Campbell and Merriman talk accidents, recovery time, and what may lie ahead for injured driver Brett Beckwith

Driver Brett Beckwith suffered a broken wrist, broken jaw, and brain bleed in an accident on Sunday at Saratoga.

Every accident on the track is different, but drivers John Campbell and Aaron Merriman, having broken at least one wrist each themselves, can commiserate with what driver Brett Beckwith has, is, and will be going through.

Beckwith, The Meadowlands' current leading driver was sidelined on Sunday (April 12) following a mishap behind the gate at Saratoga. He suffered a broken wrist, broken jaw, and brain bleed.

This week, HRU contacted Merriman, 47, and Campbell, 71, for their insights on the road ahead for the 23-year-old Beckwith.

With the numbers he's racked up, Merriman has the dubious distinction of being considered the poster boy for wrist breaking.

"Almost nine times, between the two [wrists], so I'm an expert," Merriman said with a laugh.

Campbell did not play in the same ballpark as Merriman when it came to wrist damage.

"Yeah, only once," Campbell said. "I shouldn't say that. I did have a tiny fracture another time that I didn't have to have a cast on but, yeah, I did break it the year Mission Brief raced in the Hambletonian [2015]. I broke mine in a qualifier, but it'll be significantly different than Brett's, because I didn't require surgery."

Driver Aaron Merriman has suffered broken wrists multiple times in racing accidents.

They set it without doing surgery, and then I just had a cast on for a period of time, and then a brace after that.”

Neither Campbell nor Merriman has ever experienced a broken jaw, however, the latter does know what it’s like to have a brain bleed, which he sustained back in 2010 when his horse, Sound Dragin, stumbled and fell, catapulting him from the bike.

“So, the bleed will stop, I think [Beckwith’s] has stopped, that’s why they’re just going to monitor him for a couple of days, and the blood will just sit there in a pretty much harmless part of your brain,” Merriman said.

“I was in the ICU for seven days in that wreck [in 2010], so I got to be monitored pretty closely there for the week. But I think they think he’s pretty good. He’s going to go through another CT scan, I know for sure, and then he will probably be able to get released... I couldn’t say how much that affected me. I don’t know if it did. Multiple concussions affect you, but I broke my neck at the same time, so there was so much stuff going on... I have a neurologist I still go to because of the number of concussions I’ve had. But you know, [the blood being in your brain], it’s not harmful, even though it’s there, it’s not harmful.”

After HRU spoke with Merriman and Campbell, Beckwith’s sister, Carly, posted on her brother’s Facebook page, on Tuesday evening (April 14), and gave an update that stated in part, “He had surgery on his wrist yesterday which was a success – as expected, he is in a lot of pain but he actually just got discharged from the hospital! The other good news is, he no longer needs any CT scans for the brain bleed! Of course, he still has to deal with his broken jaw so he will be heading back to the hospital on Friday to get that taken care of. He also has hearing loss in his left ear and will be seeing ENT as outpatient for that.”

Although Campbell sustained his broken wrist in 2015, when the Hall of Famer was 60, he said that his first racing accident causing him to take time off occurred in 1981 or ’82 when he was still in his 20s, and that, from a comparative viewpoint, you bounce back quicker when you’re younger.

“ The first little bit is going to be tough, then [Beckwith is] going to be fine, then all of a sudden, he’s going to get anxious, so I’m going to be there for him. He’s got a lot of people that are going to help him, and I think that that’s very, very important. And he needs to get the right people around him that actually want him to come back and be good. ”

~ Aaron Merriman

Dave Landry
Former driver John Campbell said recovering from accidents takes time and rehab.

“One thing that I’m assured of is that [Beckwith] will come back and be as good or better than ever, because he was just going to get better and better, because he’s still young. This isn’t going to change the trajectory of his career at all.”

~ John Campbell

“His range of motion is going to come back easier because he’s younger, the healing time will be quicker, everything will be better in that regard [due to] the fact that he’s 23,” Campbell said.

Merriman agreed with Campbell on youth being an advantage.

“Just even with everyday life, you definitely get aches and pains like you probably wouldn’t have when you’re younger,” Merriman said.

“But I do think that your body is an amazing thing, and John will probably say the same thing, your body is an amazing thing. Of course, it’s going to be a little bit harder... but I 100 per cent believe it’s easier when you’re younger.”

Merriman is good friends with Brett and plans to take a couple of days off to go visit him next week.

At this point, Merriman said the most important thing for Brett to focus on is his recovery and not to worry about when he’ll be back driving.

“He’s already thinking everybody’s going to forget him,” Merriman said. “I can’t really say much, because I’m that way, too.”

“I said, ‘Absolutely, take it from me, because I’ve done it numerous times, listen to the doctors. Do not come back too quickly. Do not push just because you feel better, do not.’

“I was blessed because I broke my wrists, and then I came back too quickly and I broke them again. The messed-up stuff actually got fixed because I did it the right way the second time. I had, like, no wrist motion. It was horrible. I mean, okay, I can drive a horse, but what about everyday life? Even wiping my butt was hard, and then I rebroke them and then I did everything the right way... I think the therapy afterwards is way more than the healing.”

Campbell also stressed the importance of physical therapy and not coming back too soon.

“With a broken bone you have to wait, because you can’t do therapy with broken bones,” Campbell said. “He has to wait until the x-rays show that that bone is healed enough to withstand any therapy without doing more damage. So, he’s a ways away from therapy... When they take the cast off, you can’t believe how weak and limp your wrist is, and Brett will have to deal with that when the time comes. When that cast comes off and you can move it freely, it just feels like a noodle.

“And you have to, you know, just work it and get it back. It’s just a question of using it and strengthening all those tendons and muscles in there again, because when they’re not used for a period of time, it doesn’t take long and they just atrophy. And when that cast comes off, you’ve got a noodle at the end of your arm.”

The hardest part for any professional athlete is sitting on the sidelines while they recover.

“The first little bit is going to be tough, then he’s going to be fine, then all of a sudden, he’s going to get anxious, so I’m going to be there for him,” Merriman said. “He’s got a lot of people that are going to help him, and I think that that’s very, very important. And he needs to get the right people around him that actually want him to come back and be good.

“He’s a tough kid. You know, a lot of drivers get in accidents and they don’t bounce back, but he’s already been in an accident and this is just another one.

“I feel like he’s like me. He’s going to go out there and want to be better. I told [Brett’s mom] Melissa, ‘Make sure you tell him before I get to talk to him that he’s definitely going to appreciate the grind...’ The more time you have off, you appreciate it a lot more.”

Campbell said it may be hard to do, but the last thing Brett should be focused on is how soon he’ll be back.

“Catch drivers are supply and demand, and one of the biggest issues with demand is you have to be there and people rely on you being there and when you’re out of the loop, it doesn’t take long for people to find somebody else,” Campbell said. “It is going to weigh on him, and yes, it’s going to make him very anxious. It’s going to make him want to get back out there as soon as he possibly can, because he thinks, ‘Every opportunity I’m missing now I won’t get back.’ However, with time being on his side, he’s only 23, talent being on his side, work ethic being on his side, he’s going to recover from this and have a tremendous career.

“He shouldn’t even be thinking about when he’ll come back. All he should be thinking about right now is his health... When he gets about a month into that recovery program, he’ll have a better idea when he can come back... I will tell you broken bones and injuries don’t care about tomorrow.

“One thing that I’m assured of is that he will come back and be as good or better than ever, because he was just going to get better and better, because he’s still young. This isn’t going to change the trajectory of his career at all.”

Update on tragic barn fire at Hanover Shoe Farms; horses identified by Standardbred Canada with files from Hanover Shoe Farms

Hanover Shoe Farms has reported that a tragic barn fire at the standardbred breeding farm in Hanover, PA on Sunday (April 12) has claimed the lives of multiple horses.

The farm has confirmed that 12 horses owned by the farm were lost in the devastating fire. No outside owned horses were involved. The farm also reported that no personnel were injured.

Early reports from the farm on Sunday evening indicated that 14 horses were lost in the fire, but the farm has since located a mare and foal originally believed to have been lost.

The remaining horses from the barn involved were reported to be safe in the surrounding fields with access to water and grass.

“Yesterday, Hanover Shoe Farms experienced the worst thing that can befall a horse farm,” said a statement from Hanover Shoe Farms posted on social media on Monday (April 13). “We thank the many first responders that arrived quickly and worked hard to contain the fire. All divisions of our staff, from equine, veterinary, and maintenance, fought to save as many horses as possible. Our heartfelt thanks to all staff and first responders as well as the outpouring of support from the local community and harness racing connections worldwide.

“We are happy to report that the survivors of the fire have all been checked, treated and are doing well. The barn on Sell Station Road was our largest barn, with 38 stalls housing mares and foals. While the majority of the inhabitants were turned out for the day, the teaser stallion and seven mares with foals were in the barn for physical or medical reasons at the time of the fire. Two mares and foals were able to be led out; however, one foal ran back in and could not be saved.”

Hanover Shoe Farm stated that the fire started in a manure pile outside the barn with 40 mph winds sending sparks to the barn. According to the farm, the flames quickly overtook the barn and the roof collapsed within eight minutes. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

“As clean up begins today, we remember the great horses we lost yesterday and look to heal the gaps they left in our hearts,” Hanover’s social media post stated.

Hanover Shoe Farms has identified the horses lost in the fire as:

- All Spirit and her Stay Hungry colt
- Hacerla and a Stay Hungry–Lady Dale colt
- A Gift For You and her Greenshoe colt
- Freshgroundpepper and her Volume Eight colt
- Old Magic and her International Moni filly
- a Snow Angel Hanover–Volume Eight filly
- Renier Hanover

Gutsy moves have made Karoline Nielsen's life on fleek

by Matthew Lomon

Stepping into uncharted territory has never prevented Karoline Østergaard Nielsen from chasing her racing dreams.

It didn't stop her from trading a comfortable life in her native Denmark for the chance to pursue racing under saddle opportunities in Ontario in July of 2015. It didn't stop her from obtaining her standardbred trainer's license in 2020, and it certainly didn't stop her from breeding an eyebrow-raising mare – despite having no prior knowledge or experience – in 2022.

But even Nielsen, after an array of all-in moves, couldn't help but wonder if she had made the right call to compete at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Friday (April 10).

"I've had a couple trotters and I've done the racing under the saddle, but I've never had a young horse – I've never trained a pacer," Nielsen said. "It's one of those things where it's hard to be 100 per cent confident, but I think it's because I'm in a race with all these prominent trainers and I'm like, 'How am I going to beat them?'"

The answer, it turns out, was with the very pacer she bred – against the advice of others – to capture her first career training win at Mohawk.

"The feeling didn't even come to me until a couple days later," she said. "On Sunday [April 12], I watched the replay, and I was like, 'Oh my God, she did that.' It was very much like, 'What just happened?' She went a really good mile [1:53.3], it was the fastest mile of the entire night.

"It's hard because you don't want to get ahead of yourself, but it's difficult to describe. I am so happy beyond words – it's amazing, almost surreal."

In the exhilaration, Nielsen still allowed her imagination to run free, if only for a moment.

"Imagine if she won a big stake?" she said, adding with a laugh, "I would have been a mess."

Tracking down triumph number one at Canada's premier harness racing venue was a significant accomplishment for Nielsen, who earned her first ever training win six years earlier with veteran Majestic Son mare Imjusticketyboo at Flamboro Downs.

As for how the pair of firsts compare, they don't.

"It's just so different this time around," Nielsen said. "The win at Flamboro was with our manager's horse. I was a big part of helping train her, and I was a big part of her daily routine, but I got 'Fleek' here myself. Don't get me wrong, I got a ton of help from my partner Nick [Gallucci] and Bruce MacDonald, who works for us and has been on his own training for many years.

"But I feel like the wins are not comparable. I don't mean to degrade the win at Flamboro, it's simply that you can't compare the two. Fleek has been a process since 2021. This horse was a long time coming."

The Stouffville, ON-based conditioner's connection to On Fleek, the "one and only" horse she's ever bred, formed years before the pair had ever met.

During her early days working for Gallucci, Nielsen was the caretaker for a temperamental mare named Docs Sausalito.

"The feeling [about getting my first Mohawk training win] didn't even come to me until a couple days later. On Sunday [April 12], I watched the replay, and I was like, 'Oh my God, [On Fleek] did that.' It was very much like, 'What just happened?' She went a really good mile [1:53.3], it was the fastest mile of the entire night. It's hard because you don't want to get ahead of yourself, but it's difficult to describe. I am so happy beyond words – it's amazing, almost surreal."

~ Karoline Østergaard Nielsen

"I developed a special bond with this horse, which is funny because she was really mean, but she trusted me, and I trusted her – to a certain extent," she said with a laugh.

Long story short, in Nielsen's words, they lost Docs Sausalito, or Saucy, to a claim, leaving her heartbroken.

"I was always afraid of what kind of landing she would have because she was not an easy horse to deal with," Nielsen said.

Fortunately, Docs Sausalito ended up in the barn of respected Ayr, ON-based horseman Otis Hall.

Nielsen wasted no time acting on her next move.

"I had never talked to Otis before, but I left him a voicemail saying, 'Hey, I really want to breed her,'" she said, adding with a laugh, "People thought it was nuts. But I always wanted to breed her to Big Jim."

What Nielsen may have lacked in breeding experience, she made up for in hands-on experience with Big Jim offspring.

Fancourt, a now 13-year-old son of Big Jim – Catch A Wish, was a personal favorite of Nielsen and Gallucci for both his racing prowess ($313,770 in purse earnings) and off-track demeanor.

The calm, quiet, and successful horse provided the proof-of-concept Nielsen needed to zero in on Big Jim as the right sire match for Docs Sausalito.

Having millionaire Big Jim mare Prohibition Legal in the barn helped the cause, too.

With the formula set, Nielsen reached a lease agreement with Hall to breed Docs Sausalito for one year, after which she would be returned.

A pivotal moment then has evolved into a cornerstone of her journey today.

"I still remember when Otis called me and asked if I wanted to breed Saucy – I'll never forget that," Nielsen said. "Now, to be here, after she [On Fleek] won a race and the fact that she's competitive at Mohawk is amazing."

Nielsen never bred Docs Sausalito with the intention of producing a world champion – all she hoped was that one immeasurable trait would translate.

"A lot of people would probably wonder why I ever bred Saucy because she was an eight-claimer," Nielsen said. "Yes, she might have been an eight-claimer, but she has heart like no other on the race track. That's why I wanted to breed her."

Nielsen still fields the occasional question from folks familiar with Saucy about On Fleek's demeanor, but her answer is always the same, and usually followed by a laugh.

"She's not timid like a kitten," she said. "She still has a lot of quirks, but she's not as bad as her mom."

On Fleek, while watered down from her mother, is still your typical mare. If it's not her idea, Nielsen said, she's not game for it.

She was quite game, however, on that magical Friday night at Mohawk – so much so that she left her trainer stunned.

"When she first got pulled out, I wasn't sure if she was just going to go with them and sit down or if she was going to accelerate and go by," Nielsen said.

"At first, I thought 'Okay, I'll take a second or a third.' I'm happy, she's made nine lifetime starts now, and she never missed a check. I've been so beyond grateful for that, but I was mind blown by the way she blew away from everybody."

The 3 ¼-length victory, with five-time O'Brien Award-winning driver James MacDonald in tow, felt like a logical progression of the momentum On Fleek had been building in recent starts.

"She suddenly seems to have come into her own the last two starts and is wanting to go," Nielsen said. "As I said, she's funny. James even said after we raced on Friday, 'Wow, she was taking off. She really wanted to go.' Sometimes he's driven her, and she's had no interest. It depends on what she wants."

When On Fleek is on target, good things happen.

So, it was only fitting for the headstrong bay to deliver Nielsen's maiden Mohawk win, after which she was met with an outpouring of congratulatory messages from friends, family, and fellow horsepeople.

"That always feels amazing," Nielsen said. "People's support means the world. There's not a feeling that beats that. You want people in your corner, you want people to cheer for you. I appreciate it so much when people want to congratulate me. There were people congratulating me in the paddock, too... it feels amazing that people cheer for you."

The milestone moment will live on forever in Nielsen's mind, as well as on her fridge, where the winner's circle photo commemorating her accomplishment was expertly hung by her young son, alongside his artwork.

"He's a big fan of hers," Nielsen said, adding with a laugh, "He says she's his horse."

In the wake of her dream win, Nielsen remains content right where she is.

"I work full-time alongside Nick for Millar Farms, and I am not going to ever have a stable of my own, nor do I want a stable of my own," she said. "We're so busy as is – this is just for fun for me."

For Nielsen, having fun and On Fleek go hand-in-hand.

"I have my one-horse stable and I love it," she said. "She made the fridge; she's hanging right beside Prohibition Legal, so she's made it... It might be a [Ontario Sires Stakes] Gold win compared to a maiden, but I'll gladly take a maiden."

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

The BDHC speaks up about the ‘standard’ bred

by John Berry

Among the comments received from my Mane Attraction column of the standardbred being anything but standard, was one from a longtime friend, Shelly D., from New Jersey, who, like I, appreciate the storied history of our grand sport.

You can't build a future without history.

Baseball had its Babe Ruth, Jackie Robinson, Larry Doby, Willy Mays, Yogi, Campy, Ted Williams, Three Finger Brown, Nolan Ryan, a thousand, maybe 10,000 more.

Football had Jerry Rice, Jim Brown, Joe Montana, Walter Payton, Johnny Unitas, Butkus, Deacon Jones, Bronco Nagurski, Sayers, Elway, Smith (Emmitt), Jim Thorpe, Red Grange, and then there's Prime Time (Deion Sanders), Megatron (Calvin Johnson), Sweetness (Walter Payton), The Bus (Jerome Battis), The Minister of Defense (Reggie White), Night Train (Dick Lane), Mean Joe Greene, and even Too Tall Ed Jones, to name a handful-and-a-half.

You get the idea.

I still consider our sport a “major” sport, and history means a lot to me, and Shelly, and possibly, five or six others BDHC (Broken Down Horse Player) members, as well.

We have 'em, too – legendary names – in our sport: The Minister of Speed (George Brennan), The Green Hornet (Yannick Gingras), and, years ago, The Captain (Doug Brown), The Red Man (Carmine Abbatiello), The Magic Man (Billy O'Donnell), The White Knight (Brian Sears), The Bionic Man (Timmy Tetrick), to name a few.

And, of course, going back a century or so, the immortal “Pop” Geers...and then came “Curly” Smart.

We build the future on our history from our history.

But, on the other side of the ledger, there are comments from several other BDHP brethren insisting that I am beating a “dead horse.”

Smitty is one who loves the “game” but thinks that harness racing needs to have the sport imploded and rebuilt “brick by brick.”

Smitty is a retired educator from the Sportsman's Park-Maywood Park era early on.

He related, “Harness racing has been the victim of a ‘different form’ of artificial intelligence for, probably 50 years – in other terms, a half century – if that might be a bit of wake-up verbiage for us all.

“By artificial intelligence, I mean the folks that have run the sport without modernizing it.

“I like the history of harness racing as much as anyone – I have witnessed much of it as a young man and have seen little change now that I am an old man, except for speed and the competition that has emerged to drive the bettors to the sidelines.

“Yes, they got 100,000 people to see Dan Patch and Greyhound in action but that was when harness racing had z-e-r-o competition, hardly any cars were on the road since there were over 20,000,000 horses in the U.S.

“Then, the popularity of the car came into focus and things changed rapidly and, by 1920, there were millions of cars on the road, and horses kind of disappeared as a means of transportation.

“I point this out because times changed and the world changed, and, to survive and succeed, you and I had/have to change.”

What can we do about that?

“We need to wake up... I think you touched on this before and it hit a nerve with me. I'm serious about this. If you had 2,000 people holding hands from the first man to today's, only the last two or three could use a telephone or listen to music or watch television or fly in the air and the innovations since then have made these original ones obsolete, as well – useless – and only the last one or two could benefit from radar or medical breakthroughs.

“JB, you are on dialysis and that has been available to only your generation; computers, the internet, GPS routing for your car, and smartphones, and, now, artificial intelligence, real artificial intelligence, not some harness guys on the phone chatting about something immaterial.

“You guys [HRU] had an article about that recently.

“This has changed the way we do everything from communicate with each other and, even, think, and harness racing is still in the ancient era because everything else has progressed and the inside of this industry has not.”

Would you say the breeding industry has more than kept up with the times?

“Yes, and they have left the rest of the industry in their limestone dust.

“And that, in itself is a problem.

“They have done a superior job in changing the breed.”

I think you're correct, but I have had a few bark at me saying that "that's the way it is these days, get used to it." The fans and the horses are getting more and more in short supply every day, and I don't want to get used to that.

"And besides that, remember, the speed can shorten careers, shorten fields and shorten odds on the board and, again, it's the bettor that gets the short end of the stick.

"Answer me this, do you think any thoroughbred trainer or jockey or owner or, more importantly, bettor cares if his horse wins a six-furlong race in 1:12.3 or 1:15.1?"

"Same thing for us, the guy with a sawbuck [$10] on a trotter or pacer could care less about the time of the race!"

Smitty has many valid points and yet another BDHP faithful, R. Phil added, "Harness racing used to be a spectator sport but that's, mostly, all changed these days with the emphasis on the success of a small percentage of success for owners and trainers and the rest left out to dry, including the guy, and gal, that still likes to bet on them.

"I don't have to tell you about casinos and the lottery ripping the heart of our industry – they are ruthless.

"And they are successful because they are ruthless, and that's because they are business people, sharp business people that excel at being ruthless at their game."

Yet another voice chimed in with M.P., saying, "Racetracks – and not too many of them – need a track, a simulcasting-betting venue to hold a couple of hundred people, a nice snack venue and that's about it.

"Many have that luxury in their own homes these days, too, sitting on a sofa with the fridge and a beer within an arm's length,

"Add to that building more simulcast franchises and venues at selected spots throughout North America almost every day of the year with, literally, hundreds and hundreds of these simulcast venues accepting bets – whether they be pari-mutuel or fixed odds – along with exotics at these selected racing places that offer guaranteed pools daily to draw new faces that bring new money to our sport. That is what we need.

"We need a 'Grand Circuit' featuring 45-to-60-day non-competing meetings at, say, no more than a dozen of the most elite tracks with half offering racing during the day and half at night.

"Six daytime tracks, each with non-competing race dates January-February, March-April, all the way through November-December.

"Six selected tracks featuring nighttime racing with a 1 to 5 afternoon program and a 7 to 11 night schedule."

M.P., maybe we could have a couple of "anchor" tracks like The Meadowlands, Northfield, Hoosier Park, Mohawk, that have a strong following these days and add other tracks to our Grand Circuit and offer enough to whet appetites without thinning our product out too much, and that should include the menu for betting.

"Yes. There are so many things that can and need to be done but time is escaping us and other industries are on a futuristic bandwagon now and we haven't even begun to chase that bandwagon."

Finally, Adolph W. caps off this Mane Attraction with the following brainstorming observations: "Look at all the other major sports, Major League Baseball, the NFL, NBA, NHL, everyone has seen game innovations."

Would you give us some examples?

"Well, in [pro] football, there's a new touchback rule that encourages return kicks, instead of taking touchbacks. It just adds another exciting play to the game, and another prop bet feature, where harness racing has just about completely failed.

"And look at the number of international games. In other words, these major sports are becoming an entertainment business for the world.

"Baseball has been trying to speed up their games and has new replay innovations to make things more exciting for the fans.

"We seem to have horsemen running harness racing, or trying to. None of the commissioners in our major sports have this happening. They are right on top of things and experimenting with innovations.

"Just about all of the big-wigs worked as lawyers or legal counsel – Adam Silver, David Stern, Bowie Kuhn, [Paul] Tagliabue, [Gary] Bettman – everyone had many years of specific or legal experience and business acumen before reigning as commissioner.

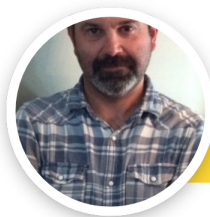

"We shouldn't care if they know the difference between a – as you say, JB – a 'tracer' or a 'potter'.

"All that matters is someone that can lead us successfully into a future to a grand sport that we all love so much."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Kayla Lum is reveling in more responsibility

by Chris Lomon

With more horses comes more responsibility – which suits Kayla Lum just fine.

After a rookie season that yielded five wins and 21 top-three results from 57 starts, the trainer from Burlington Flats, a hamlet in the Town of Burlington in Otsego County, NY, has been handed the reins of a bigger stable in 2026.

Lum is up for the challenge.

“I do set goals every year,” she said. “This year is my second official year of training. I did well my first year, but now we have many more horses in the barn. We grew substantially. Our goal is to always improve our stats. We want to set ourselves up to have more wins – just more of everything, really.”

Lum knows precisely what it will take to achieve those objectives.

“It will take lots of hard work,” she said. “I am in the barn at least 10 hours every day, but I enjoy it. This is one of those industries where you need to work hard to see your goals happen.”

It is something Lum had a front-row seat for as a kid.

Her family, including her mom, Ann Yurenka, have longstanding ties to standardbred racing.

One of Lum’s fondest memories happened 20 years ago, courtesy of an outstanding filly, who had a short, but successful career.

Tessel, a daughter of Conway Hall out of the Pine Chip mare Name Dropping, would race 22 times, winning six, along with a pair of seconds and four thirds to go along with $172,282 in earnings.

Bred in Italy by Allevamento Labambolaccia, the trotting mare caught Lum’s attention the moment she set foot into her stall.

“She was a sweetheart,” Lum said. “She was a very special filly to me. She came into the barn, and I took to her right away.”

Tessel took Lum, her mother and driver William Bailey on a late summer thrill ride in 2006.

After sires stakes scores at Saratoga Harness and Batavia Downs, the trotter lined up behind the starter car for her $150,000 divisional sires stakes final on Sept. 16.

Sent off as the 5-1 fourth choice in the betting, Tessel, with Bailey at the controls, rallied from second to win by 1¾ lengths in a time of 2:00.2.

“It was such an amazing moment,” Lum said. “I was very loud, cheering her on.”

Lum remained an impassioned fan of the sport even when she stepped away from it for nearly a decade.

“Right after high school, I got married and had kids, so I was out of the business for about 10 years,” Lum said. “And then I came back in 2018 when I was working for Paul Kelley.”

It was the co-ownership – along with her mom – of a bay trotter that would be inspiration for Lum to pursue a training career.

“My mom and I bought a horse, Paya Tuesday,” Lum said. “We bought him as a yearling at the Goshen sale, and he got me seriously thinking about becoming a trainer.”

Just like she did with Tessel, Lum doted on Paya Tuesday from day one.

The son of Crazy Wow out of the Equinox Bi mare Paya La Renta was no stranger to having his photo taken in the winner’s circle.

“My boyfriend bought me the horse [Myells Rockstar] and I owned him and trained him. It was a proud moment, but I am always proud when any horse I have in my barn wins. But that first one with Myells Rockstar was extra special because I was listed as the trainer. It was nice to experience that moment.”

~ Kayla Lum

“He was in the fair circuit, and he won a number of races there,” she said. “He won the fair final at Monticello in 2022. He is the baby of the barn. He gets whatever he wants. We bought his full-sister the following year and my sister trained her and did very well. This year, we have his half-sister, Paya Valor. We have done very well with that family.”

Lum has done well herself.

In her first year of training, she won five races and recorded 21 top three finishes.

She didn’t have to wait long to celebrate her first pari-mutuel win.

After a fifth with Myells Rockstar in her debut on June 19, 2025, the pacing son of World Of Rocknroll topped the charts next time out at Vernon Downs, with Lum’s boyfriend, driver Joe Nassimos, in the sulky.

“My boyfriend bought me the horse and I owned him and trained him,” Lum said. “It was a proud moment, but I am always proud when any horse I have in my barn wins. But that first one with Myells Rockstar was extra special because I was listed as the trainer. It was nice to experience that moment.”

As for the best aspect of her job, Lum opts for any moment one of her horses crosses the wire first.

“Just seeing them win, knowing they gave their all, is a great feeling,” she said. “It takes a lot to get them to the races, to make sure they are at their best and that they are happy and healthy. So, when you see them succeed, you understand how much work went into it.”

The biggest challenges, she noted, are the moments when finding the key to unlocking a horse’s potential or off-key performances seem like an impossibility.

“When you can’t figure out what is wrong with a horse it’s easy to get frustrated,” she said. “But there is always that sense of accomplishment when you figure things out. Some days, like in any job, it seems no matter what you do, you can’t solve an issue, but that never makes you give up.”

Having a strong cheering section also helps.

“My mom is a big support and so is my boyfriend,” Lum said. “I’m very lucky. When you have tough times, they are there to lift you up and when you have success, you get to share those moments with them.”

And maybe there is someone in the family who one day might follow in her horse racing footsteps.

“I love spending time with my kids,” she said. “My boys are not interested in racing as much, but my daughter, who is young, just loves the horses. She loves to come to the barn to see everybody and then just hang out. It is so nice to see that she enjoys it so much.”

Something that Lum, busier than she has ever been, knows all about.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Jean-Michel Bazire's return not a winning one

by Thomas Hedlund

It was not a successful return for Jean-Michel Bazire in Paris, as Liza Josselyn (Ready Cash) faded tamely from the lead in Saturday's (April 11) $125,000 Prix Henri Levesque at Vincennes.

Instead, it was Lunella Leman (Boccador de Simm), trained by Benoît Robin, who powered to victory after a perfect second-over trip. She drew clear in the stretch to win in a 1:54.1 mile rate over 2,700 meters, equaling the race record.

Heavy favorite Liberté de Choisel (Captain Sparrow) came from well back to finish fifth, while Liza Josselyn weakened to seventh.

Bazire suffered a serious training accident at the Grosbois training center in January.

LOMBOK JIEL CAPITALIZES

Later on the card, Lombok Jiel (Enino du Pommereux) took advantage of a perfect pocket trip to win the $125,000 Prix Robert Auvray for 5-year-old colts.

Leader Lord du Bassin set the pace but broke stride in the stretch, opening the door for Lombok Jiel, who surged through along the inside for a comfortable victory in a 1:58.1 mile rate over 2,700 meters.

Favorite Lancier du Goutier (Ready Cash) finished well from second-over to take second, while L'As Desbois (Booster Winner) held third from the first-over position.

It marked Lombok Jiel's first win of the season. Earlier this year, he finished second in the Group 1 Prix Bold Eagle and third in Prix de Croix. His résumé also includes a Group 1 win in the Prix Albert Viel as a 3-year-old.

ALLEGIANT INVITED TO ELITLOPPET

American mare Allegiant (Tactical Landing) has been invited to the Elitloppet at Solvalla.

Trained by Daniel Redén, the 5-year-old was purchased for $925,000 in late 2024 and boasts an outstanding résumé, including victories in the Breeders Crown final, Matron Stakes, Moni Maker, and Currier & Ives.

“ [Allegiant] could have been in the Elitloppet already last year – this year it’s definitely possible. She’s a fantastic mare. ”

Driver Örjan Kihlström previously commented: “She could have been in the Elitloppet already last year – this year it’s definitely possible. She’s a fantastic mare.”

MASSIMO HOIST IMPRESSIVE IN FINLAND

Finland’s top older horse Massimo Hoist (Muscle Hill) followed up his seasonal debut win with another dominant performance in Saturday’s Helsinki-Ajo at Vermo.

Driven by Hannu Torvinen, the heavy favorite moved to the lead after 500 meters, controlled the pace, and sprinted clear in the stretch for an easy win in 1:53.3, closing his final 800 meters in a sharp :55.2.

ÖNAS PRINCE QUALIFIES FOR PARALYMPIATRAVET

The first qualifier for the $300,000 Paralympiatravet at Åby Racetrack was held on Saturday at Jägersro racetrack in Malmö, Sweden, and former winner Önas Prince (Chocolatier) secured his spot.

After working hard early, including racing first-over before taking the lead after 700 meters, he controlled the race and proved superior in the stretch, winning in 1:55.4 over 2,140 meters.

Defending champion Borups Victory is already invited, while wild cards have been issued to Harley Gema, Francesco Zet, and Norwegian Derby winner Charron.

HIGH-CLASS FIELD FOR PRIX DE L’ATLANTIQUE

Attention now turns to Saturday’s (April 18) $220,000 Prix de l’Atlantique at Enghien, one of the key spring targets in France.

A strong field of 13 will line up behind the gate over 2,150 meters, including: Idao de Tillard (Severino) – dual Prix d’Amérique winner, Go On Boy (Password) – runner-up in this race in both 2023 and 2025 and Josh Power (Offshore Dream).

Also of major interest is Iroise de la Noe (Tornado Bello), racing barefoot with trainer Thomas Levesque back in the sulky following her Prix de France victory. Additionally, Harley Gema (Bold Eagle) will use the race as a prep for the Paralympiatravet.

Mossdale Ben N fastest in round three of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series

by Yonkers Raceway media

Defending champion Mossdale Ben N served notice to the rest of the competition in this year's MGM Borgata Pacing Series with a sizzling 1:50.1 mile in the third and final $50,000 division on Monday night (April 13) at MGM Yonkers Raceway. Jason Bartlett-driven and Per Engblom-trained Redwood Hanover and Coaches Corner won the other splits.

Driven by Jim Marohn, Jr., Mossdale Ben N went right to the front from post 3 and led his six foes through fractions of :26.4, :55, and 1:22.4. Behind the pace-setter, Huntinthelastdolar (Bartlett) landed in the pocket, while Captain Moore A (Yannick Gingras) went first-up from third before three-quarters, giving cover to slight favorite Captain Albano (Todd McCarthy).

There was no catching Mossdale Ben N on this night, though, as he tacked on a :27.2 final kicker to defeat Huntinthelastdolar by a length-and-a-half. Captain Moore A wound up third and Captain Albano had to settle for fourth. There was a judges' inquiry following the race as Mossdale Ben N and Captain Moore A got in tight quarters late on the last turn, but they found no infraction was committed by Mossdale Ben N and the result stood.

An 8-year-old gelding by A Rocknroll Dance, Mossdale Ben N is trained by Peter Tritton for owner PJT Investments LLC. Mossdale Ben N has 20 wins, 14 seconds, and seven thirds from 72 starts, has pocketed $676,359, and paid $6.48 to win as the 2-1 second choice. He led a $20.52 exacta and a $65.90 trifecta.

Back in the first flight it was Redwood Hanover winning in 1:51.3.

Sweet Beach Life (Matt Kakaley) showed the way early on in the race, but Bartlett sent Redwood Hanover out of the 2-hole before the :27.2 quarter and took command past that station. From there, Redwood Hanover hit the half in :56.2 and the three-quarters in 1:23.4, then held off a rally by Sweet Beach Life in the lane to defeat him by a nose. Chase H Hanover (Gingras) followed the cover of Celtic Spirit N (Joe Bongiorno) from second-over and wound up third.

The victorious 6-year-old Stay Hungry stallion is trained by Engblom and is owned by Evans Nation with Engblom Stable LLC and Hickory Hollow Stables. He is an 18-time winner from 69 outings, has banked $584,553, and returned $2.26 to win as the 1-9 favorite. He was atop a $6.04 exacta and an $11.60 trifecta.

Coaches Corner, who captured the final of the 2025 MGM Grand Prix Series at Yonkers, had to miss last week's Borgata Series action as he went on the Lasix program after a fourth-place effort in the first round, but showed no rust in tonight's second section in a 1:51 romp.

Much like his stablemate, he was out of the pocket to get around Soho Firestone A (Gingras) beyond the :27.4 quarter, then paced middle-half panels of :56.2 and 1:23.4 before he closed in :27.1 to defeat Soho Firestone A by a length-and-a-quarter. Howlenthedhills (Kakaley) grabbed third after a first-over trip.

Engblom sent out Coaches Corner, a 6-year-old gelded son of Always A Virgin, for owners Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey. Coaches Corner has a summary of 36-20-10 from 94 appearances, has earned $1,512,987, and paid $2.66 to win as the 1-5 favorite. He keyed a $4.72 exacta and a $9.62 trifecta.

Two more prelims remain in the MGM Borgata Pacing Series on April 20 and April 27 before the $200,000 (added) and $100,000 (guaranteed) consolation on Friday (May 8).

Stakes action continues at MGM Yonkers Raceway tonight (April 17) and Monday (April 20) with the fourth leg of the MGM Ursula McIntyre Pacing Series and MGM Borgata Pacing Series, respectively. The McIntyre has three $50,000 splits, as did the Borgata.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

MA ISABELLE, KAZIO DK REPEAT IN JOHN BRENNAN TROTTING SERIES

The final preliminary round of the John Brennan Trotting Series on Wednesday (April 15) at MGM Yonkers Raceway went just like the second leg did as Ma Isabelle and Kazio DK both won for the second straight week.

The John Brennan Trotting Series is named in honor of the longtime Standardbred Owners Association of New York horsemen's representative who passed away from complications of COVID-19 in March 2020.

In the first division, Ma Isabelle (Pat Lachance) tracked Green Mel (Yannick Gingras) from the 2-hole through stations of :28.3, :57.3, and 1:26.2, and when Green Mel tired late, Ma Isabelle pounced on the inside, rallying for the victory by a neck in 1:55.2. The 1-5 favorite Zenmeister S (Jason Bartlett), who went first-up from third nearing three-quarters, gained ground in the lane but had to settle for second, while Green Mel faded to third.

Lachance trains the victorious 5-year-old daughter of Alarm Detector for owners/breeders Tom and Elizabeth Rankin. Ma Isabelle has 11 wins, 14 seconds, and 11 thirds from 67 starts, has earned $193,892, and paid $35.94 to win as a 16-1 shot. She led a $59.66 exacta and a $105.18 trifecta.

Commodus A (Bartlett) clicked off opening-half panels of :29.1 and :58.3 in the second section and then got separation on pocket-sitting Kazio DK (Gingras) on the way to the 1:26.2 three-quarters. However, Kazio DK was able to reel Commodus A back in on the last turn, and when Gingras sent Kazio DK two-wide in the lane, he went right by Commodus A and on to a 2½-length victory in 1:54.3. Exquisite Taste (Lachance) checked in third.

Gingras also co-owns the Ron Burke-trained Kazio DK, a 5-year-old gelding by Muscle Massive, with partners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., and Fac Racing LLC. Kazio DK has a summary of 8-11-4 from 36 appearances, has banked $122,099, and returned $4.38 to win as the even-money second choice. He was atop an $8.14 exacta and a $12.40 trifecta.

This year's John Brennan Trotting Series concludes next Wednesday (April 22) with the $100,000 (guaranteed) final and $50,000 (guaranteed) consolation. After being contested at the distance of a mile and a quarter in 2025, the final and consolation will go back to the standard mile distance this year.

Concise, Allioop Blue Chip repeat in Weiss Trot

by PHHA / Pocono

Concise and Allioop Blue Chip were repeat winners in Bobby Weiss Series action for 3-year-old trotting females on Tuesday afternoon (April 14), while on the pacing side no first prelim winner could duplicate that victory in their divisions of the second leg. Each purse on both gaits was $17,500.

Concise, a daughter of Gimpanzee driven by Tim Tetrick for trainer Nik Drennan, whose Drennan Stable LLC shares ownership with Joseph Davino and Brad Shackman, was forwardly-placed throughout her mile, then had the most trot when swung wide by Tetrick to lower her mark to 1:55.3 while taking her record to two-for-two this year and three-for-four lifetime.

Just a tick behind Concise's clocking while also lowering her lifetime best was Allioop Hanover, with whom driver Andrew McCarthy stayed close to the speed then was guided to the inside for the dash home and was along in plenty of time.

Noel Daley conditions the Tactical Landing miss for R Lynn and Philomena Curry.

Tim Tetrick added a second Weiss trot win behind the Captain Corey filly Chestnut Kelly, who fanned wide for the drive and was along easily while taking a maiden mark of 1:56.4. Scott DiDomenico trains the winner for owner Angela Cornell.

The other series contest for diamondgaited distaffs went to the only non-favorite in the group, second choice Aviatrix Blue Chip, with the Chapter Seven miss coming from sixth at the half to notch her first lifetime success in 1:55.4 for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Jared Bako, and Blue Chip Bloodstock Inc.

Just as Tim Tetrick drove the fastest Weiss trot winner, he also earned speed honors on the pace with the Always B Miki filly She B Minnie, who rallied with a pair of :27.1 back-end quarters to earn a new speed badge of 1:52.2. She B Minnie has five wins in her brief career, including three this year for trainer Michael Hall and owner Robert Tribbett, and she was the only non-chalk in the three Weiss paces.

Bringing a second success to sire Always B Miki was Red Hot Lahoma, who lowered her mark to 1:53 with a :55.3 last half in an engine tally. Ridge Warren guided the victress, the easiest of the Weiss winners with a 4¾-length margin at the line, for trainer Jeffrey Pinder and Carry S Stables LLC.

In the other sidewheeling cut, the Tall Dark Stranger filly Sundownsomewhere, photoed out in a :27 quarter in the first leg, this week produced a :26.4 flurry at crunch time to break her maiden in 1:53.1 and earn driver Jason Bartlett a Weiss win on each gait. Trainer Joe Bongiorno shares ownership through his Joseph Bongiorno LLC with Philip Steinberg and Crawford Farms LLC.

Driver Tetrick, who posted seven wins on the first two cards of the year at Philly this past weekend as he bids there for a sixth straight crown, led all Pocono drivers on Tuesday with three successes. Driving doubles were recorded by Jason Bartlett, Anthony Napolitano, and Ridge Warren; no trainer could double up on the card.

The third and final preliminary of Weiss action for the sophomore pacing colts will highlight the next Pocono card on Saturday (April 18) at 1 p.m., with Twin B Thriller going for a sweep of the preliminaries; bettors will also note a carryover into the last race High 5 wager. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

CONFIDENT VOLO 2-FOR-2 IN WEISS, CAPTAIN VODKA IN 1:54.4

Confident Volo won his second straight preliminary in the Bobby Weiss Series for sophomore trotting males Monday afternoon (April 13) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, but Captain Vodka earned the major honors on the day by beating two other first-round winners and taking a new lifetime mark of 1:54.4 in another of three $17,500 Series events.

Captain Vodka, a Captain Corey gelding trained by Robert Baggitt, Jr. for himself, Christine Baggitt, and J L Sadowsky LLC, had a three-race win streak over two years broken with a hard-luck two-move fifth in the first Weiss leg. But on Monday he rejoined the win column, being parked to a :27.2 opener for command, after which driver Ridge Warren was able to back off the half to :57.2.

The pace sped up to a 1:25.4 three-quarters, and through the stretch Captain Vodka absolutely left no doubt of his supremacy this day, winning by 3¾ lengths over two other first-leg winners: Phoebus Hanover was second, and the previously-undefeated Dilly Hanover third after racing inside and appearing in tight quarters in the lane.

Confident Volo is now unbeaten in three 2026 starts after winning in 1:55.4, with identical back quarters of :28.3. The Bar Hopping gelding, second choice in the betting, was quite good but he also literally “got the breaks,” as five of seven rivals miscued, including wagering choices ranked 1-3-4-5. Tyler Buter, defending Pocono driving champion and ahead again this year, was in the sulky for trainer Todd Buter and Oldford Racing LLC.

The other Weiss section went to series newcomer King Of The Wind, who was five-wide early and on the rim until the three-eighths before taking control of the throttle. Driver

Anthony Napolitano kept the Walner gelding going on the point, withstanding favored Bee Positive by three-parts-of-a-length in a lifetime best 1:55.1 for hot trainer Joe Bongiorno and El Dorado Stables.

Many-time Pocono champion George Napolitano, Jr. drove three winners on the card, including two for the meet’s leading trainer and only conditioner with a pair of Monday victories, Per Engblom. Driving doubles were recorded by Simon Allard, Braxten Boyd, Anthony Napolitano, and Ridge Warren.

TWIN B THRILLER, OOGLESAURUS REPEAT IN WEISS

Twin B Thriller and Ooglesaurus are both two-for-two after four $17,500 divisions of the second preliminary of the Bobby Weiss Pacing Series for 3-year-old males, conducted Saturday afternoon (April 11) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

The Always B Miki colt Twin B Thriller posted a shocking 1:49.4 clocking in his first Weiss prelim, and he had the same margin of victory, 1¾ lengths, after a 1:51.3 jaunt on Saturday. An early “stablemate” of his at the Twinbrook Limited nursery, Twin B Manhunt, rode in the pocket behind him and took second in a :55 back half behind the winner, driven by George Napolitano, Jr. for trainer Dennis A. Laterza and owners Ginko Stable Inc. and Latz A Luck Stable.

The Lazarus N gelding Ooglesaurus also doubled up in the Weiss, making a second move out of the pocket while dashing home in :27.1 in a 1:52.2 mile to catch favored Stingman by 1¼ lengths. Brett Beckwith had the lines for trainer Joe Bongiorno and Morrison Racing Stables.

The fastest of Saturday’s Weiss races, 1:51, saw the Perfect Sting gelding Thisbeestingsdeo break his maiden at 18-1. Matt Kakaley gave the Ron Burke trainee a nice third-in trip behind three sub-:28 quarters, then moved him out on the far turn and had enough late kick to thwart Pocono Pike shooter Justinian by a neck for Burke Racing Stable Inc., Lawrence Karr, Phil Collura, and Brad Grant.

Winning the other Weiss prelim, and taking a new mark of 1:52.1 in doing so, was the Stay Hungry gelding Northern Attitude, who benefitted from a pocket journey then had enough to turn back the fast-closing Hunthehuntr De Vie by a neck while pacing his own back half in :55.3. Ridge Warren drove for trainer Jake Leamon, who is also co-owner with Winners Circle Racing LLC.

“The BB Boys,” drivers Braxten Boyd and Brett Beckwith (the last two winners of USHWA’s Rising Star Award), combined to take down half of the 14-race card. Boyd won four times, twice for both trainers Mark Silva and Tee Wine, while Beckwith’s trio included two for the meet’s top trainer Per Engblom. Three drivers clad in red and white, the Napolitano brothers (Anthony and George, Jr.) and Ridge Warren, each visited Victory Lane twice on the afternoon.

For the fourth time this year, patrons who have some handicapping game will go at it for $1,000 in cash prizes tonight (April 17), when leg 4 of the popular Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest takes place.

It’s important to finish at or near the top of the leaderboard, as the four players with the highest bankrolls at the end of the night will win some cash (on a $500-$250-$150-$100 basis), but only the top two finishers will earn spots in the $10,000 invitation-only contest final, which takes place on Dec. 12.

The first leg of the 2026 contest was on Jan. 10, with Del Kern and Stefan Ferrara finishing 1-2 to advance into the year-end tussle.

On Feb. 20, the leg 2 “exacta” was Robert Glaser over Emile Issa. Sean Loebbs, who won the 2025 contest’s $10,000 final and the first prize of $5,000 that went with it, put himself in position to repeat by taking the top spot in leg 3 on Saturday (March 21), with Ken Belhumer making a huge score in the 14th and final race to get second.

2026 contest schedule:

- Leg 4 – Tonight (April 17)
- Leg 5 – Saturday (May 23)
- Leg 6 – June 12
- Leg 7 – July 24
- Leg 8 – Aug. 22
- Leg 9 – Sept. 5
- Leg 10 – Oct. 23
- Leg 11 – Nov. 14
- Invitation-only $10,000 contest final: Dec. 12

Each monthly contest will follow the same format:

- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races.
- No minimum or maximum bet per race.
- All wagers offered on The Meadowlands program are eligible for the contest.
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings.
- Unlimited entries per person.

There is no entry fee, but a $100 live-money bankroll is required for players, and the prize pool is guaranteed at $1,000, funded by The Meadowlands.

On the night of the contest, players must register/check-in at the Clubhouse Lobby by 6:35 p.m. A $100 betting card must be purchased to participate, as this is a live-money/wagering contest.

The top two finishers from each $1,000 contest earn spots in the $10,000 tournament final on Dec. 12 (22 total players).

HONORING “THE RED MAN”: Head to the track Saturday (April 18) night for some great eats while honoring one of the greatest drivers to ever sit behind a horse, Carmine Abbatiello.

The incredible buffet will be provided by Carmine’s NYC.

Carmine’s is a family-style restaurant located in Manhattan that offers exceptional value to its guests through the many dishes of Southern Italian cuisine. Restaurateur Artie Cutler crafted Carmine’s with a singular vision; bringing his guests “wow-factor” sized portions and making any meal feel like an Italian-American wedding feast.

The event is a one-night celebration that brings Abbatiello’s favorites to The Meadowlands community. Cutler named the restaurant in honor of “The Red Man,” as he was a huge harness racing fan who spent many a night at both Yonkers and Roosevelt Raceways accompanied by his close friend, Big M chairman/chief executive officer Jeff Gural.

The buffet is a display of Carmine’s favorites:

- Caesar Salad and Carmine’s Salad
- Sausage and Peppers
- Sauteed veggies
- Spaghetti and Meatballs
- Chicken Parmesan
- Tiramisu and Cannoli

Dinner is $54.95 plus tax and gratuity ($70.13 total) and includes a live racing program.

BECKWITH HURT: Brett Beckwith, the leading driver at The Meadowlands, was injured in a spill on Sunday (April 12) at Saratoga Casino Hotel and is going to be out for the foreseeable future.

His sister, Carly Beckwith, posted this message Tuesday on Facebook:

“He had surgery on his wrist [Monday] which was a success – as expected, he is in a lot of pain but he actually just got discharged from the hospital! The other good news is, he no longer needs any CT scans for the brain bleed! Of course, he still has to deal with his broken jaw so he will be heading back to the hospital on Friday to get that taken care of. He also has hearing loss in his left ear and will be seeing ENT as outpatient for that – we appreciate all the calls and texts more than you know & while I’m sure you all want to talk to Brett, pls just text him and refrain from calling for now; that would be best. Rest is the most important thing for him.”

WHO’S ON THE SHOW? Tonight and Saturday, Cheyenne Christman, multimedia content specialist at the United States Trotting Association, will serve as co-host alongside host Dave Little on The Big M’s live simulcast presentation, which takes place nightly on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

Christman will be making just her second appearance on the show, and hopes the second time is as marvelous as the first, as on Feb. 6, she picked seven winners on the card.

The pregame show begins at 6 p.m.

Little will have a special guest on the pregame show Saturday night, as Eric Abbatiello, son of the late, great Carmine Abbatiello, will share stories about his dad. “The Red Man,” who was chosen by the New York City Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association as its Driver of the Half-Century, passed away on Jan. 27 at the age of 89.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot calling the races tonight and Saturday.

Gary DiLeo will serve as paddock interviewer both nights as well as providing analysis and selections on the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed tonight.

Kiara Morgan will handle FDTV on Saturday.

A LOT OF LITTLES: Debbie Little, the associate editor and columnist from Harness Racing Update, was back serving as host on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set on Saturday (April 11) night, and she, as well as her husband, Big M TV regular Dave, treated their fans to a big night of cashing tickets.

Debbie selected four winners on top, starting her night in the first race with Woodmere Leah ($8.60 to win, $30.80 exacta). She then gave out Spirit Of Stlouis N ($2.80) in the sixth, Odds On Wildfire ($11.40) in the eighth and best bet Beat Cop ($7.20) in the 12th.

The Littles made a score in the Late 50-cent Pick-4, as both used Beat Cop as a single, with Dave cashing in for $348.25 (having the $69.65 payoff five times) and Debbie (three times) for $208.95. Playing both of their tickets would have meant investing $76 and cashing in for $557.20, good for a profit of $481.20.

Finally, Dave's "Little's Late Double" rolled in, returning $164 for a $40 wager, resulting in a profit of $124.

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:35 p.m.

There are several exceptions to those rules.

On July 4, there is a stakes-packed program that includes two Graduate finals as well as eliminations for the Meadowlands Pace. Post time is 6 p.m.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Aug. 8. That card begins at noon.

Finally, there will be one program that takes place on a Thursday. That card is on Aug. 6.

Sophomores shine in Philly qualifiers

Many of the horse vans coming to Harrah's Philadelphia for Tuesday morning qualifiers contained stakes horses looking to solidify their racing preparations for their upcoming sophomore campaigns, and upon going home many of their connections must have thought "Mission Accomplished."

There were four winners from among the glamour division, the 3-year-old pacing males, and the quickest winner was the Papi Rob Hanover colt Al Papi, 3-2 in the Breeders Crown and with a mark of 1:48.1. Yannick Gingras moved the talented sophomore to the lead in front of the stands, and Al Papi smoked home in :54.3 - :27 to win handily in 1:52.4 for trainer Ron Burke.

Another prize pupil of Burke's, the Stay Hungry colt Frantic Hanover, earned a single-season record $288,504 in Pennsylvania Sire Stakes action last year and later missed just half a length to Beau Jangles in the Metro. Tuesday "Frantic" came first-over and paced his back numbers in :55.1 - :27.1 on the rim to win for driver Tim Tetrick in 1:56.

The Captaintreacherous colt Captain Apple, a double stakes winner in Kentucky last year, won his first appearance of 2026 in 1:54.2, turning back another Burkeite, Melillo (second in the Governor's Cup and third in the Breeders Crown) for the son-and-father driver-and-trainer team of Patrick and Chris Ryder. Driver Scott Zeron and trainer Nancy Takter, who led their categories by teaming for three wins, tallied with the Sweet Lou gelding Louville, downing Delaware champion Watch Em Win on the engine in 1:53.4.

The time of 1:53.4 was also the fastest among the pacing females, recorded by another offspring of Sweet Lou, Caviart Daisy, Virginia champion and also good in Kentucky, in succeeding for driver Tony Morgan and trainer Jamie Sullivan. Team Ryder had another winner in the Bettor's Wish miss Bettor Be A Star, who came uncovered while posting back splits of :55.1 - :27.2 to tally in 1:57.

Another Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion, Ginger Tree Lex, was seven-for-eight last season, and she won her first appearance of 2026 in 1:56.4, coming raw from last while going her own back numbers of :56.3 - :28.1 for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Steven Cook. Bar Hopping misses swept this division when Caviart Queen Emma was victorious in 1:57.4 for Team Zeron/Takter.

The lone 3-year-old trotting male winner in the qualifiers was the Captain Corey colt Jim Beam, who sat back off a slow pace early, then came uncovered and stepped home swiftly in :55.2 to stop the timer in 1:58.1 for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Scott DiDomenico.

The Philly qualifiers can be seen on www.ppha.org.

Evening with Carmine's at The Meadowlands

This Saturday (April 18), The Meadowlands and Carmine's NYC are hosting an "Evening with Carmine's at the Meadowlands," a one-night dining experience honoring the legacy of the late Carmine Abbatiello.

Think heaping plates of spaghetti and meatballs, crispy chicken parmesan, fresh Caesar salad, and rich tiramisu, all served buffet-style so you can go back for more (and you will). This special night honors the legacy of Carmine Abbatiello – with big portions, bold flavors, and that classic Italian family-style experience.

Event tickets: <https://events.ticketleap.com/tickets/meadowlandsracetrack/carmines>.

The night will also feature a special tribute video to the late Abbatiello, along with interviews with friends and family.

Carmine's, founded in 1990 and named in honor of Abbatiello, has long been synonymous with generous portions, Italian-American tradition, and meals meant to bring people together. This special event reflects those values while celebrating the personal connections that inspired the restaurant's name and enduring spirit.

A portion of the proceeds from the evening will benefit the Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program.

Odds On Wildfire smokes field in Big M feature

Odds On Wildfire was cutting out blazing-hot fractions on the front end in the Saturday night (April 11) feature at The Meadowlands, and just like on Dec. 13 of last year, the Geovany Hernandez owned and trained 4-year-old held on nonetheless in another speed-show spectacular for the gelded son of Bettor's Wish—Odds On Naples.

After finishing second one week after that December score, in which he stopped the clock in 1:49.3 after a :54.1 half, Odds On Wildfire had only raced once since, a sixth-place finish at Yonkers on March 23 after an early break, but was ready to rock Saturday after a 1:52.1 winning qualifier at Harrah's Philadelphia on April 7.

"Geo does a great job with his horses," said winning driver Dexter Dunn. "It was a big mile tonight."

Odds On Wildfire was quick off the car in the $22,500 eighth race for high-end conditioned pacers, racing on the outside first-over in the nine-horse field as Renaldo N hit the quarter in :27.1.

"Wildfire" then rolled up to the top and reached the half in a taxing :54.2, while 5-2 favorite Saba Rock was mounting a challenge first-over after vacating the 4-hole just after the half and was at the leader's throat as three-quarters went in 1:22.

It looked like Saba Rock was going to go right on by, but Odds On Wildfire wasn't having any of that, keeping the public choice at bay throughout an arduous stretch duel, and held on by a half-length in a lifetime-best 1:49. Wish You Well was crisp late to get third.

"He's got some class and he fought them off well," said Dunn.

Odds On Wildfire raised his lifetime stats to 14 wins from just 31 tries while increasing his earnings to $165,526. He paid $11.40 as the 9-2 fourth choice in the betting.

LITTLES HIT BIG: Debbie Little, the associate editor and columnist from Harness Racing Update, was back serving as host on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set, and she, as well as her husband, Big M TV regular Dave, were giving their fans a joyous evening wearing out a path to the cashier's window.

Debbie selected four winners on top, starting her night in the first race with Woodmere Leah ($8.60 to win, $30.80 exacta). She then gave out Spirit Of Stlouis N ($2.80) in the sixth, Odds On Wildfire ($11.40) in the eighth and best bet Beat Cop ($7.20) in the 12th.

The Littles made a score in the Late 50-cent Pick-4, as both used Beat Cop as a single, with Dave cashing in for $348.25 (after having the $69.65 payoff five times) and Debbie (three times) for $208.95. Playing both of their tickets would have meant investing $76 and cashing in for $557.20, good for a profit of $481.20.

Finally, Dave's "Little's Late Double" rolled in, returning $164 for a $40 wager, resulting in a profit of $124.

A LITTLE MORE: Five-time Dan Patch Driver of the Year Dunn had the best night of the pilots, guiding three to victory lane... Geovany Hernandez and Shaun Vallee each trained two winners on the night. Hernandez also trained a pair on Friday, giving him four for the weekend... All-source betting on the 14-race card totaled $3,066,093, the third time this year that wagering went past the $3-million mark.
