Professor Frydoc and the longshot

As Graeme Mitchell battles cancer, T H McMurry brings his life-long dream to Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Graeme Mitchell has worked as a public handicapper, promoter, sports broadcaster and racing analyst for a half-century.

“I can’t complain,” said the 72-year-old, who is currently an analyst/handicapper at Rideau Carleton Raceway. “I’ve been very, very, very fortunate. I’m very thankful to be able to stay in the game I’ve been in since I went to Richelieu Park in 1972.”

He’s especially grateful this year, because of diametrically opposed twists of fate.

First, the positive twist: T H McMurry, the 2-year-old pacing gelding he co-owns with Jeffery Taylor of Gloucester, ON and Siobhan Andrusek of Ottawa, ON.

On Saturday (June 24) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the McWicked–Waasmula son started from outside post 8 in his first baby race. He floated off the gate for driver Doug McNair, settling fourth behind pace-setting At Ease Hanover, with trainer Dr. Ian Moore in the sulky.

T H McMurry (Doug McNair) was impressive in his first baby race on June 24 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

On the final turn, T H McMurry hinted that he might be as special as his owners hoped. He tipped first over, closing ground between himself and At Ease Hanover in a :26.2 final quarter. More impressively, he took the inside path to a 1:56.1 victory.

“Even older horses can get kind of leery going up the rail,” said Mitchell. “He was at full speed and expanding. He was cruising at the end. I’ve just got to sit back and watch what we do in the coming weeks. I’m still dumbfounded by him.”

Known for offering handicapping selections under the “Professor Frydoc” pseudonym, Mitchell said he took his handicapping nom de plume from the imaginary sidekick of a 1980s Montreal radio personality.

“There used to be a DJ on the morning show at CKGM, Ralph Lockwood. He wouldn’t know how to pick a horse if there was only two in the race. They got his name into the paper, but I did his selections for him. Yeah, I used to do that and it was called ‘Professor Frydoc.’ So I took that once he was done.”

His philosophy: “If I finish in the top three with my longshot, I’m pleased.”

Mitchell said he has been reserved about touting his $23,000 (Cdn) London Classic Yearling Sale purchase.

“I got a lot of comments on him and everyone is like, ‘Wow! What a mile!’ And I’m sitting back here, and don’t really want to speak,” he said.

“This is my last kick at the can, I think. So, I want to make sure I enjoy something and have a nice horse like that for a while, to look forward to every week something good happening.”

There was plenty to be excited about, even before the gelding made his winning debut.

“He did train awesome. The mile was 1:57 over the track at Classy Lane. So, that’s a pretty big mile.”

Mitchell should know. He’s been picking winners for decades.

“I was a handicapper for the Montreal Star; for the [Montreal Gazette]; I had a column in the Daily News in Montreal,” he said. “When one of the papers folded, I had a TV show, The World of Horse Racing, on CTV, which I didn’t produce, but I put it all together with my friend, [CTV sportscaster] Randy Tieman. We were on there for two, three years, and that was basically five years before racing in Quebec folded up, which was unfortunate... We had a viewing audience of over 22,000 people on a Sunday morning at 11:30.”

Despite his familiarity with the racing game, owning a top young horse remained an elusive goal.

“I’ve been around for a long, long time. So, I talked a lot. I bought racehorses, Quebec-breds which were no good, so I lost a lot of money, like most people. And I had a great time,” said Mitchell. “The Prix d’Etés that I saw, the great horses that I saw... It was just amazing.”

A great pacer he never got to see in the flesh was Waasmula (p, 5, 1:49.2s; $954,282), a Woodbine and Mohawk Racetrack regular who took her lifetime mark in the latter part of 2013. The Million Dollar Cam-Waasmowin mare won her debut qualifier at age 3 before launching a three-race Ontario win streak spanning three different tracks (Flamboro Downs, Clinton Raceway, Georgian Downs). She retired with 33 victories, eight of them in the Mohawk filly and mare preferred, from 146 starts.

“I’ve been in this a long time and I hung out with the top guys, and they always told me at the sales: The mother is the most important part. The stallion, yes, to a degree. But the mother is the key,” said Mitchell, recounting how he became co-owner of Waasmula’s third foal, T H McMurry. “His mother? I don’t know how we stole this horse for $23,000.”

He’s had a taste of success, although primarily with older racehorses racing in Quebec and at Rideau Carleton. He was one of the “Gs” in the Three Gees Racing Stable, along with Rideau Carleton owner/founder George Warren Armstrong and trainer Gary McDonald.

“At one time, I think we had a dozen or more,” said Mitchell. “That one night we won four on a Sunday and then the following Sunday night we won four more [at Rideau Carleton]... They were basically claimers. Warren always wanted to see his horses race every week. We had fun... Thank goodness for him, especially after Montreal closed up.”

The racing analyst’s best selection as an owner was a gelding who took his record at Mohawk in 1993, when the seven-eighths of a mile track was still five-eighths.

“I bought a trotter for $1,600. He made me like $60, $70,000. His name was Solvalla, [6, 1:59.2f; $81,733], after the track in Sweden. So I’ve had some real thrills and some real good things, but I’ve never had a real good baby. This is the first time.”

Yet, last Saturday morning, the Gloucester, ON resident did not attend the baby races and horse owners’ breakfast at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It wasn’t for lack of interest.

“I remember when they used to do that in Montreal,” he said. “Baby races were big in Montreal... That’s where Pat Lang used to make his money. He had the best 2-year-old every year in the baby races.”

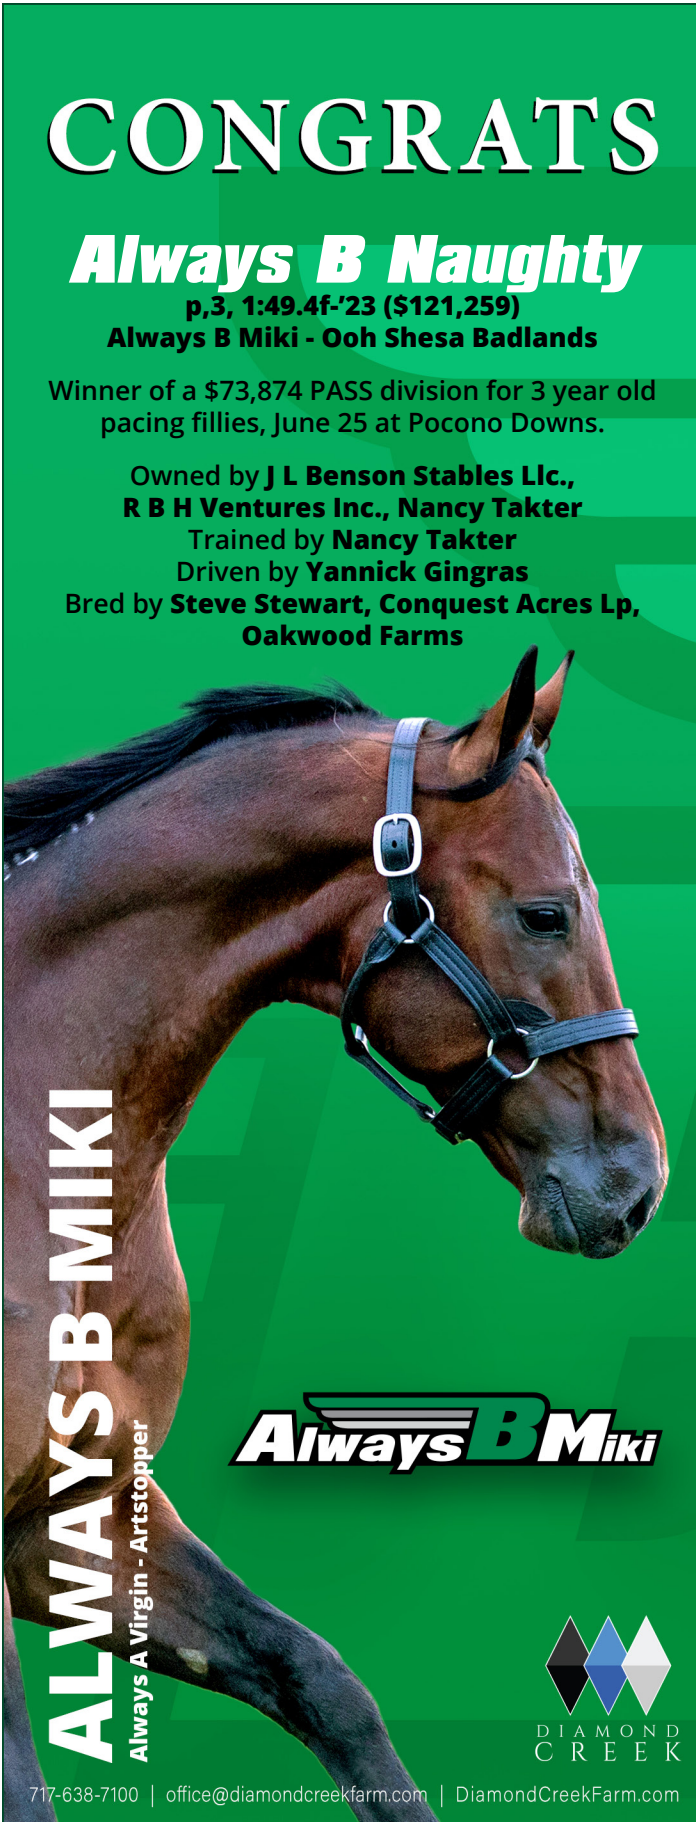

Mitchell said he is currently awaiting a medical procedure for colon cancer, making the long drive to Campbellville even more difficult.

“I’ve got to have that taken care of. It’s not the greatest news, but hopefully it’ll turn out all right. But hey, I’ve had a good run.”

T H McMurry came along at a personal crossroads for Mitchell. “This is my last kick at the can, I think,” he said. “So, I want to make sure I enjoy something and have a nice horse like that for a while, to look forward to every week something good happening.”

Formerly stabled in Rideau Carleton’s Barn “A” with trainer Jeff Taylor’s WMP winner Chasing Goosebumps (p, 3, 1:55.1s; $13,349), T H McMurry matured quickly.

“Everything was easy for him,” said Mitchell. “He’s smart. I used to go to the barn every day and see him, and he just stood there. I mean, now here’s a 2-year-old sleeping on the cross-ties.

“Actually, [trainer] Jacques Beaudoin said, ‘Is that a 3-year-old?’ I looked at him and said, ‘Stop it, Jacques!’ I have heard that story so many times, I was getting psyched out.”

In preparation for his Mohawk debut, T H McMurry was relocated to Classy Lane Training Centre and trainer Dave Menary. Mitchell said the move was on the recommendation of Julie Ferguson, co-owner of top-class WMP pacing mare Dabarndawgswatchin (p, 4, 1:49.3s; $403,682).

The distance from Rideau Carleton meant Mitchell would miss his horse’s qualifier and possibly more.

He told HRU he was fortunate to have a trusted insider report back to him on June 24 after Mohawk baby race 11. His daughter, Tanya Mitchell, is herself a professional caretaker and cancer survivor with a unique connection to the son of McWicked (p, 7, 1:46.2m; $4,930,967).

Graeme described the baby race in reverent terms.

“She was there. She saw him. She said he looked awesome. And she has worked for Casie [Coleman]; she took care of McWicked. Actually, that’s why it means a little bit more. She did take care of his father.”

T H McMurry, bred by Waasmula’s owner Brent Vincent of Allenford, ON with Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON, has some big horseshoes to fill when he makes his Mohawk debut. The date was still to be announced at publication deadline.

The odds of making it to Mohawk to watch T H McMurray race look ominously long some days. But so were the odds of Graeme reaching his goal of owning a top young horse.

“I’m waiting to go in the hospital to get operated on,” Graeme said of his July 7 appointment. “I’d like it to be sooner... I don’t know if I can make it that long. We’ll see. [I will] just keep plugging along, but this horse is going to help me a hell of a lot.

It’s tough not to hope for an even better result the next time T H McMurry goes behind the gate.

“I’ve been in pro [Canadian] football with the [Montreal] Alouettes,” said Graeme. “I worked with [CFL] commissioner Larry Smith; I’ve won a Grey Cup with the Alouettes. I’ve been in boxing. I was actually manager of a junior middleweight champion of the world, Matthew Hilton. So I’ve been very fortunate in my life to do whatever I enjoy doing, but there’s no better excitement than walking down those stairs [to the winner’s circle].

“Racing was always my forte and passion. Other sports, I got into and spent a couple of years in each of them, and it all came back to racing. I’ve never changed.”

Human intervention needed to produce morning line for Yonkers stakes

by Brett Sturman

In a trend that began a few years ago, most harness tracks today employ a computerized process for generating their programmed morning line odds. For all the flaws of the system, of which there are many, tracks have seemingly landed on the opinion that it's more effective to have the programmed odds auto-generated rather than utilize the widely lost art of a human being setting the lines.

Despite the silliness of it, the disparities between the auto-generated odds and actual odds come post time have become an accepted part of odds making. And while it's not worth the effort to point out every time anomalies in the odds occur, there should be a better process in place for signature races in the sport.

I first suggested that very thought in a Tweet last month in races where morning lines were all over the place on the biggest day of the year at Harrah's Philadelphia. And now, turning to Yonkers for two of the track's premier races that are set to take place tonight (June 30), it's time to address this issue more directly.

Beginning with the $250,000 Messenger Stakes, I would characterize the morning line odds for the race not even as poor, but completely nonsensical. I'll dive into each horse's specifics in a moment, but the morning line for the favorite has been set at odds of 9-2; something rarely seen and might be unprecedented in harness racing. Maybe it's the additional two horses making the Messenger a rare 10-horse field at Yonkers at an additional sixteenth of a mile that has sent the automated lines further into haywire than usual, but rest assured that no matter who wins the race, the final odds for the Messenger will have little reflection as to what the starting odds are.

DIAMOND CREEK

717-638-7100 | office@diamondcreekfarm.com | DiamondCreekFarm.com

The Yonkers Trot isn't much better.

This isn't just a Yonkers thing, but more attention is drawn to that track because of the high quality of horses that race there. In the Borgata Pacing Series and Blue Chip Matchmaker finals card at the end of April, similar situations were seen. In the $100,000 Borgata consolation that night, Hemsworth N was listed at a 10-1 morning line and went off at amazingly – but not at all surprisingly – low odds of 3-5. In the Blue Chip Matchmaker final, Doug's Babe A went off as the odds-on 4-5 favorite off a 5-1 morning line.

It's one thing for the odds to be off this much at some track on a random Tuesday when the win pool is $3,000, but it's another to see it for supposed Triple Crown races. What it says to me is that the track doesn't have much regard for their wagering product. Which then leads to the next question, if the track doesn't care, why should I care enough to bet on it?

Fortunately, the solution is simple. At the very least for the major races, have a human being set the odds. It would take a matter of minutes for someone at the track to establish more reasonable odds for the bigger races. Even disregarding odds and not even setting a morning line altogether would be a better alternative to putting out odds that make zero sense. Either have some pride or don't do it at all.

One thing that would put an end to the automated odds in a heartbeat would be if they were used as the basis for fixed odds wagering. If the track was accountable for the odds put forth and exposed themselves to risk by allowing Seven Colors to be odds of 6-1 in the Messenger or Kierkegaard K in the Yonkers Trot at 5-1, you can be sure there'd be a change in a hurry. But like they say, there's no incentive to change if there's no consequence for being wrong.

In the Messenger Stakes, Seven Colors looks like the biggest misfire in the automated odds. So much so that I would genuinely love to know what criteria in the algorithm led the computer to establish those odds for him. We're dealing with top stakes connections in trainer Brian Brown and driver Tim Tetrick, a hugely advantageous post position 2, with his two prior races being a near-record 1:48.1 win over Pennsylvania Sires Stakes foes at Harrah's Philadelphia, followed by a 1:48.3 mile where he went first over in his North America Cup elimination against next-out and eventual winner It's My Show, just missing that final by a half-length or so. Anything can happen in the Messenger and it's not to say that Seven Colors is a cinch to win, but one thing for sure is that he will not be 6-1 come race time.

The role of programmed favorite in the Messenger will go to Captain Batboy at odds of 9-2. What's interesting here is that a case could certainly be made for him. He's not nearly as accomplished as some others here, but he did recently win his qualifier in 1:49.3 over older pacing star Lochinvar Art. With that said, his starting slot in post 5 is just so-so, and again, it might be interesting to know what the algorithm sees that would make him a favorite over Seven Colors, or even Annapolis Hanover for that matter who is also stakes-tested and has drawn the coveted rail position.

Even stranger in the race is a horse named American Fling, who at 5-1 is the second favorite. He came off a second in a New York Sire Stakes race and prior to that was third in an overnight at The Meadows. The funny thing is that while he is 5-1, Thunder Hunter Joe is 9-1. These two horses raced against each other last out at Vernon where despite having a worse post, 5, Thunder Hunter Joe was the odds-on favorite that race and accordingly, defeated second choice in that race American Fling who started from the rail. None of it makes sense.

In the $300,000 Yonkers Trot, Kierkegaard K is the fifth-best horse in the morning line and will likely go off as the favorite. The Chapter Seven colt has been untouchable this year in three starts and is on many lists as one of the top Hambletonian contenders at this juncture. His 1:50.3 win two back at Vernon is easily the fastest mark of anyone else in this race. Last week in his elimination, albeit with a massive post advantage on rival Ari Ferrari J, Kierkegaard K was odds of 2-5 while the former was 3-1. In the Yonkers Trot final, Kierkegaard K again has the post advantage, though has been made odds of just 5-1 while Ari Ferrari J has been made the 5-2 favorite out of post 5.

There's a few other nice 3-year-old trotters in here that include: fellow elimination winner Up Your Deo who was also third two back in the New Jersey Sires Stakes Final and is a Svanstedt stablemate to Kierkegaard K; Yonkers Trot elimination runner-up Chapercraz as well as Crown who goes for Melander and Sears. But should every one of them be higher regarded than Kierkegaard K?

Determining who will actually end up winning these races is far more difficult than simply establishing morning lines that are reflective of which horses that bettors will gravitate towards. For the amount of little effort it takes to do in the premier races, it's something that tracks should be getting right.

Taking a shot with 'Fling' in the Messenger

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

American Fling has shown the ability to step around a half-mile track, so the defending New York Sire Stakes champion earned the chance to step out tonight (June 30) in the $250,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes for 3-year-old pacers at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Last year, American Fling competed four times on half-mile ovals in NYSS events and posted three wins and a third. His 1:55.1 victory at Buffalo established a track record, and he also had a 1:55 triumph at Yonkers and 1:53.2 score at Saratoga.

Heading into this year, American Fling was not eligible to the Messenger, but his owners paid February's $6,000 supplemental nomination fee to get into the race. The Messenger is the first jewel in the Pacing Triple Crown.

"We wanted to give him a shot in a major on a half," said trainer Randy Bendis, who owns the gelding with Reed Broadway and Pollack Racing. "This is his one step out of New York [sire stakes action]. He loves the half, that's really his calling card. We really believe it's his strength."

American Fling, a son of American Ideal—Feeling You, was purchased for $25,000 at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. His dam was a millionaire and Yonkers regular, winning 19 of 53 races there, including the 2013 Blue Chip Matchmaker Series championship.

For his career, American Fling has won six of 13 starts, hit the board four more times, and earned $266,280. This season, he has a win, second, and third in three races. He heads to tonight's start off a second-place finish in a division of the NYSS at Vernon Downs, where he was beaten by a half-length by Messenger rival Thunder Hunter Joe.

"He raced well at Vernon; we were happy with him," Bendis said. "We didn't bring him back until a little later because everything in New York is more compact this year, starting in June and going pretty consistently into September. I think he's come back super. He grew up a little bit, got a little thicker through the shoulder. He's a strong, compact kind of colt.

"Maturity has probably been his biggest asset. From his first race as a 2-year-old, he's been a very laidback horse. He doesn't get himself in trouble. He's very professional. He was like racing a 5-year-old as a 2-year-old. Going from track to track in New York can be daunting sometimes for young horses, but it didn't bother him in the least."

American Fling will start the Messenger from post 4 with Jason Bartlett listed to drive for trainer Ed Hart, who handles the horse's conditioning for Bendis when American Fling is in New York. Hart won the 2011 Messenger with Roll With Joe.

"Ed has done a really good professional job for us, just like he always does," Bendis said.

The Messenger attracted a field of 10 horses, with all advancing directly to the final, which will be raced at the added distance of 1-1/16 miles. Eight horses will be on the starting gate while two, Bamboozler and Joemikiyoursofine, will leave from the second tier.

"This is Jason's racetrack, and he knows it well," Bendis said about Bartlett, who has won 11 driving titles at Yonkers and tops the standings again this year. "We'll just turn it over to him and let him do his thing."

Annapolis Hanover, a winner on the Grand Circuit this year, is the richest horse in the field with $305,470 in purses. The group also features two horses undefeated in 2023: Thunder Hunter Joe (3-for-3) and Its A Me Mario (5-for-5). Both are coming off New York Sire Stakes victories.

Annapolis Hanover and Thunder Hunter Joe were supplemental nominees.

The Messenger is part of a four-stakes night for 3-year-olds at Yonkers on Friday. The track also hosts the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, which is the first jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown, as well as the $115,000 Park MGM Filly Pace and $100,000 New York New York Mile for filly trotters.

Racing begins at 7 p.m. (EDT). For complete entries, click here.

Toscano duo seek crowns in Yonkers stakes

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Linda Toscano will send out highly regarded contenders in tonight's (June 30) two stakes races for 3-year-old fillies at MGM Yonkers Raceway with trotter Sadie Hanover looking to remain undefeated this season and pacer Ucandoit Blue Chip, who holds a special connection to the trainer's heart, aiming to continue her own winning ways.

Sadie Hanover is 5-for-5 this year as she heads to the $100,000 New York New York Mile for sophomore female trotters. The race attracted a field of nine horses, with all advancing directly to the final, which will be contested at an added distance of 1-1/16 miles. Eight horses will be on the starting gate while one, Warrawee Yes, will leave from the second tier.

Scott Zeron will drive Sadie Hanover, who starts from post 2. She is 5-2 on the morning line, the second choice behind 2-1 favorite Walner Payton.

Last season, Sadie Hanover won one of five races and finished third four times on her way to $17,400 in purses. This year, the daughter of Chapter Seven—Southwind Percy opened her campaign with a Grand Circuit win in a division of the Lady Suffolk at Freehold Raceway and most recently captured a division of the Empire Breeders Classic at Vernon Downs to push her career earnings to $150,454.

She is the fastest 3-year-old filly trotter this season, thanks to her 1:51.3 score in the EBC, and her $133,054 in purses this year rank second.

"I loved her last year, but she was going through growing pains," Toscano said. "She showed enough heart and she showed she had a beautiful gait, she just needed time to mature. She came back this year a different horse. She's been a pleasure."

Sadie Hanover has shown versatility in her wins this season, with gate-to-wire triumphs in the Lady Suffolk and EBC and off-the-pace victories in her remaining three starts. In the EBC, she reached the opening quarter-mile in :26.1 and was never threatened.

Sadie Hanover (Scott Zeron) winning at Freehold.

“Shocking,” Toscano said about the performance. “She had a beautiful trip at Tioga the week before [in a New York Sire Stakes division]; she was second-over and she’s been finishing well. In her last start, because of Vernon, we had to kind of race her a little bit differently. I think we were all surprised that she was as strong and as quick as she was. She’s just a good girl this year.”

Sadie Hanover’s only previous start on a half-mile track, such as Yonkers, was in the Lady Suffolk. She cruised around the Freehold oval in 1:56.3 and won by 10-1/4 lengths.

“She raced really well at Freehold,” said Toscano, who trains Sadie Hanover – a $240,000 yearling purchase at the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale – for owners The Bay’s Stable, Blue Ridge Stable, Carmen Iannacone, and Gary Cocco. “Her versatility is her best quality. She gets around any size racetrack and she’s easy to drive.”

Sadie Hanover is one of eight Hambletonian Oaks-eligible horses in the New York New York Mile. The others are Life Itself, Canterbury Hanover, Walner Payton, Emira Mil IT, Tipsy Moni, Secret Volo and Warrawee Yes.

Walner Payton, trained by Chris Ryder, has hit the board in 14-of-16 career races and earned $736,200. She has won five races and finished second seven times, all behind 2022 Dan Patch Award-winner Special Way.

In Friday’s $115,000 Park MGM Filly Pace, which will be contested at the standard one-mile distance, Toscano’s Ucandoit Blue Chip is the 3-1 second choice behind Brett Pelling-trained Earthwindfire at 8-5. Each won her elimination race last week to lead the charge to the final.

Ucandoit Blue Chip, a two-time New Jersey Sire Stakes champion, is a daughter of Keystone Velocity out of Molly Can Do It. Toscano trained Molly Can Do It over her final three seasons of racing and the mare gave the trainer her first Breeders Crown victory in 2002.

A $32,000 yearling buy at the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale, Ucandoit Blue Chip is owned by Bill Elliott. She is the 11th foal out of Molly Can Do It, and the first trained by Toscano.

“We love Molly,” Toscano said. “[Ucandoit Blue Chip] looks just like her. I really didn’t pick her, Bill Elliott picked her. I have her because of her mother. He came over to me and asked if I would train her. I wanted to train one out of Molly. It’s absolutely special.”

Ucandoit Blue Chip has hit the board in 10-of-13 lifetime starts, winning seven. She won her Park MGM elimination by a nose over True Blue Hanover in 1:53. She will start the final from post two with Zeron in the sulky.

“She never gives you the impression that she’s any good at all, but yet on the other hand, you put her in a race and she knows what to do,” Toscano said. “She’s just kind of like a little machine. She does what we ask her to do. She’s just a nice horse.

“We got a good post, now we just need a little bit of racing luck.”

Friday’s card at Yonkers also includes the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, which is the first jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown, and the $250,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes, the first jewel in the Pacing Triple Crown.

Fields drawn for tonight's four Grand Circuit finals at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

On Monday afternoon (June 26), the open draws took place for tonight's (June 30) four Grand Circuit finals for 3-year-olds at MGM Yonkers Raceway: the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, the $250,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes, the $115,000 Park MGM Pace and the $100,000 New York New York Mile. The MGM Yonkers Trot and the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes are the first legs of the Trotting and Pacing Triple Crowns, respectively.

Trainer Ake Svanstedt swept the MGM Yonkers Trot eliminations last Friday (June 23) and had good luck in the draw for the final as Up Your Deo landed post 2 and stablemate Kierkegaard K is right next to him in post 3. Svanstedt co-owns Up Your Deo, who set a track record in his elimination victory, so he will drive him, leaving the call on Kierkegaard K to Mark MacDonald.

The other event to require eliminations was the Park MGM Pace for fillies, and the winners of those races, Earthwindfire and Ucandoit Blue Chip, will depart from posts 5 and 2, respectively, in the championship.

As for the MGM Grand Messenger and New York New York Mile, they went straight to their finals without eliminations and will be conducted at the distance of a mile and sixteenth with two horses starting from trailing posts in the MGM Grand Messenger and one horse in a trailing post in the New York New York Mile.

Clever Cody favored in $150,000 Next Gen Colt Pace

The Panderosa colt looks to pay early dividends for Canadian based ownership group.

By Jay Wolf

For the past few weeks, Ohio track officials and horsemen have had a keen eye on what was coming from the Great White North: mainly the smokey remnants of the Canadian wildfires that have caused racing cancelations and training delays.

Since his eye-popping qualifier on June 24, many eyes have been on Clever Cody as he prepares for the $150,000 Next Generation at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday night (July 1).

The freshman son of The Panderosa is trained and co-owned by Dr. Ian Moore, who shares ownership with Francois Lecomte (St. Hyacinthe, QC), Michael Goldberg (Toronto, ON), Gordon McComb (Paris, ON) and Ron

Claus Andersen

Dr. Ian Moore (shown at Delaware, OH on the day he won the Little Brown Jug in 2008 with Shadow Play) will try to win Saturday's $150,000 Next Generation at Eldorado Scioto Downs with Clever Cody.

McLellan's R G Mcgroup Ltd. (Bathurst, NB) under the banner of the Clever Cody Stable.

"[Francois] had a [The] Panderosa before and he wanted another one," Moore said.

The Panderosa, who is now 27 years of age, was the winner of the 1999 Little Brown Jug and has produced foals that have earned $119 million. He was the sire of Shadow Play.

Moore and McLellan teamed up to win the 2008 Little Brown Jug with Shadow Play.

Clever Cody was one of just three The Panderosa offspring available at last fall's Ohio Select Sale. His dam is Cams Van Go, a winner of $522,511 during her career, and his granddam was the world champion, Cam's Valentine.

"I asked Brian Brown looked at him for me," Moore said. "My owner gave me a $20,000 limit, but I told Brian he could go to $25,000."

Clever Cody was hammered down for $24,000 from breeder Marvin J. Raber's consignment.

A couple days after the colt arrived back at Moore's barn at the Shamrock Training Centre in Ontario, Clever Cody ran into a fence post in his paddock and opened a large gash in his chest.

"He had a huge hole in his shoulder, where it meets the upper part of the forearm," Moore said. "You could stick your whole fist in there. My associate put him back together, but it broke open

“ He had a huge hole in his shoulder, where it meets the upper part of the forearm. You could stick your whole fist in there. My associate put him back together, but it broke open again a couple of days later, so we treated it as an open wound. You can barely see the scar there now. It healed very well. ” again a couple of days later, so we treated it as an open wound. You can barely see the scar there now. It healed very well.”

Clever Cody trained down well this winter and was sent out for his first qualifying effort at Woodbine Mohawk Park on June 16, a second-place effort in 1:57.1, with a :26.1 final quarter.

That mile had his connections thinking about a spot in the rich early season event.

The Next Generation events are restricted to Ohio bred 2-year-olds and required a $10,000 nomination fee paid on May 1.

His second effort was eight days later and was a gate-to-wire win in 1:53.4, establishing the fastest 2-year-old mile in Canada this season.

That impressive win confirmed their thoughts and the group was able to purchase a spot in the $150,000 freshman colt pace.

Clever Cody, who will get the driving services of Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., drew post 3 and has been tapped as the morning line favorite.

Moore, who is also an accomplished pilot, has his eyes on the Central Ohio weather forecast to see if he will be able to be at Scioto Downs on Saturday evening.

“The [flying] weather doesn’t look that good at the moment,” Moore said. “The aviation forecast is for low ceilings at 2,500 feet and a 50 per cent chance of thundershowers.

“If I can’t fly, I am not driving. We’ll have to see.”

If Moore has to stay in Ontario, he will have plenty to keep himself busy as he has three pupils in ‘to go’ Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park, including his 2023 Little Brown Jug hopeful, Stockade Seelster.

The four $150,000 Next Generation events highlight a 16-race card at the south Columbus oval. The undercard will feature two divisions of the $110,000 (div.) Ohio Sire Stakes for sophomore male pacers and a $30,000 open pace.

The first post is scheduled for 5:50 p.m.

Trotting Down Under has burst onto the global radar

Aldebaran Zeus is invited to the Yonkers International on the heels of Just Believe's successful run in Sweden.

by Adam Hamilton

Gone are the days Australian and New Zealand trotters are largely considered to be the poor cousins of the best in Europe and North America.

Sure, there have been some exceptions along the way, like the mighty Scotch Notch in the mid-1980s and Lyell Creek in the early 2000s. But they were freaks.

Just Believe's three recent races in Sweden have brought some serious respect and credibility to our trotting ranks.

And the momentum is continuing even quicker than most expected.

Just when we thought it might be this time next year when we started to see the fruits of Just Believe's labor, big and exciting news has emerged from the U.S.

Another of our most talented trotters, high-class speedster Aldebaran Zeus, will chase international glory.

Connections of the multiple Group 1 winner have accepted an invitation to tackle some of the world's best trotters in the $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot in New York on Sept. 9.

Aldebaran Zeus has won 18 races and almost $420,000 for trainer Brent Lilley and high-profile owner/breeder Duncan McPherson OAM, who has been a leader in promoting trotting in Australia.

Crucially, Aldebaran Zeus led throughout to beat Just Believe at Group 1 level at Menangle in March. It was Just Believe's last race before heading to Sweden where he finished second at Ostersund and third at Boden against elite company in his second and third starts there.

Just Believe's form line was further strengthened when Click Bait, who he finished just behind at Ostersund, cruised to victory in a feature race at Kalmar last weekend.

Lilley, a former Kiwi, is no stranger to taking on global challenges. He took former brilliant mare Maori Time to the Elitloppet in Sweden in 2018, but she made a mistake and lost all chance.

Aldebaran Zeus is one of two-star trotters in Lilley's care. The other, Queen Elida, has already been touted by the trainer as a possible Elitloppet raider for next year.

Most recently, Aldebaran Zeus campaigned in New Zealand's biggest trotting races, starting with a Group 2 win at Cambridge over the flying mile before he was unplaced in subsequent longer distance races.

"I'm so thrilled to be invited and we've all jumped at the chance to go," McPherson said about Yonkers. "Sure, it's nice for me and the team around the horse and Aldebaran Park, but I'm equally excited that our southern hemisphere trotters are attracting the attention they deserve and can show their racing prowess on the international stage.

“As we saw recently with Just Believe's campaign in Sweden, our trotters here in Australia are more than competitive in this company and the world is now watching with a different level of expectation. These types of opportunities don't just happen. I appreciate the work that goes on behind the scenes and thank HRA for its continued efforts to promote our industry in new markets. I'm pleased to be a small cog in what is a bright and exciting future for our sport.”

Aldebaran Zeus (Chris Alford) winning at Club Menangle.

“As we saw recently with Just Believe’s campaign in Sweden, our trotters here in Australia are more than competitive in this company and the world is now watching with a different level of expectation. These types of opportunities don’t just happen. I appreciate the work that goes on behind the scenes and thank HRA for its continued efforts to promote our industry in new markets. I’m pleased to be a small cog in what is a bright and exciting future for our sport.”

Lilley said he cannot wait to take on the world again.

“The experience I gained through Maori Time’s trip to Sweden will be invaluable in having my horse ready for Yonkers in September,” he said. “He’s handled his interstate and New Zealand travel without missing a beat, so I expect he’ll handle the flights and quarantine in Chicago without issue. We’ll time it for him to peak on the day.

“The track suits, the [racing] pattern suits and an Australian horse is due to draw well in a big international race. I’m expecting big things from my horse.”

The man behind Aldebaran Zeus’ invite, Klaus Koch, has long been a follower and fan of Australian trotting.

He made Knight Pistol’s historic Scandinavian raid happen in 1997 when Kerryn Manning became just the second female to win a Group 1 race in that part of the world in Norway’s Harley Davidson Trot.

“I was so thrilled to see what Just Believe did in Sweden and in my role as the recruiter for the Yonkers club, I’ve had my eye on Aldebaran Zeus for some time,” Koch said. “He is a fast trotter with good early speed and the mile racing around a track like Yonkers should really suit him. And, of course, he beat Just Believe over a mile when they last met.

“I’m sure he’ll be very competitive, especially with a good post position [barrier draw].”

Just Believe will just be returning to Australia when Aldebaran Zeus is preparing to leave for the U.S.

Solvalla racing manager Anders Malmrot, the man who made Just Believe’s Swedish trip possible, is still glowing after his deeds.

“I’m so impressed about Harry [Just Believe’s stable name],” Malmrot said. “I knew he was a good horse, but I didn’t expect him to be this good. After Ostersund and Boden everyone is, ‘Wow, what a horse we have seen.’ They are mainly in shock at how good he is. Everyone here thought Harry had no chance in the Elitloppet and they obviously told me that as well.

“Something has changed and everyone sees how we must build our sport into something bigger. From now on, and I believe it for everyone here in Sweden, they will be watching the Inter Dominion and the Great Southern Star with much bigger interest now when they see how good your [Down Under] horses are. I think this will make such a difference in how we see each other’s races.

“We have seen Just Believe has won the big races but it’s not by so many lengths every time. You have so many good horses beneath Just Believe. Obviously, it could be some more, we will see about that when it comes to these races who is in shape and what we can do about it. It’s a great cost to take horses across from Australia to Sweden, so it’s a little about that, but there’s no doubt about it, your horses are good enough.”

“Something has changed and everyone sees how we must build our sport into something bigger. From now on, and I believe it for everyone here in Sweden, they will be watching the Inter Dominion and the Great Southern Star with much bigger interest now when they see how good your [Down Under] horses are. I think this will make such a difference in how we see each other’s races.”

~ Anders Malmrot

Prominent Swedish racing journalist Dennis Englebo is another unashamed Just Believe fan.

“There were some doubters here in Sweden, but they have been convinced,” Englebo said. “Just Believe is not only the best horse in Australia, he’s also one of the best horses in the whole world. His performances in Sweden were amazing, and after only three races and one month in Sweden, he’s already a favorite among the audience. I’ve heard so many voices after those last two races saying they wished he stayed longer. Now, everyone hopes that he will get back next year, to get revenge. Not only in the Elitloppet, but also for the chance to actually win a race in Sweden. His performances this year were great.

“With a star like Just Believe I’m sure that the Australian trotting industry will get more highlighted. And that’s bloody fantastic because we both want and need every single person in our sport. Thank you Greg Sugars, Jess Tubbs and all the owners for letting Sweden borrow your star for some time. We can’t wait to see you here again.”

Before then, us Down Under trotting fans will get to cheer for Aldebaran Zeus at Yonkers.

Just like Just Believe in the Elitloppet, we know the enormity of the challenge, but it’s so exciting to be part of it.

Flashback Friday

For Greg Blanchard and Dave Little, it's a co-host reunion nearly 30 years in the making.

by Debbie Little

The last time Greg Blanchard, 52, was on set with Dave Little, 61, Bill Clinton was in the White House.

That long drought will come to an end this weekend as Blanchard joins Little on the desk at The Meadowlands.

"I think, you know, it'll be like riding a bike," Blanchard said with a laugh.

Blanchard grew up on Prince Edward Island (PEI), and met and worked with Little for the first and, so far, only time at Charlottetown Driving Park (CDP) in 1996 when Little came to the Maritimes to watch an international driving tournament.

"When you meet a fellow diehard racing fan, first and foremost, there's almost an instant connection there, right?" Blanchard said of Little. "And you know, that's the first thing I think that I remember about Dave, just how passionate he is about racing. And when you share that common interest, there's a lot to talk about, and then there's just an instant comfort level.

"You know, you couldn't get a nicer guy, a more outgoing guy and, yeah, just a fun person to spend time with and obviously great to work with as well when you have that natural comfort level.”

After they race, we find them a place!

Blanchard first popped up on Little’s radar in 1995, the year before they actually met.

“I knew him as the guy from PEI who worked at Freehold, and figured this guy has to have a lot of passion to relocate so far from home,” Little said. “He used to call the fourth race on the card, so I’d always listen to see if he was any good. He was. I didn’t know at the time that he had bigger fish to fry down the road.”

Twenty-seven years ago, almost to the day, Blanchard, Little and then CDP track announcer Boomer Gallant took turns in front of the camera on the track’s “Stretch Drive” show as well as in the booth, calling that evening’s races.

Little was coming off his second year of TV work during his first stint at The Meadowlands and clearly remembers his first trip to PEI.

“When I did the broadcast with Boomer and Greg at CDP, it was so much fun, because at the time, I still wanted to be a race caller more than anything,” Little said. “The three of us shuffled between on-cameras and calling the races, which was, to me, innovative. Boomer was the weatherman on the CBC at the time, so I expected him to be really good as a co-host, but Greg surprised me at how polished he was at such a young age.

“Fast forward to now, Greg is without question one of the best TV hosts – along with Gary Seibel – in the sport. So, getting to sit alongside him again is something I’m looking forward to in a big way. I’m confident the chemistry will pick right up where it left off 27 years ago.”

Blanchard – director of equine programming at The Raceway at The Western Fair District in London, ON – who will be joining Little at The Meadowlands this weekend, is no stranger to the East Rutherford mile oval, since over the last few years he’s made almost annual visits as a part of the team for the Hambletonian show on CBS Sports Network.

“So, it’s been a long time since Dave [Little] and I have actually worked together,” Blanchard said. “You can tell he’s very comfortable to work with and he shares the passion. He’s got that great energy on camera, too, that really plays well.

“I likely worked more with Dave [Brower], I think, than anyone else in terms of The Meadowlands’ team.”

Blanchard was part of the CBS show with Brower on several occasions, including last year, when he co-hosted with him. This will be Blanchard’s first trip back to The Big M since Brower’s unexpected death in October of 2022.

“We had a great amount of mutual respect, but a good friendship as well,” Blanchard said of Brower. “He was one of those guys that you would learn from; you sort of took a little bit away every time you would work with him. He was one of the best in the business, for sure.

“So, it was obviously devastating to hear the news last year and it was a complete shock and I’m sure when I’m at The Meadowlands for the first time, some emotions will flood back.”

Blanchard is not the only one expected to get a little verklempt tomorrow night (July 1) as The Meadowlands hosts the inaugural Dave Brower Memorial, an open pace, formerly known as the Roll With Joe.

Hokkaido Jiel upsets at Vincennes

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (June 25) massive race card at Vincennes included several top races with high purses and some great performances were played out in front of the Paris track's audience.

The $215,000 Prix Rene Balliere, for older trotters, was one of the top races during the afternoon and Elitloppet winner Hohneck made an interesting start after his journey to Sweden in the end of May.

But Philippe Allaire's trotter had to capitulate this time. Hohneck hit the lead after 700 meters and the pace was high throughout the race. Top trotter Idao de Tillard connected on the leader's outside with 600 meters to go and seemed to disarm Hohneck shortly before the finish line. But Idao de Tillard went off stride with 50 meters to go and from second over, Hokkaido Jiel (Brillantissime) sprinted to victory in a strong mile rate of 1:51.1 over 1.3 miles.

Hohneck was second and Oracle Tile third.

Allaire-trained Koctel du Dain (Booster Winner) impressed when he claimed the $215,000 Prix Albert Viel for 3-year-olds. David Thomain steered the trotter to a safe win after a trip mostly on the lead and Koctel du Dain hit the wire in a mile rate of 1:56, a stakes record.

Jean-Michel Bazire has a new star in 4-year-old Joshua Tree (Bold Eagle), who won the $85,000 Prix Raymond Fouard for 4-year-olds. Joshua Tree took over the lead with a half-mile remaining in the race and from the front position, the Bold Eagle son was outstanding in a mile rate of 1:53.1 over 1.3 miles.

Bazire's successful Sunday was completed when his Jasper des Charmes (Kesaco Phedo) claimed the $250,000 Prix du President de la Republique monté race with jockey Eric Raffin.

Gerard Forni

Hokkaido Jiel pulling off the upset in Sunday's $215,000 Prix Rene Balliere for older trotters at Vincennes.

In the $250,000 Prix de Normandie for 5-year-olds racing under saddle, Joel Hallais-trained Ina du Rib (Uhlan du Val) came home as a winner in a stakes record of 1:55.1 over 3,000 meters.

SET FOR E3 FINALS IN SWEDEN

Bergsåker plays host to the first $400,000 E3 finals for 3-year-olds on Saturday (July 1) afternoon and Swedish harness racing fans have made acquaintance with a very special trotter from Alessandro Gocciadoro's barn this spring and summer.

Gocciadoro's Expo Wise As (Ready Cash) was bred in Italy and will compete for a total purse of $200,000. Most of the experts agree Expo Wise As will win this E3 final over 1.3 miles.

Gocciadoro claims that this horse might be the next big star trotter in Italy and Europe, so the duo will enter Saturday's final as heavy favorites.

In the fillies' final, it's more open. Finnish contribution Kinglet Bird (Nuncio) is undefeated after four starts and will begin from post 1 in her first stakes final.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

For third-generation horseman Jacob Baird it's all about family and his horses

by Chris Lomon

The victory at the half-mile oval 21 months ago was more meaningful than the milestone it represented.

As the starter car picked up speed on Sept. 6, 2021 at Van Wert, the racetrack that shares the same name with the Ohio city it's located in, Jacob Baird was hoping this would be the moment he could earn his first driving win.

He would have been happy to make it a reality with any horse, but the pacer he was in rein to would make it that much more special.

Pappy's Legacy, a bay son of Bigrisk, bred and owned at the time by his father, Darrell Baird, is named after the younger Baird's grandfather.

The bay gelding was sent to the front by Jacob with the duo taking their five rivals through an opening panel in :32.3 over a track listed as 'good.' A half-length on top at the half, their lead expanded to 1 ½ lengths at the stretch call.

That advantage widened easily in the final strides as the pair came home 3 ½ lengths on top in a time of 2:03.4.

For Jacob, the result was twice as nice.

"That was great," Jacob said. "There was no better feeling than winning with that horse. To be able to do that in memory of my grandfather and all he has done for myself and our family, it really meant everything. It was a great feeling coming down the lane and knowing we were going to win. To win my first race as a driver with that horse and to see how happy my family was is an amazing memory."

Another special horse for Jacob comes in the form of Union Station, a 7-year-old bay son of Somebeachsomewhere.

Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, the gelding has been a standout since his arrival in Jacob's barn last August.

"Union Station, I own him myself and I got my first training win with him, so he's up there for me," Jacob said. "He's just an old, classy horse. I bought him with my own money and he's my pet. Any time I win with him is a good feeling."

Jacob, who was given his first pari-mutuel drive by trainer Nick Clegg, has been a staple at the racetrack and barns since he was 5. He started helping his father jog and train horses when he was 13.

"I was hooked from a very young age," Jacob said. "It's easy to fall in love with horses and the sport. I think I knew from the time I was in the first grade that this was what I wanted to do."

Jacob Baird's
first career
driving win came piloting Pappy's
Legacy to victory
at the Van Wert County Fair in Ohio in 2021.

A graduate of Vanlue High School, Jacob was a three sport multi-letter winner for the Wildcats. Horse racing, however, was always first in his eyes.

He drove in his first official race in 2020, the one and only start of that year. He posted a 1-1-4 mark from 17 drives the following campaign and recorded four wins in 2022.

Last year, Jacob, who launched the training side of his career, was also named the recipient of the 2022 Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association Terry Holton Youth Award.

The honor is awarded to a youth between the ages of 13 and 19 who has actively participated in harness racing during 2022 as a driver, trainer, groom, breeder, race office/publicity assistant, track maintenance crew, or has provided outstanding service to harness racing.

Now in its 20th year, the award is named for Terry Holton, a 2005 inductee into the Ohio Harness Racing Hall of Fame. Holton of Newark, OH, was the winner of more than 1,700 races in his career. He overcame several life-changing obstacles, including overcoming pancreatic cancer.

"It certainly meant a lot to be recognized," Jacob said. "I'm extremely grateful to have received that honor."

Jacob, who has already established several personal-best numbers in 2023, is keeping his focus on the short term while navigating the challenges that come with being a new face in the sport.

"I really appreciate the opportunities that come my way and I do my best to make the most of them," Jacob said. "There are a lot of people in the business who are established, so I'm just trying to fit in the best I can. For me, every day is a new day, and I find a way to stay positive. I don't get too down when things aren't going my way and I don't get carried away when things are going well. I don't like to look into the future too much. I prefer to stay in the moment."

Having veteran horse people to lean on has been a boon to Jacob's development.

He takes something away from each of those conversations.

"When I'm racing, I try to talk to as many people as I can, ask people what they think, what they would do in a certain situation," he said. "If I'm at Buffalo, I ask [decorated driver] Jim Morrill a lot of questions. I'll do the same with Keith Kash Jr. and Nick Clegg too. I ask them a lot and they always give great advice."

Jacob, who runs his own stable, also appreciates the daily education he receives from the four horses he currently trains.

"They are all different and each one has specific needs," he said. "There is a lot of problem-solving that goes on in this business, so you need to pay attention to every little detail with each horse and come up with a plan that suits them best. What I

“ I was hooked from a very young age. It's easy to fall in love with horses and the sport. I think I knew from the time I was in the first grade that this was what I wanted to do. ” want is to have a consistent stable, whatever that number is, and keep building on what is already there."

~ Jacob Baird

The ultimate goal for Jacob is to hold a Little Brown Jug trophy aloft one day.

For now, he will maintain the day-to-day approach to his craft, while also spending as much time as possible with family outside the demands of the racing world.

"It's always been about family, just hanging out with them and catching up with what is going on in their lives," Jacob said. "I'll play video games every now and again, but there isn't ever really much time for that. Family is first and foremost for me."

Their continuous support continues to drive Jacob forward in his career.

"It is everything for me," he said. "Every time I win with one of my parents' horses, it makes it even more special. I was lucky enough to get that win with Pappy's Legacy for my grandfather, and that was just an amazing moment for all of us."

And while it might not be apparent to those who watch a race Jacob is driving in, there is a certain element found on his red and white racing colors that perfectly illustrate what family means to the young horseman.

The symbols were designed for a specific reason.

"Those three diamonds represent the three generations of racing in our family," Jacob said. "I wanted to have those included because that's what this sport has always been about for me."

Pennsylvania SIRE STAKES REPORT

PA pacing fillies put on a swift show at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Yannick Gingras drove the winners of both divisions of the $148,148 third preliminary of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday evening (June 25) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

The Betting Line filly C Is For Cookie, who swept the Weiss Series earlier here and also won an PA All-Stars event, is now six-for-six for the year at Pocono after becoming the only double divisional Sire Stakes winner after her 1:50 victory, which gave her a new mark. C Is For Cookie took the field to a :26.1 quarter, then sat behind My Little Captain and Cultured, both in tight quarters off the first bend, as they slugged it out in front of the stands, with the favored Cultured three-wide much of the three-eighths and only on top at the :53.4 half.

Before the 1:21.2 three-quarters had been reached, Gingras and C Is For Cookie were back on the move, and in the stretch, she went to the lead then held off My Little Captain in the Pocono Pike by 1¼ lengths. The Linda Toscano-trained filly is owned by Birnam Wood Farms.

The other Sire Stakes division went a tick quicker, as Gingras again used rallying tactics to reduce the mark of the Always B Miki filly Always B Naughty to 1:49.4. Unsuccessful after leading at the stretch calls in her two previous PASS outings, Always B Naughty sat just off a pace argued by Odds On Hail Mary (:26.3) and Front Page Story (:54.3), then moved up raw to a 1:22.2 three-quarters.

Always B Naughty was the fresh horse late, winning by 2½ lengths over favored Odds On Hail Mary for trainer Nancy Takter, who is also co-owner with J L Benson Stables Inc. and R.B.H. Ventures Inc.

Four of the five horses succeeding in the Stallion Series reduced their career bests, with three StS winners sired by Sweet Lou, including the only two double series winners, who also happened to be the only two favorites to win in the night's stakes action.

The quicker of the two Sweet Lous with two StS triumphs was also the only of all the Stallion Series winners to win by more than a neck: Quick E, now five-for-five in 2023 after a 1:51.2

mile for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Brett Pelling, and the partnership of Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Bottom Line Racing LLC. Breaking the string of new marks, but only by the slimmest of margins, was the double winner Butterfingers, whose 1:52.4 win was a fifth slower than her mark; Tim Tetrick handled her while winning by a head for owner/trainer Michael Hall.

Completing the Sweet Lou Sunday success story was How Sweet Is That, coming from third-in to win by a neck in 1:53 for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Robert Cleary, and owners Oompa's Farm Inc., Robert Mondillo, Craig Henderson, and Richard Gutnick.

Fastest Stallion Series winner was the one with the smallest winning margin: Racin Hungry, a Stay Hungry filly who came off a fast three-quarters to take a nose decision in 1:50.1 for driver Joe Bongiorno, trainer/sister Jenn, and owners Glenn Goller and Stephen Demeter. In the other Stallion Series race, 41-1 shot Duchess Hill was not fancied to come home in :26.4 and take a neck decision in 1:53.1, but the Betting Line filly did just that for driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Chris Ryder, and owner Eric Good.

Sister Mary Maude romps in NYSS at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek / Buffalo Raceway

Sister Mary Maude showed that her win on Sunday was no fluke as she bounced right back on Wednesday (June 28) to take an eight-length win in her $35,200 division of the New York Sire Stakes for 2-year-old filly trotters at Buffalo Raceway.

In a tune up before her Sire Stakes event in Western New York, Sister Mary Maude posted a 1-1/4 length decision in 2:01 on Sunday afternoon at Saratoga Raceway, paying a healthy $74.50. While she wasn't the fastest on Wednesday, Sister Mary Maude was certainly the most dominating in getting the $10.20 victory.

Other winners in the two $35,200 (approximate) dashes were Communion Money ($6.00) and Crowbar Girl ($4.60).

Sister Mary Maude, the only filly to have already broken her maiden, showed that a little bit of experience paid big dividends. After watching Demin N Diamonds stomp out splits of :31.2 and 1:03.4 to the half, Sister Mary Maude (Bruce Euto) tipped out and scurried quickly to the lead.

Reaching the three-quarter marker in 1:34.0, Sister Mary Maude threw down a :28.4 last split to bury the field in a dialed down 2:02.4 over the fast track. Denim N Diamonds (Phil Fluet) took the distant second place honors with Hippie Shake (Jim Morrill Jr.) finishing in third.

Now a winner twice in three lifetime starts, Sister Mary Maude (Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass) has earned $22,646 for co-owners Shirley Williamson and Helena Archer.

In the fastest race of the three NYSS events, Communion Money (Scott Zeron) took command at the three-quarter marker then had to hold on late to collect a neck victory over Dutee Chand S (Tyler Miller) in 2:00.3. Hurrikane Sweetie (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) picked up the show check.

Communion Money was sitting third, seven lengths behind Shirin at the half. But a slow and steady grind on the outside got her to the lead at the top of the lane as Shirin bobbled and broke stride.

But Communion Money, who appeared to have clear sailing, had actually brought Dutee Chand S along with her first over journey. Things worked out fine as Dutee Chand S ran out of real estate and had to settle for second.

Co-owned by trainer Jared Bako and Ann Yurenka, Communion Money (Crazy Wow—Paya La Renta) earned $17,950 for the win.

The final bracket had Crowbar Girl (Wrenn Jr.) go first over at the opening station and never looked back in notching a 3-1/2 length score over Meepers (Brett Crawford) in 2:01.4. The early tempo setting Really Don't Care (Zeron) picked up the show spot.

After an opening frame of :31.3 posted by Really Don't Care, Crowbar Girl wanted no more of the three hole and went on the rim. Registering times of 1:02. and 1:32.3 with a quarter mile to go, Crowbar Girl used a :29.1 last panel to lock up the triumph.

Co-owned by the Burke Racing Stable, William Switala, James Martin and Weaver Brusceci, Crowbar Girl (Chapter Seven—Miss Trixton) is trained by Ron Burke.

In two of the three $20,000 Excelsior Series races, Champaign ($2.40) was victorious for driver Michael McGivern in 2:05.4 while Barn Cj ($7.80) found there's no place like home as the locally based filly cruised around Buffalo in 2:01.3.

The last three races on the card, including the final $20,000 Excelsior dash, were cancelled for the safety of all participants as the Air Quality Index had exceeded safe levels.

Despite the abbreviated card, driver Kevin Cummings captured four races and Zeron a pair.

Racing will return this afternoon (June 30) at 2:30 p.m. with a 13-race program set. There's a $667 carryover in the Pick-5 which begins in the second race.

IMPRESSIVE 2-YEAR-OLD TALENT ON DISPLAY AT MONTICELLO RACEWAY

On a wet afternoon at Monticello Raceway on Monday (June 26) 29, 2-year-old pacing colts embarked on their pari-mutuel career, racing for total purses in excess of $145,000. It was a fine display of this year's crop of juvenile pacing talent, as the card featured two divisions of New York Sire Stakes and two heats of the Excelsior stakes.

In the first heat of Sire Stakes worth $53,500, the betting public made Jones Hanover (Jordan Stratton) the favorite. The co-favorite, Boston Rocks, the son of Boston Red Rocks, used the pole position to his advantage, as he was the first off the gate subduing a weak threat from Taranaki (Scott Zeron) to take the lead. He was on top at every split :30.1, 1:00.4, 1:30.2. The favorite Jones Hanover made his move at the five-eighths pole to take aim on the leader but was never able to make up enough ground. By the top of the stretch Boston Rocks had two on the pack and put away any contenders to coast home uncontested to score a four-length win in 1:58.1. Jason Bartlett drove the son of Boston Red Rocks for trainer Michael Deters, he is owned by Peter Blood and Rick Berks.

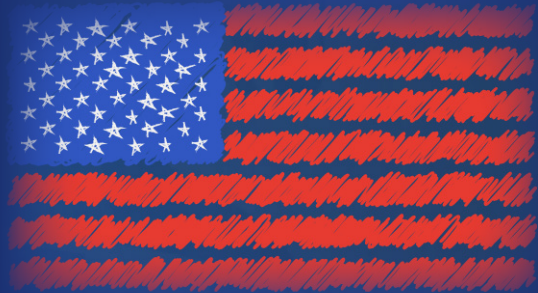

The second division of Sire Stakes was an eight-horse affair and was the best race on the card, showcasing some talented freshman. Hunt Or Be Hunted (Stratton, 11-1) left from post 6 and was the first to the front with Levi Sonic (Lauren Tritton) right behind him as they hit the opening panel in :28.3. The positions remained unchanged until the half in :59.2, when the favorite Avenger Force (Matt Kakaley) who was sitting fifth along the rail, pulled the right line to get in the fray. Cantfindmywayhome (Jason Bartlett) made an authoritative move going down the backside to get the lead, but not for long, as Ameritirc unleashed a big move himself and was suddenly the new leader. As soon as he cleared in the paddock turn, Avenger Force came off the rail to engage Ameritirc in a stretch duel that went down to the very end to get the win in 1:58.1. At some point during the mile the overcheck for Avenger Force became undone but did not have any ill effect. Finishing third was Vandiemer Blue Chip. It was an impressive win for the Travis Alexander trained son of Huntsville who started from post position 8. The winner is owned by Fiddlers Creek Stable LLC of Naples Florida.

The first Excelsior Stake had its fair share of Monticello connections, with three horses trained by local horsemen. Starting from the rail was Escape To America who cut the first half mile with fractions of :29.3 1:01.2. Sitting fifth was Darius who got underway just past half. Escape To America was still showing the way but made a break just before the $\frac{3}{4}$ marker as Darius made the front at the next station in 1:31.1. Darius and Spectacular Plus paced in tandem off the last turn, but Darius put him away with the fastest last quarter of the day of :27.3 for a 1:58.4 and paid \$20.00. Boston Delight (Adam Moeykens) finished third. Darius is a son of Huntsville and is trained by Ray Schnittker and the winning driver was Mark MacDonald. The freshman is owned by Dennis and Patricia Ackerman of Thompson Ridge, NY.

The second division saw Euro Step (Tyler Buter) a son of So Surreal earn his first speed badge after closing to overtake the tempo setting Funky Beach in 1:59.2 for trainer Nick Devita. Euro Step ($13.20) is owned by DR Hamm Dagsboro, G.R. Phillips and Devita Racing Stable.

Track records fall in Kentucky Sire Stakes

by Oak Grove Racing Publicity

Command, Brodeur and Caviart Donovan were the stars of Tuesday's (June 27) Kentucky Sire Stakes competition for 3-year-olds at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming and Hotel by virtue of track record performances in their respective $25,000 second-round events.

In the second division for pacing colts and geldings, carded as race 8, Command sat off a hotly contested :54.3 first half before making a three-wide push to the lead up the backstretch and evading A Cool Moment (driven by Joey Putnam) by 1-3/4 lengths in 1:50, the fastest mile ever at Oak Grove by a 3-year-old pacing gelding. Tim Tetrick drove the son of Captaintreacheraus, who paid $3.22 to win, for Brett Pelling and Diamond Creek Racing.

Three races earlier, Caviart Donovan and driver Tyler Shehan waited patiently in midfield before angling off the pegs with three-sixteenths to go and splitting foes in upper stretch en route to a 1:50.3 win – and a new track record for 3-year-old pacing colts – over Tip Top Cat (Yannick Gingras) and Admiral Hill (Tim Tetrick), who dueled up the backstretch. Trainer Marna Shehan co-owns the victorious Always B Miki colt, who paid $20.56, with Amanda Stephens, David Arboe and Mitchell Bean.

The second split for male trotters (race 7) saw Brodeur and driver Tyler Smith brushed to the fore with a lap to go before out-sprinting a late charge from 6-5 favorite Espresso (Andy Miller) by 3-1/2 lengths in 1:53, a new track record for sophomore trotting colts, and paying $14.54 to win. Trainer Anette Lorentzon co-owns the son of Tactical Landing with ACL Stuteri AB and Kjell Johansson.

Lorentzon and Smith also teamed up to win the 3-year-old filly pace with Keep My Secret ($57.70), who rallied to nose 1-9 favorite Charleston (Tim Tetrick) in 1:51.2. Trotting gelding Talent Scout (1:55.4, Tim Tetrick, $2.84) and trotting filly Mambacita (1:53.3, $2.52, Yannick Gingras), both sent to the post odds-on, completed the day's slate of stakes winners.

All eight $100,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes series finals will take place next Tuesday (July 4).

Live racing at Oak Grove resumes Sunday (July 2); first post is 3 p.m. CDT (4 p.m. EDT).

PATALAN, MACDONALD DOUBLE IN KENTUCKY SIRE STAKES

A pair of prospects for TheStable and the team of trainer Eric Patalan and driver Anthony MacDonald visited the winner's circle for the second preliminary of Kentucky Sire Stakes for freshmen on Sunday (June 25) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming and Hotel.

Pick Pocket opened the card with a near front-stepping tour of the Southwest Kentucky oval to take the $25,000 division for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings in 1:56.2. Driver Anthony MacDonald circled the colt by Walner to the top past a :30.1 first quarter and strolled through middle fractions of :58.3 and 1:28.1 to win under wraps by 1-3/4 lengths over pocket-sitter Lupin K (driven by Andy Miller). G O A T (Atlee Bender) rallied down the center of the track for third and Yo Monty (Verlin Yoder) finished fourth.

Eric Patalan conditions Pick Pocket for TheStable Pick Pocket Group and Hutchison Harness LLC. The colt rebounded from a second-place finish in leg one to deliver on a 1-9 promise and return $2.36 to win.

Arson became the lone freshman to sweep their Kentucky Sire Stakes preliminaries with a 1:53.4 victory in the $25,000 division for pacing colts and geldings. MacDonald took over the lead with the Patalan pupil after a :27.2 first quarter and stole a breather to a :57 half. Snap Count (John MacDonald) came charging as the tempo quickened up the backside and drew to equal terms with Arson after three-quarters in 1:25.4. Arson held his ground through the lane to maintain a quarter-length lead to the finish over Snap Count. Pocket-sitter Tua Many Captains (Miller) tried to slip through a seam at the inside but settled for third and My Legend (Devon Tharps) took fourth.

A colt by Captaintreacheraus, Arson is unbeaten from two starts and races for owners TheStable Arson Group and Hutchison Harness LLC. He paid $2.82 to win.

Trainer/driver Vernon Beachy decimated with his Tactical Landing filly Allegiant in the $25,000 division for trotting fillies. Off the 4-5 favorite, Allegiant slid to the lead and strolled through a clip of :30.2, 1:01.2 and 1:30.1 before saying goodbye to her competition. Allegiant hit the finish 6-1/4 lengths better than pocket-sitter Savannah Sound (Ernie Hendry) while stopping the clock in 1:58.1. Miss Dior (Yoder) levelled off from a first-over grind to finish third and ABC Letmebe (Joey Putnam) finished fourth.

Ryan Smith owns Allegiant, now unbeaten from one start. She paid $3.74 to win.

Miller landed a similar "Orange Crush" job in the $25,000 filly pace with Queen B And Me, who clocked a 1:55.2 mile and won by five lengths. The daughter of Yankee Cruiser cleared command from the pylon post to a :27.4 first quarter, grabbed a breather to a :58.2 half and began drawing away from her peers to three-quarters in 1:26.4 before sealing the open-length romp. Highway Queen (Putnam) stormed down the center of the track to take second with Muddinup (Tharps) third and even-money favorite Fearless Bettor (Bender) fourth.

Queen B And Me is trained by Julie Miller and competes for owners Our Three Sons Stable LLC and Nisonger Stable LLC. She paid $9.76 to win.

Maryland Sire Stakes prelims continue at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

The finest 3-year-olds that Maryland has to offer were on display Wednesday (June 28) at Ocean Downs as sophomore trotting fillies and pacing colts contested their Maryland Sire Stakes preliminaries.

In the first trotting preliminary, Call Me Goo ($2.40), a daughter of trotting stallion Googoo Gaagaa, was content taking a two-hole trip behind pace setter Goolishness and then exploded in the stretch to post an easy 3-1/2-length victory in 1:58.1.

Owned by the Graham Grace Stables and trained by Jason Skinner, the filly pushed her seasonal earnings to $60,000 and her lifetime winnings over $127,000. Ocean Downs' leading driver Jonathan Roberts was in the sulky.

In the pacing division, Babes All In, a rapid son of Rustys All In, made no mistakes in posting a wire-to-wire win in 1:55, besting Smooth Rocket by a half-length.

Owned and trained by Ron Short, of Greenwood, DE, the gelding has now won over $41,000 in 2023 and moved his lifetime money over $82,000. The winner returned $6.60.

Both divisions return for their second preliminary round on July 12.

PHOENIX RISING TOPS MONDAY PRELIMS

Phoenix Rising, a late blooming star in the Frank Gannon barn, proved that her upset win Monday night (June 26) at Ocean Downs was no fluke as she bested rival Val's Girl by a nose in the Maryland Sire Stakes 3-year-old pacing filly preliminary.

Driven by Frank Milby, the daughter of Movie Idol sat a patient two-hole behind Val's Girl and used the passing lane to just get up at the finish in 1:56.4. Phoenix Rising earned her fifth win this year in 10 starts, pushing her seasonal earnings over $64,000 for Gannon, who co-owns with Elizabeth Gannon. She returned $15.40 to win.

Two other preliminaries were held Monday night.

The first division of 3-year-old pacing fillies went to HS Josie, who won in 1:57.1 for owner Cary Grady and trainer Joe Carroll. She returned $4.00 as the even-money favorite.

In the preliminary for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, How Doo Yoo Goo won in wire-to-wire fashion in 1:59.3. Russell Foster drove the son of Googoo Gaagaa, who paid $4.40 to win, for owner-trainer Richard Hans.

After a week off, the 3-year-olds return to Ocean Downs on July 10.

Pickmepickme takes fastest Maine Sire Stake

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Pickmepickme handily took a new lifetime mark of 1:56.2 winning her $14,684 division of the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Bangor on Sunday (June 25). The 1-9 favorite has never been worse than third in any race with a purse, so Andy Harrington drove her like she was the best.

When the wings folded for the opener at historic Bass Park, Harrington sent the Marc Tardif-owned, bred and trained daughter of Western Maverick right to the top. From that point it was a fast-trip training mile as the fillies in tow followed right along through opening fractions of :29.2 and :59.

With a comfortable 1-1/2 length advantage over her disciples, Harrington let Pickmepickme have her head following a 1:28 third panel. As their collective lead continued to build, the pair scampered home by four lengths to collect the lion's share of the purse and retain a faster career record. Her last quarter was a snappy :28.2, further cementing her prowess within the division.

Pickmepickme paid $2.20 for her backers, with the Tardif Taskforce enjoying the filly's 10th career victory in 12 lifetime starts. It was her second win a row as a sophomore, and ninth consecutive lifetime victory.

La Mambacita (Heath Campbell/Valerie Grondin) finished second; Janie (Aaron Hall) was third.

The second $14,684 division had another repeat filly winner in South St Dottie who also took the coast-to-coast route to victory in the early, non-wagering race.

Nick Graffam drove the daughter of Western Maverick for trainer Mike Graffam, who left from post 5 and scored by 2-3/4 lengths. The final time of 1:58 was also a new lifetime mark for the filly who appears to be improving with every start.

Having just a single victory last year at 2, South St Dottie has won her last two sophomore Maine Sire Stakes events, lowering her mark in each instance. Owned and bred by Jan Donaway, her last quarter of :28.4 is indicative of her speed and agility, and should make her another filly to watch in the coming weeks and months of Maine-bred action.

Katelyn's Angel (Kevin Switzer Jr./Marc Tardif) finished second; Ally Mac (Aaron Hall/Mike Graffam) was third.

The Maine Standardbred Breeders Stakes returns to Cumberland today (June 30) for two $14,000-plus divisions for 3-year-old trotters, with the 3-year-old pacing colts the following day on Saturday (July 1). First post is 3:15 p.m. On Sunday (July 2), Maine's 3-year-old pacing fillies come back to Bangor for week three.

Maine Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association (MSBOA) president Scott Pooler announced that the Maine State Harness Racing Commission has unanimously approved the MSBOA board of directors request that all Maine Sire Stakes races shall be drawn by lot, not electronically.

Looking ahead, the Maine Sire Stakes originally scheduled for Union Fair have been moved to Bangor (July 26) and Cumberland (July 28).

Jason Bartlett becomes a member of 10,000-win club

Jason Bartlett has had 13 wins over the last two nights at MGM Yonkers Raceway – seven on Monday night (June 26) and six on Tuesday night (June 27) – and the last of those triumphs on Tuesday's program made him just the 20th North American driver to have 10,000 career victories.

Bartlett's first five trips to the winner's circle on Tuesday came courtesy of Fugleman [1:55], Miki Rose [1:54], Blank Stare [1:51.3], Simon Says Hanover [2:22.1 in the $30,000 Can You Go the Distance Series final at a mile and a quarter] and Groovy Joe [1:52.3].

After missing out by just three-quarters of a length with Lous The Attitude in his first chance at the milestone in race 9, Bartlett was able to seal the deal with 7-year-old Bettor's Delight gelding The Regulator [1:53.1] in the nightcap.

Not only is Bartlett in select company with 10,000 career driving victories, his horses have also earned over $142.5 million, placing him 12th all-time. He's also at his usual spot atop the driver standings at MGM Yonkers Raceway with 237 tallies.

Coming up tonight (June 30) at MGM Yonkers Raceway are the finals of the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, the $250,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes, the $115,000 Park MGM Pace and the $100,000 New York New York Mile. The MGM Yonkers Trot and the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes are the first legs of the Trotting and Pacing Triple Crowns.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday-Thursday-Friday-Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Nine is more than fine for Kakaley on Saturday night at Yonkers

Matt Kakaley started out hot on Saturday night's (June 24) 10-race program at MGM Yonkers Raceway and stayed that way the entirety of the proceedings, winning nine times and finishing second in the one event he wasn't victorious in. With that effort, he joined Luc Ouellette, Walter Case and Stephane Bouchard in the record book at Yonkers for most wins by a driver on a single card.

Kakaley swept the first four races with Deep Infatuation N [1:53.3], Imma Be [1:54], HP Xanadu [1:54.3] and Abruzzo [1:54.1] but then had to settle for the second-place spot behind Diamondbeach, driven by George Brennan to a 1:52.2 victory, in the fifth dash.

It was just a short break from the winner's circle, though, as Kakaley closed out the night by prevailing with Feelin Red Hot [1:53.3], Toccoa Falls [1:56], Miss Chantilly N [1:54.1], Stellar Yankee [1:51.4] and Magical Journey [1:56.4].

In total Kakaley had a 12-victory day, as before he came to MGM Yonkers Raceway, he netted a hat trick at Pocono.

An in-demand driver wherever he brings his colors, Kakaley currently sits second in the standings at MGM Yonkers Raceway behind only Jason Bartlett.

Coming up tonight [June 30] at MGM Yonkers Raceway are four finals for 3-year-olds: the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, the $250,000 (est.) MGM Grand Messenger Stakes, the $115,000 (est.) New York New York Mile and the $100,000 (est.) Park MGM Pace. The MGM Yonkers Trot and MGM Grand Messenger Stakes are the first legs of the Trotting and Pacing Triple Crowns.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday-Thursday-Friday-Saturday live racing schedule with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

85-year-old Nadeau triumphs with 14-year-old Putnams Storm

Despite being in the twilight of their respective careers, owner/trainer/driver Bob Nadeau steered his own veteran pacer Putnams Storm to victory in Saturday's (June 24) Maine Amateur Driving Club (MADC) event at Cumberland Raceway.

It was the 11th start of the season for the 14-year-old gray gelding Putnams Storm, who has quietly earned $193,521 in a career that has spanned his entire 13 years of eligibility. Bred in Nova Scotia, the handsome son of Force Of Life has 38 victories in 331 starts.

His owner, perhaps ironically, has owned, trained and driven harness horses since before the USTA started keeping full and complete records of such activities. First licensed in 1966, Nadeau who is now 85, has visited winner's circles all over New England 162 times.

Putnams Storm (4-1) left from the pylon position, and the steely-eyed Nadeau had no intention of letting anyone go. Following his 31-second opening panel, Nadeau maintained a comfortable lead throughout the early going. However, young-gun and series leader Jason Bertolini decided to take a shot and pulled Bailey's Legacy (1-1) first over into a 1:02.4 half.

At the 3/8's pole, announcer Scott Ehrlich stated, "The combination age of the leader Putnams Storm with his pilot Bob Nadeau is a mere 99 years."

Nadeau rated an easy first half, and with Bailey's Legacy trying to gain ground on the outside, the gray horse was given his cue to roll on, taunting the would-be spoilers to catch him at the 1:31.2 third panel. Around the final turn, the bridle of Bailey's Legacy was at the wheel of Putnams Storm, and the battle for MADC bragging rights was on. With every stride and each seat-pushing thrust of the race bike, the stretch drive was a match of wills, pitting youth and skill against age and experience.

With neither warrior giving, or taking an inch, Nadeau kept his beloved Putnam's Storm on the bit and on point to prevail by a half-length over the favorite in 2:01.1. Owned, trained and driven to his first seasonal victory by Nadeau, the veteran pacer paid $10.80 to win the sixth leg of the MADC series that is faithfully sponsored by the Blue Seal Feed Stores of Windham and North Yarmouth, ME. Following the victory, Bob Nadeau moved up to second place with 35 points, behind Jason Bertolini with 58 atop the MADC leader board.

The active octogenarian acquired Putnams Storm in 2021, and has raced him exclusively in Maine ever since. In that time, the horse has truly grown on Nadeau.

"He is one of the best horses I have ever owned," Nadeau said. "I have had Maine stakes horses since the 1970s, but this horse is special. He has a home for life."

As game a horse as one could want, Putnams Storm has taken a race record every year for the past 13 racing seasons. Earning his wings at Truro, NS and Charlottetown, PEI, since then the horse has changed hands and zip codes no less than a dozen times, racing all over the Northeast and Midwest. His swiftest victory came at the Red Mile in Lexington where he scored in 1:50.4 at age 5, making him perhaps the fastest gray pacer ever bred in Nova Scotia.

Unbeknownst to Nadeau, First Tracks Cumberland was hosting several dozen equine enthusiasts from Camp Kippewa, a local riding and training facility that specializes in matching young people with retired standardbreds. Their 'Track to Treasured' program was spearheaded by Mary Paige Black Kowalski, who in turn helped swarm the Blue Seal Winner's Circle with excited young ladies carrying handmade signs and banners for the winning connections.

Live harness racing continues at Cumberland throughout the spring and early summer months with regular racing on Friday and Saturday each weekend. First post is slated for 3:15 p.m. (EDT) during the extended pari-mutuel meeting, which runs through Aug. 5. An extra date has been added to the schedule, with Friday, July 28 creating a three-day weekend of harness action at the end of next month.

Bob Tisbert, 86, scores 2,400th career driving win at Plainridge

After longtime Massachusetts-native Bob Tisbert drove Court's In Session to victory in 1:58.2 in the sixth race at Plainridge Park on Monday (June 26), he circled back with the trotter he also trains and entered the winner's circle for the 2,400th time in his career that dates back to 1962.

Now in his seventh decade in the sport, Tisbert has been a stalwart horseman in New England harness racing and has experienced success at all levels. He drove against the best in the Commonwealth during the 1970's and '80s, which was an era that featured greats like Jim Doherty, Ted Wing, Bucky Day, John Hogan, Bert Beckwith and Bill O'Donnell on the program every night. Yet he finished high on the leaderboard at Rockingham Park, Scarborough Downs and his home track, Foxboro Park, year in and year out. And now decades later, he's still competing with today's top reinsmen.

Tisbert, who just turned 86 on April 28, was always a high percentage, sought after driver and sat behind many stars of the day including Cotton On N (38 wins, 1:57, $84,269) who paced the fastest mile ever in Maine in 1987, Cindy's Band (46 wins, 1:57.4, $163,126) who was a New England Sire Stake standout that he bred and Fancy Star (39 wins, 1:57.4, $179,936) who was a top-notch open pacer he drove to multiple victories at The Meadowlands.

When Plainridge Park opened in 1999, Tisbert was an original member of the driver colony and has remained a regular ever since, competing at the track for 24 consecutive years.

Tisbert had a career year for numbers in 1986 when he started 1,054 times producing 201 wins, 164 seconds and 119 thirds. However, his highest earnings came in 1980 when he bankrolled $399,091 in the bike. His career earnings to date amount to $5.7 million.

For his many accomplishments in the sport, Tisbert was voted into the New England Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association Hall of Fame in 2021.

Fox Sports to show Big M's Brower Memorial

This Saturday (July 1), the stakes season turns up the volume a little more at The Meadowlands with four events, one of which will honor Dave Brower, the longtime Big M TV personality whose death shocked the harness racing world last October.

In addition, Saturday's races will be shown to a national television audience as part of the New York Racing Association's (NYRA) "America's Day at the Races" presentation, which can be seen on Fox Sports 2 (FS2) from 8-11 p.m. Jessica Otten and Gabe Prewitt will provide the harness commentary on the program that will also show thoroughbred action from Charles Town.

This Fox Sports broadcast will be the first of three straight on Saturday nights that will showcase the competition at the No. 1 harness track in the world.

The first edition of the Brower Memorial – formerly the Roll With Joe – will be the final stakes dash of the night and sports a $158,140 purse for Open Pacers. The featured performers are Mohawk Gold Cup winner Abuckabett Hanover, who goes up against Ruthless Hanover, the fastest horse in the sport this year by virtue of a 1:46.3 clocking at Harrah's Philadelphia last month.

Brower's loss has clearly left some unhealed wounds.

"Dave Brower was an extraordinary talent," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "Where he really showcased his excellence was whenever there was adversity. How many countless times did something unexpected happen during a broadcast and how quickly Dave Brower could get everything back on the rails? Dave had so much passion and knowledge about everything and everybody in harness racing. He will always be missed and always in our hearts."

Brower, who served as lead TV personality, morning-line odds maker and program analyst at the mile oval for five years until his passing, would have loved to be a part of the Saturday program, as, in addition to the Open Pace named for him, also on tap are the $112,500 Six Pack for Open Mare Trotters (where 2022 Trotter of the Year Bella Bellini takes on Graduate favorite Jiggy Jog S), $142,260 Perfect Sting for Open Mare Pacers (where Grace Hill, perfect in five starts this year, takes on 2021 Horse of the Year Test Of Faith, who makes her seasonal debut) and $155,140 Crawford Farms Open Trot (where Cutler winner Venerate takes on It's Academic, who was victorious at The Big M on Saturday (June 24) in 1:51.3).

"People forget sometimes that it's live TV," said Brower, in an interview with HRU, reflecting on his on-camera experiences at The Big M. "You only have one chance to get it right and when it comes down to it, we do. Our TV staff on both sides of the cameras are professionals and I couldn't be prouder of what we are able to accomplish."

"I met Dave Brower in the early 1990s, and he debuted on The Meadowlands' TV show the year after I did, which was 1995," said Dave Little, Brower's longtime on-set partner. "You could tell right away that he was a special talent. And then he went out and proved it by doing many national Hambletonian shows during his career. I miss Dave terribly. We spent every Friday and Saturday together from four in the afternoon until midnight for five years. We shared things with each other that only close friends would. To say I miss him terribly is an understatement of grand proportion."

AND THEN...: Next weekend (Friday, July 7, and Saturday, July 8) will see the Graduate finals for 4-year-old trotters and pacers. Two-year-olds will also take the stage, competing in the opening leg of the Kindergarten Series.

In addition, that Saturday offers eliminations for the Meadowlands Pace, with top finishers coming back for the final the following week to headline "Meadowlands Pace Night" on July 15th, which is the greatest night in harness racing.

Meadowlands Pace Night will offer a laundry list of big stakes events. In addition to The $700,000 Pace, there will also be (all purses are estimated) the $175,000 Mistletoe Shalee, $250,000 Stanley Dancer Memorial, $225,000 Del Miller Memorial, $450,000 William Haughton Memorial, $175,000 Dorothy Haughton Memorial and $400,000 Hambletonian Maturity.

LITTLE BIG MAN: Saturday (June 24) night belonged to Dave Little, as the veteran member of the Big M TV team won Night 8 of the track's "Battle of The Meadowlands Masterminds" handicapping contest in record fashion.

Little's $500 win parlay of Mad Max Hanover and I Did It Myway turned into $5,460, a single-card record in the two-year history of the event. His profit for the night was $4,960.

As for his handicapping, Little tabbed eight winners on top, including the Early Pick-4 cold, when he turned a $36 wager into $420.

With 11 nights to go in the competition, Little has accrued $8,982, good for a profit of just under $5,000. Edison Hatter, who won Friday's Night 7 with $600, leads the contest with four winning nights. He is second in the cumulative with $4,301.

The "Masterminds" competition will take place for the next 11 live race nights, and on-track patrons who select the winning handicapper on a given card will have a chance to win a grand prize of $10,000. The drawing takes place on Hambletonian Day, Saturday, Aug. 5.

The competitors are competing for a top prize of $1,000 that will be donated on their behalf to charity. Gabe Prewitt is playing for CBH Care, the charity that Brower played for last year. Jessica Otten is playing for New Vocations, Little for the Standardbred Retirement Foundation, Ken Warkentin the Harness Horse Youth Foundation) and Hatter the Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program.

BREAKFAST AT THE TRACK: Every Saturday morning, head out to the Big M and check out the stars of the future, as 2-year-olds of each sex and gait take to the track during "Breakfast with the Babies."

The races begin at 9 a.m., and if you can't make it to the mile oval, check out the action live on rtn.tv (Racetrack Television Network).
