Could pari-mutuel wagering on NASCAR help harness racing?

The Stronach Group's 1/ST Technology has signed a deal to bring pari-mutuel betting to stock car racing.

by Bob Duff

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

with BOB DUFF

The recent news that NASCAR was moving toward a system of offering pari-mutuel wagering on the sport's racing is intriguing on a number of levels. Certainly, it would be fascinating to see stock car racing offering the same style of fluctuating and changing odds that have been popularized for decades in wagering on harness racing.

That it is 1/ST Technology that will be handling the implementation of pari-mutuel wagering for NASCAR is another plus for the horse racing industry. 1/ST Technology is part of the Stronach Group, one of the major players in horse track ownership in North America. Along with some of the more prominent U.S. thoroughbred tracks, among the holdings of the Stronach Group is Rosecroft Raceway. In the past, the company also held ownership in such harness tracks as Flamboro Downs and The Meadows.

Of course, the implementation of pari-mutuel wagering on NASCAR racing will be contingent upon obtaining the necessary approval from regulatory bodies in states in which sports betting is legal.

SIMILARITIES BETWEEN NASCAR AND HARNESS RACING

Not unlike harness racing, NASCAR has endured its periods of boom and bust over the course of its existence. For much of the early tenure of NASCAR, and really reaching well into the 1980s, it was more of a regional sports pursuit, with its main popularity being held within the Southeastern U.S.

That would begin to change in the mid-1990s. NASCAR went mainstream. It was rivaling some of the major U.S. team sports in terms of popularity. However, entering the 2000s that popularity steadily began to wane. Much like attempts to grow the audience in harness racing, NASCAR officials found themselves walking a fine line between appealing to the masses without alienating the sport's traditional fanbase.

Rule changes made the cars look and run too much the same. Many of the characters of the sport were pushed out as NASCAR sought to appeal to a wider audience. And it didn't help that a number of the stars who'd crossed over into mainstream media appeal such as Jeff Gordon, Dale Earnhardt, Jr. and Carl Edwards retired from the sport.

NASCAR was also accused of not listening to its fans, a refrain not unfamiliar to harness racing enthusiasts.

WHY PARI-MUTUEL WAGERING WILL BE GOOD FOR NASCAR

Legal betting on NASCAR races has been widespread across the U.S. for less than a decade, so including pari-mutuel wagering into the mix doesn't figure to rock the boat in that regard.

With its aggregated pools, pari-mutuel wagering offers the potential to create significant jackpots. The fluctuating odds enable bettors to wait and see whether a bet on their favorite driver is going to be worth their while.

In some cases, the odds may grow on a top driver if that driver struggles in practice and qualifies poorly for the race. Or perhaps they wreck their car during qualifying, forcing a switch to a back-up car and a start at the rear of the field.

It's also a question of how far NASCAR is willing to dive into the pari-mutuel wagering experience. Will they be offering exactas, trifectas and superfectas on races? Providing the chance to wheel cars to finish among the top three finishers could create massive betting pools.

Another possibility would be to employ Pick 3s up to Pick 6s, in which you'd be betting to see if you could nail down which drivers, or perhaps even which race teams will be winning a run of races. There could even be a NASCAR form of daily double play in which you try to pick the winner of the Cup Series race and the Xfinity Series race on the same weekend.

COULD THIS HELP HARNESS RACING?

There's always the chance that adding pari-mutuel wagering on NASCAR could create a spinoff effect that leads to more people opting to give betting on harness racing a try.

Sports bettors are accustomed to wagering via fixed odds. Pari-mutuel odds would be foreign to them if they've never bet on a horse race. Gaining a familiarity with placing a bet via a pari-mutuel system and its potential to create an enormous pool and possible payout is likely going to open some eyes for people used to betting via fixed odds.

Imagine the possibilities of a six-car trifecta box on a race. By adding in one or two longshot cars into the equation, you could be setting up a major payday for yourself. You can't box a fixed odds parlay or same-game parlay.

Bergstein gets overdue honor, thanks to a Big M customer

by Debbie Little

When The Meadowlands sent out a release last week adding the name of the late, great Stan Bergstein to the finals of the Graduate Series, the two comments most shared were, "great idea" and "long overdue."

"I was really pleased to see that the Graduate finals are going to honor Stan," said Paul Estok. "My personal feeling is that it's about time. Frankly, I honestly believed more such honors would come his way in the first couple of years following his death. I was disappointed when it didn't happen. I know he's not alone in spending the better part of his life giving to harness racing, but I can't think of many who did so in so many ways."

Estok, who worked alongside Bergstein for many years at Harness Tracks of America, holding several titles, including executive assistant, general counsel, corporate secretary and executive director, said that he thinks Bergstein would be pleased with the honor.

"Like anyone else, he had an ego," Estok said. "He was proud of the people he knew. I can't tell you how many times, in different cities, people would come up to him and say that they remembered him from his days doing the Yonkers broadcast or from any of the other broadcasts he was a part of. And it always pleased him. While there's no doubt in my mind that Stan would have preferred to achieve immortality by living forever, this little reminder of who he was and what he meant to harness racing would gratify him."

The customer that reached out via social media to The Big M's chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir did not specifically request that the Graduate Series finals be named for Bergstein, but Chris McErlean, the vice-president of racing

“I was really pleased to see that the Graduate finals are going to honor Stan. My personal feeling is that it’s about time. Frankly, I honestly believed more such honors would come his way in the first couple of years following his death. I was disappointed when it didn’t happen. I know he’s not alone in spending the better part of his life giving to harness racing, but I can’t think of many who did so in so many ways.”

for Penn Entertainment, Inc., who worked with Bergstein in the early '90s as an executive assistant at HTA, thinks the track made the perfect choice.

“I want to thank The Meadowlands for honoring Stan Bergstein and it is appropriate the Graduate Series is the event to carry his name,” McErlean said. “Under Stan’s guidance, the Harness Tracks of America sponsored a series of top-flight races for older horses during the 1960s and early '70s, which is what the Graduate Series emulates.”

Settlemoir said that the opportunity to get an idea like this is one of the reasons he enjoys talking with his customers.

“Honestly, when I read it, I said to myself, ‘Wow, I can’t believe that I’d never thought about this, to name a race for Stan Bergstein,’” Settlemoir said about receiving the request on Facebook via Messenger. “When I went to work at Tioga, Stan was entering the last years of his career with the HTA, but Stan was not only just a mentor, he was also a friend and not just to me but to Jeff [Gural] as well with opening the tracks [Vernon Downs and Tioga Downs] in Upstate New York. Stan and I had spoken several times and had seen each other several times during those years going to the HTA. I was actually vice-president of the HTA for a long time.

“He did so much for the industry and lived and breathed harness racing over the years, and to have a race named after him at our racetrack, as prestigious as the Graduate finals, is an honor that should have been done a long, long time ago.”

A feeling shared by Meadowlands president/chief executive officer, Gural, who was honored with the 2006 Stan Bergstein Messenger award from Harness Tracks of America.

“I knew Stan from watching his TV show and as a member of HTA... plus I bought art when he did the [charity] art auctions,” Gural said. “Someone suggested it and I realized it was long overdue.”

Following Bergstein’s death in November of 2011, at their annual meeting in February of 2012, the United States Harness Writers Association voted to add Bergstein’s name to their Proximity Achievement award, the highest honor voted on solely by members of USHWA.

Plainridge Racecourse did contest the Stan Bergstein Pace, a $25,000 open for 3-year-olds, for several years in the 2000s, but it did not carry the prestige of the Graduate Series.

“Stan’s greatest attribute, and there were many, was his ability to mentor and guide so many individuals into this sport and to give them a runway to success,” McErlean said. “I am grateful for that opportunity from Stan, and I know he was a great mentor for Jason as well and helped recent Hall of Famer Tom Aldrich, amongst many others, on their roads to success. This race and series will hopefully put many more horses on their own road to success as well.

“Hopefully, having this series named in honor of Stan Bergstein will keep his name, and most importantly, his well-articulated vision for harness racing, at the forefront.”

NOTE: For those perhaps not as familiar with all the accomplishments of the only person elected to both the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, here’s a video by HRU’s Heather Vitale remembering Stan Bergstein with a voice-over by Bergstein’s longtime TV partner, Dave Johnson.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Stay denied for Jimmy Gagnon in ongoing “hidden trainer case”

by Melissa Keith

On the surface, 2024 was Ste-Sophie, QC horseman Jimmy Gagnon's best season as a driver. He won 97 of 803 drives, the last of the season with pacer Dr Joe at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Dec. 30. His UDRS of .244 and seasonal purse earnings of $504,000 (U.S.) suggested the 29-year-old was on the brink of a career breakthrough. In early 2025, Gagnon had three wins from 67 starts, most recently Feb. 1 with pacer Choreographer and trotter Fashion Contender at Flamboro Downs. He went winless there Feb. 2, then received news that he would not be driving anywhere for the foreseeable future: On Feb 3, the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) announced Gagnon's suspension from Feb. 5, 2025 until Aug. 5, 2026, plus a $2,500 (Can.) fine.

The penalties were unrelated to Gagnon's driving. They were imposed for his alleged ongoing communication with suspended owner/trainer/driver Carol Voyer of Lac Kenomagi, QC, for whom Gagnon was, allegedly, covertly training horses while concealing the arrangement from racing officials. The pacing mare Butterfly Kisses was retroactively disqualified from nine starts at Woodbine Mohawk Park (March 1-May 3, 2024), where she was a three-time winner for listed trainer Gagnon. Trotting mare Laa Dee Gaa was also DQed from seven March 13-May 7, 2024 starts at Flamboro Downs and The Raceway at Western Fair. She won her debut for Gagnon at the latter track. He was ordered to repay all purses won by the mares, within 15 days of the AGCO decision announced on Feb. 3, 2025. Both mares had formerly been campaigned by Carol Voyer, competing at various Ontario tracks in 2023.

When Gagnon was racing Laa Dee Gaa and Butterfly Kisses, Voyer was serving a three-year suspension (from July 19, 2023 until July 18, 2026) and had been fined $11,000 for the suspicious death of Cams Lucky Sam (p, 3, 1:50.3s; $129,764). The gelding last raced for Voyer at Flamboro Downs on Oct. 12, 2022, and was scratched sick Oct. 23, 2022. Cams Lucky Sam's registration was converted to Pleasure Horse Registration (no racing, no breeding) as of Nov. 19, 2021, yet the then-8-year-old gelding continued racing. Voyer was penalized for subjecting the unlucky pacer to what the AGCO ruled was “an act of neglect,” misleading investigators about Cams Lucky Sam's whereabouts and eventual death, and ultimately “engaging in conduct not in the best interest of racing,” according to the July 13, 2023 decision.

On Feb. 3, 2025, the AGCO announced that investigators found that Voyer had been directing Gagnon about training and racing Laa Dee Gaa (5, 1:57.1f; $84,474) and Butterfly Kisses (p, 5, 1:54f; $88,369) while under suspension. Voyer officially owned Laa Dee Gaa from March 3, 2023 until July 17, 2023, and Butterfly Kisses from July 30, 2022 until July 17, 2023. Banned from racetrack properties beyond the grandstand, Voyer sought out Gagnon so he could continue to race horses while suspended. Voyer is now suspended a further 18 months, meaning he cannot participate in racing from July 19, 2026 until Jan. 19, 2028.

At publication deadline (April 9), both Gagnon and Voyer were awaiting Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) hearings, with dates to be announced. Gagnon is appealing charges of “misconduct detrimental to the best interest of racing” while Voyer is appealing “participation in racing while currently suspended.”

Prior to his involvement with Voyer, Gagnon was mainly known as a successful catch driver for a variety of trainers. His Feb. 5 request for a stay was denied by the HRAP in a March 28 decision. HRAP chair Stanley Sadinsky ruled that protecting the public interest and the best interest of racing outweighed the reputational, emotional, and financial damages reported by Gagnon during his March 13 stay hearing.

“This case has been described as a hidden trainer case,” Sadinsky said. “It is a situation where an actual licensee, in this case Mr. Gagnon, is alleged to be handling certain horses and taking instructions and assistance from a suspended trainer, in this case Mr. Voyer, who formerly trained the horses in question. In my view, this is a very serious case because it involves a conspiracy, or an alleged conspiracy, between two persons who not only are violating the rules of racing but also are ignoring a decision of the registrar suspending one of the parties.”

Eight years into his driving career, Gagnon is not permitted at racetracks, apart from the grandstand, and cannot race any horses he owns, pending the outcome of his upcoming appeal hearing. His first drives at Mohawk were in Jan. 2023 qualifiers; Gagnon finished sixth with $7,000 claimer Independence Time in his pari-mutuel driving debut there on Jan. 26, 2023. Gagnon's first Mohawk win came on Oct. 26, 2024 with conditioned pacer Bayfield Beach. He won three of 24 Mohawk catch drives in Dec. 2024, when the former Hippodrome 3R/Rideau Carleton Raceway regular appeared to be on the rise at Canada's top harness racing venue.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

How about 'July Madness'

by John Berry

Ahhhh, March Madness.

There are headlines all over the place about the men's NCAA tournament, and the women's side of that roster also has received plenty of ink and on-air commentary.

Within the first five minutes of the first tip-off, there were more than 700 "challenge" brackets created, per second, with the total on the men's side exceeding 24,000,000.

After day one of the tournament, out of those 24,000,000 brackets, only 25,802 perfect brackets were still alive.

Now, there are Z-E-R-O perfect brackets.

The NCAA women's bracket had around 15,000,000 brackets.

Headlines: This college basketball tournament captures the country – the world – with headlines.

No need to carry this any further. You probably watched the championship games on television, whether you were at home or in the paddock.

How about Hambletonian Madness, July Madness, then October Madness, Breeders Crown Madness.

We have the perfect numbers for the Hambletonian Stakes, 95 colts and/or geldings and 98 fillies.

Wouldn't that be just perfect and a match for the NCAA tournaments for March Madness for the men and the ladies?

All it takes is a bit of ingenuity and a sports book connection, and we should know about plenty of those, shouldn't we?

The Hambletonian is covered from "A" to "Z," well, really only from "B" to "Y," Banksy Monkey to Yolo Kemp.

And the fillies are covered from "A" to "X," Act Accordingly to Xalapa.

The possibilities are endless with brackets and prop plays.

We're talkin' headlines, folks, and it's time to get some with our strong menu of, now, G1 (Grade 1) events.

We simply must take that first step; one step, then another, and another.

The Hambletonian Maturity – also a G1 event, has 36 eligibles with nine mares tossing their bonnets in the ring in an event dotted with, to name a few, Amazing Catch, Highland Kismet, Karl, Secret Agent Man and, yet another looking to win the war, Vic Zelensky.

Add to that the famed Delvin Miller Adios (G1) with 90 eligibles, the Cane Pace, which is now classified as a G2, the MGM Messenger (G2) with 37 eligibles and the MGM Yonkers Trot, a triple crown event labeled G2, with 41 hopefuls, and you've got the makings for some serious headlines, something we sorely need for a grand sport suffering, largely, from non-exposure outside of our little bubble.

Then, building on this, our sport can enjoy October Breeders Crown Madness, featuring two great nights of racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park in late October.

With the now established 2-year-olds featured on October 24, the 3-year-old and open divisions will be ripe for headlines the following night.

Wouldn't it be grand to get 20,000 at the track that night, and at least 10 million taking notice with brackets and prop bets – what the gamblers want – to prop up interest in the sport?

As Neil Armstrong said when he walked on the moon, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

If we can take a leap – even though a bit late – it could be a giant stride forward to our future.

MAY THE HORSE BE WITH YOU

Hambletonian's greatest 'Johns' and more

by Bob Heyden

Everyone knows that John Campbell is the all-time Hambletonian leader in wins (six) and earnings ($6,550,344). Here's his results broken down by his age: 20s (2 0-1-0), 30s (10 3-1-2), 40s (9 2-1-1), 50s (8 1-2-2), and 60s (1 0-0-0).

Here's a closer look at the other Johns who competed/cashed in the 99 Hambletonians.

John Simpson, Sr. had an amazing run from 1949-65 competing and hitting the board an incredible nine times: Rocco Hanover (1949) third, Stars Pride (1950) second, Duke Of Lullwater (1952) third, Leopold Hanover (1955) third, Hickory Smoke (1957) first, Caleb (1961) second, Isaac (1962) second, Elma (1963) third, Ayres (1964) first. Ten checks (2-3-4) on that amazing run. He's also the only driver to get two different checks in the same Hambletonian. In 1957, he was also second twice with Section Man who was twice the runner-up to Hoot Song (fourth money overall) in the only Hambletonian ever to see two colts with multiple wins. In 1970, Simpson's son John Simpson, Jr. won with Timothy T who was from the first crop of his 1964 Triple Crown winner Ayres.

Since Jan is a form of John in various languages, let's take a look at a couple of them. Jan Johnson was in two finals and didn't cash, yet did train the 1988 winner Armbrø Goal. Jan Nordin was 8 0-0-1 ($149,287) in the Hambletonian. But his impact was with his 1984 starter Baltic Speed as a sire having both Peace Corps and Valley Victory from his first crop.

Here's a look at Johns who cashed on the biggest stage:

- John Dodge (1933) was fourth with Hollywood Porta.
- Johnny Takter was 2 0-0-0 good for $94,000 in his limited appearances in 2013 and 2015.
- John Patterson, Jr. won a Hambletonian heat each of his first two years with MB Felty in 1991 and King Conch in 1992, both as favorites. Overall, he made four finals: 4 0-2-1 ($884,500) as both his elim winners were runners-up in the final.
- John Plutino (1997) got fifth in his lone Hambletonian try with Giant Special.
- John Simpson, Jr. (1970) won at 27 years of age, but his next dozen tries yielded just $36G.

- John Stark, Jr. (2006) made $75,000 finishing fifth with Algiers Hall.
- John (Duke) Sugg (2002) banked $8,000 with Really Suspicious, third in his elim and eighth in the final.

TIME IS ON MY SIDE

Speaking of Campbell in the Hambletonian, how about Jim Campbell. Jim holds the record for time between Hambletonian wins – 27 years – with Tagliabue (1995) and Cool Papa Bell (2022). Right behind are Ron Pierce (14 years) with American Winner (1993) and Donato Hanover (2007). Then in order are: Jimmy Takter (13 years) with Malabar Man (1997) and Muscle Massive (2010), Del Cameron (11 years) with Newport Dream (1954) and Egyptian Candor (1965), and Fred Egan (nine years) with Spencer Scott (1940) and Miss Tilly (1949).

TAKING THE FIFTH, HAMBLETONIAN STYLE

These Hambletonian finalists only managed to get fifth place, but that didn't stop them from going on to better things.

1964 – Speedy Count twice sired a Hambletonian winner: Steve Lobell (1976) and Burgomeister (1980).

1971 – Quick Pride quietly managed to easily out earn the Hambletonian winner Speedy Crown at year's end.

1977 – Cold Comfort dominated in the Roosevelt International Trot the following year against the best in the world.

2014 – Resolve got it together a couple of years later to capture the Yonkers International Trot.

2016 – Bar Hopping sired Trotter of the Year Bella Bellini.

24 FACTS FOR 24 YEARS AT DUQUOIN

Here are 24 facts about the Hambletonian's 24 years in DuQuoin, IL.

1. John Simpson, Jr. was 27 when he won in 1970 with Timothy T, making him the youngest Hambletonian winning driver for over a decade until Tommy Haughton won with Speed Bowl (1982) at age 25.
2. "Caretaker to the Stars," Pat Troll, assisted Corinne Tripp in 1979 prepping Legend Hanover and then bounced right back with Burgomeister in 1980.
3. DuQuoin hosted the first sub 2:00 Hambletonian mile in 1958 when Emilys Pride went 1:59.4. Twenty years later, in 1978, the Illinois mile oval saw both Speedy Somolli and Florida Pro each hit the magic number of 1:55.
4. All four of Billy Haughton's driving wins came in the final seven editions of the Hambletonian at DuQuoin: Christopher T (1974), Steve Lobell (1976), Green Speed (1977), and the finale in 1980 with Burgomeister.

5. DuQuoin was the host of the first Hambletonian worth over a quarter-of-a-million: Steve Lobell (1976) $263,524.

6. Four times a DuQuoin Hambletonian winner sired a DuQuoin Hambletonian winner: Ayres (1964) sired Timothy T (1970), Speedy Scot (1963) sired Speedy Crown (1971), Nevele Pride (1968) sired Bonefish (1975), and Super Bowl (1972) sired Legend Hanover (1979).

7. Red Skelton was at the 1980 Hambletonian and for the second straight year Stan "The Man" Musial was the parade host.

8. Frank Ervin and 1979 winner Legend Hanover led the 1980 Hambletonian field to post.

9. Bruce Nickells, who turns 97 in July, was in three Hambletonians and rolled a seven each time: Scribe Rodney (1964), Chaco (1973), and Lolas Express (1976). He is the oldest living former Hambletonian driver.

10. All eight of Stars Pride's Hambletonian credits came at DuQuoin.

11. Fairmount Hanover quietly finished fifth in 1973, but witnessed way more than most going forward living to the ripe old age of 37.

12. Bonefish (1975) is still the only Hambletonian winner never to race again.

13. Jan Johnson, Berndt Lindstedt and Carl Allen are the only three drivers to have raced at both DuQuoin and in a 21st century Meadowlands Hambletonian.

14. Only one driver won a Hambletonian at DuQuoin and did not get inducted into the Hall of Fame, Flave Nipe (1958). Del Cameron, who won in 1965 and 1967, went in as an Immortal in 1979.

15. Howard Beissinger loved the DuQuoin Hambletonian. He won his debut in 1969 with Lindys Pride as the only driver to debut and win the Triple Crown. Two years later he dominated with Speedy Crown and then with his son Speedy Somolli in 1978. Oddly, his largest Hambletonian check came without a victory, at The Meadowlands, with Torway (1985) who finished second for $318,000.

16. I don't think Hakan Wallner liked DuQuoin very much. He participated in his first five Hambletonians there, without cashing. He bounced back in good order taking down $372,400 in six Meadowlands finals later on.

17. Four heats at DuQuoin in 1960, 1965, 1975 and the last one, 49 years ago, in 1976.

18. Peter Haughton drove in four DuQuoin Hambletonian races good for $46,684.

19. In 1975, Walter Ross just missed with Yankee Bambino to Bonefish. neither ever competed again. Flave Nipe also made just the one start in the Hambletonian at DuQuoin with the HOY Emilys Pride in 1958.

20. In 1980, the last year at DuQuoin before moving east to The Meadowlands, there was a New Jersey flavor in the Hambletonian Oaks via winner Kading, owned by Arnold Bachner of North Bergen, NJ. On the Hambletonian side, one New Jersey owner, Robert Hiemstra of Wayne, was in the house, but his colt Balboa finished seventh.

21. Three Hambletonian trainers on the 1980 DuQuoin Hambletonian card who would go on to win a Hambletonian at The Meadowlands were Stanley Dancer (1983), Jan Johnson (1988) and Billy Haughton (1982).

22. Thirteen of the 18 entrants in the last DuQuoin Hambletonian (1980) were sired by former Hambletonian winners.

23. Owner Hubert Horst Reidel of Fort Lauderdale, FL, competed in the last Hambletonian at DuQuoin and the very first one at The Meadowlands. Final Score was second in 1980 and Charter Party in 1981 did not get any $$ as his summary was only good enough for sixth.

24. Tommy Haughton was exactly 6 months old when the first DuQuoin Hambletonian took place, and 23 years later he won a Hambletonian heat in his debut and was second overall with Final Score.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Irvin Crews keeps his eyes on the prize not the tote board

by Chris Lomon

At odds of 27-1, Irvin Crews and the bay mare were considered longshots at best on the night of March 25 at Saratoga Harness.

Race 2, featuring a purse of $6,000, took place at the half-mile oval in Saratoga Springs. The dash included eight horses, one of which was Premier Delainey, a daughter of Always A Virgin—Premier Indigo.

Crews had already become familiar with Premier Delainey, bred by Premier and Associates Farm in Howell, MI.

In their past four pairings, the duo combined for a sixth, third, second and third.

When he jogged Premier Delainey by the tote board on that late March night, Crews didn't turn his head to see what the odds were beside the No. 4.

"I never look at the tote board, it means nothing," said the Nova Scotia-born horseman. "I want to drive each horse as if they are the favorite. I don't want to start putting anything in my mind, that I don't have a chance because of what those odds say."

So, as always, Crews warmed up his horse and readied for the countdown to post time.

He had already notched his first driving win this past October, a 15-1 upset with Rocks Fantasy — the pacer, who he owns, also gave him first two training triumphs — at Fryeburg, a half-mile oval in his now home state of Maine.

One thing missing from his resume, however, was a pari-mutuel victory.

"Could this be the night?" Crews said he thought to himself as the starter car picked up speed at Saratoga Springs just over a week ago.

The start wasn't ideal — Premier Delainey and Crews sat sixth after the opening quarter in :26.4 — but Crews didn't panic.

What he did do, however, in football parlance, was call an audible.

Crews moved Premier Delainey to the outer flow just after the first quarter and into fifth through three-quarters in 1:25.2.

Jessica Hallett

But there was still plenty of work to be done to chase down the four horses in front of them.

"I kept her three-deep and I wondered if we were going to be able to get there," he said. "But I had to give her a shot. We started making headway, we found open room and I started having a good feeling."

Third at the stretch call, Premier Delainey powered past tiring rivals as Crews braced for the challenge of any closers.

With less than 50 feet to the wire, he didn't hear any hoofsteps coming.

"As soon as I passed the horses on the inside of me, I thought, 'Wow... this really is a dream come true,'" Crews said.

Crews, who also trains three horses of his own, wasn't the only one celebrating.

Back in the paddock, Crews checked his phone, where congratulatory messages were already flooding in.

"I was back in the locker room about a half hour after the race and it was already on Facebook," he said. "People were reaching out to congratulate me. It was an amazing feeling. I was dreaming about that moment for a long time, and I finally got it done."

And he did it with a fitting horse.

"She has been a family project," he said. "My brother-in-law, [trainer] Zack Gray, and my wife, Dawn, have worked on hard her. We got her right once she came to us and Zack said he was going to give me the chance with her."

The milestone victory has boosted Crews' confidence and drawn the attention of more trainers.

With the victory now in the rearview mirror, he's looking to forge a new chapter in his racing career.

"I'm at a beautiful track here in Saratoga," he said. "It's a tough place to start out, but I felt if I could get that one win, it would open the door to more. It has helped me grow and I feel like my driving is getting better because I am driving with the pros."

Crews, who also lists horseman Bobby MacNeil as a strong racing influence, started his path to the sulky in Nova Scotia before it took him to the Pine Tree State.

His fascination with racing began at an early age.

"I grew up watching Heath Campbell and Drew Campbell drive; they were idols," Crews said. "My dad grew up with Heath in Lower Sackville [NS] and then he took me to watch some races at Bangor Raceway, where it all started for me."

"When I turned 15, I went to work for Heath Campbell and Valerie Grondin, and it snowballed from there."

Though his career is still in its early stages, Crews sounds very much like an experienced horseperson when it comes to the challenges of a racetrack life.

"There are always going to be ups and downs, and nothing is going to be handed to you on a silver platter," he said. "Nothing comes easy, so work ethic and listening to other horsemen – that is a big key. There are going to be tough nights, but learn from it, just brush it off – you never want to hold onto that.

"You learn from others, so I listen, pay attention, and do my best to follow in their footsteps. I have a lot of peers and people, including my parents, who have taught me a lot about racing and the right type of person to be in life."

Crews has also added some of the things he learned from his hockey-playing days into his racing repertoire.

"I find it is the quick mobility, the ability to make split-second decisions, that is the same in both sports," Crews said.

It all adds up to a carefully constructed game plan that has served Crews well, a blueprint he doesn't see changing any time soon as he looks to sharpen his skills and expand his profile.

In the short term, the main objective is to earn his 'A' license.

His long-term goal is to win one of the most celebrated harness racing events in Eastern Canada, namely, the Gold Cup and Saucer.

Since the early 1960s, the race, an open event for mares, horses and geldings aged 3 years and older, held at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park, has drawn thousands of spectators and top horses and horsepeople each year.

"I would love to win that race; that would be a big one for me," Crews said.

And if it does come to be, don't expect the young horseman to pay any attention to what the infield tote board is showing.

Odds are 1-9 that Crews will be focused on the task at hand.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

The Italian sun and Gocciadoro shone brightly in Turin

by Thomas Hedlund

Italy's most prominent trainer, Alessandro Gocciadoro had a nice day at the track when Turin played host to some high class-races on Sunday (April 6) afternoon. The Italian sun was shining in Turin and Gocciadoro's yellow racing colors did the same as he claimed both final divisions of the $185,000 Anact Stakes Plus+ for 4-year-olds.

Funny Gio (Face Time Bourbon) was simply the best horse in the mares' division and Gocciadoro's trotter had to do the tough job first over, a trip that she proved to handle without problems. Funny Gio was pushed to the lead with a quarter to go in the 2,060 meter race and then she just cruised to a safe win in a strong mile rate of 1:55.4. Stablemate Fantastic Gio finished second while Freisa Roc was third.

The boys' final included Gocciadoro's Italian Derby winner First Of Mind (Face Time Bourbon) and the 4-year-old showed that he very well can look forward to a career among the best horses in Europe. In Sunday's final he got orders to attack in intervals and when Gocciadoro put in an extra gear with a kilometer to go, First Of Mind overtook the lead from early leader Fil Ek. Tough pushing in high pace didn't stop First Of Mind in the stretch and he had power and moral to defend himself when Funky Roc challenged on the outside.

The Face Time Bourbon son won in a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 1.3 miles, Funky Roc was the runner up and Fil Ek held on for the bronze medal.

Older elite trotters met up in the $200,000 Gran Premio Costa Azzurra and it ended with Gocciadoro horses on top. Gabriele Gelormini was entrusted behind Dany Capar (Exploit Caf) and the duo hit the front position directly when the car accelerated at the start. But Gelormini opted to let Dany Capar's stablemate Vernissage Grif overtake the front position with a little less than a lap to go and the cover trip paid out well when Dany Capar attacked the leader at the top of the stretch. Dany Capar seemed to cruise to an easy win, but stablemate Always Ek showed up in a very fast finish on the far outside and it got tight as the wire approached.

Always Ek's furious speed trying to claim the win was initiated too late, and Dany Capar held the chaser behind him by a neck and won in 1:54 over 1,600 meters.

Gocciadoro left the racetrack in Turin with three Group 1 victories and his horses really performing at the top. Probably, there will be more "yellow" at the tracks as the sun heats up Europe in the months to come.

purses. Six-year-old S I P was a multiple Grand Circuit winner and 2021 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion before spending the past two years in Sweden.

Aetos Kronos S, a son of Bold Eagle—Will Of A Woman owned by Jeff Snyder and Michael Snyder, was trained overseas by Jerry Riordan. Among his highlights was winning the Hakan Wallner Memorial with a world-record performance at the distance of 1-5/16 miles at age 3. Two years later, he was an Elitloppet finalist, and later that season upset Elitloppet winner Don Fanucci Zet in the Jubileumspokalen (The Jubilee Prize) at Solvalla Racetrack.

The stallion, who missed time in ensuing years because of a health issue, most recently raced in the Prix d'Amérique and Prix de France in early 2024 before heading to the U.S. and Melander's stable. Aetos Kronos S prepped for his North American debut with two qualifiers at The Meadowlands, winning the second on March 29 by a half-length over S I P in 1:56, covering the last quarter-mile in :26.4 with Dexter Dunn in the sulky.

"I think he might need a start or two to get his legs under him, but we were very happy with the way he qualified the other day," Jeff Snyder said. "After a start or two, hopefully he'll come into himself. He needs a little racing.

"He's an exciting horse for us. If he comes back the way he was, it will be a very interesting season to watch him."

One newcomer, one returnee, set to start Melander's season

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Marcus Melander will get his stable's 2025 season underway tonight (April 11) at The Meadowlands, and he will do it with two horses that were competing overseas in recent years.

Melander, who last year set career highs with 104 wins and $6.59 million in purses, will send out Aetos Kronos S and S I P in tonight's featured $17,500 conditioned trot at The Big M. The 9-year-old Aetos Kronos S has spent his entire career overseas, where he captured three Group 1 and four Group 2 races while banking the U.S. equivalent of $1.37 million in Melander is looking forward to seeing Aetos Kronos S in action. The stallion will leave from post 2 in tonight's seven-horse field with Dunn back in the bike. He is the 3-1 second choice on the morning line.

"He's been a great horse his entire career," Melander said. "We were happy with his qualifiers. He needed two qualifiers to get a little tighter, and he looked a little sharper in the second one. We'll see how he races, but he feels good and seems happy. It will be exciting to see him race. He always tries his best."

Aetos Kronos S is staked to many top events for older male trotters, including the Arthur J. Cutler Memorial, Crawford Farms Trot, John Cashman Memorial, and Maple Leaf Trot.

"We have him staked to all the open events that we could put him in," Snyder said. "It was a bit of a gamble, but he looks great. He looks fabulous. Let's see what happens. He's been a special horse for us. We're hoping for the best."

Melander's other entrant, S I P, is making his seasonal debut and will have Mattias Melander in the sulky. S I P won eight of 32 races at ages 2 and 3 in North America, earning $441,583, while in the stable of trainer Ron Burke. In addition to his Pennsylvania Sire Stakes title, his victories included the 2022 Old Oaken Bucket in 1:51.2 at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Ohio.

The time remains the fastest ever by a 3-year-old trotter on a half-mile track.

"Obviously, he was a fast 3-year-old over here and raced good for Burke," said Melander, who trains the stallion for owners Brixton Medical Inc. and Hatfield Stables. "He had a couple decent years in Sweden, and we're excited to start racing him as well and see what he can do."

S I P, a son of Bar Hopping—Barbara Brooks, will leave from post 4 and is 4-1 on the morning line.

"He just qualified once, but he raced in October, so he hadn't been away for long," Melander said. "I think he will be OK with just one qualifier, but he might need a race or two. He's a nice horse, an honest horse, and he likes his work."

The 2-1 morning-line favorite in tonight's race is Chapercraz, who is making his seasonal debut for trainer Burke, leaving from post 5 with Joe Bongiorno in the bike.

Last season, the 5-year-old gelding won the Hambletonian Maturity, was second in the Spirit of Massachusetts, and third in the Cashman, Charlie Hill Memorial, and Graduate Series championship. He has earned $1.01 million lifetime.

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT) at The Meadowlands. For free TrackMaster Platinum past performances for The Big M, visit the track's website here.

Big M to go national again on FOX

For a fifth consecutive year, the TV teams at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and The Meadowlands will combine forces to bring high-caliber harness racing stakes events to a national television audience over the networks of FOX Sports as part of NYRA’s “America’s Day at the Races” telecasts.

Currently, there are eight shows scheduled, which will feature virtually every major event at the mile oval during the track’s Championship Meet, which kicks off Kentucky Derby Weekend (May 2-3).

“All of us at The Meadowlands are so pleased to once again be able to bring our biggest events to a national television audience,” said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer. “The broadcast crew at NYRA has plenty of experience with shows like these, and that experience shows. The telecasts are always first-rate, and they have had a great effect on getting our races into the living rooms of people who might not otherwise watch them. They have created added interest, as well as added handle, on our races, which proves the shows give us precisely what we are looking for.”

NYRA vice-president of communications Pat McKenna said, “America’s Day at the Races is proud to be the broadcast home for harness racing’s marquee events, including The Meadowlands’ signature races, the Meadowlands Pace on July 12 and the historic 100th Hambletonian on August 2. NYRA is dedicated to growing viewership and wagering on horse racing, whether it be thoroughbreds or standardbreds. Our partnership with The Meadowlands supports these goals by bringing the best racing has to offer to a broader audience on the FOX Sports family of networks.”

Here is the schedule for the FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on – Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 – will be determined:

- May 17 – Cutler Memorial, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- June 28 – Perfect Sting, Brower Memorial, Crawford Farms, Six Pack, 8-11 p.m., TBA

‘HUNT’ TAKES FIFTH STRAIGHT: I’ll Hunt You Down has been a remarkably dominant force at The Meadowlands over the last two months. So dominant, in fact, that when he won Saturday (April 5) night, he extended his winning streak to five, the longest such stretch at The Big M during 2025.

The 5-year-old gelded son of Huntsville—Crazy On You began his season with a fifth-place finish racing in a $10,000 claimer.

He then dropped down to the \$7,500 class and put together a four-race period where he won by $5\frac{3}{4}$, three-quarters, three and $4\frac{3}{4}$ lengths, never paying less than \$3.20 to win and no more than \$4.20.

On Saturday, trainer Michael Posner bumped his prized pupil up to the \$10,000-\$12,500 claiming handicap class, but the result remained the same, as I'll Hunt You Down and his regular driver, Johnathan Ahle, romped by $5\frac{1}{2}$ lengths in 1:52.3, two-fifths-of-a-second slower than his lifetime best, which was established on March 28. Finally, the betting public caught on, as I'll Hunt You Down, who is taking this week off, paid \$2.20 to win as the 1-9 favorite.

17 QUALIFIERS ON SATURDAY: For handicappers who love to watch qualifiers, Saturday is the day for them, as there will be 17 of the one-mile dashes contested at The Big M. Post time for the first qualifier is 9 a.m.

The qualifiers can be seen live on The Meadowlands website (playmeadowlands.com) or rtn.tv (Racing Television Network). To see the entries, go here.

There will be big names participating throughout the morning, but one horse certain to attract a lot of attention is Louprint, who leaves from post 4 in the ninth qualifier.

The Ron Burke trainee, who is driven by Northfield Park standout Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., was the top 2-year-old male pacer in training a year ago, taking home a Breeders Crown championship before being named his division's Dan Patch trophy winner.

Leaving from post 6 is his stablemate, Sippinonsearoc, who will be driven by Yannick Gingras. He was the 2024 Ohio Sire Stakes champion and took a mark during the season of 1:48.2. at The Red Mile, the fastest mile ever by a 2-year-old male pacer.

FABULOUS FRIDAY: It was a nice night for the Big M's TV team of handicappers on Friday (April 4). Jessica Otten led the way with seven winners, a cold Superfecta and the Early 50-cent Pick-4, while her on-set partner, Dave Little, had six on top, four Exactas, three Trifectas and a Superfecta.

Ken Warkentin selected five winners, and all four members of the team tabbed best bet winners.

Otten had Glittering Hope ($4 to win) in the third race; Little picked Paprike Blue Chip ($3.20) in the 14th; Warkentin gave out The Brodster ($7.20) in the sixth; and Joe Romanelli had Cactustotheclouds ($2.40) in the eighth.

For those interested in taking part, these are the details:

There is a $1,000 prize pool and the top two finishers earn entry into a December invitation-only tournament that will go for $10,000 in prize money.

Bartlett, Stratton divvy up MGM Borgata Pacing Series splits

Either Jason Bartlett or Jordan Stratton was the winning driver in all five $50,000 divisions of the second leg of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series on Monday night (April 7) at MGM Yonkers Raceway as Bartlett was victorious with Its A Me Mario, Huntinthelastdollar and Coaches Corner, while Stratton guided repeaters For Once Inmy Life and Mossdale Ben N.

Coaches Corner took the fastest flight in 1:51.1. He yielded to sit in the pocket behind Desperate Man (Matt Kakaley) after the :27.1 quarter and stalked him through middle-half fractions of :55.3 and 1:23.3. Bartlett swung Coaches Corner to the outside on the last turn, and Coaches Corner, the runner-up in last year's MGM Borgata Pacing Series final, out-kicked Desperate Man in the lane to get the win by a length and a half. Desperate Man saved second from Binge On Yankee (Scott Zeron).

A 5-year-old gelding by Always A Virgin, Coaches Corner is trained by Per Engblom for owners Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey. Coaches Corner is a 28-time winner, has earned $827,194 and paid $4.70 to win as the second choice. He keyed a $6.80 exacta and a $16.80 trifecta.

Its A Me Mario and Bartlett got away third in the opening section, but Bartlett moved him off the pylons before the :27.2 quarter and cleared after that station. From there, Its A Me Mario rang up a :56.3 half and a 1:24.1 three-quarters, and a 28 second final kicker sealed the win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:52.1. Hemsworth N (Zeron) moved first-over from fourth before three-quarters, slid down into the pocket on the last turn and then gained through the stretch to get the runner-up spot and Churchviewfrankl IR (Brent Holland) rallied from sixth to third in the last quarter.

Shane Tritton trains Its A Me Mario, a 5-year-old gelded son of American Ideal, for owner Joshua Graber. Its A Me Mario, who has 17 lifetime victories, has put away $434,938 and returned $2.30 to win as the 1-9 choice. He was atop a $4.60 exacta and a $25 trifecta.

Bartlett and Engblom teamed up again with Huntinthelastdolar in the second section, and he delivered in 1:52.1. In similar fashion to his triumph with Its A Me Mario, Bartlett settled in third in the early going but had Huntinthelastdolar off the pylons before the :27.1 quarter and seized control from Chase H Hanover (Anthony Napolitano) on the way to the 56 second half-mile marker. Huntinthelastdolar kept the top spot through three-quarters in 1:23.4, and although Chase H Hanover gained in the stretch, it wasn't enough as Huntinthelastdolar prevailed by a half-length. Ammo (Yannick Gingras) grabbed third.

Owned by E Five Racing and John Fielding, Huntinthelastdolar is a 5-year-old Huntsville gelding. He made his 14th appearance in the winner's circle, has now pocketed $770,037 and paid $3.40 to win as the favorite. The exacta was worth $4.50 and the trifecta kicked back $30.80.

Stratton and For Once Inmy Life got to the top from the pole position in the fourth Borgata battle, and he put the :27.1 quarter, 56 second half and 1:23.3 three-quarters on the board. For Once Inmy Life successfully turned away a first-over attack from Humble A (Tim Tetrick) and couldn't be caught to the wire, tallying by a length in 1:52.1. Miki Shan N (Bartlett) closed from seventh at three-quarters to second at the wire with a :27.1 last quarter and Why Not Now (Kakaley) got third from the pocket.

For Once Inmy Life, a 5-year-old gelding by Downbytheseaside, was sent out by Cory Stratton for owner Winters Racing Stable. For Once Inmy Life now has a summary of 13-9-9 from 50 outings, has banked $441,615 and returned $4.60 to win as the favorite. He led a $30.20 exacta and a $134.50 trifecta.

In the night's final Borgata clash, Charlie May (David Miller) pressed on two-wide to the top nearing the :26.4 quarter while Mossdale Ben N and Stratton got away at the back of the pack. Charlie May continued on the front-end to the half in :55.1 but Mossdale Ben N had already come to the outside and picked up cover from Verdun (Pat Lachance on the third turn). The ball was still in Charlie May's court at three-quarters in 1:23.1, but Stratton tipped Mossdale Ben N three-wide on the final bend, and behind a :27.3 last quarter, Mossdale Ben N vaulted to a 1¼-length victory over Charlie May in 1:51.3. Verdun was game from first-over and wound up third.

Now with 14 tallies overall and a six-for-six record in the U.S., Mossdale Ben N, a 7-year-old gelding by A Rocknroll Dance, has earned $206,519. Trained by Peter Tritton for owner PJT Investments Inc., Mossdale Ben N paid $4.60 to win as the second choice and fronted a $26.60 exacta and a $36 trifecta.

The MGM Borgata Pacing Series prelims run through Monday (April 28), with the $200,000 (added) final and $100,000 (guaranteed) consolation on Friday (May 9) where they will be joined by the $200,000 (added) final and $100,000 (guaranteed) consolation of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Pacing Series.

Clean sweep for Gingras and Burke in John Brennan Trotting Series action

Antognoni S, Blockchain and Busy Making Moni gave driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke the victories in the trio of $30,000 divisions of the second leg of the John Brennan Trotting Series on Wednesday night (April 9) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

All three triumphs came in front-end fashion. Five-year-old Father Patrick gelding Antognoni S, the only repeater in the event, led through stations of :28.3, :57.4 and 1:26.1 on his way to a seven-length score for co-owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., Fac Racing LLC. and Gingras, while 4-year-old International Moni gelding Blockchain moved to the lead at the 29 second opening quarter and kept it from there, prevailing by a length and a quarter in 1:57.3 for Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brussemi LLC.

Finally, 5-year-old International Moni gelding Busy Making Moni tallied in 1:57 after he was on top at the :28.1 quarter, :57.4 half and 1:27.2 three-quarters. He is also co-owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brussemi LLC.

Named in honor of the longtime SOA of NY horsemen's representative who passed away from complications of COVID-19 in March 2020, the John Brennan Trotting Series has one more prelim on April 16 before a $100,000 guaranteed final and $50,000 guaranteed consolation on April 23.

'George Nap' wins six, three in Pocono Series races

The all-time winningest driver at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, George Napolitano, Jr., reclaimed the seasonal lead in the driving dash derby with six winners on the Tuesday (April 8) program at the mountain oval, include three amidst the eight $15,000 divisions of the first preliminary of the Game Of Claiming Trotting Series for horses base-tagged at $20,000.

Two of "George Nap's" wins came in successive races in 1:55.4, both with horses he had already guided to victory in the young meet: with Altus Hanover for trainer Peter Pellegrino and Room4040 LLC Stables, and with Vegas Ticket, who had been claimed in his previous start and returned immediate dividends for trainer Brandon Presto and owner Rocco Stebbins.

Napolitano, Jr.'s other GOC win came in the only series race decided by a photo finish: newcomer Erin caught pacesetter Macmorris Hanover by a head in 1:56.3 for the meet's leading trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, FAC Racing LLC, and Yannick Gingras. The 1-2 finishers were both claimed out of the race; 11 Game Of Claims horses were haltered in all for $229,000, and on the entire card 14 horses, a 2025 high, changed hands for $271,500, just below March 1's total of $275,000.

The only winner to go faster than the double 1:55.4s mentioned above was In My Dreams, who has found his form in two straight first-over wins, this one in 1:55.3 for driver Anthony Napolitano (himself a tripler on the card), trainer Lou Pena and PT Stables. In My Dreams, at 9-1, was one of only two GOC horses who paid better than 5-2 in the generally-formful competition; the other was 10-1 shot Papa Doc, roaring home from the clouds to win his seasonal bow in 1:57.1 for driver Simon Allard, trainer Mark Ford, and owners George and Rose Bonomo.

Besides Erin, two other first-leg winners were purchased from their race. One was Golden Compass, who went down the road in 1:56.1 for driver Mark Herschberger, trainer Travis Alexander, and the partnership of Joe P Racing LLC and Oldford Racing LLC. The other was Brave By Design, succeeding in 1:57.1 for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Jill Wine, and Wine Stable, and having the distinction of changing barns both before and after the race.

Three-time Pocono defending driving champion Matt Kakaley rallied Keystone Apache to the other series win of the day, winning nicely off cover in 1:56.4 for trainer Frank Calcagni and RBH Ventures Inc.

Racing resumes at The Downs on Saturday at 1 p.m., highlighted by Bobby Weiss Series action for 3-year-old pacers of both sexes racing for $20,000 a contest: three divisions of both the Weiss third preliminary round for male horses and the second prelim for females. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Trotters highlighted in Weiss Series at Pocono

Trainer Julie Miller sent out the fastest divisional winner of each sex as 3-year-old trotters raced for $20,000 a cut in the Bobby Weiss Series Monday afternoon (April 7) over a track rated "good" at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. The two main drivers of "Team Orange Crush" each got a victory in the sophomore action, and both "Team" horses also posted the biggest winning margin for their division.

The colts and geldings were coming back for their second Weiss preliminary, and no one was able to put together two straight wins. The fastest winner in the second round was the Walner gelding Te Quiero Lindy, who couldn't make a stretch lead stand up in the first leg but who here left his opponents 5¼ lengths behind after a 1:56.2 mile. Miller's son Tyler had the steer behind the four-time seasonal winner for Andy Miller Stable Inc., Patrick Hoopes, and Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

Trainer Nifty Norman also had a winner of each sex in the Monday Weiss contests, his male winner being the Gimpanzee gelding Bondsman. Putting on hobbles to be third, only a neck back, in the first round, Bondsman here sat a pocket trip then caught Green Mel in 1:56.4, his margin of defeat last week turning into his winning advantage here. The meet's leading driver, Tyler Buter (he, Braxten Boyd, and David Miller each had three Monday victories), had the sulky duty for Kovach Stables LLC and Enzed Racing Stable Inc.

The Chapter Seven colt Karinchak, who lost all chance after an "ix" late in the first leg, was put on the lead early by driver Matt Kakaley and carried on to a 1:56.3 race mark in the other male sector; trainer Ray Schnittker co-owns the winner with Ted Gewertz, Arden Homestead Stable, and Steven Arnold.

On the filly side, Team Miller's Face Time Bourbon filly Gilda Bi was the fastest of the three Weiss first prelim's winners of her sex, not only putting up the swiftest time, 1:56.1 (faster than any of the males), but also enjoying the biggest margin of victory, 8¼ lengths. Andy, Julie's husband and Tyler's father, guided the talented filly for M Biasuzzi Stable Inc.

Norman's filly winner in the Weiss was Admiring, home safely in 1:57.3 for driver David Miller and making Walner the only sire to post a double in the day's featured competition. Admiring, finishing strongly for the win, is owned by Tony Holmes and June Zent.

Rounding out the day's Weiss winners was the Six Pack filly Halfadozen, who got her own way on the lead to the half, then held off Entertain Me by a neck while lowering her lifetime best to 1:59 for driver Daniel Dube and trainer Pierre Paradis, with Dube co-owner with Jean Claude Dessureault.

Bartlett, Engblom tough as Weiss Series continue

On a sloppy Saturday afternoon (April 5) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, Ooglesville and World Of Wishes both ran their records to two-for-two in as many preliminaries of the Bobby Weiss Series for 3-year-old pacing males, which on Saturday saw five $20,000 divisions contested.

The win by Ooglesville, a Huntsville colt who fronted his field most of the way for Morrison Racing Stables, came in the fastest mile in Weiss competition through the off going, 1:54.2, and was the highlight of the day for the red-hot combination of trainer Per Engblom and driver Jason Bartlett. Engblom and Bartlett teamed for three Weiss winners on a card where Engblom sent out four winners in all and Bartlett fashioned a 12 6-5-0 driving record to raise his Pocono UDR to .498 (to go along with his press-time .463 "batting average" at Yonkers and .444 at The Meadowlands).

The other two winners for Team Bartlett/Engblom both broke their maidens, with the Heston Blue Chip colt Squeaky Blue giving Morrison Racing a second Weiss success with a 1:54.3 triumph and the Always B Miki gelding Chief Bogo commanding his field in a 1:55.4 mile for the Bogo Stable ownership.

The Bettor's Wish gelding World Of Wishes earned his opponents' respect by going the fastest first prelim, 1:51, so this week when driver Patrick Ryder put the 3-year-old on the lead, he faced no front-end pressure, and having conserved speed early he used it well late to win comfortably in 1:56 for trainer Chris Ryder and owner Philip Steinberg.

The other Weiss section also went to a former maiden, the Captain Crunch gelding Captain Luffy, in 1:54.4, and it illustrated a subtle point that handicappers would want to note. Trainer Travis Alexander had two horses in the race, Ima Perfect Choice (only a half-length shy in finishing third the first week) and Captain Luffy, who had made breaks in his last three races of last year although coming back with a qualifying win. Driver Matt Kakaley, three-time defending Pocono champion and the preferred driver for Alexander horses, got up behind Captain Luffy for Fiddler's Creek Stables LLC, and the choice was shown to be a good one when the youngster rallied late to be on the winning end of a nose decision.

Sir Pinocchio impressive in Pocono qualifier

Sir Pinocchio, an altered son of Met's Hall who trotted to over $600,000 in earnings last year at 3 while winning several major stakes, made his 2025 debut a successful one at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania Wednesday morning (April 9), winning in 1:55.2 despite the mercury being barely above the freezing mark.

Sir Pinocchio won the MGM Yonkers Trot, the New York Sire Stakes final, the Matron Stake, and the Dexter Cup during a campaign which saw him win 11 times for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Ed Hart, and owner Carolyn Atherton. His 12-length win here suggests he may be immediately ready to take on a high caliber of trotting foe.

Team Warren drove four of the eight Pocono qualifying winners on Wednesday. Ridge Warren, who has won over 200 races in each of the last three years, many on the local scene, was home first three times, but his lifetime total of 1,630 victories leaves him a bit behind his father Todd, a winner of 5,490 races who has come east after spending the virtually of his career campaigning in the Midwest and who crossed the wire first in another qualifier.
