with BOB HEYDEN

Happy 97th Birthday (on Saturday, July 5) to Bruce Nickells, the oldest living member in the Hall of Fame and currently a resident of Anderson, IN. I sat down with Nickells for a wide ranging chat in no particular order and everything on the table.

What can you tell me about winning the 1989 Hambletonian Oaks with Park Avenue Kathy?

"I was the one who got along with her the best; kept her trotting. The week before I went five trips with her, all from 2:15 to 2:18. She was ready. In the race off, I decided to change to aluminum shoes. Dr. Seeber told me to do it if I thought it was the right thing to do."

Let's talk about a couple of horses. What about Kentucky?

"He was easy to drive. If you hit him, he would take up some, so I would just rub his tail with the whip and he'd take off. That race where Stanley [Dancer] and Albatross set the record [1:54.3 in 1972], I thought I could beat him that night in Chicago. I think if I had a little more experience at that stage it would have helped me a lot. Or if I had John Campbell back then."

What about Batman?

"He had splints early but overcame that. He won five stakes at 3. Those two were the best two I had then."

Didn't Batman and Kentucky cost a combined 27G as yearlings and made 900G lifetime together?

"Yes, and back then [in the early 1970s] that was a really big number."

In 1983 you were asked to help out Lana Lobell with yearling prep. What was that like?

"It was not that difficult. I oversaw all the shoeing. Most were ready. Originally it was just for that year but Dr. Seeber early on locked me into another year."

Is it true that you once rode your motorcycle from Princeton, IL, to Phoenix, AZ?

"Yes, in 1949 [1,632 miles]."

A good trainer will...?

"A good trainer will spot a good one – someone sharp, somebody who knows their stuff – in two minutes. You know."

Did you help train Strike Out between his 2- and 3-year-old seasons?

"Yes. I had him late at 2 and won the Florida Breeders with him. He had high speed. I fiddled with him some. I then helped him get ready at 3 and won his first start before giving him back to Keith Waples. He'd win the Jug that year."

"The biggest issue trainers have today is lack of communication with owners."

Favorite race track ever?

"I guess it would have to be The Meadowlands. It's the best surface for the horses to get over."

Edgar Leonard?

"I learned more from Edgar Leonard than anyone. Mostly by just watching."

Aren't you a champion of the little guy?

"Yes. A lot of good people in this industry never get recognized."

As an old-fashioned trainer, what is the most important thing today?

"Manners. They are so important in a horse."

Am I correct that you favor an age limit on driving?

"Yes. Some drivers have no business being out there. I think 67 or 70 is about right."

You won a Jug heat in 1964 with Combat Time the same year you debuted in the Hambletonian with Scribe Rodney. But you were not used to top horses at that point of your career. Is that right?

"Oh, for sure! When I opened my public stable in 1953, I was getting lesser stock. It wasn't easy. I was just out of the Army too [1950-52]. It took a while."

Follow My Star was the first female pacer to $1.5 million, and Miss Easy the first to pass her at $1.777 million. You had them both.

"Follow My Star was easy to train but always had trouble with her feet. She overcame that. Miss Easy would train 'even' miles out in the middle of the track. Not fast miles. She had some trouble with turns, you never saw her on a half-mile track. She had a good attitude. I still to this day don't know why she made a break in the [1991] Meadowlands Pace elimination."

Back to some horses. Conquered Quest?

"Classy mare. Good one. Easy to get along with."

Bruces Lady?

"Well above average and had a way to just make money. Not a top mare though."

Marcasite?

"Again-better than average. Nice classy mare."

Immortality?

"I had her early and she was a standout."

“A good trainer will spot a good [horse] – someone sharp, somebody who knows their stuff – in two minutes. You know.”

~ Bruce Nickells

From 1985-95 you basically had a stranglehold on the Sweetheart and Breeders Crowns for pacing fillies.

“Don’t forget Brooke [daughter] and Bryce [granddaughter].”

SOME OF NICKELLS’ CONTEMPORARIES WEIGHED IN

Bruce Riegler: “Tough horseman, to be 97 years old and be in the horse business. Bruce had a lot of great horses, many fillies. And a great man!”

Rick Kane: “While most people associate Bruce with two of the sport’s most outstanding fillies, Miss Easy and Follow My Star, I remember a couple of tough free-for-all campaigners, Batman and Kentucky, from an earlier period in his career.”

Linda Toscano: “I adore Bruce. Whenever I can I make sure to stop by and see him. When I was starting out, I had a filly Mean And Green who was locked on one line. Bruce helped me tremendously. I’m not sure why he picked me out.”

Connie Hochstetler: “Happy Birthday to the ultimate gentleman and horseman.”

Kim Hankins: “Bruce was close friends with my parents and myself for many years. At one time the Nickells brothers, Wayne, Bruce, and Reese, all worked for my father in Springfield, IL. Bruce gave me horses to train when I was down to only a few. That helped bring me back to a bigger stable.”

Steve Wolf: “I’ve had the pleasure of interviewing and knowing Bruce since the early 1980s. What a gentleman, good storyteller, and superb horseman. His ability to develop world champion pacing fillies was uncanny. I saw him race and secure divisional titles with Follow My Star, Central Park West, Miss Easy, and Hazelton Kay. He was the first to stable at Sunshine Meadows in South Florida when it opened. It was a must to stop by and see Brooke and his amazing granddaughter Bryce.”

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

Michelle Olson ironed out a few things on the way to being a trainer

by Matthew Lomon

In 2021, Michelle Olson — then a do-it-all groom in the Carmen Auciello stable — told Harness Racing Update her long-term goal was to operate her own training business.

Already a quarter horse exercise rider, standardbred trainer/driver license holder, owner, and breeder, carving out a training career of her own was only logical for the lifelong equine enthusiast.

"It's a very good feeling," said Olson, who spent her youth dreaming of a life in horse racing. "There's still a lot of work left to be done and I'm not quite to where I want to be with it, but I'm focused on making steps to get further ahead in that direction."

The versatile horsewoman from northern Ontario is certainly on the right path.

Competing across Kawartha Downs, Flamboro Downs, and Woodbine Mohawk Park, Olson took a giant leap forward in 2024, notching career-highs in starts (56), seconds (10), thirds (15), UDRS (0.313), and earnings ($74,294).

Above all, she achieved the laundry list of lifetime bests with just a pair of mares.

"They were completely different horses," Olson said. "The trotting mare [Classic Magic], she just loves to work. I found that working her harder was something she thrived off more."

The driven daughter of Kadabra—Life Class was responsible for nearly 64 per cent of Olson's purse earnings total in 2024, collecting $47,220 from 25 starts (3-4-4).

Classic Magic also spun some of Olson's fondest memories from the season that was, setting three lifetime marks and posting a "thrilling" 1:54 flat mile to win at 18-1 on May 10 at Mohawk.

The second half of Olson's dynamic duo, 7-year-old pacing mare Fire Shine, she claimed for $10,000 on Feb. 1.

Under Olson's tutelage, the veteran by Always A Virgin nabbed four victories, adding six seconds and 11 thirds for $26,894 in purse earnings.

While the former ironworker's grit and natural adeptness were unmistakable throughout the banner year, she isn't prepared to rest on her laurels.

"I try not to get overly excited or hung up on things," Olson said. "It's one day, one week at a time."

"I don't know if I'm at the point where I take an insane amount of pride in it yet. I like being able to contribute across multiple aspects of the craft, but I'd love to become better. Once you feel you're done learning, you probably shouldn't still be in the business."

The Fraserville, ON-based Olson picked up a treasure trove of valuable insights during her tenure with Auciello, as well as another esteemed horseman in Per Henriksen, who in 2019 shifted his base of operations to Sweden.

Seeing the game through two diametrically opposing strategies instilled in Olson an understanding that success doesn't follow a single path.

"I loved working for Carm," she said. "He does things a little differently – they don't send a lot of horses out on the track. It was interesting to see a different way of being able to exercise horses and that not every program is cookie cutter or can be cookie cutter."

"When I worked for Per Henriksen, for example, it was very hands-on, you drove everything, you were responsible for that horse."

Navigating the differing schools of thought gave Olson the chance to glean meaningful lessons and weave them into her own approach.

"One of the things I learned – and an experience I really appreciated – was getting to race a large number of horses in one night at one place," she said. "That's something I still use to this day. Obviously, I don't race that many in a night now, but it's a very handy skill to have."

Equally important was learning to stay on top of the little things, like barn duties and other necessary tasks, without taking them for granted.

Fortunately, giving her work, people, and horses the attention they deserve is Olson's calling card.

The multi-talented horsewoman still reserves a special place in her heart for the two horses who played a defining role in her harness racing journey.

Slim Shady, Olson's first homebred standardbred, tracked down a pair of unforgettable firsts, delivering her maiden wins as both an owner and trainer.

"That horse is still special to me," Olson said. "I actually still have him – he's currently ponying at Ajax – and being my first homebred, I have that natural bond with him. He won his first lifetime start, my first owner win, at Mohawk in February 2022."

"He was also my first training win which makes him that much more special. I remember it was the 11th race and I was sick – absolutely miserable – but he pulled off a win and it was outstanding. I definitely cried in the winner's circle, not bawling, but there were tears."

“Every year, I aim to do better than the year before. It’d be nice to have three or four racing consistently, so I’m focused on getting there, and in turn, hopefully improving my win and earnings totals with the group I’m building.”

~ Michelle Olson

Alongside Slim Shady, and his winning prescription, Olson also credits Duke Of Donegal for shaping the way she thinks about racehorses.

“To this day, when I sit behind a horse, or train a horse, or warm a horse up, I still look for certain qualities that he had... whether that’s a good thing or a bad thing,” Olson said with a laugh. “He’s a very special horse to me.”

Bred, owned and trained by Roger Ferguson, the now retired bay trotter had purse earnings of $101,585 through 51 lifetime starts (6-10-3).

As the calendar turns to July, the 2025 harness racing season is officially past the halfway point, but Olson still has big plans for the months inbound.

A key part of her six-month mission is to qualify a pair of 3-year-olds, whom she originally hoped to have ready as 2-year-olds last season.

“I was aiming to race a couple of 2-year-olds, but it didn’t pan out,” she said. “They’re homebreds, so we’re taking our time with them.”

The duo in question, Trix On You and Cant Control Carl, are close to qualifying and are expected to form a strong quartet within Olson’s contingent that still features Classic Magic, who’s nearing a return, as well as new face Vicious Aloicious.

“Every year, I aim to do better than the year before,” she said. “It’d be nice to have three or four racing consistently, so I’m focused on getting there, and in turn, hopefully improving my win and earnings totals with the group I’m building.”

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

Two-minute mare turns into priceless treasure

by John Berry

This Mane Attraction began to take shape in mid-April of 2006.

Yes, it took this much time for the story to ripen, and, thankfully, it continues today and, hopefully, will do so for years to come.

On April 18 of that year, 19 years past, a filly came into this world with the same aspirations of becoming a world champion, or, more realistically, a local sensation, or, even more sensibly minded — even make it to the racetrack.

In this case, the question was whether she would even survive.

So many things can happen from that first draw of breath in the agonizing journey of making it to the starting gate.

Not all foals are perfect out of the womb and, in time, this filly would have mountains to climb.

Emma's Pearl was found to be a "dummy foal," a syndrome known as neonatal maladjustment disorder, characterized by a failure to exhibit normal behaviors like standing, sucking or, even, following mama around.

Oh, she also had a club foot.

One veterinarian said, "in today's world of prop betting, she would have been at +10,000,000."

Over time, things improved somewhat and the filly was introduced and broken to harness and placed in Florida's FSBOA Sale where she found a new owner with the hammer price being $2,100.

Luanna Beeson became her owner/trainer, a long-time horsewoman on the Florida scene for years where she was successful with horses like Heart Felt and Safe From Terror.

But there were more hurdles to overcome with Emma's Pearl down the road.

As Beeson said, "She trained down to 2:30 without breaking a sweat."

And that was the problem.

Emma's Pearl was diagnosed with anhidrosis, a condition where a horse's ability to sweat is radically reduced or lost.

Beeson said, "It's a very serious condition because a horse's temperature can rise while training by as much as 10 degrees in just minutes.

"It can cause collapse, convulsions and even death, and horses that do survive can sustain brain damage from this experience."

Veterinarians were advising that Emma's Pearl be 'wetted down' broke training but Beeson accidentally found another possibility, one that was invented over 7,000 years ago.

BEER!

"We started giving her two beers a day for lunch; dark beer," Beeson said. "And she responded very well and we got her back into training and she made it to the races."

Her racing career was inauspicious, to say the least, as she did trot flawlessly throughout her first (non-betting) stakes start as a 2-year-old but was race-timed in 2:21.4, beaten 68 lengths.

The very next week, she improved to 2:21.1 — 77 lengths off the winner.

She also did a bit the next season earning $3,224 in 12 starts and was race-timed in 2:01.2 while competing in a nw2 trot where the winner went in 1:58.2.

"[My son Kelby and Emma's Pearl] have become so close that they do everything together, with Kelby's advancement so far along that doctors regard it as 'highly unlikely' and 'improbable' that this would or could ever happen."

~ Monica Barranco

“[My son Kelby and Emma’s Pearl] are inseparable. She’s a big part of our family. She might have been a $2,100 yearling, but no amount of money could take her away from us.”

~ Monica Barranco

Her crowning moment was achieved at age 4 when she trotted the fastest quarter of her life – 30 seconds – to win in 2:00 flat.

Emma’s Pearl did win twice more in her 4-year-old season but encountered more physical problems and a bone chip ended her racing career.

As the legendary newscaster Paul Harvey famously would say, “And now, the rest of the story.”

On Jan. 20, 1997, Monica Barranco gave birth to a son, Kelby.

Doctors noticed some abnormalities in the infant after birth and, after an MRI (Magnetic Resonance Imaging), the diagnosis was microcephaly, a condition where the brain has developed abnormally with the consequences being intellectual disability, speech delay, seizures and abnormal muscle functionality.

Subsequent testing showed that Kelby had cerebral palsy with evidence that he had suffered a stroke during Monica’s pregnancy.

There is no cure for microcephaly, however, supportive care can prove to be very beneficial.

Over the ensuing years, with little progress shown, the theory of equine therapy was to be tried, as it has proven very successful in the past, especially with standardbred horses.

While riding was slowly building Kelby’s confidence – he even was able to walk a few steps – he, like everyone, had bouts of illness with one of those setbacks interrupting one of his therapy sessions.

With the session pre-paid, Monica was denied a refund and that propelled her to go out and find her own horse for Kelby.

The new boarder was claimed to be 15 years old, in good health and sound.

In truth, the mare, named Princess, was underweight, had serious foot issues with teeth in such bad shape they were cutting through her cheeks, and she was partially blind.

This new princess for Kelby was nursed back to health and Kelby had a new playmate and was now able to help in the stall cleaning, feeding and keeping the water buckets full.

The horse even helped Kelby to speak coherently, learn to ride a bicycle and keep his balance, and, along the way, Kelby and Princess won over 100 ribbons and numerous trophies in shows with his strength and coordination improving with every showing.

On July 16, 2011, Princess died right outside Kelby’s bedroom window, probably around the age of 35.

Kelby, of course, now 14-years-old, was devastated by the news, as was Monica.

But the development of events beyond a person’s control, regarded as determined by a supernatural power – known as fate – came into play here as one Joe White, a farrier, had mentioned that, as farrier for Princess, he also shod Emma’s Pearl for Beeson.

The trifecta of White, Beeson and Monica was arranged and, on Oct. 9, 2011, the 5-year-old Emma’s Pearl met the 14-year-old Kelby.

The bond was immediate.

Beeson volunteered to train Emma’s Pearl to ride under saddle and, in mere moments, Kelby was all-in on bathing her, stall clean-up, and feeding, according to Kelby, apples, bananas, carrots and other treats.

“They have become so close that they do everything together, with Kelby’s advancement so far along that doctors regard it as ‘highly unlikely’ and ‘improbable’ that this would or could ever happen,” Monica said.

So, the dummy foal – Emma’s Pearl, now 19 – has teamed up with Kelby – now 28 – to make each other’s life more valuable than money can buy.

“She might have been a $2,100 yearling, but no amount of money could take her away from us.”

And all this may have started with a dark beer.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Mike Rosenblatt's life caters to his love of food and harness racing

by Chris Lomon

Mike Rosenblatt's life — inside and outside of horse racing — is made to order.

A resident of Sharon — a town 17 miles southwest of downtown Boston — Rosenblatt enjoys a routine that blends food, horses, and heartfelt connections.

Whenever he pulls out of the parking lot at 10 Foxboro Blvd. in Foxboro, MA, Rosenblatt can't help but smile at the thought of what awaits down the road.

Five days a week, starting at 11 a.m., he spends two hours delivering catering orders from Antonia's Italian Cuisine.

"It is all catering orders and schools," he said. "I took the job before the pandemic because I have always had a second job throughout most of my life.

"When the opportunity for the deli came along, I took it right away. I'm happy doing it. People are always happy when they see me because they know I am bringing them food."

Rosenblatt has that same joy when it comes to horses.

His connection to standardbreds goes back nearly 50 years, to his early teens in Massachusetts.

"I got into racing at a very young age through my dad," Rosenblatt said. "I was probably around 13 when he started bringing me to the racetrack, which would have been 1976 or 1977. He was an owner. I got caught up in the excitement of it all.

"My dad was one of the first people in Massachusetts and surrounding areas who was buying horses from Australia and New Zealand."

His own passion for racing grew deeper after a visit from an Australian horseman and his family.

"One of my first experiences that really changed the trajectory of a bigger involvement in the sport was that my dad had an agent from Australia who wasn't happy with the way the horses were producing over here with the trainer we had.

"I got into racing at a very young age through my dad. I was probably around 13 when he started bringing me to the racetrack, which would have been 1976 or 1977. He was an owner. I got caught up in the excitement of it all. My dad was one of the first people in Massachusetts and surrounding areas who was buying horses from Australia and New Zealand."

~ Mike Rosenblatt

"This gentleman came over here with his family and they stayed with us in Sharon. I was just a little fella, but I went to the farm with this guy from Australia. Some of the things I saw him do back then are commonplace in the sport now. I didn't know it at the time, but he was providing me with the foundation of training. It was a good experience for me, considering my dad was not a trainer."

By the time he was finishing high school, Rosenblatt had already made up his mind about the future.

The foundation of his game plan was based on a long-term strategy.

"I graduated in 1979, and I was at the racetrack in 1980," Rosenblatt said. "It was a done deal. I knew I wasn't going to college. I think, looking back, that I knew early on that I wanted to train my own horses and have a home with a horse in the back yard. And I kind of accomplished that in a way."

Rosenblatt built his stable with care.

His operation was never large, but it allowed him to stay hands-on with his horses while also holding a full-time job outside the industry.

It's a balance that worked — even through tough times.

“I’m a professional horse paddocker. People are always looking for help and I am happy to do it. I am paddocking four days a week. Every day, I paddocked for someone different. I haven’t gone a day without doing it. I love the horses and this gives me my fix of being with them. It is therapy for me. I love it.”

~ Mike Rosenblatt

“I made a conscientious decision to always have a job that allowed me to be with the horses in the morning,” he said. “The way things turned out after the pandemic and a 35-year marriage, everything kind of crashed down on me. I had a full-time job with a big company, FM Global. You had a pension coming when you were done – it was a real job, and it was good.

“I had a horse or two and I had a job. When FM Global closed, I received a severance for the first year and then I received my unemployment benefits after that year. For a guy who was just divorced and had a lot going on, those were some good things that happened.”

Horses have remained a constant and calming presence in his life.

The last horse he owned was Not My First Rodeo, a pacing son of Noble Ability (NY) bred by Steve Jones. The bay gelding gave Rosenblatt an unforgettable two-year ride.

“I was lucky enough to crush it with him,” Rosenblatt said. “I raced him 12 times in 2016 and won six times with him, about $22,000 in purse earnings, with a $7,500 claimer. In 2017, I raced him from April to July, duplicating what we did in 2016. He was an awesome horse. It was hard to accomplish what we did with him, and I knew it would be hard to duplicate that.”

These days, Rosenblatt is still deeply involved in Massachusetts racing.

“I’m a professional horse paddocker,” he said with a laugh. “People are always looking for help and I am happy to do it. I am paddocking four days a week. Every day, I paddocked for someone different. I haven’t gone a day without doing it. I love the horses and this gives me my fix of being with them. It is therapy for me. I love it.”

He admits the idea of owning or training a horse again crosses his mind, somewhat often.

“I want one in a way, but I figure, why rock the boat?” he said. “Who knows? If the right one comes along, I might get a horse. For now, I’m content with where I am at.”

And where he’s at, both literally and figuratively, suits him just fine.

Rosenblatt never has to look far to find his happy places when he maps out his day.

“I live three miles from the track at Plainridge and one mile from Gillette Stadium, where the New England Patriots play,” he said. “The deli is five miles from my place. Where I am is awesome.”

It’s all part of a life with direction and purpose, shaped by a lifelong love of horses and a genuine desire to bring joy to others.

“I am at the age now where I could retire soon, but I want to keep doing everything that I am doing now,” Rosenblatt said. “I’m happy.”

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Dean Gillette

Tarshish (Marvin Luna) winning the first of two Indiana Sire Stakes divisions of sophomore pacing fillies on Saturday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Favored fillies deliver in Indiana Sire Stakes at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer /
Harrah's Hoosier Park

The favorites delivered in round three of Indiana Sire Stakes for the 3-year-old pacing fillies, with Tarshish and Can'ttouchthese each steamrolling first-up on the way to career best efforts on Saturday (June 28) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Tarshish teamed up with pilot Marvin Luna as the 1-5 bettors' choice in the $49,500 first division. Leaving from post 4, Tarshish secured the fourth spot early while Wunderkindbluechip (driven by Atlee Bender) grabbed command of the field of eight through a quarter of :27.2. Brookview Fancy (Kyle Wilfong) tipped from third and brushed to the lead before reaching the half in :55 when Tarshish tipped off the cones entering the final turn. Tarshish eased her way into third on the outside while Brookview Fancy remained on the accelerator to three-quarters in a stiff 1:22.2.

Tarshish wheeled alongside a tiring Brookview Fancy before powering clear of the field midway through the lane. Pacing home in :27.2, Tarshish cruised to a 2¾ length 1:50.1 score as Wunderkindbluechip shook loose late off the cones to rally for second over Vel Cinderella (Marcus Miller).

Walter Haynes, Jr. trains the winning daughter of Luck Be Withyou—The Party's Rockin for owner Joanne Samples. Tarshish has now won five of six on the season, banking $68,000 in 2025 and $215,255 lifetime.

After tasting defeat for the first time this season in her last to Tarshish, Can'ttouchthese rebounded as the 1-9 favorite in the $49,000 second division. Can'ttouchthese and John De Long floated out in fourth from post 5 while Angelatyourfeet (Jordan Ross) cut the opening quarter from the rail in :27.1. Angelatyourfeet went unchallenged to the half in :55 when De Long right-lined the favorite, charging first-over alongside the leader at three-quarters in 1:23.2.

Can'ttouchthese grabbed a short lead midway through the lane while Angelatyourfeet battled to her inside. Can'ttouchthese wore down a game Angelatyourfeet in deep stretch, getting the win by a length in 1:50.3 with Kaks The Boss (Marvin Luna) finishing third at 43-1, 3¼ lengths behind the winner.

Roger Welch trains the winning homebred daughter of JK Endofanera—Can't Touch This for owners William and Patrick De Long and Douglas Riccolo. The reigning Sire Stakes champion has won three of four on the season, good for $69,250 in seasonal earnings and $369,370 lifetime.

Leading driver Trace Tetrick had a banner night, racking up six winners on the evening while John De Long had a hat trick. Four of Tetrick's victories came for leading trainer Tyler George, while Rick Plano also picked up three training victories on the night.

Free online programs are available nightly on the Harrah's Hoosier Park website in addition to free access to race replays and other handicapping resources. Qualifying replays can be found on the Hoosier Park AV YouTube Channel.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Overalls still perfect after NYSS win at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

The expected showdown between Overalls and My Philomene in the \$110,200 New York Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old filly trotters at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (July 2) never materialized. But the fizzled-out battle didn't bother Overalls one bit as she went gate-to-wire in producing a $3\frac{1}{2}$ length victory over Sharp Seven in 2:00.3.

With Overalls (Jordan Stratton) and My Philomene both registering impressive coast-to-coast victories in their first career starts in the NYSS at Monticello Raceway on June 23, the hopeful clash evaporated around the first turn.

Overalls ($5.60) took the early lead, but My Philomene went off-stride midway around the first turn, quickly dashing her hopes. With that unfortunate bobble, Overalls took full advantage and was able to trot smartly on the front end, notching fractions of :31, 1:01.3 and 1:32 on the fast track.

A threatening Trinity's Dream was sitting in the pocket turning for home, but she jumped it off, allowing Overalls to easily romp home to the win. Sharp Seven (Jeff Gregory) rallied for second place honors with Makeittohebell (Brett Beckwith) taking third.

Co-owned by Our Three Sons Stable LLC, the Stratton Stable and VIP Internet Stable LLC, it was the second win in as many career tries for Overalls (Devious Man—Over Joyed). With the tidy sum of $55,100 earned for the score, Overalls has put $78,850 in the bank in just two lifetime races.

In the $20,000 Excelsior race for the lady trotters, Saparilla Sal ($11.20) was able to hold off a late bid from SC Thats My Wife (Cory Stratton) to notch the three-length victory in 2:03.2. My Girl Charlie (Gregory) picked up the show check.

It was a survival of the fittest as Saparilla Sal (Dan Daley) and SC Thats My Wife were able to cleanly get around the first turn.

It was basically a two-horse breakaway as Saparilla Sal set the tone with splits of :32, 1:04 and 1:34.1. Things got dicey in the lane as SC Thats My Wife was able to cut the margin to a length with a bid on the outside mid-stretch but Saparilla Sal found some late kick to pull away for the three-length win.

Co-owned by Ann-Mari Daley, Gage Marshall and Jlrll LLC, it was the first victory in two tries for Saparilla Sal (Devious Man—Miss Conway). The score put a nice $10,000 in her account.

On the day, David McNeight III completed the program with a driving hat trick with Kevin Cummings posting a double. Trainer Samuel Smith had a pair of victories.

Game Changers: Priceless Edition

by Matthew Lomon for Woodbine communications

Once a week, throughout the Mohawk racing season, Woodbine will profile a horse who has had a life-changing impact on one of their closest connections.

This week, trainer Shawn Steacy, who recently surpassed the $10 million earnings plateau for his career, and Priceless Edition, the now 21-year-old pacer who relied on savvy over sheer horsepower to outpace his competition.

The Millgrove, ON-based conditioner with nearly 500 victories to his name credits the sharp-witted bay for the lasting lessons he imparted to a fresh-faced horseman.

PRICELESS EDITION

Foaled: March 17, 2004

Sire: Real Desire

Dam: Precious Delight

Wins-Seconds-Thirds: 67-31-20

Earnings: $627,104

Trainer: Mark Steacy

Owner: Sandra Beback (current)

Breeder: Peter Heffering

New Image Media
Priceless Edition
(Luc Ouellette) winning on July 14, 2007
at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Describe the impact a horse like Priceless Edition had on you as a young horseman.

"He was a horse that taught me more than any horse could teach a person at that age. I was about 19 years old when he came into our barn as a yearling. Peter Heffering bred and owned him, and he was out of a really good mare in Precious Delight.

"For whatever reason, the horse was a little immature, but Peter was a good guy, and he was really good to me, so he ended up giving me a third ownership of this horse. I didn't have any money at the time to buy a horse or anything like that. Peter gifted him to me to get me started and get me interested too.

"So, I got this horse Priceless Edition, trained him down at 2, and took a real keen interest in him. I got to drive him when I was just getting my driver's license, too. He was so smart – he was like push a button, you go, you can stop. He could basically drive himself.

"I had never been able to sit behind a horse that was so handy, and as good as he turned out to be."

What was the greatest lesson he taught you?

"One thing he taught me about understanding a horse is that there are horses who are sometimes more talented than others, but brains will take a horse a long way. Brains, intelligence, and the ability to relax. That's what he had that made him better than the average horse. He taught me that brains in a horse and patience for horses, and for people, pay off in the long run.

"There were horses his 3-year-old year that were faster, probably better, but he could get himself into places in a race and then relax once he got there and conserve his energy.

"That's what made him great. Not super, but great in the sense that it made him a better horse than what he probably should have been."

What race of his was most meaningful to you and why?

"At the start of his career, he won five of his first nine races with me driving. Just to see how the horse progressively got better and smarter, and the same with me in the process, he taught me to be better and smarter and how to drive a horse, too. That little win streak he had was very influential to me.

"He really climbed the ladder right after that streak. The first time I got off driving him, Luc Ouellette drove him and that was kind of his breakout moment. He went in 1:51 around Flamboro [Downs] and that was the moment I thought, 'Wow, this is a real horse.'"

Three words to describe him?

"Intelligent. Kind. Composed."

How has he changed your life?

"He changed my life in the sense that he was the first horse and first situation I ever had that put money in my pocket.

"He made me a little bit of money – I sold my share of him – and that got me started as far as I could afford to buy more horses. He was the first domino for me."

$20 million purse supplement fully restored in NJ

The Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey is thrilled to announce the full restoration of the $20 million horse racing purse supplement in the newly adopted FY2026 state budget – a major win for harness racing and the entire equine industry in New Jersey.

This annual funding, split evenly between standardbreds and thoroughbreds ($10 million each), is part of a second five-year, $100 million reauthorization of the purse supplement program first established by the Governor and Legislature in 2018. The program was reauthorized shortly after the initial five-year period concluded in 2023.

“Restoring the full $20 million purse supplement reaffirms the state’s long-standing commitment to the horse racing industry – an industry that supports thousands of jobs, protects open space, and generates millions in tax revenue. This funding is more than a line item; it’s an investment in our farms, our breeders, our trainers, our fans, and the future of racing in New Jersey.”

The purse supplement has proven to be a strategic lifeline, allowing New Jersey to compete with neighboring states that heavily subsidize racing through casino revenues. It supports a stronger stakes program, a more robust breeding industry, and helps position New Jersey as a premier destination to breed, train, and race horses.

The Meadowlands, recognized as one of the top harness racing venues in the world, has been a direct beneficiary of these continued investments – ensuring that New Jersey remains the gold standard in standardbred racing for generations to come.

New Jersey’s horse racing sector contributes more than tens of millions of dollars annually in direct tax revenues and generates hundreds of millions more in spin off economic activity, while preserving thousands of acres of farmland and open space across the state.

The SBOANJ extends its sincere thanks to the Governor and members of the New Jersey Legislature for their continued support and belief in the importance and economic value of the racing industry.

“This victory keeps the momentum going,” said Ford. “We’re grateful – and we’re just getting started.”

Trace Tetrick records 8,000th victory at Harrah’s Hoosier Park

A winner’s circle celebration the Tetrick family won’t soon forget occurred on Wednesday (July 2) at Harrah’s Hoosier Park as leading driver Trace Tetrick marched to his 8,000th career driving victory aboard Green River who is trained by his brother, T Tetrick, in the night’s 10th race.

Entering the night three wins away from his milestone, Trace picked up wins in the second race with Manhattan Flash ($15.20, 1:58) for trainer Matt Rheinheimer as well as the fourth race aboard Concert Master T ($4.20, 1:53.2) for Tyler George. After a couple of close calls throughout the middle portion of the card, the stage was set for Trace to breakthrough aboard the first-time starter, Green River.

Leaving from post 7 as the 5-2 second choice, Trace wheeled Green River to the top of the field of eight maiden 2-year-old pacing fillies through a quarter of :29. Margarita Tina (Jared Seekman) popped the pocket and assumed command from Green River to the half in :59.3 before bringing the fillies to three-quarters in 1:29.2. Trace fed Green River racetrack at the top of the stretch, quickly revving up and wheeling alongside the race favorite midway through the lane. Rocketing home in :26.3, Green River wore down Margarita Tina to win by 2¾ lengths on the wire in 1:56.4. Trained by Trace’s older brother, T Tetrick, the winning daughter of Capt Midnight—Shesa Bragn Dragon is owned by Teagan Sage.

Greeted in the winner’s circle by wife, Sandy and daughter, Chloe, Trace hails from the racing royalty that is the Tetrick family. Trace is the son of Mary Alice and the late Tom D. Tetrick, and brother to both T and Hall of Famer, Tim Tetrick. The 38-year-old Illinois native began driving in 2003 and has since become one of the premier names in the sport. Trace has been dominant at Harrah’s Hoosier Park, where he has won the last 11 driving titles, and currently sits atop the driver standings in search of what would be his 14th driving title overall at Hoosier. Trace has also notched numerous driving titles at Miami Valley, to go along with three Breeders Crown victories, as well as a Jugette in 2014 aboard Color’s A Virgin. Trace now zeroes in on $100 million in career earnings, with his career steers racking up over $90.3 million in earnings.

Tetrick tacked on career victory 8,001 in the nightcap with Rockpaperscissors ($5.40, 1:52.2) to lead all drivers on the night with four wins. T Tetrick’s two winners on the night were joined by a pair of winners from both the Erv Miller and Trent Stohler barns to lead the training side of the program.

The Anderson oval will also host a 10-race card tonight (July 4), complete with live music, food trucks, Vanilla Bean Creamery, and fireworks at the conclusion of live racing. Tonight’s first post is also 6:15 p.m.

For more information on the 2025 live racing season at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Tyler Smith gets win No. 5,000

Going into the Wednesday (July 2) card, 32-year-old Tyler Smith was only two wins away from 5,000 lifetime driving victories.

Smith wasted no time, winning the Eldorado Scioto Downs opener with State Of Fear for trainer Scott McQuinn in 1:51.4.

Win number 5,000 came quickly after, in the fourth race, with Mongolian Hero N. The Art Gillum, Jr. trainee won handily by 3½ lengths in 1:51.2.

Smith's daughter Maevyn and longtime partner Alesha Binkley were in the winner's circle to greet him, along with Scioto's director of racing Jason Roth, assistant race secretary Luc Russell and on-air commentator Jenna Otten.

"It's great to see one of our local guys, who grew up in the business, from a racing family, do so well," said Roth. "Tyler has a good set of hands, getting better as he gets older, and is always willing to help out with any promotional ideas on track."

Smith, of course, wasn't done for the night; he logged four more victories, including the closer, making his total 5,004. So far this year, Smith has 1,334 starts with 133 wins and over $2.3 million in earnings. Wednesday racing pushed Smith over $55.96 million in career earnings.

"I just want to thank all the owners and trainers, everyone who has supported me," said Smith. "It's not a goal of mine to hit these types of milestones but getting to the winner's circle is always pretty awesome."

Smith started his professional driving career just one day after turning 18 in 2011 at Northfield Park, but was already breaking records as he became the youngest driver to win a sub-2:00 race at the age of 12 at a matinee at the Delaware County Fairgrounds. He then became the youngest driver at age 20, in August 2013, to get to the 1,000-win milestone, later that year becoming the leading driver at Hoosier Park. He then became the youngest driver to hit 2,000 wins at the age of 23 in 2016. Smith has also received the Peter Haughton Award, for up-and-coming horsemen, from the Ohio chapter of the U.S. Harness Writers Association in 2011. Smith drove in his first North America Cup and Little Brown Jug at the age of 21 while piloting Lets Drink On It for the Seekman family.

The 90-day 2025 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Sept. 13. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a 5:45 p.m. first post. A special 3:15 p.m. post time will be on the 4th of July and 6:45 p.m. on Sept. 12 to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Meadowlands Pace draws 10, no elimination necessary

Entries for the 2025 Meadowlands Pace, sponsored by Fashion Farm, were taken this morning and when the box closed at 9 a.m. exactly 10 3-year-old pacing colts had been declared.

Stakes conditions dictate that under this circumstance, there will be no elimination races and all 10 declared will race in the $656,000 Meadowlands Pace on Saturday (July 12).

The horses entered in alphabetical order are:

Captain Optimistic

Fallout

Joel And The Jets

Knockout Round

Louprint

Madden Oaks

Manolete

Papis Pistol

Papi's Rocket

Prince Hal Hanover

An overnight prep race will be offered on Saturday (July 5) for those who need to get raced.

Also on that card are the Stan Bergstein Graduate Series finals which each filled up with exactly 10 horses.

Nick Salvi / The Meadowlands

Scioto's Saturday card over $1-million for Ohio-Sired horses

Saturday (July 5) will be a large card for Ohio-sired horses, with purses topping $1-million for the in-state horses competing at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Headlining the card is three $150,000 divisions of the Next Generation races for 2-year-old filly trotters, colt trotters and colt pacers. The races go off as numbers 10, 11 and 13 and will be featured on NYRA's Day at the Races feature on FS2, which will run from 8-11 p.m.

"We always welcome the opportunity to be on FOX," said Scioto's director of racing Jason Roth. "To showcase some of our best Ohio-sired horses, along with the up-and-coming 2-year-olds, will create a great show for the viewers. Jenna [Otten, Scioto's on-air commentator] will do a great job hosting and providing content not only for handicappers but potential new fans we'll be reaching."

Also featured on the Fox broadcast will be three divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes action, two divisions of the 3-year-old colt pace and one division of the 3-year-old filly pace.

Swingtown, last year's Next Generation winner who last raced in the North America Cup, will leave from post 9 in race eight for trainer Ron Burke. He is coupled with stablemates Fear The Hate, who is undefeated this season with six wins, and Harrisburg Heist as the even-money favorite. Race 12 includes Rick Wink, a perfect three-for-three on the season, and Sippinonsearoc. Fan favorite Extra Suds, the pinto, is also in the second division for 3-year-old colt pacers. A field of seven filly pacers will close out the FOX broadcast with the James Ehrsam trainee Rose Run Aimee installed as the 8-5 morning-line favorite.

All told on the Saturday card, there will be eight divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes going for $520,000; three divisions of the Next Generation racing for $450,000; and two overnights full of Ohio-sired 2-year-olds going for $49,000, bringing the total for Ohio-sired horses on the evening to $1.019-million.

The undercard of the stellar evening hosts a full field of nine in the $30,000 Open Pace. Racing Rebel, the winner of last week's open event in 1:48.4, leaves from the rail and is installed as the slight 5-2 favorite over Lou Hill, who comes in from Oak Grove, and Celtic Spirit N.

Free program pages are available daily on Scioto Downs' website.

The 90-day 2025 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Sept. 13. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a 5:45 p.m. first post. A special late first post of 6:45 p.m. on Sept. 12 will help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Eldorado Scioto Downs

Scioto's Next Generation to be on FOX

Eldorado Scioto Downs will be on FOX Sports 2 this Saturday (July 5) with coverage of the Next Generation races for Ohio-sired 2-year-olds.

Carded as races 10, 11 and 13, the Next Generation for 2-year-old filly trotters, colt trotters and colt pacers will be featured with coverage hosted by Scioto's own Jenna Otten.

Scioto will share the FOX spotlight from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. with The Meadowlands, featuring Jessica Otten and the Stan Bergstein Graduate finals for 4-year-olds.

More details regarding the July 5 card will be announced in the days to come.

The 90-day 2025 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Sept. 13. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a 5:45 p.m. first post. A special 3:15 p.m. post time will be on the 4th of July and 6:45 p.m. on Sept. 12 to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

OHHA to live stream The Next Generation as part of Saturday Night at the races at Scioto on July 5

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will live stream "Saturday Night at the Races" presented by the Ohio State University Veterinary Hospital on July 5 from Eldorado Scioto Downs. The live stream, which can be seen on the OHHA's Facebook page and YouTube channel as well as at HarnessRacingOhio.com, will begin at approximately 5:45 p.m. and include coverage of the three $150,000 Next Generation races.

In addition to The Next Generation, coverage will include eight $65,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes, with two divisions each of filly pacers and trotters and colt pacers and trotters. Additionally, there will be a $40,000 filly pace for Ohio-sired 2-year-olds, a $30,000 open pace for horses and geldings, and a $20,000 open pace for horses and geldings.

OHHA executive director Frank Fraas and Doug Ballinger will host the "Saturday Night at the Races" coverage.

First race post time for the 16-race card is 5:45 p.m.

Saturday Night at the Races is sponsored by Dublin Valley Farms, Hickory Lane Farm, Little Brown Jug, Midland Acres, and North American Standardbred Sale.

Bergstein Graduate finals keep stakes train rolling at Big M

To honor a man who dedicated his life to the sport and whose face and voice were the most recognized in the history of harness racing, The Meadowlands has seen fit to add his name to the featured events taking place this Saturday (July 5) night at The Big M, as the Stan Bergstein Graduate finals take place with a pair of $230,000 events for 4-year-olds, one for pacers and one for trotters.

Saturday is Fan Appreciation Night at the mile oval, and has a special later-than-usual post time of 7 p.m., on an evening when on-track patrons will have plenty to enjoy.

The Meadowlands Pace was scheduled to have had eliminations Saturday, but with only 10 horses having dropped into the entry box Tuesday (July 1) morning, the one-dash-for-the-cash final will go on Saturday (July 12).

For those who want to see how some of the contenders are coming along, the eighth race on Saturday will be a 3-year-old open, which will feature a half-dozen of the horses who will go in the Pace.

What else is happening Saturday?

- At 6 p.m., the post-position draw for the Meadowlands Pace will take place in the winner's circle (Jessica Otten will host).
- Face painters will be in the Backyard from 6:30-9 p.m.
- Fan Appreciation specials will be offered from 6-11 p.m., with $1 hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn and soda, as well as $2 Bud and Bud Lite. These cost-friendly concessions will be available at the Café, Terrace, Café Apron Window and Backyard only
- After race 6, Horseplay. You could win a 2025 Toyota GR86
- Fireworks! Approximately 10 minutes after the last race, there will be a fantastic fireworks show. Anywhere in The Meadowlands grandstand, outside on the standee level, or up on the roof, will be the best place to watch from.

"Giving back to our loyal fan base is something all of us at The Meadowlands can get behind," said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyre. "Fan Appreciation Night is one way we can do that. Our on-track patrons will be treated to a pair of races named for Stan Bergstein, a man who is synonymous with harness racing, and during the night, can enjoy some low-cost concessions before a great fireworks show lights up the sky at the conclusion of racing. It's a great way to spend a warm summer night."

GOING NATIONAL: There will be live harness racing broadcast to a national television audience this Saturday (July 5) night, with the spotlight shining on The Meadowlands and Ohio's Scioto Downs during the three-hour presentation.

For a fifth consecutive year, the TV teams at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and The Meadowlands are combining forces to bring high-caliber harness racing stakes events to a coast-to-coast audience over the networks of FOX Sports as part of NYRA's "America's Day at the Races" telecasts.

This Saturday's show can be seen on FOX Sports 2 (FS2) and will begin at 8 p.m. Anchoring the broadcast will be Chris Griffin and Gabe Prewitt from NYRA's showcase track, Saratoga Race Course, with on-the-scene commentary being provided by Jessica Otten at The Meadowlands and Jenna Otten at Scioto Downs.

Featured action at The Big M includes the two Bergstein

Graduate finals. The matchup in the pace pits Nijinsky against Captain Albano, who hit the wire a nose apart first and second, respectively, in the final preliminary two weeks ago.

Private Access looks to stay perfect in four seasonal starts in the trot. Amazing Catch, Sir Pinocchio and Gruesome Twosome look like the most likely to pull off an upset.

The Next Generation for 2-year-old filly trotters and 2-year-old colt pacers and trotters sit atop the Scioto marquee. Ohio Sire Stakes dashes will also be shown.

Here is the schedule for the remaining FOX Sports shows, with the event(s) that will be featured and the time the show will be broadcast. Which FOX network the show can be found on – Fox 5 New York (locally), FS1 or FS2 – will be determined:

- July 5 – Stan Bergstein Graduate finals, 8-11 p.m., FS2
- July 12 – Meadowlands Pace Night (multiple stakes), 10-11:30 p.m., FS2
- Aug. 2 – Hambletonian 100 coverage throughout the day, 1-7 p.m., TBA
- Sept. 5 – New Jersey Classic Series finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- Nov. 1 – Kindergarten finals, 8-11 p.m., TBA
- Nov. 15 – Fall Final Four, 8-11 p.m., TBA

CIRCLE THE DATES: The two biggest dates on the calendar at The Meadowlands feature two of the biggest stakes events the game offers.

In just one week, on Saturday (July 12), the $656,000 Meadowlands Pace will take center stage on a power-packed card that gets underway at 6:20 p.m.

Two weeks after that, "America's Trotting Classic" will be in the spotlight celebrating an historic anniversary.

On Saturday (Aug. 2), the 100th edition of the $1-million Hambletonian will highlight the strongest program of the year in the sport. The only card during the season that takes place during the day, post time on Hambletonian Day is noon.

WHAT'S GOING ON? Check out the live "Racing from The Meadowlands" pregame show every Friday and Saturday when track announcer Ken Warkentin opens up the mic with a scene set and program changes at 5:45 p.m.

At that point, Warkentin will then throw to the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set.

Veteran Canadian harness racing TV talent Greg Blanchard will be at The Meadowlands both this week and next, sitting alongside the Big M's Dave Little, with the pair providing news, notes and selections.

On the Friday nights, Blanchard will be in the co-host chair, while on the Saturdays, he will serve as host of the broadcast.

John Rallis, who divides his on-camera time between The Big M and Woodbine Mohawk Park when not serving as an editor and columnist at TROT Magazine, will be handling interviews from the back paddock tonight and Saturday as well as providing commentary and selections on the FanDuel Television (FDTV) feed on Saturday.

Jessica Otten will provide the FDTV analysis tonight.

A GREAT WAY TO PLAY: Every night, The Meadowlands offers a marvelous menu of popular wagers that offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

They are:

- 20-cent Pick-5: Races 1-5
- 20-cent Survivor Pick-7: Races 3-9 (mandatory payout nightly)
- Early 50-cent Pick-4: Races 6-9 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- 20-cent Pick-6: Races 8-13
- Late 50-cent Pick 4: Races 10-13 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- 10-cent non-jackpot Pentafecta (Hi-5): Race 14

Kin Pace final set as eliminations played out Sunday afternoon

Under sunny skies, to a large on track crowd, two Kin Pace eliminations were held at the Huron County Oval Sunday afternoon (June 29). Three-year-old Ontario sired fillies paced for the chance to race in the $50,000 final to be held Sunday (July 6).

The first elimination went to Stone Sawyer racing from the 5-hole in race 4, for trainer Anthony Beaton and driven to victory in 1:58 flat by Austin Sorrie just a head in front of Highland Delight and Dear Abbey.

Race 6 saw the second elim go to Sugar Pie Honey in 1:57.2 for driver Jason Ryan, trained by Nick Gallucci for Millar Farms of Stouffville. Wicked Cruiser and Tricky Wicky rounded out the triactor.

The field for the $50,000 Kin Pace Final is as follows:

1. Wicked Cruiser
 2. Stone Sawyer
 3. Highland Delight
 4. Kandy Kiss
 5. Sugar Pie Honey
 6. Tricky Wicky
 7. Solitary Dancer
 8. Dear Abbey
- AE1 Oneformybaby
AE2 Brydown Wait N See

The final will be a part of the track's Grandstand Grand Opening as well as the small Ontario towns 150th Homecoming celebrations.

The Mitchell Optimist Club held the on-track fundraiser Sunday afternoon, raising just shy of $3,700 to club initiatives and a handle of $67,367 was recorded over the 11-race card.

Details and information on Sunday's festivities can be found at www.clintonraceway.com.

Hambletonian and Oaks hopefuls on display in Reynolds

There were four divisions of the W.N. Reynolds for 3-year-old trotters contested on Saturday (June 28), with two dashes for colts and geldings and two for fillies.

In the first split for males, which went for a purse of $34,825, Hambletonian hopeful Go Dog Go (Greenshoe—Primary Target) followed live cover on the way to a lifetime-best 1:52 score for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Carter Pinsky. The 1-5 favorite paid $2.60 to win.

Another horse with Hambletonian dreams, Gap Kronos S (Face Time Bourbon—I'm Really Special) took the lead at the half and went down the road from there in the other division for males for Yannick Gingras and Ake Svanstedt in a lifetime-best-equaling 1:51.4. As the 9-5 second choice, he returned $5.60 to his backers in the $34,325 dash.

Yo Tillie (Tactical Landing—Consolidator) used an explosive move to three-quarters to win the first division for fillies – which went for $33,375 – by eight lengths in a lifetime-best 1:51 for Todd McCarthy and Andrew Harris. The 2-5 public choice paid $2.80.

In the $32,875 second split for fillies, New Jersey Sire Stakes champion and Hambletonian Oaks eligible Conversano (Muscle Hill—Celebrity Ruth) grabbed the lead at the half and held sway to the wire in 1:52.1 for Andy McCarthy and Juan Cano. As the 8-5 second choice, she paid $5.40.

A LITTLE MORE: A carryover of $6,742 enticed bettors to pour $57,678 of "new money" into the 20-cent Pick-6 pool for a grand total of $64,420. After a sequence that saw winner's odds of 9-1, 2-1, 2-5, 10-1, 8-5 and 7-2, winning tickets were exchanged for $4,253.76... Joe Bongiorno, Todd McCarthy and Dave Miller led the drivers with two wins apiece, while Svanstedt and Bongiorno topped the trainers as each took a pair of walks down victory lane... All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $3,515,284.
