Trainer Lucas Wallin (right) with Rebuff after winning the 2022 Kentucky Futurity.

There was never any doubt that Lucas Wallin's was destined to become a horseman. The 30-year-old native of Sweden has been around and working with horses all of his life. His parents and grandparents owned and trained horses in Sweden. He recalls working with horses as an 8- and 9-year-old. He was 14 when he made his first trip to the United States. By that time, it was a forgone conclusion that he was destined to be a horseman. That trip to America solidified his belief that the venue for his career would be in North America. His first job of significance was with Swedish legend Ake Svanstedt with whom he worked from 2014 to 2017.

Let's start there. You came to the United States as an assistant trainer in Ake Svanstedt's stable.

"Starting with Ake constituted a dream come true. A young horseman desiring to learn and grow could not have had a better teacher than Ake. He is a legend in Sweden where he led and dominated Scandinavian trotting for quite some time. He had achieved pretty much all that could be accomplished in Sweden and then determined that he would try to do more of the same in North America. He is well on his way to accomplishing that. I was fortunate enough to be allowed to come along with him and share his journey. I stayed with his stable for three years before deciding to go out on my own in 2018."

You were now on your own. Did you think that you were ready?

"I suppose that at the time I thought I was ready [to be on my own], but looking back I probably wasn't. I was probably a few years ahead of where I should have been. But I was young and full of self-confidence. I felt I was ready to take on the world. I needed a challenge. I started with one horse, a Yankee Glide trotter which was owned by two friends. In order to make ends meet, I worked for the Melander brothers, Marcus and Matthias. Looking back, the proper way to phrase it might have been that I was working for the Melanders while working part-time training the one horse in my stable.

"Fortunately, I did reasonably well with that one horse and got two more. Eventually, I got up to five or six and I was able to hang out my shingle so to speak. I had my own public stable. The first really good horse I had was Appomattox another Yankee Glide who Ronnie Burke had been training. He was a really good old war horse who earned over $600,000. We only had him for one season. Although he didn't earn a whole lot of money for us, he still managed to win three of the seven races in which we had him. Both the size of the stable and the quality in it grew. I suppose the major turning point in the success of the stable came about with the acquisition of Rebuff."

Let's talk about Rebuff.

"I was already concentrating on yearlings. There was never any doubt in my mind that that was the route I wanted to take. When I was with Ake, we had a pretty good Lucky Chucky colt named Non Stick who earned $587,890. Steve Stewart was selling a Muscle Hill half-brother to him at the 2020 Selected Yearling Sale in Lexington. In my mind I figured that if his dam had a Lucky Chucky that good, then how much better could a Muscle

Hill be? I thought that the sky could be the limit. As we all know, this is the horse business. In our business things do not necessarily work out according to preconceived logic.

"I had some people who were willing to spend pretty well for a top yearling. I went to look at Rebuff. It was love at first sight. I really liked the colt. Not only did I love him, but I was also willing to spend some of my own money – money that I could ill afford to lose at the time – to buy a piece if we were lucky enough to acquire him. He was a terrific individual who checked all the boxes. He had a great pedigree. He moved like one would like a trotter to move. I saw him turned out in the paddock. I watched his video over and over. If we had enough money, I was sure that we would buy him. We did have enough, but barely. We bought him for $200,000. He trained like a good horse from the very beginning. Sometimes he might have been a little over ambitious. He might not have been the very best 2-year-old trotter of his year, but he was certainly among them. He turned out to be everything we were hoping he'd be and perhaps a little more.

“He started 11 times, with four wins, two seconds and a third at 2. He earned $444,095 and took a record of 1:52.2 in his freshman year. Our gamble had paid off. We were home free. Dreams of the Hambletonian occupied my thoughts all winter. He trained exceptionally well and raced well up into Hambletonian week. In my mind, I felt that he couldn't have been any better heading into the race. In the Hambletonian, he was disappointingly flat. It turned out that he had flipped his palate and wasn't getting his air properly. Dr. Patty Hogan operated successfully on him. Our goal became to race him at Lexington and have him fit for the Kentucky Futurity. Things did work out pretty much as we hoped they would. Rebuff was the best horse on Futurity Day. He was very good that day, but in my heart, he wasn't quite as good as I thought he had been on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands. But as they say, 'That's horse racing.' He was subsequently syndicated and is serving a full book of mares at Victory Hill Farms in Indiana. I look forward to seeing and racing his foals.”

How are things looking for the Wallin stable in 2023?

“I think pretty well. We started with 34 head and still have 34 on the go. Of those, 24 are 2-year-olds, nine are 3 and we have one older horse. The only difference between where we started and now is that we stopped with one of the 2-year-olds and replaced him with another. I think I probably have as many in the stable as I hope to ever have. I think that 30-40 head is pretty much the maximum I can do justice to. More than that there is a chance that the horses and the owners will suffer. I know that others have said pretty much the same and overstepped those numbers. I recall reading where Tony Alagna once said that he didn't want to have much more than 30 in his stable. I believe that he is now over a hundred and counting."

Do you see any possible Grand Circuit horses among your 3-year-olds?

"We have a few that look very promising. If I had to mention just one it would be D'Apper a Walner colt who we thought a lot of last year. We took him to Lexington thinking that he would do very well there. Unfortunately, he got quite sick and we decided to quit with him. He has trained well and I am hoping for great things for him this year. He is in to race at The Meadowlands on Friday (June 9). We should get some idea of where we are after that race.

"This colt has what I believe is a quite exceptional pedigree. He is of course by Walner perhaps the world's greatest trotting sire. His dam D'One is a Donato Hanover mare who earned $1,268,611. She is in turn out of the great Giant Diablo, a Supergill mare who earned $1,802,816. When you go deeper maternally in his pedigree, you will come upon Scotch Love who produced the great triple crown winner and sire Speedy Scot. He is of course the sire of Speedy Crown. If you were looking to write a better trotting pedigree, you would be hard pressed to do so."

How about your 2-year-olds?

"I am very pleased with what we have. We started two Father Patricks in the baby races at The Meadowlands last week. They were both winners: the filly The Moment in 1:59.4 and the colt Alfaromeo in 2:01.1. We started one other that day, the Greenshoe filly Good Faith Hanover. She finished a good second to The Moment. We started five more on Saturday (June 10): three Walners, a Greenshoe and a Muscle Hill. Of those the Walner colt Duke Of Walner looks quite promising. I would be surprised if we didn't get all 24 of our babies qualified and racing before the season is over."

How is your newly-arrived son doing?

"Mason is doing exceptionally well. He just passed his six-month birthday. He is a joy to have around. I guess that he would find it difficult to not become a horseman considering his pedigree. In addition to myself, a third-generation horseman, his mother Mikaela is a Melander, sister of Marcus and Mattias and a multi-generational horseperson herself."

Just Believe's Swedish tour continues

The Aussie trotter didn't make the Elitloppet final but he gained fans and garnered respect, especially after a hard-fought third-place finish Saturday in Ostersund from post 8.

by Adam Hamilton

Aussie trotting star Just Believe still has another race left in his Swedish raid, but has already won plenty of fans and brought some serious credibility to Down Under trotting.

The form card says he finished last in his Elitloppet heat on Sunday (May 28), but there was so much more to it.

The Inter Dominion and Great Southern Star winner was tightened for room, broke stride and lost all chance rounding the final bend, but it's what he has shown to that point and how well he was still travelling which turned plenty of heads.

His second Swedish race was Saturday (June 10) in the Jamtlands Grand Prix in Ostersund (about seven hours north of Stockholm) and that one produced even more European fans. Despite starting from post 8, Just Believe finished an impressive third behind Hail Mary and Click Bait. Due to the outside post, Just Believe was left three-wide early with Hail Mary leading the field. With 300m to go, Just Believe tipped four-wide and attacked fiercely to finish a strong third in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles. Hail Mary won in 1:53.1.

The Swedish fans have been a beacon through a sea of disappointment and an emotionally-challenging time for his superstar driver and co-trainer Greg Sugars.

"The disappointment has subsided a bit, but I was absolutely gutted at the time. I felt like we'd let everyone down," Sugars said of the Elitloppet result. "Racing can be a game of inches at times and those inches went against us. But, as we all know, everyone in racing goes through plenty of disappointment at times. That was a pretty big one for [myself and my wife Jess]. The worst of it is behind us now so we can turn the page and look forward to the next challenge.

"The support we had from back home has been just incredible and meant so much, but the locals have really rallied behind us, too. They were jumping out of trees to tell us not to be too disappointed. I think we just surprised the hell out of them that we had a horse who was going to be competitive because, being blatantly honest, I don't think they felt we would be up to the task."

The encouragement was more than just words with officials from several clubs pleading with Sugars and Tubbs to take "Harry" (Just Believe's stable name) to race at their track after the Elitloppet.

"The people from Finland invited us to their biggest race. We could've gone to Norway [to race in the Oslo Grand Prix] and the Swedes wanted us to head north, which is what we settled on," Sugars said. "We did look seriously at Oslo, but it would've added 60 extra days to our stay with extra quarantine and we didn't want to do that."

So, Sugars and Tubbs settled on Ostersund with, most likely, a very similar race at Boden next week.

"That's the plan, at this stage," Sugars said. "If he [comes out of the Jamtlands Grand Prix well], we will go on to Boden, which is another six hours further away from Stockholm. So, we'd stay in Ostersund and go on to Boden from there.

"Boden would be it. I'll need to get back home and the next flight back for Just Believe to get home is mid-July."

Any trainer knows a horse can go either way after he races for the first time after enduring plenty of travel to get there.

Just Believe's 60-hour trip from Sugars and Tubbs' stables near Melbourne to Stig H. Johansson's barn near Stockholm is as big as it gets.

"Of course, we were watching and wondering how he'd come through the Elitloppet," Sugars said. "He's come through it really well and certainly taken no harm from it.

"He trained really well last weekend, I'd say better than he did before the Elitloppet, which is great. That extra time to get over the big trip looks to have done him the world of good."

While the drop in class and stretch from a mile to 2140m at Ostersund could certainly have favored Just Believe, his bad luck in barrier draws continued.

"Seven in the Elitloppet, which is awful, and now 8, which is outside the front row for this race," Sugars said prior to the Jamtlands Grand Prix. "Still, it's probably not as vital being over 2140m, but there's obviously still some good horses in the race so we'll need some luck in running if that's possible."

"We knew there would be some good horses in whatever race we went to next and from what the locals are telling me, this is a pretty good field. There's obviously not the depth of an Elitloppet, but it still won't be easy, especially from our draw."

Prior to the Jamtlands Grand Prix, Sugars thought the 2140m would be Just Believe's biggest advantage.

"I've got no doubt he'll be far better suited this week than what he was in the Elitloppet," he said. "That was something we were always concerned about, how he would handle the speed from start to finish over a mile here."

"But from what I've been told, the 2140m races here are run a lot more like our races back home. They burn out, back it off a bit, then dash home. It potentially opens the way for me to back at the start and make a midrace move if the tempo allows for it."

So, what expectations did Sugars have going into yesterday's race?

"A couple of people I've spoken to who have looked at the field are saying we are a genuine top three or four chance, all going well," he said. "I'd really love to think, all going well and with a trouble-free run, we could finish in the top four and recoup some of the costs of the trip."

Just Believe's performance will build on the credibility the horse earned for himself and Down Under trotting despite his finishing position in the Elitloppet heat.

While Sugars was optimistic about Just Believe's two post-Elitloppet Swedish races, he is buzzing about what the future holds for other Australians and New Zealanders heading to the Elitloppet in the future.

"The gap is certainly closing," he said. "As our breeds continues to get better and our trainers get better and smarter at training trotters, it will keep closing. I'm really excited about that."

"I'm sure there will be lots more trotters heading up from Down Under in coming years and the Swedes love having them. I can see a time very soon when we're making Elitloppet finals and being very competitive in them and that's pretty awesome."

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

James Yoder using early fairs as prep for Indiana Sires Stakes

by James Platz

The first two rounds of Indiana fair racing are in the books and trainer James Yoder has enjoyed a strong showing. In the first week of racing at the Converse Fairgrounds, he conditioned and steered five winners. He followed that with five more winners this week, including a track record-equaling performance with freshman Chocluck Chip. Yoder is using the early fair action as a proving ground for his inexperienced freshmen as he prepares for Indiana Sires Stakes competition in a little over one month.

Courtesy James and Cheyenne Yoder
James and Cheyenne Yoder with freshman pacer Where's Drogon.

"I staked all my 2-year-olds that were eligible this year to the fairs just so that I can gate school them, get a line on them behind the car, just give them a workout here," Yoder said. "Most of them that I've been starting here, I'm hoping they are good enough to race in sires stakes."

Yoder and his wife, Cheyenne, traditionally stable at Harrah's Hoosier Park. This year, however, they decided to move to the Converse Fairgrounds, located about an hour north of the track. One of the reasons for the change was a more suitable schedule for the trainer's needs.

"The track doesn't close at noon," he said. "I can work my 2-year-olds the way I like to work them. They all work about 40 or 45 minutes when they have a training period. That works out a little better for me."

The move did require the couple to adjust the composition of the barn due to space restrictions. At Converse they have 19 stalls available. Training this winter at his father's farm in Kentucky the stable totaled 26 head, with 13 babies. Tough decisions had to be made.

"We had 26 to start the year between me and Cheyenne and a couple of our owners," James said. "Now we're down to 18 in the barn right now. We sold a bunch this spring to cut down, including one that was third last time out in sires stakes [sophomore pacer Always Floating]. I thought a bunch of my 2-year-olds showed promise."

If the first two weeks of fair action are any indication, James has several that are showing promise as sires stakes material. On the pacing side, Luck Be Withyou colt Chocluck Chip is perfect in two starts. In his June 1 start, the pacer wired the field to win by three lengths with a 2:01 clocking. Wednesday (June 7) at Converse the freshman turned in a similarly-dominating performance, this time stopping the clock in 1:58, tying the track mark for 2-year-old colts and geldings. David Fry bred the colt, purchased at auction by the trainer and his wife for $9,000.

"He's been nice to work with," James said. "Training down he just drives so easy. Everything is natural to him."

Where's Drogon, from the first crop of Hoosier superstar Freaky Feet Pete, is also perfect in two starts. After romping by 15 lengths in his debut last week, a 1:59 effort, the colt returned to win by 17 lengths Wednesday, tripping the timer in 1:59 while pacing a :56.1 back half and :27.1 last quarter. He was an $11,000 purchase for the couple, bred by Ray Kuhns.

"I've really liked him training down too," James said. "He's actually staked a little more than the other colt. He seems to me that he carries his speed a little better than the Luck colt. He is eligible to the Elevation. The first year of Petes are not eligible to the Breeders Crown, or I probably would have staked him."

Freaky Feet Pete filly Petredame won in her debut last week, pacing over the half-mile configuration in 2:08. This week she finished second with a 2:05.1 effort.

"She had a little bit of traffic trouble," James said. "She got in a bad spot, but that's just fair racing for you. That's why we're racing them here, just so they can get a little more experience; get behind the car, get in a field of horses and just try to teach them."

Freaky Feet Pete's first crop has already produced three winners, all with ties to Yoder's barn. He trained colt Designated Freak before sending him to his father, Verlin. The Hillsboro-foaled freshman won a $10,500 event in the Bluegrass State in late May, pacing in 2:01.3 with the elder Yoder in the bike.

"We all loved him as a racehorse," James said. "I'm just hoping his talent carries through to his babies. We started with four of them training down this year. We have a homebred filly too. She's a little behind. She probably won't see Hoosier Park until July sometime. She got hurt in a field so she had hock surgery. She's been doing really good, she's just a little further behind the rest of them."

On the trotting side, Yoder has sent out a pair of winners sired by You Know You Do, as well as a Dover Dan filly. Misty Mills, a You Know You Do filly, trotted to a 2:05.1 score last week and backed up that performance with a 2:04.1 triumph Thursday (June 8) winning by just over three lengths. Black Gold, a Dover Dan lass owned by Stephan and Elizabeth Ray, has turned in back-to-back wins with margins of nine and 19 lengths. Surfer Dude, a You Know You Do colt, recovered from early breaks to race fourth last week. Thursday, he collected his first victory with a six-length margin at the wire, timed in 2:06.

"Both of the You Know You Dos are Breeders Crown staked for this year at Hoosier," James said. "Hopefully they keep progressing and getting better and maybe we can take a shot. They have the opportunity to."

This year fair circuit races will be held at Hoosier Park for the first time. The races are scheduled for June 21, 22 and 23 and will give horsemen a chance to compete for valuable points while racing on a big track and a much different environment.

"Next week I'll ship them to Hoosier and get a training mile there," James said. "There is a leg of fairs at Hoosier that we'll most likely race in. We'll be there at night, try to get them under the lights there and see how they do and go from there."

Utilizing the fairs to provide experience for his young pupils is a strategy that is slightly different than what Yoder would traditionally employ.

"Everything has been the same up until now," James said. "Usually, once we get to June, first we'll gate school them at Hoosier once or twice depending how they are, then we'll qualify them once or twice. Same thing, depending on how they see the car and see the gate. Then we'll put them in a non-winners of one [pari-mutuel] and race them at Hoosier to get them ready for sires stakes. Just try to get behind the car four or five times before racing for sires stakes money."

The opening leg of Indiana Sires Stakes for freshman pacers and trotters begins July 11-15.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Tyson Paris is making horses and vehicles perform at their best

by Chris Lomon

Tyson Paris is navigating his horse racing life guided by a down-to-earth, blue-collar approach.

It was a rather quick conversation, the one the teenager from Ottumwa, IA had with veteran horseman Robbie Anderson. But the words imparted to him that day have remained a key inspiration on his standardbred journey.

"Robbie told me to relax and the horse will take care of me and guide me on the track, that all I have to do is guide him where to go," Paris said.

Paris, 19, has kept that top of mind every morning he heads to the barn of trainer/driver Adam Hauser, who has over 1,900 combined wins over his distinguished career.

Hard work comes easy for the young horseman who had once opted for a different kind of adrenaline rush.

"I started racing horses when I was in sixth or seventh grade," Paris said. "At first, I was doing go-kart racing, but I got in a pretty bad accident, and I realized it wasn't my thing anymore. I started looking at horses and since I had been around them since I was a baby, I thought, 'This might be my next hobby.' And now, here I am."

Paris, who started in the business with Gary Phillips (from Eldon, IA) is a jack-of-all-trades sort in the Hauser barn, eagerly embracing any task that comes his way.

Sitting behind the horses, pre-race, is his favorite job, one he likens to a certain team sport.

"I help out Adam on the weekends whenever I can," Paris said. "On race days, I do warmups, I sling harnesses, and help get the horses ready and make sure they are set to go. Warming up the horses is a lot of fun. You get to know the horse and you are getting them prepared for the race. Getting familiar with the team is like knowing what to expect on opening day of baseball. You get to know your roster, what they are capable of, what their potential is and how you can work with each one to bring the best out in them."

"I usually talk to whoever is driving the horse and give them some insight into how they warmed up and what they are like during the race. You are playing your part in chasing that success, offering up anything useful that can help be the difference between winning and losing."

Paris, who recently completed his collegiate studies, is focused on seeing his long-term goal of driving and training a small stable become a reality.

He's already fashioned his on-track look.

"The base color is red, the piping is white, and there is black in it as well," he said. "I have a horseshoe on the back for luck. I'm really happy with it. I came up with the design and no one has seen that particular design in the Midwest. It's one of those unique types of driver colors. Maybe one day, some young kid will want to duplicate the colors and come up with a different look of their own."

Fashion statements aside, Paris dedicates a large portion of his day to educating himself on a wide array of horse racing topics.

Watching races on television, while focusing on a specific aspect of the paces and trots, in a comfortable environment is a regular occurrence.

"I like to get in the hot tub and watch The Meadows and some other racetracks to see the drivers and look at their particular style," Paris said. "I love watching as much harness racing as I

"I love getting to be around friends and family, to have the opportunity to gain more knowledge about horses and learn more about driving. I enjoy picking up things here and there that will help me get better at what I do. I like studying each horse so that I can be prepared to know everything about them before a race."

can. I like to take anything that I've seen and see the progress I've made, what I need to work on, and things I'm doing well."

Paris, who currently owns three mares, seven racehorses and three yearlings, has had success with horses in the past.

That list includes a pair of hard-knocking types, namely, 24-time winner Im Another Wilson, and Americas Game, another trotter, who won eight races over a 44-start career.

"Americas Game, he was one of those gentle giants you like to be around," Paris said. "It was always fun to watch him go out and compete. Im Another Wilson, my dad brought him home and I never knew anything about the horse. I walked out to see the horse and my dad said, 'He's a full-brother to our horse, Hes A Wilson.' Now, this horse and I have a special bond on race day. He knows when I'm around and he gets calmer as the day goes on. He's just one of those stallions that you can be around all day and love on. He's pretty much a lover and somewhat of a fighter too."

A former Paris pupil recently recorded a victory in New York, a win that had him beaming for days.

"I sold a horse to Rags To Riches Stable, a horse named Princeofthefield, who just won at Buffalo Raceway in 2:01.2," Paris said. "That was awesome to see a horse from Iowa go there and win. It makes me proud and want to work harder, to see ones from here go out east and compete."

Putting in those long hours continues to drive the teenager forward in pursuit of his ultimate career goals.

It's a big reason, but by no means the only one, as to why Paris relishes any time spent at the racetrack, rain or shine.

"I love getting to be around friends and family, to have the opportunity to gain more knowledge about horses and learn more about driving," he said. "I enjoy picking up things here and there that will help me get better at what I do. I like studying each horse so that I can be prepared to know everything about them before a race."

"It's busy, but the more I'm busy, the harder I work. It's that push to want to know more every day that I go to the track, finding out which horse needs this and which one needs that. It's those little things that can help take me to the next step in my path to driving."

For now, that road includes another job, specifically, helping put vehicles on the road.

"I applied for a diesel mechanic job at a local cement mixture operation," Paris said. "That's my job before harness racing, working on diesels and making sure they get out there so they can get to where they need to go."

Which, in many ways, is precisely what Paris is doing with harness racing.

He's buoyed by the possibilities that are in his sights.

"Harness racing is a career I hope takes me somewhere," he said. "It's a great sport and I want to go after my goals giving my top effort."

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COTOLO

Across the river and into the swamp, Part 1

by Frank CotoLO

The word was out. A one-mile racetrack primarily presenting harness racing was being built in New Jersey. It was scheduled to open in late 1976. Those of us attending Roosevelt and Yonkers and Freehold raceways were excited about betting harness racing on a one-mile track and we agreed it was just what we needed.

A New York Times (NYT) article on April 6, 1976 reported:

"In New York, with Meadowlands about to break the long-time Yonkers-Roosevelt night gambling monopoly, Yonkers officials say it's 'questionable' if their track can stay in business without the controversial takeout bonus. And the legislators are asking Yonkers and Roosevelt to prove it."

My friend and business partner Thom Savino and I wanted to know everything about Meadowlands harness racing and we wanted to tell everyone what they should know; we decided to get an education on our own and pass it on. Savino had a slim connection to a budding newspaper called Brooklyn Today. We pitched an article to its editors with the NYT angle: How would the new racetrack affect harness betting business in New York and what should bettors know about a one-mile harness track?

'Okay,' they said. 'Do it.'

The site of The Meadowlands was just beyond an industrial corridor featuring coughing smokestacks and a stench-producing slaughterhouse; an insipid territory everyone called "The Jersey Swamplands" and the less flattering "Cancer Alley."

I knew the area well from childhood. My father often drove our family to visit relatives in Kearny, NJ, via the underwater-tube infrastructure called the Lincoln Tunnel. That, in itself, was an adventure; a car driving through tens of tons of steel underneath the Hudson River. Wow. Once on the Jersey side, my father took the side roads to Kearny even though the first version of the New Jersey Turnpike (NJT) was built less than a decade before we began taking those interstate trips.

As a kid, it was a 1958 Chevy-rocking tour challenging my senses and it was exciting because I imagined it to be like traveling on the surface of another planet. The cracking tar road out of the tunnel took us through a territory bombarded by a putrid stench one could taste while breathing.

My memories were sweet and sour as Savino drove the modern route on the NJT taking us to The Meadowlands for our job. We were armed with press passes, a cassette player, a microphone, direct questions and we were fueled with anticipation to talk with horsemen, many not well known to us on the other side of the Hudson River.

From the off-ramp onto the new roads leading to the track, our first glance of the structure was daunting. It was immense from afar and once we were strolling over the apron; we were nonetheless awed peering at the mile route for trotters and pacers. Horses were training at various points and those on the backstretch appeared tiny.

Forty-seven years ago, the harness racing betting audience across the river wanted to read about one particular thing that affected them if they came to East Rutherford to bet: what are the differences for drivers competing in two-turn harness racing.

We introduced ourselves to the first driver dismounting from a sulky. We did not know Ken McNutt from racing across the river. He was pleasant agreeing to talk on the record. McNutt said he competed on mile tracks at fair meets in Illinois before The Meadowlands.

"The big difference," he said, "is they only have one or two weeks of racing throughout the year and here we're racing year-round.

The condition of the racetrack is harder to keep [for] good racing. They race in the summertime so they don't have [these] kinds of weather. Here, from September to April, you're liable to have snow and rain; it's a lot different situation."

For bettors across the river, we asked: what about driving on the mile?

"You have to use different strategies," McNutt said, "more than on a half-mile track. Any horse on a mile track on a given night if they're classified half-way right has a chance to win, whether they got the 10-hole or the rail. You don't have to make the same moves in a mile [race]. There are definitely less than you do on a half. It's easier driving at Yonkers and Roosevelt [because] you have the same horses racing week in and week out. Plus, you only have eight horses. The extra two horses in the fields here make a big difference in any race."

Even so, McNutt said: "I like mile racing but I think as far as driving and the capability of winning I prefer a half-mile track."

Ken McNutt died in 2015 at 81.

BREAKING STRIDE

with TREY NOSRAC

A bridge too far

by Trey Nosrac

This sequence of unfortunate events occurred about one decade and three Pina Colodas ago, so the facts are fuzzy but accurate. My guess is many of you will relate.

Each year, I push my resource limit beyond reason and purchase a yearling harness racehorse with a pal. Once upon a time, I owned 50 per cent of a horse that raced in Pennsylvania with semi-moderate success. Deep into the 3-year-old season with this horse, we decided to try for the large overnight purses at Yonkers, a novel experience for us that turned semi-tragic.

We had never raced out of state and understood we would need to jump through a few hoops in addition to our usual due diligence of PA fingerprints, licenses, organization memberships, stakes payments, etc. Our dance began with lengthy and costly shipping, paperwork for a trainer based in New York, and then a week or so to allow the horse to settle into his new surroundings. Perfectly understandable.

While New York and Pennsylvania share a geographical border, we were illegal immigrants in New York for racing purposes. Should you understand my computer aptitude and patience level at the time, this move across the state line for a single race was a ghastly expenditure of time, money, frozen computer screens, telephone calls, and for some weird reason, I seem to recall I needed to find a notary. Whatever, finally we were eligible to race in foreign territory: New York in the 8-hole at Yonkers. Very exciting.

Finally, the day of our first race in New York arrived. We were as pumped as you can get from post 8 on a half-mile racetrack. Then things began to go sideways. Around six o'clock, we received a text from our new trainer with the unfortunate news that the truck shipping our horse to Yonkers Racetrack became stuck in traffic on a large bridge. Accidents happen. Our horse did not reach the racetrack in time for his scheduled debut. There would be no racing for us tonight.

At this point, we learned a new rule. Something along the lines that when scratched from the 8-hole, your horse will wait at least a week and be reassigned the 8-hole in the next start.

There are probably excellent reasons for this rule. We were racing immigrants and were not whiners, so we sighed and sat back to wait.

During this hiatus, we decided that racing our horse in nearby New Jersey was a good idea. Ergo, a third license was required to allow us to enter our horse at Freehold Racetrack. More rigmarole.

During our start at Freehold, nearing the halfway point of the race, the horse racing directly in front of our horse fell and caused a hellacious accident, injuring our horse and driver. Hey, again, accidents happen. If you are in this game, you know the fates are not always kind and good fortune marinates in misfortune. No regrets. These weeks were an adventure. No whining: well, okay, a little whining.

Our out-of-state racing and licensing experience was an out-of-body experience where we wrote checks, filled out duplicate paperwork, made phone calls, and jumped through administrative hoops.

The tangible results of leaving our home state to race in Pennsylvania was having our horse stand in a hot van idling on a bridge in New York and then having our racehorse and his driver fly into the racetrack infield and land awkwardly in New Jersey. I am very confident we could have managed those results remaining in Pennsylvania.

We limped home. This little ill-fated racing vignette has us very nervous about ever crossing state lines again. The licensing process, hassle, and expense do not help. The moral of this story is that for small fish in harness horse racing, any steps to minimize licensing expenses, costs, and hassles are a big deal. For example, I own 10 per cent of a 2-year-old trotting filly hopeful this season. Tomorrow I will drive over an hour to get a new racing license, possibly involving fingerprints, photos, and money. Mercifully, the trip will be in our state.

"Rigmarole means complicated, bothersome nonsense. In the 13th century, a list of names was known as the Ragman Roll. Edward (known as Hammer of the Scots) forced sworn fealty to him by signing oaths of allegiance that were collected on parchments that together made up what came to be called the Ragman Roll (or Ragman Rolls, or Ragman's Roll). Ragman was also a game where a scroll had strings hanging from it that pointed to various (likely bawdy) verses in the scroll. Players would choose a string to pull to find their verse and read it aloud for entertainment. Over time ragman roll, for a long roll of parchment full of "nonsense," eventually became Rigmarole, a long, unnecessarily time-consuming hassle."*

Roses Are Red, Goodtimes eliminations complete

by Ray Coto for Woodbine communications

A pair of undercard stakes events for next Saturday's (June 17) cavalcade card – headlined by the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup – now have their finalists determined.

The Roses Are Red, for older pacing mares, and the Goodtimes, for trotting sophomores, each had two eliminations contested at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Friday night (June 9).

Grace Hill glided over the track as the 1-2 favorite to take the first $35,000 elimination for the Roses Are Red in 1:50.1.

Settling into second through a :27.2 first quarter set by Amazing Dream N, driver Doug McNair promptly swung Grace Hill to the front up the backstretch to cut the pace into a :55.2 half. Dabarndawgswatchin floated off the pegs from fourth trying to flush So Much More onto the rim, and So Much More soon took the bait and plugged forward after Grace Hill towards three-quarters in 1:23.2. So Much More started to level off in the sprint for home while Grace Hill gunned clear under wraps in the lane to win by 2-3/4 lengths. Amazing Dream N reclaimed second while Dabarndawgswatchin darted off cover to take third. So Much More held fourth and Dougs Babe A rounded the finalists.

"She probably is the best aged mare [I've driven]," Doug McNair said after the race. "Hopefully she just keeps getting stronger this year. She's only had a few starts. She was really solid [tonight], I was really happy with her."

A 5-year-old daughter of Always B Miki—Western Silk, Grace Hill moved from Richard "Nifty" Norman to the barn of Virgil Morgan Jr. in August of 2022. Since then, she has raced 13 times and won 10 of those starts, including a near gate-to-wire performance in the $540,000 Breeders Crown Final last fall at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"She's always been a good mare," Virgil Morgan Jr. said after the race. "She was a really good 2-year-old. She came to me in good form, so I'm just blessed to have the opportunity to train her. The Hills are great to work with. They've let me manage her and give her weeks off and spot her. We're trying to do it the right way and they're just great to work with."

The victory now gives Grace Hill 23 wins from 50 starts and adds to a bankroll now worth $1,312,630 for owner Tom Hill. She paid $3 to win.

Treacherous Dragon reigned over her competition as the even-money favorite in the other Roses Are Red elimination to uncork a 1:48.3 sizzler.

Driver Dexter Dunn floated the 4-year-old daughter of Captaintreacherous—My Little Dragon into third as Mikala and Kobes Gigi sparred to a :26 first quarter. Mikala coasted up the backside, giving Dunn an opportunity to spring Treacherous Dragon to the lead through a slight breather of a second quarter into a :54.2 half.

Treacherous Dragon carried her momentum around the final turn to click three-quarters in 1:21.2 and scurried clear through the lane under minimal encouragement. She finished 1-3/4 lengths in front of Silver Label, who burst off a pylon trip to grab second from Kobes Gigi. Mikala kept a charge from Im Offngone N at bay to hold fourth.

"I'm happy [Dexter Dunn] took back," trainer Nancy Takter said after the race. "They were going pretty good to the quarter and there was really no reason to make something of that when there was a hole. She's generally better off the pace; that's more of her style of racing. So, for her to pace in [1:]48.3 on the front after the half was great."

From 30 starts, Treacherous Dragon has won 14 times and now earned $1,231,162 for owner Hot Lead Farm. From four starts at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Treacherous Dragon has won all four. Those wins include a 1:50.1 victory in the $401,000 Fan Hanover and a 1:49.1 score in the $810,000 Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Filly Pace.

"Obviously, she really likes this track," Takter said. "She gets around it really good [and] she likes the long stretch. I don't think she's ever lost here, so I hope that continues."

Another Breeders Crown winner from last year came back to defend his turf in the first $30,000 elimination for the Goodtimes. Gaines Hanover, winner of the $810,000 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot last fall, staved off a furious bid from Southwind Coors to claim victory in 1:52.1.

Tuscan Prince powered to the front with Challenger protecting position from the pylons to race second into a :27.1 first quarter. Driver Louis-Philippe Roy rolled Gaines Hanover from post 7 and managed to find a seat for the 1-5 favorite in third as the field moseyed along through a :55.4 half.

With no challengers looming, Tuscan Prince began peeling from the field, which forced Roy to move Gaines Hanover off the pylons to take his shot passing three-quarters in 1:23.4. Gaines Hanover overhauled Tuscan Prince in the lane, but Southwind Coors came calling from third over and motored

He made me look good. [Southwind Coors], I mean he went some good races the last couple of races, but I think tonight was one of his most impressive efforts. Gaines Hanover has now won five times from 10 tries and amassed $514,101 for owner Gestion J. Y. Blais Inc. Richard Moreau conditions the 3-year-old gelding by Cantab Hall–Gatka Hanover who paid $2.70 to win.

Warrawee Yang blew out of the pocket to be the only non-favorite to win in elimination action on Friday night when he pulled a 6-1 mild upset in downing even-money favorite Hasty Bid.

Hasty Bid hustled for the lead from post 8 while Warrawee Yang landed in the pocket to a :27.2 first quarter. The field stacked up the backside with Djimon tipping first over from fourth and waiting for cover to follow, though no one pulled and that left Hasty Bid strolling through a :57.2 half.

Djimon got rolling around the final turn but spun evenly off three-quarters in 1:26 to create a seam for Warrawee Yang in the lane. And with confusion from hooked wheels between Passarino and Djimon, Warrawee Yang and Hasty Bid were left to duel through the lane clear of pylon-sitter What An Angel in third. Warrawee Yang breezed by Hasty Bid in the last eighth to slide to a two-length victory in 1:53.3 with What An Angel third, Ghostly Casper closing for fourth and Djimon holding fifth.

New Image Media

Warrawee Yang (Scott Young) won the second Goodtimes elimination in 1:53.3.

“[We got] a perfect trip behind the best horse in the race... it was awesome,” winning trainer Mark Etsell said after the race. “This colt showed a lot of speed last year, but he’s big and growthy, his knees were bugging him. We wore flip flops on him training down this year and in this last start took them off because I figured we’d get more speed out of him, and he’s shown us just that.”

Warrawee Yang added a fourth win to his 11-race card and padded his earnings now worth $51,530 for owners Mark Etsell, Robert Newton, Peter Porter and Denise Turner. The colt by Trixton–Endless Flirt paid $15.70 to win.

Winners from each of the eliminations contested earned a protected post draw for their respective finals, set to go on the undercard of the $1-million Pepsi North America Cup Saturday (June 17). Each elimination winner has earned the privilege to draw between posts 2 and 6.

Formidable fab four flash fantastic form in Pepsi North America Cup elims

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Christchurch, Fulton, Its My Show and Confederate will arrive at next Saturday's (June 17) $1 million Pepsi North America Cup for 3-year-old male pacers at Woodbine Mohawk Park in winning form after taking their respective $50,000 eliminations on Saturday night (June 10).

If the quartet of eliminations are any indication of what's in store for the Cup final, it will certainly be a night to remember.

In the curtain-raising Cup elimination, there was drama soon after the start when 1-2 Voukefalas took some awkward steps around the first turn before settling back into stride. Moment Is Here assumed command through an opening panel in :27.1 before Ervin Hanover struck front and took his seven rivals through a half in :55, as Dexter Dunn, in rein to Christchurch, sat a patient third. Rounding the turn for home, Christchurch loomed a major threat to the pacesetters and dashed by them in early stretch to take the lead. Voukefalas, with Jordan Stratton in the bike, came calling with a powerful late brush, but had to settle for second, a head back. Moment Is Here was third and Kopi Luwak fourth.

Christchurch (4, Dexter Dunn) won the first Pepsi North America Cup elimination in 1:48.4 on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The final time was 1:48.4.

"I trained his mother (Darlinonthebeach)," said winning trainer Nancy Takter. "She was one of my favourite horses that I've ever trained so there were a lot of high hopes when he came into my barn. I actually watched him foal on their foal cam, so he's always had a special place in my heart. You see how big he is, he's huge. Last year, we just took our time with him, taught him how to race a little bit. He has a great set of lungs, a great gait, so he has all the tools to be great."

Christchurch paid $9.50 for the win.

Owned by Diamond Creek Racing, Farhi Standardbreds Corp, and Spreydon Racing, the son of Always B Miki is now 4-1-0 from nine starts.

In the second elimination, Fulton, with Dexter Dunn calling the shots, blasted off the gate and took the lead with ease, as Ammo settled into second, followed by Annapolis Hanover and Redwood Hanover.

Reaching the opening quarter in a snappy :25.4, Fulton was still full of himself after a half-mile timed in :53.4 as it remained status quo for the top four. Redwood Hanover, saddled with post nine, was tipped out by James MacDonald and took aim at the pacesetter ahead of the final turn for home.

Down the lane, Fulton remained in full control, going on to notch a 1 ¼-length triumph in 1:48.2. Ammo also secured a spot in next week's final with his runner-up performance. Redwood Hanover was third and El Rey rallied to finish fourth.

"He hasn't been racing badly," said Dunn. "His last couple starts, he hasn't been 100 per cent, but tonight he was really good. [Trainer] Linda [Toscano] changed his bridle, and he was sharp and ran right to the line."

Fulton (Dexter Dunn) won the second NA Cup elim in 1:48.2.

Its My Show (Scott Zeron) won the third NA Cup elim in 1:48.

The bay son of Heston Blue Chip—Bettor Be Streamin, bred by Best Bet Stables (Florida) and owned by Let It Ride Stables and Bottom Line Racing LLC, is now 9-2-2 from 13 starts, including a 3-1-0 mark in four 2023 starts.

Fulton paid $5.30 for the victory.

In the third elimination, it was showtime for Its My Show.

Sent off as the slight 6-5 choice, the Linda Toscano trainee came into his latest engagement sporting a perfect four-for-four mark in his sophomore campaign.

In perhaps his most impressive performance to date, Its My Show, leaving from post one, was directed to the front by Scott Zeron quickly after the starter car sped away, as 8-5 Stockade Seelster followed in second with third choice, 4-1 Save America sitting third.

After early opening splits of :26.4 and :55, Its My Show was still travelling well, ahead by 1 ¼ lengths through three-quarters in 1:21.3.

Seven Colors came calling to the outside while Stockade Seelster and Save America were each asked for their best, but midway down the lane the race was for second spot as Its My Show powered away with ease.

The son of Sweet Lou—Put On A Show crossed the line a 2 ¼-length winner, earning a new speed badge of 1:48 in the process.

“The good thing about my horse is he’s probably the easiest horse I’ve ever had to drive,” said Zeron. “He’s very robotic, anything I want him to do, slow down, speed up. He’s super quick and he’s got some big lungs.”

Its My Show paid $4.70 for the win.

Bred and owned by Richard and Joanne Young, the bay gelding is now 5-2-1 from 13 lifetime starts.

New Image Media

Confederate (Tim Tetrick) won the fourth NA Cup elim in 1:48.4.

In the final elimination, Confederate lived up to his 1-9 odds with a powerhouse performance to propel him into the Cup final. It was longshot Stormalong who stormed off the gate to cross over and take the lead, but it was short lived as Tim Tetrick called on Confederate to be the pacesetter.

The son of Sweet Lou—Geothermal, bred and owned by Diamond Creek, took his seven contemporaries through early fractions of :26.4 and :54.4, going on to hold a 1 ¼-length advantage through three-quarters in 1:22.1.

A trio of longshots picked up the chase down the lane with 24-1 Lyons Surfing getting the coveted runner-up prize to move on to the seven-figure final. Hungry Angel Boy and Just Bet It All finished third and fourth, respectively.

The final time of 1:48.4 was a personal-best for the brown colt.

“He was very, very good,” said Tetrick. “Nobody was really leaving so I thought I’d take control. I don’t like doing it, but I didn’t want him to have to work too hard on the second half chasing somebody, so it worked out good.”

Now 7-1-1 from nine starts, Confederate, trained by Brett Pelling, will go after his biggest win to date on a stakes-laden Saturday card on June 17 at Mohawk.

“He’s a cool little guy, he does his job, he likes to work,” said Tetrick. “He’s always out there playing, goofing off. He likes to win races, so I’m really liking him.”

Confederate paid $2.10 for the win.

Replay here.

Following the eliminations, a draw was held to determine which two third-place finishers would complete the field for the $1 million final. From the random draw, Moment Is Here and Redwood Hanover advanced. Hungry Angel Boy will be the also eligible.

The draw for the Pepsi North America Cup final will take place at a press conference on Tuesday.

Talented distaffers take Armbro Flight and Fan Hanover eliminations

by Heather MacKay for Woodbine communications

Judging by the performances of the fillies and mares competing in Saturday's (June 10) eliminations for the Armbro Flight and Fan Hanover stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park, their finals on the undercard of North America Cup night Saturday (June 17) should be very impressive.

The two $35,000 eliminations of the Armbro Flight for trotting mares saw last year's top distaffers Raised By Lindy and Bella Bellini record their first 2023 victories.

The first test saw Raised By Lindy trot the opening panel in :28.1 for Yannick Gingras. Bob McClure had Warrawee Xenia up to challenge and was at the leader's wheel at the :56.2 half. Raised By Lindy continued with a length lead by the 1:24 three-quarters and held off a late rush by Refined to win in 1:51.1 to equal the winner's life record. HP Mama B, Warrawee Xenia and Swans Eye earned the remaining nods into the final.

It was the first win in two tries this year for Raised By Lindy, a homebred 4-year-old daughter of Walner—Birthright owned by Lindy Farms and trained by Domenico Cecere.

Replay here.

"She was great tonight and I'm very happy with that, her second start his year. "I've been impressed with her. She needed the race," said Cecere of the winner of $779,000 to date in her career.

In the second split Adare Castle was sent directly to the front by James MacDonald. She clicked off fractions of :27.4, :56.3 and 1:24.3. Down the stretch Dexter Dunn had Bella Bellini out from second to challenge the leader and they went on by to win in 1:51.3. Adare Castle had to be content with second this night followed by Mischievous Rose, Call Me Dani and Disclosure.

Now 5, Bella Bellini, a daughter of Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce, was making her first trip to the winner's circle after four tries this year. The winner of well over $2 million in her career is owned by breeder David McDuffee and trained by Nifty Norman.

Raised By Lindy (Yannick Gingras) won the first of two Armbro Flight eliminations in 1:51.1 on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

New Image Media

Bella Bellini (Dexter Dunn) won the second Armbro Flight elimination in 1:51.3 on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"That worked out pretty nicely," Norman said of his mare's win. "She had a good winter; she put on a lot of weight and she's a year older. We had some trouble getting her as fit as she needed to be. Now she's had some races in a row. She was better tonight. I was really happy with her. Coming back next week will do her good, she's trimmed up a bit and raced better."

Moving over to the pacers, sophomore fillies to be precise, Twin B Joe Fresh took the first $35,000 Fan Hanover elim in wire-to-wire fashion for co-owner Dexter Dunn. The Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze daughter put up fractions of :27.2, :55.1, 1:21.4 and won in 1:49.

New Image Media

Twin B Joe Fresh (Dexter Dunn) won the first of two Fan Hanover eliminations in 1:49.

New Image Media

Sylvia Hanover (Bob McClure) won the second Fan Hanover elimination in 1:49.2.

Cultured closed well to take second with Zanatta, Lyons Bettorday and One Last Wish also qualifying for the final.

Replay here.

“She had a great 2-year-old year [winning $598,000]. All the credit goes to Chris. She’s been fun so far,” said Dunn, who co-owns Twin B Joe Fresh with trainer Chris Ryder, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak.

In the second division Beach Cowgirl went an opening quarter in :26.3. Up to challenge before the :56 half was Sylvia Hanover who was at the leader’s halter by the 1:22.3 third quarter. Sylvia Hanover drew clear down the lane for Bob McClure to win in 1:49.2, a new lifetime best.

Beach Cowgirl, Charleston, Ucandoit Blue Chip and Vivians Dream also advanced for a spot in the final.

A daughter of Always B Miki—Shyaway, trained by Shawn Steacy for Hudons Standardbreds Inc., Sylvia Hanover is now two-for-two this year following an 8-1-0 debut season from nine starts.

Replay here.

“She was towing me; she wanted to get at it pretty good. I was trying to rate her. She’s been off a little while I figured she’d be short but she’s straight to the wire, strong. Every time you think she’s going to have an off night she comes through with a bigger night. I count my blessings every week I get to hold the lines on her,” said McClure who noted the filly is far better with a target.

“I was holding my breath; she saw a lot of air. For any horse to keep going forward the way she did that’s very impressive. She’s an incredible horse.”

Odds On Hail Mary equals track record; Toscano sweeps Meadows PASS

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Odds On Hail Mary blazed home in 1:49, matching the track record for sophomore filly pacers in Saturday's (June 10) Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. When C Is For Cookie captured the second division of the $146,946 Adios Betty, it gave trainer Linda Toscano a stake sweep.

The lightly-raced Odds On Hail Mary had never won a stake before, but she moved confidently to the top at the quarter for Dave Palone. The daughter of Heston Blue Chip—Mach Some Noise shrugged off the first-over challenge from Hello Yes Hi and drew off to defeat Ginger Tree Coco by 4-1/2 lengths, with Square Deal third.

"I wasn't thinking about records," Palone said. "She was well within herself. She was bouncing along there, comfortable, and I never had a nervous moment because she was in the bit letting me know she was full of herself."

Her time equaled the mark of Allstar Rating and Blue Diamond Eyes. It also lowered the previous stake record of 1:49.2 established by Philly Hanover in 2019. Odds On Racing campaigns Odds On Hail Mary.

As the daughter of Hall of Fame broodmare Sweet Future and a half sister to world champions Sweet Lou and Bettor Sweet, C Is For Cookie appeared destined for early success. But she missed her entire freshman season with an ankle injury. This year, she's on her way to fulfilling that promise, with seven wins in 10 starts and earnings of $126,734 for owner/breeder Birnam Wood Farms.

Yesterday, she moved first up from fourth for Aaron Merriman, put away the leader, Always B Naughty, and held off the late charge of Daffled Hanover to down her by a head in a career-fastest 1:50.1. My Little Captain earned show.

"I know she maybe doesn't have the credentials some of the others in here have, but she'd won six races this year," Merriman said. "This mare has a great family, and if you don't have to pull until after the five-eighths, it's worth giving them a shot. Her gait was a little bumpy, so I had to drive on her and keep the bit in her mouth at the same time."

$60,000 PA STALLION SERIES — 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACERS

Calliope Hanover, Hungry Lizzo and My Hungry Girl won splits in Saturday's sub-feature. Chris Page fashioned a stake double behind Hungry Lizzo and My Hungry Girl while Stay Hungry enjoyed a stallion sweep.

Calliope Hanover was asked to go much faster than she'd ever gone before, but the daughter of Stay Hungry—Castaway Hanover was up to the task, edging Nevertellmetheodds by a head in the lightning lane in 1:52. Falana Hanover completed the ticket.

"I was committed to the inside," said Mike Wilder, who drove Calliope Hanover for trainer Brad Buxton and owners Joellen Buxton, Harold Altman, Jr. and Vavlin Racing LLC. "Before I even reached the lightning lane, I knew I would have to go left. She's quick as a cat off the gate, and Brad has her rigged well. She hasn't seen those kinds of numbers before, but she did it like she's been doing it all her life."

Merriman and Page each piloted three winners on the 14-race card.

Live racing at The Meadows resumes Wednesday when the program features a $1,103.60 carryover in the Early Pentafecta (race 4). First post is 12:45 p.m.

Girl power in $200,000 Battle of Lake Erie at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Many storylines were in play leading to Saturday's (June 10) Battle of Lake Erie. The most significant storyline of the week happened to be Lauren Tritton, as she would try to become not only the first female to participate in Northfield's storied event but the first to win it. Tritton posted a heart-stopping performance, scoring an impressive win with Lochinvar Art A.

The race was immediately turned on its head, with Backstreet Shadow (Matt Kakaley) making a break before the start. As the gate opened, Ruthless Hanover (George Napolitano Jr.) left alertly down the center of the racetrack with Leonidas A (Austin Siegelman) and Little Rocket Man (John De Long) trying to defend inside position. Still, as they entered the first turn, Ruthless Hanover got rough momentarily, made a break, and was taken out of contention.

With the race's complexion changing, Leonidas A inherited the lead with This Is The Plan (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.), avoiding trouble in second. Getting to the quarter in :26.4, Siegelman would try to get a breather, but Little Rocket Man immediately began to apply pressure after tipping from third, bringing Lochinvar Art A with him.

"I didn't necessarily want to be parked out from the quarter but knew I had to get off the pylons," said an ecstatic Tritton.

Getting to the half in :54.2, Leonidas A was up by three-quarters of a length, with Little Rocket Man continuing to grind first over. The field was double-tiered, with four in and four out heading into the clubhouse turn for the final time. Not much changed into the backstretch, and heading to three-quarters, Tritton tipped Lochinvar Art A three deep as Little Rocket Man began to back through the field.

At the three-quarters in 1:21.4, Leonidas A braced for the challenge of Lochinvar Art but was overtaken at the head of the lane. Lochinvar Art A got to the lead and, through the stretch, drew off to win by 1-1/2 lengths in 1:50. Charlie May closed strongly to be second, while Leonidas A tired and finished third.

"It was all him tonight, he was getting tired on the corner a little bit, and he just kicked into another gear," said Tritton. "He's a champion."

Husband Shane echoed her sentiments, "The horse is so great; we have been waiting for this moment since being in the country."

Shane Tritton credited his wife's drive for the victory.

"I'm so proud of her. I wouldn't be here without her," Shane said.

Owned by Team Tritton Inc., Lochinvar Art A (Modern Art—Ponder In Paris) set a new lifetime mark with the win and pushed his career earnings to $1,285,493.

Backstreet Shadow pulled up shortly after the start. Speaking with trainer Travis Alexander following the race, he said, "We're unsure of what happened, but he is okay."

VIOLETS RAINBOW STANDS GROUND IN $50,000 MGM BUCKEYE DISTAFF

While driver Matt Kakaley didn't have much luck in the Battle of Lake Erie, he rebounded with Violets Rainbow in the $50,000 MGM Buckeye Distaff at MGM Northfield Park.

Kakaley, who had to work hard to get to the lead, wasted no time putting Violets Rainbow into play early, tackling McMarkle Sparkle (George Napolitano Jr.), who defended pylon position early, into the backstretch.

Getting to the half in :55.2, Ocean Music (Tyler Buter) began to apply pressure into the clubhouse turn for the final time.

Into the backstretch, Violets Rainbow kept foes at bay, leading by a length to three-quarters in 1:23.

As the field turned into the stretch, Kakaley kicked clear, putting away rivals to win by 1-3/4 lengths in 1:51. McMarkle Sparkle tried to rally but finished second, with Love Me Hill closing to be third.

Owned by Ian Fromowitz of Canada, the daughter of Art Official—Angels N Demons pushed her career earnings to $308,304, scoring her 18th victory for trainer Jared Bako.

Live racing resumes on Sunday evening at 6 p.m. MGM Northfield Park currently races on Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday. For more information on live racing and promotions, visit www.northfieldpark.com

NYSS sophomore trotters thrive at Tioga

Tioga Downs played host to two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old trotting fillies as well as 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Friday (June 9).

Cecil Hanover (Ake Svanstedt) was a gate-to-wire winner in the $57,000 first division for colts and geldings.

Cecil Hanover went straight to the front and led to the first quarter in :27.1. He slowed things down with a :30.1 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.2. Kilmister (Brian Sears) was first to make a move going first-up down the backstretch. Cecil Hanover breezed to three-quarters in 1:25.2.

As they reached the stretch Cecil Hanover made it a race for second getting the win in 1:52.4. Sevecheetah (Joe Bongiorno) was second best. Kilmister had to settle for third.

Cecil Hanover is a 3-year-old gelding by Chapter Seven—Columbia. Owned by trainer Svanstedt with SRF Stable and Midnight Sun. He is two-for-two this season. That was career win number three.

Crown (Sears) was awarded the victory in the $57,000 colts and geldings second division.

Chapercraz (Joe Bongiorno) was first to the quarter in :27.3 and first to the half in :56.1. He continued to show the way down the backstretch and led to three-quarters in 1:24.2.

As they went around the final turn Crown ($7.10) came up to challenge. Chapercraz and Crown battled shoulder to shoulder all the way down the stretch. Chapercraz got their first by a nose but was disqualified for a pylon infraction and placed second. Crown got the win in a lifetime best of 1:52.4. You Got It (Tyler Buter) finished third best.

Crown is a colt by Chapter Seven—Amour Heiress. He is owned by the SRF Stable and trained by Marcus Melander. It was his first win in 2023. He now has five career victories.

Instagram Model (Scott Zeron) breezed to an impressive win in the $59,200 first division for fillies.

Instagram Model ($2.20) is first to the quarter in :28.2. She used a :29 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.2. She glided to three-quarters in 1:26.

As they reached the stretch second place finisher Usosweet Blue Chip (Marcus Miller) went all out but Instagram Model was too strong and won in 1:54.1. On The House (Svanstedt) finished third.

Instagram Model is a filly by Chapter Seven—Check Out Trixie. She is owned by R Lynn Curry and trained by Annie Stoebe. It was her first win this season and her sixth career victory.

Sadie Hanover (Zeron) charged late to capture the $60,300 second division for fillies.

Kayleigh S (Sears) got the first call but Royal Filly (Buter) got by and led to the quarter in :27.2. She used a :28.3 second quarter to be first to the half in :56. Gigi Hanover (Svanstedt) came first-up to challenge and took a short lead to three-quarters in 1:24.1.

As they made the turn for home Sadie Hanover ($2.80) came flying like she was shot out of a cannon and blew right on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:52.4. Gigi Hanover had to settle for second. Kayleigh S was third.

Sadie Hanover is a filly by Chapter Seven—Southwind Percy. She is trained by Linda Toscano for owners Bay's Stable, Blue Ridge Stable, C. Iannacone, and G. Coco. She is four-for-four in 2023. She now owns five career victories.

'Ferrari' fabulous in Big M feature

Ari Ferrari J took some brutal pressure while on the front end but proved to have more than enough octane in his tank to prevail in a determined effort Friday night (June 9) at The Meadowlands while taking the overnight trotting feature.

After starting his season with three straight second-place finishes, the 3-year-old colt by Walner—Dream Child put up a lifetime-best 1:53.4 mile to get into the win column. Last week, he went a tough trip when sixth in the New Jersey Sire Stakes final, which was won by Air Power in 1:50.4, so Friday night, with the drop back in with non-winners of two, he was predictably bet down to 2-5.

Things didn't go as easily as his backers had hoped.

With Corey Callahan doing the driving, Ari Ferrari J was on the lead at the quarter in :28. Heading to the half the heavy favorite was heavily pressured by a first-over 79-1 longshot, Strongerwithlindy, as 2-1 second choice D'Apper swung three-wide with good momentum while Ari Ferrari J hit the half in :56.2.

D'Apper actually had a half-length edge on the chalk at the five-eighths and looked like a winner, but Ari Ferrari J refused to let that one get around him as the pair reached three-quarters in 1:23.4 on even terms. Ari Ferrari J then dug down for more, reclaiming the lead by 2½ lengths at the head of the stretch before going on to a five-length romp in a new lifetime-best 1:52. Devilish Hill rallied for second with D'Apper holding third.

"[Trainer] Tony [Alagna] has done a really good job with him," Callahan said. "He looks a little funny out there but he's done good work smoothing him out. I hated to park Smitty [Steve Smith, driving Strongerwithlindy] out, but with Lucas' [Wallin, driving Devilish Hill] horse right behind me, I just left him out there and it worked out."

Ari Ferrari J returned $2.80 to his backers while winning for the third time from 18 lifetime outings. His career earnings now stand at just a hair under $250,000 for owner Kenneth Jacobs.

OTTEN BY A NOSE: In the closest finish in the two-year history of the event, Jessica Otten edged past Ken Warkentin by $5 on night 3 of the Battle of The Meadowlands Masterminds handicapping contest with a winning wager in the eighth race to finish with $725 on the night.

Warkentin, whose lone hit was for $720 with a $100 Exacta play in the fifth race, seemingly had the competition wrapped up, but Otten's $100-win, $50-place bet on Texas Miki in the eighth gave her just enough to secure the victory.

The competition will take place for the next 16 live race nights, and on-track patrons who select the winning handicapper on a given card will have a chance to win a grand prize of $10,000. The drawing will take place on Hambletonian Day, Saturday, Aug. 5.

Otten also gave her fan's bankrolls a jolt when she correctly selected the Early 50-cent Pick-4, which returned $289.35.

A LITTLE MORE: Michael Annunziata had the red-hot hand, leading the trainer colony with three winners on the card. Todd McCarthy, Brett Beckwith, Andy Miller, Corey Callahan and Tony Beltrami all had two winners each. Beltrami gets the nod as the night's top pilot, as his pair of victories came from just four drives, all in Meadowlands Amateur Driving Club action. All-source handle totaled $2,743,797 on the 14-race program.

Two Central Ohio charities take home top prize at Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association Charity Night

Two Central Ohio charities left Eldorado Scioto Downs with big smiles and $10,000 checks as the winners at the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association's second charity night of the year. A total of ten charities benefited from the generosity of the Ohio horseman.

The charities participating in the event were paired with a horse in the ninth race Saturday, June 3. Each charity received a donation from the OHHA for participating, with the top three finishers receiving larger donations. First place received $10,000, second place received $5,000, and third place $3,000. All other finishers received $2,000 donations.

Haven House of Pickaway County and Warrior Bags cheered home Rose Run Xiled with Austin Hanners to claim victory. Haven House was paired with Rose Run Xiled in the draw that matched the charities with the horses. Warrior Bags was paired with King's Cruiser, who was scratched. That allowed Warrior Bags to choose which horse they would like to represent them in the race.

Haven House of Pickaway County provides an alternative to domestic abuse, violence, and sexual abuse by providing resources, shelter, and counseling to those in need, while Warrior Bags gives encouragement and assists those fighting cancer by sending them a leather tote filled with comforting and purposeful items.

Rose Run Xiled and Hanners took the pocket trip and grabbed the lead down the stretch to win by a length. Winning Charity Night is nothing new for Hanners. He drove the winner of the OHHA's first charity night of the year at Miami Valley Gaming and Raceway in April.

Beach Party with Dan Noble finished second for M-A-S-H Pantry and Resource Center earning the charity $5,000, while McThirsty with Kayne Kauffman finished third for the Pickaway County Special Olympics which received $3,000.

The other charities represented were the American Red Cross, Boys and Girls Clubs of Central Ohio, Crohn's and Colitis Foundation, Home For Families, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, and PBJ Connections.

A total of $40,000 was donated to the charities by the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association.

Breakfast with the Babies at The Meadowlands

Breakfast with the Babies, sponsored by Fashion Farms, had a beautiful Belmont Stakes Day Saturday morning (June 10) in which to take place. Short sleeves were the order of the day with sunny skies, temperatures in the low 70's and a mild breeze facing the horses in the homestretch.

Duke Of Walner (Tetrick) impressed in the last of the day's trotting races, put on the lead from the word go through comfortable fractions, the Walner colt responded willingly when asked and easily held the late moves of both Berra (A. Svanstedt) and Flying Kronos S (Sarah Svanstedt) at bay through a :28.2 end to the 1:59.2 mile. Bred by KR Breeding, LLC, the winner was a $90,000 Lexington buy for Berg Brothers Racing, Joe Sbrocco, Daniel Plouffe and Lucaswallinjafracingmyfab.

Trotting fillies opened the card with four across the track at the wire and Ruthian (Mark MacDonald) found a seam between horses late to poke through for the win in 2:00.3. A Tactical Landing filly trained by Ray Schnittker and owned by Louis Palumbo, she brought $21,000 at the Goshen sale last fall for breeders Steve Jones, M. Kinsey Arnold and Ted Gewertz. Scott Zeron cut the mile with Chapalonia who bore across the track late but held second.

The Menhammar Stuteri homebred Walner filly Greatladyoftennis (Mattias Melander) led all the way through even fractions, ending the 1:59.3 mile with a 29 second final quarter to hold off the mild inside rally of stablemate Date Night Hanover (Brian Sears). Marcus Melander trains both.

Sunkist Beauty (Ake Svanstedt) was an impressive winner for first crop sire Six Pack, cutting the mile and stepping home in a lively :28.1 for an open length 2:01 win over Internationalmodel (Zeron). Racing out of the Svanstedt stable, just like her sire, the $63,000 Lexington sale filly is owned by the trainer in partnership with Stall Kalmer. Kiefer Elite Bloodstock and Martin Michalik.

Domenico Cecere, house trainer for Lindy Farms, took the lines behind Coach Calhoun for his first start and drove him to a 2:00 win. Poised in the pocket as Lynam S (Sears) a Greenshoe half-brother to Joviality S, set even numbers, Cecere edged the Walner brother to Warrawee Xenia to the outside late and he responded willingly to get up. The winner was a $165,000 Lexington buy for Lindy Farms and Robert Rudolph. Warrawee Farms is the breeder.

Thinker Monkey, a $500,000 Lexington yearling brother to Gimpanzee, led all the way and shook off last turn pressure from a rival to finish a 2:01 mile with a :28.1 final quarter. My Way (Tetrick) and Sforza (Gingras) both were willing with late trot and in close attendance at the wire. The winner is owned by Howard Taylor, Judith Taylor, Daniel Plouffe and the breeder, Order By Stable and raced by the same team as his famous brother, Melander and Sears.

Crush Kill Destroy (Gingras) won the lone pacing race, closing it up nicely into the :28.2 end to the 1:56.3 mile. Per Engblom trains the Betterthancheddar colt for Evan Katz.

First annual Harness the Hope Charity Golf Tournament

Harness the Hope is excited to announce their first annual "Harness the Hope Golf Tournament" and the expansion of cancer fundraising events to three provinces (Ontario, PEI and now Nova Scotia in 2023). With the PEI team celebrating their fifth anniversary this year, we are elated to welcome the Nova Scotia racetracks and their dedicated volunteers this year.

Founded by the Dustin family over 18 years ago after their own personal diagnoses with breast cancer, Harness the Hope raises awareness and funds to support Breast Cancer Canada (formerly Breast Cancer Society of Canada) and Pink Pearl Canada. In addition, proceeds from the sale of their merchandise in 2023 enable them to provide care packages for patients receiving active cancer treatments.

GOLF TOURNAMENT DETAILS

The first annual Harness the Hope Charity Golf Tournament will take place on Wednesday (July 19) at Caradoc Sands Golf Club in Strathroy, ON. A 10 a.m. shotgun start with four-person scramble format will make for a day filled with outstanding prizes. A $5,000 hole-in-one contest, par 3 closest to the pin prizes, a $50,000 shootout contest and best dressed team prize are just some of the amazing features of the day. For more details and to register your team or sponsor, click here.

2023 EVENT DATES:

- Dresden Raceway – Sunday, July 9
- Hanover Raceway – Saturday, July 15
- First annual Golf Tournament – Wednesday, July 19
- Truro Raceway – Sunday, July 23

- Inverness Raceway – Wednesday, July 26
- Charlottetown Driving Park – Saturday, July 29
- Northside Downs – Saturday, Aug. 5
- Clinton Raceway – Sunday, Aug. 6
- Grand River Raceway – Friday, Aug. 18
- Leamington Raceway – Sunday, Sept. 24
- Western Fair Raceway – Friday, Oct. 20

“Each racetrack is graciously hosting us and participating in helping us to raise our fundraising goals this year,” said Kristy Dustin, Harness the Hope co-founder and breast cancer survivor. “It truly is a community effort within the harness racing community and there is never a shortage of generosity and sense of community. We are grateful that all those in our industry support our efforts year after year.”

Each Harness the Hope Day will feature a “best dressed in the backstretch contest” for racing participants to take part in. Fantastic prizes will be awarded to each winning “best dressed horse” and “best dressed groom” who display as much pink attire as possible.

Founders and volunteers will be present at each event with a fully stocked table of swag available. Patrons attending each event will also be entered to win prizes if they wear pink as a show of support.
