Myrll Vally amazes Indiana's Delvin Miller and his partners

The sophomore trotting filly posted a career best 1:52.2 victory recently in an Indiana Sires Stakes event at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

by James Platz

When Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino played host to a special July 4 program two weeks ago, it was trotting filly Myrll Vally that provided the early fireworks in an Indiana Sires Stakes event. Sent off at 20-1 in the night's second race, the sophomore and driver John De Long sprung the upset with a lifetime best 1:52.2 performance. Although still relatively green, the Swan For All distaffer has earned just over $85,000 in limited starts for the partnership, which includes trainer Darryl Lyons, Delvin Miller, his younger brother, Aaron, and their friend, Luke Miller. "She just keeps amazing us," said Delvin. "She's a gamer, that's for sure. When she gets behind that gate, she has the heart of a good racehorse."

The young owner is the son of Daryl Miller, proprietor of the Middlebury, IN-based Bluebird Meadows. Like his father, Delvin has an affinity for horses, and decided to pursue training and horse ownership a few short years ago. Little by little, he and some partners, including Aaron, have slowly added horses to their portfolio. Any money made he reinvests back into buying more horses, both for the track and the broodmare band.

"The last four years or so that's what we've done," he said. "We've been fairly successful, and we keep reinvesting. I've been buying a broodmare every year too. I think I've got three broodmares."

“She just keeps amazing us. She’s a gamer, that’s for sure. When she gets behind that gate, she has the heart of a good racehorse.”

~ Delvin Miller

The pursuit began with Guccio gelding Bluebird Rocky. Delvin and Doug Lyons campaigned the trotter during his sophomore year and most of the 4-year-old campaign in 2021. Darryl Lyons, a long-time friend of the family, served as trainer.

“It goes way back,” Delvin said. “We’ve known him for years. I think it goes back to Bluebird Regal. Ever since, from time to time we’ve had horses he’s taken from dad and tried them, just project horses I guess. Bluebird Rocky would be the first horse that he and I bought and it’s gone from there.”

To date, Bluebird Yoshi is the biggest success for Delvin, his brother and Lyons. Sired by Jailhouse Jesse out of the Indiana Sires Stakes final winner My Sweet Shiela, the gelding is a six-time winner with just shy of $119,500 on his card. Now 5, the trotter is close to returning to the track.

“He’s made over $100,000 for us and he’s trotted in [1]:52 as well, though he doesn’t have a mark of :52,” said Delvin. “You get excited and it’s fun. When Yoshi races I get shaky because I know how good he can actually be, but he has soundness issues.”

Bluebird Yoshi may be the favorite, but Myrll Vally is making a strong argument with her recent exploits. The filly was purchased at the inaugural Northern Indiana Speed Sale in Topeka in September 2021. Consigned by Mast Standardbreds, the trotter was the fourth yearling to pass through the sale ring, bringing $15,000. Delvin and his partners were prepared to spend more on the first foal from Cantab Hall mare Myrrh.

“We don’t obviously spend big money, you just can’t buy whatever you want,” he said. “I figured this filly would bring quite a bit more. I was really surprised we got her for that. That’s the one I went to the sale trying to buy. Lucky enough, we got her for what we did.”

Delvin works during the day at Jayco, one of the many recreational vehicle factories in northern Indiana. Outside of work, he breaks the yearlings and trains them, establishing a foundation before sending them to Lyons each April. He remembers the ease with which Myrll Vally took to training.

“On the farm track we went in [2]:30 with her,” Delvin said. “The day we broke her we really liked her. I just remember coming in the barn a couple times and I told the other guys, ‘I wish I had two like this and no other horses.’ She was just good gaited. She’s pretty sound and wears no equipment. She’s probably one of the easier ones to get going. She is real simply shod; she wears four plain shoes.”

Last season, the filly made seven starts, recording one win while finishing runner-up on two other occasions. After winning a division in the opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes last July, she finished out of the money in the next leg and was sidelined shortly after.

“She had two starts, and right after she won the sires stakes leg, she came up with a head nod,” said Delvin. “She actually ended up having a hairline fracture on her P1. We ended up giving her six weeks stall rest. She was ready to go for the second to last leg, but she made a break. In the last leg she came back and finished second.”

By virtue of that second-place effort, Myrll Vally qualified for the $270,000 Super Final, where Dale Hiteman piloted her to a fifth-place finish. She ended the season with $55,750 on her card.

“She had some bad luck with being hurt for a little bit in the middle of the summer,” Delvin said. “Overall, we were really, really happy.”

This season, four different drivers have sat behind the sophomore. Hiteman steered her to victory in a late-May qualifier, while Kyle Wilfong took the controls for her 3-year-old debut, a fourth-place effort. Trace Tetrack guided Myrll Vally to fourth in an opening leg sires stakes division before De Long reached the winner’s circle on July 4. The first seasonal score, and second win overall, came in her 10th career start.

“I didn’t think we could beat two or three of those fillies,” said Delvin. “If we raced well, we would be lucky to get a third out of it. We thought she would race good, but [1]:52 was a shocker.”

To top it off, the owner missed the race and had to get the results second-hand. Vacationing in California, Delvin was in the mountains and couldn’t get a signal to watch. His brother informed him afterward.

Heading into tonight’s (July 19) fourth leg, Myrll Vally has drawn into a bulky 11-horse field battling for the biggest share of a $96,500 purse. Without the field splitting into divisions, points become all the more crucial as five legs remain before the Super Final in October. The filly currently ranks fourth in the standings thanks to her July 4 triumph. With De Long opting for points leader Swanya, a filly he has steered to three sires stakes wins, Myrll Vally picks up the services of LeWayne Miller. She will line up in post 5 as fourth choice on the morning line with odds of 6-1. The contest caps Hoosier Park’s 14-race card tonight, with an advertised post time of 10:48 p.m.

Etonnant sets 1:51.2 stakes record in Prix de Washington

by Thomas Hedlund

Richard Westerink-trained Etonnant (Timoko) had a perfect performance in the $125,000 Prix de Washington at Enghien in Paris on Saturday (July 15) afternoon.

Elitloppet winner Hohneck opened quickly for the lead, but Etonnant connected on the leader's outside on the backstretch. Midway through the race, Etonnant was the new leader.

Westerink's trotter continued in a high pace, leaving the opponents behind him. Driver Anthony Barrier had a pleasant home stretch in the bike.

Etonnant won in a new stakes record of 1:51.2 over the mile and Holger Ehlert's Bleff Dipa finished strongly as the runner up, just ahead of Hohneck.

Etonnant's comeback after illness during the winter meeting in Paris has been marvelous. The $125,000 Prix Kerjacques, $225,000 Prix de l'Atlantique and $180,000 Kymi Grand Prix are just some of his victories this season.

Also on Saturday, but in Sweden, the $120,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp was on the race card in Årjäng and Elitloppet runner up San Moteur attracted the most interest in the race, even if there were several top trotters among the opponents.

Stefan Melander's Click Bait went to the front and Björn Goop took it slowly throughout the first turn with San Moteur, but when the field had a lap to go (1 kilometer), San Moteur was on the leader's outside and the battle began. Click Bait is a tough horse to beat over the mile, especially when he's in front, but San Moteur pushed hard in the last turn and when the field turned for home, Goop's trotter had an advantage. Missile Hill tried to challenge from second over and closed the gap to San Moteur, but was never really close enough that San Moteur would be beaten on a rainy day in Årjäng. He won in 1:53.

Missile Hill was second and Unico Broline third.

SECOND FASTEST MILE IN EUROPE IN FINLAND

A speed-driven story is how the $155,000 St Michel Race developed in Mikkeli on Sunday (July 16) afternoon.

The track in Mikkeli was in top shape, a known fact for all the contending trainers and drivers before the race. As the car left the field, the game was on. Mellby Jinx was fast out behind the gate and took the lead in a very quick first 500 meters. Heavy favorite Hail Mary was on the leader's outside as the field had a lap to go and driver Örjan Kihlström really tried to push Hail Mary to the front, a move that leading driver Daniel Wäjersten would have bought, if it wasn't for the fact that Hail Mary started to mess up his gait just when Kihlström tried to take over the lead with a half mile to go.

Mellby Jinx continued to control the race in front, with Hail Mary on the outside as they reached the first kilometer in a mile rate of 1:48.3. The two front horses were obviously marked by the high pace in the last turn, but Hail Mary still disarmed the leader and held strongly as runner up. From a position second over, Hierro Boko (From Above) and Santtu Raitala enjoyed the high pace and when Raitala gave his horse the signal to attack, Hierro Boko answered by easily sprinting to a safe win in 1:50, the second fastest mile ever in Europe.

Ringostarr Treb has the record in Europe, a 1:49.4 mile set in the Hugo Åbergs Memorial 2017, when he was second to Propulsion (later disqualified by Svensk Travsport).

Bengurion Jet bested leader Mellby Jinx in the hunt for third place.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Beth Cook's endless summer in harness racing

by Chris Lomon

Beth Cook's "summer job" is still going strong 27 years later.

She had no intention of staying on as a standardbred groom, at least initially, when summer turned to fall in 1996.

That plan, however, went out the stall soon after she started.

"It's been a while," said Cook, with a laugh. "It started out as a summer gig, but I didn't end up going back to school. I went to Pompano instead. I initially had gone to Colorado State University, but kind of got lost in the shuffle out there. It was a big school, and I didn't have a lot of friends, so I came back to Morrisville [NY] and did the standardbreds instead. That was the spring of 1996.

"A few of us went to The Meadows to work for [late trainer] Bob Key. We got thrown to the wolves right away. We were on the road, shipping horses, and then I moved on to Tommy Sells, and that's how I ended up in Florida. I fell in love with the horses and that was the end of that."

But it was also the beginning of a fulfilling life in racing, one that has taken Cook to places she had never imagined.

Her career has also provided a treasured opportunity to work with some memorable trotters and pacers over the years.

"I feel very lucky," she said. "I've been able to travel to some great racetracks and do some Grand Circuit work as well. It's different than it is now, but I'm glad I stuck with it. I've had the chance to be around some very special horses."

That list includes Road To Broadway, a bay son of On the Road Again, who won 35 races and had 89 top-three finishes over a 211-race career.

Originally a $20,000 purchase at the Canadian Classic Sale in 1993, Road To Broadway earned rave reviews from his connections, Cook included, over his time on the racetrack which yielded $368,096 in earnings.

"We bought him off [trainer/owner] Jimmy Doherty," Cook said. "We were at Scioto that summer and I fell in love with that horse. I ended up grooming him and eventually, he came back to us. He retired in 2001 and we got him back in 2003. He passed away four years ago. He’s one of the horses that was just special in every way.”

Other memorable horses include Armbro Plato, a son of superstar trotter Balanced Image, and Prime Minister, a pacing son of Three Wizzards.

“There have been so many wonderful horses I’ve been blessed to have worked with throughout the years,” she said.

As for the best part of her horse racing adventure, Cook points to her work with youngsters.

“I really do enjoy working with the babies the best,” Cook said. “When you get them at the sale, break them, then watch them develop into the racehorses, it’s a really fun journey. You see them go from those gawky kids into sporting their muscles. The first time you meet the horse is always special to me. There is so much that has to happen from the time you get them until that first race. You get those goosebumps and your heart races when you see them line up behind the starter car for that first race.”

Those moments are, said Cook, not always easy to take.

“When they get to that first race, we all know what it can be like, especially for those young trotters. When it’s good it’s good, and when it’s bad, it’s bad.”

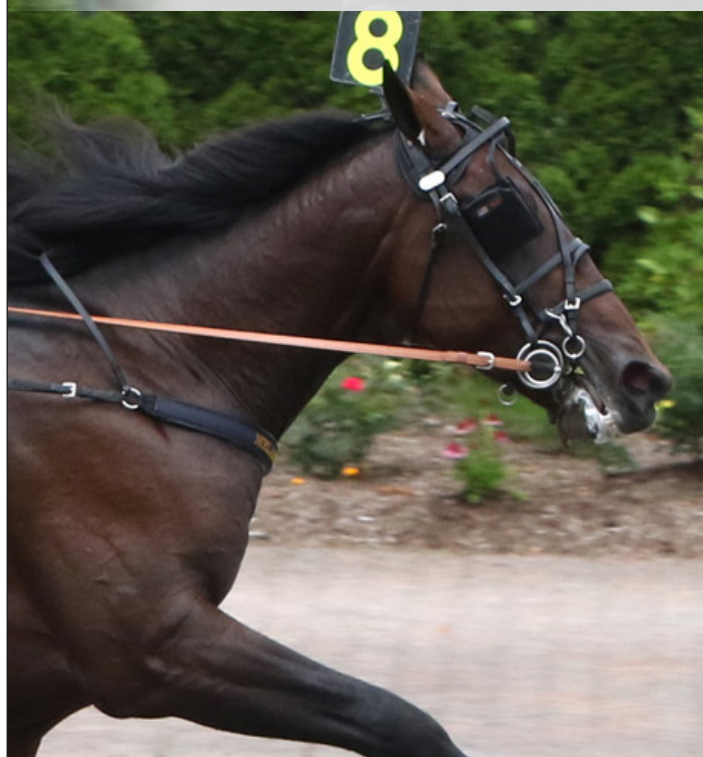

It’s nearly identical for almost every race that includes one of her pupils.

Cook is both seen and heard throughout the grandstand when she watches one of her horses go postward.

Just over two weeks ago, all of her emotions came out in the first race at Buffalo Raceway.

"I get loud, but I stay pretty quiet at the start," Cook said. "I look away when they are on the gate. I don't like to watch that part of the race. We have a horse, Barn Credit, who I call Butters, and he raced at Buffalo in early July. I got to sit in the bike with my boss, Steven Pratt, during training sometimes, and when the horse qualified, you understood that he likes to come from off the pace. He likes a target to chase after. He can get them that way. In that race, [driver] Kevin Cummings put him on the front, and Butters fell asleep. He got passed at the three-quarters pole and dropped back about three lengths off the lead. Coming off the last turn, another horse came up beside him and he dug back in. He ended up getting up for the win right at the wire."

Drama aside, it was another cherished win for Cook.

Margin of victory, how the trip plays out, or even if there is a little luck along the journey, is of no importance to their proud groom.

Seeing them come out on top is a scene she never tires of.

"To watch them go out there and give everything they have, it makes your heart happy," she said. "It makes those early days and long nights worth it. It will never get old. If your heart doesn't start beating fast when the starter calls them to the gate, then it's time to get out. That's what you work for and that's what keeps you going."

When she isn't tending to her trio of horses, Cook prefers the home life in her native Perry, NY.

A village in Wyoming County, the place that's home to just over 3,600 people, is the perfect foil to the hustle and bustle of racetrack life.

If she does need that excitement in another setting, Cook knows exactly where to go.

"I used to raise show pigs, but I got out of it three years ago," she said. "I'm a big Buffalo Bills fan. I go to all the games. If it's not racing, it's the Bills. I enjoy cooking too, and I am somewhat of a homebody. I live 40 minutes from the barn, and about an hour and a half from Buffalo."

"We have around 3,600 people and 34,000 cows. It's the largest dairy county in New York State. This is where I grew up. There are a lot of mom-and-pop places, no big department stores or restaurant chains. I come home from the track, and I like to cook and take care of my flowers."

The horses she tends to, however, are never far removed from her mind.

It's been that way since she started that summer job nearly 30 years ago.

"The horses can drive you crazy, but they're also fun and wonderful too," Cook said. "I'm glad I stayed on and did this. It's funny how it all started, but I couldn't be happier doing what I do."

Ontario Sires Stakes action from Mohawk and Rideau

by Austin Stanton / Ontario Racing management

The Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) was in action across the province this weekend, with Gold and Grassroots racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park and Rideau Carleton Raceway.

On Friday night (July 14) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, there were eight OSS divisions, two Golds for freshman male trotters and six Grassroots dashes for 2-year-old male pacers. Check out our full recap.

On Saturday (July 15), the Grassroots returned to Woodbine Mohawk Park with two divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Coppereagle started the night by winning race 1, a $23,000 division. The Muscle Mass gelding showed impressive closing speed, charging home in :28.3 to win by a nose over Come On Stanley.

No One Knows Us Stable owns Coppereagle who was making his pari-mutuel debut for trainer Stephen Bossence with James MacDonald driving. The betting public made him a 4-5 favorite and he stopped the clock in 1:59.2.

The second Grassroots division was won by North Of Nine. The Royalty For Life colt was blasted to the front from post 4 by Tyler Borth, and held a three-length lead through a :28.2 first quarter.

He faced a challenge from Gaelic Piper in the middle of the mile, and Alexander in the stretch drive but went on to win gate to wire in 1:59.2 paying $37.25 for the upset win. Douglas McCarthy owns North Of Nine and he is conditioned by Keith Jones.

On Sunday evening (July 16), the 3-year-old trotting fillies were at Rideau Carleton Raceway for Gold and Grassroots racing.

The favorites in both Gold divisions were beaten, starting with Muscling Vegas in race 3, a $100,400 division.

Mass Hysteria left well from the rail position for driver Trevor Henry, and maintained that position the entire way, fending off a first up challenge from Muscling Vegas (Muscle Mass) and beating runner-up HP Extra Ice by two lengths.

It was the first win of 2023 and third lifetime for the Muscle Mass filly who now has over $240,000 on her card in OSS earnings. Trainer Kyle Bossence co-owns her with Daniel Culp and William Pendleton.

HP Extra Ice continued her strong season with the runner-up result, improving her record to 4-4-1 through 11 starts and moving her 2023 OSS earnings to just shy of $80,000.

Trainer Ben Baillargeon co-owns the Alarm Detector filly with Claude Hamel, Santo Vena, and Nunzio Vena.

In the second $101,300 Gold division in race 8, Righteous Resolve led gate to wire, and passed the line first before being placed second due to veering into the passing lane entering the stretch.

Climb The Pole driven by Jody Jamieson was placed first. It was her first OSS victory in three career attempts, and fourth overall this season. Carl Jamieson trains the Kadabra filly who he co-owns with his son Jody, Steve Heimbecker and Aaron Byron.

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Lyons Legend, Geocentric now 2-for-2 in PA Sires

by PHHA / Pocono

Both Lyons Legend and Geocentric notched their second straight Pennsylvania Sire Stakes wins among the four divisions of the $168,864 second prelim PaSS event for 2-year-old fillies, and both the repeaters at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania Sunday (July 16) were guided by the “Driver of the Weekend,” Tim Tetrick.

Surprisingly, neither of these two winners took a lifetime mark, as they had gone faster in afternoon sires action at The Meadows. Lyons Legend will get top billing here because she was the faster of the two this night at 1:52.4, and because she is now perfect in three purse stats. The daughter of Stay Hungry—Skinny Dip let the dust settle to the :28.1 quarter, moved and took over the top at the :57.2 midway point, maintained control past a 1:25.3 three-quarters, then came home in :27.1 for trainer Jim King Jr. and Threelyonsracing.

Geocentric, a daughter of Sweet Lou—Geometry, was looped early and got command by the :28.3 quarter, got a breather to the half in :58.2, then stepped up the pace so that the timer read 1:26.3 at the three-quarters and 1:53.1 at the wire – her own back fractions in :54.4 - :26.3. Geocentric has now won both of her starts for trainer Brian Brown and the partnership of Milton Leeman, Alan Keith, James Stambaugh, and Joe Sbrocco.

Tying Lyons Legend at 1:52.4 for fastest sires mile of the night was the Captaintreacherous—Eloquent Grace freshman Caviart Belle, who took the top early for Yannick Gingras and posted fractions of :28.2, :57.2, and 1:26, sprinting home in :26.4 for a lifetime mark. Second in a Kindergarten event in her only other purse start, Caviart Belle is trained by Nancy Takter for Caviart Farms.

Crashing the sire stakes winner’s circle party as the longest (38-1) shot in her division, Canigetaploup lowered her mark to 1:54.3 in her second purse victory. David Miller worked out a good inside trip with the daughter of Sweet Lou (a PaSS double)—Continual Velocity behind fractions of :28.2, :58.3, and 1:27, then kicked home sharply into the :27.3 last quarter to post the upset for people not normally associated with equine outsiders – driver David Miller, trainer Ron Burke, and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Lawrence Karr, and Phil Collura.

All four of the sire stakes were won by 1½ lengths or more; four of the five $20,000 companion Stallion Series divisions were decided by a neck. The fastest StS winner was the only one to have had a purse start before Sunday, the Stay Hungry—Dance Until Dawn miss Stayinthedance. She was also an upsetter, being dismissed at 22-1 yet winning in 1:54.1 for driver Matt Kakaley and trainer Joseph Lucas, co-owner with At The Wire Farms.

Andrew McCarthy drove two of the successful Stallion Series fillies: the Sweet Lou—Caviart Sarah distaff Caviart Sophie, a 1:55.2 winner for trainer Tony Alagna and Caviart Farms, and Bares All, a daughter of Heston Blue Chip—Skinny Dipper (not Skinny Dip, who is Lyons Legend's dam) whose 1:55.4 victory for trainer Robert Cleary and Let It Ride Stables Inc. was accomplished by the "luxurious" margin of a half-length.

Captaintreacherous is the sire of Shebebakin Hanover (out of the great mare Shebestingin), who won her StS section in 1:55.1 for driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Nifty Norman, and Pinske Stables, Yankeeland Partners LLP, and David J. Miller. And a son of "The Captain," first-crop sire Captain Crunch, got the other production credit in the PaStS with Duffy's Opinion (dam Strong Opinion), home first in 1:54.4 for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Brett Pelling, and owner David McDuffee.

Wabanaki gets redemption at Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

A quartet of $14,000-plus divisions of Maine Sire Stakes for 2- and 3-year-old trotters put in their respective miles on Sunday (July 16) afternoon at Bangor, over a rain-soaked surface. Last year's champion freshmen trotter, Wabanaki returned to his winning ways, taking the featured $14,941 sophomore colt trot.

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite in the opener, trainer/driver Ivan Davies had the son of Boy Band in high gear going into the first turn and posting a :29.4 opening quarter, despite the slow going. Sitting in a loose pocket was Outlawofthevalley (Kevin Switzer Jr., Marc Tardiff) with Pembroke Traveler (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) third and moving first over just past the 1:01.2 softer second panel.

Down the backstretch the final time Campbell had Pembroke Traveler all revved up and managed to poke a head in front of Wabanaki into the 1:31.2 third stanza. However, Wabanaki came back and dug in for the final quartile and rolled on like a good horse to win in 2:02 by two lengths.

Owned by Anita Anastosopoulos, the Davies trained and driven colt picked up the fifth win of his career, and second of the season. Bred by Mike Andrew, Wabanaki increased his lifetime earnings to $72,586. He paid $2.80 to win, and leads his peers in the point standings.

Outlawofthevalley finished second; Eustis (Mike Stevenson, Gordon Corey) was third.

Historic Bass Park hosted three non-wagering races, which preceded the regular card. The first to fire were the 2-year-old filly trotters, vying for a purse of $14,367.

Leaving little room for interpretation, My Saving Grace was sent out directly to the lead from post 4, and proceeded to show the way for the other trotting babies. With the judges giving a 2-second allowance for the sloppy track, the daughter of Shake It Off Lindy cruised casually through a soft opening half of 1:09.1, with driver Mark Athearn urging the distaffer to scamper home in 2:12 by 6-3/4 lengths.

Trained by Gretchen Athearn for owner Margaret Thyng, it was the second consecutive stakes victory for the Leighton Property-bred filly. Pembroke Breeze (Campbell, Grondin) finished second; Bernie's Legacy (Ivan Davies) was third.

Next up was the $14,502 sophomore filly trotters, which witnessed another gate-to-wire romp by She'salilbitmouthy.

Driver Aaron Hall had the daughter of Victory Blue Chip out and rolling from their starting pylon position, and made every call a winning one. Tripping the timer in 2:04, the Mona Dodd-owned distaff picked up her third front-end stakes victory of the season. With lifetime earnings of $117,340, the Michael Cushing-trained lass has roared her way to the top of her class this season. She was bred by Stephen Hall.

Wild Ending (Ivan Davies) finished second by a tight length; Another Adventure (Switzer Jr., Tardiff) was third, but unhurried.

The final $13,971 freshmen colt trot Maine Sire Stakes event went to Chipper Dale, who broke his maiden in his first-time purse start. Driven by Heath Campbell for trainer Valerie Grondin, they were content to follow pacesetter Carrabassett (Mark Athearn, Gretchen Athearn) through all the divisions. When the pair got to the head of the stretch, they were heads apart. With Carrabassett jumping off stride, Chipper Dale went on to win by 6-1/2 lengths in 2:08.4.

A son of Shake It Off Lindy, Chipper Dale is owned and was bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe.

Maine Sires Stakes events resume on Friday (July 21) with the 2-year-old pacing fillies racing at Bangor. The following day, Saturday (July 22), the freshmen colts return to Cumberland. Sunday's (July 23) card sees the return of all the trotters once again to historic Bass Park.

Ranger wins seven, Cecere five at Plainridge Park

Driver Bruce Ranger and trainer Domenico Cecere put on a clinic in their respective positions as they both set performance records at Plainridge Park on Monday afternoon (July 17).

Ranger drove seven winners, matching a milestone only done three times before by himself, Greg Merton and Greg Bowden. But those previous records were all on 14-race cards at Plainridge Park. Monday was the first time a driver has ever done it on an 11-race program.

Ranger had a total of nine starts on Monday and also finished third one time, and that gave him an astounding .815 UDR for the day.

Cecere had a total of five starters from his stable who all won, and that is a record for wins by a trainer on any length card. Cecere also posted a perfect .1000 UTR for his efforts. Five of Ranger's wins were trained by Cecere.

Their tag team triumphs started with a natural hat trick in races 1, 2 and 3 with Milliondollarwall (1:55, $6.20), Hush Moni (1:56.4, $6.40) and Moni Lisa (1:54.4, $2.40). They finished off their quality quintet with The Wise One (1:55.2, $4.00) and Sonny's Moni (1:54.2, $3.00).

Ranger then went on to win two more races with Jericho (1:56.1, $3.60) and Delayed Hanover (1:52.2, $2.80).

Delayed Hanover was in the featured $25,000 open handicap trot and his effort there bodes well for his connections as he is eligible to compete in the $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot on Sunday (July 23).

Delayed Hanover got away sixth and watched as Angel Nation (Brett Beckwith) and Inaminute Hanover (Jay Randall) traded leads to the :27 quarter. Inaminute Hanover eventually set up shop in front of the stands and led to three-quarters in 1:23.4 as Delayed Hanover made his way to second at that station from a first-over rush. The pair of Hanover trotters then matched strides within one-half length of each other around the last turn and into the homestretch. Under Ranger urging, Delayed Hanover forged ahead halfway down the lane and won by one length in 1:52.2.

It was the fourth win of the year for Delayed Hanover, who is owned by Reid Wissner and trained by Kevin Mc Dermott.

As previously mentioned, Plainridge Park will host the Grand Circuit on Sunday (July 23) when the $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot and $100,000 Clara Barton Distaff Pace will be held. Post time for that feature packed card of racing and entertainment is set for 2 p.m.

Roll Em destroys opposition in 'Plate' 55

With a fired-up brush to the lead, Roll Em sealed his way to victory in the 55th edition of the $35,000 Governor's Plate, presented by Summerside Chrysler Dodge, Saturday evening (July 15) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The final race of Governor's Plate Week 2023 had American Risk (driven by Todd Trites) sent forward at the start to guard the pylons and trip the opening quarter of :26.4 while releasing race favorite Roll Em to the front. Driver Marc Campbell eased his trainee through fractions of :55 and 1:23.3 then opened up by five lengths to win in 1:51.4. Campbell trains the Time To Roll 5-year-old for owners Brady Doyle and Savage Stable of Stratford, Brent Campbell of Charlottetown and Ryan MacLeod of Souris. Twin B Tuffenuff (Gilles Barrieau) kicked home for second with Rollwithhottytoddy (Myles Heffernan Sr.) third.

Campbell scored seven victories on the program while garnering the Basil Whelan Memorial Award for top driver of Governor's Plate Week over Corey MacPherson. The 16-dash card earned an all-time record wager at Red Shores Summerside of $158,927.

The $10,000 Bob Dewar Memorial Governor's Plate consolation saw a bounce-back performance of 1:53 by 2022 Governor's Plate champion No Plan Intended with David Dowling in the seat for trainer Jennifer Doyle, who co-owns the Up The Credit gelding with Danny Birt of Earnscliffe.

The $6,000 Ruby Chappell Memorial final for open mares had Dreamfair Zenfire win for trainer/driver Campbell in first-over fashion in 1:53.4 for owners Ryan and Everett MacLeod.

The Chappell Memorial consolation saw Atlantic Star (Campbell) go all the way in 1:56.1 for trainer Mike McGuigan and owner Mike Pollard of Stratford.

The Atlantic Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing colts had a pair of $15,300 A-divisions as Proudfyatoday (Campbell) rallied to win for trainer and co-owner Keith Ford with partners Gordon, David and Douglas Neill of Charlottetown. Tobins Profit (Jason Hughes) grabbed second with No Boats On Sunday (Heffernan) third.

Malignity won by open lengths in his $15,300 A-division in 1:54 in line to trainer Paul Langille for owners Rosanne Langille and Debbie Francis. Bacononabiscuit (Campbell) finished second ahead of Fishermans Son (Adam Merner).

The $4,000 Atlantic Sires Stakes B-divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts were won by JJ Landon (Gilles Barrieau) in 1:57.2 and Tobins Party (Hughes) with a 1:58.4 upset at 8-1 odds.

A pair of former Governor's Plate winners tangled in the Premier's Pace as Time To Dance (Campbell) won over Rose Run Quest (Merner) in 1:54.2. Campbell trains Time To Dance for owners Brady Doyle, Brent Campbell, Kent MacDonald and Ryan MacLeod.

Starshipsalicia won the Bobby Morrissey Member Of Parliament For Egmont pace in an off-the-pace 1:58 victory with Patrick Shepherd driving for owner/trainer Kyle Williams.

Ms Moyse (Merner) had a perfect pocket ride to victory in the race 8 Red Shores Summerside pace in 1:56 from the Melissa Rennie stable for owners Olivia May, Quaid Hatelly and Andrew Cameron.

Luigi Bizacko was victorious in the RCMP 150th Anniversary pace at 14-1 odds in 1:57.1 for trainer/driver Steven Murphy and owner Amanda Mactavish.

JJ Patrick stunned in the race 12 PC MLA Tyler Desroches District 21 Summerside-Wilmot pace with a 29-1 victory for driver MacPherson, trainer Ricky Armstrong and owner Marc Gallant.

Emperor controlled his destiny in the Minister Of Finance pace, winning off the front in 1:55.3 with Hughes in tow by seven-lengths in 1:55.3 for owner/trainer Jeff Lewis of Moncton, NB.

Ladycorona sizzles at H3R in Breeders Trophy Series

Despite earlier rain storms that ended at the start of the race program, making the track rated good with a two second allowance, Ladycorona (Bettors Delight) was at her best in capturing her division of the Breeders Trophy Series Sunday (July 16) afternoon at the Hippodrome 3R.

There were four divisions of the opening round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old pacing fillies and colts. The top eight point earners after three preliminary round will return on Sunday, Sept. 10 for their respective $65,000 finals.

Each of the four divisions races for a purse of $7,500.

Ladycorona started from post 3 in the sixth race second division of the series for the fillies. With driver Pascal Berube in the sulky, Ladycorona sped to the lead right off the starting gate with GA Speed Matrix (Alain Carrier) sitting in second to the first quarter in :28.3.

Ladycorona led the field to the half mile in an easy 1:00.4 before YS Sensationalcity (Jocelyn Gendron) came first-over to challenge and pressed the pace to the three-quarters in 1:29.3.

Ladycorona and Berube then said goodbye to the field and opened up in the stretch to win in a romp by six and one-half lengths in 1:58.4. YS Sensationalcity was second with GA Speed Matrix third.

It was the third win this year for Ladycorona, who is trained by Yves Tessier for owner/breeder Sotirios Anastasopoulos of Sainte-Therese, QC. She paid $2.50 to win.

In the fourth race first division of the series for pacing fillies, Godiva Ice Cream (Shadow Play) and driver Robert Shepherd were able to withstand coming first-over against Irish Mary (Pascal Berube) and come on in the stretch to win by one length in a lifetime mark of 2:00. Pocahontas Du Lac (Pierre-Luc Roy) was second with Irish Mary third.

It was the first pari-mutuel victory in four starts for Godiva Ice Cream. She paid $15.60 to win for trainer Lyne Asselin and owner/breeder Raymond Larose of St-Henri-De-Levis.

The third race first division for the colts saw Bets Beach (All Bets Off) stay undefeated with his second straight win. He was parked first-over from the half mile for driver Pascal Berube against pacesetter Little Diamond (William Roy) and kept on grinding it out down the stretch to win by a head in 2:00.4. Little Diamond was second with Attitude (Stephane Brosseau) third.

Trained by Yves Tessier, Bets Beach is co-owned by Gina Bragagnolo, Yves Tessier, Michel Letarte and Jean Allaire. He paid $10.10 to win.

The seventh race second colt division was won by Kansas Panic (Sunshine Beach), who had to make a three-wide move in the backstretch for driver Robert Shepherd, was parked out the entire final quarter and still was able to come on and win going away by one and one-quarter lengths in 2:00. Fantome En Joie (Stephane Brosseau) was second with Maximus BG (Jocelyn Gendron) third.

It was the first win in two starts this year for Kansas Panic. He is trained by David Pilon for owner/breeder Brian Paquet of Quebec City. He paid $7.10 to win.

Live racing resumes on Friday (July 21) when H3R will host the opening round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and fillies. First race post time is 4:00 p.m. For more information, visit <https://hippodrome3r.ca/en/>.

Handle doubled, purses up at Oak Grove in 2023

The 2023 harness racing season at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel, which concluded July 10, saw significant increases in all-sources wagering handle and total purses paid, giving cause for optimism among players and participants alike for the future of the sport in the Bluegrass State.

Total handle for the 30-day season was just over $7 million, a 103 per cent increase over the 2022 total of $3.4 million. Average daily handle this season was $233,000, up 82 per cent from a $128,000 average last season, and just over 2022's highest single-day handle of $229,000. Over $6.3 million in purses was disbursed through the meet, including $2.7 million in Kentucky Standardbred Development Fund (KSDF) stakes events for 2-, 3- and 4-year-olds that attracted the sport's premier stables and drivers to southern Kentucky.

During the stand, Oak Grove served as the home base for the United States Harness Drivers Club (USHDC), an amateur driving club that raised over $11,000 for local charities.

After conducting autumn meets in 2020 and 2021, Oak Grove has positioned itself at the beginning of the Kentucky harness racing circuit the past two seasons and will do the same in the spring of 2024, when it hosts its fifth season of standardbred racing. T H McMurry gave Taylor dream night at Woodbine Mohawk Park

Last week, Ontario's top 2-year-old male pacers were at Woodbine Mohawk Park for two $100,000-plus Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold divisions. That's business as usual at Ontario's premier racetrack but for Jeff Taylor the evening was anything but typical.

Taylor, a long-time industry participant, has 245 career training starts. The biggest purse in any of his 10 starts in 2023 was a $22,000 OSS Grassroots division, the rest have ranged from $5,000 to $8,000 in overnight races at Rideau Carleton Raceway.

The purse in the first Gold division that night was $103,100 and T H McMurry, a colt Taylor co-owns with Siobhan Andrusek and Graeme Mitchell drew the eight hole. From that outside post he paced a mile in 1:51.4 to win by a length and give Taylor the biggest win of his life.

"I didn't know how to react to it, I was so happy, I couldn't believe it," said Taylor. "It's sunk in a little bit now and I feel really lucky to have an animal like him. I know how hard a lot of people work for a long time and some of them never get to this point. I'm just appreciating every minute because it's been so fun so far."

Those watching the Woodbine Mohawk Park broadcast on July 10 heard trainer Dave Menary praise Taylor, a Gloucester, ON resident, and his role in training down T H McMurry. But from Taylor's point of view the win was a team effort.

"Dave's done an excellent job," said Taylor. "He had a great week [at Woodbine Mohawk Park] in the sires stakes, and I wouldn't pick anybody else to trust him with. Dave's been one hundred per cent. He's a class act."

The road to T H McMurry's Gold win began at the 2022 London Classic Yearling Sale. Taylor was attending with Mitchell, and he had his eye on the son of McWicked after reviewing online videos prior to the sale.

When he entered the ring as HIP 183, the bidding went to $21,000 before stalling short of the $22,000 Taylor signed for. A few days later he sold 25 per cent each to Andrusek and Mitchell.

"I looked at the mare and I got looking at her record and what she did, and I thought, she's got to throw something with the talent she had," said Taylor. "I loved the look of the other McWickeds in the sale and I put my hand up, I guess the rest of it's kind of history."

McWicked is a Hall of Fame racehorse who needs no introduction, and T H McMurry's dam Waasmula is a millionaire who won the 2011 OSS Super Final as a 3-year-old.

So, he has pedigree, and when he shipped to Ottawa to begin his training to become a racehorse with Taylor, he showed he had the potential to follow in his parent's footsteps.

"I gave him a day off and just put him in the paddock the first day he was here," said Taylor. "The first day we put the harness on, I line drove him out the door. We put the cart on him, and he was pacing walking up to the track. There was no bucking. There was no kicking. He walked up to the track, took a little look around, not out of panic or anything, and he just took off pacing."

As T H McMurry continued to progress, Taylor found himself racing the colt off a helmet as he trained his yearlings alongside Robbie Robinson's. But it didn't surprise Taylor that in his win T H McMurry cut the mile from the middle of the second quarter onward.

"Training I liked to get him kind of in the middle of the back or on a helmet," said Taylor. "I found he was a little racier off a helmet. Then one day I cut the mile and he was a gentleman on the front. Nice hold on the bit, but when another horse came up to him, he wanted to hit another level. It was like he found a gear where it, it kind of surprised you. It brought a smile to your face."

Taylor is a lifelong horseperson. His first exposure to racing came in his native province of Prince Edward Island through his grandfather Glen Taylor's horses, and continued with his father Kevin Taylor and his Uncle Kerry Taylor.

Then nearly two decades ago, Taylor accepted a job working track maintenance at Rideau Carleton, a role he is still in today. It wasn't the job he envisioned in racing when he moved to Ontario, but it gave him stability as he raised young children.

Now his kids are more grown up, and he has ramped up his involvement in the game. In racing, the horse of a lifetime can come at any moment, and for Taylor with T H McMurtry that moment appears to be on the horizon.

"I feel really privileged for him to have done what he's done so far," said Taylor. "The number of calls, texts and messages I got; it was really humbling just how nice people were. I can't stress enough how much I appreciate all those kind words and everything."

Roger Huston to promote Adios on Pittsburgh TV

He's called 44 editions of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids, and now, Roger Huston will appear on a prominent Pittsburgh TV station to promote this year's Adios on behalf of the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA).

Huston is scheduled to be interviewed on KDKA-TV's Pittsburgh Today Live on Friday (July 21); the show begins at 9 a.m. Huston, who's now retired as the longtime race caller at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows but still serves as the voice of the Little Brown Jug, says he expects to discuss his all-time favorite Adios races and also offer insight into this year's contest.

Eliminations for the $450,000 (EST) Adios are set for Saturday (July 22) at 12:45 p.m., with the Adios Day final to go on Saturday (July 29), first post 11:45 a.m. The Adios Day card is a harness racing extravaganza that features five Grand Circuit stakes as well as the Adios. This year's Pace for the Orchids promises to be competitive and exciting, as many of the sport's top 3-year-old pacers – including North America Cup winner It's My Show – are eligible for the Adios.

Current Meadows announcer Jeff Zidek will handle those duties for the Adios, but he indicates that he's invited Huston to participate in Adios Day by calling a few of the featured races.

/HARNESSRACINGUPDATE

Busy NYSS Day at Buffalo today

The 2023 Buffalo Raceway live harness racing season comes to a close on Saturday (July 22) so you'd expect things to be slowing down. It's quite the opposite.

Today (July 19), the New York Sire Stakes makes its final journey to the Hamburg half-mile oval with the sophomore colts and geldings along with the filly trotters competing in a unique doubleheader of sorts.

The gentlemen sidewinders will clash in the first and fifth races while the lady trotters will take their turn in the second and seventh events with all four divisions going for approximately $56,500 each in sire stakes purse money. Adding to the excitement will be four $20,000 Excelsior Series events that will be sprinkled in between the sire stakes.

The one race everyone is pointing at is the fifth race which attracted a stout field of five colt and gelding trotters.

Highlighting the field is Chapercraz (Crazy Wow—Chaperess) who has earned $209,652 this season in just nine starts. The Ron Burke trainee has had three second place finishes before coming to Buffalo Raceway including runner up showings in the $300,000 MGM Trot at Yonkers and in the $350,000 Zweig at Vernon Downs. The gelding has just one win in his career but continues to roll in the dough.

His main rival will be Espresso (Chapter Seven—Biscotti) who was in the money 10 out of 11 times in 2022, earning $243,400. He had a narrow length setback in the $137,775 Dexter Cup at Freehold Raceway on May 6 but won a $20,000 Excelsior Series race at Vernon Downs on May 23. Trained by Julie Miller, Tyler Miller is set to drive.

In the first race, the initial colt and geldings trot, Sevecheetah (Chapter Seven—White Cheetah) comes to Western New York off a pair of gate-to-wire wins at Yonkers Raceway. Ronnie Wrenn Jr. is scheduled to drive the Burke conditioned 3-year-old from the two spot.

The second race on the program is the first division of the NYSS for the fillies and it shapes up to be an interesting affair.

Last year's Excelsior Series champion, Usosweet (Devious Man—Twin B Kisses), is the only damsel not to be coming in off a victory. She did have a win this season in a $20,000 Excelsior race at Vernon Downs but had narrow second place finishes in the $104,371 Empire Breeders Crown at Vernon Downs and in the $59,200 sire stakes at Tioga Downs.

The other entrants include All The Rage, Woolco, Pride N Joy and Jean's Action all of whom have tasted victory in their last outings.

In the seventh race on the program, Ruth Honig (Chapter Seven—Lady Grey) leads the field of four. A winner of $142,093 last season, Ruth Honig has earned just $20,047 in five starts, but the lack of bankroll can be attributed to poor starting positions. That won't be an excuse this afternoon as driver Jordan Stratton gets the inside draw and should be ready to roll.

Post time for the 13-race card is 2:30 p.m. with the first eight races all stakes events.
