The stakes-laden card looks to be a major factor in determining how divisions will play out this year.

Even more than usual it seems this year's Meadowlands Pace and supporting stakes-laden undercard has the potential to set in motion how many of the divisions may play out for the foreseeable future. Not all of these will be answered in finality on Saturday (July 12), but here are some burning questions to be asked in advance of the big night of over $2.5 million in stakes.

WHO WILL WIN THE MEADOWLANDS PACE?

Starting right off with the question of the night and the race of the night, the complexion of the race changed earlier this week when news broke on the eve of the draw for the remainder of the card – the Pace was drawn live on air on Saturday (July 5) – that the reigning divisional champion, Pepsi North America Cup winner, and sports #1 ranked horse Louprint underwent an emergency procedure on Monday and would not be in the Meadowlands Pace.

Estimating that Louprint would have gone off as the odds-on favorite somewhere around 3-5, the race in the remaining field of nine now becomes wide open. And at the same time, a couple of the top contenders look shakier than they did a month ago. It's now a race that nearly anyone can win.

In a tough break of luck, Madden Oaks drew the outside post for his second straight signature 3-year-old race (North America Cup). Despite that, along with being dismissed in the NA Cup at odds of over 50-1, he's now amazingly been installed as the 5-2 morning line Pace favorite. It's deserved, but shows how much things can change in a short time.

Madden Oaks burst onto the scene with that remarkable NA Cup elimination try and then followed that up by putting a serious inside scare into Louprint as those two dueled through the stretch in the NA Cup final. Just as that trip from post 10 couldn't have possibly worked out any better, his road to the top from post 9 in the Pace may not be much different. I'd imagine that a couple drivers noticing the void of early speed in the NA Cup could be more inclined to take an early chance now, but it doesn't look like it's going to come from either of the two immediately to Madden Oaks' inside. You know that driver Braxten Boyd is going to be both confident and aggressive; does the public make him the eventual favorite over let's say the more well-known connections of Captain Optimistic?

Captain Optimistic, who was a top 2-year-old and Governor's Cup winner here last year, was well positioned in the NA Cup final a month ago when only missing by a length-and-a-half but it just didn't seem visually that he fired his effort. He returned last week in a "prep" race at The Meadowlands and wound up third. I know that race didn't carry much meaning, but to see the others in that short field all closing in despite him being rated kindly through a half-mile of just :55.1, it's tough to know what to make of him.

Similar questions for Fallout, who looks to give driver Tetrick his seventh Pace win. Last year's Metro winner went a tough trip in his NA Cup elimination and missed the final. He since came back to win in 1:49.1 over a 4-year-old rival and was trying hard last week with a :26 final quarter to get close in the prep race when finishing down a couple of lengths. It's still early in the year, but his 2-year-old mark from last year remains faster than any of his 3-year-old race times thus far.

Prince Hal Hanover entered the NA Cup final in razor sharp form but curiously changed tactics that race and was never involved. He since went in 1:48.2 at Mohawk that included blitzing a third panel and it looks like he'll be receiving a new driver for the Pace.

Coming back to the question at hand, my pick to win the Pace is going to be Papis Pistol. One of the longer chances in Canada last month, he may have the best form, along with the rail position, coming into this race. A 1:49.3 Kindergarten winner here at 2, he returned last week and won that prep comfortably when coming through an inside opening in a time of 1:49.1. Two back, he won in 1:48 in a 3-year-old open at Mohawk and he seems just as capable to win as anyone else as Dave Miller gets the return call.

WHO WILL EMERGE AS HAMBLETONIAN FAVORITES?

Absent Emoticon Legacy (which is a big notable), almost all other major Hambletonian contenders will be racing in two splits of the Stanley Dancer Memorial. Super Chapter is currently rated as the top contender in Hambletonian rankings published by The Meadowlands, and it'll be interesting to see if he can race up to his billing in making his first start back at The Big M since finishing second to Monserrate in last year's Valley Victory. Super Chapter is unbeaten this year through three starts, but honestly, he couldn't have had it any easier in trips at Vernon and Yonkers. The Dancer will be a better indication for him of what's to come.

In the race, he'll rematch with Monserrate who was at a tactical disadvantage when Super Chapter beat him three back at Yonkers. Monserrate enters the race off an easy win at The Meadowlands last out against lesser, but looked very good in doing so, along with that :26.3 final quarter. Also in the field is Gap Kronos who won his Reynolds division at The Meadowlands last out tying a career best time of 1:51.4, besting another good 3-year-old Nordic Catcher S in the process. The field also includes New Jersey Sires Stakes champion Hidalgo as well as Dexter Cup winner Hard Seven; can either of those step up into the main group of contenders.

The second Dancer Memorial division is just as stacked. I'll go on record right now in saying that Go Dog Go is my Hambletonian pick. He's picked right up this year where he finished last season when he came on so strong at the end and couldn't have been more impressive in either of his starts to begin this season. Last out at The Meadowlands in the Reynolds, he came into the race nicely from post 9 and stormed past everyone as pleased in the races final stages to establish a career best mark of 1:52. He'll meet up Saturday with the Dan Patch champion Maryland.

Maryland has come back in two starts thus far with much better tries than the prior qualifiers indicated, and both runner-up finishes have been solid considering the uphill type of trips he went against both Super Chapter and Emoticon Legacy. Last year's Breeders Crown runner-up by a neck, Maximus Mearas S will make his first start of the year in the Dancer and is another with high Hambletonian aspirations. And though not racing Saturday, Hambletonian prospects Mr Mouton and to a lesser extent Mountcastle race tonight (July 11) at The Meadowlands in a conditioned race and are worth noting too.

IS THE HAMBLETONIAN MATURITY THE BEST WAGERING RACE OF THE YEAR?

Simply answered, with 13 horses going a mile-and-an-eighth, how can it not be? Going as race 9, two races before the Meadowlands Pace, the Hambletonian Maturity has the potential to produce serious pari-mutuel fireworks.

I recall there being some 12-horse fields at The Meadowlands, but I can't remember ever being 13 either here or anywhere in North America for that matter. Elista Hanover comes into the race having gone a remarkable trip last week in the Graduate final when eventually coming up just short to Warrawee Michelle, the mare who will start immediately to her inside on Saturday.

Private Access, who was beaten in the Graduate for the first time this year will likely go off as the race favorite starting from an inside post and I'd think that driver Louis-Philippe Roy will want him away from any race confusion and have him right on the front. In addition to Private Access, owner Determination and trainer Luc Blais also send down Emoji Hanover and Drawn Impression.

The race also includes the mercurial Highland Kismet who actually stayed trotting last week but endured a tough first-over trip when parked moving to the lead – he'll suddenly offer a square price this time around. Gruesome Twosome, who is a relatively new addition to the Nancy Takter barn, has been well supported in all recent tries in the Graduate but now moves out to post 10 and in a field like this, that will ensure a much higher price too. Date Night Hanover has the potential to close from well back and is sure to offer odds well into the double digits. The possibilities seem endless and the payouts in the exotics from this race could be massive.

Procedure sidelines Louprint ahead of Meadowlands Pace

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Dan Patch Award-winner Louprint, the 7-5 morning-line favorite for Saturday's (July 12) $656,000 Meadowlands Pace for 3-year-olds, will miss the Grade 1 event and is expected to be sidelined for several weeks following an emergency procedure Monday to remove a testicle, co-owner Mark Weaver said.

Dr. Jen Smith performed the procedure after the issue was discovered Monday morning.

"They were able to get him into surgery right away and removed the testicle without any compromise of his intestines," Weaver said. "The best-case scenario is that he would miss a few weeks, but we'll let his recovery determine the timeline. Hopefully, he will be racing in Lexington in August, but we won't force anything."

"We've talked to many reproductive specialists, and every one of them has expressed that this should not impact his future as a stallion. Many other horses, standardbreds and thoroughbreds, have long successful stallion careers with just one testicle, servicing full books into their mid-20s."

Louprint is unbeaten in five races this year, with his most recent triumph coming in the million-dollar Pepsi North America Cup on June 14 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. He has hit the board in all 15 career starts, winning 12 and earning $1.18 million for driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Ron Burke.

He was the Dan Patch Award winner for best 2-year-old male pacer in 2024.

A look at Meadowlands Pace 49 and some interesting facts from the past

by Bob Heyden

The scratch of morning-line favorite Louprint changed the complexion of this year's Meadowlands Pace. Here's a look at the participants in the 49th edition of The Meadowlands Signature Event.

1. Dave Miller debuted in the Pace in 1995 with Cinder Lane Sam finishing fifth from post 10. He broke through in the win column in 2018 with Courtly Choice. He has post 1 this year with Papis Pistol for trainer Sam DePinto. DePinto was runner-up to Sportswriter in 2010 with We Will See in the North America Cup. Post position 1 captured just two of the first 25 Pace finals: Nihilator (1985) and Dream Away (1997).

2. Papi's Rocket has the services of three-time Pace winner Yannick Gingras (2012, 2020, and 2022) who was the rare driver favored in his Pace debut (9-5) in 2004 with Timesareachanging. Gingras is closing in on $250 million, about $550G away. A huge night including a Pace victory could make him the fourth to do so. Team Burke is looking for the barn's first Meadowlands Pace.

3. Knockout Round will try and give Tony Alagna his second Pace. He won with Captaintreacherous in 2013.

4. Prince Hal Hanover tries to give Dr. Ian Moore his second Pace. He won via the only DQ in Meadowlands Pace history with Lawless Shadow in 2021.

5. Captain Optimistic looks to give driver Dexter Dunn his breakthrough Meadowlands Pace and trainer Nancy Takter her second (Tall Dark Stranger in 2020). Dunn and Takter combined to set The Meadowlands track standard for freshmen with Captain Optimistic last year in 1:49 flat.

6. Metro winning Fallout looks to give driver Tim Tetrick his record-tying seventh Pace, putting him on par with John Campbell. Trainers Tony Alagna and Dr. Moore each have a pair in.

8. Manolete has Scott Zeron's services. He's looking for Pace No. 1. Zeron fell a few bucks shy in 2019 with NA Cup winner and heavy favorite Captain Crunch. Trainer Bruce Saunders was just nailed on the wire in 2010 in the Pace with HOY Rock N Roll Heaven by One More Laugh.

9. Madden Oaks is handled by the youngest driver in the field Braxten Boyd (25 years and 4 months). Tim Tetrick was just 25 years and 8 months when he won his debut in 2007 with Southwind Lynx, the youngest Pace-winning driver. Montrell Teague won in 2015 at age 24 with Wiggle It Jigglet, but it was not his Pace debut.

WILL THE 2025 MEADOWLANDS PACE EMULATE THE 1997 EDITION?

With the early scratch of Louprint, this year's Meadowlands Pace could emulate the 1997 edition which was a wide-open event with the highest priced post time Pace favorite, Arturo (5-2) who finished fourth.

The richest horse-to-be in the field finished eighth, Red Bow Tie (lifetime $2.7 million). That year's Triple Crown winner, Western Dreamer, could manage no better than third.

The horse who wound up second from post 10, At Point Blank, would not visit the winner's circle all year, going 0-for-15. He ironically started from the same post as his sire, Beach Towel, did winning the Pace in 1990.

John Campbell drove At Point Blank in the final after he finished fourth in the elimination with George Brennan. Campbell had the most unusual season, for him, in that he also did not qualify anything for that year's Hambletonian, and wound up sitting that one out ending a 14-year streak.

Half the 1997 Pace field was 4-1 or less, and Dream Away, from the first crop of Artsplace, duplicated his own 1:50.2 elimination victory with the exact same time capturing the final.

Heck, the consolation went three-fifths-of-a-second faster in 1:49.4, the first ever sub-1:50 Pace conso.

Brett Pelling won for the second time in three years following Davids Pass (1995). Katz, Goldband, and Libfeld got that long awaited first million-dollar score, with a pacer!

The 2-year-old stars from the 1996 season were not in the final. Divisional champ, The Big Dog, didn't even make the elims. Woodrow Wilson winner Jeremys Gambit was second in the consolation, while Metro winner Gothic Dream disappointed in the elims.

The morning-line oddsmaker that year was Dave Brower.

We can only hope the 2025 Meadowlands Pace has as many sub-plots as did the Meadowlands Pace a mere 28 years ago.

A FEW MORE MEADOWLANDS PACE RELATED FACTS

- Day In A Life was the first winner of the Meadowlands Pace to be claimed. Just 11 months after his 1998 score he was purchased for $150,000.
- 1988 marked the final year of a 12 horse Pace final. That year Armbro Global won his elim and was rewarded with post 11 in the final where he finished third.
- Different era? Oh yes! Gee Gee Digger was making his 33rd career start in the 1996 Pace and 23rd of that year alone.
- Nancy Takter is the lone female trainer in this year's Pace. Andrea Chadwick got the ball rolling for the ladies in 1992 with Lord Willing.
- The last two fillies to try it come Pace elim time, both broke stride: Miss Easy (1991) and Drop The Ball (2011).
- July 12 this year, Pace Night, marks an anniversary for Team Burke. On that date, 17 years ago, Buck I St Pat surpassed $1 million for her career. She was their first divisional champ, and a three time Trotting Mare of the Year. Mickey Burke was the trainer in 2008, his final year programmed as such.
- 2008 is generally thought of as the greatest of the 48 Pace finals. Had Somebeachsomewhere won that night instead of Art Official, it would have meant that both the Pace winner (10-for-10) and the Hambletonian winner Deweycheatmnhowe (14-for-14) for the only time ever would have entered and emerged undefeated.
- Back to SBSW for a second. His career bankroll on Pace Night 2008 was $1,608,296. Three others on that night's card had more: mares Darlins Delight ($2,027,086) and My Little Dragon ($1,772,736), as well as Total Truth ($1,918,917).
- 1984 was a festive year indeed for the Meadowlands Pace. A record 40 entered in the elims. The purse of $1,293,000 was the all-time high, but maybe most important (to the bettors), was the regularity of high prices all night long! Take a look: First race – Albus ($18.20), second race – Escondido ($9.80), third race – Raffi ($9.80), fourth race – Payson Lobell ($45.00), fifth race – King Towner ($10.40), Sixth race – American Freedom ($14.20), seventh race – On The Road Again in the Meadowlands Pace ($7.20), eighth race – Theora Hanover ($14.80), ninth race – Wildwood Dallas ($32.80), 10th race – Alvoc ($5.80), 11th race – Torino Lobell ($20.40), 12th race – Rorty Rip ($33.40), 13th and final race – Smooth Millie ($9.80).

USHWA
has been elected to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in the Class of 2026.

Kimelman to Hall of Fame, Reid, Katz and Egloff on the HOF ballot

by United States Harness
Writers Association

The Hall of Fame screening committee of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), after meeting with a select group of Harness Racing Museum trustees over the Fourth of July weekend, announces that Mike Kimelman, Sr. has been elected to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame. The direct election in the Veterans designation is provided for in the USHWA bylaws, allowing for one longtime distinguished contributor to the sport who has cut back on current direct activity being put straight in by the committee, selecting from nominations made by chapters of USHWA.

Mike Kimelman, Sr. entered harness racing through an investment opportunity brought to his late father Oscar, a Hall of Fame Immortal, and soon Oscar, along with sons Mike, Sr. and Ted, became so enamored of the sport that they purchased a 600-acre property in Wallkill, NY that would eventually be fashioned into Blue Chip Farms.

Mike, Sr., while still running the Wall Street investment firm Kimelman and Baird, served as president of Blue Chip Farms from 1970 to 2001. Coupled with the successful debut of the New York Sire Stakes program, which soon became a model for many racing jurisdictions, and Kimelman luring Hall of Fame farm manager Bill Brown to join the Blue Chip team, the farm grew into one of North America's leading breeding operations, with sires such as Most Happy Fella and Bettors Delight. Mike, Sr. and Ted sold Blue Chip Farms into 2001 to Mike, Sr.'s partner and friend Thomas Grossman, who continues to operate the farm in a first-class manner.

Mike, Sr. was also one of a small group who was a focal point in strengthening ties between North American and European breeders and owners, which has resulted in many stars from “across the pond” racing in North America. The establishment of French wagering on the Hambletonian was also a part of the success of his group.

Mike, Sr. has served on the board of the Hambletonian Society since 1987; he is today first vice president as well as a member of the Society’s executive committee and Breeders Crown committee, in the latter role setting up a key rights fee structure that has enabled the Crowns to remain among the sport’s premier events.

Mike, Sr. will be feted for his Hall of Fame selection on two occasions: the first comes on Feb. 22, 2026, at the Dan Patch Awards Banquet hosted by USHWA, to be held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando. The second will be the official date of his Hall induction, July 5, 2026, at the annual Hall of Fame Dinner in Goshen.

At Goshen, the screening committee and Hall of Fame trustees also discussed the Hall of Fame candidates nominated by the chapters, and the screening committee has decided to advance the following three people to the summer balloting of USHWAs and Hall of Famers:

- Dr. John Egloff, squire of Vieux Carre Farm of Gettysburg, PA, veterinarian, and an owner/breeder with a half-century of top-level production of horses in his pedigree.
- Marvin Katz, Toronto businessman, who has been associated with a very long list of horses, in ownership and breeding, that might be topped by Dream Maker, Tall Dark Stranger, Peaceful Way, and Muscle Massive.
- David Reid, who has ascended the ranks of marketing and standardbred sales company administration to heading the annual Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, brought about by the merger of the Tattersalls sale and the Kentucky Standardbred Sale, regarded as the leader in standardbred circles.

All three have long and varied service to most of the sport’s top organizations and associations, giving back to the sport in which they have enjoyed success.

This trio will be joined on the ballots by Communicators Hall of Fame nominees Derick Giwner and Ellen Taylor, selected by USHWA’s directors. A candidate must receive 75 per cent of the yes-no ballots cast to earn election into the Hall. Results will be announced later in the summer. Electees would be honored in Florida and Goshen, as Mike Kimelman, Sr. will be.

Columbus, OH, is home to 'Red, White, and Boom,' one of the largest Independence Day fireworks displays in the Midwest. Two days later, driver Chris Page also put on quite a show of his own, scoring six wins on last Saturday's (July 5) Eldorado Scioto Downs stakes-laden card.

Headlining the $1 million night were the $150,000 Next Generation events for Ohio bred 2-year-olds.

“The Burkes come to play. It doesn’t matter what race, the Next [Generation] or the [Ohio] Sires Stakes, they are ready to go. They train the babies down south and when they get up here, they are ready to rock.”

~ Chris Page

The concept of the Next Generation is similar to the Mohawk Million and requires nominators to pay up to $10,000 to claim a spot in the field for any of the four events.

“I honestly don’t see how anyone in the business would not like the concept,” said Page. “It’s a great chance for owners to make money.”

Trainer Ron Burke always brings a strong contingent into the Next Gen events and thanks to a private purchase the week before this year’s event, the “Burke Brigade” had the heavily favored I’llbetyourboots in the 2-year-old colt pace.

Fresh off a 1:52.2 mile in just his second career start, the gelded son of Summa Cum Laude was bet down to 3-5 by the fans.

“The post parade was the first time I sat behind him, but I raced behind him in his first start [on June 28 with Lindy Dragonwater],” said Page.

Page had I’llbetyourboots on the lead in the opening quarter in :27.3.

Crocodile Station (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) came first up and grabbed the lead past the half in :55.4 and three-quarter station in 1:24.2.

The eventual winner was fourth on the rail at the top of the stretch, but Page used the passing lane and a :27.2 last quarter to record a 1:52 neck victory in a four-horse photo.

I’llbetyourboots is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Knox Services and Larry Karr. He was bred by Judy Roegner.

“He was good on the gate and he raced like an older horse,” said Page.

Page and Burke have identical records in their previous 20 Next Generation starts – nine wins, two seconds and four thirds with $861,000 in purse earnings.

“The Burkes come to play,” said Page. “It doesn’t matter what race, the Next Gen or the [Ohio] Sires Stakes, they are ready to go. They train the babies down south and when they get up here, they are ready to rock.”

In the $150,000 2-year-old filly trot, Setyoursightshigh (Mike Wilder) capitalized on a break by the leading Godusa (Dave Palone) and recorded a one-length victory over Demonic Miko (Atlee Bender) in 1:56.3.

The winner is trained by Marcus Melander for the partnership of Heights Stable, Mantorp, Amg Stable and K Kjellgren Livs Ab.

The Burke/Page entry, Mooter Tooter, was interfered with by the breaker and recovered to finish fifth, just 3¾ lengths back of the winner.

Driver/trainer Ronnie Gillespie made it back-to-back wins in the freshman colt trot as a result of Big Ranger’s gate-to-wire victory in a track record 1:54.

Gillespie picked out the In Range colt for Madison Global for $25,000 at the Ohio Select Sale.

Setyoursightshigh (Mike Wilder) winning the Next Generation for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

While the filly pace division was unfortunately canceled due to a lack of entries, a $40,000 consolation event was carded, and Shacarri made the most of the opportunity.

The homebred used a :26.4 last quarter to stop the teletimer in 1:51.1 in the 2½-length victory.

The daughter of Summa Cum Laude is out of Rockin Racer, making her a half-sister to Louprint, the Pepsi North America Cup and defending Breeders Crown champ.

"She has the pedigree to be something special," said Page. "She came into that race very well and taken care of and she was absolutely ready to go. I opened my Christmas gift a little early with that filly.

"The Summa Cum Laudes are for real. If anyone had any questions about them, they got their answers on Saturday night."

Sandwiched around the Next Generation races were a pair of divisions of the Ohio Sire Stakes for sophomore colt pacers.

The first $65,000 division resulted in a 1-2-3 sweep by the Burke entry of Swingtown (Page), Harrisburg Heist (Wrenn, Jr.) and Fear The Hate (Dan Noble) in 1:49.4.

“Swingtown holds a special place in my heart,” said Page. “He was the colt I liked the most last year as a 2-year-old.”

The second division contained the other two Burke trainees – Rick Wink (Page) and Sippinonsearoc (Wrenn, Jr.).

Rick Wink bested his stablemate by a half-length in 1:49.2.

“I have become a real big fan of Rick Wink,” said Page. “He’s the best horse that no one talks about. He’s lost one race his entire career. He is so user friendly on the racetrack. I can leave with him three straight starts and duck him with two fingers the next three. He is so natural.”

“The Burke’s have the five best Ohio 3-year-old pacing colts. It’s not great for me from a driver’s perspective.”

With the Burke horsepower available all summer long, it wouldn’t be hard to imagine that Page will have many more good nights ahead.

The official ribbon-cutting ceremony to open the new grandstand at Clinton Raceway.

New grandstand a hit at Clinton

Fans flocked to see the 55-year-old track's recently completed renovations for Sunday's grand opening.

by Matthew Lomon

A new chapter in Clinton Raceway's proud 55-year tradition has officially begun.

On Sunday (July 6), the charming southwestern Ontario oval celebrated the grand opening of its brand new 400-seat grandstand.

Watching on as fans of all ages flocked to the freshly completed viewing center offered both a sense of relief and satisfaction for the racetrack's manager Ian Fleming, who is in his 50th year working at the track.

"It felt good," said the Clinton native. "We couldn't really try to attract events for live racing or even between race days until we were certain it would be ready – we didn't always have a firm date."

“ [The 2025 Grand Opening with the new grandstand] was a pretty satisfying day for a lot of them who founded [Clinton Raceway] five decades ago. A bunch of them had to sign a letter at the bank to build the facilities and put guarantees on to pay for it, so they were pretty pleased to be able to participate yesterday and see that a project they started in 1970 was going to carry on. ”

~ Ian Fleming

“Now that it’s good to use, we’re going to be able to pursue a lot more avenues.”

Clinton’s grand opening signalled the end of a nearly 10-month construction project – years long when including the ideation phase – that saw shovels first hit the dirt last September following the conclusion of the 2024 meet.

While an unusually harsh winter delayed construction enough that the grandstand wasn’t fully operational for the opening card of 2025 on June 1 (originally scheduled for May 18), the wait was well worth it.

“Sunday [July 6] was the first day the pavilion was open, and it was full,” Fleming said. “It’s a great shaded place to hang out and watch the races.

“The elevator was fully functional too, so people who have trouble with stairs could get up to that area in the grandstand and enjoy themselves and the view. It was very well received.”

Creating a more accessible spectator zone was a key motivator for the grandstand revamp, and the elevator was central to that goal.

The new grandstand also comes equipped with a lounge area, bar and marketing stations reachable from the outside, an accessible washroom, and betting station.

Spectators who filled the grandstand not only had an all-in-one space to escape the sweltering heat, but also a prime vantage point for a pulse-pounding day of racing.

Clinton's high-octane 10-race card featured a quartet of Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots contests for 3-year-old trotting colts, as well as the track's signature contest, the Kin Pace final.

Named in honor of Clinton Raceway's founders (Clinton Kinsmen Club), the $50,000 dash for Ontario-sired 3-year-old fillies pays homage to past and present Kinsmen and Kinettes, who started the racetrack in 1970 and built the last grandstand.

"We had them for lunch, they cut the ribbon on the new grandstand and stayed to watch the race," Fleming said. "In fact, quite a few members of the club who built the track in 1970 were in attendance.

"It was a pretty satisfying day for a lot of them who founded the racetrack five decades ago. A bunch of them had to sign a letter at the bank to build the facilities and put guarantees on to pay for it, so they were pretty pleased to be able to participate yesterday and see that a project they started in 1970 was going to carry on."

The 17th edition of the Kin Pace final went to Millar Farms homebred Sugar Pie Honey and driver Jason Ryan, who persevered by 2½ lengths as the 1-5 favorite.

Sunday was also a grand slam for the Clinton Mustangs Minor Baseball Organization, which collected $3,500 through a barbeque, bake sale, 50/50 draw, and penny auction.

The successful trackside fundraiser was held in yet another new addition at Clinton Raceway – a spacious event tent.

"The groups that come out are using the tent for their fundraising efforts," Fleming said. "We've got a lot more space and areas for people to go to now, especially on a hot day, and that went over well based on the feedback we got."

For as much good as Clinton's renovation efforts have returned off the track, they also serve as proof, in tangible form, of the track's commitment to improving on it.

While Fleming said there is still more to be done, including working towards securing more money for purses, an investment in the facility is an investment in its horsepeople.

“For the horsepeople who are stabled here [at Clinton Raceway, building improvements is] a sign we’re going to be around for a long time. There are 65 horses training here, so it’s important for them to know that we’re committed to racing and that they’re going to keep racing here. If you don’t have good facilities for racing, then maybe they’ll decide to race somewhere else.”

“If you don’t have good facilities for racing, then maybe they’ll decide to race somewhere else.”

Now five and a half decades in, Clinton continues to withstand the test of time thanks to ambitious, yet prudent decisions made by those who have the track’s best interests in mind.

The grandstand renovation project, though not without its challenges, is merely the latest example in a lasting legacy of wise choices.

“The list of people who went out of their way to help make it work is a very long one, and because of everybody, it got done,” Fleming said. “It was very rewarding to see everyone’s hard work come together on Sunday.”

“ [Second row gate 8 is] a draw I'd love with every horse I've got, just not him [Leap To Fame]. It's quite incredible how often he draws 1 or 8, the two draws you don't want with him. At least it's a heat, just like night 1, and not the final. Hopefully we're saving our good luck for the final draw. ” again, but in an even more precarious position in his second-round heat.

That's because he has drawn directly behind reigning Inter Dominion champion Don Hugo, who isn't just his main danger in this heat, but clearly for next Saturday's (July 19) $1 million Grand final as well.

Unlike night 1 when Leap To Fame's trainer/driver Grant Dixon snagged back to last to escape being pocketed on the inside, Dixon may "take his chances" and follow through behind Don Hugo this time.

Despite the longer 2,680-meter trip, it would be a monumental task to snag back this time and give away such a huge start to Don Hugo, who looks a certain leader.

Dixon couldn't believe his luck when told the round 2 barrier draw.

"You're kidding, not again," he said. "It's a draw I'd love with every horse I've got, just not him [Leap To Fame]. It's quite incredible how often he draws 1 or 8, the two draws you don't want with him.

"At least it's a heat, just like night 1, and not the final. Hopefully we're saving our good luck for the final draw."

As great as Leap To Fame is, sheer point-to-point speed isn't his biggest asset. He builds into his top speed and can sustain it longer than most other horses we've seen.

Don Hugo (Luke McCarthy) winning his night 1 Inter Dominion test.

While Albion Park has a sprint (passing) lane, it is only a 1,000-meter track and it wouldn't give Leap To Fame long to build into his gears and rundown Don Hugo, who is one of the most explosive pacers in this part of the world.

Don Hugo's one win over Leap To Fame from three clashes came because of his sheer speed in the $1 million Miracle Mile back on March 8 at Menangle.

And this shapes as a test of speed more than strength despite the longer 2,680-meter trip.

There are few, if any, better big race drivers Down Under than Luke McCarthy and he trains and drives Don Hugo.

With an apparent lack of pressure in the race, McCarthy will get to dictate terms in front and it will be a huge ask for Leap To Fame to run him down.

McCarthy sees things differently.

"I don't think Grant [Dixon] will follow me," McCarthy said. "I'm not sure he's got the speed to hold my back, so I think he'll be angling straight away from the inside."

"The draw has certainly fallen our way. If we can't beat him this time, I don't see how we can in the final."

A win for Don Hugo on night 2 would breath some competitive flavor back into a final where Leap To Fame is by far the most dominant favorite at $1.25 (for a $1 bet) in the history of the Inter Dominion after just one round of heats.

Even the conservative Dixon was moved to say how thrilled he was with Leap To Fame's opening night heat win by nine meters and in the quickest time of the night despite having one of the hardest runs.

"I was really pleased how easily he did it and how comfortable he felt, especially going those times," he said. "He's in a great place."

Visiting New Zealand trainer Jonny Cox, who chased Leap To Fame home into second spot aboard the emerging Pinseeker, was in awe of the winner.

"What a horse," Cox said of Leap To Fame. "Just wow! We were running a :28.5 quarter early when he just whooshed around us and took the lead. He just kept rolling when he found the front, too. Then when Grant [Dixon] let him go on the last bend, the rest of us couldn't keep up. He's something else."

Don Hugo's opening night win was also effortless, but came after a dream run and in slower time than Leap To Fame.

That didn't faze McCarthy.

"Perfect," McCarthy said. "I'd freshened him with three weeks between runs and I know how much he'll come on from that. I'm already looking forward to next week and beyond."

"He's shown how he thrives on this hard racing and he'll be right at his top for the final."

But McCarthy is also realistic when it comes to Leap To Fame.

"He's the horse to beat, for sure, especially with the distance [3,157 meters] for this final," McCarthy said. "I can beat him speed in the shorter races, but he comes into his own when it's a staying trip."

It will be a surprise if Leap To Fame doesn't win the final and a monstrous shock if the winner comes outside he or Don Hugo. They are a league ahead of the rest.

The trotting series is a very different story.

While Aussie star Arcee Phoenix is the favorite, the odds say he will go into next Saturday's $500,000 final without winning either of his two qualifying heats.

The Chris Svanosio-trained 6-year-old was enormous coming from near last with a sustained run and smashing the clock for a close third to young Kiwi star Bet N Win on night 1.

Bet N Win's driver Bob Butt certainly took notice.

"Arcee Phoenix is the horse I fear most," Butt said. "He looks to have taken the next step and that run [last Saturday] was huge on a track where the leaders and those racing on the pegs had such a big advantage."

While Bet N Win is drawn to lead and win tomorrow night, Arcee Phoenix had a "Leap To Fame" draw from inside the back row (gate 8).

Fascinatingly, he follows out star Kiwi veteran Oscar Bonavena (gate 1), who has a history of galloping when put under pressure from inside draws.

All eyes will be on the start.

Getting it right is vital for old Oscar Bonavena after an opening night horror show.

The 9-year-old's driver Adam Sanderson put his hand up for a driving blunder when he opted to stay in the running line instead of moving three-wide in the last lap. Oscar Bonavena was then stuck in traffic and hit the line bolting with nowhere to go in seventh spot.

In Bet N Win's heat tomorrow, the other focus will be on the talented but headstrong Gus and frustrating NSW trotter London To A Brick.

Gus, who can gallop as much as trot, largely got it all right on night 1 for a fantastic second in his heat.

London To A Brick, who had been backed from $21 into $7 for the final, caused a false start in the same heat and then galloped soon after the start at the second attempt and finished tailed out last. He will need to win this time just to make the final.

Both finals are at Albion Park next week on July 19.

Gocciadoro's Golden Boy glitters in Naples

by Thomas Hedlund

Sunday's (July 6) $165,000 Gran Premio Citta di Napoli in Naples became a worth-seeing duel between two strong Italian-bred 3-year-olds.

Golden Boy (Maharajah) has been competing under the radar in the Italian G-crop, mostly because of the dominant Ginostrabliggi, who has dominated the biggest races in Italy so far. But in Sunday's race in Naples, Alessandro Gocciadoro trained Golden Boy could claim his biggest triumph in his career and he did it on the lead. Gocciadoro sent his horse to the front on the backstretch and Golden Boy got company from first over trotter Galileo Ferm with a kilometer to go.

These two horses dueled throughout the remainder of the event and inside trotter Golden Boy proved strongest in the stretch.

Golden Boy won in a mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.3 miles.

The filly division of the $70,000 Gran Premio Citta di Napoli ended with victory for Erik Bondo trained Glory Winner (Vivid Wise As), who showed great strength after a first over trip. Glory Winner won in 1:57.3.

ÖNAS PRINCE BIG CHEESE IN JARLSBERG

Still going strong at 8 years old, Önas Prince (Chocolatier) never seems to get tired of competing and Per Nordström's beautiful trotter showed up in Jarlsberg on Sunday (July 6) afternoon, looking as good as ever.

Önas Prince has been a safe card in hand when it comes to ability to leave behind the gate and most of the wins (35 in 61 starts) in his career have been taken from the lead, or position first over, that's the way he likes it and that's the way he did it in Sunday's $165,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International.

Önas Prince went to the lead immediately as the car accelerated and driver Nordström had plenty of gas to use as the field turned onto the backstretch for the last time. The 8-year-old Chocolatier son just cruised in front and left his opponents several lengths behind in the stretch as he won in a stakes equalling mile rate of 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles.

Norway's Daim Brodda finished furiously from a bad position to be runner-up and Thor Borg's horse proved that she will be a serious factor in races like this, among older elite trotters, in the future.

Kentucky River held on for the bronze medal after a trip outside of leading winner Önas Prince.

TOP HORSES COMPETE SATURDAY IN PARIS

Enghien in Paris hosts the $130,000 Prix de Washington, a mile race, on Saturday (July 12) and some really strong horses will show up in the French capital. Go On Boy, Hohneck and Hooker Berry are just some of the stars entering the track of Enghien and Go On Boy will be the probable favorite.

In Årjäng, Sweden, on the same day, the $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp is scheduled and Don Fanucci Zet will try to do the impossible, winning from post 8 behind the gate as he faces Gio Cash once again. Gio Cash won the $200,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris ahead of Don Fanucci Zet four weeks ago and the draw is advantageous for Daniel Wäjersten's Gio Cash.

Inducted into the Communicators Hall of Fame were Judy Davis-Wilson and Debbie Little.

Aldrich is best known for his 28-year stint as general manager, chief operating officer and executive vice president at Northfield Park, working with a team that pioneered a renaissance at the Cleveland-area half-mile oval.

During his tenure, the track created the Battle of Lake Erie, which has remained the centerpiece of its signature night of racing, in addition to hosting several Breeders Crown events and, more recently, the Ohio Sire Stakes championships. He was named to the Ohio Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 1999.

Aldrich thanked his colleagues, “who stuck by a green GM despite his rookie mistakes and demanding nature,” as well as the state of Ohio for “cherishing its harness heritage,” and “especially” the Northfield horsemen, devoted caretakers and backstretch employees.

“In the classic movie ‘Pride of the Yankees,’ Gary Cooper, portraying Lou Gehrig, uttered the Iron Man’s famous line: I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth,” Aldrich said. “Dramatic license aside, that’s how I feel about my career in harness racing. Lucky. Blessed. Grateful.

“Few people in life get to live out their dream. I did, thanks to all of you here tonight, and stablemates no longer with us who made that possible.”

Boni was drawn into harness racing by attending Roosevelt and Yonkers with his parents as a child. After graduating from high school, he set off to work in the industry and landed a job at Pine Hollow Stud Farm, where he climbed the ladder to become executive vice president. In 1980, he started International Standardbred, which later would become Northwood Bloodstock. He also is known for his work with Lou Guida’s Wall Street Stable and Dreamaire Stud.

Boni has been associated with a number of great horses over the years, including six Breeders Crown champs, two Horse of the Year recipients — Nihilator and Always B Miki — and Pacer of the Year Camtastic. He also established the usage of video as a marketing tool for selling top horses, dating back to the mid-1970s.

“I’ve led a blessed life,” Boni said. “I’ve had great horses, met great people. The horses bring us into this business, I feel, but inevitably it’s the friendships and relationships that we make that carry us on. I’ve made more than I can even begin to count.

“It’s the people that have touched you, that I hope I’ve had some impact with, and friends and people that I’ve worked with, that make this so very, very worthwhile. In closing, I just want to thank you all for your friendship and support and for sharing this special evening with me.”

Ryder, a native of New Zealand who has been racing in the U.S. for decades, has won more than 1,900 races and $58 million in purses during his career. His purse earnings rank 14th since the inception of official trainer stats in 1991.

Communicators Hall of Fame inductees Judy Davis-Wilson and Debbie Little.

He has won eight Breeders Crown trophies and conditioned 10 different horses to receive year-end honors in the U.S. and/or Canada, most notably 2024 Horse of the Year Twin B Joe Fresh. From 2019 to 2021, he was second in Horse of the Year voting with three different horses: Bettor's Wish, Party Girl Hill and Niki Hill.

Other stars include Miki And Minnie, I Luv The Nitelife, Put On A Show, Mystical Sunshine, Cathedra Dot Com, Sealed N Delivered and McArdle.

"Believe me, in all these years of training, it never crossed my mind that just to win a few races would lead me to the Hall of Fame," Ryder said. "It's a big honor, of course. I was just focused on getting by day by day and winning a few races.

"Like any of us in this position training racehorses, it takes more than just one guy. I've got a lot of people to thank. I've had a lot of terrific owners, and I still do. The staff, Peter Trebotica has been my second trainer and done a massive amount in running the barn for me for 20 or more years. Thank you, Peter."

Ryder also thanked veterinarian Steve Dey, and "most of all, the family that stood behind me," including son Patrick, who works daily at the stable and also is a driver, and wife Nicola for her behind-the-scenes efforts.

"But the terrific horses that have come my way, they're really the ones that deserve the accolades," Ryder said.

Burroughs spent part of his childhood in Rutherford, less than three miles from the land that a couple decades later would become the Meadowlands Sports Complex. As an adult, Burroughs' construction company helped build a racetrack on the site, with Burroughs participating in the work atop heavy equipment.

This laid the groundwork for Burroughs' participation in harness racing, and his greatest moments in the sport. Burroughs became an amateur driver in the early 1980s and in the ensuing years won both the Hambletonian Oaks and Hambletonian – the two most prestigious events for 3-year-old trotters – at The Meadowlands.

He was the first, and still only, driver with amateur status to win the Oaks. He also remains the only amateur to capture both the Oaks (with the filly Gleam in 1994) and the Hambletonian (with the colt Malabar Man in 1997) in history. He finished his driving career in 2005 with 109 victories. He is one of only 14 drivers in history to win both the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks.

“Mal had three expressed desires in his life,” said Bob Heyden, who accepted on Burroughs’ behalf. “One was to build a racetrack that would make a difference. One was to drive a Hambletonian winner one day that was his own. And one was to make it to the Hall of Fame right here. The way I look at it, by all accounts, that’s a cold trifecta. Mal Burroughs, welcome to the Hall of Fame.”

Davis-Wilson was born into one of the biggest and most successful harness racing families in the state of Delaware, but she switched her focus to the frontside by age 15 at the defunct Georgetown Raceway. Her work as a program director, primarily at Brandywine, when the USTA was implementing its program computerization system was invaluable and served her well at the Hambletonian Society, when she worked many years as that organization’s stakes manager.

In 2001, Davis-Wilson returned to her home state to become the administrator of the Delaware Standardbred Breeders’ Fund for the state’s Department of Agriculture. She remained at DSBF until officially retiring in November 2024. In addition, she has been a director of the U.S. Harness Writers Association for 22 years. She is a past president and treasurer of the organization. “I did not get here alone, and this honor belongs to many great friends and family who helped me along these past 73-plus years,” Davis-Wilson said.

Little worked at New York City area tracks, at a trade organization, and as a writer. During this early period in the sport, she met her future husband, Dave. The two were married in the winner’s circle at Yonkers, and now Debbie joins Dave as the first married couple in the Communicators Hall of Fame. Dave was inducted in 2019.

Debbie worked as a handicapper and writer covering harness racing at the New York Post for nearly 27 years. In addition, she was a 2021 Hervey Award recipient for feature writing and served as a past president of USHWA as part of an ongoing 25-year stretch as a director of the organization. She remains busy as a writer while also serving as associate editor for Harness Racing Update and co-chair of USHWA’s Clyde Hirt Journalism Workshop.

After thanking the publications and editors she has worked for during her career, as well as friends, family and extended family, Debbie turned to her husband of 35 years and said, “I’ve always thought we had a Hall of Fame marriage. This proves I’m right.”

Unreasonable roars in Oak Grove KYSS

by Oak Grove Racing publicity

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Unreasonable journeyed first up on the rim and easily ground down her competition to post the top mile of the afternoon's Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) events in winning her division for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Tuesday afternoon (July 8) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel.

Driver Marcus Miller landed in fourth out of post 3 with Unreasonable as Duration (driven by Scott Zeron) ripped from the outermost post to the lead into a :26.1 first quarter. Duration continued on the muscle to a :54.3 half, where Miller readied Unreasonable for a move off the pylons approaching the backstretch. Unreasonable marched forward under wraps and zipped past Duration through three-quarters in 1:23 to then scoot away in the lane and win by 2¾ lengths in 1:52. Treacheryinthedark (Todd McCarthy) followed the winner's move from second over for second while Accede (Yannick Gingras) tipped out of a pocket ride to grab third and Baret (Andy McCarthy) closed for fourth.

A daughter of Huntsville, Unreasonable collected her fifth win from 14 starts and has now earned $210,582 for owners Ervin Miller Stable Inc. and David J. Miller. She paid $2.46 to win.

Driver Jeremy Bobbitt scored the biggest win of his young career when Rod Debeck pupil Captain Arturovico scored a 16-1 upset in the fastest division of KYSS for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Bobbitt found a second-over ride after 3-5 favorite Ayeaye Captain Deo (Todd McCarthy) cut early fractions of :27.3 and :55.4. Falcon (Marcus Miller) pressed first up on the rim and matched strides with Ayeaye Captain Deo through three-quarters in 1:25.1 while Bobbitt loomed three wide for the stretch drive. Captain Arturovico built momentum in the stretch as Falcon jumped into a gallop, and he surged forward to collar Ayeaye Captain Deo by a head in the closing strides of a 1:53 mile. Bourbon County (Dexter Dunn) finished third and Handsome Stranger (Andy McCarthy) closed for fourth.

Captain Arturovico, a gelding by Captaintreacherous, has now won seven times from 10 starts this season and eight times from 19 starts in his career, earning $76,509 for owner Rod Debeck. He paid $34.60 to win.

Grande Via (Gingras) blitzed 6-5 leader Te Quiero Lindy (Andy Miller) at an opportune point of the final turn to bag a wrapped-up win in the quickest mile of the three KYSS divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Gingras secured the pocket to Te Quiero Lindy, who carved a tempo of :27.3, :57.1 and 1:25.3 while unfettered on the point. As Miller gave his charge a few taps of the whip to the final turn, Gingras fanned off the pegs and slid forward to put a head in front spinning for home. Grande Via held his advantage over Te Quiero Lindy in the sprint to the finish to cross the beam a half-length better in a 1:54.3 mile while Sky Legacy (Dunn) took third and Beaujolais Breeze (David Miller) finished fourth.

Andrew Harris trains Grande Via, a colt by Muscle Hill, and shares ownership with William Pollock and Bruce Areman. He broke his maiden with the victory, his 16th outing in his career, and paid $21.76 to win.

Admiring (David Miller) put her rivals to sleep with a pillar-to-post win in the fastest of the two KYSS division for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Despite starting from post 7, Miller crossed over to the lead just entering the first turn and posted fractions of :27.2, :56.2 and 1:25.1 in progress to a widening victory by four lengths. Belmont (Dunn) gave futile chase from a pocket trip in second but did just hold off late-charging 1-2 favorite Ms Prada (Gingras), who took third. Get It All (Mattias Melander) finished another four lengths behind in fourth.

Richard "Nifty" Norman trains Admiring, a filly by Walner, for owners Tony Holmes and June Zent. She won her fourth race from 19 starts, has now earned $108,650 and paid $15.72 to win.

Racing continues at Oak Grove on Sunday (July 13) for closing week of the 2025 meet. Monday's (July 14) card will feature the eight finals of KYSS for 2- and 3-year-olds of both gaits and sexes, with total purses for that day close to $1 million. First-race post time at Oak Grove is 1:25 p.m. (CDT). For free past performances and more information on Oak Grove, visit oakgrovegaming.com.

ENDURANCE LOWERS OAK GROVE TRACK RECORD WITH KYSS WIN

Chris Beaver trainee Endurance finished with a flourish to grab fourth in his debut, but driver Andy McCarthy hustled the colt to the point and then strolled around the track under wraps to set a track record for 2-year-old trotting colts when winning his $40,000 split of Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel on Monday afternoon (July 7).

Leaving from post 6, McCarthy endured a three-wide brush through a :27.3 first quarter to place Endurance on the helm while Lethal Legacy (driven by Todd McCarthy) went for the pocket ride. Endurance carved a :56.4 half and cruised to three-quarters in 1:26 before receiving a few taps of the whip and accelerating for home. He pulled well clear of his competition in the lane and sailed to a 3½-length win over longshot

Silverstein (David Miller), who closed for second, with Lethal Legacy tiring to third and Negotiation (Scott Zeron) checking in fourth. Endurance stopped the clock in 1:54.3, which eclipsed the previous track record for 2-year-old trotting colts of 1:54.4 set by Overkill Hall in 2022.

A colt by Captain Corey, Endurance won his first race from two starts and has now earned $23,200 for owners Chris Beaver, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Mark Moger. He paid $6.06 to win.

Jailbird Jog (Anthony MacDonald) maintained her unbeaten record from two starts in posting the fastest mile of the two KYSS divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies. The daughter of Tactical Landing hoisted herself forward from fifth off a :29 first quarter to take the lead into a :57.3 half while then withstanding a first-over push from 25-1 shot Country Glide (Miller) through three-quarters in 1:27.1. She then coasted to the finish with the whip tucked away to register a measured win by three-quarters-of-a-length in a 1:55.4 mile. Country Glide took second with Isotta Bi (Dexter Dunn) another six lengths behind in third and Lucky Lady Volo (Marcus Miller) another six lengths farther back in fourth.

Trained by Eric Patalan, Jailbird Jog has now banked $40,000 from her two wins for owners Thestable Jailbird Jog, P23 Bloodstock and Hutchison Harness LLC. She paid $2.26 to win.

In the following race, Funky Buddha (Todd McCarthy) capitalized off a torrid tempo to post the fastest mile of the two KYSS splits for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Funky Buddha sat fifth as Papi Rick (Andy McCarthy) uncorked an early clip of :27, :56 and 1:23.3 with 1-2 favorite What Nooo Waaay (Yannick Gingras) perched on his back. Todd McCarthy angled outside to the final turn with Funky Buddha and gradually reeled in tiring rivals through the stretch to cross the finish in a 1:52.4 mile, two-fifths of a second off the track record. Prolific Blend (Zeron) also rallied to take second while What Nooo Waaay just grabbed third from Papi Rick in fourth.

A colt by Sweet Lou, Funky Buddha collected his second win from three starts and has now earned $36,000 for owner Rick Berks. Tony Dinges trains the colt, and he paid $13.18 to win.

Barbuda Belle (Gingras) emerged with the top mile of the three KYSS divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies with her 1:53.4 front-stepping score. Gingras circled the Ron Burke trainee to the lead after a :28.3 first quarter set by Kissin In The Dark (Atlee Bender) and strode through middle fractions of :58.2 and 1:26.2 before shutting the door in a final-quarter sprint to peel clear by three lengths from Kissin In The Dark. Carolina (Todd McCarthy) finished third, another eight lengths behind, with Naughty Seastar (David Miller) checking in fourth.

A daughter of Captaintreacherous, Barbuda Belle won her first race from two starts and cashed a $20,000 check for owners Thomas Dillon, Scott Dillon and Craig Henderson. She paid $3.92 to win.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Three Ohio Sires Stakes divisions set new lifetime marks for 3-year-old trotters

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

The fillies Mega Money and In The End set new lifetime marks winning their respective $65,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes in 1:53.4 Saturday (July 5) at Eldorado Scioto Downs, while the gelding LT Loverboy set a new mark of 1:52.1.

Brett Miller and Jet Wings won the other colt division in 1:54. The duo got away fifth from post 3 and waited for the dust to settle as the race went through an opening quarter of :27.2. When the field went towards the :56.2 half, Jet Wings pulled second over, then went three-wide heading to the 1:25.1 third quarter. Jet Wings won by a length over What A Buckeye (Tyler Smith) with Long Highway (Hugh Beatty) finishing third. Jet Wings was a $85,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase and now has $143,675 in earnings. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the What The Hill gelding for the Joyce A. McClelland Stable.

Mega Money (Aaron Merriman) was the first to set her new lifetime mark in the first race on Saturday's card. She got the perfect pocket trip behind stablemate Triumph Over You (Dan Noble) who set every fraction of :26.3, :55.4 and 1:24. Sitting chilly until the top of the stretch, Mega Money came up on her outside to win by a head in 1:53.4. Jailhouse Pearl (Austin Hanners) came up the passing lane to finish second, with Brink Street (Chris Page) coming three-wide around the last turn to get up for third. Mega Money is trained by co-owner Chris Beaver for Patricia Stable, L A Express and Sjoblom Racing. Saturday's victory was a new lifetime mark for the Triumphant Caviar filly who now has $230,743 earned in 16 lifetime starts with five victories.

In The End (Noble) took the other filly division also in 1:53.4. The pair got away third through the :27.1 quarter, pulled first up just as the field was about to hit the :56.1 half and kept grinding it out through the 1:24.3 third quarter. In Rose Run Aimee posted back-to-back weeks tying the track record for 3-year-old filly pacers. Noble took Rose Run Aimee straight off the gate to the lead from post 2, let Odds On Hialeah (Brett Miller) take the lead at the :26.4 opening quarter and re-took, setting additional fractions of :55 and 1:22.1. Odds On Hialeah finished second with Seaside Wishes (Kayne Kauffman) getting up for third.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hunt Off The Press steals headlines in NYSS at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

Hunt Off The Press ($3.30) stole the headlines in the New York Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers on Wednesday afternoon (July 9) at Buffalo Raceway with a rousing 7½ length thumping of Shaw Time in 1:56.4 over the fast track.

Almost as impressive was Fragment ($2.70) who showed that his victory in the New York Sire Stakes at Yonkers Raceway back on June 16 was no fluke as he made it two straight victories with a length win over Lakewood Nick in his $54,500 division.

Hunt Off The Press, who lost by four lengths to Fragment at Yonkers in the NYSS, showed he is going to be a force to be reckoned with as the series marches on.

In the early going, Hunt Off The Press sat back as several breaking horses around the opening turn caused some commotion. But as things settled down, Hunt Off The Press (Tyler Buter) blasted his way to the top and the race was basically done after that in a contest that was worth $55,400.

With fractions of :28.4, :57.4 and 1:27.2, Hunt Off The Press gave Fragment a little something to think about later in the year as he crossed the finish line comfortably in front. Shaw Time (Jason Bartlett) was second and The Quiet Cowboy (Gary Gibson) picked up the show check.

Owned by Thomas Grossman and conditioned by Jared Bako, it was the first career victory for Hunt Off The Press (Huntsville—Off The Press). With the win, he moved his bankroll to $47,055 in two outings.

Fragment won in his career debut at Yonkers with an easy four-length decision in 1:55.1. At Buffalo Raceway, he made it look just as easy.

Starting from the seven post, Fragment was cautiously guided around the first turn by driver Jason Bartlett due to the early inside speed and the breaking Killing Joke. But once maneuvering through the opening turn, Bartlett stepped on the pedal and Fragment responded perfectly, hitting the opening panel in :28.2 over the fast track.

With fractions of :57.3 and 1:27 in the books, Fragment just had to deal with Lakewood Nick (Jody Jamieson) and Ideal Rebel (Tyler Buter) down the stretch. While the pair managed to cut slightly into the lead, they couldn't mount a serious rally as Fragment safely crossed the wire in front.

Co-owned by the Engblom Stable LLC and Douglas Sipple, Fragment (Huntsville—The Show Returns) is trained by Per Engblom and is a perfect 2-for-2 in his career, amassing $65,900 in earnings thanks to his NYSS victories.

In the lone $20,000 Excelsior event for the young men, Shakeitonthebeach ($4.40) led every step of the way and beat Southwind Iron by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.1.

Shakeitonthebeach (Bartlett) took to the top immediately and was able to secure fractions of :29.3, :59.3 and 1:29.4. Southwind Iron (Braxten Boyd) was first over as they reached the three-quarter pole but couldn't cut into the advantage of Shakeitonthebeach in the lane. Jericho Johnny (Buter) finished in third.

Owned by Joshua Jay Graber and trained by Shane Tritton, it was the first win of his career in two attempts for Shakeitonthebeach (Huntsville—Wannashakeyourtree). The win was worth $10,000, the first earnings lifetime for Shakeitonthebeach.

Racing will continue this afternoon (July 11) at 2:30 p.m. with a 13-race card scheduled.

AI AND TITANS MISCHIEF TAKE SIRE STAKES AT MONTICELLO

Monticello Raceway hosted New York Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Monday (July 7). The nine-race card featured two splits of Sire Stakes worth $53,500 each and two $20,000 Excelsior Series events.

The first NYSS race was a well-behaved group of six freshmen, and starting from post position 3 was the 1-9 favorite AI with Jason Bartlett in the bike. When the gate left, Secured (Ake Svanstedt) grabbed the early lead before AI made the front past the opening panel of :29.1. AI still had the front at the half in 1:00, while at the five-eighths marker, Secured came off the rail to mount a challenge passing the next marker in an even 1:30. Turning home AI and Secured were head-to-head in deep stretch but AI prevailed in 1:59.1. Spencer Hanover split the two to get up for second with Secured hanging on for third. AI went inside three pylons at the top of the stretch and survived a judges inquiry. AI (Chapter Seven—Image Of A Bee) sports a perfect resume with two consecutive Sire Stakes victories, pushing his seasonal earnings to $91,300 for trainer Ron Burke.

The second division was a short five-horse field that was not as well-mannered as the first group, with both Moving Day (Braxten Boyd) and Chapel (Brett Beckwith) making a break early. Angry Pete (John Stark, Jr.) was able to steer clear of the breakers and made his way to the front, reaching that panel in :30.4. Coming out of the paddock turn, Read the Room (Svanstedt) made a break, leaving Angry Pete out front by six lengths, passing the half in 1:01.2, but with every stride Titans Mischief closed the gap. By the next panel in 1:32.3 Titans Mischief had collared the leader on the outside. In the stretch it was a battle between the two but Titans Mischief (EL Titan—Morositas Bi) prevailed in 2:01.3 trotting his last quarter in :28.4, with Read The Room recovering from the miscue to get up for third. The odd colored son of EL Titan is trained by Bruce Clarke and was driven to the win by Matt Kakaley.

In Excelsior action, June From Dunoon (Hill I Am—Ruby Ruby) scored a three-length win in 2:03.4 for trainer Peter Pellegrino with Greg Merton in the bike. The other split saw Stinger (EL Titan—Flotus) stay flat and score in 2:12.1 for co-owner/trainer/driver John Stark, Jr.

New York Sire Stakes return to Monticello on Monday (July 14) when 3-year-old filly trotters come to town with post time at 12:10 p.m.

Rock The Charm, Somemore Blue score in INSS at Hoosier

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

It was a tale of two divisions when it came to the opening leg of Indiana Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies Wednesday (July 9) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with Rock The Charm delivering a 12-1 upset in an eventful first split, and Somemore Blue cruising as the favorite in the second.

Leaving from post 5 in the $67,500 first division, driver John De Long settled Rock The Charm in third on the first turn while In The Passing Ln (Atlee Bender) raced around Change Of Order (Kyle Wilfong) through a first quarter of :28 over the sloppy going. In The Passing Ln cleared on the backstretch, tapping the brakes once in charge to the half in :57.1 before taking the field to three-quarters in 1:25.4 while Ponda Lime (Joey Putnam) raced first-up at the leader's wheel.

Turning for home, In The Passing Ln took a bad step at the top of the stretch, going off-stride on the lead and creating interference with the pocket-sitting Change Of Order. Rock The Charm had to evade the commotion up front but once clear now faced a 2½ length deficit to Ponda Lime with an eighth-of-a-mile to go. Powering home in :26.4, Rock The Charm tracked down and passed a green Ponda Lime who began to get on a line late, reaching the wire two lengths clear in 1:53.2. Cruisen Halle (Mike Oosting) rallied late to be third, narrowly missing the place spot.

The $68,000 second division proved more formful as Somemore Blue and driver Marcus Miller skimmed the cones late to score as the 9-5 favorite. Leaving from post 6, Miller rocketed Somemore Blue to the top early, leading the field of nine to the quarter in :27.3. Somemore Blue slowed things down on the backstretch before Milliondollarimage (Wilfong) brushed alongside from fourth at the half in :58.2. Milliondollarimage cleared entering the turn with momentum carrying her to three-quarters in 1:26.2 with Somemore Blue pinned in the pocket now with Miss Alexis (Bender) racing to her outside.

The field started to close in on Milliondollarimage turning for home, with Somemore Blue desperate for racing room before the leader drifted slightly off the cones. Surging up the inside, Somemore Blue fired through the gap in :26.4 before pacing well clear by 2¼ lengths on the wire to stop the timer in 1:53.3. Milliondollarimage held gamely for second, with Tell It Like This (Trace Tetrack) finishing third.

Erv Miller trains the winning daughter of Rockin Image—Missomebeach Blue for owners Doug Overhiser, Kenneth Duffy, Lava Java Stable and Never 2 Late Stable. Lavon Miller bred Somemore Blue who is now two-for-two in her young career with earnings of $38,600.

ROOKIE TROTTING FILLIES FLOURISH IN INDIANA SIRE STAKES

Harrah's Hoosier Park played host to the first of six rounds of Indiana Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old trotting fillies on Tuesday (July 8), with a trio of young fillies securing the first stakes victory of their young careers.

For Dayze kicked off the stakes action on the evening, rallying late to score as the 8-5 second choice in the $46,000 fist split. Leaving from post 5 in the field of eight, driver John De Long floated For Dayze away midpack in fourth while Lidlbidy Pridy One (Kyle Wilfong) raced to the inside of Clear And Cool (Jordan Ross) to cut the quarter in :28.4. Clear And Cool cleared to the top on the backstretch, reaching the half in :58.4. For Dayze began to trot into contention on the outside, moving into third on the final turn before picking up the cover of Lidlbidy Pridy One who popped the pocket on Clear And Cool at three-quarters in 1:28.4.

Lidlbidy Pridy One grabbed command from Clear And Cool at the top of the lane when For Dayze began to pick up steam to her outside. The two fillies battled the length of the lane, with For Dayze nosing out a game Lidlbidy Pridy One on the wire in 1:56.4 while Clear And Cool held for third 1½ lengths back.

The victory broke the maiden for the Roger Welch trainee in her second lifetime start after finishing second in her debut. Bred by Ernie Lambright, the daughter of Swan For All—Southwind Storm has banked $25,000 for owners William C. and William P. De Long.

The $45,500 second split saw an 8-1 upsetter as You Know Diamonds and Clint Coy led every step of the way. Coy hustled the Doug Rideout trainee out from post 2, quickly assuming command of the field of seven through an opening quarter of :29.3. You Know Diamonds tapped the brakes to the half in 1:00.1 before carrying a 1½ length lead to three-quarters in 1:30.3 over pocket-sitting Topville Ideal (Mike Peterson)

The pace quickened turning for home when Topville Ideal popped the pocket and applied pressure to the upset minded leader. You Know Diamonds turned away the challenge but had two more new threats as 1-5 favorite Pastor's Delicacy (Kyle Wilfong) began to rally on the outside and Explosive Help (John De Long) rallied up the cones. However, You Know Diamonds reached the wire first, a half-length clear of Pastor's Delicacy and three-quarters-of-a-length better than Explosive Help to stop the timer in 1:58.4.

You Know Diamonds has won two of five and yet to finish worse than second for owners Julie Rideout and Alan White. The daughter of You Know You Do—Seven Diamonds was bred by Kevin Knepp and sports a bankroll of $29,237.

The $46,000 third and final split of stakes saw Honeymoon and driver Jordan Ross convert a pocket trip into a victory as the 9-5 co-favorite. Ross secured the pocket from post 4 while Who Goes There (Jared Finn) trotted around her to grab an early lead through a first quarter of :28.3. Honeymoon was content to follow the leader to the half in :59.2 before she began to ease off the cones and move to Who Goes There's wheel at three-quarters in 1:29.3.

Trotting home in :27.4, Honeymoon put away a stubborn Who Goes There late in the lane to score by 1¼ lengths in 1:57.3. Swan Girl (Mike Oosting) finished third, 5¾ lengths behind the winner.

Robert Taylor trains the winning daughter of Don't Let'em—Memory who is owned by Backroad Stable and Beasty LLC. Honeymoon has now won three of four at two and offers a bankroll of $30,411.

Racing continues at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Wednesday, July 9 with a 14-race program set to begin at 6:15 p.m. The Wednesday card features a pair of Indiana Sire Stakes divisions for the two-year-old pacing fillies in addition to a $7,500 guaranteed Early Pick 5 (races 1-5), and $10,000 guarantees in the Late Pick 4 (races 11-14) and Late Hoosier High 5 (race 14), with the latter two guarantees done in partnership with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Program.

Free online programs are available nightly on the Harrah's Hoosier Park website in addition to free access to race replays and other handicapping resources. Qualifying replays can be found on the Hoosier Park AV YouTube Channel.

Come to the biggest party in harness racing at The Big M

This Saturday (July 12), a big crowd will gather at the No. 1 track in all of harness racing as revelers will enjoy one of the best programs of the year in the sport – and a whole lot more – on Meadowlands Pace Night at The Meadowlands, the “Biggest Party in Harness Racing.”

The center of attention will be the 49th edition of the $656,000 Meadowlands Pace, arguably the most influential 3-year-old open pace the sport offers. But the Pace isn’t the only big race on the card, not by a long shot. Seven other stakes events will also be contested on a 14-race program that will dole out $2.3 million in purses.

“Meadowlands Pace Night is always one of the biggest at our track as well as the entire sport,” said Big M chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemyer. “Not only is the race card one of the strongest of the year, but our patrons have so many options to have a great summer night out.”

The fun extends past the action on the track, as fans can ride a mechanical shark, kick some soccer darts, grab some grub from local food trucks, dance with DJ ALX and get a commemorative “Pace & Love” t-shirt (while supplies last).

As for dining options, these are what remain:

- Outdoor Café picnic tables have waitress service and are tented for guest comfort. Guests can dine on racetrack staples, which include chicken wings and French fries, cheese steaks, burgers, pretzels, popcorn, ice cream and more. Reservations must be pre-paid and are $100 per table. Each table seats up to four people. The $100 is a food credit that can be used at the Café. Café tables can be purchased by going here.
- The Lounge is an indoor dining option, offering views of both the on-track race action and the large TVs in the FanDuel Sports Book. Tables of two and four are available along with bar seats. Each purchase is a beverage and food credit for Victory Sports Bar. The à la carte menu features great bar food, salads and sandwiches. Lounge dining can be purchased by going here.

For all Pace Night details, go here.

A LAUNDRY LIST OF STAKES: The roster of stakes races that will be featured on the card is both long and impressive, with eight major events being contested over 11 dashes.

They are:

- Race 3 – $119,500 Stanley Dancer Memorial (3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, 1st division)
- Race 4 – $119,500 Stanley Dancer Memorial (3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, 2nd division)
- Race 5 – $141,600 Del Miller Memorial (3-year-old filly trotters, 1st division)
- Race 6 – $141,600 Del Miller Memorial (3-year-old filly trotters, 2nd division)
- Race 7 – $147,500 William R. Haughton Memorial (open pace, 1st division)
- Race 8 – $142,000 Dorothy Haughton Memorial (mares open pace)
- Race 9 – $425,000 E.T. Gerry Jr. Hambletonian Maturity (4-year-old open trot at 1 1/8 miles)
- Race 10 – $147,500 William R. Haughton Memorial (open pace, 2nd division)

Sweet victory in the $50,000 Kin Pace final for Sugar Pie Honey

Eight Ontario sired 3-year-old pacing fillies went behind the gate in the 17th edition of the Kin Pace final at Clinton Raceway this Sunday afternoon (July 6). Named in honor of its founders and paying homage to the past and present Kinsmen and Kinettes, the Kin Pace, first held in 2008 (was not contested in 2013) has proved to be a key stepping stone for top mares in the sport.

It was a battle from the word go between Sugar Pie Honey and Kandy Kiss and just separated by a head at the finish line making it five in a row for the Millar Farms owned and bred filly. Trained by Nick Gallucci and driven to victory in 1:57.1 by Jason Ryan.

Three divisions of Ontario Sired 3-year-old colt trotters also highlighted the afternoon card on this scorching Sunday. Manforce, driven by Tyler Borth and trained by Susanne Kerwood romped in the seventh in 1:59.2.

The second division in the eighth race of the day went to Go Blue, owned by William Fleming, trained by Gregg McNair and driven by Jean Rene Plante.

In charge from the word go, First Class Rule came home in 1:58.4 for trainer Matthew Bax and driver Todd Ratchford in the final division of 3-year-old trotters.

Clinton Raceway celebrated the opening of its new fully accessible grandstand facility alongside celebrations of the towns 150th Anniversary. Part of the celebrations included a ribbon cutting ceremony by some of the original members of the Kinsmen Club of the 1970s who were instrumental in bringing regular racing to the Southwestern Ontario oval. The project wouldn't have been possible without the support of Ontario Racing and the OLG.

The Clinton Mustangs Minor Baseball Organization was on hand for the trackside fundraiser and raised $3,500 through a BBQ, bake sale, 50/50 and penny auction.

Bettors pushed just over $58,000 through the mutuel windows and a $716 carryover in the Super Hi 5 for next Sunday.

Live racing continues on Sunday (July 13) with the track's annual Kids Day event. Details can be found at www.clintonraceway.com.

Baby trotting fillies in Pocono All-Star events

The longest shot on the board in her first lifetime start, Abbess won the fastest of three $30,000 closely-contested divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Tuesday afternoon (July 8) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

A daughter of Father Patrick—Dew Can Dew who showed only a second in a qualifying line for trainer Chase Vandervort, Abbess was kept near the back of the field as several of the favorites argued fractions of :28.2, :58.4, and 1:27.2. The light bulb went on for Abbess around the far turn, as she completed a personal :57 last half and closed from fifth at the stretch call to garner a neck victory over Contrition, who photoed Litt Up for place. The remainder of Abbess' connections are not ones you would associate with 25-1 odds but would with stakes success: driver Tim Tetrick and owners Arden Homestead Stable.

After winning a Pennsylvania Sire Stake event in her last start, the Bar Hopping—Perfect Chance miss Ginger Tree Lex added another stakes credit to her burgeoning resume with a defeat of a game Lainey W by a nose. After fractions of :29.4 and 1:00.2, Ginger Tree Lex went first-over with a :27.3 brush that saw her pass Lainey W to the lead at the 1:28.2 three-quarters. But the former leader was not finished and narrowed back in gamely, with Ginger Tree Lex proving just a nose more photogenic in 1:57.1, equaling her mark. Matt Kakaley was the driver for trainer Steve Cook and owners Sam Beegle, Ginger Tree Ventures LLC, Knollview Stable 2, and Robert Reber, Jr.

The Greenshoe—Tricky Sister filly Shoestrings, third in a Sire Stakes event in her purse debut, had the easiest All-Stars victory, by three-parts-of-a-length over French Echo in a new mark of 1:57.1. The latter sat in the pocket as Shoestrings set splits of :29, :59.1, and 1:28.4, then closed a little into a :28.1 last quarter, but not enough to defeat Shoestrings, who was driven by Jim Marohn, Jr. for trainer/owner D. R. Ackerman.

Though he won no stakes events, trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt drove three horses from his barn to victory, by a combined 17¾ lengths, to lead the Pocono horsemen in both categories on Tuesday.

Racing resumes at Pocono on Saturday at 1 p.m., and an instant possible bonanza awaits fans – there will be carryover into the first race Superfecta. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Freshmen Sparkle in Pocono All-Star Events

There were four $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old pacing males at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Monday (July 7), and trainer Ron Burke won two of them, sending out two favored first-time starters, one of whom set a season's record for colts and the other beating out a stablemate after a good battle.

It was obvious that the Stay Hungry—Francesca colt Frantic Hanover had a ton of ability, coming into his first purse start off a qualifier in which he paced his back three-quarters in 1:22 over a mile track. And he again showed superb promise while winning in 1:52.1, the season's record for freshman colts on an "f"-sized track.

Thai Hanover shot out to command ahead of the winner, reached the quarter in :28, and then backed off the half to :57.3. After speeding up to a 1:25.1 three-quarter pole lead, Thai Hanover continued gamely and still had a :27 kicker in him, but he also had a determined colt chasing him to his right, and the photo decision gave the nod to Frantic Hanover by a head. Tim Tetrick drove the precocious freshman for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Brad Grant, and Knox Services Inc.

Burke's other All-Stars winner was Al Papi, a Papi Rob Hanover—Baron Remy colt coming off two Gaitway wins with sub-:55 back halves. That turn of quick foot served him well again today, as after sitting the 2-hole to splits of :28.1 and :58, driver Ron Wrenn, Jr. moved the talented baby to the lead before a 1:26 three-quarters, then withstood onrushing stablemate Melillo (another one to watch for) in 1:53.1 for a mark. Al Papi is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, and Lawrence Karr.

Papi Rob Hanover earned another All-Stars sire credit with Swig Hanover (dam Stolly Up Bluechip), who may be the only undefeated horse around with a "negative cumulative margin:" in his first start he was second, beaten a neck, but was placed up as another rival went inside pylons, while Monday he put up the fractions of :28.3, :58, and 1:25.4, then held off favored potential pocket rocket Wingin The Captain by a head in 1:53.2, also a mark. Tim Tetrick grabbed a second All-Stars credit by piloting the Darran Cassar trainee for Jessica and Cayla Cassar, Barry Charles, Robert Muscara, and William Rochetti, Jr.

The only gelding to win an All-Stars contest, Western Raptor (Wild Wild Western—Kitty Kitty Hawk), is now two-for-two after just missing his own section season's mark by a tick with a 1:52.4 victory. Mike Wilder moved the winner to the lead after a :27.4 quarter, went on with mid-splits of :56.4 and 1:25.2, then rushed home in :27.2 for trainer Norm Parker and owner Andrew Altobelli.

Pennsylvania All-Stars competition for 2-year-olds will also be featured on the week-ending Tuesday 1 p.m. card at Pocono, with three $30,000 divisions for trotting fillies to be in the spotlight. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Post time adjustment at Harrah's Hoosier Park

Beginning on Tuesday (July 15), an earlier first post time went into effect at Harrah's Hoosier Park, with the new daily post time of 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday for the remainder of season.

"We're looking forward to being first major harness track on the market each night we race," said Gabe Prewitt, vice president/general manager of racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park. "We feel it's been a disservice to both our horsemen and our bettors to be racing to almost midnight each night we race thus far, we think moving post time up will still allow us to properly schedule our races throughout the night while also allowing us to get done earlier in the evenings."

Harrah's Hoosier Park will race on a Tuesday through Saturday schedule through Oct. 29 before the weeks get shorter approaching the closing night of the 2025 meet on Nov. 29. Still on tap for the 2025 season at Harrah's Hoosier Park is the 32nd edition of the Dan Patch Stakes presented by the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development (Aug. 8) just one month away, in addition to the Grade 1 Peter Haughton and Jim Doherty

Memorials (Sept. 12), Caesars Trotting Classic presented by Kountry Lane Standardbreds (Sept. 19) and Hoosier Champions night (Oct. 10).

For more information on the 2025 live racing season at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Record-tying performance and wiener dog thrills mark a magical night at Kawartha Downs

It was a perfect Kawartha Lakes cottage country night with a gentle breeze, the grandstand buzzing, live music playing, and fans out in full force to enjoy a memorable night of harness racing and wiener dogs.

In front of a near-capacity crowd, veteran trainer Mark Goddard and driver Nick Boyd, teamed up to make two trips to the winner's circle, headlined by Villefranche As, who blazed around the Fraserville oval in 1:55.3, tying the track record for older trotting mares. It was one of two trips the training and driving duo would make on the night also earning a victory with stablemate Malone.

Off the track, the atmosphere was equally electric. Cheers of a different kind echoed across the grandstand as Jax, a 2-year-old wiener dog owned by Brenda and Devin Ceci of Trenton, bested the group of 34 wiener dogs to claim the wiener dog title. The adorable dogs each raced in one of three heats before advancing to the final, to the delight of fans and families alike, adding a dose of fun and whimsy to an already vibrant night.

The community support continued as the weekly Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society 50/50 draw winner took home a tidy $800, nearly doubling the largest winner's pot of the season. OSAS assists in the adoption and relocation of retired and non-racing standardbred horses within Ontario while helping to educate and assist in the retraining and management of the horses. NEW FAN FEATURES ENHANCEMENTS: Fans enjoyed two exciting additions on Saturday: the elevated Winner's Circle Deck offered a thrilling new view of the stretch drive and victory celebrations, while the expanded Family Fun Zone with picnic seating brought guests closer to the action and allowed for up-close moments with winning horses and their connections.

Live racing returns to Kawartha Downs on Saturday (July 12) at 6 p.m. For dining room reservations call 705-940-0237

Oak Hill FFA hosting food booth benefit in honor of Hunter Myers at Jackson County Fair

The Oak Hill FFA is hosting a food booth benefit in honor and memory of Hunter Myers during the Jackson County Fair in Wellston, OH, this evening (July 11).

A native of Williamsport, OH, Hunter Myers passed away in March from injuries suffered in a race at The Meadows. He was 27 years old. He had amassed 2,451 wins in his 12-year driving career and is survived by his fiancée, Chloe Fisher, and son, Hayden.

During tonight's races at the Jackson County Fair, the Oak Hill FFA concession booth will be selling some of Myers' favorites, including bologna sandwiches and popsicles, as well as other food options. First-race post time is 6:30 p.m.

The booth will be located on the backstretch of the track, and all money received that night will benefit the Hayden Myers Trust Fund.
