When it comes to the purse for Meadowlands Pace 50, every little bit helps

Jeff Gural's Early Closer Participation fee has bolstered this year's purse.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS with DEBBIE LITTLE

It's been more than a dozen years since the Meadowlands Pace final went for $1 million. However, thanks to The Big M's $400 Early Closer Participation payments (ECPP), the purse is on the rise.

Meadowlands president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural came up with the idea for the racing version of pay-to-play, believing the one-time payment per eligible 2-year-old would help bolster the purses of several races until the much-anticipated casino hopefully gets the green light.

Foals of 2024 are made eligible, according to The Big M's website, by their sire being nominated via a "payment of 50 per cent of the cost of one 2024 breeding by Feb. 15, 2026."

Since the ECPP is for freshmen, the Pace participants are not required to pony up anything in addition to their normal payments. They just reap the benefits as do participants in this year's Jerry Silverman Memorial, Shady Daisy, Cane Pace, Stanley Dancer Memorial, and Del Miller Memorial.

Although it's too early to tell if eliminations will be needed on Saturday (July 4) for the 50th edition of the Meadowlands' signature event, the fact that the purse for the final is expected to be more than in recent years could definitely be a draw.

The purse for the 2025 Meadowlands Pace final was $656,000 with $300,000 added money, whereas this year, there is an additional $100,000 in added money ($400,000) for an estimated purse of $800,000.

Although not as significant a bump as the purse for the Pace, no one competing would balk at the increase in added money for the Silverman ($30,000), Shady Daisy ($35,000), Cane ($70,000), Dancer ($30,000), or Miller ($55,000).

Obviously, should a referendum for a casino at The Meadowlands be placed on the ballot and the residents of the Garden State vote yes, this once-in-a-horse's-lifetime fee would no longer be necessary as the expected landslide from on-site gamblers would once again fund plentiful purses.

Less than half of the last 13 Pace finals have gone for $700,000 or more, with the purse hitting a recent low of $600,000 in 2022. It should be noted that the first two editions of the Pace in 1977 and 1978, went for $212,500 and $280,000, respectively, before jumping up to $750,000 in year three.

From 1980 to 2012, only twice did the purse go below a million, dropping to $902,500 in 1987 and $852,000 in 1989. The record high came in 1984, when On The Road Again walked away with the winner's share of $1,293,000.

If the purse for this year's Pace final is over $600,000 — the purse guaranteed for the Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Open Pace and estimated for the Little Brown Jug — it would be the highest in the division in the U.S. With the current exchange rate with the Canadian dollar, should the Pace purse go over $720,000, it would be the highest this year in North America, surpassing the Pepsi North America Cup.

Meadowlands president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural came up with the idea for the racing version of pay-to-play, believing the one-time payment per eligible 2-year-old would help bolster the purses of several races until the much-anticipated casino hopefully gets the green light.

With seven of the horses in Dave Little's Road to the Meadowlands Pace Top 10 expected to be competing this weekend, as well as other eligibles that have yet to make the list, the lead up to Pace 50 looks to be accelerating.

Unlike some years where an overwhelming favorite for the Pace lessened the need for elims by scaring away competition, this year is somewhat different.

If the purse for this year's Pace final is over $600,000 — the purse guaranteed for the Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Open Pace and estimated for the Little Brown Jug — it would be the highest in the division in the U.S. With the current exchange rate with the Canadian dollar, should the Pace purse go over $720,000, it would be the highest this year in North America, surpassing the Pepsi North America Cup.

Going off what happened a couple of weeks ago in the North America Cup, Odds On Mr Mamba, Brandon Blvd, and Beau Jangles seem to have moved themselves to the front of the class, at least for now. But with tonight's (June 26) Messenger Stakes final at Yonkers and other races also taking place or having already taken place on both sides of the border, as John Campbell would say, the picture is not yet completely clear.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

Farewell to Free Willy Hanover

by Melissa Keith

Free Willy Hanover (7, 1:53s; $734,892) was foaled on Feb. 1, 2013, 20 years after the release of the 1993 movie Free Willy. The popular film focused on the story of an orca freed from captivity by a boy who loved him. The horse was a $100,000 Harrisburg yearling who matured into a fan favorite trotter at Woodbine Mohawk Park, racing mainly for trainer/co-owner Carmen Auciello.

The gelded son of Credit Winner—Free Spirit made his first Canadian start at Woodbine Racetrack on Dec. 1, 2016, crushing on the front end for trainee/driver Michael Vanderkemp. One win turned into three straight for Vanderkemp, and Free Willy Hanover's streak continued through another four races after moving to a new barn.

"We bought Free Willy Hanover out of the January 2017 Preferred Equine Mixed Sale at The Meadowlands," Carmen Auciello told HRU on Monday (June 22). "We bought into one-quarter of him from the start, with partners Rob Watson, Mike Bartram, and Armando Cappuccitti. He was such a gentleman and honest racehorse; it was tough not to like everything about him. He won his first four races for us, so it's safe to say we liked him a lot right from the start."

His time with the trotter eventually spanned 203 starts together.

In 2017, the gritty gelding had his first Woodbine Mohawk Park victory, holding off favorite Mighty Nicky by a neck in 1:54.1 on June 16. By Dec. 23, 2017, Free Willy Hanover had made it to the Woodbine preferred trot for the first time. Driven by Bob McClure, he closed for place at odds of 52-1, beaten only by Odds On Amethyst, eventual 2017 O'Brien Older Male Trotter of the Year.

Free Willy Hanover's consistency and character stood out over his 11-year career. He never made a single break after April 8, 2017. He was a winner for Drury and Auciello on April 9, 2018, the final card of live harness racing at Woodbine Racetrack. He competed in the preferred class 54 times, winning at that level for the first time on March 18, 2019 and repeating a week later on March 25, 2019 for regular driver Drury. In both races, the place finisher was Musical Rhythm, later named 2019 O'Brien Older Male Trotter of the Year.

> "[Free Willy Hanover] was a fan favorite and a barn favorite. He was my father-in-law's favorite horse, and he'll always be remembered by me and my family. Such a shame to see him die so tragically [in the barn fire at Saratoga] and so close to becoming a [Canadian] millionaire. He deserved that honor and to be retired to a nice home. Such a shame."
> — Carmen Auciello

"My most memorable race was actually a race where he didn't win, but finished a fast-closing second in 1:50.4 to the great Musical Rhythm in June of 2019," Auciello said.

Although a half-length back in second, Free Willy Hanover shared the winner's 1:50.4 clocking for the mile, which equaled the divisional track and Canadian record at the time. He just missed making the 2019 O'Brien Award ballot, finishing third in divisional voting.

Free Willy Hanover took his 1:53 lifetime mark at Mohawk on Aug. 10, 2020 at age 7. He briefly changed stables three months later.

"In November 2020, my partners wanted to try somebody new for 'Willy,' so they bought out my share and sent him to Kyle Fellows," Auciello said. "In August of 2021, I bought my share back and brought him back home."

On Jan. 16, 2023, Free Willy Hanover was claimed. Initially racing for Karen Seguin, he moved to the Rick Zeron stable in May. The 10-year-old trotter matched his lifetime mark on Sept. 11, 2023 at Mohawk, drawing clear to win by three open lengths.

The big win followed a bigger, more personal loss for his former trainer.

"I was very sad to lose 'Will' when we did," Auciello said. "He wasn't at the top of his game, so I thought he was safe for [the $65,000 claiming price], but it turns out he wasn't. We missed him dearly and kept waiting for an opportunity to get him back, but it never transpired."

In January 2024, the veteran trotter won his first qualifier at Saratoga on Jan. 30, 2024 for driver Chris Long, and again ascended the ranks. On June 16, 2024, he won the Saratoga winners over-open handicap in 1:56.3, a personal best on a half-mile track.

Harness racing superfan Sean Patrick Nolan was an admirer of Free Willy Hanover.

"He was such a warrior," Nolan said. "He averaged like 30 races a year and was like an equine ATM… He didn't always win, but he tried his hardest every race."

At some point in his life, Free Willy Hanover was enrolled in the Standardbred Canada-U.S. Trotting Association Full Circle Program, which allows horses in trouble to be reunited with past connections who are willing to help. He never needed the lifeline, but the beloved gelding had many supporters in his corner, his former trainer and driver among them.

"I didn't enroll him in the Full Circle Program, but J.D. [Jonathan Drury] and I had talked about it, and we were both interested in getting him back at some point to give him a nice retirement," Auciello said. "If the situation would have arisen, we would have brought him home, for sure."

On April 14, 2026, the 13-year-old warhorse wired in 2:00.2, his latest and last victory for owner/trainer Robyn Mangiardi of Saratoga Springs, NY, and co-owner Richard Cortese of Schenectady, NY. Although he came close on June 15, edged out late by a rival half his age, Free Willy Hanover went out a 44-time winner.

Hours later, he was one of the 17 horses who perished overnight in the June 16 barn fire on the Saratoga Harness backstretch. In the heartbreaking aftermath, Tuesday qualifiers and racing were canceled.

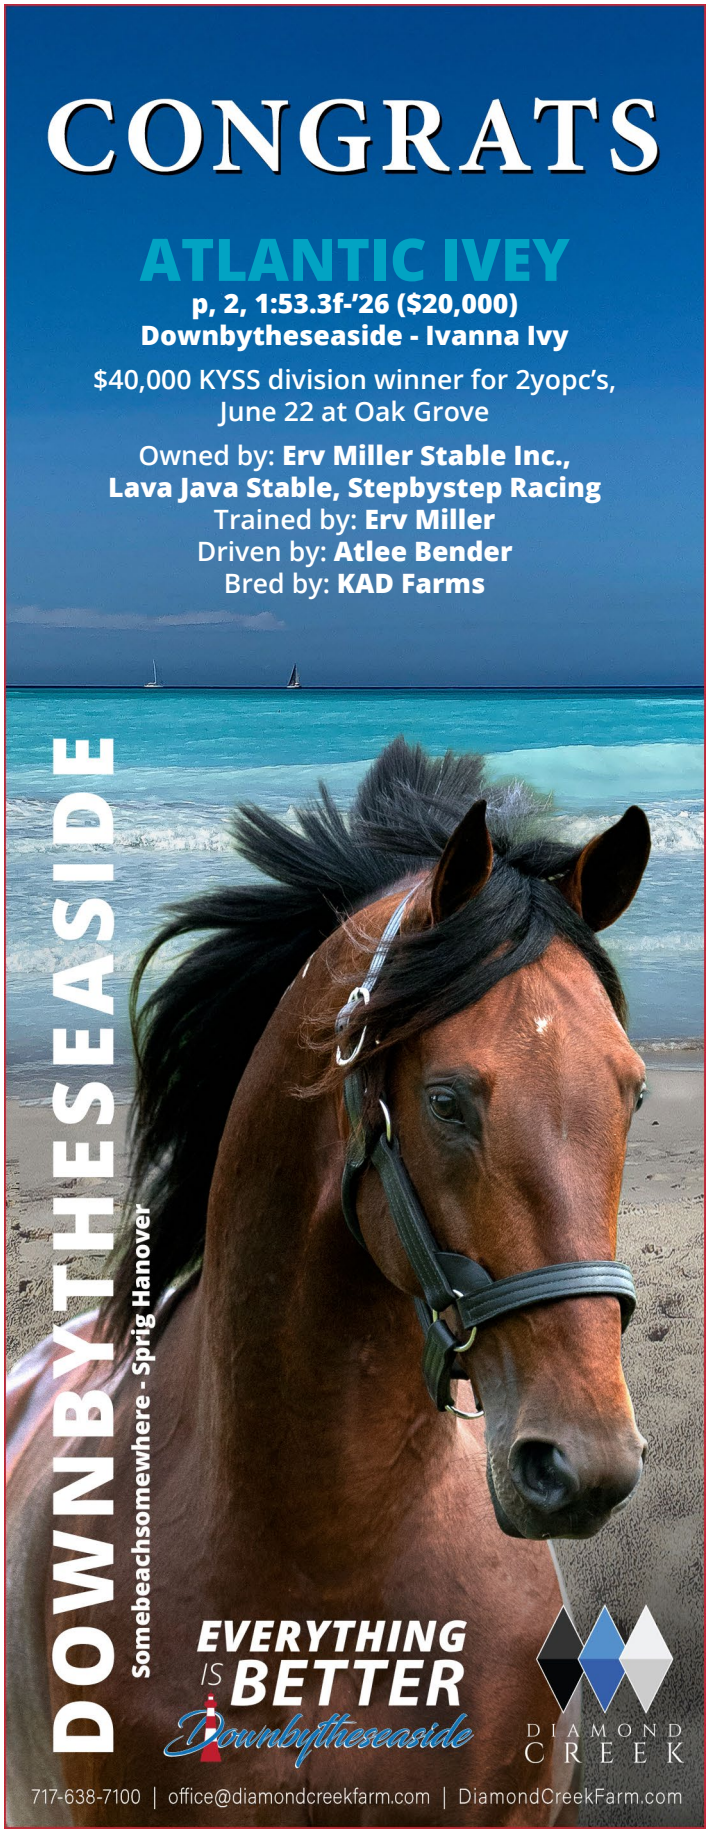

On Wednesday (June 17), Free Willy Hanover and the other 16 horses were individually buried on the grounds in a private ceremony. They will be recognized at 10:45 a.m. on Sunday (June 28) at a public memorial service in the Saratoga Harness winner's circle, organized by Saratoga Casino Hotel and the Saratoga Harness Horseperson's Association.

Born with a star on his forehead, Free Willy Hanover was seemingly destined to become a good horse. The always-game gelding won at least twice every year since his 3-year-old season, and ended his career just a neck away from keeping his record intact.

"He was a fan favorite and a barn favorite," Auciello said. "He was my father-in-law's favorite horse, and he'll always be remembered by me and my family. Such a shame to see him die so tragically and so close to becoming a [Canadian] millionaire. He deserved that honor and to be retired to a nice home. Such a shame."

Owned by Tina Rockwell of Vernon, NY, the 12-year-old Well Said—Smart Card gelding escaped the burning barn with only singed ears and symptoms of smoke inhalation.

Six other horses in the Abigail Adist-Timothy Benson stable lost their lives in the tragedy: thoroughbred saddle horse Red; Five Star Lou (p, 3, 1:54.1f; $88,188); Our Father Lindy (3, 1:57.2f; $43,125); unraced 3-year-old filly Perfect Bang; Quite Like Me (3, 2:04.3h; $32,777); and 4-year-old maiden mare Race Me Bombshell ($44,103).

"It just was a miracle, you know, by the grace of God [Twin B Speed Dial] got out," Adist told Saratoga News 10 on June 17. "Because there were no other survivors in that barn either side."

She told the news outlet that Twin B Speed Dial, a winner of 43 races from 261 starts, would be retired: "He survived this. I don't think he'll ever race again, which is totally fine by me. He can chill with me the rest of his life."

Even those not inclined to believe in guardian angels will wonder after learning Twin B Speed Dial's origin story.

He was foaled on March 28, 2014 and raised at Twinbrook Farms in Embro, ON. The colt was the second Twin B Speed Dial; his full brother, the first Twin B Speed Dial, was welcomed to the farm on April 13, 2011.

Twinbrook owner/operator Tammy McNiven confirmed that there had been an original Twin B Speed Dial. "Yes, the first Twin B Speed Dial died on the surgery table getting OCD's removed," she said, adding with sad irony, "Yes the breeding business is easy."

The colt's name could be used again; the first Twin B Speed Dial was never old enough to race or breed. He died in 2012.

"He was first crop Well Said," McNiven told HRU. "Absolutely gorgeous colt. This next Twin B Speed Dial [born in 2014] was the spitting image of the first. We gambled using the same name, [but] it paid off as he sold for $75,000 in the fourth crop of Well Saids. He was another very gorgeous colt and one of the smartest horses we've had."

The second Twin B Speed Dial proved smart and lucky enough to engineer an escape from his stall during last week's blaze at Saratoga Harness. Adist told Saratoga News 10 the gelding had "busted through one of the webbings... he managed somehow to get out on his own."

McNiven suggested that aside from intelligence, Twin B Speed Dial might have had an unseen protector by his side.

"Maybe his big brother was watching out for him and got him out of the fire," she said.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

A chat with Eric Cherry, Part 2

by John Berry

In our last Mane Attraction, innovator and prominent owner and breeder Eric Cherry was kind enough to share his thoughts on where harness racing can flourish in the future with some foresight and innovative ideas to propel our sport — breeders have already taken the standardbred horse to its current heights — into the future for next generations to enjoy and participate.

Here is Part 2 of the HRU chat with Eric Cherry.

I've seen a lot of big races — and I mean races that have eliminations to determine the finals of, say, a $500,000 or million-dollar race — and it almost looks like some are just trying to make the final or get into the top four or five, just enough to get in the big one.

"I am glad you brought that up. I, personally, think that there should be an incentive for any horse that wins both their elimination and the final — maybe a 15 per cent or 20 per cent bonus.

"If that can't be done, then make them non-betting events. You just can't have any event where there is even a hint of an entity not giving 100 per cent effort for the bettor.

"Everything should be modeled for the bettor if you want this sport to survive.

"We need more action in the races — racing is supposed to be exciting and single-file racing is not very exciting."

Well, we have the passing lane at some tracks, so why should a guy in the 2-hole pull when he knows the passing lane will open up at the top of the lane?

"For horses in the so-called "garden spot," they would not be allowed to duck to the inside in the stretch. If they know they are going to be locked in, it will force them to move — to be more aggressive.

"Also, I don't think a driver should get paid for finishing in fourth or fifth place. Some drivers are complacent these days in just getting a check. This will create a more competitive race... and the money they would earn from finishing in fourth or fifth place should go to the winning driver."

With regards to the bettor and betting, I don't think we have done enough — or very little — in the arena of the handicapper. We do have a whole menu of exotic bets, but I haven't seen any prop bets here. I even suggested prop bets on Time Trials, which are perfect for prop bets — win, lose, time by quarters, etc.

"Oh, yes. I really believe that we are missing the boat on stuff like this.

"The first thought would be "On The Number."

"Sports bettors are used to betting totals and we could have numbers placed at the top of the program page — that number based on the number of horses in a race. Players would get three number choices to place 'over,' 'under' or on the number. All they'd have to do is add up the numbers — head numbers — and make their choice. It's already programmed with United Tote.

"The next might be 'Bet Your Last Quarter.'

"Bet the official time of the last quarter of a race. There might be 11 choices, for example, with a range of :27-:29 in one-fifth-of-a-second increments... maybe even as many as 16 choices as there are many races coming a last quarter in :26.

"Anything faster than the numbered choices would be 'under' and anything over :29 would be the 'over.'"

Do you think prop bets on drivers could be another?

"Yes, but probably not in the way one would think. This would not, necessarily, be predicated on the number of wins a driver has on the card.

"Every driver programmed would be included in this wager with the bets encompassing the entire card — from the first race to the last race.

"This one tallies the pari-mutuel payoffs — not the number of wins.

"A driver with the most wins may not be the winner of this bet as a long-shot or two might very well determine the winner."

Over the last 50 years, our great breeders have improved our standardbred horses to a speed that was thought unfathomable and they have set the stage for an exciting future, if we can keep up with innovations for the bettors to match their advancements over the years.

"We just need some of our sport's movers and shakers to get it done. We do have a future, you know."

Expanding on your thoughts on modernizing the wagering process, there has been a lot written about Fixed Odds Wagering. What are your thoughts on this?

"Well, there has been plenty written about this but, maybe, a modified version could work somewhat better.

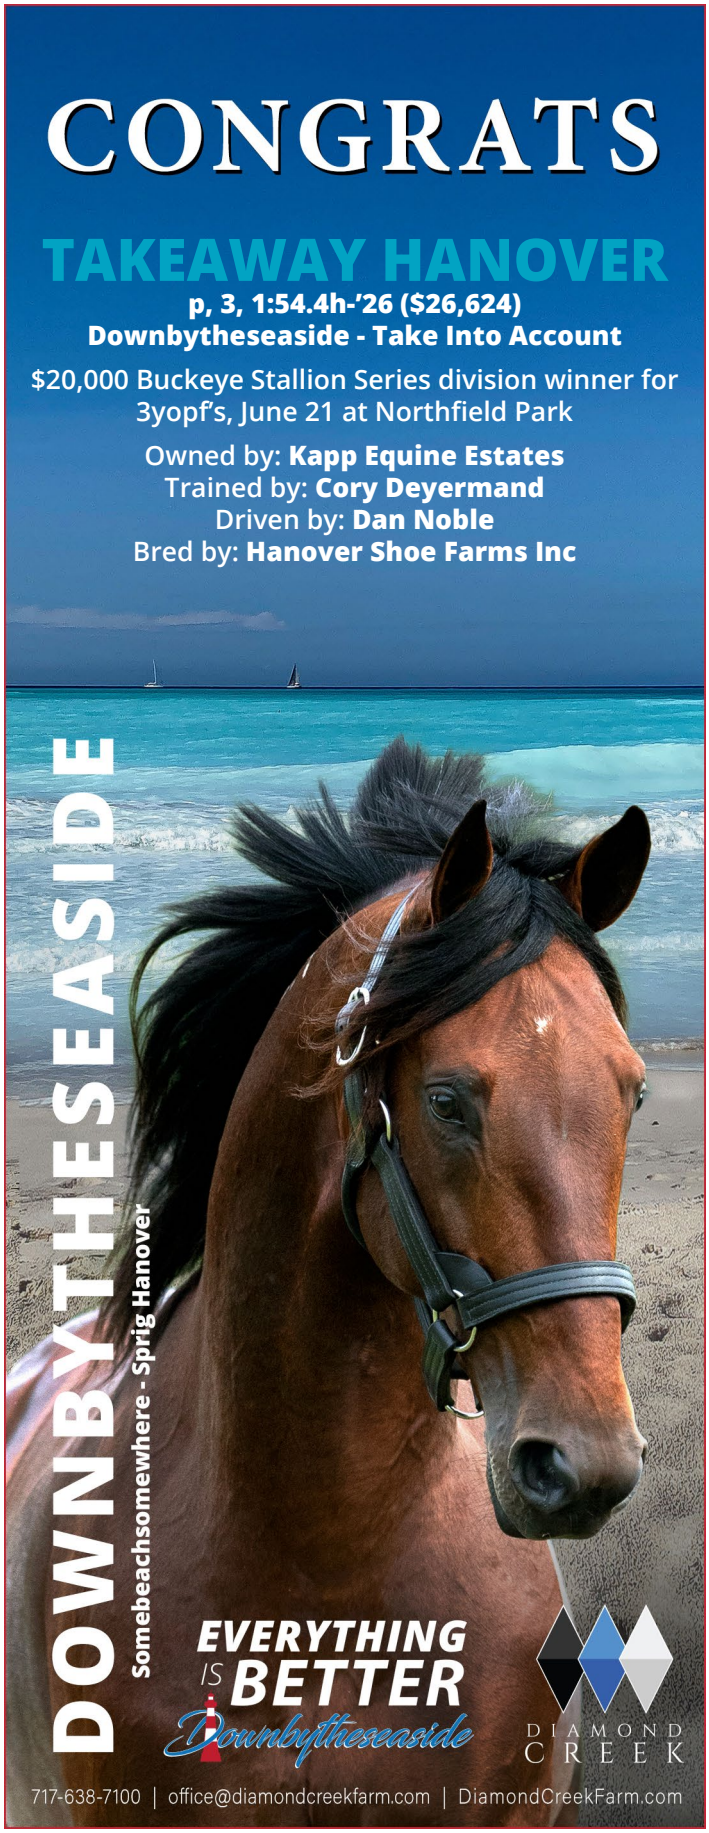

"Say, at 5 minutes to post time, you can lock in the first two favorites… but not any of the other entrants.

"This may be a bit tricky in the programming but the basic advantage is people get to bet horses that might be 4-5, instead of sitting on the sidelines because the last flash might drop them to 1-5, generating grunts and groans from the bettors.

"If a bettor sees 4-5 or even money on a horse, the potential profit is 80 per cent or 100 per cent. If it's knocked down to 1-5, the profit is only 20 per cent.

"At even money or 4-5, you're taking a huge chuck of their profit away when that last flash winds up at 1-5… and that's not too good for the bettor or for racing.

> "I, personally, think that there should be an incentive for any horse that wins both their elimination and the final — maybe a 15 per cent or 20 per cent bonus. If that can't be done, then make [the elims] non-betting events. You just can't have any event where there is even a hint of an entity not giving 100 per cent effort for the bettor."

"Yet another idea is an innovative wager that I call 'Place Plus.'

"The idea of this is to combine place and show wagering — kind of eliminating show betting, which is a minute percentage of all the betting pools, anyhow.

"The bettor selects the horse that will finish in the top two (2). It pays the same way that a place payout does, but, if the horse finishes third, the bettor gets a voucher for another bet.

"If the horse goes off as the favorite, it pays the same way."

You know, there is hardly a "bad bred" horse today and 1:53 and 1:54 pacers — and trotters that go in 1:56, too — are nothing but claimers these days. And not many small breeders can compete with the big farms these days and not many owners can compete with the top tier of horses — even a 2-year-old that can go 1:51 is hard pressed to get a good check. What say you to those folk?

"Well, there could be a series of races for horses with $20,000 purses with a final of $50,000, or so. It could be limited to stallions whose stud fee is under a certain limit — maybe $3,000. This would prevent the second and third level stallions from having their foals beat up on the top level."

That is the reason that many small breeders have exited the business.

"Exactly. Many 'backyard breeders' have left the business because they cannot compete against the top tier of breeders and their offspring.

"Without encouraging people to breed some sort of stakes horses is where we are losing the overnight horses of the future... and, without those overnight horses, we will lose races and field sizes for those races.

"That leads to more decrease in handle and less on the way of larger payoffs."

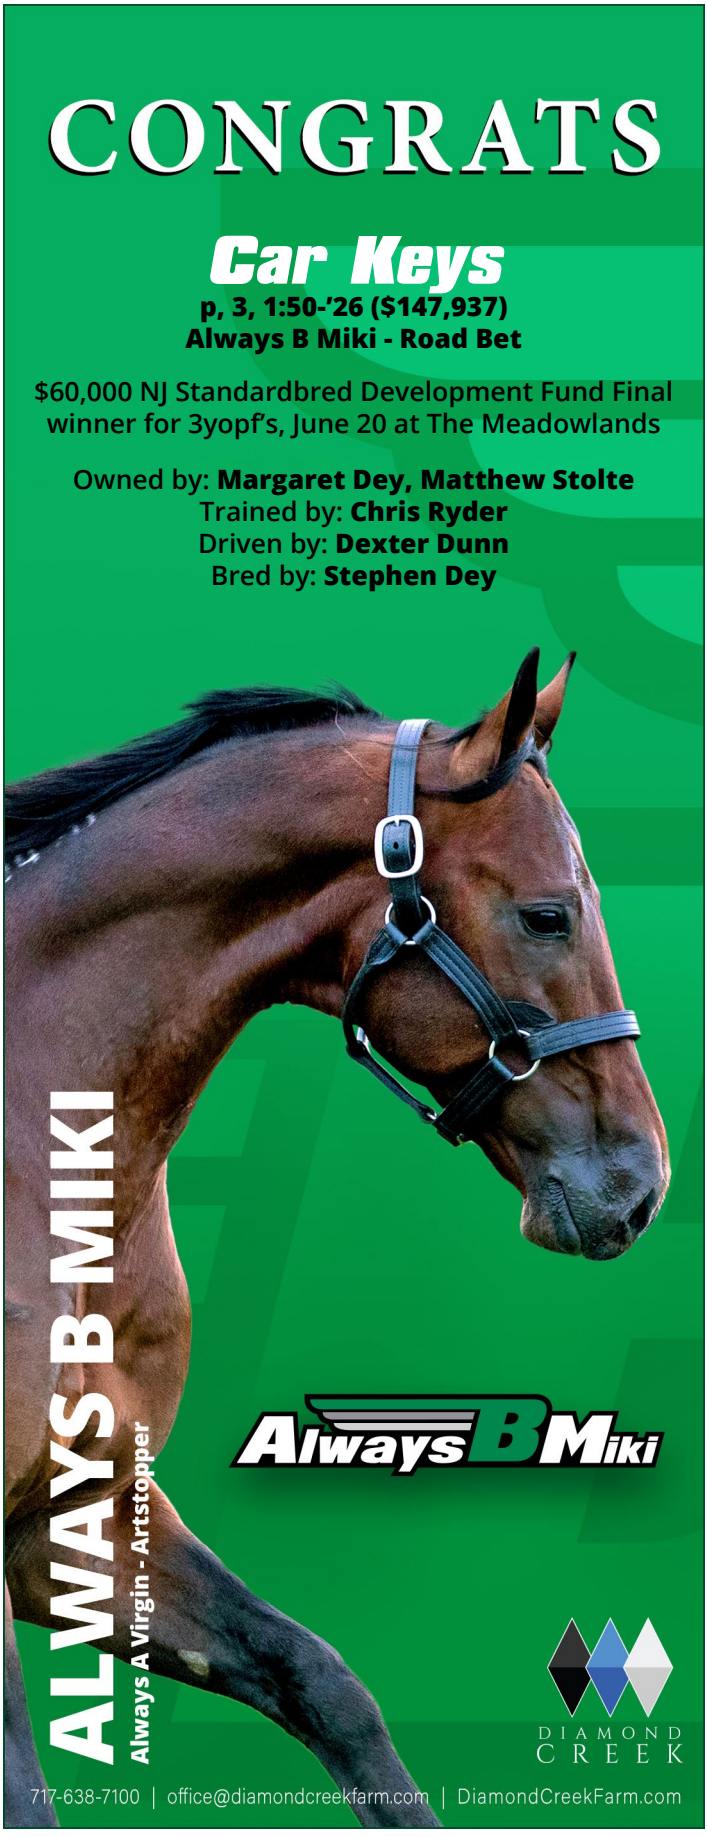

This industry considers you a major owner/breeder and you're up against the big boys in the business. It seems the odds of winning a big race are pretty long.

"That's correct. My suggestion for the largest stakes events for 2-year-olds allow an owner multiple horses for one slot.

"As of now, many larger owners do not pay to enter their 2-year-olds.

"As an example, if a race has a purse of $500,000 and all the payments add up to $2,500, you allow an owner to add up to four additional horses at $500 each, but can only start one of them.

"Currently, I do not keep horses eligible to big races for the 2-year-olds. Since we have about 60 of them so it is not economically feasible for me to keep them eligible simply because I don't know their ability to compete at the top level yet."

So, how do you — and our entire industry — overcome this situation?

"Implement a 'B' season — a second season that would run from July 1 through the end of the year. They would have their own stakes races.

"This would help mares that foal very late or are barren when the season closed, not to miss another year, especially if they do embryo transplant and then can breed again for the next season.

"In this way, mares would be able to have multiple foals per season by different stallions utilizing embryo transplant."

This would give more stallions opportunities, as well.

"Yes, and it would also help diversify the genetic pool at the same time, increasing crop size."

Anything else?

"Yes. Our sport is special and it should look special to those watching.

"We should have some sort of dress code to go into the winner's circle — maybe an official track shirt for all caretakers and they should look the part when going into the ceremonial winner's circle.

"I could go on and on… but this is a start that I hope gets some serious attention."

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

Homebred Door Dash delivers for longtime partnership

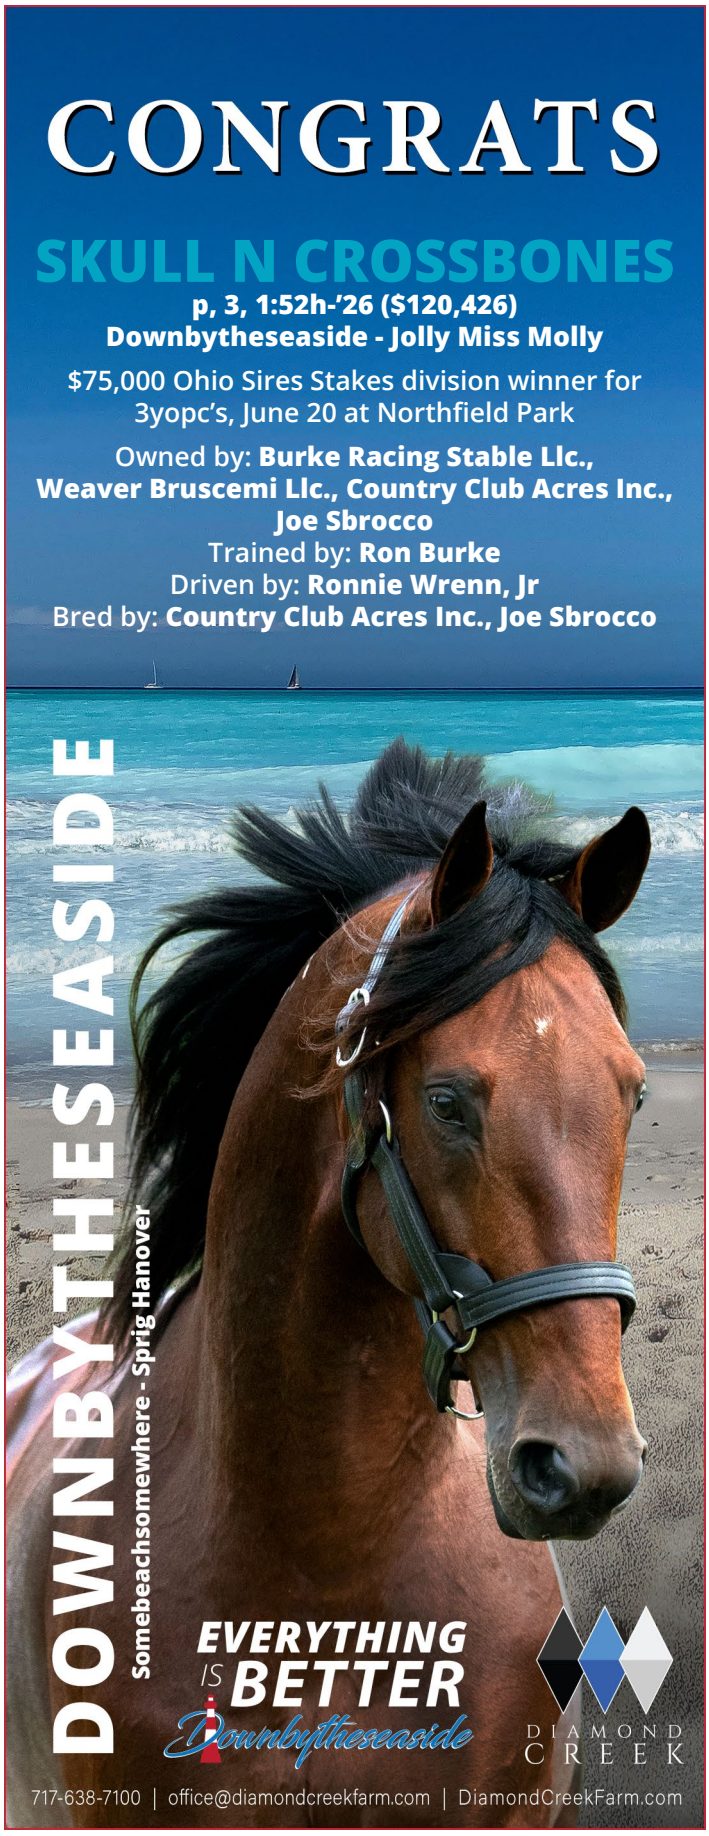

by James Platz

After turning in a fourth-place finish in his seasonal debut, sophomore pacer Door Dash has improved each time out, collecting three straight wins heading into tonight's (June 26) program at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. The Rockin Image—Metro Shopping gelding, bred and owned by Trent Stohler, Tim Graber, and Ben Graber, will contest the $95,000 third leg of Indiana Sires Stakes action for 3-year-old pacing colts, carded as race 10 on the program. Trained by Stohler, the homebred has excelled for his connections, winning the second leg of INSS action on June 12 in a lifetime best 1:49.1.

"He's even better than I thought he was," Stohler said. "I'm not going to tell you, 'Oh yeah, I knew he was that.' I'm not going to say he's been a pleasant surprise. Whatever the word above pleasant is, that's what he is."

Consider that the longtime conditioner didn't enter the year with lofty expectations for Door Dash. As a freshman, the dual-eligible pacer made two starts in the Bluegrass State, registering a pair of fourth-place finishes at The Red Mile in the Wildcat Series. In the first start, Door Dash paced in 1:55 with a :26.4 last quarter. The next time out, he circled the historic clay oval in 1:56, pacing home in :29.3.

"He's a very big colt," Stohler said. "He's got a lot of leg to him, and we kind of took our time with him last year. When we got him started, non-winners of ones here at Hoosier, especially in July and August, go in [1]:52 and [1]:53, with :26.1 last quarters. I just didn't feel like that was the right thing to do with him. He was dual eligible so we raced him at The Red Mile. He was respectable in his first start. We took him back down there for his second start, and I was so disappointed in his performance."

After a week working with Door Dash following the Sept. 8 performance, Stohler consulted with his partners and the decision was made to turn the homebred out. He was sent to Wilt Standardbreds in Missouri for some time to relax and grow. Upon his return, the trainer wasn't aiming for Indiana Sires Stakes. His plan for the sophomore was more realistic based on what the gelding had displayed the previous year.

"We always approach it as we'll train them how we train them," Stohler said. "They'll get there when they get there, and we'll see where they fall. We didn't have any expectations of him this year bringing him back. Our goal is for him to make it back to the races, make us some money, be better than average and we'll figure it out from there."

But before Door Dash qualified in early May, Stohler had a hunch his charge might be better than he anticipated. The qualifying effort proved it. Guided by Kevin Lambright, Door Dash raced fourth, but closed in :25.4.

"About three trainings before I qualified him, I felt pretty sure he was better than average," Stohler said. "Then the last time I trained him before I qualified him, I realized he might be better than even I thought he was. I sat out there on the apron and I watched him pace home, and what I felt training was what I saw."

Drawing post 6 in his May 9 debut, a $10,000 event for non-winners of one, Door Dash paced fourth at double-digit odds, registering a 1:53.2 mile and :26.2 last quarter. He returned 12 days later to collect his first win, a 1:52 triumph where he romped by more than nine lengths as the favorite. That was followed by a 1:51.3 score where the gelding once again was tabbed the bettors' choice.

Stohler dropped Door Dash into the second leg of Indiana Sires Stakes action. With opening leg winner Odds On Mr Mamba in Canada for the North America Cup, the race was up for grabs, and Door Dash delivered. Sent off at odds of 42-1, Lambright and the longshot used a pocket trip to spring the three-length upset and drop the pacer's mark by more than two seconds while increasing his seasonal bankroll to $59,050. More importantly, the sophomore earned valuable points to help in securing a place in October's Super Final.

"We got the cleanest trip by far," the co-owner/trainer said. "Jeff's colt [favored Swiss Lights] got a really bad trip. So, we got the cleanest trip, but you know he still did his job. It wasn't like he was staggering to the wire and won by a neck. I'm also a realist. I know if three other horses got the same trip as he did, we probably wouldn't have the same result. So here we are. Whatever he does from here on out is a bonus."

Door Dash's dam, Metro Shopping, was campaigned by many of the same connections. A $3,000 yearling purchase, the > "[Door Dash is] even better than I thought he was. I'm not going to tell you, 'Oh yeah, I knew he was that.' I'm not going to say he's been a pleasant surprise. Whatever the word above pleasant is, that's what he is."

Metropolitan mare hit the board in 36 of 60 starts for Stohler, winning 14 times. She earned a little over $200,000 on the track competing against the Brian Brown-trained combination of Color's A Virgin and Candy's A Virgin. Metro Shopping has turned into a 100 per cent producer, with each foal reaching the winner's circle.

Door Dash is the fastest of the lot, and Stohler credits his partners with the support they provide as he manages the group's racing interests.

"They have invested so much, but this horse has become what he is because they are unbelievable partners, friends and owners that allow me to do what I think is best," he said.

Door Dash is presented with the same challenge Stohler faced with his mother. Tonight, the gelding and six of his peers will be tasked with handing Odds On Mr Mamba his first seasonal defeat. That's a tall order considering Beau Jangles, reigning Horse of the Year, came up short in two attempts against the current leader in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown Poll. But the trainer's focus is more on how his pacer responds after the latest win, particularly with post position 7. Only Aces And Cinches has a further outside post. Door Dash's performance will determine his schedule, whether he remains in sires stakes or moves to sires stakes eligible contests, and when he returns to Kentucky and the sire stakes program there.

"One hundred per cent he's going to Kentucky," Stohler said. "He's giving himself an opportunity to go down there. It's a clay track, a mile track, and he's such a big horse. There are three levels there and two levels here, so he's got options."

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Chris Barsby will make it one for the thumb calling this year's Inter Dominion

by Adam Hamilton

Renowned Australian race caller Chris Barsby is in a reflective mood as he prepares to call his fifth Inter Dominion series.

The proud Queenslander, who starts his third series as the "chief" caller at Albion Park on July 4, is amazed at how far harness racing has come in his home state since he called his first official race at Redcliffe in 1999.

"Queensland was a bit of a dumping ground in some ways back then, where the horses would go from top states like Victoria and NSW when they weren't good enough there anymore," the 47-year-old Barsby said.

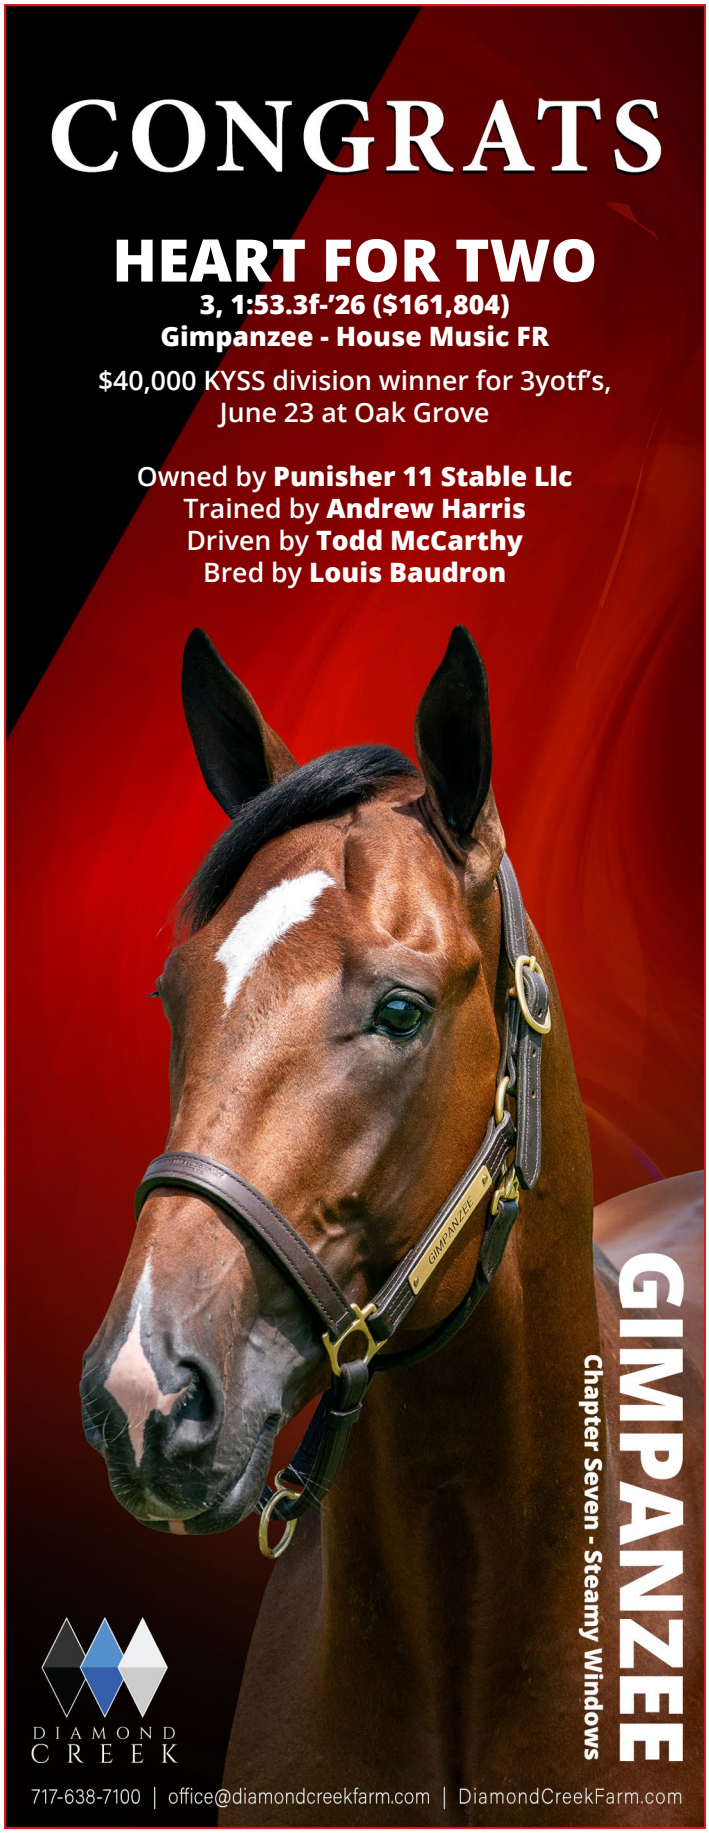

"Victoria was the pinnacle when I first started out, I watched in awe at all those great races, horses, and drivers back in the Moonee Valley days."

It was the 2001 Brisbane series when a then 22-year-old Barsby called at his first Inter Dominion meeting.

Chris Barsby (right) with the late Sam McKee in 2007.

"That was a great series," he said. "The Kiwi horse Yulestar won the pacing final. David Fowler, one of the three biggest influences in my career, was the number one harness caller [in Queensland] at the time and he really wanted me to call a race on Grand Final Night and made it happen. I called the pacing consolation and there were stars like Safe And Sound and Tailamade Lombo in it, it was an amazing thrill."

That series proved something of a fillip for Queensland harness racing and, maybe part by coincidence, stars like Be Good Johnny and Slipnslide emerged soon after. The great Blacks A Fake joined them soon after.

"That was the start of the change," Barsby said. "In Be Good Johnny and Slipnslide, we had horses who weren't just stars in Queensland, they could go and win big races anywhere.

"Blacks A Fake joined them and it was an incredible time for the sport up here.

"It was driven by the 'McCarthy factor' (John McCarthy and sons Luke and Andy at the time), along with Natalie Rasmussen and Grant Dixon, who had Blacks A Fake and so many other nice horses.

"There's been ups and downs along the way, but that's really where Queensland became a force.

"Kevin Seymour has been pivotal and then, in more recent years, David Brick came to Queensland as the harness manager at Racing Queensland and really changed the game with innovation, fresh ideas and new races.

"It's incredible to think where we are up here now to back when I started.

"I'll be honest, after I called that race at the 2001 Inter Dominion final night, and when I later took over from David Fowler as the number one caller up here, I was resigned to the fact I may never get to call an Inter Dominion, Queensland may never host another one.

"Now, here I am gearing up to call at my fifth and my third in the space of the past four years as the voice of the series. It's incredibly exciting.

"I had a long wait to call my first series as the main caller [in 2023], but it was worth it getting to call Leap To Fame and Just Believe in my own backyard. That was very special."

Fowler's influence has been enormous, but it was another legendary Queensland race caller, the late Wayne Wilson, who first opened the door into racing and broadcasting for Barsby.

"I grew up in a sporting family and the radio would always be on," Barsby said. "Wayne was the top caller at the time and I'd always hear him. He had such an iconic voice, one that could melt a radio. I was obsessed with him.

"Imagine the thrill when I reached out to him while still a kid at school in 1995 and he arranged for me to do work experience at RadioTAB with him. I'd follow him everywhere and just watch and learn from a master.

"With my passion for harness racing, Wayne steered me into David [Fowler] who shared that passion with me and got into calling and working with him for about 10 years on Bris31, which was a racing TV channel in Brisbane. The learnings were massive for me.

"When he moved into the thoroughbreds in 2010, I became the harness caller."

Barsby had been identified as a star on the rise before that and in 2007 he took the "prize" for a racing industry scholarship by going to North America for two months where he met his other major career influence, the late Sam McKee.

"Andy McCarthy had just moved to the U.S. at the time and Noel Daley was there and they opened so many doors for me," Barsby said.

Part of the scholarship was calling a race at The Meadowlands on the Woodrow Wilson card, the night before Hambletonian Day. McKee was in the race caller's booth.

"I thought I was passionate, but Sam was in a league of his own and just the kindest, most supportive soul," Barsby said.

"Wayne [Wilson] died in 2013 and Sam in 2017 and there's not a day I walk into a racetrack where I don't think about both of them and the influence they had on me."

Barsby cites the privilege of calling the bulk of the careers of two of Down Under's all-time greatest pacers, Blacks A Fake and Leap To Fame, as highlights of his time behind the microphone.

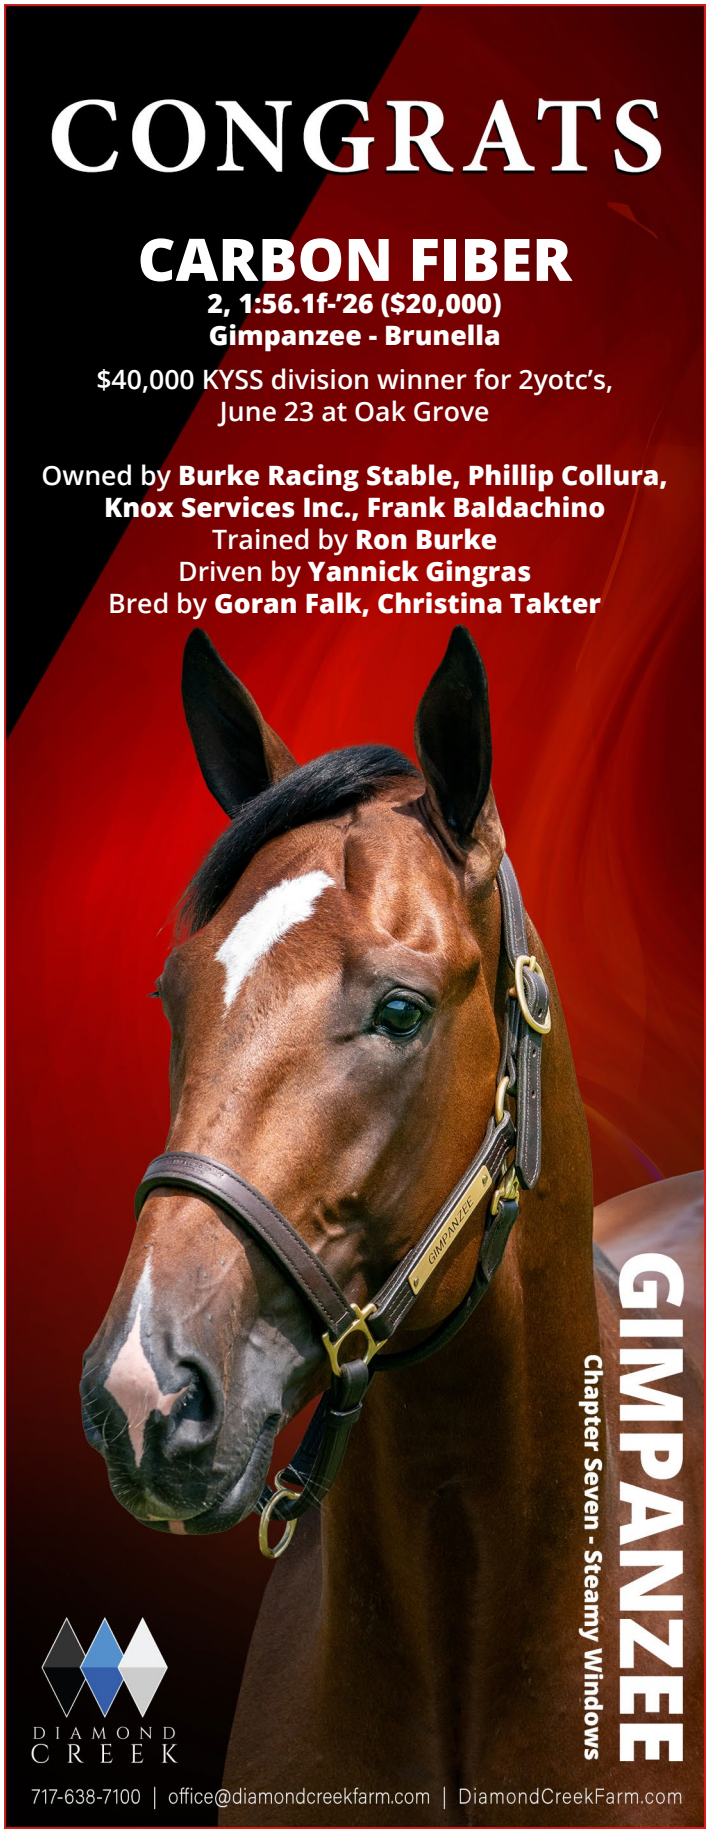

But he winces at the thought of having to split them.

"I'm completely torn there," he said. "Blacks A Fake has always been No. 1, but I'm aware how special Leap To Fame is every time I call him now. It's just so hard to compare them from different eras.

"I go back to Blacks A Fake winning a Hunter Cup from a 30-meter handicap and beating great horses like Smoken Up and Divisive, but then you see the incredible things Leap To Fame does in the big races everywhere."

Barsby suspected Leap To Fame was something special towards the end of his 2-year-old season, built an even bigger opinion when he won three major Derbys (NSW, Queensland, and Victoria at three), but said it was at 4 he first declared him a champion.

"They weren't his biggest wins, but the way he won the Patrons Purse at Redcliffe and then his first Sunshine Sprint after that at Albion Park, horses can't do what he did in those races, especially in the sectional times he ran," he said. "For everything he's done since, they're still two of his most special performances, I think.

"I'd love to see the industry here do even more to promote Leap To Fame. We should be doing everything we can to sell a rare horse like him to the public."

Such is the depth of this Queensland Constellations Carnival, Barsby is looking forward to lots more than just Leap To Fame's quest for a third Inter Dominion title.

"The Rising Sun (July 4) shapes as the race of the Carnival," he said. "The race has grown so quickly in the five years it's been run. The depth of talent is amazing this year and I love that twist where the winner gets a wildcard into the Inter Dominion final. It's going to be an unbelievable race.

"I'd love Captains Mistress to win the Rising Sun because I think she'd go on and add so much x factor to the Inter Dominion final."

Supporting Barsby through another huge carnival will be his wife, Kylie, and children Cheslea [14] and Bryce, who turns 11 during the series.

"They have always been and continue to be an amazing support," he said. "I've got two kids, but Chelsea said it's like I've got three because I love Leap To Fame so much.

"Bryce is mad on the horses, but he's probably more into the thoroughbreds than the harness."

BARSBY'S INTER DOMINION "BIG FIVE"

Inter Dominion Pacing Series

1. Leap To Fame — Picks himself going for a third crown.

2. The Janitor — Keeps getting close to Leap To Fame. Continues to evolve into an outstanding pacer.

3. Captains Mistress — She's here with an asterisk because she'll need to win the Rising Sun to get that golden ticket into the [Inter Dominion] final. She's such a special talent, if she does, she will bring serious x factor.

4. Don Hugo — As much for the Luke McCarthy factor as the horse. Nobody drives Albion Park better than Luke and we know he loves driving here, especially in big races.

5. Dangerous — He's my wildcard for the series. Always looked like a lovely horse in the making with [trainer] Shane Sanderson and joins Jason Grimson for this series. If Jason can get that bit extra like he has from so many other horses, he could really make his presence felt.

INTER DOMINION TROTTING SERIES

1. Gus — It's been great watching the evolution of this trotter. It feels like the penny has finally dropped and what he did with those two big wins at [New Zealand] Cup Week last November was special. Home track advantage and clearly the one to beat.

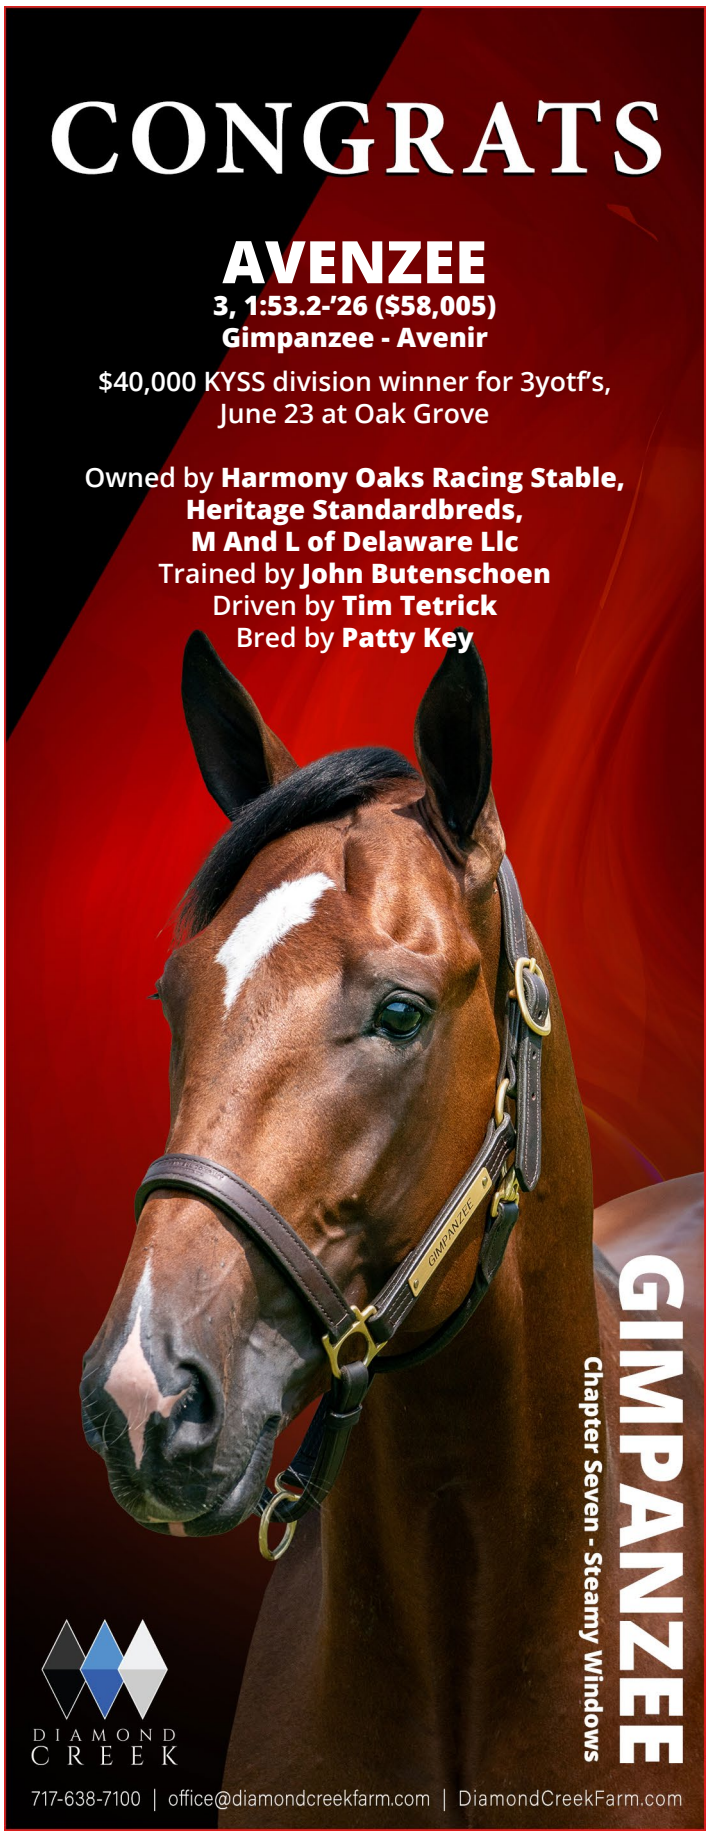

2. Rocknwithattitiude — She's a terrific mare and rates so highly mainly because of her fantastic gate speed. She's racing well and has performed well at the track before.

3. Susan Is Her Name — She brings the x factor in the trotting series. She's just got so much speed and talent. If she can stay sound and race to her best through the series, she is capable of anything.

4. Keayang Stuka — Already been placed in an Inter Dominion final [in 2024]. Quick beginner back in form.

5. Arcee Phoenix — The defending champion who showed signs of getting back to his best with a big Melton run last Saturday. Class.

A memo to racing's lifers

by Bob Heyden

The first full week of summer is one of uncertainty. Never before did you begin your prime time of the year without actually knowing where the following year's Hambletonian would be. Tracks are closing and you know the business is not close to what you most fondly remember, but what is? After so many years, some call it sweat equity, does any of that matter now? Does anyone know or care about your current itinerary?

Whether you are 45, 65, or 80, you find yourself wondering how you went from a foothold to a footnote. A "Go-To" person to now thinking is it time "To Go?" From once showing the way to now on occasion being in the way. From the box seats to the bleachers.

George Foreman told us that young champions have a way of becoming old contenders. No matter how far you are into your cups, you absolutely want to think you still have it.

You have been around long enough to remember when racetracks had gift shops, information booths, elevator operators, parking lot attendants, clubhouse season passes, fancy restaurants, and trip-to-Ireland giveaways. Tracks were a destination point; a meeting place. And the backstretch was a fraternity and sorority. Nobody thought anything of cramming into the trailer for a seven-hour ship. It was what you did. Everyone knew everyone. Their business was yours too.

Camaraderie was not a strong enough word. That my friend is today's daydream. Kind of like taking care of two horses was 40-50 years ago.

No matter your business, after four or five decades you'll likely have a pocketful of "What Ifs?"

Oh sure, you more than likely tried the business world a time or two, but there's a gravitational pull in racing like no other. Your friends, too numerous to even count from your 20s and 30s, have, to say the least, thinned out. The ones actually still with us.

There's a saying that you get out of something what you put into it. Very likely a majority of racing's lifers are scratching their head over that one. What is there to look forward to? Can you still pull your weight? Are you "modern" enough? Can you match strides with workers 30-40 years younger?

What keeps you doing this? Is it really any different than the wealthy owner at the yearling sale trying to duplicate his Hambletonian win from a decade and a half earlier? The moments of exhilaration far outweigh any negativity. What's sleeping outside your sick horses stall for 15 days matter when he gets better and wins his second start back? Riding high is indeed a high in racing like few other businesses. Birthing a world champion? What does a career supermarket worker have to measure up to that? There's a unity in racing that is all but incomparable. That happens when you're in the same bunker. That happens when you bring meals for three months to your ailing co-worker who can't get around at the moment. That happens when you travel 85 of the 92 summer days and you wake up from a nap in the back of the trailer with your absolute favorite sandwich waiting for you. Racing's lifers are all swimming in the same pond. No lifeguard required. They have each other's backs.

The last couple of decades in racing there's been a feeling that we're all outrunning the tumbleweeds. You want to stay viable and avoid Potters Field, or anything that resembles a discard pile. You definitely don't want a seat on the boat to irrelevance, and let's be honest, we do know a few passengers. Human nature seems more in play as the calendar progresses. Are you supposed to not be concerned that your daily check of the obits finds two of every three younger than you are now? We are closer than ever to life's finish line, but wait, so is everyone.

In racing there is comfort in taking your journey with a handful of besties. Lifers also. You chose this. Of course, you would like a few more chapters. When you get right down to it every single one of us is a mere blip on a radar screen.

For years, for ever really, the sunset was on the other side of the mountain. Now you can almost touch it. Life comes full circle, or is that cycle? Your love of the sport, the horses, your dedication, your tireless efforts, your 24/7 caring with your horses always coming first, it should be the most satisfying feeling in the world. You did the best you could for the horses. Heaven knows there is an entire hillside full of horses who can attest to that.

Idao de Tillard (12, Clément Duvaldestin) winning the $220,000 Prix René Ballière on Sunday at Vincennes.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Idao de Tillard prevails under heavy urging

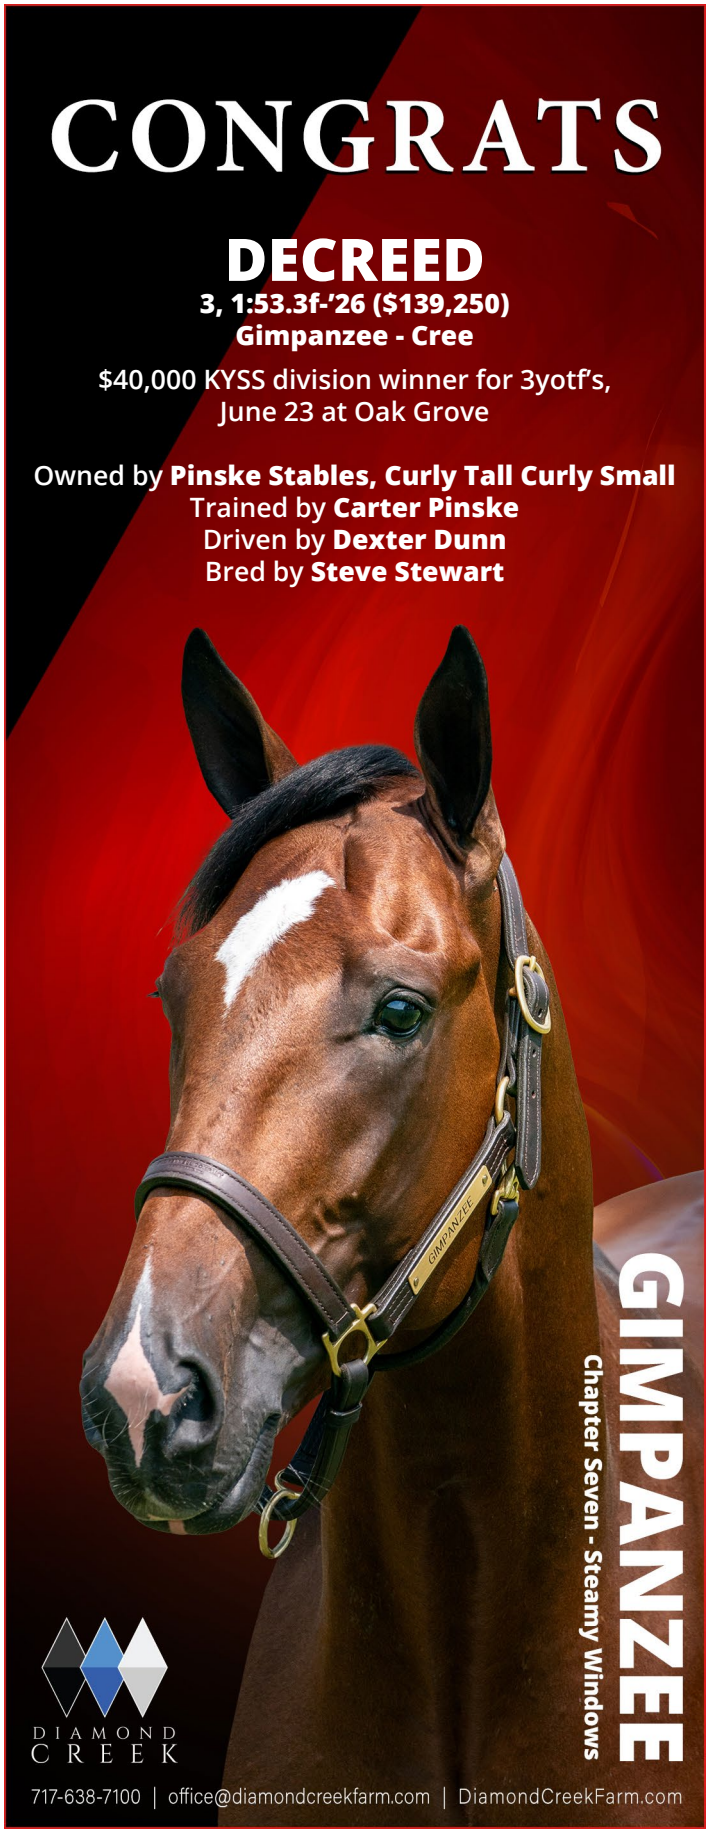

by Thomas Hedlund

Idao de Tillard (Severino) was the heavy favorite in Sunday's (June 21) $220,000 Prix René Ballière at Vincennes and, in the hands of Clément Duvaldestin, the dual Prix d'Amérique winner got the job done after controlling the race virtually from start-to-finish.

Duvaldestin was allowed to dictate an unusually soft pace aboard the superstar, who had just returned from a trip to Sweden for the Elitlopp, where he lost all chance with a break in the final. In hindsight, it may have been fortunate that Idao de Tillard was not forced into a more demanding trip at Vincennes.

The pace was pedestrian through the middle stages before the race turned into a sprint home. The final kilometer was reportedly covered at a 1:49 mile-rate clip, and Duvaldestin had to work hard in the stretch to keep his champion focused. Under strong urging, Idao de Tillard held on by a narrow margin in 1:56.3 over 2,700 meters.

"It almost felt like we were standing still during the middle part of the race," said Duvaldestin. "At one point I even felt as if we were going backwards. When I looked at the timer, we were going in a 2:01 pace. With horses of this caliber, there is nothing to gain by going that slowly. He had plenty completely outclassed her rivals. From third-over, François Lagadeuc launched his move with 900 meters remaining aboard the daughter of Face Time Bourbon. Within 200 meters she had reached pacesetter Normandie Niemen, immediately applying relentless pressure. The leader was beaten midway around the final turn and, once straightened for home, Nicolas Bridault's filly simply disappeared from her opposition.

Nocive du Choquel stopped the clock in a track-record 1:54.4 mile rate over 2,700 meters, lowering the previous mark set by Lombok Jiel in 2024 by six-10ths of a second.

"She is an absolute pleasure to drive," said Lagadeuc. "She's a complete trotter with everything you could ask for. When you go to the races with her, you know you have a chance to fight for the top spots. I'm very happy for Nicolas and his entire team."

The victory was her second Group 1 triumph. Earlier in her career she captured the $220,000 Criterium des Jeunes, along with the semi-classics Prix Une de Mai and Prix Gelinotte.

Trainer Nicolas Bridault reflected on her development, "At first she was just an ordinary horse. We qualified her and she still didn't look like anything special. But then she started winning — and doing it impressively. Once we began aiming at the major races, she proved she belonged among the very best of her generation. She's exceptional and you can always trust her to give everything she has."

MOUSTIK LA GOVELLE CLAIMS FRENCH MONTE DERBY

A dramatic stretch battle highlighted the $260,000 Prix du Président de la République, one of France's premier monte classics.

Moustik la Govelle (Discours Joyeux) took command with one kilometer remaining and trainer/rider Damien Bonne had to keep his mount fully focused through the stretch as Météore de Simm charged up the inside. Moustik la Govelle dug in gamely and held on to score in 1:56.3 over 2,850 meters.

LIONHEART CAPTURES PRIX DE NORMANDIE

Earlier on the card, Lionheart (Falcao de Laurma) captured the $260,000 Prix de Normandie for 5-year-olds under saddle.

For much of the race it appeared that Lemon Fleury would take the prize after assuming command one lap from home. However, Eric Raffin angled Lionheart into the clear in the stretch and Nicolas Bazire's trainee proved strongest in the final strides.

Lionheart prevailed in 1:56.1 over 2,850 meters, continuing another outstanding day for the Raffin-Bazire combination.

SECRET VENUS CRUSHES AUSTRIAN DERBY

There was no suspense in the $60,000 Austrian Derby at Krieau Racetrack in Vienna on Sunday (June 21).

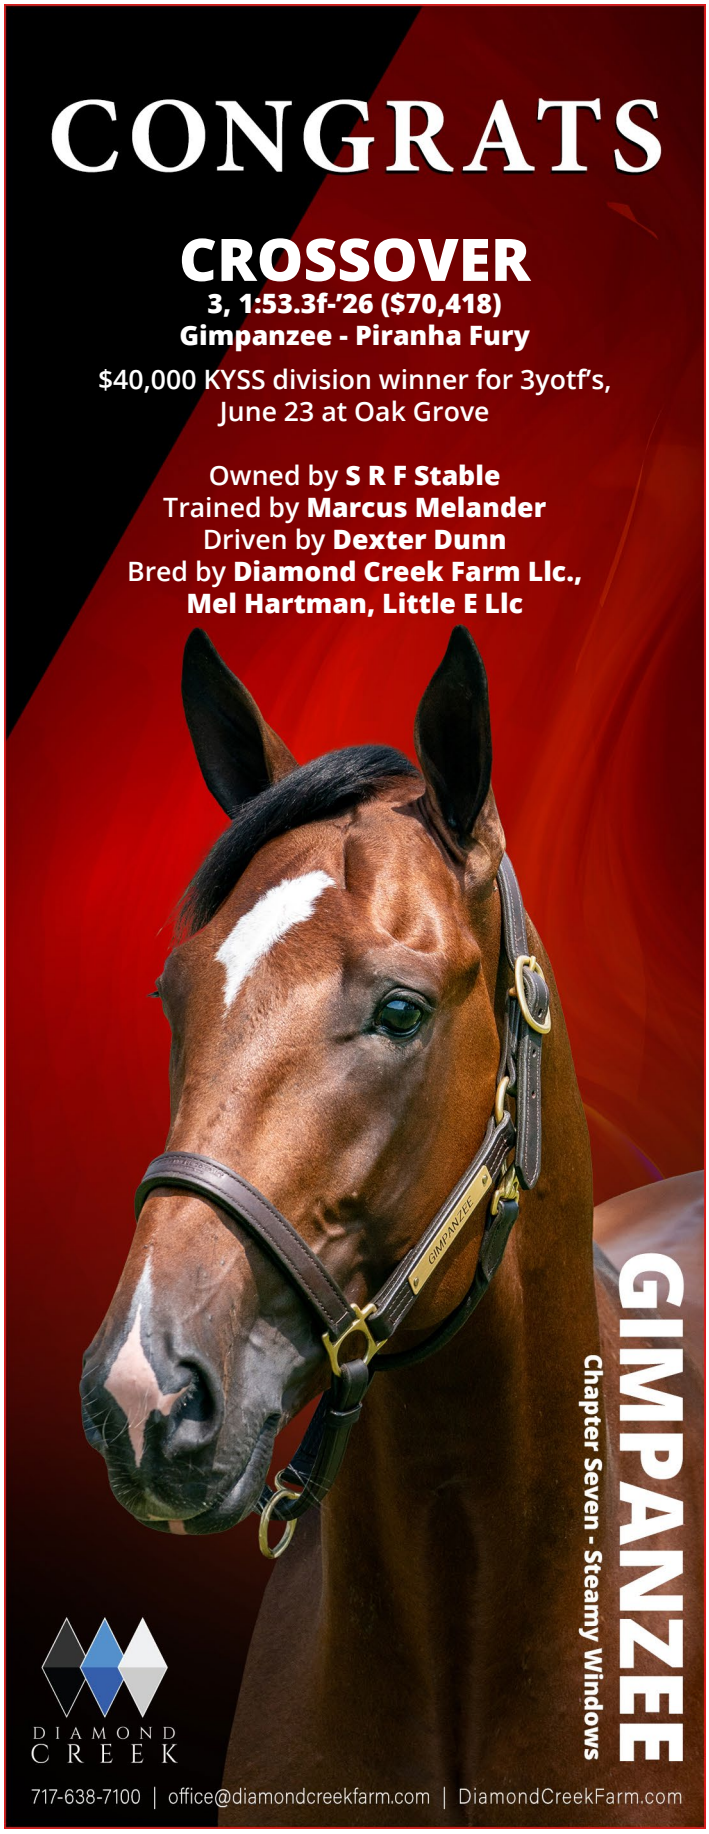

Secret Venus (Baltimore As—Severine Hanover), driven by Christoph Schwarz, moved from third-over with 1,300 meters remaining and powered to the lead with more than a lap to race.

By the backstretch she and favorite Ivana Venus had separated themselves from the field, but turning for home it became a one-horse race.

The Robert Gramüller-trained 4-year-old drew away in dominant fashion to establish a new race record of 1:58.4 over 2,600 meters, shaving one-10th-of-a-second off the mark set by Mona Lisa Venus in 2024.

Secret Venus was simply in a different league on the day, delivering one of the most impressive performances seen in the Austrian classic in recent years.

Ontario Racing welcomes Ontario Government's additional funding support

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

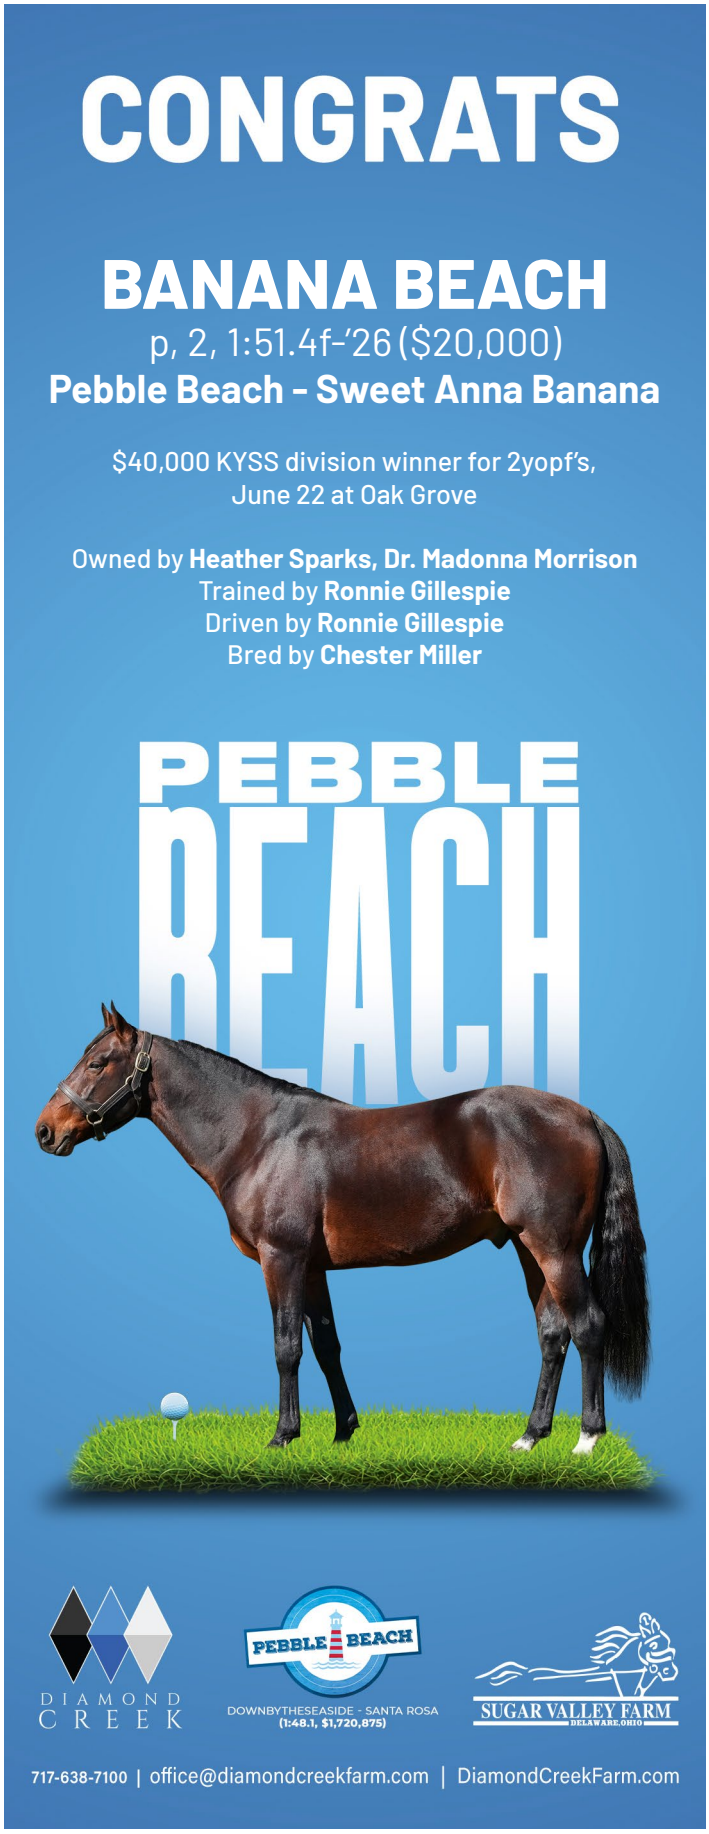

Ontario Racing is thrilled that the Ontario Government is increasing support to protect agriculture and rural jobs across Ontario by contributing additional funding of $35 million annually for the next five years to the Ontario horse racing industry.

The funding increase will be used to create a more competitive horse racing industry, protect jobs, and support the nearly 18,000 Ontarians who earn a living from the horse racing sector. The additional funds will also address inflation that has risen by approximately 25 per cent since the province signed an important long-term funding agreement with the industry eight years ago.

Based on Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG) numbers, the horse racing industry in Ontario annually injects over $1.9 billion to the Ontario economy and provides approximately $330 million in provincial taxes. Horse racing drives economic activity in dozens of communities across the province, particularly in rural areas where economic opportunities may be limited.

The funding increase from the government was accepted by a majority of Ontario Racing's industry representative board of directors with approximately 80 per cent of the additional funds going to support Ontario's breeding sector and racing participants.

"On behalf of the 10-member Ontario Racing board of directors that represents all sectors of the industry, I sincerely thank Premier Ford, the Honorable Stan Cho, Minister of Tourism, Culture and Gaming and our long-standing government partners at the Ontario Gaming and Lottery Corporation for supporting the agricultural jobs that are important to rural communities and the provincial economy," said Andrew Gaughan, independent chair, Ontario Racing.

"This funding will support generational family businesses – including thousands of horsepeople, breeders, and their staff that have invested personal capital. It will also support rural labor jobs that have increasingly been at risk. Additional funding will help these businesses, operators and the spin off rural industries tackle high inflation and allow the sector to better compete and retain its status as one of the world's greatest horse racing jurisdictions.

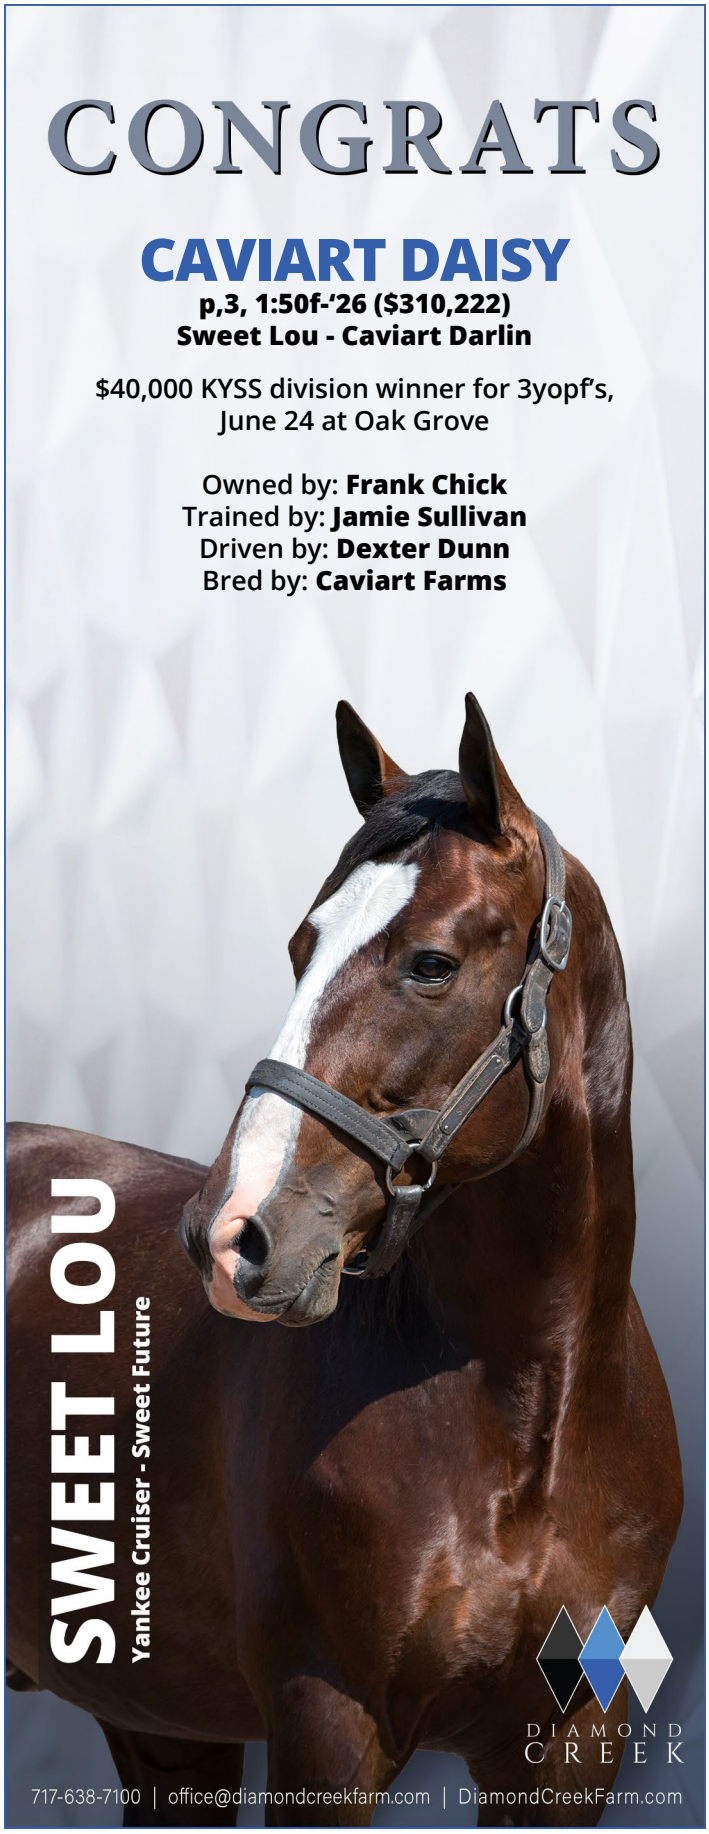

"I would also like to express my appreciation to the senior management team at Ontario Racing management for assisting the board of directors throughout this process."

The funding comes through the fifth amendment to the Amended and Restated Funding Agreement for Live Horse Racing, signed in 2018. The additional funds will position the Ontario horse racing sector to better invest in breeding, capital infrastructure, and purses.

The fifth amendment also contains key provisions that rework the funding framework to allow Woodbine Entertainment (WEG) to continue operating premier racetracks at Woodbine Racetrack and Woodbine Mohawk Park, which annually host the largest Canadian horse racing events. WEG additionally operates all wagering for the industry which drives significant revenues to support purses, horse improvement programs as well as other important industry associations and programs.

More details about how the funding will be allocated will be available after July 2.

Post positions drawn for MGM Yonkers Trot, MGM Grand Messenger Stakes finals

by Yonkers Raceway media

The fields are set for the Grade 2 $250,000 MGM Yonkers Trot and the Grade 2 $200,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes for 3-year-old males tonight (June 26) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Spencer Hanover, who is four-for-four thus far in 2026, will start from a trailing post 9 for driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Marcus Melander in the MGM Yonkers Trot, the opening leg of the Trotting Triple Crown. His competition includes last year's New York Sire Stakes champion Al from post 7 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke, along with 2025 William Wellwood Memorial champion Ardonne from post 8 for driver Scott Zeron and trainer Megan Scran.

Additionally, the powerful trotting stable of Ake Svanstedt has three entrants in Create Escape (post 2), Secured (post 6), and Nordic Dancer S (post 10), and Matthew Burkholder ships in with the strong duo of Requiem (post 3) and Silverstein (post 4). The three Svanstedt horses will race as a coupled 2, 2A, 2B entry. Coupling at Yonkers only occurs when a trainer has multiple horses and is driving one.

Show Me Your Ace sets track record in Oak Grove KYSS

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

One race after the track record for 3-year-old pacing colts at Oak Grove was bested, Chris Ryder trainee Show Me Your Ace snatched the title with a 1:49 win going pillar-to-post in the fourth of four $40,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) divisions for his cohort on the Wednesday (June 24) card.

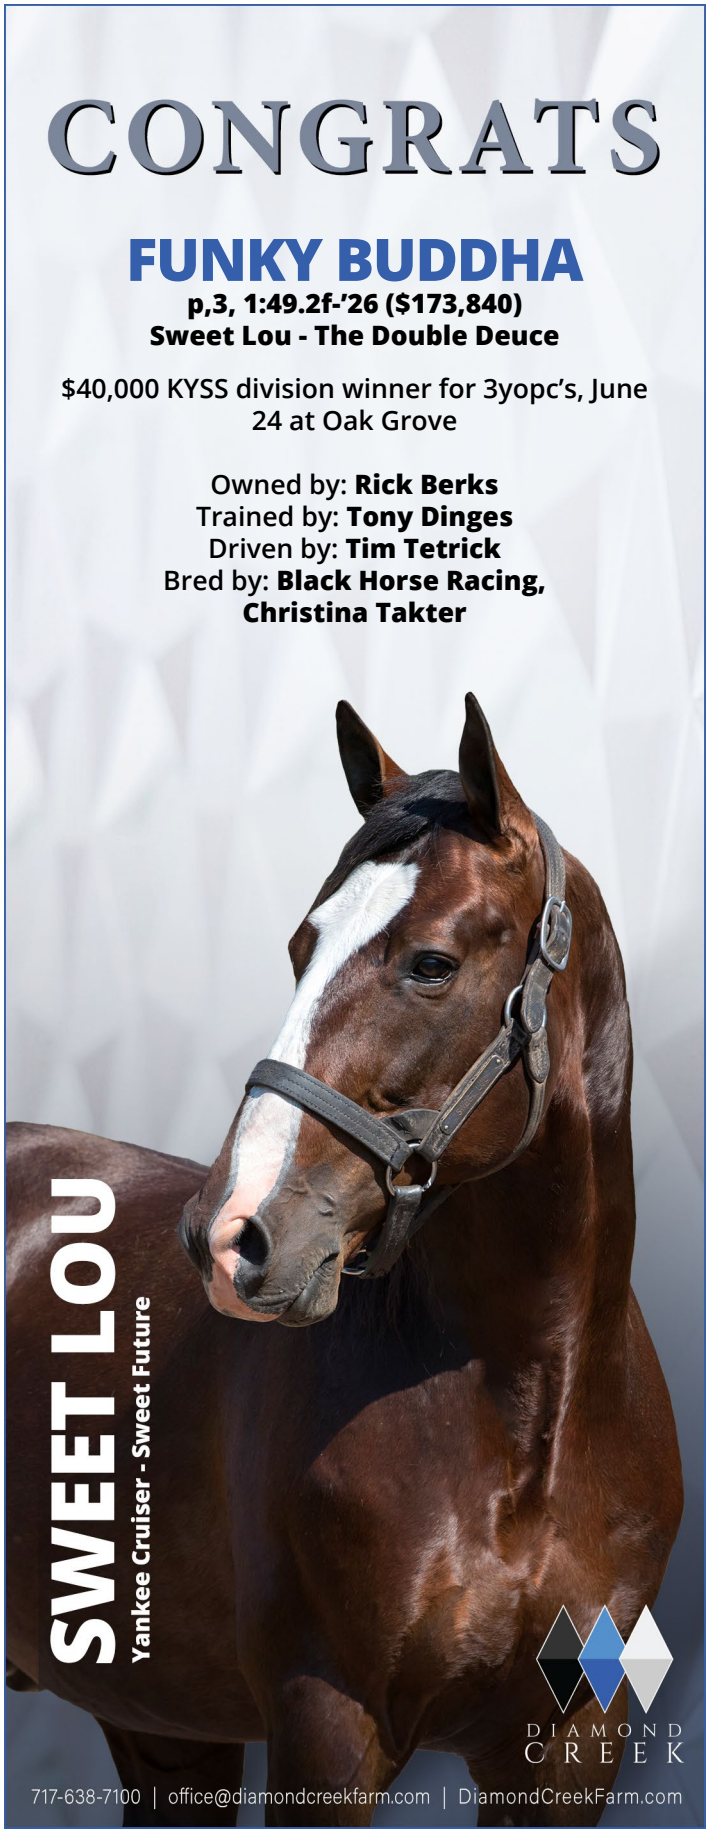

Leaving from post 6, driver Dexter Dunn dashed Show Me Your Ace for the lead into a :26.1 first quarter to pocket Thiago Hanover (driven by Yannick Gingras) heading for the stretch the first time. Show Me Your Ace then glided through the remainder of the race with a :54 half and 1:21.2 three-quarters to coast in a comfortable winner by 6¾ lengths. Vizcaya (Marvin Luna) rallied for second while Thiago Hanover broke stride around the last turn and recovered to hold third. A Bit Of Spirits (Wyatt Avenatti) finished fourth.

Minowitz, and Ake Svanstedt. He won his third race from four starts this season and his fifth race from 16 starts in his career, earning $153,272, and paid $4.10 to win.

In the race prior, Funky Buddha (Tim Tetrick) eclipsed the nearly 3-year-old track record with a 1:49.2 stroll in the third KYSS division for sophomore pacing males. Tetrick brushed forward with the Tony Dinges trainee passing a :26.4 first quarter and cruised through middle fractions of :55 and 1:22.2 to roll home a 1¾-length winner over pocket-chaser Louaville (Scott Zeron) in second. A Perfect Moment (Marvin Luna) saved ground for third and Coup Station (Atlee Bender) faltered from a first-over push in fourth.

Rick Berks owns Funky Buddha, a colt by Sweet Lou—The Double Deuce. The colt won his first race from four starts this season and his fourth race from 14 starts in his career, earning $173,840, and paid $5.06 to win. His 1:49.2 mile was the first on the day to beat the previous track record of 1:49.3 set in 2023 when Tip Top Cat won the KYSS final for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

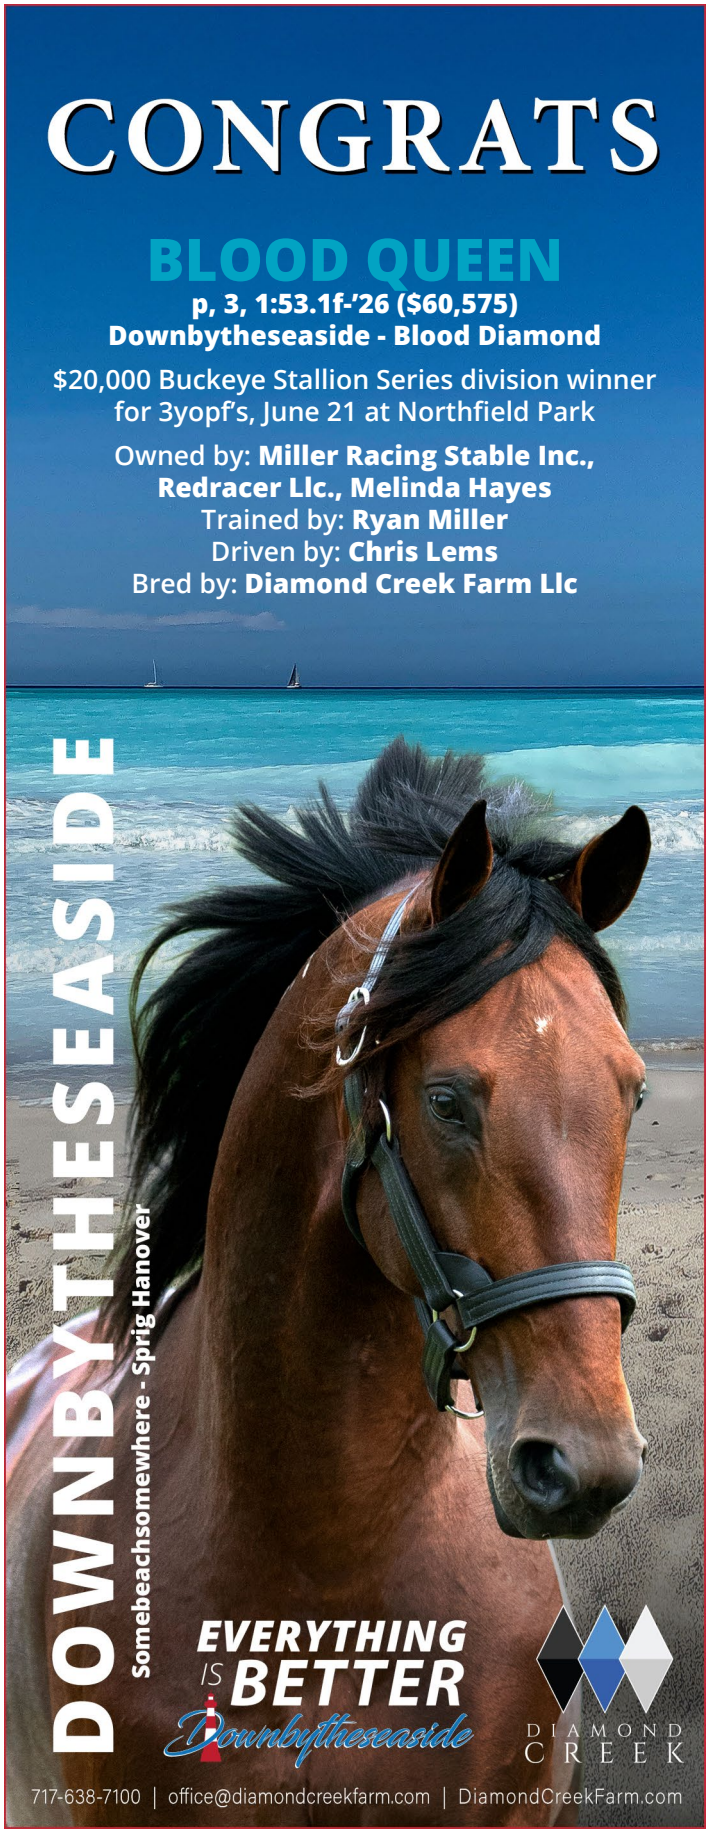

Caviart Daisy (Dunn) posted the top mile of the day from the three $40,000 divisions of KYSS for 3-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:50 effort. Dunn worked a pocket trip behind 4-5 favorite Gala (Todd McCarthy) through a clip of :26.3, :55, and 1:23 before pouncing and scoring by 1¼ lengths with Seaside Charm (Gingras) giving chase behind in third over Kissin In The Dark (Andy McCarthy) to the inside in fourth.

A track-record holder in her own right with a 1:51 mark taken last season at Oak Grove, Caviart Daisy easily lowered her lifetime best with the win — her fourth from six starts this season and her 10th from 17 starts in her career. Jamie Sullivan trains the daughter of Sweet Lou—Caviart Darlin', who has now earned $310,222 for owner Frank Chick. She paid $4.68 to win.

Other winners in KYSS action on the day included Papi Rick (Andy McCarthy, 1:50.3 winning mile; $4.30 to win) and Captain Brunson (Dunn, 1:50.2; $7.82) from the male dashes as well as Hope Hill (Dunn, 1:50.3; $2.64) and Interstellar (Luna, 1:50.4; $3.56) from the filly divisions.

Live racing at Oak Grove resumes on Monday (June 29) with a Monday-Tuesday rotation before returning to a Monday-Wednesday rotation the week of July 6. First-race post time is 1:10 p.m. (CDT). For more information, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

DUNN, MELANDER DOMINATE OAK GROVE'S 'TUESDAY AT THE TROTS'

Driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Marcus Melander flourished on the 16-race card of racing at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel on Tuesday (June 23) with five wins each on the card stacked with all trotting events and 15 divisions of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS).

Top honor on the day's KYSS action went to the team of Dunn and Melander with Zephyr Kemp, who posted the fastest mile of the afternoon's KYSS action with a 1:53.1 victory in the second of three divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Dunn had an easy time crossing from post 7 to the lead through a :28 first quarter to pocket Maga Hill (driven by Yannick Gingras) and coasted through fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.2 to register an easy win by 2¼ lengths. Maga Hill settled for second with Stormy Seas (Marvin Luna) third and Castro (Atlee Bender) another five lengths behind in fourth.

A colt by Calgary Games—Southwind Adele, Zephyr Kemp competes for owners Kemppi Stables Oy Inc., Suojalampi Stable Inc., PCW Racing LLC, and Sjoeblom Racing Inc. The colt won his first race from four starts this season and his fourth race from 14 starts in his career, earning $132,150. He paid $11.88 to win.

Dunn and Melander also tied for the fastest win of the four KYSS divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies when Crossover (1:53.1 winning mile; $10.20 to win) pulled the pocket to upset 1-9 favorite Naked And Famous. Crossover converted from a stalking trip off splits of :28.2, :56.2, and 1:25.1 to pounce and score by 1½ lengths over Naked And Famous with Panzee Party (Gingras) chasing another six lengths behind in third and Vicenza (Jason Bartlett) giving pursuit in fourth. The daughter of Gimpanzee—Piranha Fury is owned by S R F Stable and won her fourth race from 11 starts, pushing her career bankroll to $70,418.

The tandem of Dunn and Melander teamed for two more wins with Never Say Die (1:54.2; $3.42) in the first KYSS division for 3-year-old trotting males and later with Oddsologist (1:58.4; $4.56) in the last of four divisions for freshman trotting males. They each scored independent wins to total five on the day with Dunn guiding Carter Pinske pupil Decreed (1:54.3; $3.06) to victory in the third KYSS division for sophomore trotting fillies and Melander sending Nealon (Mattias Melander, 1:54.3; $21.44) to a victory in the third division for sophomore trotting males.

fastest on the day for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Gingras landed in fifth from an early scramble for the lead and got underway up the rim with the Ron Burke trainee past a :57.4 half to reel in his peers and stride away effortlessly over Kaws (Scott Zeron) closing for second. Frozen Fortune (Todd McCarthy) finished third and Boitano (Anthony MacDonald) settled for fourth. The Gimpanzee—Burnella colt competes for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phillip Collura, Knox Services Inc., and Frank Baldachino. He paid $2.90 to win.

Erv Miller trainee Redice (Atlee Bender) uncorked the quickest mile among the 2-year-old trotting fillies with a 1:56.3 jog in the first division for their cohort. Bender eased to the top out of post 6 and held a steady lead through sensible fractions of :29.4, :59.3, and 1:28.4 in progress to a seven-length romp over Shanavalley (Dunn) and Solo Santa Maria (Junior Guelpa). The daughter of Rebuff—Fuzzy Dice competes for owners Ervin Miller Stable Inc., Anthony Lombardi, and Stepbystep Racing. She paid $3.20 to win.

Other winners from the divisions for freshman trotting colts and geldings included Delivery Boy (Dewayne Minor, 1:56.4; $5.70) and Special Day (Andy McCarthy, 1:57.2; $4.92). Secret Temptation (Andy McCarthy, 1:58; $8), Carly P (Todd McCarthy, 1:59; $77.54) and Kissme Ifyoucan (Austin Hanners, 1:57.3; $7.22) won in the other KYSS divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Avenzee (Tim Tetrick, 1:54.4; $16.16) also won on the day in the second of four KYSS dashes for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Amid all the state-bred action, Jigger DK (Todd McCarthy, 1:51.4; $3.30) ripped from off the speed to collar loose leader Platinum As (Gingras) in the final strides while under wraps to win the $36,000 open handicap trot. Pinske trains the 6-year-old gelding by Fabulous Wood—Little Jigger for owners Mark Robinson and Makenna Pinske. The gelding notched his third win stateside from five starts while pushing his career earnings to $219,277.

Fresh Face Yankee remains undefeated in 2026 and INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Fresh Face Yankee driven and trained by Jay Cross did not miss a beat in her dominate return winning the third leg of the $96,000 Indiana Sires Stakes 3-Year-Old Filly Trot at Hoosier Park on Tuesday (June 23).

Leaving from the rail as the post-time favorite, Fresh Face Yankee surged out of the gate, avoiding a potential rough trip in post 1 to be met with a host of early challengers. Dial Nine One One (John De Long) climbed out of post 3 getting to the rail in front of Fresh Face Yankee. Meanwhile, Bluebird Kazoom (Jordan Ross) charged along the outside with Help Cum Laude (Marcus Miller) trailing to ultimately sandwich Fresh Face Yankee on the inside. Bluebird Kazoom eventually claimed the lead at the first turn in :27.1.

Help Cum Laude didn't let the advantage last long pulling the same move on Bluebird Kazoom to take the lead shortly after the turn. From fourth, Fresh Face Yankee followed suit, gliding around the top trio to take matters into her own hands to take control. Fresh Face Yankee led the 10-horse field at the halfway mark in :56.1.

Back in familiar territory, Fresh Face Yankee maintained her lead to the three-quarters in 1:25.4. Bluebird Kazoom would take a peek from third looking to move up, but Fresh Face Yankee wouldn't give another filly a chance at the lead cruising down the stretch, leaving no doubt with a 4¾ length lead on the wire in 1:53. Bluebird Kazoom held onto second, while Expressive Gal (Kyle Wilfong) rallied for third.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Read The Room, Jeff Gregory star at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

There were a couple of big headlines that came out in the two New York Sire Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters on the Wednesday (June 24) program at Buffalo Raceway as a track record was absolutely demolished while a driver hit a career milestone in collecting a victory.

Read The Room read the room perfectly in the $56,900 first division of the sophomore male trotters as he buried the field by 9½ lengths with a 1:55 trip over the Buffalo Raceway half-mile oval. The time erased the all-time colt trotting record and the 3-year-old colt trotting mark set on June 7, 2018 as Purpose Blue Chip covered the mile back then in 1:56.2.

The highlights didn't end there as in the $58,000 second division for the gentlemen, driver Jeff Gregory, who was originally from nearby Churchville, NY, notched his 7,000th career victory as he sent Highway Six ($6.42) to a 1:56.4 win over Twin N Seven Sins.

There were a pair of $58,000 events for the 3-year-old fillies and there were no surprises. Who Dares Wins (Ake Svanstedt) went gate-to-wire and pinned a half-length setback on Sharp Seven in 1:56.3 while in the other bracket, Lauren's Chapter (Niko Karna) went from last to first and swooped the group in 1:58.1, beating Overalls (Jason Bartlett) by 3½ lengths.

The talk at the track was the performance put in by Read The Room. Starting from the post 2 in the field of four, Read The Room went immediately to the lead and collected fractions of :29.1, :58, and 1:26.4. But hitting the three-quarter marker, Read The Room had a 5¼ length advantage and just kept going in high gear to post the record time of 1:55. A :57.1 back half mile and a :28.1 final panel had the others waving the surrender flags. Chapter Geo J (Bartlett) was second and Lou John's Action (Gregory) finished in third.

Barnstormer Images

Read The Room (Ake Svanstedt) setting a 1:55 track record for sophomore male trotters while winning his New York Sires Stakes start on Wednesday at Buffalo Raceway.

Co-owned by trainer Svanstedt, Little E LLC, Nassrom Holdings Inc., and Nils Munkhaugen, it was the second victory in five starts in 2026 for Read The Room (Chapter Seven—Debra Hall). The win moved his seasonal earnings to $77,421 and to $162,520 lifetime.

Gregory reached his big milestone as he guided Highway Six to a convincing half-length score over Twin N Seven Seas while Seven Grand (Svanstedt) took the show spot.

Sitting fifth and last as Titans Mischief set the fractions, Highway Six began his first over trip around the clubhouse turn the second time and got into contention in the stretch drive. Rolling on the far outside in the lane, Highway Six had Twin B Seven Seas perfectly measured and collected the half-length decision.

Co-owned by trainer Gregory and Jesmeral Stables, it was the second win in four outings for Highway Six (Met's Hall—Highway Cash). The triumph jumped his seasonal bankroll to $52,735 and to $79,535 in his career.

It was billed as a showdown between Sharp Seven and Storybook Love, the defending 2-year-old NYSS champion and the Breeders Crown title holder, respectively, but Who Dares Wins was daring enough to ruin that party.

Svanstedt made it a NYSS double as he sent Who Dares Wins ($4.74) to a head victory over Sharp Seven and Storybook Love in 1:56.3. Using fractions of :30, :59, and 1:28.1, Who Dares Wins just couldn't be caught as Sharp Seven (Bartlett) and Storybook Love (Todd Ratchford) tried in vain to collar the stubborn winner down the lane.

Owned by Order B Stable AB and conditioned by Svanstedt, it was the second win of the campaign for Who Dares Wins (Chapter Seven—Inspired By Life). The decision moved her winnings to $49,161 on the year and to $57,061 lifetime.

The other race for the sophomore lady sidewinders saw Karna Lauren's Chapter smoke the field down the backstretch the final time and eventually roll to a 3½ length win over Overalls (Bartlett) and B Eyelash (Tyler Buter).

Laying back in fifth heading down the backstretch on the final circuit, Lauren's Chapter gobbled up plenty of real estate and had earned a 1¼ length advantage at the top of the lane. There were no issues in the home stretch as Lauren's Chapter cruised to the line with ease.

Owned by Patricia Stables & LAExpress, Sjoblom Racing & M. Dolan, Allister Stables, and Caviart Farms, Lauren's Chapter (Chapter Seven—A Hopeful Prayer) is trained by Noel Daley. The victory increased her 2026 bankroll to $71,934 and to $92,824 in her career.

There was plenty of action in the Excelsior Series program.

In the $20,000 brackets for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, Rubens (1:57.3) was the fastest as Dan Daley collected the $11,54 win. DW's Cha-ching (1:59.3) took a $4.76 win for Matt Kakaley while Self Portrait (2:01.3) found the winner's circle for Drew Monti and returned a hefty $30.48.

In the $20,000 Excelsior events for the 3-year-old fillies, Bar Hall Beauty (1:58.1) notched a popular $2.84 victory for Bartlett while SC Thats My Wife (2:00.3) got the photo opportunity with driver Cory Stratton by collecting a $14.16 win.

Strobe Lite sets 1:52.2 career best in OSS Gold

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Strobe Lite turned the tables on Touchedbyanangel with a 1:52.2 career-best mile in the lone $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series leg 2 event for male sophomore trotters on Sunday night (June 21) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Touchedbyanangel (Doug McNair), the winner of the $140,000 leg 1 Gold event on May 24 at Mohawk, led much of Sunday's race with Strobe Lite (James MacDonald) sitting comfortably in the pocket. In the stretch, Strobe Lite trotted home in :26.3 to record a 1½ length victory over Touchedbyanangel to improve his career bankroll to $586,328 and his record to 5-6-4 in 17 starts.

Dream For Peace (Mark MacDonald) finished third in the field of seven, followed by Mike Me Up (Tyler Borth), and Anibal Duharas (Louis-Philippe Roy).

The fractions were: :28.1, :57, and 1:25.3.

Strobe Lite paid $3.50 as the favorite.

The gelded son of Alarm Detector out of Shine Bright is owned, in part, by his trainer, Ben Baillargeon who shares Strobe Lite's ownership with the trotter's breeder, Glengate Farms of Erin, ON, along with Claude Hamel of Orford, QC, and Nunzio Vena of Bolton, ON.

Sold for $16,000 at the 2024 London Classic Yearling Sale, Strobe Lite was the winner of the $300,000 OSS Super Final at 2 and was voted the O'Brien Award winner as Canada's 2-year-old Trotting Colt of the Year in 2025 after collecting earnings of $379,921 and posting a record of 3-3-3 in 11 freshman starts.

This year, Strobe Lite has hit the board in all six starts. He sports a 2-3-1 record, including a victory in the $130,475 SBOA Final on May 16.

ODDS ON BULLFROG QUICKEST IN MOHAWK GRASSROOTS

A quartet of $25,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots splits for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings went postward on Monday (June 22) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, with the Dr. Ian Moore-trained Odds On Bullfrog capturing the quickest division with a sub-1:50 throttling to kick off the night's stakes action.

Driver Travis Henry had the call on Odds On Bullfrog, with the duo hustling off the wings from post 7 as they raced to the outside of 99-1 shot Lyons Firstbulldog (Scott Coulter) in second through a sizzling :26 opening fraction. Odds On Bullfrog cleared the longshot off the first turn, easing off the accelerator to catch a breather to the halfway pole in :55. Odds On Bullfrog quickened on the final turn, racing two lengths clear at three-quarters in 1:23.2 while the 3-5 favorite, Johnny Angel (James MacDonald), gathered a head of steam first-over from the backfield and into fourth.

Johnny Angel powered into second at the head of the lane before Odds On Bullfrog countered, leaping away from the favorite with a :26.1 last quarter to assert himself by 4½ on the line in 1:49.3. Johnny Angel maintained his position in second, with Lyons Firstbulldog finishing third.

The win was the first of the season in six outings for last year's Grassroots divisional champion Odds On Bullfrog, who tacked on a new career-best clocking with the effort. The Bulldog Hanover—Odds On Naples colt has now banked $107,660 for owner Odds On Racing of Boca Raton, FL. Odds On Bullfrog returned $4.30 to win as the second choice in the wagering.

Henry visited the winner's circle once more in Grassroots action, this time with a 16-1 surprise aboard the Murray Brethour-trained Just Givener in the fourth and final division.

Leaving from the rail, Just Givener beat out the seven other colts to the first turn to dictate the fractions with a :27 opening panel. Just Givener raced to the half in :55.3 before first-over pressure came from the 14-1 Neverleaveharlan (Tyler Borth), who raced at the leader's wheel as the field reached three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Just Givener gave the field the slip turning for home, widening his lead while Neverleaveharlan remained the only one within shouting distance in the stretch. Just Givener was clear by 2¾ lengths when he tripped the timer in 1:50.2 over Neverleaveharlan, with 1-9 favorite Scorpion Seelster (James MacDonald) settling for third.

The win was the second of the season in eight outings for Just Givener, with the McWicked—Bettor Move Over colt pushing his career bankroll to $37,035. The effort took over three seconds off the career best of Just Givener, who is owned by Brethour of Sunderland, ON, Danial Sarafian of Unionville, ON, and Tony Basile of Toronto, ON. Just Givener paid $35.70 to win.

The other two divisions on the card were also taken with career-best times. Mega Moves (Borth, $18.30 to win) took the second split in 1:50.3. Anthony Beaton of Waterdown, ON, trains/co-owns the Dancin Lou—Megaball Hanover gelding with David Mercer of Westmount, NS, Domenic Chiaravalle of Hamilton, ON, and breeders Anvil And Lace Farm of Cynthiana, KY.

The other division belonged to the Scott McEneny-trained Dax Seelster (Travis Cullen, $4.10), who scored in 1:51. Brad Grant of Milton, ON, owns the Bulldog Hanover—Deb colt, a repeat winner in the Grassroots Series.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Wilder N Idy, Hayden take Maine Sire Stakes

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Wilder N Idy, last season's champion freshmen trotting gelding, and upstart Hayden, a sophomore trotting filly, captured their respective divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes on Sunday (June 21) at Cumberland Raceway.

For the Athearns' Wilder N Idy, it has been a wild ride with the son of To The Hilt who won eight of his nine outings last year and earned $106,062.

Owned by Patricia Leavitt and bred by the late Mike Andrew, the Napoleonic high-stepper put in a few steps while going to the gate in last year's $85,591 final, surely giving his connections a few anxious moments.

Nonetheless, Wilder N Idy, under the confident hold of trotting horseman Mark Athearn got it all back together, regained command, and drew off a champion. Coming off a qualifier last week, the local sophomore trained by Gretchen Athearn, won by 36 lengths in 2:01.3, removing any doubt that the 'boss was back.'

In Sunday's $14,783 division for 3-year-old trotting colts and gelding, Wilder N Idy reminded his foes who was in command, as the diminutive powerhouse strolled through opening fractions of :30 and 1:02.1 with his fellow disciples in moderate pursuit.

Following that second quarter breather Athearn hit the gas and rolled through a 1:32.4 third panel and brushed home a 2½ length winner in 2:01.4.

The early, non-wagering race was the first seasonal outing for Wilder N Idy. Gus's Workout (Heath Campbell) finished second; Trottinfortreasure (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) was third.

In the $15,486 division for 3-year-old trotting fillies in the Maine Sire Stakes, last season's bridesmaid took center stage for a change and opened her campaign with a victory against freshmen filly champ Pembroke Lady.

When the wings folded trainer/driver Gary Hall sent his charge Hayden out to a speedy start and took command almost instantly from post 6. The daughter of Cantab Fashion showed a quick turn of foot off the car and rolled to the top with ease and settled down while setting a modest :30.1 opening panel.

Mike Cushing driving Our Last Quote from post 3 made Heath Campbell work for the pocket with 3-5 favorite Pembroke Lady, which he held loosely while the field moved down the backstretch, around the turn, and into a 1:03 half.

Heading down the backside the final time Cushing and Our Last Quote flushed Campbell with Pembroke Lady, which resulted in a three-deep cavalry charge around the final turn following a soft 1:35 third panel.

Despite staying with the pacesetter around the final turn, the public choice could not catch Hayden who scampered off down the stretch to draw off by 3¼ lengths while in hand and trip the timer in 2:04.3.

Owned and bred in Maine by Stephen Hall, it was Hayden's third lifetime victory, which increased her bankroll to $54,187. She returned $12.40.

Pembroke Lady finished second; Our Last Quote was third.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Saratoga memorial service honoring horses lost in fire

Saratoga Casino Hotel and the Saratoga Harness Horseperson's Association have announced a public memorial service on Sunday (June 28) to honor the 17 horses that perished in the devastating barn fire on June 16, 2026.

The memorial service will take place at 10:45 a.m. in the harness track winner's circle at Saratoga Casino Hotel. The ceremony is open to the public, and community members are invited to join horse owners, trainers, drivers, caretakers, and racing fans in remembering the horses lost in the tragedy. Live harness racing will immediately follow the memorial with a first post time of noon.

The horses were laid to rest in a private burial held at dusk on the morning of Wednesday (June 17), on the grounds of Saratoga Casino Hotel. Each horse was respectfully buried in its own individual plot.

To ensure their memory endures, a permanent monument bearing the names of all 17 horses will be installed at the burial site as a tribute to their lives and the impact they had on the harness racing community.

Speakers at the memorial service will include Assemblywoman Carrie Woerner, Saratoga Springs Mayor John Safford, Saratoga County Supervisor Sarah Burger, and representatives from Saratoga Casino Hotel and the Saratoga Harness Horseperson's Association. Each will offer remarks in honor of the horses and recognize the profound loss felt throughout the racing community.

"The loss of these 17 horses is a tragedy that has touched every corner of the racing community," said Sam Gerrity, chief executive officer of Saratoga Casino Hotel. "This memorial service and monument will serve as a lasting tribute to their lives and offer a place for remembrance and reflection."

Henry Westbrook, Jr., president of the Saratoga Harness Horseperson's Association said, "Each of these horses had a unique story and a special place in the hearts of those who cared for them. By laying them to rest with dignity and creating a permanent memorial in their honor, we hope to preserve their memory for generations to come."

Horses to be honored at memorial service are: Arlanda, Conquest As, Crazy Jet, Five Star Lou, Free Willy Hanover, Gimlet Hanover, Influencer, Lyons Dukey, Muscle Dynasty, Our Father Lindy, Perfect Bang, Quite Like Me, Race Me Bombshell, Shalamar Hanover, Trackstar, Tropical Cyclone, and Red.

Purse increase implemented at Harrah's Hoosier Park

Beginning today (June 26), Harrah's Hoosier Park horsemen will see a purse increase go into effect on races that are non-winners of a given amount in their last four races, the third purse increase instituted for the 2026 racing season.

"This is the third phase of our targeted purse increase for the 2026 season," said John De Long, president of the Indiana Standardbred Association. "This comes after careful budgeting for the 160-day meet, and it's something we hope to continue to build upon for our horsemen."

This is the third 20 per cent purse to be put into place in 2026, with that increase also impacting non-winners of a given amount of races lifetime (both straight, and claiming), as well as Indiana Sired 2-year-old conditioned events receiving a 20 per cent boost from Indiana Standardbred Breed Development this summer.

"We deeply appreciate both the Indiana Standardbred Association and Breed Development for their support as we implement these boosts to our purses," said Gabe Prewitt, vice president/general manager of racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park. "We also deeply appreciate our horseplayers, with their support handle was up 30 per cent year-over-year in 2025, and we are already up another 10 per cent in 2026 which has contributed greatly to drive purses forward."

The boost occurs as Harrah's Hoosier Park enters the peak of its racing season, racing five-days a week with a Tuesday through Saturday schedule. Racing takes place at 5:30 p.m., with the championship season rapidly approaching headlined by the Grade 1 $300,000 Dan Patch Stakes presented by Indiana

Standardbred Breed Development on Aug. 14. Other signature events still to come include the Grade 2 Caesars Trotting Classic presented by Kountry Lane Standardbreds (Sept. 25) and Hoosier Champions Night (Oct. 9).

While the racing action heats up, so too does the on-track promotions during the summer months at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The summer line-up is headlined by fireworks following the conclusion of live racing on Saturday (July 4). The premier destination in the city of Anderson for fireworks, the track prepares for the semi-quincentennial following a record turnout of over 4,000 Anderson locals making their way to the property in 2025. The Fourth of July program will have a standard first post of 5:30 p.m. and also features a free concert by My Yellow Rickshaw in addition to trackside entertainment during live racing.

Other family fun events include Empire of Hope, a fundraiser for the Standardbred Transition Alliance on Saturday (July 25). Complete with rides, carnival games, food trucks, and more, Empire of Hope will also include the Reins To The Road drawings, with over $30,000 in prizes on the line including a camper, a zero-turn mower, and more. There will also be a free Amish country dinner available on the track apron during this event while supplies last. Harrah's Hoosier Park raised a record $75,000 for the Standardbred Transition Alliance in 2025.

Every night of the racing season, guests on trackside can enjoy beer specials, with $2 Busch Lights and $5 domestic drafts available at all trackside outlets during live racing.

For more information on the 2026 live racing season, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Simon Says Hanover the king of the Pocono claiming final

Simon Says Hanover, in the Superfecta but winless in his third preliminaries of the Game Of Claims Pacing Series at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, worked out a great trip in Monday's (June 22) $20,000 Series championship in taking a 1:51.1 triumph over a track officially "sloppy" but perhaps closer to "wet-fast."

Braxten Boyd used the excellent early speed of the Captaintreacherous gelding to push the sharp River Ness (two wins and a head loss in his prelims) before yielding before a :26.2 quarter and was content to ride in the golden chair behind mid-splits of :55 and 1:23. No outer tier flow carried any other challenger up into contention, so when Simon Says Hanover came out for the stretch drive to challenge River Ness, the "real race" was on.

River Ness proved his usual game self, but Simon Says Hanover had a bit more left in the tank come crunch time, with the winner of $418,880 crossing the wire a neck to the good. Herbert Lux II trains Simon Says Hanover for owners Bill Mullin and Howard Taylor.

As difficult as the victory of Simon Says Hanover proved to be, the victory of the Brad De Veluwe trotting mare Laferraridmanche S was easy, posting a five-length triumph in the $20,000 fast-class trot, also with Boyd in the sulky. The Andrew Harris trainee, co-owned by Harris with Ray Lasky and Nathan Cockerman, is perfect in two starts since coming here from Yonkers came first-over, went by near the three-quarters, and stopped the clock in 1:52.4, rewriting her lifetime mark. With Laferraridmanche S dominating in the mountains and Ari Ferrari J showing good form at Philly, there may be a super matchup of horsepower between these two shortly.

A $17,500 pace for high-caliber pacing mares saw the Tall Dark Stranger mare Ballard make every pole a winning one from the rail, although pocket horse La Miki N closed to within a nose at the end of the 1:52 mile. Ballard was driven by Matt Kakaley for Travis Alexander and EVM Racing LLC.

Kakaley had five winners during the Monday program, two of them for trainer Travis Alexander. Boyd checked in first four times; Tyler Buter had a pair of triumphs, both for trainer Cote Keim.

No Approval Needed now a two-time winner in BSS

No Approval Needed is now a two-time winner in the Buckeye Stallion Series this season after scoring a victory on Monday (June 22) as Northfield Park Racino hosted four $20,000 divisions of the third leg for sophomore filly trotters.

A winner in the second leg of the BSS on June 4 at Eldorado Scioto Downs in a lifetime mark of 1:54.3, No Approval Needed (Dan Noble) led gate-to-wire in the fourth division on Monday with fractions of :29.3, :59.4, and 1:29.2. She crossed the line in 1:58.4, three-quarters-of-a-length ahead of second-place Dream Of Charlotte (Braiden Rhoades). Seven Lick Image (Sam Widger) was third. No Approval Needed is trained by Ryan Stahl, who owns the horse with Stephen Reis and Matt Lambert. She has hit the board in all five starts this season with four wins. The Uncle Peter filly has a career record of 9-6-1 and earnings of $64,686 in 16 career starts.

Chip Shot (Chris Lems) recorded the fastest mile of Monday's BSS races, taking the second division by 1½ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:55.3 in her seasonal debut. Lynn Range (Tyler Smith) was second followed by Mockingbird As (Chris Page) in third. Chip Shot is a Mission Accepted filly trained by Vernon Beachy for owners John Schlabach and Walnut View Farm. She has five wins in 10 career starts and earnings of $38,478.

Lucky Lady Volo (Justin Irvine) won the first division by three-quarters-of-a-length in a lifetime-best 1:56, giving her four victories and $123,621 in earnings in 16 lifetime starts. She's In (Smith) and Dublins Breanna (Rhoades) rounded out the top three. An In Range filly, Lucky Lady Volo is trained by Erv Miller for owners Ervin Miller Stable, Kentuckiana Racing Stable, and Stepbystep Racing.

In the third division, Supreme Dance (Widger) led gate-to-wire and won by a half-length over Flirtin Tomi (Noble) in 1:57.1 with Topville Lady (Page) in third. It was the third win in eight seasonal starts for the Full Count filly owned by trainer Rosy Weaver and Scott Davis. She owns a career record of 14-6-3 with earnings of $105,593 in 27 starts.

The Buckeye Stallion Series continues Saturday (June 27), with the third leg for sophomore colt pacers at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Meadowlands Pace hopefuls top tonight's Big M feature

Because of a World Cup soccer match that is taking place at MetLife Stadium on Saturday (June 27), live racing at The Meadowlands will be offered just once this week, tonight (June 26).

Post time is the usual 6:35 p.m. and there will be 15 races on the card, including a feature that will be of great interest to those looking forward to the July 11, $800,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace presented by Genova Burns LLC.

The 13th race on the program features a $35,000 purse for 3-year-old colts and geldings who are non-winners of five races lifetime, but with six of the seven horses eligible to the Pace, it might as well have been written as a 3-year-old open.

Of the half-dozen Pace horses in the field, three are in the track's weekly Road to the Meadowlands Pace Top 10, and all are looking for an effort to prepare them to race well in the Pace eliminations on Saturday (July 4).

Always B Charlie, No. 8 in the poll, is a lightly raced son of Always B Miki—My Little Delight who qualified a week ago fourth in 1:52.4 while Fragment was winning in 1:51.1. He'll depart from post 3 and is 6-1 on the morning line. The Nancy Takter trainee, who will be driven by Scott Zeron, has won three of four starts this season, including a 1:51.2 score in his last pari-mutuel try at Pocono Downs.

The Besim Odza-trained Azrael Blue Chip (Perfect Sting—Bathsheba), No. 9, had a tough go of it in the North America Cup, finishing 10th after changing to all aluminum shoes. The Cup final was his first non-top-three finish this year, so Odza is hoping for a rebound in the Pace after tonight's prep.

"I definitely was at fault [in the Cup]," said Odza. "But we are back to normal. He trained great [Wednesday]. I think he's at like 90 per cent right now. There are still things I am working on, but right now, he's right where I want him."

With Andy McCarthy opting to race at The Meadows in the Currier & Ives, Brett Beckwith will pick up the drive with Azrael Blue Chip, who has post 2 and is the 3-1 early favorite.

"Brett's got a good set of hands, so I think he'll get along with him," Odza said.

Gentleman's Club, No. 10, hasn't been seen since a seventh-place finish in his Cup elimination, when the son of Downbytheseaside—See You At Peelers got fired up as favorite Beau Jangles challenged him through demanding fractions, which ended up with Gentleman's Club not making it to the final.

"I think we'll race him off the pace [tonight]," said trainer Aaron Lambert. "We don't want to get him revved up again." Another horse who is driven regularly by McCarthy, Dexter Dunn will take the lines tonight with the 7-2 chance who leaves from post 5.

THE SCHEDULE: Live harness racing at The Meadowlands will be conducted on a Friday-Saturday basis through Sept. 12 with a first-race post time of 6:35 p.m.

There are several exceptions to those rules.

On July 4, there is a stakes-packed program that includes two Graduate finals as well as eliminations for the Meadowlands Pace. Post time is 6 p.m. At the conclusion of the card, the track will have a fabulous fireworks show.

The 101st edition of the $1-million Hambletonian is on Aug. 8. That card begins at noon.

Finally, there will be two cards that take place on a Thursday. Those programs are on July 2 and Aug. 6.

There are additional changes to the schedule with the World Cup soccer tournament currently taking place.

There will be no live racing on Saturday (June 27), which created the need for the additional Thursday on July 2.

Finally, The Big M will be closed for simulcasting on the following dates, when World Cup matches will be played at MetLife Stadium:

• Thursday (June 25)

• Tuesday (June 30)

• Sunday (July 5)

• Sunday (July 19)

"We are hoping that our regular customers don't mind some inconvenience when the World Cup is in town," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir of the competition that concludes July 19. "But the fact is, those days play out like Football Sundays when the Jets or Giants are playing home games. The difference is, there is no parking on site. We are open on days when there is soccer to any rideshare customers on property. On those days, patrons can get their action in the FanDuel Sportsbook."

THE SPECTACULAR SEVEN: This is the lineup of wagers that will be offered on Friday night's 15-race program. They all offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

• Races 1-5: 20-cent Early Pick-5

• Races 3-8: 20-cent Pick-6

• Races 6-9: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)

• Race 7: 10-cent Early Pentafecta (Hi-5)

• Races 8-12: 20-cent Late Pick-5

• Races 10-13: 50-cent Late Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)

• Race 15: 10-cent Late Pentafecta (Hi-5)

GET YOUR FREE PROGRAMS: To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free program pages for every race of every race card on its website.

Go to playmeadowlands.com, then click on the "news" dropdown to get the past performances at absolutely no cost.

COME AND PARTY ON PACE NIGHT: It's the biggest party in harness racing!

Come to The Meadowlands on Saturday (July 11), and check out a huge night of stakes racing, featuring the $800,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace presented by Genova Burns LLC.

In addition, there will be so much going on, everyone will find something interesting to do or see on the night of the mile oval's signature event. There will be plenty for youngsters to do as well, so bring the kids.

On your way in, pick up your free Meadowlands Pace t-shirt, which commemorates the 50th edition of the storied stakes event as well as paying tribute to the World Cup soccer tournament.

There are also rides, games, live music, food trucks, and, yes, eight stakes events that will be presented on the program, with estimated purses totaling $2.5 million.

Post time for the first race is 6:35 p.m.

Several repeat winners in Pocono baby qualifiers

In the final morning session for baby qualifiers at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, five of the eight freshman contests were for pacing colts, and they were swept by trainers Travis Alexander and Hunter Oakes.

Alexander had three of the winners, including 1-2 finishes in two of the races; they also happened to be the quickest pair as well as both being repeaters. Primacy Station went down the road in 1:55.3 - :56.1- :27.4, with the American Ideal—Preeminence colt beating out barnmate Brookie Cookie for the ownership of Alexander Racing Stable LLC, C M T Farms, EVM Racing LLC, and James Scarpias.

Also with double success in the morning races is the Heston Blue Chip—Counterparty Risk colt Current Events, who here sat in the pocket behind stablemate Takes Courage then beat that one by a neck in 1:56.3 - :57.2 - :28.3 under Ridge Warren's handling. Alexander's third winner among the males was the American Courage—Ascending colt Bastonata Bluechip, with Kakaley guiding him to a 1:58.1 – :57- :28 victory.

Oakes' two colts were both driven by Tyler Buter. Babylon Blue Chip (a Huntsville—Onassis Blue Chip colt) overcame interference past the three quarters and still finished in 1:57 - :56 first over for the triumph, making him a member of the Two Win Club, while the Captain Crunch—Dandy's Sweetness gelding Dapper Station won from in front in 1:57.2 - :57 - :28; he too now has two baby victories.

There was one division for each of the other three groups of 2-year-olds, and Alexander-Kakaley accounted for the filly pace as well: Sublime Hanover (Stay Hungry—So Perfect) came out of the 2-hole to win in 1:58.4 - :57.2 - :28.2 for Fiddler's Creek Stables LLC and Alexander Racing Stable LLC.

On the trotting side, the Walner—Bella Glos colt Extra Anejo wired his field in 2:00.3 - :58.3 - :28.1 for driver Tyler Buter and trainer Ray Schnittker, co-owner with Ted Gewertz and Nolamaura Racing LLC, while the Captain Corey—Swizzle Sticks filly Stir The Pot was first-over from well back in winning in 2:01.2 - :59 - :29.1 for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Jenny Melander, and the partnership of Charles Stansley, Lenavitt Investments LLC, John Licausi, and Arden Homestead Stable.

It won't be long now before the 2-year-olds begin their stakes careers: the first freshman stake at Pocono is an All-Stars event for the trotting colts on the Fourth of July, a Saturday, while the Pennsylvania fair season opens three days earlier in Butler.

Replays of the baby qualifiers can be viewed at www.phha.org.

Campbell and Legge advance from Atlantic Regional Driving Championship

Marc Campbell and Keith Legge punched their tickets to the National Driving Championship after a strong showing Wednesday evening at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The Atlantic Regional Driving Championship, presented by Standardbred Canada, took over races 3 through 10 on the 11-dash program, with Campbell finishing on top of the standings with 61 points while Legge was second with 53 points. The top two finishers advance to the 2026 National Driving Championship on Sunday (July 26) at Clinton Raceway in Clinton, ON. The winner of the National Driving Championship will represent Canada at the World Driving Championship being held in Canada in 2027.

Campbell was a force through the middle of the competition as he won three straight ARDC divisions with Timberlea Lady ($11.30) in race 4 for trainer Jaycob Sweet, Shadows Terror ($2.30) in race 5 for Lenny Myers, and Love Party ($2.50) in race 6 for trainer Kyle Marchbank, then added another victory with Brookdale Layton ($2.40) in race 7 from the Phil Sizer barn.

The leading driver at the Truro Raceway in Nova Scotia in 2025, Legge started the ARDC portion of the card on the right foot, winning race 3 with Redland Precious ($3.90) for trainer Tom Weatherbie. Legge later found the winner's circle again in race 8 as Mr Harris ($18.80) delivered for trainer Earl Watts.

Mark Pezzarello pulled off the biggest upset of the evening in the $6,250 preferred 2 pace in race 9 as Doc Awesome ($70.80) powered to victory in 1:55 for trainer Darla MacEachern. The 6-year-old son of All Bets Off is owned by MacEachern, Allen Gaudet, and Mike Cameron of Summerside. Sure Thing Captain was second for driver Zach Mullins while House Edge Hanover finished third for driver Paul Langille.

Corey MacPherson closed out the ARDC races with a victory in race 10 as Howmac Exclusive ($2.30) won in 1:55.4 for trainer Les Waite.

The final ARDC standings saw Campbell on top with 61 points, Legge second with 53, Langille third with 38, MacPherson fourth with 37, Mike Downey and Pezzarello tied for fifth with 35, Mullins next with 30, and Gilles Barrieau finishing with 23.
