Ron Burke is locked and loaded heading into NA Cup

The trainer will contest Canada's top harness race with Louprint and Swingtown.

with DEBBIE LITTLE

With the Meadowlands Pace only a month away, trainer Ron Burke looks to be in a good spot to capture The Big M's signature race for the very first time.

"I've got good 3-year-olds this year; my 3-year-old colt pacers are solid," he said.

One of the two that Burke has eligible for this year's Pace is Louprint, the 7-5 morning-line favorite for Saturday's (June 14) 42nd edition of the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Burke sent a total of three colts — Louprint, Sippinonsearoc, and Swingtown — north of the border last week for the Cup eliminations, with both Louprint and Swingtown making the final.

"Louprint was perfect, everything went well," Burke said. "I thought [David Miller's] horse [Prince Hal Hanover] was really good, too, maybe even shockingly good, that David was to be able to back him out of a hole and get him going.

“I’ve said all along [Louprint is] the best horse I’ve had in a long time. I ain’t switching with anybody, that’s for sure.”

~ Ron Burke

“I don’t think Ronnie [Wrenn, Jr. driving Louprint] expected that he could get him going that fast. But I asked Ronnie, ‘Were you done?’ And he said ‘No,’ but he said, ‘David wasn’t either.’ So, I think both of those were really good.”

Following the race, Mohawk’s TV co-hosts, John Rallis and Randy Waples, were saying that Wrenn might have been a little surprised when he saw Miller coming up on his outside.

“Ronnie would say that he was surprised that David could get him backed out and already up that fast,” Burke said. “I think [Wrenn] knew as soon as he called on [Louprint], he would start digging. And he did, because if you watch the pace-out, [Prince Hal Hanover] doesn’t pace by him at any point.

“I think gamblers should really pay attention to that; you can see a lot in the pace-out. You can see who actually was tired at the wire and which horses weren’t tired at the wire. I’m telling you, we pay attention as much to that as we do to the finish, like what they look like after the wire. It tells you who’s fake finishing with pace and who’s really finishing with pace.”

Burke said Swingtown, who finished third in the first North America Cup elim, also raced well.

“He was one of the few ones that got stretched leaving and was around at the finish, so I was happy with that. I think he can be a little sharper.”

Burke was also happy with Swingtown drawing post 7 for the final.

“It’s a good post because he has options,” Burke said.

In regard to Sippinonsearoc, who finished sixth in the second Cup elimination, were it not for some bad racing luck, all three of Burke's colts might have made the final.

"His tire was flat from the half on," Burke said of Sippinonsearoc. "Timmy [Tetrack driving Fallout] got on his tire at the quarter and then it popped at the half, so, yeah, I really wasn't that surprised [that he didn't make the final]."

As far as his Cup competition, Burke said, "The horse that won the second division [Lite Up The World], people are a little bit enamored with the time. That's a good horse, but also that was the race they got to the half in :53. If you want to go in [1]:48, you got to get to the half fast. I thought it was a solid bunch of horses and I still think it is a solid bunch of horses."

Burke, who is looking for his second North America Cup victory, having won it in 2014 with JK Endofanera, couldn't have spoken better about Louprint, who will start from post 4, the winningest post in Cup history.

"I've said all along he's the best horse I've had in a long time," Burke said. "Like, I ain't switching with anybody, that's for sure."

As for Burke's other Meadowlands Pace eligible colt, Papi's Rocket, he's being aimed for the Messenger elims at Yonkers Raceway next weekend.

Even though Sippinonsearoc lost the opportunity to race in the Cup final, Burke said he wouldn't consider supplementing him to the Pace because he already has one of his own in the race.

To supplement to The Meadowlands Pace, one must write a check for approximately $70,000.

"Now you're spending money to race against yourself," Burke said.

Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC share ownership in Louprint with Phillip Collura and Lawrence Karr, and in Sippinonsearoc with R A S Racing LLC and Knox Services Inc.

With so many good male sophomore pacers, Burke has a good handle on who he'd like to send where, even for a race like the Little Brown Jug, that's still several months away.

"Because of Kentucky, the biggest question will be will I race Louprint on Sunday at Kentucky and then back Thursday at the Jug," Burke said. "Everybody says you can't do it. You can do it, you've just got to have the f---ing guts to try it."

"If he comes out of it alright on Sunday, I don't have to make the decision until Monday."

"The Jug is the Jug. For other people, it may not mean as much, but for me, who's won it and grew up close to it, it's pretty special to win. I can't see leaving our best horse at home if he's all right."

You heard it here: Miki And Minnie is better than Chantilly

North America Cup card thoughts and predictions.

by Brett Sturman

Headlined by Pepsi North America Cup #42, Saturday's (June 14) stakes-laden card at Woodbine Mohawk Park is set, as usual, to deliver the goods. From heavyweights meeting each other for the first time to others renewing their rivalries started as juveniles — and a couple fresh faces altogether — here's how I see the most high-profile races playing out.

Perfectly placed on the program as the race immediately before the North America Cup is the Fan Hanover, with the long-awaited showdown between Canada's 2024 Horse of the Year Chantilly against the U.S. Dan Patch winner Miki And Minnie from the 2-year-old pacing division. For me, the race raises the question if it can be considered an upset if a 6-5 morning line horse wins.

For all the buzz over Chantilly possibly going into the North America Cup, which was never realistic in my opinion, my thought has always been: Forget about the boys, can she even beat Miki And Minnie in her own division? Fortunately, all the speculation will end Saturday.

For as even as the two fillies are for all intents and purposes, it's been Chantilly who has garnered almost every single media headline this spring and summer. For all the buzz over Chantilly possibly going into the North America Cup, which was never realistic in my opinion, my thought has always been: Forget about the boys, can she even beat Miki And Minnie in her own division? Fortunately, all the speculation will end Saturday.

In looking at the total picture of both fillies objectively, I'll go out on a small limb and predict that Miki And Minnie will win in the Fan Hanover. Simply put, Miki And Minnie has been battle tested, and Saturday will be the first time that Chantilly is going to be challenged. How will she respond? While Woodbine Mohawk Park is the only track Chantilly has ever known, Miki And Minnie has consistently fought against open stakes competition at The Meadowlands, The Red Mile, last week at Mohawk and threw in a race for good measure last month at Pocono.

More important than just venues, Miki And Minnie has beaten better competition and under tougher circumstances. As an example, her Breeders Crown win when racing first over from post 9 was truly an exceptional race, as was her win in the Three Diamonds when she tracked down Rodeo Drive Deo to win and end her year in 1:49.2. Some of the best horses you could say Chantilly beat last year were The Last Martini and Can't See Me, and Miki And Minnie beat them both, as well.

Both top fillies couldn't have been more impressive in their eliminations last week, but that last quarter of :25.1 under minimal effort from Miki And Minnie shows just how monstrous she can be in her own right and it's for these reasons why I'm picking her to prevail in the Fan Hanover.

In chronological order for the other stakes, the Roses Are Red goes as race 3, isolated from all the other stakes later in the card presumably for the smaller sized field and a heavy favorite. The blame, if you want to call it that, falls on Twin B Joe Fresh who continues to be simply unbeatable.

A dress rehearsal for this stake played out last Saturday morning (June 7) at The Meadowlands when Twin B Joe Fresh, My Girl EJ and Aardie B Miki N all raced together in the same qualifier. In that race, Twin B Joe Fresh pulled clear from My Girl EJ who backed away somewhat from the pocket, with Aardie B Miki N actually coming on pretty strong at the end to make up good late ground. The Bluechip Matchmaker champion Aardie B Miki N lost for the first time this year to Twin B Joe Fresh in the Betsy Ross at Philadelphia, but that was always going to be an uphill battle that day from the outside post; this spot is more reasonable, and we'll see if she can put a scare into the champ.

In the Armbro Flight which kicks off the string of five stakes races starting in race 7, a 5-year-old mare by Ready Cash named Dial Square S, already a winner of her elimination last week, makes her third start since arriving from Sweden and is a welcomed newcomer to the older trotting mares division.

Earning nearly all her career money when being a strong second in last year's Group 1 Fame And Glory at Jagersro, Svanstedt introduces a new potential trotting sensation. A winner here in North America first out in the Ms Versatility two back in 1:51.3, she bested that last week when moving past M-M's Dream and holding off Emoji Hanover to win in 1:51.1.

The other Armbro Flight elimination produced a surprise result when Willys Home Run split horses late at odds of nearly 30-1 to just win over a second-over Drawn Impression. Both of those mares were making only their first start of the year, as was top contender Call Me Goo who tired late to finish third; all of whom certainly have the potential to be even stronger now for the final. But Dial Square S always looked confident last week and will be my selection to win and keep her North American unbeaten streak intact.

In the Mohawk Gold Cup, Brue Hanover has been nearly flawless this year and it took a debatable pylon disqualification in the Camluck Classic to temporarily derail his winning ways. He's already beaten many of those over the course of all those Mohawk preferred wins but this will be his toughest test to date.

Nijinsky's only try against Brue Hanover came when making his first start back this year and likewise, Abuckabett Hanover who won this race in 2023 had a big tactical disadvantage last week but closed strongly – either or both of those could present strong challenges to Brue Hanover. Ervin Hanover, barnmate to Brue Hanover, was elevated to first in that Camluck Classic race and will have another shot to finish ahead of his friend and rival while starting from the rail position in the Gold Cup. Oakwood Ardan IR comes off a win in The Meadowlands open where he went by Ruthless Hanover and held off others, and last year's Breeders Crown winner Coach Stefanos enters the fray as well.

Next up is the Goodtimes, a race last year that put Highland Kismet squarely on the Hambletonian map. So far, it remains to be seen what type of star quality can come out of the race. The odds-on favorite is going to be Emotion Legacy who trotted clear to a measured length-and-a-half win last week in his elimination over Eugene The Genius and Fadeaway Hanover when making his return to the races. A Breeders Crown elimination winner, as well as Champlain division winner, over this track last year, it'll be his race to win.

Like the Armbro Flight, the other Goodtimes elimination produced an upset winner at the near identical odds of 29-1. That's when Galen Erso was left alone on the front end through a half mile fraction of just :57 and lasted to the wire in a winning time of 1:53. Bluegrass and International Stallion Stake winner Gap Kronos made a bid but didn't seriously threaten but is another that could easily be better in his second start back. Odds-on favorite from that elimination Landing On Time found himself third-over but still quite a ways out of it before finding his best stride late to just run out of ground.

In the North America Cup, Dan Patch and Breeders Crown winner Louprint remains unbeaten on the year through four starts and has earned his role of Cup favorite, but this 3-year-old crop remains hyper competitive and talented.

In his 1:49.1 elimination win last week, Wrenn had to put in some late urgent reminders to keep Louprint going ahead in the face of closing rushes from both Prince Hal Hanover and Dandy Ideal. For the final, Prince Hal Hanover has the misfortune of drawing post 9 though Miller will try to put him in play early, while Dandy Ideal comes off that strong first-over try and lands a comfortable post 2. Likely second-choice Captain Optimistic delivered last week when coming first-over from fifth and was under a determined stretch drive to prevail by less than a length in 1:50.2. In that race, Joel And The Jets found room to rally down the inside and outraced his odds; longshot Fast Choice too had some late pace in traffic and now lands the rail. In that race, Swingtown was hard used to the lead being wide early to that :26.1 opening panel and could offer a very square price; completely playable.

The fastest elimination win went to Lite Up The World who launched a massive late rally from well out of it after seeing all the key players battle early and often throughout the mile; another lively pace would give him a big chance in the final. It's almost not fair Madden Oaks lands post 10 for the Cup final because he may have been the most impressive of anyone last week. Floated away to a third over position from post 8, he took matters into his own hands and quickly brushed three-wide around battling leaders to clear to the lead in a half-mile that went in :53.2. Taking further pressure by three-quarters he held very well and proved his late charge in the Somebeachsomewhere wasn't a fluke either. Picks: Swingtown, Prince Hal Hanover, Louprint.

Post positions drawn for the 42nd Pepsi North America Cup

by Grace Martin / Woodbine communications

Louprint, the expected favorite, landed post 4 for Saturday's (June 14) $1 million Pepsi North America Cup (Grade 1) at the post-position draw on Monday evening (June 9).

Elimination winners Lite Up The World, Captain Optimistic, and Louprint were guaranteed to land a post anywhere from 2 to 6. Lite Up The World landed post 5, Captain Optimistic post 6, and Louprint post 4.

With the fastest elimination time last Saturday of 1:48.3, Lite Up The World is trained by last year's Cup winner Anthony Beaton and is driven by James MacDonald, who is looking to score his first Cup.

"I think anyone that watched him early last year knew [Lite Up The World] was a top horse," said MacDonald at the post-position draw. "He was trending in the direction to be maybe a Louprint or that kind of horse, and it just didn't work out last year, but he's fresh. He's been finishing well every time he's raced. He's done it from the front, and he's done it from dead last now."

Captain Optimistic, who took home the 2024 Governor's Cup, is trained by two-time North America Cup winner Nancy Takter and will be driven by Dexter Dunn.

Louprint is last year's Breeders Crown winner, trained by Ron Burke and driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.

Fast Choice drew the rail. Fast Choice is driven by two-time Cup winner Scott Zeron and trained and owned by husband-and-wife Jared and Ashley Bako.

"I love this spot," Jared Bako said. "We've got Scott Zeron, one of the best drivers in the world. Scotty drives most of our horses in New York and he actually started this colt's career, and we had talked about it before, if we were in this situation, that's where we'd go."

"I love David [Miller]," said Moore. "He's a great guy, and I'm sure he'll help a lot to overcome that 9-hole that Prince Hal has. They're all going to be leaving in that race going for a million dollars, so hopefully they can work out a trip, and still have some left at the end."

Crack Shot, trained and driven by father-and-son duo Gregg and Doug McNair has post 8. Crack Shot is last year's Ontario Sires Stakes champion.

Swingtown, driven by Yannick Gingras and trained by Ron Burke, has post 7.

Dandy Ideal drew post 2. The Hunter Oakes trainee is driven by Jason Bartlett, who is making his Cup debut.

Also making their Pepsi North America Cup debut is driver Braxten Boyd and trainer Cameron Capone with Madden Oaks who has post 10.

Michael Copeland, CEO Woodbine Entertainment expressed his gratitude for the dedication of the racing community.

"We're very proud of the racing program here," Copeland said. "A lot of hard work from a lot of great people makes it happen. But it all culminates on the night that we're all going to have on Saturday. Thank you to the owners, the drivers, the trainers, all of the connections for everything that you do. "Congratulations on having the opportunity to race on Saturday night and best of luck to all of you."

The stakes record for the Pepsi North America Cup is 1:47.2, established in 2019 by Captain Crunch.

The Pepsi North America Cup is scheduled as race 11 (10:45 p.m. ET).

The $1 million Pepsi North America Cup is the feature race on a $2.5 million card of racing. The Fan Hanover, Roses Are Red, Armbr Flight, Goodtimes and Mohawk Gold Cup are all part of the rich program.

First-race post time is 6:35 p.m.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Heather Flaherty on making Pepsi North America Cup Night “pop” for on-track fans and bettors

by Melissa Keith

At Monday's (June 9) post-position draw for the Pepsi North America Cup, drawmaster Mark McKelvie made it clear that on Saturday night (June 14), Woodbine Mohawk Park will play host to one of North America's best cards of the season for both watching and wagering. Mohawk general manager Heather Flaherty told HRU that the on-track experience would be well worth the trip to Campbellville, ON, something that she and her team have been working towards in recent years.

Back on May 17, Canada's standardbred showplace hosted its annual fireworks and Family Fun Night. “Prior to COVID, ‘Fireworks’ was a very special night here at Woodbine Mohawk Park, so we were really happy over the last three years to bring it back, and really expose the track and all it has to offer to the community at large,” Flaherty said. “Having that free Family Fun Night, with magicians, and magic shows, and fun activities like face painting really just engages the community, with their families, to come out and be part of a celebration night... It's basically the unofficial kickoff to our summer events.”

While online and simulcast handle is expected to be significant, Flaherty said that there will be plenty of attractions on-site for both serious players and casual fans.

“Moving into Pepsi North America Cup Night, there's lots to offer,” she said. “There's lots of kids' crafts and fun activities that will be happening right here, in this events space [inside the grandstand]. Out on the apron, we've got line dancing, for our fun, active participants that will be here with us, along with just other places to enjoy our hospitality team's food and beverage, and the best live racing there is.”

The Mohawk GM noted that while wagering online is convenient, there are compelling reasons to get back to the track. Post-pandemic, there are fewer public gathering places where people, particularly men and seniors, can get together to enjoy a night out with friends. The concept of the “third place,” originally introduced by sociologist Ray Oldenburg, refers to physical locations away from home and work. A good third place promotes mental health and social well-being by offering the opportunity for casual, unpretentious, and welcoming interactions with others who are regulars. A racetrack often makes an excellent third place.

Melissa Keith

Flaherty said she agreed “100 per cent” with this idea.

“We know that [online wagering platforms] make it easy, but getting out, coming back to the track, and listening to the announcer bring those horses down the homestretch, right to the finish... It's the thunder; it's the roar of the crowd screaming; it's the energy that brings them back to the track,” Flaherty said.

According to Flaherty, the North America Cup card offers something for experienced bettors and those who are new to the game, especially if they attend in person. For some, it's even a romantic occasion. “It's a great night, whether it's date night for the first time, because there's a lot of those, or a wedding proposal; there is one coming,” she said. “It's exciting at Mohawk Park; being so close to the action makes it all worthwhile.”

“We have a special show for this weekend... that our broadcast team has designed and got ready for the light show. That’s part of the renovation that we did to our track lights, turning them into LED and adding in the color component for the show. So, it’s just like the Rogers Centre; it’s the same system and we love being able to bring on the horses with that light show.”

~ Heather Flaherty

Flaherty drew attention to the advantages of an evening out in Campbellville, where issues like parking are less of a concern.

“In the Harvest Kitchen, you have dining and entertainment,” she said. “It’s better than going to downtown Toronto for dinner and a show. This is where the live action is; it’s exciting, casual, and fun. We have a full buffet for 500 guests in the Harvest Kitchen on Saturday night, plus the hospitality around the track is making sure that if you’re here for the first time, you’ll want to come back over and over again.”

On-track attendance is not officially calculated for major harness racing events today, yet it’s obviously beneficial to any racetrack’s bottom line when the public shows up for dinner, drinks, and betting.

“This is the chance to remind everyone about how great it is,” Flaherty said. “We race five nights a week, so there’s lots of opportunity to come. Whether it’s a Monday night or a Saturday night, there’s still lots of action here at Woodbine Mohawk Park.”

Raised in Miramichi, NB, Flaherty said her interest in harness racing grew from early visits to Prince Edward Island with her family.

“When I got here [to Ontario], that’s when I really got to experience and love it all over again,” she said. Now in her position as Mohawk GM for three and a half years, Flaherty said “it feels like home.”

While there can be cynicism and jadedness about efforts to promote attendance and on-track handle today, Flaherty is refreshingly positive and customer-oriented.

“We are constantly looking ahead to try and find areas to improve or enhance,” she said. “We listen to our patrons and say, ‘Well, what do you want? What would bring you back, time and time again?’ As we gather that intel, and we can find the operating dollars to make those changes, that’s what we’ve been doing... The track is in the best condition it’s ever been. The infield looks fantastic. The grounds are beautiful. It’s a really great place to be right now, a wonderful setting for the Pepsi North America Cup 42nd edition.”

Flaherty said the light shows after race 7 on Saturday nights have been popular with the on-track crowd.

“We have a special show for this weekend... that our broadcast team has designed and got ready for the light show,” she said. “That’s part of the renovation that we did to our track lights, turning them into LED and adding in the color component for the show. So, it’s just like the Rogers Centre; it’s the same system and we love being able to bring on the horses with that light show.”

The LED lighting upgrade was installed in early 2023, in partnership with Musco Lighting.

Flaherty emphasized that visiting Mohawk offered a memorable experience not found online.

“You can get close up to the paddock,” she said. “You can go on paddock tours. The kids can go on a [jog cart] ride in between races. We have a standardbred horse out front for the kids and families to get to feed and pet a horse, and be right up front. We’re so proud to have people right here and our community partners... Whether you’re visiting a group in our Community Corner or just wanting to sign up for an HPI [wagering] account, there’s lots of ways to be engaged on-site at Mohawk Park.”

One of the attractions will be a chance to name the second foal of Winbak Farms of Canada broodmare Bikini Genie, who will be in attendance with her Betterthancheddar offspring. The 6-year-old Sunshine Beach mare previously raced for two years for trainer Blake MacIntosh, coincidentally winning her first-ever qualifier at Mohawk on June 12, 2021.

Flaherty said she hopes that racing fans old and new will join the fun at Mohawk Saturday, for an experience as sweet and effervescent as the namesake sponsor of the Pepsi North America Cup. “Doors open at 4:30,” she said.

North America Cup Night past and present

by Bob Heyden

Before the 2025 edition of Pepsi North America Cup Night gets underway, let's look at a few highlights from the past and consider what could happen this year.

THREE AND DUNN?

Dexter Dunn would likely have won his first three Fan Hanover starts if not for COVID in 2020. He debuted and was victorious in 2019 with Treacherous Reign (8-5) for Tony Alagna edging past 1-2 favorite Warrawee Ubeaut at the wire. In 2020, trainer Chantal Mitchell and driver Doug McNair handled Party Girl Hill to a convincing score for Dunn and trainer Chris Ryder. Dunn then doubled up in 2021 with Fire Start Hanover (8-5) getting the measure of 1-2 favorite Hot Mess Express four years ago. This year Dunn could get his hat trick with Miki And Minnie.

JEWEL OF THE MILE

Thirteen years ago, American Jewel didn't just set a new Fan Hanover stakes mark, she obliterated it. Her 1:48 2 was the first sub 1:50 effort in the 3YOFP stake.

EQUALLY BETTOR

Bettors Delight did something last year only done once before; win the North America Cup and then sire three more Cup winners. Jate Lobell won the Cup in 1987, and then as a sire won it with his first crop with Safely Kept (1992), his fourth crop with David's Pass (1995) and his sixth with Gothic Dream (1997). Bettors Delight took home first prize in 2001, but unlike "Jate" didn't sire a winner of the NA Cup until his 11th crop with Betting Line (2016), his 15th crop with Tall Dark Stranger (2020), and his 19th crop with Nijinsky (2024).

NOT BORN IN THE USA

In 2024, a big-time NA Cup oddity occurred. Not a single U.S. born driver got a check. The top five in order were: Louis-Philippe

Roy, Yannick Gingras, Sylvain Filion, Jody Jamieson, and Andy McCarthy.

RARE EARLY BIRTHDAY PRESENT

Four days before he turned the big 5-0 in 2006, Ron Pierce guided Total Truth to victory to become the rarest of the rare, by winning his first NA Cup after being inducted into the Hall of Fame (2005).

GIRL POWER

After Brenda Teague conditioned the 2006 winner Total Truth, the North America Cup floodgates for the ladies opened, with Casie Coleman winning with Sportswriter (2010) and Betting Line (2016), JoAnn Looney-King with Wakizashi Hanover (2015), Nancy Takter going back-to-back with Captain Crunch (2019) and Tall Dark Stranger (2020), Kathy Cecchin with Desperate Man (2021), and Linda Toscano with It's My Show (2023). Takter has a chance to score her third Cup win this year with Captain Optimistic.

THE ONE AND ONLY

Who is the only driver to win the NA Cup in both the 20th and 21st century? Mike Lachance with Safely Kept (1992), Straight Path (1998), and Bettors Delight (2001).

WON AND DONE

Every driver who won the NA Cup in the first seven editions (1984-90) were one and done: Dr. John Hayes, Dave Wall, Trevor Ritchie, Mark O'Mara, Yves Fillion, Steve Condren, and Bud Fritz.

DOUBLE, DOUBLE MACDONALD BROTHERS?

Mark MacDonald has already won the NA Cup with Sportswriter (2010) and the Meadowlands Pace with Lawless Shadow (2021), while his younger brother James MacDonald set the Meadowlands Pace standard last year with Legendary Hanover going 1:46.3. James looks for his first Cup this year with Lite Up The World.

HOME ALONE

Louprint is the lone homebred in the Cup this year, but, 13 years ago, it was a NA Cup homebred bonanza, with the top three finishers of 2012 all homebreds: Thinking Out Loud, Time To Roll, and Dapper Dude.

MORE MONEY?

Jason Bartlett is far out in front this year as the leading money-winning driver in North America by a $1.3 million margin. He's looking to bust through in the Cup.

GARDEN GROWN

Four NJ-breds head the 2025 NA Cup: Lite Up The World, Captain Optimistic, Dandy Ideal, and Joel And The Jets. Did somebody say Garden State steaks, oops, stakes?

WILL HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF

If you are near YouTube anytime soon, do yourself a favor and call up the 1994 Fan Hanover Stakes won by Hardie Hanover. She channeled her inner CR Kay Suzie/Its Fritz in a move for the ages. Sitting eighth past the quarter in a tentative flow, Hardie Hanover was launched/exploded three deep for an extended period then cleared near the half, opened three to four lengths and maintained it to the wire in a stakes best 1:52.4 for Tim Twaddle. Does somebody in this year's Fan Hanover have something similar up their sleeve?

Doug McNair has come full circle on Ontario-sired Pepsi North America Cup hopeful Crack Shot

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Driver Doug McNair can now admit he was wrong about Crack Shot, Ontario's biggest hope in Saturday's (June 14) $1 million Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"At the start of [last] year, I didn't really like the horse, to be honest with you," McNair said of the Ontario-sired son of 2001 NA Cup winner Bettors Delight.

Claus Andersen
Driver Doug McNair will attempt to win his first Pepsi North America Cup.

In fact, the driver said he couldn't understand why his father, Gregg — Crack Shot's trainer and part-owner — was so high on the horse as a baby after working with the pacer all winter in Florida.

"I didn't know what my dad was talking about," Doug said. "I qualified [Crack Shot], and I raced him, and I was like, 'Yeah, he's an alright horse, but he's not what you're thinking.' He said, 'I'm telling you; this is a fast, fast horse. He's as fast a colt as I've ever sat behind.'"

To say Doug's opinion of Crack Shot has changed is an understatement.

"I've loved him since his first start back from a Lexington qualifier [in September of] last year," Doug said. "He's just done nothing wrong. He's a little machine. He can race on the front, he can race from the middle, he's raced from the back. He's just so fast and carries his speed for so long."

"I watch him in the barn a little bit and nothing bothers him. He just lays down all day long. They wake him up to jog him and he eats lots. He's just easy on himself. I think that's what makes him so handy."

Gregg said Crack Shot is, "A heck of a nice horse to be around. He doesn't have that many quirks... When he gets turned, he's all business when you want him to go. Sometimes, he wanted to do it a little too quickly. That's why he had a little trouble getting going as a 2-year-old. He'd get a little rough-gaited when he was switching gears."

Crack Shot finished second in his North America Cup elimination last Saturday and now has a tough assignment out of post 8 in the final, but Doug said he thinks the horse has as good a shot as any in the 10-horse field which will go to post in race 11, scheduled to go off just before 11 p.m. The post for the first race of the 13-race card is 6:35 p.m.

COACH OF MEMORIAL CUP CHAMPION KNIGHTS BRINGS KARMA

It helps that the horse has some serious Ontario karma on his side.

Beyond being the only Ontario-sired horse in the race, Crack Shot's co-owner is Dale Hunter, a former NHL legend and the long-time coach of the Ontario Hockey League's (OHL) London Knights that just won the Memorial Cup to claim Canadian junior hockey supremacy. Hunter said the Knights' team bus will transport family, friends and, perhaps, a Knights player or two to Mohawk on Saturday to cheer on Crack Shot.

New Image Media

Crack Shot (Doug McNair) winning the SBOA final for sophomore pacing colts on May 17 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“Both hockey and horse racing draw your family and friends together,” Hunter said. “It’s hard to get everybody together, but you have to have a good reason and now our horse is racing in the biggest race, and they all want to come, which is awesome. We get to see each other and have fun again.”

Fittingly, it was family that led Hunter to Crack Shot in the first place. It was his father’s dying wish. Hunter has owned bits and pieces of mostly modest standardbreds for much of his adult life but has never had a horse with the talent of Crack Shot.

“We would always buy horses for $20,000, $30,000, in that range,” Hunter said. “But before my dad passed away, he said, ‘I left you a lot of money, go buy a decent horse.’”

That horse was Crack Shot, a horse bred by James Avritt, Sr. in Kentucky and sold for $205,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale exactly 21 days after Dick Hunter died on Sept. 12, 2023, at the age of 87.

“Just to get a horse to race [in the NA Cup elims] last week, he’d be saying, ‘Oh, we did pretty well,’” Dale said when asked what his father would say to see Crack Shot’s success. “Then to get to the big race, he would say, ‘I know this will never happen again. You better enjoy it.’ He would have been the first one waiting for the bus. He wouldn’t want to miss it. He would have been camped out... He loved horses, and we grew up with horses and it’s just fun to have all the family together. We’ll be telling stories about dad and everybody else. That’s what it is all about.”

The Hunters are one of Ontario’s greatest hockey families – all four of Dick’s sons played Major Junior A hockey and three of them played in the NHL.

In 1,407 NHL games over 19 seasons between 1980 and 1999 with the Quebec Nordiques, Washington Capitals and Colorado Avalanche, Dale scored 323 goals, had 697 assists, 1,020 points and 3,565 penalty minutes, which still ranks second all-time behind only Dave Williams’ 3,971 minutes. Dale is the only player in league history to have more than 1,000 points and over 3,000 penalty minutes.

As coach of the Knights, Dale has won five OHL titles and led the team to the Memorial Cup championship three times – 2005, 2016 and 2025. He is only the second coach in Canadian Hockey League history to have more than 1,000 wins to his credit.

MCNAIRS LOOKING FOR THEIR FIRST NA CUP VICTORY

The McNairs – who hail from Walkerton, ON, but now live in the Guelph area – are one of Ontario’s great harness racing families; yet, neither has won the Pepsi North America Cup.

Gregg has trained six horses that competed in the NA Cup. His best finish was in 1998 with Run To The Bank, who was third. Doug has driven in the Cup five times. His best finish was a fourth with Stay Hungry in 2018. The driver said he’d love to win the race for his father.

“He’s probably going to be put in the Hall of Fame whether he wins this race or not, but I think this would be a feather in his cap,” Doug said. “He’s a great trainer. He’s won a lot of major races, but this is the one he’s looking for. I’m still young. I’m only 35. I’m hoping I’ll be in this race for another, maybe, 15 or 20 years.”

I'm not saying that winning it wouldn't be a huge thrill for me, but I'd rather win it for my dad than win for anybody else."

Gregg said he knows how rare it is to have a horse talented enough to even contest the NA Cup and he doesn't take this year's opportunity for granted.

"I haven't raced in too many [NA Cups] lately," Gregg said. "I haven't had anything that I thought might be a contender for this... It doesn't come along very often that you have a horse decent enough to put in these kind of races."

Crack Shot – who has earned $333,049 lifetime and won both the Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final and Grassroots final at 2 – is also owned by tire magnate Frank Brundle of East Garafraxa, ON and George Kerr of Gowanstown, ON.

Brundle said he's sharing his love of horses with his daughter, Camille Brundle. The pair frequently visit Gregg's farm to watch the horses together.

"The North America Cup has always been her dream to win," Frank said of his daughter. "So, I know she's excited for it. I've never gone for this much money in my life. So, it's an exciting thing to do."

CRACK SHOT'S FAMILY IS TREMENDOUS

Speaking of families, Crack Shot's is a dandy.

His sire, Bettors Delight, while not Ontario-sired, is an Ontario legend produced in the province by trainer Scott McEneny for late owner John Grant. Beyond being an NA Cup and Little Brown Jug winner as part of an exceptional racing career, Bettors Delight was even better in the breeding shed. He is the top standardbred sire in history by earnings by a massive margin. His progeny have earned more than $336 million by United States Trotting Association accounting – $115 million more than the next closest stallion, Camluck, who stood his entire career in Ontario. Of the six Ontario-sired winners of the Pepsi North America Cup, Bettors Delight – who stood the last 10 years of his stallion career in Ontario – has sired three of them: Betting Line in 2016, Tall Dark Stranger in 2020 and Nijinsky in 2024.

Both Bettors Delight and Grant are enshrined in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame.

On the maternal side of Crack Shot's family, his dam, Beautyonthebeach, is a half-sister to Precocious Beauty, who is a three-quarter sister to 2010 NA Cup winner Sportswriter and is the dam of 2020 Cup winner Tall Dark Stranger.

Both Beautyonthebeach and Precocious Beauty were trained by Gregg McNair.

Now, father and son are hoping to harness the power of families to produce one of their greatest victories together. At 6-1 on the morning line, Crack Shot is the next best choice after the three elimination winners – Louprint (7-5), Lite Up The World (4-1) and Captain Optimistic (9-2).

Doug said the entire Crack Shot team are lucky to be there not just because it's so difficult to land an NA Cup horse, but because making the final was not looking promising turning for home in their elimination (watch the replay here).

"I was lucky to actually get through the inside," Doug said. "I thought I was in a good spot at the half in the last race and then in the last turn, we were probably in the worst spot. There was a hot tempo and all sorts of horses in front, and he was three wide quite a way. So, I really didn't know if we would get through to make the final anyway. So, it was just a bonus to get through to make the final. Of course, you want to draw better, but I think I've got such a good horse... Anybody that watched his race last week knows I didn't get room until the last eighth or so or 16th. I did do a lot of work early, too, with him. So, for him to have that much pace left down by the wire was a good feeling for me.

"I've got no pressure this week. We've got the 8-hole. He's a good horse, but we're not expected to win out of the 8. I think if he gets a different trip last week, I think he wins in :48 change... and then he draws inside from 2 to 6. Then we've got a lot of pressure... But, I still think I have one of the best horses in the race."

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

It's a long way from the early days of Crack Shot's 2-year-old season.

"Me and dad used to feud a little bit about it, but not too bad," Doug said. "I wanted him to geld [Crack Shot], because I just didn't think he was trying very hard. [My dad] didn't want to. He thought there was maybe something bothering him, and they figured out what it was. I'm glad he stuck with him."

Gregg jokes that Doug likely would have lost the drive if former Mohawk driver Mike Saftic had still been driving professionally. It was Saftic that first qualified Crack Shot and told Frank Brundle the pacer had talent.

"Something was pinching [Crack Shot]," Frank said. "He just wasn't feeling great... Gregg had a vet that he uses down in Kentucky. We shipped him down there, and they had the horse for a bit, found the spot, qualified him there, and then brought him back here. After that, he was just a champion.

"He just gives it so hard. He races on the front, races off the back. What I love about him now, he's just a small, little giant. He has a heart of gold. You see him race that last eighth-of-a-mile, he just sprints and sticks his head down and just goes. Having a horse like that who is all heart to finish the mile, I love it."

And now Doug McNair loves Crack Shot, too.

Lite Up The World offers Beaton chance at Cup repeat

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Trainer Anthony Beaton will have an opportunity to become the third trainer to win the Pepsi North America Cup in consecutive years this Saturday (June 14) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

After receiving the thrill of a lifetime with Nijinsky in last year's $1 million race, Beaton shows up to this year's showdown with Lite Up The World, a son of American Ideal that will be getting plenty of support following a last-to-first victory in his elimination.

Hot fractions set things up for a closer in last Saturday's second Cup elimination, but Lite Up The World didn't just fall into the victory, he made a statement by charging home in :26 for driver James MacDonald and winning by 2½ lengths in 1:48.3.

With increased notoriety thanks to his Cup elimination victory, Lite Up The World is displaying the potential that appeared possible in his limited 2-year-old starts.

"Lite Up The World he's been a very nice colt all along" Beaton said. "We had high expectations for him last year, but he just got sidelined by injury. We tried to get him back for the Breeders Crown at the end of the year, but where those colts were going, and them being more seasoned, we decided to shut him down and hoped he'd come back good this year and he's come back exceptional."

After three wins in four starts at 2, Lite Up The World started his sophomore season with impressive back-to-back victories to stamp himself as a Cup contender. His Grand Circuit debut in the Somebeachsomewhere Stakes on May 31 saw him get picked off late as the heavy favorite, which might've lightened his bandwagon a bit going into the Cup elim.

The wagering public that stuck with Lite Up The World were rewarded by an 8-1 price in last Saturday's victory.

Beaton's confidence in the colt being in a spot like the Cup certainly increased when getting back down to training this winter.

"He came back to us in January and I saw a huge difference in him," Beaton said. "He grew up and developed into a nice strong, good-looking colt. He just matured quite a bit. As we started training down, he showed he was back to where he was last year, which we were very hopeful for and we're heading into the Cup hopefully in the right direction."

New Image Media

This year's Cup experience will be a little different for Beaton with just the one starter after sending out the dynamic duo of Nijinsky and Legendary Hanover.

"Last year we had two headliners heading into the Cup and we thought we had a very good chance with either one," Beaton said. "Unfortunately, Legendary [Hanover] got caught first up, but he did tow Nijinsky into the race and Louis [Philippe Roy] got a great trip on Legendary's back and tipped out and got the job done for us, which was very exciting."

Nijinsky would continue to excel following the Cup, earning over $1.6 million for the season and finishing with 11 wins in 17 starts. Legendary Hanover did not sit in his stablemate's shadow, as he followed up the Cup with wins in the Meadowlands Pace and Cane Pace.

Legendary Hanover now stands stud, while Nijinsky has returned to the racetrack and will compete in the $100,000 Mohawk Gold Cup on Saturday.

Michael Burns

Lite Up The World (Anthony Beaton) prepping for the 2025 NA Cup.

Lite Up The World partners with driver MacDonald, who sat behind Legendary Hanover in last year's race. Beaton is hoping he can click with MacDonald for another major win.

"This year coming in we've got James and hopefully we can get James his North America Cup," Beaton said.

The owners of Lite Up The World are Mac and Carol Nichol, who purchased the colt for $95,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. The name Mac Nichol could appear in the Cup history book for a second time, as he co-owned 2016 winner Betting Line.

The Nichols are part of a wide team of supporters that have allowed Beaton and his team the opportunity to win and race in events like the North America Cup.

"Everyone's rooting for one another here," Beaton said. "The owners they trust us to take care of these horses, and they keep buying them every year and keep this wheel going. I'm fortunate that way."

A native of Nova Scotia, Beaton felt plenty of love from back home following Lite Up The World's elimination score, noting he had about 40 messages on his phone.

If Lite Up The World can find the winner's circle Saturday, Beaton would join Bill Robinson and Nancy Takter as the only trainers to win the North America Cup in back-to-back years.

Robinson accomplished the feat in 1993-94 with Presidential Ball and Cams Card Shark, while Takter scored the double in 2019-20 with Captain Crunch and Tall Dark Stranger.

"It would be pretty cool," Beaton said. "You're very fortunate to win one of these let alone two. If we can do it two years in a row, that would be awesome."

Lite Up The World starts from post-five in the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup.

Post time for Saturday's all-star card of racing is 6:35 p.m. The Pepsi North America Cup is carded as Race 11.

The full field for the Pepsi North America Cup is listed below:

Post — Horse — Driver — Trainer — Odds

1. Fast Choice — Scott Zeron — Jared Bako — 20-1
2. Dandy Ideal — Jason Bartlett — Hunter Oakes — 12-1
3. Joel And The Jets — Louis-Philippe Roy — Dr. Ian Moore — 20-1
4. Louprint — Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. — Ron Burke — 7-5
5. Lite Up The World — James MacDonald — Anthony Beaton — 4-1
6. Captain Optimistic — Dexter Dunn — Nancy Takter — 9-2
7. Swingtown — Yannick Gingras — Ron Burke — 15-1
8. Crack Shot — Doug McNair — Gregg McNair — 6-1
9. Prince Hal Hanover — David Miller — Dr. Ian Moore — 8-1
10. Madden Oaks — Braxten Boyd — Cameron Capone — 20-1

Kentucky River flows to victory in photo finish in Oslo Grand Prix

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (June 8) $200,000 Oslo Grand Prix over 2,100 meters became a two-horse-stretch duel where Daniel Redén's Kentucky River (Father Patrick) proved strongest after a tough first over trip.

The race started unfortunately as favorite San Moteur went off-stride from his post 1 behind the gate and basically at the same moment, both Bedazzled Sox and Great Skills followed the same track. So, with three horses out of the game, Per Nordström managed to send Önas Prince to the lead from post 10, which meant that Kentucky River and Örjan Kihlström had to race outside the leader.

Önas Prince and Kentucky River (trained by Per Nordström until the fall of 2023) battled down Bjerke racetrack's homestretch and no one seemed willing to give up the fight. After a long time studying the finish photo, it was determined the Kentucky River, at last, got his big win in a Group 1 race and he did it in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles.

Önas Prince was second, Devilish Hill third.

GINOSTRABLIIGI BACK IN THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

The winning streak ended abruptly in Sweden, at Solvalla, during the weekend of Elitloppet, but on Saturday (June 7) night, Philippe Allaire's talented 3-year-old Ginostrabliggi (Muscle Hill) found the winning path again.

Ginostrabliggi came to Solvalla undefeated after eight starts and after the runner up-performance in Sweden, Allaire had the $165,000 Gran Premio Nazionale in Milan as his next target.

Paired with Gabriele Gelormini, Ginostrabliggi controlled the race from the lead and easily claimed the Group 1 victory in a mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.3 miles.

The $73,000 fillies' division went to Alessandro Gocciadoro and his Gioconda Jet (Maharajah), who had her nose first at the wire after a serious challenge from pocket runner Giawa Wise L.

Gioconda Jet's mile rate over 1,600 meters was 1:55.3.

TOP TROTTERS PAINT SATURDAY IN GOLD

As usual at this time of the year, the sun never goes down in northern Europe and traditionally, Boden in the north of Sweden, will play host to the $200,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris. The race is scheduled with a post time about one hour before midnight, which makes it possible for trainers and drivers to first compete in Kouvola, Finland where the $180,000 Kymi Grand Prix is held earlier the same day.

Daniel Wäjersten, Alessandro Gocciadoro, Mats E. Djuse, Rikard N. Skoglund and Björn Goop will all compete in the two top races and in Kouvola, and Wäjersten is on the hunt for his second win in a row with his Borups Victory.

The Australian entry in Elitloppet, The Locomotive, is still spending his time in Sweden and his first race after Solvalla's big event will be in Boden. The Locomotive's connections will most certainly experience an unusual show, especially if the sun shines in Boden on Saturday night.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Leap To Fame will be favored in Inter Dominion pacing series, but the trotting series is a head-scratcher

by Adam Hamilton

Down Under's most iconic event, the Inter Dominion, is just weeks away.

The two-week series has had a makeover and a significant prize money injection, headlined by a $1 million pacing final and $500,000 trotting final. Both are at Brisbane's Albion Park on July 19.

The grueling format of three rounds of qualifying heats into the grand finals has been reduced – as much to suit the modern breed – to just two rounds of heats. The first round is on July 5.

The two divisions could not be more different.

In the pacing series, it is all about the amazing Leap To Fame. He's aiming for his second Inter Dominion title, having won the last final Brisbane hosted back in December 2023.

Even bigger, victory in the final will make Leap To Fame the richest Down Under pacer of all time.

That's some feat if he can do it.

And Leap To Fame is a raging hot favorite to do so. Even this far out, he's only paying $1.40 for a $1 bet.

If there is a danger, the only possible one looks to come from the horse who upstaged him in the Miracle Mile in March, Don Hugo.

But the Inter Dominion final is no mile race. In fact, the daunting distance of 3,157 meters makes it almost two miles.

And Leap To Fame has easily beaten home Don Hugo in their two clashes beyond a mile.

Throw in the fact that this series is in Leap To Fame's backyard and entirely run at his favorite track and it really is his series to lose.

Then there is the trotting series.

What a contrasting story and what a difference 12 months makes.

The champ has retired. The mighty Just Believe, who won the 2022 and 2023 finals, ran his last race late last year when injuries finally started to catch up with him.

The Locomotive, who made the most of Just Believe's absence, to win last December's Sydney Inter Dominion in dominant fashion, is missing.

The 5-year-old is in Sweden where he ran sixth in a heat of the iconic Elitloppet late last month and tackles his second Swedish race, the Stora Pris, in Boden this weekend.

The young star, Keayang Zahara, isn't going to this Brisbane series.

She won her 15 starts and then tasted defeat for the first time when run down late by Susan Is Her Name and had to be content with second placing in the Group 1 Macarthur Mile at Menangle on May 10.

The return trip to Sydney and hard run in near national record time knocked her around, so connections have decided to give her an easier 2025 and build towards the mega races next year.

She's just 4 and is worth the investment of time now.

Susan Is Her Name won't be there, either. She suffered a broken hock soon after ending Keayang Zahara's streak and is recovering.

The two-week [Inter Dominion] series has had a makeover and a significant prize money injection, headlined by a $1 million pacing final and $500,000 trotting final. Both are at Brisbane's Albion Park on July 19. The grueling format of three rounds of qualifying heats into the grand finals has been reduced – as much to suit the modern breed – to just two rounds of heats.

“Cutting [the Inter Dominion series] back from three rounds of heats to just two was a big part of the decision [to enter Oscar Bonavena]. He just seems so well in himself, we felt we had to give it a crack.”

~ Nathan Purdon

Keayang Zahara's stablemate, Keayang Chucky, who finished second to The Locomotive in last year's final, is another notable absentee this year. He's having a break after a busy start to the year.

It leaves a fascinating jigsaw puzzle of veterans, injury-plagued stars, emerging talents and enigmas.

This is one tricky trotting series to predict.

If there is a top seed, it is probably Arcee Phoenix. Chris Svanosio's stable star has always looked like the next trotting star.

After finishing fourth behind Just Believe, Callmethe breeze and Queen Elida in the 2024 TAB Trot in Cambridge, NZ, he returned this year and won it.

The knockers will say it was a much easier race with the likes of Just Believe and Callmethe breeze not in it, but there's no doubt Arcee Phoenix is a more complete package now.

The race Arcee Phoenix won back on April 4 could be the making of him.

Although he hasn't raced since, Arcee Phoenix turned plenty of heads with a sparkling Melton trial win last Tuesday.

He left Callmethe breeze in his wake, adding to the query around the former multiple European Group 1 winner and 2024 Great Southern Star champion.

The entire has not raced since ongoing hoof issues flared again last November. In the words of trainer Andy Gath: "He's giving us our share of challenges."

Gath has produced some remarkable training feats over the years, if he can peak Callmethe breeze in time and win this trotting final, it may top them all.

Then there is old Oscar Bonavena. Finally, as a 9-year-old, one of the fastest and most talented trotters this part of the world has seen, will tackle his first Inter Dominion series.

It's remarkable to think he won a support race on the night his then stablemate, Winterfell, won the 2019 Auckland Inter Dominion final.

Despite a string of injuries, Hall of Fame trainer Mark Purdon and his son, Nathan, have decided to give this Brisbane series a crack with old Oscar.

"Cutting it back from three rounds of heats to just two was a big part of the decision," Nathan Purdon said. "He just seems so well in himself, we felt we had to give it a crack."

Mark Purdon already holds the training and driving records in Inter Dominion finals with nine and seven, respectively.

It's great to have him back part of the series, having not done so since he co-trained both the pacing (Ultimate Sniper) and trotting finals in 2019 with then partner, Natalie Rasmussen.

The other big gun Kiwi in the series is young gun Bet N Win. He's a 5-year-old with it all ahead of him.

Bet N Win essentially booked his trip to Brisbane when he returned to his best and brilliantly won the time-honored Rowe Cup in Auckland, last month.

Some say he might be a year away on the score of maturity, but as outlined, this series is up for grabs.

The other key players look to be Gus and London To A Brick.

Both ooze talent, but have their quirks.

Gus and London To A Brick contested last December's Sydney Inter Dominion, but made mistakes and were scratched during the qualifying heats.

This will be Gus' third Inter Dominion. He ran 10th when raw and almost uncontrollable in the 2023 series won by Just Believe.

Other than Oscar Bonavena, there is no more explosive trotter in this year's series.

London To A Brick, who boasts 15 wins from just 36 starts, has built superbly this campaign and looks back to his best at the right time.

Arcee Phoenix is the trotter with the least question marks, but there is such a mix of talent, any of the six key players of the series could win it.

And that's exciting.

Mr Walner Fashion (Todd McCarthy) winning at The Meadowlands.

New Jersey

Mr Walner Fashion flashing winning style

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

A field of 10 Hambletonian-eligible trotters will go behind the starting gate tonight (June 13) in the $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes championship for 3-year-old male trotters at The Meadowlands. The lineup includes three of this season's four fastest sophomore boys: Mr Walner Fashion, Mountcastle and Onajetplane.

The morning-line favorite, Mr Walner Fashion at 3-1, heads to the race 2-for-2 this year and is coming off a 1:51.2 score in a $25,000 second-round NJSS division June 6 at The Big M. The mark is tied for the season's best; Mountcastle also trotted 1:51.2 in his NJSS prelim later that same night. Both horses won by a head.

Mr Walner Fashion showed ability last year – he came a last quarter in :26 to finish a head behind eventual Dan Patch Award-winner Maryland in his career debut – but went off-stride in three of five starts for the season. After making a break in a qualifier on May 2 this year, trainer Jim Campbell put trotting hobbles on the gelding.

“Since we’ve added them, they just seem to steady him a little bit,” Campbell said. “For some horses, they feel them there, and it keeps them paying attention to what they’re supposed to be doing. The speed has always been there, it’s just been a question of getting him to mind his manners and put everything together.”

Campbell recognized assistant Manny Quevedo for his work with Mr Walner Fashion in the offseason, teaching the son of Walner—Cooler Schooner to relax and follow horses.

“When we started training him back, our main focus was to work on his manners and keep him a little bit calmer,” Campbell said. “Manny worked with him all winter long. He did a tremendous job with him to get him to where his manners are under control. There has been a big difference this year. Manny deserves the credit for that.”

Mr Walner Fashion was bred by owner Jules Siegel’s Fashion Farms. He is a half-brother to Real Cool Sam, a Dan Patch Award-winner in 2019. His mom, Cooler Schooner, was a world-record-setter and full sister to Dan Patch Award-winner Broadway Schooner, who herself produced two-time Dan Patch honoree Broadway Donna and 2022 Hambletonian Oaks winner Fashion Schooner.

Tonight, Mr Walner Fashion will leave from post 7 with Todd McCarthy in the sulky.

“He’s got a good attitude,” Campbell said about Mr Walner Fashion. “When Todd shows him racetrack, he wants to pass horses. Obviously, he's got the speed; it does come naturally to him. But, this year, he's made himself pretty handy. Todd can pretty much do whatever he wants with him right now.

"He's still got a long way to go. It's going to be a good test for him this weekend. As the year goes on, everyone's horses have got to start bringing their 'A' game, and he's no exception. He's got to bring an 'A' game to it."

Onajetplane, who won his seasonal debut June 6 with a 1:52.1 score in the NJSS prelims, is the 7-2 second choice on the morning line. He will leave from post 2 with Andy McCarthy driving for trainer Noel Daley. His mark puts him behind Mr Walner Fashion and Mountcastle (and tied with Canada's Emoticon Legacy) on the sophomore boys' speed list.

Mountcastle, starting from post 3 with Scott Zeron driving for trainer Marcus Melander, is 4-1 on the morning line. Hidalgo (post 4, Yannick Gingras, Ron Burke) and Top Gun Hanover (post 8, David Miller, Nancy Takter) are both 9-2.

Hidalgo was second behind Mr Walner Fashion last week and Top Gun Hanover was runner-up to Mountcastle.

Onajetplane, Mr Walner Fashion and Hidalgo occupy spots 8-9-10, respectively, on Ken Warkentin's Road to the Hambletonian Top 10. The 100th edition of the Hambletonian Stakes is Aug. 2 at The Meadowlands.

Hidalgo, a multiple-stakes-winner who banked $200,575 last year, is another horse to recently add trotting hobbles. He made breaks in his first two races this season but has a 1:53.1 triumph and his near-miss setback to Mr Walner Fashion since then.

"He hasn't been sure of what he's doing, but now it seems like he's getting it," trainer Burke said. "I don't think he's a horse that will have to wear them his whole career, I just think he had lost a little faith in himself. Now, it seems like he knows he can stay at it even when he's going the high, high speed."

"It seems like every week he's getting more confident, and if Yannick can turn him loose in the final, I think that will be a big difference."

On tonight's card, The Meadowlands also hosts Graduate Series events for 4-year-old pacers and trotters (including the seasonal debut of two-time Dan Patch Award-winning pacer Captain Albano) and the $225,000 final of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 3-year-old female trotters.

What A Bid Hanover, who captured last year's Goldsmith Maid Stakes, is the 7-2 morning-line favorite in the NJSS championship. She will leave from post 2 with trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt.

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. (EDT) at The Meadowlands. For free TrackMaster past performances for The Big M, visit the track's website here.

Burke wins 11 of 12 freshmen qualifiers at Gaitway

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Ron Burke sent out nearly three dozen 2-year-olds for their first action in qualifiers Wednesday (June 11) at Gaitway Farm, resulting in 11 winners in the 12 events for the freshmen. Among the trainer's group was pacing colt Another C Note, who produced the day's fastest mile.

Yannick Gingras drove 10 of Burke's winners while Scott Zeron was in the sulky for the remaining one. The only non-Burke winner was pacing colt Apocalypsebluechip, who was guided to victory by trainer Joe Bongiorno.

Another C Note, a son of Captaintreacherous—Kate Can't Wait, stopped the timer in 1:55.2 in the first of four qualifiers for pacing colts. Another C Note was bred by Let It Ride Stables, which shares ownership with Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, and Scott Dillon.

Al Papi was just one-fifth of a second off his stablemate's time, winning in 1:55.3. The homebred son of Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy is owned by Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, Larry Karr, and Weaver Bruscelli.

Ubrute (Tall Dark Stranger—Warrawee Ubeaut) posted a 1:57.2 victory (with :26 last quarter) for Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable, Crawford Farms Racing, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, and Phil Collura. The same group bred the colt. Warrawee Ubeaut was a two-time Dan Patch Award winner, and the family also includes O'Brien Award winner Warrawee Needy.

Ken Weingartner / USTA

Another C Note (Yannick Gingras) winning in 1:55.2 at Gaitway Farm.

Bongiorno's Apocalypsebluechip (Papi Rob Hanover—Queen Of Darkness) also triumphed in 1:57.2. He was purchased for $100,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Joseph Bongiorno LLC, and Don Latore. He was bred by Blue Chip Bloodstock, Stephen Demeter, and Stephen Giagni. The colt's family includes 2017 Pacer of the Year Downbytheseaside.

Kissedbyastranger (Tall Dark Stranger—Kissinyougoodbye) was the fastest pacing filly, with a time of 1:56.1. She was bred by owners Thomas Dillon and Scott Dillon. Her family includes Hall of Famer Always B Miki.

She's A Bulldog (Bulldog Hanover—Band Stand) and Sandyboots Yankee (Always B Miki—A Beach Cowgirl) were next on the list, both winning in 1:56.3. She's A Bulldog is a homebred for owner Brad Grant. Sandyboots Yankee was purchased for $30,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura. She was bred by Yankeeland Partners.

Winning the remaining event for the pacing fillies was With The Fur (Tall Dark Stranger—Apple Bottom Jeans) in 1:56.4 for owner Howard Taylor, who bred the filly with Robert Cooper Stables and Ed Gold. She was purchased for $40,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Zeron drove the day's fastest trotting colt, piloting Maga Hill (Muscle Hill—Goo Doo Doll) to victory in 1:59.1. Bred by Frank Canzone, he is owned by Zippett Racing Stable and Bill Elliott.

In the two remaining qualifiers for trotting colts, Who's Eyes Blues (Chapter Seven—Behindblueeyes) won in 2:00 and AI (Chapter Seven—Image Of Bee) won in 2:00.2.

Who's Eyes Blues was purchased for $125,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Hatfield Stables, and Weaver Brusceci. He was bred by Fair Winds Farm. AI was purchased for $150,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services Inc., and Weaver Brusceci. He was bred by Steve Jones. His second dam is Hall of Famer Bee A Magician.

Completing the list of Wednesday winners was trotting filly Atlantic Summer (Captain Corey—Perfect Summer K), who scored in 1:59 for owners Burke Racing, James Simpson, Larry Karr, and Weaver Brusceci. Bred by Winning Key Inc., she was purchased for $50,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale.

"Atlantic Summer is a filly we've loved the whole way training down," Burke said. "Ubrute is a really good colt. The Tall Dark Strangers, I had four qualify today that looked really good. Overall, I thought it was very good."

Gaitway will again host qualifiers for 2-year-olds on June 18 and June 25.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

MacDonald, Schnittker feast at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek / Buffalo Raceway

Driver Mark MacDonald and trainer Ray Schnittker had a feast on Wednesday afternoon (June 11) at Buffalo Raceway. The pair had an appetizer of three victories in the $20,000 Excelsior events for the 3-year-old filly pacers then had the main course by having Send It Down Slim ($3) take the $113,400 New York Sire Stakes giving them a clean sweep of races.

A smiling MacDonald said of his day after taking the win aboard Send It Down Slim, "Yeah, it was a pretty good day and a good day for the horses too."

In The New York Sire Stakes for the sophomore filly pacers, it was a small field of just four ladies, but they sure did provide for an exciting race.

The action was uneventful for the first three panels as Chanceoflightning (Jim Morrill, Jr.) tossed up fractions of :28.1, :58 and 1:27.2 over the fast track. But the race began in earnest the last quarter mile.

Turning for home, Chanceoflightning had a diminishing lead but Send It Down Slim was able to dart into the passing lane while Hurrikane Marigold (Drew Monti) took aim on the outside. Chanceoflightning didn't waver much in the lane but just enough to let Send It Down Slim nudge her way ahead approaching the finish line. A three-way photo had Send It Down Slim topping a charging Hurrikane Marigold by a head while Chanceoflightning was a close third in the event that went in 1:55.4.

MacDonald said while it was a smooth trip, there was an anxious moment during the race stating, "She [Send It Down Slim] tried to jump a shadow."

Owned by the Grozcona Racing Stable and trained by Schnittker, Send It Down Slim (Huntsville—Rockinsangria) has now produced two victories in four tries on the season, pushing her seasonal bankroll to $80,275 and to $248,812 lifetime.

The MacDonald-Schnittker pairing got things going early in the Excelsior as Huntingfortreasure ($2.10) topped Emmie One (Monti) by 2½ lengths in 1:57.1. Cervi ($2.90) was next up and she held on to beat Queen Of Egypt (Joseph Chindano, Jr.) by a head in 1:57.2. Bronx Mixer ($3.30) finished the Excelsior sweep with a 1½ score over Dressed To Kill (Braxten Boyd) in 1:55.

Besides MacDonald's heroics, Morrill, Jr. completed the day with two victories while David McNeight III doubled. Cassandra Johnson finished with a training double.

Racing will return this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with a 14-race card.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Burke doubles up in Ohio Sires Stakes at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Trainer Ron Burke took home victories in both of the $65,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers on Saturday (June 7) at MGM Northfield Park.

Rick Wink was taken back into third, allowing Extra Suds and Jon I Love Dat to duel for the lead. Extra Suds worked past Jon I Love Dat entering the backstretch getting to the quarter in :27.2.

Extra Suds, the 3-year-old Pinto by Lather Up, got to the half in :55 with the field in straight alignment.

With three-eighths-of-a-mile left to pace, heavy favorite Rick Wink was given the green light from Page and the response was instant as he powered past to the lead before three-quarters in 1:22.4.

Through the stretch, Rick Wink was hand driven winning by 2¼ lengths in 1:50.

Bred by Larry Miller, and owned by Burke Racing Stable, R A S Racing & Knox Services, and J&T Silva-Purnel&Libby, the 3-year-old colt by Bit Of A Legend N now has career earnings of $340,750.

In the second division, stablemate Fear The Heat, after being parked for part of the first quarter mile, scored an impressive 1½-length victory.

Downbythewater (Chris Lems) sprinted off the wings from post 7, he ended up three deep outside of Unique Catch (Matt Kakaley) and Billion (Kayne Kauffman) around the first turn.

Entering the backstretch, Lems asked Downbythewater to go forward, and he responded powering past Unique Catch.

That lead, however, was short lived as Fear The Hate (Chris Page) was guided to the outside as worked to challenge Downbythewater for the lead past a :27.2 first quarter.

Page was able to clear with Fear The Hate entering the far turn for the first time.

Fear The Hate got a second quarter breather, getting to the half in :56, with Seaside Deli (Aaron Merriman) and the grey Mama Said Zip It (Jeremy Smith) rolling on the outside first and second over, respectively.

At the three-quarters in 1:24, Fear The Hate had no challenges and that would not change in the final quarter, and he drew off to win by 1½ lengths in 1:52.1.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci and Knox Services, the 3-year-old by Fear The Dragon improved to $110,750 in career earnings.

Emerald Highlands Farms bred Fear The Hate.

LT LOVERBOY, BATTLE HILL DAZZLE IN OHIO SIRES STAKES AT MGM NORTHFIELD PARK

LT Loverboy and Battle Hill won their respective $65,000 Ohio Sires Stakes divisions for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters on Saturday (June 7) at MGM Northfield Park.

Sires stakes champion LT Loverboy (Brett Miller) fired quickly off the wings clearing Hilltop Sonar (Chris Page) midway through the first turn.

From there, the race was just about over.

LT Loverboy set up shop on the lead past a quick opening quarter in :27.3.

He led the field in straight alignment past a :56.2 half and as the field entered the backstretch, Vekna (Kayne Kauffman) was guided to the outside to take on LT Loverboy.

At three-quarters in 1:24.4, LT Loverboy kicked clear from Hilltop Sonar and Vekna, drawing off through the stretch under confident handling from Brett Miller in 1:52.4.

Trained by Daren Harvey, and owned by Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing LLC, the 3-year-old gelding by Long Tom earned his eighth career win, pushing his earnings to $388,905.

Burkholder trainee Battle Hill proved post 8 wasn't an issue as he scored a big victory in the second $65,000 division.

Oso Fast (Matt Kakaley) and Whats Shakin (Ronnie Gillespie) both left alertly and lined up into the initial turn. Scrappys Love (Dan Noble) tried to leave with them but broke in the first turn forcing Battle Hill (Chris Lems) three-wide around the turn.

Battle Hill continued that first-over march and was able to work past Oso Fast after a :28.4 first quarter.

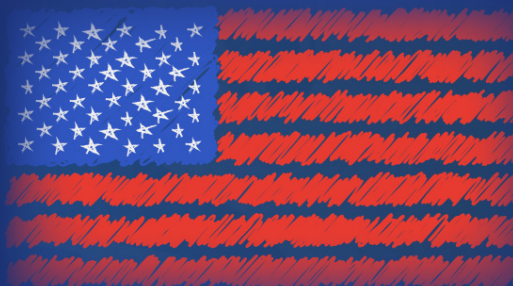

Lems got a :29 breather in the second quarter as he began to create some separation from rivals.

Into the backstretch, Jet Wings (Brett Miller) came to the outside and would duel with Oso Fast but was never able to get to Battle Hill who drew off by $2\frac{3}{4}$ lengths at three-quarters in 1:26.1.

Through the stretch, Battle Hill was on cruise control, winning by two lengths in 1:54.4. Jet Wings was second, while Whats Shakin had to settle for third.

Owned by William Hart and bred by Galliers Racing, the 3-year-old gelding by Marseille now has earnings of $268,250.

Pennsylvania SIRE STAKES REPORT

Go Dog Go top dog among Pocono sophomores

by PHHA / Pocono

A total of $185,066 was on the line in competition for Pennsylvania-sired 3-year-old trotting males Sunday night (June 8) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pocono, as the second prelim leg saw two divisions of PA Sire Stakes and four cuts of PA Stallion Series action contested over a track that was rated “sloppy” for all of the stakes races.

No horse was able to repeat in the Sire Stakes, but the early leader in the section would now have to be Go Dog Go, a Greenshoe colt who was third in the Breeders Crown final and Valley Victory last year and who made a smashing 2025 debut to win in 1:52.3 – equaling the fastest trotting mile of the year at Pocono, including older stock, despite the sloppy going.

Driven by Todd McCarthy for trainer Carter Pinske and owners Wiesman Farms LLC and Al Libfeld, Go Dog Go sat third behind fractions of :28.1, :57.1, and 1:25.1 before being unleashed, and the powerful trotter took it from there to win by 4¾ lengths, stepping his own back fractions in :55 - :27 while lowering his mark. And perhaps the scariest news of all? “He had the earplugs still in at the wire.”

In the other Sires Stakes section, another son of Greenshoe, the colt Meshuggah, after seconds in a Sire Stake and an All-Stars division, chalked up his first win of the year while reducing his speed badge to 1:54.1. Scott Zeron, the evening’s big winner with four visits to the winner’s circle, worked out a pocket trip behind Big Shoes, a first-round PASS winner who had moved to the lead past the :28.1 opener and then posted middle clockings of :58 and 1:26.4.

Meshuggah hit high gear at the third pole and proved game while going his own back fractions in :56 – 27.1 to win a close contest. He triumphed by a length, with Greenma photoing out The Fix Is In, the other first-round winner, for second, ahead of Big Shoes and Frank Leahy, all within two lengths at the wire. Meshuggah is trained by Marcus Melander for Courant Inc.

Three of the four Stallion Series divisions were clocked in 1:55.1, but it was the one that went in 1:55.2 that produced the only StS two-time winner – the Bar Hopping gelding Gimlet Hanover, trained and owned by D. R. Ackerman and driven by Jim Marohn, Jr. to a lifetime best. Gimlet Hanover held off a late rush by favored Non Disclosure to win by the slimmest of margins.

Of the three 1:55.1 winners, the one taking a new mark was the International Moni colt Golazo, who pulled off a 14-1 engine upset for Pocono’s top driver Tyler Buter and trainer Jill Roland, the latter co-owner with David Neilson. International Moni picked up a second StS sire credit with the gelding Wapiti Blue Chip, driven by Braxten Boyd for trainer Mahlon Martin and owners Ashley Burslem, Steven Mullen, and Gregory Garton. And Boyd picked up a second StS credit by rallying the Greenshoe gelding Lefties Righties from way off the pace to overhaul Give Me A Yankee for trainer Jenny Melander and the partnership of Chuck Sylvester, Charles Stansley, Lenavitt Investments LLC, and John Licausi.

Miracle Maven tops Graber, Jr. trifecta in INSS at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sire Stakes action returned to Harrah's Hoosier Park on Wednesday (June 11) with a lone $96,000 division of the second leg for sophomore trotting fillies. Trainer Henry Graber, Jr. completed a clean sweep of the trifecta as Miracle Maven nosed out her stablemate, Better Tak'em to score in 1:54.2.

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite with regular pilot John De Long in the bike, Miracle Maven floated into the pocket from post 2 as Swan Jewel (Marcus Miller) trotted to an early lead through an opening quarter of :27.4. De Long moved Miracle Maven to the top on the backstretch, leading to the half in :57 while her stablemates Classical Jane (Trace Tetrick) and Better Tak'em (Jordan Ross) started the outer flow from mid-pack. Miracle Maven opened up a 2½ length lead on the final turn, reaching three-quarters in 1:25.2 with Classical Jane moving into third on the outside and Better Tak'em following her cover from fifth.

Turning for home, Miracle Maven's lead swelled to four lengths at the eighth pole before her strides began to shorten and Better Tak'em began to do her best work. Better Tak'em closed steadily with a :27.4 final stanza but could not reel in her stablemate as Miracle Maven reached the wire a head in front. Classical Jane held sway for third, two lengths behind her stablemates while Sweetasmoni (Kyle Wilfong) concluded the super at 41-1 out of the Ken Rucker barn.

Miracle Maven has now won two of three to start her 3-year-old season, and seven of 12 lifetime while only missing the board once in her career. Bred by Noah Wickey, the daughter of Don't Let'em—Bad Babysitter has banked $224,920 lifetime for owners Hillside Stables, Frank Baldachino, Beastly LLC and Eleven Star Stables.

Free online programs can be found nightly on the Hoosier Park website by clicking the "racing" tab, in addition to free race replays. Replays for Hoosier Park qualifiers can be found on YouTube on the Hoosier Park AV channel.

Pick-6 carryover awaits on a fabulous Big M Friday

With many of the track's A-list drivers out of town Saturday (June 14) racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park on their biggest night of the year, The Meadowlands will shift the stronger of its two weekend programs to Friday (June 13) night this week.

A happy coincidence will add some more juice to the squeeze, as the already big card – which features a pair of $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes finals for 3-year-old trotters – will also offer a 20-cent Pick-6 carryover to the multitude of Meadowlands multi-leg players.

Last Saturday (June 7), after Blue Collar Man lit up the board at odds of 53-1 in the 13th race, a 20-cent Pick-6 carryover was the result. A total of $6,630 will be sitting in the pool when the Pick-6 gets underway in race 8 Friday night.

Recent history tells us that the action figures to be hot and heavy.

On May 31, a carryover of just over $5,000 led to players pouring almost $35,000 into the pool for a grand total of just under $40,000.

Were $34,000 in new action put in play Friday, that would create a total pool of $40,630, but because the carryover is not subject to the low 15 per cent takeout, there would be $35,530 up for grabs, creating a surplus of $1,530, or a return of 105 per cent, instead of the usual 85.

That's the kind of opportunity that bettors crave.

CIRCLE THE DATES: The two biggest dates on the calendar at The Meadowlands feature two of the biggest stakes events the game offers.

In just four weeks, on Saturday (July 12), the $700,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace will take center stage on a power-packed card that gets underway at 6:20 p.m.

Three weeks after that, "America's Trotting Classic" will be in the spotlight celebrating an historic anniversary.

On Aug. 2, the 100th edition of the $1-million Hambletonian will highlight the strongest program of the year in the sport. The only card during the season that takes place during the day, post time on Hambletonian Day is noon.

PICK ME A WIENER: The seventh edition of The Big M's popular Wiener Dog Derby takes place on Saturday (June 14) and promises a night of family fun.

The event, sponsored by Home Floor & Decor! features dachshunds racing at the track between the live races. Admission and parking are free, and this event takes place rain or shine in The Backyard, where doors will open at 5 p.m.

A total of 80 contestants will compete in eight heats that begin at 6 p.m. with the Wiener Dog final at 9:25 p.m. Each heat features 10 dogs racing – or frolicking, if you prefer – to the finish line. The eight heat winners move on to the final, which takes place on the actual racetrack.

There will also be other activities during the night. Fans can party with DJ Alx, indulge in great food and cocktails – featuring Shanky's Whip Whiskey from the track's Backyard BBQ & Grill – along with homemade ice cream from Clyde's Ice Cream and Italian Ice truck. Also, grab some dog treats for your best friend from Groomington Eats – the best dog-treat food truck around.

GET YOUR PENCILS READY: The sixth edition of the 2025 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest takes place on Friday (June 20), and offers players a chance to win a share of $1,000 in prize money.

Contest format:

- Contestants must be on-site to participate
- Contestants must buy a $100 betting card to participate
- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races
- There is no minimum or maximum bet per race
- Contestants can play any wager(s) on The Meadowlands live wagering menu
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings
- Contestants can enter as many times as they wish
- The top two finishers earn spots in the $10,000 end-of-the-year contest

Remaining contest schedule:

- Friday (June 20)
- Friday (July 18)
- Aug. 30
- Oct. 25
- Nov. 21
- The $10,000 invitation-only final is on Dec. 13

Previous players that have qualified for the December contest are Nick Montemurro and Gary Scogna (the top two finishers from January); Michael Grasso and Montemurro (February); Sean Loeb and Joe Barre (March); Robert Glaser and Jim Bohnarczyk (April); and Karen Fossli and Russ Slader (May).

Complete contest rules and regulations can be found here.

To participate, players must be 18 years of age or older to wager on racing. If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, please get help at 1-800-GAMBLER.

Noble scores three in second leg of BSS for 3-year-old colt trotters at Northfield

Dan Noble had a successful night at MGM Northfield Park on Monday (June 9), winning three of the five $20,000 divisions in the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old colt trotters. None of the winners from the first leg of the BSS on May 23 at Eldorado Scioto Downs were able to repeat on Monday.

Noble scored BSS wins with Smoke One For Me, Along Came Tom, and Full Moon Howl.

Along Came Tom held off Tiny Tom for a photo-finish win in the second division. Leaving from the rail, Along Came Tom led at every call in :28.3, 1:00.1, and 1:28.3 but was challenged by Tiny Tom down the stretch. After taking the pocket trip, Tiny Tom moved to the passing lane and drew even with Along Came Tom as they neared the finish. Along Came Tom edged Tiny Tom by a head as both horses tripped the wire in 1:57.4. Hydroplane'n Henry was third. Along Came Tom is trained by Deborah Swartz, who is co-owner with Gail Impson. The 1:57.4 was a lifetime best for the Long Tom gelding. He has two wins in 10 lifetime starts with $21,670 in earnings.

Noble won with ease in the fifth division, guiding Full Moon Howl to victory by five lengths in a lifetime-best 1:56.1. The Jessica Smith trainee and 4-5 betting favorite led at every call in :28.1, :57.3, and 1:27 and was never seriously challenged. First-leg winner Tommy Count sat in the pocket but was unable to make a move on the leader down the stretch. As Full Moon Howl pulled away for his first seasonal win, Long Rocky Road surged past Tommy Count in the passing lane to finish second. Full Moon Howl has hit the board in 15 of 24 lifetime starts, recording seven wins and earning $66,548. The gelded son of Full Count is owned by Madisyn Smith and Jessica Smith.

Smoke One For Me won in 1:57 as the 1-2 betting favorite in the first division. Leaving from post position 3, Noble drove the Long Tom gelding to the front and never looked back. He posted fractions of :28.2, :58.1, and 1:27 en route to winning by nearly two lengths. A Million Ansons, a 21-1 longshot, was second followed by Massive Hill in third. Smoke One For Me is trained by Christi Noble for owner Norman Rae Racing. He has hit the board in nine of 13 lifetime starts with four wins and earnings of $36,501.

In the third division, Letsgotoparis notched his first seasonal win in a lifetime-best 1:56.3. Kurt Sugg had the Edward Miller trainee in fourth as first-leg winner Rose Run Ari led at the first two calls in :28.2 and :57.4. Letsgotoparis was first up heading to the three-quarter pole and moved into second place as Rose Run Ari led in 1:27.2. The Mister Anson gelding took the lead entering the final stretch and pulled away to win by two lengths as Rose Run Atm passed Rose Run Ari on the outside to take second. Letsgotoparis is owned by Edward Miller and Ashley Dunn. He has hit the board in nine of 14 lifetime starts, recording five wins and $46,835 in earnings.

Jason Beattie drove Nelli Up to victory in 1:57.3 in the fourth division. Leaving from post 7, Nelli Up was fourth at the first two calls as even-money betting favorite Power Hill led the way in :28.2 and :57.4. Nelli Up moved first over just past the halfway point and worked his way up alongside Power Hill entering the final stretch. The Ryan Miller trainee showed strong closing speed, pulling away to win by two lengths. Amazing Tom was second followed by Splurge On Uncle in third. Nelli Up has hit the board in 18 of 23 lifetime starts and has six wins and $57,216 in earnings. He is owned by Miller Racing Stable, Horseplay Racing Stable, Paul Hershberger, and Edward Marrinan.

Noble led all drivers with four wins on the 16-race card. In addition to his BSS victories, he also won with the Dan O'Mara-trained Rising Fire. Sugg, Justin Irvine, and Aaron Merriman tripped up as drivers, and Miller and John Wengerd doubled up as trainers.

The 2025 Buckeye Stallion Series continues June 19 with the second leg for 3-year-old filly trotters followed by the second leg for 3-year-old filly pacers on June 20. Both days of racing will be held at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

GO JIM DANDY AND SEASIDE STAR'S DEAD HEAT HIGHLIGHTS SUNDAY'S BSS SECOND LEG: A dead heat between Go Jim Dandy and Seaside Star highlighted the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old colt pacers on Sunday (June 8) at MGM Northfield Park. The second leg featured five $20,000 divisions and had no repeat winners from the opening leg.

An extremely tight finish in the fifth division had Go Jim Dandy and Seaside Star win in a dead heat with House Of Brix in third as all three tripped the wire in 1:54.3. Driver Kurt Sugg settled Go Jim Dandy in the pocket as My First Fire led the field through the first three calls in :28, :56.4, and 1:25.1. Seaside Star with Aaron Merriman was first up going to the halfway mark as first-leg winner and 9-5 betting favorite House Of Brix was sixth. House Of Brix showed some late burst in going three wide en route to drawing even with new leader Seaside Star entering the final stretch. Go Jim Dandy made it three wide with the leaders as they neared the finish and crossed the line with Seaside Star in a result that was too close to call. Trained by Kimberly

Dailey, Go Jim Dandy is the gelded son of Bit Of A Legend N. He has five wins and $56,924 in earnings in 16 lifetime starts and is co-owned by Dailey and JR Stable. The 1:54.3 was a lifetime best for Seaside Star in what was his first win in 16 lifetime starts. The gelded son of Downbytheseaside is trained by K. Dean Glispie for owner Always Finish Second Stable and has $40,720 in lifetime earnings.

In the first division, Johnny Up took the wire-to-wire victory in a lifetime-best 1:52.3 as first-leg winners Woodrow Blue Chip and South Sea finished second and third, respectively. Driven by Tyler Smith, Johnny Up took the lead off the gate and was ahead of the field at the :27.2 quarter and :56.3 half. The 4-5 betting favorite Woodrow Blue Chip went first up heading toward the three-quarter pole but was unable to challenge down the stretch. Johnny Up hit the three-quarter mark in 1:24.3 and won by a length. Trained by Edward Miller, Johnny Up has two wins in four starts this season, increasing his lifetime earnings to $48,200. The Lather Up gelding is owned by Allen Miller.

In the second division, Fly High Cruiser scored his first seasonal win, crossing the line in 1:54. Down Two Party was second followed by Believe In Tom. Driver Dan Noble had Fly High Cruiser in fifth as the field crossed the halfway point with first-leg winner Accuracy By Volume leading the way. Heading towards the three-quarter pole, Accuracy By Volume went off-stride, ceding the lead to Believe In Tom. Around the final turn, Fly High Cruiser moved to the outside and passed both Down Two Party and Believe In Tom to win by almost two lengths. The Yankee Cruiser gelding has $34,630 in lifetime earnings and is co-owned by trainer Anette Lorentzon and Tony Hall.

The Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.-driven Derby Up took the third division in a lifetime-best 1:54.1, edging Rodeo Jet by a half-length with Whatchagonnado in third. The 9-5 betting favorite Go Accordingly led at the first two calls in :27.4 and :57. Fourth at the halfway mark, Derby Up followed cover behind Fabio Hanover. With Fabio Hanover alongside second-place Rodeo Jet, Derby Up made it three wide and surged past them and Go Accordingly to lead at the 1:25.4 three-quarters. Derby Up held off a strong challenge from Rodeo Jet down the stretch for his second win of the season. The Lather Up gelding is trained by Ryan Miller for owners Miller Racing Stable and Chris Gilbert. He has $28,550 in lifetime earnings.

Austin Hanners drove 1-9 betting favorite Twin B High Tide to his first seasonal win in the fourth division in 1:53.2. Johnny Smash was second followed by Catch The Express. Catch The Express led off the gate, but Hanners drove Twin B High Tide to the lead at the :27.4 quarter. The Alicia Hanners trainee led at each of the next two calls in :56.4 and 1:25.1 en route to a three-length victory. The BSS champion as a freshman, Twin B High Tide, is owned by Hanners Racing. The Downbytheseaside colt has hit the board in nine of 11 lifetime starts, recording six wins and $152,395 in earnings.

Wrenn, Jr. and Merriman tripled up to lead all drivers in victories on Sunday. Smith and Noble recorded two wins each. Burke doubled up as the lone trainer with multiple wins on the night.

EBC trotters invade Vernon Downs

The Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for 3-year-old colt and filly trotters will be raced this afternoon (June 13) at Vernon Downs with a first post of 12:15. With 11 entered for each sex, the stakes totaling $352,500, was split into divisions for both with New York's leader Chapter Seven the sire of 19 of the 22 programmed.

The trotting colts in race 8 are led by 2024 Dan Patch Award winning freshman Maryland (Dexter Dunn) who is making his seasonal pari-mutuel debut in the $87,250 EBC five horse division.

The son of Chapter Seven was nearly flawless as the leading money winning horse in the sport last year, earning $1,227,695 for owners Anders Strom as Courant, Inc, Pete Weisberg as PCW Racing, the Melander family as Holly Lane Stud East and Steve Stewart & Robin Thorn.

Maryland has caused a bit of a murmur among Hambletonian prognosticators with a pair of lackluster qualifiers at The Meadowlands, including going off-stride in the second, but trainer Marcus Melander is not concerned and is maintaining his course with the winter book favorite toward the 100th anniversary of the Hambletonian on Aug. 2.

Maryland's main competition on paper is KYSS champ Super Chapter, another Melander trainee who could have been the top colt of his freshman class in many other seasons, converting in five of his 11 starts and earning more than a half million dollars for Jeffrey Snyder and Arthur Pronti last year. Super Chapter does have a 2025 start, one over the course in fact, taking a NYSS split at Vernon in a sharp 1:53.3, three weeks ago.

Interestingly, Dunn has been the regular driver for Super Chapter as well as Maryland. Dunn's hand was forced a touch early here, to the delight of Scott Zeron who will pick up the drive on Super Chapter in what could be considered an informal audition for the Hambletonian drive as the game of musical sulkies gets underway.

Race 10 sees a field of six where Monserrate (Dave Miller) and Variegated (Dunn) will vie for favoritism in the $88,500 second split.

Monserrate found his best form late last season, winning three of four including the $447,000 Valley Victory with his only loss during that span a short miss in the Kindergarten final to Maryland after a stretch-long battle. The son of Chapter Seven was second to Super Chapter in the above mentioned NYSS in his seasonal bow. Andrew Harris trains and shares ownership of Monserrate with Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman.

Variegated stayed on the NYSS trail last summer and won the $225,000 final at 2 for Melander and owner Lennart Agren's SRF Stable. The Chapter Seven colt kicked off his sophomore campaign with a win over Grand Circuit company in the Bunker Hill at Plainridge followed by an impressive 1:52.3 NYSS win at Vernon.

My Debt Collector (Tyler Buter) leads the five-filly division in race 7 for a purse of $87,750. This daughter of Chapter Seven is largely a homebred with breeders Mel Hartman and Dave McDuffee replacing co-breeder Herb Liverman with partner Jeff Gural as Little E, LLC and she has been a model of consistency throughout her racing career. Nifty Norman trains My Debt Collector, who comes in with three NYSS victories strung together and would eclipse the $400,000 mark in career earnings with a win today.

Royal Mission (Zeron) is the reigning queen of the NYSS filly trotters, having annexed last season's final for owner Jeffrey Snyder and is the lass to beat in the $89,000 six filly division as race 9. The Chapter Seven filly was a NYSS winner at Vernon in a career best 1:54 in May, she also hails from the powerful Melander barn.

The undercard is the NYSS for the glamour boy division with the sophomore colt pacers split into a pair of $59,100 divisions and four splits of the Excelsior series.

Today's post time at Vernon Downs is 12:15 p.m.

Nick Salvi / Vernon Downs

Kat's Fancy sets divisional track record at Shenandoah Downs

Jane Dunavant's Kat's Fancy got to the front in Saturday's (June 7) $89,600 Virginia Breeder's 3-Year-Old Filly Trot field at Shenandoah Downs, held off challenges from stablemate Peggy's Girl and betting choice Caviart Glory without ever relinquishing the lead, then surged to a half-length win in 1:56.1. The time established a new track record in that division and new life mark which was three seconds faster than her previous best on a half-mile oval.

The 3-year-old Dusty Winner filly authored initial panels of :28.3, :58.2 and 1:29.1 with Cody Polisenio in the sulky. Caviart Farms' Caviart Glory, a 19-length winner in her lone Breeder's prep, took over second after the half and threatened the remainder of the race staying within a half-length but couldn't power past the champ. Scott Woogen's K J The Thirteenth finished third.

Kat's Fancy, who broke stride early in both eliminations, is trained by Carlo Polisenio. Despite the breaks, the winning filly finished second and fourth in those two early races.

Cary Grady's HS Jesse caught up with front stepper Mane Man Charlie at the top of the stretch in the $86,600 Colt and Gelding Trot, eased on by and finished 2¼ lengths the best in 1:58.3. The winner is trained and driven by Joseph Carroll. HS Jesse broke stride in last year's freshman finale but stayed flat all the way around in the sophomore tilt.

Elwood Tignor and Deborah Mulligan's Toys Little Tinker powered forward from third in the final turn and surged past KJ Becky and Proper Lady en route to a 5¼ length win in the $91,100 3-Year-Old Filly Pace on Sunday (June 8). The Rusty's For Real filly finished first in an initial prep division in 1:55 then took fourth in the second leg. Driver Billy Carter, who also trains the champ, led in the 1:55.1 winning effort. Now with seven career wins, Toys Little Tinker has earnings of $121,890.

Jane Dunavant's Proper Lady and Scott Woogen's KJ Becky dueled through the initial trio of fractions – rarely more than a nose apart – and hit the panels in :26.3, :55 and 1:25.1. Both scored early leg victories and were the two favorites heading into Sunday's clash. The former finished second and the latter took third.

In Sunday's $87,200 colt counterpart, heavily favored Paxamillion authored a near wire-to-wire triumph in 1:54.4 though the margin of victory was just a neck – following dominant 5½- and 6¼-length scores in the elimination rounds. Driver Tyler Shehan guided the Sweet Lou gelding past front stepping Choices Honor just after the quarter mark then went on to cut fractions of :56.4, 1:26 and 1:54.4 the rest of the way. Trainer Britney Dillion's champion won for the eighth time in 15 career outs and pushed his lifetime bankroll to $122,668.

Scott Woogen and Brenda Messenger's Caviart Cash finished second and Lucinda Belcher's Bday took third.

A four-pack of $20,000 Virginia Breeder's Fund Older Stakes highlighted the weekend under card. Chuck Perry's John's Dream – winningest horse in Shenandoah Downs history – wired the field in Sunday's first pacing division in 1:55.2 and earned career win number 50. Ivan Foltz's Bgoing Away capped off a stellar final month in Woodstock by winning the second division by a quarter-of-a-length over Caviart Simon in a new lifetime mark of 1:54.1.

Room4040 LLC Stables' Ellen's Wish and Scott Woogen's Geralds A Keeper each won $20,000 trotting divisions on Saturday. The former collected a tight half-length win in 1:58.2 while the latter wired the field in 1:59.1 and crossed the wire 3½ lengths the best. Leading reinsman Fern Paquet, Jr. had the winning drive in both.

Virginia Breeder's 3-Year-Old championship weekend ushered out the 2025 spring racing season in Woodstock. Virginia Breeder's 2-Year-Old eliminations and finals, in addition to the inaugural Virginia Sired Stakes for freshmen, will take place during the fall meet which runs from Sept. 13 to Oct. 26. Fall meet details and racing applications will be available at shenandoahdowns.com in the coming days.

Do It Like Bobbi wins $75,000 MGM Buckeye Distaff at MGM Northfield Park

Do It Like Bobbi made a mid-race move to score an impressive win in the $75,000 MGM Buckeye Distaff on Saturday (June 7) at MGM Northfield Park.

Tasked with the second tier, Do It Like Bobbi (Dan Noble) got away fourth from post 9 into the first turn behind My Red Sea (Brett Miller), Fearless Ginger (Chris Page), and No Foolin April (Jeremy Smith).

My Red Sea stretched out Fearless Ginger entering the backstretch, but Fearless Ginger was able to power past during a snappy :26.4 first quarter.

Entering the far turn, Tarapasta (Austin Hanners) tipped to the outside which flushed out Do It Like Bobbi from third. The pair began to advance to the outside of rivals, but coming to the half in :55, Noble created some separation from Tarapasta and took the lead from the favorite, Fearless Ginger.

Hitting the three-quarters in 1:21.3, Do It Like Bobbi was clear by $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths over Fearless Ginger and Naked On A Hill (Aaron Merriman) who had begun to make big moves from the back of the pack.

Through the stretch, Do It Like Bobbi was much the best and won by $5\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:50. My Red Sea was second, while Fearless Ginger dug in to be third.

The victory pushed Do It Like Bobbi's career earnings to $515,262 and was the 28th of her career, the 6-year-old homebred mare by Downbytheseaside is conditioned by Christi Noble and owned by Stephen Sexton.

MGM Yonkers Raceway adjusts race starting point

As the finish line has moved positions over the years at MGM Yonkers Raceway, so has the starting point of each race. Somewhere along the line, it was decided to "quick start" the races well before the actual starting point to allow horses on the outside of the gate a better opportunity to leave for position. That practice was officially halted on June 5.

This was done in order to comply with USTA rule 16.05 – which states: "The starting point will be appropriately marked a distance of not less than two hundred feet from the first turn. The starter shall give the word "go" at the starting point." – and in the interest of consistency from track-to-track, races are now starting much closer to the finish line, which at Yonkers is just before the first turn.

"Horses were racing at distances well over a mile for way too long, and it wasn't fair to the public to list the races as one mile," said racing secretary Joe Frasure, who was part of the conversation to make the change, along with the presiding judge and starter. "It is important for us to be consistent with the other tracks in the state and the country."

TRIPLE CROWN ELIMINATION RACES ON THE HORIZON: Entries for the eliminations of the Grade 2 MGM Yonkers Trot and Grade 2 MGM Grand Messenger Pace are due on Monday (June 16). The eliminations, if necessary, will whittle the fields down to eight entrants for the finals on Friday (June 27).

There are 41 trotting colts eligible to the $300K MGM Yonkers Trot and 37 pacing colts eligible to enter the $225K (est.) MGM Grand Messenger Pace. Both races represent the first legs of the Trotting and Pacing Triple Crowns, respectively.

Horses not eligible may supplement to either race for $25,000.

MGM Yonkers Raceway will have an altered schedule during the week of June 16, with live racing daily from Monday through Saturday. New York Sire Stakes for 2-year-old colt pacers will take place on Thursday (June 19). Post time each night is 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

OHHA to live stream Ohio county fair races in 2025

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will stream Ohio county fair races again this summer. The OHHA is scheduled to livestream 127 race cards from 66 county and independent fairs.

The OHHA kicked off the 2025 schedule with coverage from the Paulding County Fairgrounds in Paulding, OH.

Coverage began Monday (June 9), with a 16-race card.

"We are excited to again bring Ohio county fair racing to harness racing fans in Ohio, the United States, and across the world," OHHA executive director Frank Fraas said.

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association's fair coverage will include "Five Days in Delaware" coverage of the Little Brown Jug from the Delaware, OH, county fairgrounds.

A complete Ohio county fair racing schedule is available at HarnessRacingOhio.com.

An advertisement for Waterhays Alliance. On the left, a photograph shows a dark brown horse pulling a sulky with a driver on a dirt track. The horse is wearing a yellow saddle cloth with the number 2. On the right, there is a dark blue background with white and red text. The text reads "ADD YOUR VOICE TO OURS AND JOIN TODAY!" in white, with "JOIN TODAY!" in red. Below this is the website "www.waterhaysalliance.com" in red. To the right of the text is a red octagonal sign with a white border and the word "WHOA" in white capital letters.
