At 82, Larry King rules the Indiana fair circuit

can't quit training horses.*

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

Owner and trainer Larry King will turn 83 next month, and while he admits he should be slowing down, the pull from harness racing is too much to ignore. Last season King was named the top conditioner on the Indiana fair circuit, and this year he is again off to a quick start, already securing 21 wins during the circuit's first four rounds.

"I've got a big operation going and the old man is about ready to say this is enough, but I can't give it up," he said. "We had a pretty good week."

As the circuit moved to southern Indiana June 26 and 27, six of King's pupils reached the winner's circle over two days of racing. Freshman pacing colt Vel See You Later and driver Clint Coy led Thursday's (June 26) winners at the Harrison County Fairgrounds in Corydon, keeping his record unblemished this season.

Vel See You Later has adapted to fair racing quickly, notching four wins in as many starts. From the first crop of Somebeachsomewhere son Highalator, the gelding is the first foal out of the speedy White Metro. Owned by King Racing

A 2025 LEADING MONEY-WINNING SIRE

A Smart Bet

“[Winning the 2024 Indiana fairs earnings title] means a lot to me personally. I mean I’ve been in this business for 64 years. It’s the best year I ever had, let’s put it that way.”

~ Larry King

Stable and Therl Hensley, Vel See You Later captured his latest win in gate-to-wire fashion, in front by nearly three lengths at the line.

“Well, he’s developed really well,” King said. “When we started out, I would have called him maybe just a little slow, but after a few months, he really picked up and took off and matured. He just matured really quick. A lot of them start and they don’t mature, but he matured really quick and really became a racehorse.”

Vel See You Later’s other wins came in two appearances at Converse – winning by a length and a half and a length and a quarter – before moving to Harrah’s Hoosier Park on June 19 and romping by nearly six lengths in 1:56.

Multiple Highalator-sired freshmen have won in the early rounds of Indiana fair racing, and King likes what he sees in the sire’s offspring.

“I really like most of his horses,” he said. “They have pretty good confirmation and they all seem to get better. The more starts you give them the better they get. I have several Highalators and I’ve got one that hasn’t won a race yet, but he’s never been out of the money and he gets better every week.”

Another pacer that has scored multiple wins for the trainer is 3-year-old Vel Drinks On Tina. A winner in four of five attempts at 2, the Let’s Drink On It–Pansference lass has already collected three victories at the fairs, and has earned wins in half of her eight seasonal starts. She raced fourth in the most recent effort at Corydon.

“She’s coming into herself,” King said. “I think she’s going to be a fantastic mare before it’s over with, but time will tell for sure. But, you know, she’s just done everything right. She’s easy to get along with and that makes a big difference when you’re running a stable the size I’m running.”

Last season, King Stable sent out 57 winners on the fair circuit. Not only did it lead all conditioners at the fairs, but it helped propel the Willshire, OH-based horseman to his most successful campaign. All told, King sent out 65 winners in 2024, improving his career mark by 10. With earnings of $315,391 over 416 starters, he was on par or better than the 2023 season, when 475 starters raked in $364,980.

“It means a lot to me personally,” he said of earnings the training title. “I mean I’ve been in this business for 64 years. It’s the best year I ever had, let’s put it that way.”

King currently has 40 horses in training, relying on a team of six to train and race. He credits the team with the stable’s success, as he barn has sent out 50 or more winners in a season in three of the last four years. Through the first four rounds of fair racing, King has sent out 12 different winners, seven of which have won more than once.

“We’re on a family farm and it keeps us busy,” King said. “We have our own track and it’s not quite a half-mile track. So, we go to Portland, IN and Celina, OH to train them a lot of times to get them on a half-mile track. But it’s working out for us and you know you got to have help, and without help with the stable we have, you’re in trouble. We’ve got some good boys that work for me and they do a fantastic job. It takes a lot of help and it takes good help, and I got it.”

King, who was born in the Hoosier State, was introduced to racehorses by a neighbor. That sparked an interest that has burned for more than six decades and is hard to extinguish.

“Our neighbor let me jog his horses,” King said. “I was like 13 or 14 years old. I was jogging his horses up and down the mud road. And I just liked it and I’ve had horses ever since. Now I have more than I need, but I just can’t give it up.”

With pupils like Vel See You Later and Vel Drinks On Tina, it is easy to see how slowing down would be difficult. The stable’s performance thus far has King primed for a successful title defense.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Bob Boni knows how to pick 'em, Part 2

by Murray Brown

Prior to his Hall of Fame induction next weekend in Goshen, NY, Bob Boni shared his thoughts on a few influential horses, and things he's enjoyed in his career.

Part 1 is here.

Nihilator ($3,225,653) Foal of 1982 (Niatross—Margie's Melody—Bret Hanover)

Pershing Square ($812,277) Foal of 1982 (Niatross—Treasure Blue Chip—Meadow Skipper)

"The first yearling crop by Niatross were foaled in 1982. I had researched them. There were approximately 75 colts and 75 fillies among them. I remember the situation where the plan to buy a group of what I thought were to be his best ones came to me. I was walking on First Avenue on my way to Bloomingdales on what was a dreary Saturday morning. It was as though I was thunderstruck. I went to a pay phone — no cell phones back then — and immediately called Lou Guida. Lou loved the idea. 'You buy the horses and I'll come up with the money. We'll decide after they've been bought whether we sell them or put them into training.' We ended up buying seven privately, and an eighth at auction. To say that the venture was successful would be an understatement. The two best ones were Nihilator and Pershing Square, both of which went to the Haughton Stable. I can't say that I knew that Nihilator was to become a generational horse, but based on what I regularly saw of him and the way Billy spoke, I felt pretty positive about his chances.

"You asked me why didn't he succeed in the stud. I'm not smart enough to know that, but I suspect that it may have something to do with his gait and the fact that he hit the ground so hard. He was so great that he overcame those deficiencies. As is sometimes the case, his foals didn't. There have been other great horses with gait issues who had those transmitted negatively in the stud. Two that come to mind are Prakas and Matts Scooter."

Caressable ($1,006,380) Foal of 1983 (Niatross—Tarport Karen—Thorpe Hanover)

"She came from the second crop by Niatross and was destined to become his most accomplished filly. One very interesting story with her. She was regularly driven by Bill O'Donnell. The Breeders Crown for fillies was to be raced at Yonkers Raceway that year. O'Donnell was racing earlier at Garden State Park. The schedule called for us to helicopter over to Yonkers after Billy's early drives were done there. We had plenty of time to get there. Would you believe? The helicopter pilot got lost trying to find Yonkers and we didn't make it in time. Herve Filion subbed for Billy and he won. It was, remarkably, the only time in all the years that I've been in the business that Herve drove one for me. It was also the richest race that Herve won of all the $82,336 that Herve officially drove in."

* There were many more. That number only includes the time since those records were kept.

Camtastic ($2,117,619) Foal of 1985 (Cam Fella—Lushkara—Albatross)

"He was another limited partnership horse. Whereas Nihilator's partnership, the Wall Street Stable, was composed of 10 owners with equal equity, that of Camtastic was many owners with very small individual ownership. Furthermore, the group wasn't completed until later in the year. This resulted in his not being able to be put into training until December. That didn't hold him back though. He still made his baby race debut on May 29. This coming from Bob Bencal's stable, one known for being quite conservative. Of note about Camtastic. Bob Bencal would say that of all the horses he ever trained he never had one who enjoyed training more than this colt. He just loved working and being on the track. There are some who say, when shopping for yearlings, they want the leader of the pack. The leader of the herd will also be the leader on the racetrack, so they say. Certainly not in Camtastic's case. He was what I would call a very timid colt. He had a buddy who was also timid. Those two would hang out together, away from the rest of the herd in their field of yearling colts. I suspect mostly because the other colts would bully them.

"He was an exceptional 2-year-old, becoming the 2-Year-Old Pacer of 1987. He had to be scratched from the Woodrow Wilson because he came up sick before the race. His ownership group, their friends and relatives were all planning to come to the race. I had to cancel 172 dinner reservations. After he was scratched, Bencal asked me what he would need to do to become 2-Year-Old Pacer of the Year. I responded that he would have to go undefeated for the rest of the season. He proceeded to do just that.

"You again, asked why he failed in the stud. I had an answer for Nihilator. Here I have none. He was as perfect a racehorse as there ever was. If he might have been lacking in any area, I have no idea what that might have been. I suppose it goes back to the biblical verse, when speaking of great stallions – 'Many are called, but few are chosen.'

Always B Miki ($2,715,368) Foal of 2011 (Always A Virgin—Artstopper—Artsplace)

"I remember first seeing him baby race at The Meadowlands. I was sitting with Mitchel Skolnick and Mike Klau. He was more than impressive. He had been bred and raised by Joe Hurley's Roll The Dice Stable. Joe had given him to the late Richard Ringler to break and get going. I believe he had trained in 2:02 and Hurley had sent him to Joe Holloway to race. We had some interest in him because we had invested in his sire Always A Virgin who also had the same Hurley-Holloway connection. I suggested to Mitchel that maybe he ought to express some interest in the colt to Hurley and figuratively get his oar in the water. Mitchel did the same. By his third race he kept getting more impressive. It was time to talk serious. Mitchel struck a deal with Hurley.

“In retrospect, it was a tremendous bargain. Hurley raised his initial price by $300 after his third start. You might ask where the extra $300 came from. You would have to ask Hurley about that. ‘Miki’ began making breaks and Holloway sent him to Roger Welch in Indiana where he was eligible in the Indiana program. I cannot stress how great a job Roger did with the colt. He not only made a solid racehorse out of him, but he also became the dominant colt in Indiana. At 3, he was back with Holloway and doing extremely well. He appeared to be the top 3-year-old in the country. Then while warming up for the Breeders Crown for which he was favored, he broke a bone. Because of where he was to be in his recuperation, Holloway and Mitchel had a difference of opinion which resulted in their partnership becoming dissolved. Ultimately Mitchel’s group bought out Marty Granoff, who had in the interim come into the ownership group, at a very significant price for a horse who had just broken a bone. The horse was given to Jimmy Takter. Takter loved him and wanted to buy a small interest, 10 per cent. Mitchel said okay, but the price would have to be based on the same number as he and his partners had paid. Takter said okay. A few days later Always B Miki broke his other hind pastern. Takter said he had made a deal and was still in for his purchase. Three months later Always B Miki was back racing and winning. The rest is history. Everybody who has had anything to do with him has done exceptionally well. We call him the gift that keeps giving.”

It seems, we’ve only scratched the surface. You’ve had an incredible career. Is there anything you’ve done more than anything else that has given you the greatest satisfaction?

“The simple answer would be all of it. Believe it or not, I even enjoyed unloading hay and straw and doing stalls. When I was at Pine Hollow and the stud man took a Sunday off and I was asked to sub for him I felt like I was being asked to pinch hit for Mickey Mantle. I suppose that if it came down to the most enjoyable, it would be the racing, specifically the two years with Nihilator. Racing is a lot more fun than breeding. Something I’ve said only half-jokingly, if you enjoy racing and want to torture yourself, get into breeding.

“If you were asking the achievement of which I was most proud, it would be the hand I played in 2018, getting the initial five-year appropriation for harness racing in New Jersey, in no small part using my friendship with George Norcross in achieving it. It was a coordinated effort, shared with only Kathy Parker and John Campbell, with most done behind the scenes.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Favorites Wise Guy and Kobra Brick prove strongest in E3 finals

by Thomas Hedlund

Eskilstuna racetrack in Sweden played host to the 2,140 meter E3 finals for 3-year-olds on Saturday (June 28) afternoon and world record trotter Wise Guy (Face Time Bourbon) was the favorite to win the $300,000 E3 division for colts and geldings.

But Wise Guy didn't get anything for free in the race. The horse's trainer/driver Per Nordström had to settle in first over as leader Nightlife In and Carl Johan Jepson clearly wanted to race in front. And the race developed into an attractive duel between the two horses on the front. Nightlife In fought well on the inside, Wise Guy did the same on the outside and when the wire got closer, Nordström's trotter stretched his neck and put his nose first in a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

"Today he had to use his best fighting spirit and he showed that the world record performance at Solvalla not was a one-off event," said Nordström after the prestigious victory. "Carl Johan wanted to drive in front and it was just [up to me] to settle in position first over. In that position Wise Guy can run and save energy and I know how strong he is. The leader Nightlife In did a great race and challenged us towards the wire. A great fight, but my horse was the bravest today."

Nightlife In was second and Hiram finished well in third.

The fillies battled for the same purse, over the same distance and a favorite proved best even in this division as well.

Petri Salmela's Kobra Brick (Readly Express), driven by Mika Forss, became the obvious favorite after the eliminations, especially after driver Forss' words after the comfortable win two weeks ago. Forss said that Kobra Brick could very well be the best horse he's ever driven and the guy has been around in the business for many years now.

But in a final, the best horses in the crop gather, but as it turned out, Kobra Brick was in her own league with Forss overtaking the lead after 500 meters. Kobra Brick could keep the pace up on the backstretch, making it hard for the three-wide chasers and the stakes record (1:55.4) win was taken in unused style.

Italian bred Dimitri Ferm (Nad al Sheba) has been around in the grand circuit circus pretty much since he was 3 years old when he claimed the $1,000,000 Italian Derby. Now, as a 6-year-old, he's back in top shape and on Friday (June 27) night he stormed to an outstanding win in the Group 1 $165,000 Gran Premio Freccia d'Europa in Naples.

Mauro Baroncini trains Dimitri Ferm, while Marco Stefani sat in the bike behind the 6-year-old and the duo found a third inside trip while Click Bait lead the field in front.

Racing room appeared halfway into the race and after a perfect three-wide cover trip throughout the last turn, Dimitri Ferm flew in the stretch and reached the finish line in 1:53.3. This was his first win for the year, but probably not the last.

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Mark MacDonell is successfully growing into his famous last name

by Matthew Lomon

If Mark MacDonell had a dollar for every time somebody asked if he was related to Hall of Fame reinsman Paul MacDonell, he'd probably be living on some beach somewhere without a care in the world.

However, it's a question the native of Port Hood, NS never gets tired of answering.

"It's an honor when people ask me," Mark said. "Paul's father, Blaise, and my grandfather, Donald Alex, are brothers. That makes us cousins."

Mark, now a driver himself, recalls countless days as a youngster, back home with his father Lewis, watching Paul excel in the race bike.

"My dad and I rarely missed any of Paul's races," Mark said. "Growing up in rural Nova Scotia – in the winter months or any other time of year – you'd throw the races on. And with Paul being the Hall of Famer he is, you always had somebody to cheer for in every race."

While following in his family's formidable footsteps was a "no-brainer" for Mark – a fourth-generation horseperson on the MacDonell side and third on his mother's side (Walsh) – the grandson of famed Maritimes horseman Doug Walsh made sure to cover his bases first.

"I always wanted to do this for a living, but I'm also an electrician by trade," Mark said. "I was up here [in Ontario] for just shy of two years and then I moved back home and went to Nova Scotia Community College – about 60 kilometers from my home. I did that just to have a backup plan."

After graduating, Mark started a full-time position at Hansen Electric in Prince Edward Island, but work began interfering with his time at the barn, and something needed to change.

“To be honest, [my first driving win] was very surreal. Crossing the wire and pulling up, you couldn’t smack the smile off me. I’ve watched thousands of races and been at the track my whole life, but watching it this time, I felt something I never had before. It felt new but it wasn’t at the same time. It was a weird combination, but it was surreal.”

~ Mark MacDonell

So, in 2022, he ventured back to Ontario to pursue a career in standardbred racing, picking up a wealth of invaluable lessons along the way.

One of those teachings – shoeing – Mark grasped during his time working for the Cullen family, which he did for a little over four years.

“I remember a horse when I worked for the Cullens in 2019-20 called Grits N Gravy, who I ended up buying,” Mark said. “He needed to be shod, and I asked Travis [Cullen] to shoe him. He said no, but he, his dad Ron [Cullen] and Ed [Hensley] all were there helping me while I did the work myself.”

Shoeing his own has become commonplace for Mark, who remains forever grateful for the Cullens, and Travis in particular, for helping him sharpen his game on and off the track.

“I can’t thank the Cullen family enough,” Mark said. “Travis taught me a lot of lessons that didn’t always have to do with horses but life in general. He’d be one of my biggest idols and mentors.”

Cullen’s expertise was especially evident after Mark acquired a brown pacer by the name of Dapper Fella, a horse Mark describes as his “stepping stone.”

At the time of purchase, early 2024, Mark had only been driving sparingly with a modest maiden filly.

However, once he took hold of Dapper Fella and “really started to drive,” it only made sense to consult the man with more than 2,700 driving wins and $24 million, and counting, on his résumé.

“Travis always told me this is a good horse for me to learn how to drive because he was a trip horse,” Mark said. “He told me, ‘Anybody can put a horse on the front and go down the road, but it takes skill and knowledge to be able to work a trip out.’”

On Feb. 25, 2024, at Flamboro Downs, the student became the master.

Mark, making just his 18th career start, turned the tables on Cullen and even-money choice Excavator, pulling away with Dapper Fella for his first career driving win.

Some 16 months later, the poetic 6½-length triumph still doesn’t feel real.

“To be honest, it was very surreal,” said Mark. “Crossing the wire and pulling up, you couldn’t smack the smile off me.

“I’ve watched thousands of races and been at the track my whole life, but watching it this time, I felt something I never had before. It felt new but it wasn’t at the same time. It was a weird combination, but it was surreal.”

~ Mark MacDonell

Returning to the paddock and being doused with water by his fellow drivers after the race was another bucket list moment.

“That was cool,” Mark said. “Luckily, none of the boys filled up any of their own water. The water they found was pretty warm.”

In the months that followed, the devoted driver continued to expand his repertoire as a versatile horseman, pouring a significant amount of time and energy into the training side of the discipline.

“Training is my favorite part,” he said. “I like getting up in the morning, turning them out, and sitting down for a couple of minutes to soak it all in.

“I really enjoy training and driving my own because you know what you have when you go out there; you have a better idea of what to expect.”

Mark’s path, whether piloting his own or catch driving, has taken him all over Ontario.

This year alone, he has competed at Flamboro, The Raceway at Western Fair District, Hiawatha Horse Park, Grand River Raceway, and Dresden Raceway.

Mark’s time at Dresden has been uniquely special, as on June 1, he contested the Little Saratoga Pacing Series (formerly known as the Mark Austin Memorial Pacing Series).

Though it was his first time driving in an elimination of a final, for the 24-year-old, it felt like home.

"It was great; the atmosphere was awesome," Mark said. "It reminded me a lot of racing at home because the crowd was there for the horses. They weren't there to bet – of course, they were still betting – but it didn't draw them to the races. The backside was all tailgates and umbrellas; they made it very exciting.

"It's a hike from Guelph, where I'm based now, but it's very much worth it for me. I got a lot of serenity out of it."

After finishing fifth in the first leg of the series with Our Aurora, Mark finished as runner-up with the 3-year-old filly to Cullen in leg two on June 8 before landing in fourth in the final on June 5.

Today, Mark's career continues to progress at what sometimes can feel like a rapid pace.

Finding time to slow things down and live in the moment hasn't always been easy, but it's something he's learning to embrace.

"I was told I needed to do that more and that's what I've been trying to do – make the most of every opportunity and not take anything for granted," Mark said.

Opportunities to learn from the sport's finest, including his cousin Paul, feel endless at Classy Lane, where he currently stables.

"I have Hall of Famers all around me," Mark said. "It's so cool to jog, look around and see Paul, Chris Christoforou, Roger Mayotte, Dave Menary, Anthony Beaton, the list goes on.

"I might ask too many questions, but it's all for educational purposes. In this industry there's so much for you to learn every day. Everyone has their own craft."

Living out his dream every day isn't something that's lost on the humble horseman from out East.

He hasn't forgotten those whose support drove him to pursue a career in racing, just as he remains eternally thankful to the folks whose selflessness has allowed him to carve a path of his own.

"If it wasn't for my parents always having one or two horses with a true love for the game, my life might be a lot different," Mark said. "They are huge supporters of me and a lot of my immediate family rarely misses a race – I can't thank them enough. Also, all the boys from the Irish Road [Horseman's Club] growing up were like having 10 close uncles.

"I can't thank enough people for all they've done for me along the way. Everybody back home and everyone here with me now, I can't put into words what it all means to me. I'm just incredibly grateful."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Tim Deaton left home to follow his dream

by Chris Lomon

Tim Deaton's first career driving win typifies his sedulous approach to standardbred racing.

It was just over 11 years ago — specifically, the afternoon of July 26, 2014 — when the young reinsman from Lebanon, OH, pointed Bestbeststraight, a pacing son of Third Straight, toward the starter car for the first race at The Red Mile.

Eight horses lined up for the $4,000 non-wagering event on a fast track during an 80-degree day at the historic Lexington oval.

Sitting mid-pack early, Deaton and Bestbeststraight eventually struck front and were one-length clear at the stretch call in the fair stakes event.

The end result of Deaton's efforts — and those of the veteran bay gelding — was a three-quarter-length score in 1:58.

"At the time, my uncle [Mark] and I were working for Steve Carter and his owner Chuck Grubbs," Deaton said. "It was nice to do it in front of some of my family. My dad [Elliott] and my brother [Ryan] actually ended up with this horse later on in his career — my brother won a race with him, too — so that turned out to be something that was very cool.

"He went on to sweep his 2-year-old Sires Stakes category with Dave Palone driving him, so I think I did okay with this horse."

For the man in the race bike, the milestone victory was, among other things, an important lesson in what defines driving success.

"We had to dig in — the horse was a little green at that time — so even though we were on the lead, I had to keep my focus and work hard to make sure we paced right through the wire," Tim said. "Win or lose, you always have to give your best."

And Tim has done exactly that over the past 11-plus years, both in the sulky and in the barn.

He learned the value of hard work and commitment from many, including his parents, both longtime horsepeople.

"I was born and raised into racing," Tim said. "My dad drives and trains as well. He's been doing it his whole life. My mom [Dawn] actually grew up in the riding horse world — she started working with horses when she was a teenager. She worked for a lot of veteran horsemen in standardbred racing, like Tom Brinkerhoff. She trained for a while for herself and now she works for Brian Brown. She spends her time working in Florida over the winter and in Ohio for the summer.”

Any thought of joining the harness racing ranks wasn’t initially on Tim’s radar.

In his early teens, that changed.

“I was probably 14 or 15 when I decided this is what I was going to get into,” Tim said. “Before then, I didn’t have a big desire to pursue a career in racing, but once I started helping my dad with his horses and my mom with hers, it kind of snowballed from there. I have worked for a lot of different people and learned a lot from many Ohio-based trainers. I decided to expand on that and made the move out east, to see what the different styles of racing were all about.”

An eager student of the game wherever he has competed, Tim – who has 122 career driving wins and 15 as a trainer – has also learned a great deal from the horses he has partnered with. He holds a particular fondness for a pair of pacers.

“I had a horse named Hoosier Shooter, who jump started things for me a bit,” Tim said. “A guy that I worked for, Danny Dubinsky, who is also an owner, we were looking for a horse to claim, and this was the one. I won a couple races with him, and I ended up buying him back a little later on in his career and I was able to get him his lifetime mark of 1:51.4. He was pretty special to me.”

As is a bay filly, bred, owned and trained by Kasey Bendix.

Woodys Girl, a 3-year-old daughter of Rustys For Real, delivered Tim a career first this May.

“She gave me my first Sires Stakes win in Maryland, and I was second in the final with her,” he said. “She’s an awesome horse.”

On June 1, at Shenandoah Downs, Tim drove a pair of winners – Blissful Dragon and Grin N Sin – both trained by his girlfriend, Kayla Pressel.

The victories marked Pressel’s first training double.

“We work great together,” Tim said. “I help her with her stable and it’s been nice. We have had some good success so far. I’m happy that she is doing well and building her stable. She has a small operation, but we were able to get wins with all the horses at Shenandoah.

“Any horse I drive, I am very appreciative of the opportunity.”

Currently, Tim and Pressel are in Maryland, looking to add more winner’s circle trips to their respective résumés.

So far, the move to the Old Line State has produced some promising opportunities.

“I want to be one of the drivers who gets to drive 10 races or more a night,” Tim said. “Being new out here – a fresh face – has helped. I was able to drive for a lot of different people at Shenandoah and won an open down there, which was nice.

~ Tim Deaton

I have picked up some Sires Stakes drives here in Maryland, so my short-term goal is to be a stakes driver here and use it as a stepping stone to compete at other racetracks, hopefully, places like The Meadowlands and Chester.

“Hopefully, I can get my name out there as someone who has the ability to drive in big races at the big racetracks.”

Tim has ample support in his pursuit of those goals.

“My dad, my uncle and my mom have always believed in me,” he said. “I am also very good friends with the Hanners family, who have all helped me a lot, working for them, driving to the fairs with Austin and Luke – I have learned a lot from all of them. I am very thankful to be able to work and learn from so many great people.”

Outside of the racing ovals and barn life, Tim is an enthusiastic sports fan.

Diamonds, ice, or gridiron – he enjoys the chance to trade his role as participant for that of spectator.

“I love watching sports,” Tim said. “It’s always nice to go out and enjoy a sporting event. I like going to hockey games. I haven’t been to any football games lately, but being in an area like this, in Maryland, I’m sure we will get out to a few football games in the fall. Baseball is huge here, too, so I am sure we will go out to some games before the summer is over.”

While making sure he maintains a winning state of mind in his own field of dreams.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Lynne Myers wasn't born into harness racing, but it's where she's meant to be

by Victoria Howard

One doesn't have to be born or brought up in the sport of harness racing to appreciate it and really love it. A great example is this week's superstar female, Lynne Myers. Despite the fact that Myers never owned a standardbred, she has always been very much involved in harness racing and is highly revered and respected by horsemen.

Myers was born in Lexington, KY, the "Horse Capital of the World." Marlene Cummins McLaughlin, a family friend of Myers', was involved in the sport and was the person who introduced her to harness racing.

~ Lynne Myers

“I was 13 years old when I attended my first harness race at The Red Mile in Lexington, KY,” Myers said. “That was all it took, and I was instantly hooked. Over the years my casual interest evolved into a deep appreciation and respect for the horses themselves and the people who bred and raced them.”

“In May 1984, I graduated from college with a B.A. in Art/Graphic Design and through pure happenstance heard about a position needed for a graphic artist at The Horseman and Fair World magazine. I applied, got the job, and began working there the following month.

“Art Director Wanda Morgan took me under her wing and showed me the tricks of the trade. When I initially started, we used “hot type” and had no computers. Boy, have things come a long way.”

Myers said she thought the job would provide experience and prepare me for a career in graphic design.

“But when the assistant manager position opened, I jumped at the chance to move up in the company,” she said. “I always had a love for writing, so it was a natural transition to add copywriting to my creative skill set, as well as advertising sales, and production.

“At the time, Greg Schuler was the advertising manager. He was an incredible mentor who taught me how to write interesting and captivating ad copy and research and write pedigree statements.”

“ I think we must attract new people to harness racing when they are young. Lexington is a vibrant city with lots of entertainment opportunities. The University of Kentucky is right next door to The Red Mile and although I’m not a marketing specialist, I think we need to give it a bigger push to attract the college kids [there are around 24,000 undergrads] to the tracks.”

~ Lynne Myers

When Schuler left the magazine to start his own advertising agency, Myers moved up as advertising manager.

“I managed and produced advertising in the magazine, as well as digital advertising on our website www.harnessracing.com and in our weekly e-newsletter Weekend Preview. I remained in that position until the magazine sadly closed in January 2021.”

Myers said she was devastated when The Horseman and Fair World closed.

“The magazine was the only place I had worked as an adult and it was tragic to see it come to an end, especially since it had been in existence since 1877,” Myers said. “I had no idea what I would do next, but within a couple of weeks after the announcement was made, I had many of my [Horseman] customers reach out and ask if I would continue to create advertising for them in other harness racing publications. I was so humbled, and it was the perfect transition for me to continue doing what I love to do.

“I opened my own business called Lynne Myers Creative. Currently I have 20 plus clients who I handle advertising for on a regular basis, and many others that I do seasonal work for.

“I also create ads for Hoof Beats magazine and assist production of the Breeders Book Stallion Directory and Youth Beats.

Myers has met many people while working in the sport, and when asked who has touched her the most and why, she said, "There have been many people who have been important throughout my career in the industry so it's impossible to single out any one person. I would have to say it is the collective group of many colleagues and clients who also became my friends. I've enjoyed my job so much over the years because of the relationships that I've built along the way and some of my closest friends are co-workers at The Horseman."

One person in particular who has nothing but praise for Myers is Hall of Famer Bob Marks, who at one time managed Perretti Farms. Together, Marks and Myers collaborated on several hundred ads over the years.

Marks said that Myers had an appreciation for high level graphic arts and in many ways, she could almost anticipate what they needed to say on the subject involved.

Even though Marks is no longer connected with a major farm he still utilizes Myers for any advertising he may require for his clients, such as Wiesman Farms and Anthony Perretti Farms.

Not wanting to see our sport go the way of The Horseman and Fair World, Myers has some ideas of what should be done.

"I think we must attract new people to harness racing when they are young," Myers said. "Lexington is a vibrant city with lots of entertainment opportunities. The University of Kentucky is right next door to The Red Mile and although I'm not a marketing specialist, I think we need to give it a bigger push to attract the college kids [there are around 24,000 undergrads] to the tracks."

"So many people, young and old, in Lexington don't even realize that there are horse races at The Red Mile. They think it's just a casino. Just the other day, I had a friend ask me, 'Do they still race at The Red Mile?' I see a ton of advertising for the slots, but there are very few for the racing side."

Myers agreed that women in the sport of harness racing have come a long way, and that today we are blessed to have some very talented female trainers, drivers, caretakers and owners.

"Our sport has many talented females, but I would have to say the one that stands out is Kathy Parker," Myers said. "She arrived at The Horseman a few years before I did and rose through the ranks to eventually becoming the editor and general manager."

"Kathy was never afraid to tackle the hard topics that sometimes arose in the sport and handled herself with poise and professionalism. She was an excellent writer and a caring boss who did her best to keep The Horseman in business for as long as possible. Deservingly, Kathy is in the Communicators Hall of Fame."

Brokerage wager

by Trey Nosrac

Let's discuss a new wager.

Polite readers will label this idea unconventional; others will get some exercise by rolling their eyes. Describing the new wager is tricky. The wager would require an online firm to act as a brokerage to facilitate transactions and enable clients to trade efficiently. A brokerage involving horse racing wagers would be unique.

The proposed new gamble asks the player to attempt to win a series of three exacta boxes during a race program. If they win the first level, they win $500 or a live ticket for the second level of the wager at a designated race later in the program.

Imagine a guy at the racetrack in a baggy suit with a fedora hat growling, "I hit a 1-7 exacta in the first race for five hundred bucks. If I let it ride on another 1-7 exacta in the fourth race, it's going to be worth eight grand if it hits. If you are interested, I'll sell you my ticket, and you can take the risk in the fourth."

The gist of this new wager is that the person holding the live ticket for the second leg can "let it ride" or resell the voucher online before the fourth race. The working title of the wager is the Brokerage Wager.

THESE ARE THE RATIONALES BEHIND THIS CONCEPT:

1. The money at each stage of the wager is substantial.
2. The amounts used in this prototype are flexible.
3. Reselling live vouchers uses the pedestrian pace of a program to our advantage because our pace of play allows time for dealing.
4. The unique gamble uses cutting-edge technology and is very interactive.

LET'S WALK THROUGH THIS WAGER HYPOTHETICALLY:

Eight horses are in the field for race number 1, which goes off at 6 p.m. at Greenville Downs Racetrack. You designate you are playing the Brokerage Wager and select a 1,7 exacta box. In this model, Brokerage Wagers are in $5 increments for two horses on an exacta box. If the first race finishes 1,7 or 7,1, you win $500. Everyone else loses.

After the first race, an information box related to a pair of later races in the program displays the brokerage action. You see five significant numbers in large block numerals on the tote board or your device.

THE DISPLAY IS A MARKETPLACE FOR LIVE VOUCHERS HEADING INTO RACE 4:

- 208 (total number of winning live vouchers)
- $500 (payout if cashed before race number 4)
- 76 minutes, 59 seconds (is the countdown clock until the market closes for race number 4).
- $7,900 (fixed price payoff if a 1,7 box repeats in race number 4)
- $512,000 (fixed price payoff if a 1,7 box repeats in the seventh race)

Two hundred and eight gamblers hold live vouchers and are under pressure as the clock approaches zero and the fourth race begins.

The proposed new gamble asks the player to attempt to win a series of three exacta boxes during a race program. If they win the first level, they win $500 or a live ticket for the second level of the wager at a designated race later in the program.

THEY HAVE THREE OPTIONS:

1. Cash the ticket for $500
2. Let it ride for $7,900 if the 1, 7 exacta repeats in the fourth race.
3. Sell their live voucher on the online open marketplace before the fourth race.

The clock ticks down to race 4. The race goes off. Race 4 just finished, and the 1, 7 (or 7, 1) repeated. When the display refreshes, we learn only 18 owners possess live shares. The rest of the players took the $500 payout. Those 18 in possession of a live voucher now face difficult decisions.

If shareholders act before race number 7, they can cash in for $7,900.

Or shareholders can let it ride for $512,000 in race 7.

Or, shareholders can return their shares to the online auction board, hoping someone will pay more than the $7,900 they could have cashed in on.

HERE IS WHAT THE BOARD LOOKS LIKE:

- 18 (total number of live vouchers)
- 76 minutes, 59 seconds (until the market closes for race 7)
- $512,000 (second and final repeat fixed price)

My head hurts. What a show! Jockeying for those live vouchers for big money could become part of the entertainment. Okay, roll your eyes one more time.

Charlie May (David Miller) winning the 2023 William Haughton Memorial at The Meadowlands.

Believing in the power of the Meadowlands Pace and Charlie May

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

This is a story about a boy and a girl who loved a racehorse so much that he inspired them to combine a little old-fashioned stubbornness with a little divine intervention for the greatest gift of all.

Amy and Dean May are a married pair of 30-year-olds who love going to The Meadowlands. They aren't regulars, but the one date etched in stone on their calendar every year is Meadowlands Pace Night, a card they've attended for about a decade now.

"Since my brother Kevin turned 18 and was able to start betting on the races, it's been a tradition to go to the track on Pace Night," said Dean. "My birthday is July 13th and my dad's birthday is July 12th, so it's a birthday tradition to go to The Meadowlands whenever the Meadowlands Pace is."

The night of the 2021 Pace, a name in the program caught the May family's eye: Charlie May, who was in that night's featured event.

"We bet on him in 2021," said Amy. "What's crazy is, we looked at the program and said we love that name, and so we got a picture [of the program] in the event we ever had a daughter. We have always loved the name Charlie for a girl and it was so cool to see the name with our last name. We bet on that race and lost [after Charlie May was disqualified]. That was a pivotal moment in our story. To see that he had actually been the winner [and then lost], it was a crazy sign to just show how intertwined we are with him. We didn't find out until recently that he was later declared the winner."

Fast forward to March of 2023, and the young engaged couple are getting close to their wedding day when they got some terrible news.

"A month before we got married, I was told I couldn't ever have children," said Amy. "I'm somebody that doesn't take 'no' for an answer very easily. I was young and healthy and we did a bunch of genetic testing to see what was wrong and there was no rhyme or reason, so I just needed to try everything, get a few opinions. Our first doctor said I couldn't ever get pregnant, but I just kept being that squeaky wheel until somebody wanted to listen to me, and we found a doctor able to help us get pregnant, which was a miracle."

Dean said, "After we got married, we were at my parents' house and coordinated our honeymoon around Charlie May's race [the 2023 William Haughton Memorial] on Pace Night. We left for our honeymoon the day after.

"When the race started, it was like a moment of defeat, it didn't look good. We hadn't really started the process of fertility yet with the new doctor, so it was just kind of like a bad case of icing on the cake. Oh, we lose again."

But, then, driver Dave Miller skillfully guided Charlie May to a ground-saving trip and rallied to grab the win in 1:47.1 at odds of 30-1.

"When Charlie May came around and won, the feeling is something I will never forget," said Amy. "It was a great moment. We didn't tell anybody the love we had for the name Charlie and how we felt connected to the horse, but Dean's family was there, and they all decided to bet on it, too. It was truly an experience I will never forget. We were all jumping up and down. It was everything that we needed to go on our honeymoon. It truly felt like it was a sign from God. A sign from up above.

Amy May

Amy and Dean May hit big after their favorite horse won the William Haughton Memorial.

"It was like, it's okay, keep pushing, yes, you've been in last place, and, yes, you've been put down, but you are meant to be parents, your baby is meant to be out there. It's all going to work out."

About six months after getting married, the Mays were pregnant. Then, on June 19, 2024, Charlie May, the little girl, was born. "Charlie" is the name on her birth certificate. It's the way it had to be for Amy and Dean.

Charlie May's road from being disqualified in the Meadowlands Pace to being named the actual winner sometime later after getting the DQ overturned was the first part of this perfect parlay. His win in the Haughton as a long shot when it appeared early-on he had no chance made things complete. The horse Charlie May served as inspiration to the parents of little girl Charlie May.

The May family will be at the mile oval on the night of July 12, when the $700,000 (est.) Meadowlands Pace tops a star-studded card. It's unclear if their favorite horse will be racing that night, but are optimistic their little girl and the horse she's named for will at some point come face-to-face.

"We've been in touch with [Charlie May's] owner, Don Tiger," said Dean. "And, he promised us, one way or the other, that the picture of the two Charlie Mays will happen."

Amy said, "It will complete the whole story. After talking with Don, it truly showed there is a reason why we are connected to this horse. There are just so many similarities with both of our stories, and I want our Charlie to know how special she is, too, and I want a picture of her with the horse that she can see when she grows up. Don and his wife had some of the same issues Dean and I had as well.

"The Pace is something special to our family. The Meadowlands, it's truly a place where people can get together and have a good time. We have a ton of friends and family who come out for the Pace. We have a good time. It's special to be together. It means a lot."

Note: Charlie May was declared the winner of the 2021 Meadowlands Pace in a Court of Administrative Law, but the New Jersey Racing Commission and Appellate Court upheld the original decision of the judges.

Daley happy with progress of freshmen at Magical Acres

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Noel Daley watched six of his 2-year-olds pick up wins and Chris Ryder notched three victories — including with Ebony Hill, the debuting full sister to Party Girl Hill — as Magical Acres hosted its second session of qualifiers for freshman pacers and trotters on Thursday (June 26).

Daley, who had 32 freshmen in action last week at Magical Acres, had 17 travel around the training center's five-eighths-mile track on Thursday.

"It was like a breeze," Daley said with a laugh. "Like a walk in the park today compared to last week."

Pacing colt Callmebigpapi and trotting colt Highball Hanover were repeat winners for Daley. Callmebigpapi (Papi Rob Hanover—Dancethenightaway) won in 2:00.3 with Todd McCarthy in the sulky and Highball Hanover (Bar Hopping—Hall Of A Dream) triumphed in 2:01.4 with Andrew McCarthy at the lines.

Toast Of The Town (Sweet Lou—New Year) had the fastest mile of the day, 1:57.3, for Daley. The homebred pacing colt is owned by Let It Ride Stables, Odds On Racing, and Magnificent Seven Stable. His second dam is millionaire Drop The Ball. Daley also saw his pacing colt Good Lookin (Papi Rob Hanover—Miss Babe Delight) score in 1:58. He was bred by Let It Ride Stables, which shares ownership with Richard Jack, Lawrence Rosen, and Enviro Stables.

Good Lookin and Toast Of The Town were driven by Andrew McCarthy.

Rounding out the list of Daley's winners were trotting colt Twin B Seven Sins (Chapter Seven—Affair Hall) and trotting filly Night French Girl (Muscle Hill—Golden Girl FR), who both were driven by Todd McCarthy and stopped the timer in 2:03.1.

Twin B Seven Sins was purchased for $200,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Patricia Stable, Caviart Farms, Allister Stables, and L.A. Express Stable. He is a half-brother to 2022 O'Brien Award-winner Twin B Archie out of the family of Hall of Fame broodmare Amour Angus. Night French Girl is owned by breeder Jean Pierre Barjon of France.

"It was a pretty good day," Daley said. "I was happy with most of them. I don't know if there is a superstar there. I never go very quick before I get there, so each week is a learning process. [I had] six in at The Meadowlands [to qualify on Friday]. We get to know once we have to go a little faster how much bottom they've got."

"I'm happy with some of mine just to see the progress from last week to this week. That's always nice. Some of them just take a little time. We hope for them to have a reasonably decent experience their first couple of times out before they have to go the faster miles."

Daley has more than 40 2-year-olds this season.

"The more you get, the more chances you've got, but the more money doesn't mean they're going to be the better ones," Daley said. "It's nice when you can buy the ones with breeding and the looks. For many years, we had to choose. It's nice when you've got more money to spend and get the ones, but it doesn't mean they're the best ones. It's a bit of a numbers game. We've certainly got the numbers. Now, we'll just see. You never know."

Dexter Dunn drove all three Chris Ryder winners. Ebony Hill (Captaintreacherous—Look Cheap) split rivals approaching the finish line to win by a head in 1:58.2, the fastest of three pacing events for freshman fillies. She is owned by breeder Tom Hill.

She B Minnie (Always B Miki—Shebesailin), another pacing filly for Ryder, was a dead-heat winner with Nik Drennan-trained Feisty Hanover in 2:01. She B Minnie was purchased for $100,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale and is owned by Ryder Henderson Mondillo, Anne Demers, and Bill Donovan. Bred by Thaddeus Wier, the filly's family includes two-time Dan Patch Award-winner Perfect Sting.

Ryder's remaining winner was trotting filly Woodside Jasmine (Muscle Hill—Qiss Me Blue Chip). She won in 1:59.1, the fastest freshman trot of the day.

Drennan had two winners, with Feisty Hanover (Papi Rob Hanover—Fit To Frame) being joined by repeat winner Napalm (Perfect Sting—Fiery Beauty). Both pacing fillies were driven by David Miller. Feisty Hanover is a half-sister to 2020 Dan Patch Award-winner Fire Start Hanover out of the family of Hall of Fame broodmare Grand Lady. She was a $57,000 Standardbred Horse Sale purchase and is owned by Joseph Davino, Brad Shackman, and Drennan Stable.

Napalm, whose family includes Hall of Fame broodmare Precious Beauty, won in 1:59.1.

Completing the list of 2-year-old winners Thursday were pacing colt Sonofanutcracker (Nutcracker Sweet—Rob Them Blind) in 1:58 for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Tom Cancelliere, and trotting filly Kickan (Walner—You Ato Dream) in 1:59.4 for driver Dunn and trainer Nifty Norman.

Sonofanutcracker, a John Cancelliere homebred, is from the family of Hall of Fame broodmare Stienam's Place. Kickan, a $400,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase owned by David McDuffee, Melvin Hartman, and Paul Bordogna, counts millionaire Ari Ferrari J among her relatives.

Game Changers: Ghostly Casper and Sprite Seelster

by Matthew Lomon / Woodbine communications

Once a week, throughout the Mohawk racing season, Woodbine will profile a horse who has had a life-changing impact on one of their closest connections.

This week, it's a dead heat with driver Tyler Borth shining light on a pair of talented trotters in Ghostly Casper and Sprite Seelster.

Canada's second-winningest reinsman in 2024 (414) talks about his career through the lens of these two horses and the pivotal role each one has played in his success thus far.

GHOSTLY CASPER

Foaled: Feb. 28, 2020

Sire: Resolve

Dam: Cool Creek Breeze

Wins-Seconds-Thirds: 10-14-11

Earnings: $835,378

Trainer: Benoit Baillargeon

Owner: Benoit Baillargeon, Teresa Davidson, Santo Vena, and Nunzio Vena

Breeder: Diane Ingham and Harry Rutherford

What was it like forming a connection with Ghostly Casper in the race bike?

"The first time I sat behind him, he was just a true professional. He was great-gaited, and he did everything that you asked of him. From the beginning, he was a natural."

You've driven plenty of standout horses over your career. What is it that makes this one particularly special?

"It was special with him because I won the [2023] Gold Super Final with him as a 3-year-old, and they're going for $300,000. Also, it was for a great guy to drive for, Ben Baillargeon, who has a lot of good horses.

"I think Casper helped show other trainers that you can win a race going for that kind of money and create even more opportunities down the line."

Talk about his personality on and off the track.

"He seemed pretty chill in the paddock from what I saw. Going to the track, he's still a stud, so another horse would walk in front of him, and he'd kind of let out a roar to let everyone know he was the man."

Three words to describe him?

"Great-gaited. Professional. Durable."

How has he changed your life?

"I hadn't been at Mohawk that long, and to get a horse like him that early on in my career and win the Gold Super Final, was incredibly meaningful. I was also able to go to Hoosier with him, which was something different for me because I had never driven in the States.

"I drove him in a [Breeders] Crown elimination. Unfortunately, we didn't make the final, but I feel like he elevated me as a driver and helped me get more drives for other big trainers and compete in other big races against the sport's best."

SPRITE SEELSTER

Foaled: March 13, 2022

Sire: Green Manalishi S

Dam: Speak Of The Devil

Wins-Seconds-Thirds: 3-2-3

Earnings: $165,098

Trainer: Katie MacNeil

Owner: Elite Equine LLC and Tyler Borth

Breeder: Seelster Farms Inc.

What were your first impressions of Sprite Seelster?

"We bought her as a baby for $40,000 out of the [2023] London Yearling Sale. My partner that I had, he was supposed to go to Florida and train her down because I didn't have much room to train her down. He ended up not going, but we still wanted to send her to Florida. So, we ended up sending her to [trainer] Gregg McNair.

"I wasn't at the sale. I had just seen her standing in the alleyway. I saw the Hip # and thought to myself, 'Wow, that's a really good-looking horse.' We looked further into her — she was a Green Manalishi filly — and wrote the check.

"My first impression, I guess you could say, was that she was beautiful."

When did you realize she was special?

"We raced her as a 2-year-old, and they always liked her, but she was maybe a little immature. She probably had a few aches and pains because she was such a big, growthy filly. But I still liked her as a 2-year-old. She got turned out for two or three months. My girlfriend, Katie McNeil, and I trained her back.

"She was doing everything right, but we got to about 2:15 with her and we were really impressed, but you still don't know, right? I think it was her first couple qualifiers that she had some good last quarters, and I got thinking that she could be a Gold contender this year."

What race of hers was most meaningful to you and why?

"In the SBOA, she was third in, and she did all the work. It was a windy night, and she had never really raced that hard, being left with, and then coming home, especially under less-than-ideal conditions. Going into her next race, which was an Ontario Sire Stakes Gold, I thought she had a good shot, but I had the 9-hole, and I just went to the front, and she turned away beautifully.

"She won by a couple of lengths, and I was ecstatic with her because that was my girlfriend's first Gold win as a trainer and my first Gold win as an owner. We were very happy all the way around."

Three words to describe her?

"Relaxed. Strong. Athletic."

How has she changed your life?

"She's just starting to change my life. Obviously that Gold win, just the money, I've never had a horse that I've owned part of or all of or any piece of, it was a big chunk of change. We've never won, I don't even know if we've had one in a Gold race let alone win a Gold, especially for $140,000.

"It's obviously the first one of the year, and if she keeps racing well all season going into the Super Final, as long as she stays healthy, then it could be a really exciting year for us."

Super Chapter leads Melander-trained exacta in MGM Yonkers Trot

by Yonkers Raceway media

Super Chapter made a break when he raced at MGM Yonkers Raceway in last year's New York Sire Stakes final, but Dexter Dunn took no chances of a repeat of that performance, taking the prohibitive favorite in Friday's (June 27) $300,000 Grade 2 MGM Yonkers Trot well off-the-pace at the outset but still having plenty in reserve to secure a 1:54.3 victory in the opening leg of Trotting's Triple Crown.

With just five horses in the field, Dunn elected prudence at the outset as stablemate Variegated (Scott Zeron) marched to the front from post 3 and Happy Jack B (Ake Svanstedt) assumed the pocket. With Hard Seven breaking at the outset, Super Chapter was in fourth while well off the pace through a 29 second opening quarter.

Variegated kept the pace consistent, hitting the half in 58 seconds with Dunn sitting fourth to that station but beginning to energize the Marcus Melander-trained son of Chapter Seven.

Dunn finally moved Super Chapter coming out of the third turn, and he advanced quickly on the top pair as Variegated led the field through three-quarters in 1:26.3 with Svanstedt content to draft behind with Happy Jack B.

Dunn turned up the temperature on the pace, and Super Chapter was more than up to the task, measuring off the field through a 28 second final quarter for a confident victory. Variegated was well clear for second, with Happy Jack B third in the five-horse field.

Super Chapter is owned by Jeffrey Snyder and Arthur Pronti and won for the eighth time in 14 lifetime starts, increasing his career earnings to $744,425 with the win. Super Chapter, a son of Chapter Seven, as were the rest of the quintet, is the fourth living foal from the Cantab Hall-sired dam Lifetime Pursuit. Lifetime Pursuit has Triple Crown history of her own as the upset winner in the 2014 Hambletonian Oaks at The Meadowlands, her signature victory on the way to a $1 million racing career. Super Chapter is by far her most accomplished foal to date. Super Chapter was a $300,000 yearling purchase from the 2023 Harrisburg Sale.

Sent off as the shortest possible favorite, Super Chapter returned $2.10 to win with the exacta returning $4.10 and triple at $24.40.

"I just took my time, keeping him safe with the first turn," said Dunn, recalling the break in stride when Super Chapter was the prohibitive choice in last year's Sire Stakes final.

"He's gotten stronger," added Dunn, quite impressed thus far with Super Chapter's unblemished sophomore campaign.

This was the first MGM Yonkers Trot triumph for Dunn and the third for Melander, who won it first in 2019 with Gimpanzee and again in 2022 with the filly Joviality S.

Twisted Destiny victorious in MGM Grand Messenger Stakes final

by Yonkers Raceway media

Dexter Dunn completed a sweep of the Triple Crown opening leg races at MGM Yonkers Raceway on Friday night (June 27) when he guided Twisted Destiny to victory in the $200,000 Grade 2 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes for 3-year-old male pacers. The homebred son of Bettor's Wish, out of the Badlands Hanover-sired mare Tug River Princess, scored in 1:51.2, holding off Dandy Ideal, with pace-setter Manolete third in the mile.

Manolete used the rail for Scott Zeron to perfect tactical advantage, zipping away from the gate at the outset and forcing Twisted Destiny to move into a 2-hole. Banderas, Papi's Rocket and Odds On No Limit all left from the outer flank but were hampered as Banderas, with Jordan Stratton, attempted to find a hole along the pylons but got shut out when World Of Wishes and Joe Bongiorno closed ranks on the inside. That move forced Stratton to hold Banderas in place and forced Papi's Rocket and Odds On Limit to retreat at the same time.

With the outside flank going nowhere, Dunn was half-in/half-out for much of the opening-half, with Manolete setting hot fractions of :27.2 and :55.3 for the first two panels. Dunn finally pulled on the backstretch as second choice Dandy Ideal was able to slip out from fourth and go on the offensive.

Manolete and Twisted Destiny battled through three-quarters in 1:23.4, and the pair went through the final turn on even-terms with Twisted Destiny surging into the homestretch but needing a hard drive by Dunn to maintain his advantage as Dandy Ideal, the 6-5 second choice, attempted to collar him in the final yards but came up just short. Odds On No Limit and Papi's Rocket rounded out the top five finishers in the field that had been reduced to seven when Fast Choice was scratched.

Twisted Destiny was a winner for the ninth time in just 13 career starts for trainer Chris Ryder, who will be enshrined in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, on July 6. Owned by Let It Ride Stables, Alberg Racing and Enviro Stables, Twisted Destiny increased his career earnings to $237,414 with the victory. As the 4-5 betting favorite Twisted Destiny returned $3.80 to win, keying an $8.10 exacta and a $13.40 trifecta. Let It Ride Stables, Docs Farm Inc. and Dana Parham bred Twisted Destiny, the ninth foal out of his $1.8 million-earning dam.

While the victory was Ryder's third Messenger title, it was his first over the half-mile track at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

The Last Martini, Mrs Cheese capture Park MGM Pace divisions

by Yonkers Raceway media

The Last Martini and Mrs Cheese picked up Grand Circuit victories in two Grade 3 $50,000 Park MGM Pace divisions for 3-year-old fillies on Friday night (June 27) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Sent off at 1-9 in the opening flight, The Last Martini (Doug McNair) watched from third as Fashion Terror (Scott Zeron) cut fractions of :28.4 and :58 for the opening-half, then got going first-over before the field hit the third turn. Fashion Terror was able to hold off The Last Martini to three-quarters in 1:26 and continued to battle with her around the last turn, but The Last Martini finally put the stubborn pace-setter away in the lane.

However, The Last Martini's work wasn't done as Dressed To Kill (Yannick Gingras) tracked her from second-over and had pace in the lane after tipping out. However, The Last Martini was able to hold sway to the wire, defeating Dressed To Kill by a nose in a 1:54.2 mile. Fashion Terror was a good third, followed by Family Jewel (Jason Bartlett) and Intricacy (George Brennan).

Jared Bako trains the Crawford Farms-bred daughter of Huntsville—Martinique for owner Glenview Livestock Ltd. The Last Martini has a summary of 7-5-2 from 15 starts, has put away $630,539 and paid $2.10 while she keyed a $7.90 exacta and a $15 trifecta.

In the other section Mrs Cheese (Matt Kakaley) worked her way to the point from the outside post 5 before the :27.4 quarter and maintained command to the half in :57.1 and the three-quarters in 1:25.3. Pocket-sitter Fansville (Joe Bongiorno) vacated the pylons prior to three-quarters, and she was tracked by favored Please Be You (Zeron).

Mrs Cheese was up to the challenge when confronted by Fansville, though, as she fought her off all the way around the final bend and to the finish line, tallying by a neck in 1:54.2. Please Be You got third, followed by Martini Star (Bartlett) and Huntingfortreasure (Dan Dube).

An American Ideal—Ms Cheesman filly, Mrs Cheese is trained by Scott Di Domenico for owner Triple D Stables. Bred by Winbak Farm, Mrs Cheese has a pair of wins and two seconds from seven trips behind the gate, has pocketed $48,615 and returned $10 to win as a 4-1 offering. She was atop a $32.20 exacta and a $45.40 trifecta.

New York New York Mile contests taken by Shes A Shoe In, Monalishi

by Yonkers Raceway media

Three-year-old trotting fillies were in action on Friday night (June 27) at MGM Yonkers Raceway as Shes A Shoe In and Monalishi emerged with victories from a pair of Grade 3 $60,000 New York New York Mile sections.

Shes A Shoe In, driven by trainer Ray Schnittker, fired to the front in the first grouping but yielded to sit behind favored Royal Mission (Scott Zeron) after that one tipped from the pocket prior to the :28.3 quarter. Royal Mission, 2024's sire stakes champion in New York, was well-rated from there to a :58.2 half and a 1:27 three-quarters, but Shes A Shoe In, last year's Pennsylvania freshman champion, had the best kick in the lane as she angled out, surged by Royal Mission and won by a length in 1:56.4. Devious Babe (Andy Miller) also vaulted past Royal Mission in the lane to get second.

Schnittker also co-owns Shes A Shoe In, a Steve Jones-bred daughter of Greenshoe—Casaubon, with partner Ma3 Racing Stable. Shes A Shoe In now has four wins, three seconds and a third from 14 career starts, has banked $241,273 and paid $22.40 to win as a 10-1 shot. The exacta was worth $96 and the trifecta kicked back $213.

The complexion of the other division changed on the first turn when favored EL Nightwish (Dexter Dunn) went off-stride, which allowed second choice Monalishi (Yannick Gingras) to drive on and clear Seventh Gen (Jeff Gregory) coming to the :28.4 quarter-mile point. It was all Monalishi from there, as Canada's O'Brien Award winner for the division a year ago was unchallenged to the half in :58.2 and three-quarters in 1:27.2, then came home in 28 seconds flat to defeat Seventh Gen by 2½ lengths in 1:55.2. R Lady W (Zeron) couldn't mount a bid from first-over and had to settle for third.

A filly by Green Manalishi S—Pretty Phylly G, Monalishi is co-owned by trainer Blake Macintosh in partnership with Tim Klemencic. Bred by Shmuel Farhi, Monalishi has a summary of 9-3-0 from 15 outings, has put away $533,353 and returned $5 to win. She led a $48.80 exacta and a $136.50 trifecta.

Jamieson sweeps Tompkins-Geers at Mohawk

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Driver Jody Jamieson guided both Tompkins-Geers winners on Friday night (June 27) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A single division of the Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacers and 2-year-old trotters wrapped up back-to-back nights of Grand Circuit action at the Campbellville oval.

The $63,950 Tompkins-Geers for pacing colts saw Jamieson do some stickhandling in the lane before his charge Tilthecowscomehome rocketed up to nail race-favorite Dad at the wire in 1:52.4.

Trained by Carl Jamieson, Tilthecowscomehome got away third and would stick to the rail through the opening three-quarters-of-a-mile. No Waitlist did the roadwork, posting fractions of :26.4, :56.4 and 1:25.3.

The 1-5 favorite Dad moved out from fourth at the half to come first-up and took command with an eighth-of-a-mile to go.

Appearing poised to win, Dad would get picked off at the wire by Tilthecowscomehome, who angled off the rail in early stretch around one rival, went back down to the pylons to get by another, before angling out around two more rivals and shooting up powerfully in deep stretch to win.

No Waitlist finished a game third.

Tilthecowscomehome was a $70,000 (USD) Lexington Select yearling purchase for the Jamieson's, Joanne Morrison and Blair Corbeil. The son of Cattlewash entered Friday's career debut off a pair of qualifying scores.

"He actually surprised us in the last qualifier and was really sharp [in] 1:54.3," said Jody Jamieson post-race. "We expected him to be a good horse, but we just didn't know for sure... he just didn't train down great and we actually told people that he's just a horse we thought, so he's a nice surprise."

In The Black (Jody Jamieson) winning the Tompkins-Geers trotting event on Friday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"The stickhandling and a 2-year-old that can handle that and still pacing on the line to beat a couple of really nice horses, I'm just giddy about him."

Tilthecowscomehome paid $13.70 to win.

In The Black delivered a memorable 13-1 upset for trainer Jeff Williams in the $47,250 trotting event.

Beau Knight, one of the favorites in the field of seven, made a break before the start, which changed the outlook of the contest. Southwind Chester cut the mile, posting clips of :28.2, :59 and 1:28.4, while 1-2 favorite Captain Micah sat back in fourth.

Driven by Jamieson, In The Black popped out from third on the far turn to approach the leader first-up. The son of Green Manalishi S powered by in the lane and trotted off to win by four lengths in 1:56.

Starstruck finished second after a 2-hole trip, Southwind Chester held third over Captain Micah fourth.

Co-bred by the late Hall of Famer Bob McIntosh, In The Black is trained by McIntosh's former long-time assistant Williams, who earned his first Grand Circuit victory.

"It's pretty cool," said Williams of the stakes win. "That's a nice colt. I thought from day one he's been one my best colts. My son, Austin, trains him more often than I do, I usually go with [filly] Canukeepasecret, but when I first started talking to Jody about driving these two for me it was this guy he was really happy with and had really high hopes for him."

In The Black is owned by Mardon Stables, Tyrone Valley Farm and Hudson Standardbred Stb Inc.

In The Black follows stablemate Incantation, who won a division of the Tompkins-Geers last season as one of McIntosh's final training wins.

"It's an experience of a lifetime, you can't replicate it with anybody else as far as I'm concerned," said Williams of his nearly three decades working with McIntosh. "It's not lost on me that these babies are McIntosh horses and I think he'd be very proud of them... I think he'd be very proud of what they've done and I just try to put in my work and make him proud if I can."

In The Black is now one-for-two to begin his career. He paid $23.80 to win.

MACINTOSH DOUBLES UP IN TOMPKINS-GEERS

The Tompkins-Geers Stakes on Thursday evening (June 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park offered the first view of 2-year-olds in Grand Circuit action for 2025.

Rookie fillies took part in three Tompkins-Geers divisions on Thursday, with two for trotters and one for pacers.

Th Check Me Out stormed home in :26.3 to win the $56,350 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Driven by Tyler Borth, Th Check Me Out got away fourth and would follow a rotation to the lead, touching down on the front ahead of a :57.2 half. The Blake MacIntosh trainee led the field to three-quarters in 1:26, holding the lead over co-favorite A Bets A Bet.

In the stretch, the two favorites pulled away from the rest of the pack, with Th Check Me Out holding A Bets A Bet back by a length-and-a-half for the 1:52.3 victory.

A $32,000 Harrisburg yearling purchase, Th Check Me Out is now two-for-two to start her career after winning Mohawk's first 2-year-old race of the season on June 13. She's owned by Ozzie Mackay, MacIntosh, Gilles Landry and James Giannuzzi.

"You never know what they're going to do first time on the front," said MacIntosh of the Cattlewash filly. "She's been following along and hasn't been on the front other than training and she kicked home good, so we're happy."

Lds Kimberly and Lds Sabeanna rounded out the top-four finishers in the pacing filly event.

Th Check Me Out returned $4.10 to win.

The $27,200 first Tompkins-Geers split for 2-year-old trotting fillies saw Ill Have The Red rocket home in her career debut for trainer/driver Rick Zeron.

A daughter of Chapter Seven, Ill Have The Red went off as the 4-5 favorite after an impressive 1:58.4 victory in her lone qualifying attempt on June 12. Sitting a gapped out third for most of the opening three-quarters-of-a-mile, Ill Have The Red unleashed a furious stretch kick to split rivals and win by 2½ lengths in 1:57.

"I don't think the performance was really all that great," said Zeron. "She went into the first turn tonight and decided to start bearing in on me and I had to watch myself coming out of the turn and I lost about 10 or 12 lengths and then she did it again around the last turn and I lost about another five lengths.

"Then at the head of the stretch I yelled at her and said 'it's time to go' and off she went."

Despite the turn trouble, Zeron noted the $70,000 Lexington Select Yearling purchase has big talent.

"She can fly, can outright fly... just some little thing is bothering her this week and I'll have [Dr.] Hennessey come in and have a look at her and we'll straighten it out."

Ill Have The Red is owned by Rick Zeron Stables, James Walker and Johnny Marvento.

I Take The Cake finished second in the first division after following early-leader Walners Grove, who finished third, through fractions of :28.2, :59 and 1:28.3.

A $2 win ticket on Ill Have The Red returned $3.90.

A Splash Of Green gave trainer MacIntosh two wins in the Tompkins-Geers and three overall for Thursday's card with a victory in the $27,200 second trotting division.

Driven by James MacDonald, A Splash Of Green strided out to the lead and never looked back for a 1:56.1 victory. The daughter of Green Manalishi S posted fractions of :29, :59.2 and 1:28.1 prior to a :28 kicker for the clear victory.

Canukepasecret followed in second throughout and just held that spot over Cupid Hall.

A $55,000 London Classic Yearling Sale purchase, A Splash Of Green was making her career debut Thursday after three qualifiers, which include a break in the second outing.

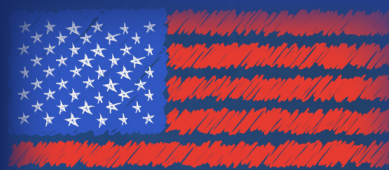

"She's been great, she just rolled off on me the second time," said MacDonald. "Last week Blake had her fixed up and again tonight she was just sensational and tons of trot left finishing, so that's exactly how you want to start their career."

A Splash Of Green is owned by Tim Klemencic, MacIntosh, Andy Klemencic and Chris Storms. She paid $4.90 to win.

Outside of Thursday's Tompkins-Geers, MacIntosh trained two-year-old filly Sugar Packet turned heads with a 1:55.3 victory. The daughter of Six Pack was making her career debut and was driven by Jody Jamieson.

Sugar Packet was an $11,000 Lexington Select Yearling purchase and is now the fastest 2-year-old filly trotter in North America this season. She's owned by MacIntosh, Mackay and Bay Pond Racing Stable.

Call Me Goo rambles to millionaire status in Six Pack

by Frank Cotofo for Meadowlands media relations

Call Me Goo fought confidently when making two moves in her 1:51.2 winning effort in the $114,500 Six Pack Mare Trot on Saturday (June 28) at The Meadowlands and thrustured herself over the seven-figure earnings plateau in the process.

Trainer Ake Svanstedt drove the 5-year-old daughter of Googoo Gaagaa—Callmemza to her first win in three starts this year.

One of four mares for Svanstedt in the seven-horse field, Call Me Goo left swiftly from post 7 and took the lead over M-M's Dream and even-money favorite Dial Square S to cut the first quarter in :27.2. Call Me Goo controlled the engine down the backstretch until James MacDonald pulled Dial Square S, another Svanstedt-trained mare, from third to take the lead into a :55.4 half and continued on the motor to three-quarters in 1:24.1.

Svanstedt asked Call Me Goo to go turning for home and she responded out of the pocket with an easy swing back to the lead. Dial Square S surrendered in the stretch to closing moves from M-M's Dream and Nelsonbriteagle NO, with M-M's Dream closing ground on Call Me Goo in the closing stages. Call Me Goo rebuffed the sustained late challenge from M-M's Dream to win by a length with Nelsonbriteagle NO finishing third and Dial Square S left in fourth.

Call Me Goo paid $4.40 in her 24th victory from 40 starts in her career. The top cash prize made her a millionaire, with $1,041,588 accrued through her career thus far.

Svanstedt recorded his third-straight and fourth overall training win in the Six Pack, winning in 2023 and 2024 with Jiggy Jog S and 2020 with Plunge Blue Chip. He co-owns the winning mare with Graham Grace Stables, W. Roberts and Kiwi Stables.

After the race Svanstedt said his strategy was to take the front off the gate.

"She's a tough mare and very good [on the front]," he said.

Svanstedt said he was confident even when Dial Square S took over the lead.

"It was good because she [Call Me Goo] always tries and gets the lead back," he said. "And she can go with the colts, and she will."

Coach Stefanos, Ken Hanover torch track in Brower Memorial

by Ray Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

Saturday (June 28) saw speedy returning victories by Ken Hanover, a winner once last year from 12 starts in a lifetime-best mile over this track, and 2024 Breeders Crown Open Pace champion Coach Stefanos in their respective $86,500 divisions of the Dave Brower Memorial at The Meadowlands.

Coach Stefanos again reaped from a fast pace and sowed to register the fastest mile of the 2025 meet at The Meadowlands so far, a lifetime-best 1:47.2 effort, to win the second division of the Brower Memorial.

Maximus Miki motored for the lead to a :26.1 first quarter while 6-5 favorite Bythemissal managed to only find a seat in fourth. Bythemissal plotted his move on the backstretch while Ervin Hanover darted out of third to brush for the top before clocking the half in :53, at which point Bythemissal was forced into a first-over grind moving for the turn.

Room opened at the pylons for driver James MacDonald to skid forward and save ground with Coach Stefanos, who then managed to have a seam emerge to his outside with second-over It's My Show stalled and soon retreating from cover on the charge to three-quarters in 1:20.2. MacDonald fanned from the cones to the center of the track and unleashed Coach Stefanos in the stretch, collaring his weary challengers to roll home a 1¼ length winner going away. Longshot Seven Colors took second when rallying from a ground-saving trip while Bythemissal held third and Maximus Miki settled for fourth.

"I think all the Coach Stefanos players were licking their chops when they saw the half come up quick," MacDonald said after the race. "He's just got such a good late punch. I think he'll be a more versatile horse as he gets older, but right now it's just fun to see what he can do late in the mile. He's got an explosive move."

A 5-year-old gelding by Tellitlikeitis—Watch N Be Watched trained by Erv Miller, Coach Stefanos collected his 20th win from 54 starts and pushed his bankroll to $1,332,629 for owners K. W. Duffy, D&M Trading LLC and Mr. J. Chris Stefanos. He paid $20.40 to win.

Ken Hanover hustled from the outermost post in the octet and strode in hand to a 1:47.4 victory, equaling his lifetime best, in the first division of the Dave Brower Memorial.

Coach Stefanos (James MacDonald) winning the second Dave Brower Memorial division.

Voukefelas launched off the wings of the gate and crossed over to the top heading for the first turn. Driver David Miller pushed Ken Hanover forward, but methodically advanced to grab the lead from a headstrong Voukefelas past a :26.1 first quarter. Miller throttled his charge to a breather with a :54.2 half as Abuckabett Hanover tipped out of fourth and attempted to press for the lead first over, but made minimal inroads through the final turn.

Clocking three-quarters in 1:21.4, Ken Hanover and pocket-sitter Voukefelas scampered clear of the competition on the sprint for home. Driver Joe Bongiorno launched Voukefelas out of the pocket with a final lunge after Ken Hanover in the stretch, though Miller maintained a snug hold of the reins to register a measured win by a neck. Voukefelas settled for second with Coaches Corner snatching third from a ground-saving trip. Charlie May rallied for fourth.

“He had a couple of issues last year that he hopefully left behind him; he acts like they are,” trainer Roland Mollar said after the race. “He’s come back really strong and is sharp right now.”

A 5-year-old stallion by Captaintreacherous—Kj’s Justine now on a five-win tear including a world-record performance in the Grade 2 Battle of Lake Erie at Northfield Park, Ken Hanover has now won 18 races from 49 starts and has earned $868,357 for owners Roland Mallar along with partners Patrick Leavitt, William Jordan and Dennis Osterholt. He paid $3 to win.

Sparks fly as Periculum clinches Crawford Farms Trot

by Frank Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

Periculum, with Scott Zeron at the reins, fired mid-stretch from off the pace to carve a 1:50 score in the $164,000 Crawford Farms Open Trot on Saturday (June 28) at The Meadowlands.

Lexus Kody stormed from post 9 before being outkicked by Osceola and Aetos Kronos S while Periculum was unhurried from post 3. Osceola clocked the first quarter in :27 and soon faced a challenge from Aetos Kronos S, who launched out of third with a fiery brush to take the lead in a scorching :54.3 half.

Zeron, meanwhile, kept Periculum steady in fifth through the early kerfuffle. He managed to catch a helmet once moving into action in the last turn when Lexus Kody came first over from third. Aetos Kronos S continued on the engine through three-quarters in 1:22.3 with challengers looming.

Zeron took advantage of the quick three-quarters and placed Periculum perfectly on a path to show his speed in the stretch. Effortlessly, Periculum passed an all-out Aetos Kronos S and extended his lead to finish 3¼ lengths ahead of Aetos Kronos S, the other Melander-trained trotter in the race, with Lexus Kody completing the trifecta. Up Your Deo came from off the speed for fourth.

“He was sharp looking last time [in his most recent qualifier, winning by over 20 lengths in 1:53],” said winning trainer Marcus Melander. “He was supposed to race three weeks ago but he got a little fever on us, so we had to scratch him. He’s an older horse – he goes his intervals twice a week, jogs a little there in between. He’s sound, he’s happy. He’s a great horse.”

Melander said Periculum only raced twice this season because “there’s not much to go for [in this division] early in the season. There’s way more in the fall. We have three weeks to the Spirit of Massachusetts, and then we have the Cashman here.”

Periculum’s second win in two starts this season hiked his lifetime bankroll to $1,433,376 for owners Brixton Medical Inc. and Holly Lane Stud East LTD. The 6-year-old stallion by Muscle Hill–Amour Heiress registered his 13th win from 52 starts in his career.

Zeron was happy with the way the mile formed for the trotters.

“He had a great trip,” he said of Periculum. “We didn’t get flushed early on and we picked up a live flow.”

Periculum paid $6.40 to win.

Sylvia Hanover upsets Twin B Joe Fresh in Perfect Sting

by Ray Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

The doll of her class as a 2- and 3-year-old, Sylvia Hanover endured many defeats as Twin B Joe Fresh claimed the crown in the 4-year-old campaign in progress to a Horse of the Year title. But Sylvia Hanover returned in the fourth start of her 5-year-old season and landed a serious wallop on 1-9 chalk Twin B Joe Fresh to pull a stunner in the $116,500 Perfect Sting on Saturday night (June 28) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from the pylon post, driver Tim Tetrick charged Sylvia Hanover to the fore and endured pressure from Aardie B Miki N through a :26 first quarter before caving for a pocket ride. Tetrick then found himself shuffled to third when My Girl EJ swooped from a forward seat to the front of the train before a :53.4 half. Twin B Joe Fresh meanwhile raced fourth and angled first up for a steady grind through the final turn.

Twin B Joe Fresh inched to within a length of My Girl EJ coming to three-quarters in 1:21.3 while Tetrick had room to swing into the second-over seat with Sylvia Hanover in the turn for home. Twin B Joe Fresh reached forward for the lead as Tetrick launched to the center of the track with Sylvia Hanover, and within a matter of strides she bolted past the reigning divisional champ to score a 10-1 shock going away by two lengths in a 1:48.2 mile. My Girl EJ settled for third and Valar Dohaeris closed for fourth.

“She’s just a great horse,” Tetrick said after the race. “She overcomes bad drives and she’s tough. Speed doesn’t really bother her – she’s big, strong and can carry it. I went hard to the quarter to make sure they had plenty of speed, and I think she’s just better if she wears them all out. That was just my theory on it and it continued to work.”

Mark Steacy trains Sylvia Hanover, a 5-year-old mare by Always B Miki—Shyaway, for owner Hudson Standrbrd Stb Inc. She won her 23rd race from 43 starts, has now earned $1,927,219 and paid $23.80 to win.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Crack Shot, Set Shot set career bests winning respective Gold tests

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

James Avritt, Sr. of Kentucky bred both winners of the $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Leg 2 events for 3-year-old pacing colts contested Saturday (June 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park – Crack Shot and Set Shot.

Crack Shot set a 1:50.2 career best while dominating the first Gold division in wire-to-wire fashion. In doing so, the son of Bettors Delight–Beautyonthebeach returned to the winner's circle for the first time in five starts and exactly two weeks after finishing seventh in the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup won by Louprint.

Doug McNair left alertly with Crack Shot (3-5) from post 3 in the field of six and led the field through fractions of :25.4, :54.4 and 1:23.3 with Boxer Seelster (Trevor Henry) second the entire mile and finishing five lengths back. Blue Bar (Travis Cullen) was third, Fubar Bundy (Jonathan Drury) was fourth and Tip Of Time (Jody Jamieson) grabbed the final check. Control Rocks (Tyler Borth) originally finished fourth, but was placed sixth by the judges for interference.

Watch the replay here.

McNair drove Crack Shot to victory for his father, trainer and co-owner Gregg McNair of Guelph. The elder McNair shares Crack Shot's ownership with London Knights coach Dale Hunter of London, ON, Frank Brundle of East Garafraxa, ON and George Kerr of Gowanstown, ON. The group purchased Crack Shot for $205,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Crack Shot improved to 3-1-0 in six 2025 starts and upped his seasonal bankroll to $149,224. The colt is now 8-2-0 in 14 career starts and has total earnings of $388,049.

Incredibly, Doug McNair won the Gold in race 2 that went to post at 7:09 p.m. and still managed to make it to The Meadowlands to drive Ervin Hanover (finishing fifth) in the $86,500 second division of the Dave Brower Memorial for older pacers that went to post just 2 hours and 23 minutes later at 9:32 p.m.

Doug said he had a private plane waiting and the total flying time was about an hour.

New Image Media
Crack Shot (Doug McNair) winning the first of two $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 2 divisions for sophomore pacing colts on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"I wanted to say I could do it," Doug said via text from New Jersey. "No one believed in me."

Meanwhile, back in Milton in the second Gold division, Set Shot bested the field of five after the scratch of Smiling Dancer.

Despite the short field, the race provided plenty of drama in the stretch with Set Shot (Jody Jamieson) holding off Aquinas Hanover (Bob McClure) who came flying on the outside from last to just miss by a half-length. Allstar Magic (Travis Cullen) nearly snuck past on the inside. He finished third just a smidge behind Aquinas Hanover. Sterling Choice (Billy Davis, Jr.) was fourth and Stonebridge Wizard (Tyler Jones) was fifth. The 1:51 mile was a career best for Set Shot.

It was Sterling Choice that led the field to the :27.3 quarter pole, but Jamieson, driving Set Shot for the first time, had his charge out and moving to the front before the :55.4 half. He retained the lead through the 1:23.3 three-quarter station and then the stretch battle was on.

Watch the replay here.

"[Set Shot] fits the bill," Jamieson told Woodbine Mohawk Park broadcaster Greg Blanchard in the winner's circle. "He's a beautiful animal, and he's got huge, huge speed. He wasn't even done [in the stretch]. He was just kind of waiting on them. He wants them to come to him and then so he can fight them off. He's a pretty special animal, for sure."

The win was the first in Ontario Sires Stakes action for Set Shot, a son of Bettors Delight out of Pristine Beauty owned by Mac and Carol Nichol of Burlington, ON and trained by Dr. Ian Moore. Set Shot is now 2-2-1 in seven 2025 starts and 3-3-2 in 15 lifetime outings. He now has earnings of $85,680 on the year and $126,674 lifetime.

The pacer was a $280,000 purchase at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"[Set Shot is] right up there with all of our [3-year-old pacers]," Moore said. "He just had a fair season as a 2-year-old last year, but he's changed a lot this spring. He trained down really well. I trained him with [$900,000 winner] Clever Cody and [$487,000 winner] Prince Hal Hanover and it actually made [Set Shot] go faster. He had to keep up to them and he was right there with them most of the winter in Florida. So, it was nice to see him win for sure."

GRASSROOTS RESULTS

On the Tuesday (June 24) card at Woodbine Mohawk Park, there were four $25,000 OSS Grassroots Series divisions for 3-year-old colt trotters and three $25,000 Grassroots divisions for 3-year-old filly trotters.

The winners in the 3YOCT divisions were:

- Move Your Mass (Muscle Mass—Stonebridge Glider) in a career best 1:54 for breeder Angie Stiller of London, ON, owner

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Deal The Odds, Chandler Bing stay perfect in INSS

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

It was the third verse of the same song as Deal The Odds and Chandler Bing each scored their third straight victory in Indiana Sire Stakes, each with career best efforts in the third round for sophomore pacing colts which highlighted the 14-race Friday (June 27) card at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Deal The Odds was sent away as the 1-5 favorite from the rail with regular pilot Joey Putnam aboard in the $49,500 first division. Putnam secured the third spot on the first turn while Rockin Mudslinger (Jordan Ross) paced around Book The Fight (Marvin Luna) to cut the quarter in :26.3. Putnam brushed Deal The Odds to the top on the backstretch on the way to a half of :54.3 before pressure came to his outside from 30-1 shot Freaky Feet Beast (Kyle Wilfong) who raced at the leader's wheel first-up through three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Turning for home, Deal The Odds turned away Freaky Feet Beast midway through the lane while Rockin Mudslinger aimed to take a shot at the leader from the pocket. Racing home in :26.4, Deal The Odds held Rockin Mudslinger at bay by 1¼ lengths in 1:50 on the wire. Book The Fight crossed the wire in third but would be placed fourth due to a pylon infraction in the lane, moving Aye Aye Capt Russ (Marcus Miller) to the show position at 45-1.

Trained by Joe Putnam, Deal The Odds has won three of four on the year with each of those wins coming in consecutive fashion. Bred by Silver Linden Farms, the son of Odds On Equuleus—Sono Bello has banked $78,750 on the season and just over $150,000 in his career for owners J P Racing, Michael Lee and Crazy Parrot Farm.

In the $50,000 second division, Chandler Bing and Jay Cross teamed up for a first-over victory as the 8-5 favorite in sub-1:50 fashion. Leaving from post 3, Chandler Bing got away sixth in the field of nine while The Family Man (Marcus Miller) raced to the top around Rawtn Tale (Mike Oosting) through a hot opening quarter of :26.2. Joey Putnam hustled Seeitsayit to the top through a wicked opening half of :54 on the backstretch when Cross right-lined Chandler Bing to begin his first-over journey entering the final turn. Chandler Bing raced into second around the bend in hot pursuit of Seeitsayit to a sizzling three-quarter clocking of 1:21.4.

Under confident Cross handling, Chandler Bing powered alongside Seeitsayit at the top of the stretch, before rocketing clear when Cross began to ask. Pacing home in :27.2, Chandler Bing raced clear in the lane by 1½ lengths on the wire to stop the clock in 1:49.2. Starlit Millertime (Atlee Bender) finished second after following the winner's cover, Seeitsayit held for third.

Trained by Alvin Miller, the reigning Sire Stakes champion has won three of five on the season for Miller who also co-owns with Twila Harts. An eight-time career winner in 14 lifetime tries, the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Northern Beauty has earned $78,375 on the season and just shy of $300,000 lifetime. Chandler Bing was bred by Glen Yoder.

NINE STRAIGHT FOR ON TO NORWAY AS BURKE SWEEPS INSS

Trainer Ron Burke took home the lion's share of both splits of round three of Indiana Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting colts, headlined by On To Norway extending his win streak to nine with a career best score on Thursday (June 26) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Leaving widest from all from post 6 as the 1-2 favorite in the $49,000 first split, driver John De Long settled On To Norway in fourth early while Operator (Kyle Wilfong) cut the quarter in :27.2. Operator rolled on the lead to the half in :55.4 when Eugene The Genius (Mike Oosting) tipped first-over from third before reaching the leader's wheel at three-quarters in 1:25.2 with On To Norway towed into contention second-over.

Wilfong kicked-out the plugs on Operator while On To Norway tipped three-wide around a retreating Eugene The Genius as the sprint for home began. The two leaders raced well clear of the rest, with On To Norway blitzing home in :26.2 to nail a game Operator on the wire by a half-length in 1:52.2. Fifty Rivers (LeWayne Miller) finished third at 79-1, 6¾ lengths behind the winner.

On To Norway has now won nine of 10 on the year and 12 of 18 lifetime. Bred by Bennet Farms Inc of Mi, the gelded son of Muscle Massive—One Class Act now has $125,375 in seasonal earnings and just shy of $150,000 lifetime for owners Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Black And White Stable and Michael Rosenthal.

In the $49,500 second division, Starlitfrankenstein would get back into the win column following four consecutive second place efforts with leading driver Trace Tetrack in the bike.

Tetrack landed the 1-20 favorite in fourth from post 6 in the field of seven while Ponda Rocky (Atlee Bender) grabbed an early lead through a quarter of :27.4. Ponda Rocky went unchallenged to the half in :56.3 before Tetrack angled the favorite out from fourth, grinding first-over into second in pursuit of Ponda Rocky through three-quarters in 1:25.2.

Turning for home, Ponda Rocky held a firm lead in the stretch, with Starlitfrankenstein still having a length to make up at the eighth pole. Starlitfrankenstein continued to wear down the leader late, inching in before getting to the wire first by a neck in 1:54. Kody Kickstand (Marcus Miller) got the better of a four-horse photo for the show spot two lengths behind the winner.

Starlitfrankenstein has won three of seven on the season and has yet to be worse than second in 2025. The son of Swan For All—Southern Lily has banked $69,000 on the season and went over $260,000 in career earnings for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Beastly LLC and Frank Baldachino. Starlitfrankenstein was bred by John Wagler.

Racing continues on Friday, July 27 with a 14-race card set to get underway at 6:15 p.m. The Friday night card features two divisions of Indiana Sire Stakes for three-year-old pacing colts in races three and 12.

Free online programs are available nightly on the Harrah's Hoosier Park website in addition to free access to race replays and other handicapping resources. Qualifying replays can be found on the Hoosier Park AV YouTube Channel.

Hambletonian hopeful Monserrate wins at Big M

Monserrate, victorious in the 2024 Valley Victory, snagged his first win of 2025 Friday night (June 27) at The Meadowlands, as the Hambletonian eligible 3-year-old son of Chapter Seven—Guinevere was the easiest kind of winner in the featured $17,500 high-end conditioned trot.

"I wasn't happy with either one of his Vernon starts [when he finished third and second, respectively, in his first two outings of the year]," said winning trainer Andrew Harris. "But he was facing [Yonkers Trot winner] Super Chapter and horses like that. I took the hobbles off [at the start of this year] because he needed to mature. He's never shown any signs that he needed them."

With Hall of Fame driver Dave Miller calling the shots, Monserrate reached the top from post 2 in the seven-horse field in :28.3. Soft fractions of :58.2 and 1:27.3 followed, leaving a :26.3 final-quarter sprint to complete a wire-to-wire win in 1:54.1. It was 4¾ lengths back to second-place finisher Excalibur Bi. Prominence was third.

"Dave [Miller] kept the ear plugs in," said Harris. "When he went to Vernon, he wouldn't eat or drink, and his lines still looked OK. But he didn't possess that pop. Tonight, that's as good as he's ever been."

Monserrate, who is owned by Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman and Harris, won for the fifth time in 16 lifetime starts while lifting his lifetime earnings to $366,556. The 1-2 favorite returned $3 to win.

A LITTLE MORE: Artist Best came from off the pace to take the seventh race Meadowlands Amateur Driving Club dash at odds of 29-1 to give provisional driver Charles Longo his first-ever Meadowlands victory...Andy McCarthy led the driver colony with three winners on the card...All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $2,865,366.

Breakfast With The Babies week four

Breakfast With The Babies, sponsored by Fashion Farms, got underway at 9 a.m. on a slightly overcast and comparably chilly Friday morning (June 27) at The Meadowlands. The temperature was a comfortable 68 degrees and the track fast to begin as the flags wafted lazily in a slight breeze. Larry Fox was on hand to call the action which included 20 races for 2-year-olds and three qualifiers.

Pacing fillies kicked off the card and Jimmy Slendorn pulled out his trusty slingshot and slayed a field of Goliaths with his Always B Miki filly Squankum Lady. Slendorn sent her out to the top from her outside post to the lead, yielded to a few then fanned wide for the drive and got up in the shadow of the wire in 1:55.2 / :27.2 to snap American Sunshine and Wave Dancer for the "W." Chris Height trains the winner for Slendorn and Judith Jannuzzelli bred her.

Sheza Single Lady (Yannick Gingras) won for the second time in as many tries for trainer Nancy Takter, this in 1:59.1, home in :28.1 on the lead. Glam (Ake Svanstedt) left to the top, released the winner then followed her in to be second. A $95,000 (LEX) buy for Caviart Farms, Patrick Hoopes and Herb Liverman, the Walner filly was bred by Jay and Jacob Mossbarger.

Walner got another credit as Lucille Walner (Dexter Dunn / Nik Drennan) rolled up wide and sailed by in 2:00.1 closing several lengths in her :27.4 final quarter to get by Patrona who had led from the half. Joseph Davino, Brad Shackman and Drennan Stable gave $90,000 (HBG) for the winner. The breeders are Stop The Jade, LLC, and Fair Winds Farm.

I'm Kronos S (Svanstedt) was an impressive 1:57.3 / :27 first over winner over another good pair in Ardonne and Apex who both gained into the fast final quarter very willingly. I'm Kronos was winning for the second time, this one even more convincing than his first. He's another by Walner, bred in Sweden by Winged Lion Breeding and now owned by Part of Dream and Bruni Racing Team who had the winning bid of $310,000 in Lexington.

Svanstedt came right back with Rambo Hanover ($385,000 LEX) to win impressively in 1:58.1 / :28.1. Svanstedt settled in just off the lead through comfortable fractions then tipped off the leader when they straightened up and went by willingly. Onassis and Pine Bush Landau both had good late trot for minor placings. The Hanover bred son of Muscle Hill is owned by Svanstedt with Brochart Racing and Al Libfeld.

Reserved off early fractions, Sparks made it three straight for Svanstedt and four so far on the day for sire Walner when she trotted up uncovered and by the leaders to get the 1:58.3 score over a closing Chant. Bred by Fair Winds and Bellevue Farms, the winner was a $150,000 (HBG) purchase by Svanstedt, Journey Horses, Graham Grace Stables, Joe Sbrocco and John Fodera as JAF Racing.

Nancy and Jimmy Takter combined on a winner in the Ready For Moni filly Godusa, who took over near the quarter, rolled along smartly then sprinted home in 28 seconds for the 1:57.3 record over a long-uncovered bid by Opulence. Bred by Carter Duer, Godusa was a $35,000 (HBG) buy for E Five Racing and John Fielding.

Tristan Sjöberg has famously said his mom loves white horses and they unveiled a vintage beauty this morning in Nebbiolo, a pure white son of first crop sire Captain Corey. Nebbiolo sat just off the lead of Trumptactical then pounced when given the signal and came away with a 1:59.4 win, home in 28 seconds. Tristan races as Knutsson Trotting and Ake Svanstedt is the trainer/driver, his fourth on the day.

Melander Stable sent out its first winner on the day with the Muscle Hill gelding, Nix Nacken (Scott Zeron) who tracked down the leader and rolled on by with a :27.3 end to the 1:58.1 mile over inside closing Sevenato. Anders Strom owns the winner via his Courant, Inc, having paid $260,000 (LEX) to breeders Kentuckiana Farm and Eddie Gran.

Race 10 became a Tony Alagna match race when two scratched and two broke before the start, leaving just Pretty Picky (Todd McCarthy) who cut the mile and prevailed over barnmate Even It Up in an uneventful 1:59.3. A Tactical Landing filly, the winner was bred by Crawford Farms who remains a partner with LeBlanc, Pryde Stable and Beattie. She sold for $65,000 in Lexington.

Frattina Diabolo S (McCarthy / Alagna) inherited the lead when the leader broke mid turn and sailed away in :28.2 down the stretch to an easy 2:00.1 win over Pray For A Win. The winner is a Captain Corey Swedish homebred, owned by Dreamlover Ab.

Propulsion sired a winner today when Royal Drive (McCarthy) set a 30-beat clip then sprinted home in :27.3 to just hang on over the relentless close of Inexpressable in 1:57.2. Royal Drive is a Claude Gendreau homebred, trained by Alagna who also trained the sire during his U.S. campaign as a youngster.

American Power wanted to go early on but Dunn didn't allow it, reserving the Walner colt well off the lead of Captainofillusion then waiting for the final three-eighths to let him trot and American Power responded by gobbling up his rivals for a 2:00.3 win with a strong last half. Diversion split rivals willingly when asked to be second. Bred by Katz and Libfeld from their champion mare Arianna G, American Power drew a $300,000 (LEX) winning bid from M. Biasuzzi Stable. He is trained in the Melander barn.

The pacing races began with She's A Rich Girl (Zeron), a blueblood that cost Richard and Joanne Young a lot of money, $360,000 (LEX) looked like a bargain as she stormed by the field to a 1:57 win closing into a :27.4 final quarter over Tan Lines Hanover, also impressive closing in late with a sub :27 finish. The daughter of triple Breeders Crown winner My Little Dragon is a sister to the winners of over $3 million including full sister Treacherous Dragon and three-quarter brother Stay Hungry. Linda Toscano trains the Captaintreacherous filly, bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres and David Schmucker, Jr.

McCarthy timed it perfectly with Drink To That, determinedly rolling by the competition from well off the early pace with a :26.4 end to the 1:55.2 mile, then holding off the serious late rush of Signal Caller. A son of Tall Dark Stranger, the winner was a $100,000 (HBG) buy for Riverview Racing, Steve Head, Pryde & Alagna and Caviart Farms. Riverview gets a breeder credit along with trainer Alagna and Marvin Katz.

Brandon Boulevard gave McCarthy two straight, converting a pocket ride into a 1:55.3 win, home in :27 to hold off Bee Sting and a late rallying Captain Wonderful. Andrew Harris trains the $425,000 (LEX) Captaintreacherous colt for his interests along with partners Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman. Crawford Farms is the breeder.

Play Date gave McCarthy his sixth and Alagna his fifth on the day when she whipped out around the leader at the 1:02.1 half, took off and sprinted home in 56 seconds winning as she pleased over Fabulous Hanover in 1:58.2. The daughter of Tall Dark Stranger is a Brittany Farms, Marvin and Lynn Katz homebred.

Sam De Pinto has another nice Papi Rob Hanover in the filly Papi's Crush (Gingras) who sat a pocket and brushed through like she meant it late to get the win in 1:55.2 / :27.2 over the wide closing JK Fierce Lady. Shannon De Pinto and Chris Arvanitis own her, having paid $70,000 (LEX) to breeders Oliverio, Carter and Klotz.

First Colt (Dunn) led from the word "Go" in race 19, then the going got serious as they straightened up for home with Shakeitonthbeach first at him then widest of all Idyllic Stranger (Gingras / Takter) surged by right at the light for the 1:57.1 win. Another Tall Dark Stranger winner, the colt went through for $25,000 (LEX) and is a partial homebred with Christina Takter and Marvin Katz staying in and adding Barry Guariglia's Black Horse Racing and the trainer, Nancy.

Zeron and Toscano combined for the last of the day with Rocknacious winning his debut, leading all the way in 1:58.2 home in :27.3. The Perfect Sting colt, first foal from Breeders Crown winner Rocknificent, was a $150,000 (LEX) buy for South Mt Held Toscano Stable, Steve Stewart, Deo Volente Racing and Little E, LLC with Enviro Stable, South Mountain, Little E and John Schmucker the breeders.
