Meadowlands Pace favorite Nijinsky (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the Pepsi North America Cup in June at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Observations and thoughts from Meadowlands Pace eliminations

Complete with the draw for Saturday's $700,000 final.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

by Brett Sturman

With the field now set for this Saturday's (July 13) $700,000 Meadowlands Pace, what were some of the takeaways from last weekend's pair of eliminations?

For starters, the field for the Meadowlands Pace largely resembles the field for June's North America Cup final at Woodbine Mohawk Park. A couple of horses may be trending in slightly different directions from that time, which we'll get to in a moment, but, by and large, the field's end result is the same despite 26 horses entering for the Cup and 17 for the Pace. Of the 10 Pace finalists, seven of those were Cup finalists. The three new additions are Mirage Hanover, Number Cruncher and It's Saturday Night, and all three of those raced in the Cup consolation.

Chapter Seven - Steamy Windows

In his action-packed Pace elimination – a complete contrast from the other elimination – Nijinsky rolled up on the outside following the cover of Captain Albano and cleared to the front past a :53.1 half mile, two full seconds quicker than the preceding elimination race and nearly a full second quicker than the Graduate Pace for 4-year-olds two races later.

The late Dave Brower, inducted this past weekend into harness racing's Communicators Hall of Fame, would often say in his race reviews that it was one thing for a horse to win elsewhere, and another thing to prove it at The Meadowlands. That adage may not quite hold as strong today as it used to, but in the context of who will be the Meadowlands Pace favorite, Nijinsky, any doubts as to just how good he's become would have been put to rest with his elimination win.

As part of the Anthony Beaton-trained sweep – Nijinsky and Legendary Hanover – of the Pace eliminations, Nijinsky won only a single time from 10 starts last year at 2 and that was in a 2y-nw1 (he was also multiple stakes-placed to his credit). This year, he's been literally unbeatable. Now six-for-six in his sophomore campaign, he comes off two consecutive lifetime best miles, having won the North America Cup in 1:48.1 and then his Pace elimination in 1:47.3. But if you wanted to grasp for straws prior and say he won his Cup elimination and Cup final with perfect second over trips, the same couldn't be said for his most recent performance.

In his action-packed Pace elimination – a complete contrast from the other elimination – Nijinsky rolled up on the outside following the cover of Captain Albano and cleared to the front past a :53.1 half mile, two full seconds quicker than the preceding elimination race and nearly a full second quicker than the Graduate Pace for 4-year-olds two races later.

Once up front, Nijinsky was confronted by the fresh big money private purchase and new acquisition of the Andrew Harris barn, Funtime Bayama. Those two went head-to-head from the three-quarter mark onward and at one point it looked like Funtime Bayama may have poked a nose in front. But Nijinsky was able to repel that challenge through the stretch and gradually pulled away towards the end to win by three-quarters with a last quarter in :26.2. Left uncovered earlier in the mile from when Nijinsky crossed over to the lead, Funtime Bayama essentially raced equally as brave, made a strong account for himself in his debut for the new connections and certainly is one of a few that could win the Pace final depending on the trip.

One final note from the elimination won by Nijinsky was the performance of Captain Luke. Dismissed at 16-1 from the outside post 8, he flashed that early speed he's capable of and made the lead probably within the first eighth-of-a-mile and led past that sharp :25.4 opening quarter. Despite being used hard and terribly shuffled back to seventh, he was able to somehow close willingly to get back to fourth with a :26.4 final quarter and comfortably make the final. He's another that can win.

The elimination won by Legendary Hanover was just as formful and much less eventful than the second one, but that was predictable, and all the top-finishers got out of that race precisely what they were looking for.

For Legendary Hanover who was coming off a tough first-over trip in the North America Cup, he was able to sit third without having to do anything until the top of the lane, and once asked he was able to close in :24.4 to outkick both leading two horses who had it just as easy. That final quarter was faster than both pocket-sitting Gem Quality (:25.1) and pace setter Mirage Hanover who closed in "only" :25.2 – he had been made the 6-5 elimination favorite in part due to his final quarter of :24.3 when he tracked down Captain Luke in a 3YO open the week prior. North America Cup race favorite and eventual runner-up to Nijinsky, Captain's Quarters saved all his energy for a single :24.4 final quarter burst in that Pace elimination and is another that looks good to go for the final.

A couple finalists whose stock may have fallen a touch since May could be that of Gem Quality and Captain Albano, last year's Breeders Crown winner and divisional champion, respectively. That may be harsh considering Gem Quality was only a length-and-a-half down in his elimination and Captain Albano too was third in his elimination, but you get the sense there are a couple sharper at the moment.

In an email, a friend of mine pondered if the early start of the PA-sire stakes races, which for 3-year-old colt pacers began on May 4, posed a challenge for some of the horses such as Gem Quality, Captain Albano and others, having to be used too hard too early in early season attempts to gain valuable sire stake points for later. To that point, it does at least raise the question if for example, the May 26 PASS race where Captain Albano went in 1:49.4 at Pocono to beat Gem Quality, if that and similar races can take a toll.

Building from Debbie Little's column from Friday, it seemed increasingly likely Dexter Dunn would opt to drive Funtime Bayama in the upcoming Pace final – and that is exactly what he decided, even though both horses drew well. As Little noted, Dunn won last year's Breeders Crown with Gem Quality and he likely debated whether to take that one for the other Chris Ryder-trained horses that Dunn has driven and continues to drive. In the end, Funtime Bayama showed enough to retain Dunn for the final.

As of this moment, I'd say my top five in no particular order are down to Captain Luke, Captain's Quarters, Nijinsky, Funtime Bayama and Legendary Hanover. A final prediction will come Friday.

MEADOWLANDS PACE DRAW

This is the field for Saturday (July 13) night's $650,000 Meadowlands Pace, a 3-year-old open pace, with post position, horse, driver, trainer and morning-line odds:

with MELISSA KEITH

James MacDonald is Canada's 2024 National Driving Champion

by Melissa Keith

Friday (July 5), Woodbine Mohawk Park's leading reinsman proved he's a force to be reckoned with at any track, anywhere.

James MacDonald prevailed in Canada's 2024 National Driving Championship at Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivières, QC, winning the tournament with a total of 66 points. He had actually finished second to fellow Mohawk regular Tyler Borth in the 2024 Ontario Regional Driving Championship, which took place on April 23 at The Raceway at Western Fair, in London, ON. Both qualified for the NDC.

The day after the championship victory, Canada's two-time reigning Keith Waples Driver of the Year told HRU that memories of winning the 2017 World Driving Championship in his home country raised his confidence going into the 2024 NDC.

"The 2017 competition was on tracks all over Canada," MacDonald said. "I've raced at 3R a few times and always had luck there, so I was hoping for more of the same going in."

The 2024 NDC spanned races 2 through 9 last Friday at Hippodrome 3R. MacDonald overcame bad luck in his first drive, closing wide from last to finish second despite an early break by his horse, 3-1 shot Classic Jim. Tyler Borth wired with 4-5 favorite Mach Play to win the opening leg of the tournament.

In race 3, MacDonald took a similar front-end strategy with winning 1-9 favorite Rec Time, who easily held off 35-1 runner-up Whitemountaincammy and driver Robert Shepherd.

Borth got his second win in race 4, grinding first-over with 6-5 favorite Delgado to sting 7-5 leader Granite Beach (driven by Shepherd) in the stretch.

MacDonald was back in the winner’s circle after race 5, following a front-end victory by 3-5 favorite Bonfire Bash, who quickly circled his stablemate Cleveland Moneyka, driven by Quebec-Eastern Ontario Regional Driving Championship winner Stephane Brosseau. Bonfire Bash held off late moves by pocket-sitting Cleveland Moneyka and La Bromontoise, who ran out of racetrack in a strong closing effort for Borth.

Western Canadian Driving Champion Phil Giesbrecht set the pace in race 6, driving 6-1 shot Odds On Carmel. MacDonald sent 1-5 fave American Zestar after the leader at the half, clearing her in the stretch for his third win of the tournament.

In race 7, Mike Hennessy and 2-1 filly Mybitcoin swept past 6-5 favorite Jimbelina, driven by Giesbrecht, for an Alberta exactor. Race 8 saw Stephane Brosseau get his first win of the NDC, driving 4-5 favorite Last Try to a gate-to-wire victory over next-best Drinklikehenry, with Hennessy in the sulky. MacDonald and Borth failed to hit the board in either race.

The race 9 finale was won by Atlantic Regional Driving Champion Redmond Doucet, Jr., guiding 3-1 Albert Alpha to a narrow, off-the-pace win over 9-5 favorite Cl Big Beach and driver Robert Shepherd.

In the final tally, MacDonald came out on top, with 66 total points. Runner-up Borth was tied for points with Shepherd (53 points each), but finished second overall based on his two wins. Brosseau finished fourth, with 50 points.

Although it might be expected that Mohawk’s leading driver, a three-time Canadian Driver of the Year (2021, 2022, 2023), would be an easy winner in the NDC, MacDonald said the heightened level of competition at the NDC can’t even be compared with driving in major stakes at his home track.

“It’s completely different in every way,” he said. “Strategy is much different knowing how hungry every driver is for every single point.”

MacDonald told HRU he went to Hippodrome 3R without any preconceptions about who would be his main rivals for the NDC title.

“I had no expectations of who would be the biggest challenge,” he said. “I just tried to do my own thing and stay focused. It’s not shocking to see Tyler [Borth] doing so well, though. He’s a fabulous driver.”

MacDonald will now represent Canada at the 2025 World Driving Championships in New Zealand.

Doug McNair withdrew from defending his title in the 2024 NDC. The 2022 National Driving Champion represented Canada at the 2023 World Driving Championship in The Netherlands, Germany and Belgium, finishing second overall to The Netherlands’ Rick Ebbingh last August, as reported here in HRU.

“I couldn’t go to New Zealand next winter,” McNair said Saturday (July 6). “So, I didn’t think it was worth going to Quebec when I knew I couldn’t go to the finals anyways. Something has come up for next winter.”

Asked whether driving regularly at Mohawk gave him an edge at the NDC, MacDonald said it wasn’t a clear-cut advantage.

“I think any and all experience is a big help,” MacDonald said. “It’s always very different racing in competitions like this. Nothing can really prepare you for competitions like this. Every one is different; you have to see how the day goes.”

Brett Clow's first driving win was part fashion statement, part family ties and all talent

by Chris Lomon

Wearing the colors of his Hall of Fame uncle, Harry Poulton (the man who trained world champions On The Road Again and Matt's Scooter), Clow took the reins of Bold N Bad, a veteran pacing son of Badlands Hanover, on the evening of June 27, 2023 at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway in Prince Edward Island.

Sent off as the 7-5 choice in the field of six for the third race on the card, Bold N Bad was blasted off the wings by Clow and put on the front end in the $2,000 dash.

On top by 1¾ lengths through an opening quarter in :29, Bold N Bad was a length clear after a half in 1:00, before Clow let it out a notch to increase the advantage to 2½ lengths after pacing three-quarters in 1:30.3.

Five ahead at the stretch call, the duo crossed the wire six lengths ahead of their nearest rival in 2:00.2.

The victory was even more special considering Clow's mother, Deanna Clow, owns and trains the horse who was originally purchased for $20,000 at the 2016 Forest City Yearling Sale.

"I couldn't have planned it any better," Brett said. "My father, Les, bought the horse out of Ontario, so he played a big part in that win too.

"Bold N Bad was 3 when I first started driving, so we learned how to race together. We raced in the amateur ranks, and we were both green at the start, but when we got that first win, we knew what we were doing. I'm grateful that it was with him."

That Brett became part of the vibrant Canadian East Coast racing scene is by no means a surprise.

Both his parents introduced him to the sport at a young age.

As Brett recalled, it took all but one interaction with a standardbred to put him on the path to a driving career.

"My mom and dad took me to [trainer] Dave Tierney's barn one day," he said. "I met a horse named Jersey Joe and since that day, it was all about harness racing for me."

Brett trained a handful of starters in 2022, adding driving duties to his repertoire the following year.

His first year in the race bike produced 10 wins in 122 starts, accompanied by $23,545 in purse earnings.

"I had a lot of confidence going into that first year because I competed in the matinee races for three or four years," Brett said. "It's an incredible program and I learned a lot from those experiences.

"I learned a lot last year as well. That's an important thing when it comes to driving, that you pick up something new every day. Whether it's going behind the gate, getting into holes or reacting quickly to the flow of the race; I was lucky to have some great people and nice horses to help me along in 2023."

Brett also put some of the helpful words he was given into play. Is there one memorable piece of advice that stands out?

"Well, people told me, 'Don't fall off,' so that's a good one," he said with a laugh.

It wasn't only on the racetrack where Brett was making people take notice of his talents.

On April 19 of this year, the Prince Edward Island Standardbred Horse Owners Association (PEISHOA) Awards Banquet celebrated the standouts of the 2023 racing season.

Brett was named the Rookie Driver of the Year.

“It felt great,” he said. “I was working for that the whole year. It was such a fun year driving. I enjoyed it so much and I don’t think I’ll ever stop. It was the icing on the cake winning that award.

“I have so much support from my family and friends over the years, so to share that moment with them was very special.”

While he showed that he could walk the walk against more established drivers, Brett showed he could also talk the talk, so to speak, at the end of the awards evening.

He took part in a panel discussion that also featured horsemen Brian MacPhee and Corey MacPherson.

Brett was grateful for the opportunity to discuss the sport.

“Corey was the one who got me up there,” Brett said with a laugh. “But it was interesting to be part of that; I never did anything like it before.”

The young horseman is as optimistic as he has ever been when it comes to life in the sulky.

Support is in steady supply.

As for short-term plans, Brett has a long list to choose from.

“I have a lot of goals,” he said. “I want to win more races than I did last year, that’s for sure.”

The amicable teenager is also hoping to have a stable of his own sooner rather than later.

“I’d like to have about 10-to-15 horses of my own in the next few years,” he said. “That would be a dream come true. I like the training side just as much as the driving.”

Winning the biggest race in the Maritimes is a long-term objective.

Each August, Red Shores at Charlottetown Driving Park in Prince Edward Island plays host to The Gold Cup & Saucer.

Top horses and drivers in Eastern Canada come to the racetrack for 11 racing programs over nine days.

The iconic Gold Cup & Saucer, whose history traces back to the early 1960’s, will celebrate its 65th edition on Aug. 17.

“I would love to win that race one day,” Brett said. “It is such an historic race, and it would mean a lot to say that I was able to win it.

“I’d also like to join the 2,000-win club, but I know that is not going to happen for a while.”

For now, the focus is on the next dash.

Chasing that objective in one of the sport’s most passionate racing communities is deeply meaningful for Brett.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Önas Prince quickest from the start in Jarlsberg

by Thomas Hedlund

Per Nordström-trained Önas Prince (Chocolatier) possesses a beautiful technique when it comes to trotting. Few other horses in the world among the older elite trotters, can boast of such a length of stride and efficiency as Önas Prince and the top of all his performances was probably when he won the Paralympiatravet at Åby in early May this year.

In Elitloppet, the 7-year-old Chocolatier colt struggled with a nasty trip in his elimination. But on Sunday (July 7) during Jarlsberg's big weekend, Önas Prince won the track's biggest event, the $150,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International over 2,140 meters and looked as strong as he was in the Paralympiatravet Önas Prince proved that there are few horses that can take the lead away from him when he starts behind the gate. And at Jarlsberg, he almost looked attached to the car when the race began. He is fast behind the gate, period.

Then Nordström did a tactical maneuver which eventually led to the very comfortable victory in Norway. He held the pace at a steady, high level, which made it difficult for horses back in the field to challenge for the win. And the fact that the pace was steady was probably good for Önas Prince, because he looked strong, but not exactly in the same fantastic shape as at Åby in May. Ten out of 10 was the grade in May, and eight out of 10 in Norway on Sunday afternoon. And that is probably just the way Nordström wants it. If he had a horse in full condition, better than ever in early May, then it would be difficult to keep the same shape two months later, after a tough race in Elitloppet. And the next objective is the $300,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial on his home track Jägersro the last Tuesday this month. Then we can be sure that Önas Prince will be on fire for real.

Önas Prince won in a mile rate of 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles (replay here) and 4-year-old Devilish Hill followed as the

NEW SUPER MILE IN MIKKELI?

Title defender Hierro Boko is one out of eight contenders when Mikkeli's $150,000 St Michel Ajo is scheduled on Sunday (July 14), but he will not be one of the most trusted horses from the bettors' part, even if he claimed the mile race in a strong 1:49.4 performance a year ago.

There are some well merited trotters behind the gate in Finland on Sunday. Alessandro Gocciadoro's Denver Gio, third in Elitloppet in late May, Daniel Redén's Don Fanucci Zet, winner of Elitloppet 2021 and Jörgen Westholm trained Castor The Star, who gets closer and closer to the very top among older trotters in Europe. There are some great horses that makes us believe in another sub 1:50 mile in Mikkeli.

1. Castor The Star – Mats E Djuse
2. Jason's Camden – Hannu Torvinen

HAIL MARY READY FOR NEW YORK

Daniel Redén-trained Hail Mary (Googoo Gaagaa) has gotten an invitation to $1 million Yonkers International Trot, which is scheduled for Sept. 7. Earlier, title defender Vivid Wise As (Yankee Glide) was invited and is set for the big race at Yonkers.

Hail Mary will enter the racetrack on Saturday (July 13), in the $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp, where he will face not only some great opponents but also a bad post (8).

Bengurion Jet, Click Bait, Decision Maker and Night Brodde are some of the contenders in the strong 10-horse field.

Hall of Fame class of 2024 inducted in Goshen

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

A crowd of more than 280 people gathered Sunday evening (July 7) at the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame to celebrate the induction of the Hall of Fame class of 2024.

Trainer Jim Campbell, trainer/driver Ed Lohmeyer, and breeder/owner David McDuffee led the group, which was honored during the annual induction dinner on the Museum lawn.

Also inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sunday were immortals Colonel Elisha A. Buck, James Clark, and Direct Scooter, as well as racehorses Gimpanzee, Mission Brief, Tall Dark Stranger, and Wiggle It Jiggleit, plus broodmares Shyaway and Western Montana.

Inducted into the Communicators Hall of Fame were Tim Bojarski and the late Dave Brower.

Campbell was the sport's Trainer of the Year in 2022, when he became the third trainer in history to win the Hambletonian (with Cool Papa Bell) and Hambletonian Oaks (with Fashion Schooner) on the same day. The feat also made him the fourth trainer ever to win both those top trotting events twice, joining Hall of Famers Billy Haughton, Joe O'Brien, and Jimmy Takter.

Award-winners trained by Campbell during his career include Tagliabue, Galleria, Broadway Hall, Broadway Schooner, Broadway Donna, Real Cool Sam, and Cool Papa Bell. Tagliabue and Broadway Schooner were Campbell's other Hambletonian and Oaks winners, with Tagliabue being driven to victory in the Hambletonian by his Hall of Fame brother John.

Jim has won six Breeders Crown trophies and more than 1,450 races lifetime. He is approaching $55 million in career purses and ranks 13th in history in earnings since the inception of official trainer stats in 1991.

John introduced his brother to the crowd at the Hall of Fame ceremony.

"It's an honor to receive such a special award, to be elected into the Hall of Fame," Jim said. "It's a lifetime achievement of 45 years of training horses, and most certainly I didn't get here without the help and support of so many people over the years.

"I started off working for my dad [Jack] at Windsor Raceway. My dad was a great horseman and a great teacher. Dad suggested that I go work for John in New Jersey; that I would have a better opportunity working with John. John was just like working for dad, except he was teaching me on the biggest stage of harness racing and getting himself established as well. I can't thank my brother, John, enough. John has taught me so much over the years and helped me with my career. I'm very proud of the fact that in 1989, John was the leading driver, and I was the leading trainer, at The Meadowlands. It was a very special year for the both of us.

"One of my dad's best days in racing was when Tagliabue won the Hambletonian. Dad was marching toward the track to congratulate John and I, and a security guard went to stop him. Dad told him, 'My two boys just won the Hambletonian, you're not stopping me.' And they didn't. Well, dad, your two boys made it to the Hall of Fame, thanks to you."

Lohmeyer graduated from high school in 1961 and was beginning to make a name for himself as a driver and trainer, but saw his career paused in the mid-1960s while serving with the U.S. Marine Corps in Vietnam. Upon his return, he won the driving title at Green Mountain Park in 1969 and three years later he trained and drove homebred pacer Eddy Jeff to $117,885 in purses – an amount that topped all 2-year-olds in 1972.

In addition to Green Mountain Park, Lohmeyer won driving titles at Atlantic City, Freehold, Liberty Bell, and Monticello before curtailing his driving at the age of 37 to focus on training. Top horses associated with Lohmeyer included Landslide, Pacific Rocket, and Pacific Fella. He also made an impact as a breeder, with broodmare Flat Foot Fluzy being inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2002, and more recently as the breeder of two-time O'Brien Award-winner Adare Castle.

Lohmeyer retired in 2021 with 2,336 career driving wins, the majority of which came prior to 1981. He was credited with 493 training victories since the inception of official trainer stats in 1991.

Introducing Lohmeyer was his cousin, Hall of Fame driver Catello "Cat" Manzi.

USTA/Mark Hall
(From left) Inducted into the Communicators Hall of Fame were
Tim Bojarski and the late Dave Brower (represented by his sister, Laura).

"This is a great honor, of course, to be among all the Hall of Famers that came in before me," Lohmeyer said. "It's just unbelievable to be in that group now. Being at my age, I knew a lot of them. I feel very honored.

"This is a special place, Goshen. I started at 12 years old at the Goshen mile track, going with [my uncle Al Manzi], and he taught me how to rake shed rows, clean harness, walk horses, and become a horseman. This was before Monticello was built, and Uncle Al had to come here and train horses with his brother Richard and his brother John. So, I had the greatest foundation, which carried me through 64 years in the horse business.

"The friends I've made in this business, it's immense, and I have a wonderful family. I think that's what this is all about for me."

McDuffee, an insurance agent by trade, entered harness racing in the 1980s with partner Tom Walsh, and has expanded his standardbred "footprint" as an owner by several degrees of magnitude in the intervening years, with nine Breeders Crown victories, two Hambletonian Oaks, two Little Brown Jugs, and three Kentucky Filly Futurities numbering among his successes. He was USHWA's Owner of the Year in 2021.

Horses associated with McDuffee over the years include 2013 Horse of the Year Bee A Magician, 2022 Trotter of the Year Bella Bellini (a mare he bred) and 2002 Trotter of the Year Kadabra, as well as award-winners Conway Hall, Magical Mike, Pizza Dolce, Poof She's Gone, and Venerable.

McDuffee was introduced by Hall of Fame trustee Steve Jones.

"This is an incredible honor for me," McDuffee said. "I can't believe I'm here. It's amazing.

"I'm going to tell you, it took a village to get me here right now. As an owner, to get to the Hall of Fame, you've got to be the luckiest guy in the world. Not just in the people you surround yourself with, but how you end up with the horses that get you there. And every horse I've ever had, I could stand here and tell you a story about them. Every single horse has a history.

"This is a great thrill for me."

Brower, who passed away unexpectedly in October 2022 at the age of 53, was a mainstay of The Meadowlands for many years, achieving his biggest recognition as a broadcaster on the nightly racing show from the New Jersey oval, in addition to being that track's morning-line oddsmaker and handicapper.

The author of the book "Harnessing Winners" was also a co-host for Hambletonian Day television coverage on many occasions and worked in broadcasting during the Grand Circuit meets at the Delaware County Fair in Ohio and at Lexington's Red Mile.

Brower's sister, Laura, accepted the Communicators Hall of Fame honor on behalf of her brother.

"On behalf of my mother and the rest of our family, I would like to thank you for extending this incredible honor to my brother," Laura said. "Losing Dave so suddenly has been tough for my family, as I know it's been tough for his harness racing family too. If Dave were here, the last thing he'd want to do is make a long speech, but I know he would say how much he loved being part of the harness racing community, and now I can understand why.

"Growing up with Dave, for as long as I can remember, it was all about the horses. He could never get enough. And to make a career out of it was like the perfect storm. Not many can say that they love what they do, and Dave genuinely loved it all.

"It's been a tough year-and-a-half leading up to this day, but I'm starting to get past the sadness, and to really celebrate him, his life and his accomplishments, tonight being the greatest of all."

Bojarski got started in harness racing in 1986 at Batavia Downs, near his western New York home of Akron, authoring a tip sheet and writing profiles of horsemen.

He is in his 23rd year of writing for Hoof Beats, the award-winning magazine of the U.S. Trotting Association, for which he has been a columnist for 11 years. Bojarski also is employed by Plainridge Park, the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts and that state's stakes program, the New York Sire Stakes, and Batavia Downs.

"As a member of [the U.S. Harness Writers Association] for the last 23 years, presenting awards is something I'm quite familiar with," Bojarski said. "However, I'm not used to being on this end of the transaction, so haven't quite wrapped my head around this yet.

"Wanting to write and being given the chance to do so are two different things, so I have to thank the many people who gave me those opportunities.

"The ultimate gratification is to have the respect of your peers, and that's what really makes this night special."

Skywalker Sea sets Oak Grove track record in Kentucky Sire Stakes

by Oak Grove racing publicity

In just the second start of her career, Skywalker Sea paced the fastest mile ever for 2-year-old pacing fillies over the Oak Grove oval in winning her division's lone $40,000 dash of Kentucky Sire Stakes on a jam-packed Sunday (July 7) card.

Leaving from post 7, driver Yannick Gingras found a snug seat for Skywalker Sea in fourth to a :27 first quarter set by Hip Shot (driven by Scott Zeron). Gingras stayed put through a :57 half before lifting his charge into action up the backside with a first-over push after Hip Shot. Skywalker Sea seized the lead to three-quarters in 1:24.1 and strode in under a hand drive to register a 2-1/2-length win over Hip Shot in 1:52. Accede (Dexter Dunn) gave chase off a ground-saving trip in third and Karma (Andy Miller) finished fourth.

A daughter of Downbytheseaside, Skywalker Sea stayed unbeaten from two starts for owner Greg Luther Racing LLC and trainer Todd Luther. Her 1:52 effort lowered the previous mark for 2-year-old pacing fillies set by Calgary two years ago by three-fifths of a second. Skywalker Sea returned $2.78 for the win.

Just a single division of KYSS also went postward for the 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings and the 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. The male sophomore trot opened the card and saw Mister Dad (Dunn, 1:55 winning time; $7 to win) find a seam in the final yards off a pocket trip to grab a nose win over tempo-setting Lindy's Coyotito (Miller) and fast-closing Memorynimagination (Zeron). Anette Lorentzon trains Mister Dad, a gelded son of Father Patrick, for owners Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Tulip Racing.

The lone KYSS split for male pacing freshmen wrapped the Sunday card and went to Lew Hauber (Dunn, 1:54; $9.56) off an enterprising pocket ride to punch up and get a neck win over hard-charging Got Bourbon (Todd McCarthy). Ron Burke trains the winning Sweet Lou colt for owner-breeders Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brussemi LLC and Jack Piatt II.

Freshman trotting fillies sparred in three $40,000 KYSS divisions on the Sunday card. Both Voguish (Yannick Gingras,

Mark Herron

Skywalker Sea (Yannick Gingras) setting an Oak Grove track record for 2-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:52 win on Sunday in a Kentucky Sire Stakes division.

1:55.4; $4.36) and Yo Tillie (Verlin Yoder, 1:55.4; $8.62) tied for fastest miles of their division with different trips to boot. Voguish carved the mile as the even-money choice while Yo Tillie powered off a pocket ride to best odds-on choice Stacking Green (Gingras). Andrew Harris trains Voguish, a daughter of Gimpanzee who debuted a winner for owners William Pollock, Bruce Areman and Andrew Harris, while Verlin Yoder owns and trains Yo Tillie, a daughter of Tactical Landing. The third KYSS split for 2-year-old trotting fillies went to Steve Carter trainee Divine Thing (Peter Wrenn, 1:56; $4.40) after she powered first over through the first quarter to the lead and held firm on the point to the finish.

Memento Mori (Zeron, 1:56.2; $2.46) made amends for his runner-up debut and led from pillar-to-post to win in the faster of the two KYSS divisions for freshman trotting colts and geldings. Eric Patalan trains the Chapter Seven gelding, who fended off a late surge from Bank On Me (McCarthy) in the stretch, for owners Thestable Memento Mori and Hutchison Harness LLC. Shoe Shine Willie (Dunn, 1:57.4; $10.70) stayed flat and inherited an open lane on the turn for home to stay on the straight and narrow and win in the other division for trainer Bill Cottongim.

Arson (Zeron, 1:50.1; $6.58) converted a pocket trip to a win in the faster of the two KYSS splits for sophomore pacing males, downing tempo-setter Dancin Champion (Gingras) in the final strides to win. Patalan trains the Captaintreacherous colt for owners Thestable Arson Group and Hutchison Harness. Copperfield (Marcus Miller, 1:51.2; $78.82) landed a huge upset as the longest shot on the board in the other division, collaring late-leader Swaggy Cal (Dunn) in the closing strides for the win.

Per Engblom pupil Bath Bomb (Gingras, 1:50.2; $3.94) circled to the lead past the quarter and motored down the road to record the faster mile of the two KYSS divisions for sophomore pacing fillies. The daughter of Lather Up, who competes for owner Morrison Racing Stables, easily waded the center-track rally from Defining Moment (Scott Zeron) to hold the win by 1¾ lengths. Viki Hill (Dunn, 1:52.3; $5.20) survived an uncovered bid through the first three-eighths of the mile in the other division to hold victory by a half-length over room-seeking Seeuonthetheotherside (Marvin Luna).

Black Velvet As (Marvin Luna, 1:53.3; $9.36) took top honors from the three KYSS divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies when she muscled first over to a 3½-length win over pocket-sitter Local Honey (McCarthy). Anette Lorentzon trains the daughter of Archangel for owner ACL Stuteri AB. Stella Volo (Dunn, 1:53.4; $5.16) and Woman Of Passion (Zeron, 1:54; $2.20) later bested their rivals on the lead to win in the other divisions.

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Freshmen male pacers ready for NYSS at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

While the 2024 live racing season winds down at Buffalo Raceway with just seven programs remaining, the New York Sire Stakes is just getting into high gear as the 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers arrive this afternoon (July 10) with a pair of $52,500 battles to be contested.

The first division is slated for the seventh race as a rematch of the $77,300 event at Yonkers Raceway on June 27 is on tap.

In his career debut, Fast Choice (Courtly Choice—Fashion Guru) took that race at Yonkers with a 1¾-length nod over Courts On Fire in 1:54.2. The Jared Bako trainee will start from post 5 as Scott Zeron is listed as the driver.

Fast Choice is going to be sandwiched on the starting grid by Courts On Fire (Courtly Choice—Ashlee's Spitfire) and Watch My Warrior (So Surreal—Girlofyourdreams) who will start from the 4 and 6 spots respectively.

Courts On Fire (Jim Morrill, Jr.) was a solid second to Fast Choice in his initial appearance while Watch My Warrior (Barton Dalious) gathered fourth place honors but was 11¼ lengths behind Fast Choice.

Others in the bracket include Farkle (Drew Monti), Meltdown Monte (Tyler Buter) and Alabama Lucky (Mark MacDonald).

The second division finds six gentlemen looking to notch their first parimutuel victory.

Idealofaday (American Ideal—Day Blue Chip) was the closest in reaching that goal as he finished second by 3¼ lengths in 1:56.1 to Thirsty Thursday in the NYSS at Yonkers on June 27. Idealofaday has Zeron scheduled to pilot him from the 6-hole.

Holt Hanover (Huntsville—Heart Major) closed a ton in the NYSS at Yonkers, rallying from seventh place to fourth in the loss to Fast Choice. MacDonald will score him from the fourth position.

SG Exit Velocity (Monti) was sitting fourth in his career debut in the NYSS at Yonkers but broke stride and ended up sixth, more than 20 lengths behind Thirsty Thursday. With a smoother journey around the Buffalo Raceway half mile oval, SG Exit Velocity could be troublesome.

The remainder of the field includes Brayden's Bandit (Morrill, Jr.), Digging For Gold (Brett Beckwith) and Invictus (Buter).

There are a trio of $20,000 races in the Excelsior Series as well for the freshmen pacers. Post time for the 13-race program is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?

Railroad Station fastest of freshman PA All-Stars

by PHHA / Pocono

Railroad Station moved to the engine before the half and was in full control of one of four $30,000 Pennsylvania All-Stars divisions for 2-year-old pacing males Monday afternoon (July 8) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, steaming home to a spectacular clocking of 1:51.1 five lengths ahead of the field.

Railroad Station actually had a brief advantage from the rail soon after the gate sprang, but David Miller took the Sweet Lou—Rodeo Rosie colt in hand to let outside contenders Paxamillion and Joe The Bartender battle for the early lead. The two slugged it out well past the :26.1 opening fraction, and as Joe The Bartender finally claimed the top under the wire the first time, Railroad Station was already on the move to retake, getting the lead quickly and going to the half in :54.1.

Paxamillion came out for another move before the 1:23 three-quarters, but on the far turn the winner achieved separation from his rivals and widened his advantage in the lane, winning by five lengths over Joe The Bartender with Miller motionless behind him. Railroad Station had paced his last quarter in :26 to miss a nose in a Kindergarten division in his only other purse start, and he certainly looks like the real deal for trainer Ron Burke and the ownership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Hatfield Stables, and J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby.

Miller, Burke, Sweet Lou, and Burke / Weaver Brussemi accounted for another All-Stars win with the colt Da Lou Ron Ron (dam Sassa Hanover), who is also owned by Lawrence Karr and Frank Baldachino. In his purse bow, Da Lou Ron Ron got a crafty steer from Miller, sitting mid-pack behind early numbers of :27 and :56.1, moving uncovered down to back then getting a brief respite by tucking third ahead of a gapper past a 1:25 third quarter, then coming up the Pocono Pike and catching pacesetter Waterfront by a half-length in 1:53.

The other two All-Stars winners both paced in 1:52.1 for new marks. Bitcoin Hanover, a son of Stay Hungry—Boldnbrash Hanover, continued a recent Pocono success story by shippers from Rideau Carleton Raceway (this one via Toronto). The colt knocked four seconds off his mark, overcoming the outside post 8 to put up fractions of :27.2, :57.2, and 1:25 en route to a neck win over potential pocket rocket and favorite Inflation Proof. Tyler Buter had the drive behind the winner of three of four, with Rob Harmon the trainer for Robert Robinson and Paul Smyth.

Rideau Carleton is 345 miles away from Wilkes-Barre, but Gratz PA is only 75 miles distant, and the Papi Rob Hanover—Dagnabit Hanover gelding Dreamboat Hanover again showed he didn't mind the trip, following up on a 1:52.2 overnight debut win with his All-Stars victory here. Andy Miller guided the baby to the lead past a :27.4 opener, put up mid-splits of :56.3 and 1:25, then dug in against a pocket threat from 31-1 shot Lennon Hanover for a three-quarter length decision for trainer Cody Schadel. Cody's father and mother Todd and Christine co-own the fast freshman with Timothy Hayes and Dr. Megan Moschgat.

The freshman pacers were certainly speedy on the 90-degree day, but the trots on the card certainly took no back seat. There were five diagonally-gaited miles in 1:55 or less, and none of them came from a level above third-from-bottom on the respective class ladders.

Babes All In best in Maryland Sire Stakes

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

Ronald Short's homebred Babes All In rode the pocket to an odds-on victory in Sunday's (July 7) $25,500 Maryland Sire Stakes for 4- and 5-year-old pacers at Ocean Downs.

A two-time Maryland Sire Stakes series champion — once at 2, once at 3 — Babes All In and driver Jonathan Roberts landed in a clear pocket behind Smooth Rocket (driven by Russell Foster) to stalk fractions of :27.2, :57.4 and 1:27. Roberts edged the 4-year-old gelded son of Rusty's All In—Aunt Babe off the pegs with three-sixteenths to go, and the pair surged past a driven Smooth Rocket in mid-stretch to win by a widening length in 1:55. Phoenix Rising (Frank Milby) finished third.

Babes All In paid $2.80 to win in his sixth victory this season and 13th of his career. He now has earned $190,539.

Campbell-Grondin sweep Maine sophomore trots at Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Two $15,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotters led the holiday weekend charge on Sunday (July 7) at Bangor, with driver Heath Campbell and trainer Valerie Grondin sweeping both events.

In the first $15,578 stakes race, which was a non-wagering event held before the regular card, the three male high-steppers were eager to get things started. As the pylon-positioned Pembroke Will (Heath Campbell) protected his inside status, stable mate Chipper Dale (Drew Campbell) jumped off-stride before the starting gate had sprung. This allowed Carrabassett (Mark Athearn) to grab the 2-hole and track behind the pacesetter into a :30.3 opening panel.

Heading through the 1:03.3 modest half-mile marker Chipper Dale had recovered from his early miscue and regained contact with the field. Carrabassett maintained his pocket trip until the 1:35 third panel where he made a move to the outside.

Charging down the stretch Pembroke Will could feel the walls closing in around him, yet maintained his composure, and his will power, to hold off the late charge of stable mate Chipper Dale and a tiring Carrabassett.

Scoring by a head in 2:04.4, it was Pembroke Will's first seasonal victory which also resulted in a new lifetime mark. Driven by Heath Campbell for trainer Valerie Grondin and owner/breeder Bill Varney, the son of Pembroke Slugger upped his lifetime earnings to $79,176.

Stable mate Chipper Dale threw in a :29.2 last quarter to be second; Carrabassett was third.

The second $15,983 Maine Sire Stakes of the afternoon opened the regular betting card for the distaff 3-year-old trotters.

At the start Pembroke Breeze (Heath Campbell) held on to her position on the pegs at the start and rolled through a :31.1 opening panel with My Saving Grace (Mark Athearn) sticking close in second and Twisted Venture (Mike Cushing) cruising along in third. At the 1:02.3 half the order had not varied, however, Cushing had pulled his filly to the outside to challenge. By the 1:32.2 third panel Twisted Venture had advanced to second position, albeit uncovered on the outside, while the leader Pembroke Breeze was allowed to trot unfettered.

As the field turned for home the pacesetter had gained separation on the field and the daughter of Pembroke Slugger drew off to win by 3½ lengths in 2:02.2. Once again driver Heath Campbell and trainer Valerie Grondin displayed their collective prowess in the Maine Sire Stakes and took home another trophy for owner/breeder Bill Varney. Pembroke Breeze paid $2.20 to win and take a new career record.

Twisted Venture finished second; My Saving Grace was third.

The Maine Sire Stakes resumes today (July 10) when the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers return to historic Bass Park.

Maine's freshmen trotters debut at Cumberland

Maine's 2-year-old trotters rolled into their first sires stakes action of the season on Saturday (July 6), with two $15,000-plus divisions opening the 12-race card at Cumberland Raceway.

The diagonally gaited distaffs were the first $15,816 group out of the gate with the usual growing pains associated with green trotters. Following a few miscues after the start Ken Watson got Lady Lake Marty (6-1, Whataworkout) away from the gate cleanly and was on top by eight into a swift :30 second opening panel. In a more subdued 1:02 half, the pair were on top by 12 and then eight lengths at the 1:34.1 third panel.

That lead expired quickly when the pacesetter filly jumped it off while trotting into the final turn, allowing Pandemic Princess and Heath Campbell (9-5, Whataworkout) to roll through the apex and take command. Down the stretch they strode to a 7¼-length score in 2:06.3.

Trained by Valerie Grondin for owner-breeder Lynn-Marie Plouffe, the duo paid $5.60 to win.

Katahdin Mistress (Wally Watson-Lisa Watson) finished second; Lady Lake Marty hung on for third.

The boys hopped into the fray next, vying for their share of the $16,028 Maine Sire Stakes purse.

The first to leave was Ken Watson with Whatawonder (9-2, Whataworkout) who cleared sharply and took the field into a moderate :31.2 first quarter. Gapping out in the pocket was Mark Athearn with Iron Mike (5-1, Whataworkout) while heading to the 1:05 half, forcing Walter Case, Jr. to come first over with Liberty's Wildcard (2-1, Noble Venture).

Thru the paddock turn the second time Liberty's Wildcard jumped, prompting Wally Watson and Katahdin Victor (4-5, Victor Blue Chip) to move first over into a 1:36 swifter third panel. With Iron Mike on his inside Katahdin Victor grabbed second position, as the leader, Whatawonder, was on top by eight by the head of the stretch.

No further changes in the marching orders were realized as the pacesetter sailed home in 2:07.1. Trained by Lisa Watson for owner/breeder Barbara Lawson, he paid $11.80 to win.

Katahdin Victor finished second; Iron Mike was third.

Racing resumes Friday, July 12 as the First Tracks Cumberland meet continues with regular racing on Friday and Saturday each weekend through Aug. 3.

Mal Burroughs voted into Hall of Fame

The Hall of Fame screening committee of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), after meeting with a select group of Harness Racing Museum trustees, announces that Malvern (Mal) Burroughs has been elected to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame. The direct election in the Veterans designation is provided for in the USHWA bylaws, allowing for one longtime distinguished contributor to the sport who has cut back on current direct activity being put straight in by the committee, selecting from nominations made by chapters of USHWA.

Burroughs is often described as a “self-made man,” learning about life by living it with the assistance of the Seton Hall (NJ) Seminary, to which Burroughs always donated his fees as an amateur driver. Burroughs borrowed $8,000 to purchase a used dump truck, with the business growing to the point of his construction company being used in excavation of the World Trade Towers site and, more importantly to racing, the building in the swampland of northern New Jersey of a racetrack named The Meadowlands, now North America’s flagship harness operation.

Burroughs became an owner in the 1970s, and began to drive his horses in the Billings Amateur Series in the early 1980s. When he needed a fulltime trainer to oversee his growing stable, he turned to a Swedish expatriate named Jimmy Takter, himself now a Hall of Famer, and Burroughs’ harness racing successes really hit high gear, especially after purchasing Malabar Farms in New Jersey with his wife Barbara in 1982.

Burroughs and Takter teamed to produce the filly Gleam, an earner of over $580,000 and the winner, with Burroughs driving, of the Hambletonian Oaks, filly companion race to the famed Hambletonian. But even brighter lightning was to strike for them only a few years later, with Malabar Man.

This Supergill—Lady Love McBur homebred had a rough start as a 2-year-old in 1996, with Burroughs needing heart surgery and Malabar Man needing to overcome foot difficulties. But at 2, Malabar Man won 13 starts including the Breeders Crown and was voted divisional champion, and at 3, in 1997, he had a storybook campaign, winning the Hambletonian for his amateur driver (still only the second amateur driver to win the classic), the Breeders Crown, the prestigious Orsi Mangelli Trot in Italy, and Horse of the Year honors. Malabar Man will now be “reunited” with his breeder/owner/driver in the Hall.

Malabar Man’s Hambletonian triumph, combined with Gleam’s Oaks win, makes Burroughs one of only a dozen drivers, and the only amateur, to “do the Hambletonian double,” with many of the other drivers already enshrined in the Hall.

Burroughs always found the time to make major contributions to the sport’s leading organizations, including the Hall of Fame, the Hambletonian Society, and the Harness Horse Youth Foundation, in addition to his largesse to the Seton Hall Seminary, which played such a large part in his early life.

Burroughs will be feted for his Hall of Fame selection on two occasions: the first comes on Sunday (Feb. 23, 2025), at the Dan Patch Awards Banquet hosted by USHWA, to be held at the Rosen Centre in Orlando. The second will be the official date of his Hall induction, Sunday (July 6, 2025), at the annual Hall of Fame dinner in Goshen.

A separate release summarizes the careers of Tom Aldrich, Bob Boni, and Chris Ryder, who were named by the screening committee from USHWA nominations to go on this summer’s Hall of Fame balloting, where they will be joined by Communicators Hall of Fame nominees Judy Davis-Wilson and Debbie Little, selected by USHWA’s directors. A candidate must receive 75 per cent of the yes-no ballots cast to earn election into the Hall. Results will be announced in mid-summer.

Aldrich, Boni, Ryder on ballot for Hall of Fame

The Hall of Fame screening committee of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), after meeting with a select group of Harness Racing Museum trustees, announces that Tom Aldrich, Bob Boni, and Chris Ryder will appear on this summer’s Hall of Fame ballot.

The Hall of Fame candidates, selected from nominations by USHWA’s chapters, will be voted on by members of the Hall of Fame and by eligible USHWAs. The ballots, which will be distributed within the next few weeks, will also find USHWAs voting for the Communicators Hall of Fame candidates Judy Davis-Wilson and Debbie Little, put forward by the writers’ directors from chapter nominations. A candidate must receive 75 per cent of the yes-no ballots cast to earn election into the Hall. Results will be announced in mid-summer.

Tom Aldrich is perhaps most renowned for his 30+ years in upper management at Cleveland's Northfield Park, where his innovation and attention to customer service combined with that of the track's energetic late owner Carl Milstein and other key executives to make Northfield Park one of the shining examples of racetrack operation in North America, such as inaugurating the FFA pacing event the Battle of Lake Erie.

A graduate of Ohio State and the University of Cincinnati's College of Law, Aldrich had many positive formative steps along the way, working for the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association and as executive assistant at Harness Tracks of America to double Hall of Famer Stan Bergstein. It was while serving as general manager of Rosecroft Raceway near D.C. that he met his late wife Lynn, daughter of a Pennsylvania racing family, herself a noted driver, and a worker in several Maryland official capacities.

Bob Boni rode a wave of steadily more-responsible jobs up the harness "ladder" – Pine Hollow Stud; the Wall Street Stable in partnership with Lou Guida, whose most spectacular star was champion Nihilator; Dreamaire Stud; and his own International Bloodstock, now his Northwood Bloodstock Company. The list of champions associated with him is too long to be categorized here, but must include the 1:46 pacer Always B Miki.

The innovator of using videos to market yearlings, Boni serves on the boards of the Harness Racing Museum, the Standardbred Owners and Breeders Association of New Jersey, and is the chairman of USHWA's breeding awards committee. He was the point man in ensuring that New Jersey racing received a sizable appropriation from that state's legislators, helping to revitalize racing in the Garden State.

New Zealand native Chris Ryder worked from a young age with horses, some thoroughbred until his body outgrew his desire to become a jockey, in his native land, then came to North America with his wife Nicola, a CPA, when she got a job in Manhattan. He quickly established himself as a master of conditioning horses of all varieties, especially top performers, and even more so with female trotters and pacers.

McArdle, Bettor's Wish, Tattoo Artist and Breeders Crown winner Gem Quality are among the male stakes and FFA stars he has trained. But the list of female standardbreds benefiting from his services is longer, and just as distinguished: Cathedra Dot Com, Mystical Sunshine, Put On A Show, Party Girl Hill, Niki Hill,

I Luv The Nightlife, and today's star pacing mare Twin B Joe Fresh, now successful at 4 after stellar campaigns at 2 and 3.

The electees will be feted for their Hall of Fame selection on two occasions: the first comes on Sunday (Feb. 23, 2025), at the Dan Patch Awards Banquet hosted by USHWA, to be held at the Rosen Centre in Orlando. The second will be the official date of the Hall induction ceremonies, Sunday (July 6, 2025), at the annual Hall of Fame dinner in Goshen.

Grand Circuit Moni Maker and Nadia Lobell at Scioto Downs

The Grand Circuit moved to Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (July 6) as the track played host to the Moni Maker and Nadia Lobell for the first time.

Joining the track in the evening festivities were Hall of Famers Wally Hennessey and Jimmy Takter, the driver and trainer during the majority Moni Maker's career. The pair did an autograph signing, presented trophies and Hennessey led the post parade for the Moni Maker event with Ready For Moni, one of her grandsons who is currently standing stud at Midland Acres.

The $100,000 Moni Maker race was won by Allegiant and Hunter Myers in 1:52.1. Jurassic Hattie (Brett Miller) set the fractions of :27, :56.2 and 1:24. Allegiant was parked for the first half of the opening turn before she settled in third. The duo then came first up partway down the backside to challenge the leader. By the last turn they had taken over and confidently won the race by two lengths. Jurassic Hattie dug in to finish second while Roxanna (Aaron Merriman) came up the passing lane to finish third.

"She loves what she does," said Myers. "Me having to come first up, I was a little worried about it, but knowing how good she was the previous weeks, I was pretty confident on how she was going to handle herself."

Allegiant, by Tactical Landing, is trained by Vernon Beachy for Ryan Smith. After being in New Jersey for the NJSS, Allegiant was a winner in the Currier & Ives at The Meadows. She now has $393,397 in earnings from 15 lifetime starts.

The $100,000 Nadia Lobell was won by Seaside Diva and Chris Page in 1:50.4. Rose Run Zoey (Tyler Smith) set early fractions for the compact field of :26.1, :55 and 1:23.1. Seaside Diva was third, pulled first over going down the backside and took the lead by the top of the stretch to win by a quarter-of-a-length over Pass Line (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), who got the pocket trip. Lyons Legend (Merriman) came from the back of the pack to finish third.

Seaside Diva, by Downbytheseaside, is trained by Ron Burke for owner/breeders Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services and Let It Ride Stables. She is a perfect six-for-six in 2024 starts, including the James Hackett Memorial elim and final and the first two legs of the Ohio Sires Stakes, en route to now having $416,805 in lifetime earnings.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Shenandoah Downs fall meet harness racing applications now available online Racing applications for the ninth annual fall pari-mutuel harness racing season at Virginia's Shenandoah Downs are now available online. Trainers can access and submit applications at shenandoahdowns.com under the «Horsemen» header. Deadline to submit an application is Aug. 5.

The seven-week meet in Woodstock will run from Sept. 14-Oct. 27 with racing every Saturday and Sunday at 1:05 p.m. A series of Virginia Breeder's races will begin on Sept. 28 and culminate with a Championship Day on Oct. 27. Two and 3-year-old pacers and trotters of both sexes will compete in a pair of $8,000 elimination races prior to the finals. Championship Day itself features eight divisional title matches with a minimum $80,000 purse.

More info is available by calling 540-459-4807 or by e-mailing raceoffice@shenandoahdowns.com.

The track is conveniently located off I-81 at Exit 283 in the scenic Shenandoah Valley, halfway between Winchester and Harrisonburg in the northwest part of the state.

Prior to the Shenandoah Downs pari-mutuel meet, a 4-day non-wagering meet will take place at the same site from Aug. 28-31 during the Shenandoah County Fair. Post time each day is noon and acclaimed announcer Roger Huston will call the action the first three days.
