Legendary Hanover, the 2-1 second choice, was fifth as the field reached the opening quarter in :26.2, but on top in a :53.2 half after a big move on the backstretch with driver James MacDonald.

He reached three-quarters in 1:20.2 and was unthreatened the rest of the way as he won for the fourth time in seven starts this season for trainer Anthony Beaton.

"I don't know what to say right now," Beaton said. "It's pretty awesome.

"He earned this race tonight. James made a bold move, but it was the winning move in the end. He just showed what kind of caliber horse he is."

MacDonald admitted the race didn't develop the way he imagined prior to heading onto the track.

"It was exactly what I didn't want to do before the race, but he's a big, strong horse and sometimes he likes to drag me around the track," MacDonald said. "That's kind of what he came up with tonight. I know he's got the gears to do it. The second he cleared, it wasn't like, 'Oh, this is too much.' It was like he was going to jog. He's a good horse.

"I wanted to give him a shot, try to put him in position to win. Even if you've got to overdrive a little bit, that's just how it goes in these big races. You don't want to be at the back saying, 'What if?' I'm just so proud of the horse, so proud of Tony. I'm just thrilled."

Legendary Hanover came into the Meadowlands Pace final off a 1:48 win, with a :24.4 last quarter, in his elimination last week.

"The horse really solidified last week what he was, and what we've always thought he was," MacDonald said.

MacDonald and Beaton both won the Meadowlands Pace for the first time.

"I never dreamed in a million years I'd be winning races like this," said MacDonald, who has won Canada's Driver of the Year Award the past three years. "It was a thrill for me to just watch these races, so to be in them and win them, it's really special."

Nearing the finish line, MacDonald gave several celebratory fist pumps.

"A couple times [in the past] he would get lost on the front, but he didn't feel like that tonight," MacDonald said about his colt. "He was all business. And when he's all business, he's a scary animal. I'm just so happy to be along for the ride."

Legendary Hanover has won 10 of 16 career races and earned $710,959 for owners Eric Good, West Wins Stable, and Mark Dumain. The son of Huntsville—Lillian Hanover was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and sold for $260,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"I've said from day one that Legendary is a phenomenal animal," Beaton said. "Nijinsky is a phenomenal animal. There were others, too, in there. I'm just glad that James took the shot when he did, and the horse did the rest."

While Legendary Hanover's time was impressive, Beaton had other numbers on his mind when asked about the stakes-record clocking.

"We're just happy to win, whether it's the fastest, the slowest, as long as the checks keep coming in," he said.

Legendary Hanover paid $6.00 to win.

FIVE MILL! WHAT A THRILL: A total of $5,136,129 was wagered on the 14-race Pace Night program, the biggest night of business in the sport during 2024, and the third time in the last five years that wagering cleared the $5-million hurdle on Pace Night.

Wagering on the Meadowlands Pace itself totaled $628,010.

A LITTLE MORE: James MacDonald, the three-time defending O'Brien Award-winning Driver of the Year as the top pilot in Canada, recorded four winners on the Pace Night program to lead the driver colony... After Legendary Hanover won the Meadowlands Pace, there was one winning ticket in the 20-cent Pick-6, which was good for a return of $57,497.22... The biggest 50-cent Pick-4 pool of the year was recorded on races 8 through 11 after $144,968 was pushed through the windows... Racing resumes Friday (July 19) at 6:20 p.m.

Luther has big plans for Skywalker Sea on and off the track

by James Platz

Today's (July 14) card at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel features eight $100,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes contests for 2- and 3-year-old pacers and trotters. Among the freshman distaff pacers that will go to post in the day's 11th race is undefeated homebred Skywalker Sea. Bred and owned by Buckeye Greg Luther, the Downbytheseaside—Pet Walker lass looks to extend her streak after a track record performance last week.

"This is a very special filly because she is going to keep it going for us," Luther said of the freshman. "I can't wait to get a bunch of money on her card and get her bred so that we can get a fourth generation out of the family."

The family begins with grandam Miss Walker, a mare the owner acquired in August 2009. Sired by Aces N' Sevens and out of the Abercrombie mare Chris Walker, Miss Walker made 129 starts, winning 30 times and hitting the board on another 42 occasions. She would earn $132,412 on the track before Luther transitioned her to a broodmare.

"She always had a lot of heart," Luther said. "She wasn't a great racehorse, but she always tried hard for all she had. I always thought that if we could breed her to some good stallions, maybe we would get some great babies out of her. She just had another baby a couple months ago."

Five of Miss Walker's first six foals have reached the winner's circle, led by 25-time winner Nvrpoptdaplugs, a gelded son of Big Bad John with nearly $240,000 on his card and still racing. Pet Walker, the mare's second foal, went unraced at 2 for Luther, but as a 3-year-old, she scored four wins while taking a mark of 1:52. Unfortunately, the Pet Rock filly was retired after only 11 starts due to injury.

"She was one of the better ones," the owner/breeder said. "She actually won a couple of sires stakes and she was the points leader, but she tore a suspensory a week before the final. We had to retire her from racing after that. Pet Walker actually had a medical emergency last year and we lost her."

"[Skywalker Sea] is a very special filly because she is going to keep it going for us. I can't wait to get a bunch of money on her card and get her bred so that we can get a fourth generation out of the family."

~ Greg Luther

Which is what makes Skywalker Sea so special. Luther envisioned Pet Walker producing babies for years to come. She only managed two foals, Skywalker Sea being the last. She has shown in short order that she is the best to come from the breeding program.

"I can actually see the progression of us making the family better generation after generation," Luther said. "Obviously, Skywalker Sea has shown she is by far the best of them here, and she's got a lot left in the tank too."

When Pet Walker was retired, Luther set his sights on breeding her to Downbytheseaside, but the son of Somebeachsomewhere's book was full and closed. He reached out to Diamond Creek initially with no success. Then he tried a different approach.

"When the 'Seasides' first came out, they were very, very high priced," Luther said. "I bought more six-figure Seasides than anyone else. I wanted to breed Pet Walker to Seaside, but his book was full and closed. So, I sent them all of my sale slips and I said, please?"

A spot was found, and when Pet Walker was bred to Downbytheseaside, she caught the first time. The dual-eligible filly was entrusted to Luther's brother, Todd, and this winter she appeared to be a promising young pacer.

"Training down probably halfway through the winter she started showing a little bit of a sign that she was really good," the owner said. "Once she hit 2:10, that's when we could really tell this horse was special. Every time we've trained her and every time we've raced her since then, she's shown a little bit more."

Skywalker Sea turned in two winning qualifiers at Scioto Downs with Brett Miller in the bike. When she made her pari-mutuel debut at Oak Grove on June 24, Yannick Gingras handled the driving duties. Debuting in a $40,000 KYSS leg, the pair got away fifth from the rail but would take command as the field moved to the half. Clicking off quarters of :27.4 and :28.1, Skywalker Sea cruised to a 10-length victory. Last week, Gingras settled in fourth from post 7 and waited to move after a :57 opening half. Producing a :55 back half, the filly won handily by 2½ lengths. The winning time of 1:52 knocked three-fifths of a second off the previous mark for 2-year-old pacing fillies, set by Calgary in 2022.

"I wasn't there, but I guess walking into the winner's circle Yannick told Todd, 'I've got nothing to tell you. She had so much left, there's nothing to change. She's absolutely perfect, just take care of her,'" Greg said. "I've been doing this a long time and it's impressive to me when you hear a driver of that capacity, somebody like Yannick, saying this filly is unbelievable. It's such a great feeling, and it's extra special when you've had the family and it's a homebred."

With an unblemished record, Skywalker Sea has drawn post 5 in the seven-filly field, and is the heavy favorite. The freshman has the brothers Luther in unfamiliar waters, where the challenge is managing the season to take advantage of all opportunities. They plan to race the filly in Kentucky and Ohio enough that, should she continue her success, she will be eligible to the sires stakes finals in both jurisdictions. They are also trying to protect the filly and minimize her starts with the end of the season and the Breeders Crown in mind. The owner is equally intent on continuing the legacy started with Miss Walker.

"She'll let us know as we're going," Greg said. "Of course, I want to try to be cautious with her. I've told my brother, anything that happens, no matter what, save this filly. She is the most important thing I have right now. I want to keep this family going. We're trying to do right by her and enjoy the ride."

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Jimmy Cruise, Jr. reminisces about his incredible life in harness racing

by Murray Brown

Jimmy Cruise, Jr. is now 75. Like many people of that age or older, this scribe most definitely included, he realizes that his best days are behind him.

Cruise's best days were spent pursuing a successful career in harness racing.

"I miss it terribly," he said. "I loved everything about it, most especially the horses, but also the people, the stables, the grooms, everything about the sport which contributed to my having what I considered to have been a very fulfilling life and career.

"Unfortunately, a series of serious health issues have prevented me from continuing in the sport, even on a limited basis. Nowadays, I live in Eustis, FL not too far from three fairly major training centers Spring Garden Ranch, The Burke Center and the Pinske family's Southern Oaks. This proximity to the training centers allows me to get my 'horse fix,' but only as a spectator and only in the off season.

"But the Internet allows me to keep up with the sport. I follow the races, the horses, the horsemen, everything I can learn about the game."

Cruise was particularly looking forward to last night's (July 13) racing at The Meadowlands.

"What a fantastic card they have put together," he said.

On a hot summer's day, both in Florida and on Long Island, these two old guys got together to reminisce.

You were almost literally born into the game. You spent the bulk of your childhood at Roosevelt Raceway in summer and fall and spring, and winter in California at Del Mar, Santa Anita and Hollywood Park.

"Yes, indeed. I was blessed. I first sat behind a horse when I was 3 years old sitting on my dad's lap. I first jogged one when I was “One of the things I think that dad [Jimmy Cruise, Sr.] was most remembered for is that I believe he was the very first driver to win six races on a single card. He did it at Roosevelt with all six winners coming from his stable. The lowest priced one paid $9.80. One of the things I remember most about that evening was that dad liked his chances with two of the winners. He sent up bets on them. The guy that he sent, disappeared never to be heard from or seen again.”

~ Jimmy Cruise, Jr.

10. I began training when I was 12. For someone who wanted to become a horseman, I suppose I was the luckiest guy alive. Not only was I born and raised with horses, but I was fortunate enough to be the son of the man that I consider to have been among, if not, the greatest horseman that ever lived.”

Many people today, might not recognize your dad's name, Jimmy Cruise, as being synonymous with equine greatness, but ask any of his contemporaries or those who witnessed his amazing Hall of Fame career. The response from them would be that there were few of his equal.

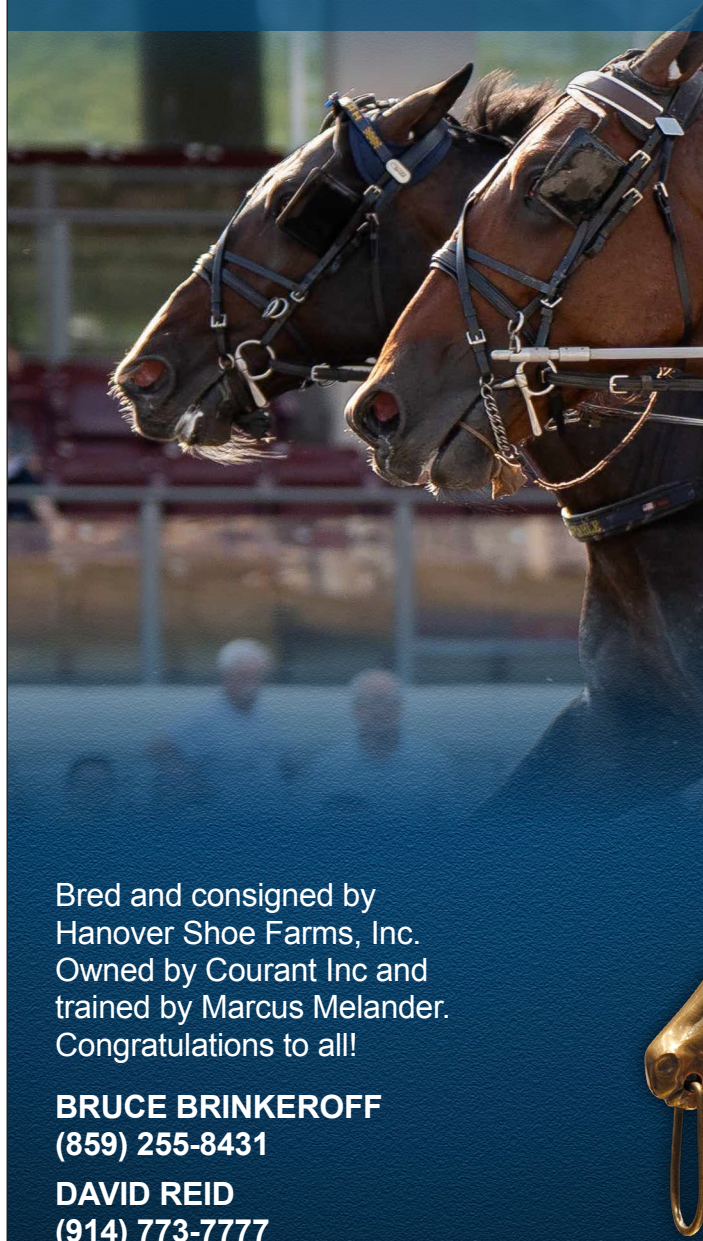

“So true. He was a one-of-a-kind figure. He probably did not get the publicity of some of his contemporaries like the Haughtons, Dancers, Simpsons and Millers, but he didn't ever want it. When it came down to its component parts, Jimmy Cruise was a simple, hard-working farm boy who loved horses and horse racing. He was a genial figure on the racetrack. He addressed just about everyone as "Pardner." I have never in my entire life heard anybody utter a negative word about him."

What was it about your dad that made him as great a horseman as he was?

"Being his son, he was a tough act to follow. If it came down to just a few words, those words would be that he utilized common sense in all he did, with both people and his horses. With his horses, he tried to place himself in their skin. He did things with them that no other horseman to that time had done previously.

"Of prime importance to him was in feeding them well. His was the first stable where they fed great alfalfa hay almost exclusively. His was the first stable to put some baking soda in the horses' water to aid in their digestion. He had great grooms. People who would work their butts off for him, our owners and most importantly their horses. His owners, primarily the Finklestein family were extremely loyal as he was loyal and honest with them. He was the first to turn out his horses to relieve the boredom of being cooped up in a stall.

"[Magician] was by far the greatest horse that I ever trained. He was selling close to the end of the sale. His dam was zero-for-five at getting them to the races. I had seen his video and man was I ever impressed. I figured that if he sold cheap enough, I would buy him for myself. I bought him for $10,000."

"When we were at Del Mar in California, he would break his horses to saddle and we would ride them in the surf of the Pacific Ocean. Dad was a great believer in the healing effects of salt water with sore or lame horses."

There are and were those who believed that Jimmy Cruise stood alone when it came to helping to make a sore horse sound and getting that horse to throw away its lameness when it raced. What were his secrets?

"There are those who think it was because dad had a whole bunch of secret potions and liniments that he used on the legs of his horses. He did have some of them. They probably helped somewhat, but in retrospect I believe that it was the utilization of common sense more than it was the given product. The liniment might have helped of course, but I feel it was more the rubbing of the legs for hours and hours to keep the circulation going that in so doing increased the healing process."

You almost literally grew up at Roosevelt Raceway during the halcyon days of the sport where harness racing was literally "America's Fastest Growing Sport" and truthfully promoted as such.

"It was heaven on earth, almost literally. It was the number one spot on Long Island. Going to Roosevelt Raceway, especially on a Saturday night, was an event. They regularly drew 40,000-50,000 people. There were nights such as when the Roosevelt International was taking place where the parking lots were so full that you had to walk for what seemed like miles to get in. The windows were so busy that if you wanted to be sure of getting your bet in, you had better get in line immediately after the conclusion of the previous race.

"The Cloud Casino was the great dining room at the track. You had better have made your dinner reservation a week or more earlier if you wanted a reservation. It was the place to be on Long Island.

I often think of how great it would be if Roosevelt were still there operating as a racino instead of, or maybe in addition to, Yonkers Raceway...

"The backstretch at Roosevelt was beautiful. It was a world unto itself. Every stable would be looking to outdo its neighbor both on the racetrack and in the appearance of its shedrow. There was a great sense of camaraderie among the horsemen and their families. We worked together and often played and socialized together. This is something that has been lost today due to almost all racetracks having shut down their backstretch areas."

Let's talk about some of your dad's and your greatest feats and horses.

"One of the things I think that dad was most remembered for is that I believe he was the very first driver to win six races on a single card. He did it at Roosevelt with all six winners coming from his stable. The lowest priced one paid $9.80. One of the things I remember most about that evening was that dad liked his chances with two of the winners. He sent up bets on them. The guy that he sent, disappeared never to be heard from or seen again.

"The horses, there were so many good ones, most of them who might have had physical issues which they overcame when they raced."

Mr Budlong: "As good and as solid a free for all pacer as there was at the time."

Earl Laird: "He was my all-time favorite. I was his caretaker. My greatest thrill with him was in winning the United Nations Trot. There were times with him when he would get so lame in his stifles, that he could barely walk. But, show him the starting gate and he would throw it all away and become the great racehorse that he was. As a yearling, dad was ready to give him away. 'You can have him,' he said. 'Just give me the first $500 he wins, if he wins it.' He found no takers."

Frank T. Ace: "Dad bought him at the Old Glory Sale for $15,000. Within a little more than a year he was racing and winning the free-for-alls."

Bud T Ace: "This horse was involved in a terrible barn fire. He lost two ears and an eye. They were going to put him down. Dad thought he could save him and he did, using lime therapeutically. He made a still useful racehorse out of him."

Kash Minbar: "Yearlings never excited dad too much. He had this horse as a yearling. He made a deal with John Schroeder. Schroeder was to race him in the New York Sires Stakes at 2 and 3. Dad would get him afterwards. He did and became a great free for all trotter."

Magician: "He was by far the greatest horse that I ever trained. He was selling close to the end of the sale. His dam was zero for five at getting them to the races. I had seen his video and man was I ever impressed. I figured that if he sold cheap enough, I would buy him for myself. I bought him for $10,000.

"Now I had to figure out how I was going to pay for him. In the end Billy Augenstein called. He had bought a few other yearlings and said he would take him as well. He ended up earning over $3.2 million."

The big gamble

by Trey Nosrac

BLACK SCREEN TO IRIS FADE IN.

INTERIOR:

EVENING:

Return to a low-rent tavern. Yellowish lighting. Sparsely populated. Two 60-ish males sit on adjoining bar stools facing the mirror behind the colorful liquor bottles on the shelves. The camera is on the backs of two unnamed men and will remain the primary shot for the entire scene. Although we do not directly see their faces, we see them over their shoulders, reflected in the mirror behind the rows of liquor bottles, and we toggle back and forth to their faces as they speak.

One man is short and stocky with a fringe of greying hair around a shiny dome. He is wearing a bright blue Hawaiian shirt with green palm leaves. The other man is wearing a tan khaki sportscoat, glasses with heavy black frames, and speaks in a high-pitched voice. The two men barely move during this scene. The background for their conversation consists of traditional bar sounds, voices murmuring, and clinking glasses.

BLUE SHIRT MAN

Let me get this straight: You, a guy who doesn't gamble on horse racing and doesn't know a trotter from a giraffe, guarantees, flat out guarantees, to improve my odds of winning money gambling on horses?

TAN JACKET MAN

Correct. I know mathematics and money. After all, I worked as an accountant (leans towards Blue Shirt man and speaks dramatically) in a business where everyone counts.

BLUE MAN

(Drops chin to chest)

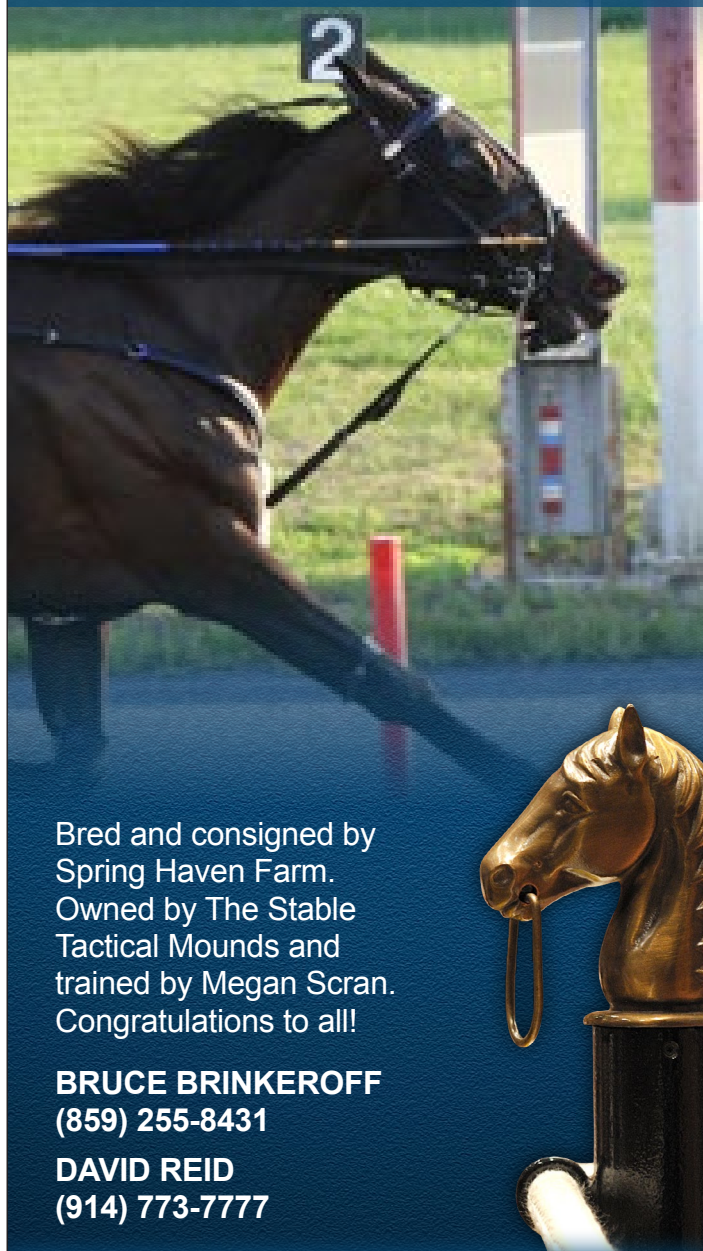

How many times have you used that?

TAN MAN

Too often. Let's review your basics. You said you gamble $100 each week on harness horse racing, but you skip two weeks for holidays for a total of $5,000 earmarked for wagering on horse racing each year.

BLUE MAN

Correct.

TAN MAN

And you never turned a profit?

BLUE MAN

No. However, I didn't lose all $5,000 in 1994, 1999, 2006, and 2020. At the end of those years, I still had gambling money in my account. I consider those my winning years.

TAN MAN

That's not winning.

BLUE MAN

It felt like winning.

TAN MAN

According to your statistics, what was your best year?

BLUE MAN

Easy, 2006, before computers kicked in. I wound up with a little over three grand in my horse racing gambling stash, a thrilling experience. I took a Christmas cruise on my winnings.

TAN MAN

You took a cruise on your not lost money.

BLUE MAN

It's a perspective thing. I don't hear your plan to remedy my fiscal horse-related headwinds.

TAN MAN

Okay, let's talk about the money part of wagering on horses. Let's start with basics like takeouts and exotics. What do you know about them?

BLUE MAN

(Pause)

Well, takeouts are like a guy who holds a poker party in his basement and before every hand says, "Hey folks, toss some cash into this empty fishbowl on the table for my trouble, for booze, snacks, broken furniture, and keeping an eye on the poker chips."

TAN MAN

Of course, you realize that different tracks and wagers have different takeout amounts. Would you rather pay your poker host a dime per hand or a quarter per hand?

BLUE MAN

Look, the whole takeout thing is a moving target. Every track has a way of making meatloaf, and they change the recipe. Takeout is like a crazy uncle who sits in the corner at a big family affair and takes home a slab of meatloaf. You'll never understand that guy.

TAN MAN

That crazy uncle is taking your money.

BLUE MAN

Maybe he needs it! In my twisted way, I feel like it's a donation to the sport. I'm a sharing kind of guy.

TAN MAN

Well, your fiscal laissez-faire attitude is one of the factors affecting your deficits.

BLUE MAN

Fifteen per cent, 20 per cent, 25 per cent - what's the difference?

TAN MAN

Five and 10 per cent.

BLUE MAN

Here's the thing, takeout only comes into play when you win. Therefore, it's not much of a factor for me. My race wagers are pretty much 100 per cent takeout. There would be a racetrack on every corner if there were enough guys like me.

TAN MAN

Let's look at exotic wagering. Do you think the takeout is higher on a simple wager to win or an exotic?

BLUE MAN

The takeout is probably higher on exotics because if a mook like me ever won a big exotic, I would have so many endorphins ricocheting around my head that the government taxes and the racetrack takeout would not cross my mind.

TAN MAN

This stuff is essential.

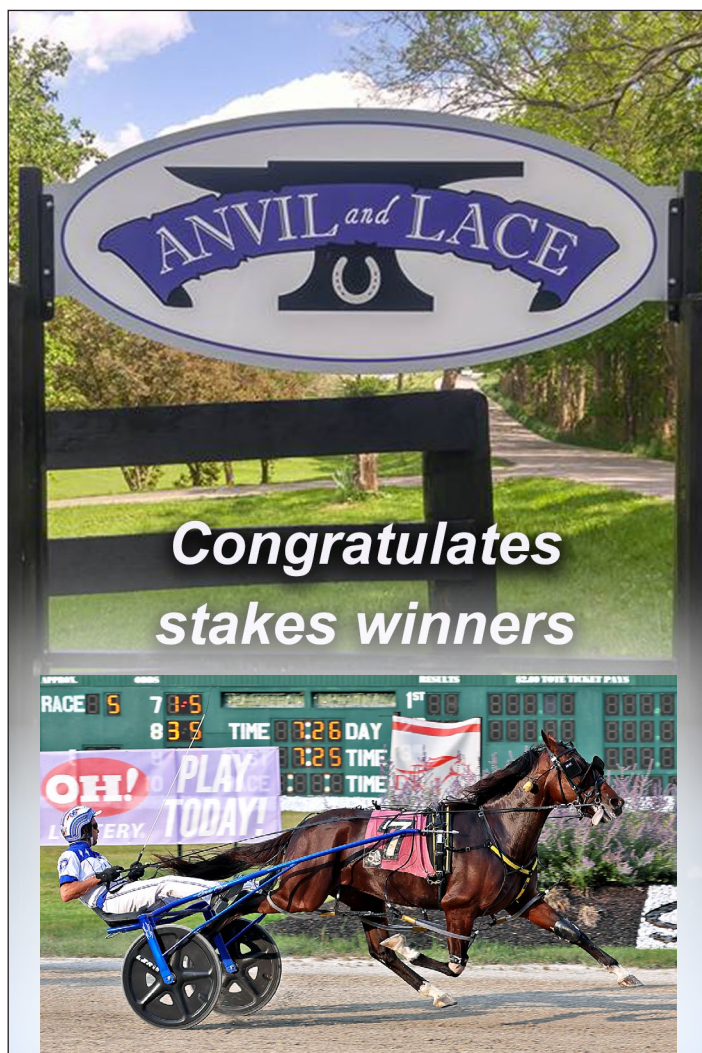

BLUE MAN

(Waves his hand dismissively)

When you overthink things, they ain't as much fun. Anyway, we are wandering in the weeds. Where's your big plan for cutting my losses and breaking my 30-year losing streak?

TAN MAN

I propose a straightforward and ruthlessly effective plan. Each week, you take your $100 earmarked for gambling and put it in a 12-month certificate of deposit. At the end of the year, you will be in the black.

BLUE MAN

Oh, come on! That's so weak! I'm disappointed.

TAN MAN

Hang on. I'm not finished. On the expiration date of the CD, you put the interest under your pillow and take the $5,000 you have amassed to gamble on a single, carefully selected race at a track that currently offers a very low takeout. You study that race so hard your eyeballs bleed. You make your wager.

BLUE MAN

Put it all on ONE race?

TAN MAN

All of it; you can play that single race any way you want. I would make a win and place a show wager to give myself a little wiggle room. Or you might want to play an exotic wager dozens of ways. To help racing, physically go to the racetrack to place the bet. Win or lose, you start saving for next year's big wager.

BLUE MAN

Wow. That's an intriguing suggestion, sort of the Big Bang Theory. I might miss the daily grind, but the big play day would be AWESOME. And the daily race programs I would not need to buy could probably let me buy a boat or something.

TAN MAN

Your chance for a yearly profit would increase dramatically. I can do the math and run you a few spreadsheets.

BLUE MAN

That's not necessary. I get your drift. I might genuinely win money on these annual mega bets.

TAN MAN

It would take nerves of steel and severe discipline, but as you said, the experience would be a perspective thing.

BLUE MAN

A five-grand wager for me might be a medical thing.

They clink beer glasses.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES

OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Amanda Fine is chasing her dreams

by Victoria Howard

Trainer Amanda Fine is living the dream. Following in her father, trainer Marty Fine's footsteps, the 27-year-old Ontarian is making quite a name of her own. You can say Amanda is sort of "the new kid on the block." Since she went on her own in 2019, Amanda has been a force to be reckoned with.

But this passion isn't new to Amanda. Ever since she was 2 years old, she would rather spend time in a barn than doing what most other youngsters do at that age – such as playing with dolls or toy horses. Amanda had "real" horses to play with.

“As a young child, I grew up admiring Casie [Coleman]. Her success is amazing, but most of all [I admire] the care and true love she has for her horses. I respect and look up to her so much.”

~ Amanda Fine

During his career, her father Marty had a lot of success as a standardbred trainer and now his pride and joy is making him one proud dad.

When she got older, Amanda took the valuable advice that her father gave which was, “Never question anything, just sit and watch,” and she not only listened but she ran with it. And it’s definitely paying off, for as of the time of the writing of this story, Amanda’s stable is “red hot,” for in 12 starts, her four-legged kids have won nine times. Quite an accomplishment for a veteran trainer, let alone a newbie.

But her father wasn’t the only parent in the sport, as Amanda’s mother, Van Till, was also involved. Although Van wanted her daughter to go to college and get an education like most parents do, Amanda opted to make a career in what she loved the best, working with standardbreds.

Right after graduating from high school Amanda worked alongside her father, until deciding to spread her wings and go out on her own. And it has paid off.

Today, Amanda is traveling from track-to-track to race her horses, competing at Tioga, Mohegan Sun Pocono and when she goes back home to Canada she races at Mohawk.

Call it a coincidence or fate, but Taylor Lane Action was the first horse Amanda got to paddock for her father and years later Taylor’s son, PL Ozzy would be in Amanda’s barn.

Today, among the seven horses in her stable, there are several superstars, such as High Voltage Deo, Lou’s Sassin and Eternally Hanover.

“I have owned High Voltage Deo and Eternally Hanover since they were 2-year-olds and I am so proud of both of them,” Amanda said.

Her all-time favorite racehorse is Alexa’s Jackpot, whom Amanda took care of since he was a 3-year-old.

“Alexa’ is now 14-years-old and although he is retired from racing, the big boy still loves to hit the trails for an adventure,” Amanda said. "He was the first horse I truly bonded with and taught me so much. We created wonderful memories together and I will forever be grateful.

"He was my first horse that I took care of that won in 1:48. He was always up to share whatever snacks I brought that day for lunch. Pepperoni pizza and mozzarella sticks were his favorite.

"My father really trained him and I was his personal caretaker. Alexa took me on some adventures as we traveled to Lexington and other tracks. Jackpot is tattooed on my body, for he's a once in a lifetime horse."

Whether racing in Pennsylvania or New York, Amanda has her go-to drivers.

"I own percentages of the horses in my barn and race mostly at Pocono or Tioga, using Matt Kakaley or George Napolitano," she said.

The fastest horses Amanda has trained would be High Voltage Deo or PL Ozzy.

"Mowgli got me my first ever track record in a stake event and Top Hill was just so tough and honest on the racetrack who took a mark of 1:52 before heading to the breeding shed," she said. "PL Ozzy won my first race at The Meadowlands for me. It was so exciting and we were all beyond thrilled."

Amanda has learned about the business working alongside her father.

"He taught me so much, but the greatest gift of all was being able to enjoy it with him together," she said. "It's a passion we both share, and we are blessed at doing it together. Both my father and mother are my biggest supporters and I could not ask for better people beside me.

"I am hoping to expand my stable and keep chasing my dreams and passion for the horses and perhaps someday be in the same league as my idols Casie [Coleman] and Nancy [Takter]. And, of course, to continue making my parents proud of me in the sport."

"Winning is the ultimate goal, but winning with the people you love is an even bigger satisfaction."

Amanda is hoping to someday be listed in the class of her favorite female horse trainers, such as fellow Canadian Casie Coleman or Nancy Takter.

"As a young child, I grew up admiring Casie," Amanda said. "Her success is amazing, but most of all [I admire] the care and true love she has for her horses. I respect and look up to her so much.

"And Nancy is another female trainer I admire. I think she's phenomenal and enjoy following her success on the Grand Circuit. To be able to share her success with her family is for sure something I hope to share with my family one day.

SIRES STAKES
REPORT

Hidalgo stays unbeaten as NJSS kicks off at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Hidalgo, a $600,000 purchase at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's 2023 yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA, continued to return on his connections' considerable investment Friday night (July 12) at The Meadowlands by remaining unbeaten in two lifetime starts on an evening that saw nine $25,000 leg one divisions of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait.

A Ron Burke trainee, Hidalgo sat a pocket trip in the second of three splits for colt and gelding trotters as Go Boom exploded away from post 8 in the eight-horse field to lead at the quarter in :28, half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:26.2.

Driver Yannick Gingras then gave the son of Muscle Hill—Brooklyn the green light, vacating the pocket at the head of the stretch, but after Hidalgo took a couple of wonky steps, Gingras went back in before re-emerging with less than an eighth-of-a-mile to go and trotted on to an easy 1½-length win in a lifetime-best 1:54.1. Go Boom finished second with Camera Man third.

"He was very impressive," said Burke. "He just needs some seasoning."

Wapiti Blue Chip wins PASS at The Meadows in 1:54.2

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Wapiti Blue Chip took control at the quarter and kept right on marching, scoring in a track record 1:54.2 in Friday's (July 12) Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. The mile by the International Moni—Make It Blue Chip gelding is the fastest ever by a freshman gelding trotter at The Meadows, knocking two ticks from the mark established by Real Cool Sam in 2019.

The stake, known as the Hickory Pride, was contested over three divisions, with Meshuggah and Fashion Green — both driven by Dave Palone — taking the other splits.

Once the horses settled from the gate, Braxton Boyd confidently moved Wapiti Blue Chip to the point.

"He raced pretty well his last time out, so I was hoping for the best," said winning trainer Mahlon Martin of his $45,000 yearling purchase. He indicated Wapiti Blue Chip will race primarily in Pennsylvania this season.

Early leader Arrowhead Hanover was second, a half-length back, with Cantab Zette third. Ashley Burslem, Steven Mullen and Gregory Garton own Wapiti Blue Chip.

Meshuggah had shown talent and manners in his sole previous start, but in the Hickory Pride, he was trying to track down a still-strong Elan Hanover in the stretch. Palone was by no means sure he could do it.

"I really didn't know if I would beat him or not; I just wanted my colt to finish up strong," he said. "They were both trotting strong at the wire. I thought, I'm following along with some talent, let's see which one wants to get his nose up first."

It took the entire stretch, but the son of Greenshoe—Starita edged Elan Hanover by a head in 1:55. Big Shoes completed the ticket. Marcus Melander conditions Meshuggah, a $120,000 yearling acquisition, for Courant Inc.

$80,000 PA STALLION SERIES STAKE – 2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROTTERS

In Friday's Pennsylvania Stallion Series, Scudo Hanover, Podico, Manolo Hanover and Credit To Frank each captured a division. Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Ron Burke enjoyed a stakes double with Podico and Credit To Frank.

Winning driver Boyd never had sat behind Scudo Hanover before, so what was his strategy?

"I went back and watched a couple of his replays," Boyd said. "I pretty much saw he was pretty perfect. I got to sneak in the 2-hole leaving, and everything else pretty much took care of itself."

In the stretch, he cruised by the leader, Munster Mash Trick, defeating him by 1¼ lengths in 1:58.1. Non Disclosure was third. Syl King, Jr. trains the International Moni—Shared Past gelding for Keystone Stable.

Wilder collected four wins and Palone three on the 13-race card.

First leg of Buckeye Stallion Series for freshmen pacing colts at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Brett Miller took three divisions of the first leg of Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old colt pacers at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (July 12). Each of the seven splits went for $20,000.

The oddest Miller driven winner was the trotting sired pacing colt, Believe In Tom. The duo snagged the fifth division in 1:53.2. Miller took the Long Tom colt straight to the front and never looked back, setting fractions of :27.4, :57.2 and 1:25.4. The gelding bred and owned by Gerald Mijal came home in :27.3 to win by four lengths over Draco's Storm (Eric Goodell) and Johnny Smash (Austin Hanners). The Steve Novak trainee, out of the Believeinbruiser mare Believe In Waco, started his career a month ago at the Paulding fair, then went to the Marion fair before winning a qualifier at Scioto in 1:53.2.

"I liked him all winter, but being sired by a trotter, we did not stake him to the sire stakes," said Novak. "But there's always next year."

Miller also drove the most striking looking horse when Extra Suds took the sixth division in 1:54.2. The pair got away second, but not content to sit, pulled by the :28 opening quarter. Setting the tempo from there on out, they got to the half in :58 and three-quarters in 1:26.4 before coming home in :27.3 to win by 3¾ lengths. Sky Dogg (Aaron Merriman) was second with Seaing Gray (Trevor Smith) finishing third. Trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. also leases the pinto colt by Lather up who was purchased at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $45,000.

Odds On Valhalla was Miller's first win of the night, taking the second division in 1:54.1. Fond Of Dancin (Smith) took the lead from post 9 and set fractions of :28, :57.2 and 1:25.4. Odds On Valhalla got away fourth and pulled first up, winning by a half-length over Fortunesfool (Tyler Smith); Fond Of Dancin held on for third. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the Yankee Cruiser colt for Odds on Racing and UFO 4.

JBMagic won the first division in 1:52.4 with Luke Hanners up. Trained by Tyler Bates, the gelding by Fear The Dragon took an early lead going to the :27.3 opening quarter, yielded to the 4-5 favorite Mr McDragon (Miller) as the field went to the :57.1 half and 1:25.3 third quarter. Austin Hanners popped the pocket with JBMagic coming out of the last turn to win by four lengths over Mr McDragon; Catch The Express (Ronnie Gillespie) was third. Robert Geist owns JBMagic, a $12,000 Blooded Horse Sale purchase, who prepped for the BSS with a third and a win at two fairs before scoring a 1:56.4 win in a qualifier on July 1.

Butchershop Buck and Dan Noble went gate-to-wire to win the third division in 1:55.1 off fractions of :27.2, :57.4 and 1:26.3. The Onyx Dragon (Goodell) came from seventh to finish second and Go Jim Dandy (Tr. Smith) was third. Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey own the Well Said gelding; Deborah Swartz trains. Butchershop Buck started his career with a third-place finish at the Circleville fair then came right to Scioto for a qualifier and a second in a non-winners of one event.

Overcoming a break in the third quarter, Twin B High Tide persevered to win by 4¼ lengths in 1:53.2 for the mother/son, trainer/driver team of Alicia and Austin Hanners. Leaving from post 5, Twin B High Tide went to the lead and tripped the beam in :29 and :58.2. Going towards the three-quarters, Johnny Up (Chris Lems) made the front with a rush and was well in front with the timer reading 1:26.3. Into the last turn, Twin B High Tide made the break trying to reel the race leader in. The 1-5 favorite re-rallied to win over Johnny Up; Southern Rockfest (L. Hanners) was third. Twin B High Tide, a Downbytheseaside $20,000 Harrisburg purchase, is owned by Hanners Racing.

My First Fire took the seventh and last division in 1:53.2. Coming off the rail to sit in the 2-hole, Jon I Love Dat (Kayne Kauffman) got to the quarter in :27.2. De Dragon (L. Hanners) pulled from third to take the lead going under the wire for the first time and hit the half in :56.4. Austin Hanners pulled My First Fire just before the 1:26 third quarter and won by a length and half over De Dragon; Rose Run Ajay (Miller) was third. Greg Luther Racing owns the colt by Catch The Fire who was a $35,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase. After winning his first two qualifiers, My First Fire broke his maiden on July 5 in 1:56.3.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. Trotting and pacing colts impress in Indiana Sire Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Two-year-old pacing colts took center stage at Harrah's Hoosier Park with their first leg of Indiana Sire Stakes on Friday (July 12). The 14-race card featured divisions for the freshmen, seeing This JK Rocks and Hopeyaliketheshow each picking up the victories.

Sent off as the 8-5 second-choice in the $67,500 first division, This JK Rocks teamed up with driver Joey Putnam in the scratched down field of seven. Putnam fired This JK Rocks to the front from the gate, quickly clearing the field before the first turn from post 7 to lead at the quarter in :27.4. Even-money favorite Special Pete (LeWayne Miller) was unable to find a seat on the first turn before pushing to the lead on the backstretch. Special Pete was quickly covered-up just prior to the half by Checking Out (Trace Tetrack) at the half in :55.4 as This JK Rocks watched from third. Checking Out brought the field to three-quarters in 1:25.1 with Special Pete and This JK Rocks each beginning to tip off of the rail.

Turning for home, Special Pete moved from second to quickly take command with This JK Rocks beginning to roll to his outside. Surging home late in :26.1, This JK Rocks was able to nail a stubborn Special Pete by a neck on the wire in 1:52, Luxury Virgin (James Yoder) rallied for third.

Trained by Erv Miller, the maiden-breaking victory came in the second career start for This JK Rocks who is owned by Engel Stable of IL LLC., Louis Willinger and Doug Overhiser. Bred by Victory Hill Farm, This JK Rocks is a gelded son of JK Endofanera out of the Rockin Image mare, This Peach Rocks.

Dean Gillette

This JK Rocks (Joey Putnam) winning his Indiana Sire Stakes division for 2-year-old pacing colts in 1:52 on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

The $68,000 second division saw Hopeyaliketheshow put on a speed display with a front-end victory. Driver Devon Tharps and Hopeyaliketheshow pushed the gate away from post 5, quickly grabbing a two-length lead over pocket-sitting Avanti (Brandon Bates) at the quarter in :28.2. Hopeyaliketheshow had things his way to the half in :58.4 while 4-5 favorite Somemore Soaring (Trace Tetrick) moved first-over into third. Hopeyaliketheshow countered on the final turn as Somemore Soaring ratcheted up the pressure to his outside, reaching three-quarters within a half-length of the leader in 1:26.4.

Hopeyaliketheshow responded impressively in the stretch, rebuffing the challenge of Somemore Soaring to open up by four-lengths midway down the lane. Powering home in :26.2 with the ear plugs still in, Hopeyaliketheshow crossed the wire 1½ clear to stop the timer in 1:53.1. Avanti finished second, with Somemore Soaring third. Hopeyaliketheshow paid $7.80 to win.

The victory was the first in the third career start for Hopeyaliketheshow who is trained by Ron Burke for the Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Beast LLC and Knox Services Inc. Hopeyaliketheshow is a son of JK Endofanera out of the Well Said mare, Don't Forget, and was bred by Randy, Tyler and Zane Wilt.

On Thursday (July 11), Indiana Sire Stakes action continued at Harrah's Hoosier Park with round one of six for the 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Three divisions highlighted the 14-race card seeing Twofiftychamp, Tarzan and Eugene The Genius all remain perfect in their young careers.

Twofiftychamp kicked off the stakes action in the $46,000 first division, having to overcome the far outside post 8 in addition to seven foes. Driver Kurt Sugg sent Twofiftychamp immediately to the front off the gate, sprinting two-lengths clear at the quarter in :28.1 with Mehelplingyou (John De Long) in the pocket. Twofiftychamp received a breather to the half in :58.2 before the lead duo began to slip away from the pack on the final turn at three-quarters in 1:27.3.

Turning for home, the top two trotted well clear of the remainder of the field with Twofiftychamp extending his length to 2½ lengths over Mehelplingyou midway down the lane. Twofiftychamp trotted confidently to the wire, stopping the clock in 1:55, 1½ lengths clear of Mehelplingyou. Jenius (Kyle Husted) finished third at 71-1, 8½ lengths back of the leader. Twofiftychamp paid $2.60 to win as the 1-5 favorite.

Trained by Edward Miller for owners Serenity Racing Stables, Twofiftychamp is now two-for-two in his young career. From the first crop of stallion Fiftydallarbill, Twofiftychamp is out of the Possess The Will mare, Peachy Georgia, and was bred by Daniel Lee Stoll.

Tarzan kicked-off his career in style emerging atop an action-packed mile in the $46,000 second division. Leaving from post 3, driver Trace Tetrick settled Tarzan fourth early while Oli Canoli (Doug Rideout) worked to the lead outside of 3-5 favorite Fruit Snacker (Kyle Wilfong) at the quarter in :28.1. Oli Canoli cleared briefly before Kody Kickstand (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) moved from third to take command at the halfway point in :58.2. Tetrick moved Tarzan to the outside on the backstretch, finding the short-lived cover of Fruit Snacker who moved around Oli Canoli before moving back against the pylons in second. Kody Kickstand brought the field to three-quarters in 1:27.3 while Tarzan moved into second on the outside on the final turn.

At the top of the stretch, Kody Kickstand faced a two-pronged attack with Tarzan continuing to press to his outside and Fruit Snacker finding room against the pylons to make it a three-across battle for the lead. Tarzan gained a short advantage in deep-stretch over Fruit Snacker, now under siege from a hard-charging Siesta Sandman (Dennis Duford) who was rolling late on the wide side. Tarzan reached the wire first by a quarter-of-a-length over Siesta Sandman in 1:56.2, Fruit Snacker finished third just a half-length behind the winner. Tarzan returned $11 to win for his backers at the betting windows.

Trained by Erv Miller, Tarzan is owned by Ervin Miller Stable Inc. and Anthony Lombardi. Bred by Keith Plank, Tarzan is a gelded son of You Know You Do out of the Swan For All mare, Foxy Swan.

The $46,500 saw Eugene The Genius trot smartly to victory as he notched his second victory in as many career outings with driver Mike Oosting aboard. Eugene The Genius made quick work of post 7, trotting quickly to the lead and in command of the field of nine at the quarter in :28.3. The 1-5 favorite Starlitfrankenstein (Trace Tetrick) moved from the pocket spot to grab command from Eugene The Genius on the way to the half in :58.2. Starlitfrankenstein trotted to three-quarters in 1:28.2 under a firm hold with Eugene The Genius hot on the Tetrick helmet.

The sprint began in the lane with Eugene The Genius popping the pocket but spotting Starlitfrankenstein 1½ lengths at the eighth pole. Picking up steam at the edge of the toteboard, Eugene The Genius nailed Starlitfrankenstein on the wire by a neck with a :27.3 final quarter to stop the clock in 1:56.1. Sure Did (Jay Cross) rallied to finish third. Eugene The Genius paid $10 to win as the 4-1 second-choice.

Eugene The Genius is trained by Missy Essig for owners Russ Beeman and Charles Weaver. The victory was a lifetime best for the gelded son of Helpisontheway—Muscle Baby Doll who was bred by Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stables.

Quebec champion romps in Breeders Trophy Series

by Steve Wolf for the Quebec Jockey Club

Last year's Quebec-bred champion filly trotter, Sensi Amnesia (Muscle Mass), started off the 2024 stakes season at the Hippodrome 3R (H3R) in Trois-Rivieres in fine fashion, winning in a romp in the opening round of the Breeders Trophy Series on Friday (July 12).

There were three divisions of the series for 3-year-old Quebec-bred colt and filly trotters.

The lone division for fillies was the fifth race with a purse of $10,000. And pretty much from the start, the race belonged to Sensi Amnesia and trainer/driver Marie-Claude Auger.

Last year's champion, winning the $55,000 final at H3R, Sensi Amnesia was sent out after the lead from post 5 for Auger and they took it away from All She Wrote (Jocelyn Gendron) by the opening quarter mile in :29.4.

Sensi Amnesia held the field at bay, cruising by the half mile in :59.2 up seven lengths and the three-quarters in 1:29.1, up by nine lengths. She never slowed down and ended up crushing the field by seven open lengths in 1:59.3. MVPS Daughter (Jerome Lombart) was second with HP Agathe (Pascal Berube) third.

It was a lifetime mark for Sensi Amnesia and her second win this season. She was bred by Auger, who co-owns the filly with Catheline Pelletier, and paid just $2.10 to win.

In the $7,500 fourth race first division of the Breeders Trophy Series, driver Auger pulled off a classic move on the backstretch with race favorite Captain PV (Wheeling N Dealin) and then tore away from the field for an easy victory.

The race began with Last Try and owner/breeder/trainer/driver Jerome Lombart going right to the early lead and forcing Captain PV to take a tuck into the 2-hole as they sped to the opening quarter in :29.3. Meanwhile, Wild Dream Men (Guy Gagnon), who broke before the start and was last, had regrouped and came first-over. They caught the field as Last Try led to the half mile in 1:01.1.

Once they straightened out down the backstretch, Wild Dream Men was gaining on the outside when Auger backed out of the 2-hole with Captain PV and swung three-wide and went right by Wild Dream Men and Just Try by the three-quarters in 1:31.3.

Then it was Captain PV and Auger pulling away from the field and winning in a romp by 7¾ lengths in 2:00.3. Wild Dream Men was second with Spin For Life (Robert Shepherd) third.

It was the third straight win for Captain PV, who is trained and co-owned by Serge Nadeau with the stable of Y Corriveau, Inc. He paid $2.90 to win.

In the seventh race second division for the colts, Bandura (Auger) shot to the early lead and was up by six lengths at the opening quarter in :29.3.

Already on the move first-over from the start, Paradise Moni (International Moni) and driver Pascal Berube started marching up to tangle with Bandura to the half mile in 1:02.2 and to the three-quarters in 1:32 with neither horse backing off.

Taking the lead on the final turn, Paradise Moni then had to dig in and hold off the late charge of Drinklikehenry (William Roy) to win by a length in 2:02. Hercules (Stephane Brosseau) was third.

It was the third win of the season for Paradise Moni, who is trained by Marie Grimard for the Maguire Inc. stable and paid $5.60 to win.

Track notes: Both Auger and Berube each scored a driving triple and Roy had a driving double. Marc-Andre Simoneau had a training double. Live racing resumes today (July 14) at H3R with a 10-race program starting at noon featuring the opening round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old colt and filly pacers. There are four divisions, two each for colts and fillies, plus a well-matched field in the 10th race preferred-handicap pace. For more information and free race programs, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.

Cowgirl Hanover stays undefeated with NYSS win at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Cowgirl Hanover improved to three-for-three in her career and came up just two-fifths of a second short of the track record for a 2-year-old pacing filly when she won the second of two $74,500 New York Sire Stakes divisions on Thursday night (July 11) at MGM Yonkers Raceway in 1:53.3. Earlier on the program, Send It Down Slim prevailed in 1:56.2.

Shes A Streaker (Yannick Gingras) worked most of a :27.2 opening quarter to get by Bronx Mixer (Mark MacDonald) to take command, and then once she had the top, Shes A Streaker would back down the half to :57.2. Watching that from third was Cowgirl Hanover (Scott Zeron), and Zeron would bring her to the outside before Shes A Streaker got to three-quarters in 1:25.3.

On the final bend Cowgirl Hanover moved up to get side-by-side with Shes A Streaker and then Cowgirl Hanover forged her way by early in the stretch drive. From there Cowgirl Hanover opened up to the wire, defeating Shes A Streaker by two lengths despite suffering broken equipment. Bronx Mixer ended up third.

A Huntsville filly bred by Hanover Shoe Farms Inc., Cowgirl Hanover is trained by Jared Bako for owner Ny Seb Inc. An $85,000 buy at last year's Standardbred Horse Sale, Cowgirl Hanover has earned $116,500 to go with her pair of victories and paid $3.90 to win as the 4-5 second choice. She keyed a $7.20 exacta and a $12.60 trifecta.

Send It Down Slim (MacDonald) made it look easy back in the opening flight as she led the way through fractions of :29.2, :59.3 and 1:28.2 on her way to a 3¼-length win over pocket-sitter Chanceoflightning (Jordan Stratton). Lonely Ghost (Jason Bartlett) finished in the third spot.

Another daughter of Huntsville, Send It Down Slim is trained by Ray Schnittker for owner Grozcona Racing Stable LLC. She has a summary of 2-0-1 from three appearances, has banked $75,256 and returned $3.70 to win as the favorite. The exacta was worth $8.10 and the trifecta kicked back $22.80.

There were also four $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series events for the rookie pacing fillies, with victories going to:

- Love Trouble (by American Ideal and bred by Winbak Farm, paid $7.30 to win) in 1:58 for driver Jordan Stratton, trainer Tom Fanning and owner Fanning Racing LLC.;

- Fashion Terror (by Huntsville and bred by owner All Star Racing Inc., paid $3.40 to win) in 1:58.3 for driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Mark Ford;

- Courtly Maiden (by Courtly Choice and bred by Winbak Farm, paid $6.20 to win) in 1:58.2 for driver Yannick Gingras, trainer/co-owner Blake MacIntosh and co-owners Hutt Racing Stable and Gilles Landry;

- On Cloud Wine (by Huntsville and bred by Steve Jones and Jonathan Kurnit, paid $2.70 to win) in 1:56.3 for driver Mark MacDonald, trainer/co-owner Ray Schnittker and co-owners Steven Arnold and Nolamaura Racing LLC.

New York Sire Stakes action will continue on Thursdays at MGM Yonkers Raceway through the month, as the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters will compete next week (July 18) and then 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters will be in town on the 25th.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Tactical Mounds blazes a 1:49.4 Miss Versatility score by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

After a third-place finish behind divisional standout Jiggy Jog S in the $112,500 Six Pack on June 29, Tactical Mounds surged back to the winner's circle with a scintillating 1:49.4 lifetime-best mile and her second victory in the Miss Versatility, capturing the $40,000 fourth preliminary leg of the series for trotting mares on Saturday (July 13) at The Meadowlands.

Scott Zeron put Tactical Mounds in play from the outset, pressing at the pegs to string HP Mama B (driven by Louis-Philippe Roy) out through a :26.2 first quarter before yielding to draft briefly in the pocket. Tactical Mounds made her move to the lead with nine-sixteenths to go, edging out of the pocket and pushing clear of HP Mama B at the :54.3 midway point. The 4-year-old Tactical Landing—Mounds mare remained unchallenged on the far turn, evading a gradual first-over push from 1-5 favorite M-M's Dream (David Miller) out of third to three-quarters in 1:22.3.

M-M's Dream took over second from HP Mama B off the corner for home, but Tactical Mounds shifted gears and burst to a 4½-length advantage at the eighth pole. Zeron kept her to her task with mild encouragement through the stretch, and she won by a measured two lengths. Runner-up M-M's Dream closed ground steadily in deep stretch despite drifting to the six-path; Nelsonbriteagle NO (Åke Svanstedt) narrowly held third over Warrawee Xenia (Bob McClure) after loosely stalking cover on the far turn.

"Louis was rocking and rolling through the first quarter, and I had Dave right behind me," said Zeron of the contested early pace. "I wanted to make a move [to the front] before Dave did."

Now a 14-time winner with $463,686 in career earnings, Tactical Mounds is trained by Megan Scrان for TheStable Tactical Mounds. She paid $10 as the 4-1 second choice.

"She's been getting better and better every single week," Zeron said. "I had a lot of confidence in her."

Twin B Joe Fresh steadfast in Dorothy Houghton score

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Twin B Joe Fresh and driver Dexter Dunn went to the front on the backstretch, fended off a challenge from Sylvia Hanover, and then held off late-closing Silver Label by a half-length to win Saturday's (July 13) $140,000 Dorothy Houghton Memorial for older female pacers in a career-best 1:47.3 at The Meadowlands. Sylvia Hanover was third.

Grace Hill led the field to the opening quarter in :27 before Twin B Joe Fresh moved from third to take the top spot. With Sylvia Hanover charging up alongside, Twin B Joe Fresh reached the half in :53.4. Sylvia Hanover got in front heading to the turn, but was unable to clear, and those two raced together to the three-quarters in 1:21.1.

Twin B Joe Fresh seized control entering the stretch, but her work was not completed until she rebuffed Silver Label at the finish. It was Twin B Joe Fresh's fifth win in six races this season and her seventh consecutive victory on the Grand Circuit dating back to last November.

"She's racing against a great group of mares, so nothing comes easy," Dunn said. "She really had to dig deep late in the stretch there to hold them off. All credit to her, she did all the work and put an amazing mile in."

Twin B Joe Fresh is owned by trainer Chris Ryder, Dunn, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak. The 4-year-old daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze was bred by Brittany Farms. She has won 24 of 33 career races and earned $1.7 million.

"She's obviously come back great this year," Dunn said. "She felt terrific tonight. She meant business. She's so versatile, she can do it any way. Last time, it was from off the back. Tonight, it was on the front. So, it makes my job easy. I'm just happy to be along for the ride."

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite, Twin B Joe Fresh paid $2.80 to win.

Sig Sauer stuns in Dancer; Karl, T C I both defeated by Jay Bergman for the Hambletonian Society

Prospective Hambletonian favorite Karl encountered a major bump in the road when Sig Sauer soared past him and posted a 65-1 upset in the first $135,000 division of the Stanley Dancer Memorial, for 3-year-old male trotters, at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (July 13).

Driver Andy McCarthy guided the Noel Daley trainee past another long shot – Tony Adams S – in the shade of the wire to win for the first time in 2024 while handing Karl, the 1-9 favorite, his first defeat of the year.

With Karl starting from post 8, most of the field left the gate with purpose. Tony Adams S and Åke Svanstedt looked to protect their rail position, forcing Sig Sauer to take a seat along with Dame Good Time. Tim Tetrick moved four-wide with Security Protected and reached the front by the :27.1 opening quarter, but his lead would be short-lived.

Yannick Gingras had taken a brief tuck with Karl going to the quarter as Scott Zeron energized Dame Good Time for a second time to gain the front on the backstretch. Gingras gave Karl his marching orders, and the Tactical Landing-sired colt, wearing aluminum shoes in front for the first time this year, took off. Dame Good Time had the lead at the :55.2 half but relinquished it to Karl soon after.

Svanstedt didn't wait very long with Tony Adams S, moving with solid speed five-eighths of a mile into the contest while tracked by Sig Sauer. Karl had command at three-quarters in 1:23 and appeared ready to sprint off, but by mid-stretch, it was clear that Tony Adams S was going to pass him. The 22-1 shot briefly looked the winner in the race, but McCarthy went to work on Sig Sauer, and the Muscle Hill colt from the Donato Hanover-sired Sigilwig shifted gears and sprinted by in the final yards, winning by a head in a career-best 1:50.

Tony Adams S was a solid second while Karl finished third for the first time in his 15-race career.

Sig Sauer is owned by Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Allister Stables and Caviart Farms. He returned $138 to win and $335.80 for place with Karl off the ticket.

Sig Sauer was bred by Southwind Farms and sold at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $200,000 out of the Crawford Farms consignment.

"I knew how much ability he has," said McCarthy following the race. "Noel found the right shoe for him up front where he was interfering."

Åke Svanstedt was more assertive in the second division, guiding Situationship to victory in a 1:51.1 mile in the $135,000 contest after taking control of the race at the half-mile pole.

Situationship and Wild Ticket left sharply from the outside as co-favored Highland Kismet lagged the gate by three lengths and favorite T C I took early position along the pylons. Wild Sig Sauer (Andrew McCarthy) posted a 65-1 upset of Karl in the first of two Stanley Dancer Memorial divisions.

Ticket had control at the :26.3 opening fraction for Dexter Dunn and slowed the pace dramatically in the second quarter. That led T C I and David Miller to edge out, but before they were able to make a move, Svanstedt quickly regained with Situationship for control at the :55.4 halfway point.

T C I eventually moved for Miller on the turn, but not before Svanstedt had Situationship settled and on the lead in a pedestrian 1:24 three-quarter clocking.

For most of the stretch, Situationship appeared vulnerable, but Svanstedt kept him to his task. The gelded son of Chapter Seven held firmly with a :27.1 final quarter completing the mile. Caballero and Tim Tetrick angled out late for the place spot with T C I holding third.

Owned by Knutsson Trotting, Little E LLC and Tomas Andersson, Situationship returned $5.60 to win.

Situationship (Åke Svanstedt) won the other division in 1:51.1.

"I saw David [Miller with T C I] moving and I wanted to get ahead of him," said Svanstedt of his decisive move at the half.

Situationship is out of the Cantab Hall-sired Meegan Hall. He was bred by Crawford Farms and sold for $85,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Chapercraz conquers Hambletonian Maturity

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Chapercraz and driver Yannick Gingras delivered a multi-move trip for a 2:05.2 win over 11 rivals in the $425,000 E.T. Gerry Jr. Hambletonian Maturity, for 4-year-old trotters over 1-1/8 miles on Saturday (July 13) at The Meadowlands.

The 32-1 shot fired from the outside post 10 to get the top with Hasty Bid and Oh Well on the outside also showing early interest. The crowded field produced much shuffling. Ari Ferrari J took a shot leading and Special Way challenged through a spirited :26 first quarter. After losing cover, Bestfriend Volo forged to the lead over Special Way by the :55.2 half and Chapercraz was shuffled back to sixth. On the far turn, Ari Ferrari J, who was third-over when the flow began to develop, made a sustained push toward Bestfriend Volo and powered to the lead off the turn for home.

By the 1:23 three-quarters, the field was jam-packed going into the stretch until they fanned six across the track battling to reach the wire. Call Me Goo found room to move but broke stride lunging toward. Bestfriend Volo, who was engulfed in mid-stretch, and French Wine made some noise fanning four-wide. Behind a wall of horses, Gingras swung Chapercraz around the faltering Call Me Goo and split rivals in the final yards to prevail by a neck in 2:05.2. French Wine, another long shot at 31-1, rallied to just nab the 12-1 Oh Well for second. Favorites Special Way and Winner's Bet failed to make strong late impressions.

Trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci and Phil Collura, Chapercraz is a son of Crazy Wow from the Chapter Seven dam Chaperess. The win stretched his lifetime bankroll to $761,730, and he paid $67.40 to win.

Burke said Chapercraz, "left well from the 10-hole and crossed over [well] on the turn. Then it got crazy. He's big and strong, and he'll get even better at 4 and 5."

Gingras said his steed avoided a lot of activity:

"We got through the trouble [with Bestfriend Volo], and were in a good spot."

Abuckabett Hanover bursts home a winner in William Haughton

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Perched in second-over position by driver Dexter Dunn, Abuckabett Hanover lunged off his cover in a stretch sprint to overhaul pacesetter Voukefalas and win the $428,000 William Haughton Memorial, for older pacers on Saturday (July 13) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from post 5, Abuckabett Hanover floated away to race sixth as Voukefalas powered through an early shuffle to plant onto the lead after a :26.1 first quarter. Allywag Hanover yielded for the pocket spot moving up the backside while Voukefalas cruised on the point to a :53.3 half.

Abuckabett Hanover meanwhile waited for cover to follow and fished some from Charlie May, pulling out of fifth, moving for the far turn. Charlie May carried Abuckabett Hanover forward as Voukefalas maintained a sturdy tempo to three-quarters in 1:21.4. But once Charlie May hit his limit from first-over, Dunn launched Abuckabett Hanover into flight into the stretch. Voukefalas kicked away in the lane and tried to withstand the swift surge from Abuckabett Hanover, though his efforts proved futile in the final yards. Abuckabett Hanover kept charging and slid past Voukefalas to a three-quarters-of-a-length win in 1:47.4. Allywag Hanover gave chase in third, and It's My Show came from third-over for fourth.

"This certainly is the type of race I wanted to be here for," said co-owner William Pollock, who — along with Bruce Areman and Andrew Harris — fronted $534,000 to buy Abuckabett Hanover at the end of 2022. "But it takes a whole team. With Dex [Dunn], with Andrew [Harris], my partner Bruce... they put it together, they figure out who we have to go out and get, and it's paying dividends today. He was the type of horse that Andrew and Bruce loved. When he came onto an auction, they said, 'Bill, if you're going to jump in, this is the horse to jump in on. He's a real heartfelt horse, loves to close; that's what we loved best about him. He's the first horse I've ever had, so he's the O.G. of the stable.'"

Winning his 18th race from 64 starts and adding to his bankroll now worth $1,512,866, Abuckabett Hanover races for owners Pollock, Areman and trainer Harris. The 6-year-old stallion by Betting Line, out of the Western Ideal mare All Tucked Up, paid $3.80 to win.

Abuckabett Hanover was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and was initially sold as a yearling for $160,000 at the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA.

Caviart Belle, Its A Love Thing seize Silverman divisions

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Caviart Belle won the first division of the $100,000 Jerry Silverman Memorial, for 3-year-old filly pacers on Saturday (July 13) at The Meadowlands. Yannick Gingras drove the filly to a career-best 1:49 mile in the stakes event formerly known as the Mistletoe Shalee.

The first three-quarters were combative with a :26 first panel set by Asweetbeachhere from the outside. Sarasota Hanover took over, and a speed battle ensued when favorite Pass Line stormed to the top for a :53.3 half.

Pass Line led through the 1:22 three-quarters, Lyons Legend charged up the inside and Sarasota Hanover chanced a rally. Early speedsters struggled as Caviart Belle's third-over position in the final turn opened a winning path six-wide to win by 2½ lengths. Sarasota Hanover finished second with a late-closing Canigetalouplop getting third.

Caviart Belle, by Captaintreacheraus from the Well Said dam Eloquent Grace, has now won $609,255 through her second season of racing.

Nancy Takter trains Caviart Belle for owners Caviart Farms. She paid $5.40 to win. Caviart Belle was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and sold for $375,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Gingras said he found the early cover he wanted:

"She can pace as fast as any filly," he said.

Richard Silverman, son of the late Jerry, said the event, "is an honor to my father and to all the great fillies he raced [at The Meadowlands]."

In the second $100,000 division, Its A Love Thing faced off against her top foe My Girl EJ and eight others and won it in 1:49.1 with James MacDonald in the bike.

Miraculous Deo's early lead lasted long enough to mark a :27.1 first quarter with Flawless in line second and My Girl EJ on the move outside third and Its A Love Thing next.

My Girl EJ took over the lead from the other two and was gliding well into a :55.2 half as Its A Love Thing pulled out to chase her and drew alongside to make the final challenge into the stretch after a 1:23.1 three-quarters.

The stretch was a duel in which My Girl EJ worked hard to keep the lead but Its A Love Thing had the momentum at the wire to win by a neck in 1:49.1. Geocentric soared late to capture third.

Trained by David Menary for Eric Good, Thomas Biederman, Josh Green and Rich Lombardo Racing, Its A Love Thing, a daughter of Bettor's Delight—Love For Sail, paid $4.40 to win for the fourth time this season and raise her earnings to $747,751.

"It was a dog fight down the lane," MacDonald said. "But I know my filly; she's hard-nosed and hard-trying."

Its A Love Thing (James MacDonald) won the other Silverman division.

MacDonald, who earned his fourth win of the night aboard Its A Love Thing, said he felt great because "I never thought my career would get me here."

Its A Love Thing was bred by Marvin Katz, Lynn Katz, Al Libfeld and sold for $65,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

R Melina, French Champagne win Del Miller Memorial divisions

by Ray Coto / Meadowlands media relations

R Melina surged first-over while French Champagne fought on the lead to win their respective $125,000 divisions of the Del Miller Memorial on Saturday (July 13) at The Meadowlands.

R Melina won the faster of the two Del Miller divisions with a 1:51.1 effort, holding off Buy A Round.

Senorita Palema sprinted from the pylon post to protect position into the first turn with Allegiant tucking into the pocket and R Melina getting away third. By the first quarter in :27.2, Senorita Palema maintained her speed up the backside to a :55.3 half and continued to roll through the final turn. Driver Todd McCarthy moved R Melina out of third and marched forward with Buy A Round on his back moving to three-quarters in 1:24. R Melina put a head in front of Senorita Palema spinning for home and kept finding more when pressed by Buy A Round through the lane to notch a half-length win with Date Night Hanover closing for third and Allegiant settling for fourth.

"I was holding my breath, and if I had a cardiologist back in the paddock when they were going to the gate, they probably would've just wheeled me out in an ambulance," said trainer John Butenschoen with a smile. "She's only made a few mistakes in her life, and she had the rail each time. When the gate gets going, she gets a little anxious. We messed around with her rigging, we schooled her at home [and] put her on the gate a bunch this last week. We got a nice, easy week, and in two weeks we'll be back here and hope we can have some luck."

A 3-year-old daughter of Chapter Seven out of the Explosive Matter mare Goodtogo Hanover, R Melina has now won 11 races from 19 starts and earned $581,889 for owners M And L Of Delaware LLC and Alabama Harness Associates LLC. She paid $14.60 to win.

R Melina was bred by Marsh Valley Standardbreds and sold for $110,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

French Champagne powered forward and lasted the distance to post a 1:51.4 win in the first division.

Driver Dexter Dunn pushed French Champagne forward out of post 6 and through a :28.1 first quarter to grab the lead into the Champagne strode in a $2\frac{3}{4}$ -length winner over Soiree Hanover while Chaparmbro rallied off a ground-saving trip for third and Draw The Line held fourth.

"I was pretty happy when I got the drive behind her when the proofs came out," Dunn said after the race. "Driving for Ake [Svanstedt] and Sarah makes your job pretty easy. I thought about dropping into the 3-hole for a little bit, but the pace slackened enough that we kept pressing on. She felt strong once we got to the front;

backstretch from early leader Draw The Line. French Champagne then coasted up the backside to a :56.3 half and through the far turn as Soiree Hanover made a steady first-over advance out of fifth. Soiree Hanover reached French Champagne's wheel at three-quarters in 1:25, but Dunn called upon his charge into the stretch and she easily rebuffed the challenge. French was relaxed, a little lazy, but when I asked her at the top of the straight she really got down great."

Åke trains French Champagne, a 3-year-old daughter of Muscle Hill out of the royally-bred French Cafe, for owner/breeders Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. She has now won eight races from 14 starts, banked $377,608 and paid $3.20 to win.

Breakfast With The Babies Pace Week edition

Breakfast With The Babies went post-ward on Friday (July 12) morning at 10:00 on this Meadowlands Pace weekend, due to the detention requirements for Saturday night's stakes. The track was rated good, dulled by overnight rains with a negligible breeze, the temps were in the 70s.

Myonlylove opened the day's racing with a 1:56.1 win, closing sharply through a :28.1 final quarter, for Scott Zeron who threaded the Gimpanzee filly through an opening mid-stretch. Xalapa (Tim Tetrick / Lucas Wallin) and Winnpanzee (Trond Smedshammer) came right with the winner late for minor placings. Myonlylove is trained by Linda Toscano for Brittany Farms and Marvin Katz who placed the winning bid of $180,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale (LEX) to secure her from breeder Coyote Wynd Farms.

Rita Dawns Halo (Andy McCarthy) came to life in her third try today, leading all the way through even fractions to get a nice 1:55.2 record, trotting home in :28.2 under her own power. Party Line (Marcus Melander) followed the winner throughout and held sway for second, despite drifting late. Tony Alagna trains the winner for Kenny Jacobs who shelled out $102,000 (LEX) to breeders Steve Stewart and Marti Ala-Seppala for the daughter of Googoo Gaagaa.

The third race was decided when the $250,000 (LEX) Muscle Hill filly Get It All (Marcus Melander) edged past the $10,000 (LEX) Six Pack filly Getting You Home (Zeron / Toscano) who had done all the work setting all the fractions of the 1:56 mile, in the shadow of the wire. Both fillies demonstrated game determination, Get It All coming in off a 1:58.1 Meadowlands win two weeks ago while Getting You Home had a pair of Scioto qualifying wins on her card and was likely auditioning for round two of the New Jersey Sires Stakes (NJSS). Brixton Medical, Marvin Katz and the Hatfields own the winner with Katz taking a breeder's credit along with Al Libfeld.

Naming a standardbred Flightline may be construed as setting the bar a touch high, but breeder Steve Jones is familiar with heights, so along with partners Mary Kinsey Arnold and Paul Bordogna, they placed the moniker on a son of Walner, the first colt from the stakes winning Hey Blondie. Andy and Julie Miller liked what they saw enough to plunk down $220,000 (LEX) for the colt and so far, he is looking like a bargain. Off a crisp second in his first start, today Flightline settled third early for Andy, moved up when others broke, had the lead by the 1:27 three quarters then cruised home in 28 seconds flat to take a 1:55 mark with the greatest of ease. Hey Porter (Anibal Borjas/Alagna) trotted along steadily throughout to wind up second. The Millers own Flightline along with Patrick Hoopes, TLP Stables and Arnold stayed in on the colt.

Pacing colts put on a show in their only race this morning. Blue Onyx (A. Miller / Alagna) sat a nice trip behind Strangerinthenight (A. McCarthy / Alagna) through solid fractions, then ground past that stubborn rival while drifting slightly, allowing a seam for the speedy Fusion (Yannick Gingras / Nancy Takter) to slip between them, but was resolute to the wire for the 1:52.3 win with a :26.2 final quarter in a dazzler. From the first crop of 2020 Horse of the Year, Tall Dark Stranger, Blue Onyx was bred by Crawford Farms Racing and sold for $100,000 (LEX) to trainer Alagna along with partners Pryde Stables, Brad Grant, Crawford Farms Racing and William Beattie.

Filly pacers closed out the day when Chakra and Borjas won determinedly in a two-move 1:52.4 effort, sprinting home in :27 to get by stablemate Long Hot Summer off the turn then digging in to keep both Faze (Gingras / Takter) and Huntingfortreasure (Tetrick / Schnittker) at bay late. The gritty Lather Up filly sold for $25,000 at Harrisburg to trainer Alagna and Robbie Pryde as Pryde Stables, Inc, she was bred by Crawford Farms, LLC.

Big M judges need to enforce rules on drivers cutting off horses

This year at The Meadowlands, especially the last few months, I've seen a lot of drivers pull their horse off the inside late, cutting off horses that were moving well on the outside. There were three instances of this Friday (July 12) night. In the fourth race, a 2-year-old trot, Tom Horn was sitting second. Cattleshark, making his first lifetime start, was hustling up on the outside. David Miller pulled Tom Horn out in front of Cattleshark, which forced Tim Tetrick to take a hard hold and check his horse.

Later in the seventh race, an amateur driver race, the 6 horse, Machlicious, pulled out late in the stretch and hit the wheel of the 7 horse. The driver of the 7 horse made an "objection" but the judges let it stand, although the 6 horse clearly came out and banged into the wheel of the 7. Maybe the judges thought that it didn't change the finish position but to a lot of observers, it looked like it might have because before the interference, it appeared that the 6 and 7 were going to finish noses apart, but the 6 clearly interfered with the 7 as he came out, which gave him the placing.

In the eighth race, the 4 horse, Camera Man, another 2YO first time starter, was hustling up when the 2, Hidalgo, pulled out in front of him. This wasn't as abrupt as the other two races.

Let me make some observations here. First of all, I've been watching races at The Meadowlands since its inception and I've even called charts there when filling in for the late, great Charlie Singer, and I've never seen so many horses pull out late directly in front of a moving horse as I've seen this year.

In many instances, it's a clear violation. For instance, in my opinion, David Miller clearly impeded the progress of Cattleshark in the fourth race and that should have caused an inquiry, at the very least. In the seventh race, driver William Clark was correct to lodge an objection, and the 6 horse should have been DQ'd and placed third.

The eighth race was borderline, I admit, but I mention it because it was another example of a late move off the pylons right in front of a horse that was moving well on the outside.

Now, admittedly, the drivers are doing this intentionally to gain an advantage. Some would call it "race riding." But the bottom line is, it's against the established rules of the sport. If a horse is moving well on the outside, drivers are not supposed to pull their horse out and impede the other horse's progress. If a driver wants to pull first over, the driver is supposed to do that when he has full clearance, not at the last second as the horse on the outside is at his wheels or along his flank.

As we know, there have been some bad accidents already this year and these late pulls are dangerous. I was especially surprised to see two of the top drivers in the sport do this in 2-year-old trotting races, cutting off horses that were making their first lifetime starts.

The other problem is how it affects the bettors. Cattleshark, who was 2-1, was moving quickly and looked like he had a good chance at the exacta before he was sawed off.

The bottom line is, I've never seen this at The Meadowlands. Sometimes you'll see it at small tracks that have low handle, although generally speaking, even that's rare. Some years ago, a few drivers at The Meadowlands were pulling their horse "half in, half out" and the judges stopped that nonsense. Now, it doesn't look like the judges are actually there. Is anyone minding the store?

If you let the drivers do whatever they want, they'll try to cut other horses off or do whatever they can to gain an advantage. It's the judge's job to make sure that they follow the rules.
