General Gabe Prewitt returns to The Big M's Fox Sports lineup

The General of the #Senditin Army will share his wagering tactics on The Meadowlands set.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS with DEBBIE LITTLE

“When Dave started back [at The Meadowlands], I started back with him,” Prewitt said. “We both started back that championship meet in 2016. I had had conversations with him at that time like, ‘I’m not going unless you’re going.’”

Whenever Prewitt would come to town to work at The Big M, he and Brower spent a lot of time together going to the qualifiers, having lunch and going for drinks after the races. Prewitt laughed as he remembered the times the pair would spend sharing bad beat stories in the press box.

“You just kind of get used to having somebody to roll with at all points and it’s just sort of an empty feeling on that side of it,” Prewitt said.

With the first of eight scheduled Fox Sports shows kicking off on Saturday night (April 29), The Meadowlands called for reinforcements. Enter Gabe Prewitt, general of the #Senditin Army.

Prewitt, 39, has been part of The Meadowlands team, on a semi-regular basis, since 2016, but his presence is even more important now than previously due to a gaping hole in The Big M’s roster.

It’s easy to see that The Meadowlands has not fully recovered from the sudden and heart-wrenching loss of their on-air leader Dave Brower only six months ago.

Even though Prewitt and Brower lived hundreds of miles apart, they were close enough to consider each other to be brothers from another mother.

Gabe Prewitt (left) and Dave Little (shown with friends) will be on the desk together for the first three Fox broadcasts: April 29, May 19 and May 20.

In Brower’s absence, Jessica Otten has stepped up to fill his vacant seat at the desk on a nightly basis. However, on big nights, she still has other duties that require her attention.

In addition to being marketing coordinator and TV host for The Meadowlands, Otten is also their TV host for Fox Sports, meaning she will be too busy with the national broadcast to be at the track’s in-house desk.

“That was kind of my hurdle to jump this year, because, obviously, with Brower gone, I’m on the desk [at The Meadowlands],” Otten said. “But with me having to do the Fox Sports shows that takes me off of the desk. For a few of those shows last year, I was able to pull a little bit of double duty. This year, a few of these shows are so long I can’t pull the double duty. It just doesn’t work.”

On several occasions for The Big M’s six Fox broadcasts in 2022, Otten was able to conduct paddock interviews for the track before the cameras rolled for “America’s Day at the Races”, a New York Racing Association (NYRA) production broadcast on Fox Sports 2 (FS2).

This year, several of the shows on Fox will be longer than two hours, including this week’s opener that goes from 6-11 p.m. For the first time since these shows began in 2021 – with the exception of Hambletonian Day – some or part of them will be broadcast on Fox Sports 1 (FS1).

“That’s a huge bonus to have it on FS1 for us and for the sport, just because the total amount of viewers is so much larger on FS1 than they are on FS2. It’s good news, it’s good exposure.”

~ Eric Donovan

“That’s a huge bonus to have it on FS1 for us and for the sport, just because the total amount of viewers is so much larger on FS1 than they are on FS2,” said Eric Donovan, NYRA’s senior director of TV broadcast operations. “It’s good news, it’s good exposure.”

“It’s opening night of Churchill, so that’s a draw, obviously, and The Meadowlands races have been really good all year. And I’m happy to get that first show underway with them.”

Saturday is opening night for thoroughbred fan-favorite Churchill Downs and The Meadowlands will once again be sharing the broadcast spotlight with them. With Churchill’s signature race, the Kentucky Derby, just a week away, extra eyeballs are expected for Saturday’s show which will be on FS1 from 6-9 p.m. before switching over to FS2 for the remaining two hours from 9-11 p.m. The Meadowlands Pace show on Saturday (July 15), will be on FS1 from 10-midnight.

Prewitt will be on the desk with The Meadowlands TV host Dave Little for the first three Fox broadcasts – April 29, May 19 and May 20 – and said with a laugh that he looks forward to telling him his bad beat stories.

“We have a good relationship and play off each other well,” Prewitt said of Little. “I’m 100 per cent confident working with him even though we haven’t had the opportunity to work together a lot, by the way. We’ve only done it on a handful of occasions at this point, but it’s almost like having a conversation with a friend. And that’s a compliment to him because that’s how at ease he makes me feel.”

The current plan is for Prewitt to join Otten – as he did last year – for the Fox broadcasts on July 1, 8 and 15.

“I’m certainly happy to sort of be her sidekick, whenever it turns out she needs one,” Prewitt said with a laugh.

Prewitt explained that these shows on Fox are important because it gives our sport the opportunity to reach a broader audience and he thinks Otten is the perfect choice to be leading the charge.

“I think she’s a great face for our sport,” Prewitt said. “I think we could have no one better, in regard to her knowledge and her energy and youth. It’s valuable to have somebody with that kind of knowledge. It just doesn’t come along that often.”

As for the production and working with NYRA’s co-hosts, that are thoroughbred experts, but don’t all know a lot about standardbreds, Prewitt thinks it’s a good thing.

“Obviously, NYRA does an excellent job from a professional standpoint,” Prewitt said. “They’re very good at what they do, so the broadcast comes off very good and professional. I actually don’t mind having people in the studio that aren’t as familiar with harness racing as we all may be. I think it’s good because in some of the dialogue they ask questions.”

“They have questions for us that we might not even think to discuss ourselves because it’s a different audience. They’re not as immersed in the harness business as we are. I think it’s great publicity for the sport. And I think it’s just another avenue where, hopefully, we’re getting in front of new people and if we’re ever going to grow, that’s what we have to do.”

Jess Tubbs and Greg Sugars are all in on harness racing

The Down Under wife/husband, trainer/driver duo are transforming a farm where the sky's the limit.

by Adam Hamilton

Aussie power couple Jess Tubbs and Greg Sugars have gone “chips in” on harness racing.

About 18 months ago, Tubbs gave up a job as racing and marketing manager for The Meadows, Victoria’s biggest greyhound racing club, to focus on training.

It was fork in the road time as their stable started to flourish.

“It just became too much, trying to do both roles became too much with the growing team,” Tubbs said.

In 2013, they bought an undulating, but picturesque property in Myrniong, about an hour outside of Melbourne. Two years later, they moved into what’s now Larajay Farm and, over time, they’d put “everything we have” into it.

It was a huge call given harness racing isn’t exactly “flying” in Australia, but you have to go back to the family roots of Tubbs and Sugars to see what drove them and where the passion and commitment to throw everything at harness racing came from.

They were both bred into the game.

Tubbs is the daughter of the late and successful Alan Tubbs, who passed away in 2017, just days after turning 61 and after a long struggle with kidney disease.

Alan oozed pride for his daughters Jess and Amy, who enjoyed a successful driving career and now works for Jess and Greg.

And that pride is mutual. There’s not a big win that goes by when Jess doesn’t mention and/or think about her late father.

Alan would be so proud of what Jess and Greg have achieved in the short few years since “getting serious” about training.

Jess Tubbs and Greg Sugars (center) with Elitloppet-bound trotter Just Believe in the winner's circle.

Group 1 pacing wins with the classy Better Eclipse have been surpassed only by the total dominance Just Believe has enjoyed in Australia's trotting ranks, headlined by his wins in the two biggest trotting races, the Great Southern Star and Inter Dominion final.

More on him soon.

Now to Greg. He's the son of the highly decorated former South Australian (SA) trainer Ross Sugars.

Greg recalls playing on the grass at Globe Derby – Adelaide's harness racing track – with other kids most Saturday nights while his dad chased success on the track.

He caught the bug early.

After a whirlwind start to his driving career in SA, the decline of harness racing in his home state and excitement and opportunities that the much larger and stronger Victoria industry offered was inevitably irresistible.

Not long after Greg moved to Victoria, the rest of the family did, too – Ross and his wife, Kerry, along with their daughter, Kylie.

Then came the meeting of two fantastic harness racing families when Greg and Jess met and later married.

Their meteoric rise through the training ranks in Victoria has been something to behold.

And what they've done in transforming the raw and untamed Myrniong property has been a key to that success.

"You can see it," Jess said. "You wouldn't necessarily choose a place like this to train at with all the hills and valleys, but we've turned it to our advantage. Like the hill up to the top point of the [training] track. It's become a real asset, especially with the trotters. It's taken a lot of trial and error, so has the training track itself with the ups and downs, but we've worked it out now.

"Interestingly, it's going down the main hill which seems to help most with the trotters, it helps their balance and strengthens them up."

Better Eclipse was the horse they needed. A flagship if you like.

The job Jess and Greg did to transform him from a handy pacer into a dual Group 1 winner and Miracle Mile placegetter early last year was stunning.

And Better Eclipse has continued to be a regular player in the biggest races, including his current campaign over in New Zealand where he's run two terrific races against NZ's best pacers.

Around the time Better Eclipse was preparing for a Queensland raid mid last year – where he won the Group 1 Sunshine Sprint – connections of Just Believe were on the hunt for a new trainer after Michael Hughes decided to leave the game.

They chose Jess and Greg.

"We're forever grateful to get that opportunity," Greg said. "He was an exciting trotter on his way to big things and he'd run third in the Inter Dominion at the end of 2021.

"We knew pretty much as soon as we started to work him seriously at home, he was something special."

Greg had driven Maori Law to beat Just Believe in that 2021 Sydney Inter Dominion trotting final and told friends he faced a tough decision.

"Greg said he wasn't looking forward to having to decide which one he drove in the big races, that's how big an impression Just Believe made as soon as he joined their stable," a friend said.

Ultimately, Maori Law's old legs gave out on him and he was retired before Greg had to make that call.

Just Believe ran second at his first start for Jess and Greg at Melton on Sept. 10, last year. But he then won eight of his next 10 starts and ran second in the other two.

Those wins included a rare and outstanding clean sweep of the Inter Dominion series last November/December where he won all three heats and overcame an outside back row draw and sitting parked outside the leader to win the Grand Final.

Just Believe then added the Group 1 Great Southern Star final at Melton on Feb. 3.

“ You can see it. You wouldn’t necessarily choose a place like this to train at with all the hills and valleys, but we’ve turned it to our advantage. Like the hill up to the top point of the [training] track. It’s become a real asset, especially with the trotters. It’s taken a lot of trial and error, so has the training track itself with the ups and downs, but we’ve worked it out now. ”

~ Jess Tubbs

It was that race which, with the crucial help from Harness Racing Australia’s Andrew Kelly, put Just Believe on Solvalla’s radar for the Elitloppet.

Clandestine talks ensued.

“We were told it all had to be hush-hush until Solvalla announced it,” Jess said. “I lied to a few people along the way, which didn’t feel great, mainly about why we weren’t taking him to New Zealand like we’d discussed.

“So, it was a huge relief when it finally became public.”

Just Believe is booked on a flight out of Melbourne, which starts a 60-hour plane, road and boat trip from Melbourne to Stockholm, via Singapore, Amsterdam, across Denmark and then up from Malmo to Stockholm.

And that’s just where the adventure begins.

“We’d love to race in the U.S. one day, too,” Jess said. “We’ve got horses racing in New Zealand now and Just Believe going to Sweden soon... America is certainly on the wish-list, too.”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

For trainer Chris Petrelli, a shuffle off to Buffalo was a winning move

by Chris Lomon

Making a winning move is not a foreign concept for trainer Chris Petrelli or his horses.

It was a decision, the one to move his stable of pacers and trotters to Buffalo, that came with a caveat.

“I have to say that it’s been awesome,” said Petrelli, 23, who hails from Sacramento, CA. “The people are great. I didn’t have Buffalo on my radar, but Joe Chindano [Jr.], who drove for me a little bit at Monticello, came up to me and said, ‘Let’s give it a shot. You put a few horses on the trailer and so will I and we’ll see what happens.’ So, that’s what we did and I figured that if it worked out, we’d stay and if not, we’d head back home.”

They didn’t have to wait long to find out what the answer would be.

All it took, in fact, was a few weeks and a fast start.

“We went up there with five and we had a win, a second and a third,” Petrelli said. “They all hit the board, so it was a great night. We gave it a few more weeks to see if it worked out and here we are now, both of us relocated. I’d say it’s working out pretty well so far.”

On March 15, Chindano and Petrelli teamed with Chasethecloudsaway, a 6-year-old daughter of Sunshine Beach, to break their Buffalo Raceway maiden.

And the trio did it in style as the 1-5 choice.

“She’s a horse I got from Canada during the pandemic,” Petrelli said. “She was a $7,000 purchase with my owner, Dave Del Pozzo. She’s been a rock-solid horse for me for two years now. She tries hard, despite some of the setbacks she’s had. She was fortunate enough to be dropping in class and she had the rail. Joe put her on the front and we got the win. It was a big relief because you usually don’t win on your first day at a new track. She got it out of the way for me. She did it pretty easy. She likes her job.”

Just like her trainer.

After one win in 10 tries in 2017, Petrelli won 33 races the following year. In 2022, he set several career-best marks, including wins, with 102 and purse earnings of $529,134.

This year, he’s been quick off the gate, chalking up 28 wins as of Wednesday (April 26), along with nearly $183,434 in earnings.

“There have been some nice highlights so far in my career,” Petrelli said. “I started when I was around 16, 17 when I was in Maine. I got help from my friend Eric Davis – he dates my sister Jenny – and he helped get my first horse. I worked there for a year and then moved to Monticello and got a couple more horses. I’ve been fortunate to have some good owners come along, and it’s really taken off the last few years.”

Petrelli isn’t one to rest on his laurels or to pump his own tires.

Instead, he prefers to maintain a short-term outlook on his career, content to take a race-to-race approach to his craft.

The plan, as it stands, is to stay put in his new surroundings.

“My goal this year is to keep being competitive at Buffalo and doing well,” he said. “I’d like to have a little more in terms of the number of horses I have. It’s been awesome. So far, we’ve been fortunate. The plan is to be here permanently. You just want to keep going and keep winning races. I’m very fortunate and I feel very grateful for the opportunities.”

Petrelli is also thankful for the familiar helping hands he receives at the barn.

It is, in every sense, a family affair for the young conditioner.

“My fiancée Victoria and my younger brother, Frankie, we all work together,” Petrelli said. “Victoria, she works from sun up

“We went up there with five and we had a win, a second and a third. They all hit the board, so it was a great night. We gave it a few more weeks to see if it worked out and here we are now, both of us relocated. I’d say it’s working out pretty well so far.”

until sun down. She's right there with me. Frankie, he's been with me for about a year and a half and I've been teaching him the ropes. My older brother, Vinny, he didn't relocate with us, but he worked with me before I came to Buffalo. I've had a lot of great support over the years."

That list would also include Petrelli's parents.

"A huge part of our success is my mom and dad," Petrelli said. "They have been there for me every step and are very happy to see that we are doing well, but also having fun together."

Petrelli's 2-year-old daughter, Aubrey, has also taken a shine to the horses.

Any initial concerns about her comfort level around the standardbreds were out of mind the first day she came to the barn.

"My daughter, she loves petting the horses and she's not afraid of them at all," he said. "She's always happy when she's around there. Everything that's happened, especially in the past few years, it's been awesome. I feel really lucky to be where I'm at today."

The only time Petrelli ever feels a little out of sorts is when he's not around his horses.

In fact, the longer the distance he's away from his stable, the more he wants to be reunited with them.

"I really don't like being away from the horses," he said. "We go to Florida once a year for vacation and the whole time, I'm worried about getting back. We'll have some fun as a family when we go to Florida, but I love what I do and I love being around the horses."

As for an ideal number for him to coach, Petrelli isn't looking to train dozens of racehorses.

Instead, keeping it in the range of a dozen or so is the ideal fit.

And that move to Buffalo, the one that wasn't originally in the game plan, Petrelli is glad he took a shot at plying his trade in the Queen City.

So far, so good.

"I just want to keep going," Petrelli said. "I've been good with 10-15 horses and that's where I'd like to keep it. That's an ideal number to be able to give them all the focus they deserve."

Chris Christoforou, Dr. Lloyd McKibbin, Bulldog Hanover and Pure Ivory Hall of Fame bound in Canada

by Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame

Standardbred driver Chris Christoforou, Standardbred Male Horse Bulldog Hanover as well as Thoroughbred Builder R. Glenn Sikura and Thoroughbred Male Horse Pink Lloyd are among eight inductees named to Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame Class of 2023

The Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame congratulates the people and horses being recognized as inductees in 2023. Four people and four horses have been elected from a ballot of very deserving candidates.

Induction ceremonies for the Class of 2023 will be held in August 2023, along with those previously announced in October 2022 as the CHRHF Class of 2022. Additional details will be announced in May.

Class of 2023 – Standardbred Inductees

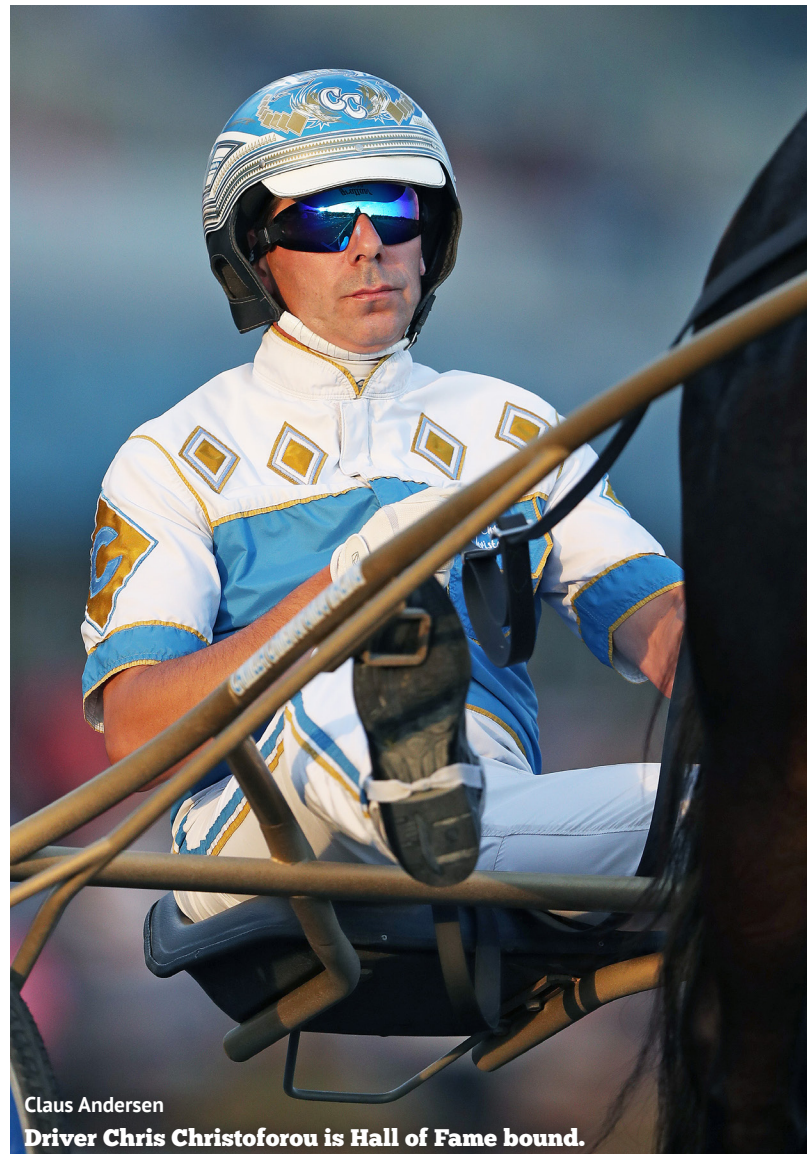

Dr. Lloyd S. McKibbin, DVM – Builder

Chris Christoforou – Driver

Bulldog Hanover – Male Horse

Pure Ivory – Female Horse

The late Dr. Lloyd Salem McKibbin, DVM is considered a pioneer in the advancement of equine veterinary medicine. He was an innovator, teacher and author as well as a very hands-on veterinarian. A graduate of Ontario Veterinary College in 1952, McKibbin, decided to specialize in equine care and more specifically lameness, treated patients with acupuncture, cryosurgery and laser therapy. He was also among the very first people to advocate swimming horses for therapeutic purposes. Horse owners travelled from far and wide to his small, unassuming clinic in Wheatley, ON for treatment using the ground-breaking methods he employed, all the while acting in the best interest of his equine patients. Among the numerous horses aided by McKibbin was CHRHF 2020 Inductee Rambling Willie who spent time under “Doc’s” care. It was the relationship Rambling Willie’s owners had with McKibbin that provided the opportunity for the much-lauded horse to race in Canada and become a three-time winner of the Canadian Pacing Derby.

Claus Andersen

Driver Chris Christoforou is Hall of Fame bound.

“Doc” also spent considerable time mentoring other veterinarians to follow in his path, many of whom went on to open their own successful practices. His books Horse Owners Handbook and Cryoanalgesia for Horses continue to be used as reference manuals.

In recognition of his work, McKibbin was inducted to the Chatham-Kent Agricultural Hall of Fame in 1989.

Chris Christoforou has been driving standardbred horses for 33 consecutive years, beginning in 1990 and continuing until the present time. The opportunity to pilot his family’s homebred trotter, Earl, brought Christoforou into the spotlight early in his driving career and that family connection to harness racing continues to this day. In 1993 at the age of 21, Christoforou became the second youngest driver to win a prestigious Breeders Crown race when he and Earl captured the Open Trot division at Mohawk.

Among the many other horses Christoforou achieved major stakes success with include Grinfromeartoear (1999 Breeders Crown); CHRHF Member Astreos (2000 Little Brown Jug), as well as CHRHF Member Peaceful Way (2003 Goldsmith Maid and 2003 Oakville Stakes). He has also visited the OSS Super Final winner's circle 10 times.

Claus Andersen

Bulldog Hanover (Dexter Dunn) will also be inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame's class of 2023.

Over his career Christoforou's driving stats have reached 6,758 career wins, nearly $119 million in purse earnings and a .260 UDRS lifetime rating and he has been presented the O'Brien Award as Canada's Driver of the Year on four occasions.

Sired by 2022 CHRHF Inductee Shadow Play and out of Artsplace mare BJs Squall, Bulldog Hanover was purchased by CHRHF 2022 Trainer inductee, Jack Darling, for $28,000 at the 2019 Harrisburg Black Book Sale. He began his race career at age 2, winning four of six starts, including the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final, with Jody Jamieson as his primary driver. Before the beginning of his 3-year-old season, Brad Grant was added to his ownership as a partner.

At 3, Bulldog Hanover continued to impress with three Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg wins. He stepped into Grand Circuit competition with wins in the Somebeachsomewhere Stakes and a North America Cup elimination, again with Jamieson at the lines, before rounding out his sophomore year with four consecutive wins at Hoosier Park in the Monument Circle, Star Destroyer Pace, Circle City Pace and Thanksgiving Classic, just a glimpse of what was to come.

During his 2022 campaign, Bulldog Hanover won four straight races in a 21-day period, at The Meadowlands, winning a Graduate leg in 1:47, the Roll With Joe in 1:46, the Graduate final in 1:46.1 and the William R. Haughton Memorial in a world record time of 1:45.4, all with Dexter Dunn in the bike. It was those 21 days from June 25 to July 16 that captured the world's attention and catapulted Bulldog Hanover to a new status, as he became the fastest pacer of all time en route to Horse of the Year honors in Canada and unanimous Horse of the Year honors in the U.S.

When he retired from racing at the end of 2022, Bulldog Hanover's lifetime stats included a record of 28-4-1 in 37 starts and earnings of $2,789,271. Before starting his 2022 campaign, Bulldog Hanover bred a limited number of mares, with his first foals beginning to arrive as their sire enters the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. Bulldog Hanover continues his breeding career at Seelster Farms.

Trotting mare Pure Ivory, by Striking Sahbra, has been successful both on the racetrack and as a broodmare. Bred by Diane Ingham and the late Harry Rutherford, of Mount Pleasant, ON and owned throughout her racing career by Jerry Van Boekel, Christina Maxwell, Steve Condren and Rutherford, Pure Ivory's racing stats include earnings of $1.44 million and a lifetime mark of 1:53.1. Trained by Brad Maxwell, the two-time O'Brien Award recipient (2005 & 2006) mare won 22 stakes races during her career, including Ontario Sires Stakes Super Finals at age 2 and 3, the Canadian Breeders Championship and divisions of the Simcoe and Champlain Stakes.

Currently a broodmare owned by Steve Stewart of Paris, KY, Pure Ivory produced the 2019 Hambletonian champion, Forbidden Trade, who was a divisional O'Brien Award winner at 2 and 3, Canada's Horse of the Year in 2019, and amassed career earnings in excess of $2.3 million.

The Class of 2023 thoroughbred inductees are: Glenn Sikura – Builder, Irwin Driedger – Jockey, Pink Lloyd – Male Horse and Formal Gold – Veteran.

Dexter Cup attracts field of seven

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Seven horses were entered for the Dexter Cup, the first Grand Circuit event of the season for 3-year-old male trotters, making eliminations unnecessary this Saturday (April 29) at Freehold Raceway. All seven horses advance directly to the Dexter Cup final, which will go for a purse of $137,775, on May 6 at the half-mile track in central New Jersey.

The seven horses entered today were, in alphabetical order: Candy Bomber, Designer Drink, Espresso, Khaosan Road, Met Your Request, Sevecheetah and Top Leader S.

Designer Drink and Espresso are eligible to the $1 million Hambletonian Stakes on Aug. 5 at The Meadowlands.

Espresso, trained by Julie Miller, is the richest horse in the field, with $243,400. The son of Chapter Seven—Biscotti was no worse than second in 10 of 11 races last season, winning six. His victories included divisions of the Bluegrass and International Stallion stakes as well as the Kentucky Commonwealth Series championship.

Andy Miller is listed to drive Espresso, who is unraced this season.

The Miller Stable also will send out Met Your Request, with Tyler Miller listed in the sulky. The son of Met's Hall—Quest Blue Chip was a winner on the Grand Circuit last year and has won four of 11 career races. He is 1-for-1 this season and has $65,626 in lifetime purses.

Designer Drink, trained by Symon Spicer, was a winner in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes series last year and finished third in the final. The son of Bar Hopping—Designable, who will make his seasonal debut in the Dexter, has won two of eight races and earned $99,473. Dexter Dunn is listed to drive.

Sevecheetah, from the stable of trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer, finished second to 4-year-old Senna at The Meadowlands on April 14 in his seasonal bow. Last year, the son of Chapter Seven—White Cheetah hit the board in four legs of the New York Sire Stakes and finished fourth in the final. He earned $65,743 in 11 starts as a freshman.

Khaosan Road and Top Leader S both are trained by Ake Svanstedt. The two combined to start seven times last year, with each picking up a win in a conditioned race.

Candy Bomber, trained by Ron Coyne Jr., finished second in a division of the Simpson Memorial last year and earned $20,421 in nine starts. The son of Tactical Landing—Candy Lane has one start this season, a fifth-place finish in a conditioned race on April 21 at The Meadowlands. Todd McCarthy is listed to drive.

The draw for the Dexter Cup final will be May 3.

Pappardelle trots to John Brennan Series championship

by Yonkers Raceway

Driver Joe Bongiorno collected his second major victory at MGM Yonkers Raceway this week by capturing the $100,000 John Brennan Trotting Series final on Wednesday night (April 26) with 1-5 favorite Pappardelle in 1:55.1.

Armstead Cole (Jason Bartlett), the 4-1 second choice in the contest, gunned right to the front from post six but went on a break in the first turn, taking him out of contention and leaving Hoolie N Hector (Braxten Boyd) on the lead and Pappardelle behind him in the pocket. Hoolie N Hector, who won two preliminary legs of the series, would hit the quarter in :28.1 and the half in :57.4, but Bongiorno went on the attack two-wide with Pappardelle in the third turn.

Once Pappardelle was fed clear racetrack, he moved up quickly to engage Hoolie N Hector and had the lead on the outside at the 1:26.2 three-quarters. Pappardelle would clear Hoolie N Hector for good past that marker and the result was never in question from there, as Pappardelle trotted away to win by three lengths. Spicy Nugget (Yannick Gingras) was the runner-up, followed by Outside The Fire (Scott Zeron), Unevergonnagethis (Jordan Stratton) and Hoolie N Hector.

“As far as this special horse goes, he’s been pretty much perfect ever since we have gotten him and he topped off this series with an easy win tonight,” Bongiorno said.

The John Brennan Trotting Series is named in honor of the longtime Standardbred Owners Association of New York horsemen’s representative who passed away from complications of COVID-19 in March 2020, and his memory holds a special place in the hearts of many, including Bongiorno.

“John Brennan was one of the first people I got really close with when I first started coming to Yonkers Raceway,” Bongiorno said. “I would sit and hang out in his office basically every night I raced there. You couldn’t find a more straightforward person than “Big John” was. If he liked you, he would take the shirt off his back to help you and people like that are very hard to come by nowadays. This win means more to me than anyone truly knows.”

Jenn Bongiorno trains Pappardelle, a 4-year-old gelded son of Wishing Stone, for owners The Delaware Group, Joe Sbrocco, JB Racing and JAF Racing LLC. Pappardelle has compiled a record of 11-4-1 from 35 lifetime tries and he pushed his bankroll to $209,457. He paid $2.70 to win and keyed a $15.60 exacta and a $176.00 trifecta.

Mike Lizzi

Hellabalou (Joe Bongiorno) winning the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final on Monday at Yonkers.

Mike Lizzi

Amazing Dream N (Yannick Gingras) winning the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series final on Monday at Yonkers.

The Bongiorno's also had the favorite, What Should I Goo, in the $35,000 consolation and she posted fractions of :27.4, :57.4, and 1:25.4 after making the lead from post four. She couldn't hold on in the stretch, though, as C You Again DK (Zeron), who got away in sixth from post five and then stayed on the inside to save ground, angled out midway through the final bend and came with a sustained rally that carried him to a 2 1/2 length victory in 1:54.4. Cantstop Yankee (Tyler Buter) surged from seventh to second in the back-half of the mile and What Should I Goo had to settle for third.

Trainer Per Engblom's Engblom Stable LLC. co-owns the winning 9-year-old gelding by The Liquidator with Kasper Foget. This was his 26th win from 69 career starts and he has now earned $129,532. C You Again DK returned $11.60 to win as part of an entry that was sent off at odds of 9-2 and led a $215.00 exacta and a $485.00 trifecta.

The John Brennan Trotting Series was for 3-year-olds and older who were non-winners of six pari-mutuel races or $150,000 through Feb. 1, 2023, with winners over $250,000 as of that date not eligible.

Series action will resume at MGM Yonkers Raceway next Tuesday (May 2) with the first leg of the new Can You Go The Distance Series for pacing mares. That event will feature three rounds – one at half a mile, one at one mile and one at a mile and sixteenth – before a $40,000 final at a mile and a half on May 23.

Also, continuing through May 18, the Pick 5 pool on Thursdays at MGM Yonkers Raceway will be seeded with $10,000 and also have a guaranteed pool of $25,000. This initiative is being offered in partnership with the Standardbred Owners Association of New York as part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program.

HELLABALOU, AMAZING DREAM N TAKE BORGATA AND MATCHMAKER FINALS

Hellabalou (47-1) pulled off the big upset in the $511,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series final, while Amazing Dream N (5-2) captured the $328,200 Blue Chip Matchmaker Series final on Monday night (April 24) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Hellabalou rallied to victory up the inside once room became available in deep stretch after yielding to sit in the pocket early. The final time for the Joe Bongiorno-driven, Ron Burke-trained horse was 1:50.3.

In the upper stretch, This Is The Plan continued to show an advantage over Covered Bridge, but he also came off the pylons, enabling Hellabalou to find a seam to blast through. Hellabalou had plenty of pace once the space opened up and he went by on his way to a one-length victory over a closing Leonidas A. Covered Bridge ended up third, followed by This Is The Plan and a mired-in-traffic Lochinvar Art A.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC., Eric Good, Weaver Brusceci LLC., and Larry Karr, Hellabalou is a 5-year-old Sweet Lou stallion. He has now compiled a record of 20-5-5 from 55 starts, and he boosted his earnings to $840,744. He paid $96.00 to win and was atop a $748.00 exacta and a $1,355.00 trifecta.

Amazing Dream N and driver Yannick Gingras drew the pole and used that position to their advantage, setting all the fractions and drawing clear in the homestretch to score an impressive victory in a 1:53.1 mile. Sent off as the 5-2 second choice, Amazing Dream N held off a strong closing Lit De Rose, with favored Doug's Babe A settling for third.

The sprint home saw Amazing Dream N flash a :28 second quarter to win comfortably. Lit De Rose out-sprinted Dougs Babe A, who dealt with tight quarters in the stretch and clearly lacked the momentum necessary after finding room. Last year's champion Drama Act used the pylons and then angled out in the stretch to finish fourth, while Lucky Artist A held fifth.

It was the fourth win in five starts this year for Amazing Dream N, who is trained by Linda Toscano for owners Enviro Stable, Richard Gutnick, Tom Pontone and Joseph Lozito Jr. Amazing Dream N returned $7.20 to win and led a $123.50 exacta and a $348.50 trifecta. The 7-year-old Bettor's Delight mare now has 30 lifetime wins and earnings of $1,484,586.

In addition to the final, there were also MGM Borgata Pacing Series consolations worth $100,000 and $50,000.

The $100,000 consolation went to Hemsworth N (Jordan Stratton), who put up panels of :26.3, :55.4 and 1:23.3 while being confronted on the rim first by a parked-out None Bettor A in the opening-half and then by American Courage, who went three-wide from second-over in the third quarter to take up the chase in the first-up position. Hemsworth N was resolute and up to the challenges, though and used a :27.3 last quarter to hold sway by a length in a 1:51.1 mile, topping stablemate Priceless Beach. Tattoo Artist collected third.

Trained by Jared Bako, Hemsworth N, a 6-year-old Sweet Lou gelding, is owned by 1362313 Ontario Ltd. He made his 17th appearance in the winner's circle in his 38th start, and he sent his bankroll to $184,009. He returned $3.50 to win as the 3-5 favorite and keyed a $31.80 exacta and an $89.00 trifecta.

In the $50,000 consolation #2, American Dealer N (Bongiorno, 7-1), rallied through after sitting on the pylons in the three-hole and got up to prevail by a head over Splash Brother in 1:52.3. Jack's Legend N was third.

The victorious 6-year-old American Ideal stallion is trained by Linda Toscano for the owners Enviro Stables LTD. and Ken Jacobs. This was his 17th career win, he has now pocketed $470,671 and he paid $17.40 to win. The exacta was worth $93.00 and the trifecta kicked back $355.50.

The $75,000 Blue Chip Matchmaker consolation went to Delitfulcatherin N (Stratton) as the 4-5 favorite for owner Mark Ford and trainer Jeff Gillis.

The imported daughter of Bettor's Delight made a regaining move at the quarter and set comfortable fractions in scoring in 1:52.4 over Morning Has Broken and Gotthegreenlight. It was the third win of the year for the 7-year-old mare who returned $3.90 to win and keyed a $35.20 exacta and a $139.00 trifecta. Delitfulcatherin N made her 23rd appearance in the winner's circle overall and pushed her bankroll to $468,199.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Mary Ann Antonacci dies

Mary Ann Antonacci, wife of Hall Of Fame member Guy “Sonny” Antonacci and mother of Frank “The Elder” and Jerry Antonacci passed away in Somers, CT on Thursday (April 27).

She had a great love for the horse and the horse industry and supported the family’s initiative such as the purchase of The Red Mile, the worldwide racing career of the great Moni Maker, as well as the family racing and breeding operation.

Family was very important to her and was extremely proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mary Ann was born in Brooklyn, NY on March 8, 1932, as the oldest daughter of the late Gerardo and Agatina (Corso) DeRosa. Mary Ann graduated from New Utrecht High School in 1950 and worked as an executive secretary in Manhattan for several years. Mary Ann met the love of her life, Sonny, at a mutual friend’s wedding. They married on November 15, 1952, in Brooklyn. Mary Ann and Sonny started their family in Lindenhurst, Long Island where they resided for many years, before moving their family to Somers, CT in [1974]. Mary Ann was a founding partner of Somers Sanitation (USA Hauling & Recycling), Son Mar Haven, and Lindy Farms of Connecticut and was instrumental in all the day-to-day operations – working as secretary, accountant, and dispatcher, among other titles. Mary Ann was a devout Catholic and an active member of All Saints Church. For many years, she volunteered at Enfield Loaves and Fishes and Meals on Wheels.

Mary Ann was known for being compassionate and welcoming – both her heart and her table always had room for more. She opened her home to all and treated everyone like family; nothing made her happier than spending quality time with those she loved. Friends from far and wide called Mary Ann and Sonny’s house “home” over the decades. She was selfless and truly lived for others. She lived her faith every day, always looking for ways to serve her family, community, and especially those in need. She was a strong matriarch to her family, and she shared her wisdom through stories, wit, and often the perfectly timed look.

Her love, faith, and history will be carried on through her family. She was, and is, an irreplaceable pillar in the foundation and growth of the family businesses. Mary Ann loved her German Shepards, including her beloved Pearl. She also loved the farm and horses, and was consistently a passionate fan and a keen critic of racing performances. She would never miss a race.

Mary Ann has joined her husband of 49 years, Sonny, in heaven. She is also reunited with other family members that predeceased her including brothers and their spouses Salvatore “Sal” and Marianne DeRosa and Anthony “Tony”, brother-in-law Benjamin Benfanti, sisters-in-law and their spouses Marie Guerrazzi and Frances and Joseph Troiano.

Mary Ann is survived by her sister Josephine Benfanti (DeRosa), her sister-in-law Nancy DeRosa, her cousin Carlo Lanzisera, and her several adored nieces and nephews. She will be deeply missed by her two beloved sons and their spouses, Frank “the Elder” and Rebecca (Clark) Antonacci and Gerald “Jerry” and Frances “Franny” (Froment) Antonacci, and her six grandchildren and spouses that she adored, Frank Michael and Jessica (Salafia) Antonacci, Guy Gerald and Rachel (Lewis) Antonacci, Christopher Clark and Olivia (Clement) Antonacci, Sara Frances (Antonacci) Jez and Christopher Jez, Matthew Albert Antonacci, and Philip Andrew Antonacci and fiancé Ellie Trudeau. Mary Ann, known as “Mimi,” will also be missed by her seven great grandchildren, Frank Joseph Antonacci, Sophia Mary Anne Jez, Luca Clark Antonacci, Gabriella Joyce Antonacci, Christopher John Jez, Gaetano Frank Antonacci, and Natalie Shea Antonacci.

The family would like to especially thank long-time caregivers and beloved friends Mary Jatta and Therese Jarju, as well as close family friend Kevin Riley, and Dr. Sue Gates.

Calling hours for Mary Ann are on Saturday (April 29), 2023 from 7 – 9 p.m. and on Sunday (April 30) from 2 – 4 p.m. and 7 – 9 p.m. at Leete-Stevens Enfield Chapels, 61 South Road, Enfield, CT 06082. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 a.m. at All Saints Church, 25 School Street, Somersville, CT, 06072 followed by a procession to Center Cemetery, 81 Battle Street, Somers, CT, 06072.

Contributions can be made to Fidelco Guide Dog Foundation and the Mary Ann Antonacci Scholarship at Wilbraham and Monson Academy.

Correction – Beads staying in Europe

According to Norwegian media tgn.no Beads will not go back to USA, as mentioned in the most recent European Report column. Beads will instead move to Alessandro Gocciadoro’s barn in Italy.

“Beads is not eligible for some of the biggest races in America and he would have to stay in quarantine for six weeks and that would not be right for the horse,” said owner Carl Gunnar Myhre to tgn.no.

Woodbine Mohawk Park celebrates turning 60

Woodbine Entertainment is excited to celebrate the 60th anniversary of Woodbine Mohawk Park this weekend.

A crowd of 4,338 turned out for the opening of Mohawk Raceway on April 26, 1963. Now 60 years later, Woodbine Mohawk Park is the industry-leading home of year-round world class standardbred racing.

The Campbellville oval has been the site of many historic moments over the years and is poised to continue adding magical memories with its current lucrative stakes program. Names like Cam Fella, Odies Fame, Admirals Express, Peaceful Way, Somebeachsomewhere, San Pail and Bulldog Hanover are a small group of the legendary horses to have wowed the crowd at Mohawk.

To kick-off the 60th anniversary celebrations, Woodbine Mohawk Park will be offering up some treats to fans this weekend. On both Friday and Saturday evening, the first 300 fans in the doors will receive cupcakes. There will also be strolling entertainment and a specialty drink available for purchase. Saturday evening's card will also feature a special commemorative program and the evening's seventh race will be the "Mohawk 60th Anniversary Pace."

To coincide with the 60th celebrations, Woodbine Mohawk Park will also debut its new Track Lights Color Show following Race 7 on Friday and Saturday. Recent upgrades to new LED track lights allows for special effects, including synchronized light and audio shows that match those seen in arenas and stadiums of major sporting events.

As for the action on the track, Ontario Sired Graduate Series third leg action headlines both nights of live racing. The Ontario Graduate for 4-year-old trotters and 4-year-old pacing mares will take place Friday (April 28), while the 4-year-old open pacing division goes Saturday.

Post time for each night of live racing is 7 p.m.

Former NFL player Oscar Johnson Jr. scores first harness training wins at Shenandoah Downs

Former NFL player Oscar Johnson Jr. got his first pari-mutuel win as a trainer at Shenandoah Downs this past Saturday (April 22) with Dr. Scott Woogen's pacer KJ Erich, then four races later – albeit the next afternoon – struck again with Woogen's Just A Passenger in Sunday's fourth.

Johnson has been involved with harness racing for years as a co-owner in horses but this was the first one at a pari-mutuel track where he was listed in the program as trainer. Johnson has established himself in the world of harness racing and he has a very interesting story that led him to his current position.

His first love in life was football. He had a five-year NFL career after playing collegiately for the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs – Terry Bradshaw's alum – where he was an offensive lineman. He chose Tech over schools like Baylor, Marshall, Mississippi State, Troy and UAB. He was drafted in 2013 and played guard for the Tennessee Titans for three seasons before heading to the Carolina Panthers for the last two years of his career.

"I loved getting to be around that great atmosphere and college life especially coming from a country town. It was very exciting" said Johnson about his journey coming from the small town of Crystal Springs, Mississippi and going on to play football at a Division I school then at the pro level.

"In the NFL, I loved getting to travel and to be around people with different mindsets, positive people and hard-working people. Everyone is dedicated to it."

He showed a particular enthusiasm for playing in Cincinnati against the Bengals.

"I have to say Cincinnati [OH] was my favorite place to play," he said. "The crowd was just different."

He named his fellow Tennessee Titan Chance Warmack as his favorite person he ever got to play with in the NFL.

Initially, Johnson was an undrafted free-agent in the 2013 draft. He described his experience on draft day as being "Very emotional and long. You've got to be patient waiting around to see if your name is going to be called, but it's still very exciting." He was picked up by the Titans after the draft.

Even when he was playing football at the highest level, Johnson was always involved with harness racing. During his career on the field, he still shipped horses with his long-time friend Lawrence Cooper – who has competed in Woodstock since the track opened in 2016 – and whenever he got the chance, loved to come out and watch the harness races. He never wanted to leave the NFL but when he had a surgery on his shoulder that slowed him down on the field, Johnson was happy to have another passion to fall back on full time.

Johnson is happy in his new career and sees the challenges that come with training race horses to be part of the process.

"I don't really struggle because, like I said, I've been around it so long," he said. "I got a bunch of people that helped me that have been in the game a long time. So, any type of problem I run across, I just go straight to them."

His favorite memory from harness racing goes back to the first horse he ever claimed at the Thunder Ridge track in Prestonsburg, KY.

“Just going and seeing him win almost every week was very exciting to me, I just got more and more horses after that one,” he said.

His favorite horse he ever owned was named Blueridge Straight, a horse that started 132 times and earned $77,803 in purses in his career before retiring in 2015.

Asked about similarities between football and harness racing, he said “They are the same in a lot of ways and both take lots of hard work. The more you put in the more you get out.”

Taking care of harness horses is hard manual labor and Johnson has nine of them he tends to. It is clear that he is getting the same gratification from his horses competing as he was when he was under the stadium lights.

This is Johnson’s first year racing at Shenandoah Downs and he only had positive things to say about his experience at the track and racing in Virginia as a whole.

“I love it, it’s beautiful and there are a lot of great people involved,” he said.

New pop-up series for claimers at Yonkers Raceway

MGM Yonkers Raceway wants to know if your horse can “go the distance” and has created a new pop-up series to test their versatility.

The Can You Go The Distance series is for fillies and mares who have started for a claiming price of $50,000 or less in at least one of their last five starts. Entrants will compete in three legs and a final at four distances:

- $25,000 First Leg (May 2): half-mile
- $25,000 Second Leg (May 9): one mile
- $25,000 Third Leg (May 16): mile and a sixteenth
- $40,000 Final (May 23): mile and a half

“When I was a kid, they had a series like this at Lebanon Raceway and it was one of the biggest attractions,” said racing secretary Joe Frasure, who added that they offered a similar series at Pompano Park and it filled every week. “I think it will be interesting to see these horses compete at the different distances. I don’t think Yonkers has ever offered a half-mile race.”

Horses must start in the first leg to qualify for the races in the following weeks and they must compete in all preliminary legs to be eligible for the final.

For more information on the series, call the racing office at 914-457-2627.

Ocean Downs readying for 2023 spring-summer meet

The first horses are hitting the track at the “vacationland oval” in Worcester County, MD, as preparations are in earnest for the 74th race meeting at Ocean Downs.

“Trainers Barry Kingston and Billy Long were the first ones up in the inaugural training session held at the track [Wednesday (April 26)],” said director of racing Peter Szymanski. “We will be holding training every Wednesday throughout the meet as local trainers ready their stable for the racing scene.”

Ocean Downs starts its meet on Sunday (May 28), continuing through Wednesday (Sep. 6). The 48-day meet has a nightly post time of 7:05 p.m. and is highlighted by the new and improved MD Sires Stakes and MD Race Fund Stakes programs.

Racing applications are available at the track’s website, www.oceandowns.com, or by emailing the request to peter.szymanski@oceandowns.com.
