Tactical weaving leads to Stewarts' success

Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Farm bred Trotting Sire of the Year Tactical Landing and his son, presumptive Trotter of the Year, Tactical Approach.

by Debbie Little

Last year was a mother of a good one for Steve Stewart, as his broodmares, Southwind Serena and Sarcy, each have a 2023 Dan Patch honoree.

Stewart and his wife, Cindy, own Hunterton Farm that bred inaugural Trotting Sire of the Year Tactical Landing and his son, presumptive Trotter of the Year, Tactical Approach.

From the time when both Tactical Landing and Tactical Approach were weanlings, Steve said he felt they were special. Both colts displayed incredible talent at 3 at The Meadowlands with Tactical Landing beating older foes in the TVG Championship Open Trot – the last start of his career – while Tactical Approach shone brightest on the world's biggest stage, winning the Hambletonian from post 10.

The Stewarts are part of both the Tactical Landing Syndicate and the Tactical Approach Syndicate, but were it not for a pivotal and life-changing dinner in Lexington with Myron Bell, this would not have been the case.

In 2016, Tactical Landing sold for $800,000, the biggest price tag ever at the Lexington Selected Sale at that time.

Steve and his partners, Black Creek Farm and Andrea Lea Racingstables, Inc., co-owned Tactical Landing's dam.

At the aforementioned dinner, directly following the sale of Tactical Landing, Steve remembers Bell asking him what he thought of Tactical Landing.

"I said, 'He's a hell of a colt,'" Steve said. "I said, 'He's got everything going for him. He's big, he's handsome, he's smart, he's courageous. He walks like a stallion, he acts like a stallion, but he's not mean. He just has a lot of confidence.'"

According to Steve, Bell then asked if he was planning on keeping part of the colt.

"I said, 'Oh, no, no, no, that's bad luck, I'm out,'" Steve said. "He said, 'You know, the last person that told me that was Mike Parisi.'" Parisi owned White Birch Farm and was the breeder of Captaintreacherous.

According to Steve, Bell said that Parisi was not planning to keep a piece of Captaintreacherous, with the same bad luck comment, but Bell convinced Parisi to change his mind, just as he did for Steve.

"I gave a breeding [to Tactical Landing] to Myron a couple of years ago to say thank you, because if it wasn't for him, we probably would not have owned 10 per cent," Steve said.

In Hunterton's 40-plus years in the business, Steve said that many have given him and Cindy advice along the way, especially mentors Joe Taylor — who literally wrote the book on breeding and raising racehorses — and Hall of Famer Bill Shehan.

“I think a lot of people want instant gratification, but breeding is not instant gratification, it’s the opposite. But I think it’s very rewarding when you realize you’re the one that created it. We don’t make the shirt; we make the yarn, so somebody has to take that yarn and sew it and that’s what trainers do and they get a lot of credit for what they do, obviously, but sometimes people forget where the yarn came from.”

~ Steve Stewart

“Both of them are dead now, but I think they’re looking down and smiling,” Steve said.

In regard to the 2023 Dan Patch Awards, with both Tactical Landing and Tactical Approach being recognized, Steve said it’s humbling when you think about it.

“It’s an honor and it gives you a lot of confidence that we’re doing it right and we’ve always felt like we were doing it right,” Steve said. “A lot of times over the years, people would say, you should do this or you should do that and we just stuck to our guns and did it the way we thought was the right way to do it. And we had a lot of foundation through [Taylor and Shehan].

“Probably the main thing you could say is, it’s a validation of hard work and 40 years of doing what we do, which is breed to raise great horses. You don’t want to say a culmination because we’re far from done. We stayed in our lane and it’s a validation of what we’ve tried to do and, hopefully, it’s far from finished.”

People have also questioned the fact that Hunterton does not have any stallions on their farm, only broodmares.

Steve said that not having a stallion leaves him open to many possibilities, a veritable smorgasbord if you will, to choose from for his mares.

He also acknowledges that from beginning to end, breeding is a long process, but for him, the result is worth the wait.

“I think a lot of people want instant gratification, but breeding is not instant gratification, it’s the opposite,” Steve said. “But I think it’s very rewarding when you realize you’re the one that created it.

“We don’t make the shirt; we make the yarn, so somebody has to take that yarn and sew it and that’s what trainers do and they get a lot of credit for what they do, obviously, but sometimes people forget where the yarn came from.”

Horse of the Year hits and misses

by Bob Heyden

As we head into the Dan Patch Awards weekend, let's start with some Horse of the Year history from 50 years ago.

I vote for the Horse of the Year ballot from 1974 as the most unique of now 77 HOY seasons. Here's the facts:

1. Sixteen horses got votes. Think about that. Only one did last year, Bulldog Hanover, and possibly this year also.
2. Delmonica Hanover (17 5-4-1) was named HOY with a 29.4 per cent win percentage. The next lowest win percentage for a winning HOY was Glidemaster (15 8-7-0) in 2006 with 53.3 per cent.

3. Billy Haughton won his first Hambletonian that year Christopher T, but that colt did not get a vote.

4. Haughton did finish third and fourth with Handle With Care (30 votes) and Armbro Omaha (22), respectively. At that point, Haughton was three years removed from his very first HOY in 1977 with Green Speed.

5. Delmonica Hanover only won five of 17 starts, but the Prix d'Amerique and a second straight Roosevelt International were in there. That tipped the scales 48-32 over Armbro Nesbit.

6. The prior year's ballot? Delmonica got two votes tied for fifth as a 4YO in 1973. Armbro Nesbit tied for 10th with one vote. Colonial Charm and Handle With Care also got a lone vote and votes in 1974.

7. The top seven 1974 Pacer of the Year vote-getters all got HOY votes too:

Armbro Nesbit (53-32), Handle With Care (45-30), Armbro Omaha (43-22), Nero (15-10), Alert Bret (13-5), Boyden Hanover (6-4) and Silk Stockings (6-1).

8. Who would get HOY votes the next year?

Wow, Silk Stockings would be 1975 HOY runner-up with 49 votes. Nero was third with 29, Bonefish fourth with 21, Sir Dalrae with two, Dream Of Glory with two, Handle With Care one and Yankee Bambino one.

HORSE OF THE YEAR DROUGHTS

1. Twenty plus years now since a Pacing Triple Crown winner also won HOY. The last was No Pan Intended in 2003.
2. Still no HOY for either Muscle Hill or SBSW.
3. It's 56 years since a 2YOTC was named HOY; Nevele Pride (1967). T C I and Karl at least made it interesting.
4. It's 14 years and counting since a 3YOTC was HOY; Muscle Hill (2009).
5. It's been 34 years since a HOY had 30 or more starts, Matts Scooter (1989), and showing zero signs of change.
6. It's 25 YEARS since we've had a HOY repeater, easily the longest drought, since Moni Maker (1998-99).
7. A combined $2-million season and HOY? Wiggle It Jiggle It did it in 2015. Oddly the two prior did not get the hardware; Market Share (2012) and Captaintreacherous (2013).
8. Six decades since a sire had multiple consecutive HOY winners. Only Adios has done this with Adios Butler (1960-61) and Bret Hanover (1964-66).

WILL WE EVER SEE THIS AGAIN?

Three female trotters born in back-to-back years all went on to become HOY:

1992 – C R Kay Suzie – HOY (1995)

1993 – Continentalvictory – HOY (1996)

1993 – Moni Maker – HOY (1998-99)

HOY SIRING HOY

The last time this happened was in 2010: Rocknroll Hanover (2005) and Rock N Roll Heaven (2010)

It's never been done on the trotting side.

CONGRATS TO TEAM STEACY

They've had HOY in Canada on both gaits: Majestic Son (2006) and Sylvia Hanover (2023).

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Natasha Steacy – Owner, trainer, and groom

by Victoria Howard

Born in Sudbury, ON, Natasha Steacy's grandfather Flo Rivest began toting her to the barn before she could even walk.

Steacy's entire family on both her mother and father's side were involved in harness racing, so it was no surprise that when she got older she would continue her family's legacy of racing standardbreds.

Most people in the business only dream of working with a horse like the one Steacy cares for. That horse is the great Sylvia Hanover, the Breeders Crown winner two years in a row. Sylvia won the prestigious race as a 2-year-old and 3-year-old.

Sylvia Hanover was one of the best horses in harness racing in both 2022 and 2023. As a 2-year-old the wicked fast filly, known for her periodic antics on the track, was named a Dan Patch and O'Brien winner, ending the year by winning her Breeders Crown elimination and final. The daughter of Always B Micki – Shyaway is trained by Shawn Steacy and his wife Natasha is Sylvia's caretaker.

Continuing to make headlines on Feb. 3, 2024, Sylvia Hanover was named the Three-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year at the O'Brien Awards and also named the Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year.

"I don't train Sylvia but I'm her caretaker which allows me to spend more time with her than anyone else," Natasha said. "She has been with us since Sylvia's owners Tony and Betty Infilise purchased her as a yearling in Harrisburg.

"Sylvia is a very special horse and definitely the queen of the barn who deserves nothing but the very best. She lives in 'the penthouse,' which is a double stall with three windows and is very lovable until she goes to the track, then she knows it's time to work. It actually takes a few of us just to harness her.

"Sylvia is a typical filly for she definitely has a mind of her own and is quite stubborn. If she doesn't want to do something she won't, but when you have a horse as fast and good as she is you put up with the antics.

Needless to say, Sylvia Hanover is Natasha's favorite horse.

"It's been quite a pleasure taking care of her the last two years and making all the wonderful memories," Natasha said. "I may never get to enjoy all of this with another horse again, for horses like Sylvia are one in a million.

"My husband Shawn and I work together. Shawn's father Mark Steacy is a renowned trainer and we all work together. It's a family business. Shawn and I have the horses at First Line Training Center and Shawn's brother Clark and his wife Cara work at the home barn in Lansdowne. They break the colts and then they are sent to Shawn and I. It gets a bit hectic for Mark for he has to go back and forth to make sure everything is going correctly. Currently Shawn and I train about 40 horses at First Line Training Center and the other 20 are with Mark and Kathy."

Natasha also has a training license.

"I have my trainer's license and always trained on my own but when Shawn and I got married we merged our talents and stable," she said. "I am down as an owner and he is down as a trainer, but we work together as one."

Natasha and Shawn race mostly at Mohawk, but also race at smaller tracks as well.

"This past year we raced a lot in the United States," Natasha said. The weather this winter has not been the best in Canada, but Natasha takes it in stride.

"I don't think it's more difficult to train in Canada during the winter," she said. "The only thing is we have to pick and choose training days. Our horses really don't miss too many days like people might think."

Just like she was as a child, Natasha's 12-year-old son Lucas is very much involved.

"He loves jogging and working with the horses and any opportunity he gets to go on the track, he is there," she said, adding with a laugh, "I think he likes jogging so he can talk to everyone on the track. Lucas also has a mini that he drives and races in a series called The Young Gunz."

Natasha and Shawn also own horses of their own.

"We have a broodmare that we breed and keep the foals hopefully to race," Natasha said. "They are kept at Winbak Farm in Ontario where they do an amazing job. The other horses we get come from sales or are owner's homebreds."

Natasha has high hopes for all the horses they have in the barn this year.

"I wish they could all go out and do great things but I'm realistic," she said. "Getting another Sylvia is a hard act to follow. Of course,

"Sylvia is a very special horse and definitely the queen of the barn who deserves nothing but the very best. She lives in 'the penthouse,' which is a double stall with three windows and is very lovable until she goes to the track, then she knows it's time to work. It actually takes a few of us just to harness her."

~ Natasha Steacy

I'm hoping for another super year for Sylvia and for her full brother to follow in her footsteps."

Sylvia had a nice well-deserved vacation but is now back in the barn and back to work.

"She looks good and is so easy on herself," Natasha said. "She's a pleasure to work with until she throws one of her hissy fits and wants to do it her way, but I'm fine with that and as far as I'm concerned, she can do whatever she wants.

"Our plan is for her hopefully to continue her fabulous career, as I'm sure her owners Tony and Betty will have her staked to the best."

Note: I would like to thank everyone who has written acknowledging and positive comments on the stories I write in Superstar Females of Harness Racing. When I started this column several years ago the purpose was to honor every single woman in the business that devotes their time, energy and love for the horses. Every single woman is a superstar and deserves to have their story told. As it was said long ago "We've come a long way ladies!" Kudos to each and every one of you.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

As a young driver, Lucas Myers has learned patience pays off

by Chris Lomon

The best part of Lucas Myers' job is that it never feels like one.

Although his harness racing career is still in its early stages, the 20-year-old Myers has had a lifetime association with the sport through familial ties.

He was drawn to the sport and standardbreds at an early age, times when he would help his father, longtime horseman Charles Myers, with various duties around the barn.

His time at the stable and various racetracks in and around Pennsylvania steadily increased over the years.

So too did Myers' respect and admiration for the industry.

"Ever since I can remember, being around horses and the racetrack always made me happy," he said. "Even if I was tired or having a bad day, coming to the barn was always something I looked forward to."

His first official drive came in 2020, a second-place finish – it was his only start of the year – with Jailhouse Hooch, a bay trotting son of Jailhouse Jessie trained by his uncle, David Myers.

The following year, Myers won his first parimutuel race, a 1-length score in a $1,000 pace at McConnellsville, a half-mile Ohio oval.

Fittingly, the victory came with his uncle as the trainer.

Hillbillyfairytale, a son of The Panderosa, was sent to the front in the three-horse race.

Lucas and the bay gelding, who was 1-for-23 on the year, would wire the field in 1:56.2.

"My uncle told me to wake him up, so I put him on the lead and away he went," Lucas said. "That was exciting. I know there were only three horses, but it was still a big thrill."

At the end of the year, Lucas fashioned a 1-4-1 record from nine starts.

After two wins and nine top-three finishes over 23 races in 2022, the young reinsman announced his presence with a sensational 2023 campaign.

In 190 starts, Lucas produced 32 wins and 75 top-three results, to go along with $256,464.

He hasn't had much time to look back on his breakout season, but when he does, Lucas has plenty to be happy about.

Courtesy Lucas Myers
Lucas Myers in action.

“Someone told me once, ‘Find a job you love, and you will never work a day in your life.’ Ever since I was a kid, racing is what I have wanted to do. When people ask me if I ever think of doing something else, I always have the same answer, ‘Why would I?’ I get up every morning and get to do something I love.”

~ Lucas Myers

“I went down to Virginia and raced and did pretty well,” he said. “I went to Georgia the winter before and worked for Jeff Nisonger. When I came back, my dad sent me to Shenandoah every weekend, and I did alright there too; it felt like I could have a good year. We had some horses come in and we did very well at the fairs.”

Hillbilyclassygirl, a bay daughter of Racing Hill, went 6-5-4 from 23 engagements in 2023, accompanied by purse earnings just shy of $45,000.

The mare, trained by Charles Myers, won an elimination and was third in another, both at Shenandoah, before a troubled fifth in the final.

Another offspring of Racing Hill, Hillbilypacinhill, saved his best for last at Shenandoah this past October. After a pair of seconds in both opening legs of the series, the bay gelding, trained and owned by Charles Myers, took all the spoils in the $89,800 final.

As for the “Hillbilly” names of the horses, Lucas said, “We have owners, Tim and Sharon Dotson, in Virginia – that is why we are involved in racing there – who have sent us a lot of horses over the years. We also bought some from them too – she has a farm called Hillbilly Haven – so it’s been a very good relationship.”

Competing at numerous racetracks has also been a good experience for Lucas.

Learning how to navigate the layouts of different ovals and mapping out the right trip has been a helpful educational tool for the young driver.

“It helps you change and adapt to a lot of different things,” he said. “I think driving in Ohio is a lot different than you would find in Pennsylvania or anywhere else.

“At the fairs, you find some tracks have tighter turns, and you find a way to adapt to that. I think it’s been a big assist for me, having to learn different ways to approach how you drive.”

Keeping an open mind and open ear continues to guide Lucas in his craft.

Helpful advice is embraced by the horseman who attended the Harness Horse Youth Foundation at Scioto Downs in the past.

“Patience was a big thing, something both my dad and uncle talked to me about,” Lucas said. “There are times when you do need to be aggressive; when you start out, you tend to be more aggressive and that isn’t always the best approach.

“My uncle used to drive – he still does on occasion – and he taught me that being patient can pay off. It’s about knowing the right time to make a move, whether it’s going to the front, or waiting for the right moment to take your best shot.”

For Lucas, who enjoys hunting and fishing, goals don’t come in the form of numbers.

Instead, it’s self-improvement that tops his list.

“You want to do better than you did before, stats-wise, but I like to focus on being more well-rounded at what I do, to strive at improving my skills in the race bike,” he said.

Did Lucas discover anything about himself as a driver last year?

“I think it was just taking the experiences from the whole season and learning from that,” he said. “I found it easier to know what to do in the middle of a race, to react to unexpected things with more confidence.”

His long-range goal is to attract more attention from trainers.

“When you are starting out, you need to show people they can be confident in you,” Lucas said. “In the summer, I get busy, but for now, it’s much slower. I want to be a consistent driver, get out there more often, and become a catch driver. Eventually, I would like to find a track to settle into and drive every card.

“You always want to win the big races, but it takes time to get there. I’m prepared to put in the work to achieve that goal.”

Work that never feels like it.

“Someone told me once, ‘Find a job you love, and you will never work a day in your life,’” Lucas said. “Ever since I was a kid, racing is what I have wanted to do. When people ask me if I ever think of doing something else, I always have the same answer, ‘Why would I?’ I get up every morning and get to do something I love.”

HRU Foal Of The Week

First foal by Gulf Shores arrives in Ohio

by Jeff Fought

The first foal by Ohio Triple Crown winning and Breeders Crown runner-up Gulf Shores p,3,1:50.3f $653,270 has been born. Cornerstone Stock Farm is the owner of the colt and he was born at Winterwood Farm in Bellville, OH. The foal is the first for the Well Said mare Well Maxine, who is from a full sister to world champion and million dollar winner Kikikatie.

Gulf Shores bred a Minnesota record-breaking number of mares in his first season in 2023. Resulting foals will be eligible to the rich and growing Minnesota Breeders' program, as well as the California Sire Stakes. Having no mare residency requirements in Minnesota, the foal from Well Maxine will be triple eligible, also being Kentucky bred.

Gulf Shores once again stands in Minnesota for 2024 at Bluff Country Equine.

Dan Patch Awards dinner to be streamed live

The 2023 Horse of the Year will be announced Sunday night (Feb. 25) at the annual U.S. Harness Writers Association's (USHWA) Dan Patch Awards dinner, presented by Caesars Entertainment, at Rosen Centre in Orlando, FL. But even if you aren't among the attendees, you will be able to watch the announcement live via USHWA's Facebook page.

The banquet will be held in the Executive Ballroom, with the awards ceremony getting underway at 6:30 p.m. and will be available to view via the USHWA Facebook page. At approximately 9:30 p.m., emcees Roger Huston, Jason Settlemyre, and Dave Little will announce the winner of the E. Roland Harriman Horse of the Year trophy, which follows the revealing of the names of the Trotter of the Year and Pacer of the Year.

To access USHWA's Facebook page, please click here. The entire video will also be available on the U.S. Trotting Association's website on Monday afternoon (Feb. 26) by clicking here.

Post time for the evening is 5:30 p.m., with the cocktail hour and open bar for the entire evening sponsored by Cameo Hills Farm, Lindy Farms, Preferred Equine, and Dave McDuffee. Starring on the Diamond Creek Farm Blue Carpet will be Heather Vitale and Heather Wilder, with the two Heathers broadcasting live on their individual Facebook pages. It's your opportunity to see who's wearing what and what the attendees have to say about the festivities.

Gaskin, Freeman join Red Mile roster

Gabe Prewitt, vice-president of racing at Lexington's Red Mile has announced that Emily Gaskin-Ratcliff has been named director of sponsorships for the track and Scott Freeman has been appointed track superintendent.

Gaskin-Ratcliff graduated from the University of Kentucky with her degree in agricultural communication and comes from a family long associated with harness racing.

About Gaskin-Ratcliff, Prewitt said, "Emily is a multi-talented addition to our roster whose experience in marketing and promotions along with her journalistic skills are lauded throughout the industry and we are fortunate to have her skills here at the Red Mile."

In accepting her new role, Gaskin-Ratcliff said, "It is truly an honor to become a part of the Red Mile team. This is an iconic racetrack with 150 years of history and home to many of harness racing's greatest moments and it will fulfill a dream to witness and participate in its future."

Charles "Scott" Freeman, a Michigan native with a history going back four decades in the sport, has experience on all shapes, sizes and track surfaces, most recently, as the track superintendent at Pinehurst Trotting Center in North Carolina.

Prewitt, in announcing the appointment of Freeman to this important post, said, "Scott is one of the most important people at any racetrack and we are very fortunate to have his services and expertise for our upcoming meeting."

About his new position, Freeman said, "This is a position that I do not take lightly. The paramount responsibility is to make a racing surface safe and secure and, with the weather so changeable these days, it's a 24-hour-a-day commitment."

"You know the tracks here — the great mile oval and the training track — have different needs to keep them up-to-snuff as their iconic clay oval can change in a heartbeat as fast as the weather while the training oval has needs of its own as their surfaces are different. I'm looking forward to the challenge. After all, the Red Mile is where the 'kings and queens' come to play."

Freeman joins Grand Circuit longstanding "track masters" Greg and Dan Coon.

The Red Mile meeting gets underway on July 21 and continues through Grand Circuit week in early October.

Dan Patch Awards Silent Auction to benefit HHYF, USHWA youth programs

The Dan Patch Awards Dinner is rapidly approaching and along with it, the annual silent auction held in conjunction with the evening's festivities. The Harness Horse Youth Foundation and United States Harness Writers Association industry outreach programs will benefit from the proceeds.

Due to popular demand, four exclusive items will be offered only at the dinner:

1. Two bottles of Hambletonian champagne and two flutes.
2. An antique hitched pedal horse.
3. A playful foal and dam statue.
4. Siegelman Stable collection consisting of a black tee and black/tan cap.

Bidding on these items will take place via clipboard throughout the evening and will conclude at 10 p.m. Successful bidders must make arrangements for pickup of these items prior to the conclusion of the awards presentation.

For those not attending the dinner, the all-inclusive online portion of the auction features over 30 lots including some great items. Please note that all bidders must register online at 32auctions.com in order to participate. Bidding concludes on Sunday (Feb. 25) at 8:30 p.m. ET. Successful bidders will be notified via text or email and payments should be directed through USHWA.

Auction items may be viewed using this link:

<https://www.32auctions.com/2024HHYFUSHWA>.

“Our auction this year has some unusual items and not exclusively for the horse crowd. We hope that individuals will take time to browse and bid often given that this is an important fundraiser for both organizations,” said Ellen Taylor, HHYF executive director and auction chair.

This year’s auction lots:

New Claiming Pop-Up Series to start March 4 at Woodbine Mohawk Park

The Woodbine Mohawk Park race office has added a new Claiming Pop-Up Series for pacers to next week’s condition sheet.

Woodbine Mohawk Park will offer a four-week $8,000 Claiming Pop-Up Series for pacers beginning on Monday (March 4).

The series will consist of three preliminary legs (with purses increasing each week) and an $18,000 final on Monday (April 1). A consolation will be offered if enough horses are entered.

The dates and purses are listed below:

Leg 1: Monday (March 4) (Purse: $8,000)

Leg 2: Monday (March 11) (Purse: $9,000)

Leg 3: Monday (March 18) (Purse: $10,000)

Final: Monday (April 1) (Purse: $18,000)

Consolation: Monday (April 1) (Purse: $12,000)

A horse must race in a minimum of two legs to be eligible for the final.

The entry box for Monday (March 4) closes next Wednesday (Feb. 28) at 10:30 a.m.

Applications for EFT purse payments due March 1

Woodbine Entertainment and Standardbred Canada are transitioning to distributing purse payments for all Ontario racetracks to Canadian residents through Electronic Fund Transfer (direct deposit), as of April 1, 2024.

All owners, trainers and drivers are reminded that the deadline to complete the EFT application is March 1, 2024.

EFT, commonly referred to as direct deposit, is the globally accepted best practice for payroll, and other forms of payment worldwide, including in security conscious industries such as banking and insurance. The EFT option for purse payments was launched in late 2022.

For horses owned or leased by more than one person or more than one stable, the first owner of record will receive the EFT payment, but all owners must complete the EFT submission form.

Sign-up can be done through Standardbred Canada's member services.

For more information on the transition to the EFT process, please contact Standardbred Canada member services at 905-858-3060 x254 or email EFT@standardbredcanada.ca.

Apple Juice voted 2023 Minnesota Harness Horse of the Year

Apple Juice (Fancy Schmansy), who earned the award as the 2023 freshman filly champion pacer was also voted as the 2023 Minnesota Harness Racing Horse of the Year at the MHRI annual meeting and awards banquet on Saturday (Feb. 17) at Running Aces.

Apple Juice garnered the most votes in a very accomplished field of nominees that also included Dougsmonkeybusines, Handsome Harvey, Baby Flash, Deja Vu Babyboo, Give Me This Dance, Bringoverthemoney, Maggie Rhee, Iron Sharpens Iron, and BP'S Lucky Star.

Apple Juice is a homebred for owner/trainer/breeder Scott Banitt and is out of his Computer Scooter mare Computer Art.

She was part of a huge rivalry amongst the top-two fillies in her division, trading wins and frequent head-to-head battles with the division runner up (Deja Vu Babyboo). Apple Juice was able to capture the championship award by dominating the final six weeks of the season and posting five wins in her last seven starts of the year.

On Night of Champions (Sept. 16) she also dominated the $65,000 division final with a sharp gate-to-wire performance in 1:54.3, which was just one-tick slower than her career mark of 1:54.2, which she recorded on Aug. 24.

Apple Juice finished her freshman campaign with an overall total of eight wins and four seconds from 13 starts and total earnings of $103,117, which places her at the top of the all-time seasonal earnings list for 2-year-old filly pacers in Minnesota.

Jacob Cutting was the first-call driver for Apple Juice throughout her impressive 2023 campaign.

During the celebration of the award, Scott Banitt said: "When you have a good one you just know, you can feel it, and we could tell she was a good one right from the start."

He also said that she was named by his grandson.

"We bought the mare [Computer Art] and we called her Apple in reference to Apple computers, so my grandson came up with the name of Apple Juice for the filly," Banitt said.

His wife Becki said: "She is such a special horse and we love her so much, and she has a special bond with our 6-year-old granddaughter, they are best friends and seeing them together just warms my heart, she is just an amazing girl."

The Big M: Almost 50 years of game-changing action

It was September of 1976 when The Meadowlands opened, and it was then that the sport of harness racing changed forever.

Now just 31 months away from celebrating a half-century as the top track in the sport, the mile oval continues to deliver racing that sports a competitive style – featuring full 10-horse fields – that these days has handle at a level not seen at any harness track in recent memory.

"All the talk about whether sports bettors and thoroughbred bettors could be converted to standardbred players at The Big M have been answered," said track chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemyer. "With football season now over, all you need to look at is the handle on Saturday nights since the NFL concluded playing on Saturdays on Jan. 20. The four Saturdays without pro football have seen wagering total over $14 million on our races.”

The Saturday Fab Four (all-source total handle):

- January 27: $3,779,096
- February 3: $3,631,898
- February 10: $3,456,865
- February 17: $3,505,227
- Total: $14,373,086
- Average per card: $3,593,271
- Average per race: $256,662

“The Meadowlands’ large fields have been enticing horseplayers around the world to play our product,” said Settlemoir. “Field size has averaged 9.26 horses per race during 2024. There are only two thoroughbred tracks in the country that have an average field size of over nine horses, Oaklawn (9.61) and Turfway Park (9.37). This weekend (Feb. 23-24), 268 horses are scheduled to compete at The Big M over the course of the two 14-race programs, an average of 9.57 per race.”

The exceptional average field size creates big pools that lead to player-pleasing payouts much of the time.

Last week at The Big M was no exception.

Saturday (Feb. 17) saw three multi-leg pools exceed $100,000: the 20-cent Pick-6 ($107,714), Early 50-cent Pick-4 ($102,001) and Late 50-cent Pick-4 ($110,086). Those wagers are three of the eight multi-leg bets at The Big M that offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

Some of Saturday’s superb scores were enjoyed by those who had winning 20-cent Pick-8 ($32,635) and 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 ($12,639) tickets. The Pick-8 was hit for the first time in eight programs after starting the night with a carryover of almost $20,000.

Friday’s (Feb. 16) big hits came in the Early ($5,014) and Late Pick-4 ($5,277).

GET FREE PPs: Past performances for every race of every Meadowlands program are available free of charge by going to playmeadowlands.com.

OH YES, IT’S LADIES’ NIGHT: Saturday (March 9), will be one for women in harness racing to shine, as The Meadowlands will again host an International Women’s Day-themed broadcast.

Jessica and Jenna Otten will host the in-house show on the live broadcast, and, in addition, Dawnelle Mock will be on hand for paddock and social media interviews. The night will include interviews, features and videos.

There will also be races which will feature all-female drivers. There are only a few spots left, so those wanting to drive should get in touch with race secretary Scott Warren at swarren@playmeadowlands.com as soon as possible.

SHARPEN YOUR PENCILS: After a brief hiatus, The Meadowlands is bringing back a live money handicapping contest on Saturday (March 23).

There is no entry fee ($100 live money bankroll required) for players and the prize pool is a guaranteed $5,000, which will be fully funded by The Big M. The night of the contest, players must register/check-in at the Clubhouse Lobby by 6:20 p.m. A $100 betting card must be purchased to participate as this is a live money/wagering contest.

The contest format:

- Contestants must bet a minimum of 10 Meadowlands races
- $10 minimum bet per race; no maximum bet
- Win, Place, Show and/or Exacta wagers only
- One horse per race
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings
- Unlimited entries allowed per person
- Players keep all pari-mutuel winnings

For complete contest rules and regulations, go here.

THE GREAT EIGHT: The Meadowlands provides eight opportunities for the player to make a score trying their luck betting in pools with a low 15 per cent takeout. The lineup of The Big M’s “Great Eight” is as follows (all wagers – with the exception of the Pick-7 – are carryover eligible):

- Race 1: 20-cent Pick-5
- Race 2: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7
- Race 4: 20-cent Pick-8
- Race 6: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guarantee)
- Race 7: 20-cent High-5
- Race 8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Race 10: 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guarantee)
- Race 11: 20-cent High-5

CHECK OUT THE SHOW: Join The Meadowlands’ TV team this weekend as they will be on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set with The Big M’s live “Racing from The Meadowlands” pregame show.

The broadcast will start at 5:45 p.m. on both Friday and Saturday, before the live program begins at 6:20 p.m.

“X” MARKS THE SPOT: Everything Meadowlands is available by going on X (formerly known as Twitter). You can check in with the Big M team for early changes, racing information and staff selections by going to @themeadowlands or #playbigm.

Stay in touch with The Big M team of Jessica Otten (@JessicaOtten1), Dave Little (@DaveLittleBigM) and Ken Warkentin (@kenvoiceover).

WITHERITE’S RACE REVIEWS: Race reviews and selections by The Meadowlands’ morning-line odds maker and program analyst James Witherite are available 48 hours before a given race card. To access, simply go to playmeadowlands.com, go to the “handicapping” tab, then click “race reviews.”

'Masses' marvelous in Big M marquee mile

Displaying no ill effects after a 3½-month layoff, the Jeff Cullipher-trained Lovedbythemasses put on a show Saturday night (Feb. 17) at The Meadowlands, winning the $31,500 featured Presidents' Day Trot for open-caliber horses in powerhouse fashion.

The 7-year-old gelded son of Muscle Mass—Incredibility was making his first parimutuel start since an eighth-place finish in the $600,000 Breeders Crown Open Trot at Hoosier Park on Oct. 28. But he did qualify brilliantly on Feb. 10 in 1:55, a mile that featured a final quarter of :26.1.

"He was pretty good there last week," said winning driver Todd McCarthy, who walked down victory lane for the first time since his return to the races last week. "I had a good feeling he would go a good mile tonight, since last week, I was slowing him down near the wire."

Things didn't go all that well for Lovedbythemasses from a trip perspective, so he had to rely on raw power to get the job done. When the race began, Lovedbythemasses was on the go from post 7 in the field of 10, only to be stacked up three wide heading to the quarter, where Nextroundsonme had the lead in :28.1.

McCarthy kept applying gas, and LBTM supplied the necessary speed, as the pair hit the half on the point in :57 as Buddy Earl, looking for a third straight score, applied pressure, setting up the pocket-sitting Toccoa Falls and the second-over Ferretti quite well.

But nearing three-quarters, which was clocked in 1:25, Lovedbythemasses started to draw away, inching clear of Buddy Earl on the far turn before opening up a 2 ¾-length edge on the field as they straightened away at the head of the lane. Lovedbythemasses then hit the wire 3 lengths ahead of Toccoa Falls in 1:52.3. Buddy Earl was third.

"He finished up really well, earplugs in," said McCarthy. "He was wrapped up at the wire. Jeff has done a great job with him and he should have a really good year."

Lovedbythemasses, who is owned by Pollack Racing, upped his lifetime stats to 28 wins from 84 starts, good for earnings of $825,276. He paid $4 to win as the even-money favorite.

CASHING CARRYOVERS: After going unhit for seven consecutive race cards, the 20-cent Pick-8 was taken down by one shrewd player who had the winning ticket that returned $32,635.06. A carryover of $19,825 coaxed bettors to put $15,077 of "new money" into the pool for a grand total of $34,902. Winner's odds during the sequence were 5-1, 7-2, 9-1, 8-1, 3-5, 2-1, 4-1 and even-money.

The 20-cent Pick-6 started with a carryover of $22,945, motivating players to pour $84,769 of new green into the hat for a grand total of $107,714. After a sequence that saw winner's odds of 3-5, 2-1, 4-1, even-money, 3-1 and 5-2, those with winning tickets collected $1,071.00.

Action in both 50-cent Pick-4s was vigorous. Each pool topped $100,000, totaling $212,087.

A LITTLE MORE: Dexter Dunn drove three winners to complete a six-victory weekend. Andy McCarthy equaled Dunn with three Saturday scores. All-source handle totaled $3,505,227 on the 14-race program, upping the Big M's streak of $3-million programs to seven. There have been 13 cards contested at The Big in 2024, and 11 times, wagering has exceeded the $3-million mark.
