Trainer Nick Gallucci on the absence of Canadian Horse of the Year Chantilly and her prospective return.

by Melissa Keith

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Woodbine Mohawk Park was buzzing with a lively crowd on Saturday night (June 21). It's not clear what percentage was there for the return of Chantilly, 1-5 morning line favorite in the second Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold leg for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

The undefeated daughter of Big Jim—Shiraz Seelster drew attention throughout her perfect 2024 season, after which she was voted the 2024 O'Brien Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year in Canada. Chantilly returned to the spotlight this season, when she became the first filly nominated and sustained to the Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup.

But on June 14, Chantilly started in neither the North America Cup nor the Grade 1 Fan Hanover filly stake. Her most recent race was a 1:50.1 win in her June 7 Fan Hanover elimination at Mohawk, making her move after first-over Rodeo Drive Deo broke stride past the quarter pole. James MacDonald sent the Canadian champion directly to the front and never looked back, drawing away by five lengths for victory over The Last Martini.

Asked whether Chantilly scratched out of the Fan Hanover to avoid racing Miki And Mini, Gallucci said, “Definitely not. If I was going to skip a race, it wouldn’t be a $390,000 race. I honestly think that this infection has been ailing [Chantilly] for quite some time, and hopefully with the downtime, we’re able to get it under control.”

Chantilly (p, 3, 1:49.4s; $672,254) returned to the winner’s circle with her earplugs still in place. It was her 12th consecutive win. Her next race was supposed to be her first against 2024 Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year Miki And Minnie (p, 3, 1:48.3s; $1,020,191), in the $390,000 Fan Hanover final. Until it wasn’t.

On Friday (June 13), owner George Millar told Standardbred Canada that his star filly would be scratched due to “inflammation throughout her lungs” revealed in an ultrasound scan.

Out of the Fan Hanover final and now her latest OSS start, Chantilly has now been missing from racing action since June 7. She was scratched sick from the OSS Gold leg 2 on June 21 at Mohawk, after show wagering had already been removed from the wagering menu due to her presence in the original eight-horse field. Perfectly Chic and driver Bob McClure capitalized on the Horse of the Year’s absence, taking a 1:50.4 lifetime mark in a going-away, two-move performance.

On Saturday night at Mohawk, trainer Nick Gallucci was in the paddock with Chantilly’s stablemate, 3-year-old gelding Allstar Maniac (p, 2, 1:53.1s; $103,694), who finished third in a conditioned race for pacers 5 years old and younger.

A former $70,000 yearling purchased at the 2023 London Classic Sale, the All Bets Off—Shes A Maniac gelding captured the 2024 OSS Gold Mid-Season Final for 2-year-old male pacers last Aug. 15 at Mohawk for Gallucci, driver James MacDonald, and owner Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON.

“[Allstar Maniac] ended up having a bit of a soreness issue after the Mid-Season challenge, so that kind of cost him racing in the [Grade 1] Metro [Pace] and his last few races... I’m not saying he would have won the Metro, but he’s probably my second-best 3-year-old,” said Gallucci.

“I think he’s got a lot of ability, but it’s his first start back, so we’ll see how things shake out. I think that on his best day, he can go with any horse in this race... It’s a good time to experiment with him. We were very careful driving him last year, so we made quite a few equipment changes this year, so I’m hoping he’s a lot more manageable in the races.”

What about Gallucci’s best 3-year-old, Chantilly? She last appeared in this column when the decision was still being made about whether she would race in eliminations for the North America Cup or Fan Hanover.

“She still has a bit of infection, I would say,” Gallucci told HRU. “At this point in the year, I don’t think we’re taking a chance on risking the rest of the year, so we’ll hopefully get her cleaned up. She’s got a big break [in her stakes schedule] right now, so I’m sure by the time the next [Ontario] Sires Stake comes around, we’ll have her back to where we want her.”

This would mean that a healthy Chantilly could make her next pari-mutuel appearance in OSS Gold leg 3 on July 22 at Mohawk.

"Yeah, that's her next stakes race," confirmed the 2024 O'Brien Trainer of the Year. "We'll see what happens in the meantime, because I definitely have to qualify her now because of two consecutive scratches. And then we'll see. If I feel like she needs an overnight race, then I'll race her; if not, I'll just go on to the next stake race after a qualifier or two."

Gallucci was en route to the track when Fan Hanover final winner Miki And Minnie finished second as the beaten 1-5 favorite in her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes division at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on Saturday (June 21) afternoon, stung at the wire by Rodeo Drive Deo.

"Okay, that filly [Rodeo Drive Deo] looked pretty good, but it's pretty surprising [Miki And Minnie lost]," he said, adding that the 1:51 mile over the fast track was also unexpected.

Pocono announcer Jim Beviglia described the race as having "a slow pace... the winning time slow as well for what you might expect from these."

Gallucci laughed when asked about rumors that Chantilly had been scratched from the Fan Hanover final to protect her win streak from Miki And Minnie, Rodeo Drive Deo, or anyone else.

"Definitely not," he said. "If I was going to skip a race, it wouldn't be a $390,000 race. I honestly think that this infection has been ailing her for quite some time, and hopefully with the downtime, we're able to get it under control."

The lingering respiratory symptoms are not severe enough to keep Chantilly from light training.

"I still have her in work, just nothing stressful at the moment," said Gallucci. "I trained her a light trip, and that's kind of where we made the call [to scratch]. We still didn't think she was right, so anyway, the road or the path that we're going to have to travel is the one that we weren't expecting, but good horses, they seem to overcome a lot."

Chantilly is visibly smaller than some top fillies have been at 3, like the statuesque Sylvia Hanover and powerfully-built Twin B Joe Fresh, but Gallucci said he didn't think her size made it tougher to fight off mild illness.

"Not necessarily," he said. "I think it's just a matter of getting rid of the infection, getting her lungs clear, just trying to get her back to a hundred per cent at some point. I'm sure we'll be able to do that with the downtime."

Chantilly is a homebred owned by Canada's 2024 Armstrong Breeder of the Year, Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON. In addition to upcoming OSS Gold dates, she is sustained to the Grade 3 Simcoe Filly Stake, slated for Sept. 5 at Mohawk, plus the Grade 1 James M. Lynch Memorial on Aug. 16 at Pocono. Gallucci said that she would likely make the trip to Rideau Carleton Raceway for OSS Gold leg 4 on Aug. 24, depending on how plans work out for the Lynch Memorial. Chantilly is also one of the 56 horses eligible to the Grade 1 Breeders Crown 3-year-old filly pace on Oct. 25 at Mohawk, with eliminations Oct. 18 if required.

To date, all of Chantilly's starts and qualifiers have been at Mohawk, where she has remained undefeated, purse or no purse, since her June 28, 2024 baby race debut.

Looking back at the North America Cup, won by Louprint in 1:47.1, Gallucci said he was satisfied with Millar's decision to point Chantilly towards the Fan Hanover instead.

“It would have definitely been a much tougher task than the [1:48.3] Fan Hanover... It would have been exciting, but the Fan Hanover would have been exciting too... Obviously, everybody was very disappointed last week,” said Gallucci. “It was almost a shock. So, we just try to take what comes to us and try to make the most of it.”

Can Dial Square S keep Svanstedt Six Pack dominance rolling?

by Debbie Little

In Saturday's (June 27) $114,500 Six Pack at The Meadowlands, Ake Svanstedt looks to become the first trainer to win the race for mare trotters a third straight time and fourth time overall.

Team Svanstedt has four starters in the seven-horse field, including morning-line favorite Dial Square S.

The 5-year-old black mare by Ready Cash out of the Muscle Hill mare Eileen Boko, has been nothing short of spectacular in her three U.S. starts in 2025. Owned by Stall Arsenal AB and Ake Svanstedt Inc., Dial Square S primarily raced in Sweden before being sent to Ake and Sarah Svanstedt in November 2024.

According to Sarah, she and Ake were aware that Dial Square S was a good horse in Sweden, but did not anticipate her first win of the year to occur right off the bat in 1:51.3 in a leg of the Miss Versatility on May 24 at The Meadowlands.

"That was a little bit of a surprise, that she was ready to do that type of mile right away off the one qualifier," Sarah said with a laugh. "[Nelsonbriteagle NO] did it pretty good too [when she first raced in the U.S. in 2024], but she needed four or five races, I think, until she kind of came into everything, but 'Dial' did it right away, so that was a surprise. And she's obviously a tremendous racehorse, she loves to race, and it's a pleasure to have her."

In that first start, Sarah said that Dial Square S was a little grabby, as she had previously been in Europe.

"She was nice in the qualifier, but then obviously she knew now it's race mode and let's race," Sarah said. "So, Ake was a little bit surprised how grabby she got on the front that day, so we did some equipment changes after that race so that she was more manageable to drive."

There was no swimming in the shallow end of the pool for Dial Square S, as following her U.S. debut, she was sent up to Canada for the eliminations for the Armbro Flight at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ake drove Dial Square S to her Armbro Flight elimination victory, but needed a pilot for the final, as he also qualified

“It’s the best feeling in the world, sitting behind a great horse. And as a driver, all you ever want is to get on good horses, but they’re just usually so hard to get behind because everyone’s trying to get the best horse in each division. So, [Dial Square S] looks like she’s the one to beat, or she stamped herself as the early mare to beat in the season, and I just hope her form stays good and I can work out some good trips for her and she can just continue to get the job done, because she feels pretty special so far.”

~ James MacDonald

2024 O’Brien Older Trotting Mare of the Year Call Me Goo.

According to James MacDonald, who drove Armbro Flight elim winner Willys Home Run as well as Nelsonbriteagle NO in the other elim, Ake approached him after the eliminations to ask who he was taking in the final.

“I assumed he meant ‘Nelsonbriteagle’ or ‘Willy,’” MacDonald said. “And then he said, ‘If you want, you can drive Dial Square, [Dexter Dunn] can drive Nelsonbriteagle, because he drove her all last year.’ So, I said, ‘Oh yeah, for sure I’ll go with Dial Square.’ And then it worked out great, got a good trip in the final and got the job done.

“Sarah and Ake have been amazing to me, last year and this year, and the limited amount of times I’ve gotten to sit behind their horses, they’ve always put me on really good ones in really good spots. So, that’s half the battle for a driver.”

Prior to his first drive with Dial Square S in the $155,400 Armbro Flight final, MacDonald, who won his fourth consecutive Keith Waples Canadian Driver of the Year award in February, said there really wasn't a ton to go off, as far as research was concerned, because she was racing predominantly in Sweden prior to her U.S. and Canadian debut, but he was able to get some insight from Ake.

"He had mentioned that she was a lot better the second time, drivable wise, and she was just a Cadillac for me that day, and was able to let me just kind of do what I wanted," MacDonald said of the Armbro Flight final. "And then when I moved her over, she was airborne."

The fact that Dial Square S has shown that she can win on the front and from behind, MacDonald said is a big advantage.

"It's a huge feather in her cap, because other drivers are always looking for ways to beat you and try and play on your horse's weaknesses, and so far, I mean, she hasn't shown any," he said. "So, for me, that gives me just more options. Some horses are great horses, but they need a certain trip to work out and other horses can do anything. I haven't raced her myself on the front, but I know the one time she was there, she went a pretty monster trip, so it just gives me an extra kind of ace up my sleeve, going behind the gate."

Although MacDonald is based in Ontario, he will be at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (June 28) to drive Dial Square S for the Svanstedts, who gave him his first Breeders Crown victory in 2024 driving Lady Landia.

"They're great horsepeople, you can just see it," MacDonald said. "You don't need me to say anything or anyone to tell you, just look at the results. You see a big trot race and they're always in the hunt in them. So, it's just a good testament to what great horsepeople they are, both of them.

"As a horse driver, you just want to drive good horses, that's the number one goal. And you know, a lot of the best horses do predominantly race in the United States, and if I end up on a good horse to drive, you don't want to turn them down or not be available when they're in to go. So, if I end up on some other good horses, like Dial Square and other ones like that, and they're in to go in the United States, I'm more than likely going to try and make myself available to be down there."

Sarah said she has joked with MacDonald that he should move to the U.S.

"I think he's going to travel more this year because he has built up a big network on big race days, so, hopefully, we can use him," Sarah said.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

Bob Boni knows how to pick 'em, Part 1

by Murray Brown

It was Goshen week of 1970. I was visiting Pine Hollow Stud Farm in nearby Pine Bush, NY. Mort Finder had just begun the enterprise. As was to be his custom, the farm was showing some of the yearlings that would be featured in their consignment to Harrisburg that November. I recall thinking, who features yearlings the first week of July? They were bound to be immature and under developed compared to how they would look five months hence. Hell, none of them are even a year old yet. Well, Mort Finder did and the person showing and who had prepped them was a scrawny New York City born and raised young man named Bob Boni. I was impressed by the condition and the amazing presence of these yearlings.

“ There are likely many today who won’t even recognize the name [Escape Artist]. But this colt gave me, to that time, what was likely my greatest thrill ever in the sport... I knew he would top our consignment. But I didn’t know how well he would do. He brought $260,000, the highest price for a yearling ever. I still have the tape of Tom Caldwell selling him. It took him 6½ minutes to sell and I was smiling for each second of the time. Words cannot express how pleased and proud I was. ”

~ Bob Boni

That was my first introduction to Boni. Looking back, I doubt that there is a single person involved in all of harness racing in America that I’ve known longer.

This story has had many starts and mostly stops to it. I’ve wanted to do it almost from the start of this column. My problem was in determining how to do it, since Boni has worn so many hats in the business. What do I write about? Is he a breeder, an owner, a farm manager, a racing manager a sales representative? He has been involved in those, and likely several other areas of our sport. ‘How do I write about them all?’ I asked myself. I came to the conclusion that I was unable to. Instead, I just procrastinated and did nothing. Now, with the imminent induction of Boni to the sport’s Living Hall of Fame next week, I decided it had to be now or probably never.

The reason this column is appearing on Friday, rather than its usual Sunday spot is my editor has opted to split it into two parts, with Part 2 coming on Sunday.

Instead of writing about Boni's entire life, one well lived – a project for a younger and more capable person, Charlie Leerhsen or Dean Hoffman – I decided to focus on a part, a very important segment, of his story. I doubt that there have been too many individuals in our sport, absent some trainers, who have been involved with the management and selection of so many great and influential horses. This was the area on which I decided to focus.

Chronologically, here are Boni's thoughts on a select few:

“He was as nice a yearling as I had ever seen or had anything to do with, certainly to that point in time. He was bred and owned by Lloyd S. Lloyds a patron of the W R Haughton Stable. I'm not certain that Mr. Lloyds had ever even seen him until he began training. Mr. Lloyds had made the decision to sell him at Harrisburg as a yearling. I suspect that he didn't initially want to train him because his late wife Margaret was the first exponent of the theory of the first foal often being the best foal that a mare will have. Green Speed was Peridot's second foal. Her first foal was named Peridot's Pride. He was a talented stakes winner, but physically he was as different than Green Speed as day was from night. Peridot's Pride was a big, plainish, kind of coarse colt. Green Speed was more refined, and racy looking, to my eye, a much nicer individual.

“Billy Haughton had come to the farm to look at our yearlings as he always did. He looked at Green Speed as well. He loved him as I was certain he would. He loved him even more after he was turned out in the paddock. He called Lloyds from my desk and told him that he really liked the colt. Did he really want to sell him? Lloyds said 'Yes.' Billy then asked him if it would be okay if he tried to buy him for another owner. Lloyds said that was fine. Apparently, sometime between then and the Thursday before Harrisburg he had a change of heart. After our trucks had loaded and were on their way to Harrisburg, I received a phone call from Lloyds. He had decided to keep the colt and have Billy train him. I told him the colt was already on his way to Harrisburg. Of course, he was then withdrawn from the sale. The rest, of course is history. He raced alright until the later part of the racing season at 2, but nothing to indicate what he was going to become, until he won the Hanover Colt Stake at Liberty Bell in 2:01f which then was the world record for a 2-year-old trotter. From that point forward he was a force to be reckoned with. He, of course went on to win the 1976 Hambletonian at DuQuoin and was voted Horse of the Year.”

Escape Artist ($85,194) Foal of 1976 (Meadow Skipper—Noreen Napoleon—Bret Hanover)

“There are likely many today who won’t even recognize the name. But this colt gave me, to that time, what was likely my greatest thrill ever in the sport. As was mentioned above, the Fourth of July weekend is often not the best time to display a yearling that will be sold in November. Escape Artist was most definitely such a colt. In July he was a big, gangly immature colt. I suggested to Mr. Finder that we might not want to showcase him during Goshen. But Finder insisted. Noreen Napoleon, his dam might have been Finder’s favorite mare ever. We showed him, but I doubt that he turned many heads then. As time went on, what had been a figurative ugly duckling grew into the most beautiful swan. He became a truly exceptional individual. I knew he would top our consignment. But I didn’t know how well he would do. He brought $260,000, the highest price for a yearling ever. I still have the tape of Tom Caldwell selling him. It took him 6½ minutes to sell and I was smiling for each second of the time. Words cannot express how pleased and proud I was.”

Cam Fella ($2,041,367) Foal of 1979 (Most Happy Fella—Nan Cam—Bret Hanover)

“I didn’t have anything to do with either breeding or racing this truly great horse and sire. He was standing stud at what then was Jef’s Standardbred Country Club. We did a partnership deal where we bought the farm and its equine assets from Ed Friedberg. The biggest asset of those were the 10 breeding rights we were to receive for standing Cam Fella. The new venture was called Dreamaire Stud. It was to be managed by Leo McNamara. With the termination of the Dreamaire partnerships, Cam Fella moved to Stonegate Farms where he lived out the rest of his life.”

In Part 2, Boni will share his insight on the great Nihilator, among others.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Making the grade in this weekend's key sophomore trotting races

by Brett Sturman

Between tonight (June 27) and Saturday, 3-year-old trotting events for both the colts and fillies held at The Meadowlands and at Yonkers could have direct implications for this year's Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks, already just a few short weeks away. Though, the races between the tracks look very different, and in the process of comparing the contenders for those races, it illustrates as an aside where enhancements can be made to the new stakes grading system.

Beginning with the 3-year-old colts and geldings at Yonkers, this year's Yonkers Trot drew just a field of five horses as a $300,000 Grade 2 race. Though disheartening to see a race that has the history of the Yonkers Trot dwindled to such a small field, this one is not without quality. All five horses are Hambletonian eligible, and one of those horses, Super Chapter, is #1 on many Hambletonian lists right now.

Super Chapter, who starred last year at The Red Mile, was a Breeders Crown contender and runner-up in the Valley Victory at 2. He became the second faster trotter this year when going a 1:50.4 mile while winning his Empire Breeders Classic division at Vernon last out. In doing so, he bested last year's divisional champion Maryland, who in fairness was making his first start of the season.

Having drawn the rail in the small field, Super Chapter will be able to control the race by however fast or slow he wants, like the EBC race. Grade 3 Dexter Cup winner Hard Seven was third to Super Chapter last out at Vernon beaten almost by five widening lengths in the end and has drawn the outside post. He is capable of speed just like he showed in the Dexter Cup, but is also prone to breaking which could make things even trickier on the half-mile track. The other two horses you could make a case for are Chat Room and Grade 3 Bunker Hill champ Variegated, who ran 1-2 in the other EBC division at Vernon two weeks ago. In that race, Chat Room, dismissed at 12-1 off a 1:52.3 Meadowlands win in his prior outing, led, yielded and later went past Variegated in the stretch to score an upset win in another 1:52.3 mile.

Thanks to a high-calibre group led by Super Chapter, and with many legitimate star quality Yonkers Trot winners over the years, the graded status of the race seems fair enough. But where it gets interesting is when comparing the dynamics of that race to the divisions of the Reynolds stakes at The Meadowlands, which are ungraded.

Graded or not, these races could have massive Hambletonian implications. Of the 21 horses racing across two divisions (one of the divisions has 11 horses), 18 of those are Hambletonian eligible.

The first division is led by Go Dog Go, who probably ranks mid pack on most Hambletonian lists though he could be further elevated in short order. Third in last year's Breeders Crown and in the Valley Victory, he set the tone for his sophomore campaign when dominating Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) foes at Pocono three weeks ago when making his first start of the season. In that same race is a (for now) lesser-known Hambletonian-eligible horse named Mr Mouton who only raced a single time at 2 last July – a New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) race he won – and then resurfaced a couple weeks ago at The Meadowlands where he came on impressively to just miss in 1:53.2. He too could become a major factor on the Hambletonian trail.

The second Reynolds division features Gap Kronos S and Nordic Catcher S, two more from Ake Svanstedt, who also conditions Mr Mouton. Gap Kronos S, who was a dual stakes winner last year at Lexington, raced well first-over most recently in the Goodtimes final at Mohawk to top Hambletonian prospect Emotion Legacy. That race went in 1:50.2 – the fastest mile all year for the division and the only one thus far faster than Super Chapter's EBC win. Rival Nordic Catcher S who was last year's New Jersey Sire Stakes (NJSS) champion and second to Maryland in that year's William Wellwood final, scored an impressive post 9 win during his seasonal debut last out winning in 1:53.2; besting a few Hambletonian contenders in the process.

The purse of the Reynolds stakes when split into the two divisions is only $34,325, but you could argue there's greater significance in winning this race than at Yonkers. I hope I'm not showing Meadowlands elitism, but you could take it a step further and say that almost any stakes race at The Meadowlands between May and August should carry a graded stakes designation. These are races where horses can prove themselves on the mile track, in fast times against high quality competition in full fields, where, if successful, can have direct breeding value implications too.

It's a similar story with the trotting fillies. At Yonkers tonight (June 27) there is a stake split into two $50,000 divisions named the NY NY Mile, which carries a Grade 3 status. Outside of Monalishi in the second division, who last year proved herself to be a top filly, the rest of fields resemble what you'd see in a moderate level sire stakes race. By that characterization it is a group of fillies with stakes potential and talent, but how does it compare to the fillies racing in the ungraded Reynolds stakes the next night across the river?

Those races contain in one division last year's divisional award winner Champagne Problems, along with Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) champion and $300,000 earner Yo Tillie. The second division contains last year's Breeders Crown finalists Kadena and Delaney Hanover, as well as the likes of top prospect R Dutchess, daughter of Atlanta and $160,000 earner Deja Blu, and freshly crowned NJSS champion, Conversano. You can just look at it and know that the races take on more meaning than simply the smaller purses they offer.

Graded semantics aside, races from both tracks this weekend could have an impact not only on the Hambletonian and Oaks trails, but how these divisions start to play out over the course of the season.

Triple crown season is here

by Bob Heyden

Tonight's (June 27) Messenger Stakes and Yonkers Trot at Yonkers Raceway get the 2025 Triple Crowns underway. Let's look at some history of these two classic races:

1. It has been 15 years since the Messenger winner also was named HOY. Rock N Roll Heaven, trained by Bruce Saunders, did it in 2010. Saunders is also in this year's Messenger with Manolete from the rail at 9-2. Note: The 2020 HOY Tall Dark Stranger never got the chance at a Messenger victory as the race was called off during the COVID year along with the Yonkers Trot.

2. Ake Svanstedt has a "Trotting Triple Crown" of his own going on. He is the last trainer/driver to win each of the Trotting Triple Crown events. He won the Kentucky Futurity with Six Pack (2018), Hambletonian with Captain Corey (2021), and Yonkers Trot with Up Your Deo (2023).

Svanstedt will start from post 2 with Happy Jack B in this year's abbreviated five-horse Yonkers Trot field.

3. Travis Alexander is trying to do what only Billy Haughton has accomplished, win the Messenger four times in a five-year span. Alexander won with American Courage (2021), Pleaseletmeknow (2022), and finished 1-2 last year with Sweet Beach Life over Howlenthedhills. He'll try to win his fourth this year from post 8 with elimination winner Odds On No Limit at 8-1 with driver Matt Kakaley looking for his third Messenger.

"My first year on my own was 2021 with American Courage," Alexander said. "Back in 2000, when I worked for Joe Holloway, we won it with Ain't No Stoppin' Him."

4. Billy Haughton had the most incredible Messenger bio of all, training and driving seven winners. He went 1-2 in the kickoff year of 1956 with Belle Acton over stablemate Bachelor Hanover. He went on a tear taking the 1967 edition with Romulus Hanover followed by Triple Crown winner Rum Customer. He yielded to fellow 'Gold Duster' Stanley

5. Chris Ryder has two shots at this year's Messenger trophy. He has World Of Wishes (post 2, 20-1) and Twisted Destiny (post 3, 5-2). In 1996, Ryder won his very first Triple Crown event, the Messenger with Go For Grins. Nine days after this year's Triple Crown liftoff Ryder officially gets inducted into the Hall of Fame.

6. Tony Alagna is one of just four trainers to have won the Messenger three times in a four-year span: Revenge Shark (2015), Raing Hill (2016), and Stay Hungry (2018). This year he's got post 6 with Banderas (12-1).

7. Scott Zeron has the rail looking for his first Messenger. Now 36, Zeron is tied with John Campbell for the most Triple Crown victories, nine, prior to their 35th birthday.

8. It's been 43 years since a trainer/driver won the Messenger, and he did it via the supplemental route. In 1982 Pat Crowe won with Cam Fella. In the Little Brown Jug trainer/driver Chris Boring won in 1984 with Colt Forty Six and in the 1988 Cane Pace trainer/driver Yves Filion won with Runnymede Lobell.

9. From 1967-76, Stanley Dancer and Billy Haughton took down an incredible nine of 10 Messengers. The most dominant one decade stretch ever for any two drivers in any Triple Crown event.

UPDATE ON MARK MACDONALD

Driver Mark MacDonald was injured a week ago in an accident at Yonkers.

"I have a Grade 1 sprain in my wrist and a small fracture in a bone in my hand and general soreness," MacDonald said, adding with a laugh, "I'm just a little beaten and bruised and I'm a little down but not out, not yet anyway. In just a few weeks I'll be ready to roll again. A minor setback. It's a long summer; I hope to be driving at Goshen on Hall of Fame weekend."

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

A chat with veteran horseman Jim Mattison, Part 2

by John Berry

Part 1 is here.

Longtime horseman Jim Mattison is concerned that the best days of our sport are gone, but continues to be outspoken when it comes to several aspects of the sport. Here are more of his thoughts.

What would you like to discuss next?

"Taping the front hobble hanger on both pacers and trotters should be mandatory. I know this from 40 years of experience when my horse went down like he was shot.

"Kim Crawford got the brunt of it with a broken collar bone as he was directly behind me. When I got back to the stall to find out what happened, the trainer said the hobble came down. I asked what hole it was in and he said the bottom one; it was not broken.

"For the next 40 years, I never drove or trained or raced a horse without taping the front hobble hanger. I always carried a role of tape with me and, if they weren't taped, I taped it. A bunch of us did the same, Kim [Crawford], Dan Cappello, and Wally [Hennessey]. When Wally drove for us, we taped front and back."

You seem to have made your winter home in Pompano, but other times in Saratoga?

"Yes, and let me talk about Saratoga a bit. I started driving professionally in 1968, and I really believe that the 'paddock' times requiring horses to be in there and monitored – and at all tracks – should be long enough so horses can be warmed up in front of the judges and whatever fans we have left. A lot of horses are warmed up on a back track and the judges and fans can't see them and inspect them for soundness.

The standardbred is a rugged animal. When an incident happens, they will bounce back – if it's not too bad – but the driver, if he goes down, can have significant injury or even worse and the healing time might be devastating for a driver. The horse might be in-to-go in a week or two but the driver can be out for a month, or even much worse, in fact, much, much worse. None of us should forget Anthony Coletta, ever.

"The only time the bettors and judges see them is in the post parade, just a few minutes before they go to the gate to race. The serious bettor waits and tries to see how sound they are, the judges should do the same. I'm sure some do but they seem more concerned about drivers talking and going inside pylons than watching the post parade for soundness."

One judge we admired so much here at the Pompano track was Bob Williams, a topnotch driver/trainer who became a judge after retiring. He had his binocs on every horse in the post parade and wanted to make sure that a lame one wouldn't cause a catastrophe in a race.

"That's what this sport needs. Saratoga had four accidents in four weeks and I believe three of them could have been avoided.

~ Jim Mattison

“There was one where the horse was lame and, in a situation like that, you must try to protect every other horse and driver in the race as one can endanger the whole field.”

The public, too.

“Yes, the public, too. Immediately, the race should be called ‘No Contest’ and red lights should be flashing all over the place. In this one, it took the judges over 30 seconds to tell the announcer ‘No Contest.’

“Another time, the gate was hardly moving and a horse went sideways. Luckily, there was no serious injury but one driver wasn’t wearing a vest, which is mandatory, or should be. Another time, a front hobble broke, driver got hurt, and a 99-cent roll of tape could’ve prevented it.

“When they give the excuse that the hobble hanger broke, I don’t believe it, it takes two men and a boy to punch a hole in it.”

All these suggestions are valuable, but the key is enforcement of the rules, don’t you think?

“The standardbred is a rugged animal. When an incident happens, they will bounce back — if it’s not too bad — but the driver, if he goes down, can have significant injury or even worse and the healing time might be devastating for a driver.

Well, that brings us to another point, drivers leaning back. When they lean back so far, they have little forward vision and can't respond that fast to avoid a possible wreck.

"Not only that, it can take away the competitiveness of a race. When they lean back so far, it puts much more distance between horses, maybe another half-length or length."

How true, and, if you have a big field, say, nine or 10, it puts, probably, at least five of them out of reach to the horse on top at the half and these bettors are tearing their tickets up when they are 15 lengths behind. It's certainly not good for the betting public, and where would be without them, It's getting worse all the time.

"You know, drivers are supposed to wear vests and any bits with an extended ring are supposed to have a safety strap on them – I used heavy zip ties – and these are not enforced.

"These drivers are supposed to pass by the paddock judge, so it shouldn't be that hard to correct and enforce."

Can we talk about whipping rules, a bit?

"Yes, the whipping rules. These days, it looks like the guys [and gals] are driving a hobby horse. They [the judges] say it because of the fans, if you can find 25 of them. Maybe try riding crops, instead, I don't know."

We came up with a solution but, of course, nobody has taken a step forward on it. I had suggested a redesign of the saddle pads so they would reach all the way back to the horse's rump with that back section back of the saddle pad number padded heavily for sound effects.

"Yeah, nobody seems to want to listen to good, new ideas, a shame."

Note: I had suggested in a previous HRU that "door-bell" cameras be installed every 16th-of-a-mile on track to catch any situations that many arise. But Jessica Hallett came up with an invention even better as she had a few postings recently showing the race from a drivers "in-the-bike" point-of-view following the action from behind the gate at the start right to the finish.

Maybe, eventually, all drivers will be required to use this method to improve our sport and enhance its future.

The advantages could be endless:

1. It would give judges a close-up view of the action and any questionable occurrences during a race.
2. Pylon violations
3. Any infractions or interference during a race.
4. Equipment failures.
5. Whatever else.

Yes, our grand sport has seen incredible times since the first 2:00 mile in 1897 and, subsequently, pushing that mark a tick below 1:46.

Let's make sure that time is on our side for the successful future in a sport we all love.

“I’ve always loved horses. Me and my two brothers fell in love with the industry as kids. I used to drive them in work, but I never looked at driving them as a career. My real love was grooming and looking after the horses.”

~Stacey White

Now, in partnership with husband David, White has won a Rowe Cup and trains the equal favorite for the Inter Dominion trotting series in Bet N Win.

“It feels weird being on the other side, that’s for sure,” she said.

White, then Stacey Markham, was born into harness racing with father [Carl] and mother [Lyn] being hobby trainers, but the true career switch came when she met and later married an Aussie, David White.

“I’ve always loved horses,” she said. “Me and my two brothers fell in love with the industry as kids. I used to drive them in work, but I never looked at driving them as a career. My real love was grooming and looking after the horses.”

“I met David when he came across to Christchurch on a working holiday in 2015. His plan was to spend six months here [in New Zealand] working with Graeme and Paul Court [a leading stable at the time] and then return to Sydney to start training himself. More than 10 years later and he’s still here, we’re married and training together.”

Throw in two young kids and “Team White” has a full dance card.

“We sure do,” Stacey said. “Lachlan turns 2 in August and Williams is 4½ months old. It’s been a manic time since William was born. David had six weeks away in Auckland with Bet N Win, so it’s been busy but for the best possible reason.”

“When you’re a young stable starting out and you get a horse like Bet N Win, you have to make the most of it.”

Bet N Win, a 5-year-old son of What The Hill, is certainly doing his bit with 23 starts netting 13 wins, four placings and $415,009 in prize money.

Bet N Win is one of the favorites in the Inter Dominion trotting series.

He's now in Brisbane preparing for the opening round of Inter Dominion heats at Albion Park on July 5.

Stacey calls it the trip of redemption.

That's because Bet N Win came to Brisbane this time last year and brilliantly won the Stellar Square at Albion Park on July 6.

He was a dominant favorite to add the Group 1 Great Square the next Saturday, but things went awry.

"On the Monday we found he had an abscess, most likely caused by the damp because they'd had so much rain while we were there," Stacey said. "As much as we tried everything, even x-rays to see if we would dig it out, we lost the race against time and had to scratch him.

"The whole trip was a heck of a rollercoaster ride, from the highs of that Stellar Square win, which we still value as one of our biggest highlights, to utter disappointment of having to pull the pin.

"We had such a huge team in Brisbane. David's parents came up for a month from Sydney, all of our great group of owners in Bet N Win came over... the disappointment hit so many people. That's what we've said since he won the Rowe Cup (on May 2), we're going back to Brisbane to finish what we started."

It hasn't been all plain sailing for the Whites with Bet N Win since last year.

Yes, he's won five races, but he also gave them plenty of headaches when below his best in two key Cambridge races in March and April.

"We've certainly developed a greater appreciation for the trainers who have been going through this for all these years when we were outsiders looking in," Stacey said. "Getting back “We’re confident in the horse [Bet N Win], yes. In saying that, [the Inter Dominion is] a fascinating and exciting trotting series because the key players come from different form lines and places. to Brisbane was the last thing on our mind after those Cambridge runs. The horse wasn’t at his best and David said he wasn’t recovering as well as normal.

“In the end, we found out he had a virus and then had to skip a couple of big races and see if we could get him right for the Rowe Cup. And that then became D-Day as far as the Brisbane trip went.”

A month between runs and tireless work and attention from David and Bet N Win returned to his best and won the Rowe Cup, regarded as one of the two iconic trotting races in New Zealand.

“It’s as sick as I’ve ever felt before a race, probably with nerves,” Stacey said. “That race meant so much, from the Brisbane plans to the list of champions I watched win the Rowe Cup when I was growing up and working at HRNZ. For him to come out and win it was awesome, the defining win of his career so far without a doubt.

“People said I had the hard job with a young one and newborn at home by myself, but I know the hard work and challenges David had with Bet N Win.”

The latest Aussie trip started on the best possible note when Bet N Win was barely out of second gear winning a Menangle race last Saturday.

“It was perfect,” Stacey said. “He flew from Auckland to Sydney and only had a few days there before the race, so to get away with what was a glorified trial was ideal. David's made the trip with him and he's thrilled with the way he's come through it."

Stacey, who now juggles being a mum with a key marketing role with breeding giant Woodlands Stud, said she wouldn't miss being in Brisbane for the Inter Dominion.

"No way," she said. "I'm heading over with the kids to join David the day before the first round of heats [July 4] and staying all the way through."

Is that a show of confidence?

"We're confident in the horse, yes," Stacey said. "In saying that, it's a fascinating and exciting trotting series because the key players come from different form lines and places.

"It is a bit hard to line them up, but all we can do is have our guy at the top of his game and so far, so good."

The Whites have emerging pacer Betterthancash along as a travelling companion, but David warned not to sell him short.

"His target is the Rising Sun [next Saturday]," he said. "He ran a terrific second at Menangle the same night Bet N Win won and we think he'll be very competitive in the Rising Sun if he can draw to use that early gate speed of his."

If things go to plan, this time Stacey will be the subject of the story rather than the author.

And the trip of redemption will be complete.

Elitloppet champ Go On Boy beaten at Vincennes

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (June 22) hot race card at Vincennes in Paris was something extra and when older trotters battled in the $210,000 Prix Rene Balliere over 2,100 meters, the chronometers showed figures never seen before over the actual distance.

Go On Boy made his first start since the triumph in Elitloppet in May and driver and trainer Romain Derieux had to settle outside of the leader Ibiki de Houelle. Settle might not be the correct word as the raced turned out. Ibiki de Houelle and Go On Boy kept the pace at a very high level and when they reached three-quarters-of-a-mile, the markers showed 1:20.4, with 900 meters left to go.

At the same point, midway into the race, Go On Boy stormed to the lead and Derieux seemed to have good control over the race as the field turned for home. But, obviously, Go On Boy started to be marked by the furious pace and the chasing Jabalpur (Booster Winner) was trying to capture the leading favorite via the inside of the track. Go On Boy entered the stretch near the rail, but drifted badly and was near the center of the track when he was disarmed by Jabalpur, who Gabriele Gelormini got fired up after a second over trip.

Jabalpur won in a mile rate of 1:50.3, a new world record over 2,100 meters. Go On Boy was second in 1:50.4 and Iguski Sautonne was third in 1:51.

FILLY MILLE ETOILES BESTS GIRLS AND BOYS IN GROUP 1 EVENT

The 3-year-olds gathered at Vincennes when the $210,000 Prix Albert Viel over 2,700 meters was scheduled on Sunday's card (June 22) and in the end, a filly trained by Nicolas Bazire proved best.

Jean-Michel Bazire drove the filly Mille Etoiles (Prodigious), who was served a pretty heavy trip while favorites Magic Man and Maitre Jacques had more ground saving trips close to the pylons.

Despite that, Mille Etoiles proved strongest in the last turn and after her advantage was acquired, she just held the other M-girls and -boys behind her as she won in a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 1.6 miles.

FACE TIME SPADA IMPRESSES IN AUSTRIAN DERBY

The 140th edition of the $55,000 Austrian Derby for 4-year-olds was held in Vienna on Sunday (June 22) afternoon and Gerhard Mayr's Face Time Spada (Face Time Bourbon) was too hard to go around as she won in a mile rate of 2:01.1 over 1.6 miles.

Face Time Spada claimed her 10th win in 11 starts and driver Mayr captured his third Derby victory.

E3 FINALS AHEAD

Sweden's E3 series for 3-year-old horses runs pretty much over the whole year, but two of the four big finals are traditionally scheduled in summertime, where the first of them, the 2,140 meters edition, is on the race card in Eskilstuna this Saturday (June 28).

The $300,000 final for colts and geldings sees fresh world record champion Wise Guy behind the gate and he secured his spot in the final by winning his elimination in safe style on June 16.

Women Layer completes KYSS sweeps at Oak Grove

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainee Women Layer completed a full sweep of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) action at Oak Grove, winning in every prelim of both series as well as in both finals when he capped the second series with a 1:49.2 stroll in the $150,000 final on Tuesday (June 24) to remain unbeaten from seven starts this season.

Driver Todd McCarthy circled Women Layer to the top past early leader Lou Hill (driven by Dexter Dunn) through a :27 first quarter and jogged to a :55 half. He accelerated up the backstretch to clock three-quarters in 1:22.3 and lifted flight off the bottom corner before gearing down to the finish in progress to a three-length victory. Lou Hill finished second with Nuclear (David Miller) rallying for third, another four lengths behind, and Copperfield (Marcus Miller) closing for fourth.

Women Layer, a gelded son of Sweet Lou, has now won 19 times from 28 starts and banked $636,079 for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc., Douglas Overhiser, Jeff Fought Racing and Larry Wills. He paid $2.10 to win.

Bath Bomb (Andy McCarthy) may not have uncorked a perfect sweep like Women Layer, but the Per Engblom trainee did register back-to-back wins in KYSS finals when she strolled to a 1:50.2 victory in the $150,000 final for 4-year-old pacing mares. McCarthy grabbed command with Bath Bomb past a :26.1 first quarter to pocket Asweetbeachhere (Todd McCarthy) and stayed steady on the motor to a :55 half and 1:22.3 three-quarters. Bath Bomb spun for home on a confident lead and crossed the finish 2½ lengths better than Peace Talks (Dunn), who ripped off a ground-saving trip to snag second from Asweetbeachhere in third. Defining Moment (Yannick Gingras) took fourth.

A daughter of Lather Up, Bath Bomb has now won 10 races from 23 starts and earned $350,360 for owner Morrison Racing Stables. She paid $2.74 to win.

Pennteller Hanover (Brett MacDonald) capitalized on several breaking stride to go down the road with a 1:53 effort and win the $150,000 KYSS final for 4-year-old trotting colts and geldings. With favorites Convoy Hall (Todd McCarthy) and Ways N Means (Andy McCarthy) out of contention following breaks behind the gate, MacDonald thrust Pennteller Hanover forward and took over command from Ordained (Gingras) after a :27.4 first quarter. MacDonald glided through middle sectionals of :56.2 and 1:24.4 and then sailed in a four-length winner under wraps with Mister Dad (Dunn) taking second. Tom's Muscle (Ernie Hendry) rallied for third and Ordained tired to fourth.

Luc Blais trains Pennteller Hanover, a gelding by Chapter Seven, for owner Determination. The gelding won his seventh race from 16 starts, has now earned $162,122 and paid $10.40 to win.

Black Velvet As (Dunn) posted the shocker of the afternoon when she upended defending champion Woman Of Passion (Todd McCarthy) to score at 14-1 in the $150,000 KYSS final for 4-year-old trotting mares. Dunn secured a pocket trip when pushing forward through a :27.1 quarter to plant onto the lead before Woman Of Passion completed her brush for the front. Woman Of Passion cleared just before a :55.4 half and tried to stay on the muscle while marching to three-quarters in 1:24.1. She opened a two-length lead on the turn Anette Lorentzon trains Black Velvet As, a daughter of Archangel, for owner/breeder ACL Stuteri AB. The mare won her sixth race from 23 starts, good for $242,025 in earnings, and returned $30.28 to win.

Oak Grove also hosted nine opening-preliminary splits of KYSS – three for each division – for pacing 3-year-olds and 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, with a pair of track records coming from two divisions.

The day opened with Harrisburg Heist (Gingras, $3.72 to win) setting a track record for 3-year-old pacing geldings with a 1:49.1 win by 4¼ lengths after circling to the top past the first quarter. Ron Burke trains the son of Downbytheseaside for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc., Phillip Collura and Weaver Brussemi. His 1:49.1 mile also is the fastest all-time mile by a pacing 3-year-old at Oak Grove, a mark held previously by Tip Top Cat when he won the KYSS final in 2023 with a 1:49.3 mile.

Late in the day, Julie Miller trainee My Degenerate (Andy Miller, $11.88) established a new mark for 3-year-old trotting geldings when he popped the pocket on tempo-setter Bank On Me (David Miller) in the stretch to post a 1:53 victory by 1¾ lengths. The gelding by Muscle Hill – competing for owners Knutsson Trotting Inc., Little E LLC, Lindy Farms of Connecticut and Andy Miller Stable Inc. – bested the previous tied mark of 1:53.1 held both by Bank On Me (established when winning an overnight on May 20th this year) and Yo Sheldon, who matched the mark earlier on the Tuesday card when Verlin Yoder delivered him to victory in the first KYSS division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Odds On Chesapeake (Dunn, $2.48) led her peers with the top performance of the three splits for 3-year-old pacing fillies when she romped by seven lengths in a 1:50.1 mile. Morgan

BURKE TRIPLES, GINGRAS SCORES GRAND SLAM

The dynamite team of trainer Ron Burke and driver Yannick Gingras landed a natural hat trick early in the 15-race session of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) action at Oak Grove on Monday (June 23) while Gingras added an additional visit to the winner's circle later in the day to lead all drivers with four wins on the card.

Burke and Gingras' marquee win of the afternoon came in the first of three $40,000 splits for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings when What Nooo Waaay posted the fastest mile by his division with a 1:53.3 effort, which was two-fifths-of-a-second shy of the fastest mile on the whole day. Gingras worked out a pocket trip behind pacesetter Funky Buddha (driven by Todd McCarthy) through fractions of :28.2, :57.2 and 1:26.2 before promptly pulling the pocket with Papi Rick (Andy McCarthy), who broke at the start, rushing on the rim from last. What Nooo Waaay avoided getting locked at the pylons and sparred gamely with Funky Buddha to the finish to grab the victory by a neck while Always Has Been (Scott Zeron) saved ground and chased in third with Papi Rick fading to fourth.

A homebred son of Check Six for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, William Switala, James Martin and Weaver Brussemi LLC, What Nooo Waaay paid $3.26 to win in his debut.

One race earlier, Burke and Gingras found the winner's circle with even-money favorite Ms Prada, who posted the fastest mile of the four KYSS divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies with a 1:53.1 effort. Ms Prada led her competition pillar-to-post, setting a sensible clip of :28.1, :57.1 and 1:25. She spun for home in hand to win by 1¾ lengths over pocket-chaser Belmont (Dexter Dunn) in second while Swoop (Andy McCarthy) saved ground to take third from Best Friends Girl (David Miller), who levelled off from a first-over push and settled for fourth.

Ms Prada, a daughter of Greenshoe, races for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Beasty LLC, Joseph Di Scala, Jr., J & T Silva and Purnel & Libby. She won her fifth race from seven starts this season and her sixth from 19 starts overall, good for $188,983 in earnings, and paid $4.04 to win.

Eternal Blush (Gingras) kicked off the hat trick for team Burke with a 1:57 stroll in the first of two KYSS divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies, returning $3.22 to win as the 3-5 favorite. Gingras collected his fourth win of the day

Patricks Belle (Todd McCarthy) and Jailbird Jog (Anthony MacDonald) tied for top honors among the 2-year-old trotting fillies as they both scored debut victories in 1:56.3. Patricks Belle coasted on the point and waded off a charge from even-money chalk Victorianas Secret (Zeron) to win by 1¼ lengths while Jailbird Jog ripped off cover in a :56.3 back half to soar to a 1¾-length win geared down over pocket-popper Setyoursightshigh (Dunn). P L Spencer (Bob McClure) setting the 1:51.3 Ontario Sires Stakes male sophomore trotting record on Monday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

P L Spencer set the fastest mile by a male sophomore trotter in Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) history, winning the lone $140,000 Leg 2 Gold event on Monday (June 23) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:51.3. The previous record of 1:52 was set by Mister Herbie while winning his OSS Super Final in 2011 at Woodbine Racetrack.

Bob McClure orchestrated the record-setting victory after battling with Ritchie Rich (Todd Ratchford) much of the stretch and eking out a one-length victory. Both trotters won Leg 1 Gold events on May 29 at Woodbine Mohawk Park when the event was split into two $90,000 divisions.

P L Spencer (5-2) got away third as Fast Snap (Chris Christoforou) led the field of nine to the quarter pole in

:27. Ritchie Rich, the 7-5 favorite, made his move to the front from fifth just before the :55.2 half with P L Spencer following closely. By the time the field reached the three-quarters in 1:23, the battle was set. McClure pulled P L Spencer from the pocket and attempted to sail past Ritchie Rich only to be rebuffed until the waning moments of the record mile.

Lmc Wagon Wheel was third. Fast Snap was fourth and Cousin Halifax picked up the final check.

Watch the replay here.

“My colt raced great, but Ritchie Rich, that’s a very nice horse,” McClure said. “They’ve done a really good job with him. Honestly, when that horse removed to the front, I knew we had our work cut out for us. Todd [Ratchford] did everything he could to win the race. But, tonight, my colt really dug deep.”

P L Spencer, a gelded son of Resolver out of P L Indyanaca, was bred by Prince Lee Acres and is owned by his trainer, Steve Bossence of London, ON, along with Richard Thompson, also of London, Derek Reid of Etobicoke, ON and E C S Racing LLC of Rockford, MI. The group purchased P L Spencer for $40,000 at the 2023 London Classic Yearling Sale.

Bossence said the OSS record was, “nice, especially the way he did it – first up. One thing, he’s the smallest one of the bunch [in the race].”

P L Spencer now sports a record of 4-1-0 in seven 2025 starts. He’s earned $147,950 this year and $157,550 lifetime. His career record is now 5-1-0 in 11 starts.

He scratched sick out of the $227,000 Goodtimes final on June 14, but Bossence said P L Spencer trained well last week. The trainer said he was confident P L Spencer was in good shape for the Gold. The mile and how P L Spencer battled proved the trotter was exceptional.

PERFECTLY CHIC TAKES ADVANTAGE OF CHANTILLY'S SCRATCH

Favored Perfectly Chic set a lifetime best of 1:50.4 while winning the $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series Leg 2 event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (June 21) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

It was the first win of 2025 in seven outings for the daughter of Betterthancheddar—Fit N Bad bred by Winbak Farm and purchased by her trainer John Pentland of Dorchester, ON, Steve Mihalic of Oakville, ON and 2729346 Ontario Inc. of Rockwood, ON for $12,000 at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA. It was also Perfectly Chic's first Gold Series victory.

Chantilly, Canada's 2024 Horse of the Year, and the winner of the Leg 1 Gold event on May 24 in 1:49.4, was scratched sick.

Perfectly Chic and Bob McClure led the field of seven to the quarter in :27.1 and then allowed Wickedpace (Jody Jamieson), followed by Millie May Hanover (Doug McNair), to control the front through fractions of :55 and 1:22.4. McClure pulled Perfectly Chic coming out of the turn and powered to a 2½ length victory. Wickedpace was second, Wicked N Single (Jonathan Drury) snuck up to be second. Millie May Hanover and Outtathisworld Deo (Trevor Henry) grabbed the final two checks, respectively.

The win improved Perfectly Chic to 1-1-2 in seven 2025 starts and 3-5-2 in 14 career outings. Her bankroll is now $129,361 this year and $266,166 lifetime.

With Chantilly's scratch, Pentland told Mohawk broadcaster John Rallis he was, "a lot more confident we had a shot to win. [Normally] you kind of concede to concede to Chantilly, but you know, it's a long season too. So, these horses are going to change throughout the year. This is an example right here where she had her turn in the spotlight and made the best of it.

"She had a couple of issues last year that sidelined her mid and late in the season, and she's trained back really well this year. She was just as good tonight as she ever has been."

Mihalic said, "I feel bad for Chantilly, but she'll be back another day. It was a competitive bunch tonight, and it's just an honor to be standing here [in the winner's circle]."

GRASSROOTS RESULTS: Also on the Saturday card at Woodbine Mohawk Park were three $25,000 OSS Grassroots Series divisions for sophomore pacing colts. The winners were:

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Martz Seven steamrolls INSS competition at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Defending Indiana Sire Stakes champion, Martz Seven, steamrolled first-over to pull a mild 4-1 upset in the lone $96,000 split of leg three of Indiana Sire Stakes for sophomore trotting fillies which highlighted the 14-race Tuesday (June 24) card at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Leaving from post 2 in the field of eight, Martz Seven got away third in the early stages, just behind the first turn skirmish between Ponda Fashion (Kyle Wilfong) and 1-2 favorite Better Tak'em (Jordan Ross) to a quarter of :27.2. Better Tak'em cleared on the backstretch, but faced immediate pressure from 29-1 shot Woodside Izz (LeWayne Miller) who the favorite released to the lead at the half in :56.1. Luna turned Martz Seven loose first-over from fourth on the final turn, taking the tiring longshot to task through three-quarters in 1:25.1 with Classical Jane (Trace Tetrack) on her back and Better Tak'em pinned behind the sputtering leader.

Turning for home Martz Seven powered clear with authority, opening up on the field of fillies behind her. Motoring home in :27.3, Martz Seven was a wrapped-up winner by 2¾ lengths over Classical Jane, with Better Tak'em skirting up the cones late to be third in 1:53.

The clocking was a career best for Martz Seven, who is trained by Walter Haynes, Jr. for owners Stephen Stoll and Black and White Stable. Bred by Martz Creek Farm and Roman Stoll, the daughter of Swan For All—La Mirada has won two of four at age 3, and five times overall for her career with a lifetime bankroll of $269,087.

Earlier in the evening, driver Wilfong celebrated his birthday by winning the first four races on the night as part of a five-win night for the driver who sits second in the Hoosier Park driver standings behind Trace Tetrack. Tetrack, Brad Ferguson, Mike Peterson and Marvin Luna each had doubles on the night.

Free online programs can be found nightly on the Hoosier Park website by clicking the 'racing' tab, in addition to free race replays. Replays for Hoosier Park qualifiers can be found on YouTube on the Hoosier Park AV channel.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Front end was place to be at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

In the doubleheader of New York Sires Stakes and Excelsior Series action at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 25), setting the pace was the best way to get to the winner's circle.

The only exception to that strategy came in the $119,700 race for the 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings as Fadeaway Hanover ($5.60) came from behind and nailed BJM's Lil Man by a length in 1:57 over the fast track.

In the 3-year-old races for filly trotters, worth approximately $57,000 each, Inn Of The Stars ($3.90) had no issues in cruising to a three-length victory over Michelin's Titan in 1:58 while in the other division, My Debt Collector ($2.20) continued her impressive streak with a 1¼-length score over KJ Title in 1:57.3, Tyler Buter piloted both the ladies to the winner's circle.

In the lone race for the gentlemen, BJM's Lil Man (Buter) zipped out from post 7 and went out to the early lead, setting the tempo with fractions of :29.1, :57.4 and 1:27.3. BJM's Lil Man tried to stay strong on top, but couldn't stop the final blitz from the pocket sitting Fadeaway Hanover, and had to settle for the second-place check. Seven Layer (Niko Karna) was third.

Co-owned by Benoit Baillargeon, Santo Vena and Nunzio Vena, Fadeaway Hanover (Chapter Seven—Fad Finance) is trained by Sara Baillargeon. It was his fourth decision in 12 starts this season, earning $104,109 this year and $119,826 lifetime.

There was little drama in the damsels' divisions.

Inn Of The Stars grabbed the lead off the gate and threw down splits of :29.1, :58.1 and 1:28.1.

There was no suspense down the lane as Inn Of The Stars ($3.90) enjoyed a 3¼-length advantage turning for home and trotted away to a three-length triumph over Michelin's Titan (Jason Bartlett) while Always A Story (Kevin Cummings) rolled in for third place honors.

Owned by Bay Pond Racing and conditioned by John Butenschoen, it was the first victory in five tries in 2025 for Inn Of The Stars (Chapter Seven—Met's Inn). The win moved her bankroll to $45,780 on the year and to $149,525 lifetime.

My Debt Collector ($2.20) made it five wins in eight starts in 2025 with a solid 1¼ length victory over KJ Title in 1:57.3.

Darting out to fractions of :29.3, :58.4, and 1:28.2, My Debt Collector enjoyed a smooth journey down the stretch and easily held off KJ Title (Cummings) with Barn Angel (Drew Monti) finishing in third.

Co-owned by David McDuffee, Melvin Hartman and Little E LLC, My Debt Collector (Chapter Seven—Magic Presto) is trained by R. Nifty Norman. The win vaulted her 2025 earnings to $172,137 and to $415,883 in her career.

The $20,000 Excelsior Stakes for trotters of both sexes, all were won in gate-to-wire fashion.

The 3-year-old colts and geldings had two divisions. Banksy Monkey (Jeff Gregory) took the first leg with a 2¾ length victory in 1:57.2 and returned $6.20. Doctor Strong (John Stark, Jr.) took the other event with a 2:01 clocking and returned $6.20.

In the 3-year-old trot for the ladies, Sister Lo (Monti) notched a $19 score in 1:59.2.

Racing will resume this afternoon (June 27) at 2:30 p.m. with a 14-race program slated.

FRESHMAN FILLY TROTTERS FACE THE HEAT AT MONTICELLO

On the hottest day of the season, three sets of 2-year-old trotting fillies competed for over $126,000 in purses with two dashes of New York Sire Stakes and a division of the $20,000 Excelsior Stakes.

The first event of $53,500 Sire Stakes saw My Philomene (Jason Bartlett) starting from post position 6, let the early front action settle down before giving up the 2-hole to take the lead past the first quarter in :30.2. By the half in 1:01.3, My Philomene opened a three-length gap while Nezuko Kamado S patiently sat fourth for most of the mile. Entering the third turn, My Philomene was on top now by four-lengths. Seven-lengths off the lead, Brett Beckwith steered Nezuko Kamado S to the outside and closed the gap at the next panel in 1:32.4. Turning for home, My Philomene had a two-length lead. Nezuko Kamado S threw down a last quarter of :28.1 but it wasn't enough as My Philomene prevailed by a neck in 2:01 over Nezuko Kamado S with Modesty Blasie (Ake Svanstedt) finishing third. My Philomene (Chapter Seven—Irish Melody Fr) picked up her first lifetime win in the process for trainer Jared Bako.

The second heat of Sire Stakes was another six horse $53,500 dash with the betting public making Overalls (Devious Man—Overjoyed) from the rail the 3-2 favorite. She left enough to protect her position to take the pack through splits of :29.4, and 1:01.2. Down the backside the tempo quickened as Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) mounted a challenge to the leader at 1:31.2. Shortly after Seven Winds made a break in the paddock turn leaving Overalls alone on the front end and well within herself with driver Jordan Stratton in 2:01.3. Seven Winds (Ake Svanstedt) finished second followed by Grace In Heaven (Beckwith). Overalls, the smooth gaited son of Devious Man is trained by Stratton.

Also on the card was a $20,000 Excelsior event with a full field of nine with a George Ducharme entry of Elqueen and Makeittohebell. Despite the bulky field the fillies were well behaved. Lucky Ellie (Colin Kelly) was the first to the lead, briefly before making a break. Giving the lead to Elqueen (Bartlett) who went wire-to-wire in 2:02.4, turning back Makeittohebell (Beckwith) and My Girl Charlie (Gregory). The winner and second-place finisher were trained by Ducharme.

The spotlight will be on The Big M Saturday on FOX

The Meadowlands will stand alone this Saturday (June 28) night on a three-hour live presentation that will be brought to a national television audience.

Harness racing fans will be treated to four stakes events that night as The Big M will share the coast-to-coast spotlight with no other track. The New York Racing Association (NYRA) will feature three hours of Meadowlands coverage as part of its "America's Day at the Races" broadcasts on FOX Sports.

The show can be seen on FOX Sports 2 (FS2) beginning at 8 p.m. Chris Griffin and Paul Verderosa will anchor the program while Big M TV's Jessica Otten and vice president/general manager of racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park Gabe Prewitt will provide commentary and analysis.

"It's exciting for all of us at The Meadowlands to present such a big card to a national TV audience as the stakes season continues to roll toward the [July 12] Meadowlands Pace and [Aug. 2] Hambletonian," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "The TV crews at NYRA and FOX are first rate, and getting to show our product – especially when we will be the only track featured on the telecast – to an audience that normally sees thoroughbred racing on the FOX shows helps the harness industry widen the appeal of our sport."

The four events that will be featured on the show are the $114,500 Six Pack (open mare trot), $173,000 Dave Brower Memorial (open pace, split into two divisions), $164,000 Crawford Farms (open trot) and $116,500 Perfect Sting (open mare pace).

Here is the schedule for the remaining FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on – Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 – will be determined:

CIRCLE THE DATES: The two biggest dates on the calendar at The Meadowlands feature two of the biggest stakes events the game offers.

In just two weeks, on Saturday (July 12), the $700,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace will take center stage on a power-packed card that gets underway at 6:20 p.m.

Two weeks after that, "America's Trotting Classic" will be in the spotlight celebrating an historic anniversary.

On Aug. 2, the 100th edition of the $1-million Hambletonian will highlight the strongest program of the year in the sport. The only card during the season that takes place during the day, post time on Hambletonian Day is noon.

WHAT'S GOING ON? Check out the live "Racing from The Meadowlands" pregame show every Friday and Saturday when track announcer Ken Warkentin opens up the mic with a scene set and program changes at 5:45 p.m.

At that point, Warkentin will then throw to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set. Tonight, The Big M's Dave Little and Jessica Otten will provide news, notes, selections and a look at the night's featured races, while on Saturday, Derick Giwner, the editor at DRF Harness, will sit alongside Little as Otten shifts over to the FOX telecast.

John Rallis, who divides his on-camera time between The Big M and Woodbine Mohawk Park when not serving as an editor and columnist at TROT Magazine, will be handling interviews from the back paddock as well as providing commentary and selections on the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed.

Roy pilots both Graduate winners at Big M

Louis-Philippe Roy is always among the leading drivers at his home track of Woodbine Mohawk Park, and the 35-year-old pilot showed he can win races at The Meadowlands as well Saturday night (June 21), taking both Graduate Series leg three dashes for 4-year-olds.

Roy scored with Private Access in the division for trotters and with Nijinsky in the pace. Both events went for $75,000. The $250,000 (est.) Graduate Series finals take place on Saturday (July 5) on Meadowlands Pace eliminations night.

"He's almost a different animal," said Roy after Private Access earned a hard-fought 1:50.2 victory, lowering his previous lifetime best by one-and-four-fifth seconds. "He's always showed a lot of talent but now he's so great and feeling confident."

After a 3-year-old season that saw him win just one of 14 starts, the son of Muscle Hill—Open Access is perfect in three 2025 outings, all in the Graduate Series.

Private Access was reserved early, sitting fifth to the quarter before getting into a live flow. When 5-2 favorite Gruesome Twosome couldn't quite clear leader Sir Pinocchio, Roy moved Private Access three wide to go for the front and cleared the lead before the five-eighths.

"I would have gone first-up if I didn't get there," said Roy. "I had to use mine hard."

Out of the far turn, Sir Pinocchio was back for more after three-quarters was reached in 1:23, and after Private Access put that foe away, Roy had more than enough horsepower left to hold off a late explosive close from second-place finisher Elista Hanover, who missed by a half-length. Date Night Hanover was third.

"He proved he's the greatest at this moment," said Roy of Private Access, who's now six-for-25 lifetime. "Congrats to [winning trainer] Luc [Blais] and his team."

Private Access returned $7.40 to win as the 27-10 second choice while lifting his career earnings to $468,106 for owners Determination.

"I feel like mine raced his heart out," said Roy. "I'm just excited to be sitting behind Private Access at the moment given how sharp he is."

But Roy wasn't done yet.

In an absolute thriller that sets up what figures to be a phenomenal final, Nijinsky held off Captain Albano by the smallest of margins to take the pace in 1:48.4.

Roy recalled Nijinsky's second-place finish from a week ago at the hands of Brue Hanover in the Mohawk Gold Cup.

"I was following Brue Hanover most of the time down the stretch but Yannick [Gingras, driving Brue Hanover] kept the rail closed," Roy said. "This week, we changed it up a little bit."

Captain Albano used explosive early pace from post 10 in the bulky 12-horse field to grab the top at the quarter in :26.4. Roy and Nijinsky weren't going to settle for the pocket this time around, and moved to the top at the half in :55.

Sabonis, a 27-1 outsider, was now on the go first-over and gained steadily on the leader, a grind he continued all the way to the finish. Through the stretch, Nijinsky had to deal with not only Sabonis, but also Captain Albano, who found a small seam late and closed with a rush to miss by a nose. Sabonis was just a neck back in third.

"My horse is versatile," said Roy. "He can mix it up a little bit on the front. I took a shot with him on the front. I was really surprised with Dexter's [Dunn] horse [Sabonis]. He was gaining on me and I was worried. Captain Albano had the 10-hole and raced great. It's going to be a great final."

Nijinsky, the 2024 North America Cup winner who is trained by Anthony Beaton, upped his lifetime stats to 14 wins from 31 starts, good for earnings of $1,374,745 for owners West Winds Stable, J. Fielding, M. Dumain and Winbak Farm. He paid $3 as the 1-2 favorite.

SEVENTH HEAVEN: Smooth Dream (a gelding by Cattlewash—Dreamlands Latte) moved to the lead before the half and held sway to the wire easily to take the $48,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund final for 3-year-old colts and geldings on the pace in 1:49.3 by 1½ lengths over Twin Fury.

The Noel Daley trainee, who was driven by Todd McCarthy, was limited to three starts during 2024 due to an ankle injury, but has come back this year with one flawless performance after another, as his 2025 numbers now read seven starts (all at The Meadowlands), seven wins, and earnings of $200,900. He returned $2.20 as the 1-9 public choice.

"He's a nice little colt," said McCarthy. "He's come a long way this year."

A LITTLE MORE: Meadowlands Pace hopeful Fallout (Captaintreacherous—Aria Hanover) got into the win column for the first time in four 2025 starts with a 1:49.1 score over a fast-closing Lou Grant, who was seeking his fourth straight score. Fallout was driven by Tim Tetrick and is trained by Tony Alagna. He paid $4 as the even-money second choice. Lou Grant was the 3-5 public choice in the $17,500 overnight pace... Jason Bartlett led the drivers with three wins on the program... Shaun Vallee's two victories topped the trainer colony... All-source handle on the 14-race card totaled $2,923,580.

DSBF trotters complete second leg

A quartet of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) $20,000 second leg divisions for trotters headlined the Wednesday (June 25) program on a day where temperatures reached near record highs. Jane Dunavant's Kat's Fancy ($2.80, Cody Polisen) impressively won the first split in 1:57.3 over Take It Easy and Peggy's Girl. Trained by Carlo Polisen, it was the third straight victory for the daughter of Dusty Winner. Polisen had a driving triple.

The second filly division went to Nanticoke Racing and Delbert Cain's Marino Bluestone ($3, Jim Morand), who was a 2:01.4 winner over Holly Lou and Song Master.

Trained by Les Givens, it was the third career win for the Anders Bluestone filly. The Givens barn had four wins one night earlier.

In the first division for male trotters, Howard Kauffman and Josh Kaufmann's Bucky Highway ($11.80, Ross Wolfenden) utilized a stretch surge to notch the win in 2:00.3 over I'm Not George and Legend Of Rock. The Iron Mine Bucky gelding notched his third career win.

Stacy Johnson-Stafford's Yale ($4, Art Stafford, Jr.) prevailed in 2:00.4 over Delaware Xactly and Wolfpack Cheddar. Trained by Stafford, Jr., it was the second career win for the EL Platinum gelding. Stafford, Jr. had four wins on the card.

LES GIVENS TRAINEES DOMINATE TUESDAY HARRINGTON CARD:

A pair of Les Givens-trainees completed a sweep of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund $20,000 elimination legs Tuesday (June 24) at Harrington Raceway, as a trio of divisions were contested on a muggy evening.

Nanticoke Racing, Arthur Feeney and Chad Tate's Bella Artiste ($2.10, Jim Morand) was an easy winner in the first division, with a 1:55.3 win over Mimosa On The Key and Mornin Merle. The Badlands Hanover filly achieved her 11th career win for trainer Givens, who had four wins on the card.

The second division saw Jane Dunavant's Proper Lady ($2.10, Cody Polisen) notch her fourth career win for trainer Carlo Polisen in 1:55.3 over Sweetpea Pat and One Hot Shark. The Proper Respect filly finished second in her round one elimination and secured her berth in the $110,000 final on July 17.

Another Givens' trainee took the final division, as Donna Messick's Little Miss Peyton ($2.10, Corey Callahan) was a 1:55 winner, joining her stablemate in completing a sweep of her two elimination legs. The Papa Ray filly was a comfortable winner on the front end over Valentina Station and Tilted Crown. It was her 11th career win.

PRIMO MASCHIO, WYATT EARP WIN DSBF DIVISIONS: Round 2 of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund action for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings highlighted the 12-race card Monday (June 23) at Harrington Raceway.

Forrest Bartlett's Primo Maschio was a 1:53 winner in the first DSBF split as the heavy favorite over Shore Not Beach and Big Hunk A Money. The Badlands Hanover gelding cruised to an open length win for trainer Walter Callahan, his 14th in 17 career starts.

Conor Brewer's Wyatt Earp ($37.80, Allan Davis) sprung an upset in the second split, using a pocket trip to emerge with a razor thin margin at the wire over pacesetter Lew Not Lou. Our Perfect Aim was third. The Classic Card Shark gelding recorded his second career win for trainer Jason Skinner.

The top eight point earners from the two rounds of DSBF eliminations will compete in a $110,000 final on July 17.

Dr. Malinowski's retirement party at The Meadowlands

After serving in numerous roles during her time at Rutgers University, Dr. Karyn Malinowski will retire on July 1, 2025 having dedicated over 47 years of her life to serving Rutgers, New Jersey, and an international equine community. Starting her tenure at Rutgers in 1978 as the assistant extension specialist in horse management, she has worn many "racing colors" (or silks) over the years. But perhaps the most important one is founding director of the Equine Science Center at Rutgers University.

To honor her lifelong commitment to "Better Horse Care through Research & Education;" the Rutgers University Equine Science Center, and the Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey, are cohosting a retirement celebration at one of her favorite places in the world, The Meadowlands.

While Dr. Malinowski has always been interested in all things equine, having the opportunity to drive the famous Niatross on his farewell tour became an instant lifechanging moment. Dr. Malinowski had been bitten by the racing bug, and spent several summers learning how to drive harness horses under the tutelage of Andy Toscano and the staff at BJ Farm in Jamesport, NY.

In 2001, Dr. Malinowski acquired her first standardbred racehorse, Could Be Magic, who carried Malinowski to victory in her amateur debut on April 12, 2003 at Freehold Raceway. While she had significant success with "Magic" in the American Harness Drivers Club races, it wasn't until she began racing one of her next horses, Hugme Christi, that she won the AHDC final at The Meadowlands on June 2, 2005 in club record time of 1:55.4; receiving the second fastest time overall for a female driver at The Meadowlands.

This special memory has been one that has persisted over the years as a defining moment for her love of horses, and the raw power that these equine athletes possess.

So, come and share in Dr. Malinowski's love of horses on Saturday (July 12) at The Meadowlands to celebrate her retirement, and enjoy a night of some of the best standardbred racing during the Meadowlands Pace.

Tickets for the event are $100 and include a dinner buffet and entrance to The Meadowlands' Skybox Suites. Sponsorships are also available starting at $500, and include tickets to the events and other perks. To register for the event, or to learn more, please visit: go.rutgers.edu/kmretirement.

Little Leroy upsets in Graduate Gold on high powered Red Shores Saturday

Little Leroy delivered the shock of the night in Saturday's (June 21) $7,600 PEI Colt Stakes Graduate Gold Series during possibly the fastest race card in the history of Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Sent off at 17-1 in the lone $7,600 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Gold division, presented by Kay's Wholesale, the 4-year-old son of Source Of Pride rallied up the passing lane to collar pacesetter Island Beach Boy (driven by Jason Hughes) and win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:52.2 for driver Ken Murphy and trainer Joe Baxter. Little Leroy returned $36.60 for the win ticket for owners Baxter, Marion Stewart, Brian Ramsay and BMD Memorial Stable. Brookdale Johnny (Marc Campbell) completed the $280.70 triactor.

Save America ($4.70) was incredible again in preferred 1 action as the Jamie Smith trainee led all the way to win in 1:50.4 in the $5,500 class for driver Murphy and owner Thestable.ca for the pacer's second straight P.E.I. win. Bee Two Bee (Hughes) sat second and finished there with Twin B Tuffenuff (Gilles Barrieau) third.

Murphy had a driving triple on the program that saw the last 13 races all go in 1:55.4 or faster.

The $5,200 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Grassroots divisions had Howmac Exclusive ($7.70) convert a pocket trip into a 1:55.3 score for driver Corey MacPherson and trainer Leith Waite, who co-owns with Jim Gorman and Les Waite.

The other division had Jack Boswall ($2.40) and driver Marc Campbell go all the way in 1:53.4 for trainer and co-owner Keith MacDonell and co-owners Mark MacDonell and Blenise Young.

High Voltage Deo ($2.80) turned in a head turner in race 9 winning in 1:52 flat for trainer Brendan Curran as the 5-year-old Sweet Lou preps for the July 13 Governor's Plate eliminations at Red Shores Summerside. Corey MacPherson was in the seat for the score.
