~ Braxten Boyd

Prince Hal Hanover, driven by Todd McCarthy for trainer Ian Moore, was first to the finish by a length over Madden Oaks in 1:47.4, but after a lengthy judges' inquiry, Madden Oaks was elevated to first for driver Braxten Boyd and trainer Cameron Capone. Papis Pistol finished third.

Four years ago, Moore won the Meadowlands Pace with Lawless Shadow, who was placed first following the disqualification of Charlie May.

In Saturday's race, Prince Hal Hanover went to the front from post 4 in a :26 opening quarter as Madden Oaks, who started from post 9 in the nine-horse field, applied pressure on the outside. Madden Oaks got the lead, but Prince Hal Hanover, the 9-5 favorite, moved again and retook the top spot in a :54.1 half.

Prince Hal Hanover remained in front at three-quarters, reached in 1:21.3, while fending off a first-over bid from Captain Optimistic. As the field turned for home, Prince Hal Hanover pulled away from Captain Optimistic while Boyd launched a move to the inside with Madden Oaks. Those two battled in close quarters through the lane, with Prince Hal Hanover ruled to have interfered with Madden Oaks nearing the finish line.

"I looked left and there wasn't much place for me to fall, so it was kind of press time," Boyd said about the first quarter of the race. "Once I got there, he relaxed, and we were able to let Todd go and not have him too wound up. He sat in there a little better today. At the top of the stretch, I said, 'Just let me get loose and this is over.'"

When asked if he thought Madden Oaks would have gone by Prince Hal Hanover in the stretch, Boyd responded, "Absolutely."

Last month, Madden Oaks finished second by a head to Louprint in the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The Meadowlands Pace triumph gave the 25-year-old Boyd and recently turned 26-year-old Capone their biggest career wins to date.

"We've made a great team, and I can't thank all the connections enough for believing in me and giving me these opportunities," Boyd said. "And then we get it done. I couldn't be more grateful."

He later added about the victory, "It's pretty hard to explain. What a blessing. I didn't even imagine I would ever drive in this race as a kid. I watched a couple Meadowlands Paces with my dad, we came out to watch,

"It's not like I really had to do much; I just have to let him do his job."

Madden Oaks, sent off at 6-1, paid $15.20 to win.

HELLUVA HANDLE: The wagering on Meadowlands Pace Night was predictably vigorous, as a 2025 track- and industry-best $5,099,674 was pushed through the windows on the 14-race program, the fourth time in the last six years that betting busted the $5-million barrier on Pace Night.

The races that took in the most action were the Pace ($622,225) and Dorothy Haughton Memorial ($583,596), combining to take in just over $1.2 million in play.

(Note: Wagering on North America Cup Night at Woodbine Mohawk Park was $5.7 million, but after adjusting for the exchange rate, that number becomes $4.1 million in American currency).

A LITTLE MORE: Dexter Dunn's three winners led the driver colony... Chris Ryder and Ake Svanstedt topped the trainers with two victories each... Racing resumes Friday (July 18) at 6:20 p.m.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Sam DePinto has found success at the sales when he's not looking

by Murray Brown

I spoke with Sam DePinto on Wednesday (July 9) just four days before his colt Papis Pistol finished third in the Meadowlands Pace, the most important race of its and the trainer/co-owner's career, not the richest event mind you, but to the Jersey native its most prestigious.

Please forgive me as I wander.

This story had its beginning when Bob Marks purchased the young Sweet Lou mare Bang Bang for $20,000 on behalf of Anthony Perretti and partners from Eric Cherry.

"At first glance, she didn't have a whole lot to recommend her, thus the relatively modest price," Marks said. "But when you delve into her pedigree, you find a lot, a whole lot, that there is to like. It goes back to Katies Lucky Lady, one of the breed's foremost matrons; a mare who was not only a great broodmare herself, but also one who has produced daughters and granddaughters spanning several generations of top horses. It's a great, great family, one who's success has been stronger in producing top fillies, but its colts have also been more than adequate.

"Anthony is always looking to buy young, quality mares, but he is somewhat constricted by economics, in contrast to his sire Bill, who when he wanted a horse, he went after it with pistols blazing.

"We would have been happy to get either a colt or a filly from her. As destiny would have it, from her first foal she had a colt and what a big strapping boy he is. Anthony brought him to the 2023 Harrisburg sale as part of the Diamond Creek Agent consignment. He was hoping that he would bring a hundred thousand, but as a fledgling market breeder, he would have been pleased with whatever the market dictated

“I asked Dave [Palone] what he thought [when he drove Papis Pistol]. ‘This is the best horse you’ve ever had,’ he said. I said to him ‘Are you forgetting We Will See? You drove him for me and he earned over two and a half million dollars.’ Dave repeated, ‘This is the best horse you’ve ever had.’” he was worth. Somehow the communication between Anthony, Adam Bowden and the auctioneers got crossed. Anthony was to, or perhaps did tell Adam, that he hoped the colt would bring $100K. Adam told this to the auctioneer. This is where the mix-up occurred. The auctioneer took this as meaning that he was being protected to $100,000. They actually had a live bid at $90,000. But the auctioneer “sold” him at $100,000. Anthony now had an expensive bid in.”

The next day, a Tuesday at Harrisburg, DePinto was near the Diamond Creek consignment.

“Anthony saw me and asked me if I would look at a filly he was selling and asked what I thought of her,” DePinto said. “I did and I told him I didn’t like her at all. I thought she had a couple of serious conformation flaws. I told him that if she were mine, I would sell her regardless of what she brought. We got to chatting and Anthony asked me what I had bought. I told him I was still looking. Thus far, I hadn’t bought anything. I was looking for something to race in the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes in particular a Captaintreacherous, a Papi Rob Hanover or a Tall Dark Stranger. Anthony mentioned Papis Pistol. He told me the story of what had happened at the auction the day before. He said that since they had a live bid at $90,000, that would be the price if I were interested. He also said that he’d love to stay in for a small piece if I took him. I looked at the colt and I loved him. ‘Let me call some owners,’ I told him. We made the deal. I took a piece for myself as I like to do with most of the horses I buy.”

Now let’s focus on DePinto.

(717) 637-8931 | theblackbook.com

Let's start at the beginning. How did you get into the business?

"You could say I was born into it. I've never done anything else. My dad was the farm manager at Joe Parisi's Joe-Mar Farms [the name was changed to White Birch and is now named Hot Lead Farms] for 35 years.

"I started working with the horses when I was 13. I helped in breaking yearlings at Joe-Mar Farms. I worked two years for Sonny Dancer. I also worked for my brother Damiano, who had the horses for Dr. Paul Simon's Lord and Lady Stable. I also spent some time working with Jack Quinn. When I was 21 years old, I went on my own. My father started me off by giving me three horses to train. The understanding was that I was to "learn my lesson" from Dr. Steve Dey, a great vet himself, and the father of the well-known equine veterinarians Greg and Steve Dey."

How is your stable presently constituted?

"I have 14 head in training. I sent four head to Jack Smith to race at The Meadows. It's not easy to get one raced in New Jersey anymore with only one track, The Meadowlands, and it only racing two nights a week. Of the 10 head I have here, five of them are 2-year-olds. Of these, I have one filly I really like.

"Her name is Papis Crush who I bought in Lexington for $70,000. She looks as though she might be quite good. She won her first start, a qualifier in 1.55.2. We also have Papis Pistol's full brother Papis Best Shot, who we bought at Harrisburg for $100,000. I believe that he is quite talented, but we have encountered a few minor issues with him, so we are bringing him along slowly."

What can you tell us about Papis Pistol?

"He is a big, strong, great feeling colt. He is more than a handful. There is nothing mean about him, but he really likes to play. You better not turn your back on him, because he will be sure to try to bite you if you do. Again, nothing mean about him, but that is part of his way of playing.

"I really liked him and he showed talent from the beginning. He raced really well at 2. He wasn't among the very best stakes colts, but he was a pretty nice horse. When I sent him to race at The Meadows, Dave Palone raced him. He encountered some traffic issues and finished second. I asked Dave what he thought. 'This is the best horse you've ever had,' he said. I said to him 'Are you forgetting We Will See? You drove him for me and he earned over two and a half million dollars.' Dave repeated, 'This is the best horse you've ever had.'

"I believe that he is in the best shape he's ever been going into The Meadowlands Pace. He was just vicious in the open that he won last week. If he's that good on Saturday, I expect him to give a good accounting of himself."

“ I suppose [having a small stable is] the way I like it. I doubt that I'd be comfortable with more than 20 head. I do most of the work and I get to sit behind all of them most of the time. I want to own a piece of each horse, so economics plays a big part in how many I can have in the stable. ”

Most might describe you as one of the little guys. You have a small stable of mostly good younger horses that you train and own.

"I suppose that's the way I like it. I doubt that I'd be comfortable with more than 20 head. I do most of the work and I get to sit behind all of them most of the time. I want to own a piece of each horse, so economics plays a big part in how many I can have in the stable."

Would you say that Papis Pistol is somewhat unusual in that he fetched a higher price than what you usually spend for a yearling?

"You could say that and you would be right. The two best horses I've had before him were We Will See and Artesian. We Will See earned $2,549,409 and Artesian $878,649.

"Much as with Papis Pistol, I didn't go to the sale looking to buy either one. With We Will See, I was sitting at the Perretti consignment and Carter Duer's crew were prepping this sharp Western Hanover colt to enter the sales arena. I looked to see who he was. I liked him. I went into the arena to bid on him. I was fortunate enough to buy him for $30,000. Artesian was out on the floor when I happened to walk by. He caught my eye. I told my wife 'I'm going to buy that colt.' I got him for $32,000."

"You're only as good as the races that you get to work with and that was a great race," he said.

Durkin would know a little bit about top-notch races, since he has called at many tracks over the years, both harness and thoroughbred. He was the voice of The Meadowlands from 1982 to 1990, when he left to be the voice of the New York Racing Association (NYRA) until his retirement in 2014. He also called races for NBC Sports from 1984 through 2010, including the thoroughbred Triple Crown and Breeders' Cup.

Being a consummate professional, Durkin said he spent "innumerable hours" in preparation for the 1989 Hambletonian and thought he was good to go.

"For a race like the Hambletonian, I knew what those horses had for breakfast," he said with a laugh.

But when Probe (12-1) won the first heat and Park Avenue Joe (2-1 second choice) won the second heat, it was time for Durkin to call his first race-off.

"I never experienced anything like that before," he said. "To tell you the truth, I can't remember exactly what was going on in my head. But I was probably jotting down things to say. I'll tell you one thing I didn't jot down was the possibility of a dead heat; that never entered my mind. The odds of that are incalculable.

"Every quarter-of-a-mile is obviously very important, and the fact that one guy is sitting back and one guy's cutting the mile, that's what you have to work with and you just stay in the moment and describe them. I've always said I have a simple job, to describe what's going on accurately, and that's just what I had to do. I mean, I wasn't really too worried about fill because the excitement was just there, it was palpable. Every little thing took on a huge importance there, so I just had to report on the little things."

Durkin said at no point did he consider trying to be a hero and call who he thought might have hit the line first.

"No, no, I wasn't going to go there," Durkin said with a laugh. "Sometimes, you know, you can tell. I mean, I do have the best seat in the house, and you can kind of tell, but no, that would have taken 10 years off my life. If I'd have called one, I'd have only been half wrong, but believe me, that would have gone on my tombstone.

"There have been many times when I said too close to call and I kind of knew who won, but in that case, that was the absolute truth."

Durkin said the track was abuzz waiting to see which of the 3-year-old male trotters had won the $1,131,000 race.

But that would take time, because unlike today, they had to wait for a print.

“I’ve been asked that question many, many times, and the answer [to the best race I’ve ever called] is always the 1989 Hambletonian, and that includes all those thoroughbred races, all the Derbies and all the Breeders’ Cups. I mean that was the most exciting race I’ve ever called, plain and simple. And I’m not saying that because you’re asking it, it’s been asked to me by many thoroughbred beat people, and, you know, the answer is a harness race.”

~ Tom Durkin

“They took all sorts of prints, not just one,” said Durkin, who had a direct line to presiding judge Hugh Gallagher. “They took a lot of looks at that.”

“But the craziness of it all came afterwards and Gallagher had the presence of mind to go through the fine print of the Hambletonian Society rules to figure out that you had to declare a winner.

“It was arcane, whatever it was, and it had to do with their placings maybe in a previous heat, but everybody thought ‘Oh, they were both winners,’ and then Hugh called me up and said, ‘No, these are the rules and here’s the winner.

“And then, of course, it went to court. So, that absolutely was the longest photo finish of all time, I can guarantee that.”

Park Avenue Joe was declared the winner on Hambletonian Day based on the summary of his finishes in the two heats and the race off (2-1-1 dh) over Probe, whose summary was 1-9-1 dh.

The owners of Probe made an appeal to the executive committee of the Hambletonian Society, and as Durkin said, after two years, the two horses were declared co-winners, although Park Avenue Joe took home first-place money due to his superior race summary.

Durkin said what is sometimes lost in memories from that day were the conditions and the multiple performances of those two horses, including the fastest last quarter in Hambletonian history to date.

“What was amazing was that it was a hot, muggy afternoon in a very muggy place that The Meadowlands is in August; it’s amazing the last quarter they came,” Durkin said. “That’s the most astonishing thing of everything that happened that day was those horses in that brutal, hot, humid place, laying it all on the line.

“I mean, how many miles they had raced all day long and then they were able to come that last quarter in :26.3 with neither of them giving an inch, that’s just unbelievable. I remember the final quarter was astonishing that they could do that. It was really a test of champions, it really was.”

Durkin credits that magnificent race-off with giving him what he needed to make that iconic call.

"When I said it was too close to call, I knew I was speaking the truth," Durkin said with a laugh. "That hormone, that adrenaline, gets into your neural pathways and you can actually see better and think quicker.

"Like I said, my dictum to myself is to describe the race accurately and appropriately, so, it would be inappropriate for me to downplay the significance of a race-off in a Hambletonian. It was just highly significant, so in a race like that you can pull out all the superlatives you want and still be appropriate."

With the Hambletonian no longer requiring horses to win twice on the same day, what happened in 1989 will never be repeated. And, although the Hambletonian could end up in a dead heat again, according to Durkin, it wouldn't be the same.

"Well, if you've got 10 horses in a race, I don't know how to extrapolate that mathematically, but it's a lot easier to have two horses dead heat in a 10-horse field than to have the only two competitors dead heat; that's mathematically just incalculable," he said.

"Everything about that race was astonishing," Durkin said. "Even the convoluted, winner's circle situation was 'What? It's a dead heat and they're both not winners? What?' Everything about it was just unique, you know, just totally unique. It'll never happen again."

When asked how the 1989 Hambletonian dead heat ranks among all the classic races he's called, the answer was easy for Durkin.

"I've been asked that question many, many times, and the answer is always the 1989 Hambletonian, and that includes all those thoroughbred races, all the Derbies and all the Breeders' Cups. I mean that was the most exciting race I've ever called, plain and simple.

"And I'm not saying that because you're asking it, it's been asked to me by many thoroughbred beat people, and, you know, the answer is a harness race."

100 reasons you need to attend this year's Hambletonian

by Dave Briggs

The stewards of America's Trotting Classic have a message for anyone still dithering about attending the 100th Hambletonian on Aug. 2 at The Meadowlands: You're not going to want to miss this one.

As the Hambletonian Society's chief operating officer Moira Fanning and chief executive officer John Campbell listed off a plethora of special events for the centenary, they kept coming back to one overriding imperative.

"Obviously, the 100th Hambletonian is a huge day," Campbell said. "So, getting people there and exposing them to what we have to offer on an event like this, it just can't be overemphasized how important that is."

Fanning said she hopes this is the one day people make the effort to attend.

"Everybody has access to every aspect of racing on their phone now... but we're trying to ply them with enough attractions and offers that they say, 'You know, what the heck... I'm going to go,'" she said.

After all, the Hambletonian 100 committee has spent almost a year-and-a-half planning for this one day.

"We wanted to make the focus, 'Come back to The Meadowlands' and 'Come back to the Hambletonian,'" Fanning said. "We're hoping for a very big crowd."

A major focus is on The Meadowlands' backyard.

"Bergen County... we felt that was an untapped market that we haven't taken advantage of because, back in the day, everybody in Bergen County went to The Meadowlands," Campbell said. "The Meadowlands has stepped up their online presence and social media presence trying to target that southern Bergen County audience and we're hoping we get some results from that."

"The difference between Bergen County or The Meadowlands from 1976 to the year 2000 is vast," Fanning added. "We're working hard to reclaim the people that remember us and attract the people who are new to us."

CELEBRITIES AND SOCIAL MEDIA INFLUENCERS

Campbell said planning the 100th Hambletonian has been Fanning's main focus since January. She's gone all in to deliver a bash befitting the race's 100th birthday, starting with celebrity guests.

Television personality Carson Kressley and social media influencer Caitlyn Warakowski of How Do I Wear That? Instagram fame will be in attendance.

"Carson Kressley has reached out to us, which is always nice when your celebrity wants to come back," Fanning said. "He's going to host the press conference, which we've had very successfully at Patty Hogan's vet clinic. We've moved it to Chateau Grande, which is a really nice place in mid-Jersey, owned in partnership with Belmar Racing. So, Carson is hosting that. He's hosting the draw and he's leading the post parade on his horse and will judge the hat contest.

"[Warakomski] has got probably 700,000 followers on Instagram. Her dad was a Freehold bettor."

Warakomski will judge a $2,500 best dressed contest.

AN ATTRACTIVE BETTING MENU WITH EUROPEAN APPEAL

Key to the preparations, Fanning said, was, "trying to make sure we pay attention to every segment of people that we want to attract. It's always a great betting day and The Meadowlands always tries to take care of their bettors with betting options that day."

Sending the race card to Europe for wagering is, "almost routine for us now," Fanning said. "France has been onboard for 25 years. When I say France, I mean the PMU hub that's most of Europe. Sweden, Scandinavia, ATG as well."

Campbell added, "We try make sure we have trots for the PMU. They take a set number of races and we make sure they know when they are going to go... ATG takes the whole card. PMU is a little more restricted and they only want trotting races, but we accommodate them each and every year with that."

Tour groups from Sweden and France are coming and will visit area farms, the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY and, of course, The Meadowlands for Hambletonian Day.

“ Obviously, the 100th Hambletonian is a huge day. So, getting people there and exposing them to what we have to offer on an event like this, it just can't be overemphasized how important that is. ”

100TH HOMECOMING PARTY REPLETE WITH HISTORY

The night before Hambletonian Day, “we’re having what we’re calling a Homecoming Party... for alumni and participants,” Campbell said. “Anybody is welcome and can pay for a ticket and go, but we’re putting it on for alumni and the participants this year and VIPs.”

History is, of course, a major part of the 100th celebration.

“On this [100th] committee, thank God, we had people like Kathy Parker, Tom Charters, Janet [Terhune] from the Hall of Fame, who really moved several projects forward,” Fanning said. “The Hall of Fame updated their Hambletonian exhibit and moved it to the front of the museum. I know Fox went there to shoot a feature piece. They had a Hambletonian birthday celebration, so they handled the historical part effortlessly.

“Kathy really took charge of updating the 75th [anniversary] book, so now it’s a 100th book. That turned out really well.

“Also, if you’ve noticed our social media, Ryan [Macedonio] created tiles for every year. So, at 100 days out we started counting down the 100 winners, because we had a dead heat... So, we’ve certainly stepped up our social media game. We have a million pieces of photos and memorabilia that is finally seeing the light of day. We’re going to have a memorabilia display at The Meadowlands.

“Tom [Charters] had the idea of using Remi Bellocq, who does the caricatures for the thoroughbred racing. His panels are still up in the entrance to the new Meadowlands and in the food court of the new Meadowlands. So, Remi did three panels — the Good Time Park years, the DuQuoin years and The Meadowlands years — and they turned out really great. They are going to be poster giveaways starting July 12 and then the DuQuoin years on the elimination [night], then The Meadowlands years on the [day of the] final.”

Fanning said some of the Hambletonian 100 merchandise has a vintage look, but the Society has also done its best to create items people might perceive as modern.”

GOAL IS TO FILL PADDOCK PARK

The goal is also to create new, younger, fans and customers.

“[Hambletonian Society staking manager] Nadia [Tarnawa] has reached out to some colleges to try to get some sororities and frats to create an event around it,” Fanning said. “The intent is to fill Paddock Park. The building is always filled, from the roof to the bottom, but to fill that Paddock Park and just expose everybody to what is really the best showcase we can for harness racing.”

CREATING REPEAT CUSTOMERS

The point is not just celebrating an important milestone for harness racing's greatest race, but to create repeat customers.

"You have to make sure that, for your big day, you've thought of everything and oversupplied the water or Cokes or whatever it is, because you have to provide a happy, satisfying experience where someone says, 'Hey, I've never been here before, but I'm coming back,'" Fanning said.

But, if you absolutely cannot get to The Meadowlands, the day will be broadcast in multiple locations.

"For TV, we're back on Fox and FS1 for the majority of the day," Fanning said. "I'm so glad that Woodbine embraced Curtis [MacDonald's] Prime Time Racing. I know it's small, but it will grow. [MacDonald] produces the CBS show alongside the streaming that they do, because the CBS show has to wait until the next day in order to package the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks into one hour and let Fox be live on the Saratoga show.

"I think having the Hambletonian on the Fox network, packaged in with that Saratoga show, has been responsible for... at least a million [viewers]. I'm very skeptical of viewings and impressions and measurement, but when you focus in on that block where the Hambletonian was shown [last year], we didn't lose viewers and I think the Fox opportunity has just brought in a whole bunch of crossover people, who are familiar with racing and hopefully some new eyeballs. We've only added to our impressions by adding all these television outlets and streaming outlets."

Both Fanning and Campbell said it has been a privilege to plan for the 100th Hambletonian.

"It's just an amazing milestone and, just to be part of the planning and the implementing and the presentation of such a historic event, I consider it an honor," Campbell said.

For Fanning, the Hambletonian has been an important part of her entire adult life.

“When I was a caretaker, we did to try to see the Hambletonian on TV if we couldn’t be there live,” Fanning said. “Then, to come to work [at the Hambletonian Society], I never in a million years would have imagined that I would. Obviously, when you get to be involved in the best of everything the sport has to offer, it is a lot of work. I used to spend Hambo Day in the NBC TV truck, but the end result was that The Meadowlands always had the attitude – and DuQuoin always had the attitude – that when people are in the Hambletonian they want it to be the best experience they’ve had. Winning the Hambletonian, they want that to be the lede in your obituary.

But when a young person dies, it's unbearable. You may ask, "Why did it have to happen? Was there something I could have done," and "Why did someone so young, who had their whole life ahead of them, have to die?" The passing of a loved one is a profound and universal experience, yet the breadth of its impact is often underestimated.

Death affects people differently. The psychological effects of the death of a loved one can manifest in various ways, including sadness, depression and guilt.

But when a young person passed away who was about to marry his sweetheart and mother of his child, it was especially devastating. The young woman and mother was Chloe Fisher, fiancée to harness driver Hunter Myers.

On March 19, in race 11 at The Meadows in Washington, PA, a horrific accident occurred. When the lead horse made a sudden break it caused a chain-reaction collision that involved five horses. Sadly, Myers, a 27-year-old prominent harness driver, was thrown from his sulky and succumbed to his injuries, leaving behind a fiancée and 7-month-old son.

Immediately the entire harness family came together to support Fisher and the family the best that they could. Horsemen threw fundraisers, made tee-shirts and bracelets to sell, Prolific Equine offered five breeding's with 100 per cent of the stud fees going directly to the Myers family, and trainer Ron Burke and partner Mark Weaver also donated several breedings.

Although this generous outpouring could not bring the funny, loving, advocate back, he will always be a star to his family, friends, and fans, and it is through their love that Myers' legacy will live on.

Fisher was born in Akron, OH, and brought up around horses because her father, Mike Dowdall, was a harness horse trainer.

"My dad would take me to the barn with him where he trained his standardbred horses," Fisher said. "I began grooming for him and learned the ins and the outs from him. When dad got out of the business, I got a job working for trainer Chris Lems and Jordan Hope and stayed there a long time until I became pregnant with my son. I also worked for Sam and Jodi Schillaci. After I gave birth my fiancé Hunter wanted me to stay at home with our son, Hayden."

Fisher met Myers at Scioto Downs in 2016 while she was there racing with her dad.

"Hunter and I had an instant connection, and it was the right person but the wrong time," she said. "We kept in touch with each other, but there was no romance for I told him, he had to grow up before I would date him.

"Anyone who knew Hunter would understand this because he was always joking around and living life to its fullest. Everyone who met Hunter loved him for he was the most caring and loving person and absolutely loved what he did [driving horses]."

In 2022, Fisher and Myers made it official.

"[Our son] Hayden is on the move now, and he keeps me really busy chasing him around... But there isn't a minute that I don't think about and miss Hunter. I don't know why this [accident] happened, but I have to have faith that one day we will be reunited. But in the meantime, I must keep Hunter's legacy going for all those who knew and loved him."

"At the time I was living in a condo and Hunter had just purchased a home 10 minutes away," Fisher said. "We were inseparable. The horsemen would laugh for when I would be paddocking for someone, Hunter would follow me like a lost puppy dog.

"I'll always remember the time before we started dating when I was racing, and it was raining really hard, and I had to ship my horse back home. Hunter made me wait until he was done racing horses so he could drive the truck and trailer for me. He was so sweet and thoughtful. That was Hunter.

"His love for me was never questioned and he never stopped showing it. Even when we weren't together, we always made our way back to one another. I guess that's what they mean when they say, 'soulmates.' Yep, he was mine!"

Fisher and Myers' son Hayden completed their family, and according to Fisher, Myers was an amazing dad.

"He absolutely loved being a dad and couldn't wait to get home to play with Hayden," she said. "The short time they were blessed to be together was priceless. You often hear women complain that their husbands don't help out — that wasn't the case with us.

"Although Hunter wasn't home a lot due to his job, whenever he was, he was a great help with Hayden. I thank God every day that the two of them developed a strong bond, even in that short time."

According to Fisher, although Myers may have hoped his son would follow in his footsteps and be a driver, he had a loftier goal for him.

"Hayden loves horses and enjoys going to the barn, but Hunter always said he didn't think our sport would be around when Hayden got older and that he wanted our son to go to college," Fisher said. "Hopefully, his wish will come true."

Fisher was driving home with Hayden and the family dogs, when she found out about Myers' accident.

"I got a text from someone saying there was a horrible race accident and they hoped Hunter was okay," she said. "Then I got a phone call from a trainer's wife who I didn't talk to a lot at the time, telling me that Hunter was being life flighted, and I needed to get to the hospital in Pittsburgh ASAP. I got a feeling in my stomach that this was not good, and my life was over. I called someone to watch Hayden and my father rushed over to drive me to the hospital."

Fisher said she is so thankful for the horsemen from racetracks all over the nation that pulled together to support her and her son.

"There is not one person in particular, but everyone who donated, put together fundraisers, and helped us," she said. "I want to thank all the racetracks where Hunter never got a chance to race, and the people he didn't know who helped out. The harness racing community might be cruel at times, but they always come together when someone from the harness racing family is in need.

“My parents have also been a huge help helping with Hayden and getting me through the saddest and most difficult time in my life.”

“The Beachys are wonderful people and after Hunter died, they graciously gave their share to me and Hayden, so my son and I are now the proud owners,” Fisher said.

When asked how she copes with the loss, Fisher said, “Besides devoting my life to our son, who is growing up to be his daddy’s clone, both physically and spiritually, I haven’t found the ‘right’ ways, if there are any, but I try to stay positive and keep busy. I have Hayden and the family dogs to care for, and although they all miss their daddy so much, I have to keep my head up and carry on.

Indiana Hall of Famer Don Eash scores career driving win 2,000

by James Platz

Veteran horseman Don Eash reached a milestone on June 26 that is yet another highlight in a journey that began 35 years ago. Steering freshman Willow Larue, the owner/trainer/driver moved the young pacer to the lead and never relinquished in two circuits over the Harrison County Fairgrounds strip. The duo finished nearly two lengths in front to secure Eash's 2,000th career driving win. He would finish the day with four winners on the 13-race card at Corydon, the first of a two-program fair stint in southern Indiana. He reached the plateau with little fanfare, and downplayed the accomplishment while still acknowledging its significance.

"I never really stopped to count them, I guess," Eash said. "It wasn't any goal or anything. I just kind of went with the flow and wherever the business led me. It makes me feel kind of old,

I guess, but, it's exciting; it's an accomplishment."

Don and his wife, Rosie, have achieved a bevy of accomplishments over the years. This milestone is just the latest in the string. From the early beginnings in Goshen, IN, the couple built their Eash Racing Stable Inc. into a perennial powerhouse in the state. Beginning in 2009, Eash was named leading driver on the Indiana fair circuit in nine out of 10 seasons while earning the distinction as the top conditioner each year during that same timeframe. Eash also topped the standings at Harrah's Hoosier Park multiple times.

At Eash Racing Stable's peak, the barns were filled with 65 to 70 head and Eash was conditioning and driving champions that included Foxy Maneuver, Mayflower's Song, Jesse's Trigger, Bewitching Karen, Awesome Becky, Rustle's Chip, VJ Miss Money, Helen's Priority and Duke Of Love. The stable eclipsed $1 million in purse earnings for the first time in 2002, then proceeded to top $850,000 in 14 of the next 16 seasons, exceeding seven figures seven more times. That sustained success earned the horseman enshrinement into the Indiana Horse Racing Association Hall of Fame in 2022.

Now 70 (he'll turn 71 in September), Eash has downsized the barn dramatically, and wants to continue to do so. The focus on developing horses that perform on the track remains, although without the pressure of the bottom line.

"We've got it cut down now to about 25 horses, so it's not really financially goal-oriented so much anymore," he said. "I just try to get good horses and get the most out of them and whatever they make, they make."

In that pursuit, the stable continues to achieve. Last season, for instance, Eash sent out 74 winners, and all starters combined to earn just over $600,000. And he is succeeding with young horses, as well as a select few he keeps after the sophomore campaign. A case in point is pacing mare Rose Run Vision. The Time To Roll 8-year-old is a 42-time winner, with $609,000 on her card, $113,000 of that earned just this season.

"I'd like to cut it down even a little bit more. If I get it down to maybe five, six or eight yearlings every year, that would be my goal and just go with them and sell them at the end of the 3-year-old year," Eash said. "If I have 15 head total, that would be enough for me."

The owner said that the challenge of cutting back is more difficult than expanding the stable. The operation includes racehorses and some broodmares, and staffing is also a consideration.

"You've got employees involved and good horses involved," Eash said. "It's kind of hard to do, but we're getting there."

Currently, one of the outfit's homebreds is tearing up the fair circuit. Sophomore ER Bethany began the season at Hoosier Park, winning a leg of the Mya Tri series. Since moving to the fairs, she has captured three of four starts, setting two track records in the process. She lowered the mark for trotting fillies at Converse on June 11, shaving two seconds off the previous best with a 10-length romp, stopping the clock in 1:57.2. Last weekend she was a 34-length winner at Kentland, setting another mark with a 2:03.3 performance. Sandwiched between those starts, ER Bethany trotted away from the field by 13 lengths the same day Eash reached the milestone.

ER Bethany's dam, Becky's Law, made over a quarter million for Eash Racing Stable on the track. She is the daughter of Awesome Becky, one of the top mares the stable campaigned at the height of their success that helped establish their breeding program. Becky's Law is a 100-per cent producer, with two other winners to her credit.

With more than 2,600 training tallies on his resume, Eash is proud that nearly all his driving wins have come steering his own stock. While he still enjoys racing at the fairs, he is not as keen to travel from his home in northern Indiana to sit behind a few at Hoosier Park.

"I can go to the fairs and drive eight to 10 horses and then come back home and be done," Eash said. "Hoosier, I just about can't do that anymore because with everything else I've got going, it's too hard for me to spend my whole night down there in the paddock waiting to drive horses. For the most part, I'm willing to just use other drivers down there and not try to do so much myself anymore."

Eash may be slowing down and cutting back, but he's still enjoying the task of developing young horses and the thrill of competition.

"I still like the sport and I still like the horses. And yeah, it's something I've always enjoyed and probably always will enjoy," he said.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Elitloppet champ Go On Boy outstanding at Enghien

by Thomas Hedlund

Romain Derieux's super trotter Go On Boy (Password) had anything but an easy trip in Saturday's (July 12) $130,000 Prix de Washington at Enghien in Paris. The 2025 winner of Elitloppet had to settle three wide during the first kilometer of the mile race, before he landed outside of leader Hohneck. Hohneck kept the pace up in front, still looking strong as the field turned into the long homestretch at Enghien.

But Go On Boy showed why he's considered one of the absolute best older trotters in the world at this moment. Derieux did everything right in the bike behind his Go On Boy. When Hohneck fought well in front, Derieux just let Go On Boy continue to roll beside the leader, until he felt that Hohneck would be easy prey in mid-stretch.

Go On Boy danced to the superior win in 1:50.2 as his 2025 continues to be great as he was third in the Prix d'Amerique, and the winner in the Prix de France, Elitloppet and Prix de Washington.

Hohneck finished second ahead of Elvis du Vallon. And speaking of Hohneck. Philippe Allaire's horse is the first trotter invited to $1 million Yonkers International Trot on Sept. 13. That might be Hohneck's last performance as a racing horse. Though, there are options to continuing racing in America after the race at Yonkers, for example the Breeders Crown in Canada during the fall.

GIO CASH AND DON FANUCCI ZET HAVE EXCITING DUEL IN ÅRJÄNG

Gio Cash and Don Fanucci Zet were both at their best in the Norrbottens Stora Pris in the middle of June. Gio Cash was the winning horse that night, with the highest of grades for both trotters' efforts.

In Saturday's (July 12) $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp, Gio Cash had the best post again, just like in Boden and as the race turned out, the post position had a very significant role in the outcome.

Gio Cash (Victor Gio) and Decision Maker battled hard for the lead and Daniel Wäjersten's Gio Cash kept the challenger on his outside throughout the first turn, which meant that he would be able to control the race in front. Don Fanucci Zet started from post 8 and Örjan Kihlström showed that he had no interest in taking it slow the first quarter, so Don Fanucci Zet landed outside of leader Gio Cash after 500 meters.

Gio Cash and Don Fanucci Zet fought side by side down the backstretch, throughout the last turn and in the homestretch, but the leader held his neck ahead of the brave outside trotter as they reached the finish line in a track record 1:50.1.

Gio Cash finished ahead of Don Fanucci Zet, just like in Boden. Wherever the two horses will meet next time, spectacular racing is guaranteed.

Decision Maker took the bronze medal.

Odds and ends: How some great horsemen oddly ended up in harness racing

by John Berry

Fellow harness racing journalist Pete Lawrence has kept us informed about a wide variety of events over the last 45 years, or so, especially lately with his informative jaunts in the New Jersey-New York arena.

I caught up with Lawrence through his always insightful reporting on our grand sport and we spoke of the great horsemen and women that weren't "foaled" into the business through their lineage, i.e., fathers and grandfathers, as an example.

Many of the greats got their start living on standardbred farms or training facilities while exposed to our grand breed at pari-mutuel tracks or the fair circuit.

Of course, the Dancer name cropped up in the conversation with the general concession being that, of the four original Dancer brothers, the one that became really famous in harness racing was Stanley, but Harold, Sr., and Vernon made their mark, as well.

They were the sons of James and Helen Dancer, the proprietors of a potato and dairy farming operation.

So, as my inquiring mind wanted to delve further into this subject, a search of some 60 years of notes collected over time – my first writing appeared on Feb. 4, 1964 – proved to be very fruitful and interesting as to the history of the Dancers and several other prominent men and women in the sport.

Harold, Sr., a foal of 1912 himself, traded two cows that he had raised for a couple of standardbreds, one of which was a granddaughter of the immortal Dan Patch.

Of course, through the years, Stanley became an icon in harness racing with his success blooming in the early to mid-1960s with horses like Cardigan Bay and Su Mac Lad, to name a couple. But it was Harold, Sr. that gave Su Mac Lad the Yonkers track record in 1961, an auspicious 2:00 flat mile.

He got his first win in 1934 at a matinee in Plainfield, NJ, and here it was 27 years later when he got his first 2:00 mile and, yes, it was that aforementioned Su Mac Lad mile at Yonkers.

Vernon was 11 years younger than Harold, Sr. and a successful dairy farmer before acquiring his first horse, Miss Norah, with whom he won his first race at Freehold in 2:12.

But it was Harold [Dancer], Sr. that gave Su Mac Lad the Yonkers track record in 1961, an auspicious 2:00 flat mile.*

He also held the lines for brother Stanley on several occasions, including the grand Super Bowl and several others.

By the way, the fourth son, Charles, was also a driver, a bus driver.

Lawrence had mentioned Eddie Wheeler regarding his entree into harness racing, as he was born in Dodger town, Brooklyn, NY, a considerable distance from Yonkers and Roosevelt Raceways.

He captained his high school basketball team but, for some reason, loved horses and spent a few years learning the ropes as a caretaker.

He made his first drive at age 16 or 17, and won his first race at Freehold in 1949.

After serving in the Air Force for a couple of years, he came back and quickly rose to prominence, especially with the grand trotter Big John.

One of the more interesting stories about drivers actually goes back to a gentleman named Sacher Werner, born in Vienna, Austria on Dec. 29, 1898, yes, 1898.

"Satch" was the proprietor of perfume shops in his native land.

He owned horses and, later, took the lines in his own hands, becoming a leading driver in Europe before Nazi Germany took over Austria.

He fled his homeland as a religious refugee, immigrated to France, and found fame driving Kairos, sire of the European trotting champion, Hairos II.

In 1942, he came to the United States and became one of the leading drivers on the New York circuit in the 1960s with his best-known horses being Victory Dynamic, Tru Single G, O'Brien Hanover and Lord Victory.

The Yonkers/Roosevelt Raceway fans became enamored with Norman Dauplaise when he came to the United States in 1963 at the age of 23.

The Drummondville, QC native began in the business at age 8, grooming for $13 a week and dropped out of school in the seventh grade to stay with the horses.

He drove his first race at age 17 in Sherbrooke, QC where he won with Ramuntcho in 2:17.2.

Dauplaise quickly became a driving force on the New York Circuit after coming to the U.S. in 1963, unable to speak English.

He made the U.S. his home, becoming a citizen, learned the language and quickly became known as the "master of the measured win," with his come-from-behind driving strategy.

Some of the notable horses with whom he has been associated were Mickey Rodney, Sirota Anderson and Delmonico.

One of the more interesting stories found was about Dr. John Hayes, Jr.

Having witnessed harness racing at Dufferin Park at the age of 6 or 7 with his father, the great John Hayes, Sr., who was still a farmer.

When he graduated high school, he was already a licensed driver, this while dad was winning major stakes events.

But "Jr." did not follow in his father's hoof prints.

He spent seven years obtaining a degree in veterinarian medicine from Ontario Veterinary College, achieved in 1973.

Along the way, dad gave his son a truck, trailer and horse, Penn Hanover, which he campaigned to the tune of $40,000.

While John Hayes, Jr. never considered himself a "Herve Filion," he most certainly has made a mark in the sport, especially in 1981 with Conquered in the Meadowlands Pace.

Other top horses handled by the good doctor were Luxury, Tyrant, Cavalcade and Striking Force, to name a few.

Finally, for this Mane Attraction, there are so many great ladies that have made their mark in our sport — and we'll get to many of them — but Lady J deserves the mention here.

Born Jan. 14, 1947, Jacqueline Coard Ingrassia came over to the States from Ipswich Suffolk, Great Britain, which makes her a spry 78 (25 Celsius).

Yes, she drove horses in her native land but the opportunities were rather slender.

Upon arrival, she went to work for Anthony Abbatiello and the rest is history.

She's just a nose away from 1,200 lifetime wins and over $7 million in purse earnings, Lady J and husband Frank, now an equally spry 90, are just two of the many reasons that our sport is, in these eyes, unequalled in every way.

We'll tackle a lot more interesting tidbits in future Mane Attractions.

With every stride she takes in her journey, Adrienna Rowe hopes to inspire others to chase their own dreams and find purpose in horse racing.

Her story stands apart from many of her contemporaries in harness racing – most notably because she doesn't come from a background rooted in standardbreds.

“ [My boyfriend] Chris laughs at me whenever I come into the barn because I am always saying hello to the horses. I always try to be happy for them. They say horses can read your facial expressions – they can tell when you are happy or sad – so I believe when you put that joy and care into the horses, they respond to that. ”

~ Adrienna Rowe

“Back in 2005 is when I first heard about harness racing,” Rowe said. “I entered a contest at Pocono Downs, to be in their Harness Racing Youth League. I believe 12 of us were picked out of a bunch of entries and it was very exciting for me. At the time, I was an inner-city kid, and I didn’t have much experience with any type of agriculture or horses. So, it was a great time because I got to learn a lot about horses during that week-long camp. There was a lot of hands-on teaching – it was very exciting.”

So compelling, in fact, that it sparked something deep within her.

“It ignited something in me to want to do something with horses when I got older,” Rowe said. “I was only 11 when I entered that contest, but it felt like winning the lottery because I fell in love with horses.”

That spark eventually led Rowe to hit the jackpot in standardbred racing.

Determined to follow her passion, she turned to the classroom to deepen her knowledge of horses.

“After that, when I was finishing high school, I took on odd jobs so that I could do riding lessons,” she said. “At that point, it was really set in stone that I wanted to have a job in the equine world, so I went to Wilson College, in Chambersburg, PA, from 2011 until 2015, and earned my Bachelor of Science in Equine Studies.”

While at college, Rowe further solidified her connection to the horse world.

“When I was there, I competed in dressage, IDA (Intercollegiate Dressage Association), Hunt seat, IHSA (Intercollegiate Horse Shows Association), and for my four years at Wilson, I was on the competitive riding team, which was amazing,” she said. “Growing up without that connection to horses, my college education gave me as many tools possible in the equine world. The director of the program was a vet, so we learned a lot about the physical makeup of the horses.”

After college, Rowe found fulfilling work across different corners of the horse industry.

Her journey took her from Maryland to Florida, taking on various roles along the way.

Rowe worked and trained under George Morris (Olympic Show Jumping silver medalist), Marilyn Little (FEI Eventing and Show Jumping), Siobhan Byrne (USDF Dressage Medalist), and Juri Ito (FEI Show Jumping).

“Before I graduated in 2015, I got a job in Maryland at a premier hunter and jumper facility,” Rowe said. “From 2015 to 2017, I was working at that facility, teaching, riding and working on European sales. Not long after that, I got a job working for a vet, Dr. Kevin Brophy, in Wellington, FL. He used to be a vet for thoroughbreds at Penn National.”

In the past five years, Rowe shifted to the corporate world – but horses never left her heart.

Even while working 9-to-5, Monday through Friday, she stayed connected to the equine world.

~ Adrienna Rowe

Then, just four months ago, she read that standardbred trainer Chris Walsh was looking for help.

Curious, she picked up the phone.

“Chris and I have known each other since high school,” Rowe said. “And funny enough, he was my high school crush. I got in touch with him and that’s when I really started stepping into the harness world and learning a lot more about it. I’m still very new, but over the past four months, I have learned so much from so many people. Chris was another person who inspired me to get into the horse business at a young age.

“And fast forward to now, we are a couple, both in the business. We have been to Pocono, Tioga Downs, Chester – Chris has been a great trainer, someone I can look up to and learn a lot from.”

As the head groom for the Walsh stable, Rowe quickly developed a deep respect for the harness racing community.

“It’s a different world from when you are watching the races on television or sitting in the stands,” Rowe said. “Now that I am more involved, I am so amazed at the hard work and dedication of the horsepeople to get these horses to the races and give them the utmost care.

“You need to have a passion for the sport and the horses – there are no shortcuts.”

There is, however, a seemingly endless amount of fulfilling moments in her role.

She had an immediate kinship with the Walsh horses.

“I have fallen in love with the breed in general,” she said. “I worked with a lot of warmbloods in the past. These horses are phenomenal, in every way. They love their job, and they love competing. I work on their nutrition, take care of them, stalls, groom, any rehabilitation and recovery care.”

Watching them race brings out her most animated self.

“I am loud and I feel like my heart is beating out of my chest every single time we race,” Rowe said. “Even when I was showing horses and riding, I am a nervous wreck all the time because I want to see the horses do well.”

Talking to the horses is a daily ritual.

That joy extends well beyond the racetrack. A self-confessed hiking, camping, and nature lover, Rowe finds peace in the outdoors – and purpose in the barn.

Her hope is that others from non-traditional standardbred backgrounds will discover what she has.

The Florida experiment

by Trey Nosrac

Gene Belfry, a retired 56-year-old independent businessman, has a fringe of red hair, a potbelly, and a twinkle in his eye. He enjoys escaping the northern winters by traveling south in the winter. During his southern trips, he especially enjoys visiting Southern Oaks training center, where his former secretary, Gail Coggins, and her husband, Walt, always had a few young trotters or pacers training. Gene, a restless risk-taker, had acquired more than a bit of knowledge about the sport simply by occasionally visiting training centers and following the progress of Gail and Walt's horses. Gene was intrigued, but he stayed on the fringes of the sport and never took the plunge into horse ownership.

In July, watching a struggling 2-year-old trotter Gail owned, a business idea leaped into his ever-active mind. The stunning 2-year-old colt trotter, Justice Delayed, was a beautiful physical specimen. Gene liked a lot about this colt. One thing not to like is that his best training mile so far is 2:17. Because this young colt is 10 seconds away from qualifying or has yet to show any reasons for optimism, the colt will most likely head to the online auction board and an unknown fate. Many potential racehorses and their owners find themselves in this predicament.

Gene's idea was a wild swing to give young horses like this trotter and their owners a future and give some 2-year-old horses a little more room to race on the way before heading out the door. He is considering creating a niche business. Like other businesses he has started, he believes the adventure would be enjoyable. The gist of his idea is to form a Florida E League. The "E" can represent the words experimental or extension.

His mind is still jumbled, but the core is to create a place for horses that do not make any money as 2-year-olds, can be retained or purchased for a February, March, and April racing season. Maybe he will consult an online sales company to help organize the business. Perhaps he will look for some investors. The racing schedule could be eight or 10 races, a final at a Florida training center (possibly Spring Garden Ranch), or a rotation of training centers that will host races.

By November, Gene or his operator could designate 150 (or more) as FE (Florida Eligible). The Eligible pool for FE designation will be 2-year-old horses who did not make one cent. Interested owners can nominate their 2-year-olds or remarket the Florida Eligibles at an online auction. Jan. 1, FE horses must declare and enroll for what, $5,000, $10,000 per horse. A pool of designated horses will not be difficult to find. Approximately 3,000 yearlings were sold at auction in 2024, leaving over a thousand racehorses culled. The Florida Eligible idea only needs a small fraction.

The FE horses are a gambling-free operation. No-gambling is very important. The participants are a private group who race for a pool of money under their own rules. Instead of gambling, the horses compete for points, not purses. However, stipends can be paid to the more successful horses at the end of the season via a formula prescribed by the organizing committee.

Why bother setting up a series or a league for slow horses or slow-developing horses that race will, technically, all be age 3? Consider these bullet points that Gene Belfry jotted down.

- Opportunity for an individual or group to have a racing adventure lasting less than six months.
- Opportunity for an individual or group to have a complete racing adventure for less than $20,000.
- A participant will have a reason to travel to warm weather.
- Young people can find footing as trainers and drivers.
- About 30 per cent of sold yearlings did not race in 2025.
- People with limited funds who find a way to race horses.
- Excellent, exotic hobby for retired folks.
- Coordinate with the tourism sector (RV's, campgrounds, hotels, etc.).
- Make this a highly social racing circuit.
- It would be an excellent hobby, especially for retirees.

Gene Belfry is a fictional character. His ideas are semi-fictional. Maybe there are possibilities, maybe not. A project that removes harness horses from the pari-mutuel straitjacket would be fun and potentially a solid business.

If you build it, they might come.

Super Chapter, Go Dog Go take Stanley Dancer Memorial divisions

by Frank Coto for The Meadowlands

Super Chapter and Go Dog Go recorded speed-smashing victories in their respective editions of the Grade 3 Stanley Dancer Memorial at The Meadowlands on Saturday (July 12) as they both eye towards the 100th Hambletonian set for Aug. 2.

With a commanding mile while facing minimal challenge, Super Chapter – with Dexter Dunn at the reins – won the first of the two $119,500 Stanley Dancer Memorial divisions.

Hidalgo left for the lead from the inside, but 1-9 favorite Super Chapter eased towards the front out of post 4 and captured the top spot in a :27 first quarter. Hidalgo sat second ahead of Hard Seven and Monserrate, all while Super Chapter sailed to a :55.1 half.

Holding on to the top spot with ease, Super Chapter was in a smooth groove as the lineup changed when Monserrate left the pylons to go after the leader and Gap Kronos S took the live cover behind him. Super Chapter clocked the three-quarters in 1:23.3 and continued to pick up the pace down the stretch. He recorded a :27 final quarter while keeping Monserrate to his rear in a personal-best 1:50.3 mile. Monserrate closed well to finish second, beaten 1¼ lengths, and longshot Blank made up sufficient real estate to finish third. Hidalgo held fourth.

Super Chapter, coming from a win in the Yonkers Trot, the first leg of the Trotting Triple Crown, is a son of Chapter Seven out of 2014 Hambletonian Oaks winner Lifetime Pursuit. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and is owned by Jeff Snyder and Arthur S. Pronti and trained by Marcus Melander. He lifted his lifetime wins to nine from 15 starts and his lifetime earnings to $802,990. He paid $2.20 to win.

Mattias Melander, assistant trainer to Marcus Melander, said after the race, “He was super today and is good all around on any track size. He’s really no problem and we did not have to make any changes [in equipment] for this one.”

Act two of the Stanley Dancer Memorial offered a lot more movement on the two turns than act one. As the gate unfolded, two betting outsiders – Top Gun Hanover and Nordic Catcher S – grabbed the leading roles while Go Dog Go followed in front of race-favorite Maryland.

The first quarter clocked in at :27.3 as Go Dog Go and Todd McCarthy took to the outside and swished to the top with Maryland and Dexter Dunn picking up his cover. Maryland took over the lead, but the two top betting choices soon locked into a brief duel as Go Dog Go popped back outside as three-quarters flashed 1:24.3.

Go Dog Go lunged forward to stick a head in front of Maryland on the turn for home. McCarthy had Go Dog Go on the outside with plenty of trot left, enough to smack a :26.1 final quarter and repel Maryland by a neck in a lifetime-best 1:50.4. Nordic Catcher S was third and Maximus Mearas S held on for fourth.

“There was a little bit of pressure coming from the outer flow,” Todd McCarthy said. “He felt so good at the time that I really didn't want to risk getting put in a pocket there, and I felt like the move I made in the backstretch didn't have to use too much energy. Maryland raced great too, but the way my guy felt I was happy to take my chance there."

Wiesman Farms LLC and Al Libfeld own the son of Greenshoe—Primary Target. Go Dog Go is trained by Carter Pinske.

"He fought back early," said owner/breeder John Wiseman.

When asked about the connections' hopes for Go Dog Go to win the 100th Hambletonian, Wiseman said, "I'm not even going to go down that street. That's in two weeks. Our first [Grand Circuit] stake win ever was last weekend in the Reynolds, so [he] is very, very special."

Go Dog Go won all three of his races this season, and this was his fifth win in 13 starts. He goes into the Hambletonian having earned $410,192 lifetime. He paid $4.60 to win.

Yo Tillie, What A Bid Hanover dazzle in Del Miller Memorial

by Ray Cotolo for The Meadowlands

Top betting choices Yo Tillie and What A Bid Hanover took top billing in their respective Grade 2 Del Miller Memorial divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (July 12).

Yo Tillie landed on top of a half-mile shuffle and muscled to another dominant victory in the $142,200 Del Miller first division trotting in 1:51.

Driver Todd McCarthy accelerated off the wings with Yo Tillie but floated five wide into the first turn. Champagne Problems pushed hardest for the early lead, but relinquished control past a :27 first quarter to Best Friends Girl and Deja Blu then loomed forward on the rim with Yo Tillie on her back. Deja Blu took over the lead before Yo Tillie finally thrust to the top past a :55.1 half.

Though Yo Tillie travelled wide for the entirety of the first half, she began peeling away from the competition on the march to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and spun for home on an open-length lead. Lady Landia encroached with a late burst of speed from the back of the pack to grab second, beaten 3½ lengths, while Walspea also emerged from the backfield with an outside grind for third. R Charm closed for fourth.

“I figured there would be a bit of action in that first quarter,” winning driver Todd McCarthy said. “There was a little more than I was hoping, but I think everyone had the same gameplan; they wanted to follow her. It just kind of worked out that we ended up finding the front past the half there.”

A daughter of Tactical Landing out of the Triumphant Caviar mare Consolidator, Yo Tillie — bred by Gbw Breeding Farms Inc, and Black Creek Farm — stayed unbeaten from three tries this season while collecting her 11th victory from 15 starts, good for $408,539 in earnings. Andrew Harris trains and shares ownership of Yo Tillie with Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman, all of whom acquired this filly from Verlin Yoder after her 2-year-old season. Ineligible to the Hambletonian Oaks, Harris said Yo Tillie’s next targets are the Kentucky Champion Series at The Red Mile followed by the Delmonica Hanover at Pocono Downs and other stakes to which she could supplement late in the year.

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite, Yo Tillie paid $2.20 to win.

What A Bid Hanover persisted in a first-over grind to deliver as the 4-5 favorite in the $141,000 Del Miller Memorial second division, timed in 1:51.4.

R Dutchess brushed to the fore after a :27.4 first quarter to grab the lead from longshot Aperfect Annie moving for the backstretch. Ake Svanstedt meanwhile landed in fourth with What A Bid Hanover and waited until after a :56.2 half to commit to an uncovered move outside.

Flushed first up by Conversano, What A Bid Hanover advanced through the final turn and reached for R Dutchess passing three-quarters in 1:24.2. What A Bid Hanover surged down the stretch to overpower R Dutchess and win by a length in a lifetime-best mile while Conversano gave pursuit behind in third. Torrisi took fourth, elevated via placing, another four lengths behind.

“[We won with] a little luck of course, but I have a really good horse also,” trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt said after the race. “She made it easy and fought to win. I think she’s an all-around horse; she’ll do her best always.”

A daughter of Muscle Hill out of the Donato Hanover mare What A Knockout, What A Bid Hanover won her fifth race from 11 starts and added to her bankroll now worth $438,373 for owners Ake Svanstedt Inc. and SRF Stable. She paid $3.40 to win. She was bred by Herb Liverman.

Twin B Joe Fresh repeats in Dorothy Haughton

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Twin B Joe Fresh and driver Dexter Dunn made a big move on the backstretch to take the lead and never looked back on their way to a 1:48.1 win in Saturday's (July 12) $142,000 Grade 2 Dorothy Haughton Memorial for older female pacers at The Meadowlands. Sylvia Hanover finished second, 2¼ lengths behind the winner, and Walkin On Sunshine was third.

The victory was Twin B Joe Fresh's second in a row in the Dorothy Haughton Memorial and avenged a loss to Sylvia Hanover in their most recent encounter on June 28 in the Perfect Sting Mare Pace at The Big M.

"Last [time] we just got beat fair and square, I'm not going to make any excuses," said Chris Ryder, who trains and co-owns Twin B Joe Fresh. "But I was a whole lot more confident tonight. I wasn't surprised that she was as good as she was here.

"I'm super happy with the mare. It's just the ride of a lifetime. It's just fantastic."

Twin B Joe Fresh, the 2024 Dan Patch Horse of the Year, was fourth from post 1 in an opening quarter that saw Kobe's Gigi, My Girl EJ and Sylvia Hanover all make bids for the front. My Girl EJ was on top at the quarter in :26.1 but Sylvia Hanover, who started from post 9, grabbed the lead soon after on the way to the half in :55.1.

By then, Dunn was already on the move with Twin B Joe Fresh and took control heading into the last turn. They reached three-quarters in 1:22.3 and drew clear in the stretch with a :25.3 sprint home for the mare's 33rd win in 44 career races.

"There were a few leavers early," Dunn said. "I'm so lucky with her, she lets you do what you want. We moved down the back and I was just going to ride slowly, but she wanted to carry on and she got around pretty easy. She just felt fantastic on the last turn and when I asked her to quicken, she was like her usual self and took off."

Twin B Joe Fresh is owned by Ryder, Dunn, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak. She has won three of four races this season and pushed her career earnings to $2.58 million. The daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze was bred by Brittany Farms.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Twin B Joe Fresh paid $2.60 to win.

Elista Hanover sets stakes record in Hambletonian Maturity

by Frank Coto for The Meadowlands

Elista Hanover plastered a dozen 4-year-old trotting rivals on Saturday night (July 12) at The Meadowlands in the 1-1/8 mile Grade 1 $425,000 E.T. Gerry, Jr. Hambletonian Maturity.

The strapping mare driven by David Miller settled third after a wide start as Sir Pinocchio soared off the gate to get the lead with Warrawee Michelle squeezing into second and Private Access in the mix. Miller asked Elista Hanover to take control of the dozen foes and quickly left the pylons to take over in a fiery first quarter of :25.1.

Miller was in control going to the half when Private Access launched a challenge on the outside and took over the top spot while Elista Hanover sat cold covered in second and Warrawee Michelle stayed in the flow of a :54.1 half. Miller's mare quickly muscled off the pylons again and passed Private Access to take the lead for the second time in the added-distance route.

Elista Hanover was plowing ahead and cut three-quarters in 1:22.1 with no sign of tiring even as Warrawee Michelle took aim at her mid-stretch. There was no denying the International Moni—Evermore mare at that point and Miller let his mare loose to a stakes-record win in 2:03 (after trotting the mile in 1:49.3). The time beats the previous record of 2:04.1 set in 2015 (the second edition of the race) by JL Cruze.

Warrawee Michelle stayed determined to get the place spot, beaten 2½ lengths. Security Protected flew from the pack and past breakers down the center of the track to grab third from Private Access in fourth.

R Lynn Curry, Philomena P. Curry and trainer Annie Stoebe own Elista Hanover, earned her first win of the year in her sixth try and her 14th victory in her third season of racing.

"She is so versatile," Stoebe said. "Dave can do whatever he needs to, and that was what he needed to do tonight. She wintered down at Spring Station with my friend Sasha and came back strong, bigger and ready for the 4-year-old year. We knew how talented she was and it was worth taking a shot."

Stoebe said she wants Elista Hanover to finish the 4-year-old season strong.

"The Breeders Crown would be great and there are others along the way for her," Stoebe said.

Elista Hanover, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, paid $4.80 to win while raising her lifetime bankroll to $781,751.

Upsets abound in William Haughton Memorial

by James Witherite for The Meadowlands

Oakwood Ardan IR and Maximus Miki posted double-digit upsets in their respective $147,500 Grade 2 divisions of the William Haughton Memorial, for older pacers on Saturday (July 12) at The Meadowlands, winning at 32-1 and 14-1, respectively.

Oakwood Ardan IR fanned four-wide off the home turn and cascaded to a lifetime-best 1:47.3 win over Dave Brower Memorial winner Coach Stefanos and Graduate winner Sabonis in the first division.

Driver Jordan Stratton kept Oakwood Ardan IR reserved off a five-horse skirmish that saw Voukefelas (driven by Joe Bongiorno) vault from post 10 to lead at the end of a :26 first quarter before yielding to double millionaire Abuckabett Hanover (Yannick Gingras) upon reaching the backstretch. As Sabonis (Dexter Dunn) employed a fourth-to-first brush to seize control shortly thereafter, Stratton and Oakwood Ardan IR were content to sit two-wide in the slipstream of Coach Stefanos (James MacDonald), who flushed 6-5 favorite Captain Albano (Todd McCarthy) out from fifth at the :53.2 half-mile split.

Captain Albano took aim at Sabonis on the far turn, towing Coach Stefanos and Oakwood Ardan IR into striking range at three-quarters in 1:21.2, at which point both horses fanned wide for the stretch drive. Coach Stefanos persistently wore down pacesetter Sabonis, but Oakwood Ardan IR — on the power of a ferocious :25.2 final quarter — eclipsed eventual runner-up Coach Stefanos in the final strides to prevail by a neck. Sabonis finished a game third over the hard-working Captain Albano.

“I wanted to have him as close as I could at the head of the stretch,” said Stratton. “He felt great when I moved him. I probably moved him a little early, but I was just so confident in my horse, and he charged right to the wire.”

Not only is the Haughton win the biggest of Oakwood Ardan IR's career to date, but it marks his 11th victory in 14 starts over the Big M oval.

“This feels like a dream come true,” said trainer Robert Cleary. “For this horse to do what he's done, where he's come from, nobody could even dream that it's possible.

“He felt amazing when I trained him, but I never dreamed you could come through the classes like that. I thought I had a really nice racehorse, but I never dreamed we could be here today.”

Oakwood Ardan IR, a 6-year-old Sweet Lou—Trend Setter gelding bred by Oakwood Stud, races for Royal Wire Products Inc. Now a 22-time winner from 51 starts, Oakwood Ardan IR has amassed $301,367 in career earnings. He paid $67.80 to win.

In the second division, Maximus Miki skimmed the pegs in the stretch to engulf titans Bythemissal and Ken Hanover en route to a lifetime best-equaling 1:48 score.

Out through the entirety of a :26.3 first quarter, Maximus Miki and driver Andy McCarthy forged to the front midway up the far side before yielding to 4-5 favorite Ken Hanover (David Miller) just past the :54.2 half and being shuffled back a couple more positions as Bythemissal (Gingras) continued uncovered to take the lead with three-eighths to go. Bythemissal threw down a :26.3 third sectional, prompting Miller to vacate the pocket with Ken Hanover off the home turn and opening the door for Maximus Miki to take the short path to victory as the pace ultimately collapsed.

“Once I saw David pull, I said, ‘I’m just going to wait here for a second and see what Bythemissal does,’” said McCarthy. “Once he straightened up, he started to drift a little bit, so I figured I was going to get room up the inside. I waited, got the earplugs out, and away he went.”

Maximus Miki darted through a seam at the pegs to secure a clear lead with 150 yards to go, and he evaded a hard-closing Timeisonmyside (Dunn) to win by a diminishing three-quarters of a length. Funtime Bayama (James MacDonald) rallied from deep off the pace to finish third.

“He’s shown in the past that he’s got the strength and speed, and he’s finally starting to prove it now,” McCarthy added.

Tom Cancelliere trains Maximus Miki, a 6-year-old Always B Miki—Beach Gal gelding with 24 career wins and $420,636 in earnings from 52 starts, for owner John Cancelliere. He paid $31.20 to win. Maximus Miki was bred by Sergent Stables LLC of Pennsylvania.

Miki And Minnie massive in Jerry Silverman Memorial

by Ray Coto for The Meadowlands

Driver Dexter Dunn carved a path to the lead out of the second tier with Miki And Minnie and uncorked a monumental 1:48.4 performance in the Grade 3 $172,650 Jerry Silverman Memorial on Saturday night (July 12) at The Meadowlands.

Outside starters Wickedpace and Thebeautifulthings swooped down to the top into a :26.4 first quarter as Rodeo Drive Deo hustled outside on the rim towards the front with Miki And Minnie in tow. Rodeo Drive Deo brushed to the lead but Miki And Minnie emerged on top through the shuffle and carried the field to the half in :55.

Miki And Minnie cruised around the final turn while Rodeo Drive Deo angled out of the pocket to take a shot at the leader, but she began to waver spinning off three-quarters in 1:23. The whole field then straggled in the straightaway as Miki And Minnie motored through a :25.4 final quarter to win under wraps by five lengths in 1:48.4. Wickedpace, at long odds, held second with Thebeautifulthings, at even longer odds, taking third. Looksgoodinloulou stormed down the center of the track for fourth.

“She’s unbelievable,” co-owner Criag Henderson said. “She never quits, she always goes. And there’s a reason Chris Ryder is in the Hall of Fame; this is another example of it. Chris said she’d been training great all week, and when you have Dexter Dunn behind the horse, it’s a good thing.”

Ryder trains Miki And Minnie, a homebred filly by Always B Miki out of the Roll With Joe mare That’s The Ticket, for owners Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo and Larry Minowitz. She won her fourth race from five starts this season and her 10th race from 16 starts overall, accruing $1,101,337 in earnings. She paid $3.40 to win.

Call Me Goo narrowly prevails in Miss Versatility

by James Witherite for The Meadowlands

Following her 1:51.2 win in the Six Pack on June 28, Call Me Goo again parlayed a pocket trip into victory with a 1:51.3 win in the $40,000 third leg of the Miss Versatility series for trotting mares on Saturday (July 12) at The Meadowlands.

In line to trainer Åke Svanstedt, Call Me Goo pushed forward from her pole position to secure the pocket behind stablemate Nelsonbriteagle NO (driven by Dexter Dunn), who cleared from the outside post 6 to control sectionals of :27.2, :56.2 and 1:24.2 unopposed with her five foes drafting behind her in single-file formation.

Just before cornering for home, Svanstedt angled Call Me Goo off the pegs to take her shot at Nelsonbriteagle NO, and the 5-year-old Googoo Gaagaa—Callmemza mare edged to the lead just inside the eighth pole — but she was far from home free. As Call Me Goo gradually widened her advantage in deep stretch under a Svanstedt hand drive, 51-1 shot Bravo Angel S (Jason Bartlett), who had stalked from fifth for most of the mile, emerged rapidly up the pegs in deep stretch but came up a nose short despite a :26.1 sprint home. Nelsonbriteagle NO was a beaten third, 1¼ lengths in arrears.

“The trip was good,” said Svanstedt, who shares ownership of the homebred 2024 Breeders Crown and divisional O’Brien Award winner Call Me Goo with Graham Grace Stables, William ‘Bib’ Roberts and Kiwi Stables, after the race. “She can race good from all positions.”

Now a 25-time winner from 41 starts, Call Me Goo has banked $1,061,588 in her career. She paid $3 to win as the 1-2 favorite.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

In The Black cruises to victory in first OSS Gold for sophomore trotting colts

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

In The Black came from third in the stretch to power to a lifetime-best 1:55.1 victory in the lone $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series event for 2-year-old trotting colts on Saturday (July 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A full field of 10 contested the first Gold event of the year in the division.

In The Black, the 4-5 favored homebred son of Green Manalishi S out of Only Take Cash, was driven to victory by Bob McClure for trainer Jeff Williams and owners Mardon Stables of Loretto, ON, Tyrone Valley Farm of Bowmanville, ON and Hudson Standardbred Stable Inc. of Hudson, QC. In The Black was bred by the late Hall of Famer Bob McIntosh, Mardon Stables and Dave Boyle of Bowmanville, ON.

Driver Todd Ratchford blasted Wolverine Legend to the front off the gate and tried to stretch out the field through fractions of

:27.4 and :57.2 with Another Great Mass (Trevor Henry) sitting second and In The Black well back in third. The front-runners tightened up from there, with Another Great Mass taking command just before the 1:26.4 three-quarter station. In the stretch, the battle was on until In The Black sailed to the front and on to an easy 1¾-length victory.

“That was just a training trip for [In The Black],” McClure told Woodbine broadcaster Chad Rozema in the winner’s circle. “He followed along like an old racehorse, and when I got to head of lane — I haven’t won many Golds that easily — he just coasted. And he had a lot left in the tank, that’s for sure.”

Another Great Mass held on for second, followed by Strobe Lite (Tyler Borth), who finished with broken equipment, Wolverine Legend and D A Masstermind (Chris Christoforou).

The win improved In The Black to a record of 2-0-0 in three starts and upped his bankroll to $93,625.

"He's a absolute sweetheart," McClure said of In The Black. "Me and Jeff [Williams] actually raced the mother here, so we have some familial familiarity with her. She was a sweetheart, and so is he."

Williams told Rozema that In The Black has, "been a nice colt from the day we broke him... His mother was fast, his father was fast, and he's fast. He's a fast colt."

GREEN MANALISHI S FILLIES TAKE BOTH OSS GOLD TESTS FOR 2-YEAR-OLD TROTTERS

Green Manalishi S offspring Bingo Night and Flowing Tribute were the respective 1:54.4 winners of the two $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold events for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Friday (July 11) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It was the first Gold event of the year in this division.

In the first Gold event, overwhelming 2-5 favorite Bingo Night overcame being parked the entire mile and still managed to pull away in the stretch to post a career-best victory to remain undefeated through two lifetime starts.

Tyler Jones drove the homebred daughter out of Cant Stop Tommi to victory in the field of six for his father/trainer/co-owner Dustin Jones of Hamilton, ON, who shares Bingo Night's breeding and owning credits with Hebert Horses Inc. of Montreal. Sjoblom Racing Inc. of Delray Beach, FL is also a part-owner, but did not participate in Bingo Night's breeding.

Tyler told Woodbine's Chad Rozema in the winner's circle that he was impressed with Bingo Night's effort, but much less impressed with his drive.

"That was disgusting on my part, to be honest," Tyler said of his drive. "I was just trying to be easy on her to get in the first turn and Louis [Roy, driving Lo And Behold] had a little struggle with his filly and I had to wait for him to kind of bear out of the way. Then, by the time that happened, there was no options left for me, and just had to kind of creep forward and creep forward. All credit to the filly. That was unbelievable."

Tyler said he was purposely being careful with Bingo Night off the gate because she's a 2-year-old trotting filly making only her second pari-mutuel start.

"If you push her off the gate and she springs and then she makes a break, then I look like a fool," Tyler said. "It was my idea just take my time and get [to the front] when I get there. And I never did, but we got there at the wire."

Canukepasecret led the field to the :28 quarter, but Barbara May took over, with Bingo Night parked in second, as the field hit the half in :57.2 and the three-quarters in 1:26.

Bingo Night won by 3½ lengths.

At the wire, a photo for place determined Very Sassy (Todd Ratchford) edged out Cupid Hall (Rick Zeron). There was also a photo for fourth, which saw Barbara May (Doug McNair) get to the wire inches in front of Canukepasecret (Jody Jamieson).

Bingo Night now has earnings of $53,000.

In the second Gold event, the battle was essentially between the 6-5 favorite, M E Laurel (James MacDonald) and 3-1 Flowing Tribute (Bob McClure). The latter took the early lead off the gate as both Twin B Showbiz and Social Wizard made breaks. M E Laurel was parked early, but MacDonald moved her to the front with authority not long after Flowing Tribute led the field to the :28.1 quarter.

M E Laurel took the group of seven through both the :57.3 half and the 1:28 three-quarters with McClure sitting patiently in second with Flowing Tribute. In the stretch, Flowing Tribute popped out of the pocket and accelerated to a 2¼-length victory. M E Laurel held for second. Cher Hill was third and Calgary Morning and Slim Daisy picked up the final two checks, respectively.

It was the first career victory in her first pari-mutuel start for Flowing Tribute, a filly out of Watch The Show. Flowing Tribute was bred by Diane Ingham of Mount Pleasant, ON and Brenda Barnim of St. George, ON. The Paul Reid trainee is owned by Patrick Dillion of Port Hope, ON, Laurie Rooney of DeLeon Spring, FL, Brian Kleinberg of Madison, NJ and Richard Beinhauer of Venetia, PA. The group purchased Flowing Tribute for $30,000 at the 2024 London Classic Yearling Sale.

Pennsylvania SIRE STAKES REPORT

Blue skies and big moves: PASS and Stallion Series deliver at The Meadows

by Tyler Stillings for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Blue skies and high temperatures provided the classic midsummer afternoon for rookie trotters to take their first swings at the bigtime with four Stallions Series divisions and three divisions of the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes (PASS) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows Saturday (July 12).

In the first PASS division, an uneventful opening half of :58 set Minoan and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. up for an uneventful but faster second half. After establishing themselves on the lead before the quarter, the Bar Hopping colt and Wrenn, Jr. would dominate with a :56.4 back half to finish with the fastest division of the day in 1:54.4.

"He got locked in last week, so today's effort is not a surprise," trainer Noel Daley explained following the win. "I was very happy with how relaxed he was today and how he handled everything."

Owned by Patricia Stables, L. A. Express Stable LLC, Sjoblom Racing LLC and Daley, Minoan was a $35,000 Lexington purchase for the connections because as Daley puts it, "He stands a lil crooked."

Outside the winner's circle following Mr Big Spender's victory in the second PASS. Owner Bart Brice said, "My family has owned racehorses for a long time, this colt is a lotta fun."

After an opening quarter that included several breakers, Mike Wilder was able to keep the Captain Corey colt focused and on the helmet of leader Mr Penner and Ake Svanstedt until a :28.1 sprint home gave the Norm Parker trainee a 1.58.1 victory. Purchased at Lexington for $57,000, Brice admitted the colt's 1.54.2 triumph in a division of the All Stars was "an eye opener."

"He's been a nice colt all along, but the Pocono effort was an attention getter," he said.

According to Brice, who shares ownership with brother Todd, the schedule calls for the Arden Downs Stakes to be his next start.

Despite other colts making breaks next to and in front of him, the Ake Svanstedt driven Dublin Hanover was unfazed as he grinded out a 1:55.3 nose victory in the final PASS.

"He's very green and hasn't quite figured it out," Svanstedt explained as he rushed to make flight connections. "He's talented, so I hope he does."

Purchased at Lexington by owners Svanstedt Inc, Tomas Anderson, and Lennart Johansson of New Jersey and Sweden. The Captain Corey freshman found himself on the lead past the quarter then in the 2-hole at the half and finally just before the five eighths to stay on top while holding off Highball Hanover and Jeremy Indof's late rally.

In the Stallion Series, the Anthony MacDonald and Tim Twaddle connection struck early and fast as Rico Tubbs and MacDonald left the 2-hole just past the three quarters on their way to a four-length romp in the day's first race. An $11,000 Lexington purchase for owner The Stable, Rico Tubbs and Hutchinson Harness LLC of Ohio, the 1:57.3 effort by the gelded son of Father Patrick was the fastest of the four divisions.

Brian Zendt delivered another dramatic finish with a last-step victory behind Express Train in their Stallion Series division. Using early gate speed to secure a pocket trip, Zendt moved the Father Patrick gelding to the outside off the last turn and would need every bit of the stretch to get the 1:58.3 victory for trainer Todd Rooney. Purchased at Lexington last fall for $25,000, Rooney shares ownership with Kimberly Farmer of Florida and Trotting for Bourbon of Pennsylvania.

A perfectly timed move and a :28.3 final panel gave driver Mike Wilder and Beer In My Hand a six-length no doubter in their Stallion Series event. Racing third throughout the opening three quarters, Wilder pulled and moved just as the leader broke and a 1:58 win soon followed. Owned and bred by Christine and Cody Schadel, the Bar Hopping colt was able to rebound in his Stallion Series race for trainer Cody Schadel following a scratch in his last start in the PA All-Stars.

Hall of Famer Tim Tetrick set Keifer first over alongside the leader heading into the final turn before trotting to a Stallion Series victory in his second lifetime start. Mahlon Martin owns and trains the altered son of Greenshoe that was a Harrisburg yearling purchase for $9,000.

For the day, Dave Palone, Mike Wilder and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. each had triples while Buckeye Brian Brown's two training victories were tops among trainers.

Racing resumes on Wednesday (July 16) at 12:45 p.m.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Can'ttouchthese, Tarshish romp in INSS at Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Less than even-money favorites Can'ttouchthese and Tarshish continued their tear through the sophomore pacing filly division with a pair of dominant scores in the fourth leg of Indiana Sire Stakes on Saturday (July 12) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Can'ttouchthese and John De Long were sent away as the 3-5 favorite in the $48,500 first division from the outside post 6. De Long floated Can'ttouchthese into fourth off the wings while Angelatyourfeet (Jordan Ross) was parked and pressing to the lead around Miss Fancy Nancy (Trace Tetrick) through a quarter of :27.1. Ross grabbed into Angelatyourfeet on the backstretch, reaching the half in :56 before De Long brushed Can'ttouchthese to the top moving into the final turn. Can'ttouchthese picked up the pace moving around the turn, pacing two-lengths clear at three-quarters in 1:23.2 while Miss Fancy Nancy moved to the outside of Angelatyourfeet from third.

Turning for home, Miss Fancy Nancy powered into second but still had two lengths to make up on Can'ttouchthese. Under confident De Long handling, Can'ttouchthese held Miss Fancy Nancy at bay by 1¼ lengths in 1:50.4, Angelatyourfeet held for third.

Can'ttouchthese has now won four of five at 3 for trainer Roger Welch and 10 of 13 lifetime. The homebred daughter of JK Endofanera—Can't Touch This has banked $93,500 on the season and 348,870 lifetime for owners William and Patrick De Long and Douglas Riccolo.

The $49,000 second division saw Tarshish hold up her end of the bargain at 1-5 en route to her third straight victory, this time with driver Jay Cross in the bike. Tarshish took a seat in fifth early while CC Rockin Rosie (Trace Tetrick) blasted from the outside post 7 before reaching the quarter first in a blistering :26.1 inside of Princess In Pink (LeWayne Miller). Princess In Pink pressed on to the lead on the backstretch before Tarshish blasted from fifth, steamrolling to the top through a :54.1 half. Tarshish sped to three-quarters in 1:22.4 from there, opening up a 2½ length lead.

Under Cross urging, Tarshish's lead widened to four mid-way through the lane as a trio of fillies battled for place. Tarshish would coast from there, crossing the wire 2½ lengths clear in 1:51.1 over Princess In Pink. Vel Cinderella (Marcus Miller) and Kaks The Boss (Kyle Wilfong) would dead-heat for the show position.

Walter Haynes, Jr. trains Tarshish who has won six of seven in 2025 while banking $92,500 on the season for owner Joanne Samples. The daughter of Luck Be Withyou—The Party's Rockin was bred by Luckiana Farms and now boasts a career bankroll of $239,755 while winning half of her 16 career starts.

Racing returns to Harrah's Hoosier Park on Tuesday, July 15 with a 13-race card beginning at the new earlier post time of 5:30 p.m. through the remainder of the season. The Tuesday card will also feature $10,000 guarantees in the Late Pick 4 (races 10-13) and Late Hoosier High 5 (race 13) done in partnership with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Program.

DANCINGDREAMER, SWISS LIGHTS STAY PERFECT IN INSS AT HOOSIER

Fresh off a dazzling 1:50.4 score in his career debut, Dancingdreamer backed that effort up with another decisive victory in the first leg of Indiana Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (July 11), while Swiss Lights changed tactics tonight and raced from off the pace to score in the second division.

Dancingdreamer and driver Aaron Stutzman were bet down to 1-9 in the first of two $66,500 splits, floating out from post 5 to land in fourth early while Fire Inside (Kyle Wilfong) left aggressively from the rail to cut the quarter in :28. Fire Inside brought the field of seven to the half in :56.1 when Stutzman moved the favorite off the cones. Dancingdreamer quickly powered alongside the leader on the turn, moving around the turn a little wide a half-length back in second to three-quarters in 1:23.4.

Stutzman gave Dancingdreamer a few taps of the whip at the top of the lane when the youngster quickly responded by powering clear. Pacing into a homestretch headwind, Dancingdreamer paced a last quarter of :27.2 to romp by 4¼ lengths in 1:51.1. Mystical Rock It (Trace Tetrack) rallied late to get by Fire Inside for second.

Stutzman also trains Dancingdreamer who is owned by Desyllas Racing, William Beck and Jeffrey Eckburg. The $13,000 bargain buy from last fall's Midwest Classic Mixed Sale is now two-for-two with earnings of $40,750. Luckiana Farm bred the son of Rockin Image—Doc's Diva.

The second division saw another son of Rockin Image win his second straight to start his career, when Swiss Lights and Ricky Macomber, Jr. rallied late to win as the 2-1 second choice. Leaving from post 2, Macomber wrestled Swiss Lights into third early while Aces And Cinches (Daryl Bontrager) raced to the top through an opening quarter of :27.3. The field was in straight alignment on the backstretch to the half in :56.2 with Aces And Cinches continuing to lead with 4-5 favorite JK The Great (Marcus Miller) on his back in the pocket. Macomber waited for Miller to move JK The Great around the turn to follow his cover while Aces And Cinches led to three-quarters in 1:25.3.

Turning for home, JK The Great powered to the lead with Swiss Lights still on the Miller helmet midway through the stretch. Swiss Lights ripped off cover at the eighth pole and began to eat into JK The Great's lead late, pacing home in :26.3 to nail the favorite on the wire by a half-length in 1:52.4. Sogie (Atlee Bender) rallied for third at 38-1.

Macomber, Jr. also trains Swiss Lights for owners Doug Overhiser, Arnold Manders and Joseph Vieira. The gelded son of Rockin Image—Shes Lights Out was bred by Merlie Schwartz and now owns a bankroll $37,850.

SWAN AFFECT HEADS QUARTET OF SIRE STAKES AT HOOSIER

Two-year-old trotting colts took center stage at Harrah's Hoosier Park with four $35,500 divisions of their opening leg of Indiana Sire Stakes on Thursday (July 10) with Swan Affect and driver LeWayne Miller headlining with a 1:55.3 in the quickest split at 9-1.

Leaving from the outside post 8, Miller floated away in sixth but was caught wide on the first turn as a host of leavers scrambled for the lead, with Swan Jayden (Marcus Miller) reaching the quarter first inside of August Salazar (Jeremy Bobbitt) in :28.4. August Salazar worked to the lead before being covered up by Sunday Swagger (Kyle Wilfong) on the backstretch, leaving Swan Affect now first-up and working to the lead at the half in :57.3. Swan Affect finally saw the cones for the first time entering the final turn, clearing to the lead before reaching three-quarters in 1:27.

Turning for home, Sunday Swagger popped the pocket and applied pressure to Swan Affect who quickly responded under Miller urging. Trotting home in :28.3, Swan Affect raced gamely on the lead to hold Sunday Swagger at bay by a half-length in 1:55.3. Muscle Technician (Trace Tetrack) rallied up the cones to be third, three lengths behind the winner.

Trained by Walter Haynes, Jr. the victory was the first for Swan Affect in his second outing after finishing second in his career debut. Bred by Lavon Miller and John McGill, McGill also co-owns the gelded son of Swan For All—Flower Hour along with Twoforone Stable.

In the first split, Mcmikenmike and driver Marcus Miller pulled a 9-1 upset to score in 1:56.2. Skyway Awestruck (Mike Peterson) took command after the quarter of :27.3 before controlling middle-half fractions of :57.4 and 1:28.2. Pulling from fourth on the cones turning for home, Mcmikenmike overcame a 6½ length deficit and a broken head pole with a :26.4 last quarter to nail Skyway Awestruck by a nose on the line. Hawt Yoga (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) rallied up the rail to be third, three-parts-of-a-length back.

It was the maiden breaking victory for the Erv Miller trained Mcmikenmike who is owned by Anthony Lombardi, Doug Overhiser and George Golemes. The gelded son of Don't Let'em—Myrna Myrna was bred by Luckiana Farm.

Great Commission and Aaron Stutzman laid claim to the third division, romping in his career debut in 1:57.3. Great Commission got away fifth in the early stages while Bravo Alpha (Doug Rideout) worked to the top at the quarter in :28. Meadowbrook Ryan (Clint Coy) brushed to the lead just past the half in :58, leaving Great Commission to his outside and driving to engage the new leader at three-quarters in 1:28.1. Great Commission put away Meadowbrook Ryan at the top of the stretch, coasting home with a motionless Stutzman in the bike to cruise by ¾ lengths. Spring Street (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) finished second, with Bravo Alpha holding for third.

The fourth and final division saw Premier Bluebird rebound from a defeat in his last outing with a dominant score with driver John De Long. Premier Bluebird floated away in fourth early while 6-5 second choice I'too Volo (Trace Tetrack) cut the opening quarter in :28.2. I'too Volo had things his way to the half in :58.1 before carrying a two-length advantage to three-quarters in 1:28.3 when De Long right-lined Premier Bluebird from fourth. Gobbling up ground with a :27.2 last quarter, Premier Bluebird quickly chased down I'too Volo before powering clear by three lengths on the wire in a career best 1:56.4. I'too Volo held sway for second, with Winnin Dallars (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) finished third at 64-1.

Zach Miller trains and co-owns Premier Bluebird along with Dessa Miller. The $4,500 bargain buy at last fall's Hoosier Classic is now a three-time winner and has yet to be worse than second in five outings. Daryl Miller and Dennis Bontrager bred the son of Pilot Discretion—Winery Hanover.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Trotters kick off Ohio Sires Stakes season for freshman

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Godusa set a track record at Eldorado Scioto Downs Saturday (July 12) and became the fastest 2-year-old trotter so far in 2025 as Ohio Sires Stakes action kicked off for the season for freshman colts and fillies.

Getting away fourth from post 3, Dan Noble positioned Godusa mid-pack as Rose Run Brooke (Luke Hanners) set the early fractions of :27.3 and :57.4. Coming out of the second turn and going down the backside, Godusa was first up and the two fillies started to put separation between the rest of the field by the 1:25.2 third quarter. Coming down the stretch to the finish, Godusa ended up a half-length ahead of Rose Run Brooke while Tomboy Strong (Anthony MacDonald) finished third. Godusa, a Ready For Moni filly out of the Trixton mare Behold The Dream, is owned by E Five Racing and John Fielding.

A $35,000 Harrisburg Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Carter Duer, Godusa redeemed herself after making a break as the race favorite while on the lead last week in the Next Generation. Saturday's mile shattered the previous track record of 1:55 set by Sugar Instead and Ronnie Gillespie in 2023.

Atlee Bender and Erv Miller teamed up to win two of the other $50,000 filly divisions with Demonic Niko in 1:55.4 and Lucky Lady Volo in 1:56.2.

They first won with Demonic Niko, who powered away down the stretch to win her division by six lengths. Countrydiamondlady (Kayne Kauffman) took the early lead from post 6 but Princess Karolyn (Justin Irvine) was set to take over by the :28.1 opening quarter. Heading to the :58.1 half, Bender had Demonic Niko first over and gaining on the leaders. By the 1:27 third quarter Demonic Niko had a head in front and easily won over Countrydiamondlady who finished second with Princess Karolyn holding on for third.

Sold as Can't Stop Missy, Demonic Niko was a $95,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Labelle Farms. By In Range and the first foal out of the Cantab Hall mare Cant Stop Marie, Demonic Niko now has $82,500 earned in three lifetime starts with two wins and a second place in the Next Generation for owners Ervin Miller Stable, Anthony Lombardi and Douglas Overhiser.

Lucky Lady Volo benefited from a great pocket trip to get up at 14-1 to win for the Bender/Miller team in 1:56.2. Tom's Babe (Austin Hanners) set fractions of :28.1, :58.1 and 1:26.4. Coming into the last turn, Lucky Lady Volo popped the pocket and won by three lengths over Sarah's Mission (Chris Page); Tom's Babe held on for third. Lucky Lady Volo, by In Range out of the Yankee Glide mare Lady Gill Again, is owned by Ervin Miller Stable, Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Douglas Overhiser; Kentuckiana Farms and Jorgen Jahre, Jr. were the breeders.

Speedbewithyou took her OHSS division in near gate-to-wire fashion in 1:55.1. Getting away from post 5, Speedbewithyou (Au. Hanners) took a brief lead going into the first turn and let Mooter Tooter (Page) make the lead before pulling immediately for the re-take by the :28.1 quarter. Leading through the :57.2 half and 1:26.2 third-quarter, Speedbewithyou held off a fast-closing bid by Guardian Doll (Ronnie Gillespie) who finished second by the smallest of noses; Mooter Tooter was third. Todd Luther trains the Mission Accepted filly for Greg Luther Racing and owner/breeder David Wills. Speedbewithyou is the first foal out of the Donato Hanover mare Donatela Lightning.

The first colt winner of the evening was Big Ranger, who made a few mis-steps before the start but recovered big to win by five lengths in 1:54.4 for trainer/driver Ronnie Gillespie. Special Moni (Tyler Smith) set the early fractions of :28.2 and :57.4 while Big Ranger got away fifth after the early miscue. Coming first up towards the 1:26.1 third quarter, Big Ranger put away the field by the top of the stretch, coming home in :27.4 to win for owner Madison Global. Cash Money Hall (Kauffman) got up for second with Emerald Tom (MacDonald) third.

A $25,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale bred by Spring Haven Farm, Big Ranger is the first foal out of the Tactical Landing mare Big Blue Bird. The In Range colt now has $100,000 earned and is a perfect two-for-two after winning the $150,000 Next Generation last Saturday.

Rose Run Banker flew down the stretch to win the second division in 1:56.1. Rose Run Banker got away seventh from post 8 with Page as Rose Run Boom (Brett Miller) took the early lead at the :29 opening quarter. Not content to sit in the pocket, Chris Lems pulled Grape Crush to lead through the :58.2 half and 1:27.3 third-quarter. Rose Run Banker was sitting second over, came three-wide around the last turn and slingshot down the stretch to win by a length over Rose Run Boom and Grape Crush.

By In Range out of the Conway Hall mare Hot Chili Girl, Rose Run Banker was a $70,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Rose Run Farm. Ron Burke trains the colt for Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Weaver Brusceci and Knox Services. After finishing third in last week's Next Generation, Rose Run Banker has $43,000 earned in his first two lifetime starts.

Ur Ride Is Here (Brady Brown) set easy fractions and won at 9-1 in 1:59 to take his division of Sires Stakes action. Leaving from post 5, Ur Ride Is Here got to the quarter in :30.1 and half in 1:01.3. Heading towards the 1:30 third-quarter, the duo were pressured by the 1-5 favorite Super Mind (MacDonald), but had enough to come home and win by a length and three-quarters over Water Slide (Aaron Merriman) who got up for second while Pump Action (Justin Irvine) got the pocket trip to be third. Ur Ride Is Here is trained by Steve Schoeffel for owners Kathy Schoeffel, Daniel Goehle and James Reuther. The Ready For Moni colt is out of the Muscle Massive mare My Way The Highway and was a $16,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Midland Acres.

Ready Russell (Noble) was the last OHSS winner Saturday in 1:55. The pair got away fifth from post 6 while Max The Mighty (Merriman) set the tone up front, posting fractions of :28 and :57.2. By the 1:25.3 third quarter Ready Russell had pulled even with Max The Might and got up for the win by three lengths; Bitcoin King (Smith) was third. Deb Swartz trains the Ready For Moni gelding for Jeff Fought Racing, Brian Carsey and David Fought. Out of the Cantab Hall mare Fortheloveoflindy, Ready Russell was a $37,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase who now is two-for-two on the year after winning a non-winners of one event at Scioto with earnings of $31,000.

The 90-day 2025 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Sept. 13. Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a 5:45 p.m. first post. A special late first post of 6:45 p.m. on Sept. 12 will help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Rookie pacing fillies compete in NY Sire Stakes at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Two-year-old pacing fillies headlined Thursday night's (July 11) program at MGM Yonkers Raceway as they were in action in two $75,900 New York Sire Stakes events and three $20,000 New York Excelsior Series divisions.

In the first sire stakes split Miss Genie Mae (Tyler Buter) showed speed from post 5 and worked her way around Odds On Enigma (Matt Kakaley) for the top spot past the :28.1 opening quarter. From there, Miss Genie Mae continued on the engine to the half in :57.3 and the three-quarters in 1:27, but Odds On Enigma angled off the pylons to go on the attack on the final turn.

Odds On Enigma gained ground all the way to the wire, but Miss Genie Mae was game on the front-end and was just able to keep her at bay, prevailing by a nose in a 1:55.3 mile. Bueckers (Jason Bartlett), Brooklyn Bombshell (Yannick Gingras) and Country Reba (Jordan Stratton) rounded out the order.

A daughter of Courtly Choice, Miss Genie Mae was bred by Shaun Vallee and is co-owned by him in partnership with D P V Racing Stable. Trained by Roland Mallar, Miss Genie Mae won for the first time in two starts, has earned $51,825 and paid $4.40 to win as the 6-5 second choice. She led a $7.30 exacta and a $16 trifecta.

Odds On Monetary (Kakaley) was the tempo-setter through stations of :28.3, :57.3 and 1:26.3 in the other sire stakes grouping while Existential (George Brennan) sat in the pocket until she was sent two-wide on the way to three-quarters. That gave cover to Liberty Style (Bartlett), while Party Pumps (Braxten Boyd) elected to stay in and save ground.

On the final bend Boyd had room to get off the pylons with Party Pumps, and she was able to out-kick Odds On Monetary through the lane and to the wire, scoring by a neck in 1:56.2. Savage Cindy (Tyler Buter) was up for third with Existential, Forwhomthebeltolls (Stratton) and Liberty Style behind her.

Sent off as the longest shot on the board at 14-1, Party Pumps gave sire Courtly Choice a sweep of the sire stakes races. The Winbak Farm-bred was sent out by Charlie Norris for owner Carrie Norris, Bradley Berlin and Jerald Barris and broke her maiden in her second lifetime appearance. Party Pumps has now pocketed $52,075, returned $30.60 to win and was atop a $63.50 exacta and a $309.50 trifecta.

Winning the New York Excelsior Series contests were:

- Two Twenty Swift (by Huntsville and bred by Ross Bonafield) in 1:57.2 for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Deborah Daguet and owners Donald MacRae and Beasty LLC., paid $3 to win.
- Long Shore (by American Ideal and bred by Fair Winds Farm Inc.) in 1:55.3 for driver Scott Zeron, trainer Joe Pavia, Jr. and owners Vincent Ferriero, Jr., Dominic Pavia, Eric Prevost and Todd Frocione, paid $2.10 to win.
- Patriot Miss (by American Ideal and bred by Bruce Potter) in 1:56 for driver Tyler Buter, trainer Roland Mallar and owner Jeffrey Nanna, paid $2.60 to win.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT). Please note there is also a 10-race program slated to take place at MGM Yonkers Raceway on Wednesday (July 16).

New Jersey SIRE STAKES REPORT

'Waldon' and 'Sugar' sweet in New Jersey Sire Stakes at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

The first leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait sat atop the Friday night (July 11) marquee at The Meadowlands, and among the nine $25,000 divisions, Waldon Fashion and Sugar Packet were two of the most-impressive winners.

Waldon Fashion (Walner—Broadway Donna) followed up a strong score one week ago in a division of the Kindergarten with another flawless performance in the second of three splits for filly trotters in the fourth race.

The 1-9 favorite was dominant from the start, leaving from post 8 in the eight-horse field with Todd McCarthy driving and led the field through fractions of :28.2, 1:00.3 and 1:30.2, leaving a :26.3 final quarter in the Jim Campbell trainee's tank. She completed the mile in 1:57, hitting the wire 2¾ lengths in front of Royal Patti. Sparks was third.

"She broke in like a natural," said Campbell. "It reminded me a lot of her mother [a career earner of $1.4 million and a Kentucky Filly Futurity champion]. A good gait and has a lot of speed. She trained down well all winter.

"She likes to go fast, but she also will follow one, too. She was a little anxious getting out of there tonight but settled down once Todd got her there [to the top]."

Waldon Fashion returned $2.20 to win.

Sugar Packet was an impressive winner in her career debut two weeks ago at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and the Blake MacIntosh student impressed again in the final split for filly trotters (race 8), winning in 1:55.3 with Yannick Gingras in the bike.

"[Driver] Jody [Jamieson] really liked her [in her Mohawk win] and Blake thought she was pretty impressive," said Gingras. "She left the gate really well [tonight]. She was really beautiful. She relaxed on the front."

The daughter of Six Pack—Sugarcane Yankee cut out fractions of :28.4, :59.2 and 1:28.2, and had just enough to hold off a pocket-sitting, late-rallying Glam by a nose. Lipstick was third.

"She was a little lost, a little tired," said Gingras. "She was good when the other horse [Glam] came at her. [Ake Svanstedt's] filly is nice, too. I thought maybe he did get me."

As the 4-5 favorite, Sugar Packet returned $3.80 to win.

VICTORY LANE WALKERS: The other seven New Jersey Sire Stakes winners were:

- Race 2 — Filly trot: Southwind Chaska (Tactical Landing—Southwind Chai), driven by Tim Tetrick, trained by Jim Oscarsson, winning time 1:55.2, returned $22 as the 10-1 fourth choice.

- Race 5 — Colt and gelding pace: Rocknacious (Perfect Sting—Rocknificent), Scott Zeron, Linda Toscano, 1:53.1, $3.40 as the 3-5 favorite.

- Race 6 — Colt and gelding trot: Maga Hill (Muscle Hill—Goo Doo Doll), Gingras, Ron Burke, 1:54, $4 as the even-money favorite.

- Race 7 — Filly pace: Be Perfect BG (Perfect Sting—Jk Mardi Says), Dexter Dunn, Anthony Beaton, 1:52.1, $6 as the 2-1 favorite.

- Race 9 — Colt and gelding trot: Diabolic Hill (Muscle Hill—Crysti Dream), Andy McCarthy, Annie Stoebe, 1:54.4, $3.60 as the 4-5 favorite.

- Race 10 — Colt and gelding pace: Reincarnated (Lazarus N—Cloud Diva), Zeron, Joe Bongiorno, 1:53, $27.80 as the 12-1 fourth choice.

- Race 13 — Colt and gelding trot: Nix Nacken (Muscle Hill—Nixie Volo), Zeron, Marcus Melander, 1:55, $4.60 as the 6-5 second choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Zeron led the driver colony with three winners... All-source betting on the 14-race card totaled $2,484,582.

Game Changers: Forbidden Trade

by Matthew Lomon / Woodbine communications

Once a week, throughout the Mohawk racing season, Woodbine will profile a horse who has had a life-changing impact on one of their closest connections.

This week, Canada's 2020 Driver of the Year Bob McClure, and three-time O'Brien Award-winning trotter and 2019 Hambletonian champion Forbidden Trade.

McClure, the winner of more than 3,600 races, with $54 million in purse earnings, took a trip down memory lane with the horse who delivered a lifetime of good fortune on and off the track.

FORBIDDEN TRADE

Foaled: April 25, 2016

Sire: Kadabra (ON)

Dam: Pure Ivory

Wins-Seconds-Thirds: 26-9-9

Earnings: $2,387,275

Trainer: Luc Blais

Owner: Determination

Breeder: Steve Stewart

When you look back on the 2019 Hambletonian, what's the first thought that comes to mind?

"Appreciation. A lot of appreciation for the horse himself and the people who were behind the horse.

"I appreciate Serge Godin giving me the opportunity. I appreciate Luc Blais having him at his very best on that day and appreciate the horse sticking his neck out. He won the toughest battle that day, that's for sure."

How would you describe his personality?

"He had a classy personality. They talk about being an old soul; he was that way at 2. He was such a chill horse.

"And he was a robot to drive. He showed up in 2018, the same year I started for Determination, and he was 2 that year. I was at a stage in my career where I needed that. If he was a hard horse to handle, I didn't have the experience to maybe get him in the right spots and have the success we did.

"But the fact that he could out-leave them — he could come from last, he'd sit, he'd move — the horse got tons of respect long before I had any on the track. At that point in my career, he needed to be that way for us to be successful."

Can you liken him to a particular athlete? If so, who and why?

"Let's go with Mark Messier. There wasn't a lot of flash to him. He never did anything magnificent. He just did his job, and he did it very well.

"A lot of the time, he was such a handy horse. He didn't have to do anything astounding. He was easy to put into a spot that made things easier for me and him.

"There wasn't a lot of flash and dash with him. There was just an extremely classy horse that did everything right."

Three words to describe him?

"Classy. Tough. Sweetheart."

How has he changed your life?

"The year where I won the Hambo [2019] gave me enough money to buy my farm, where myself, my wife and two kids live. If I hadn't had that horse, I might not have had a year like that — one that translated into bigger years and set me up to put my family into as good a place as I've got them in now.

"I owe a lot to that horse, and I'll never forget him."

Dave Landry

Sportswriter is on the move

Sportswriter will now stand stud with Ashley MacDonald at Kingsmen Equine in PEI.

To date, Sportswriter is the sire of the winners of over $83 million and has sired two millionaires, Jimmy Freight and Karma Seelster. His average earnings per starter is $80,270 and he has sired 854 winners.

On the racetrack, Sportswriter earned $1,649,411 and took a 3-year-old mark of 1:48.3s. He won the Metro final at 2 and the North America Cup final at 3.

We have loved having Sportswriter here at Tara Hills Stud and will miss him, but are also very excited for his continued success in the Maritimes. Best of luck to Ashley and Sportswriter.

Ashley can be reached at ashley@kingsmenequine.com, 613-581-7292, and Kingsmenequine.com.

Meadowlands Pace weekend edition of Breakfast With The Babies

Meadowlands Pace weekend edition of Breakfast With The Babies, sponsored by Fashion Farms, got underway at 9 a.m. on a muggy, overcast summer morning at The Meadowlands. The temperature was 78f and the track fast with negligible wind to begin. Both Myron Bell and Murray Brown made a cameo appearance on the day as John Rallis and Greg Blanchard called the action.

Trainer Nancy Takter and driver Yannick Gingras had a big day combining to win three impressively and Gingras picked up a fourth for Ron Burke.

Skillful Tactics (Gingras / Takter) won right back, setting all the fractions at a fair clip then drawing away from his rivals through a :28.4 end to the 1:55.2 mile. Diversion followed along to hold second while Chapel was third with late trot. Skillful Tactics is a Tactical Landing and was a $35,000 (HBG) yearling purchase for Leblanc & Kribbs, Pryde Stables, Inc, Beattie and In The Gym Partners. Christ Beiler breed the winner.

Pacing fillies were led by Amira Hanover (Joe Bongiorno) who left to the top, released a rival through middle fractions then tipped back out for the drive and prevailed in 1:56.1, home in a snappy :27.3 to hold off the sharp late rally of Tan Lines Hanover. The Papi Rob Hanover lass was a $130,000 (LEX) purchase for Let It Ride, O'Brien, Sbrocco and In The Gym Partners from Hanover Shoe Farms.

Kibbie J (Todd McCarthy / Noel Daley) was an impressive winner this morning, reserved off the early fractions then storming home through the :28.3 end to the 1:59.1 mile on his own. Cambridge Hanover rallied well late to get second. Ken Jacobs gave $345,000 (LEX) for the Walner half to Six Pack, bred by Steve Stewart and Doug Hutchins.

Leading Lady roared by the field through the stretch to be the second of the day for the potent combo of Takter and Gingras. The Walner filly smoked home into the :28.3 end to the 1:56 mile to overtake Heart For Two. Leading Lady cost Black Horse Racing and Herb Liverman along with co-breeder Marvin Katz $110,000, Lynn Katz and Al Libfeld are co-breeders.

Takter and Gingras struck again in race 5, this time with the royally bred Madam Cheval, a Walner daughter of world champion $2.7 million winning Shake It Cerry, who took over past the half then continued along through a :27.4 end to a mile in 1:58 under her own power. M Biasuzzi Stable paid $330,000 (LEX) to secure from breeder Solveig's Racing Partners.

Gingras picked off another with the blue-blooded Tall Dark Stranger colt Ubrute from world champion freshman pacing filly Warrawee Ubeaut, who ground up uncovered to wear down the leader then kicked home in :27.1 to finish off the 1:56 mile over the closing Sneaky Squeaky. Bred by Burke Racing and Crawford Farms, the winner was a $150,000 (LEX) buy for Burke along with regular partners Weaver Brussemi, Hatfield Stable and Phil Collura.

The day came to an end when Andy McCarthy guided Captain Wonderful to a powerful 1:55.1 win over Caviart Anders with a :27.1 final quarter. Tony Alagna trains the winner, a $200,000 (LEX) buy for Rob Leblanc, Pryde Stables, Brad Grant, and breeder Big Al's Stable.

Hohneck receives first invite to $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot

The $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot is just two months away on Sept. 13 and track management has been hard at work assembling an all-star field for the 2025 edition. Accepting the first invitation is French superstar Hohneck.

"It's a legendary race," said owner/trainer Philippe Allaire on the reason he decided to accept the invite.

The famed French trainer won't be making his first trip to the MGM Yonkers International Trot or the United States, but it has been a long time since he last competed on these shores. He sent out Jeanbat Du Vivier in the 2005 Nat Ray at The Meadowlands and his prior appearances came way back in 1979 and 1980 as a 19- and 20-year-old driver behind Hillion Brillouard back when the International Trot was contested at Roosevelt Raceway.

Hohneck, the 2023 Elitlopp winner, finished third in that marquee race at Solvalla in Sweden on May 25 this year. It was just his fourth on-track appearance of 2025 and Allaire is planning to compete in the Prix Washington on July 12 and Grand Prix de Vitesse at Argentan on Aug. 9 prior to sending his 8-year-old son of Royal Dream to New York.

Hohneck owns a stellar career record of 23 wins in 75 starts and nearly $3 million in earnings. While he has won at the 1¼ mile distance of the MGM Yonkers International Trot, racing on a half-mile track is going to be a new experience.

"He has only been on 1,000 meter tracks but he should handle the 800 meter track at Yonkers perfectly," said Allaire.

For Allaire, the experience of coming to New York and hopefully coming away victorious could be the perfect ending to the career of his champion trotter as Hohneck is reported to be retiring at the end of the year.

"It's possible, Hohneck will tell us," said Allaire when asked if the MGM Yonkers International Trot would be the final start of Hohneck's career.

One idea Allaire wouldn't rule out was extending his North American tour to the Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park if Hohneck were to have success at Yonkers Raceway and was invited.

"It's not impossible," said the trainer.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot was raced consecutively from 1959 to 1993, again in 1995 and from 2015 to 2024 (no race was held in 2020 and 2021 during COVID). Hohneck will look to become the first French-bred to win the race since Reve d'Udon in 1990. Last year the Swedish-bred Jiggy Jog was victorious with Dexter Dunn driving for the now American-based trainer Ake Svanstedt.

Additional invitees will be announced in the coming weeks as track officials prepare for the MGM Yonkers International Trot. The special afternoon card will also feature a pair of $200,000 invitationals for older trotters and pacers.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT). Please note there is also a 10-race program slated to take place on Wednesday (July 16).

OHHA to live stream races from Ottawa County Fair on July 13-14

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will continue its 2025 Ohio county fair racing season with live-streaming coverage of a two-day meet from the Ottawa County Fair in Oak Harbor, OH, today and Monday (July 13-14).

Coverage of this evening's 12-race card begins at 5 p.m. Coverage of Monday's nine-race card begins at 6 p.m.

The live streams can be seen on the OHHA's Facebook page and YouTube channel as well as HarnessRacingOhio.com under the "View Races" tab.

The current pacing track record for the Ottawa County Fair is 1:55.2 set by Tattler's Jet in 2006. The trotting track record is 1:58.2 set by Need A Winner in 2018 and matched by I Get It in 2022.

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association will livestream over 125 race cards from 66 county and independent fairs this year.

A complete Ohio county fair racing schedule is available at HarnessRacingOhio.com.

Small-town hosts big day of fun for a great cause

This afternoon (July 13), families and racing fans alike are invited to a one-of-a-kind community event that combines fast-paced harness racing, pint-sized ponies, and family fun – all in support of the Huron Heat Girls' Hockey Organization.

Hosted at Clinton Raceway, the event promises something for everyone:

- Miniature Horse Race – Cheer on the little legends as they dash down the track in a special exhibition race that's as heartwarming as it is entertaining including the following drivers and horses:

Regan Etsell and Titan Ready
Rory MacInnis and Queenie
Cami Saftic and Polly Pockets
Macie Mayhew and Silver
Elizabeth White and Spotted Princess
Chase Graham and Firefly
Jett Jamieson and Quinton
Lucas House and Cinnamon

• Kids Day Activities – Face painting, bouncy castles, crafts and giveaways will keep young fans smiling all afternoon.

• Live Harness Racing – Enjoy the thunder of hooves and the thrill of the sulky with a full card of races!

All proceeds from the day will support the Huron Heat, helping cover equipment, and development costs for this growing and hardworking girls' hockey program. Community spirit is at the heart of this event, and the partnership between local horsepeople and hockey families is what makes it special.

"Small-town sports, whether it's racing or hockey, rely on strong community support," said Jessica Carnochan, marketing manager. "This event is about giving families a day to remember while supporting the next generation of athletes – on ice and on track."

Gates open at noon, with the first harness race scheduled for 1:30 p.m. and kids' activities running from 1-4 p.m. Admission is FREE, with additional fundraising activities including a 50/50 draw, BBQ, and silent auction. Live race program and information can be found at www.clintonraceway.com.

Come out and enjoy a day full of speed, smiles, and small-town pride – all for a great cause.

Twin B Tuffenuff looks to defend Governor's Plate title

Governor's Plate Week racing kicks off this afternoon (July 13) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway and Twin B Tuffenuff will start his journey to defend his Governor's Plate title in elimination action.

Today's card has 12-dashes starting at 1 p.m., with four pivotal eliminations this afternoon, including a pair of $9,000 dashes to decide the field for Saturday's 57th edition of the $50,000 Governor's Plate, presented by Summerside Chrysler Dodge, along with two $7,000 eliminations for the Ruby Chappell Memorial Open Mares Series.

Race 8 is the first $9,000 Governor's Plate elimination as defending champion Twin B Tuffenuff snags post 3 for driver Gilles Barrieau, trainer Ron Matheson and owner Pat Morris of Charlottetown.

His rivals for the top four spots to advance to the final are Island Beach Boy (to be driven by Adam Merner, post 1), Middleton Terror (David Dowling, post 2), Tony Too Tall (Myles Heffernan, Sr., post 4), Bee Two Bee (Jason Hughes, post 5), Roll Em (Marc Campbell, post 6), Little Leroy (Ken Murphy, post 7) and Saulsbrook Ian (Corey MacPherson, post 8).

Save America will see if perfection can continue in the second elimination in race 12 to determine the other four finalists for the $50,000 Governor's Plate final. The Jamie Smith trainee has been flawless on the East Coast with three straight wins on PEI, for driver Murphy and owner Thestable.ca. The son of Captaintreacherous will leave from post 2 this afternoon.

Also in the field are All Bets On Tex (Hughes, post 1), Like A Glove (Marc Whebbby, post 3), Bounty Hunter (Kenny Arsenault, post 4), Blood Money (Barrieau, post 5), Merigo Magic (Merner, post 6), Miki Shan N (Marc Campbell, post 7) and High Voltage Deo (MacPherson, post 8).

The first $7,000 Ruby Chappell Memorial Open Mares elimination is in race 6 with Freaky Fanny the top choice from post 5 for trainer/driver Darren Crowe over top challengers Sugar Bowl (Barrieau) and Woodmere Kennedie (Marc Campbell).

The second Chappell elimination is in race 10 with Rosetown Mary (MacPherson) getting respect off the rail over seven rivals including Plain Jane (Barrieau) and Redland Misspretty (Paul Langille).

Governor's Plate Week continues with racing every evening from Tuesday through Friday at 6 p.m., culminating in the Governor's Plate final card set for 4 p.m., on Saturday (July 19).

Watch and wager live through HPIBET.COM, and visit the player portal at Redshores.ca for more info.
