"Good horses come from everywhere"

How Dana Parham's Indiana-sired gelding Odds On Mr Mamba landed in James MacDonald's lap and the Pepsi North America Cup winner's circle.

by Dave Briggs

The photographers had dispersed. The winner's circle crowd had thinned. Dana Parham stood on the edge of the Woodbine Mohawk Park track on a perfect June evening with a look of mild satisfaction on his normally serious face. Minutes earlier, the Boca Raton, FL-based owner won the $1 million (Cdn) ($720,000 U.S.) Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup with his homebred, Indiana-sired gelding Odds On Mr Mamba, who, until now, had not received the appropriate accolades relative to his success.

"Good horses come from everywhere," said Parham.

Odds On Mr Mamba's driver James MacDonald knows this well.

Despite winning the last five Canadian Driver of the Year titles, the best MacDonald had done in the NA Cup in prior years was a fifth-placed-fourth with Legendary Hanover in 2024. Last year, MacDonald was fifth with the favorite, Lite Up The World, in a Cup won impressively by the Burke Brigade's Louprint in a 1:47.1 record.

In all his prior Cup attempts, combined, MacDonald has collected total purses of $101,360. On Saturday (June 13), he more than tripled that amount thanks to the winner's check of $360,000.

That MacDonald's Cup breakthrough came with an Indiana horse he had never driven prior to the NA Cup elims – and for people he had never driven for before – was pure serendipity.

Standing in the glow of the Mohawk paddock receiving congratulatory hugs from some of his fellow drivers, MacDonald grinned like a man who had just won the lottery, which is just about the case.

Asked where the NA Cup will rank in his trophy case, MacDonald said, "At the top. It's pretty hard to beat right now. I just can't get over it. I can't believe it happened."

In each of the last six years, MacDonald has entered the season hoping to be the driver attached to the right horse that could win Canada's biggest harness race – to no avail. This year, MacDonald was blessed with an abundance of choice for the final having won both elims – the first with his regular mount Sweet Lovin Lou and the second with Odds On Mr Mamba. That he ultimately chose the latter for the rich final was just one of his many winning moves when it came to this year's Cup.

"You always think ahead about who you have coming back this year," MacDonald said. "Obviously, I was pretty excited for Sweet Lovin Lou and I was hoping he'd come back well and he did. And then [Odds On Mr Mamba] kind of just fell into my lap [after Dexter Dunn chose Brandon Blvd over Mamba]."

MacDonald said he could never had predicted this was how he was going to win his first NA Cup.

"I've never driven for [Odds On Mr Mamba's connections] before and I can't get over how it all shook down and just how lucky I am," MacDonald said. "It hasn't sunk in yet and it probably won't for quite some time."

ODDS ON RACING FIGURED AS MUCH

Parham, whose nom de course is Odds On Racing, and his investment in the industry is vast, was less surprised about the outcome.

Odds On Mr Mamba has been nothing short of sensational in his career; he was just doing it in Indiana, a little removed from a spotlight that tends to find East Coast and Canadian horses with more frequency.

First-time NA Cup winner James MacDonald said the trophy is going at the top of his trophy case.

The son of Parham's homebred sire Odds On Equuleus is out of the breeder's talented mare Honky Tonk Woman.

As for the knock, from some, that Odds On Mr Mamba is not fashionably bred, Parham said, "Someone else's opinion doesn't bother me in the least. I hope my opinion doesn't bother others… I'll say this, my pacing broodmare band is as good as anybody's in the country. I have 40 broodmares that almost anybody wishes they had some of those. So, I spend a lot of time with the breeding. 'Equuleus' has never had a fair chance. He still doesn't get good mares, but he always gets three good ones of mine every year."

In eight years at stud, Odds On Equuleus has bred, on average, 26 mares per year. His richest and fastest offspring is Odds On Mr Mamba, who now sports career earnings of $740,405 and has a world record mark of 1:47.4 set at 2. The gelding has a career record of 10-for-11 that includes 10 straight victories. Odds On Mr Mamba's only loss came in his pari-mutuel debut in Indiana Sires Stakes competition at Harrah's Hoosier Park on July 30, 2025.

Odds On Equuleus earned $935,816 lifetime and was ninth in the 2013 Pepsi North America Cup for trainer Robin Schadt. In the final two of his six racing seasons, Odds On Equuleus was trained in the Midwest by Melanie Wrenn, who now conditions all of Parham's Indiana stock, including Odds On Mr Mamba.

"I moved Equuleus to Kentucky for a year and [Wrenn is] going to get all of those anyway," Parham said. "Now he's back in

> "In the last turn, I was thinking, 'I'm going to win by five,' with the trip [Odds On Mr Mamba] got. Then, when I moved him, it turned into a dog fight. They both kicked away – 'Beau' and 'Brandon' – and we were slugging it out halfway down the lane. I said, 'I'm going to be third' and then he just found a way to find a little more to get it done."
> — James MacDonald

Indiana and he's had a phenomenal career as a sire. Every year he gets more mares than the year before. By the time he's 20, he might have a full book."

Parham laughed as he said that, but there's no doubt Odds On Mr Mamba has put Odds On Equuleus on the map as a stallion.

As for Honky Tonk Woman, Parham bought the Western Ideal mare in November of 2020 after she amassed $560,138 and recorded a marked of 1:50.2 racing between 2010 and 2012, mostly under the tutelage of Ross Croghan. Honky Tonk Woman has produced 10 horses to date, seven of them before Parham owned her. All but two have raced, with four of them earning six figures: Brush N Crush ($177,662), Pirate Booty ($119,095), Bowery ($117,954), and Odds On Mr Mamba. Her most recent foal is a yearling full-sister to Odds On Mr Mamba named Odds On Honeydew.

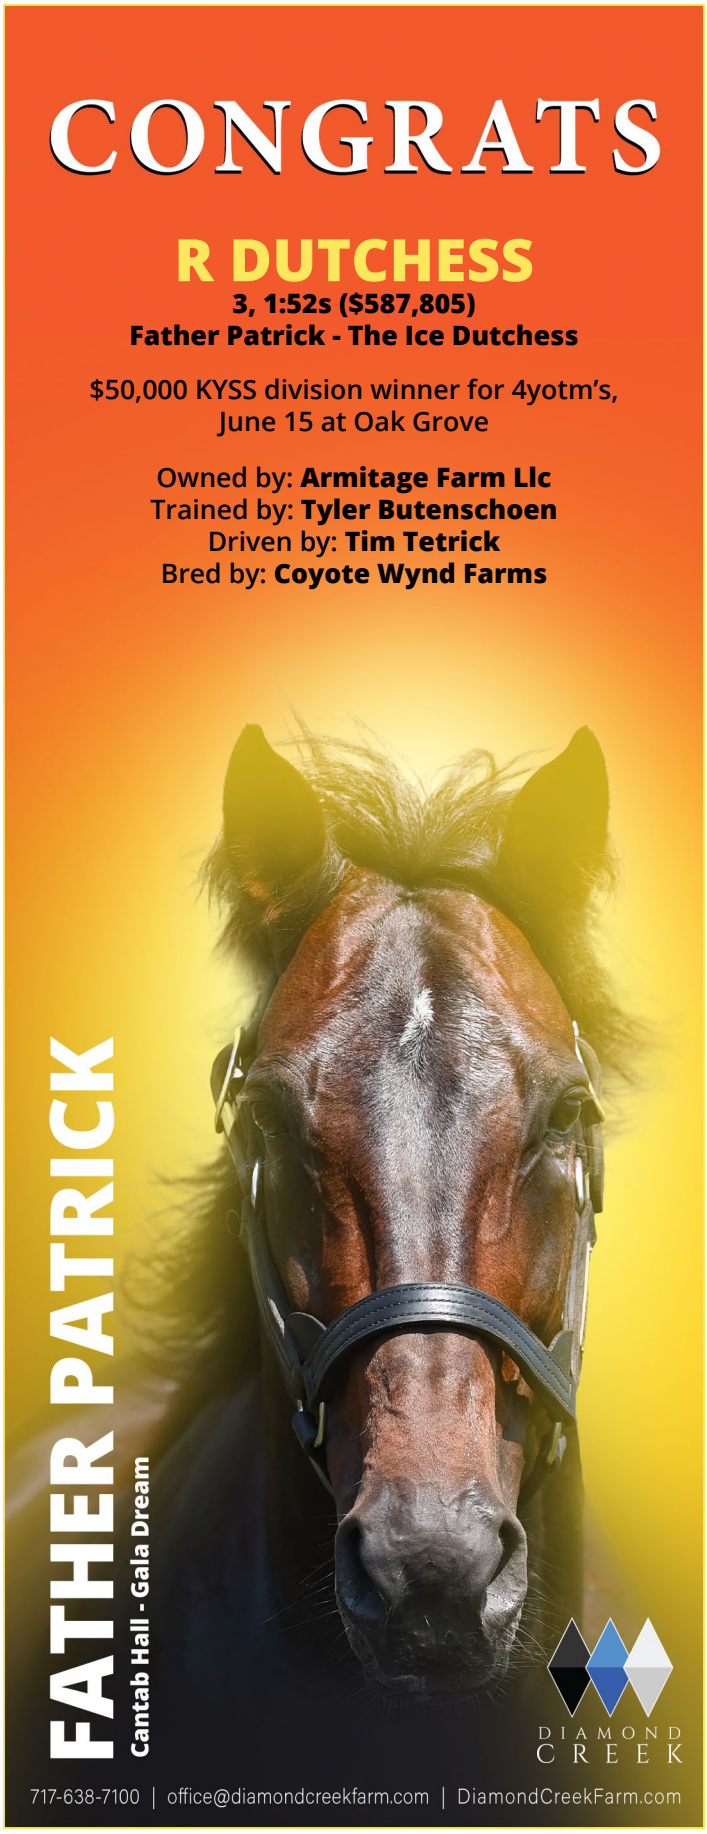
Like Parham and MacDonald, it was also the first NA Cup triumph for Wrenn. She finished fourth in the 2020 final with another Parham homebred – Odds On Osiris.

Asked where the NA Cup victory ranks in her career, Wrenn flashed a magnetic smile.

"Oh, seriously?" she asked, laughing. "I mean, this is pretty huge.

"[Odds On Mr Mamba is] a pleasure. We're very fortunate to have him."

Yet, in a typical example of Midwestern nice, Wrenn directed much of the credit to her husband, trainer/driver Peter Wrenn, and Odds On Mr Mamba's caretaker Ernie Perez.



Claus Andersen

Odds On Mr Mamba's owner and breeder Dana Parham.

"[Peter] does an amazing job with the horses," Melanie said. "He's a hell of a horseman and we're a good team."

Clearly this was the Wrenn family's night.

One race earlier, Peter and Melanie's nephew, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., drove Loua Dipa to a Canadian-record 1:48.1 victory in the $420,000 Grade 1 Fan Hanover. That victory came one year after Wrenn, Jr. won the NA Cup with Louprint.

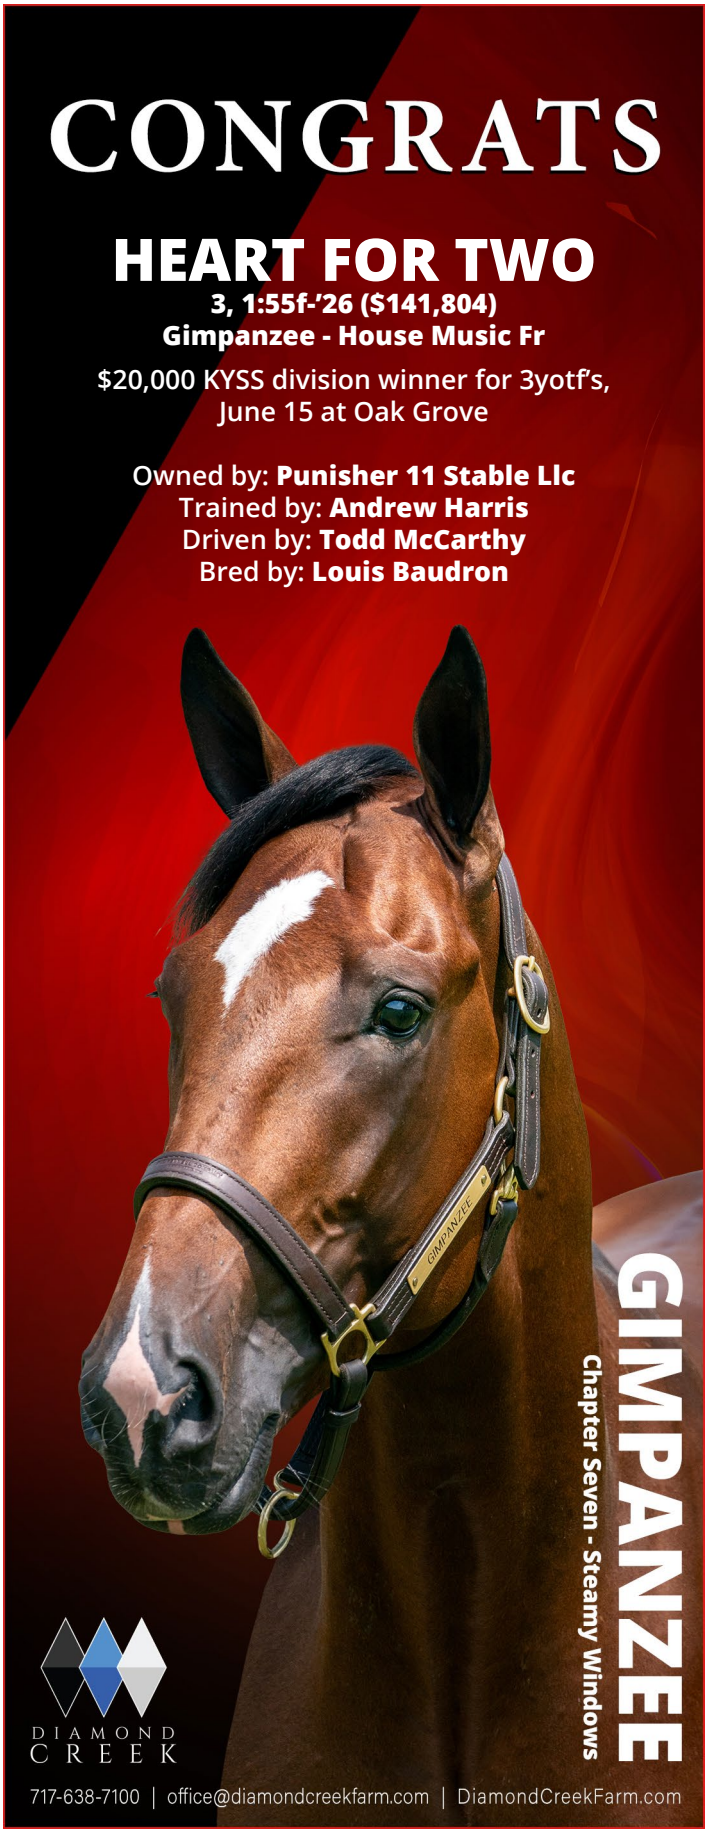
But this year's NA Cup went beyond family.

Asked what Odds On Mr Mamba's victory means for Indiana, Melanie didn't hesitate.

"A lot," she said. "Look at last night, [Indiana-sired] On To Norway [won his 27th straight race impressively at The Meadowlands], and tonight with 'Mamba' – I mean, come on. They are looking pretty good in the Midwest."

STRIKING LIKE A BLACK MAMBA

As for how Odds On Mr Mamba came to be standing in the Pepsi North America Cup winner's circle, that was courtesy of a patient drive and the gelding's proclivity to strike in the stretch, which is fitting for a pacer Parham's son named after the highly-venomous black mamba snake.



New Image Media

Thanks to a late strike, Odds On Mr Mamba (James MacDonald) was able to edge ultra-game Brandon Blvd and Beau Jangles at the wire of the NA Cup.

"He comes like a freight train," Melanie said. "I've never seen a horse that turns it on like him. He wants to be there at the wire, that's what he wants to do. He generally gets it done."

But Parham said he wasn't sure Odds On Mr Mamba was going to get it done in a race in which favored hometown hero and reigning continental Horse of the Year Beau Jangles led the field into the stretch, with the most-excellent Brandon Blvd on his heels.

"In so many of his races, by mid-stretch [Odds On Mr Mamba is] in front," Parham said. "Tonight, he was racing against the very best and I didn't see him gaining. Then 50, 100 yards out, I thought 'Okay, I think we can get him.' But I didn't know. It's out of everybody's hands, but the horse's and the driver's."

MacDonald, who positioned Odds On Mr Mamba a close third at the top of the stretch, said his confidence went from sky-high to much less than that in the race's waning moments.

"In the last turn, I was thinking, 'I'm going to win by five,' with the trip [Odds On Mr Mamba] got," MacDonald said. "Then, when I moved him, it turned into a dog fight. They both kicked away – 'Beau' and 'Brandon' – and we were slugging it out halfway down the lane. I said, 'I'm going to be third' and then he just found a way to find a little more to get it done.

"Obviously, he's got a huge desire to win and he's a fast horse."

As for what went through his mind the second he crossed the wire a half-length ahead of Brandon Blvd in 1:48.1 – with Beau Jangles a nostril hair further back in third – MacDonald said, "It felt amazing. The way the trip worked out, I couldn't have planned it any better. I'm just lucky, blessed, to get the drive and blessed with the way the race worked out. I'm just a happy guy."

As a further indication of Parham's horse IQ, he said he was the underbidder when Brandon Blvd sold to Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman, and trainer Andrew Harris for $425,000 at the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"I didn't know who I was bidding against [at the time], but they bid $360,000 and I jumped the bid to $400,000," Parham said. "Usually, you put it in a new zip code [and that's the end of it]. They went to $425,000 and that's what they paid. I feel if I would have been bidding against almost anyone else, we would have ended up with that colt."

Not that he's unhappy. He said it's more satisfying being that man who both bred and owns the Pepsi North America Cup winner.

"But, you know, mine is a gelding and theirs is a colt," he said, being practical.

There he goes thinking like a breeder again, and the financial value of winning one of the sport's biggest races.

In terms of the emotional value, what Odds On Mr Mamba gave Parham was immeasurable.

As a long-time race fan, Parham said the large crowd at Mohawk took him back to the sport's better days.

"When I first started going to the races, we had crowds like this every night," Parham said. "I haven't seen a crowd like this in I don't know when."

Just for a second, he flashed a smile.

Good horses can come from everywhere and anywhere, but great victories often require the universe to be in perfect alignment.

North America Cup provides a teachable moment on betting value

by Brett Sturman

Value is one of the most used and often misinterpreted terms when it comes to wagering. What determines value isn't necessarily a standalone horse with high odds, but rather how the market odds relate to your own individual assessment of what those odds should be.

Which brings us to last Saturday's (June 13) North America Cup race. In my column in HRU the day before the race, I made the case for Beau Jangles, largely in part due to an expected reversal in odds between him and Odds On Mr Mamba from their elimination race the week prior. Here is the relevant part from that column:

I'm not making excuses at all for Beau Jangles. But I don't think the elimination race changed many opinions. If you liked Beau Jangles last week and supported him when his odds were 2-5, he's very appealing now at perhaps something where if I had to guess, 7-5. On the other hand, Odds On Mr Mamba stormed into Ontario and swept with a wide stretch rally at odds of slightly better than 5-2. With that win and now a slight post edge for the final, he has more of the look of an even money proposition, though the hometown crowd could still shift things towards "Beau."

With those thoughts in mind and usually having a keen sense of where the betting public is going to land, I was legitimately surprised by the odds board as the North America Cup went off. Not only was there no reversal in odds between the top two contenders, but hardly anything changed from the week before at all. There were only the tiniest fluctuations as Beau Jangles went from 2-5 in his elimination to 3-5 in the final while Odds On Mr Mamba went from 5-2 to 2-1, but nothing at all like I thought from last week's column.

This isn't meant to be a cop-out on my selection of Beau Jangles as I did have reasons for picking him aside from the odds angle, but the persistent disparity between him and Odds On Mr Mamba did greatly change the dynamic. How the odds in the final were essentially unchanged from the odds in the elimination race truly was confounding, especially considering the stronger performance from Odds On Mr Mamba and the question-raising performance from Beau Jangles. My guess to explain the phenomenon would be that a large, favorable public sentiment on Beau Jangles that has been growing since last year, easily outweighed any questions that might have come out of just a single race.

Odds aside, I knew my top selection might have been in trouble when speaking last week to a prominent figure in the industry. Speaking socially and not for the purpose of a column, I'd paraphrase this person's opinion as to Beau Jangles' elimination defeat not being an anomaly or a result of the horse being first-over but rather because of the horse being put to the test for the first time this year. His feelings at that time, which was before the final, were that it was still entirely possible that Beau Jangles could have won the race – but by working out a trip off cover rather than racing on the front. This of course was just one person's opinion, but it underscored a perceived vulnerability and a scenario where it would have been nearly impossible to back such a proposition at odds of 3-5.

The North America Cup wasn't the only race that night where there was value to be found, even if at a shorter price. I was almost just as surprised that in the Fan Hanover final, the betting public made Be Perfect BG the favorite over Loua Dipa.

I won't quote another excerpt from last week here, but I felt that given the circumstances and her dominance over this track, that Loua Dipa would have rightly warranted strong odds-on favoritism over New Jersey champion Be Perfect BG. And if you had told me that one filly would be 3-5 and the other would be 6-5, I wouldn't have ever thought for a second that Loua Dipa would be above even money at 6-5. For that matter, I couldn't even tell you the last time she was anything above 50 cents on the dollar. It's hard to figure out the rationale. Maybe it was a play towards the connections of Beaton and Dunn, or maybe the smart money isn't as sharp in these major races at Woodbine Mohawk Park as it is on a random Monday.

The interesting thing is that neither Odds On Mr Mamba or Loua Dipa were cinches to win, and in fact both were able to capitalize on perfect trips to get their wins. But maybe there is an element of karma at play here as well. If you have a strong, educated opinion along with the correct price to make a convicted play – then perhaps things have a way of working out.

Quick thoughts on handle: Handle for the 13-race North America Cup card was $5.6 million, which on the surface struck me as a solid figure. Accordingly, the Woodbine Mohawk Park press release lists it officially as the fourth highest handle, though it notes that other editions with higher handles were boosted by large mandatory Jackpot Hi-5 wagers.

What it doesn't note however, is that the races this year were conducted without any competition from The Meadowlands as that track shifted from a Friday-Saturday schedule to Thursday-Friday because of a World Cup match Saturday at MetLife Stadium. With the harness racing world spotlight solely on itself that night, could the handle have been even higher? Maybe it actually was higher due to The Meadowlands not racing, but it's hard to see it because of the loss in handle from the mandatory Jackpot Hi-5 which in 2022's record handle accounted for a staggering $1.9 million alone of the total $6.3 million.

In any case, the card from last Saturday was an exciting one from top to bottom, and one that should set the tone for the stakes season ahead.

On To Norway (Yannick Gingras) pushed his undefeated streak to 27 races with a victory in his Graduate leg last Friday at The Meadowlands.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

Streaking 'Norway' looks to retain respect at Big M

by Debbie Little

To slightly paraphrase Crash Davis in Bull Durham, "You have to respect the streak… because they don't happen very often."

In a second-leg division of the Graduate Series at The Meadowlands on Friday (June 12), the betting public showed plenty of respect to On To Norway, who came to town with a 26-race win streak.

Sent off as the odds-on choice at 4-5, On To Norway lived up to his press clippings, extending his streak to 27 with a 2¼-length victory in a lifetime-best 1:49.3.

"He's pretty cool," said co-owner Mark Weaver. "We've had a lot of good horses, and I'm not saying he's the best one, but we've never had one win probably half as many in a row as he has, so it's just crazy."

Weaver, along with Sylvia Burke and Mike Bruscemi, comprise Burke Racing Stable, who co-own the 4-year-old gelded son of Muscle Massive—One Class Act with Frank Baldachino, Black And White Stable, and Michael Rosenthal.

> "[On To Norway is] pretty cool. We've had a lot of good horses, and I'm not saying he's the best one, but we've never had one win probably half as many in a row as he has, so it's just crazy."
> — Mark Weaver

Since On To Norway's streak started on April 10, 2025, the start before Ron Burke became his trainer, Indiana's 2025 Trotter of the Year had not left his home state until venturing to New Jersey, where he currently remains for this week's third leg of the Graduate on Saturday night (June 20) and the Grade 2 Stan Bergstein Memorial Graduate final on Saturday (July 4).

"It's a fun streak, and I'll tell you, Indiana, they've got their chest pumped up pretty good, with On To Norway and [North America Cup champ] Odds On Mr Mamba," Weaver said.

> "It's a fun streak, and I'll tell you, Indiana, they've got their chest pumped up pretty good, with On To Norway and [North America Cup champ] Odds On Mr Mamba."
> — Mark Weaver

Although taking on Grand Circuit competition at East Rutherford's mile oval is a step up, Weaver was quick to point out that On To Norway, who has banked over $700,000 lifetime, has faced some pretty good horses in Indiana, and even some on the Grand Circuit already, when he won the Grade 2 Carl Erskine Trot and Grade 3 Phil Langley Memorial at Hoosier Park.

"I liked visually how he did it," Weaver said of the Graduate win. "He was going as fast as at any point in the mile right at the wire, and he took off after the wire, which was a good thing to see.

"He did it on the front last time, which he's won on the front before, but I would say at least half the time he hasn't been on the lead, so yeah, he's done it all... A lot of times, he's been first up, and that's how he was driven. John De Long drove in Indiana; he did a great job, but I think he also did a good job to not put him on the front every week, which I think can happen sometimes when drivers are on the favorite.

"You get respect, and other drivers are more likely to let you go, but just from the horse's standpoint, you have to mix it up... If this horse had been put on the front every time, I doubt he would have 27 [wins in a row]. I think part of the reason he has the winning streak is because he's been driven properly, and it keeps him kind of fresh."

Weaver also praised Hall of Fame driver Yannick Gingras who sat behind On To Norway for the first time last week.

"The thing that I liked with Yannick is at the top of the lane, he let whoever was first up [Meshuggah] get pretty close to him, and a lot of times that's not really the best thing, but I could tell at that point I said, 'He must be really confident for him to let a horse get right up beside him,'" Weaver said. "And then when they got to the top of the lane, and he just kind of asked him a little bit, and then the last 100 yards, when he really let him out, he just trotted away from them.

"This week, I would love to see him just get away third or fourth, and maybe move to the front, or if they're going on enough up there, just kind of wait, and then come when they start coming back to you, but we'll leave that up to Yannick. He usually makes the right decisions."

Weaver also mentioned that Super Chapter, the 2025 Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Male Trotter of the Year, looked impressive, easily winning his second-leg Graduate division in a lifetime-best 1:49.3 as the 2-5 favorite.

Tomorrow night, On To Norway and Super Chapter again drew into separate divisions, races 3 and 8, respectively.

As for On To Norway's competition this week, he faced three of his five competitors last week, but it's his first time taking on Go Dog Go and Mr Mouton.

"I mean we may win, but I would have been okay if Go Dog Go was in the other division with Super Chapter this week," Weaver said with a laugh. "Go Dog Go was really good last week, and he kind of made a huge move, and then just kind of tucked in behind Super Chapter in the stretch... he's a fast horse when he minds his manners, which it looks like he does most of the time. He's a very talented horse, fast horse, and On To Norway's going to have to bring his 'A' game to be able to beat him, because he's made almost $700,000, with a mark of [1]:49.3. My point is that it's not a gimme."

For Weaver, it would be great to see On To Norway's streak continue for as long as possible.

"It's a good story," Weaver said. "Super Chapter is phenomenal, so I'm not looking to pick a fight with him, but when we get to it, if and when that comes, we'll give it our best."

ADVENTURES IN ILLINOIS

with NEIL MILBERT

Preface to Chicagoland racing shutdown?

by Neil Milbert

The handwriting is on the wall and at first glance it appears to be ominous for the Chicagoland harness and thoroughbred racing communities.

Bankrupt Hawthorne Race Course has notified the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity that it will terminate 290 employees if it is sold to a land developer rather than a buyer who wants to perpetuate racing.

That would leave the Chicago metropolitan area without a racetrack for the first time since betting on thoroughbred racing was resurrected by the Illinois legislature in 1923 after a hiatus of more than three decades.

In 1946 Maywood Park inaugurated pari-mutuel harness racing in the state.

The current situation isn't quite as dire as it seems. Advance notice of potential layoffs is required by the Department of Commerce and doesn't necessarily mean the track, which has both thoroughbred and harness racing, will go out of business and will be demolished by a land developer.

According to the Chicago Tribune, Strauss Borelli, a class action law firm in Chicago, is investigating whether Hawthorne violated federal law by filing its layoff notice less than the required 60 days before potential layoffs on July 30. If so, under Chapter 11, employees may be entitled to 60 days of severance and benefits.

"They're only talking about jobs at the racetrack and off-track betting parlors," said Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA) executive director Tony Somone. "That 290 doesn't count horsemen. While we haven't lost our jobs our racing opportunities are like jobs and work days. People have had to go out of state to race — we have them in Minnesota, Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky."

Confronted with a reported $138 million in outstanding debt owed more than 200 creditors, Tim Carey, president of the 135-year-old track — whose family ownership of dates back to 1909 — filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on Feb. 27.

All 14 of Hawthorne's Suburban Downs harness dates in January and February were canceled because of its inability to pay its debts and its license was suspended by the Illinois Racing Board on Jan. 26.

If the suspension is lifted, harness racing is tentatively scheduled to resume with a Nov. 6-Dec. 27 meeting.

Meanwhile, Hawthorne is conducting an April 19-Nov. 1 thoroughbred meeting that began three weeks later than originally scheduled as a consequence of the track's financial crisis.

At the Racing Board's June 15 meeting, Carey reiterated that he is considering offers from both prospective buyers who want to continue racing and add the dormant casino gambling component that was legalized by the state legislature in 2019 and land developers who would demolish the track.

> "What I don't know is if [Hawthorne president] Tim Carey is able to accept a lesser offer from somebody who wants to keep Hawthorne as a racetrack and add a casino than an offer from a real estate company that is the highest bidder. As long as the bid covers the debt, I think he is able to do that. I do know there are [racetrack/casino] people out there kicking the tires but we have not been made privy to anything. It's difficult but not impossible for them to have a racino. We're just crossing our fingers."

In the summer of 2020, the Illinois Gaming Board gave Hawthorne permission to add the racino and Carey announced it would be a $40 million project but he has been unable to secure funding after assuring the Racing Board time and again every year since then that it was imminent.

Carey said he is hoping for a buyer who will continue racing and enable him to play an active role in the restructured organization.

However, there are several things that may make a prospective racetrack buyer/casino developer think twice.

It's doubtful that the buyer would want the individual under whose stewardship Hawthorne was overwhelmed with still unpaid debts involved in the decision-making process.

Because of President Trump's tariffs and inflation, a racino addition will cost considerably more than it would have in 2020.

At that time Hawthorne, in near south suburban Stickney, would have gotten a head start on the casinos in Chicago and other suburbs that were made possible by the big 2019 gaming expansion law. Now, the casino gambling market may be nearing saturation.

"They've lost every advantage they'd have had by opening early," said the IHHA's Somone. "The new casino in [south suburban] Hazel Crest is doing terrifically; it's the No. 2 grossing casino [in Illinois]."

Bally's has a temporary casino in downtown Chicago and will have a lavish permanent location in a few years. The same holds true for Waukegan, a city just beyond the suburbs near the Wisconsin border. And Aurora, a city in the far western suburbs, is about to open an opulent land-based casino that is replacing the original riverboat casino.

Bankrupt Hawthorne Race Course has notified the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity that it will terminate 290 employees if it is sold to a land developer rather than a buyer who wants to perpetuate racing.

"What I don't know is if Tim Carey is able to accept a lesser offer from somebody who wants to keep Hawthorne as a racetrack and add a casino than an offer from a real estate company that is the highest bidder," Somone said. "As long as the bid covers the debt, I think he is able to do that.

"I do know there are [racetrack/casino] people out there kicking the tires but we have not been made privy to anything. It's difficult but not impossible for them to have a racino. We're just crossing our fingers."

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Tony Licastro hopes to come up big again against Leap To Fame

by Adam Hamilton

Tony Licastro is up for the challenge.

Beating the amazing Leap To Fame, arguably Down Under's greatest ever pacer, is hard enough, but doing it on his home deck at Albion Park is almost impossible.

Leap To Fame has won 27 of his past 28 starts at Albion Park, dating back to Nov. 4, 2023.

And he was beaten a whisker in the other when second in the Group 1 Blacks A Fake on Dec. 6, last year.

But it was Licastro's star pacer, Don Hugo, who beat him.

And not for the first time.

Don Hugo also upstaged Leap To Fame in the $1 million Miracle Mile back in March, last year.

He is one of only three pacers to have beaten Leap To Fame twice or more in his career. The others are Swayzee (three times) and Kingman (twice).

"I've said it before, I've been in the game more than 25 years and Leap To Fame is the best horse I've seen," Licastro said. "To race against him in big races is a privilege, to beat him is incredible.

"Hugo's been able to do that twice on his merits and we'll head to Brisbane hoping he can do it again."

That's for the Brisbane Inter Dominion series, which consists of two rounds of compulsory qualifying heats on July 4 and 11 before the $1 million final on July 18, all at Albion Park.

"Leap To Fame's great, but even greater as the races get longer and this final is 2,700 meters which is a real challenge," Licastro said.

Against that, the Blacks A Fake was also 2,700 meters, albeit Don Hugo was superbly driven by Luke McCarthy when he trailed the leader, The Janitor, while Leap To Fame sat parked (outside the leader) and Don Hugo used the passing lane to snatch the narrowest of wins.

Licastro talked of McCarthy as his greatest asset in races.

"The guy should be immortalized," he said. "There are some great drivers around, but to me Luke's the best, especially in these big races.

"And it's not just the driving, he's a genius trainer, too. He times their preparations perfectly."

Licastro recalls getting a phone call from McCarthy when Don Hugo, who had shown potential at 2 and 3 with McCarthy and a stint in Victoria with Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin, was an early 4-year-old.

"He rang saying he'd worked him up the rise, his hill-straight at home, and was convinced the horse was better than he realized," Licastro said.

"He had a good winter campaign that season in Brisbane with some great runs, but without really winning anything. It proved to be his launching pad."

> "I've said it before, I've been in the game more than 25 years and Leap To Fame is the best horse I've seen. To race against him in big races is a privilege, to beat him is incredible. [Don] Hugo's been able to do that twice on his merits and we'll head to Brisbane [for the Inter Dominion series] hoping he can do it again."

In the space of the next six months (September 2024 to March 2025), Don Hugo won the world's richest harness race, the then $2.1 million TAB Eureka, landed the iconic Inter Dominion final and then upstaged Leap To Fame in the 2025 Miracle Mile final.

It's the only time in three cracks at the Miracle Mile that Leap To Fame has been beaten.

"What a ride those six or seven months were," Licastro said.

"It started in the most amazing fashion with that Eureka win. I don't think I've said this publicly, but when we were trying to get a slot holder to take him, Luke said if he was in the betting markets, they might take notice.

"So, I rang someone at TAB [betting shop] and asked them to add him to the market. They put him at $71, so I had $1,000 on him [to win $71,000], then another $1,000 at $51 [to win $51,000] and then another $1,000 again at $21 [to win $21,000].

"We had so many reasons to celebrate, which we certainly did with family and friends, that night.

"It was a win I'd talked about a year earlier when I sat with friends watching Encipher win [and beat Leap To Fame] in the inaugural Eureka. Don Hugo won a support race on the night and I said, 'We'll be back next year with him to win the Eureka.'

"The two years since I said that have been a dream come true for someone who loves the game and has been in it as long as me.

"It's been a time to treasure. It's amazing how a horse like this can bring a family together and really bond them. He's done that for us."

But the past six months have been rocky for Don Hugo.

He bypassed some early season features in Victoria to focus on the Miracle Mile (where he ran a great third to Leap To Fame) and the $1.25 million Nullarbor (slot race) in Perth.

"He was favorite, but got sick with a stomach blockage and we had to scratch him," Licastro said. "It was scary, really scary for a while and Luke [McCarthy] stayed there all night with him one night. Thankfully, they finally cleared the blockage with tubes.

"Luke said all the signs are that he's fully recovered, but it's still a bit of a wait and see for me.

"He's racing Saturday night [at Menangle] in a race he should win, so that will tell us more."

Don Hugo will be accompanied to Brisbane by his heir apparent amongst the "22 or so" horses Licastro owns through his Kingstead Lodge business.

That's exciting 2-year-old Don Hunter, who made it four wins and a third from just five starts when he effortlessly won the $100,000 Australian Gold final at Menangle last Saturday.

"Luke loves this horse," Licastro said. "He says he's one of the best 2-year-olds he's trained."

Licastro bought a slot in Australia's richest 2-year-old race, the $500,000 Group 1 Protostar, just so Don Hunter was guaranteed a slot. The race is at Albion Park on July 11.

"That's the thing with the prize money Don Hugo has won us [over $2.7 million], I didn't go and buy a boat or sports car, I've put it back into the game," he said. "I think it's important that people know that.

"I paid $140,000 for Don Hunter as a yearling and spent a lot on three yearlings Luke picked out in the U.S. sales a couple of years back and all of them have won races, so I've been lucky."

The headline act is Governor's Cup winner Gentleman's Club, who is being set for the Meadowlands Pace after a recent trip to the North America Cup qualifiers.

"He's the second colt Luke bought that year," Licastro said. "The first, Ring In The Captain, won four races in the U.S. and he's now in Australia and will race here. There's also a filly [Captain Betty] who's not far off returning to the races [in the U.S.].

"I've also got a trotter we bought in the U.S. and won there, called I'm King Of The Hill, and it's also now in Australia to continue racing here."

> "That's the thing with the prize money Don Hugo has won us [over $2.7 million], I didn't go and buy a boat or sports car, I've put it back into the game. I think it's important that people know that. I paid $140,000 for Don Hunter as a yearling and spent a lot on three yearlings Luke [McCarthy] picked out in the U.S. sales a couple of years back and all of them have won races, so I've been lucky."
> — Tony Licastro

Back to Don Hunter, and Licastro said he provided a vehicle to entice three of his friends who raced thoroughbred horses to try harness racing for the first time.

"I set up a bit of a syndicate when I bought him," he said. "I didn't need to, but there was lots of interest when I had the success with Don Hugo and it's been great to get some thoroughbred guys in. You can imagine how excited they were the other night when he won the Gold final."

While Licastro craves more feature race success, just competing in the biggest races remains a thrill.

"I spent years and years with my horses racing in provincial races, tracks like Penrith, so when Don Hugo comes along and changes all that, it's hard to go back," he said with a laugh.

"Luckily, I've had some luck since Hugo and got some more nice horses to keep in the big races.

"We'll go to Brisbane hoping and thrilled to be part of it, but knowing what a big challenge it's going to be, especially for Hugo against Leap To Fame.

"But he's beaten him twice before and he's got Luke McCarthy, so we'll be giving it our best shot."

Borups Victory dominates Oslo Grand Prix

by Thomas Hedlund

Bjerke Racetrack in Oslo played host to the $212,000 Oslo Grand Prix for older trotters over 2,100 meters on Sunday (June 14), and the outcome was largely as expected. Borups Victory delivered a performance that required no apologies.

Everything appeared to set up perfectly beforehand for Daniel Wäjersten's star. Drawn favorably behind the gate, the handsome 8-year-old enjoyed a straightforward path to the front.

Robert Bergh sent Get A Wish aggressively to the lead at the start but had little interest in controlling the pace and willingly yielded to Borups Victory after 400 meters.

The tempo remained honest throughout, largely because Epic Kronos was parked first-over for Örjan Kihlström. Epic Kronos looked imposing on the leader's outside and the pair traveled at a strong, even pace from start to finish. Ultimately, however, the trip proved too demanding for the challenger.

Turning for home, Kihlström likely realized that Borups Victory was too hard to beat and when he elected to drop Epic Kronos into the pocket entering the stretch, the race was effectively over.

Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) strode away impressively to win in a race-record 1:52.2 mile rate over 2,100 meters.

"Both horses raced great," Wäjersten said afterward. "Borups Victory really has no weaknesses and on top of that he has an incredible mentality. I could stand here for 45 minutes talking about him — he can do everything. This is a huge win. I've watched this race since I was 10 years old, and now I've been fortunate enough to compete in it the last few years."

And yes, both horses raced well.

Stablemate Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon) unleashed a tremendous rally from fourth- and fifth-over and nearly got by Epic Kronos late for second. Epic Kronos held gamely for runner-up honors, while defending champion Kentucky River (Father Patrick) finished fourth after tracking the cover flow from second-over.

The victory was Borups Victory's eighth Group 1 triumph, adding to an already stellar résumé that includes the Hugo Åbergs Memorial, Paralympiatravet, two Kymi Grand Prix victories, and three wins in the Seinäjoki Race.

> "Borups Victory really has no weaknesses and on top of that he has an incredible mentality. I could stand here for 45 minutes talking about him — he can do everything. This is a huge win [in the Oslo Grand Prix]. I've watched this race since I was 10 years old, and now I've been fortunate enough to compete in it the last few years."

CASTOR THE STAR UPSETS THE ELITE IN BODEN

A quick beginning, a pocket trip behind Mellby Jinx, and a perfectly timed stretch move.

That was the recipe for success as Castor The Star captured the $200,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris under the midnight sun in Boden on Saturday (June 13).

The script seemed written for a third victory in the race by Francesco Zet, but when Örjan Kihlström failed to protect the lead against Mellby Jinx, the task became significantly tougher for the Daniel Redén trainee.

Francesco Zet was already under pressure with 500 meters remaining while Mellby Jinx had opened up several lengths after a blistering first kilometer rated in 1:51.4 mile-rate speed.

Mats E. Djuse likely felt victory was within reach as he turned for home aboard Mellby Jinx, especially with heavy favorite Francesco Zet already well beaten.

But sitting directly behind the leader was Castor The Star (Maharajah), traveling strongly. Midway through the stretch, Mika Forss tipped Jörgen Westholm's 8-year-old to the outside and the response was immediate.

In a matter of strides Castor The Star swept past Mellby Jinx and handed Djuse a defeat aboard what is normally one of his regular mounts. Djuse is the usual driver of Castor The Star, but serves as Daniel Wäjersten's primary catch-driver behind Mellby Jinx whenever Wäjersten elects not to drive himself.

"We've had a lot of success together with Jörgen over the years," said a jubilant Forss. "When his horses are right, they're easy

> "We've had a lot of success together with [trainer] Jörgen [Westholm] over the years. When his horses are right, they're easy to drive. During the race [Castor The Star] felt alert, young, and eager. To beat Elitlopp horses is a lot of fun. I joked with Westholm before the races today that the last time we won together here [in Boden] the first prize was only 500,000 Swedish crowns. Today it was a million."

to drive. During the race he felt alert, young, and eager. To beat Elitlopp horses is a lot of fun. I joked with Westholm before the races today that the last time we won together here the first prize was only 500,000 Swedish crowns. Today it was a million."

The victory was by far the biggest of Castor The Star's career. His previous top payday came when he finished second to Francesco Zet in this same event two years ago.

IDAO DE TILLARD HEADS PRIX RENÉ BALLIÈRE

Following the first round of declarations, 15 horses remain in the Group 2 $220,000 Prix René Ballière at Vincennes on Sunday (June 21).

Several major names have already come out of the race, including Inexess Bleu, Hokkaido Jiel, Koctel du Dain, and Inmarosa, which certainly improves the prospects of Idao de Tillard (Severino).

The Elitlopp contingent includes not only Idao de Tillard but also Jabalpur (Booster Winner) and Keep Going (Follow You). They will face a fresh challenge from Free Time Jepson (Face Time Bourbon), making his first start since sweeping both the elimination and final of the Gran Premio della Lotteria.

Jabalpur set a world record in this race last year with a 1:50.3 mile rate over 2,100 meters, but that mark is safe this season as the race has been changed to 2,700 meters with standing start conditions.

HEAT WAVE FORCES HISTORIC CHANGE AT VINCENNES

An extreme heat wave expected to hit France this weekend has forced the French Trotting Association to activate contingency plans for Sunday's (June 21) card at Vincennes.

First post has been moved all the way up to 8:30 a.m. CET after weather forecasts projected temperatures of 38 – 40°C (100 – 104°F) across large portions of the country.

By shifting the entire program forward, officials hope to complete all nine races under significantly cooler conditions.

The final race is scheduled for approximately 1:15 p.m., several hours earlier than a normal Sunday program.

While Vincennes has adjusted start times before — most notably during the 2022 FIFA World Cup final between France and Argentina — hosting a Sunday card with first post at 8:30 a.m. is unprecedented.

WISE GUY IMPRESSES AT SOLVALLA

Wise Guy delivered a tremendous effort in Wednesday's (June 17) $100,000 Prix Calgary Games at Solvalla.

From third-over, Örjan Kihlström launched the Daniel Redén-trained colt three-wide with 700 meters remaining and the son of Face Time Bourbon wore down both pacesetter Papillon Boko and first-over challenger Zarex in deep stretch. Wise Guy stopped the clock in 1:54.1 over 2,100 meters.

The 4-year-old enjoyed a highly successful campaign for Per Nordström last season, setting a world record of 1:54.1 in the Breeders Course final on Elitloppet weekend before adding the Swedish E3 Long final later in the year. He transferred to Daniel Redén at the end of 2025.

MODER TERESA SISU RETURNS TO WINNING FORM

The same evening featured the $50,000 Prix Diana Zet for 4-year-old mares. Moder Teresa Sisu (Walner), trained by Timo Nurmos and driven by Magnus A. Djuse, secured victory after tracking the leader Lust For Life throughout.

Djuse found racing room with 150 meters remaining and last year's Oaks champion surged through late to prevail in a sharp finish.

Moder Teresa Sisu captured the Swedish Oaks last season in a world-record 1:54.4 mile rate over 2,140 meters. Wednesday's victory was her first of the season and came in 1:55.2.

Burke Brigade dominates Gaitway freshman qualifiers

by Ken Weingartner / Media relations manager

Ron Burke-trained horses won eight of the 13 qualifiers for 2-year-olds on Wednesday (June 17) at Gaitway Farm, which hosted its second of three weekly sessions for freshmen pacers and trotters.

Burke, who sent out 29 rookies during the day, swept the three qualifiers for 2-year-old male pacers — with Midwind Buxton, Rose Run Cowboy, and Loud Luxury — before adding victories with colt trotter Pearl Of Hanover, filly pacers Lets Go Fishin, Win Me Over, and Miss Chevious, and filly trotter Nevis Peak.

No other trainer had multiple wins with the 2-year-olds. Linda Toscano got a victory with colt trotter Captain Kenny J, Chris Ryder with filly pacer Wendy J Stings, Joe Bongiorno with filly pacer Alone Again, Christopher Choate with filly pacer Perfect Body, and Marie Dupont with filly trotter Sister Lise.

Rose Run Cowboy (a son of Huntsville—Blameitonthenight) was the day's fastest winner, closing with a :26.2 last quarter as he rallied from third, three-lengths back, to win by a head over stablemate Stonebridge Blitz (Tall Dark Stranger—Shouldabeenatd) in 1:54. Tim Tetrick drove the colt, who was purchased for $90,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon. He was bred by Larry Schlabach.

Midwind Buxton (Stay Hungry—Scorn) got his second Q win with a gate-to-wire 1:55.2 score with Yannick Gingras in the sulky. The colt, a 1:56.1 winner last week, coasted home two lengths in front for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Brad Grant, and Phil Collura. Bred by Midwind Farms, he was a $95,000 buy at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Loud Luxury (Captaintreacherous—Shanghai Seelster) got the lead in a 1:01.1 opening half but soon thereafter was in the pocket behind stablemate Dirigo (Papi Rob Hanover—Summer Charm) on the way to three-quarters in 1:29. Loud Luxury and driver Tetrick found room inside and sprinted home in :26.4 to win by a half-length over Dirigo in 1:56. The colt, a $70,000 Standardbred Horse Sale purchase, is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Purnel & Libby, Knox Services, and Frank Baldachino. He was bred by 1876472 Ontario Inc. and Princeton Farms.

Chris Tully

Nevis Peak (Yannick Gingras), a daughter of Walner out of Hambletonian winner Ramona Hill, won in 1:59.1 on Wednesday at Gaitway Farm.

Pearl Of Hanover (Ecurie D DK—Passageway) followed stablemate The Reason (Father Patrick—Sherrys Lady) for three-quarters-of-a-mile, in 1:30.2, before using a :28.3 last quarter to triumph by a half-length in 1:59.1. Gingras drove the colt trotter for Burke Racing Stable, Jim Simpson, Purnel & Libby, and Larry Karr. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and purchased for $32,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale.

Miss Chevious (Tall Dark Stranger—Just Divine) came her back half in :53.4 as she rallied from third on the way to a five-length 1:56.2 win that was the fastest of Burke's three victorious filly pacers. Gingras was in the sulky for breeders/owners Bill Donovan, Craig Henderson, Joe Sbrocco, and Purnel & Libby.

Win Me Over (Huntsville—Winners Over) won gate-to-wire with Tetrick in 1:57.2. She is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, Phil Collura, and AC Crawford Farms. Bred by Kad Farms, she was purchased for $120,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Lets Go Fishin (All Bets Off—Fashion Fluzzy) won comfortably by 7¼ lengths in 1:58, with a back half in :54.4, for Gingras. She is a homebred filly for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, Purnel & Libby, and Larry Karr.

Capping the Burke octet of winners was Nevis Peak (Walner—Ramona Hill), who trotted her back half in :55 en route to a 1:59.1 victory with Gingras. The filly trotter, who won last week in 1:59.3, was purchased for $250,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Crawford Farms Racing, Brad Grant, and Larry Karr. She was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and Crawford Farms Racing.

Toscano's Captain Kenny J (Captain Corey—Tuvalu) won the faster of the two qualifiers for male trotters, stopping the timer in 1:57.3 with Scott Zeron in the sulky. Purchased for $140,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, the colt is owned by Ken Jacobs and was bred by Crawford Farms.

Alone Again (Heston Blue Chip—Lonesome Day) was the fastest winner among the filly pacers, getting a pocket trip on the way to a 1:56 triumph with Bongiorno handling the driving. Bred by Docs Farm, she is a homebred for Let It Ride Stables and ownership partner Morrison Racing Stables.

Wendy J Stings (Perfect Sting—Paula's Power) was just one-fifth-of-a-second off Alone Again's time as she earned a nose victory over Burke-trained Wish For A Captain (Captaintreacherous—Wishy Washy Girl) for driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Ryder, and owner Jacobs. She was bred by Thaddeus Wier and purchased for $127,000.

Perfect Body (Perfect Sting—Sweet Body) wrapped up the qualifiers for the freshman filly pacers with a 1:56.3 win for trainer Choate and driver Andy McCarthy. She was purchased for $20,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Randall Beach, Craig Smith, Charles Rowe, and Carl Austin, Jr. She was bred by Vieux Carre Farms and Max Hempt.

Sister Lise (Father Patrick—Checkmate Time), a homebred filly trotter, won in 2:00 for trainer Marie Dupont, who shared ownership and breeding credit with Roy Dobbins. Donald Dupont handled the driving.

Qualifiers for 2-year-olds will return to Gaitway Farm on June 24. Post time will be 9:30 a.m. (EDT).

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Burke pair nears series sweep with Oak Grove KYSS wins

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Defending champion Harrisburg Heist and his stablemate Captain Arturovico both nabbed wins in the third preliminary of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) action for trainer Ron Burke at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel for 4-year-olds on Monday (June 15) as they now both eye a series sweep into the $150,000 finals next week.

Captain Arturovico (driven by Dexter Dunn) opened the afternoon's KYSS action with a 1:50.4 win in the first division for pacing horses and geldings. Dunn settled the 3-5 favorite into third while Banderas (Yannick Gingras) fired for the top to a :27.1 first quarter and carried his speed to a :55 half. Banderas continued on the muscle up the backstretch as Captain Arturovico lifted off the pegs and advanced up the rim marching for three-quarters in 1:23.1. Captain Arturovico then slid to the lead in the stretch and held firmly for a one-length win over Falcon (Marcus Miller), who closed from off cover for second. Fusion (Todd McCarthy) rallied from a pocket trip for third and Banderas settled for fourth.

A gelding by Captaintreacherous—Tilikum, Captain Arturovico races for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura. He collected his third win of the season, all of which have come in this KYSS series, and his 15th win from 40 starts in his career, good for $440,809 in earnings. He paid $3.40 to win.

Harrisburg Heist (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) later rattled his fifth win in a row and his third in this KYSS series with a 1:49.1 win in the other split for pacing males. Wrenn, Jr. faced little resistance leaving off the car from post 3 with the 1-9 favorite to a :26.4 first quarter and cruised through middle fractions of :55 and 1:22.1 to seal the win under a snug hold by 2¾ lengths over pocket chaser Damn The Torpedoes (Tim Tetrick). Somelousomewhere (Dunn) followed in third and Bourbon County (McCarthy) took fourth.

A gelding by Downbytheseaside—Cashaway, Harrisburg Heist competes for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc., Phil Collura, and Weaver Bruscemi LLC. He won his fifth race from six starts this season and his 18th race from 37 starts in his career, earning $725,202. He paid $2.22 to win.

Whiskey Wow (Dunn) regained his groove in the first KYSS division for trotting males with an aggressive 1:51.2 effort. Dunn pushed wide with his charge from mid-pack through a :27.2 first quarter and brushed by quarter-mover Gimpanzee Dancer (Andy McCarthy) to take the lead just before clocking a half in :54.4. Whiskey Wow continued to roll up the backside, clocking three-quarters in 1:22.4, and stayed strong through the lane as Gimpanzee Dancer attacked from the pocket trip to ultimately finish second, beaten three-quarters-of-a-length. My Degenerate (Tyler Miller) gave chase behind the top pair for third and Royal Comet (Marvin Luna) followed in fourth.

Matthew Wilson trains Whiskey Wow, a gelding by Crazy Wow—Whimzical Britt, for owner Burlin Brower. He won his third race from seven starts this season and his 12th race from 25 starts in his career, earning $171,530. He paid $4.56 to win.

Vugoo (Gingras) went pillar-to-post in the other KYSS division for trotting males with a 1:52.1 effort. Gingras planted out of post 6 to the top past a :27.2 first quarter and kept his competition strung out through a :55.2 half. Vugoo coasted to three-quarters in 1:23.3 pursued by Te Quiero Lindy (Wrenn, Jr.) and strode for home with a comfortable lead to keep that rival at bay by 1½ lengths. Boots N Beer (Joey Putnam) pushed first up to take third from Herecomesdajudge (Tyler Miller) in fourth.

Jonas Czernyson trains and co-owns Vugoo, a stallion by Googoo Gaagaa—Deja Vu Too, with Per Eriksson, Consus Racing Stable Inc., Dan Shetler, and Merrill Murray. He paid $8.20 to win.

R Dutchess (Tetrick) snagged a second win in this KYSS series with a pocket-popping win in 1:53. Tetrick secured a seat behind leader Lasting Dream (Daniel Dube) to a :27.1 first quarter as 6-5 favorite Winnpanzee (Gingras) rolled off-stride in her leave attempt. Lasting Dream grabbed a breather to a :56 half but endured a blitz from 51-1 shot Grand Reserve (Andy McCarthy) on the march to three-quarters in 1:24.4. The pair raced in lockstep through the turn while R Dutchess awaited clearance that opened spinning for home. Tetrick angled his charge to the center of the track and zipped by upon straightening for a length win over a game Lasting Dream. Grand Reserve settled for third and Voguish (Dunn) rallied from second over for fourth.

Tyler Butenschoen trains R Dutchess, a mare by Father Patrick—The Ice Dutchess, for lessees M And L of Delaware LLC and Armitage Farm. She won her ninth race from 32 starts in her career, earning $588,438, and paid $7.48 to win.

Three Times Bettor (Dunn) found her groove again following a defeat in leg 2 with a 1:49.4 rebound in the single KYSS dash for pacing mares. Dunn swooped from post 7 to the lead through a :26.3 first quarter and held authority through a clip of :55 and 1:22.3 to cross the beam a length winner over pocket-sitter Champagne Room (Tetrick). Unreasonable (Andy McCarthy) settled for third from a first-over push while Aintnothingucando (Gingras) hugged the pylons for fourth.

Brett Pelling trains Three Times Bettor, a mare by Bettors Delight—Three Times A Lady, for owner Thaddeus Wier. She won her fifth race from six starts this season and her 14th race from 23 starts in her career, earning $317,814. She paid $5.18 to win.

Pocono stakes fillies see no repeaters and all take marks

by PHHA / Pocono

Curtis Salonick
Frattina Diablo S (Scott Zeron) was the fastest sophomore trotting filly in PASS action on Sunday at Pocono, winning in 1:52.1.

There were two constants as 3-year-old trotting fillies raced for over $200,000 in two divisions of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and five divisions of the Pennsylvania Stallion Series at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania during a Sunday (June 14) twilight card. One constant was that there would be no first round winner repeating in this second preliminary leg; the other was that every winner would set a lifetime mark.

Fastest of all the fillies was Frattina Diablo S, a daughter of the hot sire Captain Corey, who proved best in a four-horse PASS grouping at the wire, stopping the timer in 1:52.1. The Scott Zeron-driven diamondgaiter, second by a nose in her first prelim, was close-up during a :27.4 opener then brushed to the lead past first-round winner Maya Patel Hanover before a :56.2 half. Nuance started an uncovered bid before a 1:24.3 three-quarters, and as the field came through the stretch, there were two inside the favored leader, Maya Patel Hanover and Little Road to that's one left, and the raw Nuance to the outside.

Frattina Diablo S showed grit while trotting her last quarter in :27.3, warding off the 20-1 shot Little Road in the deep Pocono Pike by a neck, with Maya Patel Hanover another neck back and just getting the show nod in a picture with Nuance. Frattina Diablo S is trained by Tony Alagna for Steve Stewart and Dreamlover AB.

The other section saw the Bar Hopping filly Lainey W step her last fraction in :27.1 while using the Pocono Pike to win a head decision over favored Carve in 1:52.3. Carve was on the move at the :28.3 quarter and made the lead, carving out mid-splits of :57.3 and 1:25.1 (a :27.3 third quarter). Normally a :55 last half would do a filly very well in this type of race, but Lainey W had just a bit more after the good journey to prove more photogenic.

Lainey W, who had a second in a PA All-Stars race in her only other start of 2026, was driven by Yannick Gingras for trainer Marcus Melander and the partnership of Brittany Farms LLC and Marvin And Lynn Katz.

Zeron also had the fastest winner in the Stallion Series racing, I Take The Cake, another daughter of Captain Corey, and when you check her 1:52.2 win time against the Sires clockings, you'll see that she may well fit in with this division's best. Third in her first StS contest, I Take The Cake made two speed moves and had a clear lead at head of the stretch, but she won by only a half-length as Green Maztake almost repaired a brief backstretch miscue with a huge stretch kick. The winner is trained by Blake MacIntosh for himself and Hutt Racing Stable.

The son-in-law-and-father-in-law team of driver Mike Wilder and trainer Dan Altmeyer accounted for two Stallion Series cuts. The Greenshoe miss Skyline Salty Gal closed to be along by a neck over Intisaar Mil in 1:54.1 for owners Altmeyer Wilder Racing, Anthony Capone, Jr., Mark Capone, and David Wills; Altmeyer/Wilder Racing and Wells also own, along with Dr. Courtney Evans and Beverly Ross, Avianna Hanover, yet another Captain Corey offspring, who came from seventh at the stretch call to get up a neck up over Lady Tessie Marie in 1:55.1.

Trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer, who had come so far to just miss with Green Maztake earlier, went to the front with Islandgirl Hanover and won handily in 1:53.2 for longtime stable patron Purple Haze Stables LLC, in the process giving Captain Corey his third Stallion Series credit and fourth stakes credit overall on the evening. The other StS section had the Cantab Hall filly Royally Bred win after a pocket trip in 1:55.3, pulling a 16-1 upset for driver Braxten Boyd and trainer Ray Schnittker, the latter co-owner with Steven Arnold.

Zeron had a driving triple, including one of the two winners that Alagna sent out, as mentioned. Team Wilder/Altmeyer, also as mentioned, also had two victories.

Whoomp continues strong start to 2026 in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Whoomp driven by John De Long for trainer Roger Welch held firm taking home the second leg of the $94,500 second leg of Indiana Sires Stakes 3-year-old Fillies at Hoosier Park on Saturday (June 13).

Setting the tone early, Whoomp was quickest out of the gate from post 3, beating out the rest of the field to the first turn in :27.4. Headed to the backstretch, Whoomp maintained the lead followed single file with Klorox Queen (Trace Tetrick) closest to the leader in second.

Whoomp led the seven-horse field not breaking a sweat to the halfway mark in :56.4. Klorox Queen stayed tight to the leader in second followed by Treacherous Woman (Kyle Wilfong) and Somemore Blue (Marcus Miller). The post-time favorite Somemore Blue transitioned to the outside hoping to make a move on the top three.

Whoomp held strong to the three-quarter turn in 1:24.4 with Somemore Blue sliding into third and Klorox Queen hanging on to second. Upon arrival at the stretch, Somemore Blue moved to the leader's wheel as the top two began to separate from the rest of the field. Somemore Blue turned on the jets with her sights set on the leader; however, Whoomp fought back to reclaim breathing room from Somemore Blue with a :26 final quarter. Whoomp carried the momentum to break the wire three-quarters-of-a-length clear in 1:50.4. Somemore Blue settled for second, while Klorox Queen was third.

The 3-year-old filly is owned by William De Long, Patrick De Long, and Jesse De Long. Whoomp was bred by William De Long and Wm Patrick De Long. Whoomp boosted her lifetime earnings to $421,101 and tallied her second win of the season in as many tries. Whoomp paid $3.80 to win.

Ponda Jet driven by Wilfong for trainer Jay Hochstetler returned to winning ways after a victory in the $22,000 open trot at Hoosier Park on Saturday (June 13).

At the start, four trotters put up a bid for an early lead with Ponda Jet eventually claiming the lead at the quarter in :26.2 with Drink Up Drink Up (Brandon Bates) at his heels. Ponda Jet motored along the backstretch to the halfway point in :55.3 leaving the field unchanged. The favorite Ponda Jet showed no signs of slowing down at the three-quarters in 1:25 as Finite (Tetrick) in third felt pressure from Famous Father (John De Long) in fourth. Ponda Jet kept her foot to the pedal flying to the wire in 1:53, eliminating any risk from the ongoing pursuers. Finite rallied for second, while Drink Up Drink Up ended up in third.

Ponda Jet is owned by Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig, and Allen Schwartz to boost his lifetime earnings to $837,472. The Dover Dan gelding claimed his third win of the season to pay $3.20 to win.

Big Ranger lowers track record again at Scioto

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

For his second start in a row, Big Ranger lowered the Eldorado Scioto Downs track record for 3-year-old colt trotters – this time tripping the beam in 1:50.3 on Saturday night (June 13). The win was in the second $75,000 division of the Ohio Sires Stakes.

Tim Tetrick got the call on Big Ranger after switching to the Anette Lorentzon barn after his last start. The pair got away third off the car from post 3, but with a breaker, settled in for the pocket trip going to the :26.3 opening quarter. Just before the :56 half, Tetrick pulled Big Ranger and the pair sprinted away from the field by the 1:22.4 third-quarter. Big Ranger won by six lengths over Tom Largo (Chris Lems); Rose Run Boom (Luke Hanners) was third.

Big Ranger is owned by Madison Global and now has three wins in five seasonal starts. The $25,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Spring Haven Farm is by In Range out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird.

The first OHSS division went to Soulful Saul and Hanners in 1:53.3. The pair went straight to the top and led through fractions of :28, :57.3, and 1:25 before winning by 2¾ lengths over Knob Creek Moni (Trevor Smith), with Water Slide (Brett Miller) finishing third. It was the first seasonal victory out of four starts for the son of Ready For Moni out of the Tom Ridge mare Celebrity Obsesion. Trained by Steve Carter for Jay Mossbarger, Peggy Carter, and Philip Skinner, Soulful Saul now has $142,309 in lifetime earnings.

Saturday's card also hosted the $30,000 Jerry Knappenberger final for non-winners of one colt pacers. Sunnys In The Sea turned a perfect pocket trip into victory to cross the line first in 1:52. Driven by Tyler Smith for co-owner and trainer Ron Steck, Bootville Stables, and Jeffrey Breece, the Downbytheseaside gelding won by a neck over Eddie Nine Toes (Miller).

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Sept. 19. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Rick Magee bags four at Running Aces, sweeps Sunday features

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

The Sunday night (June 14) program at Running Aces featured the Minnesota-sired sophomore trotters going for $35,000 in two divisions, as well as the weekly $15,000 open handicap trot, and driver Rick Magee captured victory in all three events as part of a four-win night for the Aces stalwart.

Magee piloted Bang Bang Boogie (New Jersey Viking, $3.40) to a sharp 1:57.4 victory over SV Shining Star and Shots On Goal in the $21,000 Minnesota-sired sophomore "A" trot for his fourth win of the season for owners Stephanie Anfinson and Ken Stauffer and trainer Justin Anfinson, who also sent out the runner-up.

Magee also steered My Little Maverick (Maverick, $3.60) to his first win of the season with a career best 1:59.1 mile over Wisco Moni Heist and Imjumpnjackflash in the $14,000 sophomore "B" division for owners Aimes Racing and Connie Oke and trainer Elvin Zimmerman.

Magee was also teamed up with Escaper from post 6 in the Open and was sent off as the 3-1 second choice, while Fifty Rivers (driver Casey Leonard) was the heavy favorite at 3-5, and those two horses dominated the affair.

In the open handicap trot, Magee sent Escaper straight toward the front as the gate sped away and Leonard and Fifty Rivers came charging from post 8 to take the lead just before the :27.1 quarter while Peanutbutterfalcon (Mooney Svendsen) secured third position from the rail draw.

Lexus Markus (Dean Magee) had also left for position but was caught on the outside and forced to press the leaders through the middle stages in :56.3 and 1:25.4 before tiring near the top of the lane.

As they swung for home, Fifty Rivers was still going strong but Escaper was ready to pounce from the pocket and tipped out to go after the leader. Fifty Rivers fought gamely to the line, but Escaper surged strongest in the final strides to prevail by a neck in 1:54.4 while Peanutbutterfalcon held third.

It was the second win of the season for Escaper, a 5-year-old son of Muscle Hill who is owned by Rotiboy4Eva Racing Stable. The winning trainer is Harold Herrera for the Maria Alvarez stable. He paid $8.80 to win.

The other multi-race winners on Sunday included driver Casey Leonard and trainer Justin Anfinson.

Snowonthepines continues her dominance

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Snowonthepines, the sensational 3-year-old Maine-bred pacing filly has continued her tour de force by crushing her opponents in her first race of the year on Saturday (June 13) at Cumberland Raceway.

Winning all nine of her races at 2, including the lucrative $85,000 final, the daughter of Dude's The Man was last year's undisputed Maine 2-year-old pacing filly champion. Now, it appears that the Marc Tardif-trained sophomore distaff will be just as dangerous to her competition this year.

Regular driver Kevin Switzer, Jr. drove the prohibitive 1-9 favorite from post 5, in the $15,209 opening day of the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

As expected, when the wings folded Snowonthepines was sent out for an early lead and hit the first panel in :29.4. She continued to set the tempo into a 1:00.4 half and with just Ekorus (4-1, Nick Graffam) tipping to the outside through a 1:30.1 third stanza.

But it was already too late for the chasers as the filly had six lengths on the field at the head of the stretch and increased that advantage to nine when Snowonthepines tripped the timer under the wire in 1:59.

Owned and bred by Leighton Property, the unbeaten lass paid just $2.20.

Ekorus finished second; Perfectly Lovely (Aaron Hall) who sat in the pocket throughout the entire mile, hung on for third.

Perhaps setting the stage for his "big filly," trainer Marc Tardif also won the first $15,209 division with Dudelookslikeafily in gate-to-wire fashion.

Driver Aaron Hall sent the daughter of Dude's The Man right to the top and never looked back as the filly picked up her first stakes victory and a new lifetime mark of 1:59.3.

Owned by Leighton Property and Victoria Leighton, she was bred by Stephanie Gray and returned $5.20.

Graceofspades (2-1, Dave Ingraham) finished second; Race Me Ireland (Andy Harrington) was third.

The Pine Tree State-bred action marks the first $15,000-plus round of the Maine Sire Stakes program, which is the start of the 18-week season of New England's premier harness racing showcase.

Update on backstretch barn fire at Saratoga Casino Hotel harness track

Saratoga Casino Hotel and the Saratoga Harness Horsepersons Association are providing an update regarding the barn fire that occurred at approximately 2:30 a.m. this morning (June 16) in the backstretch area of the harness racetrack. Officials have confirmed that 17 horses perished in the fire.

The barn housed a total of 18 horses and was completely destroyed. One horse escaped the barn and sustained minor injuries.

The horses belonged to two trainers who stabled their horses in the barn. Trainer Robyn Mongiardo lost 11 horses, while trainer Timothy Benson lost six horses.

The fire was contained to a single barn and did not spread to adjacent structures. Security personnel from both Saratoga Casino Hotel and the nearby Saratoga Racecourse, along with emergency responders, acted quickly to evacuate horses from neighboring barns and secure the surrounding area. Approximately 350 horses are typically housed in the backstretch.

"The loss suffered today is heartbreaking for our racing community," said Sam Gerrity, chief executive officer of Saratoga Casino Hotel. "Our thoughts remain with Robyn, Tim, their teams, the horse owners, and everyone affected by this tragedy. We are deeply grateful to the security personnel, first responders, and racing staff whose swift actions helped protect the horses and people in the surrounding barns."

Saratoga Casino Hotel is working with Saratoga Hospital to make grief counseling services available to trainers, caretakers, owners, and other members of the backstretch community affected by this tragedy. Information regarding counseling resources will be provided directly to those impacted.

"This is a sobering day in our industry, a horseperson's worst nightmare," said Henry Westbrook, president Saratoga Harness Horseperson's Association. "We express our deep condolences to all impacted and thank all emergency responders and track workers for their quick response."

The area remains closed as investigators continue to determine the cause of the fire.

Saratoga Casino Hotel will hold a memorial service to honor the horses lost in the fire. Details regarding the service will be announced at a later date.

Saratoga Casino Hotel announces $100,000 donation, more following barn fire tragedy

In response to the devastating barn fire that occurred on Tuesday morning (June 16), Saratoga Casino Hotel announced Thursday (June 17) a coordinated response that includes a $100,000 donation, upcoming fundraising efforts, and a memorial service to honor the horses lost in the tragedy.

A $100,000 donation will be made to the Saratoga Harness Horsepersons Association to support horsemen, trainers, staff, and backstretch workers impacted by the fire.

"This contribution will be used to support those affected as they begin the long process of recovery in the aftermath of an unimaginable tragedy," said Henry Westbrook, Jr, president of the Saratoga Harness Horsepersons Association. "We greatly appreciate the outpouring of support from the community and in particular this generous donation from Saratoga Casino Hotel."

In addition, Saratoga Casino Hotel will host fundraising opportunities throughout its Sunset Saturday Series, running from July 11 through Aug. 29, to further support those impacted by the disaster. Information regarding the Sunset Saturday Series is available at SaratogaCasino.com.

Saratoga Casino Hotel is also planning a memorial service to honor the 17 horses lost in the fire. Details regarding the service will be announced in the coming days.

"Racing is the foundation of our company's history," said Sam Gerrity, chief executive officer of Saratoga Casino Hotel. "My father and grandfather were in the harness racing industry, and for us this isn't just a business — it has been part of our family's livelihood for generations. Although our contribution cannot relieve the pain felt by those so closely impacted, we hope our efforts and support help ease the sorrow as they move forward."

Horses to be honored at the memorial service are: Arlanda, Conquest As, Crazy Jet, Five Star Lou, Free Willy Hanover, Gimlet Hanover, Influencer, Lyons Dukey, Muscle Dynasty, Our Father Lindy, Perfect Bang, Quite Like Me, Race Me Bombshell, Shalamar Hanover, Trackstar, Tropical Cyclone, and Red.

Northfield Park's Tom Aldrich dies

Thomas M. Aldrich, a Trotwood, OH native, died on Friday night (June 12).

Aldrich was inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2025 and the Ohio Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 1999.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Ohio State University in 1972 and a law degree from the University of Cincinnati's College of Law in 1975, Aldrich chose a career in the harness racing industry rather than in the law.

Aldrich's passion for harness racing came from his childhood trips to Lebanon Raceway with his father Clyde.

He got his start at Harness Tracks of America where he was hired as Stan Bergstein's executive assistant and worked there from the fall of 1975 through January of 1977.

Tom took a three-year break from the harness racing industry when he went to work as a law clerk at the First District Court of Appeals in Cincinnati before returning to racing.

In 1978, he became executive secretary then general manager of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association. That led to his first racetrack job as the general manager of Rosecroft Raceway in Maryland.

It was there that Tom met his wife Lynn, who worked as a patrol judge at Free State, a rival track in Laurel, MD.

In September 1985, he was hired as general manager at Northfield Park in Ohio where he had his greatest impact on harness racing.

According to his Hall of Fame biography, "In 1985, he partnered with owner Carl Milstein, Myron Charna, and other key team members to revitalize the Northeast Ohio half-mile track. Under his leadership, high-profile races attracted top-tier horses and competitive race cards making Northfield a premier destination for harness racing enthusiasts and bettors alike. Tom was a hands-on leader, ever-present from the clubhouse to the backstretch with his walkie-talkie, ensuring every aspect of the track operated smoothly."

Tom told Bob Roberts in a Press Pros magazine story, "Getting the Breeders Crown in 1987 was a big deal, especially for a half-mile track. We ended up having six of them and I'm happy to see Scioto Downs getting next year's Breeders Crown. The Battle of Lake Erie [in 1986] became our first signature event, followed by the Courageous Lady, the companion to the Battle for fillies."

He was named chief operating officer and executive vice president of Northfield Park in 2000 and retired from active management in 2013. After that, Tom continued to contribute as an associate judge. He has also served as a director for both HTA and the United States Trotting Association.

Showdown of 'Mamba,' 'Beau,' and 'Brandon' pushes North America Cup race record handle

Odds On Mr Mamba's thrilling victory in the 43rd Pepsi North America Cup (Grade 1) highlighted a tremendous 2026 event on Saturday (June 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The highly anticipated showdown between top 3-year-old pacers Odds On Mr Mamba, Brandon Blvd, and Beau Jangles helped drive a North America Cup race record handle of $687,448, topping the previous record of $681,716 in 2015. The race handle was also up 25.5 per cent over last year.

The all-sources handle for the 13-race card was $5,610,228, the fourth highest ever. This year's handle delivered a number that would rank at the top if you remove the effect of Jackpot Hi-5 mandatory payouts on Cup cards since 2016.

"We witnessed an incredible race on Saturday night," said Michael Copeland, CEO of Woodbine. "The hype for this year's race was the highest in recent memory and the horses, drivers, trainers, and connections all delivered.

"The energy onsite was excellent and that clearly was felt across the racing world by the record handle for the Cup race. Fans love stars and we love hosting the best of the best at Woodbine Mohawk Park."

Odds On Mr Mamba edged Brandon Blvd and Beau Jangles in an epic stretch battle to win the 2026 $1 million Pepsi North America Cup. It was the first Cup win for James MacDonald, Woodbine's leading driver in each of the past five seasons. Trainer Melanie Wrenn became the seventh woman to train a Cup winner, while owner Dana Parham's Odds On Racing earned their first Cup win.

MacDonald's dream night also included a victory in the $320,000 Roses Are Red (Grade 1) with pacing mare Miki And Minnie. That victory gave trainer Chris Ryder three consecutive wins in the event.

Dexter Dunn, a five-time U.S. Driver of the Year award winner, had a terrific evening by winning three graded stakes, Goodtimes (Grade 2), Armbro Flight (Grade 2) and Mohawk Gold Cup (Grade 3). Dunn in total won four races on the card.

The $420,000 Fan Hanover (Grade 1) for 3-year-old pacing fillies saw a memorable stretch duel go to Loua Dipa and driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. by a head over the previously undefeated Be Perfect BG. The Ron Burke trained Loua Dipa has now won three Grade 1 races at Woodbine Mohawk Park after capturing the She's A Great Lady and Breeders Crown in 2025.

The remaining major race dates for 2026 are listed below:

Aug. 29

William Wellwood Memorial (Grade 1)

Peaceful Way (Grade 1)

Sept. 5

Canadian Pacing Derby (Grade 1)

Maple Leaf Trot (Grade 1)

Sept. 26

DiDomenico gets to 3,000

Trainer Scott DiDomenico achieved his milestone 3,000th win on the card Friday afternoon (June 13) at Harrah's Philadelphia with Calvin Hanover, a day after Chris Ryder notched No. 2,000 here. The 43-year-old DiDomenico, a native of Illinois, is well on his way to his 15th consecutive season of 100+ training wins, with his best year coming in 2019, when he won 305 races and $4.7 million, which contributed greatly to his lifetime earnings of over $46 million. DiDomenico becomes the 19th trainer (11th on the "active" list), according to USTA PATHWAY records, to have conditioned 3,000 winners.

Five-wide almost to the three-sixteenths; four-wide almost to the quarter; three-wide until heading towards the three-eighths; then two-wide until gaining the lead and the inside going into the second turn. And then having the second choice coming right at you up the inside late, getting to near-even in deep stretch.

It takes a special horse to dig down and find more to give after a horror-show trip like that. But that's just what the Papi Rob Hanover mare Gigglingonthebeach did, edging Wise Professor by the smallest possible margin in 1:52.1 to win the $14,000 top fast-class distaff pace.

Wise Professor was the mare just inside Gigglingonthebeach through the early fireworks of :26.4 and :54.3, so she certainly had to do hard work as well. But Gigglingonthebeach, once on top, made the three-quarters in 1:23.2 and then gave a classic display of courage in winning for driver Mark Herschberger, trainer Juan Cano, and Hot Lead Farm. (Give yourself a treat and watch the replay of the race.)

Johnathan Ahle had four wins on the program to top the driving crew; one of them came for Per Engblom, who conditioned two winners. Herschberger had three victories, including both of trainer Ivan Llopez's success stories. Jim Marohn, Jr. had a driving double, including being the pilot behind Calvin Hanover, Scott DiDomenico's 3,000th winner.

Freshmen continue to impress at Harrah's Philly

The 2-year-olds returned to Harrah's Philadelphia 15 races strong for a Tuesday (June 16) baby qualifier section. Pacers of both sexes came together for five races each; there were two events for colts and three for fillies.

Lindy On The Wall, an altered son of International Moni—Dancin On The Wall, looks like he's ready to take on tough opposition right now, as on Tuesday he put in an impressive 1:56.4 mile to take the fastest freshman trot of the day. A winner from the pocket in 2:01 - :28.3 last week with trainer Eddie Dennis in the sulky, this week the driving fell to Andrew McCarthy, and he put the youngster right on the lead, coming home in :57.2 - :28.2 for owners E & K Stable Inc., William Mears, and Roy Parker, Jr.

McCarthy also drove the fastest freshman filly trotter (in fact, he had a win in both sections of the pace, too), with the Captain Corey—All Along miss with the amusing name of Check UR Ego Amigo coming home in 1:59.4. The Nicklas Andersen-trained baby, owned by Concord Stud Farm LLC, came out of the pocket to the lead down the backstretch and finished out nicely in :58.3 - :29.

You go over to the pacing side, but there's McCarthy again, driving the fastest male to have success, Whass Up Cap, a Captaintreacherous—Southwind Serenity gelding, who had not only the fastest mile clocking, 1:56.2, but also the individual quickest last half among the males, :56.3, in winning for trainer Andrew Stafford and Tribbett Racing.

The unifying force among the quickest pacers by sex was sire Captaintreacherous, as he also was the father of filly Lindy Believer (dam Believe Its Lindy), who was the fastest of all the Tuesday morning freshmen with a sparkling time of 1:55.4, flashing the afterburners in :55 - :27.2 in the engine victory. Jason Bartlett sulky sat for trainer Petter Engblom and the partnership of Engblom Farms LLC, R A W Equine Inc., Evans Nation, and Hickory Hollow Stables. All five filly divisions, and four of the colts, were clocked in sub-2:00 time.

McCarthy was tops driving five successful babies, while trainer Nancy Takter sent out three success stories.

There may be one more baby summary coming after this one – most of the area ovals are starting to card the freshmen in overnight races, and the Pennsylvania stakes season, both Sire Stakes / Stallion Series and Fair Sire Stakes, have Opening Day as July 1. Replays of these qualifiers are scheduled to be available at www.phha.org.

Graduates return to rock the clock at Big M

Despite a severe thunderstorm that made it necessary to delay the start of the races 37 minutes, a 'wet-fast' track at The Meadowlands last Friday (June 12) led to some drag-strip-like final times as the fastest miles of the year in the sport on the both the pace and trot were established at the mile oval.

The good news for racing fans? Those horses will all be back on the track this Saturday (June 20) at The Big M.

But back to last week. That night, the second leg of the Graduate Series for 4-year-olds of each gait took to the track, with some big names putting forth some huge performances.

First up was Super Chapter, the Marcus Melander trainee who walked away with a divisional title a year ago. He made the lead while parked in :27.3 in the first of two Graduate divisions on the trot and went down the road from there for driver Dexter Dunn, blazing his final quarter in :26 to complete a lifetime-best 1:49.3 effort for the son of Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit.

He would stand alone as the fastest trotter of the year for just three races.

Indiana invader On To Norway continued to make splashy headlines over the watery racetrack, as he recorded a remarkable 27th consecutive victory in the other division for Graduate trotters. The gelded son of Muscle Massive—One Class Act moved to the top at the half in :55.2 for Yannick Gingras, before the Ron Burke trainee finished the job with a back-half of :54.1 to equal Super Chapter's seasonal mark with a lifetime-best clocking of 1:49.3.

"He did it pretty easy," said Gingras. "He had plenty left [in the stretch]."

Super Chapter and On To Norway share the seasonal trotting mark, but Captain Optimistic stands alone on the pace.

A Nancy Takter trainee who was a major player on the sophomore male pacing trail a year ago, Captain Optimistic sent out word that he might be a superstar as a 4-year-old, unleashing a season's-fastest 1:46.4 score in the second Graduate pace with Scott Zeron at the controls.

The son of Captaintreacherous—Cinamony brushed to the lead at the half in a demanding :53.2 before pacing his back half in an identical :53.2 clocking to complete the mile in an effort that lowered his previous lifetime best by one-and-one-fifth seconds.

On To Norway, Super Chapter, and Captain Optimistic will all be in action Saturday night at The Meadowlands in the third leg of the Graduate Series, in what will be the final preliminaries before the $250,000 (est.) finals on Saturday (July 4).

On To Norway and Super Chapter will race in separate divisions, setting up what figures to be one of the most anticipated matchups of the year in the final two weeks down the road.

WHO'S ON THE SHOW? Brett Sturman, the handicapper and columnist from Harness Racing Update, will serve as co-host of both shows this weekend alongside regular host Dave Little from the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

The pregame show begins at 6 p.m.

Ken Warkentin will be in his usual spot, calling the races from the roof in the best seat in the house.

Tonight, Gary DiLeo will provide commentary and selections for FanDuel Television (FDTV) as well as providing post-race interviews.

Melissa Keith will handle FDTV on Saturday.

Breakfast with the Babies, which showcases 2-year-olds getting ready for the upcoming stakes season and beyond, takes place this morning at 9 a.m. Matt Zuccarello will be on hand to describe all of the action.

Come on out and grab a program and free breakfast in Trotters.

The baby races are being sponsored this year by the Tactical Landing Syndicate, Ecurie D Syndicate, and Karl Syndicate, standing at Southwind Farms of New Jersey.

If you can't make it to the track, those races can be viewed live at playmeadowlands.com.

SIZZLING SELECTORS: Last week was a good one for bettors who followed the advice of Meadowlands' handicappers.

On Thursday (June 11), just five days after she gave out a record payout of $868 in her "Little's Late Double" spot, Debbie Little grabbed another slice of history, becoming just the third Big M track tout ever to select 10 winners on a card. Little joins her husband, Dave, and Warkentin as the only three to reach double-digit winners on a single program.

Co-host Annie Stoebe, the trainer of Hambletonian hopeful Diabolic Hill, came close to matching Debbie, giving out nine on top.

Warkentin brought the heat on Friday (June 12), giving out eight that hit the wire first. Debbie wasn't far behind, picking seven winners, giving her a total of 24 over a three-program span.

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:35 p.m.

There are several exceptions to those rules.

On July 4, there is a stakes-packed program that includes two Graduate finals as well as eliminations for the Meadowlands Pace. Post time is 6 p.m. At the conclusion of the card, the track will have a fabulous fireworks show.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Aug. 8. That card begins at noon.

Finally, there will be two cards that take place on a Thursday. Those programs are on July 2 and Aug. 6.

There are additional changes to the schedule with the World Cup soccer tournament currently taking place.

There will be no live racing on Saturday (June 27), which created the need for the additional Thursday on July 2.

Finally, The Big M will be closed for simulcasting on the following dates, when World Cup matches will be played at New Jersey New York Stadium (aka MetLife Stadium):

- Monday (June 22)
- Thursday (June 25)
- Tuesday (June 30)
- Sunday (July 5)
- Sunday (July 19)

"We are hoping that our regular customers don't mind some inconvenience when the World Cup is in town," said Settlemoir of the competition that concludes July 19. "But the fact is, those days play out like Football Sundays when the Jets or Giants are playing home games. The difference is, there is no parking on site. We are open on days when there is soccer to any rideshare customers on property. On those days, patrons can get their action in the FanDuel Sportsbook."

THE SPECTACULAR SEVEN: This is the lineup of wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout that will be offered on this weekend's 14-race programs:

- Races 1-5: 20-cent Early Pick-5
- Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Races 6-9: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 7: 10-cent Early Pentafecta (Hi-5)
- Races 8-12: 20-cent Late Pick-5
- Races 10-13: 50-cent Late Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 14: 10-cent Late Pentafecta (Hi-5)

Woodbine Mohawk Park shifts 2-year-old qualifiers

Woodbine Mohawk Park has announced that this week's 2-year-old qualifiers have been shifted to today (June 19) and Saturday (June 20) due to rain and thunderstorms in the forecast for Thursday.

The entry box for this weekend's qualifiers closed on Wednesday.

Qualifiers will begin each morning at 9:30 a.m.

The race office would also like to inform trainers that they can now enter 2-year-olds for qualifiers on Mondays.

OHHA hosting Burgers & Babies event at Scioto Downs on June 22

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association is hosting a Burgers & Babies event on Monday (June 22), at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Burgers & Babies is open to the public and will take place on the Scioto Downs patio from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. during the 2-year-old qualifiers. Hamburgers, hot dogs, chips, drinks, and race programs will be available.

Additionally, representatives will be present to answer questions for those interested in learning more about racehorse ownership.

June 22 also marks the final day to submit entries for the OHHA's 2026 Harness Racing Fantasy League. The OHHA will have entry forms available to fill out during the event. This year's Harness Racing Fantasy League features $5,000 in total cash prizes, including a $1,500 grand prize. The fantasy season runs from July 1 through Oct. 31. For more information, visit the Fantasy League page on the OHHA website.

Clements crushing inaugural Bet Ontario Handicapping Contest

Handicapper Ryan Clements not only is leading the inaugural Bet Ontario Handicapping Contest, he also has won each of the first two legs – May 29 during the Camluck Classic card at The Raceway at Western Fair District and June 13 during the Pepsi North America Cup card at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Clements – also known as the man who gave the world the Catch Driver racing game app – led all 12 participants at Western Fair with a night-ending bankroll of $102.80 – 30 cents better than runner-up Chris Ruddick. Clements then outdid himself on NA Cup Night against 42 other players, finishing with a bankroll of $386 to put his seasonal total at $488.80 through the second of six legs. In the second leg, Clements defeated runner-up Pierre Charette by $141.45.

Winning both legs has already earned Clements $1,000 in prize money.

The in-person contest, a collaboration between Ontario Racing, HPIbet.com and the Central Ontario Standardbred Association (COSA), features total prize money of $10,000 and is being held during some of Ontario's biggest standardbred events.

Each leg of the contest (full details and standings here) features $1,000 in cash prizes – $500 to the winner, followed by $300 for second place and $200 for third. Each participant starts with their own $100 bankroll and plays that night's races at the host track with a tournament-specific HPIbet betting card. Other than only betting on the host track, participants must make at least three wagers and spend at least $50 of their bankroll.

Contestants are ranked by their total in-tournament-play bankrolls after the final race of participating legs.

Any player that finishes in the top three during any of the six legs automatically qualifies to participate in the championship event. In addition, the championship will be open to any player that finishes in the top 10 by total seasonal bankroll through all six legs, not counting those that have already qualified.

Due to finishing in the top three in either the first or second leg, Clements, Ruddick, Charette, John Ferguson, and Gordon Baird have already qualified for the seasonal championship event to be held during the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Final Night on Oct. 10 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. On that night, $4,000 in cash prizes is up for grabs – $2,000 to the winner, $1,000 to the runner-up, $500 for third, $300 for fourth and $200 for fifth.

Of those that have not, yet, qualified for the championship, the season-long leadership board looks like this through two legs:

Melissa Keith – $132.20

Gary Hunter – $90.28

Jamie Martin – $88.65

David Leslie – $62.75

Ribsy – $59.22

Ralph Moxlay – $56.87

Bonnie Lam – $30

Barry Strongman – $25.90

Tyler Desroches – $20

Art Bos – $19.10

That means if all six legs of the competition had been completed, all 10 of those players would qualify for the championship.

The four remaining legs are:

Sunday (July 26) – Clinton Raceway on Legends Day / National Driving Championship

Aug. 3 – Grand River Raceway on Industry Day / Battle of Waterloo and Battle of the Belles

Sept. 26 – Woodbine Mohawk Park for Mohawk Million / Metro Pace

Oct. 3 – Woodbine Mohawk Park for Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots championship

As of today, 29 of the 43 participants show a balance greater than $0 through the first two legs. Those players are ranked as follows:

Ryan Clements – $488.50

Pierre Charette – $244.55

Gordon Baird – $148.85

Melissa Keith – $132.50

Chris Ruddick – $102.50

John Ferguson – $97.29

Gary Hunter – $90.28

Jamie Martin – $88.65

David Leslie – $62.75

Ribsy – $59.22

Ralph Moxlay – $56.87

Bonnie Lam – $30

Barry Strongman – $25.90

Tyler Desroches – $20

Art Bos – $19.10

Vincenzo Strangis – $18.10

Olivia Saunders – $2.50

James Cauchon – $1.77

Ryan Puglisi – $1.57

John MacDonald – $1.10

Corrado Puglisi – $0.60

Brad Guthrie – $0.50

Jennifer Graham – $0.40

Paul Howard – $0.40

Robert Day – $0.38

Dante Sindori – $0.17

Brad Guthrie – $0.10

John Finlayson – $0.05

Mario Grech – $0.05

Oakes sends out five baby winners at Pocono

Trainer Hunter Oakes came out firing during the Wednesday (June 17) morning (into early afternoon) qualifying session at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, sending out five winners, including two who now have two victories. Both were driven by Tyler Buter, Pocono's leading driver, who was the top sulky sitter during the baby races with four victories.

Oakes sent out two winning males on each gait, including the fastest colt, Celebrity Dubai (Chapter Seven—Pennies From Above), who closed in :57.3 from the pocket for a 1:59.3 win for driver Jason Bartlett and the ownership of Flying A Racing Stable and Celebrity Farms. Oakes' repeat winner, driven by Buter, was the colt Celebrity Hunter (Captain Corey—Are You Ready), also part-owned by Celebrity Farms, in 2:00.4.

Fastest trotter overall was another offspring of Captain Corey, the filly Cabaletta Hanover (dam Caviart Jenny), who blitzed home in :28.1 from the pocket to be up in 1:58.3 for driver Matt Kakaley and trainer Emily Bost, co-owner with Steve Salerno. Trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt continued sending out power performers with two filly winners, Sip Away (Ecurie D DK—Amazing Tilly S) in 2:01 and Woke Up Winning (Walner—Morning Glow) in 2:03.

As mentioned, Oakes had a double in the pacing male ranks, but here he was outdone by trainer Travis Alexander, who had the other three winners in this section. Quickest was Primary Section, a colt by American Ideal—Preeminence, who came his last half in :57 to stop the timer in 1:57.1 for driver Matt Kakaley and the partnership of Alexander Racing Stable LLC, C M T Farms, EVM Racing LLC, and James Scarpias.

Kakaley also partnered with Alexander on the colt Harbaugh (Downbytheseaside—Hometown Blues), who won in 1:57.4 - :56.4 - :28.1 from the pocket. Ridge Warren piloted the other successful member of Team Alexander, the Heston Blue Chip—Counterparty Risk colt Current Events (also co-owned by Alexander Racing) in 1:59.4 - :58.1 - :29.

Oakes' duo among the pacing colts were Dapper Station (Captain Crunch—Dandy's Sweetness) in 1:57.2 - :57.2 - :28.2 for Buter, and Babylon Blue Chip (Huntsville—Onassis Blue Chip), triumphant in 1:58.3 - :57 - :28.2 for Bartlett.

Buter drove the repeat winner among the pacing fillies, Wine Down Wensday (Huntsville—Tequila Monday), here successful in 2:00 while coming home in :56.2 despite broken equipment for Oakes. The fastest in this group was Huntrix (Huntsville—Ubettergo Go), wire-to-wire in 1:57.2 - :56.1 for driver Ridge Warren, trainer Joe Pavia, Jr., and the ownership of Steven Held, Vincent Ferriero, Jr., Todd Frocione, and Pint Size Racing LLC.

With 10 babies (including three trotters) winning in sub-2:00 and the stakes season fast approaching, this report or next week's will be the last summary before the youngsters go to the pari-mutuel battles. Replays of the Pocono baby qualifiers can be viewed at www.phha.org.
