Who ya gonna call? Larry Fox

The full-time lawyer loves being a part-time race caller.

To commemorate his 60th birthday, Larry Fox will be calling the fifth race at The Meadowlands on Saturday (April 27).

Fox has never called a Big M pari-mutuel race, but since the fall of 2023, he's been announcing the track's qualifiers.

"I'm like a kid in a candy store," Fox said. "Maybe it will be on my bucket list one day to call a race at every harness track. That would be kind of cool.

"I've called [pari-mutuel races at] Tioga, Pompano, [four full cards at] Freehold, and now I get to call one [race] at The Meadowlands, so we'll see where it takes me. I'm having fun."

Fox, whose birthday is Sunday (April 28), is a lawyer and president of Shark Sports Management, a multi-faceted sports agency that represents professional athletes (mostly football and basketball players). He's also the personal attorney for Shark Tank's Daymond John and general counsel for John's company, The Shark Group.

On Saturday, Fox will announce 18 qualifiers starting at 9 a.m. before getting to the main attraction and his Big M pari-mutuel debut in race 5, which won't go off until after 7 p.m. He's slated to call a Meadowlands Amateur Driving Club race, so ironically, an amateur is calling amateurs.

“I’ve been announcing races in the shower and on car rides just for fun, since I was a little boy. My dad owned a couple of horses. I used to go down and feed them. I love horses more than I love people, probably.”

~ Larry Fox

“I’m a very busy person, but my passion and love is horses,” Fox said. “I own horses, but I’m a lawyer by trade. I mean, in a slow week I probably work 70 hours.”

Fox grew up in New York in Massapequa on Long Island’s South Shore and remembers spending weekends at Roosevelt Raceway.

“I’ve been announcing races in the shower and on car rides just for fun, since I was a little boy,” Fox said. “My dad owned a couple of horses. I used to go down and feed them. I love horses more than I love people, probably.”

Growing up, Fox idolized announcers Jack E. Lee (Roosevelt) and Bob Meyer (Yonkers Raceway), and even though he’s owned horses over the years, it wasn’t until more recently that harness racing has become his second calling.

“I used to play a lot of [sports], but just over the last 10 years [harness racing] has become even a more passionate hobby,” he said.

To celebrate his 50th birthday in 2014, Fox attended the United States Trotting Association’s (USTA) Driving School and the following year, he did a race calling workshop at Goshen Historic Track with the legendary Tom Durkin.

Part of Fox’s race call was featured on the USTA’s weekly news magazine Morning Line here (starting at 5:11).

“I appeared in the video and they were like, aspiring horse racing announcer, not that I was aspiring, I was just doing it for fun,” Fox said.

Fox also took Hall of Famer Ken Warkentin’s Announcers’ Workshop at The Big M a couple of times in the last few years before deciding to ask Meadowlands chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir if he could call their qualifiers.

Settlemoir, a graduate of Ohio State University, is also a race caller.

“Larry has been great to work with and he certainly loves harness racing and The Meadowlands,” Settlemoir said. “Larry emails me just about every week requesting permission to announce the qualifiers. It's nice to have people like Larry who not only loves the sport but also loves announcing; my favorite pastime. Response has been overwhelmingly positive to having him announce the qualifiers.

"My motto in life is, 'Pay it forward.' Woody Hayes instilled that motto in the Ohio State athletic program while he was head football coach at OSU. I have read a lot about Woody Hayes and that motto over the years and I truly believe in the saying. If it wasn't for so many people giving me a chance, I wouldn't be where I am today, so paying it forward is very important to me."

Don't think just because Fox considers calling races fun, that he doesn't take it seriously.

"I put a lot of work into the qualifying fields at The Meadowlands," Fox said. "I probably study when I'm doing a card [of qualifiers] and do at least two to two-and-a-half hours of research. I go through every horse and I write a note or two, like this horse has a 1:48.2 mark. If it's a stakes horse, like Abuckabett Hanover [who qualified last week], I'll go to the Internet and remind myself if this horse was in the Meadowlands Pace or in the Hambletonian as a 3-year-old."

Fox also mentions yearling sale prices and other tidbits in his calls because unlike a pari-mutuel race, qualifiers tend to have very little in the way of action, so he tries to make it more entertaining for his listeners.

Although he is having a great time calling races, and already has two upcoming gigs at Freehold next month, Fox is quick to point out that he is not looking to quit his day job.

The NBA gives out a yearly award to the best sixth man in the league, the first guy off the bench who makes a big contribution. Maybe harness racing should have a similar award and give it to Fox, who is a super-sub when it comes to race calling.

"This is my hobby," Fox said. "I tell people I'm not here to step on anyone's toes. I'm not here to take any work away from a young Edison Hatter or anyone that wants to do this for a living."

"But if you're ever stuck and you need somebody, I'm happy to come down and call the race."

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Melissa Keith: From the press box to the race caller's booth

by Matthew Lomon

(Editor's note: This is the first in a regular column covering the Ontario scene beyond the Woodbine Mohawk Park circuit. Interestingly enough, the first subject is HRU's View from Woodbine Mohawk Park columnist Melissa Keith, who continues on in that role but is featured here for a different reason)

It's not a stretch to say Melissa Keith will call it as she sees it.

The new voice of Rideau Carleton, who made history recently by becoming harness racing's first full-time female race caller, harkened back to a time when the thought of a woman calling a race was, well, laughable.

"There was a night when there were two women at two different tracks in North America who were going to quote-unquote, call a race, but neither of them did," Keith said. "It turned out that it was a lot of laughing and it didn't end up being a race call. I don't mean any disrespect to them, but it was being presented in a way that was almost like it was a joke or a novelty.

"It wasn't anything against them, but this isn't something laughable. Why can't a woman call a race? It's not rocket science, but then again, if you look at rocket science, there have been plenty of women scientists in that field too."

While it doesn't appear a trip to Mercury is on the horizon for the Lower Sackville, NS native, at least for now, Keith's latest stop on the Canadian harness circuit is a familiar one. Prior to signing on as Rideau's primary announcer, Keith served as a handicapper at the Ottawa area track for nearly half a decade; a role she will maintain alongside announcing duties.

Keith has called at Rideau once before, but the three-time John Hervey Award recipient suspects that her handicapping background is what appealed most to Rideau brass.

"I think that handicapping experience is why they took me on" Keith said. "It wasn't about, 'Let's hire a woman and surprise people.' Management said, 'You know these horses, these trainers, these drivers, and it makes sense to have someone with that level of acquaintance with this track.'"

So far, that connection has helped ease the transition for Keith, who expressed gratitude for all the support she's received from friendly faces around Rideau and its operator Hard Rock.

One of those faces, John MacMillan, is Rideau royalty. The five-eighths-mile track's long-time announcer recently stepped down from the position due to personal reasons, but that hasn't stopped the versatile horseman from remaining an integral part of Rideau's identity.

MacMillan's presence has also been a boon for Keith, assisting her with everything from race-calling tips to quite literally getting her in the door.

“ [Ken Warkentin] tuned into Rideau Carleton opening night and sent me a note: ‘Melissa, watched a couple of replays. Bright, superb, fantastic. This is something you were born to do. You’re extremely pleasant to listen to, we’d like you to relax, take a breath, and have more fun with it. That will come in time, as you get more comfortable. It’s all about control. You have the tools to knock this out of the park. Keep ‘er going, Ken.’ ”

~ Melissa Keith

“John McMillan has been very helpful, right down to the first time I went up to the booth on my own,” Keith said. “I was going up early and the judges weren’t there, no one else was there, and I didn’t know the passcode, so I had to text John to get it. He answered right away.

“It was nice to see him win with his horse [Donatover] last weekend [April 13] at Mohawk and be out there in the winner’s circle.”

No stranger to Rideau or race calling, Keith’s experience on the microphone extends to racetracks around North America, including The Raceway at the Western Fair District, Truro, Clinton and Pompano Park.

Keith’s first-ever call came at Western Fair on May 1, 2018. She returned to London’s half-mile track on Oct. 14, 2022, to call six races as part of the OLG Ontario Women’s Driving Championships.

However, it was the time she spent in Alberta, albeit during an up-and-down 2018 season, that helped set the stage for an eventual career in the announcer’s booth.

Keith’s first go-around the Alberta circuit with Lacombe County’s Track on 2 was cut short due to poor weather and cancellations. The unfortunate circumstances didn’t faze the harness racing aficionado, who ended up calling a card at the now-defunct Northlands Park in Edmonton later that season.

At that time, the multi-talented Keith was the first and only North American woman to call an entire harness racing meet.

Six years have passed since then, and Keith is no longer a rookie on the headset. The two-time O’Brien Media Excellence Award winner recognized some of the sport’s finest in Truro Raceway GM Steve Fitzsimmons and Western Fair’s Sugar Doyle for being her biggest champions through it all.

The former gave Keith her first opportunity as an on-air racing analyst in 2023, while the latter has endured as an invaluable figure in her development as a race caller.

Also on the list of Keith’s all-star backers is Ken Warkentin of The Meadowlands. The voice of East Rutherford, NJ harness racing sent Keith an encouraging message after her first call as Rideau’s full-time announcer on March 24.

“He tuned into Rideau Carleton opening night and sent me a note: ‘Melissa, watched a couple of replays. Bright, superb, fantastic. This is something you were born to do. You’re extremely pleasant to listen to, we’d like you to relax, take a breath, and have more fun with it. That will come in time, as you get more comfortable. It’s all about control. You have the tools to knock this out of the park. Keep ‘er going, Ken.’ ”

Warkentin’s kind words clearly resonated with Keith.

“That was the nicest thing from someone of his stature to be so encouraging like that for no reason... for him to reach out with that it was very motivational and a good thing to see from someone like him,” Keith said.

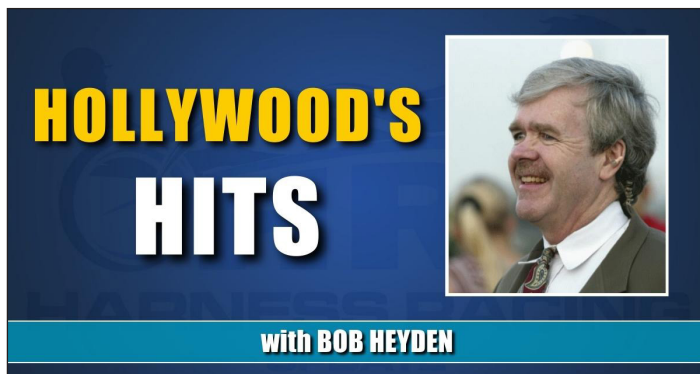

As she embarks on her latest venture, the life-long harness racing fan turned expert checks every box.

“I am a harness racing person,” Keith said frankly. “It’s not that I’m coming in from thoroughbreds or wanting to do thoroughbreds, I don’t. I don’t have that background, it’s not my experience, and I wouldn’t be qualified for it.

“This is a different sport, and I grew up in it. I’ve been around it forever and heard some of the best race callers, and some of them have been very kind to me. Nobody’s tried to put any block in my way, saying this is something you shouldn’t do.”

For all the advice she’s received in the past few weeks, there’s one piece that Keith says cannot be overlooked: invest in a good pair of binoculars.

Gallo Blue Chip is going strong at 27

by Bob Heyden

This should be written nine years from now, when Gallo Blue Chip will be 36 and the oldest living Horse of the Year ever.

“Whatever the record is, he will break it,” said trainer/co-owner Mark Ford.

Gallo is now 27.

Stenographer, the 1954 HOY, who lived to be 35 and passed in 1985, is the current record holder.

Either way, Gallo Blue Chip is currently the oldest living standardbred Horse of the Year.

At 3, the 2000 HOY set the earnings record of $2,428,816 and he retired in 2005 as the richest pacer ever with $4,260,959.

He held that honor for 11 years (2001-12) until the current king Foiled Again took over and sits atop the hill at $7.6 million.

Most importantly, how is Gallo doing today, right now?

“It’s almost like he’s still racing,” Ford said. “He looks fantastic, comes in every night and gets a blanket. He’s got buddies, yes. He’s maintained his weight. He’s always carried good flesh. You would never know it’s been 24 years since he was Horse of the Year.”

Here’s a refresher for those new to the name Gallo Blue Chip.

- He was bred by the Dan Gernatt Farms and foaled at Blue Chip Farms on April 29, 1997.
- He sold for $50,000 at Harrisburg in 1998.
- He’s a (second crop) son of Magical Mike, a winner of the Woodrow Wilson, Jug and sophomore Breeders Crown.
- He’s out of Camatross, a daughter of two-time HOY Albatross.
- He raced for Chris Oakes his first start and then was sold for $100,000 to Marty Scharf. (With Mark Ford as a co-owner).

Ford remembers the moment they bought him.

“I left the room thinking I just made the worst decision ever,”

Ford said. “A 2-year-old Magical Mike gelding and they weren’t going back then for a lot. It didn’t make a lot of sense.”

It started to soon after though as Gallo ran the table after winning his first for Oakes ending his freshman year eight-for-eight with $151,355.

At 3, he helped usher in the new millennium in style-capturing 19 of 29 starts with five seconds and one third, good for a grand total and new single season standard of $2,428,716, a record only topped once since, by Somebeachsomewhere in 2008.

How was Gallo after that Magical season?

“He won over a million at 4 and became the richest pacer ever,” Ford said. “We retired him at 8 in 2005 and he’s been here [at Ford’s farm] ever since.”

What about those 29 starts in 2000?

“He had a grueling season,” Ford said. “We went everywhere. He wasn’t eligible to the Cane, Messenger or Adios. We supplemented to the Tattersalls and there were 14 in there. Most people were thinking he’d been softened up by the three heats in the Jug, but he actually got better.

“At that time, the check he got, $228,000, was the largest check ever cut in standardbred racing to any horse in the state of Kentucky.”

What about Dan Dube doing most of the driving?

“I remember in his final start at 3 in the Provincial Cup at Windsor, he’d just gone a huge mile to be second in the final and Dube said right after the race, ‘It’s going to be a very long time until you ever get another one like this,’” Ford said. “When I look back, not only did Gallo Blue Chip change a lot of lives, but I’m not 100 per cent sure he didn’t keep the entire operation going.”

How did Gallo change lives?

“Here’s one,” Ford said. “I can’t remember the girls name at the moment. Back in 2000, Steve Salerno was having a painting done and a fund-raiser for a little girl next door who had leukemia. They were hoping to raise $2,500. I told Steve, myself and Marty Scharf would buy the painting and match whatever they raised. They got to $20,000 and we matched it. They were unbelievably excited and happy. Every year she sends a Christmas card, to this day. That beautiful young lady is 27 or so thriving and living in Colorado.”

How important has Mark Krouse been throughout?

“Invaluable,” Ford said. “He runs the show. I met him Christmas 1991 and we’ve been together since. Everything goes through him.”

So, Gallo is living the good life, 15 minutes from where he was born. He’s 27 going on 4. He looks the part, not quite the cruise director at Ford’s Campbell Hall farm, but he’s close. For the better part of the first decade of the 21st century he was the reigning heavyweight champion. Hearing all this from Ford, I get the feeling that nobody has ever told Gallo that he has since relinquished that Crown. Nor should they.

NUMBERS

This year, 2024, marks the 25th anniversary of USHWA giving out its very first Lifetime Achievement Award, which went to John Bradley.

In 1991, the first Hambletonian winter book wagering started at the Stardust Race and Sports Book in Las Vegas. Super Pleasure was installed as the 4-1 fave. Eventual winner, Giant Victory’s name did not appear initially.

In 2001, Scarlet Knight made the trip from Sweden to take on/ take over the Hambletonian.

In 1952, Don Richards won his first race at Trotters Park in Gloucester, ME, with Kay B Braden. Now at 90 something, he’s still at it, working with horses every day and hoping for another Creatine.

In 2002, Andover Hall had his best day ever as the favorite in the Hambletonian and his worst day ever as he broke and finished last. In 2007, Donato Hanover and Adrian Chip, from his first crop went 1-2 in the Hambletonian while his daughter Danae won the Oaks.

It’s been 64 years since a female won two of the three pacing Triple Crown events. Countess Adios won two of the three richest races of the entire 3YO stakes calendar, the $152,786

“ [Gallo Blue Chip] had a grueling season [in 2000]. We went everywhere. He wasn’t eligible to the Cane, Messenger or Adios. We supplemented to the Tattersalls and there were 14 in there. Most people were thinking he’d been softened up by the three heats in the Jug, but he actually got better. At that time, the check he got, $228,000, was the largest check ever cut in standardbred racing to any horse in the state of Kentucky. ”

If you don’t mind going back 53 years, 1971 marked the qualifying debut of 2-year-old Strike Out. He qualified in 2:07 and raced at beat older on May 4 and June 1. There were no ill effects of this though as he captured the 1972 Jug.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Despite no ties to harness racing, Sarah Bruce is a natural

by Chris Lomon

Whether it is looking through the lens, in the race bike, around the barn, or on stage, Sarah Bruce has the standardbred version of the Midas touch.

For someone with no ties to harness racing, Bruce, born and raised in Nova Scotia, found a winning formula soon after she started her life in the sport over 15 years ago.

“I fell into it when I was older,” Bruce said. “I loved horses when I was growing up, but I didn’t even know this was a sport. Once I found it, I was hooked.”

In a completely foreign environment, Bruce hardly looked out of place in her first year as a groom.

She felt a kinship with the pacers and trotters under her care from day one, a bond that has grown deeper over the years.

Just Lovey, a daughter of Western Paradise—Love Actually, was one of the first horses Bruce felt a strong connection with.

The brown pacing mare, bred in Nova Scotia by Earle Schurman, would become a force in the claiming ranks at Truro Raceway.

“I lucked into her,” Bruce said. “A friend of mine owned her at the time and she was for sale at a pretty cheap price. I kept bugging my husband at the time to buy her, but he bought another one that didn’t work out. So, we sold that one and we ended up buying her.”

It turned out to be a wise investment.

“I paid $1,000 for her and she ended up making about $3,000 in the next couple months after she came to us,” Bruce said. “The next year, she took two new life marks. We had a mares’ pacing series here and she ended up beating some mares who were quite a bit better and more experienced. She ended up making about $8,000 for us, which is a nice number for a lower-level claimer.”

“She had chips in her ankle since she was a 2-year-old, but it ended up being too much and we wanted to make sure she was taken care of, so she is living on a 20-acre farm in Windsor now. I try to pop in once a year to see her — I also have another horse out there — but I check in on them and they are both doing well.”

“The horses deserve a good place to go after they finish racing, so I do my best to rehome them.”

Just Lovey was featured in the December 2018 edition of the I Love Canadian Harness Racing Fan Club’s Heart of Harness Racing Calendar.

“I love taking my camera out and getting pictures,” said Bruce. “I try to get pictures of the babies as they train down over the winter so that I can give them photos to the owners.”

And then there is Elm Grove Maddy.

The bay daughter of Stonebridge Terror—Elm Grove Dallas is another example of Bruce’s penchant for bringing out the best in a racehorse.

“We helped break her here,” Bruce said. “She was okay as a 2- and 3-year-old – she ended up breaking a pastern at 3 – and tried making it in Ontario, but it didn’t pan out.”

A return to Nova Scotia ended up being the winning formula for Elm Grove Maddy, who earned Most Improved Mare of the Year and Mare of the Year at the 2019 Truro Awards.

“We gave her some time off and then started training her back as a 4-year-old,” Bruce said. “She was training really well, so we thought we should scoop her up before other people took notice. We bought her for $6,300 and she ended up winning her first five races in a row and took her life mark that year.”

Originally a $4,750 purchase at the Atlantic Classic Sale in Prince Edward Island, the bay mare, who had 223 career starts, almost made the record books.

“She just missed getting the mare’s fastest mile at Truro,” Bruce said. “She was racing in the top class, and she was the only mare in against the boys. The mile went in [1]:54.1 and she got beat by half a head by Woodmere Ideal Art, who raced in the [2020] Gold Cup & Saucer.

“She was pretty special to me. My husband and I ended up splitting up at that point, so we sold her for $16,000. I didn’t want to sell her, but it was the only option at that time. She went on to do quite well in the U.S.”

Bruce has done quite well in her own right.

She is currently working in the barn of trainer George Rennison. The lifetime winner of 674 races (he has 288 driving victories) has enjoyed his two most prosperous campaigns, earnings-wise, in 2022 and 2023.

It has been the perfect fit for Bruce.

“Right near the end of COVID, George was looking for a full-time person and I was lucky enough to get it,” Bruce said. “He’s great to work for. We also have a lot of nice horses who are wonderful to work with.

“I get to do a little bit of jogging and a little bit of training. He’s easy to get along with and it’s a very happy environment. It’s more communal here, but right now, I am putting away around seven to eight horses a day. I usually jog six to seven a day.”

The most challenging part of Bruce’s day is when she jogs her last horse.

“I love it,” she said. “I could stay out there all day.”

Bruce feels very much the same way about the racetrack itself.

Just as she does when it comes to the racing industry in Nova Scotia.

“I love our track here in Truro,” she said. “There are great people, it’s a great facility, and it’s so enjoyable on race day. Everyone is smiling and in good cheer. We all support and cheer for one another. Most days are good days at the barn. We have lots of owners who like to stop in, which is great to see.

“I also like Inverness [racetrack] as well. The people are very down to earth and it’s such a great environment.”

The sport has taken notice of Bruce’s contributions on more than one occasion.

A few years ago, at the annual Truro awards ceremony, she was feted as Horsewoman of the Year. Recently, she received Groom of the Year honors for 2023.

Not bad for someone who at one point didn’t even know harness racing existed.

“I went to university for pre-veterinary, and I always wanted to follow an animal route, but I never knew how much I was going to enjoy harness racing,” she said. “It’s been 16 years since I came to Truro, and I just love it.”

Outside of the hectic pace of horse racing, Bruce and her boyfriend enjoy discovering new places in Nova Scotia.

They also have two dogs, one a Border Collie, and the other an Aussie Heeler, that keep them busy.

When it comes to her magic touch with the horses, Bruce isn’t quite sure where that came from.

She isn’t about to question it, though.

As long as it keeps on working, she’s happy to be along for the ride.

“It is something that just clicked, I guess,” Bruce said. “I have worked plenty of other jobs and nothing compares to this. It’s so enjoyable.”

Almost magical, perhaps.

Hellabalou defends Borgata title, Lit De Rose takes Matchmaker

by Yonkers Raceway media

Hellabalou joined a select list of horses to win the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final in back-to-back seasons by taking Monday night's (April 22) $457,000 championship in 1:50.2 after watching a duel for the lead between the two favorites and then pouncing on them past three-quarters. After scoring at odds of 47-1 last year, he delivered at 11-1 this time around.

Coming into the last division of the prelims a week ago, Hellabalou was on the outside looking in, but a second-place finish to Linedrive Hanover got Hellabalou the points he needed to secure the last spot in the final, and he certainly took advantage.

"I had to be second and two horses couldn't be the winner or something like that," said winning driver Yannick Gingras. "The Burke Brigade, they're on top of it. Mark Weaver does his math all the time, so they knew exactly what I had to get done. I think the race was pretty simple last week. I thought Linedrive Hanover was the best horse, and if we could sit on his back, we had a good chance to be second. It worked out that way."

In Monday's championship Hellabalou charged away from the gate from post 5 and made 4-5 favorite Linedrive Hanover, driven by Scott Zeron, work almost all of the :26.4 opening quarter to clear him. Right behind Linedrive Hanover was even-money second choice Desperate Man (Matt Kakaley), and when Desperate Man moved up to challenge in the second quarter, Zeron opted to leave Desperate Man on the outside, resulting in a wicked :53.1 half-mile clocking.

The battle between Desperate Man and Linedrive Hanover continued around the third turn and to the 1:21.1 three-quarters, but Gingras, seeing that Coaches Corner (Jason Bartlett) was making a two-wide advance from sixth, got the jump on him entering the far turn and fired Hellabalou three-wide. After Hellabalou was shown the clear racetrack, he worked his way by the spent leaders midway through the bend and then had plenty left to seal the deal, defeating Coaches Corner by 2 lengths. Desperate Man was game to the wire and held third despite the impossible trip, while Whats Stanley Got A (George Brennan) and Dunkin' (Tim Tetrick) completed the top five.

"He wasn't right at the beginning of the series," Gingras said. "I thought his third leg when he finished second to Dunkin' he was really, really good. I thought he was going in the right direction. Fourth leg, driver error, he was locked in and running over the top of horses. I figured I had the horse back. Last week I thought he was a weak second to Linedrive Hanover. I thought he should have been second, but he should have been a little bit better. I think things weren't 100 per cent for him last week, but all credit again to the Burke Brigade, they got him right and he was in tip-top shape tonight.

"I wasn't too, too pleased honestly when they were going at it. One part of me was like 'Okay, that's our chance to win,' but the other part of me was like 'It's going way too fast and I'm too close to the fire.' Hellabalou, he's got all the ability, but sometimes when you've got to ask him, he doesn't really like to do a little extra work. That's the tricky part with him. When I had to chase him at the three-eighths just to keep up with those two, I'm like 'I don't know if that's going to work out.' At the half I still wasn't sure, but once we came out of the third turn, he was kind of swelling up on me. He felt good, so I liked my chances then."

Ron Burke trains Hellabalou, a 6-year-old Sweet Lou—Magestic Blue Chip stallion bred by Andray Farm and Sergent Stables LLC, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Eric Good, Weaver Brusceci LLC. and Larry Karr. Hellabalou posted his 27th career victory, has now earned $1,324,455 and paid $25.60 to win. The exacta was worth $154.50 and the trifecta returned $505.00.

Lit De Rose and trainer/driver Pat Lachance had to do the work from first-over but proved best through the stretch drive and won the $276,200 Blue Chip Matchmaker Series final for older pacing mares on Monday night (April 22) at MGM Yonkers Raceway in 1:52.3.

The runner-up in the championship last year, Lit De Rose settled in the third spot from post 1 while Coachellabound N (driven by Yannick Gingras) and Mikala (George Brennan) looped around her. Mikala got to the top around Coachellabound N right at the :27.1 quarter and then backed down the half to :56 seconds while Lachance waited until late on the third turn to guide Lit De Rose off the pylons.

An advance on the rim carried Lit De Rose side-by-side with Mikala at the 1:24.1 three-quarters, and they continued to duel around the far turn as Coachellabound N waited room in the pocket and Tony's Mom (Jason Bartlett) and Dougs Babe A (Dexter Dunn) hoped to rally off Lit De Rose's cover. Lit De Rose had no intention of finishing anywhere but first, though, as she powered past Mikala for good in the lane and then kicked away late to tally by a length and three-quarters. Coachellabound N out-kicked Mikala to get second, followed by Tony's Mom and Dougs Babe A.

"She's very versatile, and she just wants to race," Lachance said. "She just does everything, just a real nice mare. It means a lot. She's 9, and she just keeps coming. She's so consistent; every week she shows up. She never throws a bad race, and I'm just super, super happy to have her.

"I didn't really want to be first-over. I would have rather been on the lead taking charge, but it worked out that way. I just wanted to make sure that they kept the fractions honest. She felt super down the backside. She rode up to Mikala, and I just sat on her. She did her job in the lane like she always does."

Lachance said we'll have plenty more chances to see Lit De Rose at Yonkers through 2024 as he plans on keeping her based locally.

"This is the place for her," he said. "Obviously, she'll get a week off and we'll just grind it out for the rest of the year. As long as she's healthy and sound, we'll just keep going."

A 9-year-old Leader Bayama—Intense mare, Lit De Rose was bred by owner Guy Corbeil. This was Lit De Rose's 51st career victory, she has now earned $1,156,107, and she paid $4.90 to win as the 7-5 favorite. She was atop a $14.20 exacta and a $112.00 trifecta.

"He had his daughters with him tonight and he's here, so it's a special moment for them," Lachance said about Corbeil. "They raised her and bred her at their farm, so it's very special."

In the $100,000 Borgata consolation race, Venturesome Arden N (Bartlett) scored from first-over in 1:52.1. Sumomentsomewhere A (Gingras) was the runner-up and Pleaseletmeknow (Kakaley) checked in the third spot.

A 5-year-old New Zealand-bred gelding by Captaintreacherous—Arden's Darling, Venturesome Arden N is owned by trainer Ricky Bucci. He has eight victories from 31 career starts, has banked $134,915 and returned $7.30 to win as the 5-2 second choice. The exacta kicked back $30.00 and the trifecta $95.50.

Jive Dancing A (19-1, Matt Kakaley) worked out a second-over trip after tucking in fifth from post 8 and charged to a 1:54.1 win in the $100,000 Matchmaker consolation race. Racine Bell (Bartlett), who cut panels of :27, :56.2, and 1:24.4 wound up second and Easy To Please (Jordan Stratton) came in third.

Tahnee Camilleri trains Jive Dancing A, a 10-year-old daughter of Rock N Roll Heaven—Dance Teacher, for owners Queen Of Hearts Stables and Lav Racing Stable Inc. She made her 44th appearance in the winner's circle, pushed her bankroll to $658,277 and returned $40.80 to win. The exacta was worth $165.50 and the trifecta kicked back $594.00.

Karl set to qualify at Big M

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Dan Patch Award winner Karl, the No. 1-ranked horse in Meadowlands announcer/analyst Ken Warkentin's Hambletonian Winter Book Top 10, will be among the stars making their first appearances of 2024 when The Meadowlands plays host to 18 qualifiers Saturday morning.

Two older male pacers with Dan Patch honors to their credit, Bythemissal and Allywag Hanover, also will be stepping out for the first time as will older male trotter Venerate (also a past Dan Patch Award recipient), millionaire female pacer Twin B Joe Fresh, Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Pace champ Gem Quality, and Three Diamonds winner Caviart Belle.

Karl won nine of 10 races last year, with his setback coming by a nose to T C I, and earned $1.04 million. His earnings ranked second in history for a 2-year-old male trotter, behind only T C I, who banked $1.23 million last season. His victories included the Breeders Crown, Valley Victory, Kindergarten Classic Series final, and Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series final.

His mark of 1:51.2 was the second fastest in history for a 2-year-old male trotter and he captured the Breeders Crown in a stakes- and track-record 1:51.4 at Harrah's Hoosier Park. He also won the Valley Victory with a stakes-record 1:52.1 performance.

"He had a good winter," said Nancy Takter, who trains and co-owns Karl with her mother Christina, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden. "He's special. No matter what you do with him, he wants to please you, and he's very smart. I think that is what sets him aside and makes him a little different. He's smarter than a lot of horses I've been around.

"I think he knows he's special. He just has that aura around him."

Takter will send out seven other horses in the qualifiers, including Caviart Belle. The daughter of Captaintreacherous—Eloquent Grace closed out her 2023 season with wins in the Three Diamonds and Kindergarten Classic Series final. She won a division of the Eternal Camnation in a stakes-record 1:50.1, erasing the mark of 1:50.2 established by Precocious Beauty in 2013, and earned $459,031 for the year.

Bythemissal won 11 of 16 races last season at age 4 and was named the sport's best older male pacer by the U.S. Harness Writers Association. The Ron Burke-trained son of Downbytheseaside—Dismissal earned just shy of $1 million last year and has banked $2.15 million lifetime.

Allywag Hanover, who was the Dan Patch Award winner for best older male pacer in 2021, counted the FanDuel Open Pace championship, Harrah's Hoosier Park Pacing Derby, and a division of the Sam McKee Memorial among his wins last year. Trained by Brett Pelling, the 7-year-old son of Captaintreacherous—Anderosa Hanover has earned $2.25 million in his career.

Venerate, a Dan Patch Award winner at age 2, won the Cutler Memorial last year for trainer Marcus Melander. The 6-year-old son of Love You—Peaceful Kemp has $1.11 million in career purses.

Trainer Chris Ryder will send out seven horses Saturday, including Twin B Joe Fresh and Gem Quality.

Twin B Joe Fresh won 11 of 17 races last season, when she capped her campaign by becoming the first 3-year-old filly to defeat older female pacers in the FanDuel Mares Pace championship. Other victories for the daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze included the Lynch Memorial, Matron, and Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series final. She has hit the board in 25 of 27 career starts, winning 19, and earned $1.44 million.

Gem Quality also ended his 2023 on a high note, taking the Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male pacers in a track-record 1:50 at Hoosier Park. The son of Captain Crunch—Twinkle earned $438,940 for the season.

Qualifiers begin at 9 a.m. Saturday at The Meadowlands. Visit the Big M website here for program pages for the qualifiers.

Thinker Monkey leads eight into Dexter Cup

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Eight horses were entered Wednesday (April 24) for the Dexter Cup, the first Grand Circuit event of the season for 3-year-old male trotters, making eliminations unnecessary Saturday at Freehold Raceway. All eight horses advance directly to the Dexter Cup final, which will go for a purse of $134,900 on May 4 at the half-mile track in central New Jersey.

Headlining the octet is Thinker Monkey, who was purchased for $500,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is a full brother to 2020 Trotter of the Year Gimpanzee. Thinker Monkey is the only Dexter Cup participant eligible to the $1 million Hambletonian Stakes on Aug. 3 at The Meadowlands.

The remaining seven horses are, in alphabetical order: Blackhawk Zette, Casanova Hall, Chaplind, Inflation, Jakey Jumpup, Sir Pinocchio, and Stockholm Hanover. The draw for the Dexter Cup will be May 1.

Thinker Monkey, a son of Chapter Seven—Steamy Windows, won the $100,000 consolation division of the New Jersey Classic last year. He hit the board four more times in his 12 starts, including in divisions of the Bluegrass Stakes and Kindergarten Classic Series, and earned $120,440.

The Marcus Melander-trained colt is owned by Judith Taylor, Daniel Plouffe, and breeder Order By Stable AB.

“He got a little tired at the end of the year; he had a long season and raced all over the place,” Melander said about Thinker Monkey, who competed in New York, New Jersey, Canada, Indiana, and Kentucky. “Of course you want to win more, but he was doing good work and had a good year overall.”

Thinker Monkey will make his sophomore debut in the Dexter. He will head to the race off a third-place finish in a qualifier this past Saturday at The Meadowlands, where he was timed in 1:56.2 with a :27.4 last quarter. Scott Zeron was in the sulky.

“He’s coming back good,” Melander said. “He grew a lot and filled out nicely. Hopefully this year he’s a little bit more mature and he’ll have another good season. He’s a good half-mile track horse, so I think he’ll do good at Freehold. We’ll start him in the Dexter and then probably go to New York after that. We’ll see where it takes us.”

Thinker Monkey’s brother Gimpanzee was a Dan Patch Award winner at ages 2 and 4 and three-time Breeders Crown champion (sharing the record with Mack Lobell for the most trophies for a male trotter). He made $2.7 million lifetime.

Iteration, Thinker Monkey’s full sister, also was a Grand Circuit winner and a two-time New York Sire Stakes champ.

“It’s always hard to compare the siblings,” Melander said. “[Thinker Monkey] is good gaited and will go around any size track, which both of them did as well. But there will be just one Gimpanzee. It’s always hard to live up to that.”

Thinker Monkey’s rivals in the Dexter will include last year’s New York Sire Stakes champion, Chaplind, who is trained and driven by Trond Smedshammer. The son of Chapter Seven—Lindys Head Nurse had two victories and a third in six races last season and banked $172,030 for owner Purple Haze Stables, making him the top money-earner in the Dexter Cup final.

Blackhawk Zette is 4-for-4 this year for trainer Robert Baggitt, Jr. and owner J L Sadowsky. The son of Cantab Hall—Zette Starlet, who had one win in four starts last year, has three victories this season in the Bobby Weiss Series at Mohegan Pennsylvania’s Pocono Downs. The $50,000 Weiss final is Monday (April 29).

Sir Pinocchio was a New York Excelsior Series champion last year after hitting the board three times in the preliminary rounds of the event. The son of Met’s Hall—Lady Cromwell is owned by breeder Carolyn Atherton.

Casanova Hall was a two-time winner in the Pennsylvania Stallion Series last year and finished second in the final. The son of Greenshoe—Caterina Hall also was second in the final of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series. He is owned by David McDuffee and trained by Nifty Norman.

Inflation, a son of Chapter Seven—Fraulein Blucher, won twice last year in the New York Sire Stakes Excelsior Series and finished second in a division of the Simpson Memorial. The Lucas Wallin trainee is owned by Shermy Stables, Mal & Janet Burroughs, and Wallin Racing Stable.

Jakey Jumpup, a son of E L Titan—Richesse Oblige S from the stable of trainer Todd Buter, won a Landmark Stakes last year for breeder/owner Kiefer Elite Bldstock. Stockholm Hanover, a son of International Moni—Summers Windsong trained by Karen Garland, won two conditioned races last season for owner George Bullukian.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.harnessracingupdate.com

William M. “Mark” Gilmour, 63, dies

Mark Gilmour of Orchard Park, NY, passed away on Friday (April 19) after a courageous battle with lung cancer.

Gilmour was a lifelong member of the harness racing community, having been born into it as the son of Hall of Fame driver and trainer Buddy Gilmour, grandson of Hall of Fame driver and trainer Levi Harner and nephew of five Gilmour uncles who also all trained and drove.

After getting his driver's license at age 18 in 1979, Mark would go on to drive for the next 28 years, posting 355 wins with just under $2 million in earnings while driving across the northeast United States and Canada. He had a career year in 1985 when he posted 51 wins and $302,000 in purses. He occasionally catch-drove for Billy Haughton at Saratoga Raceway and did pilot the open pacer Willow Napoleon (1:57.1, $341,147).

Mark is survived by his longtime partner Ann Pascarella, sisters Karen (Alan) Murphy and Lori Gilmour and cousin Dale Gilmour.

There are no visitations scheduled, however there will be a private service held in May. Mark will be laid to rest with his parents William “Bud” and Gwen Gilmour in Bloomsburg, PA.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a donation be made to the Standardbred Retirement Foundation or Roswell Park Comprehensive Cancer Center in Buffalo, NY.

Brock Schmaltz, 46, dies

Brock Christopher Schmaltz, 46, of Sunbury, OH, passed away unexpectedly April 19, 2024.

Schmaltz was a former USTA employee who served as the advertising director for Hoof Beats magazine. He was the son of longtime Columbus Dispatch turf writer and John Hervey award winner Brad Schmaltz.

Brock was born July 2, 1977, in Lima, OH, to his parents, Brad and Penny (Ewing). He attended Worthington Kilbourne High School and went on to Wittenberg University where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in political science. His time at Wittenberg set the stage for the rest of his personal and professional life. He held several positions throughout his life, and ultimately landed in the world of public relations, including owning his own company.

Brock leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Sidney, Audrey and Ellery; parents, Brad and Penny; brother, Ryan (Sarah) and their son Asher; aunt, Tamara Ewing; uncle, Mark (Kathy); cousins, Shane, Tess and Heather (Matt) Ulrey; and his beloved dog, Jekyll.

Brock, who was deeply profound and intelligent, was enthralled with history and the stories that all things had to tell of the ages in which they existed. His fascination with history led him to many afternoons tromping through fields with a metal detector, searching for lost relics of the past. He loved to extensively research his finds, especially old coins. He would always be amazed at the path items he found had taken from their inception to the moment he unearthed them. He enjoyed his camaraderie with others who metal detected and attended metal detecting conferences. His interest in all things historical eventually led him to become a member of the Sunbury Historical Society.

Ever contemplative and introspective, he loved to write. He was a very skilled writer. He maintained his own blog and was also hired as a ghost writer for several projects. He was prolific in his journaling and documentation of his life which have been left to tell the tale of his legacy. He was also an avid fisherman and enjoyed boating when he was able.

Of his many vested interests, one took precedence: Delaware County's own Little Brown Jug, the annual horse race that he never missed after his dad took him out of school to attend when he was a freshman in high school. The Jug was perhaps only a winner by a nose for him over his love of college basketball, particularly March Madness, for which he would travel with his dad, brother and friends to Las Vegas for the opening weekend of the tournament.

Beyond all else, he was most proud of and in love with his daughters. He made sure to include them in his interests and hobbies. He loved to watch Sidney ride horses. He was the father not only at all her events, but the father in charge of tack and her supplies. He would take Ellery metal detecting at the beach and anywhere else he felt treasure might await them. He loved to have Star Wars movie marathons with Audrey as well as watch crime shows with her. He would take all his daughters creaking, fishing and to the beach, particularly the Golden Isles in Georgia and Apalachicola, FL.

Brock loved southern culture and hospitality, and the slow cadence inherent in the southern lifestyle. He had the uncanny ability to make strangers feel like friends, and to make friends feel like family. He loved tradition, whether it was Christmas or the Kentucky Derby.

He was a brilliant and passionate person whose time with us was beautiful yet brief. He gave great thought to simple and forgotten items, devoted his time and love to his family, and expressed his thoughts and emotions comprehensively in his writing. Most surely, he left our lives far too soon, and in the moments where he should be, his absence will be palpable. Yet, he worked hard to create in the lives of his loved ones a history. It is a history he would want us to remember and cherish, just as he cherished the history he had in us.

Arrangements were made with Snyder Funeral Homes, DeVore Chapel. Friends may call Friday (April 26) from 2-4 p.m. at Grace Chapel Community Church (7798 Big Walnut Rd., Westerville, OH 43082). A celebration of life will follow visitation at 4 p.m. All are welcome to attend. Please dress as you would imagine Brock would have wanted you to as you celebrate his life.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Jekyll Island Foundation at jekyllislandfoundation.org or the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) Gift Fund, 6001 Executive Boulevard, Room 6229A, MSC 9655, Bethesda, MD 20892-9655.

Lexington Selected Fall Mixed sale returns

Lexington Selected Sales Co. announced Thursday (April 25) that its mixed sale has returned for 2024 and will be held Saturday (Oct. 5) at the Fasig-Tipton Newtown Paddocks.

The sale follows the company's annual Selected Yearling Sale, which wraps up Friday night, and comes on the eve of The Red Mile's 132nd Kentucky Futurity.

"The mixed sale is a logical extension of the yearling market, and all the domestic and international buyers in town always makes for an exciting venue and a great time to sell," said co-manager David Reid. "It further enhances what's come to be called 'The Lexington Experience.'"

Reid also mentioned that owners and trainers shouldn't overlook the fact that selling quality racehorses and race fillies in Lexington creates what he called "instant capital" to help cover the expense of yearlings that were purchased just days before.

The company's last mixed sale, held in 2022, posted a racehorse average of more than $35,000 that consisted of in-foal mares, racehorses, weanlings and stallion shares.

Co-manager Bruce Brinkerhoff agreed the sale's a natural fit. He noted the beautiful Fasig-Tipton facility is an ideal location for the event and the auction crew is already in place to accommodate an extra date, and that it's an easy "ship in and sell" for consignors.

Consignors may enter by calling the Lexington office at 859-255-8431 or the New York office at 914-773-7777.

Borth best in 2024 Ontario Regional Driving Championship

In his first Regional Driving Championship appearance, Tyler Borth showed he's a main event player with a victory in the 2024 Ontario Regional Driving Championship (ORDC) on Tuesday (April 23) at The Raceway at the Western Fair District in London, ON.

Borth's 71 points topped the standings, with James MacDonald (59) finishing second. Those two drivers advance to the 2024 National Driving Championship at Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivieres, QC, on Friday (July 5).

In his eight driving assignments on Tuesday, Borth won two and finished in the top pair five times. MacDonald (two) was the only other driver with multiple ORDC leg wins.

Borth's victories came in the third leg courtesy of 10-year-old veteran pacer Devils Peak (1:59.1; $8.70) and in the fifth leg aboard 9-year-old trotter Iam What I Am (1:59.2; $12.20). Despite leading the competition from the second ORDC leg onward, Borth did not drive a pari-mutuel favorite during the competition.

"Going into the last race, I didn't really know where the standings were at," Borth said after his ORDC victory. "A couple of people told me I had it all wrapped up, but I thought I had a good shot. I thought the race would set up the way it set up, and I figured if I got away in the 2-hole that I would finish second and then that would wrap it up."

Western Fair's Driver of the Year the past two seasons, Borth came into 2024 off his best year in the business with 414 victories and more than $4.3 million in earnings in 2023. The Ingersoll, ON, resident, a winner of the Future Star Award at the 2014 O'Brien Awards, has also made a dent in the driver standings at Woodbine Mohawk Park, where he currently sits fifth overall.

Heading into the 2024 ORDC, Borth ranked second in the nation in driving wins – just how he finished 2023 – with 114, while his $1.25 million in purses place him in third among Canadian drivers.

“I’ve gone so far in my career very fast lately, and it just seems to be going up and up for me,” said the modest horseman after his victory. “It’s surprising, you know? I never thought it would go as fast as it has.”

James MacDonald, voted the Keith Waples Driver of the Year as Canada’s top teamster for the past three seasons, is no stranger to these competitions having successfully represented Canada as the 2017 World Driving Champion.

“Everyone drives so hard and it’s always great to come out and be one of the ones to advance,” MacDonald said. “It’s a lot of luck and a lot of [having] the horses showing up to play for you that night. I’ve won these, I finished last in these so just to move on I’m really happy, and really happy for Tyler. He did a great job.”

Jeff Porchak / Standardbred Canada

Tachyon was the 1-5 favorite in the final flight as Gingras looked for the sweep, but he came up empty in the lane off panels of :28, :57 and 1:25.3, paving the way for 41-1 shot Crazy Brother Jim (Jim Marohn, Jr.) to rally off cover in the lane and prevail by a neck in 1:56.2. Ferretti (Matt Kakaley) was next, followed by Deadline Hall (Tyler Buter).

Rock Vinci owns and trains Crazy Brother Jim, a 3-year-old gelded son of Crazy Wow. He made his third appearance in the winner’s circle, has put away $38,990 and paid $85.00 to win. Crazy Brother Jim led a $1,170 exacta and a $13,122 trifecta.

The John Brennan Trotting Series concludes next Thursday (May 2) with a $78,000 final and $35,000 consolation. The John Brennan Trotting Series is named in honor of the longtime SOA of NY horsemen’s representative who passed away from complications of COVID-19 in March 2020. The series is for 3-year-olds and older who were non-winners of six pari-mutuel races or $200,000 through Feb. 1, 2024, with winners over $250,000 as of that date not eligible.

Warrawee Yang extends win streak in John Brennan Trotting Series

Warrawee Yang will be the only horse with a chance to sweep the 2024 edition of the John Brennan Trotting Series at MGM Yonkers Raceway as he took the first of three $25,000 divisions of the final preliminary round on Wednesday night (April 24).

Facing off against Royalty Beer (Pat Lachance), who was also two-for-two in the series coming in, Warrawee Yang cleared him for the top before the :28.1 opening quarter, backed down the tempo to :58.3 at the half and 1:27.4 at three-quarters, and sprinted home in :28.2 to defeat Royalty Beer by a length and a quarter in 1:56.1. Bontoni Degato S (George Brennan) collected third.

A 4-year-old son of Trixton, Warrawee Yang scored his seventh-straight victory overall for trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brusceci LLC. He is a 15-time winner overall, has pocketed $168,926 and paid $4.10 to win as the even-money second choice. The exacta was $5.60 and the trifecta kicked back $17.40.

Gingras and Burke also won the second split with Sea Can in 1:55.2. He made his way to the top from post 3, carved out fractions of :28.1, :58.1 and 1:26.3 and trotted a :28.4 final panel to tally by a length and three-quarters over By The Book (Jay Randall). Coventry Hall (Jason Bartlett) checked in third.

Also owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC. and Weaver Brusceci LLC., Sea Can is a 5-year-old Muscle Mass gelding. He has a summary of 12-11-3 from 49 trips behind the gate, has earned $206,149 and returned $3.60 to win as the 4-5 favorite. He was atop a $10.60 exacta and a $42.20 trifecta.

French Wine delivers on debut in Kentucky Sires Stakes

The millionaire French Wine worked out a pocket ride and prevailed on his seasonal bow in the second $50,000 division of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) for 4-year-old trotting horses and geldings on a stakes-packed Monday (April 22) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel.

Sent out as the odds-on favorite, French Wine powered to a brief lead after a :27.2 first quarter before yielding control to Ari Ferrari J (driven by Andy McCarthy). Ari Ferrari J carved out uncontested fractions of :57.1 and 1:25.4 before coming under siege into the homestretch. French Wine found room in the closing stages to angle from the pocket and dash to a neck victory over a fast-closing Djimon (David Miller). Ari Ferrari J settled for third and Prince Of Honor (Todd McCarthy) skimmed up the pylons for fourth.

Julie Miller trains French Wine, a 4-year-old stallion by Bar Hopping, for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Daniel Plouffe, Jean Plouffe and One Legend Stable Inc. He won his ninth race from 29 starts and has now banked $1,032,194 and paid $3.40 to win.

Sparks Fly (Atlee Bender) dazzled in the other division for trotting males with a 1:54.2 win. Bender found a second-over ride from 2-1 favorite Talent Scout (Todd McCarthy) after The Hazelton (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) rung up splits of :27 and :56.4. Talent Scout advanced along the rim up the backside but broke stride past three-quarters in 1:25.2, forcing Sparks Fly wide through the final turn. Despite the interference, Sparks Fly regathered momentum and motored to the lead in the stretch to post a three-quarter-length win over pocket-puller Buddy Earl (David Miller). Country Dagger (Andy McCarthy) rallied off a pylon trip for third and Over And Back (Emanuel Miller) grabbed fourth.

A gelding by Bar Hopping, Sparks Fly won his eighth race from 19 starts this season and has now earned $111,450 for owners Ervin Miller Stable Inc. and Douglas Overhiser. Erv Miller trains the $6.98 winner.

The pacing horses and geldings also sparred in a pair of $50,000 KYSS divisions. Admiral Hill (David Miller) opened the afternoon fulfilling a 1-2 promise with a 1:50.2 effort. Miller bided his time off the speed cut by Tip Top Cat (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) through fractions of :27 and :56 before making his move. He flushed Combustion (Todd McCarthy) first over to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and stayed steady through the final turn before bursting through the stretch with in a :26 final quarter to win under wraps by three-quarters-of-a-length. Tip Top Cat held second from For Once Inmy Life (Andy McCarthy) and Combustion faded to fourth.

Admiral Hill won his 11th race from 28 starts and has now banked $322,008. Per Engblom trains the Sweet Lou gelding for owner Morrison Racing Stables. He paid $3.10 to win.

Odds-on choice El Rey (David Miller) scored in the other division for pacing males with a first-over powerhouse effort to win in 1:51.1. Miller sat third with El Rey while Bamboozler (Tony Hall) led the field through opening fractions of :27.1 and :56.4. El Rey got his cue to go up the backside and began advancing after Bamboozler approaching three-quarters in 1:24.2. Upon straightening, El Rey slid to the lead with ease and pulled ahead to a half-length victory at the beam. Blue Lou (Todd McCarthy) slipped up the inside for second with Bamboozler finishing third and The Good Doctor (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) fourth.

Andrew Harris trains and co-owns El Rey, a 4-year-old stallion by Captaintreacherous, for owners William Pollock and Bruce Areman. El Rey won for the ninth time from 33 tries and has now earned $565,850. He paid $3.36 to win.

Mambacita (Marvin Luna) bagged the sole $50,000 dash for trotting mares with a 1:53.3 front-stepping effort. Though pocketed to the first quarter in :27.1, Luna circled Mambacita to the lead and kept chugging through first-over pressure coming from Canterbury Hanover (Tony Hall) past a :56.4 half and to three-quarters in 1:25. Mambacita accelerated in the stretch to a 2¼-length victory under minimal encouragement over Canterbury Hanover while Railee Something (Andy McCarthy) rallied mildly from a second-over trip for third and Picaboo Lady (Joey Putnam) took fourth.

A daughter of Tactical Landing, Mambacita has now won 12 times from 32 starts and earned $820,418 for owners Alagna Racing LLC, Crawford Farms Racing and Pryde Stables Inc. Tony Alagna trains the $3.52 winner.

Zanatta (Andy Miller) landed a mild upset in the single $50,000 KYSS division for pacing mares with a pocket-popping strike on 2-5 favorite Always B Naughty (Andy McCarthy) in 1:50.4. Always B Naughty grabbed the lead to a :27 first quarter and kept the fractions honest to a :55.3 half and three-quarters in 1:22.4. Zanatta though continued to follow in tow with interest and swelled into the straightaway waiting for room to race. Andy Miller angled Zanatta out of the pocket and took aim at Always B Naughty, collaring her rival by a neck at the finish. Keep My Secret (Tony Hall) persisted through a first-over move for third and Hungry For Love (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) travelled a second-over trip for fourth.

Jenn Bongiorno conditions Zanatta, a daughter of Stay Hungry, for owner One Legend Stable Inc. She won her seventh race from 32 starts and has now earned $642,572. She paid $12.84 to win.

Big M adds second Pick-5 to betting menu

Meadowlands management is never afraid to make changes when they think they're warranted. With the 20-cent Pick-8 not quite creating the level of expected excitement since its inception seven months ago, The Big M has decided to discontinue the wager while adding a second 20-cent Pick-5 to its popular low-takeout laundry list of multi-leg puzzles.

"The wagering public speaks every day and every night," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "They are the barometer for what works and what doesn't. The Pick-8, despite seeing a total pool of $150,000 earlier this meet, did not make the cut as we head toward the Championship Meet, which begins the first weekend of May. The Late Pick-5 will be another popular low-takeout wager, making our all-star wagering lineup even stronger.”

The Meadowlands will continue to have eight nightly wagers that offer a chance for players to make a big hit while betting into big pools that offer a low takeout of just 15 per cent.

The new lineup of those wagers:

- Races 1-5: Early 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 2-8: 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 (mandatory payout nightly)
- Races 4-9: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: Early 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 20-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: Late 20-cent Pick-5
- Races 10-13: Late 50-cent Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 11: 20-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5)

“The Meadowlands has always known that responding to the horseplayer and providing them big pools along with value has to be part of a successful business model,” said Settlemoir. “Stating that, the evolution of The Big M wagering menu through the years is nothing short of incredible. There was a time when there was only one trifecta on a program, and the daily double was the only multi-leg wager on the card. The evolution continues this Friday, as The Meadowlands will roll out a Late Pick-5 that starts on the eighth race every night.”

The numbers say that adding a Pick-5 is a good idea, as thus far during April, the six Pick-5s – one per race card for six race cards – have taken in a total of $447,426, an average of $74,571 per card.

Placing a Pick-5 later in the action will give bettors who join in wagering at The Meadowlands during the middle portion of the program an opportunity to participate in what’s a very popular bet at the mile oval.

“Just like the Early Pick-5, the new Late Pick-5 will have a 20-cent minimum and a 40-per cent takeout reduction from the past, down to 15 per cent,” said Settlemoir. “To accommodate our new arrival, the wagering menu will be shuffled, with the end result being one of the most exciting and low-takeout-oriented wagering menus in all of racing.”

Live racing takes place tonight (April 26) and Saturday (April 27) with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

HORSEPLAY GIVEAWAY: When you come to The Meadowlands, you could make a score at the windows. Starting on Friday (May 3), you can also walk away with a brand new 2024 Toyota Camry LE AWD by participating in the track’s HorsePlay Giveaway, which takes place every race day until Friday (Aug. 2).

“Own a Horse for a Day” promotion winner Barry Shrum wins first race

Woodstock resident Barry Shrum scored his first win ever as a harness horse owner – and trainer – Sunday (April 21) at Shenandoah Downs when his 12-year-old pacer Pacific Stride came three wide in the final turn, passed four front steppers and cruised home to a 4½-length win after being sent off at odds of 9-1. Fresh off a pair of third place finishes, driver Fern Paquet, Jr. directed the son of Art Major to his 20th lifetime victory in 1:56.3.

Barry is the second local “Own a Horse for a Day” contest winner to invest in ownership of an actual harness horse, and win! Barry’s friend Steve Wetzel, who often attended racing at the Shenandoah County Fair, won the same contest several years ago and is now a full-time harness horse owner, trainer and farm owner with a dozen head racing between the Woodstock oval and Rosecroft.

Fans will have one more chance to enter the Virginia Harness Horse Association’s popular “Own a Horse” promotion on Kentucky Derby weekend, May 4 and 5. Eight contestants selected will return a week later on May 11 and will each own a horse in a pre-selected race. They will receive a lunch voucher, get to meet their horse and connections in the paddock before the race, and keep the share of purse money their horse earns in a $5,250 race.

Shenandoah Downs offers free parking and free admission for on-track customers, and free TrackMaster past performance programs for all fans via its shenandoahdowns.com website. Free tip sheets from long time thoroughbred and harness handicapper Derby Bill Watson are available via the website as well. The Shenandoah simulcast signal is available to wager on via all major streaming platforms and at many tracks and OTBs around the country.

Passionate Promise Game Of Claims Series champion

The only mare in the field, Passionate Promise, showed the boys how to get the job done when she won the $35,000 Game Of Claims Trotting Series championship for $25,000 base-tag horses on Tuesday afternoon (April 23) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Even-money favorite Fight Song, coming off a sweep of his GOC Trot three prelims (including handing Passionate Promise her only loss in the competition), took control early from post 2, with Passionate Promise settling right in behind the chalk. She rode the 2-hole in early splits of :27.2 and :57.3, and maintained pocket positioning as Kinnder Thinktwice, the other three-for-three Weiss prelim contestant, moved uncovered to give the leader hard pressure to a 1:25 three-quarters and beyond.

Around the final turn Fight Song, trying to produce more, made a break and went to the infield, allowing Kinnder Thinktwice to clear to the top and also giving Passionate Promise room. Matt Kakaley snapped the Creatine distaff to the outside, caught the new leader with relative ease, then held off Vegas Ticket, who had raced third-in most of the mile, and his late charge by 1¼ lengths in a lifetime best 1:54.2, with Kinnder Thinktwice well ahead of the rest of the opposition in third.

Passionate Promise had won four straight races before the 4-year-old distaff was haltered for $39,875 two weeks ago, and she has already earned back $21,875 of that purchase price for Northfork Racing Stable and trainer Hunter Oakes.

Tuesday also saw four $20,000 divisions of the final preliminary of the Bobby Weiss Trotting Series for sophomore fillies, with horses looking to secure spots in the $50,000 championship in seven days' time.

Three of the double winners in the first two prelims took this week off; the one who didn't, the Tactical Landing filly Tactical Lori, made a sweep of the Weiss legs by winning in 1:56.2 for driver David Miller, trainer Nifty Norman, and owners Melvin Hartman and Enzed Racing Stable Inc. Tactical Lori made from mid-pack near the three-quarter pole and still won by 3½ lengths.

The Father Patrick filly Happy Chopper won her second Weiss prelim with a 1:57.1 tally despite the outside post in her cut, succeeding for trainer Mark Harder, co-owner with Dean Lockhart and Deena Rachel Frost. The sulky success was one of five on the day for 24-year-old driver Braxten Boyd, who is now fourth in the local standings, and the quintet included a winner trained by each of three members of Team Wine (Jill, Brandy, and Tee).

The Six Pack filly Meetmeatthebar lowered her mark by three-and-three-fifths seconds when she won the quickest Weiss prelim, 1:55.4, for trainer Pierre Paradis and driver Daniel Dube, the latter co-owner with Jean Claude-Dessureault. And the Crazy Wow miss Communion Money took two-and-four-fifths seconds off her lifetime best when she won in 1:57.4 for driver Scott Zeron, trainer Ashley Bako, and owners Jared Bako and Ann Yurenka.

This coming racing week at Pocono is Bobby Weiss Series Championship Week, with the four $50,000 finales for the best of each sophomore group on the line. Saturday's (April 27) 1 p.m. card will have both events for pacers: no male won all three of his prelims, but the trio who won two of them have the inside posts in a competitive event, while Beautiful Roz, who did sweep in her filly prelims, figures the horse to beat despite post 7 in her field of eight. Free Pocono programs are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Sonadora springs 8-1 upset in Ruby Cook Memorial final at The Meadows

Sonadora quarter-poled to the point and held off late challengers inside and outside to preserve her 8-1 upset in Wednesday's (April 24) $19,500 final of the Ruby Cook Memorial Pace for 3-year-old fillies at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

Once Sonadora reached the top, her work was far from over, as she faced threats outside from Birdie Said and in the Lightning Lane from Muse La Rouge, who had captured the series' two preliminary legs. But Sonadora dug in for Brady Brown, triumphing in a career-best 1:54.2. Birdie Said was a head back in second, with Muse La Rouge third.

Nathan Bresnahan trains Sonadora, a daughter of Sweet Lou—Belle Boyd, for Matthew Miller.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. piloted four winners on the 13-race card.

Cal Expo cards Alan Horowitz Pace

The $30,000 Alan Horowitz DHA Free-For-All Pace headlines tonight (April 26) action at Cal Expo, with Handsome Harvey and Allmyx'sliventexas heading the cast.

Watch and Wager LLC will present nine races and things get underway at 6:45 p.m.

Handsome Harvey made a break to lose his chance in last week's Lloyd Arnold Free-For-All, but has turned in several solid miles at this meet for owners Dave Hanes and Luke Plano, with Plano doing the driving and training.

His most recent snapshot came following the April 5 DHA Free-For-All, when he came flying with a :27.1 final quarter to hang a nose decision on Allmyx'sliventexas.

The latter comes into this assignment having captured 64 of his 209 outings with $355,000 in his bank account and a 1:50 mark.

The Wayne Knittel homebred, who is conditioned by Bob Johnson and will as usual have Mooney Svendsen guiding, last graced the winner's circle on March 17 when he captured the DHA Free-For-All in coast-to-coast fashion.

Its Pointless is making his first start in a year, but the Mark Anderson-owned, Gordie Graham trainee has a couple of very impressive qualifiers and must be respected with James Kennedy.

Completing the cast are Outlawnoghnbutsmart, Daniel's Son, Gee Wilikers, Ragged But Right, Polar Storm and Bunkerhill Phil.

Championship events on closing night May 3

Following this week's action tonight and Sunday, there will be just one program remaining at the meet on Friday (May 3).

Featured on that card will be a pair of $50,000 Championship events for the 4-year-old pacers, with Gotubydashorthairs and Made Of Mischief heading the contest for the distaffers while Bin A Mystery and Polar Storm figure to battle it out on the male end.

A reminder that the closing-night card will also feature mandatory payouts in all wagers.

Speaking of those bets, there are two wagers offered each night that come with a reduced 16 per cent takeout rate – the 20-cent Pick-5 and the 20-cent Pick-4 – with the latter featuring a $25,000-guaranteed gross pool.

Looking at the driver and trainer standings going into the final three programs, the driving crown was decided long ago with Jake Cutting dominating, while Luke Plano is currently six wins ahead of Nick Roland in the trainer race.

Timeisonmyside finds another gear, wins Kirwan Memorial leg at The Meadows

Timeisonmyside shrugged off his only challenger and sprinted away late to capture Saturday's (April 20) $12,500 leg of the Tom Kirwan Memorial Pace for sophomore colts and geldings at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

The finals of four series for 3-year-olds – including the Tom Kirwan – are set for next week at The Meadows.

After quarter-poling to the top, Timeisonmyside put away the field by the three-quarters but for Senditin Jim, who gained steadily first over and nearly looked Timeisonmyside in the eye through the final turn. But like a rolling stone, Timeisonmyside responded to Chris Lems' urging and drew off, defeating Senditinjim by 2-1/2 lengths in a career-best 1:53.1. Believe It Sea It recovered from a late break to earn show.

Tim Twaddle trains Timeisonmyside, a Captain Crunch–Macharoundtheclock gelding, for TheStable Timeisonmyside.

Mike Wilder piloted four winners and Dave Palone three on the 13-race card.

Popular Meadowlands Summer Survival Challenge back for 2024

The Meadowlands Summer Survival Challenge powered by 123Racing kicks off Friday (May 3, 2024). Cash prizes and Meadowlands swag are up for grabs in this free online contest.

The game covers the Meadowlands Championship Meet and concludes on Aug. 3, 2024.

The winner is determined by the highest total bankroll at the end of the Challenge based on a $2 “across the board” wager (win, place and show) on selections for three designated races each program.

However, to continue in the game, entrants have to “survive” by finishing in-the-money (first through third) with at least one of their selections each day. Failing to do so or not making selections knocks the player out of the game. To aid in the player’s survival a “lucky horseshoe” is given. The lucky horseshoe is a “free pass” given to all Challenge participants that allows the player to survive if he does not make selections for a race card or all three of his selections fail to hit the board.

- The grand prize is $750 plus Breeders Crown Night at the Races Package
- The second-place prize is $500 plus Meadowlands swag
- The third-place prize is $250 plus Meadowlands swag
- Most winners: $200 plus Meadowlands swag
- Highest monthly bankroll (May, June, July): $100 plus Meadowlands swag

The free contest is open to legal residents of the United States and Canada 18 years and older, and all selections must be made through the format provided on the Survival Challenge website page. No selections will be accepted by phone, fax, e-mail or any other means. TrackMaster Platinum past performances for the three designated races will be provided through the game board.

The deadline for selections each day is 30 minutes before 6:20 p.m. post time for the first race; 11:30 am on Saturday (Aug. 3). After 30 minutes to post, all selections are final.

To login or to register as a first-time player, visit www.survival-challenge.com.
