"Special" NA Cup victory leaves Louprint's connections positively star-struck

An epic, record 1:47.1 triumph in the $1 million race at Woodbine Mohawk Park left the Burke Brigade incredibly impressed, but not surprised.

by Dave Briggs

There was a catch in his voice, but Ron Burke successfully fought off tears for the second time in a matter of minutes. Standing outside the paddock at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the echoes of an epic and hard-fought Pepsi North America victory already fading into the next race on the Saturday (June 14) card, the trainer spoke about the bond he has with his Cup champion Louprint.

"Last year, I was suspended when I was training him down," Burke said. "All I could do is train babies. It was a humbling and hard time for me. So, this colt is special... It's also the first time without my father. This one's different."

Mickey Burke, Sr. died on May 6, 2024, a little less than a month before Louprint qualified for the first time at The Meadows and secured the driving services of a most grateful Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., who won his first NA Cup in his first drive in the event and only his second drive, lifetime, at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"It's a dream come true," Wrenn, Jr. said as he hustled to do a television interview with FanDuel Racing's Ashley Mailloux, his face a mixture of disbelief and an infectious grin. "It doesn't seem like it's real life right now. It's crazy."

That Louprint, the 9-5 favorite, led the 10-horse field in the $1 million race through wicked middle fractions of :53.1 and 1:19.1, gave quarter in deep stretch to Madden Oaks – driven brilliantly from out of the 10-hole by Braxten Boyd in his NA Cup debut – and then came back on to win by a head in a

“Last year, I was suspended when I was training [Louprint] down. All I could do is train babies. It was a humbling and hard time for me. So, this colt is special... It's also the first time without my father. This one's different.”

~ Ron Burke

1:47.1 track and Canadian record for a sophomore pacing colt was not that surprising to Burke. But it was “special,” a word all of the connections used multiple times to describe both the horse and the triumph.

Watch the replay here.

“I didn't think that they would get by him [at the wire],” Burke said. “He doesn't lose. He's just not a loser. You know, you can't teach horses to win. That's just who they are.”

For Wrenn, Jr. it will go down as one of his best races in his career.

“It was just a great race,” he said a few days later when reached after qualifiers at The Meadows. “A lot of people actually texted to say it was one of the greatest races they've ever watched. I'm just happy to be able to get the job done, get there first and show everyone just how great Louprint is.”

“Deep stretch, it was just trusting that the horse never stops trying. I've driven him now about 14 times and in the big races he just knows how to win and get his head to the wire first. Brax did go by me and his horse did put a head in front of me with probably 50 yards to the wire and I was just encouraging [Louprint] to come back and trusting him enough because I know that he fights. That's what a great horse does.”

THE NA CUP ROOKIE IS BATTING 1.000

You can't help but feel this victory was a game-changer for Wrenn, Jr., despite the fact he's 17 years into a career in which he's won more than 8,700 races and collected purses exceeding $71 million.

Wrenn, Jr.'s NA Cup score was particularly popular at The Meadows, near Pittsburgh and at Northfield Park, near Cleveland — just as was his Breeders Crown victory with Louprint last October at The Meadowlands. He's been a top driver at both Northfield and The Meadows for many years, but rarely has had a Grand Circuit horse he followed to other tracks despite being one of Burke's main drivers over the last five years.

"I hope it provides more opportunities down the road," Wrenn, Jr. said. "I'm 38 and I drive a ton of races. My roots are right here at The Meadows and Northfield, mostly the Midwest... I have a family, so I'm pretty set up and content and happy with where I am.

"And you kind of get set in your ways. I know I'm going to drive good horses and good sires stake horses and that's going to be that. Then, last year, being able to travel on the Grand Circuit and race in some big races, it's kind of a cool feeling because maybe I wasn't maxed out. Maybe I didn't reach my full potential... but given the opportunity, I guess it's kind of crazy because I usually watch those races, I'm not in them."

Burke said how Wrenn, Jr. ended up driving Louprint was fate, really.

"This horse started at The Meadows," Burke said. "Ronnie qualifies the horses at The Meadows. So, it was good for him.

"[Louprint] didn't even go to Florida. He trained down at the farm. Ronnie qualifies those horses [at The Meadows] and from there, nothing went wrong [with Louprint]. Well, maybe the one drive was the Breeders Crown elimination. I didn't love it, but he said when we were walking out for the Breeders Crown [final], 'Don't worry, I don't drive them badly twice in a row.'"

That proved to be prophetic. The sleek, black pacer won the final, closed out the year with a 7-2-1 record in 10 starts and earnings of $737,939 en route to Dan Patch honors as the nation's top

100th Anniversary Hambletonian Merchandise

The Hambletonian, America's Trotting Classic, combines the history and summaries of first 75 years of the historic Hambletonian race in the original 2000 edition, with the subsequent 25 years in this Centennial Celebration volume in honor of the 100th renewal of the prestigious Hambletonian event. The photos, commentary and pageantry of the century-long sporting test fill the pages and tell the stories of the owners, trainers, drivers, breeders and caretakers that aspired to win the Standardbred sport's most coveted prize—the Hambletonian trophy. The race has been established since 1926 as an important and long-standing tradition showcasing the best in the trotting sport. ($20⁰⁰, includes free shipping)

ATLANTA, a bay filly by Chapter Seven out of the Cantab Hall mare Hemi Blue Chip blazed into racing's consciousness in the 2018 Hambletonian. She set the fastest recorded fractions to date in her elimination heat even though she finished second by a neck to Crystal Fashion.

She returned in the final heat that day in rein to Scott Zeron to become the first filly in 22 years to win the Hambletonian, going down in history next to legendary names like Continentalvictory, Duenna and Rosalind.

There have been very few Breyer Standardbred stablemates issued, most notably a trotter done for the 75th Hambletonian anniversary in 2000 and the pacer Foiled Again, the leading money winner Standardbred of all time with earnings of $7,635,588.

The full scale model of Atlanta was released by Breyer in 2024 and packaged with a reprint of Marguerite Henry's Book Born To Trot, about the 1936 Hambletonian filly winner Rosalind. The stablemate version was commissioned by the Hambletonian Society in honor of the 100th edition of the Hambletonian. ($7⁰⁰, includes free shipping)

Story of the Centennial Crown:

A Handbag for the Hambletonian 100th Anniversary

In the heart of Kentucky, where craftsmanship is a legacy and design is born of tradition, a singular creation was brought to life in celebration of a century of excellence. Introducing The Centennial Crown — an exclusive, handcrafted handbag honoring the 100th anniversary of the Hambletonian, harness racing's most revered event.

This exceptional piece is the result of over 300 hours of meticulous work by Kentucky artisans known for their mastery of fine materials and timeless design. Built from durable, premium canvas and accented with rich, deep saddle brown leather, the bag reflects both the rugged determination of the sport and the refined elegance of its legacy.

The exterior canvas is custom-dyed in a warm, earthy tone reminiscent of the Kentucky soil where champions are bred. Elegant leather accents trace the silhouette, with handles shaped for comfort and stitched for strength. On the back, a leather patch is proudly stamped with "Hambletonian 100" — a subtle yet powerful mark of authenticity and commemoration.

Inside, the bag is lined with smooth silk in a solid, elegant hue — a quiet complement to the striking exterior and a nod to understated luxury.

The Centennial Crown is more than a handbag. It is a symbol of endurance, elegance, and the artistry of Kentucky's finest designers — a tribute to the race that defined a century, and a treasure meant to last for the next.

“Going into a race like [the NA Cup], any driver, especially a driver that’s never won the race, you daydream about winning that race. Just to have it hit and it’s actually reality, it’s kind of a surreal moment. It’s an out-of-body experience almost. I’m still kind of in shock that we got the job done and the way [Louprint] did it. It wasn’t like it was soft fractions – he raced hard the whole mile. It was just a really special moment.”

~ Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.

2-year-old pacing colt. This year, Louprint is undefeated in five starts and has earnings of $449,132. The NA Cup victory pushed him over $1 million lifetime to exactly $1,187,071. He’s already the top rated horse in the weekly Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll as he prepares for the Meadowlands Pace, the next big one on a busy stakes calendar.

Burke could have used one of his other regular drivers – Yannick Gingras or Chris Page – or even gone with a pilot that knows Woodbine Mohawk Park better than Wrenn, Jr. Instead, the trainer said he never seriously considered making a change.

“[Wrenn, Jr.] belongs with any of those guys,” Burke said. “I have total faith in him. You know, it’s him, Yannick and Chris. If I don’t believe in a guy, I don’t use him. I believe in him totally.”

And Wrenn, Jr. believes in both Burke and Louprint.

“I love that [Louprint is] very versatile,” Wrenn, Jr. said. “You can race him any way. He comes right back to you, which is great for a driver because it gives me a lot of options... to be able to leave or sit with him. He’s a pretty cool horse. Just look at Saturday, ordinary horses just can’t do that. There’s not too much to not like about him. I’m very thankful for being able to drive him.”

Louprint (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) fought off Madden Oaks (10, Braxten Boyd) to win NA Cup #42 in a 1:47.1 Canadian record.

A COMPLETE BURKE BRIGADE TRIUMPH

That Louprint is a homebred sired by the Burke Brigade's excellent stallion Sweet Lou — and out of Rockin Image mare Rockin Racer — made the evening... well... sweet for Louprint's connections.

Officially, the owners are: Burke Racing LLC, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Phil Collura and Larry Karr (though Karr came onboard in April of this year as a part-owner and does not have a breeding credit on the horse).

"It's our mare, our stud, it's special," Burke said. "The new part of Burke Racing and Weaver Bruscelli is breeding our own. When it happens like this, it's extra special."

Mark Weaver said he acquired Rockin Image online in 2020 specifically to breed to Sweet Lou because the group had a few unused breedings.

"It actually took a year to get in foal the first time," Weaver said. "The first year we didn't get her in foal, then Louprint was the first baby."

Weaver was watching the NA Cup from Florida and said Louprint's performance proved the pacer is, "tough as nails. At the time, I didn't know the actual numbers, but I knew he had gone a huge middle half and it ended up being :52 flat. He went his second quarter in :26 and his third quarter in :26. I doubt a horse has ever gone a middle half in :52 and lived to tell about it, so that was pretty impressive.

"He's a charismatic horse — he's just got something about him — and he's obviously fast, but to show that he has that kind of toughness... You never know, you can hope and think he does, but to win like that I think it's an instant classic that people will remember for a while."

~ Mark Weaver

It was the first NA Cup win for all of the connections as owners and breeders, though Burke trained the 2014 Cup champ JK Endofanera for the 3 Brothers Stable.

“I'm not going to lie, it was stressful,” Weaver said of watching Louprint's race. “It's also a heck of a lot of fun, but it's such a big thing for his legacy and Sweet Lou's. Ronnie had won the North America Cup 10 or 11 years ago, but that wasn't for our core ownership group. So, for us to get one of those, it was pretty special.

“I don't want to say it's our biggest win ever, but it's certainly up there.”

Weaver said it was also sweet retribution for Louprint's sire.

“Obviously, we're very, very pro-Sweet Lou and it's nice revenge for him,” Weaver said. “I think a couple of years ago was the official Sweet Lou revenge tour. As a 3-year-old, he won the elims of the North America Cup, the Meadowlands Pace, The Adios and the Jug and unfortunately wasn't able to win any of the finals, but two years ago the sons of Sweet Lou — It's My Show and Confederate — were able to win all four.

“So, it's like coming full circle where [Louprint] was able to win for his dad, who wasn't able to get it done.”

Louprint's maternal line is also prolific.

“Her dam [Portia Blue Chip] is a sister to Tellmeaboutit and he had a mark of :47-and-change and made almost a million,” Weaver said. “Then, the second dam is a sibling to Hypnotic Blue Chip, who made $1.7 million and also had a mark of :47-and-change. So, with Louprint winning [the NA Cup], that's three straight generations of :47-and-change. I doubt that's ever been done. That's pretty impressive.”

THE BEST SOPHOMORE PACER HE'S EVER TRAINED?

For a Hall of Famer who has conditioned the winners of nearly $354 million – $224 million more than the next closest trainer – the fact that Burke believes Louprint is the best sophomore pacing colt he's ever trained is saying a lot, especially since it's only June.

"When he was in 2:20, 2:30 last year, I said to Mark [Weaver], 'This is the best colt we've had in a long time. He just doesn't do anything wrong,'" Burke said.

Asked what he loves most about Louprint, the trainer was effusive.

"Just everything," he said. "He's a flawless horse. He does everything well. He has a great attitude, great gait. He's just a great horse."

This explains why a man who is training hundreds of horses is making a special point to travel to Louprint's big races.

"I go where he goes," Burke said. "I did last year and I will this year."

Wrenn, Jr. isn't planning to miss a start either.

That's the power of winning the Pepsi North America Cup in front of a big crowd at Mohawk that helped wager more than $5.7 million, the second most in the event's 42-year history.

"Going into a race like that, any driver, especially a driver that's never won the race, you daydream about winning that race," Wrenn, Jr. said. "Just to have it hit and it's actually reality, it's kind of a surreal moment. It's an out-of-body experience almost. I'm still kind of in shock that we got the job done and the way he did it. It wasn't like it was soft fractions – he raced hard the whole mile.

"It was just a really special moment."

There's that word "special" again. So far, it's hard to deny that it's the perfect adjective to describe Louprint.

Going inside Braxten Boyd's viral drive in the Pepsi North America Cup

by Brett Sturman

Since it was posted on Facebook four days ago, a video offering driver Braxten Boyd's point of view with 53-1 outsider Madden Oaks in the Pepsi North America Cup final has now been shared and viewed collectively over 110,000 times. The 16-minute video staged and facilitated by the work of industry photographer Jessica Hallett, puts the viewer directly into the lens Boyd experience straight through from paddock to post-race interview. The unique view, result of the race and the raw emotion in between has made the video a sensation.

The stage for the race was set following the prior week's Cup eliminations where Madden Oaks turned in a type of performance you don't see too often. Driven by Boyd as he's done now six times in his career, including his first career race last year as a 2-year-old. In the NA Cup elim, Madden Oaks, a 15-1 longshot from an outside post, circled parked horses early to blitz to the lead through a half mile in :53.2. Soon after, he took more pressure and somehow kept it together remarkably well to finish third beaten only by a length-and-a-half and thus qualifying for the Cup final.

The video from final night begins with Boyd and Madden Oaks trainer Cameron Capone completing their finishing touches on their outside post 10 starter Madden Oaks shortly before their departure from the paddock to the track. Maybe too young to even be phased by the moment, the 25-year-old Boyd set the tone early for what was to come when in response to a voice that said we're either going to sink or swim together, he said, "We're going to [expletive] swim, Cameron," and again as if there was any doubt, repeated that identical sentiment.

On-track moments leading up to the start of the race show Boyd in isolation scoring down Madden Oaks. It seems like it can be a lonely place in those minutes, and I was interested as to what was going through Boyd's mind during that time.

"I'm mainly just trying to get a feel of him," said Boyd. "Him personally, I'm trying to keep him quiet because he doesn't need to get started up. He's the type of animal when he gets his mind on something he's going to do it. So, I was mainly trying to keep him relaxed and get him loose enough where maybe I can get him to empty out but after that I'm really not trying to score him down much at all. It's just horse dependent though. Most of the time I don't keep horses that quiet, but not all horses are like that one."

As if there was any doubt from Boyd's comments in the paddock, this wasn't a man who was going to play it safe in a career defining opportunity with $1 million on the line.

"Well, there was no away I was getting away 10th," said Boyd. "I tried to do that with him last week and it just wasn't happening. So really, plan A was to just float and figure it out, try to find the right helmet and not fight with him. Because I kind of thought that a couple more of them would have taken a shot but the way it played out when I was floating and only saw one other horse I was like yeah, let's go to the front – I'm getting there easier than I ever thought I could."

Coming into the homestretch with Boyd and Madden Oaks right in behind race leader Louprint, driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., the video gives such a great view as to what drivers experience in the moment and the split-second decisions they're forced to make.

As Boyd describes it, "When it was playing out in the last turn, I felt that I was going to be able to go right, eventually, if I had to, and wasn't committed at that point to a direction. I've had the blessing of driving three other horses in that race previously and I knew that horse on the outside [Dandy Ideal] – he's a really, really good horse but going 1:19 first-over, that's just tough, so I knew I could eventually go right if I need be. But then I was kind of sitting there waiting because I wasn’t sure if Ronnie’s horse would drift and I’m trying to stay on his helmet and keep him as brave as I can for when the time comes to go right, and in that moment, he drifted so I took the inside opening and just shot for it.”

Putting the viewer almost literally in the driver’s seat, the video captures all the encouragement as Boyd implores Madden Oaks to try to get on level with an incredibly game Louprint, where he ultimately finishes down a head after looking for a moment that he might have had the measure of his rival.

“I thought I was going to get him, but you’ve got to give so much credit to both those horses,” said Boyd. “I kind of felt like once he saw me that he gave Ronnie a little bit more. Only Ronnie would know that for sure but from my perspective I shot through and I’m thinking that I’m getting him and then the closer I got to Louprint’s head I was like wow, what a tough horse.”

Crossing the wire, the pure emotion is on full display between Boyd and winning driver Wrenn, Jr., both Michigan natives. Almost immediately there’s a “For Hunter” shout, referencing the late Hunters Myers whose memory is obviously kept very close amongst the drivers, followed by a congratulations between the two.

~ Braxten Boyd

As Boyd describes it, “It’s kind of funny because when Ronnie was still driving in Michigan, I was still a young kid, and my dad [Brett Boyd] would race horses that Ronnie would drive. Not every time religiously, but Ronnie would drive for my dad very often and then when we weren’t racing as much in Michigan, we would take horses to Cleveland and Ronnie would drive and we had a lot of success together. There’s plenty of win pictures together where I’m either sitting in this race back or standing right next to him just hoping that one day I could drive races and win races.

“With Hunter, I didn’t have as close a relationship with him as Ronnie did. I just met him a couple of times, but my colors are similar, and then to have one of his great buddies Ronnie beat me by a dang nose – it was just pretty wild that it was us together on the wire.”

For all that was captured in the viral video, it will be a major contributing factor to having North America Cup 42 go down as one of the more memorable ones in history.

Pepsi North America Cup handle of more than $5.7 million was second best in event history

New Image Media

A large crowd was on hand at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (June 14) and helped push over $5.7 million through the windows.

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Saturday's card (June 14) at Woodbine Mohawk Park produced total wagering of more than $5.7 million that is the second-highest handle in history for a Pepsi North America Cup program. The total was up 25 per cent over the 2024 handle of nearly $4.6 million and bested the 2020 handle of some $5.6 million that was the previous second best. Handle of $6,317,624 for the 2022 NA Cup card still holds the event handle record.

"Any time you are up year-over-year, I think that's positive, especially when some of the wagering trends haven't been going in the right direction," said Bill McLinchey, the vice president of standardbred racing for the Woodbine Entertainment Group. "So, hopefully, we can build a little momentum off this big night and keep it rolling through the summer."

Growing Home Market Area (HMA) wagering — bets placed in Ontario — is essential for supporting purses, jobs and breed development programs in the province that are critical for producing horses to fill fields and further grow handle. It's the reason behind Ontario Racing's #betontario campaign to educate consumers that wagering on horse racing has the same importance as 'Buy Canadian' initiatives aimed at supporting home-grown industries.

McLinchey did not reveal how much of the total NA Cup wagering was done in Ontario, but he said he was pleased with the overall numbers.

He said the major difference between this year compared to 2024 was that last year the carryover for the Jackpot Hi-5 was much smaller because the bet had been hit in the weeks leading up to NA Cup. There were mandatory payouts both years, but this year, the bet had a carryover of $421,608 going into the race and McLinchey said there was a healthy amount of new money wagered into the pool.

"With the mandatory payout, we hoped that there would be over a million dollars of new money, and we got $1.2 million in new money," he said.

This year, the betting also got off to a strong start, McLinchey said.

"Right off the bat, the first race bet $500,000, which included our [Early] Pick 5," McLinchey said. "Once I saw that, I thought, 'We're off to a really good start here.' Once we got off on the right foot, I thought we could be in line for a decent night."

McLinchey said the handle likely would have been even better had Chantilly, the reigning Canadian Horse of the Year, not scratched out of the Fan Hanover. The race was to be the first meeting between Chantilly and U.S. 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year Miki And Minnie, who ended up winning the race.

"Going in, after the card was drawn, I thought it was as good a race card as we'd had with the hype between the North America Cup, but also the Chantilly and Miki And Minnie race," McLinchey said. "[Chantilly scratching] was very deflating on Friday."

Still, McLinchey said the night was positive on many fronts.

"I was really happy with the crowd," McLinchey said. "They were lined up to get in at 4:30 which is always nice to see, given that earlier in the week the weather forecast looked like it was going to be cool and rainy and then, as it turned out, it was dry... it was really a nice night for racing."

"It's a treat to get to watch good horses race. It's rewarding when you see them and bet on them."

Connections looking for 'Smooth' sailing in NJSDF final

New Jersey Sire Stakes champ Smooth Dream goes for his seventh win in as many seasonal starts at The Big M.

by Debbie Little

Traditionally, winning three in a row at The Meadowlands is difficult, so the fact that Smooth Dream could notch his seventh straight mile-oval score on Saturday night (June 21) would be quite the accomplishment. Maybe even more so when you consider that the 3-year-old gelded son of Cattlewash—Dreamlands Latte only had three starts as a 2-year-old with no wins.

"We found out that he had an issue in his rear hind, so we had him x-rayed and MRled, and we found a chip in his ankle," said

Smooth Dream's co-owner Allen Kaplan. "So, we knew that he had talent and we said, 'Okay, this is unfair to the horse, it's unfair to everybody, let's just stop with him,' and we had the chip removed.

"He went through rehabilitation where we had the stall rest, and walking by hand, and actually, we swam him for a month or two. So, we went through a process with him."

CTC Stable's Kaplan shares ownership of Smooth Dream with partners KDP Stable LLC (Kal Liebowitz) and Bay Pond Racing Stable (Joe and Joann Thomson). The Thomsons' Winbak Farm bred Smooth Dream.

The partners patience paid off when Smooth Dream, now in the barn of trainer Noel Daley, made a triumphant return to racing in a qualifier on April 14 at The Meadowlands, which he easily won in 1:53.3.

After winning his first pari-mutuel start of 2025 in a non-winners for 3-year-old colts and geldings, Smooth Dream rattled off five more victories, which included a division of the Home Grown, two legs and the final of the New Jersey Sire Stakes and a leg of the New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund on June 6.

Competing in races for New Jersey-breds was the plan in place when the partners procured Smooth Dream at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"Kal likes a game plan, he's that type of person," Kaplan said. "And our game plan was to get Cattlewashes to compete in the New Jersey Sire Stakes. We really liked Cattlewash. The 3-year-old Cattlewash was very good. I saw the speed that he had, and we just figured that he's going to be a nice sire.

“Is it unfortunate that we didn’t stake [Smooth Dream]? Yeah. But, the thing is, at that point, when we had to do it, we didn’t know; he was just coming back from that injury from last year. And right now, he’s great, he’s 100 per cent sound. Noel [Daley is] doing a great job. We’re tickled to death.”

~ Allen Kaplan

“So that’s how we ended up doing that a few years ago, and going to the sales and looking specifically for those, and again, he was a first-year sire when we did it, so, the prices were medium, reasonable, and Kal liked that game plan.”

Thomson was an unexpected addition.

“When we purchased him, Joe just happened to be standing there, and he said, ‘You know, you got a nice horse, I really like him.’ And we just said, ‘Hey, would you like a little piece?’ And he said, ‘Sure.’”

Although his partners do not live extremely close to The Meadowlands, Kaplan lives less than an hour away and can always be spotted with Smooth Dream in the winner’s circle.

“I like going to The Meadowlands,” Kaplan said. “You can go to Pink or Trotters, or sit wherever you like, and there’s the sportsbook. It’s very nice there, it really is, and it’s a nice place to take your family. And I’m just sorry that everybody gives Jeff Gural a hard time, because I know he’s trying to do the best for the industry. I give him a lot of credit, and I appreciate him, I really do.”

Although Smooth Dream has not had to face the likes of Louprint or Captain Optimistic yet this season, he has gone up against and beaten Making History, Manolete, and Twin Fury.

So, with all his success, why is Smooth Dream not competing against that upper echelon? Simple. He wasn’t staked.

“Is it unfortunate that we didn’t stake him? Yeah,” Kaplan said. “But, the thing is, at that point, when we had to do it, we didn’t know; he was just coming back from that injury from last year. And right now, he’s great, he’s 100 per cent sound. Noel’s doing a great job. We’re tickled to death.”

Daley said, “Staking is always a crap shoot, you know, that’s how it is. But you know, he’s come back good. He hasn’t had to race the open 3-year-olds, so you don’t know until he has to do that. Until they decide to supplement to something along the way there, we’ll take the money that he’s eligible for, which is just mainly the Jersey stuff at the moment.

“He’s been good against these horses, but, you know, the horses he’s been racing haven’t been Louprint and crew. He might be able to step it up, but he may not be able to. I’d definitely put him in [the Meadowlands Pace] if he was eligible to it, I’d take a shot with him.”

Kaplan said supplementing Smooth Dream to something down the road is not off the table.

“The good part is that Noel has had some very nice horses, so with his experience, he’s guiding us through this supplementing process, too, because we have a nice horse, we don’t want to hurt him,” Kaplan said. “He’s sound now, and with Noel’s guidance, hopefully, we’ll have a good year. And since he is a gelding, you know, he’s back next year, too.”

The plan is also in place for Kaplan and his partners to be at the sales again this year.

“We’ll probably look at some Jersey-breds, you know, the Perfect Stings for next year. I’m sorry that Cattlewash went to Canada, but we’ll look for Perfect Sting, because there’s actually a Perfect Sting [half-brother to Smooth Dream] that’s available for sale from Winbak this year.”

Kaplan said he feels privileged to have a horse like Smooth Dream, who is a half-brother to 2021 North America Cup champ, Desperate Man.

“I’ve been involved in harness racing for 35, 40 years, so, I’m very happy,” Kaplan said. “I couldn’t be happier. And I love coming to The Meadowlands, and that’s why I’m very happy with the sire stakes program.

“Between Twin Fury, Manolete, and Smooth Dream, it’s been a pretty exciting series, and I’m just happy that we’ve come out on top and, as I said, this is one of the best years that I’m having in 35 years.”

Celebrating Ron Pierce on his birthday

by Bob Heyden

Happy 69th birthday on Saturday (June 21), to the man, the myth, the legend, Ron Pierce.

In the event you may have forgotten, he retired on March 8, 2015, at 58, due to nagging back injuries. At that time, he was at $215 million in career earnings, second only to John Campbell's $299.6 million.

A decade later he's still one of only seven members of the $200 million driving club.

His final full season (2014) was unique — at 58 — as he had both the Pacer and Trotter of the Year in Sweet Lou and Shake It Cerry.

Here are some contemporaries who, even now, remember him quite fondly.

Paul Kelley: "Twenty years or so ago, I had two trotting fillies in Lexington. A 2-year-old named Sunday Yankee and a 3-year-old named Saratoga Yankee. The 3-year-old, Saratoga Yankee, had to be brought to the gate late, the 2-year-old, Sunday Yankee,

“He was the most unpredictable driver I ever raced against and I mean that as a huge compliment. You never knew what he would do and it made driving against him very difficult and uncomfortable which as a catch-driver is likely the ultimate compliment. A great, great driver.”

~ Yannick Gingras

Claus Andersen

was push-button, right to the gate, no problem. On this day the 2-year-old, Sunday Yankee, was in the International Stallion Stakes and as the horses are approaching the gate, way down in the far turn I see her half rearing up and acting unlike herself. The gate got rolling and she eventually got close to it as they released the field. She recovered and finished third racing well considering the bad start. When Ronny came back with her, he immediately apologized for the commotion getting to the gate. 'I'm sorry Paul, I got my Yankees mixed up.' I have many more stories. In my opinion one of the very best natural drivers ever."

Yannick Gingras: "He was the most unpredictable driver I ever raced against and I mean that as a huge compliment. You never knew what he would do and it made driving against him very difficult and uncomfortable which as a catch-driver is likely the ultimate compliment. A great, great driver."

Joann Looney-King: "They only made one. He's outstanding."

“He’s Robert Redford in ‘The Natural.’ He really is. He didn’t need to spend much time looking at the program, he’d get in the bike and he was ready to go.

What a driver!”

~ Mike Lachance

Jimmy Takter: “The most natural harness racing driver ever. Half horse, half human. I really miss having him drive our horses.”

Jack Darling: “Ron drove several stakes horses for me over the years. Great driver, very confident. If you put him on the track with a good horse, he would make something happen.”

Dave Palone: “I absolutely love Ronny. I remember when he came to The Meadowlands [’86-87] when I was up there. He was going barn-to-barn looking to qualify anything to prove himself. Probably one of the most talented people to ever drive a horse. I would love to know how many times at Lexington we’d be going to the gate and Ronny would be BSing to me in the wrong post position. Of course, we’d cause a recall and get in trouble. The judge finally had enough of it and he said, ‘Pierce you and Palone have got to quit your talking on the track.’ Ronny answered the judge, ‘I wasn’t talking to him, I was singing to him.’ I couldn’t be happier for him that he’s doing exactly what he wants to do in life [living in Montana, fishing, hunting, boating, snorkeling, and panning for gold, the good life].

Tim Tetrick: “Rockin Ronny, he could fire them up, and then settle them down. I loved him. He could drive a $2G claimer or a $100G stakes horse the same. He raced on ‘feel.’ I’d be studying that day’s program; me and Brian Sears for example. Ronny didn’t do that. He didn’t need to. Let me give you a Ronny story from when I first started driving against him. It was probably 2008 or so, at Chester. I had been driving a good horse who was strictly a closer but who jumped shadows everywhere. You had to keep him covered up behind horses. You couldn’t fire him up and leave because he wanted to do a belly-flop as soon as he got to the first turn. This particular day I chose off and Ronny is driving him and I told him what he had to do with him. Then I look over and he’s scoring him down hard and I said, ‘Oh no, he’s going to leave with him.’ Right before the start I told him again, “That horse sees ghosts out there.’ I reiterated it again. The gate springs open and Ronny is leaving hard and, sure enough, he belly-flops and drags Ronny to the outer fence. Laughing, and a bit worse for wear, Ronny catches up with me right after. ‘Next time I’ll listen to you when you tell he about a horse like this.’ I wish Ronny could be here now. He could come back tomorrow and fit right in.”

Stacy Chiodo: “I feel so fortunate to have had the opportunity to drive against Ron when I started. He definitely had a way of keeping a horse alive and his drive on Art Official in the Meadowlands Pace is one I will never forget. He is a true all-around horseman.”

Dave Miller: “He’s a great friend, and a born natural.”

Joe Faraldo: “I first met Ronny at Monticello driving qualifiers at the start of his majestic career. At the time he thanked me for helping him, for what I still don’t know. Since then, he has never needed anyone’s help as he catapulted into a vast talent and an icon in harness racing earning his way into the Hall of Fame. Tanti Auguri Ronny.”

Bill O’Donnell: “Ronny was very unassuming and quiet. He went about his work in a professional manner. Racing against him, he always kept me guessing as he was very unpredictable, but one of the greatest talents to ever drive a horse.”

Mark MacDonald: “Maybe the best ever. As amazing with a trotter as he was with a pacer. He was a Hall of Fame driver with a Hall of Fame personality too, which is rare. He’s missed in the locker room but missed on the track even more.”

Jacqueline Ingrassia: “To me Ron was a natural on the racetrack, a savant if you will. He just always seemed to make the right move at the right time, especially in the big races.”

Mike Lachance: “He’s Robert Redford in ‘The Natural.’ He really is. He didn’t need to spend much time looking at the program, he’d get in the bike and he was ready to go. What a driver!”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Wäjersten's rare daily double spanned two countries

The trainer/driver won on Saturday afternoon in Finland with Borups Victory and later that same day in Sweden with Gio Cash.

by Thomas Hedlund

It was Finland in the afternoon and northern Sweden later that same day. Some trainers and drivers had a busy Saturday (June 14) since two of the big summer races were held on the same day in Europe.

In Kouvola, Finland, the $180,000 Kymi Grand Prix was scheduled in the afternoon and the race became a high-speed story where favorite Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) surprisingly had to fight hard for the lead when the field reached the backstretch the first time. Leader Holcombe Zet, paired with Rikard N. Skoglund wanted to test the big favorite and the two horses battled at a furious speed, before Borups Victory could be pushed to the lead.

Daniel Wäjersten could slow down the pace in front with Borups Victory, but in the last turn the speed increased again and a normal horse should have been marked by the race's initial half-mile. Borups Victory wasn't bothered. He looked as strong as ever when he left the challengers behind in the stretch and Sweden's 2024 Horse of the Year was back in a winner's circle in Finland. He won the Kymi GP last year and the Seinäjoki Race in 2024 and 2025.

Replay here.

Borups Victory finished fifth in Elitloppet final in the end of May and showed, by winning in a mile rate of 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles, that he will face a nice summer and fall, where several prestigious races wait.

Massimo Hoist was a brave runner-up ahead of Banderas Bi.

A flight back to Sweden waited for Wäjersten and the other drivers who had drives during the midnight trot in Boden. The $200,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris was on the menu in Sweden's northernmost racetrack and the weather really played its role on Saturday night. The sun showed up and when the Norrbottens Stora Pris was underway, at 11 p.m., it was still sunny and like a midday event.

Don Fanucci Zet, runner-up in Elitloppet in May, was the favorite from post 7 behind the gate, but the initial part of the race became a difficult path where Örjan Kihlström had to settle in fourth over, while Wäjersten controlled the race in front behind his Gio Cash (Victor Gio).

Australia's The Locomotive was served a nice second over trip, but he couldn't follow the front horses in the last turn and this became The Locomotive's last performance in Sweden for this time. The horse's connections decided to return to Australia after the pale performance in Boden.

Gio Cash was making his third start for trainer Wäjersten and he was ready for a Group 1-winning performance. Gio Cash got several lengths advantage as the field turned for home and Don Fanucci Zet's finish was not enough, even if it was one of the fastest homestretches ever by a horse in Sweden and Gio Cash claimed his first big win among older elite trotters. His mile rate over 1.3 miles was 1:54 and Gio Cash's owner, Stal Carpenter Diem, from the Netherlands had made the long journey to Boden for the magical experience.

"It's really nice when a horse like Gio Cash comes to the stable," said Wäjersten after his second Group 1 victory on the same day. "I've seen him competing very well on a high level as a 2-, 3- and 4-year-old. It's remarkable that the owners come to see the horse, traveling from The Netherlands and it feels great that they got to experience this tonight."

Don Fanucci Zet was second ahead of Dolce Viky. And the sun continued to shine in Boden, the whole night.

ALLEGIANT UNSTOPPABLE IN SWEDEN

Allegiant (Tactical Landing—Too Good For You) impressed a lot when she won the 4-year-old Elite for mares at Solvalla on Elitloppet Day and on Wednesday (June 18) she was brilliant again, in her third start since she arrived in Sweden last fall.

In the $40,000 Prix Diana Zet, Allegiant stormed to the front in the first turn and the opponent's respect for the new star in Daniel Redén's barn was obvious. Allegiant got the signal from driver Kihlström at the top of the stretch and the 4-year-old super trotter danced to a safe win in a mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.3 miles on a sloppy track. Replay here.

Redén and Kihlström continued by winning the $80,000 Prix Tetrick Wania, and it was another American-bred trotter that entered the winner's podium after the race. Keep Asking (Chapter Seven—Sensibility) has showed incredible speed in his starts prior to Wednesday's race. He was a brave runner-up behind Free Time Jepson at Solvalla on Elitloppet Day, that time from the lead. In Wednesday's race he had to start from post 11, behind horses and after an initial 600 meters three wide, Keep Asking eventually found position first over, outside of leader Feldenkrais Pal. And the heavy trip on the sloppy track and over 1.3 miles couldn't stop him from winning. This was a strong performance by the little trotter, bred by William J. Donovan and others.

Keep Asking won in a mile rate of 1:56.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

A chat with veteran horseman Jim Mattison, Part 1

by John Berry

Get the trombones out, longtime horseman Jim Mattison, now approaching his 76th birthday is looking and feeling spry as ever these days and, though now retired, still has a love for the sport and its equine athletes.

Mattison is very concerned that the best days of our sport are gone, but continues to be outspoken when it comes to several aspects of the sport – the main one being about safety for its participants.

Thanks so much for your time and input on a very touchy subject matter. First, though, how did you get your start in the business?

“Well, I’m a Vermont guy and my folks bought me a racehorse [Lebanon Boy], I was 12 years old at the time. In fact, the horse was older than I was. He didn’t set any track records or anything but that’s when the bug bit me, so to speak.

“I have had a lot of family in the business, and after serving in the Army in 1971, I met a gentleman by the name of Emile Johnson, Jr.

“He was looking for a young trainer and I was looking to do some good for an owner, so it was kind of a mutual thing.”

Don’t you mean ‘pari-mutuel?’

“Great line! We became partners and, in all the years we’ve been together, we’ve never had a disagreement; pretty amazing.

“Emile Johnson, Jr. was, you could say, a blessing for me when we met and we’ve had a good bit of success over the years, but we had a lot of family in the business, so it was in all of our family blood. The only Mattison that wasn’t in the business was my father.

“In fact, my uncle Wallace Mattison, is going to be 101 years old on Sept. 4, pretty amazing, he was the one who introduced me to jogging.”

The USTA’s Ken Weingartner wrote about the horse you two owned early on, Mar Con Cadet. How long ago did you have that horse?

“Yes, that goes back 50 years or so in New Hampshire in their Sire Stakes. He won over $100,000 and that was a pretty good start for us.”

Since then, you’ve owned some pretty nice racehorses like Hypnotize, Pan Prix, Century Endeavor and, of course, Panocchio. What can you tell me about them?

“Hypnotize was just a terrific mare and she dominated the Pompano open class for the mares – and they had some great mares in there like Tintabella [N] and a couple of other Down Under mares.

“As for Panocchio, well, I guess the only way to put it is, there are some horses that sustain you so you can survive in the business, and there may be one that changes your life. Panocchio was the one that changed our life. He was the one horse that changed our life and, in our eyes – Vicky’s [Jim’s wife] and mine – that was Panocchio.

“I told Vicky that he was so smart that, one day, he might talk to us. Vicki always said ‘That there will never be another like him.’ She was right.”

Am I correct that you got him out of the sale for $23,000 after his 2-year-old season and, eventually, set the track record at Pompano Park, 1:48.3?

“Yes, he won more than 75 races, over $690,000, and he was our once-in-a-lifetime horse.

“We visit him whenever we go up north in the summer months and he looks as great as ever in retirement at [Michelle Clarke’s] farm. He looks great, they ride him a lot, he’s won ribbons, but he looked so good when we saw him just a few days ago that he could go behind the gate to race tomorrow.”

OK. Let’s get down to the nitty-gritty here. You wrote me a note recently about the severity of accidents lately on our tracks. What would you like to say about that?

“Yes, and it’s been on my mind for a long time. This sport can be very rewarding, but it also is very dangerous.

“Well, the drivers are the ones getting into these wrecks and I notice that the handholds are in the driver’s lap... If you’ve never played tug-of-war, the winner is always the one who grabbed the highest on the rope and then pulled. If you ever want to try something, put the handholds way back while jogging and zero in on something and see your reaction time. Then, put the handholds in front of you and see how quickly you react.”

~ Jim Mattison

“These horses are traveling in very close quarters and at [literally] break-neck speed these days and, yes, just like in every sporting event, there are going to be accidents, and I really believe that many could be avoided.”

But isn’t it fair to say that accidents have been a part of racing for over a century? Pop Geers died in an accident back over 100 years ago at a fair honoring him, and, of course, we don’t have to remind you of Billy Haughton, Shelly Goudreau, Smullin and others, and most recently Hunter Myers.

“Hal Belote, too, and how many accidents are there that cause injury? Fifty times that, 100 times that?”

“I truly believe that many of these accidents can be avoided, and the removal of the hub rail has helped.”

Why do you think this all started?

“Well, the drivers are the ones getting into these wrecks and I notice that the handholds are in the driver’s lap. The only power a driver has is in front of the buckle, and they lean back so far these days. You can’t tell me, or convince me, that the driver’s vision isn’t impaired and impacted.

“If you’ve never played tug-of-war, the winner is always the one who grabbed the highest on the rope and then pulled. If you ever want to try something, put the handholds way back while jogging and zero in on something and see your reaction time. Then, put the handholds in front of you and see how quickly you react.”

I guess that sounds plausible. Anything else?

“My next pet-peeve is lameness.

“You know, a lot of us like to use Wally [Hennessey]. He is one of the best and complete horsemen that we all know. The great thing about Wally is that he’s a complete horseman both on and off the track.

“I saw him in the paddock one night looking at his catch-drive saying, ‘Looks like the hobbles are an inch longer this week.’ He notices everything and, if he sees that his horse is not going as he should [showing some lameness], he’ll send him back to the paddock and recommend he be scratched.

“It’s a horse’s health above the money, as it should be. Trainers try and make sure that everything is in order when the horse goes on the track.

“A lame horse has no business on the track! Not only doesn’t he have a chance to get a check, the horse puts others in danger at the same time. Yes, the money aspect is important – the most important in most everyone’s eyes – but one bad step can end the race and career, as well as the other horses in the race, both physically and mentally.”

In Part 2, Mattison will share a few more of his thoughts on the sport.

Harness racing keeps Katie MacNeil on track

by Matthew Lomon

Growing up in a horse racing family, trainer Katie MacNeil's love for harness racing was instant.

The weekends she spent accompanying her father, and long-time horseman, Francis MacNeil at his barn, made her realize that one day, she too, would follow in his footsteps – even if he hinted otherwise.

“He never really wanted me to get into it,” Katie said with a laugh.

Francis and Katie's mother, Ann, always wanted their daughter to go to school, which she did.

Katie graduated from Mohawk College in 2014 with a diploma in Financial Services, and soon after, explored career opportunities outside of racing.

None, however, inspired the same magnetic connection she felt towards standardbreds.

“I got in and out of it a few times, but I just always saw myself coming back to it,” Katie said. “It was something that I really enjoyed doing. Nothing else was like it.”

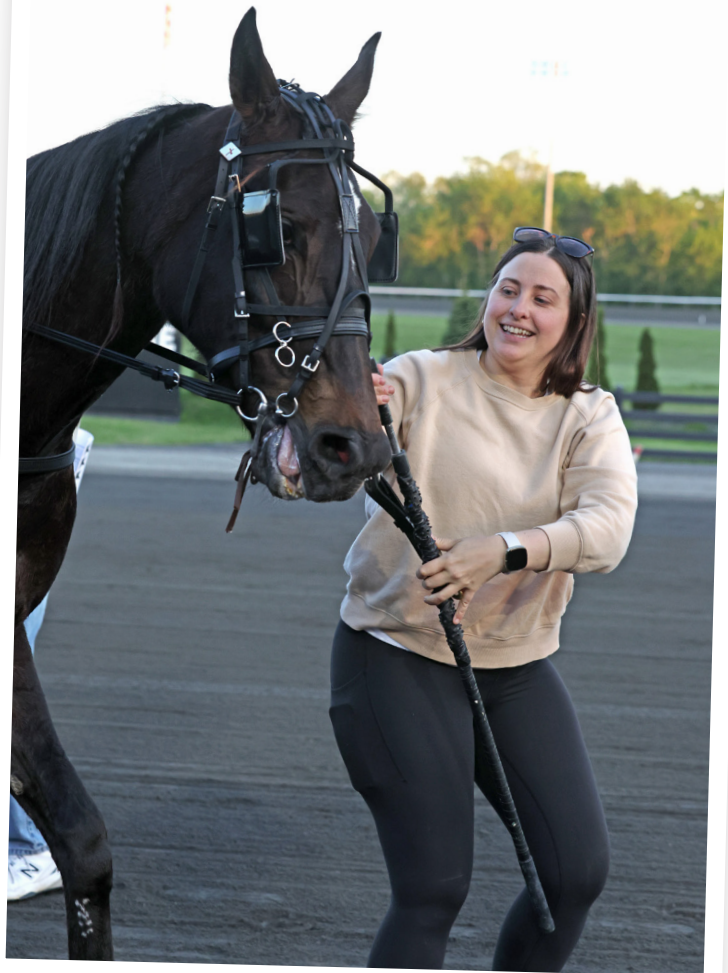

Before setting out on her own in 2022 to pursue full-time training duties, Katie spent several years gaining experience under industry veterans, honing her craft as a groom.

Gary Budahn, a veterinarian from California whom she worked for when she was about 18, Canadian harness racing stalwart James Whelan, five-time Canadian trainer of the year Casie Coleman, and ascending conditioner Desiree Jones are among those she counts as most influential in her journey.

Budahn's brand of firm guidance yielded countless invaluable lessons for Katie, chiefly the importance of trusting her instincts at a pivotal time in her life.

“He was tough on me, but I felt like I learned a lot from him and had a lot of good experiences,” she said. “He always pushed me to do my best. He always said, ‘Go to school, but if this is something you want to pursue, I think you'll be good at it.’”

Coleman and Jones, on the other hand, were the living example of what she aspired to be.

New Image Media

Sprite Seelster and trainer Katie MacNeil after winning an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series event on May 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“They inspired me as successful female trainers,” Katie said. “I always hoped that I'd be able to train my own one day, but I didn't know if that would ever be something that would actually come to fruition... Now, I'm living the dream.”

Katie's dream job became a reality on November 1, 2022, at The Raceway at Western Fair District, when she teamed up with her boyfriend, driver Tyler Borth, to send out brown pacer Mr John in her first career start as a trainer.

One week later, Borth and the son of Shadow Play—Barks Like A Dog delivered Katie's first winner.

“I thought that he might have needed another start or two, and it was a bit of an unexpected win, but obviously I was really happy,” said Katie of the half-length score in race 5 at Western Fair.

“[Dr.] Trevin Shive sent that horse to me – he's from Nova Scotia. In a way, he gave me my start as a trainer because Mr John was the first horse I trained. That was a cool moment, for sure.”

Ahead of the landmark day, Katie, knowing full well the range of outcomes a race presents, did her best to remain even keeled.

“[Casie Coleman and Desiree Jones] inspired me as successful female trainers. I always hoped that I’d be able to train my own one day, but I didn’t know if that would ever be something that would actually come to fruition... Now, I’m living the dream.”

~ Katie MacNeil

“I didn’t go in having super high expectations because I didn’t want to be disappointed, but I thought he was classified right, and we might have some luck there,” she said. “Fortunately, it worked out pretty well.”

Katie finished her rookie campaign with a 2-2-2 line across seven starts, setting the stage for a steady incline in the years that followed.

In 2023, Katie’s charges collected 30 wins, 13 seconds, and nine thirds from 86 starts, enough to land the Malahide, ON-based conditioner her first $100,000 season ($168,056).

The good times kept rolling in 2024, as Katie sent out 26 winners (18 seconds and 13 thirds), crossing the 100-start (108) and $200,000 earnings thresholds ($242,397) for the first time.

Now, halfway into her third full year, Katie is on the verge of a full-fledged breakout, with help from once-in-a-lifetime filly Sprite Seelster.

Owned by Borth and Elite Equine LLC’s Paul Gangle, the 3-year-old daughter of Green Manalishi S—Speak Of The Devil stormed to a 1½-length victory in a $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg on May 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“Coming into the last turn, I thought ‘Oh, Monalishi’s probably going to go by us,’ and then [Sprite Seelster] just kicked herself into another gear; Tyler was just sitting there, and she took off,” Katie said, tongue-in-cheek, of the remarkable effort at 15-1.

“I thought she might have a performance like that in her, but I wasn’t sure because she was in with some really nice fillies. It was amazing to see her pull that off.”

The $40,000 purchase at the 2023 London Classic Yearling Sale has been nothing short of a marvel for Katie on and off the track.

“Simply put, she is just a nice horse,” Katie said of the trotter with nearly $150,000 to her name. “We don’t do a lot of extras with her; she takes care of herself. She does everything that a good horse would do – she’s a great eater, she doesn’t get herself too worked up.

“Maddi Henry, an equine massage therapist, MagnaWaves her and massages her – that’s really been helping. But it’s the only extra stuff we do with her. We just put the foundation into her.”

That foundation has allowed Sprite Seelster to routinely exceed expectations and set the standard for all the trainees under Katie’s tutelage.

“Everybody always dreams of having a horse like that,” Katie said. “You don’t always get lucky enough to have one like her, especially one that you own. That makes it even more special.”

Katie’s stable currently houses 10 horses – eight in training, one turned out, and a 22-year-old retiree.

She is particularly bullish on the trio of Jayport Muscle Up, Goal Digger, and Johnny Buckshot.

Jayport Muscle Up, a hulking Muscle Mass 3-year-old, is nearing a return to action following a few months of down time to grow into his body.

“He’s huge,” she said. “He’s a really big horse, so we’ve given him a lot of time off. We raced him a little bit... He’s finally put some weight on, and he looks really good. I’m excited to get him back.”

Goal Digger, a 3-year-old Wheeling N Dealin trotter, and Johnny Buckshot, are both trained by Katie for owner Brad Wilson.

The former, while in need of a little extra seasoning, has his trainer quietly hopeful.

“Goal Digger’s been a bit of a project,” she said. “If we can get him to the races and get him going, it’ll be really rewarding. He’s got it in there, it’s just whether we can get him to put it all together.”

Although Katie’s path to this point wasn’t linear, a deep-rooted bond with horses and harness racing always kept her on track.

“We always hope to keep improving every year,” she said. “It’s gone well so far – hopefully we can keep the momentum and make this year one to remember.”

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

'Liberty' was in style in NYSS at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek / Buffalo Raceway

It was the first start of her career and Liberty Style ($3.10) started it in grand style by demolishing the field in the $112,100 New York Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 18). She beat stablemate Bueckers by 5¾ widening lengths in an impressive 1:57.1 over the fast track.

With an early scuffle for the lead, Ev Does It took control as Liberty Style and Bueckers followed along through splits of :28.4 and :58.2.

Those wicked fractions proved to be the downfall for Ev Does It as driver Jason Bartlett tipped Liberty Style out just before three-quarters and took off from there, blitzing the field down the stretch, using a :28 final to celebrate her maiden victory.

Stablemate Bueckers (Kevin Cummings) took second place honors with American Cheese (Colin Kelly) third.

Co-owned by trainer Andrew Stafford and Bonnie Benson, Liberty Style (American Ideal—Fly In Style) earned a healthy $56,050 check in her racing debut.

In the lone $20,000 Excelsior Series race, Twenty Seven ($7.60) used home-track advantage and beat Delightful Diva by 1¼ lengths in 2:01.4.

Happy Court (Colin Kelly) showed the way through the first three panels with splits of :30.3, 1:00.4 and 1:31.2, while Twenty Seven sat fourth and began her grind just past the half-mile marker. Turning for home, the first over Twenty Seven cruised past Happy Court but had to turn back the late bid from Delightful Diva (Cory Stratton) who had to settle for second place honors. Happy Court took the third-place check.

Owned by Faire Oaks Farm of nearby Lancaster, NY, Twenty Seven (So Surreal—Terrorcam) is trained by Richard Tomaszewski. It was the first victory for Twenty Seven who qualified at Buffalo Raceway on June 6 in 2:00.4. The victory was worth $10,000 in her maiden win.

Kevin Cummings and Drew Monti finished the afternoon with four victories each while Brett Beckwith collected two. Courtney Wright had a pair of training wins.

Racing will return this afternoon (June 20) at 2:30 p.m. with 13 races slated.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sophomore trot fillies and Aetos Kronos S at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Pennsylvania-sired 3-year-old trotting fillies were on display on Sunday night (June 15) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, with two divisions of Sire Stakes and three sections of Stallion Series action in the group's second preliminary round over a track rerated to "fast" after being listed "wet-fast" early.

The faster Sire Stakes section went to the Greenshoe filly Ms Prada, who has now won two straight outings and here reduced her mark to 1:53.4. Yannick Gingras bypassed an early hole to get the lead, and was willing to pay a :26.4 price to get control. After soft middle numbers of :56.1 and 1:25, Ms Prada held off a late inside thrust by favored Hangover, a first leg PASS winner, who rode the rail all the way after 20 days off and still made a good race of it, beaten only 1¼ lengths. Ms Prada was the second half of a giant stakes weekend for trainer Ron Burke, who conditions this four-time seasonal winner for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Beasty LLC, Joseph Di Scala Jr., and J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby.

Like her Åke Svanstedt stablemate Hangover, Elaine T S was coming off a 20-day rest, but she was able to win off the time away and surprised the crowd with a $69.80 victory while lowering her mark to 1:54.1. Favored invader Divine Thing made two moves to control the tempo of :26.3, :56, and 1:25.2, but when the Southwind Frank filly Elaine T S came up first-over and challenged, the chalk lost gait, and Elaine T S was clear after that. Goodgirl Bi IT, in the pocket and then avoiding interference, came on for second, 1¼ lengths off the winner and ahead of first round Sires' winner Payback Moni. Svanstedt drove and trains the surpiser for Brochart Stable Inc., Ecuries Diocles AB, and Åke Svanstedt Inc.

In the Stallion Series, the Father Patrick filly Per Capita became the only two-time winner among this stakes group of fillies so far, coming out of the pocket to just catch another first round winner, Tally The Tab, by a nose while covering the mile in 1:57.1. Brady Brown kept his filly steady late to work to the win for trainer Steve Schoeffel and owners Kathy Schoeffel, King Fam Stable, and Mary Owlett.

The Greenshoe miss Dearly Beloved might ultimately prove the one to beat in these Stallion Series races as, with only two races since her 1:53.4 Weiss Series consolation win on April 28, she dug deep late and was along in 1:54.3 for driver Matt Kakaley, trainer Jenny Melander, and owner Donald Bartling. Dearly Beloved went to early command, yielded to race favorite Bay Breeze Hanover at the half and sat in the 2-hole, then wheeled outside and finished strongly for the victory, with Santa Cristina, a first-round winner, photoing the chalk out for second.

The Cantab Hall filly Tabdone made a successful stakes debut for the red-hot Trond Smedshammer barn in 1:54.4, going right to the lead and backing off the pace, then sprinting home in :27.3 well ahead of the rest. The filly, unraced at 2, now has three wins and three seconds in six starts for driver/trainer Smedshammer and his principal owner Purple Haze Stables LLC.

The big stakes card also featured a $25,000 fast-class handicap trot, with Aetos Kronos S, despite starting from the outside post 7, trotting the fastest mile of the year at Pocono, 1:52.2, while winning handily. Resolve To Win forced a foe to tuck by the :28 quarter; Southwind Coors took over shortly thereafter, with Aetos Kronos S and Dexter Dunn then proceeding forward to the lead into turn two, before the :56.3 half. The three-quarters came and went in 1:24.2, and no one could make a dent into the Maxie Lee Invitational winner's lead in the last stanza, with Southwind Coors just lasing over Resolve To Win for the deuce. Aetos Kronos S, a son of Bold Eagle and now four-for-five Stateside, is trained by Åke Svanstedt for Jeffrey and Michael Snyder, and has now won $1,464,041 lifetime.

Ugottabkidnme steps out in style at Gaitway qualifiers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Ugottabkidnme represents the entirety of breeder/owner Kevin Kelly's racing stable, so needless to say, there was a good deal of anticipation ahead of the 2-year-old male trotter's qualifying debut Wednesday (June 18) at Gaitway Farm.

After watching Ugottabkidnme circle the training center's mile oval in 1:59 — the fastest of the day's four trots for the freshmen — Kelly was understandably delighted.

"I'm tickled pink right now," said Kelly, a Florida resident who also bred and raced Ugottabkidnme's mom, Sunshine State standout Gold Star Briana. "I expected him to go in 2:00, maybe 2:01, and I was hoping he would behave himself, which he did. So, he beat my expectations."

Gold Star Briana began her career with 17 consecutive wins, primarily on the Florida stakes circuit, and earned $132,970 lifetime. Ugottabkidnme, a son of stallion Play Trix On Me, got his own career off on the right foot Wednesday, winning by 1½ lengths with Andy Miller driving for trainer Julie Miller. Finishing second was Bricco, a $425,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase and half-brother to 2024 Dan Patch Award 3-year-old champ Sig Sauer.

"He's a chip off the old block," Kelly said about Ugottabkidnme, who trained down with Marlin Fry in Florida before joining Team Miller in New Jersey about a month ago. "He's a little quirky, just like his dam, but both would trot from the time they hit the ground forward. All winter long, everybody was looking over their shoulders at him. He's a striking animal. The guy has got a pretty gait, and that's what I fell in love with right away. He's got a pretty gait, and he's big and strong."

Julie Miller sent out six 2-year-olds on Wednesday, all making their qualifying debuts, and came away with two seconds and a third in addition to Ugottabkidnme's triumph. Her runner-up finishes came with pacing colt He Is Stingin (Perfect Sting—Hidden Cove) and trotting filly French Echo (Father Patrick—French Souffle), both with Andy Miller in the sulky. Trotting filly Blonds Havemorefun (Walner—Hey Blondie) was third, with Tyler Miller in the bike.

"It was relatively a good day," Julie said. "This was their first experiences, and we just wanted them to mind their manners, stay flat, and be good behind the gate. When Andy and Tyler hop off the bike, they say any adjustments to make with the horse, and whether they were good finishing. No complaints. We had a couple good ones, and a couple that we have to tinker with, but that's the journey of horse racing."

Ron Burke sent out seven of the day's 10 freshmen winners Wednesday. Two of them, pacing filly She's A Bulldog and trotting filly Atlantic Summer, also were winners in last week's first round of qualifiers at Gaitway. This week, She's A Bulldog (Bulldog Hanover—Band Stand) scored in 1:54.3 and Atlantic Summer (Captain Corey—Perfect Summer K) won in 1:59.1, both with Yannick Gingras driving.

Other Burke winners were pacing colts Dax Seelster (Bulldog Hanover—Deb) in 1:54.3 and Watch Em Win (He's Watching—Winners Over) in 1:55, both with Tim Tetrick in the sulky, and Melillo (Sweet Lou—Rosemary Rose) in 1:55 with Gingras; pacing filly Perfect Lynn (Perfect Sting—Meghan Lynn) in 1:55.1 with Gingras, and trotting filly No Promises (Tactical Landing—It's Hallright) in 1:59.3 with Gingras.

Melillo is a full brother to 2024 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion filly Rose.

Rounding out Wednesday's 2-year-old winners in the qualifiers were pacing filly Yama Gonna Win (Bettor's Wish—Yaris Bayama) in 1:55 with Scott Zeron driving for trainer Linda Toscano and trotting colt Ajax Blue Chip (Six Pack—Shesa Sweetheart) in 2:00 with Dan Dube driving for trainer Pierre Paradis.

Gaitway will again host qualifiers for 2-year-olds on June 25.

Fashion Frenzie matches track and Canadian record

Fashion Frenzie became the co-fastest trotter in Canadian harness racing history on Monday night (June 14) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Shooting up the inside to win the $36,000 preferred trot, Fashion Frenzie stopped the clock in 1:50.2 to match the all-age Mohawk and Canadian record for driver Louis-Philippe Roy and trainer Eric Nadeau.

It was the second time in three nights that the all-age record was matched, as Emoticon Legacy also trotted 1:50.2 in Saturday's Goodtimes Stakes for 3-year-olds.

Osceola cut the mile on Monday, posting fractions of :26.4, :55.3 and 1:23.2. Fashion Frenzie enjoyed a 2-hole trip, while 3-5 favorite Gaines Hanover sat fourth throughout.

In the stretch, the rail would open up and Fashion Frenzie powered through late to win by three-quarters-of-a-length over Osceola. Gaines Hanover got up for third, beaten just over a length. Sid The Kid was fourth.

A 7-year-old son of Archangel, Fashion Frenzie picked up his first win since March 17 and his third win in seven starts this season. The latest victory gives him 30 career scores and lowers his career mark by two-fifths-of-a-second.

A career winner of over $1.3 million, Fashion Frenzie is owned by Ecurie Francis Richard Inc, Gestion Mario Bourgea Inc, Pierre Guillemette and Sylvain Richard.

Fashion Frenzie joins Emoticon Legacy, Gaines Hanover, Alrajah One IT and Atlanta as the co-fastest trotters in Canadian racing.

A $2 win ticket on Fashion Frenzie returned $25.70.

Miki And Minnie in PA Sire Stake Saturday at Pocono

Miki And Minnie, last season's Dan Patch Award-winning 2-year-old pacing filly, coming off a win in last Saturday's $288,600 Fan Hanover final at Woodbine Mohawk Park that earned the #3 ranking in the season's first Top Ten poll, will be racing on Saturday afternoon (June 21) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. She is set to go in one of two divisions of the second preliminary leg of her group's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes action, which combined with six divisions of Pennsylvania Stallion Series racing that day will find the fillies racing for an aggregate $222,240.

Miki And Minnie, a daughter of Always B Miki racing for Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo, and Lawrence Minowitz (thus accounting for her name), came on strongly towards the end of the season in 2024, winning the Breeders Crown and Three Diamonds to earn her Dan Patch championship. With victories in her first three starts of 2025, the newly-minted millionaire ($1,006,161), who took a mark of 1:48.3 in the Fan Hanover final, will be starting from the rail on Saturday at Pocono, with Dexter Dunn set to drive her for trainer Chris Ryder.

Her major opposition appears to be Rodeo Drive Deo, who came roaring home from eighth in the Fan Hanover to finish second, beaten only three-quarters-of-a-length. David Miller will be in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke as the daughter of Captaintreacherous begins from post 5 in a field of seven.

This division of the Sire Stakes is slotted in race 8, which will be part of a Pick 5 wager beginning in race 5 that has a $10,000 guarantee set on it after a double carryover.

The 10th race Sire Stakes division matches the group's first round PASS winners, Asphalt and Good As You, both daughters of Papi Rob Hanover. Asphalt is the early favorite from post 3 for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Brett Pelling, while Andrew McCarthy will drive Good As You from post 5 as she changes over to the Aaron Lambert barn.

The six Stallion Series sections will find Always Dawn and Fancy Like Louuuuu looking to repeat their first round PA StS victories.

Another horse in the first Top Ten poll of 2025 will also be racing Saturday at Pocono. Ken Hanover, a son of Captaintreacherous who comes into this race off a win in the Battle Of Lake Erie at Northfield and was rated #8 in North America in the initial poll, will have to overcome being assigned the outside starting slot in the seventh race field of seven lining up for a $25,000 fast-class handicap pace – also a race within the guaranteed Pick-5 wager.

With hot weather predicted for Saturday, many of the races on Saturday could see the 1:50 barrier threatened many times, given the quantity of quality horses appearing throughout the card. First race on the 15-race program is set for 1 p.m.; free Pocono program pages are available at www.phha.org.

Callahan / Butenschoen tough in Pocono baby trots

Two-year-olds had to face a sloppy surface on a warm Wednesday morning (June 18) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, and many came through with flying colors – none more so than the first-time starters trained by John Butenschoen, for whom Corey Callahan drove four winners, in three of those contests followed by another Butenschoen pupil.

Team Callahan / Butenschoen swept the three trots for males, with the fastest being the Swan For All—Kaikoura gelding San Patricio, a first-over winner in 2:00.1 with his own back figures :59 - :29 for owners Tony and Michael Holmes, June Zent, and Timothy Thornton. Second was stablemate Nofreak Volo (a Father Patrick—No I'm Not gelding).

Another 1-2 Butenschoen finish was headed the Chapter Seven—Got You BR NO gelding Rubens, who defeated Stormy Seas (a Captain Corey—Tsunami Blue Chip gelding) in 2:03.4 - :29.4. The trainer's sweep of this section was rounded off by the gelding Be Green (Greenshoe—Bright Baby Blues) in 2:01.3, last half :59.3 first-over.

Butenschoen also had a 1-2 finish in the baby filly trotter ranks, with Litt Up (Bar Hopping—Miss Fidget) vacating the pocket for Callahan and coming home in :29.4 to win in 2:05.2 over barnmate Avenzee (Gimpanzee—Avenir). The other winner in this group was a filly who won at Saratoga in her bow then came to Pocono and won again: Alexandriabluechip, a daughter of Greenshoe—Queendom who went in 2:03.3 - :59.4 - :29.4 for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Emily Bost, and owners Frank Salino, Jr., Bruce Potter, Guy Roemer, and Theresa Naylor.

A story about racing at Pocono these days can't go very far without including driver Tyler Buter, so we can introduce him here by saying he drove all three of the second-place finishers in the 1-2 Butenschoen trot sweeps, then state that he drove a pair of Hunter Oakes trainees to their second straight baby wins in the pacing filly ranks. Imagine Heaven (Papi Rob Hanover—OK Heavenly) was the fastest freshman of the sloppy session when she went wire-to-wire in 1:56.3 - :57.1 - :28.2 for owners Flying A Racing Stable, Lucky Strike, and Charles Oakes.

Tall Dark Stranger sired the other pacing filly winners, including the Team Buter/Oakes miss Tall Dark Tequila (dam Tequila Monday), home in 1:58 out of the pocket after covering her own back half in :56.1 - :27.2. Tall Dark Stranger also sired Beatrice Hanover (dam Beyond Ecstasy), giving Buter a sweep of the three divisions of this class with an engine score in 1:58.3 - :58.1 - :29.

Not to miss out on the 1-2 finish fun, trainer Travis Alexander had a pair of American Ideal colts within a nose of each other in one section of that group's races, with American Renegade (dam Hathaway Anne) out-closing Hard To Forget (dam Nota Fool Bluechip) while winning in 2:00.2 - :58.4 for driver Ridge Warren.

The faster winner in the two battles among this division went to the Huntsville gelding Wish You The Best (dam Regal Wish), coming on in :58 - :28 to get the win in 1:57.3 for owners Donald Mac Rae, Nick Kareotes, and Daguet Racing LLC while marking the second win of the day for Buter and trainer Deborah Daguet.

If there are enough promising winners in the baby races next week to warrant a report, there will be one made, although as noted yesterday in the Philly writeup Pennsylvania is on the verge of stakes season and overnight action for the 2-year-olds. The baby races can be viewed at www.phha.org.

MGM Grand Messenger Stakes elims drawn, five enter MGM Yonkers Trot Harness racing's Grand Circuit returns to MGM Yonkers Raceway tonight (June 20) with two $25,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes eliminations for 3-year-old male pacers. The Grade 2 MGM Yonkers Trot for sophomore colts and geldings did not require eliminations, with the five horses entered moving straight to next Friday's (June 27) $300,000 final.

The first leg of Pacing's Triple Crown, the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes saw 16 horses dropped into the box, so there will be two eight-horse eliminations in races 6 and 7 on tonight's 10-race program, with the top four from each elimination moving on to next Friday's Grade 2 $200,000 final.

Fast Choice (post 5, Scott Zeron listed to drive for trainer Jared Bako), a rallying third in last Saturday's (June 14) North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park, is among the entrants in the opening elimination, as are Manolete (post 2, Zeron also listed for trainer Bruce Saunders), the runner-up in the New Jersey Sire Stakes final, Pennsylvania Sire Stakes standout Twisted Destiny (post 6, Dexter Dunn listed to drive for trainer Chris Ryder) and North America Cup finalist Dandy Ideal (post 7, Jason Bartlett listed to drive for trainer Hunter Oakes).

Paxamillion (post 2, Bartlett listed to drive for trainer Brittany Dillon) is the leading money earner this year in the second elimination thanks to his victory in the Virginia Breeders final at Woodstock last time out. He will face the likes of last year's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion Papi's Rocket (post 8, Yannick Gingras listed to drive for trainer Ron Burke) and New York Sire Stakes star Thirsty Thursday (post 1, Tyler Buter listed to drive for trainer Hunter Oakes).

ELIMINATION 1 – RACE 6

Post – Horse – Driver – Trainer – Odds

1. Jon I Love Dat – Yannick Gingras – Janice Connor – 6-1
2. Manolete – Scott Zeron – Bruce Saunders – 4-1
3. Lochlan Hanover – Matt Kakaley – Travis Alexander – 15-1
4. Snack Attack – Joe Bongiorno – Joe Bongiorno – 8-1
5. Fast Choice – Jordan Stratton – Jared Bako – 3-1
6. Twisted Destiny – Dexter Dunn – Chris Ryder – 5-1
7. Dandy Ideal – Jason Bartlett – Hunter Oakes – 7-2
8. Currys Flurry – George Brennan – Scott Di Domenico – 20-1

ELIMINATION 2 – RACE 7

Post – Horse – Driver – Trainer – Odds

1. Thirsty Thursday – Tyler Buter – Hunter Oakes – 2-1
2. Paxamillion – Jason Bartlett – Brittany Dillon – 7-2
3. Holt Hanover – Mark MacDonald – Ray Schnittker – 6-1
4. Meltdown Monte – Pat Lachance – Scott Di Domenico – 12-1
5. World Of Wishes – Dexter Dunn – Chris Ryder – 6-1
6. Odds On No Limit – Matt Kakaley – Travis Alexander – 15-1
7. Banderas – Jordan Stratton – Tony Alagna – 10-1
8. Papi's Rocket – Yannick Gingras – Ron Burke – 5-1

As for the MGM Yonkers Trot, the opening leg of the Trotting Triple Crown, the following horses (in alphabetical order) were entered:

Chat Room

Hard Seven

Happy Jack B

Super Chapter

Variegated

Chat Room won his division of the Empire Breeders Classic at Vernon Downs last time out, while Hard Seven captured the Dexter Cup at The Meadowlands earlier this year. Super Chapter comes off victories in the New York Sire Stakes and Empire Breeders Classic at Vernon and Variegated won a split of the New York Sire Stakes at Vernon and was last year's NYSS champion at Yonkers.

In addition to the MGM Grand Messenger and MGM Yonkers Trot finals, their companion stakes races – the Grade 3 Park MGM for pacing fillies and the Grade 3 New York New York Mile for filly trotters – will be part of next Friday's stakes-filled program.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

Another fabulous night on tap at The Big M

Tonight (June 20) at The Meadowlands is one for the bettors, as a monster 20-cent Pick-5 pool – the result of a Saturday night carryover – as well as the sixth edition of the track's Monthly Handicapping Challenge will get the weekend off to a rollicking start.

The Pick-5 pool has the potential to be enormous.

The only other time there has been a carryover in the Pick-5 during 2025, a total of $183,943 of "new money" was poured into the pot on Jan. 25 chasing a carryover of $28,744 for a grand total of $212,687.

That night, the Pick-5 saw a sequence where the winner's odds were 6-1, 17-1, 3-2, 13-1 and 1-5, with winning tickets being exchanged for $2,787.26.

"The low minimum bet of 20 cents allows players to spread their tickets, so quite a few of our players had that last carryover Pick-5," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer. "When you have a carryover situation like this, where the pool figures to be in the $200,000 range, all of our players get excited. And since the Pick-5 begins with race 1, it engages all of our players from the start of the card and should create some good action on our 50-cent Pick-4s, which begin in races 6 and 10, respectively."

The Pick-5 carryover heading into tonight is $22,989.

The carryover was set up by three bombs that went off at the start of the card on June 14. Races 1 through 3 were taken by 10-1, 70-1 and 19-1 shots, respectively, meaning that even after the sequence concluded with a 9-5 and a 7-2, a sizable carryover was assured.

The 20-cent Pick-5 is offered nightly on races 1 through 5.

GET YOUR PENCILS READY: The sixth edition of the 2025 Meadowlands Monthly Handicapping Contest takes place tonight (June 20), and offers players a chance to win a share of $1,000 in prize money.

Contest format:

- Contestants must be on-site to participate
- Contestants must buy a $100 betting card to participate
- Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races
- There is no minimum or maximum bet per race
- Contestants can play any wager(s) on The Meadowlands live wagering menu
- Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings
- Contestants can enter as many times as they wish
- The top two finishers earn spots in the $10,000 end-of-the-year contest

Remaining contest schedule:

- Tonight (June 20)
- Friday (July 18)
- Aug. 30
- Oct. 25
- Nov. 21
- The $10,000 invitation-only final is on Saturday, December 13

Previous players that have qualified for the December contest are Nick Montemurro and Gary Scogna (the top two finishers from January); Michael Grasso and Montemurro (February); Sean Loebis and Joe Barre (March); Robert Glaser and Jim Bohnarczyk (April); and Karen Fossli and Russ Slader (May).

Complete contest rules and regulations can be found here.

To participate, players must be 18 years of age or older to wager on racing. If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, please get help at 1-800-GAMBLER.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ALRIGHT: Yes, tonight will be great, but Saturday is going to be stacked with star performers on the track.

Smooth Dream will look to stay perfect in seven seasonal tries in the $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund final for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers. The son of Cattlewash—Dreamlands Latte, the only horse at The Big M during 2025 to win six consecutive races at the mile oval, won the New Jersey Sire Stakes final on May 24.

There are also a pair of $75,000, leg three Graduate Series dashes for 4-year-olds, one on the trot and another on the pace.

The trot features Sir Pinocchio, 14 wins from just 29 lifetime starts to go along with a bankroll of almost $750,000, and Private Access, a lifetime earner of over $400,000. Both off victories in leg two last week at The Big M.

Captain Albano, the 3-year-old Dan Patch divisional champion of the year from 2024, tops the pacing split. The Noel Daley trainee was a winner in leg two a week ago, stopping the clock in 1:49.2 in his first outing of the season. Staying perfect in two starts won't be easy, as the son of Captaintreacherous-Angelou has drawn post 10.

BABIES A DAY EARLIER: The Meadowlands' qualifiers/baby races will be raced today (June 20) this week instead of the usual Saturday.

Post time will be 9 a.m., and if you can't make it out to the track, check out the action live at playmeadowlands.com.

CIRCLE THE DATES: The two biggest dates on the calendar at The Meadowlands feature two of the biggest stakes events the game offers.

In just three weeks, on Saturday (July 12), the $700,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace will take center stage on a power-packed card that gets underway at 6:20 p.m.

Three weeks after that, "America's Trotting Classic" will be in the spotlight celebrating an historic anniversary.

On Aug. 2, the 100th edition of the $1-million Hambletonian will highlight the strongest program of the year in the sport. The only card during the season that takes place during the day, post time on Hambletonian Day is noon.

CATCH THAT FOX: For a fifth consecutive year, the TV teams at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and The Meadowlands are combining forces to bring high-caliber harness racing stakes events to a national television audience over the networks of FOX Sports as part of NYRA's "America's Day at the Races" telecasts.

Here is the schedule for the remaining FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on — Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 — will be determined:

- June 28 — Perfect Sting, Brower Memorial, Crawford Farms, Six Pack, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- July 5 — Stan Bergstein Graduate finals; Meadowlands Pace eliminations, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- July 12 — Meadowlands Pace Night (multiple stakes), 8-11 p.m., TBA
- Aug. 2 — Hambletonian Day (multiple stakes), 1-7 p.m., TBA
- Sept. 5 — New Jersey Classic Series finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- Nov. 1 — Kindergarten finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- Nov. 15 — Fall Final Four, 8-11 p.m., TBA

Woodbine Entertainment quadruples support for Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society

Woodbine Entertainment Monday (June 16) announced a $20,000 donation to the Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society (OSAS), one of its key aftercare partners. The increased funding, up from $5,000 annually, reflects Woodbine's strengthened commitment to equine aftercare and the long-term well-being of standardbred athletes.

As Canada's leading horse racing operator, Woodbine believes that a racehorse's care should extend well beyond their racing career. OSAS plays a critical role in retraining and rehoming retired standardbreds, helping them transition into second careers as pleasure horses, companions, and therapy animals. This enhanced support will directly fund veterinary care, retraining programs, and placement services for horses in the program.

"This increased funding reflects our deep commitment to the horses that give so much to our sport," said Michael Copeland, CEO of Woodbine Entertainment. "OSAS has a proven track record of providing retired standardbreds with safe, meaningful futures, and we are proud to strengthen our support of their incredible work."

The donation was officially presented to the Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society (OSAS) during the opening ceremonies of the Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday evening (June 14) — the most prestigious night of the standardbred racing season — underscoring Woodbine's ongoing commitment to horse care at every stage of their careers.

Since its inception in 1996, OSAS has found loving homes for thousands of retired racehorses, earning recognition as Ontario's premier standardbred aftercare organization.

"The Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society is incredibly grateful for this generous donation from Woodbine Entertainment," said Joanne Colville, administrator of OSAS. "For 29 years, OSAS and Woodbine have had a strong working relationship that has benefitted both organizations and, most importantly, the horses. With more horses than usual in our care right now, these funds will go a long way to help retrain them and place them in forever, loving homes."

This increased investment in OSAS is part of a broader, renewed focus on the horse racing community through Woodbine Cares, Woodbine's philanthropic initiative. More details on new equine and industry support programs will be announced in the coming days.

Kat's Fancy fastest of four DSBF elims

A quartet of $20,000 divisions of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) action for 3-year-old trotters headlined the Wednesday (June 18) program over a sloppy racetrack.

A pair of short fields in filly divisions started the 15-race program. Jane Dunavant's Kat's Fancy ($3.80, Cody Polisen) was a 1:58 winner in the first split over Take It Easy and Royal Toni. The Dusty Winner filly led all the way for trainer Carlo Polisen and achieved her sixth win of her career.

Nanticoke Racing and Delbert Cain's Marino Bluestone ($7, Jim Morand) won the second division in 2:02.4 over Peggys Girl and Hollys Lou. The Anders Bluestone filly collared leader Peggys Girl on the final turn and edged clear in the stretch for her second career win for trainer Les Givens.

The first division for colts and geldings went to Chuck Groce II's Im Not George ($5.60, Eddie Dennis) who dominated his rivals in 1:59.1 over Bucky Highway and Heytherebuckyboy. A Glidemaster gelding, Im Not George was loose on the front end throughout in picking up his second career win for his owner/trainer.

Frank Chick's Chex Check ($9, Ross Wolfenden) prevailed in the final split in 2:01.3 over Delaware Xactly and Legend Of Rock.

Jim Morand had a driving triple on the card. Eddie Dennis, Ross Wolfenden and Montrell Teague each had a pair of wins.

GIVENS TRAINEES SHINE IN DSBF FILLY DIVISIONS: A pair of Les Givens-trainees won two of the three Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) elimination divisions Tuesday (June 17) at Harrington Raceway.

Donna Messick's Little Miss Peyton ($2.10, Corey Callahan) scored an easy 1:55.1 win in the first DSBF elimination over Valentina Station and Mad Anne. The Papa Ray filly had no trouble making the lead from post 6 and cruised to an open length score, the 10th of her career.

In the second division, Nanticoke Racing, Arthur Feeney and Chad Tate's Bella Artiste ($2.40, Jim Morand) used a potent stretch kick to reel in pacesetter Proper Lady in the final strides for her 10th career win in 1:57.2. Im Won Last Wiser was third. The Givens-trainee and daughter of Badlands Hanover recorded her fifth win of the season.

The final DSBF filly split went to Tilted Crown over Mimosa On The Key and Sweetpea Pat in 1:57.1. Co-owned by Leblanc Racing for trainer Steve Lablanc, it was the fourth win for Tilted Crown, a daughter of Royal Mattjesty.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule (post time 4:30 p.m.) through July 2.

Primo Maschio, Lew Not Lou take DSBF splits

The first leg of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) action for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers kicked off the racing action at Harrington Raceway on Monday (June 16).

A pair of $20,000 divisions were contested with the big favorite Forrest Bartlett's Primo Maschio ($2.10, Trae Porter) winning his 13th career race decisively in 1:55.4 over Big Hunk A Money and Won Last Call. Trained by Walt Callahan, the Badlands Hanover gelding never had an anxious moment in winning his fourth race in five starts this year.

The second DSBF split went to Kdk Standardbreds' Lew Not Lou ($4.40, Ross Wolfenden), who outkicked a game Shore Not Beach to the wire for his fourth career win. The Badlands Hanover gelding trained by Kevin Switzer was heads apart from Shore Not Beach at three-quarters, a prelude to a homestretch duel that saw Lew Not Lou holding on for the win. The top eight point earners from two rounds of eliminations will compete in the $110,000 final on July 17.

Corey Callahan had a driving triple.

Shenandoah Downs Spring Meet by the numbers

Shenandoah Downs recently completed the spring portion of its “10 Years of Racing in Woodstock,” campaign for 2025 which featured a seven-week spring meet that ran from April 26-June 8. The season was highlighted by a slate of Virginia Breeder’s Fund 3-year-old divisional championships for pacers and trotters of both sexes who competed for a combined $354,500 on closing weekend. Another slate of Mountain Series races for graduates of the Virginia Harness Horse Association’s lucrative Certified Residency Program were contested. The Blue Ridge Pace and Alleghany Trot both helped celebrate mountain ranges the Shenandoah oval is nestled between.

Shenandoah Downs will continue its 2025 season with a seven-week fall meet that runs from Sept. 13-Oct. 26. Racing applications for horsemen will be available soon at the shenandoahdowns.com website.

Below is a look back at some of the spring meet highlights in a fun “by the numbers” concept:

#1 — Trainer Katie Herman scored her first win ever as a harness owner and trainer on June 7 with sophomore filly pacer Caughtupinthehoney. She bought the daughter of Capitol Power as a yearling and has trained her since. Herman is an equine dentist and has been involved in showing and riding horses for many years, but wanted something different and got into harness racing. Glad she decided to give Shenandoah Downs a chance.

#2 — The number of track records that were established during the spring meet, courtesy of Jane Dunavant’s Kat’s Fancy and Dale Witcher’s Flo Jo. The former won the $89,600 Virginia Breeder’s 3-Year-Old Filly Trot championship in a lifetime best 1:56.1, three seconds faster than her prior best on a half-mile track. The latter set a track record for older pacing mares with a stellar 1:53 effort in winners over company on May 25. Driver Fern Paquet, Jr. authored the mile, which was the Keystone Velocity mare’s third straight win in Woodstock.

#3 — The number of Shenandoah Downs drivers that made great use of a dark day during the meet and spoke to a class of fourth graders at the Growing Tree School in Woodstock. William Carter, Tim Deaton and Bryson Dunning — all fresh off weekend wins in the sulky — answered questions about the sport of harness racing from eager students for about 40 minutes.

#4 — Appomattox 4H Club members visited Shenandoah Downs on June 1 and got a behind the scenes tour of the backstretch, then enjoyed the afternoon harness races and even got a race named in their honor. Earlier in the meet, the Louisa FFA Equine Team enjoyed a similar afternoon that was both educational and enjoyable.

#6 — The number of wins iconic trainer Roger Hammer collected during the spring meet, including bookend wins on opening day. The 79-year-old Bedford, PA-based conditioner scored with Maker Dance in the first race on April 26 and with Cirrus De Vie in the finale. Hammer has supported Virginia racing at both Colonial Downs and Shenandoah Downs over the years.

#7 — The number of top three finishes Tracy Bradshaw’s Joan Deer collected to earn Shenandoah Downs Horse of the Meet honors. The 5-year-old Uncle Peter mare tallied three wins, three seconds and a third and improved throughout as she moved up in ranks over the seven weeks. Bradshaw, who is based in Bland, VA, piloted his Virginia-bred to victory opening weekend in what turned out to be the 47-year-old owner/trainer’s first ever pari-mutuel driving win. Christian Myers drove her in the other starts.

#13 — The number of driving wins brothers Christian Myers and Lucas Myers each recorded this spring as they competed against each other and tied for fourth in the overall driver standings. Six of Christian’s wins came from a pair of driving triples, his first ones ever. The 22-year-old ended up with $94,006 in purse earnings, $4,000 more than his younger brother. The younger brother though 21 years of age, had 38 in-the-money finishes, three more than his older brother.

#15 — The age of Kayla Pressel’s Just Bettor, who became the first 15-year-old horse to ever win a race at Shenandoah Downs. Normally, North American standardbreds face mandatory retirement on their 15th birthday, however they can continue racing in amateur races, and Shenandoah Downs carded several during the meet. Driver Kevin Altig led the son of Bettors Delight to an impressive wire-to-wire win in 1:56.4 in his 342nd lifetime start.

#18 — The number of pari-mutuel wins compiled this spring by three locally based “Own a Horse for a Day” promotional winners, who since winning the contest, have invested their own money in the sport of harness racing and are succeeding at Shenandoah Downs. Edinburg-based Steve Wetzel finished with 11 training wins — third in the final standings — in his best season since winning the popular contest as a fan in 2021. His talented pacer Sea of Life won three times while facing top competition on the grounds including a sizzling 1:52.1 mile on May 31 which was just two-fifths-of-a-second off track record time. Mount Jackson-based horse owner Ivan Foltz struck gold with his horse purchases and amassed six wins as a new owner, including a trio with Bgoing Away. Finally, Woodstock-based owner/trainer Barry Shrum, who several years ago grew a 756-pound pumpkin which won first place in the Virginia State Fair competition, reached the winner’s circle for the second-straight year with his 13-year-old Art Major gelding Pacific Stride.

#29 — The number of wins Chuck Perry’s consistent 12-year-old gelding pacer John’s Dream has collected at Woodstock, making him the winningest horse in Shenandoah Downs’

10-year-history. He bagged Shenandoah win number 29 and career win number 50 in the $20,000 Virginia Breeder's Fund Aged Pace on the closing day card. John's Dream leaves Woodstock with $394,587 in earnings. Perry, who lives in Suffolk, VA, said his prize athlete will be back in the fall season and hopes to race him as a 13- and 14-year-old.

#39 – The number of combined wins leading trainer Bryson Dunning and leading driver Fern Paquet, Jr. collected this spring. Dunning won a hard-fought closing weekend battle for the top conditioner with Archie Buford and Steve Wetzel to finish with 15 wins for the meet. Paquet ended up with 24 wins in the sulky, and horses he drove earned $245,960 in purse monies.

#100 – The career win which 25-year-old harness trainer Riley Asher-Stalbaum calls the most memorable, after her 14-year-old pacer Itsonlyrocknroll A got to the winner's circle on June 8. Asher-Stalbaum, whose family has been in harness racing for three generations, has trained since 2018 and this was her 100th triumph. "This win was a really big deal because my family was here with me and my baby brother [Winter Asher-Stalbaum] was driving," said Riley. "I won the Rising Star Award at the Buffalo/Batavia circuit when I was 18 years old and thought that was a career highlight. I think this win might have surpassed it though."

#172 – The number of stalls that Shenandoah Downs' massive new $1.8 million barn will accommodate as it makes its debut at the upcoming fall season and ushers in a new era of racing in Woodstock. The major portion of the stabling area – which has been under tent canopies with temporary stalls for the last 10 years – was taken down for the final time last week. Thanks to Sunset Valley Metalcraft who has provided stalls and tents at Shenandoah since 2016 and helped make racing possible.

Meadowlands qualifiers and baby races today

The Meadowlands qualifiers/baby races will be raced today (June 20) this week on a trial basis due to requests from several horsepersons shipping each weekend to The Meadowlands to race Friday, qualify Saturday morning then back to race Saturday night.

They will still be drawn Wednesday mornings with a 10 a.m. box close and post time on Fridays will be 9 a.m.

Nick Salvi / The Meadowlands

Harpers Hat Trick romps in Randy Henry Memorial race

Friends and family of the late Clinton horseman Randy Henry gathered to remember his life and legacy this afternoon (June 15) during the 10 race Father's Day Card. The fifth race, named in his honor went to Harpers Hat Trick for owner Kris Haskell of Clinton. A gate-to-wire finish driven by Travis Henry paid $15.50 on the win ticket and crossed the wire in 1:56 flat. Henry would go on to win two additional races for the driving hat trick.

Race fans turned out in droves to celebrate dads, support the track side fundraiser for Huron Centennial Schools grade 8's and attend the first ever Touch-A-Truck event held in the parking lot.

"To say this day was a success would be an understatement" said Jessica Carnochan, Clinton's marketing manager. "Traditionally, Father's Day has been a big day for us, but this one was definitely one for the books!"

Fans big and small could climb in, on, and around all kinds of different equipment that they normally wouldn't be able to. From a crane, to dump trucks, excavators and fire engines, there was something for everyone.

Huron Centennial school was able to raise just over $5,000 thanks to the supportive fans and bettors but just under $65,000 through the mutuel windows.

Racing continues Sunday (June 22) with a fundraiser for the Vanastra Curling Club and fans can register online at www.clintonraceway.com to pick up a free $10 wager.

Live race post time is 1:30 p.m. every Sunday afternoon.

Kentucky Sires Stakes information at Oak Grove

The box has closed for the first leg of the 2- and 3-year-old sires stakes at Oak Grove, and because of the overwhelming response, the four two-year-old divisions and the 3-year-old filly trot will be raced on Monday (June 23).

The other three divisions of the 3-year-olds will be carried to Tuesday (June 24). Along with the 3-year-olds, there will be four finals held for the 4-year-olds. Again, the box was closed Wednesday morning (June 18) and no new entries will be accepted.

Post time for both days will be 1:25 p.m. CST.

Ontario Racing announces Kids' Day Camp is coming to eight racetracks this summer

Ontario Racing is pleased to announce the launch of its free Kids' Day Camp scheduled to make stops at eight racetracks in the province this summer.

The fun and educational program is designed for children ages 6 through 12 and will be held during live race cards beginning at the first-race post time.

The event does not require registration. Kids are welcome to just show up on race day.

The Kids' Day Camp offers a unique opportunity for young horse racing fans to experience the excitement of the sport up close. Each event will feature:

- A meet and greet with a professional trainer, driver, or jockey.
- Interactive learning stations on horse care, feeding treats, and braiding.
- Fun activities including coloring and a seek-and-find game.

Camps at thoroughbred tracks are presented by the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA). The camps at standardbred tracks are presented by the Central Ontario Standardbred Association (COSA).

Camp Schedule:

- Clinton Raceway – Sunday (June 29, 2025) – beginning at 1:30 p.m.
- Hiawatha Horse Park – Aug. 2, 2025 – beginning at 6:30 p.m.
- Kawartha Downs – Aug. 9, 2025 – beginning at 6 p.m.
- Fort Erie Racetrack – Aug. 17, 2025 – beginning at 12:15 p.m.
- Rideau Carleton Raceway – Aug. 24, 2025 – beginning at 6:30 p.m.
- Hanover Raceway – Aug. 30, 2025 – beginning at 1:30 p.m.
- Grand River Raceway – Sept. 5, 2025 – beginning at 6:30 p.m.
- Woodbine Racetrack – Date TBD

For children 13 or older, Ontario Racing offers free virtual online courses via its Horse eCamp provided in partnership with Equine Guelph. Find out more information here: www.TheHorsePortal.ca/OR.

Woodbine Entertainment relaunches Woodbine Cares initiative

Woodbine Entertainment Wednesday (June 18) announced the relaunch of Woodbine Cares, its philanthropic arm, under a renewed banner: "For the Love of the Horse Racing Community."

This refreshed Woodbine Cares initiative underscores a deepened commitment to the people and horses at the heart of Canada's horse racing industry.

Woodbine Cares' mission is clear: "Woodbine Cares is dedicated to supporting the people and horses that power Ontario's horse racing industry. We invest in horse welfare and aftercare, and champion initiatives that uplift the hardworking individuals who make racing possible. Through compassion, collaboration, and strategic support, we're building a stronger, more sustainable future for the horse racing community."

As part of the relaunch, Woodbine Cares is donating $250,000 annually towards three key focus areas and invest in major new initiatives across each:

Equine welfare and aftercare

- A total of $105,000 will be dedicated to equine welfare and aftercare programs.

- This includes quadrupling its annual contributions from $5,000 to $20,000 to Woodbine's aftercare partners – the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA), LongRun Thoroughbred Retirement Society, and the Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society (OSAS) – which help retrain and rehome retired racehorses.

- An additional $25,000 is earmarked for new horse welfare grants to support local equine charities and horse welfare initiatives.

Food programs and support for backstretch workers

- Woodbine Cares will also invest in food programs for backstretch workers – the hardworking people who care for the horses.

- This funding supports Canada's largest corporate community garden at Woodbine Racetrack, a 20,000-square-foot garden that produces over 3,000 pounds of fresh produce annually for community groups and backstretch workers and dorm residents.

- The program also includes a winter food program to ensure those living on the backstretch have access to nutritious food during the off-season. These efforts reflect Woodbine's ongoing commitment to the well-being of its racing community year-round.

- Doubling its annual donation and deepening its relationship and support for Race Track Chaplaincy of Canada, which provides emotional and spiritual support for workers on the backstretch. This holistic approach ensures that the people who make racing possible are supported both on and off the track.

Racing Workforce Development

- To nurture the next generation of horsepeople and Woodbine team members, funding has been earmarked to support workforce development initiatives. Woodbine Cares is funding placements and stipends for Equine Guelph graduates and veterinary students to gain hands-on industry experience.

- Additionally, Woodbine is investing in upskilling its own employees through monthly speaker series, micro-learning sessions, and tuition reimbursement programs to strengthen the industry's talent base.

"This refreshed focus on 'For the Love of the Horse Racing Community' reflects our organization's commitment to what matters most – the people, the horses, and the entire racing community," said Michael Copeland, CEO, Woodbine Entertainment. "By concentrating our efforts on horse welfare and on those who work tirelessly behind the scenes, Woodbine Cares is helping build a vibrant and sustainable future for Ontario horse racing. We're investing in the well-being of our equine athletes and the dedicated individuals who care for them, because their success and welfare are the foundation of our sport's success for generations to come."

The relaunched Woodbine Cares initiative, supported by a refreshed visual identity and guided by the new tagline "For the Love of the Horse Racing Community." This renewed focus reflects Woodbine's ongoing commitment to supporting the people and horses that sustain the sport, and to building a stronger, more sustainable future for horse racing in Ontario.
