Ken Middleton, Jr. on the long road back from his training accident

Despite some setbacks, the Woodbine Mohawk Park race caller is working toward getting back in the booth and the bike.

by Murray Brown

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

The harness world was recently shocked to hear of a training accident involving long-time Woodbine Mohawk Park announcer Ken Middleton, Jr. The accident and its after effects are quite serious. Middleton is now in the hospital for the third time since going down on June 29.

"It happened with the quietest horse in my stable, the horse you would least expect to be fractious or problematic," Middleton said. "He was a bit fractious that day, and he was reluctant to turn when I got him on the track. He acted like something spooked him and he took off toward the entrance to the track. He ended up bolting on me and when he did, he spun around and flipped me out of the cart. The horse ran back to my barn, and that's when a number of other horsepeople came rushing to my aid as I laid on the ground. Someone was quick to call for an ambulance, and from that point I was then taken to Guelph General Hospital.

"Once there, I was subjected to a number of x-rays, CT scans and eventually an MRI. Those procedures helped doctors determine that I'd suffered a trio of fractured vertebrae in my neck. Once that was determined I was then transported to Hamilton General Hospital where I received the operation to fuse those vertebrae together with rods and screws. I had 43 staples in total going from the back of my head to the middle of my shoulder blades. I also had a piece of bone from another vertebrae that was impinging on my spinal cord. They were able to remove that piece of bone which they felt could be causing some of the neurological damage to my right arm."

You are now in the hospital for the third time since the event.

"Yes. It really has been a bitch. I spent 10 days in hospital before being discharged to my home, but after nine days at home I developed an infection in the surgical site. Surgeons then performed a wash out of the area in the second surgery, and it led to me being in hospital for another 10 days. I had a PIIK line inserted into my arm in order for antibiotics to be administered intravenously at home for six weeks, and there's a good chance I'll have to take oral antibiotics for the rest of my life because of the nature of the injury. I'm also still dealing with some nerve damage in my right arm, but I've got my fingers crossed that I'll regain strength and better mobility in that arm over time. My surgeon said it was a miracle that I came away with just those injuries."

Which leads to my next question. When do they anticipate that you will be back in the announcer's booth?

"It just depends on how things heal. I'll have regular checkups with the staff of the Hamilton General Hospital and I also have to take care to simply rest properly and do a lot of healing at home. I'm taking it one day at a time right now. I feel a little bit better each day. I'm slowly weaning myself off the pain medication I've been using and I just try to keep a positive attitude. Announcing doesn't require much physical dexterity or great strength, but it's a job that requires high energy and a great deal of focus and memorization. So as soon as the doctors are pleased with my progress and well-being I'll aim towards a return to the booth. As far as getting back to training horses, that will likely take much longer."

You had five horses in training at the time of the accident. What is their status while you are on the shelf?

"A close friend of mine, Richard Moreau, was at my training center the next day to pick up four horses that were racing. The night of the accident I actually had three horses in to go at Mohawk Park, and my friend Ben Hollingsworth took charge by getting them to the track, warming them up and getting them raced with the assistance of my niece, Kendal Middleton, Sandi Lawrence and MacKenzie Spence.

"I've also had incredible support from my mother, Judy, and my brother and his wife [Keith and Tania] when it came to taking care of business with the broodmares, yearlings and turnout horses at my farm. Its times like these where one realizes how great a community we have."

How did you become involved in training horses in addition to your full-time duties as a race caller?

"I suppose the bottom line was that I had a whole lot of time on my hands. I have always been around horses. My dad was the general manager at Elmira Raceway. I grew up doing just about everything there was to be done around a racetrack from mowing grass to actually calling races. Looking back, I would say that I was predestined to be involved in the sport.

"I hung around the stables, jogged horses, asked questions, utilized the answers to those questions and became a self-taught horseperson. I suppose that if it came around to one simple answer it would be that I loved it. I love calling races and everything associated with it. But I love being around the horses and horse people perhaps even more. That is pretty much all I've ever done throughout my life and career. That love hasn't diminished. It has grown. Just as at one time the announcer's booth presented a challenge, so have the jog cart and the breeding shed."

You mention the breeding shed. In addition to having become a fairly successful trainer, you are also involved in breeding and raising your own horses.

"I suppose it came down to being involved in all facets of the sport. I consider myself to be a student of the game in all parts of harness racing. In their own way, they all present a challenge. I have always been motivated by challenges. In breeding, my biggest claim to fame is Bob Loblaw [1:50.3 - $253,337]. I bred and raised him. I think I can say that more than anyone else he taught me how to become a successful breeder and a successful trainer.

"He was a wonderful teacher. He was perfect from day one. His win in the $225,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final at Mohawk Park has been the greatest thrill of my career. We both now find ourselves on the shelf raring to get back; Bob Loblaw trying to overcome an injury and me with assorted physical ills from the accident."

Let's speak of the area in which you are best known, race calling. How did it begin and evolve?

"I called my first race at Elmira when I was only 16. The regular announcer, because of a conflict with his day job, was unable to be there on Saturdays, so I was recruited for the task. It was a small race meet with only 50 race days a season. One could say I inherited the position to go along with all the other minor chores I had come to do.

"From there, I began calling races at several other Ontario "B" tracks. I spent four years at Flamboro Downs from 1994-1998 before taking a full-time on-air position at Woodbine Entertainment. Frank Salive was the regular race caller at WEG, and when he stepped down from the position in 2006 it was a position that I quickly jumped at. This fall will mark my 25-year anniversary of working for the company."

Who are the best horses that you have been privileged to call?

"The very best one, trotter or pacer, was Muscle Hill. He was the most gifted performer I have ever seen, yet I don't believe we came even close to seeing all of his greatness. I can't recall a race in which he was pushed to the limit. I think that if he wasn't retired at 3, he could have gone to Europe and beat the best in the world in the Prix d'Amerique and the Elitlopp. Among pacers, Somebeachsomewhere stands out, as well."

What was the one race that you've called that you would call the most noteworthy?

"That would be the 2008 North America Cup, the one which Somebeachsomewhere won. When they speak of electricity being in the air, that was what it was like at Mohawk that night. There was a huge crowd. They were there to see their hero prevail in Canada's greatest harness race. He didn't disappoint. The noise was deafening. It certainly was an incredible memory I won't forget."

Do you think that there is anything that distinguishes you from all other race callers?

"I think we all have our own style and delivery. I've always tried to simply call the race as it unfolds. Be accurate, be exciting and paint a picture."

Is there one announcer who you would label as the very best that you've heard?

"No question. That honor goes to Tom Durkin. He is the very best EVER in calling both harness and thoroughbred races. When God made Tom Durkin, he promptly broke the mold."

What are the primary needs of a good race caller?

"First and foremost, just call the race. Be accurate. Don't necessarily try to entertain. Include all the horses, even those who are seemingly out of contention."

Remembering Hambletonian Day 1983 and other facts about America's Classic Trotting Race

by Bob Heyden

It's been 40 years since the million-dollar barrier was broken for trotters on Hambletonian Day in 1983.

- The purse was $1,080,000 for the third Hambletonian held in New Jersey.
- The second richest pot that day was $60,000 in the U.S. Pacing Championship won by defending Horse of the Year Cam Fella.
- The track was good, sloppy and fast on a less than favorable weather day.
- Four drivers on the card were 25 and under: Marty Allen (24), Jeff Bolyard (24), Kelly O'Donnell (24) and Robbie Rankin (25).
- Attendance was 36,784, up 10,000 from year one in New Jersey (1981) when the race was held in the drizzle. A total of $3,632,593 went through the windows, a 27 per cent hike from 1982's $2,857,50.
- It was John Campbell's Hambletonian debut with Joie De Vie. He won his elimination heat and finished in a dead heat for fourth in the final.
- It was the only time in 42 Hambletonians in New Jersey that both heat winners did so from post 12.
- The winner, Duenna, was a daughter of 1977 Hambletonian champ Green Speed. The Hall of Fame stallion passed away the same year his first crop and top producer Duenna won America's Trotting Classic.
- When asked what "Duenna" meant, the always affable winning owner Norman Woolworth said, "It's Spanish for a woman who serves as an escort for a young lady, to protect her from the wolves, especially the two-legged variety."

LOST IN THE FABULOUS STORY OF THE 1983 HAMBLETONIAN?

Duenna beat the boys. Of the 24 entered, there were only two females and they were 1-2 across the wire in the final. Winky's Gill was second.

There were many good stories, especially with a million dollars on the line. But something else happened that Saturday afternoon and the next race day, Monday night. It was the first and only time that million dollar races were on back-to-back race cards at the same track. Following the Aug. 6 Hambletonian, The $1,700,000 Woodrow Wilson on Aug. 8 was won by Carls Bird and there were four consolations worth another half million combined. That's right folks, a Monday night million dollar race which is still the fifth richest race ever contested.

FIRST NATIONAL TV HAMBLETONIAN COVERAGE IN 1975

How much did harness racing appreciate its first national TV coverage for the 1975 Hambletonian? This much: Wow!

DuQuoin State Fair president Don Hayes said the following, "A delayed telecast such as ABC's Wide World Of Sports is ideal for the Hambletonian, as it will not only convey all the action and excitement of each heat via video-tape, but all the wonderful color and background, that is so much a part of the race, will be captured."

The purse was a record $232,192, and Bonefish won in four heats.

LAST LICKS

Not counting last year's winning driver Todd McCarthy, these five all won the Hambletonian in their last appearance in it:

Bob McClure 2019

Ray Schnittker 2008

Roger Hammer 2005

Stefan Melander (Only drive, 2001 with Scarlet Knight)

Mal Burroughs 1997

DOMINANCE

Muscle Hill, from 2016-2019 was the sire of 102 Hambletonian Day starters, including a record 27 in 2019 alone. This was the year before he won it with a filly (Ramona Hill, 2020) and three years after his son Marion Marauder won the Triple Crown in 2016. Included on that epic 2019 card was Oaks winner When Dovescry, the fabulous Manchego, who had a career on just Hambletonian Days alone, as well as Hambletonian runner-up and maiden, Spy Booth.

TRIPLE CROWN DOUBLE ON HAMBLETONIAN DAY

Yonkers played host to the first two Triple Crown races this year (the Messenger and Yonkers Trot), just ask Mike Gulotta whose farm bred both winners. Now, the Cane Pace and Hambletonian go on Aug 5 at The Meadowlands.

My vote for the most memorable Cane in recent years?

The 1977 final on June 18, with $114,600 on the line.

Jade Prince won it with Nat Lobell second.

Father-son Jack and John Kopas finished 1-2. But, get this, they were 18 lengths in front of the favorite who wound up third. It was Big Towner at 6-5 with Lucien Fontaine.

The winning time was 1:59.

Dad paid $63.20 to win while youthful John was the 5-1 fourth choice.

B Gs Bunny who made a break scattering horses before the final turn on the lead was fifth.

Governor Skipper was seventh in this star-studded field.

This race was prior to the first Meadowlands Pace. The top two Cane finishers were favored in both elims and the Pace final on July 12, but could not derail Escort.

Honorable mention goes to the 1994 Cane, the only time Cams Card Shark finished off the board (fifth) in his $2.264 million record setting year.

SOME HAMBLETONIAN DAY NUMBERS

It's the 25th anniversary of Chuck Sylvester being the only trainer in New Jersey Hambletonian history to send out the four favorites (two couple entries) in the same year.

They finished 1-2 in each elim.

They were bookends in the final, finishing first (Muscles Yankee), second (David Raymond), last (Armbrory Rotary) and next to last (Silver Pine).

Fifteen of 30 Hambletonians in NJ, 1981-2010, were won by the betting choice.

The first 27 Hambletonians none went for six figures. The breakthrough year was 1953 when Harry Harvey and Helicopter won for $117,117.

CHECK (OR IS IT NO CHECK) THIS OUT

The Hambletonian is a race where you must pay your dues.

Here are some "name" drivers and how they did in their first Hambletonian drive:

Brian Sears, last in 2003 with Muscle King.

Jason Bartlett, eighth in 2017 with Guardian Angel As.

Joey Bongiorno, seventh in 2016 with Make Or Miss.

Corey Callahan, sixth in 2012 with From Above.

The last four-heat Hambletonian was in 1976. Just 14 days after that epic battle, 10 of the 12 made it to the Colonial at Liberty Bell. Wow, they don’t make ‘em like that anymore.

Of the last 150 Hambletonian finalists, 38 per cent have had trainers born in the U.S.

Serendipity on the Indiana Fair Circuit

An unexpected meeting between Jay Cross and owner Carl Hanes turned out to be just what both of them needed. Now the friends are bonding even more over sophomore trotting filly Sure Do.

by James Platz

Nearly a decade has passed since horseman Jay Cross sat down next to a complete stranger he knew only as 'Carl' in the grandstand before a fair program at Connersville, IN. Carl Hanes had watched fair racing as a boy, and now retired, he had become a regular at most stops along the Indiana fair circuit. Through that introduction, the two have built a partnership and friendship that has brought them through trying times, and more recently, to the winner's circle. They are currently enjoying the fruits of sophomore trotting filly Sure Do, a winner in eight of 10 seasonal starts competing primarily at the fairs.

"My dad would take me to Converse to the races," Hanes said of his early interest. "I was introduced to it back when I was six, seven, eight years old. Over the years, I went to the races, mostly the county fair races. I lost my wife 15 years ago. I've been a farmer all my life. I had retired from farming, and I had no hobbies, so I started following the county fair circuit again."

Cross' wife, Pam, works as the charter at many of the fairs, and her parents also assisted with photo finish from time to time. Both Jay and Pam noticed Hanes and struck up conversations with him throughout the summer.

"Pam's parents don't know any strangers, but they got acquainted with him," Jay said. "I would hear Pam and her mom and dad talk about talking to Carl. At Connersville, Pam's mom and dad were there. Before the races I went upstairs and talked to them. Carl was sitting halfway down the stairs right there on the end. I was going down to the racetrack to get ready and I just stopped, sat down and introduced myself, which is totally not me."

Neither went into detail about the length of the conversation or the subject matter, instead focusing on how the exchange ended.

"When he got ready to leave he asked, 'Did you ever think about owning a racehorse?'" Hanes said. "I said, 'Well, I'm just afraid they would cost too much for me and my liking.' I didn't really know how much it would take."

Jay responded, "If you're really interested, come down to the trailer after the races.' He did, so we talked a little bit more."

Jay and Pam Cross outlined with Hanes the expenses of caring for and racing a horse. They provided their address and an open invitation to visit their Middlebury farm. A few weeks later, Hanes made the two-hour trek from his home in Fairmount.

"When I got there, Jay showed me around" Hanes said. "He asked, 'Have you got some time? I want you to go with me. I have a horse that I think you would be interested in.'"

The horse in question was a Valley Speed 2-year-old named Glowing Embers. Hanes recalled watching the gelding race during the 2013 fair season. The trotter had finished the campaign, hitting the board in eight of 15 starts without a victory, and was turned out in anticipation of his sophomore season. The asking price on Glowing Embers was $2,200, and a deal was quickly struck.

"I had been to a couple of sales, and I knew what the less expensive horses were bringing," Hanes said. "I looked at Jay and said, 'How quick can you load him up?' That's how I got my first horse."

~ Jay Cross

Glowing Embers collected one win on the fair circuit in 2014, and five wins overall while earning $18,618.

That season, Jay helped Hanes navigate the experience of first-time horse ownership. Racing also became a welcomed distraction to a man still dealing with the loss of his spouse. However, before season’s end, it was Hanes who would provide guidance to the long-time horseman facing his own challenges.

“I always thought it was neat that God placed me in his life to help him through the time of losing his wife,” Jay said. “When I had my cancer, he was placed into that situation for me. The big thing when I first learned I had prostate cancer was that I wanted to talk with someone that had it. We didn’t know what we were getting into, and I didn’t know anybody.

“In the course of events, I had to tell my owners what was going on. I was looking at surgery. And of course cancer is a scary word, you don’t know what you’re getting into.”

Hanes remembers joining the trainer at the races in Goshen that year and noting that Jay was not himself. The two sat down a few days later and the veteran conditioner shared his recent diagnosis. Much to his surprise, he discovered an ally that had personally waged the same battle.

“We had breakfast together and after we got done, I told him what was going on” Jay said. “I can see him just like it was yesterday. He just sat back, put his hands together on his chest over his belly and leaned back and said, ‘I had that, and I’ve never had any trouble.’ I asked him questions. It had been 11 years since he had gone through it. It's one of those things where you can relate to somebody totally differently when they've been through the same thing. It was a big comfort to know that this was somebody that had been through it."

Added Hanes, "I told him, 'I know exactly what you're talking about because I've been through it.' It just perked him up, knowing you can survive prostate cancer."

Nine years later, the two men are connected once again, this time through the achievements of trotting filly Sure Do. After the success of Glowing Embers, the owner and trainer set out to employ the same strategy each season. Late in the year they would try to identify a 2-year-old currently racing to buy and campaign at 3. They were able to repeat their initial success. For instance, Hanes partnered with fellow owner Maynard Miller on Jailhouse Jesse filly Credit Fraud from late 2017 through early October 2018. The sophomore won six races on the fair circuit that summer, including five in a row at one point.

There were some missteps, however, including yearlings purchased in back-to-back years that didn't pan out on the track. The men may not have returned to the yearling market if acquiring young horses at the end of the freshman season had not become so difficult.

"For two years we couldn't get anything bought," Jay said. "That's when the Amish market got hot and put us out of business. The second year I thought I had something bought. Ownership partners decided to buy the rest out instead of selling. There were a couple others I thought I could buy and they all fell through. Carl said something about buying a yearling, but I didn't think that's what he wanted to do."

"I've had good luck with [Sure Do]. Being inexperienced in horse racing, I'm tickled to death. I think Jay is too. He says she is easy to work with. She's doing well. He's happy with her, and I like what I see. That's a thrill to win the championship. I'm hoping to do that again this year."

Hanes showed up at the 2021 Hoosier Classic sale in search of a horse. Jay had noticed a trotting filly from the first crop of You Know You Do. She was a half-sister to a filly he had purchased in partnership that never made it to the races. He had not fully inspected her, but was discussing the filly with Pam when Hanes approached. Jay, who also helps with the sale, was called away to assist with an audio issue.

"I came back and up walks Carl and hands me the ticket," Jay said. "He had bought Sure Do. I didn't get her out and look at her, I just kind of, in passing, looked over the stall gate, and she was kind of a flashy looking filly. Pam pointed out that she had a front foot that was not 100 per cent correct. It's not a glaring fault, but it's there."

Purchased for $10,000, Sure Do is the eighth horse Hanes has owned since the partnership began, and she has turned into quite the competitor. Last season, she won six of her 10 attempts and finished off the board only once. She triumphed in the $25,000 Governor's Cup Championship at the Indiana State Fair, taking her 1:59 freshman mark in the victory. Sure Do closed out the year with $28,145 in earnings.

This season, Sure Do has proven tough to beat on the fair circuit. After debuting at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino with placings of fifth and third in back-to-back weeks, the sophomore moved to the fairs and has not tasted defeat since. Conditioned and driven by Cross, the John Bontrager Jr.-bred trotter has reeled off eight straight wins. Her latest victory, a 1:55.1 score Thursday (July 27) against the boys at Hoosier Park, displayed her determination. In that contest, Sure Do fought off multiple challenges late in the lane to reach the wire first by a quarter length, setting a new lifetime best.

"I didn't go into it planning to get a win like that," Jay said. "But that's the way it worked out. She hasn't been challenged that many times this summer. She was determined to win. They came at her on both sides late and she just dug in and fought them off. She's just really sharp right now."

The filly currently sits atop the fair circuit divisional point standings for her category. She needs one more start at the fairs to qualify for the Governor's Cup Championships in mid-August. Cross said he is pointing to Portland on Aug. 5 to register her seventh fair start and make her championship eligible. Sure Do has earned $23,605 this season and has just shy of $52,000 on her card for her career.

"I've had good luck with her," said Hanes, now in his early 80s. "Being inexperienced in horse racing, I'm tickled to death. I think Jay is too. He says she is easy to work with. She's doing well. He's happy with her, and I like what I see. That's a thrill to win the championship. I'm hoping to do that again this year."

The Late Bloomer Debut, a race proposal

by Trey Nosrac

Let me toss an idea on the table before it gets lost in my mental junk drawer.

Saturday, July 1, 2023, was a highlight of my harness racing wagering year. Scioto Downs played host to four Preferred Equine Next Generation races, each with a purse of $150,000. Various owners, trainers or stables needed to put up 10 grand to enter a drawing to own a slot in the Next Generation races. Owners of these slots seek out competitive novice horses. For me, the entire process is great fun and quite intriguing.

Each horse in The Next Generation race is a 2-year-old that never participated in a pari-mutuel race at a commercial racetrack. This type of race is the epitome of what I enjoy watching and wagering on: untested horses with a minimal performance record behind them. How they perform in that first official race is an exciting mystery. For me, the Preferred Equine Next Generation races are more playable than traditional big races later in the season. Fiscally and emotionally, I was all over the four races. Kudos to whoever was behind this concept.

The concept of the Next Generation is engaging. Assuming the financials on the race are positive, I suggest a sequel because:

"There is no harm in repeating a good thing," — Plato.

"Every beginning is only a sequel. After all, the book of events is always open halfway through," — Wislawa Szymborska.

"This may be a bad idea, but it might be a good time," — Trey.

The proposed sequel to the Next Generation race uses the same format. The word sequel is probably not a good adjective for this race concept because 2-year-olds will not be eligible. All the equine participants will be 3-year-olds that are brand new faces.

The title of the proposed race should be, The Late Bloomer Debut. The race depends on finding young horses in a specific category: 3-year-olds sired in the state that never made a start, not even in a fair. The Late Bloomer race is for contestants of the crop of 2-year-olds that missed the early racing train. Maybe they were immature, injured, or sore up at age 2. For some reason, they did not race.

A few thoughts on the proposed race:

- Injured 2-year-olds will have a brighter future and a race to target that offer a career restart.
- This early race could fill a void in the schedule, a race in March or April when very few “big” races are on the table.
- A handful of marginal horses and owners could have an unexpected day in the spotlight.
- Owners and trainers have 2-year-olds that get pushed too hard. This carrot could convince a few to skip the freshman season.
- When you have a borderline 2-year-old in training and shut the young horse down, the possibility of entering the Late Bloomer race would ease the disappointment.
- Use the Next Generation as the template for the Late Bloomers and monitor the wagering and popularity metrics.
- A beautiful thought that would make buying a slot promising is that all your competition would be in the same boat. Ergo, your competition will be very select (perhaps not speedy).
- Sequels are good business. Tom Cruise will probably be filming Mission Impossible #27 in his 80s.
- There is nothing to lose if not enough 3-year-olds are in this category to fill the fields and stage the race, slot money would get refunded.

When eligibility in the Late Bloomers Debut is limited to only unraced 3-year-olds, the pool of competitors should be small, this is an asset. These races are still debuts. The quality of the starting field would be relative. A marginal racehorse debuting for colossal money is a remarkable and marketable concept. How good would a headline like this look: Ms Greystone wins $100,000 Late Bloomer Debut Filly Trot in 2:05.2, pays $46.20 to win.

You may think a slow time for a big purse is stupid, but this headline has a silver lining for the horse-buying and racing public. The 3-year-old debut races would be exciting and intriguing. The race would involve a dramatic jockeying for owners and trainers looking for just the right 3-year-old for the slot.

And remember, being a late bloomer is preferable to never blooming.

Joanne Roy Young – Horse owner, advocate and extraordinary woman

by Victoria Howard

The people involved in harness racing are diverse and admirable. They come from all walks of life.

The sport's "family" consists not only of dedicated, hardworking, horse-loving human beings, but some have other jobs that are extraordinary, honorable and worth mentioning.

There are several attorneys who will gladly lend a hand to help fellow horsepeople in dire situations, and several physicians and real estate moguls who have helped our sport survive and thrive.

And then there's a woman named Joanne Roy Young.

Perhaps you may know her as the co-owner of what one of the best 3-year-old male pacers in 2023, It's My Show, the extremely fast son of Young's champion pacing mare, Put On A Show.

On June 17, the son of Sweet Lou was victorious in the North America Cup, crossing the finish line first in a sizzling 1:47.4. On Saturday, he finished fourth in the Adios.

Driven by Canadian native Scott Zeron and trained by Hall of Famer Linda Toscano, It's My Show has accumulated a bankroll of some $550,000.

But this is not Young's first champion for It's My Show is following in his big brother, Best In Show's footsteps.

And his dam, Put On A Show, is considered, by many, as one of the best broodmares in the business. When asked who her favorite all time horse was, she didn't hesitate.

"OMG, can I have more than one?" she said with a laugh. "I would have to say it's Put On A Show, and I Luv the Nitelife."

Joanne and her ex-husband and horse partner Richard are disappointed Put On A Show has never been nominated to the Hall of Fame. During her racing career, Put On A Show earned $2.4 million in only 50 races.

"Put On A Show was incredible," said Joanne. "She fractured her knee in her last race as a 3-year-old that required three pins to be inserted. For 15 months she rested and healed; thus, she never raced at 4.

"When she was 5 years old she made it back to race and became the fastest mare of all time [earning $500,000]. We decided to race her against the boys in the Breeders Crown and by doing so we gave up the chance to win another Dan Patch."

Put On A Show has had a roller coaster career as a broodmare for she aborted twice, one foal died at birth and another foal almost died from an illness she contracted at birth that resulted in her never becoming a racehorse.

However, Put On A Show has successfully delivered two colts. Best In Show is one of them. He is now standing stud in Indiana. The other is the great It's My Show [now a gelding].

Joanne was born in Adams, MA, and although she was not brought up with horses, she always loved them.

"As a child, my father would take me to the thoroughbred races at Green Mountain Park in Powne, VT," Joanne said. "The first time I saw those incredible creatures, I fell in love. My dream was to be a jockey and although I chose a different path, my love for horses continued throughout my life. I have been fortunate to have not only owned some great racehorses, but had the immense pleasure of owning many wonderful performance horses.

"I've been riding competitively for 35 years and my latest horse, a Dutch Warmblood named Indyco, is my dressage star. Flash, a purebred Arabian is my trail horse. He lives in Northern California and has taken me on some spectacular places to ride. Horses are my peace and just hanging out with them brings me solitude and presence."

Joanne met her former husband Richard Young in 1976. One of their first dates was attending the horse races at Pompano Park Racetrack.

Richard was no stranger to the sport. As a youngster he grew up attending harness races with his Uncle Ted in Canada. Richard and Joanne bought their first racehorse, Heads Up Handsome, which ignited their love of the animal and the competition of racing.

Presently, the Youngs are the proud owners of two horses: It's My Show, and a yearling named I'll Take U There also out of Put On a Show.

Joanne is not only a dedicated horse owner, but she's the co-founder of an organization called A Spring of Hope that partners with schools supporting water, gardening and sanitation projects in Africa.

How did this wonderful organization come to be?

"In the summer of 2005, my daughter Brittany and I visited the Limpopo province of South Africa," Joanne said. "Chance circumstances landed us at Beretta Primary School in Acornhoek, an impoverished town located in a former Bantustan, or apartheid-era 'Homeland.' Beretta had over 1,200 students and no running water, a reality most schools in rural South Africa must face. School gardens, which provided for many students their only source of fresh fruits and vegetables, grew exclusively during the rainy seasons. Volunteer mothers would walk miles to retrieve buckets of water from a government pump to prepare lunch for the children."

Joanne went on to explain that sadly, sanitation, hygiene, and water access are some of the biggest obstacles for rural schools, not only in South Africa, but across the entire continent.

"When Brittany returned to the States, she teamed up with high school friends to fundraise for a borehole [deep water well] at Beretta Primary," Joanne said. "In 2006, a well was completed with the help of South African friends Brendon and Sheri Schmiki. In 2007, A Spring of Hope was founded and has grown into a professional NGO with an ambitious and unique mission to combine clean water access with economic and social development programs. A Spring of Hope also partners with community gardens and community centers that provide resources and support for impoverished communities in rural South Africa.

"In 2014, I purchased a gorgeous villa in a game reserve. In collaboration with Saffer Auctions, <https://safferandcompany.com/>, we offer a most unique, extremely popular memorable vacation at Thulani, Thulani-soutafrica.com. We partner with local and national charities, donating Thulani as an auction item, with a portion of the winning bid going to A Spring of Hope. It's a win/win for both charities. Guests experience local villages and community projects that their donations help fund. This once-in-a-lifetime experience is something one would not encounter on any other safari holiday."

Cannibal finds Lightning Lane in time, wins $350,000 Adios final

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

As the field turned for home in Saturday's (July 29) $350,000 final of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, two questions remained before the house: Could Cannibal find the Lightning Lane in enough time to speed by the trio vying for the lead? Would he have enough pop to overtake them?

The answers were, he could and he did, as Cannibal poured through the passing lane to capture a head victory in 1:49 in the 57th edition of the Adios.

It's My Show, the race favorite who set a world record 1:47.4 in his elimination last week, quarter-poled to the top for Scott Zeron but was forced to a swift :53.3 front half. That was the signal for Redwood Hanover to move first over from fifth while Seven Colors picked up the live cover. As they thundered down the stretch, all four had victory within reach.

But it was Cannibal and Yannick Gingras who took advantage of the best trip, downing Redwood Hanover by a head, with Seven Colors a close-up third. It's My Show had to settle for fourth.

Gingras said he wasn't confident he had enough racetrack left to get the job done.

"I liked the spot I got in early in the race, and I could see It's My Show getting a little tired," he said. "But when I saw Palone's horse [Seven Colors], I was a little worried that I wouldn't get there in time. It's actually exactly how I saw the race unfold. About once every hundred races, it does unfold the way you see it."

It was the second Adios title for Gingras, who triumphed in 2013 with Sunfire Blue Chip for trainer Jimmy Takter, a Hall of Famer and the father of Saturday's winning conditioner, Nancy Takter.

Cannibal, a son of Sweet Lou—No More Losses, has won six of seven starts this year, tasting defeat only in the Meadowlands Pace final. He now has banked $365,978 for owner/breeder Diamond Creek Racing.

Nancy Takter completed a rare Adios Day double as her 3-year-old filly, Always B Naughty, took the $114,770 Quinton Patterson Adios Volo, the companion feature to the Adios.

Asked if she viewed her Adios victory as the continuation of a family tradition, since her dad won the event twice (2013, 2009 with Vintage Master), she replied:

"No, not really. I try not to compare myself to my dad because I'll probably lose every time if I try to do that. It's a classic race, and it's a special day for harness racing."

She said both her Adios Day winners will head to Kentucky for sires stake action.

ADIOS DAY NOTES: The Ron Burke Brigade had 17 horses spread over 10 Adios Day races, an uncommonly-light work load for them and a far cry from their high of 29. But the quality was there, as Burke horses won five races on the 16-race program. Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. notched three of those victories with the other two to Chris Page. In the day's Grand Circuit racing, sweep was the order of the day. Burke swept both divisions of the Mary Lib Miller for freshman filly pacers while Anthony MacDonald and trainer Tim Twaddle captured both splits of the James Maderino for sophomore colt and gelding trotters.

Burke locked and loaded off sweep of Hambletonian eliminations

by Ray Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

Just six years ago, Ron Burke nearly had his first Hambletonian victory before What The Hill suffered the only disqualification of a first-place finisher in the race's history. He and Yannick Gingras, also still chasing a win in the American classic, exited Saturday night (July 29) at The Meadowlands primed and ripe to avenge What The Hill's DQ after sweeping the pair of $100,000 Hambletonian eliminations.

The faster of the two eliminations went to Celebrity Bambino, who flambéed a crispy 1:50.4 jogburger to win in hand to Gingras.

Celebrity Bambino planted onto the point to a :27.4 first quarter with French Wine securing the pocket and Up Your Deo in third. Gingras had the 7-2 third choice rolling undisturbed to a :55.3 half while Winner's Bet, attempting to overcome post 10, found himself stuck plugging uncovered on the rim with Tactical Approach in tow.

Foes gave chase to Celebrity Bambino that grew fleetingly futile to three-quarters in 1:23.3. Gingras chirped at the Muscle Hill—Celebrity Ruth colt and he spurted clear of competition in the lane. French Wine clung to second off the pocket ride, beaten 1-3/4 lengths, with Tactical Approach grabbing third from Winner's Bet and Up Your Deo securing the last berth into the final.

"He was full of trot and I chirped to him in the middle of the last turn and he went like a good horse," Gingras said after the race. "All through the wire he was trotting strong."

The win by Celebrity Bambino put his bankroll at $411,295 after a promising freshman campaign rife with near misses and opportunities. He popped onto the scene with a win in the Peter Haughton Memorial elimination, but scratched in the final due to sickness and had a comeback tour that ended with a narrow defeat to Gaines Hanover in the 2022 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot.

"We didn't do as well as we had hoped at the end of the year," Gingras said, "but he raced well in the fall. I expected a lot from this colt all along, and even this year – trip hasn't really worked out; there was always an excuse. But every time he went through the wire he had the bit in his mouth. He's nice."

A seven-time winner from 18 starts, Celebrity Bambino competes for owners Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva Stables, Knox Services and Phil Collura. He paid $9.80 to win.

While Celebrity Bambino showed sparks as a 2-year-old, the Burkes' other elimination winner Point Of Perfect went 0-for-15 as a freshman. On the heels of two wins in six starts this season, Point Of Perfect captured the first Hambletonian elimination with a 16-1 upset in 1:51.2.

Gingras hustled Point Of Perfect off the wings as the cavalry charged through the first turn, where Kierkegaard K made an uncharacteristic break. Point Of Perfect planted himself on the helm to a :27.1 first quarter but yielded control to Little Expensive up the backstretch, though only for a short time. Gingras circled Point Of Perfect back to the top before a :54.4 half and attempted to rate through the final turn.

As the tempo slowed, 3-5 favorite Oh Well pulled first over under confident handling and strode to the leader's neck marching to three-quarters in 1:23. Oh Well continued his attack into the lane but Point Of Perfect reengaged, sliding to a slightly wider lead at the eighth pole. Point Of Perfect stayed game to the finish as the backfield came swooping late to claim a half-length victory in 1:51.2. Oh Well settled for second, Osceola weaved through traffic to fly in for third with Ghostly Casper rallying for fourth and Southwind Coors grinding to grab fifth – the top five separated only by 1-1/4 lengths.

“He’s a pretty aggressive horse and we had some stuff in his mouth to try to get him to calm down a bit, and he wasn’t really liking it,” Gingras said of the Points Of Perfect’s tendency to gallop. “Every time you’d grab a hold of him, he’d shake his head and make breaks. The breaks he made, it was always when he was on the move to do work. [Ronnie] changed a few things around and he’s got him on point now. He’s perfect to drive, lets me do my job and he obviously did his tonight.”

Point Of Perfect has now won three races from 22 starts and has earned $217,146 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, J&T Silva Stables and Knox Services. The colt by Walner and out of Southwind Fiat paid $34.60 to win.

Gingras, inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2022, will try for his first Hambletonian victory next Saturday (Aug. 5).

“Last time I won both eliminations I picked the wrong one,” Gingras said, smiling, after winning the second elimination. He famously had a difficult choice following the first heat of the 2015 Hambletonian where he chose to drive Burke trainee Mission Brief, who finished second to the horse Gingras opted off in winner Pinkman for trainer Jimmy Takter.

Point Of Perfect and Celebrity Bambino, by winning their eliminations, earn the right to draw between post 1 and post 5 for the $1 million final next Saturday.

Regarding his driving choice in the final, Gingras also said, “I don’t need to wait for Tuesday. It’s going to be [Celebrity] Bambino.”

HAMBLETONIAN, OAKS DRAWS ON TUESDAY

Walner Payton, Heart On Fire crush favorites in Hambletonian Oaks eliminations

by Frank Coto for Meadowlands media relations

Walner Payton and driver Dexter Dunn made a strong move to take the lead and never relinquished control to win the first $40,000 Hambletonian Oaks elimination in 1:51.4 on Saturday night (July 29) at The Meadowlands. A shocking 1:51.2 upset performance by Heart Of Fire, handled by Todd McCarthy, was the highlight of the second Oaks elimination.

Walner Payton, a Walner—Lonely Lady filly, sat third to the first quarter while Railee Something cut that section in :27.4 with Mambacita gliding along in the catbird seat. Dunn took Walner Payton to the outside and carefully rolled by Railee Something as the half clocked in :55.3.

Walner Payton did not need much urging coming to three-quarters in 1:24.2 and she remained resolute at the pylons into the stretch as Railee Something tried to rally past, but mustered only second while beaten a half-length. Heaven Hanover closed for third with Instagram Model and Mambacita rounding the finalists in the 1:51.4 mile.

Heart On Fire (Todd McCarthy) upset in the other Oaks elimination in 1:51.2.

Chris Ryder trains the winner. Kenneth E. Jacobs owns Walner Payton, whose lifetime bankroll increased to $808,652 as she notched her sixth win from 20 starts.

"She hadn't really been that good on the front," said Dunn, "but [Chris Ryder] put a hood on her tonight and she was a lot sharper. Once we got [to the front] she felt great with her ears pricked fully forward." He called her a classy filly that "turns up week after week and never chucks in a bad performance."

Walner Payton paid $11.60 to win.

In the second elimination, with Bond an overwhelming public choice, Righteous Resolve shot out of the 8 hole to get a good early position, but Bond was aflame off the gate from post 1 and led the field around the first turn. Righteous Resolve followed her, with Secret Volo and Heart On Fire marching after Bond in a :25.4 first quarter.

Bond was flying on the lead with no challenges in sight, cutting the half in a fiery :53.4. The chase continued and Bond appeared able to handle any threats, though Secret Volo fired to the outside and Righteous Resolve tipped out and both became dangerous charges after three-quarters in 1:22.4.

As Bond struggled to keep afloat, the pylon path welcomed Heart On Fire and she scooped ground and landed on the wire first in 1:51.2. Secret Volo had the best closing act, finishing second; and Righteous Resolve took third. Kayleigh S took fourth and Bond held fifth to make the final.

Tony Alagna trains Heart On Fire, a Father Patrick—Corazon Blue Chip filly. Eric K. Good owns Heart On Fire, now the lifetime winner of $306,789 after collecting her fifth victory from 18 tries. She paid $74.20 to win.

Driver Todd McCarthy said he was hoping to get a trip and "sneak through and get a spot in the final. But the way the race shaped up it worked out really good for us."

Skyline Seashell reasserts, breaks maiden in Arden Downs Stake

Meanwhile, Jujubee goes 1:51.1, the fastest mile ever trotted at The Meadows

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Passed by a rival entering the final turn, Skyline Seashell dug deep, reasserted in the lane and broke her maiden in Friday's (July 28) $40,000 Arden Downs Grand Circuit Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Insider Trading captured the other division in the event for freshman filly trotters known as the Edward M. Ryan.

The first-over Better In Aruba edged nearly a full length ahead of Skyline Seashell but could not cross over. That's when the daughter of Father Patrick—Fate Smiled responded to Mike Wilder and reclaimed the lead, notching her first win in five starts in 1:57.2. Mon Amie Martine rallied for second, a length back, while Better In Aruba saved show.

"I've kind of been flying under the radar with my filly," Wilder said. "I've been real quiet with her, getting good last quarters, and I've been wanting to make that move with her that I made tonight, and she showed up."

Dan Altmeyer trains the winner for Diamond Club Racing, Anthony Capone, Jr., Mark Capone and David Wills.

Insider Trading followed live cover and rolled to a comfortable victory in a career-best 1:56.4 for Anthony MacDonald, trainer Tim Twaddle and owner TheStable Insider Trading Group. Cahira Hanover closed well for second, beaten 1-1/2 lengths, with Freedonia IT third.

"I have all the faith in the world in this filly," MacDonald said of the daughter of Greenshoe—Topcat Hall. "She's always been a little fragile, a little fractious, and tonight for the first time, I saw her put it all together for the whole race."

the splits, with the MacDonald-Twaddle team doubling up with Activation and Memoryimagination. Also worth noting is the work of the offspring of Father Patrick, who took four of the five stake splits on the program.

Honor Guard appeared to be in a deep hole, a maiden 2-year-old trailing by 5-1/2 lengths at the half. But he picked up live first-over cover and kept on advancing for Dave Palone, drawing off by an eye-popping 6-3/4 lengths in 1:58.3. Viktory Blue Chip and Five Second Rule completed the ticket.

"He has pedigree," Palone said. "So, I figured somewhere along the line he's either going to show it or not. I let him stretch out up the back side, which was a mistake. He got lost when he was off by himself. Next week I might not let him move to the point so quick."

Scott Cox conditions the daughter of Father Patrick—Honor Thy Daughter for Jason Ash LLC.

Activation led for most of the mile after a contested opening panel, but MacDonald indicated it's wise to stay busy on the Father Patrick—Repentance gelding.

"He never makes it easy on you, that's for sure," MacDonald said. "He won't run usually, but he makes you work for it every inch of the mile. He's always in neutral, rarely up into fifth gear. He'll come on when he's challenged. He's just a big goof out there, to be honest."

Put Option was second, beaten 2-1/2 lengths, while Kill A Word earned show.

Elsewhere on Friday's card, Jujubee, harness racing's 2021 Trotter of the Year who had been largely silent for the past two seasons, made rather a loud statement when he won the $21,200 open handicap trot in 1:51.1, fastest mile ever trotted at The Meadows. The son of Creatine—La Cantera eclipsed the all-age mark of 1:51.3 held jointly by Tall Cotton, Lifetime Pursuit and Jeffery P.

Hunter Myers guided Jujubee, who now boasts a career bankroll of $1,178,145, for trainer Greg Wright Jr. and owner Jon Erdner.

DSBF finals, Governor's Cup headlined Harrington's richest program

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

More than $600,000 in total purses were contested on the annual Governor's Day program during the Delaware State Fair at Harrington Raceway on Thursday (July 27).

Racing fans weathered one of the warmest days of the summer on day eight of the Delaware State Fair with a 12-race program, comprised of four $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) final events for 3-year-olds, in addition to several customary races for older horses, highlighted by the $50,000 Governor's Cup (older pacers).

The first DSBF Final on the card saw Gty Stable's Gaitway Guy ($15.60, Corey Callahan) surge off a three-wide move to a 1:53.3 triumph in the male pacing final over Night Terror and Bad Boy Too. The Delmarvalous gelding notched his 10th win in 13 career starts for trainer Jeff Smith.

Jeff Clark's She Is Strong ($2.40, Tim Tetrack) won her fourth straight with a 1:58.2 triumph in the filly trotting final over Lilmisswontbewrong and Gold Rate. The Art Stafford Jr.-trainee pressured tiring leader Miss Daburg near three-quarters and drew away from the field with a seven-length score. The Anders Bluestone filly scored her ninth career win.

In the pacing filly final, Stephen Messick's Misty Coast ($5, Art Stafford Jr.) was a 1:55.2 winner over Direct Mist and Kims Secret Search. The Powerful Mist filly cruised on the front end to a 3-length score after contenders Hold My Wine and Killer Stripes made breaks near the start. Trained by Les Givens, it was the 10th win of her career in 16 starts.

George Teague, David Collins and Lakiya Teachey's Kodack Black ($2.10, Montrell Teague) was a dominant 1:58.2 winner in the male trotting final over Perfect Twenty and Hespoockshescores. The Kodak Lindy gelding used a successful first-over brush to the lead and was a five-length winner for trainer Clyde Francis and notched his ninth career win.

In the $50,000 Governor's Cup, Harrington's defending leading driver Allan Davis scored his first Governor's Cup win with

by Emily Ratcliff / Harrah's Hoosier Park

After a track record equalling mile in stakes action last week, Buzzsaw Russ, with John DeLong in the bike, continued his winning ways in the featured event of the evening the $96,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Friday (July 18) at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. With the win, Buzzsaw Russ scored his second consecutive victory and third win from seven seasonal starts.

Leaving from the coveted rail position, Buzzsaw Russ left just enough to protect his position and grab the pocket seat behind the co-favored Coach Stefanos and Trace Tetrick. Coach Stefanos reached the opening quarter in :28 and went uncontested through the second station in :55.3. As the field approached the final turn, LeWayne Miller had Why Not Now out and applying pressure from first-over with JK Black Gold and Kyle Wilfong in tow.

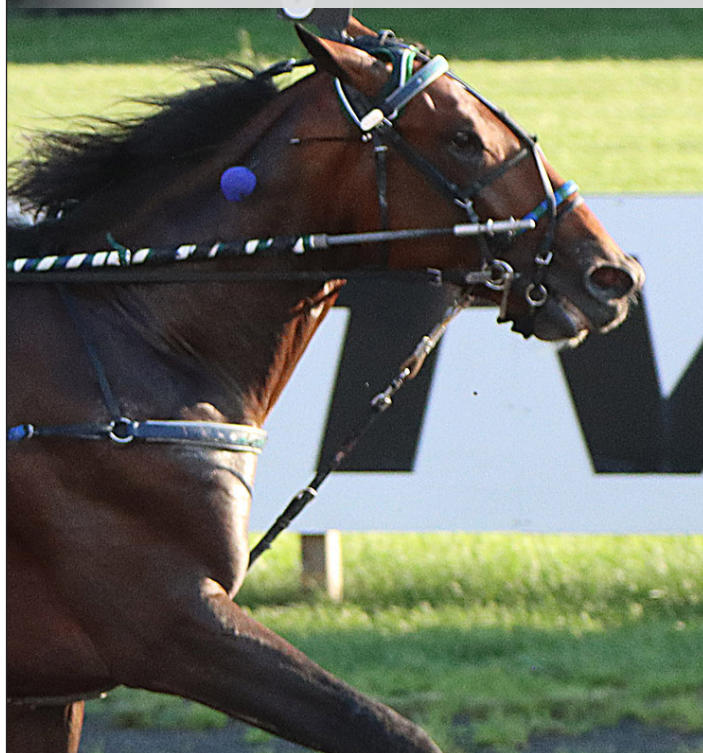

As the field turned for home, Coach Stefanos looked strong on the front but Buzzsaw Russ was looming large in the pocket. DeLong tipped his mount from the pocket and he used a snappy :25.4 closing kick to get the win by nearly two lengths over Coach Stefanos. Why Not Now closed hard for third. Buzzsaw Russ returned $4.20 for the victory at the betting windows.

Trained by Missy Essig, it was the seventh win in 16 lifetime starts for the gelded son of Rockin Image out of the Yankee Cruiser mare, Up Front Cruiser. Bred by Devon Beechy and Devon Knepp, Buzzsaw Russ has now banked $372,775 for owners Russell Beeman and Charles Weaver. Buzzsaw Russ matched the track record for 3-year-old pacing geldings with a 1:48:2 effort in stakes action last week. The previous mark was established by JK Victory in the 2022 edition of the Hoosier Cup. The victory with Buzzsaw Russ was one of two winners on the program for Harrah's Hoosier Park's second leading driver, John DeLong.

BURKE TRAINEES SWEEP ISS FOR 2-YEAR-OLD MALE PACERS

The Hoosier state's top 2-year-old pacing colts were in action at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Thursday (July 27) with two divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes action highlighting the evening's card. It was trainer Ron Burke who teamed up with driver Ronnie Wrenn Jr. to sweep both divisions and deliver as the heavy betting favorite each time.

In the opening division, Noblesville employed a near gate to wire strategy to win by nearly two lengths in 1:51.2. Jd's King James and Jordan Ross were the first to get a call through the opening panel in :27.4 before yielding the lead to Noblesville just before the half in :56.1. Noblesville appeared to relax on the front and reached the third station in 1:24.1.

Using a :27.2 closing kick, Noblesville held Jd's King James at bay and held off an impressive late surge from Prestigious Prince and LeWayne Miller. Sent off at odds of 4-5, Noblesville returned $3.80 to his backers at the betting windows.

With the victory, Noblesville recorded his second lifetime victory from three starts. The homebred son of Jk Endofanera—Happiness is owned in partnership by Weaver Bruscermi and Burke Racing Stable. Noblesville now sports a lifetime bankroll of $42,175 in his young career.

Utilizing the same strategy in the second division, Wrenn Jr. sent Martz Telly away from the gate and he did not disappoint to score in 1:52.4. Leaving from post 5, Martz Telly had to work for his position but was on top by the opening quarter in :27.2. Premier Romeo and Kyle Wilfong benefitted from a pocket trip while Soul Rocker and Peter Wrenn were next in line third. Martz Telly coasted through splits of :57.4 and 1:25.4 before being joined on the outside by Stat That and LeWayne Miller.

Stat That and Martz Telly were on even terms turning for home and battled all the way to the wire. Martz Telly dug in gamely late in the lane to stick a nose in front. Stat That was forced to settle for second while Premier Romeo rounded out the trifecta. Sent off at odds of 6-5, Martz Telly returned $4.60 to his backers at the betting windows.

With the win, Martz Telly recorded his second lifetime victory from three outs and also established a new lifetime best in the process. Owned in partnership by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscermi and Frank Baldachino, the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—A and Gs Finest has now earned $44,440 in lifetime purse earnings.

With a daily post time of 6:15 p.m., live racing at Hoosier Park will follow a Tuesday through Saturday schedule and be conducted through Dec. 9. For more information on the upcoming entertainment and live racing schedule, please visit www.hoosierpark.com.

Royal Filly wire-to-wire in Saratoga NYSS

by Jessica Hallett / Saratoga

The New York Sires Stakes returned to The Spa on Friday (July 28) evening in a card featuring 15 races and Royal Filly was the star of Saratoga Casino Hotel, winning the $87,000 NYSS split for sophomore fillies.

Tyler Buter and Royal Filly were the pacesetter team for the mile, clocking each panel in :29, :58.2, and 1:26.4 before winning by 3-1/4 lengths in 1:55.2. Pride N Joy (Niko Karna) finished second and Destinys Darling (Jordan Stratton) was third.

Trained by Tony Alagna, the Chapter Seven—Swinging Royalty daughter is owned by Crawford Farms Racing as she won her third start of the season, pushing her seasonal bankroll to $139,722. Royal Filly paid $2.50 to win as the bettors' choice.

Canterbury Hanover took home the winner's share of the $85,500 purse in the second NYSS for sophomore trotting fillies with trainer Jeff Gregory in the bike.

Canterbury Hanover got away fifth, eight lengths off the leading On The House (Miller) who took the field to the quarter in :28.2. After a miscue from the leader, Jeans Action (Jim Devaux) took over to lead the field to the half in :59.2. Woolco (Stratton) was on a first over advance, followed by Canterbury Hanover. With Woolco leading the outer charge, the field continued split in two at the three-quarters in 1:28.2. Down the lane, it was a close battle for the win and came down to Woolco and Canterbury Hanover. In the photo for win, Canterbury Hanover prevailed by a nose in 1:57.2. Woolco was second and Jeans Action was fourth, placed third.

Jesmeral Stable co-owns the sophomore Chapter Seven—Charmed Life filly with the Let It Ride Stables Inc. It was the second win of the season and fourth career victory for Canterbury Hanover, who paid $3.20 to win.

Three $20,000 NYSS Excelsior divisions featured wins by Eee Z Wow ($8.70), driven to victory in 1:58.1 by Tyler Buter for trainer Rob Harmon; Seven Bridges Road ($36.40), steered by John Stark, Jr. to a 1:58.4 win for trainer Maureen Salino; and George Ducharme trainee Serendipity ($2.50), driven by Marcus Miller to victory in 1:58.

R Melina beats her foes and the weather in NY Sire Stakes at Yonkers

MGM Yonkers Raceway was forced to cancel the remainder of Thursday night's (July 27) program after the fourth race due to persistent lightning and dangerous weather conditions in the area. Prior to the early end of the program, one of the two New York Sire Stakes divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies was held, with R Melina getting the win in the $77,300 event. Senorita Palema, driven by trainer Ake Svanstedt, led her four rivals through fractions of :29.1, 1:00.1 and 1:30 as the rain began to pour down, with driver Tyler Buter guiding R Melina to the outside from the pocket nearing three-quarters. Senorita Palema managed to fend off R Melina's bid around the final bend and into the lane, but R Melina wore her down in mid-stretch and went on to win by three-quarters of a length in 1:59. Senorita Palema was the runner-up and Communion Money (Scott Zeron) checked in third.

A daughter of Chapter Seven—Goodtogo Hanover, R Melina is trained by John Butenschoen for owners M And L Of Delaware LLC. and Alabama Harness Associates LLC. Bred by Marsh Valley Standardbreds, the $110,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase has three wins and a third-place finish from four starts thus far, has earned $67,738 and returned $5.10 to win as the 3-2 second choice. The exacta was worth $8.50 and the trifecta paid $16.40.

Three of the four $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series contests also took place, with victories going to Karolina Solveig (by Crazy Wow and bred by Bernard White) in 2:01.2 for driver Joe Bongiorno, trainer Per Engblom, and owners Timothy Drag, Rich Preziotti and Vip Internet Stable LLC., Barn CJ (by Crazy Wow and bred by William Johnson) in 2:00.4 for driver Jason Bartlett, co-owner/trainer Steven Pratt and co-owners Nancy Pratt, Purple Haze Stables LLC. and Out In The Country Stable and Dozen (by Chapter Seven and bred by Diamond Creek Farm) in 1:59.1 for driver Scott Zeron, trainer Marcus Melander and owner Diamond Creek Racing.

Updates on points earned and purse distribution for the events that were not run will be provided when available.

The New York Sire Stakes circuit returns to MGM Yonkers Raceway Thursday night (Aug. 3) with 3-year-old pacing fillies competing in their sixth preliminary round.

Live racing takes place at MGM Yonkers Raceway on a Monday-Tuesday-Thursday-Friday-Saturday schedule with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Freshman filly trotters in Buckeye Stallion Series at Scioto

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Two-year-old filly trotters duked it out to a dead heat finish in the Buckeye Stallion Series at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Thursday (July 27). The second of four divisions also proved to be the fastest, with Pierres Serenade (David Myers) and Madame Pele (Tyler Smith) sharing the winner's circle, stopping the timer in 1:58.

Both fillies left out of the gate and neither wanted to give up the lead. But starting from the 4 hole, Pierres Serenade parked Madame Pele through the first half of the opening turn until she was finally able to clear to the front. Immediately, Myers angled Pierres Serenade out of the pocket at the :28.3 opening quarter. The duo stayed on top through the :59.1 half. Rememberwhatusaid (Tony Hall) came first up to challenge the leader coming out of the second turn but Pierres Serenade was still on top at the 1:27.3 third quarter. Smith came up the passing lane with Madame Pele, but in the end, they crossed the line together with Pierres Serenade. Both Estes (Austin Hanners) and Butter N Syrup (Chris Page) came charging hard late in the stretch to finish third and fourth.

Pierres Serenade is owned and trained by Ted Gawron and now has $26,051 earned in five starts with four wins. The Uncle Peter filly has two wins in Buckeye Stallion Series action. Madame Pele, by Creatine, is owned and trained by Jessica Smith. Thursday's win broke her maiden in her fifth start. Pierre's Serenade went off at 9-2 and paid $6.00 to win, while Madame Pele went off at 10-1 and paid $10.40 to win.

The first $20,000 division was won by Elisdreamgirl (Jeremy Smith) in 2:01.1 for owner Levi Hershberger and trainer Herman Hagerman. It was the first win for the Global Republic S filly in her third lifetime start. The third division was won by Hot Tea (Ty. Smith) in 1:58.4. Virgil Morgan Jr. trains the Enterprise filly for owner/breeder Joyce McClelland who also broke her maiden in Thursday's racing action. Justasiam As took the final division in 1:59.1. Tony Hall drove the Lionhunter filly for trainer Anette Lorentzon and owner ACL Stuteri Ab. It was the filly's second win in the Buckeye Stallion Series, and she now has $20,000 in earnings in three lifetime starts.

SIRE STAKES

My Saving Grace makes it three-in-a-row in Maine

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

My Saving Grace hasn't had to endure much hardship in her short, but successful career as the freshman filly is a perfect three-for-three so far this season in Maine Sire Stakes competition.

Driven by Mark Athearn for trainer Gretchen Athearn, the young daughter of Shake It Off Lindy (a son of Crazy) hasn't had to save anything for next week as she scampered off to victory lane by eight lengths in her $14,367 2-year-old filly trot for Pine Tree State-breds on Friday (July 28).

Under sunny skies the talented distaff stopped the timer in 2:06.3 to take a new lifetime mark over her home track Cumberland oval. Owned by Margaret Thyng and bred by Leighton Property, My Saving Grace has saved up a nice nest egg of $23,487 so far this season.

Coupled with last week's romp at Bangor, the frosh filly has a combined margin of victory of 14-3/4 lengths. My Saving Grace paid $3.00 to win. Pembroke Breeze (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) finished second; Twisted Venture (Mike Cushing, Sherry Cushing) was third.

For the sophomore trotting fillies, it was a case of location, location, location.

In the $14,952 Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old diagonally-gaited distaffers, heavy favorite She'salilbitmouthy ducked, pulled three-wide, and then ducked again before the field reached the pedestrian half in 1:02.3, following a :30.4 opening panel.

At the start, Another Adventure (Kevin Switzer Jr., Marc Tardif) had taken command initially, but begrudgingly yielded to Melania's Best (John Nason) who was intent on taking no prisoners. After getting stung to the quarter, and then parking the favorite, Nason found himself leading the way with an empty tank in that filly's first seasonal purse start.

First up was Wild Ending (Ivan Davies) with She'salilbitmouthy and Hall in a tight pocket third. At the decisive 1:33.2 third panel Wild Ending took the lead over Melania's Best, who had called it an afternoon. Another Adventure had taken chase and was now beside the favorite, locking her behind the tiring former pacesetter.

As the field rounded the final turn it was a race for second as Wild Ending had put all the wild antics behind her. Another Adventure was too busy looking around to mount a serious stretch drive, but hung on to be second. B R Glory (Wally Watson, Lisa Watson) swooped them all to be a fast closing third.

Trained and driven by Ivan Davies, Wild Ending picked up her second lifetime victory for owner Anita Anastosopoulis. The daughter of Boy Band was bred in Maine by the late Michael Andrew. She paid $4.80 to win.

In the first division for 3-year-old filly pacers Katelyn's Angel grabbed her second wire-to-wire victory, winning the $14,684 Maine Sire Stake in a lifetime mark equaling 1:58.2. Driven to a 10-1/4 length romp by Kevin Switzer Jr. for trainer Marc Tardif, the daughter of Western Maverick is owned and was bred by the Leightons. She paid $4.00 to win. Slight favorite La Mambacita (Campbell, Grondin) finished second; Ally Mac (Nick Graffam, Mike Graffam) was third.

The second division was also an unimpeded rout by South St Dottie in a well-rated 2:00.2. Driven by Nick Graffam for trainer/father Mike Graffam, was on easy street after the favored Pickmepickme (Andy Harrington, Marc Tardif) made a costly break while giving chase in the final turn.

The Jan Donaway owned and bred daughter of Western Maverick is heretofore undefeated in five seasonal Maine Sire Stakes events. South St Dottie paid $4.80 to win. Pickmepickme got back pacing and finished second; stable mate Justcallmemimi (Bruce Ranger, Graffam) was third.

Newsroom 1:50.1 in Big M's Kindergarten

Newsroom is writing quite a story.

The son of Always B Miki—Well Hello There put up another mile worthy of an exclusive Friday night (July 28) at The Meadowlands on a card that featured 10 $20,000 divisions of the second leg of the Kindergarten Series for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait.

The trip from post 8 was less than smooth, but it proved to be no problem for the Joe Holloway trainee in the third of three divisions for pacing colts and geldings.

Parked out every step from the get-go, Newsroom didn't clear the lead until just before the half, and from there he toyed with his seven overmatched foes, hitting the wire  $3\frac{3}{4}$  lengths in front of second-place finisher Ivy Park in 1:50.1, the fastest of the mile of the year for a 2-year-old, eclipsing the previous best by three-fifths of a second.

"His strength and power are pretty impressive," said winning driver Dave Miller. "What can you say? He went a big trip tonight. He was a little aggressive getting out of there, but once he made the lead, he relaxed. I drove him all the way through the lane, and down by the wire, he was still kicking. A typical Always B Miki. He just keeps going."

Now three-for-three lifetime, Newsroom paid $3.20 — his biggest win payout yet — after being sent to the gate as the 3-5 public choice.

The other male paces went to Rock The Captain N (Captaintreacherous—Rocknroll Arden) with driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Tony Alagna in 1:52 as the 5-2 second choice and Lou Vuitton (Sweet Lou—Shark Lightning) in 1:52.4 for Miller and Ron Burke at 4-1, also the second choice in the wagering.

THE HONOR ROLL: The three winners in the colt and gelding trots were Winter Soldier (Face Time Bourbon—Jumalay Mass), who took his parimutuel debut for Andy McCarthy and Alagna in 1:53.4 as the 2-1 second choice; T C I (Cantab Hall—Nicole's Promise), who followed up a win in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes with a 1:54.4 victory for Miller and Burke as the 2-1 second choice; and Tony Adams S (Muscle Hill—Dreamgirl Hornline) for trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt in 1:56.1 as the 6-1 fourth choice in the wagering.

In a pair of filly trotting divisions, 4-5 favorite Cheval Rapide (Father Patrick—Shake It Cerry) made it two Kindergarten wins in as many tries for Yannick Gingras and Nancy Takter in 1:54.2 while International Model (International Moni—Flying Glider) scored for Scott Zeron and Domenico Cecere in 1:55.2 as the 9-2 third choice.

Taking the two filly paces were 12-1 outsider (the fourth choice) Sarasota Hanover (Stay Hungry—Surfside Sexy), who picked up her first career win for Zeron and Linda Toscano in 1:51.4 while Pressure Cooker (Heston Blue Chip—Better Be Steamin) completed a pacing filly sweep for Zeron and Toscano, also in 1:51.4, as the second choice at 8-5.

GREAT SCOTT WINS FOUR: Zeron led the driver colony with four winners on the card. Miller was next with three jaunts down victory lane. Cecere, Toscano, Burke and Alagna all had training doubles.

OAKS NOW EARLIER: The post time for the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks on Saturday (Aug. 5) has been changed to 3:30 p.m. Post time for the $1-million Hambletonian is unchanged at 4:45 p.m.

A LITTLE MORE: Betting was brisk on the 14-race card at $3,028,176, the 46th time from 60 programs this year that wagering exceeded the magic $3-million mark.

Breakfast With The Babies season ends

Breakfast With The Babies, final edition for 2023, took place at 9:00 a.m. on Friday (July 28) morning under perfect conditions. It was a fast track, 78 degrees and no wind at post time.

Nancy Takter and Brett Pelling got to go home happy after today's races, as both sent out sharp looking colts.

Takter's were both trotters. Karl, a Tactical Landing colt making his very first start, turned heads this morning by converting a pocket ride navigated by Yannick Gingras into a 1:54.4 win. Trotting his final quarter in :27.3 to get by the stubborn leader Coach Calhoun (Dexter Dunn) as they neared the wire, Karl did it with something left. Bred by Crawford Farms who retains an interest in the colt with partners Christina & Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing and Bender Sweden. Karl was a $135,000 Lexington yearling.

Takter and Gingras came right back with another firster, this time it was Amstel Hanover who used a :28 second final quarter to comfortably edge by Intl Blockade (Domenico Cecere) near the end of the 1:58.1 mile. The Bar Hopping colt races for the trainer in partnership with Christina Takter, Black Horse Racing and Goran Falk and was a $65,000 Harrisburg buy.

Brett Pelling unveiled a couple of talented Captaintreacherous pacing colts this morning, just like the old days when he'd get them fit for upcoming stakes through the balance of the season in The Meadowlands qualifiers.

The first was Principle Interest who set a rated pace for Scott Zeron before a :27.2 sprint to end the 1:54.2 mile off by himself over Twin B Ludacris (Dunn) who flashed good late pace. Bred by Let It Ride and Bottom Line Racing, Principle Interest brought $205,000 at the Lexington sale last fall. Dave McDuffee, Paul Bordogna, Mel Hartman and Steven Arnold are partners on the winner.

Dunn drove another really nice colt to his first win for Pelling when Titanic Hanover wore down stablemate JK Parcells (Zeron) through a :27.2 final quarter to get a 1:55 win in his third try. McDuffee, Bordogna and Hartman gave $230,000 for the Hanover bred at Harrisburg last fall.

In the opener, Chaparmbro won her fourth qualifier for trainer driver Trond Smedshammer Friday morning, leading all the way and finishing the 1:57.2 mile with a :28.3 final quarter to win by a pole over R Bama (Dave Miller). Purple Haze and M3 Stables gave $260,000 for the winner at Harrisburg. Fair Winds Farm is the breeder.

Bronx Barista showed up unannounced and promptly peeled off a 1:52.1 win for Mark MacDonald. Following a rapid pace set by Sweet Flowers (Andy McCarthy) through the 1:25.1 three panels, Bronx Barista charged by that rival in the stretch and drew away. Ted Gewertz bred and owns the Huntsville filly in partnership with trainer Ray Schnittker and Kitefield Stable.

The "Championship Season" is coming to a close with the "Greatest Day In Harness Racing", Hambletonian Day, next Saturday (Aug. 5) with all the frills and more than $3 million in purses.

In closing, many thanks to Jules Siegel for his unwavering support in sponsoring this endeavor for the past few seasons under his Fashion Farms banner.

2023 Goshen Yearling Sale catalogs now available online

Catalogs for the ninth annual Goshen Yearling Sale are now available for download or online viewing by visiting goshenyearlingsale.com. The sale that produces proven winners will be held at the Mark Ford Training Center in Middletown, NY on Monday (Sept. 11) at noon.

The downloadable PDF file includes the complete pedigree for all horses. Printed catalogs, that will be available shortly, will be mailed as soon as they arrive. Requests can be made by filling out the link on the website (under the "Catalogs" tab) or by contacting Mark Ford directly at 973-568-3253 or at fordstable@frontiernet.net. If you have received a catalog in the past, there is no need to make an annual request.

Prospective buyers will also be able to pick up copies of the catalog at most race tracks in New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, training facilities, at the Hambletonian at The Meadowlands and New York County Fair tracks racing through the end of August.

There is also an interactive sales roster on the website that will have yearling videos attached when they become available.

This year's 102-horse consignment includes 25 pacing colts, 19 trotting colts, 34 pacing fillies and 24 trotting fillies from breeders that include Blue Chip Farm, Cameo Hills Farm, Leatherstocking Equine Center, Winbak Farms, Pine Hill Stable, Silver Tradition Stable, Thywillbe Done Farm and Jared Bako.

The sales facility is located at 90 Slaughter Road, Middletown, NY which is within a ninety-minute drive of many major race tracks and training centers in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, making it a very convenient location.

Everything you need to know about the 2023 Goshen Yearling Sale is available on their website at goshenyearlingsale.com.

Trotters claim spotlight at H3R in five stakes races

The trotters were in the limelight at the Hippodrome 3R Friday (July 28) afternoon with five divisions of Quebec-bred stakes for 2 and 3-year-old fillies and colts.

First up in the third race was the $10,000 second round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old trotting fillies and stealing the show was the 3-5 race favorite Dont Treat Me Bad (Resolve).

Driven by the Showman, Jocelyn Gendron, Dont Treat Me Bad wasted little time saying goodbye to her competitors and she trotted away to the early lead and never looked back.

Cutting fractions of :30.2, 1:02.2 and 1:31.4, Dont Treat Me Bad held the field at bay the entire mile, pulling away after the three-quarters and winning in a romp by eight lengths in 2:01.4. Tite Beer En Mass (Guy Gagnon) was second with Duende (Jimmy Gagnon) third.

The time tied Dont Treat Me Bad's lifetime mark. It was her third win in five starts this year for trainer/owner/breeder, Herve Kirouac of Sherbrooke, QC. She paid $3.20 to win.

The fourth race was the $10,000 opening round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies and just like Dont Treat Me Bad, Kenogami Queen (Wheeling N Dealin) with driver Stephane Brosseau led from start to finish, winning by two and three-quarter lengths in 2:04.3. Sensi Amnesia (Muscle Mass) was second with JD Beauty (The Bank) was third.

It was the second lifetime start and first win for Kenogami Queen, who is trained by Jack Reid, who also bred the filly with Marie Claude Reid. They co-own her with Mario Menard and she paid $2.70 to win.

After the sixth race the rains came and the track went from fast to sloppy with a two second allowance.

The seventh race was the first $7,500 division of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings that saw Wolinak (Wheeling N Dealin) and driver Robert Shepherd collar pacesetter C Un Bon Deal (Jerome Lombart) take the lead after the three-quarters. Wolinak went on to win by two and three-quarter lengths over race favorite BBC Sportsboy (Marc Belanger) with Timonier (Francis Picard) third.

Trained by Isabelle Darveau, it was the second win this season for Wolinak, who is owned by Douglas McCarth of Holland Landing, ON and paid $6.80 to win.

The ninth race second $7,500 division saw Kinnder Motown (Muscle Mass) and driver Robert Shepherd become the only two-time winner in the Breeders Trophy Series, winning by three and one-quarter lengths in 2:02.4. Illusioniste Gale (Jerome Lombart) was second with Auguste (Stephane Brosseau) third.

It was the fifth win in seven starts this year for Kinnder Motown, who is trained by Isabelle Darveau for owner Rejean Lemieux of Quebec City and paid just $2.10 to win.

The final stakes race on the card was the 11th race $10,000 division of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Race favorite Rocket Men and driver Stephane Brosseau were the first out of the starting gate and on the lead with Vol De Banque and driver Claude Beausoleil sitting the pocket seat.

They raced that way until the backstretch when Wild Dream Men (Kadabra) and driver Guy Gagnon came first-over and that flushed Vol De Banque first-over setting up the three horses three-wide around the final turn.

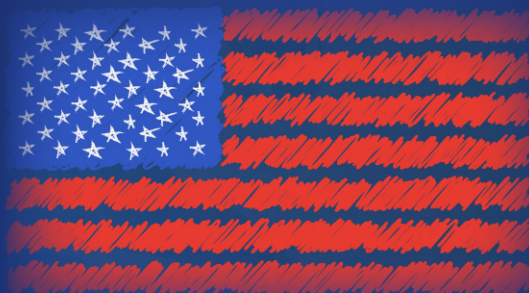

They raced three-across turning for home with Wild Dream Men, the strongest on the far outside, getting up at the finish to win by three-quarters of a length in 2:05.4. Vol De Banque was second with Drinklikehenry (William Roy) third.

It was the first pari-mutuel start for Wild Dream Men, who is trained by Guy Gagnon for owners Catheline Pelletier and Chantal Gravel. He paid $3.80 to win.

Track Notes: Pascal Berube had the hot hands with a driving quadruple. Robert Shepherd scored a driving triple and Jocelyn Gendron a driving double. Isabelle Darveau had a training double. Live racing resumes at H3R today (July 30) at noon featuring an 11-race card headlined by four divisions of the second round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old colt and filly pacers. ## Gural on Towers' column about amateur races at The Big M

RE: Amateur races at The Meadowlands need a tweak or two

I don't know why Dean thinks that we are enamored of having amateur races at The Meadowlands. We recognize that the amateurs have a place in the sport, but everyone should understand we are competing for horses with Yonkers, Chester and Pocono.

Yonkers receives a subsidy of $50 million from slots, the two Pennsylvania tracks receive $30 million, while here in New Jersey we only receive $6 million. Not only that, but last year we took $6.7 million from the purse account in order to fund our stakes program.

Without the amateur races we would only be able to card 11 or 12 races each night which would have a negative impact on our bottom line. If you look at the handle, the public seems to enjoy betting on the amateurs and for the most part, they offer full fields and a competitive product.

I just hope everyone understands the reason we have so many amateur races. It has everything to do with the fact that the subsidy we receive is minimal compared to our competitors.

One other thing everyone should be aware of now that we have established a good relationship with NYRA and we are getting more and more of our races on Fox Sports. Because of the opposition of the SOANY, it is illegal for NYRA Bets to take wagers on any out-of-state harness track. We believe that while that law may have made sense years ago, it no longer makes sense and the horsemen in New York should realize that NYRA would pay them a portion of every wager made on an out of state harness track using NYRA bets. Hopefully the SOA will reconsider as it is costing the horsemen money, especially now that we have such a good working relationship with NYRA.

Jeff Gural / owner The Meadowlands

Amateur driver Joe Lee responds to Towers

After reading Dean Towers' column on Monday July 24, 2023 about amateur racing at The Meadowlands, I felt compelled to give you an opinion from the other side – the amateur side.

In a sport where there are not many bright spots these days, and more negative energy than positive stories, amateur racing has become a part of the regular card for many pari-mutuel tracks. The Meadowlands has led the way and there are weekly races at Monticello, Pocono Downs, Chester, Ocean Downs, Freehold, Northfield, Tioga, Plainridge, and more. Why is that? I believe it is multi-faceted.

First, many of the horses that are being driven by the amateurs are owned by the amateur driver and so that definitely helps business all around. It gives trainers horses in their barn and it gives tracks a bigger horse population that is increasingly becoming a concern.

Secondly, handle, handle, handle. Amateur racing has been well received by the betting public. In Dean's piece, he says that "The Meadowlands is the number one track in the world for bettors" and that if the amateurs were not part of the betting card that "Serious bettors would be able to fire on the serial bets with no amateur races and it should restore some order to those important pools."

Maybe it should be brought to Dean's attention that the handle week in and week out on the amateur races is sometimes the highest on the card.

About two months ago, one amateur race had $92,000 in the exacta pool and there wasn't another race on the card that had $75,000 in the corresponding pool.

Full fields are another place that the amateurs provide value. Oftentimes, the amateur races are the majority of the full fields on the card. I think the bettors like betting on full fields on the mile track and this past weekend on Friday [July 21] there were four full fields in 14 carded races of which the amateurs were three of them.

I don't see the heavy bettors being hampered at all or sitting on the sidelines waiting for the amateur races to be over and suddenly increasing their wagers on non-amateur smaller fields. If anything, you could make the case that they are hoping the amateurs provide unpredictable horses to win creating longer odds winners across the horizontal wager types, increasing the overall payouts of those beloved pick 4's and 5's. A serious bettor is putting more into the race than the $2 bettor and I'm sure love when the 6-5 favorite or second choice is nowhere to be found in the amateur race because they spread more on their ticket. With the prices you see in amateur racing, why wouldn't you spread four or five deep in those legs if you're a serious bettor because you are covering more than the casual bettor, therefore increasing your payout if you hit it.

Dean suggested that “the four amateur races a week should be raced in races 1 through 4 on Fridays. This would remove them from the first Pick-5.” As far as I know, the first Pick 5 every Friday are races 1 through 5 which would mean that now the Pick 5 would consist of four amateur races instead of two.

Dean is very concerned about the “serious bettor,” yet didn’t seem at all concerned for them when on Fridays this time of year they are forced to bet on 2-year-old pacers and trotters that have no history of going behind the gate and are extremely green and break etc. At this point you’re betting bloodline, and trainers, I guess.

Just a couple of weeks ago, all but two races on Friday night were 2-year-olds, the majority of whom never have been in a pari-mutuel race. Furthermore, this Friday night (July 28) once again featured 10 baby races, many of which are short fields. I doubt the serious bettor loved the fourth race on the evening, where there were seven horses, four of which are trained by one trainer, and two by another.

Another item Dean brought to light was that “The amateur races sometimes don’t look like harness racing at all. They’re a parking ticket free-for-all.” I laughed when I read this, one because he acknowledges that The Meadowlands wants there to be no “courtesy tucks” and admits that single file racing in the pro race is “never preferred” but yet doesn’t like the parking that goes on. You can’t have it both ways.

I also laughed because I can think of so many races that I’ve watched and or bet on where the horse I bet got parked the mile, or put in a bad spot etc. Just off the top of my head, the 2007 Breeders Crown for 3YO colts and Geldings going for $555,000 you had Tell All and Always A Virgin both at 8-5 with only two other horses in the field of 10 below 10-1. Always A Virgin ended up parking out Tell All in :53.2 to the half and they came home in :57.4 going for over half-a-million dollars with the best drivers on the planet in the race. Needless to say, they were both nowhere to be found.

More recently, the 2023 Mistletoe Shalee that was just was contested a couple of weekends ago found Bob McClure and Sylvia Hanover the 1-2 favorite parked out the entire mile, and hung so badly heading to the half that David Miller went three wide with My Little Captain at 35-1 before the half mile pole and Yannick Gingras was three wide at the half with Strong Poison. As it turned out, Sylvia Hanover really dug in and overcame that tough trip and prevailed. Getting hung and sometimes things not working out is part of racing, but

I haven’t seen Dean or anyone else writing about these trips when you see them out there on the track.

I think the amateurs are under the microscope a bit more, which is fine, but tough trips happen quite often in pro races too.

One more issue that I would like to address in the piece I read on Monday was that amateurs lay down halves in 55 seconds and there was concern for the well-being of the horses, especially the older ones. First, if a horse is repeatedly causing trouble, or acting badly out on the track, the race office and the amateur club will tell the trainer that they are not accepting the entry on that horse any longer.

The class for the MADC 1 is basically NW4500 going for $12,500. Two of the three races on Friday went between 1:55-1:56 and one field went in 1:52 and change. That same class in a pro race went 1:50:4 Friday and on Saturday and the NW2000 going for $4,000 less went in 1:52. The amateur races have always gone a bit softer than the overnight races and I get calls from trainers all the time asking me to drive their horse because they have been finishing fifth and sixth in overnight races and now they can go in the same class for the same money and be first or second without having to race as hard. I will admit that the amateur races are not always rated evenly but they aren’t as bad as you think either. Just this past weekend, I won with Skyway Billy in 1:52 off a half in 55:2. I came home in 56:3, not terrible, or uncommon.

Amateur racing, while at times unconventional compared to what some racing fans may be used to watching, is an overwhelming positive for the sport and industry. Long gone are the days of full grandstands and many attempts to increase the sport’s popularity and handle have been pursued to no avail. However, amateurs have purchased horses, created group syndicates of new owners, gotten trainers involved for their owners, bring people to the track, regularly purchase win photos from the track photographers, promote the sport, assist in regularly filling race cards for tracks with struggling horse populations, and have increased the dollars that flow through the betting windows.

The Meadowlands being the Mecca of Harness Racing should be applauded for doing something different in a sport where not much else has worked in the last 30 years. Jeff Gural and Jason Settlemoir’s generosity toward the amateurs and amateur racing in my opinion has been a win, win, win for the track, the people who enjoy cashing higher priced win and exotic tickets, and the amateurs who do more than the average person to ensure the continuation and promotion of the sport we all love.

One more thought on amateurs

There's an old adage that if you write a negative reaction to something, sit on it and maybe keep it in file 13.

Dean Towers' take on amateur racing at The Meadowlands is so bizarre, I write and send this note as an exception. His thoughts are inexplicable and the copy deadline had surely passed. First, The Meadowlands has incorporated amateur racing into the fabric of its condition sheet. And that's a great thing. Years ago, I asked Tony Morgan about the concept in Chicago racing and he mused, 'What's in it for the horsemen and the purse account?' Now take a look at Chicago racing.

What do we know from The Meadowlands' investment? First, Jeff Gural has observed people "bet on it," so I surmise no negative impact on handle. We've also learned the average Joe loves the game and can live the dream of being on the other side of the racetrack apron. At The Meadowlands the everyday person has a chance to engage in the sport, which includes ownership or training. Some amateurs have done both. These folks are buying feed, paying the blacksmith and in some cases footing a training bill. And my God don't mention the vet.

As I have said before one of the worst occurrences was the evolution of the catch driver. They are fantastic and the marquee of the sport, but it took the guy breeding and breaking yearlings off the track. In regard to gamblers, I'm one. Read the program. Assess the trends. Learn the drivers; amateurs and pros. Pay attention to the tote board. If you're serious, you do these things whether it's a pro driver or amateur. The casual bettor often doesn't know the difference and generally doesn't care (next round please).

I think The Meadowlands is ahead of the curve by sponsoring amateur racing. And, as far as chaotic racing goes, I have seen some of that over the years among the best drivers on some of the best tracks in harness racing. Two last things. Congrats to amateur driver Peter Kleinhans for many things including his spectacular drive in [last] Saturday night's amateur race. Astute handicappers of the amateur wagering variety were handsomely rewarded. Oh, the second thing? We'll leave that one in file 13.
