Sixty-eight reasons to love JOHN CAMPBELL on his birthday

The Hall of Famer celebrates his 68th birthday on Saturday.

Saturday (April 8) is John Campbell's 68th birthday. To celebrate, here are 68 "first" or "one and only" facts about the Hall of Famer.

ONLY CAMPBELL CAN SAY THAT:

1. He was the first winner of the New Jersey Classic (1980, Bold Rush). The $300,000 pot was his highest ever at that time.

2. He was the first catch-driver to win a million-dollar race (1982, Hilarion in the Meadowlands Pace).

The sidebar here is that he did not drive him in the elims, Bill O'Donnell did. Campbell's own colt, Merger, did not make the final. It opened up for Campbell when O'Donnell chose Rompin Home (5th).

3. He was the youngest to go into the Hall of Fame (1990) at age 35 and 3 months. Herve Filion did so at 35 years and 5 months in 1975.

4. He was the first and only driver to win a Breeders Crown race 15 straight years (1984-1998).

How dominant was he? He led in money in 1999 despite not winning a final.

5. He was the one and only driver to win over $100 million in two different centuries. $176.2 million in the 20th century and $123.6 million in the 21st.

6. He was the youngest driver to lead in earnings at year's end, twice. He did so in 1979-1980 at 24 and 25. In 1979, he finished $4,008 ahead of Herve Filion.

7. Thirty-seven years ago, he won eight races one October afternoon at Freehold and that mark still holds today for a single card.

8. Nobody has won the Hambletonian back-to-back since Campbell did it in 1987-1988 with Mack Lobell and Armbrø Goal, respectively.

9. He was the first driver to win a race in sub-1:50 with a filly. It was on June 27, 1998, in 1:49.4 with Armbrø Romance.

10. He was the first driver to win a race in sub-1:50 with a mare. It was in the 1998 Breeders Crown Mare Pace in 1:49.3 with Jays Table.

11. He was born in 1955, the year of the first Triple Crown winner, Scott Frost.

12. For 24 straight years (1979-2002) he was first or second in earnings 23 times. In 1981, he was third.

13. In 2006, his record fifth Hambletonian driving victory came with Triple Crown winner Glidemaster.

14. He drove the great Moni Maker only once in 1997 and she broke stride.

15. He is the all-time leader in wins and earnings in the Hambletonian, Meadowlands Pace, Breeders Crown and Triple Crown races.

16. He's won the very same million-dollar race four straight times: the North America Cup in 1994 (Cams Card Shark), 1995 (David's Pass), 1996 (Arizona Jack) and 1997 (Gothic Dream).

17. He's won the same million-dollar race six times in a single decade: the four above and 1991 (Precious Bunny) and 1999 (The Panderosa).

18. He was in the richest trot and pace of all time. He was third in both:

The 2009 $1,520,333 Hambletonian with Calchips Brute at 59-1 and the 1984 $2,161,000 Wilson with Supreme Dynasty.

19. He has won, been on the board or cashed in more Breeders Crown races than anyone else:

313 48-50-44 $22,483,677.

20. He was the first to $6 million, $11 million, $12 million, $13 million and $14 million.

21. His first year (1972) he averaged about $48 per start: 42 7-5-4 $1,947.

22. He represented harness racing on Larry King Live.

23. From The Meadowlands drivers, he played golf with Michael Jordan.

24. He threw out the first pitch at Yankee Stadium the same week he won the Hambletonian (1998).

28. He has been in the top two in Breeders Crown earnings 19 times.

29. He was the first driver to hit $100 million in the 1991 Breeders Crown with Armbro Keepsake, $200 million in the 2001 Breeders Crown during the richest ever BC Canadian card and $250 million in 2007 with freshman sensation Snow White who vaulted him past that mark.

30. He and his friend Bob McIntosh can say they combined to win the last two races ever contested in front of the original Meadowlands grandstand in 2013.

31. The 44th anniversary of his first $100,000 win comes up next month. It was in the 1979 Oliver Wendell Holmes with Merry Isle with $108,000 on the line. He beat the very horse, Hot Hitter, who that year would set a new all-time single season money mark of $826G.

32. He has won a Sweetheart four straight times: 1984 (Armbro Dazzler), 1985 (Follow My Star), 1986 (Nadia Lobell) and 1987 (So Cozy, the richest pacing event, $797G, he ever won for Chuck Sylvester).

33. He's won 16 national earnings titles. Billy Haughton is next with 12.

34. He won 16 Meadowlands driver titles. No one else is within 11.

35. He drove the first two Hambletonian/Breeders Crown winners in the same year: Muscles Yankee in 1998 and Mack Lobell in 1987.

36. His first drive on Mack Lobell came on the first Million Dollar Babies Night in 1986 when he was second in the Peter Haughton. O'Donnell had been driving him up to that point.

37. He has led in all-time earnings since 7/31/86, making it 37 years this season. He supplanted Herve Filion and has never looked back.

59. He competed in his last Triple Crown race, the Kentucky Futurity, in 2016. That's the same year Marion Marauder won the last trotting Triple Crown.

60. He has won the Messenger a record eight times. The most of any single Triple Crown race.

61. In the modern era he won twice in a Triple Crown race with a filly. He won the Kentucky Futurity with Peace Corps in 1989 and then with Ambro Keepsake in 1992. Coincidentally, they were both the Hambletonian favorite that year, with Campbell in the bike, and they both finished fourth.

62. He was in the only pacing Triple Crown event that ended in a dead heat. In the 2004 Cane Pace at Freehold, Campbell handled Western Terror who tied with Timesareachanging (Pierce). They were stablemates.

63. Forty years ago on April 9, he drove Jefs Eternity to victory in the Graduate Series at Freehold beating Cam Fella. She's the only female to beat the two-time Horse of the Year.

64. He won the 2001 Meadowlands Pace despite not having driven Real Desire in the NA Cup (Randy Waples). He drove Artsplace in the 1991 Meadowlands Pace, second, despite having driven Precious Bunny to victory in the 1991 NA Cup (Moiseyev won Pace).

65. He drove — early in their careers — standouts Jenna's Beach Boy and Gallo Blue Chip.

66. His first million-dollar drive in the 1981 Meadowlands Pace was with Slapstick, who was the favorite in the sport's very first $2-million race, the Woodrow Wilson, in 1980 with Jack Parker, Jr. where he finished fifth.

67. He was not able to reach the winner's circle in his first 10 East Rutherford assignments, but his brother Jim won his first Meadowlands drive with Boyne in 1981 for trainer Lou Meittinis.

68. Finally, he was the first driver in Meadowlands' history to win with a trotter in sub 1:50: J L Cruze in 1:49.4.

The art of Magritte

by Debbie Little

The adjective harmonious is often used to describe a beautiful painting that is a well-balanced piece of art. Perhaps the same term can be used to describe the 9-year-old gelding Magritte and his connections, who look to continue their winning ways at The Meadowlands on Saturday (April 8).

Owned by Paul Kautz and trained by Cameron Capone, Magritte (Somebeachsomewhere—Artcotic), who shares his name with the famous Belgian surrealist artist René Magritte, is painting quite a picture of his own with a five-race win streak, the last four of which were at The Big M.

Perhaps the best word to describe this whole experience is surreal since, prior to mid-February 2023, Kautz and Capone didn't even know each other.

Kautz, 63, acquired Magritte in a private sale in August of 2022 and gave the horse to trainer Joe Eisenhower Sr. Although he got checks in half of his 24 starts for Kautz while hitting the board a total of seven times, he never found his way to the winner's circle racing at Freehold, Harrah's Philadelphia, Harrington and Rosecroft.

Kautz always felt Magritte had more in him, so when he got a call out of the blue from Capone, he was intrigued.

"He just called me one day and he said, 'I think I can improve the horse,'" Kautz said. "And I said, 'Well, let me think about it.'"

According to Kautz, in mid-to-late February, Magritte was having a hard time finishing races while competing at Freehold and Rosecroft.

"He came in, I believe, second in two straight races and then I just decided to change trainers and Joe really wasn't against it," Kautz said with a laugh. "So, I called Cameron and I said, 'Okay, he's yours.' And that was the start of the story. He's had him for five races, and he's won all five.

"I didn't know him at all, but I like to try the younger guys and give them a chance. And Joe wasn't working well with that specific horse, so I figured I've got nothing to lose."

“What can the guy really tell me? No? That was really my standpoint, what could he really tell me? You’ve got to be out advertising yourself even though you don’t have too much behind you.”

~ Cameron Capone

Capone, 23, a third-generation horseman and son of accomplished trainer Mark Capone, had his eye on Magritte since 2021.

“He was bugging me for a while that we should buy this horse,” Mark said. “Cameron is always looking for horses to buy or try to improve and he kept telling me about this horse. And I was like, ‘Cameron, he’s 9. Maybe he’s just over the hill.’”

Mark’s thoughts on the horse changed when Cameron had him watch some of Magritte’s nine wins from 2021 at Yonkers, racing mostly in the $25-$30,000 claiming ranks. After watching those races, Mark thought the horse was worth pursuing.

Cameron saw the horse race at Freehold in person in mid-February, prompting that aforementioned call.

“I called Paul,” Cameron said, “and I sort of told him, ‘I think I can help this horse out. I think he’s better than what he’s showing right now. He fits the bottom class at Freehold and I could probably get him to win there and we’ll go from there and see what happens.’”

At that time, Cameron was working with his dad, but his own resume was nearly a blank canvas, having only trained one horse for five starts. Still, the New Jersey native didn’t think twice about reaching out to Kautz.

“What can the guy really tell me? No?” Cameron said with a laugh. “That was really my standpoint, what could he really tell me? You’ve got to be out advertising yourself even though you don’t have too much behind you.”

Magritte has been with Cameron for about six weeks now and no one could have predicted the results they have shared.

After Magritte won his first start at Freehold on March 4, their sights turned to The Meadowlands.

“We decided to try him in the TrackMaster [Series],” Kautz said. “Cameron said, ‘We missed the first [leg], but we’ll put him in [the second leg] and see what happens.’ We had no clue.

“And then he raced [in the second leg] and won with a lot of heart and then he won the final and just blew them away. I mean he destroyed them [winning by seven lengths]. And he took three seconds off his time. The first week at The Meadowlands he was 1:53.4 and in the final, he was 1:50.4. So, he just destroyed them.”

Following the series, Magritte has been rising through the TrackMaster conditions while still continuing to win. Last Saturday (April 1), he was put in for the TrackMaster 86 condition, but since the condition was combined with the next higher

TrackMaster level, he was racing with some better horses, but, thankfully, drew a better post.

“We were very happy that we got the three post, because we got a break and he got a break,” Kautz said. “If you noticed before that he [drew] the nine, nine and 10 post and he still won.”

Magritte’s win on April 1 was even better because the connections had a large group of family and friends present to get their picture taken. By drawing post three, they hoped Magritte’s winning ways would continue and they were rewarded when he held on to win by a head, even though he threw a shoe at the half.

A lot of Magritte’s success belongs with his drivers, Jordan Stratton for the first two at The Meadowlands and David Miller for the last two.

“When I asked Paul for the horse, I said, ‘He’s a very hot horse, we need to find somebody who can fit him with light hands,’” Cameron said. “So, I figured Jordan was the perfect guy, which he was. And then, when the time came and Jordan had to pick off [to drive his brother Cory’s horse], David was there and everything just worked out. How many times can you get a Hall of Famer to drive for you?”

This week, Magritte is facing a stronger field on Saturday (April 8), but has drawn post six, the post with the second-best win percentage at The Meadowlands at 15. Only post five is better at 18 per cent.

Magritte will be driven this week, by four-time Dan Patch Driver of the Year Dexter Dunn as both Miller and Stratton opted for other horses in the race, Better Take It and Da Delightful, respectively. Dunn has driven and won with Magritte in previous years.

“I didn’t ever expect him to be this good again, but he’s just so sharp and he’s just been racing so good,” Cameron said. “I tell Paul this every week, ‘[Magritte] surprises me every week.’ If you treat the horse right and they’re a good horse, they’ll do as much as they can do for you.

“It’s just been a pretty cool ride. To have it be your second horse and for him to come to the barn and to do what he’s done is just pretty phenomenal.”

USTA director David Siegel and chairman Joe Faraldo debate HISA

Editor's note: Recently, we received this letter from USTA director David Siegel about the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA). With Siegel's blessing, we offered USTA leadership the opportunity to respond in the same issue. USTA chairman Joe Faraldo took us up on the offer.

A PRACTICAL VIEW OF HISA FROM A USTA DIRECTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Let me begin by making it clear that the vast majority of USTA directors are dead set against the passage and implementation of HISA and believe it will do more harm than good to the standardbred industry. I am one of the few directors who do not agree with this position. I believe that the almost $1 million spent to date fighting this initiative is not the best use of the Association's monies, nor do I believe that it is the best use of the time that our executive director, Mike Tanner, and other staff members have devoted to this issue.

Unfortunately, the USTA's "newsroom" has become both a true newsroom for reporting the facts, as well as reporting the opinion of our president, Russell Williams. I truly wish they kept the facts and editorial separate, so our membership would not get confused between the two (fact and opinion).

The primary reason I think the USTA continually errs regarding this legislation is that it fails to think properly about protecting the many legislative achievements the various horsemen's groups have attained in the so-called slot states. More than 90 per cent of the purse monies come from these favorable arrangements, and given the level of corruption (drugs) I believe exists throughout the industry, HISA has a much better chance to address this major issue than the status-quo, which is a joke. If the FBI and Five Stones investigation and subsequent convictions does not tell you that, then go ahead and befriend the ostriches with their heads in the sand.

It is now time to get realistic and face facts. HISA is here, at least for now. The standardbred industry is in the envious position to watch and learn. Lasix, for example, is still permitted in all but a limited number of races. Therefore, we can all watch and see what happens and what scientific studies have to say over the next couple of years. We will get to see how well HISA battles corruption in the thoroughbred industry and how effective it is in improving track and jockey safety (not really an issue for standardbred racing, but still very useful to see how effective HISA is working). We will get a better understanding of costs and most importantly the cost-benefit of the entire program. I think many of our directors and horsemen do not understand or remember that we are in such a better position than our thoroughbred brethren. They will have to learn from, and fund, the mistakes that occur with any new enterprise. We standardbred supporters have the luxury to ride the coattails of their experiences with none of the costs associated with the bumps that will come along the way.

So, while the USTA continues to utilize financial and human resources to fight HISA in the courts, I can only hope that those who influence our directorship do take this time to watch and learn. On the chance the efforts to fight end up in failure, the standardbred industry is in a position to intelligently phase us into the program in the best possible way when the time comes.

Joe Faraldo's response

Every director has the right to an opinion about HISA, and each voices their opinion freely in the executive committee and board of directors' meetings. At these sessions and from his perch in California, David Siegel has long been vocal in his criticism of the USTA's opposition to this legislation. However, the vast majority of the USTA board, which is the sole voice for more than 19,000 participants in harness racing, opposes HISA and sees it for what it is – an existential threat to harness racing the minute harness racing is placed under its yoke.

Even as the support for HISA wanes amongst those who were once so quick to embrace it – specifically our thoroughbred counterparts and some harness elites – some of those in the halls of Congress who supported HISA and co-sponsored the law are planning to introduce a real corrective and constitutional alternative fashioned by the same USTA majority deeply concerned about its effects. The new legislation being contemplated by Congress will be breed-specific and governed by science, not optics for the sake of optics. Horses need therapeutic care like all other athletes, and science should direct such rules. Optics shouldn't.

The mention of our having the option to see how things go with the thoroughbreds implies that if it goes badly for them, we will be able to correct any such wrongs that might be applied to us. Based upon experience, this is more than naive, it is disingenuous. Take one glaring example from the actual language of the HISA statute. To mislead people into thinking that the Lasix limitation currently in effect will remain so after the three-year study period ignores the fact that if just one arbitrary vote from a handpicked advisory committee is cast to end the use of race day Lasix, it is gone. There is no recourse or corrective action, not even from the FTC. This is the unfair, capricious treatment and rejection of input that we have seen in the past with complaints about picogram levels being called on amounts of therapeutics that could not enhance the performance of a fly.

Once HISA becomes entrenched, nothing is going to change. We must stop deluding ourselves with false hopes that all will turn out well. We have had experience with this in the past and have been unable to effectuate reasonable and science-based changes that are breed-specific. If you want to think things are going to change and our game will have effective input, think again.

PRIX D'AMÉRIQUE WINNER RETIRES

The winner of the 2022 Prix d'Amérique, Davidson du Pont, will retire from racing. The decision was made on Tuesday (April 4) by his connections.

Davidson du Pont banked $2,480,300, but the leg problems he had during the last season never completely healed, so the champion will now fully focus on his stud work in France.

CORAZON COMBO IS BACK

In Helsinki, FI, last year's 3-year-old champion Corazon Combo (Express Duo) made his comeback at Verno racetrack on Wednesday (April 5) night. Trainer/driver Pekka Korpi aimed for the lead at an early stage in the 1.6 miles long race and Corazon Combo cruised to a safe win in a moderate mile rate of 2:04.3.

Corazon Combo won 10 out of 13 starts as a 3-year-old and he entered the 2022 season undefeated in seven attempts as a 2-year-old. He finished second and third, respectively, in the two E3-finals in Sweden last year and continued by being outstanding in the Kriterium in Finland in October.

His comeback as a 4-year-old was promising, even if the race included only five horses and Pekka Korpi will most probably aim for another title in the Finnish Derby later this year.

The same night, on the other side of the Baltic Sea, at Solvalla racetrack, the Svante Båth-trained Very Kronos (Ready Cash) claimed the trophy in the $20,000 Nuncio over 1.3 miles. Erik Adielsson was in the bike and the duo hit the lead after a quarter of a mile and Very Kronos was outstanding as he won in a mile rate of 1:57.1.

James MacDonald doubles up in New Holland Series finals

by Melissa Keith

Live racing returned to Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday, April 1, after a week dedicated to track maintenance ahead of the busy stakes season. The New Holland Series finals for trotters and pacers were highlights of the 15-race card, rescheduled following the previous Saturday night's cancellation due to high winds.

In the $72,000 New Holland Series Trotting final, 2-1 second choice H P Mama B self-destructed on the front end in an unwelcome April Fools' Day surprise for driver Louis-Philippe Roy, setting the stage for a minor upset by a track record holder.

H P Mama B pursued leader Locatelli from first over, clearing him after the :28 opening quarter and leading to the :56 half. The mare had opened up by three lengths over her closest rival when she spontaneously broke stride on the final turn, leaving Locatelli to inherit command enroute to three-quarters, reached in 1:25.1.

Fast-leaving Franks Angel (driven by Trevor Henry) was gaining on him in deep stretch, but James MacDonald's gelding maintained a length and a quarter advantage at the wire, winning in 1:56.2. The finish was a top-two repeat from the March 13 second leg of the series, in which Locatelli held off Franks Angel in 1:54.3 in one of two divisions.

Even-money favorite Sermon (Bob McClure) was also getting closer to the 6-1 Locatelli down the stretch Saturday night, with simply too much ground to make up. The winner of a March 13 second leg of the New Holland Series, Sermon delivered a wide late kick to finish third in the final.

March 6 first leg winner Itstimetogohome (Doug McNair) closed for fifth, just behind El Toro Loco (Chris Christoforou), the longest shot in the final. The second March 6 opening leg winner, Ritson, was scratched from the final due to illness.

The New Holland Series final was Locatelli's (4, 1:50.4s; $351,202) second win this year for owners Thestable Locatelli Group of Guelph, ON and Hutchison Harness Llc of North Ridgeville, OH. The 5-year-old gelded son of Muscle Hill-Girlie Tough is trained by Harry Poulton.

"I know H P Mama B, when she goes for it, she kind of goes for it all," said James MacDonald speaking to Woodbine's Mark McKelvie. "Loc' was struggling to stick with her. [H P Mama B] was throwing down some fractions, so when [she] rolled off, obviously... Locatelli's the kind of horse, he's tough to get by down the lane. He's not the quickest horse, but he doesn't like to give it up, either. We didn't have a whole lot left in the tank, but we got the job done."

Having outside post position nine was something the winning trainer and driver had considered before the final.

"Yeah, Harry [Poulton] and I had talked throughout the week and I'm sure you could see when 'Mama B' was letting it rip in the last turn, he got running in pretty bad, but he gets off the gate better when he’s hung up like that [from the outside] and that was the plan from the get-go,” MacDonald said. “He’s only five, but he’s a classy horse. I just can’t say enough good about him. He tries and he gives you all he’s got, and he did again tonight.”

Look for Locatelli in upcoming events for older trotters at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“I think Anthony [MacDonald] and TheStable [fractional ownership group], they’ve got him paid up to some big dances. So, you know, he’s going to have to get right on his ‘A’ game and right back on track, but I think he can,” said the gelding’s regular WMP driver. “Anytime they win, you know, they go back to their stall happy and he’s going to sleep well tonight and prepare for the rest of the season.”

Sold for $170,000 at the 2019 Harrisburg yearling sale as “Get Touch Hanover,” Locatelli shares Woodbine Mohawk Park’s 1:50.4 divisional record for older male trotters with Mister Herbie, Guardian Angel As and Musical Rhythm.

Two races later, Nautical Hanover and MacDonald completed a New Holland Pacing Series sweep in the $70,500 final. Although Camara Moment (McNair) and Woodmere Stealdeal (Henry) were quickest off the gate, 3-2 favorite Nautical Hanover wasn’t far behind, settling fourth behind 19–1 longshot The Longest Yard in the first turn.

Camara Moment remained in charge to the :27.2 opening quarter and :56.2 half, with Woodmere Stealdeal in the pocket, before Nautical Hanover began advancing first over. The leader offered little resistance as MacDonald’s horse quickly made the front, followed loosely from fourth by second-over Ario Hanover (Roy) approaching three-quarters.

Nautical Hanover reached that point in 1:24.4 before setting sail down the stretch, with his Ben Baillargeon stablemate Commanding Officer (Tyler Jones) coming from near last for place, followed closely by a second double-digit longshot, Mommas Son Byrne (Christoforou). The Longest Yard (Austin Sorrie) stayed up for fourth, surviving an inquiry after going inside two consecutive pylons when Ario Hanover bore in on him. Southbeach Hanover and Mad Man Hill both scratched from the final, due to lameness and illness, respectively.

The comfortable four-and-a-quarter-length victory was Nautical Hanover’s (p, 3, 1:50.3f; $284,489) third consecutive win this season for owner Richard Berthiaume of Pointe-aux-Trembles, QC. The 4-year-old Captaintreachereous—Naughty Marietta stallion won without MacDonald even pulling his earplugs in the 1:53.2 Saturday night final.

Trainer Benoit Baillargeon answered questions from McKelvie after the race. He was cautiously optimistic about what’s next for the pacer, who sold for a session-topping $180,000 in the November 2020 Standardbred Horse Company Sale.

“Well, we’ll see when he gets the likes of Wheels On Fire and Warrawee Vital and these types of horses, but... he’s a 4-year-old and I think he will mature to be a very, very nice horse.”

The postponement of the New Holland final from March 25 to April 1 posed no problem for horse or trainer: “No. He trained one trip on Tuesday [March 28] and that’s it.”

Baillargeon said he “wasn’t worried about” Nautical Hanover and expressed greater concern about the tough trip of his stablemate: “The other boy was three-deep coming out of the last turn... Commanding Officer is a nice horse. He just keeps coming.”

Nautical Hanover’s 2023 season will be based at his current home track according to Baillargeon.

“He’s going to race here [at Mohawk] because I bought him originally for the Graduate Series and his first start was OK, but after that, [he] wasn’t great. We gave him a little break and we had a little throat surgery [done] on him... Since he’s back from that, he’s a monster and I regret that we’re not eligible to the Graduate, but he’ll be a nice horse to race on Saturday night.”

Speaking of nice Saturday nights: O’Brien Driver of the Year James MacDonald enjoyed six driving wins in total on the April 1 card.

Note: WMP qualifiers have been moved from today (April 7) to Saturday (April 8) this week.

Burke eyes success with 'Pearlman' and 'Mystery'

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

With a year of seasoning against the sport's best older male pacers under his belt, Lou's Pearlman is set to begin his 2023 campaign Saturday (April 8) in the $36,000 open 2/open 1 handicap at The Meadowlands.

The 5-year-old stallion is one of two Ron Burke trainees making his seasonal debut in the race. Seven-year-old stallion Workin Ona Mystery, who like Lou's Pearlman is a multiple winner on the Grand Circuit in his career, also is ready to go following a year in which he banked $323,182 and pushed his lifetime earnings to more than $1.1 million.

"They probably need a start, but they both trained back very good," Burke said.

Lou's Pearlman won four of 19 races last season and earned $117,924. In his final two starts, both in November at The Meadowlands, he won a preferred handicap that included last year's second-richest older pacer, Tattoo Artist and finished fourth in the TVG Series Open Pace final, where he was only a quarter-length from second. He paced the mile in 1:48 with a :25.2 last quarter.

"It was a little bit tough for him, the transition [from age 3 to 4], but he was really good his last couple starts," Burke said. "He finally made the move to where he got competitive with that group. The last couple starts gave me hope. I think he will have a good year. I really do. I'm very happy with him."

Lou's Pearlman qualified once ahead of Saturday's start, winning in 1:51.4 with a :25.3 last quarter on March 31 at The Meadowlands. He will start from post seven with driver Yannick Gingras in Saturday's eight-horse field.

A son of Sweet Lou—Lucy's Pearl, Lou's Pearlman has won 17 of 49 career races, including the 2021 Little Brown Jug and earned $910,737. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Elizabeth Novak and Howard Taylor.

Workin Ona Mystery won four of 21 races last year, with his top triumph coming in the Commodore Barry Invitational at Harrah's Philadelphia. He finished second to Tattoo Artist in both the Joe Gerrity Jr. Memorial and #SendItIn Invitational and was third in the Dan Patch Stakes, Hoosier Park Pacing Derby, and Allera Farms Open Pace.

Eight of his final 10 races last season included 2022 Horse of the Year Bulldog Hanover.

"[Workin Ona Mystery] kind of fell apart a little bit at the end of the year, but I think that was the Bulldog effect," Burke said. "He had too many miles chasing him and it kind of came back to hurt."

"I think he will come back and have a real good year."

Workin Ona Mystery and driver Tim Tetrack will start Saturday from post eight. Workin Ona Mystery heads to the race off a third-place finish in the same qualifier as Lou's Pearlman. Workin Ona Mystery was timed in 1:52.2 with a :25.4 last quarter.

For his career, Workin Ona Mystery has won 18 of 63 starts. The son of Captaintreacherous—Dragon's Tale is owned by Burke Racing, Milton Leeman, Alan Keith and Wingfield Brothers.

Burke said neither Lou's Pearlman nor Workin Ona Mystery changed much physically during the offseason.

"They were good-sized horses, pretty nicely made, to begin with," he said.

In addition to Saturday's open 2/open 1 handicap for pacers, The Meadowlands will host a $31,500 open 1 for trotters.

Racing at The Meadowlands begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT). Free TrackMaster programs for the Big M can be found here.

Beyer sees numbers increase, even if he doesn't look

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Troy Beyer is not one to keep track of his stats, preferring to wait until the end of the year to check his numbers.

When the time has come to look, it's been a pleasant sight.

Beyer, who turns 28 next week, worked for several different trainers after arriving from Illinois to the East Coast about eight years ago. In 2021, he began to turn his attention toward driving more frequently while training a stable with his wife, Katie.

Two years ago, Beyer won 96 races and drove horses that earned $1.02 million in purses. He surpassed those figures last year, registering 148 victories and $1.62 million in the money column.

He tied for seventh in wins at Freehold Raceway in 2022 and was eighth at Harrah's Philadelphia, where he did the majority of his driving.

"The first time I went over a million in earnings for a season, it was a shock," Beyer said. "I didn't even know I was close to it until I hit it and people told me. That was a good surprise.

"To have an even better year last year was unbelievable. I had a very good meet at [Harrah's Philadelphia] and I picked up more work as the year went on and drove for some good trainers throughout the year. I built some good relationships with people. I don't think it could have gone any better. I was thrilled."

By refraining from looking at his numbers during the season, Beyer can remain better focused on the job at hand.

"If you get to checking stats all the time, you're constantly trying to outdo yourself and thinking about it," Beyer said. "I just try to race the horses I drive and train and do the best I can. I just keep pushing along and kind of look at it at the end of the year. Then you can say, wow, it was a good year."

Beyer has picked up 260 of his 338 career wins since the start of 2021. He has 16 triumphs this year, with two of the victories coming March 3 at The Meadowlands, which resulted in Beyer being named the track's Driver of the Week.

"That was pretty cool," he said.

A native of the Chicago suburbs, Beyer got started in racing through his father, Wayne Elliott and notched his first driving win in 2013 at Balmoral Park. Whether driving or training, Beyer said patience is a virtue, which he learned from his dad.

"He was probably the most patient person I ever met," Beyer said. "We had some bad horses when I was a kid and I would tell him to get rid of some and he would say just to wait on them or keep going with them. Patience, it does pay off most of the time. I was lucky to learn that from him.

"I like to train young horses, too and that's a big thing with young horses. You have to let them tell you when they're ready to do things and you just go from there."

Troy and Katie have 11 horses, including six 2-year-olds and three 3-year-olds, in their stable.

"I think that's a good number for just Katie and I," Beyer said. "Even if we stay at this number, or get a few more, we want to continue to get better quality horses and try to have a little more success each year."

Which is Beyer's same goal for his driving career.

"I always wanted to drive," Beyer said. "I worked for Noel Daley, and he was a big help. He put faith in me to drive some nice horses and I've just been able to get some more work over the years. Last year, I got lucky and drove some nice horses throughout the year and I got to drive some stakes horses at different tracks: The Meadows, Freehold, [Philadelphia], The Meadowlands.

"It just kind of gets a little better every year. Hopefully, I can keep setting new records for myself every year."

He will just wait until the end of the year to find out.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.harnessracingupdate.com

Big M handle up $26 million during first quarter of 2023

Any naysayer talk of harness racing's demise has been reduced to a barely audible whisper these days, as the sport has seen a solid increase in business during the first quarter of 2023, with betting at The Meadowlands leading the charge.

During the first three months of 2023, there were 26 programs contested at The Big M (there was one cancellation due to cold conditions). There were a pair of Sunday afternoon cards during January, leaving 24 Friday and Saturday evening programs, with each of those cards seeing wagering exceed the $3-million mark.

During the first quarter of last year, the $3-million barrier was busted but four times. In addition, it took the entire racing calendar year of 2022 – 85 programs – to bet $3 million 23 times.

Needless to say, Big M business has been booming.

"We have received extraordinary support this year from our horsemen and our horseplayers," said Meadowlands' chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "Our numbers haven't been this strong in decades. We have fought a long, hard battle to become the No. 1 track in the evening marketplace again. With the help of Gov. [Phil] Murphy and the State Legislature of New Jersey, we can proudly say that The Meadowlands intends to stay there."

Here are some comparisons from last year to this, showing how much things have changed for the better. As well as the better:

During the first quarter of 2022, a total of $59.2 million was pushed through the windows on Meadowlands' races, for an average per race card of $2,820,649. This year, those numbers have ballooned to $85.4 million and $3,287,164, a staggering increase of just over $467,000 per card. The total increase stands at $26.2 million.

March was nothing short of marvelous at The Big M, as the average handle on Friday nights was $3,499,203, while Saturday's average wager was $3,697,352. The first weekend of the month saw the only two $4-million handles of the year in North America, as on Friday, March 3, an industry-best $4,519,050 was put in play, while the next night (Saturday, March 4) saw wagering total $4,062,855.

"Our goal is to keep this momentum throughout the season," Settlemoir said. "And in the coming weeks, our product will be shown to a national television audience on the networks of Fox Sports. [President/chief executive officer] Jeff [Gural] and I have always thought showing our races to an audience that may not know that we can provide a product that's as competitive as the thoroughbred races they are accustomed to, could provide some "crossover" fans and given how well we've done so far this year, that transition appears to already be in motion."

The sport as a whole has also seen increased business, with a total of $380 million in bets placed during the first quarter of 2023, as compared to the year before, when $351 million of action was taken. The $29-million increase (eight percent) occurred despite the total of race programs decreasing 12 percent.

#SENDITIN: The live "Racing from The Meadowlands" simulcast show takes place every racing night from the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set, with news, notes, selections and commentary on the night's featured races.

This weekend, there will be a special guest sitting alongside host Dave Little, as Gabe Prewitt, the leader of the #Senditin army last heard serving as the race caller at Northfield Park for the last few weeks, will be on set talking about the card, as well as doing what he does best, handicapping the races and giving out Pick-4 tickets.

Join Little and Prewitt beginning at 5:45 p.m. immediately after track announcer Ken Warkentin gives out program changes. During the night, Jessica Otten – on Friday – will have interviews from the back paddock while Edison Hatter provides commentary for FanDuel TV's coverage of the races. Hatter will handle both the paddock and FDTV on Saturday.

THE RACES KEEP ON COMING: Live racing at The Meadowlands will take place every Friday and Saturday for the next 18 consecutive weeks. Post time is 6:20 p.m., except for the last day of the meeting, Hambletonian Day, Saturday, Aug. 5, when the first race heads to the gate at noon.

Raceway sets handle record; looking ahead to Camluck Classic

The Raceway at Western Fair District capped off a record year for wagering this past Friday evening (March 31) as horseplayers put $708,000 through the windows, contributing to a $10.7-million month: the highest in the track's long history.

It was a strong finish to the fiscal year (ended March 31) in which $56,709,193 was wagered overall on The Raceway over a span of 119 race programs. That total, along with the per-race average of $46,030, were also both new highs for the London oval.

"It is a very encouraging trend as we enter the final two months of our current spring racing season," said director of equine programming, Greg Blanchard. "Wagering has been strong provincially and industry-wide for that matter and it's important for us to keep working hard to maintain that appeal with the horseplayers."

"When it comes to our simulcast customers we focus a lot on pool size, competitiveness of the on-track product, quality broadcast production and information and race placement while attempting to offer an attractive and varied wagering menu. Field size remains one of our ongoing challenges although we have been able to maintain last year's levels."

While overall wagering has been strong, the on-track handle has been flat this season as people slowly re-emerge from the pandemic.

Planning is well under way for the track's signature event, the $150,000 Camluck Classic presented by Seelster Farms, which will take place on Friday, May 26. Camluck Classic night features a powerful undercard including the $50,000 Forest City Pace for mares, a quartet of City Of London Series finals and the first leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots series for 3-year-old filly pacers.

"Camluck Classic night is always an exciting time for our team and the local racing community," said newly appointed manager of equine programming, Amy O'Toole. "We have a lot planned for this year's event including an enhanced outdoor patio experience, contests and giveaways, great food and drink along with live entertainment. When you pair that with some amazing racing and attractive wagering opportunities, we feel like there is something for everyone."

Defending champion Jimmy Freight is expected back in an attempt to make it back-to-back Camluck Classic titles. The event will also be broadcast live on COSA TV. Stay up to date by visiting camluckclassic.ca.

Doubles for Buter, Zeron in John Brennan Trotting Series action

Drivers Tyler Buter and Scott Zeron both won a pair of divisions of the first round of the John Brennan Trotting Series on Wednesday night (April 5) at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Each of the six splits carried a purse of $25,000.

Buter teamed up with trainer Ricky Bucci to tally with 4-year-old Muscle Hill gelding Tachyon [1:55.2, $26.20] and 5-year-old Archangel gelding P L Oscar [1:55.3, $6.40]. Tachyon, a 12-1 shot who won for the seventh time in his career, is owned by Flatland Racing, while P L Oscar, the 2-1 favorite in his split, is also owned by Bucci. P L Oscar made his 11th appearance in the winner's circle.

Zeron's victories came courtesy of Outside The Fire [1:55.2, $3] and C You Again DK [1:56, $3.80]. Outside The Fire, a 4-year-old gelded son of Cantab Hall co-owned by trainer Anette Lorentzon and ACL Stuteri AB, was the 1-2 favorite in his division and now has 12 lifetime victories. C You Again DK, trained by Per Engblom for owners Engblom Stable LLC. and Kasper Foget, has now compiled a record of 25-9-2 from 66 tries. He was the 4-5 choice in his Brennan Series showdown.

Rounding out the opening leg winners in the John Brennan Trotting Series were Spicy Nugget [1:55.4, $7.20] and Hoolie N Hector [1:57, $5.00]. Spicy Nugget, a 4-year-old gelding by Chapter Seven who was the 5-2 second choice and picked up his ninth triumph, was driven by co-owner Yannick Gingras for trainer Ron Burke and co-owners Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brussemi LLC., while Braxten Boyd was at the lines behind Hoolie N Hector, a 5-year-old gelded son of Muscles Yankee, for trainer Andrew Adamczyk and owner/breeder Joseph Meaney. Hoolie N Hector was dispatched as the 3-2 favorite in the night's final Brennan Series tilt and now has 12 career tallies.

The John Brennan Trotting Series is for 3-year-olds and older who were non-winners of six pari-mutuel races or $150,000 through Feb. 1, 2023, with winners over $250,000 as of that date not eligible. The series features two more preliminary legs on April 12 and April 19 with a $79,000 final and a $35,000 consolation on April 26.

Stakes racing resumes on tonight's (April 7) 11-race program with three $40,000 splits of the fourth leg of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series for pacing mares. Amazing Dream N will look to stay undefeated in the event in the last of those tilts (race eight).

The MGM Borgata Pacing Series will then continue on Monday, April 10 with three $50,000 divisions of the fourth round. The second Borgata battle features five horses – defending champion Funatthebeach N (post two, Jordan Stratton), Idealsomemagic A (post three, George Brennan), Hellabalou (post five, Yannick Gingras), Hemsworth N (post six, Kakaley) and Tattoo Artist (post seven, Dexter Dunn) – who has visited victory lane at some point during this year's MGM Borgata Pacing Series.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Reminder: Implementation of changes to Canada's drug elimination guidelines

The Canadian Pari-Mutuel Agency (CPMA) is reminding the Canadian horse racing industry that changes to the Elimination Guidelines (EG) came into effect on April 3, 2023 and that the website and PDF have been updated. The urine and blood testing protocols have also been adjusted accordingly.

All EGs remain the same except for those described in the Notice to Industry published on March 7, 2023.

Only the EGs currently published on the CPMA's website should be relied on when making treatment decisions for a racehorse.

The CPMA strongly recommends that you consult your veterinarian on any decision to administer supplements or medications to a horse.

If you have any questions, please contact the CPMA at 1-800-268-8835 or aafc.cpmawebacpm.aac@agr.gc.ca.

Diamond Creek's sixth annual open house is an opportunity for anyone, industry or not, to come out and enjoy a day at the farm. There will be chances to meet mares and foals, hayrides, games and opportunities to learn more about both harness racing and horses in general. Everything is very hands on and the staff is always available to answer any and all questions.

We will have a taco and hot dog bar this year courtesy of nearby restaurant, Taqueria El Camino, along with the returning fan favorite BootLeg Creamery. There will also be a bar serving wine and beer for those over 21.

Other draws to the open house will be local singer/songwriter Jake Mach, harness racing personality, Heather Vitale, Pacing For The Cure and more. Keep an eye on the social pages as we update information constantly.

The open house will be held on June 3, 2023, from 11-3 p.m. at 151 Warrington Street, Wellsville, PA 17365. There is no cost to attend, rain or shine, no pets please.

Driver Todd Warren collects six wins during Shenandoah Downs' spring season opening weekend

The first ever spring harness season at Shenandoah Downs kicked off Saturday (April 1) on a warm but blustery afternoon as local Woodstock resident trainer Betsy Brown reached the winner's circle in the initial race with Terry's Watching, runner up in the 2022 Virginia Breeder's 2-Year-Old Colt/Gelding Trot Championship. Todd Warren drove the Charlie De Vie gelding in his first start this year for owner James Brown, locally based as well.

The Brown/Warren combo connected again later with Ellen's Wish, 2023 Virginia Breeder's 3-Year-Old Filly Trotting Champ, in wire-to-wire fashion. Co-owned by Brown and Morgan Marston, the Charlie De Vie mare crossed in 2:02 in her fifth lifetime score.

Warren, who started competing at Shenandoah in 2022, had six wins over the weekend including a natural hat trick on Sunday aboard Lomangino Standardbreds' Thaneeya, Make America Great and with Raymond Burt's Sporty Dragon.

Warren, who has made 34,829 career starts with 5,266 wins, is part of a growing accomplished driver colony in Woodstock which includes David Ingraham (7,186 wins), John Wagner (5,766 wins), Roger Hammer (4,421 wins), Fern Paquet Jr. (3,221 wins), Corey Braden (2,420 wins) and newcomer Nick Roland (2,178 wins). A regular and Shenandoah fan favorite since 2016, Tyler Shehan is closing in on his 1,000th driving victory. He had four over the weekend and with 987 now, is just 13 wins shy. Ingraham, 61, is 11 outings shy of career start number 53,000.

New York based trainer Mike Annunziata brought five horses to Woodstock over the weekend including $1.6 million earner Doctor Butch. The 13-year-old Art Major horse, who finished fifth in Sunday's $10,000 open handicap pacing feature, headed to Charlottesville after the race where he will stand as part of the Virginia Harness Horse Association's lucrative new Sired Stakes program. Nick Roland's Alilthundadownunda did win the feature by a head over Archie Buford's Ideal Big Guy in 1:55.4.

Annunziata did end up winning races though with three of his other four horses: Gotta Minute N, Lovin Miss Daisy N and Milady Denver A.

Trophies from the 2022 fall meet were presented to category winners during Sunday's card. Stacey McLenaghan, who received hardware as leading trainer, ushered in the '23 spring meet with three victories including one with Creekside Pete in the co-featured $10,000 open handicap trot. Fiancé Corey Braden drove the 7-year-old Uncle Peter gelding to his 21st lifetime victory for owner David Jarvis.

Paquet Jr. accepted leading driver honors for the third straight meet while owner Shantae Gant and trainer Mike Whitaker accepted Horse of the Meet honors for Theorem, who had four wins, a pair of seconds and a third at last fall's eight-week stand.

Shenandoah Downs continues its spring session thru May 14 with racing every Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m. The track's simulcast signal, which is now being streamed in a high-definition format, is available to wager via TVG, Twinspires, Xpressbet and NYRabets and at many other tracks and OTBs. Free TrackMaster past performance programs will be available at shenandoahdowns.com beginning this weekend.

Handle at Fraser Downs hits modern-day all-time high

With the Pick-5 pool having expanded to over $62,000 and a guaranteed Pick-4 carryover pool totaling more than $26,000, there was an inspiring buzz throughout Fraser Downs Racetrack Friday (March 31) night.

It resulted in the highest handle in years at Fraser Downs with an all-association handle of $337,845, leaving president of harness racing BC Kelly MacMillan thrilled with what he termed as "renewed fan engagement" and thanking them for their support.

"We're definitely moving in the right direction," MacMillan said. "Everyone involved is excited about the interest that's been shown in our product, both by our supporters locally and through social channels. It's been great."

The mood was set early on Friday night's nine-race card when Brandon Campbell,

with Outlaw C My Shadow trained and co-owned by Connie Kolthammer of Outlaw

West Stable.

Campbell drove Outlaw C My Shadow to a ninth consecutive open handicap victory in Friday's fourth race. Campbell is the leading driver during the spring season at Fraser

Downs with 60 wins.

Standardbred racing continues on Thursdays and Fridays in April with 7 p.m. PT / 10 p.m. ET starts.
