It ain't easy being three

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

"You can ask them, I called Eric Mollor four times, I called Tony [Alagna] four times, Chris Ryder and I spoke about six times, back and forth, Sammy DePinto, same thing. I put his horse in to qualify. Then I took him out, because I said, 'Oh, I think I can get it to go.' And then I put him back in to qualify, because I said, 'No, I can't get it to go.'"

With the Pepsi North America Cup on June 14 and the Meadowlands Pace a month later, trainers of top 3-year-old male pacers want to get a few tighteners into their horses before the rubber meets the road, but that's been hard to do at The Meadowlands, although not for a lack of trying.

Interim race secretary Karen Fagliarone was busier than a one-armed paper hanger as she manned the phones trying to fill the field last Saturday night (May 24) to accommodate those colts looking for a race.

"I tell my interns, when I start working with them, when you open up that box in the morning, you look at every single horse in every single class, and it's like a big puzzle, and then you have to fit the pieces together," said the veteran race secretary, adding with a laugh, "That's how I've trained them all, and they all seem to have gone on and gotten better jobs than I have, so I guess I did something right."

Unfortunately, no matter how hard Fagliarone tried, she could not get all the puzzle pieces to fit.

"I tried to fill the winners of two, but no more than six, because a lot of them fit in there," she said. "You can ask Chris Ryder and Tony [Alagna], I must have called them five different times... 'We're going to go with it, we're going to go with it, and we're not going to go with it,' because I'd call and nobody else wanted to move in there. I spent like all morning trying to fill that race to get these horses to go, and I couldn't."

According to Fagliarone, there were some pieces on the board that could have fit, but there were some obstacles.

"I've always found that you can't really lie to these horsemen because they all want to know, how fast it's going to go or what am I in against?" Fagliarone said. "And I feel like if you're not truthful, you'll never get that respect back. And you'll call for a horse the next week, and they'll be like, 'Yeah, you told me last week that it was a cheap race, and you buried me,' and you'll never get another horse from them. So, I feel that you really need to be upfront and honest with everybody, but it's difficult because, like I said, everything up there goes in [1]:49 and a piece."

In an effort to try and fill the race, Ryder said he entered more than one.

"I threw a horse in just to make the race go, T H Tyson," Ryder said. "He missed getting in, so he was available, and, you know, he would have been competitive. He goes [1]:50, [1]:51, but they still couldn't use it.

"I guess it's just a reflection of the state of the business. It's a bit of a sad thing to admit to. The powers that be, it really doesn't seem to be an issue for them.

"It's not really the answer here, but over the years we've had late closers [at The Meadowlands] in the spring and a lot of horses got a jumpstart or a little bit of racing."

When trainer DePinto was campaigning North America Cup runner-up We Will See back in 2010, he doesn't remember facing the issues he is now with his 3-year-old colt pacer Papis Pistol.

"You know what, the classes did fill back then, yeah, it was easier," DePinto said. "I raced [We Will See] at The Meadowlands in a couple of overnights before I even went to Canada with him.

"So, yeah, in the last 15 years, a lot has changed. I think we've got fewer horses, too. I don't think the breeding farms are putting out as many horses as they used to. I think the numbers are down at the sales."

As Fagliarone said, DePinto also received multiple calls last week from her.

"I called my partners at least three different times that day and told them 'We're racing, no, we're qualifying, no, we're back racing, no, now we're qualifying again, no, now we're racing,'" DePinto said. "And then she called me and said, 'It's not going to go; do you want to qualify?' And I said, yeah, put me in the qualifier."

DePinto did suggest that maybe if they added a little more money to the purse of the race there might have been a little more interest, but maybe not.

Another issue was that last Saturday was not a typical card at The Meadowlands.

"The problem with going with five or six in there is we had nine races of stakes that day," Fagliarone said. "So, how do you go with a five-horse field when you're leaving 50 horses out of the box?"

*“I’ve always found that you can’t really lie to these horsemen because they all want to know, how fast it’s going to go or what am I in against? And I feel like if you’re not truthful, you’ll never get that respect back. And you’ll call for a horse the next week, and they’ll be like, ‘Yeah, you told me last week that it was a cheap race, and you buried me,’ and you’ll never get another horse from them. Given how important handle is at The Meadowlands, would management have been okay with a six-horse field of Meadowlands Pace probables over a full field of overnight horses?

“I wouldn’t see why not, but I would like to have full fields,” said chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir, adding with a laugh, “You know I like to have my cake and eat it, too.”

While president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural said, “I agree, a minimum of six if it’s a competitive field.”

According to comments in Dave Little’s Road to the Meadowlands Pace sent on May 22, four of the top 10 horses chose last minute to qualify or race in sire stakes at Harrah’s Philadelphia because The Meadowlands race did not fill.

Ryder’s American Son and DePinto’s Papis Pistol finished 1-2 in a qualifier at The Big M last Saturday.

In addition to four qualifiers this year, American Son had one pari-mutuel start on May 3, which is one more than DePinto’s colt, who has had just three qualifiers this season. Both are in Canada this weekend for Saturday’s [May 31] Somebeachsomewhere.

Trainer Ron Burke, who will have some heading north next week for the North America Cup elims, said he’s not as affected if a Meadowlands race like that one doesn’t fill.

“I don’t sweat it as much as all the rest of them do,” Burke said. “If I have to race at Pocono or race at Chester or race at The Meadows, I just go race somewhere else, so, I’m probably the worst one to ask. And if I’ve got to qualify instead of race, I’m fine and to be honest, if I’ve just got to train them, I’ll figure it out, you know what I mean? I don’t sweat that kind of stuff.

“You’ve got to deal with what you’re dealt, and, you know, I get it, they don’t want to write a race for five horses; they don’t want to write a race with a 1-9 shot. I have always gotten what the business model is too, so, like I said, I don’t sweat it. It’s not my biggest worry. I’ve got bigger worries.”

Burke’s top colts had races elsewhere, so he didn’t drop anything in for that race last week at The Meadowlands, but would have if he had been asked.

“They know I’m good about that, but the thing is Karen’s good about that, too,” Burke said. “If she was one horse away, she would have called me. She must have not even been close.

“They don’t want to go with six. Jeff and Jason don’t want six-horse fields. And people can’t be mad that they don’t want to go with six-horse fields... You know, it’s not just about us, they’re trying to make money, or, at least, not lose money.

“I mean, Ake [Svanstedt], do you ever hear him cry [if he doesn’t get in]? He shows up off two years off and wins, because he just doesn’t worry about that s--t. You can only worry about the s--t you can worry about, the stuff that you can’t, you just work around it.

“I have an advantage, too, if I want to make my own race, I can make a race. I have enough good horses, I’ll put them against each other and we race them. I think that’s what Ake does, too. I think he has enough good horses, he puts five of them together, four of them together, and they go at it. The bigger barns, maybe it’s not such a big deal.

“People ask me, ‘Hey, are you going any speed at this time?’ I’ve got like 60 to choose from, I can find three that want to go fast.”

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Hanover Raceway kicks off eventful season 61 on Saturday

by Matthew Lomon

Hanover Raceway is no stranger to a busy offseason.

In 2024, the half-mile oval celebrated its 60th year in operation, underscoring its unquestioned position as a pillar of the quaint southwestern Ontario community.

On Saturday (May 31), Hanover will kick off its 61st season with the first of 15 race dates running weekly through Sept. 13 (excluding Aug. 9).

While not a milestone, the leadup to the upcoming campaign projects to be just as, if not more, eventful than the last.

In particular, the gutting and complete renovation of the old Playtime Casino has created new obstacles for general manager Scott Price and his team to work around.

"This year is a little different than past years," said Price, who is entering his third full season leading the charge. "The old casino in the hall is under a major renovation. It's being converted into a 480-person hall for events and gatherings. It's been a bit of a challenge getting things off to a smoother start than years past because we're dealing with that."

The grandstand, which remains fully intact and unaltered by the casino makeover, stepped in as a short-term home for any project spillover.

"It's not being interfered with, but because it's physically attached to the hall, a lot of the stuff from the hall got moved into our grandstand for temporary storage over the winter," Price said.

That, however, has not deterred the folks at Hanover from working diligently to deliver yet another memorable summer at 265 5th Street.

Staff have spent the past few weeks clearing the displaced items from the grandstand in order to have it ready for opening day, which Price reiterated it will be.

"I think we're eagerly nervous at this point," he said with a laugh. "We're excited to get things up and rolling again. There's a lot to get done but we'll get there."

Hanover's GM also noted some upcoming on-track upgrades for 2025, including improvements to the surfacing and surrounding fencing.

All this is being taken care of from a provisional workspace located along the backstretch that Price and Co. have been operating out of while waiting on the construction of a new race office.

"We've been working in this space since about February of this year," Price said. "Hopefully, with this revamped hall, we'll be able to offer events that can coincide with race day, whether it be dinners, fundraisers, trade shows, conventions, etc."

"We're a little ways away from that, but that's an idea of the goal, which is to provide more opportunities for local businesses, and a place to go, because there isn't a hall locally that can handle more than 100 people."

Hanover continues to pull out all the stops in its 61st season, exploring fresh and energizing avenues for its patrons, both loyal and soon-to-be.

A prime example of this commitment comes in the form of a brand-new racing series, Drivers Coming Home.

Set for June 21, the locally grown event is a celebration of the top reinsmen who graduated to the Grand Circuit after honing their craft at Hanover.

The star-studded guest list includes Doug McNair, Bruce Richardson, Mark Etsell, Bob McClure, Trevor Henry, Scott Young, Jason Ryan, and Garrett Rooney.

An appearance from "The Money Man," aka Scott Zeron, may also be in the cards depending on the in-demand driver's schedule.

Should Zeron, who in 2023 became the third Canadian-born driver in the past 20 years to win U.S. Driver of the Year honors at the Dan Patch Awards, be unable to attend the big day, a pre-recorded interview will be shown on the track's video and sound systems.

"We're hoping to get two or three races with them, and then they'll go into the grandstands to speak and sign some autographs," Price said.

"We wanted to do something to pay tribute to the area, Hanover, and all of these drivers who got their start here. It's nice to say that this is where they started, and now they're racing at Mohawk, Scotty [Zeron] is down in the U.S., but these guys have made quite a career out of it. It's cool that their roots were laid at this racetrack. This series pays homage to their success.”

Also returning from 10:30 to noon on June 21 is the track’s highly anticipated open house.

Price is hoping to not only build on the success of last year’s inaugural showing but draw attention to the open house as a vehicle for introducing more fans to what Hanover actually does.

“It’s funny, Hanover Raceway has been here for 60-plus years and there are still people in the area that didn’t really know what we do here,” Price said. “They see the field, we have some baseball diamonds in the center, but a lot of people didn’t know what we provided here as an entertainment center in the area.

lot of positive feedback. People were surprised, 'We didn't even know this was here, we didn't know you were doing this.' It has brought a lot more attention and highlighted Hanover Raceway."

Attracting extra eyes has long been Hanover's mission, and something like an open house, while certainly a key cog in the operation, isn't all there is to it.

Each week, fans have a different reason to get excited.

Whether it's a visit from the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance and its virtual race bike on June 21, fan-favorite wiener dog races on June 14, three days of Young Gunz mini horse races (June 21, July 19, Aug. 30), eight Ontario Sires Stakes contests (starting with two Prospect Series tilts on July 5), or homegrown series like the Dream of Glory (elims on July 26, final on Aug. 2) and Balanced Image (elims on Aug. 16, final on Aug. 23), Hanover's 2025 season doesn't let up.

Days like the wiener dog races, which Price said rivalled last year's Dream of Glory crowds, play a significant role in bringing people to the track, even if it may not seem like it to some.

With more faces in the crowd, comes more eyes on the racing product, and with that, Hanover can continue to serve its enduring duty as a community beacon.

"The sport itself is very important," Price said. "For those who have been around, there's a long-standing history here with deep-rooted ties in the community. We hire a lot of students over the summer and it's amazing that people will come back in their adult years and say, 'I used to work at Hanover Raceway when I was a teenager.' The Raceway has given a lot back to the community in the way of employment.

"We do our best to sponsor local charities, events, parks, and related events. We're always looking at ways to give back to the people giving us the support over the years because we do get a lot of local support."

Support has been a central theme for Price throughout his tenure as general manager. From the community to staff to guests, the Hanover way always shines through.

"When you have the right people working around you it makes a real difference," he said. "The racetrack isn't about just one person. It's about a group of people that work together to get things done. We have a phenomenal group of people here."

"I've also had a lot of support from our patrons. We have people that come faithfully every week, and you get to listen to their experiences. There are people, of all ages, that have been in harness racing for years. It's always great to hear about their success and their time in the industry."

First race post for opening day is 1:30 p.m.

Whiz kid Jett Turnbull keeps family name flying high

by Adam Hamilton

If Jett Turnbull was a yearling, he would be a sales topper. To say the 17-year-old is bred in the purple is an understatement. Turnbull is fifth generation harness racing and from one of the biggest, best, and iconic racing families in Australia. There are literally Turnbulls everywhere, and their success continues to grow as new generations emerge. Jett is the latest of them.

He only had his first drive on July 19, 2023 – a day after turning 16 – and posted his 300th, and by far biggest win, in the $100,000 TAB Regional Statewide final at Menangle last Saturday.

As you'd expect, it was a family affair and a very special one. The winner, 4-year-old gelding Glitter And Gold, is trained by Jett's father, Nathan.

"He'd won the Western Region final of the series, which was my biggest win and thrill at home [Bathurst, May 14], but this was next level," Jett said. "To go to Menangle, our main track, and team with dad to win a race like that was very special."

“ [Jett] has just got it. I’ve seen it since he was 13 and driving horses in [track] work by galloping them around a 500-meter track. Horses just go for him, he’s similar to my daughter, Amanda. They can burn them out at the start and still sprint at the finish, not many can do that. Wins like the other night [in the TAB Regional Statewide final] are super important to Jett, or anyone really. It shows you that you can compete with the very best. Jett’s doing it at 17... I reckon I was 40 before I got to that stage. ”

~ Steve Turnbull

“I’m certainly aware of the importance of winning races like that as far as opening opportunities for me at my age.”

Jett’s drive meant business.

“I had a lot of confidence in him, he’s a cool little horse who had to do his share of work to find the front and had his two main dangers stalking, but found plenty to hold them off,” he said.

There was an army of friends and family watching on proudly and excitedly.

One of them was Jett’s grandfather, the highly decorated Steve Turnbull. The 68-year-old has trained almost 4,300 winners, but is best known as trainer/driver of the former superstar Smooth Satin, who won an Inter Dominion and Miracle Mile in the early 2000s.

“This kid has just got it,” Steve said. “I’ve seen it since he was 13 and driving horses in [track] work by galloping them around a 500-meter track.

“Horses just go for him, he’s similar to my daughter, Amanda. They can burn them out at the start and still sprint at the finish, not many can do that.

~ Jett Turnbull

“Wins like the other night are super important to Jett, or anyone really. It shows you that you can compete with the very best.

“Jett’s doing it at 17... I reckon I was 40 before I got to that stage.”

For all of Steve’s deeds, his father, the late Tony “AD” Turnbull is the most famous member of the remarkable family.

“AD” is one the greatest legends of the game. He was the first Australian to drive over 2,000 winners, the first to win successive Inter Dominion finals (Hondo Grattan in 1973 and ’74) and the first to win the Inter Dominion and Miracle Mile in the same year (Hondo Grattan in 1974).

Such was AD’s impact; he is one of just three harness folk in the NSW Sports Hall of Champions.

He and Hondo Grattan — fondly known as the “Bathurst Bulldog” after the NSW town they came from — became household names.

Steve is one of six children “AD” and his wife, Shirley, had. Five of them have or continue to have terrific success in harness racing.

Steve, Craig and Cindy are still major players, as are many of AD’s grandchildren like Emma, Jason, Amanda, Josh and Mitchell (all Turnbulls), along with Cindy’s kids Will, Ellen and Hannah. Then there is Craig’s daughter, Abbey.

Jett has a “double dose” of harness racing in his bloodlines.

His mother, Carly, is the daughter of successful horseman Greg Rue and his wife, Deanna. Greg’s nephew, Mat, is a Miracle Mile winning driver.

The history and significance of the Turnbulls certainly isn’t lost on Jett, who for his age, speaks and presents stunningly well.

“It’s such a special family to be part of,” he said. “Obviously, the great horses Hondo Grattan and Smooth Satin were before my time, but I’ve heard all about them and how they were the best of their time.

“When we go to Steve’s for dinner, the old videos of Smooth Satin will come out and I’ll hear all about him.

"I know how exciting it was when dad [Nathan] had the best horse he's had, Better Be The Best, flying. It's such a shame he'd been sidelined. I drove him in work, but never at the races.

"Sure, there's some pressure and expectation that comes with the Turnbull name, but it's also brought me so many great influences in my career already, none bigger than dad. You've got Steve [Turnbull], auntie Amanda [Turnbull], Mat Rue and people like Cam Hart, Jack Callaghan and Jason Grimson have been fantastic support, too.

"When people ask me about the great success 'AD' and Steve had, I just say it gives me something to aim for and hope that I can achieve in my career.

"For now, I just pinch myself I've driven more than 300 winners in less than two years."

Jett attracted the eye of Australia's most powerful stable, Victoria's Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin, last year where talks started about a possible move.

"It was amazing to hear they knew what I'd done and were interested, but the best place to be for the immediate future is here at home with dad so I can continue to learn," he said. "Dad's NSW's leading trainer with a good team of 50-odd horses in work and I've got loads of opportunities across three, four, sometimes five meetings a week."

Top Menangle trainer Jason Grimson is another to have tapped into Jett's talent.

"He's been great," Jett said. "He gave me a drive during the [Sydney] Inter Dominion series last year and I've also driven his top mares Tay Tay and Illavabubbles."

The Inter Dominion is close to Jett's heart given the huge role his family played in it with Hondo Grattan and Smooth Satin.

Like most, he's thrilled to see it being shown some "love" with a new July timeslot and significant prize money boost at Albion Park in July.

And Jett expects to be there, albeit driving in support races.

"I can hold out hope I might pick up a drive in the series, but the reason for going is dad's looking at taking our two best horses, Glitter And Gold and a 3-year-old No Luck, up for some of the 3- and 4-year-old features," Jett said. "Just to be driving at Albion Park during Inter Dominion time will be a huge buzz."

The deeds of Aussie brothers Todd and Andy McCarthy in the U.S. are certainly not lost on Jett.

"Of course not," he said. "And the time James Herbertson has just had over there, too. Some time in the U.S. is definitely in the cards, but it probably won't be until I'm 21 or 22. I'd love to do a fact-finding trip like Herby did recently."

Go On Boy gives France fourth straight Elitloppet victory

by Thomas Hedlund

In 2019, Romain Derieux shocked most of the harness racing world when he won Elitloppet with his Dijon. Derieux's second triumph in Sweden's biggest trotting race was much less surprising.

On Sunday (May 25) at Solvalla, Go On Boy (Password) handily won Elitloppet and proved he is a horse that belongs in the conversation about Europe's best trotters.

The victory came two years after Go On Boy was the runner-up to Hohneck in the 2023 Elitloppet.

This year's final was spectacular.

Heat winners Don Fanucci Zet and Mellby Jinx fought for the lead when the car accelerated and it was a fast opening that ended with Mellby Jinx keeping the lead from his inside post. Derieux settled Go On Boy third over, covered by Borups Victory, and when Örjan Kihlström attacked three wide with Francesco Zet with a kilometer to go, Derieux was not quite attentive. When Francesco Zet should have been covered by Borups Victory in the three wide-attack, Go On Boy took Francesco Zet's spot.

Francesco Zet's race was over and Hohneck soon took the lead from Mellby Jinx, which left Borups Victory first over with Go On Boy following behind.

In the home stretch, Derieux gave his Go On Boy the signal and the French trotter flew to an outstanding win in 1:50.

It was the fourth straight Elitloppet victory by a French trotter and the 28th in history by horses from that country.

The win this year was established in the elimination heat, where Derieux just focused on bringing his horse into the final. It was a clever move. The only horse racing with shoes in the final, Go On Boy, had plenty of power to use when it was required the most. It was a typical French tactic and fans were left to bow and say: Bravo!

Don Fanucci Zet, cleverly driven by France's Paul-Philippe Ploquin, finished second while Hohneck (France) held bravely to claim the bronze medal.

The French winners in the three previous years were: Horsy Dream (Eric Raffin) in 2024, Hohneck (Gabriele Gelormini) in 2023 and Etonnant (Anthony Barrier) in 2022.

The most recent Swedish winner was Don Fanucci Zet (Örjan Kihlström) in 2021.

Interestingly, all of the above, except Horsy Dream, competed in this year's Elitloppet, with Don Fanucci Zet and Hohneck making the final.

The lone North American hopeful, Logan Park – driven by Doug McNair and trained by Rob Fellows – represented Canada but finished last in their heat and failed to advance to the final.

In the first heat, the big hope from Sweden, Francesco Zet, was too fired up in the post parade and driver Kihlström had to fight with his horse, who didn't listen to his driver's commands. Francesco Zet more or less ran away from the scene just minutes before the race.

In the race, he got a second over position with Daniel Wäjersten's Mellby Jinx (Ready Cash) in the lead. Mats E. Djuse sat in the bike and looked very comfortable as Mellby Jinx kept a high, even pace while Francesco Zet and Go On Boy had to leave for a three-wide attack before the last turn.

Go On Boy's finish was great and his runner up-performance proved helpful for the final.

Mellby Jinx was outstanding from the lead and he claimed his elimination win in 1:50.4.

A Fair Day finished third from the pocket and Francesco Zet had to give everything claiming a spot in the final by finishing fourth.

Elimination 1 replay here.

Go On Boy looked like the future winner for Elitloppet final, but then we had to consider the second elimination, where the next big Swedish hope made his appearance: Borups Victory driven by his trainer Daniel Wäjersten.

Borups Victory found a perfect second over-spot from post 6, normally a great position and Wäjersten's trotter finished well as the runner-up. The problem was that leader Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin), driven by Ploquin, was allowed to slow down the pace remarkably after the quick first quarter. Don Fanucci Zet won the elimination in 1:52.4, but the best impression from the heat came from Borups Victory. The earplugs were still in place as Borups Victory sprinted on to his second Elitloppet final in a row.

Hohneck finished third after an inside trip and Massimo Hoist posted a big upset to grab the fourth and last spot in the final.

Elimination 2 replay here.

ALLEGIAN OUTSTANDING IN DELICIOUS RACE

Daniel Redén-trained Allegiant (Tactical Landing) was the heavy favorite when 4-year-old mares met in the $100,000 Delicious race and after the American-bred trotter's performance, the harness racing fans can put their hope in a female contender for Elitloppet 2026.

Allegiant was making her second start in Europe and after her first performance it was clear that the best 3-year-old filly in America in 2024 is something extra special.

From post 8 behind the car, Kihlström tried Allegiant from the start, but when five, six inside horses opened as quickly as Allegiant, Kihlström opted for a safe trip, far back of the field.

That tactic turned out to be just right.

The pace was high in front as Robin Bakker defended his position behind Paul Hagoort's Bourbonista and when Alessandro Gocciadoro's Funny Gio landed outside after a half-mile, positioned three wide, Allegiant got her order to attack.

The Tactical Landing daughter showed speed rarely seen on a five-eighths mile track by a mare, and in the last turn, Allegiant was parked three wide, outside of the leading duo.

The homestretch became a one girl-show as Allegiant cruised to a superior win in 1:51.3.

Funny Gio was incredibly brave as the runner-up and leader Bourbonista held strongly as third.

WHAT A PERFORMANCE BY FREE TIME JEPSON

Gocciadoro put his trust in his Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon) when the $100,000 4-year-olds elite was on the menu. A post 10 start behind horses meant that Gocciadoro had to make a move with a lap to go and when first choice Frank Gio's driver Matthieu Abrivard very surprisingly opted not to answer the call from Gocciadoro, Frank Gio was stuck between horses in second over.

Gocciadoro noted that his toughest opponent was looking for racing room as he continued his three-wide attack.

At the same time, leader Keep Asking got a two-length advantage for Kihlström and when Free Time Jepson got close to the leader, a two-horse battle begun. Keep Asking was under hard pressure in the race's initial half-mile and showed great morale as he tried to fight back against the outside Italian horse. Free Time Jepson won in 1:51.4, by a head and behind Keep Asking, Life On The Bluf finished strongly in third.

Frank Gio did nothing wrong behind the front horses, but the drive by Abrivard was questioned after the race. Frank Gio has been mentioned as one of the best 4-year-olds in Europe, but right now, Free Time Jepson holds the crown.

GINOSTRABLIIGI? NO, WISE GUY

One of the weekend's main attractions, Philippe Allaire's 3-year-old Ginostrabliggi, who was undefeated after the eight starts, entered the $200,000 Breeders Course final as the big favorite in the hands of Gabriele Gelormini. From post 9, starting behind horses, Gelormini found a nice spot in third over, which turned into an unintentional three-wide attack with 1,300 meters remaining in the race.

Gocciadoro suddenly left an inside position at that point and some kind of disturbance occurred. That situation forced Ginostrabliggi to attack for the first over position, outside of leader Eyeofthetiger.

Eyeofthetiger still looked strong when he suddenly went off-stride in the last turn and Ginostrabliggi was then supposed to sprint to the win.

But behind him, Per Nordström made a move behind his Wise Guy (Face Time Bourbon) and at mid-stretch it was clear that the big favorite would be bested by Wise Guy.

Wise Guy won in a world record mile rate of 1:54.1 over 1.3 miles.

SIX PACK FILLY STRONGEST IN BREEDERS COURSE FINAL

Paul Hagoort-trained Gourmet d'Arc (Six Pack) came to Solvalla's $200,000 Breeders Course final for fillies unbeaten after four starts and after a thrilling battle, the 3-year-old showed talent, morale and strength as she won in a mile rate of 1:55.2 over 1.3 miles.

Gourmet d'Arc went to the front and everything looked safe for the leader until Gocciadoro threw away his Glamour Queen three wide up the backstretch. A two-horse battle began, with Glamour Queen seemingly sprinting to victory, but Gocciadoro used his horse's speed a little bit too early and Gourmet d'Arc fought back and claimed the prestigious win for Robin Bakker.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Seeing the Fryeburg Fair changed Steven Wilson's life

by Chris Lomon

It was unlike anything Steven Wilson had ever seen.

Everywhere he looked, the young man who hails from just outside Liverpool, England, found himself in awe.

Fryeburg Fair — Maine's largest agricultural fair — offered a sensory overload for the teenage Wilson, with its exhibit halls, museum, livestock shows, and harness racing.

"I ended up coming to Maine to see the Fryeburg Fair and visit my cousin Charlene [standardbred trainer, Cushing]," Wilson said. "I had a blast. So, the following summer, I came back to do the fair circuit horse racing with Charlene and Mike [trainer, driver and director with Maine Harness Horsemen's Association, Cushing]. And here I am, 17 years later."

These days, Wilson is firmly entrenched in Maine's harness racing scene — as a driver, trainer, second trainer, and farrier.

Not that he saw any of it coming.

"It's different, for sure," Wilson said. "But I absolutely love it."

Working full-time with the Cushings since 2008, Wilson launched the driving side of his career seven years ago.

It was Ideal Bid, a now-retired son of American Ideal—Highest Bid, who gave Wilson his first driving win.

The victory came at Windsor, a half-mile oval in the Maine city of the same name, on Sept. 2, 2018.

Leaving from post 4, Wilson and Ideal Bid sat second through an opening panel in :28. At the half-mile pole, they were 1¾ lengths in front, their advantage widening to two lengths through three-quarters in 1:27.2.

Ideal Bid crossed the line — after a final quarter in :30 — 2¼ lengths ahead of his nearest rival, stopping the clock in 1:57.2.

“It was pretty epic — I had been driving at a handful of fairs leading up to that race,” Wilson said. “I had a bunch of seconds and thirds and had just come up a little bit short.

“The horse was known for racing on the front and on that day, he was a little hot. When you know you’ve got a stone-cold frontrunner, being able to manage him, putting him in a hole, watching him swell up and then take off — and you have just started driving — it was an awesome feeling.”

Wilson was, to say the least, euphoric in the final few steps to the wire.

“Down the stretch, I remember tucking my whip and then I thought, ‘I am going to be embarrassed if someone comes and gets me late,’” he said. “But fortunately, that didn’t come close to happening. It was a sigh of relief to pull that first one off.”

Piloting the practiced pacer would be twice as nice for Wilson, who teamed with the bargain-priced ($2,000 purchase at the 2010 Harrisburg Yearling Sale) gelding to win 16 days later at Farmington.

By year’s end, Wilson made 14 total trips to the winner’s circle, accompanied by just north of $88,000 in purse earnings.

Most importantly, he learned valuable lessons about the horseman craft.

“I appreciated the work you have to put in even more than I did,” Wilson said. “Working as second trainer for Mike and Charlene for a lot of years — there is so much that goes into the horses, especially the babies. There is always that big excitement when you work with them and help get them to the races.

“When you start driving, you can see why everyone in a barn gets so excited about seeing their horses make it to the races. You also appreciate the older horses, who go out there and give their all over a lot of miles.”

Just like Wilson has.

Aside from his duties as second trainer for the Cushings, along with his own driving and training roles, Wilson does farrier work as well.

“I work for Mike and Charlene full time,” he said. “The past few years I have had a horse of my own here and there to train — I keep my horse in the same barn — and then I do the shoeing full time. I shoe all Mike and Charlene's horses – they have 22 in the barn right now – and I shoe about 25 horses outside of their barn. I am fully involved in the business.” Something that does present its challenges.

“I am sure one day, with being so busy, it will catch up to me at some point,” Wilson said with a laugh. “I truly enjoy everything I do, but I think a time will come when I might have to give something up.”

That could be a role he is quite adept at, one that produced a career-best year for him in 2024.

“I love driving,” Wilson said. “The adrenaline, the feeling, the connection to the horses – it is wonderful on every level. I might have to reconsider if I want to keep doing it down the road, but I have been very fortunate to drive some wonderful horses and had success.”

Emmajean Jellybean, a daughter of Mister Anson—Quote Of The Week, is one of those horses Wilson speaks of.

The pair have teamed up for multiple winner's circle trips, including a half-length score this May at Plainridge.

A lifetime winner of 22 races and closing in on the $300,000 mark in purse earnings, the 7-year-old trotting mare has a personality to match her competitive spirit.

“She will pin her ears back and give you this look of, ‘Don't mess with me,’” Wilson said. “Sometimes, the girls who work in the barn will tell me to come to see her because she's being difficult. But she just isn't that way with me. I'm her person and we both know it.”

Outside of the hectic pace that comes with the horse racing life, Wilson enjoys spending time on Maine lakes in the summer and snowmobiling on state trails during the winters.

“Being out on the water is always very calming and being on a snowmobile gives you that adrenaline like driving a horse – it's always exciting to explore new paths,” he said.

Something he is certainly familiar with.

After all, it was a 3,000-mile trek and a state fair first held in March 1851 that brought him across the Atlantic Ocean and put him on the road to horse racing.

“It's a pretty unique story, I suppose,” said Wilson. “But when I saw those horses and the atmosphere at Fryeburg Fair, it just stuck with me. I knew I would be back and that's exactly what happened – I'm very grateful how it all worked out.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

We need another Harry O. Reno and Joe Neville

by John Berry

In the past, I have pointed out the foresight of two gentlemen that played a significant role in our grand sport: Harry O. Reno and Joe Neville.

Back more than a century ago, 1923, Reno, a live wire salesman from Chicago, had the foresight to try and create a major stake for 3-year-old trotters, which turned out to be the most prestigious event in our sport, the Hambletonian.

In the late 1930s, Neville, an attorney, received an invitation to be included on the prestigious Grand Circuit calendar on a new fair track in Delaware, OH, and was supposed to send a telegram declining the invite, as the track was just a "yearling" in age with not one single structure on their grounds when their first fair was introduced in 1938.

Neville "plumb forgot" to send that telegram and harness racing's premier pacing event was on its way to becoming a reality – the Little Brown Jug.

Yes, Harry O. Reno and Joe Neville had the foresight to try and ensure the future of harness racing, enrich it, and bring it to heights unimagined at the time.

Today, we are desperately in search of the next Harry O. Reno or Joe Neville.

Today, it seems just about everyone cares only about today, or, maybe, the next draw for the races three or four days away.

People, we are in the midst of a cancer crises in our sport that has been going on for almost a half century!

We had somewhat of a "chemotherapy" in the form of Stan Bergstein, but there is no denying that our industry is suffering as, one by one, cancer cell by cancer cell is being surgically removed from our harness racing calendars, and we have done nothing to find a cure.

From Washington Park in 1976 (from fire) to Pompano, Freehold and Cal-Expo in recent times, with 40 other tracks surgically removed between, how much longer can we survive?

There are a few – sadly, very few – that see it, but, like it or not, Gordon Banks sees it, Rick Berks sees it, Tim Finley sees it, and maybe a few others.

But all love our sport, our industry and our participants – both human and equine – and care about its future and the safety of all involved.

We've put forth many suggestions for implementation and all have fallen on deaf ears concerning everything from safety to improving handle and shoring up participation, probably a couple of dozen, and nothing!

Why, just recently, in an HRU column, it was proposed to honor the memory of Hunter Myers with the Hunter Myers Research and Development Organization, which like the Snell Foundation formed in the late 1950s, would further safety issues to help save grave injury and lives.

One person – Finley – stepped up to the starting gate with a donation.

Finley has gotten a lot of flak in his fight to save the participants in our industry – both human and equine – because he is enamored with this sport.

I've never met Mr. Finley in person but he should be admired for his stance – whether you like him or not – for trying.

Nobody else has come forward on this project.

It's a shame!

Years ago, when HTA had offices at 333 N. Michigan Avenue in Chicago, I was with Stan Bergstein and he professed something very profound to these ears, "We have to realize that harness racing is not an important sport, but it's our job to make it important with our actions and deeds.

"There is no better vehicle than television!"

Now, with Bergstein gone to the ages, the competition has swarmed around us like a hive of wasps, and the options have become quite a challenge.

I – we – realize we have no voice, but the few that care, are still screaming as loud as we all can!

Banks has been preaching the gospel as one of the saviors of our sport and has done a grand job outlining what we have endured, especially since the casino factor has, first, given our sport a ray of hope, before finding ways to break promises and the backs of many, as competition in many forms has stretched the gambling dollar paper thin.

Yes, there are a few bright spots left, ironically, right in the heart of our land, Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, but the blood flow may be weakening in other parts of the country away from the heart.

Berks believes the industry has focus on the wrong agenda.

"We need to focus on molding our sport into importance and begin to concentrate on new fans," he said. "The [Kentucky] Derby had 150,000 there in Louisville [on a cold, rainy day] from the ordinary fan to ladies with outrageously great hats and men dressed to the 'T'. They had celebrities there that made the day even more important. It was a happening.

"I think we have to concentrate on one market at a time and attract well-to-do new patrons and that includes celebrities. We need people with connections to all phases of industry, from the spirits industry to the automobile industry, from FanDuel to Draft Kings.

"We need marketing expertise and we need casinos to contribute. We have to show them, as well as legislators, that there is interest in a great sport and that everyone, including States and casinos, themselves, can benefit from their participation. Breeders have benefitted greatly from the speed explosion in recent years and they should be willing to invest in the future of the sport, as well.

"Above all, we need a strong committee, not just interested in owning a champion, but those that have expertise in many arenas and are willing to devote themselves to a sport that has been very good to them. Aren't there a few entrepreneurs involved in our sport that will put their individual interests aside for a change and join a committee to insure the safety, success and longevity of a sport that we all love so much?"

It's apparent that our fan base is shrinking as the aged meet the inevitable with no new blood ready to take their place.

It's not just the fan base, either, as less than 2 per cent of our drivers and trainers are under the age of 25.

Baseball has minor leagues and, even before that, 7- and 8-year-olds in little leagues.

High schools feature basketball and football, and even bowling!

Junior hockey leagues are abundant everywhere, same for soccer.

The HHYF, which does a wonderful service to the industry, has little assistance in spreading the gospel about harness racing.

Casinos have found a hole in the once strong fabric where decoupling was not even a word, much less a threat.

We have learned – sadly, too late for some – that political dollars can tear fabrics apart, no matter how strong, and decoupling now looms large leaving our industry on pins and needles for the future.

Soon, it will be too late.

I hope not!

Twin B Joe Fresh repeats in Betsy Ross

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Twin B Joe Fresh, the 2024 Dan Patch Horse of the Year, made her seasonal debut a winning one Sunday (May 25), capturing the \$100,000 Grade 3 Betsy Ross Invitational, for older female pacers, by  $3\frac{1}{4}$  lengths over My Girl EJ in 1:49.3 at Harrah's Philadelphia. Valar Dohaeris finished third.

My Girl EJ, a 4-year-old and returning Dan Patch Award winner also making her seasonal debut, got the lead in a :26.4 opening quarter after a four-wide trip around the first turn. Twin B Joe Fresh, who was three-wide during the four-horse battle for the front, settled behind My Girl EJ, with Valar Dohaeris in third.

Twin B Joe Fresh and driver Dexter Dunn bided their time from there as My Girl EJ reached the half in :55 and three-quarters in 1:22. Dunn began to move Twin B Joe Fresh midway around the final turn and the 5-year-old mare responded to overtake My Girl EJ in the stretch and draw away as part of a :27.1 last quarter.

The victory was Twin B Joe Fresh's second consecutive Betsy Ross title, making her the first mare to win the event in back-to-back years since Shartin N did so in 2018 and 2019.

Dating back to November 2023, Twin B Joe Fresh has won 13 consecutive stakes or invitational finals, with only two of those victories by less than a length.

"She's a fun mare to drive with her versatility," Dunn said. "It was a bit of a scramble early, but I knew as soon as we got behind [My Girl EJ] we'd be all right. She does what you want her to do when you want her to do it. When I moved her, she knew exactly what to do."

Twin B Joe Fresh has won 31 of 41 career races and earned $2.38 million for trainer Chris Ryder, who owns the mare with Dunn, Peter Trebotica, and Barry Spak. The daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze was bred by Brittany Farms.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Twin B Joe Fresh paid $2.40 to win.

AETOS KRONOS S RESOLUTE IN MAXIE LEE TRIUMPH

Aetos Kronos S took the lead from early pacesetter Sir Pinocchio just past the opening quarter then later fended off that pocket-sitting rival in the stretch to win Sunday's (May 25) $100,000 Grade 3 Maxie Lee Memorial Invitational, for older trotters, by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:51 at Harrah's Philadelphia. Antognoni S finished third.

Sir Pinocchio was the quickest off the gate, but Aetos Kronos S and driver Dexter Dunn were already on the move after getting away third. Sir Pinocchio reached the quarter in :27.2, but Aetos Kronos S controlled the fractions from there, hitting the half in :55.2 and three-quarters in 1:22.4 while bracing for a first-over bid from Antognoni S.

Aetos Kronos S kept Antognoni S at bay on the final turn, then did the same to Sir Pinocchio down the lane to win for the third time in four races since arriving in the U.S. from overseas. It was his first victory in his first try on the Grand Circuit and pushed his seasonal earnings to $76,575.

For his career, Aetos Kronos S has won 22 of 66 races and earned $1.45 million. A 9-year-old son of Bold Eagle—Will Of A Woman, the stallion is trained by Marcus Melander for owners Jeffrey and Michael Snyder. He was bred by Allevamento Kronos Srl.

"He's been great every start, and I think he's just getting better and better," Melander said. "It's been a while since he's raced every 14 days or every three weeks. I think he's just getting sharper and sharper every week and he's in really good form right now. It's very impressive to be doing what he's doing at 9 years old."

"Obviously he's been a great horse his entire career. But getting older, and being away for a little bit with some issues, it's fun to see him do so good. He enjoys it so much."

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Aetos Kronos S paid $3.40 to win.

HE'S BACK! BYTHEMISSAL BEST IN AUGER MEMORIAL

On the strength of a decisive 1:48.3 score May 10 at Eldorado Scioto Downs, double millionaire Bythemissal landed back in the Grand Circuit spotlight after grittily parrying a late charge from 56-1 outsider Spring Inhis Step A to seal a 1:49 win in the $100,000 Grade 3 Joseph Auger Memorial, for older pacers, on Sunday (May 25) at Harrah's Philadelphia.

In line to Yannick Gingras and sent off the 4-5 favorite, Bythemissal completed a third-to-first brush at the end of a :26.3 opening quarter to take control of the terms from Spring Inhis Step A while Harrah's Philadelphia track record holder Ruthless Hanover stalked in third.

After rating a :54.3 half, Bythemissal accelerated up the backstretch to evade a first-over challenge from Abuckabett Hanover, who was making his seasonal debut.

While Bythemissal managed to keep his outside foe at bay past three-quarters in 1:21.2, he found himself surrounded by challengers in the final yards as Spring Inhis Step A lunged forward up the open stretch and Mossdale Ben N mounted a four-wide push around stalling cover. Bythemissal held his ground to prevail by a neck over Spring Inhis Step A (driven by Tim Tetrick); Mossdale Ben N (Jordan Stratton) rallied belatedly for third, another half length behind.

Bythemissal, now a 29-time winner with $2.4 million in earnings, is trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing and Weaver Brusceci. He paid $3.60 to win.

On the undercard, Desperate Man scored his fourth win of the season in the $50,000 #SendItIn Invitational Pace, uncontested on the lead through splits of :26.2, :55.4 and 1:22.4 before staving off fellow millionaire Seven Colors to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:49.3. Matt Kakaley drove the even-money favorite to his 31st career victory for trainer Travis Alexander and owner Kathy Cecchin.

Ken Hanover overcame post 8 to give a commanding performance in the $25,000 open pace, making the lead to the quarter and then storming home with identical :26.4 quarters to complete an easy victory in 1:48.3. Driver David Miller and trainer Roland Mallar teamed up with the son of Captaintreacherous, who has now won two straight for co-owners Mallar, Patrick Leavitt, William Jordan and Dennis Osterholt.

Amazing Catch leads Svanstedt quartet to Graduate

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Greg Luther wasn't necessarily counting down the days until Amazing Catch's first race of this season, but he is happy his trotter's 2025 debut is nearly here.

Amazing Catch, purchased by Luther for a record $1.85 million during the mixed sale portion of the Standardbred Horse Sale this past November, will compete Saturday (May 31) in the opening round of the Graduate Series for 4-year-old trotters, going for a purse of $102,000 at Woodbine Mohawk Park in Ontario.

The previous record for a standardbred sold at public auction was set in 2019 when trotting mare Atlanta brought $1.55 million online at onGait.com. That price topped the $1.1 million for 2-year-old trotting filly Cameron Hall at the 2001 Tattersalls December Mixed Sale.

On Saturday, Amazing Catch will leave from post 6 in a field of nine. Dexter Dunn will drive the stallion for trainer Ake Svanstedt, who also was the horse's conditioner last season when his victories included the Canadian Trotting Classic at Mohawk.

Amazing Catch is the 5-2 morning-line favorite.

"As busy as I am with all our broodmares and breeding and everything, breaking yearlings and all that, I kind of put [his first start] on the backburner," said Luther, an Ohio resident who races as Greg Luther Racing LLC. "One good thing about sending him to Ake is that I didn't have to worry about it much. He's going to do his job, and he knows how to get him ready. But it was always in the back of my mind. I'm glad to get him back racing."

Amazing Catch, a son of Walner—Mets Life, has hit the board in 14 of 18 career races, winning three and earning $870,830. His five lifetime second-place finishes include last year's Kentucky Futurity and Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial and the 2023 Peter Haughton Memorial. He was third in last year's Breeders Crown, beaten by a neck, and third in the Hambletonian from post 10 at The Meadowlands.

"He was always drawing bad, but he is better from the back," Luther said. "He loves to chase horses. Anytime he's been anywhere in the hunt, he's been flying on the end. And that's a lot of fun when you're racing a horse that's going forward rather than hoping they hold on at the front. I think it will be a lot of fun if we can draw better and get away mid-pack and not have to come from so far back this year."

Amazing Catch qualified twice in preparation for Saturday's start. He was fifth, timed in 1:54.3, on May 2 at The Meadowlands, then won gate-to-wire in 1:53.4 on May 17 at The Big M. In both qualifiers, he came home with a :27.1 last quarter.

"The first qualifier was just so-so, but the second qualifier was much better, and he trained good after that," Svanstedt said. "He is a good horse. He was one of the better 3-year-olds last year. He had bad posts often, but he raced good."

In addition to the Graduate Series, which concludes July 5 at The Meadowlands, Amazing Catch is eligible to the Hambletonian Maturity on July 12 at The Big M. The Maturity, like the Graduate Series, is restricted to 4-year-olds.

"I've never been in the Maturity," Luther said. "That's the one I'm really pointing to. I think he'll have a fair shot in there, for sure. The Maturity and the Breeders Crown [in October] are the two I'm kind of looking forward to."

Amazing Catch is one of four Svanstedt-trained horses in Saturday's Graduate opener. The others are Warrawee Michelle

(one of two females in the field), Mr Bluebird, and Daiquiri Hanover. Svanstedt will drive Warrawee Michelle, who was a Breeders Crown champion at age 2 and won last year's Hambletonian Oaks. She will leave from post 3 and is the 4-1 third choice on the morning line.

All four of Svanstedt's horses are making their seasonal debut. "I hope they can do good, all four of them," Svanstedt said. "They are in good form, but not top. They might need a race or two before they're top. Warrawee Michelle was very nice when she qualified [second, timed in 1:53, on May 17 at The Meadowlands]. She grew a lot. She's a big horse now. She trained back good after the winter, and she feels very good."

The 7-2 second choice Saturday is Date Night Hanover, the other mare in the field. She will leave from post 4 with James MacDonald driving in her seasonal debut for trainer Marcus Melander. She is a two-time Kentucky Sire Stakes champ as well as a two-time Grand Circuit winner.

Saturday's Mohawk card also includes two divisions of the opening round of the Graduate Series for 4-year-old pacers as well as two divisions of the Grade 3 Somebeachsomewhere Stakes for 3-year-old pacers.

Racing begins at 6:35 p.m. (EDT) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. For free daily race programs for Mohawk, visit the track's website here.

Sterling Choice, the nephew of Admirals Express, is being pointed toward the Pepsi North America Cup

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

On Tuesday (May 27), two days after Sterling Choice handily won his $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold test for sophomore pacing colts at Woodbine Mohawk Park in a lifetime best 1:50.4, trainer Blake MacIntosh opted to give the roan pacer the week off and point toward the June 7 eliminations for the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup instead of dropping the son of Betterthancheddar into this weekend's Somebeachsomewhere Stakes.

"He jogged well this morning, and we're pleased with him," MacIntosh said. "There's nothing wrong with him. It's just that it would be six starts in a row if he makes the North America Cup final. So, I don't like doing that."

STERLING CHOICE REMINDS MACINTOSH OF ADMIRALS EXPRESS

Fourteen starts and more than $362,000 into his career, Sterling Choice has proven to be a bargain based on his $15,000 yearling purchase price at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA.

"I know he's got to pick up a little bit more to compete with those top colts, but he always gives you his all and he always seems to be right there for us," MacIntosh said. "He can leave and get situated where he needs to be to follow other horses and go a big mile. If they leave him alone on front, he's proven that he's good on the front, too. So, he'll do whatever we need to do."

It's a bonus that Sterling Choice — one of the rare roan or grey standardbreds — reminds MacIntosh, in appearance, of beloved Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame horse Admirals Express known as The Grey Gladiator.

"[Sterling Choice is] not quite as white as Admirals Express, but he has the same body type to him," MacIntosh said, adding that it makes sense since the two horses are related.

Admirals Express is Sterling Choice's uncle. The former is a full-brother to Sterling Choice's dam Platinum Choice, who is also grey.

New Image Media

Sterling Choice (Billy Davis, Jr.) winning his $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series event for sophomore pacing colts on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sterling Choice, bred by Winbak Farm, is the seventh and most successful of the nine foals out of Platinum Choice. Two of her other foals are also grey: Platinum Rocks, and Hurrikaneaphrodite, who earned over $100,000.

"I like grey horses," MacIntosh said. "Our other colt, Go Ahead Makemyday [a winner of $164,344], he's grey too. I've always had luck with grey horses. I've always liked the look of them."

MACINTOSH AND MACKAY A SUCCESSFUL TEAM

MacIntosh has also had good luck campaigning horses with the MacKay family.

Sterling Choice is owned by MacIntosh, Gilles Landry of Dieppe, NB, Ozzie MacKay of Moncton, NB and his sister Tammy Lynn MacKay of Truro, NS. The colt was trained down at 2 in the Maritimes by the MacKays' father, Emmons.

"We saw [Sterling Choice] at the sale and we really liked him," MacIntosh said. "He is a gorgeous animal. We were looking for one for me to break, and then send down to Ozzie's dad, Emmons, to train down as a 2-year-old. So, we were looking for a bargain and a nice Ontario-sired colt that he could just do that with. We had no plans of grandeur. We were hoping to get a nice colt like a Grassrooter.

"We bought him and brought him home, broke him, and then sent him down to Emmons. Then, he trained him down to 2:20 and we brought him back here and finished him off."

At 2, Sterling Choice had a record of 2-3-3 in 11 starts, earnings of $282,892 and a mark of 1:52.1. He was second to Crack Shot in the $300,000 OSS Super Final, second by a head to Stonebridge Wizard in the $245,500 Battle of Waterloo at Grand River Raceway and had a record of 1-1-2 in four OSS Gold starts.

"Last year, he missed out in a couple of races that he could have won, but he still made $282,000," MacIntosh said. "I'm happy Ozzie and his family get to go on the ride with us. Tammy is pretty excited... I'm super happy these guys got this horse because they love the business. It's a typical Maritime family that grew up in the business, and they just love the horses."

Of the 40-some 2-year-olds MacIntosh is training this year, he said about a dozen are owned, in part, by Ozzie.

"We've had a lot of luck together," MacIntosh said. "We're friends, we're not just partners. We go to hockey games together... We went to game 7 [of the Toronto Maple Leafs' playoff game loss] and got our hearts broken."

Now the trainer is hoping Sterling Choice can help heal that wound.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sprite Seelster posts 15-1 upset out of the 9 hole in OSS Gold for sophomore trotting fillies

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Sprite Seelster led gate-to-wire and set a lifetime best of 1:52.4 while posting a 15-1 upset in the lone $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series events for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Monday (May 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

She was driven to victory by her co-owner Tyler Borth of Ingersoll, ON, who shares her papers with Paul Gangle's Elite Equine LLC of St. Thomas, ON.

Borth steered Sprite Seelster to the front out of the 9-hole and didn't look back through fractions of :27.2, :56.2 and 1:24.1 to defeat a fast-closing Roxie Hart (Travis Cullen) by 1½ lengths. Bright Green (Louis-Philippe Roy) was third. O'Brien Award-winning Monalishi (James MacDonald) was sent off as the 4-5 favorite and finished fifth in the field of nine, just ahead of 2-1 second choice Green Glider (Trevor Henry).

"I wasn't really happy with the 9 hole," Borth said to Woodbine Mohawk Park's Randy Waples. "I was thinking before the race, 'There are going to be a lot of leavers. It's a long year. Maybe I would be smart just to race from the back.' But I thought she raced really well last week.

"She has never really been used that hard. She was still pretty strong on the end of [the mile]. And even after the mile, when all the other horses seemed tired, she kept going like she can always go another half lap. She's just a big, strong horse."

The mile shaved three full seconds off Sprite Seelster's personal best. The $70,000 payday nearly doubled her lifetime earnings to $149,978.

It was the first lifetime Gold victory for the daughter of Green Manalishi S out of Speak Of The Devil bred by Seelster Farms and sold for $40,000 at the 2023 London Classic Yearling Sale.

Sprite Seelster, who is trained by Katie MacNeil, is now 2-1-1 in four 2025 starts. She is 3-2-2 in 10 career starts.

"She just does everything," Borth said. "She eats everything, and she comes out of a race well all the time. She holds her weight well. She's big, she's strong, and I think she's going to stay good all year."

GRASSROOTS RESULTS: Also, on the Monday card at Woodbine Mohawk Park were three $25,000 OSS Grassroots Series divisions for sophomore trotting fillies. The winners were:

- Ivy Lynn (Green Manalishi S—Marion Mayflower) in a career best 1:54.4 for breeders Stonegate Farms and Glen Gardner of New Jersey, owner Jean Mondoux of Laval, QC, trainer Jean Tourigny and driver J.R. Plante. Ivy Lynn was purchased for $25,000 at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

- Incantation (Muscle Mass—More Magic) in 1:54.4 for breeders Robert McIntosh Stables of Windsor, ON and Dave Boyle of Bowmanville, ON, owners Mardon Stables of Loretto, ON and Tyrone Valley Farm of Bowmanville, trainer Jeff Williams and driver Jody Jamieson.

- Telles Choice (The Bank—Tosca) in 1:55 for breeder Winbak Farm, owner Determination of Montreal, QC, trainer Luc Blais and driver Louis-Phillipe Roy. Tellers Choice was purchased for $100,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Louprint heads top PA-sired 'glamour boys'

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

There was a total of $261,766 on the line Sunday (May 25) in the Pennsylvania-sired competition for 3-year-old pacing males that was a portion of the undercard of Super Sunday at Harrah's Philadelphia, with Louprint continuing as the king of the division with his third straight victory in PASS preliminaries.

SIRE STAKES: The Sweet Lou colt Louprint, Dan Patch Award winner among freshman pacing males last year, retained the top rung at 3 with his third Sire Stakes win in as many starts in an undefeated campaign, gaining from the pocket to catch pacesetter Fallout by a "deceptive" half-length in 1:50.2.

Fallout, second choice to favored Louprint, drew just inside him, and he left with enough alacrity to encourage driver Ron Wrenn, Jr. to take the pocket, whereupon the pacesetter put up pedestrian fractions of :28, :56.1, and 1:24. Louprint had come home in :26.1 without much encouragement in winning a PASS at Pocono last week, and the powerful late burst of the champion colt again carried the day here, as he again paced his own last quarter in :26.1 to defeat the gallant Fallout for trainer Ron Burke and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Phil Collura, and Lawrence Karr.

Twisted Destiny, a Sire Stakes winner at The Meadows who then gained into Louprint's :26.1 last quarter at Pocono while his six-race win streak over two years was halted, got back on the winning track while upsetting favored Captain Optimistic in a 1:49.4 Sire Stakes division. Todd McCarthy had the Bettor's Wish colt winging off the gate to lead before a :26.4 opener, then yielded to brushing Captain Optimistic, in his seasonal debut, and sat behind him through mid-fractions of :54.3 and 1:22.2.

Twisted Destiny was right lined for the final eighth and quickly got a small advantage; with Captain Optimistic holding gallantly, the margin of victory was three-parts-of-a-length. Chris Ryder is the trainer of the super-sharp pacer for Let It Ride Stables Inc., Alberg Racing LLC, and Enviro Stables LTD.

Bettor's Wish picked up a second Sires credit in the Sire Stakes when Wedlock Blue Chip came out of the pocket to win his second straight Sires contest, lowering his mark to 1:50.3 under the guidance of David Miller for trainer Polie Mallar.

Favored Railroad Station was put right on the choo-choo and froze the timer with splits of :27, :55.4, and 1:23.2, with Miller able to get right behind the leader with Wedlock Blue Chip. The pocket-sitter moved outside entering the stretch and quickly took the measure of the leader, winding up 1¼ lengths clear. The Miller-Mallar brain trust scored the victory for owners Richard Cortese and Donald Hawk.

STALLION SERIES: The Tall Dark Stranger gelding Delray Beach reduced his lifetime mark to 1:50.2 despite having to go first-over against pacesetter chalk Lou's Albano. The winner paced his own last half in :53.4 without cover in winning by 1¾ lengths over pocket-sitter Federer. Josert Fonseca drove the Nancy Takter-trained 3-year-old for Black Horse Racing, John Fielding, and Morrison Racing Stables.

Tall Dark Stranger got a second StS sire credit with the colt Banderas, who was parked most of a :26.4 quarter to gain control, set the pace under the handling of Scott Zeron, then withstood the stretch bid of favorite Snack Attack by a half-length in 1:52, last quarters twin :27.4s. Tony Alagna trains the winner for Brittany Farms LLC, Riverview Racing LLC, Steven Head, and Pryde Stables Inc.

A son of Papi Rob Hanover, the colt Sugar Man, was looped early but pressed on to the lead for driver Tim Tetrick, got some respite during quarter two, then breezed home in :54.3 to lower his mark to 1:50.4. The choice of the bettors, Sugar Man succeeded by 2¼ lengths for trainer Brett Pelling and owners David McDuffee, Melvin Hartman, and Rojan Stables.

Fusion brought trainer Pelling a second Stallion Series win when the Always B Miki colt won his seasonal debut in 1:51.2. Driver Todd McCarthy kept the seasonal debutant third off a :26 first quarter duel, then moved him to the lead mid-race and went on to be an easy three length winner for Diamond Creek Racing.

Compensate Me sat a good pocket trip, came out at the head of the stretch to challenge, made the lead, then withstood the strong late bid of Damn The Torpedoes by a length in 1:52.3 while pacing his own back half in :55.1. The Sweet Lou gelding was handled by Yannick Gingras for trainer Ron Burke and the ubiquitous duo of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscelli LLC.

A second son of Sweet Lou, the gelding Fateful Twist, pulled a major upset in another division, overcoming a first-over journey to take a new mark and return $134.40 to his scattered backers. Odds On Outlier, the only winner in the first two legs of the Stallion Series and the heavy favorite, needed three-eighths-of-a-mile to reach the top, and he may just have paid the price late as Dexter Dunn, who seldom is sent off at 66-1, guided Fateful Twist home first by a head for trainer Jake Huff and owners Carlo Angelillo and Cusimano Stables LLC.

Sweet Lou completed a Stallion Series triple with the gelding Odds On No Limit, who got to loaf to the half in :57.3 before streaking home in an amazing :53.2 to complete a 1:51 mile, take a new mark while winning by 2½ lengths, and put up his second Stallion Series win. Todd McCarthy had the sulky duties for trainer Travis Alexander and the ownership of Odds On Racing and UFO 2.

Women Layer repeats in KYSS; McCarthy wins six at Oak Grove

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Driver Todd McCarthy put forth a driving clinic at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel on Monday afternoon (May 26) when he won six total races on the afternoon including four of the five $50,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) divisions for 4-year-olds topped by the Virgil Morgan, Jr. pupil Women Layer, who will try again for a KYSS Series sweep after his 1:50.2 stroll to victory.

In the lone KYSS dash for 4-year-old pacing horses and geldings, McCarthy secured the top with Women Layer smoothly to a :26.4 first quarter and just coasted through the remainder. He grabbed a breather to a :55.4 half before revving for three-quarters in 1:23.1 and pulling away from his rivals under minimal encouragement to register a two-length win over Better Is Nice (driven by Andy McCarthy), who gamely held his ground from a pocket ride for second. Lou Hill (Devon Tharps) rallied for third and Copperfield (Jeremy Indof) took fourth.

A gelded son of Sweet Lou, Women Layer stayed unbeaten from four starts this season and has now won 16 times from 25 outings, good for $511,079 in earnings. He races for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc., Douglas Overhiser, Jeff Fought Racing and Larry Wills. He paid $2.26 to win.

Todd McCarthy's six-win day started with a surprise in the KYSS division for 4-year-old pacing mares when he finally got the upper hand on 3-5 favorite Bath Bomb (Andy McCarthy) to win with Asweetbeachhere in 1:51.1. McCarthy orchestrated another down-the-road mile for the win, cutting a clip of :26.3, :56 and 1:24 to stave off the first-over push from Bath Bomb and win by 3¼ lengths in 1:51.1. Defining Moment (Yannick Gingras) saved ground from a pocket trip and snagged second from Bath Bomb while Peace Talks (Tony Hall) closed from last for fourth.

Andrew Harris trains and co-owns Asweetbeachhere, a daughter of Sweet Lou, for William Pollock and Bruce Areman. She won her first race of the season and her seventh race from 34 starts in the career, which bolstered her bankroll to $454,727. She paid $4.40 to win.

McCarthy got his second win of the day in the single KYSS division for 4-year-old trotting mares when guiding 1-5 choice

Woman Of Passion to a 1:53 win. He circled Woman Of Passion to the top after a :27.3 first quarter and sealed the race with a reprieve to the half in :56.4, and from there incrementally upped the tempo to separate from the competition. Past three-quarters in 1:25.2, Woman Of Passion slipped away to a 4½ length win over pocket-chasing Spy Coast (Gingras), who just held second from Black Velvet As (Hall) as she pushed first over for third. Danger (Robert Taylor) saved ground for fourth.

Woman Of Passion collected her 14th win from 28 starts and has now earned $439,499 for owner/breeder Al Libfeld. Carter Pinske, winning three races total on the day, trains the daughter of Walner. She paid $2.46 to win.

Pinske and McCarthy teamed a few races later for a victory with 6-5 favorite Convoy Hall in the first of two KYSS divisions for 4-year-old trotting horses and geldings. Convoy Hall worked a covered trip to the winner's circle, finding a helmet to follow from Mister Dad (Hall) after a :27.1 first quarter. Mister Dad marched along the rim after tempo-setter Ordained (Gingras), who circled to the helm past the quarter, but soon leveled off from the grind up the backstretch. That prompted McCarthy to send Convoy Hall three wide, and the Muscle Mass gelding swiftly punched forward through three-quarters in 1:24.3 to then reel in Ordained and pull away to a three-length win in 1:53.2. Ordained held second from fast-closing Tom's Muscle (Ernie Hendry) while Spanish Room (Pat Curtin) gave chase in fourth.

HARNESS RACING UPDATE

Convoy Hall competes for owners Doug McIntosh, Randy Liepa and Beverley Snobelen. He won his ninth race from 13 starts this season, has now earned $168,973 and paid $4.46 to win.

Mike Simons nabbed the lone KYSS division not won by Todd McCarthy when he faced few challengers in a pillar-to-post win by 11-1 shot International Law in the second division for 4-year-old trotting horses and geldings. Simons grabbed the point to a :28 first quarter and coasted through middle fractions of :57.2 and 1:25.2 while an outer tier struggled to menace. International Law spun for home on a healthy cushion to snag a measured win in 1:53.4 by a length over pocket-chaser Pennteller Hanover (Brett MacDonald) in second. Ways N Means (Andy McCarthy), the 1-2 favorite, followed the stalled flow from third over but rallied for third and Show Me (Curtin) took fourth.

Erv Miller trains International Law, a gelding by International Moni, for his Ervin Miller Stable Inc. and co-owner Douglas Overhiser. The gelding won his fourth race from 25 starts, has now banked $194,850 and paid $24.42 to win.

Todd McCarthy even scored a win in the undercard feature, the $33,000 open trot, when pouncing from a pocket ride to a 1:52.4 victory with DP Freedoms Chrome. McCarthy found a seat to older brother Andy McCarthy as 3-5 favorite Railee Something reached for the lead to a :27.2 first quarter. She set a modest tempo through a :56.4 half and 1:24.3 three-quarters, but the pocket ride emboldened DP Freedoms Chrome as he just waited for room to angle outside spinning for home. Once first over Oh Look Magic (Gingras) retreated, Todd took to the outside and slid by Railee Something to win by three-quarters-of-a-length with Whiskey Lou (Indof) closing for third and Keg Stand (MacDonald) taking fourth.

A 4-year-old stallion by For You Almostfree trained by Wayne Oke, DP Freedoms Chrome won his 26th race from 38 starts and has now earned $310,175 for owner Aimes Racing. He paid $10.40 to win.

Todd McCarthy completed his six-win day, as well as a training hat trick for Pinske, in the afternoon's 11th race when finding the winner's circle with You Dont Own Me (1:56.3 winning time; $6.46 to win) in a $17,000 conditioned trot. McCarthy forged forward with the Pinske trainee and withstood a furious charge from 6-5 favorite Shady Maple Bow (Indof) to notch the lifetime-best equaling victory.

Racing continues at Oak Grove on Monday (June 2) and features the second preliminary of KYSS action for 4-year-olds. First-race post time at Oak Grove is 1:25 p.m. (CDT). For more information on Oak Grove, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Indiana Sire Stakes kick off at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino played host to a stakes filled card on Monday (May 26) for a special Memorial Day card of live racing. The evening's 14-race program featured the opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes action for 3-year-old competitors, with a pair of divisions for each group contested on the night.

Miracle Maven kicked off the stakes action with a bang, scoring in a national season's record in the $49,000 first split for 3-year-old trotting fillies. John De Long had the call on the 2-5 favorite, settling in second behind Swan Jewel (driven by Marcus Miller) through a first quarter of :27.1. De Long wheeled the Henry Graber, Jr. trainee to the top on the backstretch, leading middle-half fractions of :57 and 1:25.1 before steamrolling home a three-length winner in 1:52.2. Swan Jewel held for second, with Fancy Schmantzy (Jared Finn) rounding out the trifecta nine lengths back of the winner at 26-1.

The victory was the first of the season for Miracle Maven in her second outing for owners Hillside Stables, Frank Baldachino, Beastly LLC and Eleven Star Stables. Bred by Noah Wickey, the daughter of Don't Let'em—Bad Babysitter has won six of 11 for her career, only missing the board once while banking $176,920 lifetime.

Trainer Henry Graber, Jr. would prove dominant in the filly trotting ranks, as he would also go 1-2 in the $49,500 second division, winning with Better Tak'em. Sent off as the 4-5 choice in her 3-year-old debut, Jordan Ross and Better Tak'em raced third throughout as stablemate Classical Jane (Trace Tetrick) led through fractions of :28.2, :57.1 and 1:25.4. Ross fed Better Tak'em racetrack off the final turn, rocketing home in :27 to outduel her stablemate and reach the wire first in a lifetime best effort of 1:53.2 by a half-length. Text Me Maybe (Marvin Luna) finished third at 34-1.

Graber, Jr. also co-owns Better Tak'em along with Eleven Star Stables and Indiana Stables LLC. Bred by Steven Mast, the daughter of Don't Let'em—Barmaid has won five of nine lifetime, having only finished worse than second once while banking $143,875.

In the $49,500 first division for male trotters, On To Norway extended his win streak to six on the year, doing so in a career best effort with De Long in the bike. De Long settled the 1-2 favorite in third off the gate while Bluebird Ladychuck (Dan Shetler) cut the quarter in :27 and 5-2 second-choice, Operator, jumped it off from the pocket on the first turn. On To Norway moved to the top at the half in :56.3 before widening his lead to 2½ at three-quarters in 1:25.4. On To Norway and a motionless De Long motored home in :27 from there, reaching the wire 2½ lengths clear to score in 1:52.4 with the plugs still intact. Bluebird Ladychuck outdueled Kody Kickstand (Miller) for the place position.

The victorious gelded son of Muscle Massive—One Class Act has won six of seven on the season for owners Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Black and White Stable and Michael Rosenthal. On To Norway was bred by Bennett Farms Inc of MI and has won 10 of 16 lifetime with earnings of $92,712.

Driver Miller delivered a pair of big-priced winners on the evening, including with Tarzan at 9-1 in the $49,500 second division for trotting colts. Tarzan and Miller raced fourth throughout while 1-20 favorite Starlitfrankenstein (Tetrack) had things his way on the engine though fractions of :28.1, :57.1 and 1:25.4. Starlitfrankenstein appeared home free with Tarzan still 8½ lengths back at three-quarters before uncorking a vicious :26 blitz in the homestretch to nail the chalk by a head on the wire in 1:53.2. Ponda Bear (Rick Plano) snagged the show spot at 29-1, 6¼ lengths back of the lead duo.

Erv Miller trains and co-owns the winner as part of Ervin Miller Stable Inc along with Anthony Lombardi. The victory was the first in four outings for Tarzan, and third in the career for the lifetime earner of $161,765. The gelded son of You Know You Do—Foxy Swan was bred by Keith Plank and Freeman Bontrager.

A race earlier, Marcus Miller drove home the biggest price thus far of the 2025 meet at Hoosier Park, winning with Vel Cinderella at 86-1 in the first of two $49,500 splits for pacing fillies. Leaving from the outside post 8, Vel Cinderella got away last while CC Rockin Rosie (Tetrack) led to the quarter in :26.4. The 1-5 favorite, Tarshish (Luna), assumed command to the half in :57 before causing confusion entering the final turn as she misfired and pulled up out of the race. As the favorite slowed, Odds On Alexandria (Pete Wrenn) went first over and assumed command at three-quarters in 1:26.4 while Vel Cinderella towed into it from second over in fourth. Vel Cinderella would rocket home in :26 to chase down Odds On Alexandria and score by a length in 1:53.2. Be True To Me (Kyle Wilfong) finished third to round out the trifecta at 40-1.

Trained by Rob Rittorf for owner Doug Overhiser, Vel Cinderella has won five of nine lifetime while only missing the board once. Mo Co Inc. bred the daughter of Keystone Velocity—The Filly Princess who has banked $78,685 in her career.

The second division for pacing fillies was much more formful as last year's Super Final winner, Can'ttouchthese, made her 3-year-old debut a winning one as the 1-5 favorite. De Long settled the Roger Welch trainee in third while 47-1 shot Princess In Pink (LeWayne Miller) raced with the lead through first half fractions of :27 and :55.1. De Long fed the favorite racetrack around the final turn, moving into second on the outside of the leader through three-quarters in 1:23.3. Wearing down Princess In Pink, Can'ttouchthese crossed the wire 2½ lengths clear in 1:51.2. Sweet N Speedy (Jared Seekman) rallied to be second from the pocket at 38-1, while Jazzy Vespa (Mike Oosting) was third at 60-1.

Now a winner in seven of nine in her career, the homebred daughter of JK Endofanera—Can't Touch This has banked $280,120 lifetime for owners William and Patrick De Long and Douglas Riccolo.

In the first of two $49,000 splits for 3-year-old pacing colts, Deal The Odds rocketed off cover to score his first win of the year in start number two as the 2-1 second choice for Team Putnam. Driver Joey Putnam landed Deal The Odds in sixth in the field of seven while 3-2 bettors' choice Book The Fight (Luna) brought the field to the quarter in :26.4. After a half of :55.3, Deal The Odds towed into the race from second-over as Book The Fight continued to lead at three-quarters in 1:24.1. Deal The Odds tipped off cover at the top of the lane and outsprinted Book The Fight with a :25.4 final stanza to win by a neck in 1:50.3. Rawtn Tale (Oosting) finished third, a length back of the winner.

Trained by Joe Putnam, Deal The Odds has won four of 11 in his career for owners J P Racing, Michael Lee and Crazy Parrot Farm. The son of Odds On Equuleus—Sono Bello was bred by Silver Linden Farms and boasts a career bankroll of $100,920.

The second division for pacing colts saw last year's Super Final winner, Chandler Bing, breakthrough for the first time in 2025 in his third start off the bench. Jay Cross got away third with the 6-5 favorite as Big Al Derosa (Tetrack) crossed over from the outside to cut first half fractions of :27.4 and :55.4. Cross gave Chandler Bing his marching orders on the final turn, motoring first up and into second at three-quarters in 1:23.1. Putting away Big Al Derosa early in the lane, Chandler Bing powered home in :26.4 to win by 1¼ lengths over Avanti (John De Long) in a career best 1:50.2. Bikini Chaser (Joey Putnam) emerged atop a three-horse photo for the show position.

Alvin Miller trains and co-owns Chandler Bing along with Twila Harts. The gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Northern Beauty has now won half of his 12 career starts, sporting a career bankroll of $245,415. Chandler Bing was bred by Glen Yoder.

Post position draws complete for Camluck Classic and Forest City Pace at The Raceway

The stage is officially set for a thrilling night of harness racing tonight (May 30), at The Raceway at Western Fair District. Post position draws are now complete for the track's two signature events: the $150,000 Camluck Classic presented by Seelster Farms and the $50,000 Forest City Pace.

Veteran pacer Poseidon Seelster, making his third appearance in the Camluck, and coming off a victory Saturday night (May 24) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, has drawn the coveted rail position. Brue Hanover, currently the hottest horse in the nation with an impressive seven-race win streak, will start from post 5. Leaving right beside him in post 6 will be this year's Borgata Series runner-up Chase H Hanover who ships in from New York. This year's field is one of the deepest in the race's history, with the eight starters boasting combined earnings of over $6 million.

$150,000 CAMLUCK CLASSIC

Clinton Raceway set to open this Sunday with some limitations

This Sunday (June 1), the Huron County Oval is set to welcome fans back for another season of live harness racing after a two week delay due to construction of the new grandstand facility.

While racing will commence this Sunday as scheduled, some features will be limited, as construction on the project is ongoing.

Race fans can expect to utilize the lower floor of the grandstand, including washrooms, wagering, customer service, food and beverage. Unfortunately, the stadium seating will not be accessible at this time, and will be completed for Sunday (June 15).

Plenty of seating will be available trackside in the seasons event tent, on the patio and temporary bleachers will be set up in the homestretch. As always, fans are encouraged to pack a lawn chair.

"We are very excited to welcome fans back to our new facility and another season of great racing in Clinton," marketing manager Jessica Carnochan said. "While it isn't quite in the capacity that we had hoped for opening day, it really is going to be worth the wait, and we think our fans will agree."

The grand opening event for the new facility is set for July 6. It will happen alongside the celebration of Clinton's 150th, the Kin Pace final, Ontario Sires Stakes and a fundraiser for Clinton Mustangs Minor Baseball.

Central Huron Secondary School kicks off the Day at the Races Fundraising series for 2025 and will host a 50/50, silent auction, bake sale and more all under the event tent this Sunday. The Super Sunday Show is back with new fun and games between the races and fans will have the chance to win two weekend passes to Lucknow's Music in the Fields.

The 11-race afternoon matinee goes to post at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday (June 1). More details on the event and the remainder of the season can be found at www.clintonraceway.com.

Trainer of the Year Daley seeks more Big M glory

Noel Daley is a busy man.

The 2024 Dan Patch Trainer of the Year Award winner is a humble sort who was grateful to take home that hardware.

"It's not something you focus on, but it's nice to get it," said Daley, who came to the United States from Australia 36 years ago. "We had a good year, so we'll take it."

The busy part? Daley has a shedrow that is currently packed to capacity.

"Unfortunately, we have about 75 horses, which is a lot," said Daley, clearly kidding around. "I'm trying not to have as many racehorses. I've got 45 2-year-olds, which is crazy. I've never had that many. I like doing the young ones."

That's for later in 2025. As for 2024, Daley reflected on a pair of standouts under his watch, the 3-year-old male Trotter of the Year, Sig Sauer, and 3-year-old male Pacer of the Year, Captain Albano.

Sig Sauer (Muscle Hill—Sigilwig) won half of his 10 starts a year ago, including the Kentucky Futurity at The Red Mile as well as the Stanley Dancer and Breeders Crown, which were both at The Meadowlands. He banked $871,812.

"I wasn't quite sure we got there [in the Breeders Crown]," said Daley of his horse's nose win over T C I. "I actually said to [T C I's trainer] Ron Burke, 'Did I win or did you?' but he knew and said 'Yes, you won it.'"

"Sig Sauer was a challenging horse to have. He was a handful to be around but he was a very professional racehorse. He overcame whatever he had to overcome to win his races."

Now a sire at Hanover Shoe Farms, Daley thinks his stud career should be a good one.

"He's got everything that you would want," said Daley. "We paid $200,000 for him, which was a lot for us. A magnificent horse. He had a lot of attitude to him. He thought he was a good horse."

During a season that saw him win 12 of 18 starts and earn over $1.1 million, Captain Albano (Captaintreacherous—Angelou) was the winner of the Little Brown Jug, Hempt and Adios, and was nothing short of spectacular in his final outing of the season, when he went parked into an opening quarter of :25.1 only to reign supreme at the wire by 2¼ lengths in 1:49.1 around Dover Downs' five-eighths-mile oval.

He was on his way to stud duty, but that stage of his career will have to wait.

"To be fair to him, we raced him right until the end [of the year]," said Daley. "We test-bred him basically straight off the track and the numbers weren't good enough. We were hoping they would get better, but it was late and we couldn't make people wait, so we said we'll bring him back [and race] this year and try again to breed him next year."

Daley admitted he was OK at the prospect of having 'The Captain' come back this year.

So, how are things looking?

"He really did well [when third in his second qualifier last Saturday]," said Daley. "He's probably too big, so we'll come back next week and put the screws to him."

He should be ready to race in a few weeks.

One horse who is already off to a good start in 2025 is Smooth Dream, who remained perfect in five starts this year after taking the New Jersey Sire Stakes 3-year-old male pacing final in 1:50.3 last Saturday. All of his outings this season have come at the East Rutherford mile oval.

"You know as much about him as I do," said Daley. "I got him three or four weeks before he was ready to qualify. He's been nothing but great. He had a chip in his ankle, so he only had a couple of starts [three] last year. [His connections] didn't know enough about him, so probably the only mistake it looks like they've made so far is under-staking him."

The son of Cattlewash—Dreamlands Latte is a gelding, so it's something not usually done, but is it possible the horse could be supplemented to the Meadowlands Pace?

"We'll have to see," said Daley. "That decision is up to [the owners]. It's a big ask. We'll see what the competition looks like at the time. He basically only has the New Jersey races [on his schedule for this year]. We have looked through to see if there are some races that make sense to supplement to. Being a gelding, that's your challenge there. We'll take him week-to-week."

Daley has little to do when it comes to Smooth Dream, but has some things to improve upon with his Hambletonian hopeful, Onajetplane (Walner—Noble Lover), the winner of the 2024 New Jersey Classic final.

“He was disappointing [last Saturday morning when fifth in his qualifier],” said Daley. “We started a little later with him. This horse trained down good but he’ll have to come back next week and show me a little more. He didn’t finish last year great. The Hambletonian is your first serious race. Everything you do is surrounded by that race. If he’s not ready at that time, well, then he can’t be in it. You have to be realistic.”

WHEN IS LIVE RACING? During the months of May and June, live racing at The Big M will be conducted every Friday and Saturday with a first-race post-time of 6:20 p.m.

WHAT’S GOING ON? Check out the live “Racing from The Meadowlands” pregame show every Friday and Saturday when track announcer Ken Warkentin opens up the mic with a scene set and program changes at 5:45 p.m.

At that point, Warkentin will then throw to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set, from where The Big M’s Dave Little and Jessica Otten will provide news, notes, selections and a look at the night’s featured races.

John Rallis, who divides his on-camera time between The Big M and Woodbine Mohawk Park when not serving as an editor and columnist at TROT Magazine, will be handling interviews from the back paddock as well as providing commentary and selections on the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed.

EIGHT IS ENOUGH: The handicapping stars from last Saturday’s (May 24) Big M card were back-paddock interviewer Joe Romanelli and on-set TV host Little, who both selected eight winners on the 14-race program.

Both touts gave out value play Saulsbrook Hero, who paid $6.20 in the second race. Romanelli also saw his best bet, Nineteenth Man A, win the first race and return $3.20.

Warkentin wasn’t far behind the prolific pair, correctly selecting seven winners, which came precisely eight days after the red-hot voice of The Big M had another seven-winner night.

CATCH THAT FOX: For a fifth consecutive year, the TV teams at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and The Meadowlands are combining forces to bring high-caliber harness racing stakes events to a national television audience over the networks of FOX Sports as part of NYRA’s “America’s Day at the Races” telecasts.

Here is the schedule for the remaining FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on – Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 – will be determined:

- June 28 – Perfect Sting, Brower Memorial, Crawford Farms, Six Pack, 8-11 p.m., TBA

- July 5 – Stan Bergstein Graduate finals; Meadowlands Pace eliminations, 8-11 p.m., TBA

- July 12 – Meadowlands Pace Night (multiple stakes), 8-11 p.m., TBA

- Aug. 2 – Hambletonian Day (multiple stakes), 1-7 p.m., TBA

- Sept. 5 – New Jersey Classic Series finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA

- Nov. 1 – Kindergarten finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA

- Nov. 15 – Fall Final Four, 8-11 p.m., TBA

Three-year-old trotting fillies at Pocono in PA All-Stars

Two daughters of Greenshoe accounted for two of three $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 3-year-old trotting fillies at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Monday afternoon (May 26), with Goodgirl Bi IT (1:53.3) and Princess Jackie (1:54.2) both taking new marks as the favorites in winning their sectors. The other winner was the International Moni miss Payback Moni, who recorded a mild upset in 1:55.1.

Goodgirl Bi IT waited in third as Shes A Shoe In recorded splits of :26.4, :55.4, and 1:25 in their All-Stars sector, with driver Mattias Melander finally going to the right line mid-far turn, and the winner sprinting past the pacesetter to win by 4½ lengths. Mattias’ brother Marcus trains the winner of three of four 2025 starts for Courant Inc.

Princess Jackie, a three-time winner in Pennsylvania Sire Stakes competition last year, recorded her first win of this campaign in her cut, as Jim Marohn, Jr. put her on the engine and laid down fractions of :27.4, :56.4, and 1:25.1 before defeating Mean Dareen by three lengths. Princess Jackie now has a career bankroll of $211,383 for trainer/owner D. R. Ackerman.

Payback Moni found herself in a bit of an unfortunate spot early, three-wide in a four-way battle for the lead well into turn one, but the inside and outside horses made breaks before the quarter, letting driver Brady Brown settle his filly into the 2-hole behind Country Victory just past a :27.4 first split. After a :57.2 half, Brown moved Payback Moni out and past the leader before a 1:26 three-quarters, but that opponent (the only other one in the race who didn’t misstep) proved resilient, and the winning margin was a length for the Steve Schoeffel-trained filly, undefeated in four 2025 starts for the ownership of Kathy Schoeffel, Daniel Goehle, and James Reuther.

Sippinonsearoc sizzles at Scioto

Sippinonsearoc dominated his division of the $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series at Eldorado Scioto Downs Saturday (May 24) winning the opener in 1:49.4.

Chris Page took Sippinonsearoc off the gate and settled in third while Odds On Valhalla (Brett Miller) took the field towards the :27.3 opening quarter. Quickly pulling to take over the lead, Sippinonsearoc led at the :54.2 half and 1:22 third-quarter. The duo came home in :27.4 to win by 3¼ lengths. Odds On Valhalla was second with Southern Rockfest (Luke Hanners) third.

Sippinonsearoc is a Downbytheseaside colt out of the Big Bad John mare Queen Ann M. Trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing, Weaver Brussemi, R A S Racing and Knox Services, Sippinonsearoc now has seven wins in 13 starts and $587,000 in lifetime earnings.

Burke and Page took two more divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series with Harrisburg Heist in 1:50.1 and Swingtown in 1:50.3. Page closed out the BSS divisions by winning the last two, teaming up with Scott Betts and Beau Brown to win with Accuracy By Volume in 1:54.1 and South Sea in 1:52.1. Other winners for the night included House Of Brix for the trainer-and-driver, father-and-son duo Jeff and Trevor Smith in 1:52. The Todd Luther trainee Ohohoh Im On Fire made it three in a row, winning in 1:50.4 with Austin Hanners driving. Woodrow Blue Chip and Dan Noble won their division in 1:52.3 for trainer Ryan Miller.

The 90-day 2025 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Sept. 13. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a 5:45 p.m. first post. Special holiday first posts will be 4 p.m. on June 19, 3:15 p.m. on July 4 and 6:45 p.m. on September 12 to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Sophomore pacers and trotters compete in Virginia Breeders elims

Virginia Breeders elimination races for 3-year-old pacers and trotters kicked off this weekend at Shenandoah Downs, the first time the series has ever been held in spring. Trotters took center stage Saturday (May 24) while pacers battled Sunday (May 25) in gorgeous spring weather conditions.

The fastest mile on Sunday was authored by Jane Dunavant's Proper Lady in the $8,000 first division for filly pacers in 1:54.4.

The wire-to-wire effort was led by driver Cody Polisenio who helped shave one-and-three-fifths-of-a-second off the Proper Respect filly's prior best time. The Carlo Polisenio trainee won her third career race. Dr. Edward Ward's Caviart Acadia finished second and William Carter's Alexandria's Dream took third.

Elwood Tignor and Debbie Mulligan's Toys Little Tinker prevailed in the second filly pace division in 1:55 after passing Virginia Breeder's 2-year-old champion KJ Becky in the stretch. The daughter of Rusty's For Real entered the race with a field-high bankroll of $71,700 and was guided smartly to victory by William Carter, who left to compete in Ocean Downs' opening night card immediately after the victory. Scott Woogen's KJ Becky finished second, one length back, and Jeffery Derue's Caviart Lyra took third.

Trainer Britney Dillon's Paxamillion dominated in the colt and gelding pace, wiring the field in 1:55 and crossing 6¼ lengths the best. The Sweet Lou gelding was sent off as the 1-9 betting favorite and triggered fractions of :28 1/5, :57 4/5 and 1:26. The winner was driven by Tyler Shehan and has now finished first, second or third in 10 of his last 12 races. Rachel and Richard Haven's Choices Honor finished second and Edward Ward's Caviart Shetland took third.

Trainer Stacey McLenaghan's Brooksforreal won his 12th straight race in wire-to-wire fashion though he had to fend off a pesky Caviart Cash at the finish. The heavily favored Rusty's For Real gelding maintained a 1¼ length cushion over the second-place finisher throughout the mile but driver Archie Buford nearly urged Caviart Cash to an upset falling a quarter-of-a-length shy. Brooksforreal, who now sports a bankroll of $232,008, crossed in 1:56.2 with Fern Paquet, Jr. in the bike. Caviart Cash is owned by Woogen and Brenda Messenger. Tracy Bradshaw's Mr Big Check finished third.

In Breeder's action Saturday (May 24), Woogen's KJ Title passed stablemate KJ The Thirteenth in the final turn and powered home to a 1¾ length triumph in the first filly trot division. The daughter of E L Titan crossed in 1:58.3 with Eric Davis in the sulky. KJ The Thirteenth stayed the course to gain second while Jane Dunavant's Songmaster was third.

Caviart Farms' Caviart Glory conducted an almost identical prep to the one she participated in last year as freshman, throttling the field by nearly 20 lengths. The Greenshoe filly won by a 20¾-length margin last fall. Trainer/driver Philip Scott Sonstebly led the winning effort again, which mirrored the 1:59.4 clocking she authored in her 2-year-old prep. Leon Harris's Twin Springs Mari was second and Jane Dunavant's Peggys Girl finished third.

The colt and gelding trot had one division, serving as a prep versus an elimination, and was won by Cary Grady's HS Jesse in 2:00.1. The Gregory Pecs gelding finished second in both of last year's Breeder's eliminations but broke stride in the $92,175 final. On Saturday, driver/trainer Joseph Carroll took care of business in a gate-to-wire manner and got the best of runner-up Swervingmervin – the 2024 champ – by a half-length. Woogen's Mane Man Charlie finished third.

A second round of Breeder's elimination and prep races continue this weekend at Shenandoah Downs with $90,000 (est.) finals slated for closing weekend on June 7 and 8.

Fair Winds Farm receives 2025 Service To Youth Award

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation is pleased to announce Fair Winds Farm, owned by Mark Mullen, as the 2025 Service To Youth honoree. The award is given to an individual or organization that has contributed significantly to the efforts of introducing and educating young people about standardbreds and harness racing.

"Mark has always understood the importance of outreach to youth and has hosted many 4-H and pony clubs at his beautiful facility," said HHYF executive director Ellen Taylor. "He and his staff stepped up a few years ago and agreed to take care of the HHYF herd during the off season. This is a big commitment and we truly appreciate his willingness to assist."

Mullen gives much of the credit to the farm's assistant manager Heather Zitone.

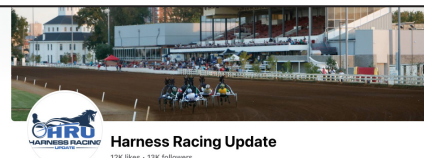

"She is a third-generation horseman whose family owned, trained, and bred harness horses," Mullen said. "She has done a great job engaging with our local equine programs. When it comes to inspiring and engaging youth, it is Heather's enthusiasm and desire to give back that deserves the recognition. I am grateful to Heather and our Fair Winds employees and I appreciate all of their efforts on behalf of the farm and for the community."

Mullen accepted the recognition on behalf of Fair Winds Farm on May 28 at the New Jersey Equine Advisory Board Breeders of the Year Awards celebration.
