday session worked well. Though, Twinbrook Farms' Tammy McNiven said she prefers having the yearlings divided equally over three days.

"Today is really long for everybody, so just to spread it out over the three days a little more evenly, I think it would be nicer for everybody, she said.

Twinbrook, which is based in Ontario, has been selling yearlings at Harrisburg for about 20 years. Last year, the farm had a career-best sale. This year's Twinbrook yearlings didn't fare quite as well, but McNiven said she was pleased with the results in which they sold eight yearlings for $357,000 total, an average of $44,625. Last year, Twinbrook sold 11 yearlings for $607,000 total, an average of $55,182.

"It's hard to live up to last year's expectation, but I think we still had a decent average this year, and because of Harrisburg being so good to us, we've really renewed our broodmare band and I think in the next two years we are going to have really nice stock to come down here.

"I'm really surprised more Canadians don't try to do what we do, but, you know, we've been lucky because we breed half and half (American vs. Canadian breds). This year, is the first year we've only had three Ontario Sired (yearlings to sell). We left them at home because of 30 cents on the dollar and we didn't think Canadians should have to come and pay the 30 per cent. So we had all American-breds here."

Hanover Shoe Farms led all consignors by a margin of $6.5 million with a gross of $10,047,500 for 215 yearlings sold ($46,733 average). Preferred Equine was second in gross with $3,428,500 for 114 yearlings ($30,075 average).

"I think (Preferred) had a good day, today. I'm very happy and my customers are very happy. We had a nice group of horses coming in here, and I'm very satisfied with the results," Reid said. "Now we just turn the page and get ready for the breeding market tomorrow and then I'm really looking forward to the racehorses on Friday."

Concord Stud Farm, agent, the third leading consignor in gross ($2,739,000), led all consignors in average with a figure of $66,805 for 41 sold.

White Birch Farms' Steve Williams said he was happy with how his yearlings sold through the Preferred consignment. "You always have a few that sell for more than you expect, then some less so it evens out," Williams said. "On the whole, I sold 29 and was happy with the prices. If you had something that people wanted, they weren't scared to bid. I had a few good ones."

Winbak Farms was the fourth leading consignor with 98 sold for a total of $2,631,000, an average of $26,847. Winbak yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig said, "We were still strong through today, so we were more than happy."

Not surprisingly, Muscle Hill and Somebeachsomewhere were the top trotting and pacing sires, respectively.

Muscle Hill led all stallions with an incredible average price of $149,952 for 21 sold. Somebeachsomewhere progeny averaged $74,400 for 60 sold. Three trotting sires were next on the list – Chapter Seven ($61,773 for 22 sold), Cantab Hall ($60,293, 41) and Kadabra ($56,684, 19). On the pacing side, American Ideal followed Somebeachsomewhere with an average of $48,946 for 37 sold.

Pacing colts led all segments with 235 grossing $10,235,000 for an average of $43,553. Trotting colts averaged $40,487 thanks to 197 selling for $7,976,000, total. Trotting fillies averaged $40,258 with 194 grossing $7,810,000 in all. Pacing fillies averaged $30,952 with 242 selling for $7,490,501 in total.

As for what the nearly record breaking numbers say about the industry, Simpson said it just means "people love horses and people are looking for reasons to buy them, not looking for reasons to not buy horses."

Reid said right now the yearling market is "solid, which is consistent with what's going on in the marketplace throughout the year. I actually think that from top to bottom it is a really strong market."

Hanover Shoe Farms, for one, is already making plans to reinvest.

"The most immediate effect of this successful sale is the meeting with Mr. Simpson and Mr. Williams to decide on buying broodmare and reinvesting in the business," Spears said referring to the two-day Harrisburg Mixed Sale that begins this morning and concludes Friday. "We've got (new stallion) Betting Line. We're investing in him. We put back the money that we make here. Certainly after this sale we are enthusiastic about it."

Injury takes Wiggle It Jiggleit out of TVG final

Co-owner George Teague announced to the Meadowlands that Wiggle It Jiggleit, the top money-winning horse in harness racing in 2016, will not be entered in Saturday's $400,000 TVG Free For All Final due to a minor foot bruise and bout with sickness. The race was expected to mark the ninth and final showdown with world-record holder and Breeders Crown champion Always B Miki.

"It is nothing serious, but you can't continue like that," said Teague. "He's made 50 starts over the past two seasons with very few hiccups so we definitely did not want to take any chances to hurt him or his reputation if he was not 100 per cent."

Without Wiggle It Jiggleit, Saturday's TVG Final will have a field of seven, headlined by Always B Miki, who will be making his final career start before being retired to stud at Diamond Creek Farm.

The rest of the field, in alphabetical order, is: All Bets Off, Dealt A Winner, Mach It So, Melmerby Beach, Shamballa, and Take It Back Terry.

For racing fans, the final image of the legendary rivalry between Wiggle It Jiggleit and Always B Miki will be their epic stretch duel in the Breeders Crown open pace. The horses faced each other eight times in 2016 with Always B Miki winning four times and Wiggle It Jiggleit winning three times. Shamballa upset both horses in the U.S. Pacing Championship in August at the Meadowlands.

"You always hear about what a tough transition it is for a four-year-old to face older horses," said Teague, "but I think Wiggle it put a whole new standard on that argument. He'll rest for about two months, get plenty of field time with no jogging or training and if all goes well, we might just try him again in the Levy next year."

With no more races this season, the decision of which horse deserves the nod as the top free-for-all pacer belongs in the hands of the Dan Patch Award voters. To those voters, Teague offered his opinion with no hesitation.

"I would say they should vote for the horse that made the money, raced on all sized tracks, and made the most starts," said Teague. "My opinion is that Miki is a great horse, nothing but respect for him and his connections. But if you go by body of work, my horse started in March and went until late October, we beat each other three or four times apiece, and my horse made more money while racing on halves, five-eighths, and big tracks. If it were up to me, that's just my opinion."

"But this year was a lot of fun and I guarantee you that Miki's connections felt the same way. It was something that racing definitely needed and my entire team and I were all so glad to have been a part of it. It was something that nobody else gets to experience."

Other TVG Final Fields

The other big development when entries were taken for Saturday's four TVG Finals was that three-year-old Breeders Crown champion Bar Hopping accepted an invitation and will race against aged horses in the $400,000 TVG Free For All Trot. The rest of the field, in alphabetical order, is: Centurion ATM, Crazy Wow, JL Cruze, Lookslikeachpndale, Obrigado, Resolve, and Wind of the North.

Breeders Crown winners Hannelore Hanover and Lady Shadow headline their respective divisions.

The full field for the $200,000 TVG Mare Trot, in alphabetical order, is: Barn Doll, Bee A Magician, Classical Annie, D'One, Hannelore Hanover, Kelsey's Keepsake, and Shake It Cerry.

The full field for the $200,000 TVG Mare Pace, in alphabetical order, is: Bedroomconfessions, Frost Damage Blues, Inittowinafortune, Katie Said, Lady Shadow, Sassa Hanover, Skippin By, Solar Sister, and Venus Delight.

Matron Stakes on tap today at Dover Downs

Four rich Matron Stakes for three-year-olds and four Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) $20,000 freshmen 2nd leg paces highlight a giant program today (Nov. 10) at Dover Downs. Post time is 4:30 p.m.

In the $162,200 sophomore pace, Tom Hill's Breeders Crown champion Racing Hill and Brett Miller, already a winner of $1.58-million winner this year, starts from post seven in a field of eight. The Tony Alagna-trained colt has seven wins and been in the money in 14 of 15 races this season. His formidable rivals include Peter Blood and Rick Berks' Boston Red Rocks teamed with Tim Tetrick. Lyons Snyder, favorite in the Breeders Crown, led after the opening quarter but finished out-of-the-money, will be driven by David Miller for owners Jeff Snyder and Geoff Lyons.

Stolen Glimpse a winner of his last start in October taking the Tattersalls Stake in 1:49.2 at The Red Mile is one of four Ron Burke Stable contenders.

Diamond Creek Racing's $1 million winner Pure Country, handled by Brett Miller for trainer Jimmy Takter is the one to beat in the $148,400 Matron Filly Stake. Already a nine-time winner this season and 16 times in 20 races this campaign, she faces L A Delight with John Campbell, second in the Breeders Crown but starting from outside post eight this time for Robert McIntosh, CSX stables and Al McIntosh Holdings. Newborn Sassy and Tim Tetrack is enjoying an excellent season with seven wins and 14 of 19 in the first three for JoAnn Looney-King and CC Racing.

The richest of the Matron foursome is the $178,650 colt and gelding trot. Lagerfeld, owned by Takter, Liverman and the Fieldings, fourth in the Breeders Crown after a tough trip, is in the hands of David Miller. Yannick Gingras drives Dayson for Smith, Our Hrs Cents, J& Silva stables and Burke Racing. The sharp Sutton trained by Julie Miller for owners Jason & Doug Allen and Andy Miller Stables and local contestant Iron Mine Branch's Iron Mine Bucky trained by Greg Haverstick and driver George Dennis drew the outside post positions. Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld's homebred All The Time with Yannick Gingras has earned the most from the eight starters in the $149,000 Matron Filly Trot. She has won $894,116 in her two seasons. The hard-hitting Southwind Hope and Andy Miller leaves from the rail for Larry Dumain, Little E and Andy Miller Stable. Flowers N Song, bred and owned by Bob Key, has won 11 races already and nearly $500,000 in purses.

Henry The Dragon looks for his fifth consecutive victory piloted by Montrell Teague for owner George Teague starts the card meeting Tina and Brian Clark's Automatic Dragon (Tim Tetrack) from the rail and Dorothy Hock and Katherine Ricci's Hallie's Comet (Ross Wolfenden) in the first $20,000 DSBF prelim.

In the second race, Dan Keeler's James Isaac (Tony Morgan) takes on a pair of Teague owned contenders Stay In your Place and Ain't It Fun both conditioned by Clyde Francis.

Later on the card, another George Teague bred Daylen (Montrell Teague) drew the rail in the third $20,000 division. Apple Heir (Jason Green) a 1:56.3 wire-to-wire winner last week starts from post 7 for Willard Hall and trainer Brian Wright.

In the fourth $20,000 DSBF prelim, Teague and Teague Partnership's Rat Tail (M.Teague) meets Only Money and trainer Jason Skinner's Bags To Riches (Tetrack) and KDK Standardbreds' Almost Cut My Hair (Kevin Switzer Jr.) in a wide-open event.

Blue Chip Farms sets 2017 stud fees

Blue Chip Farms is pleased to release its 2017 stud fees. Heading up the 10 stallions currently standing or managed by Blue Chip Farms is the legendary international sire of sires, Bettor's Delight.

The leading money-winning stallion of all-time with worldwide progeny earnings of over $250 million, Bettor's Delight will stand for $15,000 (Cdn) in 2017, up from $12,000.

"He's the mailman. He delivers every day," said syndicate manager Tom Grossman.

Roll With Joe and Shadow Play will also see a rise in their stud fees.

"Joe" will move to $7,500 after a strong year on the track and in the sales ring, including a 10 times stud fee sales average in Harrisburg. Roll With Joe's on track performance was led by Racing Hill ($1.5 million - '16), winner of the Breeders Crown three-year-old pace.

Shadow Play's fee will move to $4,500 (Cdn) following a remarkable 17 times stud fee average in Harrisburg and a solid performance on track by his progeny in 2016, led by Breeders Crown winner Lady Shadow.

2017 Blue Chip Farm stallion stud fees:

Standing in New York:

American Ideal - $10,000
Art Major - $10,000
Credit Winner - $10,000
Chapter Seven - $7,500
Roll With Joe - $7,500
Crazed - to be announced

Standing in Canada:

Bettor's Delight - $15,000 (Cdn)
Shadow Play - $4,500 (Cdn)
Sunshine Beach - $5,000 (Cdn)

Standing in Indiana:

Here Comes Herbie - $7,500

MESSAGE TO OUR READERS

When we brought HRU back in January, we asked for your support both as readers and advertisers. We have been overwhelmed with the response so far on both ends, but still need your help to make HRU viable and sustainable. Here are three ways you can help—and they're all free:

1. If you haven't already, please subscribe to receive HRU and encourage anyone you know who might like HRU to do the same. It's quick and easy and, again, free!
2. Support the advertisers that support us. Click on their ads and check out their websites. Most ads are linked to their sites. Tell them, or us, if you like one of their ads and why. The advertisers keep HRU free for readers.
3. Write more letters. One of the most popular features of HRU is Sunday's Feedback section. We want to hear from you!

THANKS from the new HRU Team!
