If amateur racing isn't your cup of tea, then sip somewhere else

A response to criticism of a recent amateur race at The Meadowlands.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

There has been some discussion about an amateur race that took place at The Meadowlands a couple of weeks ago, and since this column does, indeed, deal with matters that happen at The Meadowlands, it seemed only logical to take a look.

The race in question (mentioned in both Dean Towers' column and Brett Sturman's column) was the first on the card on March 28, where William Clark, Jr., driving 70-1 outsider Uncle Coz, left for the lead from post 3. After an opening quarter in :27, the 3-2 favorite, Duck Into The Nite, driven by Geovany Hernandez, challenged for the lead. Clark played hardball, parking out the favorite. As a result, Uncle Coz and Duck Into The Nite finished ninth and 10th, respectively, in the field of 10. The winner of the race was the second longest shot on the board, Warrawee Xceed, who went off at 65-1. The three people shrewd – or lucky – enough to include the winner on their Pick-5 tickets cashed in for $12,402.74.

Clark has been criticized for not yielding to the favorite, which brings up a couple of interesting questions: Do the complainers want all drivers to yield to the favorite or just amateurs, and was this race only criticized because it was part of the Pick-5 and because a longshot won?

To me, the main criticism seemed to be that the longest shot on the board had no business parking out the favorite.

Meadowlands Amateur Driving Club president Joe Lee, who finished third in that race, had some thoughts on the subject.

“Pari-mutuel racing is a betting market that is set by the public, so the odds go up and down, and nowadays with less handle in the windows, the odds change last minute very drastically,” Lee said. "That horse that was 70-1, with a minute to go, when we were post-parading around the track, he was like 15- or 16-1. Then, a lot of money came in on the favorite and the horse shot up to 70-1."

The morning-line odds for Uncle Coz were 15-1.

"So, what happened [in that race] was Will Clark had been drawing outside a lot with that horse, so the horse finally drew well and so he wanted to cut the mile," Lee said.

According to Lee, in the same position he may not have parked out the favorite, but then again, depending on who he was driving, he might have.

"He wanted to be up close, so he put the horse in play," Lee said. "I guarantee you that there were people that bet on that horse that were like, 'Oh, okay. Now I got put in play. At least I got some action for my money.'"

It was also alleged that going fast fractions combined with this style of driving with such lower-level horses was unsafe.

"Every horse in the race, if they're qualified to enter, is going on the track with the impression that they're sound enough to race, whether they're 3-2 or 70-1; the horses don't know the odds," Lee said. "If Will Clark has his horse up front, that's his prerogative. He can drive the horse however he wants, and it doesn't make it unsafe."

The Meadowlands regularly cards races that are on a lower level than the MADC races, and on that night in question, some of them went faster than the two MADC dashes.

Lee said that he knows that amateurs are an easy target.

"If David Miller or Yannick Gingras is driving a trotter and behind the gate the horse makes a break, it's like, 'Oh, the horse took a bad step,'" Lee said. "If I were to go behind the gate with that same horse the next week and he makes the same break behind the gate, it's like 'Joe Lee can't drive a trotter'... So, that's why we try to be even more professional at it if we can."

To that end, the MADC has a committee that reviews all of their races and even if the judges at the track don't think there's an issue with how a race was driven, the MADC can still sit people out for a week or two should they deem it necessary.

Lee said that one of the comments he hears most often is that people don't always enjoy betting harness racing because the percentage of winning favorites is so high. But then, when a race like this happens and the favorite gets parked, there's something unsafe and wrong.

"You can't have it both ways and be like, 'Oh, the racing at Yonkers or The Meadowlands is so boring because they just line up and they don't pull any right lines and they don't move the horses until the three-quarter pole and the favorites always win,'" Lee said. "Well, guess what? All the amateurs

“Some people really like [amateur racing], some people can't stand it, and I get it, but I think that for a sport that doesn't have a lot of positivity sometimes, whether it be fans disappearing from the track, handle down, tracks closing, whatever the case may be, amateur racing has grown because the fans that do bet the sport have put their money behind it... If the average handle at The Meadowlands does $250,000 a race to get to the $3 million on the night, and then all of a sudden, we were doing $50,000 in our race, The Meadowlands would be like, 'Forget this, you know, it's costing us a race, and it's costing us some handle,' but there are often times where, if we're not one of the highest that we are the highest on the card.”

~ Joe Lee

“If David Miller or Yannick Gingras is driving a trotter and behind the gate the horse makes a break, it’s like, ‘Oh, the horse took a bad step.’ If I were to go behind the gate with that same horse the next week and he makes the same break behind the gate, it’s like ‘Joe Lee can’t drive a trotter.’” pull the right lines. All the amateurs are not afraid to park a 3-5 if they think that they have a shot in the race, and they’re trying to win.”

Addressing the point that was made that the MADC races are unhandicapable, of the 33 MADC races contested this year, 28 were taken by repeat driving winners: Bruce Baker (five), William Clark, Jr. (five), Geovany Hernandez (five), Yogi Sheridan (four), James Slendorn (four), Mark Silva (three), and Tony Beltrami (two).

The average payout for the MADC races is $27.80, which certainly helps reduce the percentage of winning favorites at The Meadowlands, which is currently 39.9.

In response to a Dean Towers’ column in July 2023, Meadowlands president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural sent in Feedback to HRU that said in part: “I don’t know why Dean [Towers] thinks that we are enamored of having amateur races at The Meadowlands. We recognize that the amateurs have a place in the sport, but everyone should understand we are competing for horses with Yonkers, Chester and Pocono.

“Yonkers receives a subsidy of $50 million from slots, the two Pennsylvania tracks receive $30 million, while here in New Jersey we only receive $6 million. Not only that, but last year we took $6.7 million from the purse account in order to fund our stakes program.

“Without the amateur races we would only be able to card 11 or 12 races each night which would have a negative impact on our bottom line. If you look at the handle, the public seems to enjoy betting on the amateurs, and, for the most part, they offer full fields and a competitive product.

“I just hope everyone understands the reason we have so many amateur races. It has everything to do with the fact that the subsidy we receive is minimal compared to our competitors.”

Lee said he knows that amateur racing will never be everyone’s cup of tea, and if it’s not, then you don’t have to bet on it, because other people are and will.

“Some people really like it, some people can’t stand it, and I get it, but I think that for a sport that doesn’t have a lot of positivity sometimes, whether it be fans disappearing from the track, handle down, tracks closing, whatever the case may be, amateur racing has grown because the fans that do bet the sport have put their money behind it,” Lee said. “I don’t think that we would be seeing as many races as we do at Yonkers, The Meadowlands or Chester if our handle wasn’t there. Like, if the average handle at The Meadowlands does $250,000 a race to get to the $3 million on the night, and then all of a sudden, we were doing $50,000 in our race, The Meadowlands would be like, ‘Forget this, you know, it’s costing us a race, and it’s costing us some handle,’ but there are often times where, if we’re not one of the highest that we are the highest on the card.

“Once all the tracks are open, it’s hard for racetracks to fill their cards, and the amateurs at The Meadowlands, a lot of those guys bought horses to specifically race at The Meadowlands. If you look, sometimes in 14 races, there might only be five or six 10-horse fields for the night, and we’re four of them. So, you know, it’s a good working relationship with The Meadowlands.

“Jeff Gural, he doesn’t love it, but he does understand it; he sees that the handle is there.”

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

It was love at first sight for Mitchell Tierney and 50-time winner KJ Owen

by Matthew Lomon

They had never met before the night of Jan. 11, but one look was all it took to sell Mitchell Tierney on KJ Owen.

"I was racing at Flamboro one night when he walked by me, and he was one of those horses where I had the 'deer in headlights' look like, 'Who is that?'" Tierney said. "He was big and shiny, and he walked with class. I ran right over to the program, picked out his name and saw an 11-year-old Roll With Joe."

Tierney's initial assessment proved spot on, as the savvy son of Roll With Joe—Winsmith Jess cruised to a six-length score in 1:56 that very night.

Moved by what he saw, Tierney hastily dialed his long-time friend and racing partner Lynn Cameron to deliver one simple message: "We need this horse."

Without any hesitation, Cameron approved, and five days and $8,000 later, KJ Owen was theirs.

"A lot of the horses in my barn are double digits," Tierney said. "We have a lot of old, classy individuals, and that's Lynn's style, and that's my style. Tough, old horses, they know how to win. I like young horses, but I love the old war horses."

While age and experience were certainly part of the appeal — KJ Owen had made 260 starts at the time of claiming — it's what the graceful brown pacer had yet to do that piqued Tierney's interest.

"A lot of times when I claim a horse, I look at how many wins they have," he said. "When I claimed 'KJ,' he had 47, and I thought this would be a really good opportunity to hopefully hang on to him long enough to get him his 50th."

The quest for 50, and KJ Owen's tenure with Tierney and Cameron, got off to a flying start when the battled-tested gelding stormed back from second-last to win his maiden voyage under Tierney's tutelage by one-length on Jan. 23 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Triumph number 49, a coast-to-coast 5¾-length tally also at Mohawk with driver Brett MacDonald at the helm, came five starts later.

As Tierney recalled, the dazzling display underscored KJ Owen's impressive versatility and dogged competitiveness.

"He loves to win, and he'll do it any way, anywhere, on any size track," Tierney said. "I couldn't even fault the horse if I tried. It's not like he's not good on the half, or he's not good at X or Y. He's good everywhere, and he's good every week."

"The night that he went to the front for Brett, going to the gate he shook an earplug out, and it was game on. He was leaving whether Brett wanted him to or not, and he won on the front. Another night, he'll win from dead last. There's no reliance that our prep has to work out a certain way. He's going to go out there and give you 100 per cent every time."

A trio of tough draws (8, 9, 9) put a temporary hold on the milestone moment, but Tierney and Cameron's faith never wavered.

"I was racing at Flamboro one night when [KJ Owen] walked by me, and he was one of those horses where I had the 'deer in headlights' look like, 'Who is that?' He was big and shiny, and he walked with class. I ran right over to the program, picked out his name and saw an 11-year-old Roll With Joe."

~ Mitchell Tierney

And neither did KJ Owen's, who on April 3 against a downpour at Flamboro, delivered the highlight victory his owners first envisioned the second they laid eyes on him.

"We knew the milestone was coming, but that night, it was one of them days," Tierney said. "It was raining, the weather was bad, but I thought he could get it, I just didn't know if they'd actually race because it was so miserable out."

"Then he goes out and jogs in 1:54.2. He's such a tough animal."

“It’s a big thing to have one that gets their 50th lifetime win. That’s a lot. I know we only had three of them [with KJ Owen], but there had to have been a lot of people to share the winner’s circle with him before us. Everybody loved him, but nobody loves him as much as [co-owner] Lynn [Cameron] does. He’s hard not to love.”

~ Mitchell Tierney

The determined 1¼-length decision will forever be etched into the minds of Tierney and Cameron, who consider themselves eternally grateful for having crossed paths with a horse capable of making a profound impact in a short deal of time.

“It’s a big thing to have one that gets their 50th lifetime win,” Tierney said. “That’s a lot. I know we only had three of them, but there had to have been a lot of people to share the winner’s circle with him before us. Everybody loved him, but nobody loves him as much as Lynn does. He’s hard not to love.

Such warm praise means a great deal coming from Tierney, who’s coached his fair share of standout talents over the years, including the greatest trotter in the history of Atlantic Canadian Racing, Waiting On A Woman.

Bred and raised in 2008 by Mitchell and his father David Tierney on their family farm in New Haven, PEI, the son of Northern Bailey—Southwind Faith went on to win 82 races and collect nearly $640,000 across 278 starts around Canada and the United States.

Although still early, Mitchell foresees KJ Owen occupying a similar position alongside the most memorable, and irreplaceable horses he and Cameron have ever worked with.

“KJ is an absolute gem,” Tierney said. “Lynn does most of the looking after him. He’s her pet. He’s a sweetheart. Like I said, I couldn’t even think of a way to fault him, because there isn’t. He carries so much class, which is very hard to find. I always say you can’t breed class.”

Closing in on $300,000 for his career, KJ Owen did it the hard way.

He didn’t make his living in stakes races, he did it as a war horse, traveling from track-to-track in the United States before eventually settling in Ontario, where he will continue to race out of Mitchell’s stable.

Now in his 10th year on the job, KJ Owen will continue to rely on the lunch pail mentality that led him to the half-century mark.

“No matter where we race him, he’s going to give it his all,” Mitchell said. “I think he’s going to have a good summer.

“We’re going to do the Kawartha-Georgian-Grand River circuit. No matter where we take him, he’s going to make money and try his best – he always does. He shows up every time.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

So, how long can you hold your breath?

by John Berry

I frequently speak with my “BDHC” (Broken Down Horseplayers Club) members, many of whom have a unique insight into the affairs of the world beyond just putting $2 or $20 on the nose of a bay 6-year-old gelding going behind the gate.

Indeed, they are a potpourri of folk from as close as the simulcast floor at the casino to those that work from the dark hours before the sun rises until the darkest hours of midnight.

They possess a certain wisdom different than most, with an opinion from both sides off the aisle that deserve our attention and philosophical ear.

Longtime BDHC member Smitty, a former educator from the Midwest, came up with the above headline when confronted with today's situation in our world.

The conversation turned to “polly-ticks” and the probability and promise that “things will work out great for everyone, but it will take some time.”

That's when Smitty chimed in with the headline, “How long can you hold your breath?”

“If it's like [19]29, it will take years, and many of us don't have years to wait, whether it be because of age or finances.”

That's true.

“If you're under water, how long can you hold your breath before you drown?” he said.

“The millionaires and billionaires are not affected one iota by this turmoil.

“They will eat well, drink well, and live well, basking in their wealth but the other 98½ per cent don't share the same comforts as the rich and their struggles will get worse as the turmoil continues.

“I am retired now, get a bit of a pension but, having said that, my $20 and $30 plays have become $10 or even less, just trying to have some fun, enjoy the sport and, maybe, hit the big one! [He hasn't yet.]

“I've loved this game for 60 years and still love it today. It's great therapy and has kept me in the ballgame of life, as they say.

“Prices have escalated in every area of my life, from condo fees to the grocery store to medical costs and, don't forget, gas isn't 49.9 cents [a gallon] anymore.”

Smitty's situation has spread to infect millions and, through the years, pari-mutuel handle has taken a hit as inflation and turmoil have set in, along with the vast competition for the gambling dollar.

Las Vegas doesn't have the casino monopoly that it had as the strip developed, as 44 states now have some form of casino gaming with the number of casinos probably over 2,000, not including our Canadian neighbors.

And, of course, the lottery and sports betting have drained dollars away from the pari-mutuels, as well.

On the other side of the coin, Bob W sees it a different way, “I think the President has good intentions in strengthening our trade status but I think it's a matter of the age bracket you are in.

“I'm still kind of young [39], with two kids [5 and 8 years old], and I am hoping we'll have this whole thing straightened out in a few years.

“Yes, I lost substantial value in my 401(K) account, but I am confident that, when I am ready to retire, it will be just fine.

“I understand that some older people are in a bad way but I think this is a way to help balance the budget and keep things in check.”

Bill K says that he's taken a huge hit on his 401(K) but, as he related, “I'm in for the long haul and the market has always rebounded bigger and stronger than ever and I think the same will be the case here.”

Bill K is due to retire in 2069.

“I am retired now, get a bit of a pension but, having said that, my $20 and $30 plays have become $10 or even less, just trying to have some fun, enjoy the sport and, maybe, hit the big one! [He hasn't yet.]”

~ Smitty

“Look at it this way, when we raced for $10,000 years ago, that winner’s share of $5,000 went a long, long way. Now, with prices escalating and the competition getting really tough, it’s a tough grind to make a living and there are only so many 1:53 trotters and 1:48 pacers to go around.”

~ Mike

Mike from the Bluegrass State, where things are blossoming due to legislative action and some casino revenue sharing, said, “Yes, things are going well, thus far, here, but that has invited others to buy property and move their operations here and that competition had been detrimental to some of us little guys who have lived here all their lives.

“Remember, 0 per cent of a $100,000 purse is still 0, and we have the same expenses that everyone else has.

“Look at it this way, when we raced for $10,000 years ago, that winner’s share of $5,000 went a long, long way.

“Now, with prices escalating and the competition getting really tough, it’s a tough grind to make a living and there are only so many 1:53 trotters and 1:48 pacers to go around.

“We’re up at the barn at 4 or 5 a.m. and work long hours caring for our horses — feed, shoeing, vet work, training — we probably spend 70 hours a week making sure our horses are healthy, competitive and ready to go, and at the end of the week — if we can race every week — we have one minute and 53 seconds or less to make a living with our horses.

“Everyone says, ‘If you can’t make it, get out and do something else.’

“But this is all we know and has been a lifelong love and, at our age, what am I going to do?

“It’s not easy satisfying owners today, either, as they pay some of the bills and, yes, you can brag to them that his horse paced in 1:50 this week and ‘raced really great’ but the bottom line is he was sixth, 10 or 12 lengths away.

“They would like to see some profit somewhere along the line but, as I said, it’s a tough go.”

Phil S from the Chicago area said, “I can’t afford to be patient [as I am] in my late 70s, and the crisis that the world is facing with this tariff stuff, it shouldn’t be my problem.

“When prices go up, what? 100 per cent when this takes effect, we’ll be suffering even more. I didn’t deserve to lose so much in my retirement account, and in such a short time.

“None of us deserve this.

“The citizens of this land shouldn’t be at war with our neighbors.

“We have more important things than renaming the Gulf or putting another President on Mt. Rushmore or on a $100 bill, or fighting with our neighbors.”

Haughton and Dancer, Takter and Eriksson, the Hambletonian edition

by Bob Heyden

As we inch closer to Hambletonian 100, here's a comparative look back at some top trainers.

First, we'll take a look at Billy Haughton and Stanley Dancer.

1. The first time they competed in the same Hambletonian was in 1957 when Haughton was eighth with Flicka Frost and 13th with Marmion Hanover, while Dancer was 10th with Lord Chuck.
2. The first time they each cashed in the same Hambletonian was in 1967 when Haughton was second with Keystone Pride and Dancer got the last check with Dazzling Speed.
3. The last two four heat Hambletonians were in 1975 and 1976, with Dancer getting the job done with Bonefish, followed the next year by Haughton and Steve Lobell.
4. Both Haughton and Dancer trained five Hambletonian winners and drove four of the five themselves.
5. Each won their final Hambletonian in the bike at age 56. Haughton was victorious with Burgomeister in 1980, while Dancer guided Duenna to victory in 1983.
6. No trainers in history have won more Triple Crown races than Haughton/Dancer.
7. Haughton's 1949 Hambletonian debut saw the oldest ever driver win: Fred Egan (78) with Miss Tilly. Dancer's 1953 Hambletonian debut saw the youngest driver win it: Harry Harvey (27) with Helicopter.

Second, just like with Haughton and Dancer, comparisons can be made between Jimmy Takter and Per Eriksson.

1. Takter and Eriksson were born in neighboring towns — about 25 kilometers (a little over 15 miles) apart — in Sweden. Takter was born in Mantorp and Eriksson in Linköping in the fall of 1960, 18 days apart.

2. Eriksson's Hambletonian debut came at age 22 in 1983 when he finished seventh with Desert Night. Takter was 26 in 1987 with Sir Taurus sixth in an elim.

3. Eriksson's first winner was a son of Speedy Crown named Prakas, while Takter's first starter and first Horse of the Year were also Speedy Crowns: Sir Taurus and Moni Maker, respectively.

4. Both paid $2.60 winning their first Hambletonian: Eriksson with Prakas in 1985 and Malabar Man for Takter in 1997.

5. Both were second choice with their last Hambletonian winner: Eriksson had Alf Palema ($8.40) in 1992, and for Takter it was $5.60 for Pinkman in 2015.

6. Eriksson and Takter were the first two trainers to finish 1-2 in the same Hambletonian at The Meadowlands. Eriksson did it in 1992 with Alf Palema and King Conch followed by Takter in 1997 when Malabar Man bested Take Chances.

7. Eriksson is the first Swede to win three Hambletonians, while Takter is the first to win four.

8. Eriksson and Takter combined to win seven Hambletonians with seven different drivers! Bill O'Donnell (Prakas), Mickey McNichol (Alf Palema), and Jack Moiseyev (Giant Victory) for Eriksson and it was Mal Burroughs (Malabar Man), Ron Pierce (Muscle Massive), Brian Sears (Pinkman) for Takter who also drove Trixton to victory himself.

HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?

#BETONHARNESS

WHO 'NOSE' THE CLOSEST HAMBLETONIAN FINISHES?

It's been 99 years and 100 winners so far. But before another name is added to the list on Aug. 2, let's take a closer look at the closest Hambletonian finishes.

Of course, the dead heat of 1989 between Probe and Park Avenue Joe remains the ultimate, but nine other Hambletonians were decided by a nose.

1. Guy McKinney in the first edition, 1926, over Guy Dean. Next to nothing separated the two sons of veteran stallion Guy Axworthy.

2. Keno was second best, barely, in 1931 to Calumet Butler.

3. John Simpson, Sr. was a scant nose off in 1950 with Stars Pride.

4. Frank Ervin was just a buck shy in 1954 with Princess Rodney.

5. For the first, and only time ever, back-to-back Hambletonians were decided by a nose. In 1955, Scott Frost edge Galophone with Joe O'Brien edging Billy Haughton. That nose would force Haughton to wait 19 years for his first Hambletonian win in 1974 with Christopher T. That nose was also the first of two nose wins in the Hambletonian for Joe O'Brien, the only driver to do this twice! This was the first ever nose decision for a Triple Crown winner in the Hambletonian, since 1955 was the start of the Trotting Triple Crown and the Pacing counterpart began a year later.

6. In 1960 Isaac was the second nose loss for John Simpson, Sr., who did win it all in both 1957 (Hickory Smoke) and 1964 (Ayres).

7. Quick Song was second best by just that much in 1962 to A Cs Viking, and Frank Ervin joined John Simpson, Sr. as the only other driver to twice be edged out on harness racing's biggest stage.

8. In 1975 Yankee Bambino just missed to Bonefish in the next to last four-heat year.

9. Marion Marauder in 2016 ended the longest gap, 41 years, between nose finishes (NOT counting the 1989 dead heat of course). Yannick Gingras drove Southwind Frank to that oh-so-close second place finish. Marion Marauder remains the sport's last Triple Crown winner.

In summation, there were nine Hambletonians and one dead heat that were oh so close.

The first and the last Triple Crown winners – both Scotts, Scott Frost and Scott Zeron (Marion Marauder) – benefitted from the photo finish camera. There's only been one nose in the 21st century (2016), but from 1954-62 there were an incredible four-for-nine. There are 63,360 inches in a mile race and 10 per cent of all Hambletonians have been decided by just a couple of them. Let's hope for some continued excitement, and photo finishes in the next century.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Arianne Girard wants to be a chip off the old block

by Chris Lomon

When it comes to her horse racing experiences, mom is the word for Arianne Girard.

The horsewoman from Trois-Rivières, QC, found an ideal role model for both life and career right at home.

"You could say I was literally born into the world of racehorses," Girard said. "My mother, Marie-Claude Auger, is an excellent driver and trainer. My father, Claude Girard, is no longer in the industry but he was a driver and trainer of horses himself. So, you could say I have always been surrounded by horses and the passion came naturally to me.

"Ever since I was little, I always wanted to become like my mother and one day train and drive my own horses."

Auger has been a driving — and training — force for years.

With 650 wins as a driver and 286 as a trainer, Auger is just over 60 wins away from 1,000 combined career victories.

It's no surprise that Arianne is hoping to emulate her mother's career arc.

"I would like to one day have several horses in training and drive them myself, just like my mother," Arianne said. "She is my idol, and I can't see myself doing anything other than having my own stable."

Arianne currently has one horse under her tutelage, Sundance Leyo.

Bred and owned by her grandmother, Denise Auger, the 4-year-old son of Sunshine Beach – Sans Frontiere has three wins and 16 top three finishes from 41 starts.

The gelding's most recent trip to the winner's circle came last October at Rideau Carleton, a 14-1 upset that saw Sundance Leyo elevated from second to first in the opening dash on the Sunday evening card.

Arianne has driven the bay in amateur races, including a second at Ayers Cliff (in QC) last August.

"Driving him in the amateur races is fine with me, but eventually, in a few years, getting my professional driver's licenses is in my plans," Arianne said.

“ I didn't expect [to be named Quebec's Groom of the Year] at all. In my opinion, all four nominees could have won this award. I was surprised that I was nominated, but I was very happy. It's very pleasing to see all the hard work and good care I give to the horses being rewarded. I love my job; the well-being and success of the horses in my care are my priority. ”

My father, Claude Girard, is no longer in the industry but he was a driver and trainer of horses himself. So, you could say I have always been surrounded by horses and the passion came naturally to me.”

Another horse, also a bay gelding, delivered Arianne one of her most thrilling racing moments to date.

On Sept. 23, 2023, Mister Truth, a well-travelled son of Total Truth—Miss AJ Ponda, took on three rivals in an amateur race at Ormstown – the racetrack is approximately one hour southwest of Montreal and 20 minutes north of New York State.

The pair crossed the wire a half-length ahead of their closest rival, which capped off a treasured trifecta for Arianne.

“He was my first horse, with whom I had my first victory as owner, trainer, and driver, all in the same day at the Quebec fairs,” she said. “Unfortunately, I no longer have him, but I will never forget him.”

Later that same year, the filly Sensi Amnesia, bred, owned, and driven by Auger, delivered a memorable milestone score.

“She won the 2-year-old finals at the 3R racecourse in 2023 – it was our first victory in a final,” Arianne said. “She is a filly that my mother raised. It was a very emotional day... she even managed to make us cry that day.”

Then there is the diminutive filly Chic Choc Rose.

The 3-year-old trotting daughter of Royalty For Life—Torches Angel had a brilliant rookie campaign in 2024. In five starts, the bay won three times and posted one third.

Arianne co-owns Chic Choc Rose with her mother, who bred the horse that has a white left hind ankle.

“She’s a tiny filly, but she gives her all in every race,” Arianne said. “I’m lucky enough to take care of her when she races, and her first year racing was a success. She never ceased to impress me start after start, and I hope her 2025 will be just as successful.”

It already has been for Arianne.

Earlier this year, she was honored as Quebec’s Groom of the Year.

“I didn’t expect it at all,” Arianne said. “In my opinion, all four nominees could have won this award. I was surprised that I was nominated, but I was very happy. It’s very pleasing to see all the hard work and good care I give to the horses being rewarded. I love my job; the well-being and success of the horses in my care are my priority.”

Continuing to move her racing career forward is another goal for 2025.

Arianne’s future ambitions are clear: to continue developing as a trainer, to refine her driving skills, and to work towards managing her own stable.

“I hope my horses continue to perform, both those I train myself and those I care for, whether it be for my mother or my employer, Marc-André Simoneau,” she said. “I also look forward to the fairs, where I love driving, even though there aren’t many of them during the year.”

Arianne’s greatest satisfaction is in watching the horses she’s connected to succeed on race night.

“There is nothing more rewarding than taking care of horses and seeing them perform well afterwards,” Arianne said. “I work hard to ensure the horses I care for are at their best, whether on the farm or at the races. I love my job; I’m at the barn seven days a week. There’s no other place that I like to spend my days and I never miss a day of racing.”

Free time is at a premium, but long days at the barn are never viewed in a negative light.

“These moments are rare, but when I have free time, I like to spend time with my family, watch hockey or even play video games,” she said. “I also love photography. If I hadn’t been in the horse field, I probably would have gone for a job in photography.”

Arianne is grateful to be immersed in racing, a picture-perfect world where she has always felt at home.

Though it was family history that introduced her to standardbreds, she developed her own personal connection to the sport, one that has continued to grow with each racing season.

She is grateful for those who set the foundation for her own success.

“My family are the people who have helped me the most, I probably wouldn’t be where I am today if it weren’t for my grandparents and my mother,” Arianne said. “I will always be grateful to them for everything they have done for me. My mother was the one who taught me everything and helped me buy my first horse. My grandparents trust me with their horse and let me drive it. I can never thank them enough.”

Etonnant ready for another edition of Elitloppet

by Thomas Hedlund

Richard Westerink-trained Etonnant (Timoko), winner of Elitloppet 2022, will be back in Solvalla's premier event this year. Etonnant was invited on Saturday (April 12) night and that means six horses have received a pink ticket inviting them to Elitloppet 2025.

Etonnant will be seen at Enghien in Paris when the $200,000 Prix de l'Atlantique is contested on Saturday (April 19). Among the opponents, another horse from France may be fit for Solvalla's big mile race in May; Hussard du Landret, whose trainer Benoit Robin has announced interest in traveling to Sweden, will try to show that he deserves an invitation to Elitloppet.

The Prix de l'Atlantique includes many strong trotters this year and neither Etonnant nor Hussard du Landret will be one of the favorites in the race. Go On Boy, Emeraude de Bais and Hohneck all have merit and speed that will make them heavily regarded by the racing fans.

BORUPS VICTORY BEST IN FINLAND AGAIN?

Daniel Wäjersten's Borups Victory, runner up in Elitloppet 2024 and named Horse of the Year in Sweden, will travel east, over the Baltic Sea to Finland to contest the $130,000 Seinäjoki Race Saturday (April 19) where he will try to defend his title from last year's edition.

Post 7 behind the gate was hardly what Wäjersten wished for, but on the other hand, Borups Victory possesses all the ingredients required by a horse racing against elite trotters and he has shown great ability to finish strongly with cover trips. The biggest obstacle for him Saturday may be Johan Untersteiner's Stens Rubin, who is regarded as the favorite to take command in the Seinäjoki Race 2025.

SAN MOTEUR IS BACK

Björn Goop trained San Moteur will face eight opponents when the third qualification race ahead of the Paralympiatravet is scheduled at Romme racetrack Sunday (April 20). San Moteur has not entered the track since he raced in the Prix d'Amérique in Paris in January this year and Goop is aiming for the final of the Paralympiatravet on May 3 at Åby racetrack.

Easter time in northern Europe means that several top horses wake up after the long winter and interesting trotters will be seen at different locations today (April 18), as Don Fanucci Zet, Devilish Hill and Eclipse As all start.

Matt Kakaley gets 7,000th driving victory at Pocono

Matt Kakaley, three-time defending dash-winning driving champion at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, recorded his 7,000th visit to the winner's circle as a driver when he guided Franzo to Victory Lane in the second race at the northeast Pennsylvania oval on Tuesday afternoon (April 15).

Horses whom Kakaley, 37, has driven have earned $117.4M for their owners, putting him 22nd on the all-time list of money-winning drivers, with many more years of success in front of him. Last year, horses he drove earned a personal yearly best of nearly $9.9 million, 10th-best figure in North America, and he was sixth on the continent with 539 victories, just below his personal high of 2023, when he triumphed 561 times. This year he is also 10th in North America in the driving earnings category. Kakaley has captured six driving crowns at Pocono during his career – four as the winningest driver and two UDR trophies.

In addition to Kakaley's milestone 7,000th win, Pocono also featured eight $16,000 divisions of the Game Of Claims Trotting Series for horses valued this week at $25,000. Anthony Napolitano guided half of the octet of winners, three of the eight repeated after their first prelim victories, and five of them changed barns after their success Tuesday.

Three of the winners for "ANap" changed hands. Included in that number is Golden Compass, claimed out of a victorious first round race, and then again claimed after Napolitano won with him in 1:55 (by 10¾ lengths) for trainer Herbert Lux III. Napolitano's other winners who will be relocating are Wallet, taken from trainer Travis Alexander after the fastest GOC division in which he earned a new mark of 1:53.4, and Macmorris Hanover, overcoming the outside post 8 in 1:54.4 for trainer Peter Pellegrino, who had two wins in Tuesday's series and three overall, but losing this winner to a claim.

The fourth GOC win for Napolitano was by far the closest contest of the day, as he got the most after a pocket trip from Yo Lucky Moni to win by a nose over Run Run Elegant in 1:58.3 for trainer Maria Alvarez – and at $36.20 the only series horse to pay better than 5-1.

Another horse claimed last week and this, and winning both times, was Altus Hanover, also stopping the timer in 1:55 while driven by Napolitano's brother George for his one-week trainer, Peter Pellegrino. The third two-for-two horse in this Game Of Claims event is In My Dreams, driven by Braxten Boyd to victory in 1:55.2 and now a winner of three straight overall for trainer Lou Pena.

Boyd added a second series sulky success when he won in 1:55.2 with Chamba, the fifth winner to be claimed, for trainer Tee Wine. Also, Do It Again IT went the fastest mile of his short North American career when he won another section in 1:54.4 for driver Tyler Buter and trainer Hunter Oakes.

Racing resumes on Saturday at Pocono with a 1 p.m. card, headlined by the $50,000 Bobby Weiss Series championship for 3-year-old pacing males in the 10th slot, with five of the eight entrants having two preliminary wins but nobody achieving a sweep of the three prelims. Their filly counterparts will have four $20,000 divisions of their Weiss's second leg, with three first-round winners going head-to-head-to-head in race 4. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.ppha.org.

WEISS SERIES TROTTERS IMPRESSIVE MONDAY: Three-year-old trotters were spotlighted in $20,000 preliminary divisions of their respective Bobby Weiss Series at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Monday (April 14), with males going in their third and final preliminary before next Monday's $50,000 Championship, while the distaffs contested their second prelim. There were three divisions for each sex.

The Chapter Seven colt Karinchak became the only horse among the male contingent to double within the three prelims when he set a new lifetime mark of 1:55.1. Matt Kakaley (who later left Pocono to drive at Yonkers on Monday night with 6,998 career triumphs before his Gotham sojourn) put his horse on the lead, got a breather to the half, then came his back half in :56.3 to win over Te Quiero Lindy for trainer Ray Schnittker, also co-owner with Ted Gewertz, Arden Homestead Stable, and Steven Arnold. Karinchak, who got home first by three-quarters-of-a-length, suffered interference in his first series start but has been perfect thereafter.

It looked like Bondsman was going to join Karinchak as a double Weiss winner, but as he got past pacesetter Big Shot by a head at the end of a 1:56.2 mile he went off-stride and was placed second for a lapped-on break. So, the Propulsion gelding Big Shot, second in both his series starts including to Karinchak last time out, was elevated to the top spot, and the alert Pocono judges determined that according to PA rules Big Shot would get to take the time as a new mark for driver Anthony Napolitano, trainer Nicholas Devita, and owners David Hamm and Glenn Phillips.

Also lowering his mark, the Greenshoe gelding Green Mel won the other cut for males in 1:55.3 following a third and a second in his earlier prelims. Team Orange Crush — driver Andy and trainer/wife Julie — are the brain trust behind Green Mel, who is owned by Willow Oak Racing LLC and Michael Anderson.

Halfadozen and Admiring are now both undefeated in two Weiss starts on the filly side: both won in 1:55.4, and both rated the half then outsprinted their rival's home.

The Six Pack filly Halfadozen took a new mark as she won by a neck over Entertaining Me — the same margin by which she defeated that rival in the first leg. Daniel Dube, co-owner with Jean Claude Dessureault, was in the sulky for trainer Pierre Paradis.

As close as Halfadozen's race was, the win by Admiring was a romp, as the Walner miss was 10 lengths ahead at the end of her mile. David Miller got the job done convincingly with Admiring for trainer Nifty Norman and owners Tony Holmes and June Zent.

A sweep of the filly action by betting favorites came about when Dearly Beloved, who did not race in the first Weiss round, won by seven lengths while lowering her mark to 1:56.1. The Greenshoe filly used the same rate-then-go on tactics as did her fellow first-place fillies for trainer Jenny Melander and owner Donald Bartling. We mentioned Matt Kakaley's 6,998 wins earlier — the win behind Dearly Beloved was career score number 6,997.

Both the leading driver and trainer at the Pocono meet widened the lead atop the standings — Tyler Buter had four trips to the winner's circle, including bookending the card with Ron Burke trainees, as Burke sent out three successful horses overall.

PACERS IN WEISS SERIES ACTION SATURDAY: Two sophomore pacing males came to Saturday's (April 12) Bobby Weiss Series action at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania looking to sweep their three series preliminaries. But neither was successful, and instead three horses joined them as double prelim winners from Saturday's $20,000 four divisions of action, promising a wide-open $50,000 championship next Saturday. There were also five divisions of the first Weiss leg for these horses' female counterparts.

The only male winner in the Weiss Series who was successful over Saturday's harsh conditions (40 degrees, "sloppy +2" going) and notched his first series victory was the Heston Blue Chip colt Charge Me Up, who overcame his outside post to equal for the fastest of all Weiss cuts, 1:53.2, and also gave her brain trust — driver Tim Tetrick, trainer Nicholas Devita, and owners David Hamm and Glenn Phillips — a win in both the male and female Weiss action. Oogleville, who won in his first two legs, was pushed by the winner to regain the lead in front of the stands, and then he fell short of withstanding the Pocono Pike challenge of the winner by three-parts-of-a-length.

All of the other Weiss winners for the males added a third-round victory to triumphs they had notched in the first leg. That included the Betting Line gelding Flight In Motion, 14-1 when he won two weeks ago and here 8-1 as he closed past double previous winner World Of Wishes by a neck in 1:54.1 for trainer Eddie Dennis and the partnership of Mulligan Stables and Jason Johnson Inc.

Tyler Buter drove Flight In Motion as part of his four-bagger on the day, and he won another division of the Weiss male action with the Bettor's Wish gelding Cover The Spread, also a neck winner (in beating 65-1 shot Ima Perfect Choice) while here clocking in 1:55.3 as the favorite after being dismissed at 40-1 when winning his other Weiss division. Buter's father Todd conditions the Oldford Racing LLC winner, who got his picture taken postrace despite going first-up.

The 1:53.2 clocking by Charge Me Up was equaled by the Papi Rob Hanover gelding Gold Glove Hanover, who was hard-used early but kept on going to win for the father-and-son team of trainer Brett Pelling and son Jack. Last week the Pelling Racing LLC winner couldn't overcome post 8, but a better draw plus a good performance brought him back to Victory Lane today.

Papi Rob Hanover, sire of Gold Glove Hanover, was both the only sire to win on both the male and female Weiss sides, and also the only doubler within either sex when he sired two filly winners. One of them was the filly who may be the present favorite to win her group's May 5 final, Allegra Hanover, who won her seasonal debut in 1:53 - :26 at Hoosier then here won the fastest Weiss filly cut in 1:54.4, pouncing home in :27.4 from the pocket for trainer Gareth Dowse and owners Martin Valentic, T G Stable LLC, ad Bill Boyce. "Papi Rob" rounded out his siring exploits of the day with 15-1 Savage Blonde, who broke her maiden in 1:57.3 for driver David Miller, trainer Carter Pinske, and Pinske Stables.

Team Tetrick / Devita / Hamm-Phillips got their filly Weiss win with the Cattlewash miss Albright, a 1:56.1 winner, while the Huntsville filly Strutsville has now won half her seasonal and lifetime starts after stopping the timer in 1:55 for driver Ridge Warren, trainer Ron Coyne, Jr., and owners Nancy Retzlaff and Douglas Stout. The biggest margin in all the Weiss divisions, the Sweet Lou distaff Sweet Odds, left her second-place opponent 7½ lengths in arrears as she broke her maiden in 1:55.2 for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Per Engblom, and Morrison Racing Stables.

Burke, Engblom continue to dominate John Brennan Trotting Series

Horses trained by Per Engblom or Ron Burke were the winners of all three $30,000 divisions of the final preliminary round of the John Brennan Trotting Series on Wednesday night (April 16) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Burke's Antognoni S can go for a series sweep after he won his split in 1:56.1. Away third from post 5, Antognoni S took control from first-up heading to the 1:28 three-quarters and opened up from there to defeat Lucky Mum N (Brent Holland) by 10 lengths. A 5-year-old Father Patrick gelding, Antognoni S (paid $2.10 to win) and is co-owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., Fac Racing LLC. and driver Yannick Gingras.

The other victor for Burke was Busy Making Moni, who got up at the wire after he tipped out of the pocket before three-quarters, to defeat Engblom-trained Bellissimo Face S (Jason Bartlett) by a nose in 1:57.2. It was the second straight win in the series for Busy Making Moni (paid $3.70 to win), a 5-year-old gelded son of International Moni owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brussemi LLC.

Engblom got the better of Burke back in the night's first section as Green Pastures, a 4-year-old gelding by Greenshoe, vaulted into the lead on the last turn from second-over and held off Blockchain (Gingras) by a length in 1:58.1. Green Pastures (paid $9.40 to win), who won in the opening leg and then took last week off, is owned by VIP Internet Stable LLC., Engblom Stable LLC., R A W Equine Inc. and Marco Greico.

As far as next Wednesday's (April 23) $100,000 (guaranteed) final goes, Engblom and Burke wound up qualifying seven of the eight horses eligible to the event, but by rule in the stakes conditions, they are limited to two starters each. The final will be drawn on Thursday (April 17), providing clarity on which horses they elect to enter in the final and which ones end up in the $50,000 (guaranteed) consolation.

The John Brennan Trotting Series is named in honor of the longtime SOA of NY horsemen's representative who passed away from complications of COVID-19 in March 2020.

FOURTH ROUNDS OF MATCHMAKER AND BORGATA SERIES SET: The penultimate leg of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series will occur tonight (April 18) and will have three $50,000 divisions. Aardie B Miki N, who is three-for-three in the Matchmaker so far, is taking the week off, giving mares who have been chasing her a chance at valuable points towards the May 9 final.

Four $50,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series tests will then go behind the gate on Monday (April 21). Mossdale Ben N (post 5, race 3) goes for his third win in the event, as do Verdun (post 2, race 7), For Once Inmy Life (post 3, race 8) and Coaches Corner (post 6, race 8).

PICK 5 GUARANTEED POOL BOOSTED ON MONDAYS AND FRIDAYS: Continuing for every Monday and Friday card during the legs of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series and Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, MGM Yonkers Raceway, in conjunction with the SOA of NY, will offer a $20,000 guaranteed Pick 5 pool in race 5.

The guaranteed Pick 5 pool on Mondays is also a part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

McCown scores 1,000th career win at MGM Northfield Park

Prior to the weekend, Southern Ohio regular Cameron McCown needed just two victories to earn his 1,000th career driving win. He and wife Jessica made a special trip to MGM Northfield Park on Sunday (April 13), where he scored the career milestone aboard Rock With JK. McCown is a regular driver at Scioto Downs, Miami Valley Gaming, and Hollywood Gaming at Dayton Raceway.

A native of Washington Court House, OH, Cameron began driving in 2014, at the Putnam County Fair. He started driving on a more full-time basis in 2015, where he drove Count On Anna to his first career victory at the Crawford County Fair.

Cameron and wife Jessica teamed up to score both of the victories needed to reach the impressive 1,000-win milestone. The first victory came with Heerz Popeye (Bit Of A Legend), winning in gate-to-wire fashion to close out the early daily double.

His milestone breaking victory came later in the program aboard, Rock With JK (JK Endofanera). The victory, however, didn't come easy for Cameron as Dragthechipsmyway (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) and Lake Charles (Justin Irvine), both jostled for early position.

Irvine and Lake Charles who was parked for much of a :27.4 opening quarter, finally was able to clear Dragthechipsmyway entering the far turn for the first time. Irvine was able to back down the pace in the second quarter getting to the half with Dragthechipsmyway in :56.4.

On their approach to three-quarters in 1:25.3, Silver Bentley (Kurt Sugg) made a first-over bid for the lead, leaving Rock With JK in the pocket with a ground saving trip.

Turning for home, Cameron guided Rock With JK to the passing lane, moving by Lake Charles in the final strides to win by a half-length in 1:54.

"It's extremely exciting to get my 1,000th career victory," Cameron said, adding with a laugh, "It has only taken me a month and a half since Brad Conrad took my photo at Miami Valley in preparation for this victory, I'm just glad to have gotten the win."

His wife Jessica echoed Cameron's sentiments.

"I am very happy for Cam, he started driving for my dad and Chris Beaver and has come a long way," Jessica said. "I admire him, and his ability to get up and go each day."

Another MGM Borgata Pacing Series triple for Bartlett

For the second consecutive week, driver Jason Bartlett had a hat trick in the MGM Borgata Pacing Series at MGM Yonkers Raceway, taking victories in Monday night's (April 14) third round with Himself N, Huntinthelastdolar and Coaches Corner Verdun, steered by trainer Pat Lachance, was the other winner.

Just like last Monday, Coaches Corner won the fastest and final division in 1:50.4. Coaches Corner put up fractions of :27.3, :56.2 and 1:23.3 and was able to fend off a game, first-over attack by Mossdale Ben N (Jordan Stratton), who was looking to improve to three-for-three in the event, defeating him by half a length. Why Not Now (Matt Kakaley) turned a pocket trip into a third-place result.

A 5-year-old gelding by Always A Virgin, Coaches Corner is trained by Per Engblom for owners Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey. Coaches Corner is a 29-time winner, has earned $852,194 and paid $4.30 to win as the favorite. He keyed a $6.10 exacta and a $17.80 trifecta.

Bartlett and Engblom also connected with Huntinthelastdolar earlier on the program in 1:52.1. Huntinthelastdolar was part of a fight for the lead with pole sitter Binge On Yankee (Scott Zeron) and a three-wide Charlie May (Stratton) early on, and would press on two-wide to take control away from Charlie May beyond the rapid :26.1 quarter. Once he landed on top, Huntinthelastdolar maintained the front-end to the half in :55.1 and the three-quarters in 1:23.1, then used a 29 second final kicker to defeat a gaining Sherlock N (George Brennan) by a length and a half. Charlie May held third.

Owned by E Five Racing and John Fielding, Huntinthelastdolar is a 5-year-old Huntsville gelding. He made his 15th appearance in the winner's circle, has now pocketed $795,037 and returned $3.60 to win as the favorite. The exacta was worth $34.60 and the trifecta kicked back $238.50.

Bartlett and Himself N worked out a cover trip in that section and then rallied to a 1:52.3 tally. Racing Rampage (Kakaley) took the lead out of the pocket coming to the 27 second quarter-mile marker and kept to the half in :55.2, but Act Fast (Yannick Gingras) went by him from first-over at the 1:23.4 three-quarters, leaving Hemsworth N (Zeron) first-over and Himself N behind Hemsworth N.

Hemsworth N vaulted into the lead in the stretch despite being left first-over, but he couldn't seal the deal as Himself N surged by him and on to the victory by a neck over a charging Churchviewfrankl Ir (Brent Holland). Hemsworth N had to settle for third as the favorite.

Himself N is an 8-year-old gelded son of Sportswriter and is co-owned by trainer Lance Hudson in partnership with William Hartt. Himself N has a summary of 22-15-7 from 72 outings, has put away $446,578 and paid $8.40 to win as the 3-1 third choice. He was atop a $41.40 exacta and a $100 trifecta.

Verdun, who won in the opening leg and then was third to Mossdale Ben N a week ago, returned to his winning ways tonight, taking the first flight in 1:51.1. Verdun led after he blasted out from post 4, but he'd give way to sit in the pocket behind 2-5 favorite Desperate Man (Kakaley) coming to the :27.1 quarter.

From there, Desperate Man reached the half in 56 seconds and the three-quarters in 1:24, but Lachance swung Verdun off the pylons on the final bend, and after a brief battle, he'd go by Desperate Man. Verdun opened up to the wire after that, defeating Aardies Flash N (Bartlett) by 2¼ lengths as Desperate Man faded to third.

Trained by Lachance for owner Tom Ceraso, Jr. Verdun, a 5-year-old Bettors Delight stallion, posted the 24th victory in his career, has banked $501,209 and returned $7 to win as the 5-2 second choice. He led a $20.60 exacta and a $25.80 trifecta.

The MGM Borgata Pacing Series prelims run through Monday (April 28), with the $200,000 (added) final and $100,000 (guaranteed) consolation on Friday (May 9) where they will be joined by the $200,000 (added) final and $100,000 (guaranteed) consolation of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Pacing Series.

MORE SERIES ACTION: The penultimate leg of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series will occur tonight and will have three $50,000 divisions. Aardie B Miki N, who is three-for-three in the Matchmaker so far, is taking the week off, giving mares who have been chasing her a chance at valuable points towards the May 9 final.

PICK 5 GUARANTEED POOL BOOSTED ON MONDAYS AND FRIDAYS: Continuing for every Monday and Friday card during the legs of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series and Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, MGM Yonkers Raceway, in conjunction with the SOA of NY, will offer a $20,000 guaranteed Pick 5 pool in race 5.

The guaranteed Pick 5 pool on Mondays is also a part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

Kirk Breed, Sire Stakes at Cal Expo

Overthemoonforyou, a winner of 12 of 13 starts at the meet, and arch-rivals Graceful Horizon and Divine Art headline tonight's (April 18) co-features at Cal Expo.

Overthemoonforyou has top billing in the $20,000 California Sire Stakes for the 4-year-old pacing mares while Graceful Horizon and Divine Art loom the major players in the $12,500 Kirk Breed for pacing distaffers.

An 11-race program is on tap with first post set for 6:45 p.m. with the Kirk Breed occupying the sixth race slot while the Sire Stakes follows as the seventh event on the evening.

Overthemoonforyou is having a sensational season for owner Qks Racing, trainer Quentin Schneider and pilot Aaron Lehmann and is seeking a sweep of the Sire Stakes for the division.

Meanwhile, Graceful Horizon comes into the Breed having won six of her 11 starts on the season for Set The Pacing Racing LLC and driver/trainer Nick Roland. After having to settle for minor awards behind Divine Art in four straight outings between March 8 and April 5, she got her revenge in last week's distaff open.

Graceful Horizon motored right to the front in that affair, was nicely rated by Roland and held safe by three-quarters-of-a-length over Divine Art.

The latter is a 6-year-old daughter of Outrageous Art who is owned, trained and driven by Gerry Longo and is looking for her 41st snapshot from 107 lifetime appearances.

She rattled off four straight impressive victories coming into last week's open, including wins in the Rod Knittel and Alan Kirschenbaum, that had the pace dynamics working against her in that last tour and went a big mile to complete the exacta.

CHANGE OF TACTICS FOR OFFICER JIM: After three straight appearances where he motored right to the front, including a victory two starts back, some of Officer Jim's backers last week may have been surprised when driver James Kennedy took the pacer back to next-to-last off the gate.

The plan worked out to perfection, however, as Officer Jim was able to follow the live cover of favored Unfiltered and motored home when it counted to post the 9-1 upset in a solid 1:53.3 mile.

It was the 38th lifetime score from 110 starts for the son of American Ideal who carries the banner of Debra McCarthy and hails from the Gordie Graham barn.

"What a great horse to be around," Graham said after the victory. "I totally enjoyed watching him win from off the pace.

"After seeing him get butchered the week before... in the open, I didn't want to see him go down the road again. James ducked and the plan was to be pulled up into contention."

Things crystalized when Unfiltered came out and Officer Jim was able to draft behind that foe until straightening for home.

"When James showed him the whip, he absolutely exploded," Graham said.

Canadian Graduate Series opens

Stakes action is set to ramp up tonight at Woodbine Mohawk Park for the opening leg of the Canadian Sired Graduate Series.

Canadian sired 4-year-olds will square off in the Canadian Graduate, which consists of two preliminary legs and an added money final.

This week's opening leg will feature $25,000 divisions in the Trot and Mare Pace categories. The Open Pace event did not fill and will now skip to leg 2 on Saturday (April 26).

The Canadian Graduate Mare Pace will see a field of five clash in tonight's second-race. All five starters have earned between $158,000 and $218,000 in their racing careers.

Coco Jo Jo (post 5, James MacDonald) is entering off a fourth-place finish in the fillies and mares preferred on April 4. The Tony Beaton trainee is one for three this season and has multiple top-three finishes in Grand Circuit events.

Sorcha Seelster (post 4, Bob McClure) has also raced in the mares preferred this season. The John Pentland student most recently finished third in an overnight event last Friday at Mohawk. The daughter of All Bets Off made over $147,000 last season.

The highest earner in the field is Collusion Hanover (post 2, Tyler Jones) at $218,089. The Luc Blais trainee made the Breeders Crown final to cap off her 2024 season and was beat just less than two lengths in her season debut last Friday.

One More Bet (post 1, J.R. Plante) for trainer Jean Tourigny and Resilience (post 3, Louis-Philippe Roy) for trainer Eric Nadeau complete the field for tonight's opening leg.

The top-two finishers from last year's Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final are set to make their season debuts in tonight's first leg of the Canadian Graduate for trotters.

Paquet (post 3, Jody Jamieson) captured the OSS Super Final by over four-lengths last October as part of a 3-year-old season that saw him post four wins and earn over $344,000 in eight starts. The Carl Jamieson trainee tuned up for his season debut with a pair of qualifiers at Mohawk.

What About Elmo (post 5, Tyler Jones) ships north for trainer Paul Reid after two qualifiers at Spring Garden Ranch in Florida. The son of Il Sogno Dream was an OSS Gold winner last September and finished off a $175,000-earning season with a second in the Super Final.

The field of six for the Canadian Graduate Trot opener, scheduled as race 10 on tonight's card, is completed by Grambling Hall (post 1, Tyler Borth), R Peaky Blinders (post 2, Louis-Philippe Roy), Hungry Hill (post 4, J.R. Plante) and Mrstery Deal (post 6, Todd Ratchford).

Following this week's first leg, the Canadian Graduate Series continues with the second leg for the Trot and Mare Pace on April 25 and the Open Pace on April 26.

Tonight's card also features a $36,000 fillies and mares pace (race 9).

Post time tonight is 6:35 p.m.

Monthly handicapping contest a great play at Big M

The Meadowlands is always looking for ways to get people to come to the track, and it has something grand to do just that. Make that 10 grand.

For patrons who enjoy the on-track experience, The Big M is providing a competition that not only provides a challenge, but plenty of prize money as well.

And for those who do well during the course of the 2025 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest, a huge pot of gold awaits at the end of the rainbow.

This Saturday (April 19) will mark the fourth of 10 installments of the contest, each of which offers $1,000 in prize money, which is divided up among the top four finishers.

The top two finishers from each of the 10 monthly tournaments get to return for an invitation-only end-of-the-year competition where $10,000 will be up for grabs for just 20 outstanding players on Dec. 13.

Sean Loeb, a 34-year-old track regular and horse owner, who was the winner of the March qualifier, sees many good things in the competition.

"The unique format of this contest is what I think is appealing," said Loeb. "Because whether you are a typical win and place bettor or someone like me, who prefers betting Daily Doubles, Pick-3s, Pick-4s, Pick-5s, this format allows you to play to your strengths. It doesn't box you into mandatory bets."

The contest doesn't have a big buy-in. In fact, there is no entry fee at all. There is a $100 live money bankroll required for those who wish to participate, and players must register/check in at the Clubhouse Lobby by 6:20 p.m.

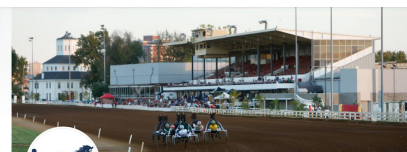

"I think the bankroll not being so large means you have to be tactical about how you play," said Loeb. "For instance, when I won, I wanted to bet a lot of my money on a chalky Early Double and try to build a lead and I thought there were favorites later on the card I could come back to and make a big win bet if I needed to."

"I think the idea that The Meadowlands came up with of having these "feeder" contests every month is fun because now I have something to look forward to and it also allows me to play and get another seat, or, if I lost earlier in the year, I know another opportunity is coming. Having [a chance at] that big [prize] pool at the end of the year is the goal."

The contest offers something that the once-a-week or once-a-month visitor to the races may not realize. The $100 betting card is the patron's own money that they keep at the end of the night. So, entering the contest is something that they should be doing no matter what.

"It almost makes no sense to not give the contest a try," said Loeb. "Sometimes, in this contest, you have to turn $100 into $300, $400, $500, or $600, which people can do, and because you won the contest [that night], you are now looking at a $10,000 final. If you are going to the track with $100, there's really no downside to giving the contest a try, all it takes is having a good night at the track and you could be in the final."

Contest format:

- Contestants must be on-site to participate
- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races
- There is no minimum or maximum bet per race
- Contestants can play any wager(s) on The Meadowlands live wagering menu
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings
- Contestants can enter as many times as they wish

Remaining contest schedule:

- Friday (May 16)
- Friday (June 20)
- Friday (July 18)
- Saturday (Aug. 30)
- Saturday (Oct. 25)
- Friday (Nov. 21)

Players that have already qualified for the December contest are Nick Montemurro and Gary Scogna (the top two finishers from January); Michael Grasso and Montemurro (February); and Loeb and Joe Barre (March).

Complete contest rules and regulations can be found here.

To participate, players must be 18-years-of-age or older to wager on racing. If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, please get help at 1-800-GAMBLER.

SET YOUR ALARM: Saturday (April 19) morning qualifiers will once again have some big names spread throughout the 12 races, featuring the first appearance of the season of the 2024 Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year.

The Chris Ryder-trained Miki And Minnie, who finished off her $834,086 season a year ago with victories in the Breeders Crown and Three Diamonds, will depart from post 5 in the seventh qualifier with Dexter Dunn in the sulky.

Other notables qualifying:

- First race – Asteroid, Sir Pinocchio, Cool Papa Bell
- Sixth race – El Rey, Captain Luke, Spring Inhis Step A, Bythemissal
- Eighth race – Swingtown, Papi's Rocket
- Ninth race – Sippinonsearoc

The qualifiers, which begin at 9 a.m., can be seen live on The Meadowlands website (playmeadowlands.com) or rtn.tv (Racing Television Network). To see the entries, go here.

A LOT OF LITTLE: On Friday (April 4), Big M TV veteran Dave Little tabbed six winners on the program.

One week later, he did one better.

Little tabbed seven winners last Friday (April 11), including five in a row spanning races 5 through 10, which included the Early 50-cent Pick-4, which paid $24.60.

In addition, Little had the Exacta in the fourth and 10th races and ended his night with Almost Karen, who took the 14th-race finale and returned $7.60 to win.

ACTION BIG, TAKEOUT SMALL: Every night, The Meadowlands offers a marvelous menu of popular wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

They are:

- 20-cent Pick-5: Races 1-5
- 20-cent Survivor Pick-7: Races 3-9 (mandatory payout nightly)
- 50-cent Pick-4: Races 6-9 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- 20-cent Pick-6: Races 8-13
- 50-cent Pick 4: Races 10-13 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- 10-cent non-jackpot Pentafecta (Hi-5): Race 14

Sophomores set to start 2025 at Pocono

Three 3-year-olds, all well-pedigreed but all maidens at 2, may show more sign of their bloodlines at 3 if wins during Wednesday morning (April 16) qualifiers at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania are any indication.

The Cantab Hall colt Hatfield, a full brother to the $1.8-million winner T C I, moved to the lead down the backstretch and went on to win in 1:57.3. Driver Jason Bartlett was successful three times during the morning session, and the trotter was one of two winning teamings of Bartlett and trainer Andrew Harris.

The other Bartlett / Harris success came with the filly Treacheryinthedark, a daughter of Captaintreacherous and a three-quarter sister to the million-dollar winner Seven Colors. Treacheryinthedark gained through most of the last half and stepped her last quarter in :28.1 in posting a 1:56.2 victory.

Fastest of all the sophomores on the day was the Always B Miki gelding Lifblood, whose second dam produced American Jewel ($1.8M+) and Luck Bewith You ($1.4M+). Lifblood put out a back half of :56.3 to triumph in 1:54.3 for driver Braxten Boyd and trainer Hunter Oakes.

The Sweet Lou gelding No Trespassing was not a maiden entering the day – he took a mark of 1:51.1 winning a Simpson Stake here last year. He just missed tying the fastest 3-year-old clocking by a tick, producing :27.4 final quarter speed in winning for driver Scott Zeron and trainer Deborah Daguet.

Fastest of all the winners in the morning set was the veteran Always A Virgin gelding Virgo, who came home in :54.3 to win in 1:53 to give Hunter Oakes another success on the day and complete Bartlett's triple.

The Pocono qualifiers can be viewed at www.phha.org.

Rankins open their stable doors for annual standardbred horse farm Open House

Standardbred breeders Beth and Tom Rankin are inviting the community to experience the magic and beauty of horses at their standardbred breeding farm's annual Open House on Saturday (May 31), from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Now in its third year, the event proudly supports two youth-focused contests organized by the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance (BGRA) – the Youth Literary Derby and the Youth Art Derby, which are sponsored by the Rankins. The Literary Derby is open to students in Grades 3-8, while the Art Derby welcomes participants from Grades 3-12. Aspiring young artists and writers looking for inspiration will find plenty of it among the mares and foals at the Rankins' farm. Full contest details and rules are available at bgracingalliance.ca.

Guests will have the opportunity to meet the Rankins' 10 broodmares and their new foals, watch them play in the paddocks, and capture photos of these future racehorses in their earliest days. Over the past two years, more than 500 visitors have enjoyed this behind-the-scenes look at standardbred breeding.

"We love sharing our passion for horses with young people," said Tom Rankin. "Seeing their faces light up when they meet a foal for the first time is really special. Many of them have never been this close to a horse before, and it's a great opportunity to introduce them to these amazing animals and the sport of harness racing. We were thrilled with last year's turnout despite the inclement weather. Many visitors told us they often drive past the farm and wondered about the horses, so this event gave them a chance to learn more about the breed."

Adding to the fun, the Rankins will also be holding a "Name the Foal" contest. Anyone who suggests a name that the Rankins choose for one of their foals will receive a $100 cash prize.

The Rankins have been breeding standardbreds since 1990, producing more than 300 foals over the past 35 years at their St. Paul St. West farm. Families and horse lovers are invited to visit the farm at 1490 St. Paul St. West, St. Catharines, ON, on Saturday (May 31), from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Those planning to attend are asked to register by May 28 by calling Rankin Construction at 905-684-1111 during business hours (Monday to Friday).
