Solid, but lacking fireworks

As more people retain their talented horses, Thursday's opening day of the Standardbred Horse Sale Company's Mixed Sale proved to be a workmanlike session.

Thursday's opening session of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's Mixed Sale produced $5,615,000 in sales.

The changing nature of the industry where fewer horses and slots-fueled purses make racehorses and mares worth retaining, not selling, meant there were no rock star broodmare prospects on offer Thursday during the opening Mixed session of the Standardbred Horse Sale at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg.

Still, sale president and CEO Pete Spears said he was pleased with the results. On the day, some 266 broodmares, weanlings, yearlings and stallion shares were sold for a gross of $5,615,000, an average of $21,109.

"For the quality of the catalogue, I think we sold very well," Spears said. "I think the trotting mares kind of sold through the roof. The pacing mares, some of them were obviously on the light side (in the bidding), but the quality wasn't quite as good as some other years. I think people are keeping more of the better ones and racing them longer... you see more mares these days with first foals at age seven or eight and that's just the game now."

Seventy-two trotting fillies went through the ring and grossed $1,814,000 total for an average of $25,194. Eighty

64 $100K WINNERS

AND MAJOR REDUCTIONS FROM LEADING STABLES SELL TODAY AT THE HARRISBURG MIXED

Proven money-winners — who continue to make money for their new owners — is what Preferred has become known for selling at every mixed sale. Among the 64 $100,000 winners on tap for today are “Fabulous Fillies” to race or breed, top-condition raceway horses, and this year, perhaps the strongest group of 2-year-olds we’ve ever sold!

pacing mares grossed $1,545,000 total for an average of $19,313.

“Someone that has a good pacing filly or trotting filly isn’t necessarily just going to put her in foal and try to sell her with the first foal inside,” Spears said. “That just didn’t seem to happen much this year, did it?”

“There are not as many people that want to take the three-year-old filly that won $150,000 off the track and pop them in the sales, so... but the bottom line is, for the quality of the mares in the sale, I think they sold quite well, especially the trotting mares.”

Trotting broodmare Dynamite Dame – a Muscle Yankee mare out of One Sharp Lady sold in foal to Muscle Hill to Bryan Montgomery of Cream Ridge, NJ out of the Northwood Bloodstock consignment for $135,000 – was the highest priced horse sold Thursday at the sale.

She was only topped by a stallion share to Muscle Hill that Ments Tore Moller of Norway purchased from Preferred Equine for $180,000.

“It’s pretty amazing,” Spears said of the Muscle Hill stallion share. “It will take someone a long time to get their money back. We hope for (Muscle Hill’s) continued good health.”

Though a stallion share to Chapter Seven that reached $90,000 in the ring was not sold, a second stallion share to Chapter Seven offered by Northwood Bloodstock was sold for $85,000 to All American Harnessbreds of Seaford, DE.

Preferred Equine led all consignors on Thursday with $2,009,000 in sales.

"It's an extremely good price, but, on the other hand, I think (Chapter Seven's) performance has warranted that increase in value," Sears said. "His stud fee is going up and I think the type of mare that's going to be bred to him next year is going to be far different than what he's seen so far. And look at what he's accomplished with a relatively modest group of broodmares... it's really quite phenomenal."

Winbak Farms led all buyers spending $241,000 during Thursday's session.

Preferred Equine led all consignors with $2,009,000 in sales for 80 horses / stallion shares. Northwood Bloodstock was second with $1,498,000 in sales for 62 horses / stallion shares. Concord Stud led all consignors in average with $32,500, followed by Hunterton Sales Agency with $31,400.

Pacing mare Sea Cruise Hanover, an 8-year-old daughter of Dragon Again out of the No Nukes mare Sami Cam, sold for $85,000 to Hickory Lane Horse Farm. Sea Cruise Hanover, who is in foal to Always B Miki, is a full sister to multiple stakes-winner Sutter Hanover.

Northwood Bloodstock Agency was the consignor. Megaball Hanover, also in foal to Always B Miki, sold for $82,000 to Cornerstone Stock Farm. Megaball Hanover is a 4-year-old daughter of Western Terror out of the Matt's Scooter mare Mary Mattgalane. She is a half-sister to multiple stakes-winners Meirs Hanover and Lady Mattgalane.

Preferred Equine was the consignor.

Moonlight In Miami, a 6-year-old trotting mare in foal to Father Patrick, sold for $80,000 to Richard Arnold. Moonlight In Miami is a daughter of Muscles Yankee out of the Windsong's Legacy mare Bedtime Song. Her second dam is

by Bob Heyden

Ron Burke trainee Hannelore Hanover certainly has some gaudy numbers as we head towards balloting time. Beating the boys and repeating in the Breeders Crown are going to weigh heavily in her favor for the Horse of the Year award. Burke has knocked on the door before with his incredible roster of stars, but this might just be the year he kicks it in.

Could Hannelore Hanover do what Su Mac Lad did in 1962 and be Horse of the Year despite having had a better seasons the year before? In 2016, she won 17 of 20 start and $1.1 million but ran into a couple of buzz saws named Always B Miki and Wiggle It Jiggle It and a Trotting Triple Crown winner in Marion Marauder.

Incredible Tetricks numbers

Tim Tetricks, who recently recorded his 10,000th career win at age 35 turns 36 on Nov. 22. Tetricks has won 18 Breeders Crowns and five Meadowlands Pace titles by age 35, numbers that may stand for a while. Congrats to the man who also owns maybe the most unbreakable record for drivers in the sport. In 2012, Tetricks was the regular driver of horses that earned seven divisional titles. No one else has ever had more than four in any single season.

Beach at $20 million

Some numbers about Somebeachsomewhere, the first ever $20 million single season sire:

Eight of the 12 Cane Pace starters this year were his sons and he went 1-2-3-4.

There was only one son of Somebeachsomewhere in the first Sam McKee Memorial and that horse, Check Six, won it at boxcar numbers.

He won the three Triple Crown races this year with three different horses – Filibuster Hanover in the Jug, Huntsville in the Cane, Downbytheseaside in the Messenger.

He's had 43 Breeders Crown finalists the past two years – 25 last year and 18 in 2017.

His son Dr J Hanover is the year's fastest horse (1:46.4), the same as dad. That makes them the first ever sub-1:47 winning father-son.

Pure Country won the Breeders Crown at both two and four. Only Eternal Camnation did this prior among female pacers.

Somebeachsomewhere went into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame nine months after he retired.

Born the wrong year

Phaetosive seems to have done exactly what her sire Explosive Matter did. She, like dad, was born in the wrong year. Explosive Matter was in the Muscle Hill crop of 2009 when they went 1-2 in the Hambletonian. Now his daughter is in the same crop as Manchego (12-for-12). Phaetosive's 1:53.3 elimination win at Hoosier in the Breeders Crown elimination would have won 32 of the prior 33 Breeders Crown two-year-old trotting filly finals.

Pelling sighting

Brett Pelling was seen at Harrisburg. He left the U.S. after the 2005 season after 18 stirring seasons in the U.S., culminating in Rocknroll Hanover's domination and a HOY season in 2005. Pelling was 1-2 that year in the Meadowlands Pace (Village Jolt was second). Pelling is also the man who brought us the first sub-1:50 pacing filly – 1:49.4 Armbr Romance in 1998 in the Ladyship Stakes; the man who won the NA Cup and the Meadowlands Pace twice in the same year (1995 Davids Pass and 1999 The Panderosa); the man who swept all the hardware at Delaware, OH in 1998 in the Jug and Jugette and then won the Triple Crown of Pacing with two different horses; the man who worked for Ross Croghan and had Noel Daley and Nifty Norman working for him.

Follow the bouncing ball

The first ever sire to win two Breeders Crowns then sire a winner of two Breeders Crowns was Artsplace (1990, 1992) who sired Artiscape (1997-1998). Then, for good measure, Art Major added his name to the list with his own pair in 2002-2003. Artsplace is now the first sire to win two Breeders Crowns and sire a female winner of a pair of Crowns – Artiscape 1997-1998 and then Shellscape in 2012-2013.

Sale-topping success

Andover Hall sired this year's Hambletonian winner and Muscle Massive sired this year's Kentucky Futurity winner. Both were sales-toppers themselves – Andover Hall $482,000 in 2000 and Muscle Massive $425,000 in 2008. Andover was favored to win the 2002 Hambletonian, but an early mishap ended that. Muscle Massive did win the Hambletonian in 2010 over Trotter of the Year Lucky Chucky in the last strides.

Crowns and world records

Some of those since the onset of the Breeders Crown in 1984 who have set world marks who then parlayed that into a Breeders Crown score include:

Youaremycandygirl 1:50 in 2017; Staying Together 1:48.2 in 1993; Walner 1:51.3 in 2016; Huntsville 1:49 in 2016; Always B Miki 1:46 in 2016; Jennas Beach Boy twice – in 1:48.4 in 1995 and then 1:47.3 in 1996; Mission Brief 1:50.3 in 2014.

Springsteen (Simon Allard) won the $211,300 two-year-old pacing colt Matron final Wednesday at Dover Downs in 1:51.1.

Matron frosh feted

Youaremycandygirl, Springsteen, Wolfgang and Plunge Blue Chip win Matron frosh events at Dover Downs.

by Marv Bachrad / Dover Downs

Springsteen is not only a big hit on Broadway but also in the Matron at Dover Downs on Wednesday. The colt won the $211,300 two-year-old colt pace joining the sensational Youaremycandygirl, Wolfgang and Plunge Blue Chip in the champions winner's circle at Dover Downs on Thursday.

Teamed with driver Simon Allard, Springsteen shot past race favorite Shnitzledosomething just past the three-quarters and rolled on to a 1:51.1 victory in the male Matron. The win was only the second this year in 12 starts and a new lifetime mark. Rene Allard recently became trainer of the Rock And Roll Heaven—American Charm youngster who now has banked $178,351 this season. Singh, Weisenberg and Allard Racing own the winner. Closing Statement and Brian Sears finished second in front of Shnitzledosomething (Peter Wrenn) third.

Yannick Gingras drove Youaremycandygirl to an easy 1:52.2 score in the $174,700 Matron Filly Pace. W.J. Donovan owns the American Ideal—Sweet Lady Jane bay trained by Ron Burke, who won for the sixth consecutive stakes victory, her eighth of the year in 10 races. She has now won $714,345 in purses. Strong Opinion (Dave Miller) was runner-up. Aims Whisper (Wrenn) took third.

Outside post eight was no burden for Plunge Blue Chip in the $173,000 Matron Filly Trot. Ake Svanstedt, who owns the Muscle Mass—Dunk The Donato lass with Blue Chip Youaremycandygirl (Yannick Gingras) won the $174,700 Matron final for two-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday in 1:52.2.

Bloodstock, hustled away from the starting gate and won for fun in 1:55.4 for her seventh win in eight races improving her earnings to $194,833. Perfect Summer (Andrew McCarthy) had a perfect 2-hole trip with SMS Princess (Tim Tetrick) third.

Wolfgang played winning music for Gingras in a 1:55.3 decision in the $203,900 Matron Colt Trot. Jimmy Takter conditions the My MVP—Summer Savory freshman for owners Falk, Fair Island Farm, Brixton Medical and Hatfield Stables. The win was the third of the season in eight races. Wolfgang caught Samo Difference (Takter) in the last steps to bring his earnings to $204,820. I Know My Rights (Tyler Buter) was the show horse.

More Matron action is on tap next Thursday, Nov. 16 when all four Matron Stakes for three-year-olds headline another big racing program.

Downbytheseaside (with trainer Brian Brown in June) will stand in Sugar Valley Farms in Delaware, OH beginning in 2018.

Downbytheseaside to stand at Sugar Valley Farms

World champion pacer Downbytheseaside will be joining the star-studded roster of Diamond Creek Farm stallions in 2018 and will stand at Sugar Valley Farms in Delaware, Ohio.

"We are thrilled to have one of the top Somebeachsomewheres ever to race come to Ohio," said Sugar Valley Farm's Joe McLead. "Ohio's program is gaining on a national scale, and this is an incredible opportunity for the growing popularity of Ohio breds. With the loss of Dragon Again, I never thought I'd be able to replace him with a horse of this caliber, but through our relationship with Diamond Creek, it has been made possible."

Downbytheseaside caused a splash as one of the best 2-year-olds in his class. He equaled the world record (1:49) for freshman pacing colts during his International Stallion Stakes division at The Red Mile and broke the world record (1:50) for his age/sex on a half-mile track when racing at the Delaware County Fairgrounds. Downbytheseaside ended his initial campaign with a dominating win in the $384,800 Governor's Cup at Woodbine Racetrack.

Downbytheseaside continued to perform as a 3-year-old, ending up in the winner's circle in both the $500,000 Messenger Stakes and $300,000 Art Rooney at Yonkers Raceway, and posting an impressive track-record setting 1:49.3 victory in the $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial over Fear The Dragon at Northfield Park. Most recently, Downbytheseaside rebounded from a tough runner-up finish in the Breeders Crown with a win in the $245,000 Monument Circle at Hoosier Park, setting a new lifetime mark of 1:48.3.

"Downbytheseaside has shown his grit and determination time after time," said Diamond Creek's Adam Bowden. "Earlier this year he was roughed up a few times, but he continued to persevere and ended up being arguably the top 3-year-old. Standing him in Ohio makes sense. The horse has Ohio racing connections and he is a good outcross for the horses there as a son of Somebeachsomewhere."

Downbytheseaside's 2018 stud fee will be $6,000. For bookings or share information, please contact Diamond Creek Farm at (717) 638-7100 or diamondcreek2@gmail.com.
