Reflections of a four-time Hambletonian champ

Mike Lachance on his successful partnership with trainer Ron Gurfein.

According to Hall of Fame driver Mike Lachance, when it comes to his four Hambletonian victories, some things were just meant to be.

Lachance's quartet of wins started in 1994 with Victory Dream for trainer Ron Gurfein and ended with Amigo Hall in 2003 for trainer Blair Burgess.

"Three of those Hambletonians were with me and Ronnie Gurfein," Lachance said. "I know I was second with another one for Ronnie [Cantab Hall in 2004], and I must have raced maybe, I don't know, seven or eight for Ronnie in the Hambo. So, most of my Hambletonian experiences were with Ronnie Gurfein."

Gurfein was a friend of the family.

"Ronnie Gurfein was good friends with my brother, Gilles, from back in Monticello," Lachance said. "So, when I first met him in New York, Ronnie had a friendly personality where he was talking to me like we were part of the same family."

"So, when I first came to The Meadowlands in '88, right away he started to use me on some of his horses, and that's around the time that Ronnie started to have some really good horses. And he used to go to Florida with 25 or 30 of the best-bred trotters in the country, and I hooked up with him at the right time.”

Although his first Hambletonian win came in '94 with 2-5 favorite Victory Dream, Lachance said he came close with Embassy Lobell in 1990.

“Embassy Lobell was my first really good horse,” Lachance said. “I finished second and if I had to start the race all over again, I think I would have won, you know, just the way the race went, but I did not win, John [Campbell] won.

“So, the first one I had a shot with was Embassy Lobell, and then after that, almost every year I always had something. I went maybe from '94, I would say, to 2004, and almost every year I had a horse that had a shot to be in the Hambo final and close to being the favorite.

“I was very fortunate like that; I was spoiled to have very good horses for such a long period.”

It wasn't long before the tandem of Lachance and Gurfein found themselves back in the Hambletonian winner's circle with a talented filly with a high-flying tail that looked like it was slapping Lachance in the face every time it swished.

“She was so comfortable like that,” Lachance said about the choice not to tie down Continentalvictory's tail. “She was so elegant and that's the way she was. She had a character that mare, you know, she had a mind of her own, so we didn't want to aggravate her in any way.

“For me, it's tough to say, but I still think that she was one of the best 3-year-old fillies of all time. And some people are going to argue with that, but some people are going to say, ‘Well, okay.’

“She was just an unbelievably talented filly. She was built like a freight train. It was something to race her.”

Lachance remembers first seeing Continentalvictory in Florida during the winter.

“So, when I first came to The Meadowlands in '88, right away [Ron Gurfein] started to use me on some of his horses, and that's around the time that Ronnie started to have some really good horses. And he used to go to Florida with 25 or 30 of the best-bred trotters in the country, and I hooked up with him at the right time.”

~ Mike Lachance

“I used to go in February, March or April a couple of times before stake payments and when I saw her in Florida, oh boy, I thought that she was something special right away,” Lachance said.

According to Lachance, the talented filly had some idiosyncrasies.

“It took me like three, four or five starts before I got her going the way me and Ronnie wanted,” he said. “And once I got her going, she was the Filly of the Year at 2 and 3. She was just a monster.”

Continentalvictory's 3-year-old year, 1996, was a big one for Lachance. He said he probably had the three best horses for the Hambletonian that year.

“I had Mr Vic, Continentalvictory, and Lindy Lane and John [Campbell] had Act Of Grace; they were the best four, and three were mine,” Lachance said, adding with a laugh, “So, like a month before the Hambo, I was thinking that I'm going to have the best horse in the Hambletonian Oaks and I'm going to have one of the best horses in the Hambletonian, but when they decided to race her against the boys, that screwed up my plan.”

The final Hambletonian-winning pairing for Lachance and Gurfein came in 1999.

“Self Possessed was the fastest trotter I drove in my life by far,” Lachance said. “All those years, if you go back in time, and see the speed that he had, he was one of the fastest trotters of all time. He could trot a quarter in 25 seconds, 30 some years ago.

“He had some soundness problems, so we had a little problem in the spring. He was making breaks because he was sore and there was a problem with the shoeing, and it turned out that on Hambo Day there was nobody that could come close to him.

And there was a nice horse in the race against him, Angus Hall. If there wasn't a Self Possessed d D, Angus Hall would have won everything that year.”

In 2003, Lachance thought he and Gurfein had another chance at Hambletonian glory, as the pair had the winterbook favorite, Classic Response, who unfortunately broke a bone about a month before the big race.

“So, I woke up on Hambo Day and everybody that had a good horse had a driver,” Lachance said.

Although Lachance had a horse in all three of the eliminations, they were all long shots at 14-1, 19-1 and 48-1.

But a prior good deed on Lachance's part came back to him 10-fold for the Hambletonian final.

The week before the Hambletonian eliminations, trainer Blair Burgess asked Lachance to drive his 3-year-old trotting colt, Amigo Hall, in a qualifier.

Lachance said he remembered that there were a lot of qualifiers that day and it was maybe 100 degrees outside and everybody was just trying to find a way to get out of the paddock.

“Blair Burgess comes to me and he says, ‘Mike, I have my colt and Trevor [Ritchie] was supposed to come and qualify him because he's been driving him and I got nobody, could you go with him?’ I said, ‘Yes, I'll do it.’”

Burgess told Lachance up front that the colt was Ritchie's drive in the Hambletonian.

Lachance holding up the trophy in the winner's circle after winning his first Hambletonian with Victory Dream in 1994.

“And when I came back [after the qualifier], Blair said, ‘What do you think? Am I going to look bad to have him in the Hambo? Is he good enough?’ I said, ‘Blair, it’s a year that’s wide open. There’s nothing great.’ So, I said ‘Take a shot.’”

As things turned out, Amigo Hall was in the third Hambletonian elimination with Lachance driving one of his three long shots, and Ritchie driving a different horse. Since Campbell did not have a drive in the third elim, he drove Amigo Hall to a third-place finish. Campbell however was already committed to drive the eventual Hambletonian post-time favorite Power To Charm.

“So, believe me, it was meant to be that I got back to that horse,” Lachance said.

None of Lachance’s elimination drives made the final, finishing sixth, seventh and ninth.

Lachance remembers seeing Burgess outside the paddock after the third elim, knowing that Amigo Hall made the final and would need a driver. However, Ritchie’s other horse didn’t make the final.

“[Burgess] could have gone to Trevor Ritchie but he felt that I was nice enough to qualify him... so, when I walked into the paddock, he came towards me and I said, ‘I guess you’re looking for a driver?’” Lachance said. “He was a longshot Amigo Hall [27-1], but I went behind the gate and I saw nobody was on the gate and in two steps I got to the front, so everything turned out for me there.

“I let [Campbell driving Power To Charm] go and I sat on his back until the stretch and I just came out and I won the race at the end. When things like that happen, you know things are meant to be sometimes. So, I was meant to do well in the Hambo for 10, 12, 15 years in a row.

Amigo Hall [$57] was the longest shot in Hambletonian history, until Cool Papa Bell paid $106 in 2022.

“I’ve won a lot of big races in my life, but the Hambletonian is not the same,” Lachance said. “It’s not the same as any other race.

“Ask [John Campbell]. He won some Little Brown Jugs and the North America Cup and Meadowlands Pace, but winning the Hambo’s not the same.”

Always Ek (Magnus A. Djuse) winning the $715,000 Gran Premio della Lotteria on Sunday in Naples.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Gocciadoro, Djuse tops in Gran Premio della Lotteria with Always Ek

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (May 4) big event in Naples, the $715,000 Gran Premio della Lotteria, became a sunshine story for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro.

Gocciadoro regularly claims the biggest trophies in Europe and the day before he was in Sweden, at Åby racetrack, and dominated the $200,000 King's Trophy behind Free Time Jepson. In the Lotteria, he had a total of seven contenders in three elimination heats, and when the final field was set, Gocciadoro was satisfied with at least two winners from the three heats. Executiv Ek (Face Time Bourbon), paired with Andrea Guzzinati won his elimination heat in 1:52.4 while the older brother Always Ek (Filipp Roc) easily claimed the third and last heat with Magnus A. Djuse in the bike. Santo Mollo trained Dubhe Prav was a big upset in the first heat and the race's first choice, Gocciadoro's Dany Capar, finished third and qualified for the final later on the card. Executiv Ek impressed in Naples and he and his little brother Always Ek shared the position of favorite in the Gran Premio della Lotteria 2025.

As the story of the Lotteria unfolded, the two Gocciadoro trained brothers battled side-by-side since Executiv Ek was pushed to the lead with a kilometer to go, which left Always Ek first over.

Always Ek showed bravery and strong moral when he disarmed Executiv Ek shortly before the wire and Djuse grabbed another big win with Gocciadoro's trotter. Last year the duo claimed the $230,000 Gran Premio della Nazione and $160,000 Gran Premio Gaetano Turilli and it wouldn't be a big surprise if Always Ek soon received an invitation to Elitloppet.

Always Ek won the Lotteria in 1:53.4, Executiv Ek was second and Bleff Dipa third.

And when the $200,000 Finlandia-ajo was held in Helsinki on Sunday (May 4), another horse owned by Mellby Stable proved best in the hunt for a pink ticket to Elitloppet.

But it looked tough for the race's favorite when the field turned into the last turn. Daniel Wäjersten started from post 10, behind horses in the 1,620 meter race, so it was quite normal that his Mellby Jinx (Ready Cash) was positioned as one of the last horses in the field before Wäjersten left for a three-wide cover trip throughout the final turn.

But it was many lengths to make up as the leader, Combat Fighter, despite a tough pace, held strongly with Double Deceiver on his outside.

Lozano di Quattro, trained by Per K. Eriksson, made a fast move in the last turn, landed outside Combat Fighter and seemed to get the advantage before the field turned for home, but Lozano di Quattro played his ace too early and Combat Fighter got back on the inside. Betting Pacer found racing room in the home stretch, but Björn Goop's mare couldn't defend herself when Mellby Jinx attacked on the far outside in the last 200 meters.

Wäjersten and Mellby Jinx claimed the Finlandia-ajo in 1:52.2, which means that Wäjersten now has two cards in the Elitloppet deck; Borups Victory, winner of the $300,000 Paralympiatravet the day before, was an early invitation on Solvalla's part.

Betting Pacer finished second and Decision Maker was third after a late quick finish.

NO SAN MOTEUR IN ELITLOPPET

Björn Goop announced Wednesday (May 7) that his San Moteur will not race Elitloppet at Solvalla on May 25. The horse's owner has decided to aim for other big events during the summer in Europe. A big name will be absent in one of the world's greatest races for trotters, but the line-up is still strong and on Wednesday night at Solvalla, Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin) claimed his spot in the prestigious mile race on the last Sunday of this month. The $20,000 Meadow Roads Race over 1,640 meters attracted seven horses and the big favorite, Don Fanucci Zet, just danced away to a safe win on the lead, in 1:52.1, meaning he has a number in Elitloppet for the fifth time in his career.

Don Fanucci Zet won Elitloppet as a 5-year-old in 2021 and has hardly looked better than he did in Wednesday's triumph at Solvalla.

Clinton's season now kicking off on June 1

Grand Opening on July 6, still on track.

by Matthew Lomon

Clinton Raceway announced Wednesday (May 7) that the start of its 2025 racing season will be delayed until Sunday (June 1).

The half-mile oval was originally scheduled to kick off its 15-card meet on Sunday (May 18), but due to ongoing construction as part of its highly anticipated grandstand renovation project, decided a slight re-tooling of the schedule was necessary.

Raceway manager Ian Fleming offered the following in a statement on Clinton's official website:

"Until today, we were confident that we would receive partial occupancy to use the building, however, after further inspections, it is not achievable.

"We are confident we will be ready to race on Sunday (June 1, 2025)."

As for the first thought on everyone's mind, rest assured that no race dates will be lost because of the delay.

Instead, the two cancelled race dates (May 18 and May 25) have been replaced with two additional cards on Sept. 7 and 14 to ensure the full 15-day schedule.

When the latest renewal of Clinton racing gets underway on June 1, the grandstand won't be ready, but it won't be far off, either.

Fleming told All Over Ontario that the upgraded structure – slowed by an unusually harsh winter – will absolutely be ready for the track's Grand Opening on July 6.

Having the grandstand ready before then will be the perfect tie-in to an already historically significant day for both the Raceway and town of Clinton.

The southwestern Ontario community is holding its 150th anniversary celebration the weekend of July 4-6, with the race day at Clinton serving as the festival's grand finale.

Alongside the unveiling of the grandstand, Clinton's landmark day will also feature the final of its famed Kin Pace series, which pays homage to the Kinsmen and Kinette Club, who together introduced pari-mutuel wagering to the grassroots track in the 1970s.

"The Kin Pace is one of our big races," Fleming said. "That's a big day we're focusing on right now. We've invited all the Kinsmen. They started the Raceway and built the last grandstand, and we're going to have them there to cut the ribbon with us. That weekend is already planned."

Additional highlights on Clinton's 2025 calendar include Father's Day at the Races on June 15, Free $10 Wager Day on June 22, and the 10th Annual Vic Hayter Memorial Trot and Wiener Dog Races on July 20.

Clinton's renowned Legends Day, which sees a cast of Hall of Fame reinsmen turn back the clock in a one-of-a-kind racing

"The horse racing business in Clinton is far more than the 15 days we race. Sixty-five horses trained at Clinton all winter, and those horses are either homebreds or horsepeople bought at sales. They're all buying feed in this area, and the people that are doing it full time are living in this area. I think it's what the intention of the small tracks has always been. We're just wanting to grow that as much as we can, and new facilities are a great place to start. That all helps solidify Clinton's position as a racing hub."

“What we’re going to try and accomplish is get more people out to the track [at Clinton Raceway]. That might not translate to more handle right off the bat, but hopefully, we can grow some people that not just want to bet on Clinton, and maybe want to join HPI and bet on racing around the world.”

~ Ian Fleming

and fundraising event, will return in 2026 in accordance with its biennial model.

Fleming added that his team has other ideas “in the works, but you can’t plan a lot until you know for sure when you can use the whole facility.”

What is for sure is that Clinton’s commitment to upgrading the property and shaping it into an even more desirable destination for fans and horsepeople has not gone unnoticed.

“People are excited to see that we’re updating our facilities,” Fleming said. “Whether it’s a grandstand, arena or a baseball diamond in a small town, once they get old and run down, you run the chance of being condemned, and then you’re really in trouble.

“Ours was a couple years away from getting condemned, but we’re very pleased to get it updated and accessible. The grandstand has never been accessible, it’s not something we’re proud of, so we’re very happy to get it accessible now and round out the whole area.”

As part of the upgrades to the previous grandstand, the new space will come equipped with 400 bucket seats, an elevator (as Fleming previously mentioned), pergola lounge area, and bar and marketing stations accessible from the outside.

The patio area in front of the grandstand will now be at track level, whereas under the previous structure, it was a foot below.

Also joining the revamped viewing center is a multi-purpose semi-permanent event tent.

Fleming said the new feature will cover a variety of bases for Clinton, including everything from silent auctions and social events to simply providing cover.

“We get a different fundraising group every week, so it’ll be getting used every week,” Fleming said. “It’s a place for people who want to sit with lawn chairs and have some shade, and it’s going to be a good use of space, especially on a rainy day. We never had a plan B when it rained, so this will be great for that.”

As for what this sequence of refinements means for horsepeople, Fleming hopes it will reinforce Clinton’s prowess as one of Ontario’s premier horse racing destinations.

“The horse racing business in Clinton is far more than the 15 days we race,” he said. “Sixty-five horses trained at Clinton all winter, and those horses are either homebreds or horsepeople bought at sales. They’re all buying feed in this area, and the people that are doing it full time are living in this area.

“I think it’s what the intention of the small tracks has always been. We’re just wanting to grow that as much as we can, and new facilities are a great place to start. That all helps solidify Clinton’s position as a racing hub.”

The 2019 Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame inductee has made a career of thinking proactively.

“We’ve noticed in other towns this big cycle that if the racing stops, it isn’t too far down the road that the training stops as well,” Fleming said. “We’re very pleased to get our facilities up to speed and it puts us in a good position for racing and operating the training center, too.

“It gives our horsepeople a lot of reassurance that we’re going to be around for a long time.”

With so much to keep tabs on ahead of yet another campaign at the helm of his hometown track, Fleming remains focused on finding innovative ways to expose more people to the sport.

The accessible grandstand, event tent, theme days, emphasis on training, and everything else in between, embody the Raceway’s pledge to growing the game.

“What we’re going to try and accomplish is get more people out to the track,” Fleming said. “That might not translate to more handle right off the bat, but hopefully, we can grow some people that not just want to bet on Clinton, and maybe want to join HPI and bet on racing around the world.

“A new space, initially, is about getting people out, getting them interested, and hopefully transitioning some of them into wagering. At the start, it’s about getting people out for the event, and getting them interested in the sport at large.”

In the meantime, Fleming and Co. will continue to spend their days at the track preparing for opening day, brimming with anticipation for the start of a new era of Clinton racing.

“We’ve been watching it every day since last fall,” Fleming said. “When you look every day, it doesn’t look like it’s progressing that quickly, but it’s coming together, and it’s going to be gratifying to see the finished product.”

Ten most untouchable records in harness racing

by Bob Heyden

Although records are made to be broken, here is a Top 10, in reverse order, that will probably stand for a while longer.

10. Redskin's 2-year-old money mark in 1986 of $1,407,263. It's been threatened. Heck, three freshman made a million in 1990 alone: Artsplace, Die Laughing and Miss Easy. But with fewer bigger pots to shoot for and nobody ever even thinking more than a dozen starts or so, this record has been slowly drifting out to sea and getting a touch further away each year.

9. Ron Pierce winning at least one million-dollar race in six consecutive years (2006-11): Total Truth (2006) in the $1,350,000 North America Cup, Donato Hanover (2007) in the $1,500,000 Hambletonian, Art Official (2008) in the $1,100,000 Meadowlands Pace, Well Said (2009) in the $1,305,000 NA Cup and $1,000,000 Meadowlands Pace, Muscle Massive (2010) in the $1,500,000 Hambletonian, Roll With Joe (2011) in the $1,000,000 Meadowlands Pace, and, lastly, Simply Business (2011) in the $1,020,000 Metro Pace. Did I mention that the streak started the year he turned 50?

8. Muscle Hill's earnings per start record from 2009 of $204,670. The previous year, Somebeachsomewhere set it at $163,200. Last year, Jiggy Jog S set the all-time record ($154,265) for a horse not named HOY.

7. John Campbell's incredible record of four straight North America Cups (1994-97), for four different trainers: Cams Card Shark (1994) for Bill Robinson, David's Pass (1995) for Brett Pelling, Arizona Jack (1996) for Gary Machiz, and Gothic Dream (1997) for Jack Darling.

6. Another incredible Campbell daily double of 16 national earnings titles and 16 Meadowlands driving titles.

5. Stars Pride siring eight Hambletonian winners in a 15-year stretch (1958-72).

4. Tim Tetrack setting the earnings record in 2008 ($19,752,066) the year after the wins record (1,189) in 2007. Neither touched since.

3. Stanley Dancer's three Triple Crown winners in a five year stretch: Nevele Pride (1968) also HOY, Most Happy Fella (1970) and Super Bowl (1972). No other harness trainer has had more than one.

2. Jimmy Takter and Yannick Gingras combining for five-straight Hambletonian Oaks wins (2014-18): Lifetime Pursuit ($22) by 2½ lengths in 2014, Wild Honey ($4.60) by 1¾ lengths in 2015,

All The Time ($9.20) by 3¾ lengths in 2016, Ariana G ($2.40) by 4¾ lengths in 2017, and Manchego ($4.40 as the non-favorite) by a length in 2018. Manchego's winning time of 1:50 flat is faster than any of the 99 Hambletonians.

1. How can this ever be topped? At 18 years and six months old, Walter "Butch" Paisley driving Algiers Eblis in the 1959 Hambletonian, at his dad's insistence. He was 12-15 and 14th overall in the summary.

HONORABLE MENTIONS:

- Marcus Melander getting Hambletonian checks in four straight years while in his 20s.

- Bill O'Donnell winning 10 races on Aug. 16 1984 – five during the day and five more at night – with a Horse of the Year (Fancy Crown, 1984) by day and by night (Nihilator, 1985). Did I mention they both set world records? 1:53.4 for her and 1:52.4 for him.

- And my personal favorite, the youngest driver to win a Triple Crown race on each gait – Peter Haughton (22) who won the 1976 Kentucky Futurity with Quick Pay and Scott Zeron (23) who won the 2012 Little Brown Jug with Michaels Power – was younger than the sire of their winning mount: trotter Stars Pride (29) and pacer Camluck (25).

Unearthing some real gems from early Hambletonians, Part 1

by John Berry

Gems come in many forms, from amethysts and diamonds to emeralds and sapphires, with countless others worth what one will pay for them.

But there are also other types of gems – in words and stories, themselves – about our sport.

Over the years, I have been fortunate to have conversations with many who I consider to be “old-timers,” especially when I was in my younger days, say, 55-60 years ago.

Like the gems listed above, my harness racing gems include, Edgar Leonard, Chase Dean, John Patton, Dick Baker, and dozens and dozens more not quite that old.

They are, mostly, all gone now, but their words live on in my heart and soul and notes for harness racing and now that I have become an old-timer myself, it's a good time to unearth those gems about the first decade of our signature event, the Hambletonian, with the 100th edition only weeks away.

After Harry O. Reno, William M. Wright and Joe Markey turned their 1923 dream of a meaningful stake for 3-year-old trotters into reality with the first Hambletonian in 1926, yes, countless gems were created during the first decade or so of this grand event.

Of course, the first decade included the historic depression but, nevertheless, the Hambletonian survived, though it took quite some time – 25 years – for harness racing's premier event to surpass the 1926 purse of $73,451.22, with the 1950 purse being $75,209.12.

During those dark days of the depression, the Hambletonian purse was as low as $25,845.44 in 1934 but began its recovery the next year, only suffering slight bumps in the track in the early-to-mid 1940s during the war.

The inaugural Hambletonian was a feature of the New York State Fair at Syracuse on Aug. 31 and was won by Guy McKinney in straight heats, 2:05 1/4 and 2:04 1/4.

The winner, a son of Guy Axworthy, was owned by Henry Rea and driven by Nat Ray with the winner receiving $45,868.43.

THE UNEARTHED GEMS: Nat Ray was a Canadian born in 1876 in Whitby, ON, who began his career at age 6 with a pony named Queen Mary.

He was, to put it mildly, an all-around horseman whose career spanned six decades with the media labeling him “the man with the brilliant green jacket.”

He was, first, a jockey and steeplechase rider before his entree into the harness racing scene, came to the U.S.A. in 1896, beginning his career in Latonia, KY and Cincinnati, OH.

He rode four American Grand National Steeplechase winners with the scribes describing him as “probably the most accomplished rider that ever sat in a saddle on this continent.”

Traveling to England, thereafter, he won the Grand National there with a bad actor named Aero, who had previously started several races but never finished.

Nat Ray also rode for many elite stables – the James D. Widener being one – and won many top steeplechase events, one with, who many consider one of the best ones ever, Good And Plenty.

He gave up that arena for standardbreds in 1911 and competed on the Grand Circuit and was still competing in New York as late as the 1950s.

Mr. Rea, the owner, wrote a check to Ray for some 10 per cent of the purse and it was also rumored that Ray won another $20,000 from betting on Guy McKinney in the “winter book” at odds of 40-1.

One other “GEM,” Nat Ray was sitting in the home of a Goshen, NY, friend one month before the Hambletonian and offered to bet $1,000 even money against the field that Guy McKinney would win.

In 1927, Isola's Worthy, a daughter of Guy Axworthy, as was Guy McKinney, became the first filly to win the Hambletonian, but it took a long, long time to do it.

Scheduled for August in Syracuse, the persistent rainy conditions – five days' worth in Syracuse – forced a postponement and, finally, this second edition of the Hambletonian took place in Lexington, KY a month later in late September with the filly winning in straight heats, 2:06 1/4 and 2:03 3/4.

Iosola's Worthy was owned by E. J. Merkle of Columbus, OH, trained by Ben White and driven by Marvin Childs.

THE UNEARTHED GEM: Mr. Merkle bought his prized filly in May for $10,000 and she went on to win $51,307.94 by the end of the season, $33,336 in the Hambletonian, with the purse that year being $54,694.44.

In 1928, the Hambletonian returned to Syracuse, NY, with the purse at $66,226.25.

Spencer, a son of Lee Tide, won in straight heats in the field of 11, with the times being 2:02 1/2 and 2:04.

THE UNEARTHED GEMS: Five of the money winners in this event eventually became celebrated sires with many noted performers on their resumes.

Spencer became a premier sire at Castleton Farm, Guy Abbey (finishing second and eventual sire of the Grey Ghost, Greyhound) resided at Walnut Hall Farm, Scotland (third), also at Walnut Hall Farm, Gaylworthy (fourth) was sold by W. N. Reynolds (of tobacco fame) for export to Europe, and Red Aubrey (fifth) ended up at Village Farm in Pennsylvania.

The winner was owned by David Look and driven by Billy Leese with the owner thanking the driver with a check for $3,000.

The 1929 Hambletonian returned to Lexington, KY, on Oct. 8, 1929 – about three weeks before the stock market crash – with a purse of $55,484.75.

Walter Dear, a son of The Laurel Hall, won this edition of the Hambletonian in straight heats, both in 2:02 2/4.

The winner was bred and owned by William H. Cane and driven to victory by Walter Cox.

THE UNEARTHED GEMS: Volomite was second, Sir Guy Mac, third and Miss Woerner, fourth, all trained by Cox for Cane's Good Time Stable.

Walter Dear was sold for export to Germany in the fall of 1929 and, for many years, was a big money winner in Europe before entering the breeding shed, where he produced a number of fast performers.

There was a torchlight parade welcoming Cox back home to Goshen, NY, complete with firecrackers, torpedoes, aerial bombs, and sky rockets with red fire illuminating the line of march to the Cox home.

In 1930, the three-cornered track, Good Time Park, was the site of harness racing's premier event, and, for the first time, the Hambletonian went three heats.

It was held on Aug. 27 as the feature of William H. Cane's Grand Circuit meeting with the purse being $56,859.84, as sustaining payments before the stock market crash helped sustain the lofty purse.

The winner was Hanover Shoe Farm's Hanover's Bertha, a daughter of Peter Volo, who took the final two heats after Larkspur won the first heat in 2:03 3/4.

Hanover's Bertha won the final two heats, both in 2:03.

Thomas Berry was the winning driver.

THE UNEARTHED GEMS: Hanover's Bertha eventually earned a mark of 1:59 1/2 and became one of the most famous dams at Hanover, especially after delivering the filly Shirley Hanover, the winner of the 1937 Hambletonian.

In the first heat, Hanover's Bertha, who had never taken a misstep during her career, made a miscue on the opening turn and finished fifth, a break that was said to be caused by a team effort from other horsemen in the race.

The second heat was a different story as the filly was perfect and never headed with the final heat a duplicate of her earlier win.

By the way, since using a starting gate was more than a decade-and-a-half away from use, the infamous start of the second heat took 26 recalls – over 40 minutes – to get underway, as drivers often scored ahead of the pole horse to cause confusion and try and gain an advantage.

It took 16 tries to get her deciding heat underway, leaving no doubt as to her greatness.

In a future column, we'll tackle Part 2, as we unearth more gems from the early years of the greatest race in all of racing, the Hambletonian!

ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

with NEIL MILBERT

Outside the box Illinois racing resumes

by Neil Milbert

Following a hiatus of two-and-a-half months, the second session of the unconventional Illinois harness racing schedule that has become the norm since its inception in 2022 will begin at the Springfield Fairgrounds on Tuesday (May 13) with the non-betting Illinois Preview races for Illinois-breds 3-year-olds and up.

The races will be funded by the Illinois Department of Agriculture as will five other non-betting programs at Springfield — the Illinois Preview card for 3-year-olds and up on May 21, 2-year-old Preview races on June 14 and 21 and the Cardinal and Violet Stakes on June 18.

There will be Illinois-bred pari-mutuel programs under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield on Aug. 7, 8, 13 and 14 and at the DuQuoin State Fair on Aug. 25, 26 and 27.

A total of 24 non-betting cards funded by Hawthorne Race Course's purse account are scheduled for Springfield on June 13, 18, 27 and 28, July 25, Sept. 18, 19 and 26, and Oct. 8, 9, 23, 24, 30 and 31 and for DuQuoin on July 10, 11, 17 and 18, Sept. 11 and 12, and Oct. 2, 3, 16 and 17.

Springfield is 175 miles from Hawthorne and DuQuoin is 313 miles away but the fairgrounds at both locations have trainers stabled there year-around.

Many of the trainers and drivers who compete at the Hawthorne meeting also will be in action at the 27 Illinois County Fairs, starting with Green County Fair races at Carlinville on June 3 and the Downstate Classic at Decatur on June 4.

"I went to the county fairs [last summer] for the first time in about 15 years [and] I raced in about a half-dozen of them," said Casey Leonard, who won his seventh driver championship at the last eight Hawthorne meetings during the 40-night 2024-25 winter meeting that began Oct. 9 and continued through Feb. 23. "It's a different route than we normally take but it shows where we're at [economically in Illinois]."

Leaders of the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA) and their constituents have been forced to think outside the box ever since corporate overlord Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI)

"A lot of legislators were alarmed by Hawthorne's lack of ability to have the [simulcast] signal on Kentucky Derby Day. I wish I could tell you it would motivate the legislators to move [and eliminate the 35-mile limit] but it certainly didn't go unnoticed. We're plugging away and we're optimistic that legislators will see the need to act at this session."

shut down the Chicago metropolitan area's world-renowned Arlington International Racecourse following its 2021 meeting. It was a blatant attempt to eradicate pari-mutuel betting and potential casino competition for the nearby Rivers Casino — the state's most profitable casino — in which CDI acquired a majority interest in 2018.

The domino effect was devastating for both thoroughbred and harness racing in Illinois. Hawthorne became the only racetrack in the nation's third most populous metropolitan area and the two breeds have been time-sharing at the track since 2022.

Gov. J.B. Pritzker in 2019 signed a massive gambling expansion bill that allowed both Hawthorne and Arlington to become racinos by adding table games and slot machines. Arlington was sold to the Chicago Bears with a ban on both racing and a casino strings attached and the NFL team demolished the historic state-of-the-art track to reduce its property taxes.

Meanwhile, Hawthorne president Tim Carey announced plans to remake his family's track into a $400 million racino and open it in 2021. In pursuit of that objective large portions of the grandstand and clubhouse were torn down in 2020.

But Carey has been unable to secure financial backing for the racino and the rubble from the teardown now serves as a gloomy reminder of the unfinished project that was supposed to funnel

“ I went to the [Illinois] county fairs [last summer] for the first time in about 15 years [and] I raced in about a half-dozen of them. It’s a different route than we normally take but it shows where we’re at [economically in Illinois]. ” a portion of the gross revenue from the slot machines and table games into the harness and thoroughbred purse accounts, creating an Illinois racing renaissance movement.

Compounding the racino funding dilemma, liens last year were filed by several companies involved in the demolition project, claiming Hawthorne owes them an aggregate total of about $5 million in unpaid bills, and later CDI halted simulcasts from its track for betting because of unpaid bills dating back to last fall. As a consequence of the blackout, horseplayers at Hawthorne and its 13 affiliated off-track betting locations were unable to place bets on the Kentucky Derby.

IHHA president Jeff Davis has made several trips to Springfield during the spring session of the state legislature that ends May 31 to join urging lawmakers to repeal the 35-mile limit, preventing another racetrack and racino from being built inside that boundary from Hawthorne.

“A lot of legislators were alarmed by Hawthorne’s lack of ability to have the [simulcast] signal on Kentucky Derby Day,” IHHA president Jeff Davis said, recounting his most recent visit. “I think that highlighted a major problem.

“I wish I could tell you it would motivate the legislators to move [and eliminate the 35-mile limit] but it certainly didn’t go unnoticed. We’re plugging away and we’re optimistic that legislators will see the need to act at this session.”

Another piece of proposed legislation in Springfield that the IHHA is backing is the attempt by Larry Lucas and his son, Connor, to obtain permission to build a racetrack/casino in Decatur.

“Between the two of them they’ve been in Springfield every week for the last few months and we are very supportive,” Davis said. “We have our whole team of lobbyists and they have their whole team of lobbyists.”

Decatur is a medium-sized city located 175 miles south of Hawthorne. It is located within driving distance of three prosperous and vibrant metropolitan areas: 49 miles from Champaign-Urbana (home of the University of Illinois), 39 miles from Springfield (the state capital), and 46 miles from Bloomington-Normal (home of Illinois State University and Illinois Wesleyan University).

In contrast, the area in close proximity to Hawthorne isn’t very affluent and there is casino gambling competition galore. Hawthorne is only 11 miles from Bally’s temporary casino at Medina Temple in downtown Chicago. The new Wind Creek Casino in Hazel Crest and CDI’s Rivers Casino are both under 30 miles away. Two cities from 40-45 miles beyond the metropolitan area – Joliet and Aurora – are replacing their existing casinos with new showcases. There also are casinos in two other locations on the outskirts of Chicagoland; Elgin, approximately 45 miles from Hawthorne, and Waukegan, about 50 miles away.

If the long-awaited Hawthorne racino finally becomes reality some fear the Chicago market area may be oversaturated with casinos and its revenue conceivably could fall far short of the euphoric expectations of 2021.

Robbie Robinson's rare Mohawk triple and recent Rideau farewell

by Melissa Keith

When McWicked Time crossed the wire at Rideau Carleton Raceway on Wednesday (April 27), the two-length victory also marked the crossing of Robbie Robinson from full-time owner/trainer/driver to owner and part-time trainer.

"It was a big relief for me, because I decided before the meet started that my next win was going to be my last one," Robinson told HRU on Monday (May 5). "I pretty much knew, going to the three-quarter pole. I was pretty confident because he felt really good. I hadn't pulled the plugs, and I looked at the body language of [Guy Gagnon's] horse [Flash Cube] and thought I had the advantage."

As the Green Day song "Good Riddance" played over the Rideau sound system after the race, Robinson removed his blue and gold driving colors, right in the winner's circle.

"You know, they take the shoes off horses when they retire, so I said, I'll take the colors off," he said adding with a laugh, "I made sure I had pants on underneath, so there were no surprises there."

He retired from driving with 1,126 victories from 10,797 recorded drives and $4,666,401 in purse winnings.

Robinson's harness racing career began by following in his father Carl's footsteps.

"My dad was involved," Robbie said. "He got involved in 1969 I think, and he bought a horse called Cardinal Girl. I don't think she ever raced. Then his next couple of horses were really successful. He bought a horse called Owen Creed for $200 at the Toronto sale, the CNE [Canadian National Exhibition]. He won 10 out of 12 races, and then they sold him for $4,500, which was big money in 1970. His next horse was a trotting mare named Willbrook May, and she won 17 races the year he bought her."

Robbie's father Carl was part of the last Canadian generation to work alongside horses on a regular basis in everyday society, not just at racetracks or other specialized equestrian settings.

"My dad was always a horseman," Robbie said. "He was a manager at Loblaw's [grocery stores]. He worked there for 37 years, but his first job away from home, he drove a team of horses when he was 13 years old for Ontario Hydro. You know those metal towers you see? He was driving teams of horses to bring in things to build the metal towers."

Robbie added that while he was never pressured to get involved with horses, he always loved being around animals, so it came naturally.

"We had this one mare called Babes Girl," he said. "My dad used to have a two-ton truck... Coming home from the races one night, she kicked through the back of it, right past his head. But this mare, she'd be on the crossies and I was just a little fella, running around beneath her and she would never move. I love the horses. I was just always around them. We always had a bunch of horses, and when I was little, I could roll a bandage quicker than anybody."

“Actually, the first races I got to drive in were at the Odessa Fair, but it wasn’t sanctioned, so it’s not on the records, but I won both heats. The track wasn’t quite a half-mile track, because the last heat was 1:48 or so. Maybe it was a sign of things to come for the speed!”

~ Robbie Robinson

Robbie remembered his sisters taking him into grandstands before he was old enough to enter the paddock at local racetracks. He said it helped him develop a sharp eye for picking winners. It also whetted his appetite for driving.

“Believe it or not, when I started driving, I only weighed 120 pounds,” said the 58-year-old horseman. “Actually, the first races I got to drive in were at the Odessa Fair, but it wasn’t sanctioned, so it’s not on the records, but I won both heats. The track wasn’t quite a half-mile track, because the last heat was 1:48 or so. Maybe it was a sign of things to come for the speed!”

Robbie said he remembered writing his drivers’ exam at the kitchen table when he was 18. He was prepared to drive four family-owned horses in qualifiers the following week at Kingston Park Raceway. “The race secretary said, ‘No, you’re not! You’re not using your horses in the qualifiers. We’ll make sure you have four drives,’” Robbie said. “I won lots of qualifiers right off the bat, but the catch driving part didn’t come until later.”

He won his first pari-mutuel drive at Kingston Park with a horse named Karens Happy Lad the same year.

“I remember my future brother-in-law, John Murphy, and I went and got us a bottle of vodka,” Robbie said. “We were going to a school dance, and I got sick in the middle of the dance floor. I got escorted out. I drove that Sunday and I still had a headache. And it was funny, the same horse I won with, I was coming to the top of the stretch and went to hit him, and the whip went flying. So, I had no whip the rest of the race. I never did that again.”

Robbie drove one race at Greenwood Raceway when he was still 18.

“I went to go work for Bill Wellwood for six months,” he said. “I drove a mare called Ore Dana. It was pretty uneventful. She was sitting 10th, then moved up into eighth on the backstretch, and I still think she’s there somewhere. Well, I would think that, other than she’s the mother of Elegant Killeen, the first horse that Jody Jamieson ever won with.”

A year later, Robbie drove — and won — his first race at Rideau Carleton Raceway with a trotter named Mountain Trout.

“Sporadically, I’d come [to Rideau Carleton] and pick up a win every year,” he said. “I think I was like 24 and starting to do good.

I was working for Ted Huntback, and he was the first guy to give me a real good chance at catch driving because he would send me to Ottawa. He sent me to drive at Greenwood one time. I just got beat at the wire. I was so happy, but I was disappointed at the same time.”

After meeting his future wife Jacqueline Dinelle when she was paddocking a horse at Rideau Carleton, Robbie relocated to Metcalfe, ON, near Ottawa. He said that his highlight of racing at the track for 40 years was when he won an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold elimination with Jim Masse’s 2-year-old trotting colt Tracs (3, 1:56.1f; $265,358) on Aug. 15, 1999.

A decade later, Robbie recorded his most personally-significant training victory, at Mohawk Racetrack. He had first driven Gutsy Volo (5, 1:52.4s; $246,748) at Mohawk in a break-marred effort on July 13, 2008. The trotting gelding jumped it off again a week later at the Campbellville track. He went on to race at other tracks that season, before returning to Mohawk with a fourth-place finish on May 31, 2009, with his trainer in the sulky. Gutsy Volo and driver Mike Saftic debuted in the Mohawk open trot on June 29, 2009. At odds on 9-1, he was a relative longshot.

“Gutsy Volo had finished second two weeks in a row, and he had to jump two classes and race in the open,” Robbie said. “He come first up and went toe-to-toe with San Pail. The last three-eighths, they raced like a team, but we got up at the wire to win. That was really special.”

San Pail was later voted 2009 O’Brien Older Trotting Horse of the Year.

Known as a skilled developer of young and problem horses, Robbie named multiple OSS Gold and Simcoe Stake winner Warrawee Vicky (3, 1:54s; $304,035) as one mare he was proud to have helped get started. She won her first-ever qualifier with trainer Robbie in the bike at Rideau Carleton on June 16, 2019, then broke her maiden with him driving at Woodbine Racetrack, before moving to the barn of Scott McEneny.

“At one point, I won with The Magic Of Life [3, 1:55.4m; $139,127] at Mohawk [May 23, 2019], and my next drive there was Warrawee Vicky [June 25, 2019], and then my next drive there was [the maiden win in first career start for] Tokyo Seelster [5, 1:51.4s;

“A lot of people know me for developing problem trotters, but I can’t get them anymore. I used to be able to get them, but after 2013, trotters became too valuable in the Amish market, which kind of ruined the kinds of horses that I could buy. You know, I’d buy horses for between $5,000 and $10,000 then. The same horses are $20,000 to $25,000 now, and you can’t make money with them.”

~ Robbie Robinson

$376,939, on June 30, 2020],” he told HRU. “I got three wins in a row there, so that was pretty special.”

Stepping back from driving and, to a lesser extent, training, Robbie said he “probably won’t” continue to look for diamonds in the rough.

“A lot of people know me for developing problem trotters, but I can’t get them anymore,” he said. “I used to be able to get them, but after 2013, trotters became too valuable in the Amish market, which kind of ruined the kinds of horses that I could buy. You know, I’d buy horses for between $5,000 and $10,000 then. The same horses are $20,000 to $25,000 now, and you can’t make money with them.”

Robbie’s connection to the sport runs deep, even as his day-to-day participation is scaling back with the imminent closure of the Rideau Carleton backstretch next month.

“You know, I’ve got a lot of friends in Toronto and all over the place,” he said. “I might own a horse with the trainer I have in the States, or maybe keep one of the ones I have now, but I won’t leave the sport completely. I’m just tired of the winters in Ottawa; they’re brutal.”

The driver known as “The Rocket” said he currently owns four horses at Rideau Carleton, and has three in Montague, NJ, with Rob and Patti Harmon.

“I think one we’re going to sell shortly, and then the other ones will stay there,” he said of his U.S.-based horses.

Robbie said that he and his wife have a great friendship with the Harmons.

“I met them in 2017 when we had Kwik Talkin [p, 3, 1:51.1f; $215,998],” Robbie said. “A couple of friends of mine, Dave Reid and Steve Bray, they recommended I send the horse there. Dave Reid said, ‘Oh, you and Rob will get along perfectly.’ We’re pretty much like family now. We go and stay there all the time.”

Friends of Robbie will have a chance to visit with him at an upcoming retirement party at Rideau Carleton, date to be announced.

‘Curdy’ aims to make some cheddar in Matchmaker final

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Talk Curdy To Me needed a win in the last preliminary round of the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series to qualify for the final, and the 5-year-old mare delivered. Now, she will attempt to cash in on that performance in tonight’s (May 9) Grade 1 final, which goes for a purse of $490,000 at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

The Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, for older female pacers, consists of five preliminary legs. Talk Curdy To Me, trained by Jeff Cullipher and driven throughout the event by Todd McCarthy, had a second and a third in addition to her victory during her five starts in the series. She also had a fifth in a race where the top-five finishers were separated by only three-quarters-of-a-length.

“She’s just a solid, professional mare,” owner Tom Pollack said. “Kind of blue collar. She’s not flashy, she just kind of grinds it out. She had a real good year last year and we’ve certainly been happy with her in this series.

“We needed to win the last leg to get in the final and Todd did a great job pulling her first up and got the job done. She drew a pretty good post, so we’re hoping to get a slice of it.”

Talk Curdy To Me and McCarthy will leave from post 3 in the eight-horse field and are 12-1 on the morning line. Aardie B Miki N, who was unbeaten in her four Matchmaker prelims, drew post 1 and is the 6-5 morning-line favorite. Rocket Deo, who brings a three-race win streak to the final, is the 5-2 second choice from post 6. Walkin On Sunshine, with two wins and three seconds in the series, leaves from post 2 and is 4-1.

“Obviously, the favorite has been exceptional,” Pollack said. “[Walkin On Sunshine] has also been very good and Rocket Deo has been razor-sharp. It’s going to be interesting to see who tries to leave and what happens. We can get out of the gate OK and for sure hold position. I was just glad when the draw came out that we didn’t have [post] 7 or 8.”

Talk Curdy To Me, a daughter of Betterthancheddar—Keepers Destiny, has hit the board in 43 of 59 career races, winning 16 and earning $379,130. She was purchased by Pollack Racing in October 2023 and has earned a paycheck in 33 of 37 starts since then.

Last season, Talk Curdy To Me had seven victories, including the Canadian Graduate Series Mare Pace. She was third in the Clara Barton Pace behind Sylvia Hanover and Grace Hill.

“She’s the type that shows up every week, and that’s evidenced by her statistics of how many times she’s on the board,” Pollack said. “She’s just a dependable horse.”

Pollack has seen his horses race in several previous Blue Chip Matchmaker finals, with his best finish of second coming in 2017 with Medusa. In 2021, Pollack’s Alexa Skye was the favorite in the final after winning all four of her prelims. She finished fourth, beaten a length, from post 6.

“We’ve never won it, but we’ve had some fun in this series, at least,” Pollack said. “We’re looking forward to [the final]. We need a lot of stuff to happen to get there, but we’re hoping to get a piece of it anyway.”

The Blue Chip Matchmaker final is race 7 on Yonkers’ 10-race card. Race 8 is the $516,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series final for older male pacers, also a Grade 1 event. The Matchmaker and Borgata are the first two Grade 1 harness racing events in North America under the graded stakes system that began this year.

Mossdale Ben N, who posted three wins and two seconds in the Borgata’s five preliminary rounds, will leave from post 5 in the final and is the 5-2 morning-line favorite.

Racing begins at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) at Yonkers. For free daily TrackMaster Platinum past performances, visit the Standardbred Owners Association of New York website here.

Game changers: Bugger Bruiser

by Matthew Lomon / Woodbine communications

Once a week, throughout the Mohawk racing season, Woodbine will profile a horse who has had a life-changing impact on one of their closest connections.

This week, the spotlight shines on trainer Carmen Auciello, and retired pacer Bugger Bruiser.

Auciello, based out of Stouffville, ON, owns and operates Auciello Stables with his father and horseman of nearly 40 years, Rocco Auciello. Over the course of his 23-year training career, Carmen has coached his charges to over 2,100 wins and $35 million in prize money.

"I started full time in 2002," said Carmen. "My dad got into it full time in the late '80s, early '90s. I went to work for him in 2002 and I still get to work with him every day. He's turning 78 this year and he continues to work hard to this day."

The second-generation conditioner first crossed paths with Bugger Bruiser in the summer of 2013.

BUGGER BRUISER (ON) BIO

Foaled: Feb. 1, 2011

Sire: Believeinbruiser

Dam: How Is Carrie

Wins-Seconds-Thirds: 36-40-49

Earnings: $673,082

Trainer: Cory Stratton (2021-22), Carmen Auciello (2013-2018)

Owner: Cory Stratton, Victoria L Stratton, and Jodie Cerillo

Breeder: Gerard L Mijal

What were your first impressions of Bugger Bruiser?

"When we first bought him, he had already shown some decent speed as a 2-year-old – he had already paced in :52. He was a smaller horse, but you could tell he was really fast. I was already a fan of his sire, Believeinbruiser, so we took a shot on him. We hoped he had the speed that his sire had, and it turned out he did."

When did you realize Bugger Bruiser was special?

"The first time I trained him. We got him only about four days before his first race, and I didn't want to train him too fast of a mile. I wanted to let him settle in a bit, but the day before his race, I took him out, and I was just going to go a nice easy half-mile, and he took off and went a half in about :58 in a jog cart around my track.

"I thought, 'Holy cow, this horse is fast.' No other 2-year-olds have done that at my farm. I knew that he had a motor, and it was just a matter of keeping him relaxed and calm and using the speed when you wanted him to. At the time, Anthony MacDonald was driving him. He drove him really well and it worked great."

What do you recall from his most impressive win?

"He got used hard about three times in that race, and still held off three horses coming down the lane. He only won by a neck, and the third-place horse was only a half-length behind. I still have a big, framed picture in my office, and every time I look at it, I think 'Oh, man, I can't believe he won that race.'"

"I remember when my family and a bunch of us were up in the dining room – my son was only about a month old – and we weren't quite sure that he won the race from upstairs, but we headed down to the winner circle, just in case. I remember going down the stairs holding my son up in the air like he was the Stanley Cup because he was only about a month old. We were so excited because it was my first Super Final, and the co-owner, it was his first experience too. It was just a lot of fun."

Three words to describe him?

"Sleek. Smart. Fast."

How has he changed your life?

"For me, he kind of put me on the map. My dad and I have been working together for 35 years now, but at the time, we were still a smaller stable trying to grow and expand. I think that did attract a couple more opportunities for me from other owners and outside investors, just seeing what we did with him, and winning a Super Final. It definitely moved us on to bigger and better things."

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.HarnessRacingUpdate.com

Last tango in Sacramento

Harness racing in California reached the end of its nine lives last Friday night (May 2) at Cal Expo.

After 60 years, the trotters and pacers will no longer be in action anywhere in the Golden State, the result of a domino effect following the end of racing at Golden Gate Fields and the Northern California fairs.

I first discovered harness racing in 1972, three years after falling in love with the thoroughbreds, and many a night was spent under the lights at Hollywood Park watching some of the best sidewheelers in the country go about their business.

Seeing the mighty Niatross perform was certainly a highlight, along with the opportunity to watch the Charlie Whittingham/Bill Shoemaker of harness racing in the form of Joe O'Brien, as he displayed his mastery as both a driver and trainer.

Roy Shudt's "Starter call for the pacers!" and the arrival of Gene Vallandingham from Chicago with those red and white colors, flowing blond hair and theatrical style, are also emblazoned in the memory.

Harness racing is also where I met the most interesting character of my life, trainer Roger Stein. He eventually went over to the thoroughbreds while also being a prominent radio host for nearly 30 years until his death in 2019.

THE FIRST CRACK IN THE ARMOR: Things first got dicey for the sport when Hollywood Park expanded the track for the Breeders' Cup in the early 1980s. This made the one-mile start impossible, and at that point harness became the red-headed stepchild of California racing.

The sport nearly vanished in the 1990s before getting a literal and figurative new lease on life through Premier Harness at Los Alamitos. Harness racing in the spring at the Orange County oval continued until the new millennium.

For the last 26 years, Cal Expo has been the home of the trotters and pacers.

It was initially run by Capitol Racing, followed by a stint under the direction of the State Fair and most recently by Watch and Wager LLC.

The latter group has been ably manned by harness racing die-hards Chris Schick and Ben Kenney, with longtime trackman and program director Marty Bridges doing the charting and Scott Ehrlich handling announcing duties.

I wrote my first harness column for Daily Racing Form in 1978, and it's been a pleasure to handle the advances and feature stories that appeared in the Cal Expo program for the last two and a half decades.

The owners, trainers and drivers have been great to work with, and harness horses lend themselves for good copy, racing on a weekly basis as they do and easily building a fan base.

A special tip of the cap goes out to trainer Bob Johnson, who was one of my first interviews 47 years ago and one of my last a couple of weeks ago.

It's been a great ride, but now it's time to unhook the sulky and head back to the barn.

Post positions drawn for Borgata and Matchmaker Series finals

The post position draws for tonight's (May 9) Grade 1 $516,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series and Grade 1 $490,000 Blue Chip Matchmaker Series finals took place on Monday afternoon (May 5).

The MGM Borgata Pacing Series final goes as race 8 on the program and top point earners Mossdale Ben N and Coaches Corner landed posts 5 and 8, respectively. Mossdale Ben N, who will be driven by Jordan Stratton for trainer Peter Tritton, and Coaches Corner, who'll have Jason Bartlett in the bike for trainer Per Engblom, didn't finish outside the exacta in the prelims, posting three wins and two seconds apiece, but Coaches Corner has the experience of racing in the Borgata final as he was second in last year's championship.

Another of 2024's finalists, Desperate Man, will depart from post 7 tonight for driver Matt Kakaley and trainer Travis Alexander, while trainer Cory Stratton will have a pair of horses in For Once In My Life (post 3, Dexter Dunn) and Chase H Hanover (post 6, Anthony Napolitano). Engblom also has another starter in Huntinthelastdollar from post 4 with Yannick Gingras set to drive.

The full draw for the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final is as follows:

Post — Horse — Driver — Trainer — Odds

1. Verdun — Pat Lachance — Pat Lachance — 8-1
2. Binge On Yankee — Scott Zeron — Jeff Gillis — 15-1
3. For Once Inmy Life — Dexter Dunn — Cory Stratton — 5-1
4. Huntinthelastdollar — Yannick Gingras — Per Engblom — 12-1
5. Mossdale Ben N — Jordan Stratton — Peter Tritton — 5-2
6. Chase H Hanover — Anthony Napolitano — Cory Stratton — 9-2
7. Desperate Man — Matt Kakaley — Travis Alexander — 7-2
8. Coaches Corner — Jason Bartlett — Per Engblom — 4-1

Aardie B Miki N went four-for-four in the prelims she raced in for Bartlett and Engblom in the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series and then landed the coveted pole position for the final, which is race 7 on the card. Leading point earner Rocket Deo has post 6 with Andy McCarthy to drive the Brett Pelling trainee, and Walkin On Sunshine, who concluded the prelims second in the standings, starts from post 2 and gives Pelling another entrant. Scott Zeron will drive Walkin On Sunshine.

The full draw for the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series final is as follows:

Post — Horse — Driver — Trainer — Odds

1. Aardie B Miki N — Jason Bartlett — Per Engblom — 6-5
2. Walkin On Sunshine — Scott Zeron — Brett Pelling — 4-1
3. Talk Curdy To Me — Todd McCarthy — Jeff Cullipher — 12-1
4. Silk Cloud A — Jordan Stratton — Peter Tritton — 10-1
5. Turn The Page N — Ron Cushing — Heidi Cushing — 15-1
6. Rocket Deo — Andy McCarthy — Brett Pelling — 5-2
7. Beautiful Seaside — Tim Tetrick — Scott DiDomenico — 20-1
8. Seaside Diva — Yannick Gingras — Ron Burke — 15-1

Additionally, there is a $100,000 MGM Borgata Pacing Series consolation (race 6) and a $100,000 Blue Chip Matchmaker Series consolation (race 5).

Countdown to Hambletonian 100 at Big M is on

There are just 86 days to go.

Harness racing's most-storied event is celebrating a remarkable milestone this year at the industry's top venue as the 100th edition of the Hambletonian will take place in just under three months at The Meadowlands, on August 2.

The Hambletonian, as well as a laundry list of supporting stakes events, will take place on the first Saturday in August. That day is so special on the Big M's calendar, that it is the only card of the 94 this year at the mile oval that takes place during the day. Post time is noon, and the $1-million Hambletonian for 3-year-old trotters tops a card that features nine other major events — including the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks for sophomore filly trotters — on a day where purses for the program are estimated at $3.24 million.

"Hambletonian Day is the most popular event in harness racing," said Meadowlands' chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "It always brings out a big crowd, and features the very best horses, trainers and drivers in the world. For true harness fans, it is a can't miss day at the races."

Maryland, the standout 2-year-old from 2024, is the early favorite to win the Hambletonian after winning six of nine starts a year ago, good for earnings of just over $1.2 million, a bankroll that led all horses in the sport.

The Marcus Melander trained son of Chapter Seven—Crucial is certain to open up at No. 1 in Big M track announcer Ken Warkentin's weekly "Road to The Hambletonian" Top 10, which will make its debut during the first week of June and will come out for 10 straight Wednesdays.

A national television audience will once again be able to watch The Hambletonian live, as FOX Sports will broadcast the event as part of its "America's Day at the Races" series.

In the coming months, there will be a plethora of special events surrounding "America's Trotting Classic." Much of that information will be available on The Meadowlands website, playmeadowlands.com. For complete statistical data, upcoming events, upcoming prep races and everything else Hambletonian, go to the society's website, hambletonian.com.

Do you like lots of fun facts about the #Hambletonian100 countdown? Of course you do! To get in on the fun, go to <https://www.facebook.com/HambletonianSociety> and <https://www.facebook.com/HarnessRacingDC>.

EARLY PREGAME SHOW: With The Meadowlands now having the first race of every race card go to the gate without a post-time drag and begin promptly at 6:20 p.m., the track's live simulcast show will now begin 15 minutes earlier, at 5:30 p.m., every live racing night.

DUNN IN THE SULKY: Dexter Dunn, the United States Harness Writers Association Dan Patch Driver of the Year Award winner five of the last six years, will be Dave Little's guest on Saturday night (May 10) on the track's "In the Sully" interview segment. It will begin at approximately 5:35 p.m.

Dunn and Little will discuss the New Zealand native's fabulous 2025, which saw him win a record six Breeders Crown titles.

In addition, Dunn will weigh-in on Maryland and Captain Optimistic, who are big-time 2025 Hambletonian and Meadowlands Pace contenders, respectively.

WHEN IS LIVE RACING? During the month of May, live racing at The Big M will be conducted every Friday and Saturday with a first-race post-time of 6:20 p.m.

THE BIG SHOW: Check out the live "Racing from The Meadowlands" pregame show at 5:30 p.m. every Friday and Saturday when Warkentin opens up the mic with a scene set and program changes.

Warkentin will then throw to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set, where The Big M's Little and Jessica Otten will provide news, notes, selections and a look at the night's featured races.

Joe Romanelli will handle interviews from the back paddock as well as providing commentary and selections on the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed.

A GRAND CONTEST: The fifth edition of the 2025 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest takes place on Friday (May 16), and for visitors to The Big M, playing the contest is something they should consider even if they have not participated in competitions like this before.

The monthly challenge offers $1,000 in cash prizes.

If a track visitor is someone that doesn't mind risking $100 during the course of a race card, then the contest is for them, as that $100 that gets them into the contest is not an entry fee, but money that buys one a 'betting card'. If they hit big that night, they keep every penny of that green. In addition, if they finish in the top four, they walk away with that additional prize money, and, if in the top two, collect not only prize money but also earn a spot in the end-of-the-year competition that offers cash prizes totaling $10,000.

Contest format:

- Contestants must be on-site to participate
- Contestants must buy a $100 betting card to participate
- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races
- There is no minimum or maximum bet per race
- Contestants can play any wager(s) on The Meadowlands live wagering menu
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings
- Contestants can enter as many times as they wish
- The top two finishers earn spots in the $10,000 end-of-the-year contest

Remaining contest schedule:

- Friday (May 16)
- Friday (June 20)
- July 18
- Aug. 30
- Oct. 25
- Nov. 21
- The $10,000 invitation-only final is on Dec. 13

Players that have qualified for the December contest are Nick Montemurro and Gary Scogna (the top two finishers from January); Michael Grasso and Montemurro (February); Sean Loeb and Joe Barre (March); and Robert Glaser and Jim Bohnczyk (April).

Complete contest rules and regulations can be found here.

To participate, players must be 18 years of age or older to wager on racing. If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, please get help at 1-800-GAMBLER.

GOING NATIONAL: For a fifth consecutive year, the TV teams at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and The Meadowlands will combine forces to bring high-caliber harness racing stakes events to a national television audience over the networks of FOX Sports as part of NYRA's "America's Day at the Races" telecasts.

The first of eight scheduled shows will be broadcast on Saturday (May 17), when The Big M showcases the best older trotters in North America in the $175,000 (est.) Arthur J. Cutler Memorial. In addition to coverage from the East Rutherford oval, races from Indiana's Hoosier Park will also be featured.

The Meadowlands' Otten and Hoosier Park's Gabe Prewitt will provide commentary from their respective venues.

Here is the schedule for the FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on — Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 — will be determined:

- May 17 — Cutler Memorial, 8-11 p.m., FS2

Big efforts in Canadian Grad finals

The Canadian Sired Graduate Series wrapped up Saturday night (May 3) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with a trio of finals.

Funtime Bayama, Sorch Seelster and Paquet took the top spot in their respective finals for 4-year-olds.

The $79,000 Graduate final for 4-year-old pacers saw Funtime Bayama find the racing room he needed just in time to nail Century Komodo at the wire in 1:50.2.

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Funtime Bayama flashed early speed, but was forced to take a seat in second behind Century Komodo. The leader would post a :26.4 opening-quarter before slowing things down to a :29.1 second-quarter.

As the field of five bunched going to three-quarters, Century Komodo got the field to that marker in 1:24 to set up a stretch sprint. With a rival to his outside and Century Komodo holding the rail, Funtime Bayama and driver James MacDonald didn't have a lot of options other than to hope some room would develop in the lane.

As the field came through the final sixteenth-of-a-mile, MacDonald was able to angle Funtime Bayama out to a clear path and slingshot up to narrowly defeat Century Komodo.

Trained by Andrew Harris, Funtime Bayama was making just his second start back after a significant injury last July.

"It's hard when you're bringing a horse back like that," said MacDonald. "I know Andrew [Harris] and Mr. Pollock we're probably dying to win, but you don't want to just gun him and roll him down the road and have him get beat, especially being off that long."

"I knew there was a good chance I might not get out, but the way he felt last week, I thought if I got some daylight somewhere he'd probably get the job done."

A son of Hes Watching, Funtime Bayama's first win of 2025 gives him nine wins and over $450,000 earned. He races for owners Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman and Harris.

Chain Gang finished third, while Merigo Magic was fourth.

Funtime Bayama paid $3.20 to win.

The $78,500 Graduate final for mare pacers saw Sorch Seelster strike at 7-1 for driver Bob McClure and trainer John Pentland. The daughter of All Bets Off sat fourth in a field of five before angling out turning for home and unleashing a :27 final-quarter to defeat favorite Coco Jo Jo by a head in 1:50.4.

"It's been a slow start to the year, but she's a class horse," said Pentland following Sorch Seelster's surprise first win of the season. "It's a shock [the win]. She battled being in heat with like a follicle bothering her all week and I would've been happier if we were in the 12th race, that was the timing going on to try and get that to knock off... she's tough as nails and overcame it."

Sorch Seelster is now a nine-time winner for her career, taking her earnings over $200,000 for owners R C Molyneux Racing, Pentland, Peter Charlton and the Estate of Archie Leach.

Collusion Hanover finished third, while Resilience was fourth.

Sorch Seelster paid $16.80 to win.

Paquet made a backstretch move to the lead and never looked back for a career-best 1:52.1 victory in the $81,500 Graduate final for 4-year-old trotters.

A son of Muscle Mass, Paquet made it a clean sweep of the Graduate with a 2¼-length victory for driver Jody Jamieson and trainer Carl Jamieson.

"Everything is going great," said Hall of Famer Carl. "He's a lovely horse, does everything really easy and we're going for big money now. We paid him up into a lot of stuff."

The Canadian Graduate final was just the 11th start of the career for Paquet, who had to overcome multiple issues to make it to the races. He now has seven wins and over $400,000 earned for owners Carl Jamieson, Estate of Brian Paquet, 1140545 Ontario Limited and Doug Good.

Sid The Kid, who shot out to the early lead, held second, while Willowtime and Willys Home Run completed the top-four.

Paquet paid $2.20 to win.

Allegra Hanover wins final of final Bobby Weiss Series

Allegra Hanover went into the $50,000 Bobby Weiss Series Championship for 3-year-old pacing fillies with two wins and a nose loss in the preliminaries; the filly who beat her was Strutsville, who was the only horse who won all three of her prelims.

But Allegra Hanover drew the inside for Monday's (May 5) Weiss finale at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania and Strutsville had post 7 – quite the reverse from their last meeting. The wagering public flocked to Allegra Hanover, and they were rewarded when the daughter of Papi Rob Hanover came away with a 1:52.2 victory over her archrival.

Sweet Odds (also a two-time prelim winner) and Strutsville were fastest away from the gate, with the latter claiming the point, but Allegra Hanover was already out and moving frontward for Dexter Dunn by the :27.4 quarter. Allegra Hanover got command, and nobody was eager to challenge her through mid-splits of :56.2 and 1:24.1. Strutsville (to the outside) and Sweet Odds (to the inside) took their shot in the stretch, but Allegra Hanover won by a length over the potential pocket rocket, with Sweet Odds another 1½ lengths back.

Allegra Hanover posted only one victory at 2, but that win gave her a career best clocking of 1:51.3. The filly is now four-for-five (plus the nose loss) this year, and that lifetime standard may not be standing much longer for the filly, trainer Gareth Dowse, and the ownership of Martin Valentic, T G Stable LLC, and Bill Boyce.

A $20,000 Weiss consolation saw the Tall Dark Stranger filly Beckoning Yankee reduce her speed badge to 1:53.2 after taking control in front of the stands, then holding off the late-charging Milagro by a head. Nifty Norman trains the successful filly for Pinske Stables, Yankeeland Partners LLP, and Lawrence Means.

Red-hot driver Tyler Buter, the Pocono leader who was the pilot of Beckoning Yankee, added four winners on the Monday afternoon program; when added to the six-bagger he posted on Sunday night, Buter had 10 visits to the winner's circle within a 24-hour period.

On Saturday (May 10), the Pennsylvania All-Stars will mark the start of the state-bred stakes season with five $30,000 divisions for the "glamour boys," the 3-year-old pacing males. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Brooksforreal wins 11th straight in Maryland stakes

Following his 1:53.1 first-round victory last week, Lucky Lilly Belle Stable's Brooksforreal extended his win streak to 11 with a 1:54.2 score in his $10,000 second-round Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary division on Wednesday (May 7) at Rosecroft Raceway.

Jared Moyer rated fractions of :27.4, :57.2 and 1:26.2 with the 3-year-old Rusty's For Real—Brooks Range gelding before using a :28 sprint home to keep pocket rival Hungry Cougar (driven by Jonathan Roberts) at bay by a measured length. MJ Copperfield (Russell Foster) finished third.

Brooksforreal, whom Stacey McLenaghan trains, has won 11 of 15 races in his career and banked $180,502.

Bryan Truitt's Don't Say Maybe took top speed honors among 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings with a 1:54 win in the other division. In line to Frank Milby, the Rusty's For Real—Sarcastic Bluechip gelding stalked splits of :27.2, :56.4 and 1:25 before emerging from third off the home turn and sweeping to the fore in the final yards to edge pocket rival Rusty's Lancelot (Eric Davis) and 3-2 pacesetter Classic Cougar (William Carter) by a widening length.

Bryan Truitt, Jr. trains Don't Say Maybe, who returned $5.80 to win.

Owner/trainer/breeder Richard Hans and driver Johnathan Ahle partnered to sweep both sophomore trotting divisions, winning the colt and gelding division with Yall Keep Dreaming, who defeated Roan Ridge by 16¼ lengths in a lifetime best 1:55.2, and the filly division with Yall Just Love Me ($5.40), who circled cover to edge stablemate Y'all Know Me (Foster) by a half-length in 2:00.

Moyer scored his second winning Maryland Sire Stakes drive in the second 3-year-old filly pacing section, teaming his own trainee Pawny ($46) to a 22-1 upset over Post Jolene (Roberts) and tiring 1-9 pacesetter Toys Little Tinker (Carter) in 1:55.4. Woody's Girl ($2.40) won the other split, powering to a 3¼-length win over Lu's Darling and Pams For Real in 1:56 while in line to Tim Deaton for trainer Kasey Bendix.

The spring Maryland Sire Stakes series will culminate with a quartet of $95,000 finals next Wednesday (May 14).

Live racing returns to Rosecroft on Sunday (May 11) with a pair of carryovers: $447.22 in the Pick-5 (races 3-7) and $5,925.36 in the Jackpot Hi-5 (race 10). First post for the 13-race program is noon.

R Melina returns to races with Pocono "Q" victory

Tyler Buter, who has been the leading driver at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania during the afternoon and evening pari-mutuel racing, decided to extend his dominance to the mornings as well, as he won five qualifying races at the northeast Pennsylvania oval on Wednesday (May 7), guiding three of trainer Hunter Oakes's four victorious charges and also doubling for trainer John Butenschoen.

Among the winners he drove for Butenschoen was R Melina, who last year was generally regarded as the second-best filly in her class behind Allegiant. The now 4-year-old daughter of Chapter Seven, who numbered the Kentucky Filly Futurity and the New York Sire Stakes championship among her successes, returned to the races with a dominating 1:56.3 victory for the ownership of M and L Delaware / Armitage Farm.

Oakes had a trio of talented 3-year-old pacing males take victories, with two of them driven by Buter and sired by Huntsville: Excelsior final winner Invictus wired his field in 1:53.4 - :28, and multiple stakes winner Thirsty Thursday went to the lead nearing the far turn and came home in :27.3 to stop the clock at 1:55.2. Oakes teamed with Jason Bartlett as Dandy Ideal, a son of American Ideal who ended his baby campaign with four straight successes including the Matron final (in which Thirsty Thursday was second), flashed home in :26.2 from second-over in a 1:54.1 triumph.

Strong handle gains highlight winter/spring meet at Fraser Downs

Fraser Downs at Elements Casino Surrey wrapped up its 2025 winter/spring meet on a high note, posting wagering increases. The racing season began on Thursday (Feb. 27) and concluded on Friday (May 2).

A strong finish helped fuel the results, with the final two race days in May showing a 24 per cent increase in total handle over the same period last year with the same number of race days. On May 1, a pair of $50,000 stakes races helped to propel wagering to over $400,000 across 10 races.

"The interest in Fraser Downs has been building over the last few years," said Dawn Lupul, manager of racing and communications. "We're fortunate to have passionate fans and committed industry partners who have embraced the low takeout rates and wagering promotions.
