Christine Fairhall's family legacy will make her a 'grand' raceway manager

The granddaughter of the legendary Keith Waples takes the reins at the Elora, ON track.

Grand River Raceway's new raceway manager, Christine Fairhall, has lived, breathed, and embraced harness racing from just about every angle imaginable.

Growing up in a racing family – one founded by her grandfather, the legendary Keith Waples, and carried on by her parents Maurice and Karen Hauver – it was hard not to.

Although, as Fairhall recalled, her teenage self may have needed some extra convincing early on.

“When I was 16 and able to legally work, I started in the concessions at Hanover [Raceway],” she said. “We used to spend summers in Quebec because that’s where my dad was racing, but that was supposed to be my first summer without having to go since I had a job. That said, I may have been a teenager, doing teenager things, and my mom decided I should go back to Quebec.

“When I came back the next year, I got a job in the mutuels department. At the time, it didn’t feel like the best thing to happen to me, but in the end, it probably was – I loved it.”

Enamored by the wave-like blitz of a 1994 mutuels station line, Fairhall's second go-round at Hanover provided the spark that has since sustained her now three-decades-long connection to the sport her family has thrived in for generations.

While it was not until the early 2000s that she landed her first full-time role in racing – a position in the simulcast department at Hanover – Fairhall wasted no time developing a well-rounded resume.

Across her 32 years in the industry, Fairhall's vast experience includes concessions, trophy creation, timing, photo-finish, new player event organizing, as well as pari-mutuel and tote/race day operations.

She is eager to bring her patron-first mindset to her new role at Grand River.

"Most of my jobs, with and outside of the tracks, have been in customer service, and more recently, they've been in management-level roles," she said. "I'm hoping that experience will flow over into this new position.

"I feel, and I've been told, that I communicate with people and work through situations well. Hopefully, that experience will help with being raceway manager at Grand River."

It is through a collaborative approach that Fairhall hopes to deliver a premium event experience.

"I try to take suggestions and people's needs into consideration as best I can," she said. "Communicating directly with people – and the general public – gives me a want to take Grand River to the next level and ensure it stays a place people want to go and spend their entertainment dollars."

Fairhall, who joined the Elora, ON raceway over a decade ago, has not only seen but contributed first hand to Grand River's year-over-year success as a premier racing destination in southwest Ontario.

Her familiarity with the facility, and most importantly its people, has made the transition into a managerial position feel almost seamless.

"It's going well so far," she said. "I've been part of the Grand River team for 11 years or so, so I know most of the people and they know me. That makes it a little easier to settle in, but everybody has been really welcoming."

As for what excites Fairhall most about assuming a leadership role, she said: "Hopefully, being able to be part of meaningful additions and a good team. I feel Grand River's a great place, the people are supportive of each other, and I think for me to take on a managerial role, Grand River's a good place to do that."

Under her guide, Fairhall doesn't expect to see many changes ahead of Grand River's opening day card on June 3.

What she does anticipate, however, is a broadening of some of the track's existing offerings.

“We have sponsorship this year from COSA [Central Ontario Standardbred Association] to undergo an expansion on the NEIGHbourhood kids’ area, so we will do that,” she said.

And as Fairhall sees it, the dedicated kid-friendly space is not just for the next generation of racing fans.

“We’re trying to bring the adults in, too,” she said. “We already have the virtual reality racing equipment on site, and that’s been a big draw for us. I’ve worked with the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance and their VR setup when they started roaming around to different places, and honestly, some adults have just as much, if not more fun than the kids do.”

Several staples will also be returning this year, including the fan-favorite wiener dog races and Grand River’s hallmark event, Industry Day, which comes back Aug. 3 to feature The Battle of Waterloo and Battle of the Belles.

Throughout the 42-race date season, set at a three-night-per-week pace (Monday-Wednesday-Friday), on-track atmosphere will remain a point of emphasis for Fairhall and company.

“Hopefully, we’ll have something to do with the live offering, whether it’s watch parties for local horses that are doing well in the industry or other themes,” she said. “We have patio parties during the live season to bring people in and promote ownership.”

Grand River’s patio parties, as Fairhall added, have a way of strengthening personal connections to the sport, its people, and its equine athletes.

“Even for me, with our family’s horse – Karma Seelster doing well a couple years ago, we would have watch parties for her when getting to the track wasn’t possible,” Fairhall said. “It was just that much more exciting for people knowing someone who had a direct connection. So, maybe it’s not always about ownership, but getting people excited... I can watch the big football or soccer games with all the professionals, but sometimes it’s more exciting watching someone you know playing and being involved.”

Having a place for current and future racing fans to make new memories is a significant part of what Fairhall hopes to achieve during her tenure as raceway manager.

To get there, she will rely on the values that her parents instilled in her well before she embarked on a career in racing.

“Both my parents were very dedicated to what they did, so much so that we even had childhood birthday parties at the track,” she said. “My dad is very adamant that your workspace is clean and organized – he probably had one of the cleaner stables I’ve ever been to in my life.

“They both did their best to preach good work ethic and respect for the people you work for, the people you work with, the horses that drive our sport, and the industry itself.”

With the season still about one month away, there is plenty on Fairhall’s mind as she gears up for her first year steering the Grand River ship.

For one, she’d be delighted by an increase in handle, and will pursue that with her team to the best of their abilities.

But as Fairhall noted, success isn’t merely defined by a number – it’s also something you can feel.

“For me, the year [will be] a success if the horsepeople, judges and everybody leaving still has a positive attitude and feeling like Grand River is doing their best to provide a safe, enjoyable, good place to race their horses, run their business or spend their time,” she said.

The 2026 racing season at Grand River Raceway kicks off Wednesday (June 3). First race post is 6:20 p.m.

Finding value in the Borgata and McIntyre finals

by Frank Cotolo

As my personal odds line (POL) indicates for tonight's (May 8) $478,000 featured pace at Yonkers, the Grade 2 Borgata final for 3 and up open pacers, there is a tight fit for a few overlays. The talented field going 1¼ miles around the half-miler could produce a few values by demanding prices on or over the personal lines. Here is the rundown in post-position order:

- 1. Coaches Corner – 5-2
- 2. Soho Firestone A – 30-1
- 3. Donegal Luther N – 9-2

Mike Lizzi

The author thinks Donegal Luther N (Yannick Gingras, shown winning a second leg of the Borgata) could provide good value in tonight's $478,000 Borgata final.

- 4. Captain Albano – 6-1
- 5. Huntinthelastdolar – 6-1
- 6. Redwood Hanover – 6-1
- 7. Mossdale Ben N – 30-1
- 8. Howlenthehills – 30-1

Frank Cotolo also thinks Tarapasta (Matt Kakaley, shown winning a third leg of the McIntyre) could provide value in tonight's $456,000 McIntyre final.

Trusting my POLs, I never buy a win ticket on any horse I make over 6-1. Even then, my betting chart demands 6-1 go off at 9-1 for the bet to assure profit. This is a talented field where I estimate three horses, each at 6-1; a 14-per cent chance to win. Anyone could wind up my bet, especially since the morning line makes the favorite, Coaches Corner 9-5, which is likely to become an underlay, going off far less; that eliminates any bet on it for me.

Donegal Luther N at 9-2 is in play at 7-1. Those odds seem possible in this classy lot because there could be a major win-bet dump on the 9-5 morning line choice, giving Donegal Luther N overlay status. It would be alarming but should anything take the crowd off Coaches Corner, 7-2 would make him a major overlay on my POL.

The three 6-1 shots are hard to separate and if Coaches Corner is an overwhelming favorite, that is, well beneath my 29-per cent chance to win, the 4, 5, and 6 horses may all promise better than 9-1 in which case I would not wager on any of them. Their estimations surely expel betting any of the trio.

In order of my POL evaluations and the prices I need to present a valuable win bet, here are the top two win bet possibilities:

- Donegal Luther N – 9-2 – wager at 7-1 up
- Coaches Corner – 5-2 – wager at 7-2 up

MGM URSULA MCINTYRE SERIES FINAL

Louies Girl N charts to suck up the most bucks in the win pool in the Grade 2 $456,000 McIntyre final for 3 and up female pacers, and that is a tough situation for anyone writing a POL. Assigning the Per Engblom trained mare a whopping 1-1 (50 per cent chance to win) the seven others have to share the other 50 per cent.

I am comfortable giving Tarapasta a 6-1 line but that takes another 14 points away from our 100-per cent pie. With only 64 points left for the other six, it is difficult to imagine any of them nearing a valuable bet. Perhaps Coastal Babe A could tag a 6-1 along with Tarapasta but that seems to be more a hopeful line than a mathematic badge.

In order of my POL evaluations and the prices I need to present a valuable win bet, here are the top three win bet possibilities:

- Louies Girl N – 1-1 – wager at 2-1 up
- Tarapasta – 6-1 – wager at 9-1 up

Coastal Babe N – 6-1 – wager at 9-1 up

May the odds be with you.

Post positions drawn for Borgata and McIntyre Series finals at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Coaches Corner and Silk Cloud A drew the coveted pole positions in the Grade 2 $478,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series and Grade 2 $456,000 Ursula McIntyre Pacing Series finals, respectively, being held tonight (May 8) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Last year's MGM Grand Prix Series champion at Yonkers, Coaches Corner will be driven in the Borgata final by Jason Bartlett for trainer Per Engblom and posted two wins and a second in his divisions of the last three legs of the series. Meanwhile, 2025 Aria Invitational champion Captain Albano will depart from post 4 for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Noel Daley and defending Borgata champion Mossdale Ben N has post position 7 for the tandem of driver Jim Marohn, Jr. and trainer Peter Tritton.

The full field for the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final is as follows:

GRADE 2 $478,000 MGM BORGATA PACING SERIES FINAL – RACE 8

PP – Horse – Driver – Trainer – Odds

1. Coaches Corner – Jason Bartlett – Per Engblom – 9-5
2. Soho Firestone A – Scott Zeron – Doug Dilloian, Jr. – 20-1
3. Donegal Luther N – Yannick Gingras – Jared Bako – 3-1
4. Captain Albano – Todd McCarthy – Noel Daley – 6-1
5. Huntinthelastdolar – Dexter Dunn – Per Engblom – 5-1
6. Redwood Hanover – Tim Tetrick – Per Engblom – 8-1
7. Mossdale Ben N – Jim Marohn, Jr. – Peter Tritton – 10-1
8. Howlenth hills – Matt Kakaley – Travis Alexander – 20-1

In the Ursula McIntyre final, Silk Cloud A, another Tritton trainee, will be joined by the likes of Louies Girl N, who had four wins and a second in the prelims and gives Bartlett and Engblom a chance of a sweep of the finals. Engblom will also send out defending champion Aardie B Miki N, but she will have to overcome post position 8 for driver Andy McCarthy. Coastal Babe N racked up a trio of victories to go with a runner-up result in her four series appearances and will start from post position 6 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Jared Bako.

Here are the eight mares who will compete in the McIntyre final:

GRADE 2 $456,000 URSULA MCINTYRE PACING SERIES FINAL – RACE 7

PP – Horse – Listed Driver – Trainer

1. Silk Cloud A – Lauren Tritton – Peter Tritton – 6-1
2. Louies Girl N – Jason Bartlett – Per Engblom – 7-5
3. Millwood Bliss N – Dexter Dunn – Nifty Norman – 8-1

7. Tick A Loch A – Jordan Stratton – Chris Height – 20-1
8. Aardie B Miki N – Andy McCarthy – Per Engblom – 20-1

To go along with the finals, there are $100,000 consolations for the McIntyre and Borgata in races 5 and 6, respectively.

Also on Friday night, UFC star Charles Oliveira and harness racing Hall of Famer Tim Tetrick will compete in a team driving challenge between races 4 and 5, with an approximate post of 8:15 p.m. (EDT). One team will be comprised of Oliveira, Dan Dube, Yannick Gingras, and Pat Lachance, and the other will be Tetrick, Jason Bartlett, Lauren Tritton, and Jordan Stratton. The race will be in race bikes and posts will be drawn randomly.

The drivers competing in the challenge, along with Oliveira, will sign autographs by the winner's circle from 5:15 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. The first 150 guests will receive a free poster, courtesy of MGM, and the first 250 guests will receive a free hat, courtesy of the Standardbred Owners Association of New York.

Additionally, bettors have a $25,000 guaranteed Pick-5 pool to look forward to beginning in race 5, and the Empire Terrace dining room will be open from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. It will be buffet style and cost $55 plus tax and gratuity.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) except on Saturdays when it is 3:30 p.m. (EDT).

Meadowlands piecing together excitement for Pace 50

by Debbie Little

Depending on the year, the Meadowlands Pace can seem like a puzzle, and for this year's 50th edition, the ladies of The Big M's marketing department are embracing that concept.

According to Meadowlands director of marketing and event operations, Rachel Ryan, she and assistant general manager Marianne Rotella, graphic designer Kathy Estes, office manager Lisa Smoter, and internet gaming/players club/social media manager Kayla O'Connor, with the blessing of chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir, come up with a yearly design for the commemorative T-shirt that's given away on Pace Night.

"It kind of was like a no-brainer, doing something around soccer, since we have the eight FIFA games here for the World Cup," Ryan said. "And so, I said to Jason, 'Kathy is going to do a special logo, and we’re going to make it the soccer kit style.’ And he said, ‘Oh yeah, that makes sense. That’s great.’”

Since this is the 50th anniversary of the track’s signature event, Ryan said they were thinking outside the box, or perhaps in this case, ball, when it came to how to reveal this year’s design.

“Kayla wanted to do something with the influencers, because we’ve partnered with a number of influencers this year for all our events, since we brought advertising in house,” Ryan said. “We worked with one of them, jessknowsthe deal [Jessica McGrath], last year on an event or two, and we expanded that program this year, so [Kayla] wanted to bring them in and kind of create excitement for the Meadowlands Pace.

“So, after Kathy and I came up with the soccer jersey design, she wanted to do a countdown to the release, to make the hype a little bigger surrounding the 50th Pace and get some additional eyeballs on it being the 50th. And so, [Kayla] came up with the idea of doing the puzzle pieces with the influencers.”

Last weekend, on Saturday night (May 2), Settlemoir got the ball rolling, so to speak, as the first piece to the Pace T-shirt puzzle was placed on the Meadowlands simulcast show.

In addition to track ambassador McGrath, who is also doing how to bet tutorials starting this week, influencers Lauren Spiechowski (@thehungrysw) and Stacey H. (@staceyakawannabefoodie) will also be there this Saturday night (May 9) for the Best Burger Battle and next Saturday for Beerfest because the puzzle piece perception pairs perfectly with The Big M's special events.

Spiechowski announced on Instagram earlier this week that she will have the honor of placing the second piece on the board this weekend in The Meadowlands' version of the picture reveal game.

"They are actually enthusiastic about coming out," Ryan said of the influencers. "A lot of times, their friends come out to the same events, so you get the extra push there. And in partnership with them, we've seen a growth in our social media, not only in our followers, but also in the likes and the comments and the posts. So, they've certainly been a positive influence, especially on our social media side."

The final Pace piece will be placed on Saturday (June 6), the night of Wiener Dog Derby, revealing the image of the shirt that will be given away on Meadowlands Pace Night (July 11).

Settlemoir said he couldn't be prouder of the exceptional effort turned in yearly by the staff at The Big M.

"It just made perfect sense to do something with the World Cup right in our own backyard," Settlemoir said. "They spend hours coming up with some of these ideas and designs. People don't understand, they don't realize the different things that go into everything. They think, 'Oh, that's a cool T-shirt.' And they take it, and they don't think about how it came about. They spend a lot of time working together and coming up with these designs and different promotions, and what everything's going to look like, and the detail to it right down to the stitching on the shirt."

"The Meadowlands Pace means quite a bit to not just the Meadowlands Racetrack, but to the industry as a whole. It's a classic event, and we always have a lot of great family fun activities that are here, that Rachel comes up with and does each year. And this year will be no different, along with the T-shirt giveaway, and we've got a great card that night, and it'll be on FOX Sports as well. I'm finally glad that we're into the stakes season. This has been a brutal winter and spring, and you can quote that in bold."

Settlemoir knows better than most about the quality of this year's shirt since he has already acquired one.

"I immediately stole the first T-shirt," Settlemoir said.

Ryan added with a laugh, "We made sure it was in his size, because that's usually what happens. So, then I had to order another sample to use for photographs."

In addition to mentioning that people have already started to make reservations for Pace Night and that all information for the event can be found on The Meadowlands' website here, Ryan

"The Meadowlands Pace means quite a bit to not just the Meadowlands Racetrack, but to the industry as a whole. also shared that she knows that all of their ideas and everything they do may not be everyone's cup of tea.

"And we understand they're not for everybody," Ryan said. "It's not designed to attract the hardcore gambler or the people that are already coming. This is to bring in the novice race fan or people that just like going to events. And, you know, we're still catering to our everyday customers and to our players club people, but this is just trying to attract and get other people to come out that normally wouldn't."

Settlemoir added, "We like to share the love."

ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

Illinois Night of Champions moving to the State Fairgrounds

by Neil Milbert

The Illinois Department of Agriculture is taking over the Night of Champions and is planning to move the main event in Illinois harness racing from bankrupt Hawthorne Race Course in the Chicago metropolitan area in November to the State Fairgrounds in downstate Springfield in late September.

The Night of Champions consists of 12 races for Illinois-bred pacers and trotters. Last year's purses totaled $1.1 million.

However, Hawthorne then began bouncing checks and freezing purse account funds. As a consequence, all 14 of the programs scheduled to be conducted by Hawthorne's Suburban Downs during January and February were canceled.

The Illinois Racing Board suspended the Suburban Downs racing license on Jan. 26 because of Hawthorne's massive stack of unpaid bills and the track declared Chapter 11 bankruptcy on Feb. 27.

Responding to unrelenting prodding by the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association's executive director, Tony Somone, late last month U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Timothy Barnes issued an order enabling owners, trainers, and drivers to collect the $1,345,382 owed for bounced and uncashed checks and the $1,560,073 in frozen purse account funds.

In March, the judge had approved payments of $1.1 million in overdue purse money and $281,000 in bounced checks owed members of the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association. The thoroughbred meeting that was to begin on March 29 finally got underway on April 19.

The money members of the IHHA and ITHA and out-of-state simulcast creditors are getting is coming from a $20 million line of credit Hawthorne has received from JDI loans to deal with its bankruptcy situation. This line of credit will expire on Aug. 1, putting the duration of the thoroughbred meeting that is scheduled to run through Nov. 1 and the Nov. 6-Dec. 27 Suburban Downs harness meeting on shaky financial footing.

This has prompted the Department of Agriculture to make plans to perpetuate the Night of Champions. It became the state's marquee standardbred event in 2016 after Hawthorne joined forces with its previous adversary (now-defunct) Arlington International Racecourse to force the sister harness tracks Balmoral Park and Maywood Park out of business after they went into bankruptcy because of a successful $77 million lawsuit brought by the northern Illinois casinos.

The lawsuit stemmed from a bill passed by the state legislature to renew the impact fee assessed to compensate Illinois racetracks for a downturn in handle because of casino competition. When then-Governor Rod Blagojevich didn't sign the renewal bill Balmoral president John Johnston called one of Blagojevich's aides, asking what the problem was.

The aide tried to shake him down for a political contribution and Johnston implied that it was forthcoming. The contribution was never made and Blagojevich signed the bill but the phone call had been taped by the FBI. Blagojevich went to prison, the casinos sued charging bribery, and when they were successful Balmoral and Maywood were forced into bankruptcy.

When the Racing Board approved the 2016 schedule consolidation jointly proposed by Arlington and Hawthorne, Balmoral and Maywood had to liquidate.

The schedule consolidation brought harness racing back to Hawthorne for the first time since 2008 but the end of racing at the sister tracks also marked the end of races of national importance in Illinois such as the American-National series at Balmoral and the Windy City Pace at Maywood.

The Night of Champions replaced Super Night at Balmoral – which was inaugurated in 1989 at now-defunct Sportsman's Park – as the biggest event on the calendar for Illinois-breds.

At present, details of the move from Hawthorne to Springfield haven't been solidified, according to Scott Halpin, who oversees the county fairs and horse racing for the Department of Agriculture.

"We want to use the funds [from the department] that normally go to Hawthorne to conduct that program," Halpin said. "Our hope is to make it pari-mutuel."

Unfortunately for IHHA members there no longer is Hawthorne purse account money available to fund weekly non-betting races during spring and summer months as has been done the past few years at Springfield and DuQuoin. Thus, for trainers and drivers who choose to remain in Illinois the only racing opportunities will be 28 programs at the county fairs.

The first pari-mutuel harness racing in the state this year won't take place until the State Fairs. There will be pari-mutuel programs at Springfield on Aug. 13, 14, 15, 19, and 20 and at DuQuoin on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, and 2.

It remains to be seen if a buyer emerges before the July 13 target date to continue racing at Hawthorne and add casino gambling under the terms of the 2018 gambling expansion legislation.

The other option for the track that has been owned by Carey family members since 1909 is to sell the land for development as was done with Sportsman's Park located one block from Hawthorne.

Green sophomore Bam Bam learning to race in Hoosier Park early series action

by James Platz

Entering the month of April at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino, sophomore pacing colt Bam Bam was a new name that had yet to show up in the program. By month's end, the previously unraced Erv Miller trainee had become one of the stars of the early series action at the Anderson oval. Tonight, the Tellitlikeitis–Podges Lady gelding puts his three-race win streak on the line in the second leg of the Hal Dale series.

“ We re-rigged [Bam Bam], changed his bridle, and fed him into the gate late. We treated him like an aggressive horse. He's been rock solid ever since.”

~ Atlee Bender

“He's doing good,” the trainer said. “The first couple starts we were a little bumpy there. He got a little too keyed up and stuff, but overall, he's really coming along good now.”

A $46,000 yearling purchase for the partnership of Anthony Lombardi, Andy Willinger, and Engel Stable of Illinois, Bam Bam did not see a starting gate last season. Training down in anticipation of his freshman campaign, the pacer lagged behind his counterparts in the Miller stable. The veteran conditioner turned him out and pointed to the 2026 season.

Dean Gillette

Bam Bam (Atlee Bender) winning at Harrah's Hoosier Park on May 1 in the opening round of the Hal Dale series.

“You know, we’re just borderline there, because it’s going to take a good horse [to be competitive in Sires Stakes action]. There are some good 3-year-old Indiana-breds out there, but if [Bam Bam] keeps going like he is right now, I think we’ve got a shot.”

~ Erv Miller

“He was just a real immature colt, and actually we got lucky,” Miller said. “He grew up really nice. He was small last year, kind of choppy gaited. When I left Florida, he was probably 10 seconds behind the rest of them. I just decided instead of trying to force him through it, I’d just turn him out. I sent him to the farm, and then we picked him back up in September or October. He really looked good when he came in. He probably grew a hand, four inches or so, and he just looked a lot better, and had a good gait on him then. It just ended up working out good for him.”

Atlee Bender, Miller’s son-in-law, recalled Bam Bam’s early struggles.

“When he was a baby down in Florida, he was just really lazy and immature,” Bender said. “He was sound, there was nothing wrong with him. He didn’t want to train or put anything together, so we just turned him out. He stayed in Indianapolis all winter. He never went to Florida, and I trained him before I went to Florida.”

While Bender worked with the newest crop of babies this winter in the Sunshine State, Bam Bam was in training back home in Indiana. When he returned earlier this year, he found a different horse in the barn.

“He was just so lazy before,” Bender said. “He wouldn’t go by anybody. He wouldn’t tighten the lines at all. Coming back, he wasn’t aggressive, but he was right there on the bit, and he wanted to do it. It kind of surprised me. Carlos, the guy that trained him all winter, did a good job.”

Bam Bam qualified in mid-March at Hoosier Park, turning in a mile that saw him race sixth throughout before pacing home in :27.1 to win in 1:59. Guided by Bender, the sophomore made his debut in the opening leg of the Jerry Landess series. He raced second, again coming off the pace, but this time closing with a :25.3 last quarter.

“In the first race, I was racing him from behind,” Bender said. “It was his first lifetime start. I didn’t want to do anything crazy with him. He came home in 25 and change. He was just marching at the end.”

Bam Bam returned the next time out to capture a Landess series split in 1:53.4. In that race, Bender said the sophomore was anxious going to the gate and aggressive in the early going. The team made some equipment changes in response.

“We re-rigged him, changed his bridle, and fed him into the gate late,” Bender said. “We treated him like an aggressive horse. He’s been rock solid ever since.”

Bam Bam annexed the $20,000 Landess final with a 3½-length score, tripping the timer in 1:52.4.

“He’s doing good,” Miller said. “He’s kind of settled in and figured out what it’s like to be a racehorse.”

Last week Bam Bam added his third-straight win, doing so with slightly different tactics. Whereas Bender had kept the gelding out of contention until later in the mile, he pushed the pacer to the front as the field raced to the half in a Hal Dale division. Reaching the half in :57.4, Bam Bam clicked off a :29.3 third panel before sprinting home in :26.1. The winning margin in the $12,000 contest was one length.

“Last week, I raced him on the front end, and he got a little lost up there,” Bender said. “He’s still very green. He only has a couple starts under his belt.”

With three wins in four starts and $23,500 on his card, Bam Bam appears to be pointed in the right direction. After tonight’s Hal Dale leg the final awaits next week. Then the focus shifts to Indiana Sires Stakes action, with the first leg slated for Memorial Day.

“I think he definitely has the ability,” Bender said. “He’s got a big gait. He can really carry his speed. He hasn’t really been in a fast race where he busts down to the half real fast. We’ll see what he’s got. It’s going to get tougher.”

Jumping into Sires Stakes, Bam Bam will have to tangle with 2-year-old champion Odds On Mr Mamba and a host of others, including stablemate JK The Great, a sires stakes leg winner at 2 with a mark of 1:51.1 and timed in 1:49.2. Miller believes the gelding has the talent, but he still has work to do over the next few weeks in anticipation of that step up to the state’s top program.

“You know, we’re just borderline there, because it’s going to take a good horse,” Miller said. “There are some good 3-year-old Indiana-breds out there, but if he keeps going like he is right now, I think we’ve got a shot.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Europe's elite clash in Naples

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (May 10) edition of the $770,000 Gran Premio della Lotteria in Naples once again confirmed its status as Europe's third biggest race for older trotters. The Italian classic was contested in three eliminations and a final.

Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon—Titty Jepson) proved best in the stretch of the opening elimination for Andrea Guzzinati after tracking cover from fourth-over. The winning time was a sharp 1:52.1 mile rate. Frank Gio (Face Time Bourbon) finished second after racing first-over early before finding cover second-over, while Follia d'Esì (Ringostarr Treb) closed strongly for third after a late opening from the pocket.

The second elimination turned into a gate-to-wire display by Cobra Killer Gar (Readly Express—Lady Killer Gar) for Gabriele Gelormini and trainer Erik Bondo. The duo blasted to the lead early and controlled the race throughout, scoring unchallenged in 1:53.2. Finalmente Par (Varenne) finished second from the pocket and Always Ek (Filipp Roc) took third.

The third elimination was all about Dubhe Prav (Robert Bi—Fancy Prav) and Santo Mollo. Quickly on the engine, Dubhe Prav coasted home in 1:54.2, while Ernesto Spritz (Maharajah) sprinted late for second from third along the rail. Funny Gio (Face Time Bourbon) held well first-over to finish third.

The final delivered plenty of drama. After posting the fastest elimination time, Andrea Guzzinati settled Free Time Jepson fourth-over and waited patiently before launching his bid midway down the stretch. The Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained 5-year-old exploded late and swept past the field with authority, stopping the clock in 1:54. Frank Gio turned in another huge effort. Matthieu Abrivard moved first-over with 1,300 meters remaining before yielding to Always Ek, driven by Magnus A. Djuse. Always Ek pressed leader Dubhe Prav but could not withstand Frank Gio's stretch attack. Ernesto Spritz completed the trifecta after saving ground throughout.

Free Time Jepson enjoyed a breakout season in Sweden last year, winning both the $200,000 Konung Gustaf V:s Pokal and the $100,000 Fyraåringseliten, while also finishing runner-up in the $240,000 Sprintermästaren.

RECORDS TUMBLE AT VINCENNES

At Vincennes on Wednesday (May 6), David Thomain sent Philippe Allaire-trained Normandie Niemen (Italiano Vero—Best Lady) straight to the lead in the $125,000 Prix Masina for 3-year-old fillies. At one point she led by nearly 50 meters and completely outclassed the field, lowering the race record by 1.7 seconds. The new mark now stands at a 1:57.1 mile rate over 2,700 meters. The previous record had been shared by Lotta Bourbon and Magic Night. Norma Jeane (Feeling Cash) closed for second, while Nocive du Choquel (Face Time Bourbon) finished third from the pocket.

Neo de Joudes remains undefeated after another sparkling display in the semi-classic $125,000 Prix Paul Karle for 3-year-old colts. Driven by Eric Raffin, the Jean-Philippe Monclin trainee sat trapped third along the rail and didn't find racing room until just over 100 meters from the wire. That was still enough. The son of Django Riff powered home to win convincingly in 1:57.4 over 2,700 meters, erasing Kocetel du Dain's previous race record of 1:58. Novecento (Earl Simon) finished second after following cover three-wide, while Not This Time (Ready Cash) took third from the pocket behind long-time leader and favorite Nob Hill.

FRENCH ELITLOPPET STARS PREP IN NORMANDY

Three French horses already invited to the Elitloppet are set to line up in Saturday's (May 9) $165,000 Prix des Duces de Normandie at Caen. Defending Elitloppet champion Go On Boy will skip the race, but fellow invitees, Inexess Bleu, Idao de Tillard, and Jabalpur, are all entered over 2,450 meters.

FULL SPEED AHEAD IN HELSINKI

Vermo Racetrack hosts the $220,000 Finlandia-Ajo on Sunday (May 10), where an Elitloppet invitation awaits the winner. Following the draw, two horses appear especially well positioned: Keep Asking (Chapter Seven) and Mellby Knekt (Mellby Viking).

FINLANDIA-AJO FIELD

10. Combat Fighter – Santtu Raitala – Antti Ojanperä

PARALYMPIATRAVET TAKES CENTER STAGE

Saturday's major card at Åbytravet is highlighted by the $300,000 Paralympiatravet final, but two major 4-year-old classics will also be decided.

Open-looking Queen's Trophy

The $200,000 Drottningpokalen for 4-year-old fillies looks wide open.

Elimination winners included Gourmet d'Arc, Pure Athena, Milady Josselyn, Ursula, and Slipstream Zon but the final appears far from straightforward.

Redén loaded in Kungapokalen

The $200,000 Kungapokalen for colts and geldings features two U.S.-bred standouts from Daniel Redén: Variegated (Chapter Seven) and Blank (Gimpanzee). Neither won their eliminations, but both impressed and remain major contenders. Redén qualified four horses overall, including likely favorite Wise Guy (Face Time Bourbon). Redén also holds a strong hand in Paralympiatravet itself with Kentucky River and Francesco Zet.

PARALYMPIATRAVET 2026

1. Kentucky River – Carl Johan Jepson – Daniel Redén
2. Luke The Spook – Adrian Kolgjini
3. Harley Gema – Björn Goop – Marc Sassier
4. Powwow – Mats Djuse – Jan Kristian Waaler
5. Daim Brodda – Eirik Høitomt – Kjetil Helgestad
6. Francesco Zet – Örjan Kihlström – Daniel Redén
7. H.C.'s Crazy Horse – Daniel Wäjersten
8. Charron – Magnus Teien Gundersen – Geir Vegard Gundersen
9. Önas Prince – Per Nordström

Prince Hal Hanover wins G3 Pacey Mindlin to close out Miami Valley meet

by Jason Bluhm for Miami Valley Raceway

The 2026 Miami Valley race meet came to a close on Saturday afternoon (May 2), highlighted by the $100,000 Grade 3 Pacey Mindlin Memorial invitational and eight divisions, two of each sex/gait, of 3-year-old Ohio Sires Stakes.

Prince Hal Hanover won the $100,000 G3 Pacey “The Wizard” Mindlin Memorial invitational by a neck over Lou Hill to close out the card and the meet.

As the wings of the Mike Woebkenberg starting gate folded, Lou Hill would be fastest of all, crossing over quickly to take early command. Carbine would slide in behind him with Ardens Ace

N in third. Up on the outside, Prince Hal Hanover (David Miller) sat patiently waiting for things to settle and then pressed on around the turn towards the front.

Surreal Ideal would get away in fifth with For Once Inmy Life sixth. Little Rocket Man would be parked out in seventh, Oakwood Heymiki IR inside eighth, Charlie May parked out ninth, and Bythemissal in last.

The opening quarter came and went in a sharp :26.3. Lou Hill had the lead by a nose but Prince Hal Hanover continued to press on and cleared for the lead near the grandstands.

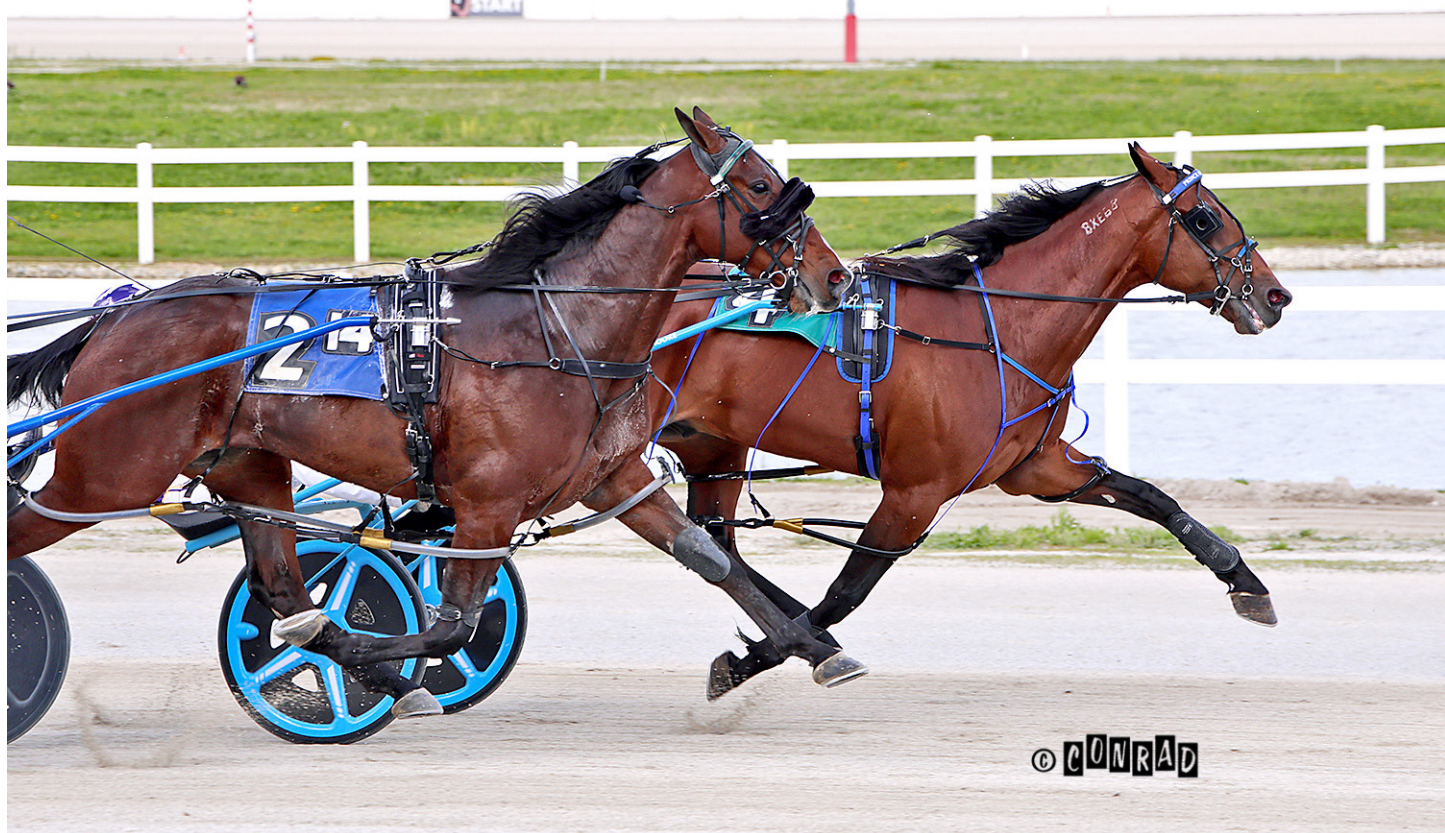

As they neared the half, Ardens Ace N was flushed out first over by Surreal Ideal with the still parked out Little Rocket Man and Charlie May on his back. Prince Hal Hanover would lead them past a half in :54.1.

As they turned up the backside, Prince Hal Hanover continued to show the way with Lou Hill in second. Ardens Ace N slowly closed in from third with Carbine to his inside and Surreal Ideal perfectly placed second over.

The order remained the same as they passed three quarters in 1:22.1. Around the final turn, Prince Hal Hanover still had the lead with Lou Hill waiting for racing room in second. Ardens Ace N started to fade, the first over trip taking its toll, and Surreal

Prince Hal Hanover (David Miller) winning the $100,000 G3 Pacey “The Wizard” Mindlin Memorial invitational last Saturday at Miami Valley Raceway.

Ideal flipped three wide to begin his attack and quest for his 13th win in a row.

At the top of the stretch, Prince Hal Hanover led by a length while Lou Hill angled out of the pocket and Surreal Ideal kept on closing from the outside. In deep stretch, Prince Hal Hanover continued to defend his lead while Lou Hill just kept getting closer. At the wire, Prince Hal Hanover held on by a neck to win his 4-year-old debut in 1:50.1. Lou Hill was a game second while Surreal Ideal, his 12-race win streak snapped, held to finish third. For the Dr. Ian Moore trained Prince Hal Hanover, it was his 11th lifetime win in just 32 starts. He paid $14.60 for the win.

The first of two divisions of OHSS 3-year-old filly trotters went to the Nancy Takter-trained Godusa. Before the wings of the gate folded, Godusa's main two rivals in the race, Charlies Moni and Speedbewithyou both went off-stride. With the main challengers erased, David Miller was able to place Godusa into a pocket trip, pulling first over just before three quarters and battling the final turn before easing away in the stretch to win by 2¼ lengths in 1:55.4. Sarah's Mission was second while Seven Lick Range came home third.

In the second division, Aaron Merriman and Faster Horses found themselves in a familiar position, on the front and in control throughout. The only hiccup was having to navigate two geese that found themselves on the rail in the 4-hole in the middle of the backstretch during the third quarter. Merriman and the rest of the skilled reinsman expertly navigated the geese obstacle course without any ill effects as Faster Horses went on to win by a length-and-a-quarter in a lifetime best of 1:55.4. Ranger Rosie was second while Rose Run Brooke rounded out the trifecta.

In the first division for 3-year-old filly pacers, Merriman had Vanna By The River (trainer Cory Stratton) on the front and in control, but late, she had to hold off a host of closers as challengers were coming at her from all sides. She defeated a hard charging Rodeo Dancer by a nose and two others by a head and neck in winning in 1:53.4. She'safirewoman finished third. It was just Vanna By The River's second lifetime win.

In the second division for 3-year-old filly pacers, Tyler Smith and 26-1 longshot Sassy By The Sea (Herman Hagerman) sat fourth, patiently waiting and saving ground. Around the final turn, she popped out and was shot out of a cannon to cruise by everyone in the stretch and win by a measured length in a lifetime best of 1:52.1. Seaside Charm was second and Kb Wrecking Ball, last week's Hackett winner, finished third. Sassy By The Sea is now two-for-two in 2026.

In the first division for 3-year-old trotting colts, Rose Run Banker (Ron Burke) and Chris Page settled in third and used the cover provided by David Miller and Grape Crush to draft along for three quarters, eventually popping out in the stretch and going right on by to win by a length-and-a-quarter in a new lifetime mark of 1:53.3. Grape Crush held second while Water Slide ended up third. Rose Run Banker is now three-for-three on the year after sweeping the Hackett Memorial leg and final.

In the second division for 3-year-old colt trotters, Chris Lems and heavy favorite Tom Largo (Scott Cox) would go coast-to-coast without ever being challenged and cruise home a winner by three lengths in 1:54.4. Max The Mighty was second and Rose Run Boom was third. Last year's Ohio Sires Stakes runner up and Buckeye Stallion Series champion Tom Largo looks to take aim at the top series in 2026.

In the first division for 3-year-old colt pacers, Trevor Smith and Pet Project (Kim Dailey) worked out a perfect pocket trip behind Backninebar and Chris Page, popping out on the exit of the final turn to slowly reel in Backninebar and beat him by a neck in the final strides in 1:53.1. Fire Run rallied up for third. It was the fifth lifetime win in just 10 starts for Pet Project.

In the second division for 3-year-old colt pacers, Austin Hanners and Prolific Blend (Todd Luther) would draft along in the pocket behind Hackett Memorial winner Crocodile Station through a stiff half of :54.3. After Yacht Rock tired from his first over journey, Prolific Blend popped out of the 2-hole at the top of the stretch and blew right on by Crocodile Station to win by 3¼ lengths in 1:51.2. Caillou Hanover finished third. It was the third lifetime win for Prolific Blend.

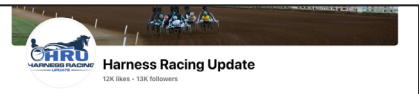

Merriman led all drivers on the closing card with five wins. Leading driver David Miller would make three trips to the winner's circle.

Speaking of the leading driver, Miller (161) returned home and won his first Miami Valley drivers' title, defeating Chris Page (153) by eight wins. During the meet, Miller became the all-time winningest driver by wins and earnings as he continues to add to that record. The rest of the top 10 in order were: Brett Miller (117), Luke Hanners (115), Tyler Smith (93), Trace Tetrick (79), Trevor Smith (77), Kayne Kauffman (51), Austin Hanners (48), and Jeremy Smith (33).

Ron Burke (79) won the trainers' title by 29 wins over Virgil Morgan, Jr. (50). The rest of the top 10 in order were: Heather France (48), Steve Carter (43), Mike Hitchcock (35), Adam Short (22), Anette Lorentzon and Deb Swartz (20), Ken Rucker and Antonia Storer (19).

Mossdale Ben N (Jim Marohn, Jr.) winning his third-leg test of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series on April 13 at Yonkers.

Mossdale Ben N no longer a one-trick pony

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

It is said that you can't teach an old dog new tricks. Horses, though, are another story.

Eight-year-old Mossdale Ben N has been showing off a new dimension to his game this season, and it could serve him well in tonight's (May 8) Grade 2 $478,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series championship at MGM Yonkers Raceway as he looks to win the final for the second consecutive year.

Last season, his first in North America, Mossdale Ben N started 21 times and not once was he in front at the half-mile point of any race. In fact, only twice was he even second. This year, the same trend continued through his first four races, but in six starts since then, the Peter Tritton-trained gelding has won three times in gate-to-wire fashion and only once was he in the back half of the field at the midpoint of the three remaining races.

"It's something that Pete wanted me to go out and try to do," said Jim Marohn, Jr., who has driven Mossdale Ben N in all 10 of his races this year and posted four wins and three seconds. "Pete knew he could leave really fast, and he was pretty confident that he was a horse that could race up toward the front.

"I'm really happy that he's shown that versatility the past five or six weeks. He's not just a closer, he can race from up near the pace, which a lot of times in this race is where the winner is – up close. He's not just a one-dimensional horse, and now people see that."

In the past 18 finals of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series, which was known as the George Morton Levy Memorial Pacing Series until 2020, only twice was the eventual winner in the back half of the field at the half-mile point. Mossdale Ben N was one of those winners when he rallied from seventh in last year's championship.

Mossdale Ben N, who had two wins and three seconds in this year's five preliminary rounds of the Borgata, drew post 7 in tonight's eight-horse final, which will be contested at the distance of 1¼ miles rather than the usual one-mile dash around the half-mile oval at Yonkers. Mossdale Ben N, with Marohn in the sulky, is 10-1 on the morning line.

“I like what they did with going the extra quarter of a mile this year,” Marohn, Jr. said. “People that didn’t draw good spots, in the back of their mind they’re thinking there is another quarter-of-a-mile, things could happen. It’s going to change the complexion of the race one way or another. They’re all good horses, but when you throw that extra quarter-of-a-mile on, it’s different. Not every horse handles it the same.

“Our post position isn’t the best, but it could change right off the bat, and [Mossdale Ben N’s] versatility is an attribute.”

Another attribute has been Mossdale Ben N’s ability to remain on an even keel from race to race regardless of whether he’s gone to the front or come from off the pace.

“I like that his demeanor has stayed the same,” Marohn, Jr. said about the son of A Rocknroll Dance—Mossdale Sue. “Nothing has fazed him no matter how we’ve raced him. Sometimes a horse can get aggressive when they’ve had to race hard, but he’s just as calm as he was the week before and he races just as good. He’s just a total professional, and Pete has done an amazing job keeping him sharp for every single start so far.”

Since arriving in North America, Mossdale Ben N has hit the board in 21 of 31 races, winning 13 and earning $603,840 for owner PJT Investments. He heads to the Borgata final off a second-place finish behind Huntinthelastdolar on April 27, when he missed by a nose despite a :26.4 last quarter. He is one of only two horses in the final field to have posted a sub-:27 last quarter in the series.

“That’s one heck of a last quarter on that racetrack,” Marohn, Jr. said. “You don’t see that a lot at Yonkers at all.”

Coaches Corner, who had two wins and a second in four preliminary starts in the Borgata, is the 9-5 morning-line favorite after drawing post 1. Jason Bartlett will drive the 6-year-old gelding for trainer Per Engblom. Donegal Luther N, who had three wins and a third in four prelim starts, is the 3-1 second choice and will leave from post 3 with Yannick Gingras driving for trainer Jared Bako.

Tonight’s card also features the Grade 2 $456,000 MGM Ursula McIntyre Series championship. Louies Girl N is the 7-5 morning-line favorite after winning four of her five preliminary starts and finishing second in the other. She will leave from post 2 with Bartlett driving for Engblom.

Racing begins at 6:45 p.m. (EDT). For free Yonkers Raceway past performances, visit the Standardbred Owners Association of New York website here.

Also tonight, UFC star Charles Oliveira and Hall of Fame driver Tim Tetrick will compete in a team driving challenge between races 4 and 5, with an approximate post of 8:15 p.m. (EDT). One team will be comprised of Oliveira, Dan Dube, Yannick Gingras and Pat Lachance, and the other will be Tetrick, Jason Bartlett, Lauren Tritton and Jordan Stratton. The race will be in race bikes and posts will be drawn randomly.

The drivers competing in the challenge, along with Oliveira, will sign autographs by the winner’s circle from 5:15 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. The first 150 guests will receive a free poster, courtesy of MGM, and the first 250 guests will receive a free hat, courtesy of the Standardbred Owners Association of New York.

Oliveira, who won a match race against Tetrick in 2021, drove in his first pari-mutuel race in the U.S. on Tuesday (May 5) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. He finished second with Kashed Up A, beaten by a nose.

Stakes season begins with Beau Jangles' return Saturday at Mohawk

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The highly anticipated 3-year-old season debut of the undefeated Beau Jangles highlights this Saturday's (May 9) racing action at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The SBOA Stakes for Ontario sired 3-year-olds will see eliminations contested tonight (May 8) and Saturday at the Campbellville oval to kick-off stakes season. Each of the four SBOA events required a pair of $25,000 eliminations. The top-five finishers from each advance to the finals on May 16.

BEAU IS BACK

Canadian and U.S. Horse of the Year Beau Jangles will make his season debut in the SBOA 3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Pace on Saturday (race 7).

The Dr. Ian Moore trained son of Cattlewash put together a dream 12-for-12 2-year-old season, posting marquee wins in the Grade 1 Metro Pace and Grade 1 Breeders Crown. He also was the Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final champion as part of the incredible $1.6 million earning season.

Beau Jangles prepped for his 3-year-old debut with a pair of qualifiers at Southern Oaks Training Center in Sorrento, FL. Bob McClure takes his usual spot behind the undefeated colt.

Tilthecowscomehome raced in the shadow of Beau Jangles throughout 2025, but did rack up more than $370,000 in earnings and was an O'Brien Award finalist. Saturday serves as another opportunity for the Carl Jamieson trainee to try and steal the spotlight as he is one of six rivals taking on the Horse of the Year.

The second elimination (race 9) for 3-Year-Old Pacing Colts & Geldings shook out as a wide-open affair.

New Image Media

Beau Jangles and caretaker Riley Noble stepping off the trailer after returning from Florida last weekend.

Mike Vanderkemp trainee Windor is the slight 2-1 morning-line favorite. The son of Bulldog Hanover won the Grade 3 Champlain Stakes last season and was second to Beau Jangles in the OSS Super Final.

The field also includes John Pentland trainee Redland Rocket Man, who earned over $178,000 last season, and Ron Burke student Dax Seelster, who won a leg of the Kindergarten Series at The Meadowlands.

The fields for Saturday's 3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Pace eliminations are listed below:

Race 7 – Elimination 1

1. Beau Jangles – Bob McClure – Dr. Ian Moore – 1-9
2. Scorpion Seelster – Louis-Philippe Roy – Dave Menary – 20-1
3. No Waitlist – Doug McNair – Blake MacIntosh – 25-1

4. Mega Moves – Tyler Borth – Anthony Beaton – 25-1
5. Count On Gord – James MacDonald – Chris Matthews – 25-1
6. Tiltthecowscomehome – Jody Jamieson – Carl Jamieson – 10-1
7. Wholetthedogsout – Mark MacDonald – John Pentland – 20-1

Race 9 – Elimination 2

1. Redland Rocket Man – Louis-Philippe Roy – John Pentland – 5/2
2. Letr Sink Son – Travis Henry – Boyd Wilson – 10-1
3. Dax Seelster – Mark MacDonald – Ron Burke – 8-1
4. Liquid – Daryl Thiessen – Dean Nixon – 10-1
5. Borderline Mobby – James MacDonald – Dave Menary – 7-2
6. Windor – Doug McNair – Mike Vanderkemp – 2-1
7. Illicit Behavior – Bob McClure – Shawn Steacy – 5-1

STROBE LITE READY TO SHINE

The SBOA 3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Trot attracted 13 entrants, including O'Brien Award winner Strobe Lite.

The Ben Baillargeon trained Strobe Lite won the OSS Super Final last season and was notably third in the Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial. The son of Alarm Detector posted three wins, nine top three finishes and earned $379,921 in 11 starts.

Strobe Lite has qualified three-times ahead of his season debut. OSS Gold winner Touchedbyanangel serves as a main competitor to the O'Brien Award winner in Saturday's first elimination (Race 2).

The second elimination (Race 3) features OSS Gold winners Mike Me Up and In The Black, along with OSS Grassroots Final winner L P Bay.

The fields for Saturday's 3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Trot eliminations are listed below:

Race 2 – Elimination 1

1. Dream For Peace – Billy Davis – Shawn Steacy – 8-1
2. Touchedbyanangel – Doug McNair – Kyle Fellows – 9-5
3. Strobe Lite – James MacDonald – Ben Baillargeon – 6-5
4. Stonebridge Mac – Bob McClure – Scott McEneny – 10-1
5. Hot Country – Mark MacDonald – Nick Gallucci – 6-1
6. Wolverine Legend – Trevor Henry – Matt Bax – 10-1

Race 3 – Elimination 2

1. Mike Me Up – Louis-Philippe Roy – Kyle Fellows – 7-2
2. First Class Mass – James MacDonald – Dave Menary – 2-1
3. Toss Of The Dice – Mark MacDonald – Kyle Fellows – 10-1
4. In The Black – Travis Cullen – Jeff Williams – 6-1
5. L P Bay – Travis Henry – Mark Etsell – 5-2
6. Trouble With Names – Bob McClure – Paul Reid – 5-1
7. Green Nineteen – Todd Ratchford – Matt Bax – 10-1

FILLIES BATTLE TONIGHT

The SBOA elimination weekend starts tonight with eliminations for the Filly Pace and Filly Trot events.

A total of 16 3-year-old pacing fillies were entered for tonight's eliminations with plenty of star power amongst the group. The headliners of the Filly Pace splits are listed below:

- Three Diamonds (Grade 1) winner Shes A Bulldog makes her season debut in the first elimination for trainer Ron Burke.
- Jack Darling trainee Daya, winner of the Battle of the Belles and Eternal Camnation (Grade 3), will make her 3-year-old debut in the first split.
- Grand Circuit winner Jen Tilly (Grade 3 Eternal Camnation) makes her third start of the season in the second elimination for the Burke stable.

• O'Brien Award winner A Clean Deal, who won six of seven starts at 2 and was the OSS Super Final champion, will make her sophomore debut in the second split for trainer Kyle Fellows.

The SBOA 3-Year-Old Filly Trot received 20 entries to set up two full fields for tonight's eliminations. The top names for the Filly Trot divisions are listed below:

- Paul Reid trainee Flowing Tribute, who won four OSS Gold divisions last season, must overcome post 10 in tonight's first elimination.
- OSS Grassroots final winner Blue Jean Gal makes her season debut in the first split for trainer Julie Walker after winning seven of nine starts as a rookie.
- Multiple OSS Gold division winner Cher Hill makes her first start at age 3 in the second elimination for trainer Gregg McNair.
- Rick Zeron student Cupid Hall, who was second in the OSS Super Final, lines up in the second elimination off a win in her season debut.

JACKPOT HI-5 MANDATORY PAYOUT SATURDAY

Horseplayers will want to take note of a Jackpot Hi-5 mandatory payout scheduled for Saturday's final race (race 12).

The Jackpot Hi-5 carryover currently sits at $183,866.04 heading into the next card of live racing tonight, which serves as the final chance to play ahead of the mandatory payout.

An overflow field of 12 will compete in Saturday's Hi-5 race (race 12 – 10:56 p.m.)

The Jackpot Hi-5 requires horseplayers to select the top five finishers in order. A horseplayer can only win the entire jackpot if they hold the only winning ticket for that evening's wager. If there are multiple winning tickets, half the pool is paid out, while the other half is added to the carryover.

Post time tonight and Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park is 6:30 p.m.

Endurance, Naked And Famous set track records in Oak Grove elims and handle record smashed

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel carried the fervor from a historic running of the Kentucky Derby into a jam-packed day of harness racing stakes on Monday (May 4) that saw a pair of track records established in the eliminations for the Oak Grove Trotting Oaks and Oak Grove Trotting Derby as well as a day of betting that annihilated the previous handle record for the Southwest Kentucky track.

Chris Beaver pupil Endurance (driven by Andy McCarthy), who set the track record for 2-year-old trotting colts last year, added another Oak Grove track record to his resume with a fierce 1:51.3 effort in his seasonal debut, muscling first up for the win in the third of three $50,000 eliminations for the Oak Grove Trotting Derby. Endurance hit his best stride after three-quarters in 1:23 and collared Big Ranger coming off the final turn before spurting away for a 1½-length win over AI (Yannick Gingras), who popped off a pocket trip for second. Nix Nacken earned the last berth into the final in third and Big Ranger tired to fourth.

Lowering the previous track record set last year by Yannick G Kemp of 1:52.3, Endurance added a seventh win to his card from nine starts and has now earned $582,450 for owners Super Endurance Stable, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Mark Moger. The colt by Captain Corey—Love Session paid $3.18 to win.

McCarthy's younger brother Todd McCarthy uncorked a track-record effort in the first of three $30,000 eliminations for the Oak Grove Trotting Oaks while landing a 14-1 stunner with Noel Daley trainee Naked And Famous in a 1:51.2 mile. McCarthy motored his charge out of post 7 to a snug lead in a steep :26.4 opener and carried her speed through a :55.3 half and a sprint to three-quarters in 1:22.3 to successfully string along her competition. Naked And Famous spun for home on a widening lead and hit the beam 7½ lengths better than 2-1 favorite Jailbird Jog closing for second. Carve gave pursuit from a pocket trip for third to earn the last spot into the final while Wishuponastar Deo finished fourth.

Naked And Famous, a daughter of Six Pack—Sleep Tight My Luv, won her fifth race from 13 starts and has now earned $196,950 for owner CTC Stable. She lowered the track record for 3-year-old trotting fillies of 1:51.4 set two years ago by Woman Of Passion, and paid $31.90 to win.

Breeders Crown winner Spencer Hanover (Jason Bartlett) scored in the first of the Oak Grove Trotting Derby eliminations on the day, delivering as the 2-5 favorite in a 1:53.4 effort. Spencer Hanover floated towards the lead past a :28 first quarter to pocket early leader Geologic and strolled from there through middle fractions of :27.3 and 1:25.3. He coasted to the finish 2¾ lengths better than Geologic with Impossible Bi checking in third another 14 lengths behind.

eliminations.

Marcus Melander trains Spencer Hanover, a colt by Chapter Seven—Secret Passion, for owners Jeff Snyder and Arthur Pronti. He paid $2.86 to win.

Trainer Matt Burkholder took the top two spots in the other Oak Grove Trotting Derby elimination with 2-5 favorite Silverstein (David Miller) scampering to a 1:52.3 win over stablemate Requiem. Kingmen kicked from second over for third to make the final and Lethal Legacy finished fourth.

Silverstein collected his fifth win from 13 starts, earning $395,340 for owner Dark Horse Farm LLC. He paid $2.88 to win.

A few races after Naked And Famous surprised on the lead, odds-on favorite Victorianas Secret (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) cruised to a 1:53.3 victory in the second of three Oak Grove Trotting Oaks eliminations. Reaching for a contested stretch drive, Wrenn, Jr. gave Victorianas Secret a few taps of the whip and she responded to the challenge in the lane, staving off Degas in hand by 1½ lengths while longshot Chiquita Ba-beeman snagged the last berth into the final in third. Julie Palema checked in fourth.

Vernon Beachy trains Victorianas Secret, a 3-year-old filly by Tactical Landing—Victoriana, for owner Ryan Smith. She won her third race from 10 starts, earning $100,600 in her career, and paid $2.62 to win.

Custom (Bartlett) landed a knockout blow to 2-5 favorite Setyoursightshigh in the final Oak Grove Trotting Oaks elimination with an explosive late burst to win in 1:52.4. Bartlett found clearance out of the two path to the center of the track in the stretch with Custom and swiftly reached top gear to nail Setyoursightshigh at the line by a half-length. Little Road held third to qualify for the final while Country Glide settled for fourth.

Per Engblom trains Custom, a filly by Walner—Golden Mary FR, for owners Engblom Farm LLC and Thomas Lind-Holm. She won her fourth race from nine starts, earning $61,320 in her career, and paid $8.78 to win.

The top three finishers from each elimination will go through an open draw for their respective finals, the $500,000 Oak Grove Trotting Derby and $300,000 Oak Grove Trotting Oaks. The pair of finals are the headline events at Oak Grove on Preakness Saturday (May 16), the culminating day of the $2.75 million Festival of Racing and a card that will be followed by a concert from country music star Jake Owen. Post time for the special Saturday card is 12:45 p.m. (CDT).

YO TILLIE EQUALS OAK GROVE TRACK RECORD

Yo Tillie (Todd McCarthy) emerged the top performer from the seven divisions of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) second preliminary on the Monday undercard with a track-record equaling 1:51.4 mile to win the lone $50,000 division for 4-year-old trotting mares. She worked past a revved Winnpanzee to the lead in a :26.3 first quarter and continued at a solid clip of :55.1 and 1:23 all while Winnpanzee followed intently from second. R Dutchess mounted a first-over bid but plateaued into the lane, locking Winnpanzee in the pocket until the final sixteenth. She attempted a late attack on Yo Tillie but came calling too late as McCarthy crossed the line a measured winner by three-quarters-of-a-length. R Dutchess held third and Best Friends Girl finished fourth.

Equaling the track record for older trotting mares set three years ago by Yanaba, Yo Tillie won her 21st race from 26 starts, earning $1,334,495. Andrew Harris trains the daughter of Tactical Landing—Consolidator for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. She paid $2.62 to win.

Gimpanzee Dancer (David Miller) took top honors with a 1:51.2 victory in the first of two KYSS divisions for 4-year-old trotting horses and geldings. Miller followed tempo-setter My Degenerate from third to a :26.4 first quarter and gradually reeled that one in on the march to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and pounced with ease in the lane for a half-length victory. Boots N Beer finished third, another five lengths behind, and Royel Comet took fourth.

Chris Beaver trains Gimpanzee Dancer, a stallion by Gimpanzee–Weslynn Dancer, and co-owns him with Carolina Acosta and Derek Ivany. He won his third race from five starts this season and his ninth race from 34 starts in his career, earning $389,667, and paid $2.46 to win.

Go Dog Go (Todd McCarthy) rolled comfortably in the other KYSS dash for trotting males, romping in a 1:52 effort. After clicking a :56.1 half, Go Dog Go began peeling away from pocket-sitter Fifty Rivers and first-up Vugoo passing three-quarters in 1:23.3. He widened his lead more under a strong hold in the stretch to cross the line 7¼ lengths better than Vugoo with Fifty Rivers finishing third and Te Quiero Lindy taking fourth.

Carter Pinske trains Go Dog Go, a stallion by Greenshoe–Primary Target, for owners Wiesman Farms LLC and Al Libfeld. He won his ninth race from 24 starts, earning $661,235, and paid $2.26 to win.

Harrisburg Heist (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) landed the quickest win in the pair of KYSS splits for 4-year-old pacing males that bookended the 15-race card, stopping the clock in 1:50. Turning for home, Harrisburg Heist pushed past Banderas with ease and withstood a late charge from Higher Ground to hold onto the victory by a length. Higher Ground, rallying off a pocket trip, settled for second with Banderas finishing third and Bourbon County finishing fourth.

Ron Burke trains Harrisburg Heist, a gelding by Downbytheseaside–Cashaway, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc., Phillip Collura, and Weaver Brussemi LLC. The gelding won his 14th race from 33 starts, earning $600,202 in his career, and paid $5.18 to win.

Crack Shot (Doug McNair) delivered a snug 1:51.3 win at 1-9 odds in the first KYSS division for pacing males. McNair circled the heavy favorite to the lead after a :27.1 first quarter and strolled through middle splits of :55.3 and 1:23.3 before wrapping the mile an easy winner by 1½ lengths. Somelousomewhere closed first over for second with Captain Arturovico rallying for third and pocket-sitter Delray Beach tiring to fourth.

Winning in his seasonal debut, Crack Shot collected his 12th victory from 25 starts and has now earned $563,733 for co-owner Gregg McNair, who also trains the son of Bettors Delight–Beautyonthebeach, and partners Dale Hunter, Frank Brundle, and George Kerr. He paid $2.18 to win.

Unreasonable (Dexter Dunn) vaulted off a helmet to score the faster win of the two KYSS splits for 4-year-old pacing mares with a 1:49.1 effort as the 3-5 favorite. Dunn launched Unreasonable three wide through the last turn and she hit her best stride into the lane pushing past her rivals and crossing the line 1¼ lengths better than Odds On Chesapeake while Champagne Room shook free from a locked-pocket trip for third. Duration held fourth.

Andrew Harris trains Unreasonable, a daughter of Huntsville–Roaring To Go, for owner Punisher 11 Stable LLC. She won her 13th race from 28 starts, earning $771,634 in her career, and paid $3.44 to win.

Rose (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) delivered as the odds-on favorite in the other KYSS split off a similar second-over trip to stop the clock in 1:50.1. Rose eventually edged off the cones to catch cover from The Last Martini after a :54.3 half and readied a three-wide charge past three-quarters in 1:22.2. Rose kicked strongly for the finish and overhauled Aintnothingucando in the stretch to notch a half-length victory with Caviart Delight, emerging from a locked pocket late, taking third. The Last Martini held fourth.

Ron Burke trains Rose, a daughter of Sweet Lou–Rosemary Rose, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Jack Piatt III, and Larry Karr. The mare won her fourth race from six starts this season and her 11th race from 27 starts in her career, earning $545,702. She paid $3.88 to win.

OAK GROVE CRUSHES HANDLE RECORD

Gamblers showed up with incredible enthusiasm for the blockbuster day of stakes racing at Oak Grove on Monday, which featured just over $600,000 in purses. The 15-race card easily became the biggest betting day in the six-year history of the track with $873,180.47 wagered, besting the previous handle record from last year of $582,666.19 by 50 per cent. With the seven-figure milestone one day in sight for the budding track in Southwest Kentucky, Oak Grove wishes to thank all of the drivers, trainers, owners, bettors, and the entire Oak Grove racing and broadcasting team who have been instrumental in the track's stellar growth over just six years and continue to share a belief and vision in the ever-improving racing product at Oak Grove.

Oak Grove will also have a special card of racing on Sunday (May 10) for Mother's Day and will also host corgi races alongside the day's harness racing action. First-race post time at Oak Grove is 1:10 p.m. (CDT). For more information, visit oakgrovegaming.com. Be sure to book your VIP experience for the Oak Grove Trotting Derby day at oakgrovederby.com.

‘Punk’ magic in stretch, takes Dexter Cup at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Magic Punk had a superb season at 2 for trainer Ake Svanstedt, winning half of his eight starts as well as finishing second to division standouts Apex and Ardonne in the Peter Haughton and William Wellwood, respectively.

Saturday night (May 2) at The Meadowlands, as the track kicked off its Championship Meet, Magic Punk, making his seasonal debut, used a furious stretch rally to take the first significant 3-year-old open trotting stake of the season, the Grade 3 $157,125 Dexter Cup in an event record 1:53.1.

“[From a maturation standpoint he was] really nothing special because he was very all-around last year,” said Sarah Svanstedt. “You just want them to grow a little bit, and he has done that, and he is a talented horse, so he’s going to have a nice 3-year-old season.”

After winning the way he did, it certainly looks that way.

Sitting fifth in the eight-horse field early as Nordic Dancer S hit the quarter in :28.3, Magic Punk stayed glued to the rail as 8-5 second choice Southwind Alamo brushed from fourth to grab the lead at the half in :57.1. Midwind Chimp popped out of the fourth spot just before the five-eighths as Magic Punk looked to track that move, but gapped cover down the backstretch.

Southwind Alamo hit the gas as three-quarters went in 1:25.2 while Magic Punk got closer to his cover before swinging three-wide into the stretch drive.

Southwind Alamo looked like a tired horse with an eighth to go and by now, Ake, who drove the colt by Wishing Stone—I D Entity, had Magic Punk closing with a rush, and the 7-5 favorite drew off to a 1¾-length score over Southwind Alamo using a lightning-quick :26.4 final quarter to do it. Who’s Eyes Blues was third.

“He has been like the top three [trotting colts in our barn],” said Sarah. “So, everything has to, like, follow with the game plan, what they have to do going forward from here. But with this start now in early May, it’s of course nice to think about the future.”

Magic Punk returned $4.80 to his backers while raising his lifetime bankroll to just shy of $300,000.

YGRITTE GAME IN LADY SUFFOLK: Ygritte sat a 3-hole to the half before traveling first-over on the way to a remarkably game performance to take the $67,650 Lady Suffolk for 3-year-old filly trotters.

Magic Punk (Ake Svanstedt) winning the Dexter Cup for 3-year-old open trotters last Saturday at The Meadowlands.

“I mean, she showed a lot,” said winning driver Mattias Melander. “She’s just a fabulous filly. Got to love her.”

All Time Trot S, the even-money favorite, took the lead from Crossover (who hit the quarter in :28.3) before the half and reached that station in :57.2. She still led at three-quarters in 1:26.1, but after racing most of the stretch with a narrow advantage, could not hold off one last surge by Ygritte, who won by a neck in 1:53.3. Crossover was third.

“She showed a lot of toughness [through the stretch drive],” said Melander. “She knows what to do and she’s just very nice like that.”

Trained by Mattias’ brother, Marcus, Ygritte, who had only one start at 2 after sustaining an injury early on in the season, won for the second time from just three lifetime starts. The daughter of Gimpanzee—Etta Am S returned $35.80 as the 16-1 fourth choice in the wagering.

ANTOIGNONI S WINS BATTLE OF THE BURKES: Antognoni S put on another awesome display of explosive speed, following up his season-opening 1:51.1 score on April 10 with an even more impressive performance in the $40,000 JL Cruze open handicap for trotters, taking down his Ron Burke-trained stablemate Lexus Kody, who was the 2025 Dan Patch Trotter of the Year.

“He’s a super-fast horse and his manners are getting really good now,” said winning driver/co-owner Yannick Gingras of Antognoni S.

Antognoni S sat a 3-hole trip and vacated the rail just as the field started to bend onto the far turn. With an electric burst of speed, he took the lead away from Lexus Kody at the top of the stretch before taking control at the eighth pole on the way to a 1½-length win in a lifetime-best 1:50.4. Ari Ferrari J was third.

“You know, ‘Kody’ is still the horse to beat; it was his first start [of the year] tonight,” said Gingras. “He’s a couple of weeks behind this horse, but, you know, Kody can put [up] big fractions and live to talk about it. I don’t know if this horse can do that. But as far as when it turns into a sprint, I don’t think there’s many horses that can hold him out.”

Antognoni S, a 6-year-old gelded son of Father Patrick—Bouncing Bax, returned $2.40 as the 1-5 public choice. He’s now won 24 of 46 lifetime starts, good for earnings of just over $575,000.

A LITTLE MORE: Jason Bartlett and Joe Bongiorno topped the driver colony with three winners apiece... All-source wagering topped the $3-million mark for the fourth time this year at The Big M, as $3,222,493 was pushed through the windows.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dan Noble makes history with 11-win night

In a performance that could go down as one of the greatest driving nights in harness racing history, Dan Noble set a new all-time single-card record at Northfield Park by capturing 11 races on the Saturday night (May 3) card.

Noble's milestone evening began with a victory in race 2 behind Coz I'm Special (Cory Deyermand). After a brief pause, he launched into an unprecedented streak. Noble won 10 consecutive races, sweeping races 4 through 13 in a display of dominance.

The historic win streak included victories with Ember Lynn (Rocky Loney), Dancin Suzy (Crist Hershberger), Kant Katch Kenzie (Jessica Millner), No Turbulence (Rocky Loney), You Fear Me (Rena Loney), Survivin Fire (Lorie Davis), Uptown Hanover (Cory Deyermand), Ponda Diamond (John Oliverio), Mt Camas (Herman Hagerman), and Sweet Illouision (Lionel Watiker).

As part of the streak, Noble took down both featured events with Mt Camas dominating the Hunter Myers Memorial Series final for $20,000 with a seven-length score and Sweet Illouision winning the $20,000 filly and mare open pace from post 8 while never seeing the rail. It truly showed Noble was pushing all the right buttons with all his drives.

With the performance, Noble surpasses the previous single-card record of 10 wins, a mark he had already matched twice in November and December. Prior to Noble's achievement, the 10-win benchmark had been shared by notable drivers including Walter Case, Jr. (twice), Greg Grismore, Aaron Merriman, and Brett Miller.

Noble now stands alone as the first driver in Northfield Park history to record 11 wins on a single race card, setting a new standard of excellence at the half-mile oval.

Jimmy Devaux's sister, Cherie, first female trainer to win Kentucky Derby

On Saturday (May 2), horse racing history was made when Golden Tempo won the Kentucky Derby for Cherie Devaux, making her the first female trainer to win the Run for the Roses in the 152nd edition of the race.

Devaux, originally from Saratoga Springs, NY, is from a horse racing family.

According to her trainer profile from Keeneland, "Cherie is from the Saratoga Springs, NY, area, and her family has been involved in standardbred racing. Her brother Jimmy has won more than 5,000 races as a driver/trainer. (Note: Jimmy has 7,927 career driving wins.)

"Cherie is married to Central Kentucky-based bloodstock agent David Ingordo. Her younger sister Adrienne began training in September 2024. Adrienne worked for Cherie for four years."

She had some of her family with her to celebrate the victory in the winner's circle at Churchill Downs.

"After the race, Devaux celebrated with her husband, sister, daughter, and nephew by her side shedding plenty of tears of joy," reported Yahoo Sports.

But her brother Jimmy wasn't there with her. He was back home at Saratoga Raceway driving in 10 races there on Saturday.

UFC's Oliveira nosed in sulky bow

Charles Oliveira, a star of the UFC (mixed martial arts) lightweight division, is a longtime standardbred fan from back in his native Brazil, and on Tuesday (May 5) he made his pari-mutuel debut as a driver at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, acquitting himself honorably by missing by just a nose with Kashed Up N to favored I'll Play It Alone.

On paper, the race looked front-end-heavy, which is probably why the renowned leaver Ronaldo N was taken back off the gate and why Josias Santos, the Brazilian who introduced Oliveira to the game and who was also in his first pari-mutuel start after winning a qualifier last week, was aiming early for a tuck with Neyreit, another horse who almost always fires away. Instead, He's Special, who had succeeded on the front-end last time, blasted out to command, with Oliveira guiding Kashed Up N into the 2-hole as the pacesetter put up a :27.4 opener then got a breather against the wind to a :57.4 half.

I'll Play It Alone, coming off a strong closing win, started uncovered in front of the stands and advanced, and as the field started down the backstretch Oliveira decided to vacate the 2-hole with Kashed Up N, battling the pacesetter to and past a 1:25.2 three quarters, with the chalk following the live cover then tipping three-high with an eighth to go.

The pacesetter stayed in the battle until midstretch; at that point it was apparent that the decision was going either to Kashed Up N and Oliveira or I'll Play It Alone and driver James Kennedy. The two horses and drivers gave their all, and then the photo finish declared a decisão por uma margem mínima (Portuguese, the language of Brazil, for "a victory by the smallest margin") to I'll Play It Alone in the 1:54.2 mile. Oliveria was thrilled by the competition and his participation, and Santos also showed his gameness – he now owns Neyreit, and the pair is right back in to go Friday at Philly. Oliveira will be at Philly on Sunday for more competition.

Pocono's next two cards, on Saturday and Monday at 1 p.m., will both feature Pennsylvania All-Stars action for 3-year-old pacers. Another C Note, undefeated in four starts this year and a winner in the first Sire Stakes leg at The Meadows, tops the colt and gelding ranks, while Miss Jum Jabber, who defeated 2025 division champion Loua Dipa last week at Philly, heads the contending fillies. World Cup to shake up Big M live and simulcast schedules

The FIFA World Cup 2026 is coming soon to the New York metropolitan area, and with it, given that the championship soccer match will be played in the shadow of The Meadowlands at New York New Jersey Stadium (aka MetLife Stadium), there are some things that regular Big M live racing and simulcast customers should be aware of.

"With live World Cup matches taking place at the stadium on Saturday (June 13), and Saturday (June 27), there will be no live racing at The Meadowlands those evenings, pending approval from the New Jersey Racing Commission," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir.

The Meadowlands will seek to make up those race dates on Thursday (June 11), and Thursday (July 2).

In addition, The Big M will ask the Commission to cancel simulcasting on the following dates, when World Cup matches will be played:

- Tuesday (June 16)
- Monday (June 22)

- Thursday (June 25)
- Tuesday (June 30)
- Sunday (July 5)
- Sunday (July 19)

"We are hoping that our regular customers don't mind some inconvenience when the World Cup is in town," said Settlemoir of the tournament that begins on June 11 and concludes July 19. "But the fact is, those days play out like Football Sundays when the Jets or Giants are playing home games. The difference is, there is no parking on site. We are open on days when there is soccer to any rideshare customers on property. On those days, patrons can get their action in the FanDuel Sportsbook.

"In addition, we will be offering watch parties for both soccer and racing when there are no games held at the stadium. We want people to come out early and enjoy the matches while accessing our property for wagering, not to mention the many food and beverage choices we offer at The Meadowlands."

THE RETURN OF MEADOW FROM THE MEADOWS: This weekend marks the return of Meadow Twaddle to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

Twaddle, the newly minted marketing director of The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association, will serve as co-host alongside Big M TV host Dave Little for both race cards.

"It feels great to be back at The Meadowlands," said Twaddle. "There's just an energy here that's hard to match anywhere else in harness racing and I'm excited to be part of it again. I've spent a lot of time over the last few months working hard on my skills and growing professionally, so I'm eager to put that to use again in this environment.

"As for the new job, it's been going really well so far. I've loved getting the chance to connect with people, promote the sport, and bring some fresh ideas to the table. There's a lot of momentum right now, and I'm excited about what we're building and where things are headed."

The pregame show begins at 6 p.m. nightly.

Both tonight and Saturday, Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot calling the races while Gary DiLeo will handle back-paddock interviews.

DiLeo will provide commentary and selections for the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed tonight.

MELISSA KEITH IS BACK: Melissa Keith, the columnist from Harness Racing Update who served as the track announcer at Rideau Carleton Raceway until the track's recent closing, will be back in The Meadowlands fold this Saturday night, when she serves as the commentator for the mile oval on the FDTV feed.

Keith was the race caller for the entire Meadowlands program on Saturday (March 7), when the track celebrated International Women's Day with an all-female talent team.

SENSATIONAL SIRE STAKES STARS: Several big players on the New Jersey Sire Stakes scene will get behind the gate Saturday night in a pair of Platinum-level $25,000 leg 2 events for 3-year-old pacers.

In the split for fillies, all eyes will be on Be Perfect BG, the daughter of Perfect Sting—JK Mardi Says, who ran her lifetime record to six wins in six tries after winning her seasonal debut last week in a lifetime-best 1:50 as the 1-9 favorite for trainer Tony Beaton and driver Dexter Dunn. She'll depart from post 1 as the 6-5 morning-line favorite.

Azrael Blue Chip is the one to beat in the division for colts and geldings. The Besim Odza-trained colt by Perfect Sting—Bathsheba displayed explosive late pace a week ago, only to come up a nose short to Bookie J (who is not in this week) in a 1:50 mile with Andy McCarthy in the pilot's seat. He has drawn post 4 and will start at 5-2 on the morning line.

THE SPECTACULAR SEVEN: Here is the new lineup of wagers that will be offered every racing night. They all offer a low 15 per cent takeout:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Early Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Early Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: 20-cent Late Pick-5
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Late Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 14: 10-cent Late Pentafecta (Hi-5)

Chris Page drove three winners in the eight $20,000 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore fillies at Northfield Park Racino on Sunday (May 3).

Page guided filly pacers Climate and Queen Valerie and filly trotter Til The End As to victory.

Climate won the second division for filly pacers by 1½ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:53. Takeaway Hanover (Dan Noble) led the field past the first three calls but ended up finishing third. Climate was first over at the three-quarter mark and pulled away down the stretch as Jamie Amanda (Luke Hanners) overtook Takeaway Hanover for second place. Climate is trained by Joe Seekman for owner L&L Devisser. The Downbytheseaside filly has hit the board in seven of 10 career starts with two wins and $27,632 in earnings.

Queen Valerie won the third division for filly pacers. Trained by Ron Burke, the Summa Cum Laude filly led gate-to-wire and won by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:56.1 for her first victory in four seasonal starts. Eyes Up (Noble) was second followed by Juliet Capulet (Luke Hanners) in third. Queen Valerie is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services, and RAS Racing. She has three career wins and $41,837 in earnings.

Til The End As took the victory in the first division for filly trotters. The Anette Lorentzon trainee led gate-to-wire and won by 2½ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:59.3. Rose Run Bridget (Tyler Smith) and Tomboy Strong (Anthony MacDonald) were second and third, respectively. Til The End As is a Guardian Angel As filly owned by Acl Stuteri Ab. She has hit the board in five of seven lifetime starts with two wins and $37,150 in earnings.

Smith took a pair of BSS wins on Sunday, driving pacer Baxter Tough and trotter Lynn Range to victory.

In the fourth division for filly pacers, Baxter Tough rallied from fourth place to win by a length in 1:56.1 over Hold On Tight (Justin Irvine) and Sando (Austin Hanners). Baxter Tough has hit the board in seven of 10 starts this year with three victories. The Dancin Yankee filly is trained by Joshua Rowe and owned by breeder Matt Rowe. She has $45,444 in career earnings.

Lynn Range led gate-to-wire in winning the fourth division for filly trotters by a length in a lifetime-best 1:56.1. Dublins Breanna (Braiden Rhoades) was second followed by Topville Lady (Page) in third. Lynn Range has 10 wins and two seconds in 15 career starts with $51,283 in earnings. The In Range filly is trained by Herman Hagerman for owners Hagerman Racing, Lucinda Belcher, and Martin Yoder.

Other winners:

- Cruzin Tothe Pier (Noble) won the first division for filly pacers by a length in 1:55.3 for trainer Ron Steck, who co-owns the horse with Anvil And Lace Farm, Taggart Farms, and Steven Jefferis. The Downbytheseaside filly has hit the board in eight of 12 lifetime starts with two wins and $37,782 in earnings. I Love Desi (Austin Hanners) and Racing Artist (Aaron Merriman) finished second and third, respectively.

- Off The Rails (Luke Hanners) won the second division for filly trotters, edging Chasingstardust As (Page) by a neck as both horses tripped the wire in 1:58.2. Charlotte Elise (Chris Lems) was third. Off The Rails is an Enterprise filly trained by Deborah Swartz, who co-owns the horse with Thomas Adams. She has hit the board in 10 of 14 lifetime starts with three wins and $38,099 in earnings.

- Moolah In The Bank (Lems) won the third division for filly trotters by three lengths in a lifetime-best 1:57.1 for her third victory in five seasonal starts. Fast Dreams (Noble) and Capturethephoto (Kayne Kauffman) finished second and third, respectively. Trained by Scott Cox, Moolah In The Bank is an In Range filly owned by Wayne Mast, Jr., Callam Racing, Scott Cox Stables, and Wayne Zollars. She has hit the board in 10 of 15 career starts with four wins and $30,204 in earnings.

The Buckeye Stallion Series continues Saturday (May 9), with sophomore colt and gelding pacers and trotters at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

State Assembly Speaker Coughlin visits Offshore Farm

New Jersey State Assembly Speaker Craig Coughlin on Thursday (April 30) visited Julie and Andy Miller's Offshore Farm, where he met with members of the standardbred community to hear concerns regarding a proposed adjustment to the state's annual appropriation for horse racing purses in the fiscal year 2027 budget.

Gov. Mikie Sherrill's budget proposal for FY2027 includes a $5 million appropriation for purses, a reduction from the $20 million provided in previous years. The appropriation was first introduced in 2019 as part of a five-year, $100 million allocation that has been renewed in subsequent years with the vital support of Speaker Coughlin.

An economic impact study in 2024, completed with assistance from the SBOANJ, showed horse racing generated $75 million annually in tax revenue for New Jersey.

Speaker Coughlin's visit to Offshore Farm, which included a lunch reception and fundraiser, was hosted by the Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association of New Jersey and the state's standardbred industry's political action committee, TrotPAC.

Among those joining Speaker Coughlin for the event were SBOANJ president Mark Ford as well as fellow officers Tony Romano, Chris Ryder, Julie Miller, and Al Ochsner. The group also included SBOANJ directors Stephen Dey III, Julie Meirs, and Anthony Perretti. Other industry representatives included John Campbell and Nadia Tarnawa from the Hambletonian Society and Jason Settlemaier from The Meadowlands. Many trainers and drivers were in attendance as well including Patrick Ryder, Dexter Dunn, Johnathan Ahle, Andrew McCarthy, Tyler Miller, Mark Herschberger, Helen Engblom, Stacy Chiodo, Annie Stoebe, Joe Holloway, and Trond Smedshammer.

Speaker Coughlin toured Offshore Farm during his visit, at the conclusion of which he addressed a large group of attendees to explain the budget process and pledge support for the industry. Last year, Gov. Phil Murphy's proposed budget included a $10 million appropriation for horse racing purses but was restored to $20 million by the Legislature as part of the budget process.

PA All-Stars races at Pocono ready to kick off for 2026

Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania annually presents the Pennsylvania All-Stars series of races, giving the state-sired stars of the sport an additional opportunity of racing while bringing quality horses to the northeast Pennsylvania oval. The first of the All-Stars races, for the glamour division of the 3-year-old pacing colts, will be held this Saturday (May 9) in four sections; its companion race for fillies will be held in three cuts on Pocono's following racing day, Monday the 11th.

It was taken for granted that trainer Ron Burke would have many of the top contenders among this group of 3-year-old pacing males. Frantic Hanover set a one-year Sire Stakes record for earnings of $288,564 in 2025, beating the 10-year-old mark of pacing filly Pure Country, $286,918, while winning all four of his prelims and then the Sire Stakes championship; he was also a factor on the national scene, as were stablemates Al Papi and Melillo, 2-3 to him in the PASS Championship.

All three of these horses raced in the Sires first leg at The Meadows last Saturday, but none came away with a win – "Frantic" and Melillo were second, Al Papi third. Yet the Burke Brigade still won a Sire Stakes division behind the developing Another C Note, perfect in four starts this year and having taken his mark of 1:50.4 at Pocono in his seasonal debut. Another C Note, a Captaintreacherous colt owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC along with Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Scott Dillon, will be driven Saturday by local leading sulkysmith Tyler Buter from post 4 in the fourth race All-Stars division, which like the others will go for $30,000.

Monday's filly contests find all the first state-sired prelim winners – two from the Sire Stakes and five from the Stallion Series – entered into the All-Stars. The most attention will be on the rapidly-developing Miss Jum Jabber, who spoiled the 2026 debut of Dan Patch Award winner Loua Dipa in their Sires matchup, coming from last and flashing home in an almost-unbelievable :53 - :26.2 to catch Loua Dipa in 1:51.3. Miss Jum Jabber, a daughter of Bettor's Wish trained by Brett Pelling for his Pelling Racing LLC, will be starting from post 5 in the 12th race Monday, with Andrew McCarthy set for sulky duty. This will be only her sixth lifetime start; it's a bit scary if she continues to get better.

The All-Stars contests for the Pennsylvania 3-year-old trotters will be held later in May; all four 2-year-old contests are clustered in the first half of July. It should be noted under "Pennsylvania-Sired Stakes News" that the following Saturday (May 16) will find Pocono hosting the second preliminary of the Sire Stakes and Stallion Series for the pacing colts, races which should bring more early-season clarification to this talented division.

The win streak continues for On To Norway at Hoosier

Picking up right where he left off in 2025, On To Norway driven by John De Long for trainer Ron Burke returns to familiar territory making it 24 straight wins with his first of 2026 in the $22,000 open trot at Hoosier on Saturday (May 2).

Trotting from his assigned post 5, On To Norway settled into the fourth position as Ponda Jet got to the rail first meeting the first quarter in a quick :26.2. Ponda Jet led the six-horse field single file into the backstretch headwind, closely followed by his stablemate Operator (Marcus Miller) then Famous Father (Luke Plano) sitting second and third, respectively.

The field stayed tight and unchanged to the halfway point led by Ponda Jet in :57. After the halfway mark, On To Norway was right-lined by De Long and began to advance first-over. Moving to the three-quarters in 1:27.2, Ponda Jet's lead started to dwindle as On To Norway continued first-over to the leader's wheel.

Breezing past Ponda Jet, On To Norway found the open freeway down the stretch. Looking to contend late, Operator ripped off the cones attempting to catch On To Norway. Leaving a mountain to climb for the field behind him, On To Norway rode the wind with a :25.4 blitz to the wire to get home a length clear in 1:53.2. Operator cashed in for second while Ponda Jet settled for third.

Kicking off the 4-year-old season with a bang, On To Norway is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Frank Baldachino, Black And White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal. On To Norway, the Muscle Massive gelding, improved his lifetime earnings to $671,381 and paid $3.20 keeping the win streak alive at 24.

Nominations due soon for Banker Volo, Burning Blaze series events

The race office at Running Aces reminds owners and trainers that the nominations for the two early season series events are due next week.

Nominations (with the $125 fee) for the Banker Volo trotting series are due by Monday (May 11) and nominations and ($125) fees for the Burning Blaze series are due by Thursday (May 14).

Each series is for non-winners of 1 extended pari-mutuel race or $15,000 lifetime, with allowances for mares and for Minnesota-sired horses.

Nomination forms may be mailed in (if postmarked on or before the due date) or hand delivered to the racing office at Running Aces.

Nomination forms including full rules and details can be found on the track website (www.runaces.com) under the 'Racing' and 'Horsemen Resources' tabs.

The 2026 live racing season at Running Aces kicks off on Sunday (May 17). The Banker Volo series will get underway on Sunday (May 24) and The Burning Blaze series starts on Thursday (May 28).

Any questions about the series events or general questions about the 2026 racing season may be directed to racing director Steve Carpenito at 651-925-4532.

World's fastest trotter, Homicide Hunter, set to compete at PtHA World Championships

The standardbred world knows Homicide Hunter as a record-breaker. The fastest trotter in history. A horse who stopped the clock in 1:48.4 at The Red Mile and earned over $1.7 million on the racetrack. Now, he's preparing for a very different kind of spotlight. Homicide Hunter, owned by Crawford Farms Racing, will compete under saddle at the PtHA World Championships as part of MMXX Standardbreds; a non-profit standardbred show team and aftercare initiative reshaping what life after racing looks like for standardbreds. PtHA World Championships is a predominantly quarter horse driven event that's open to all breeds where the best of the best in the world compete for titles in the show ring. In April, AQHA judge Thomas Lamson gave words of encouragement, "As someone who works with stock breeds, I can say Homicide Hunter was truly a pleasure to watch and one I would be proud to have in my own [show] program."

Scaling from the stopwatch to the show ring

For decades, standardbred aftercare has largely relied on intake-based nonprofit models, where horses are transferred into program care before being retrained and adopted out. While effective in its use case, these systems are expensive and inherently limited in scale.

MMXX Standardbreds is advancing a different approach. Instead of taking possession of horses, MMXX facilitates direct, vetted adoptions from racing owners and trainers to riding homes, at no cost to the connections. By removing the need for long-term holding, boarding, and retraining overhead, the model unlocks something the industry has long needed: true scalability. The program has completed 400 adoptions in two-and-a-half years for pennies on the dollar, proving its concept.

"This program was founded because we need a solution at scale," said Molly D'Agostino, director of MMXX Standardbreds. "We're trying to expand boundaries to eliminate the kill pen crisis for good. There are simply too many horses we are breeding every year to rely on models that require full intake. Standardbreds don't need that bottleneck."

Built for the second career

Unlike many breeds, standardbreds arrive at retirement from racing with a foundation most sport horses never receive. They are broke, conditioned, usually traffic-safe, and accustomed to structured training environments. The racing foundation has quietly made them one of the most accessible and beginner-friendly riding horses in the industry. MMXX leans into that reality. Instead of positioning retraining as a barrier, MMXX Standardbreds treats it as an empowered transition; one that can happen successfully in the adopter's hands with the right support.

To bridge that gap, MMXX also published an online comprehensive retraining platform, including discipline-specific retraining modules across saddle sports, instruction from leading show professionals, judges, and riders, a full "Harness Racing 101" curriculum to help adopters understand their horse's past, and educational pathways that introduce riding families to the racing industry, including fractional ownership opportunities.

A horse who can carry the message

MMXX Standardbreds utilizes its standardbred show team to help produce media assets to market the adoptions of the racehorses. Homicide Hunter, the star of the 2026 MMXX Standardbreds show team roster, making an appearance at PtHA Worlds represents a rare and powerful bridge between two worlds that have historically operated in parallel. "He's just so special," said Michelle Panebianco of Crawford Farms

Racing, who has remained a consistent supporter of MMXX Standardbreds from the beginning through the placement of Crawford Farms retirees and ongoing charitable contributions by Deja Blu Stables. On the racetrack, he was defined by speed and straight lines. In the show ring, success demands something entirely different: rhythm, softness, adjustability, and expression. His transition highlights a truth that MMXX Standardbreds is working to bring into the mainstream.

Expanding the pipeline

Established aftercare organizations such as New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program and Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program have built critical infrastructure for the industry. MMXX's model is designed to complement (not compete with) those efforts. MMXX creates a parallel pathway for horses that are suitable for immediate transition into riding homes. This increases overall throughput while preserving intake resources for horses that truly require rehabilitation or longer-term retraining.

Our finish line

As Homicide Hunter enters the ring at PtHA Worlds, he carries a blueprint. One where aftercare is not constrained by capacity. Where adoption doesn't require a waiting list. Where the end of a racing career is the beginning of a broader, more connected ecosystem. Where the standardbred, long defined by what it does in harness, begins to be recognized for everything it can become beyond it.
