Celebrity Bambino favored in Hambletonian

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Elimination winner Celebrity Bambino drew post 1 for Saturday's (Aug. 5) $1 million Hambletonian Stakes final at The Meadowlands and was established as the 2-1 morning-line favorite as he seeks to give trainer Ron Burke and driver Yannick Gingras their first wins in the trotting classic for 3-year-olds.

The event's draw and press conference were held Tuesday (Aug. 1) at Hogan Equine. Elimination winners Celebrity Bambino and Point Of Perfect, both trained by Burke, drew for posts 1 through 5 followed by the remaining finalists in an open draw.

Burke, a Hall of Famer who is the sport's runaway leader in career wins and purses, had a three-year string of near misses in the Hambletonian beginning in 2015 when elimination-winning filly Mission Brief finished second by three-quarters of a length to Pinkman.

He was second again in 2016 with Southwind Frank, who was beaten by a nose by eventual Trotting Triple Crown winner Marion Marauder. The following year, What The Hill crossed the finish line first but was disqualified for interference in the stretch.

Gingras, also in the Hall of Fame, has finished second in the Hambletonian on three occasions. In 2015, he drove both elimination winners, Mission Brief and Pinkman, and stayed with the filly in the final. In 2016, he was second with Southwind Frank and in 2020 he was runner-up with Ready For Moni.

Celebrity Bambino battled sickness last year but won five of 12 races and finished second in the Breeders Crown. He has raced six times this year, winning two of his three most recent starts, including his Hambletonian elimination in a career-best 1:50.4.

"This year, he's been good every start," Burke said. "It's just not always worked out the way we wanted, but the whole time this was the goal, to have him ready for this week and have him sharp. So, up to now, the plan has worked to perfection.

"I thought he was super [in his elimination]. He was never stressed. I just didn't want him coming into the final tired."

Point Of Perfect, who won the first of last week's two eliminations, will start Saturday from post 5 with David Miller in the sulky. He is 6-1 on the morning line. Point Of Perfect was winless in 15 starts as a 2-year-old but has won three of seven this season. The most recent horse to win the Hambletonian after not having a victory at 2 was Tagliabue in 1995.

Point Of Perfect won his elimination in a career-best 1:51.2.

"He's probably not as good as he's been in his last three or four, and he's probably not as bad as he was when he was 0-for-15," Burke said. "We've always believed in him. The horse has incredible ability, he's out of a sister to Southwind Frank, so it's always been there. David will fit him. He's going to need an aggressive drive and David will be up to the task."

Oh Well and Winner's Bet, who each won a division of the Stanley Dancer Memorial on July 15 at The Meadowlands, are the second and third choices, respectively, on the morning line.

Marcus Melander-trained Oh Well, last year's Mohawk Million winner, will start from post 2 for driver Tim Tetrick and is 7-2. He finished second to Point Of Perfect in his elimination.

Winner's Bet, last year's William Wellwood Memorial champ, will leave from post 4 with Dexter Dunn driving for trainer Domenico Cecere and is 4-1. He was parked on the outside from post 10 in his elimination and finished fourth in the split won by Celebrity Bambino.

"It's funny, usually I can pick horses in the race that don't belong, and this may be the first time I've ever thought that in a 10-horse field any horse could win the race," Burke said. "There is nobody that is really that much worse than anybody and there is nobody yet that has proven they're that much better than anybody. So, it's going to be a wide-open race, which I think leads to a lot of movement because people are going to take shots.

"I don't think my horses are at the top of their games yet. I think Bambino, for sure, has more left. And the other horse hadn't been that fast. They're both speed-tested now. I couldn't be happier with mine. And I'm sure there are a lot of people with the way their horses raced that will feel the same."

The Hambletonian will be race 12 with an off time of 4:45 p.m. (EDT). The companion $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks is race 10 and will go at 3:35 p.m. Racing will begin at noon. For free

'PAYTON' SEEKS SWEET HAMBLETONIAN OAKS WIN AT THE BIG M

With a name strikingly similar to that of the great Chicago Bears running back Walter "Sweetness" Payton, 3-year-old filly trotter Walner Payton will aim to score a touchdown of her own this Saturday (Aug. 5) afternoon at The Meadowlands in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks.

The daughter of Walner—Lonely Lady heads into the Oaks off a sharp-looking score in the first of two eliminations a week ago and was installed as the 3-1 morning-line favorite at a Tuesday (Aug. 1) afternoon press conference held at Hogan Equine in Cream Ridge, NJ, where Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks post positions were drawn.

A remarkably steady sort who has hit the board in all eight of her 2023 outings, she put up her third win of the season while equaling her lifetime best of 1:51.4.

"I knew she was going into [the elimination] as good as she's ever been," said trainer Chris Ryder, who's in search of his first Oaks win. "She's always been a little lean, but she started to put on a little weight the last two or three weeks. [Driver] Dexter [Dunn] was thrilled with her [when second on July 22]. He said she was really coming good. We finally put a hood on her, eye cups, which we probably should have done before. That helped a lot because before when she's been up front, she's been wandering around. [In the elim], she had a lot more focus. She finished up strong with the ear plugs in. Dexter gave her a heck of a drive."

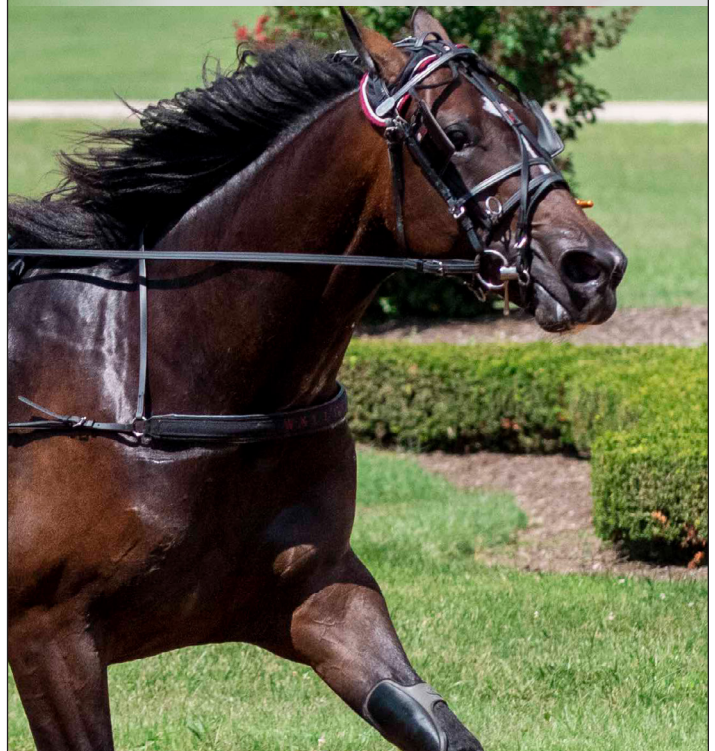

Walner Payton drew post 1 in the field of 10, and will be driven by her regular pilot Dunn, the four-time defending Dan Patch Driver of the Year, whose one win in the Oaks came in 2021 with Bella Bellini.

"I knew [eventual second-place finisher Railee Something] was going to be a threat [in the elim]," said Dunn. "She's been racing really good. But my filly was still going super at the time [on the last turn] and she's pretty quick. She can reel off a pretty good quarter. So, I was still confident enough that she would keep going, and she did."

Railee Something has lived up to her name during 2023, winning five-of-eight starts while finishing third in the other three. She will depart from post 5 and is the 7-2 second choice for trainer Ron Burke and driver Yannick Gingras. Gingras will be gunning for a seventh Oaks win while Burke looks for his first.

"She's been very good every start [this year]," said Burke. "We have to get one more little half-length finishing. If we can find a half-length finishing, she can go with those fillies. We'll have a bridle change with her. I think she's just a little bit getting alongside the horse and hanging, so we're probably going to close her [bridle] up to try to get her to surge by."

The other Oaks elim was taken by 36-1 longshot Heart On Fire for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Tony Alagna. In the final, she will depart from post 2 and is listed at 5-1.

"I was just hoping that I could get a trip and sort of sneak through and maybe get a spot in the final," said McCarthy of the inside trip that led to a walk down victory lane. "But the way the race shook out, it worked really good for us. This filly has been so good, Tony has had her really good. When she can get a trip like that, she never had to leave the pegs, it just suited her perfectly."

Four trainers will head into Saturday's (Aug. 5) Hambletonian Day card at The Meadowlands with the opportunity to win both the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks, a feat accomplished previously by only three conditioners.

Just one trainer in Saturday's group is in his first year at the helm of a stable, Canadian Matt Bax. The 34-year-old, who has taken the leading role with the family stable from his father John, will send out Southwind Coors in the $1 million Hambletonian, the sport's premier event for 3-year-old trotters, and Righteous Resolve in the companion $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks for sophomore female trotters.

Claus Andersen

Along for the ride – literally – will be James MacDonald, Canada's Driver of the Year the past two seasons. MacDonald will drive both of Bax's horses as he attempts to become only the third driver in history to sweep the Hambletonian and Oaks on the same day. It will be MacDonald's first time racing on Hambletonian Day.

"Just to come down and race against the best on Hambo Day, it's a thrill and dream come true," MacDonald said. "(The Hambletonian) is a race that every kid dreams of racing in. It means everything to get the opportunity.

"It looks like a wide-open bunch, both the Hambo and Oaks. That being said, it's great horses, great trainers and drivers. It's real exciting just to be a part of it."

Southwind Coors, who won the Goodtimes Stakes on June 17, advanced to the Hambletonian final with a fifth-place finish in his elimination this past weekend. He was beaten by 1-1/4 lengths in the race, which was captured by Point Of Perfect in 1:51.2.

Righteous Resolve, the 2022 O'Brien Award winner for best 2-year-old female trotter, reached the final of the Oaks with a third-place finish in her elimination. She was 1-1/4 lengths behind winner Hearts On Fire, who won in 1:51.2 as well.

"It's definitely special," Bax said about getting his two horses to Hambletonian Day. "Something was a little off with [Southwind Coors]; the effort wasn't there like it usually is. Maybe it was the travel, or the heat. But I guess it's a good feeling that he made the final and he wasn't a hundred percent. If we can get him to 100 per cent, we'll be in good shape for the final.

"The same with Righteous Resolve. The travel maybe affected her a little bit. But she's been racing great, tough, and is a little stronger this year. Hopefully, we have some luck in the draw and she should be good in the final."

Southwind Coors, a son of Walner—Southwind Cabaret, has hit the board in 12 of 18 lifetime races, winning four and earning $191,613 for owners Bax Stable, Glengate Farms, David Hudson, and Craig Wilson. He had three wins and two seconds in his five starts prior to the Hambletonian eliminations.

"He keeps getting stronger every start and gets a little more maturity," Bax said. "He's very quick, he's got high-end speed."

Added MacDonald, "Having a week down there (in the U.S.) and getting acclimated to his surrounds, I think people are going to be surprised at the effort he puts out on Saturday. He's a hard-trying horse. He puts his head down and he wants to go forward. He's rock solid and will do anything you want. It's one less thing I have to worry about Saturday."

Matt Bax.

The Bax Stable has had one previous Hambletonian finalist, Duke Of York in 2002. The colt, an O'Brien Award winner at age 2, finished third.

Righteous Resolve, a daughter of Resolve—Motown Muscle, has finished in the top three in all 13 of her career races, winning nine and earning $533,003 for breeders/owners Bet Max Stables and Benenati Inc., both of Michigan. Her victories last year included the Peaceful Way Stakes and Ontario Sire Stakes championship.

She raced twice in the Ontario Sire Stakes this year before her Oaks elimination. In her elim, she was second behind pacesetter Bond through fractions of :25.4, :53.4, and 1:22.4.

"I thought she raced great," MacDonald said. "I don't know if I've ever seen a first quarter in :25.4 on the trot, especially a trotting filly. I asked her to do quite a bit early and she still had a little bit left to fight down the lane.

"If she draws okay and gets a nice trip, I have to think she's as good as any of them in there. I'm excited for her chances, and I was really proud of how she hung in there off those big fractions."

Added Bax, "She always had the tools (to be a good horse) but it wasn't until she got to the track for her first start that you said, 'Wow.' You just didn't know that she had that extra gear. It wasn't until she had to do it that she did it.

"She can just kind of do anything. She can leave, she can sprint at the end, and she's a professional on the track. She also has a little extra fight in her, that extra grittiness, that all the good horses have."

The three trainers to complete a same-year Hambletonian/Hambletonian Oaks sweep are Jan Johnson (1988), Jimmy Takter (2014 and 2015) and Jim Campbell (2022). The drivers to do it are Brian Sears (2009 and 2013) and George Brennan (2011).

Other trainers in position to accomplish the feat this year are Ron Burke, with Celebrity Bambino and Point Of Perfect in the Hambletonian and Railee Something in the Oaks; Marcus Melander, with Oh Well in the Hambletonian and Heaven Hanover, Kayleigh S and Secret Volo in the Oaks; and Ake Svanstedt, with Up Your Deo in the Hambletonian and Bond in the Oaks.

Post time for the Hambletonian Oaks is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. (EDT) Saturday. The Hambletonian is slated for 4:45 p.m.

A dozen notes on the Hambletonian Oaks

by Bob Heyden

1. Five of this year's 10 Hambletonian Oaks finalists are out of a Muscle Hill dam. In 2022, the top two in the Hambletonian were out of a Muscle Hill dam.

2. Since 1990, the following drivers have won their debut in the Oaks:

2019 Simon Allard (When Doves Cry)

2008 Andy Miller (Creamy Mimi)

2007 Tim Tetrack (Danae)

1998 Luc Ouellette (Fern)

1996 Wally Hennessey (Moni Maker)

1994 Mal Burroughs (Gleam)

1992 Bruce Riegler (Worldly Woman)

Will James MacDonald (driving Righteous Resolve) join the list this year?

3. Jim Campbell won the Hambletonian and Oaks last year, but was not in either elim this year.

4. Ake Svanstedt, 64, driving Bond looks to tie Berndt Lindstedt as the oldest driver to win the Oaks. Lindstedt was also 64 when he guided Marita's Victory to Oaks' winner's circle in 2000.

5. Twenty one of the 52 Oaks-winning caretakers were female.

6. Walner Payton was a $510,000 yearling, bought by the man who campaigned Walner in 2016-2017, Ken Jacobs. Walner was forced to retire after winning both starts in 2017, right before the Hambletonian. Those two miles stood up as the two fastest 3-year-old trotting miles of 2017.

7. Steve Stewart bred Walner Payton, as well as Trixton, Forbidden Trade and the 2015 Hambletonian favorite Mission Brief. Two Hambletonian winners and a Hambletonian fave.

8. Walner, Tactical Landing, and Resolve are the three sires who are in both the Hambletonian and the Oaks.

Cat Manzi did it on Aug. 3, 1991 with Hundred Kisses and Fake Left.

11. Can James MacDonald join Brian Sears and George Brennan (2011) as the only drivers to win the Hambletonian and the Oaks on the same day? Sears did it twice in 2009 and 2013, while Brennan did it in 2011.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Horses are a lifestyle for Nicole Wiser

by Chris Lomon

Wherever she happens to find herself, as long as there are horses, Nicole Wiser is happy to be along for the ride.

The horsewoman from Port Crane, NY was destined to work with equines.

As to what that career would be and what breed she'd be associated with wasn't clear until the mid-1990s.

"It was 1995 when I started working as a groom with the standardbreds," Wiser said. "I went to Morrisville College for riding horses, but I ended up going with racehorses. My dad and I had racing ponies and that's kind of where it started. And I've been doing this ever since."

Wiser went from her native New York to New Jersey in 1996 where she would work for Hall of Fame trainer Joe Holloway until 2018.

During those years, she had the good fortune to groom several talented types, a list that includes a pair of mares.

“I was born and raised on a horse, so it’s my lifestyle, it’s what I enjoy. Doing the business that we do with the racehorses is a passion and it’s a dedication. It’s hard work and it’s not for the paycheck. If that’s what you are there for, you’re in the wrong business. I live and breathe horses.”

~ Nicole Wiser

“There are actually quite a few horses that stand out for me,” Wiser said. “Working with Joe all of those years meant I had a lot of nice mares that I took care of.”

Shebestingin, a bay daughter of Bettor’s Delight, enjoyed a prosperous career, one that yielded 18 wins from 36 starts and over $760,000 in purse earnings.

The now 13-year-old mare still holds the world record for the fastest mile (1:47) by a 3-year-old filly.

“She was a very difficult horse to deal with,” Wiser said. “At home, she was fine. The minute you took her to a racetrack, you didn’t stand still with her. You had to keep her busy.”

“But she was a sweetheart. She would never do anything to hurt you. She was easy to jog, but when she was at the racetrack, she was all business. She didn’t want to stand still. I spent a lot of time walking through paddocks. She had that game face on in the paddock.”

Ideal News, a bay daughter of Western Ideal, tops Wiser’s all-time favorites list.

“I had her when she was a yearling and took care of her until she was retired in 2006,” Wiser said. “She was just a really nice mare. Everything about her was nice. She did everything you wanted her to do.”

The pair cemented their bond after a Fan Hanover elimination win at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2005, one that took a frightening turn not long after the score in 1:52.1.

“A few days after the win, she got sick and had to spend six weeks at Guelph University,” Wiser said. “After that, we got her home. After a while, we tried to get back to racing, but she just could never finish a mile very well. The whole time I was with her at Guelph, I would feed her every day. She wouldn’t eat for anyone else. I spent a lot of time with her, and she was just a very special horse. She gave you everything she had. She was not your typical mare. Anybody could jog her. John Campbell drove her and loved her. David Miller drove her and loved her. She was a great mare.”

That experience was a reminder of what Wiser views as the most important and rewarding part of her job.

“I just want to see them come back safe and sound,” she said. “I’m all about the horse. As a groom, we are the ones that spend probably around 90 per cent of the time with them. We have a unique connection with the horses. It’s a lot of hard work and you hope it pays off. I just care about them.”

As she does with her horses, companions or the ones she rides.

Two of them are former standardbred racehorses.

“One of them, Quick Draw, is 27,” she said. “I took care of him when I was in New Jersey. He shattered his sesamoid in a race, and his owner asked if I wanted him. I rehabbed him for six months and now he’s a pasture pet. He is an amazing horse and has always been very friendly with me. I have another one that my friend uses as a riding horse. My riding horses are quarter horses. We have a lot of trail horses, who have done horse shows, team penning, and all kinds of stuff. Riding my horses is my mental therapy. You get on them, head to the woods and everything is at ease.”

Forest landscapes aren’t the only scenery Wiser’s horses are privy to.

While she has typically resisted the idea of going on vacations, shorter trips closer to home have become the norm over the past five or so years.

Horses are always along for the journey.

“I go camping with my horses,” Wiser said. “That’s what I do for fun. Every now and again I will go on vacation. There is never really any downtime. If I take time off, it’s usually a day or two, here and there. After my first seven years with Joe, he would make me take a vacation. But the horses are always on my mind. Whenever I’m around them I’m happy. We take them trail riding and take them camping. They hang out with us and have fun.”

Close to 30 years after she began her career as a groom, Wiser remains content and fulfilled to be around the horses every day.

That she has been in the sport this long doesn’t come as a surprise to her.

“I was born and raised on a horse, so it’s my lifestyle, it’s what I enjoy,” she said. “Doing the business that we do with the racehorses is a passion and it’s a dedication. It’s hard work and it’s not for the paycheck. If that’s what you are there for, you’re in the wrong business. I live and breathe horses.”

Five words perhaps best sum up Wiser’s genuine affection for horses, an enduring love for equines that has never wavered.

“Horses... they are my life.”

Oracle Tile tops in Paris

by Thomas Hedlund

Etonnant was the heavy favorite when the $165,000 Prix Jean-Luc Lagadere was held at Enghien racetrack in Paris on Saturday (July 30) afternoon, and midway into the race, it looked like Richard Westerink's top trotter would capture another big win in his home country.

But Jean-Michel Bazire had other plans as he sat behind Elie de Beaufour, who quickly connected on Etonnant's outside on the back stretch and the pace began to quicken dramatically at that point.

Elie de Beaufour put hard pressure on Etonnant throughout the last turn and the long home stretch at Enghien proved to be too massive for Etonnant and Elie de Beaufour this time.

From third over, Theo Duvaldestin attacked with his Oracle Tile (Ready Cash) as the stretch started and Oracle Tile showed his best ability for speed as the wire approached. Pretty safely Oracle Tile claimed the win in a mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.7 miles, ahead of runner up Elvis du Vallon and bronze medalist Elie de Beaufour. Etonnant finished fourth.

BLEFF DIP A OUTSTANDING

Holger Ehlert's Italian Derby winner Bleff Dipa (Mister J.P.), paired with Roberto Vecchione, won the $105,000 Gran Premio Due Mari in Taranto, Italy on Sunday (July 30) night. Roberto Vecchione left second over after a quarter of a mile and took over the lead from early front runner Bonneville Gifon with a kilometer to go.

In the last turn, Bleff Dipa said goodbye to the opponents and flew down the stretch to an outstanding win in 1:53.2.

Always Ek finished well for second and third place was shared between Back On Top and Global Trustworthy.

RECORD FOR ABRIVARD

French top driver (and jockey) Matthieu Abrivard set a new record for wins on French soil as he claimed seven out of eight races in Royan-Atlantique on Sunday (July 30) afternoon.

French race cards are not often as massive as, for example, American or Swedish cards, so seven victories was quite an achievement for a day in France.

Sulkysport.se reported about this in the Monday edition and in the same article other drivers' milestones are mentioned. Bruce Ranger's lucky day at Pompano Park on Sept. 5, 2005, resulted in 13 wins on the same race card and in Europe, German driver Heinz Wewering was tops with 11 wins in Hamburg in 1995, according to Sulky Sport.

Dolce Amara soars at Red Mile

by Kimberly French for Red Mile

On Monday (July 31), Dolce Amara (Tim Tetrick) broke her maiden in style at Red Mile in the only $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes division for freshman trotting fillies. Lucas Wallin harnessed the granddaughter of champion Pizza Dolce on a sun-splashed afternoon in Kentucky.

Leaving from post position 3 in the field of 10, Dolce Amara (Muscle Hill—Ciao Dolce) was content to settle in rein to her Hall of Fame pilot through fractions of :27.3 and :55.3 in fifth behind leader Tactical Strike (Tactical Landing—Songster Seelster) for the first half-mile of the contest.

Tactical Strike broke stride after an adventurous beginning. St Germain (Walner—Noble Miss) decided to not stay on gait behind the gate for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Nancy Takter from post position 9.

Favorite Date Night Hanover (Chapter Seven—Don't Wait Up) also decided to gallop at the half-mile marker after never really inserting herself into the flow.

Competing as a homebred for Kjell Anderson, Dolce Amara rewarded her connections with a payoff of $8.44 for a win wager. Honorable Way (Chapter Seven—Special Way) was out finished for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Ake Svanstedt to place at 35-1.

Prominence (Father Patrick—Eminent Beauty) paid $7.84 to finish third with David Miller holding the lines for trainer Carter Pinske.

Dolce Amara is the second foal produced by Ciao Bella, who earned $173,809 on the racetrack. Her older full sister, Bella Ciao, sold for $300,000 at the 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Bonn and French Champagne lead the way in Commonwealth Series

Bonn (Peter Wrenn) had enough in the tank to outlast favored One World (Muscle Hill—Selfie Hanover) in the first $30,000 division of the second round of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Trained by Melanie Wrenn, the filly is owned by David McDuffee and L&L Devisser LLC.

The daughter of Tactical Landing—Angelina Chip stopped the clock in 1:55.2 as the third choice and paid $8.70 to win her second start in her second attempt. One World (Tim Tetrick, Wallin) provided $3.94 to place and Local Honey (A. McCarthy, Alagna) rounded out the trifecta at $2.34.

French Champagne (Muscle Hill—French Cafe) outdueled a game Epoch (Chapter Seven—Jolene Jolene) to capture the $30,000 second round division of Commonwealth events. Trained and driven by Ake Svanstedt, the grandson of 2008 Hambletonian Oaks victress Creamy Mimi is by Muscle Hill. He paid $20.40 to win for his breeders and owners Marvin Katz and Al Liebman.

Epoch (Tim Tetrick, Marcus Melander) tasted defeat after a :26.3 last quarter-mile. Favored Fanny Lipkowitz paid $2.68 to show for driver Dunn and trainer Wallin.

It's My Hill, Embrace the Future and The Roxbury take Goldenrod Series legs

It's My Hill (Yannick Gingras, Ron Burke), Embrace The Future (Nicholas Roussel, driver/trainer) and The Roxbury (D. Miller, Pinske) all captured their respective $15,000 divisions of second round action in the Kentucky Goldenrod Series.

Duke of Walner scores in Bluegrass Debut

On Sunday (July 30) Duke Of Walner (Walner—Nashville Lindy) rewarded his supporters as the post time favorite with a 1:54.1 triumph in the sole $80,000 division of the Kentucky Sire Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters at Red Mile.

G O A T (Walner—This Dreams On Me) and pilot Atlee Bender snatched the lead off the gate until Going Green (Greenshoe—Majestic Lexi) and David Miller assumed command at the half-mile marker after a first panel in :28.4.

Going Green relinquished the lead to Duke Of Walner after a half-mile in :57.2. Once he reached the front, the colt continued with plenty of trot to the wire.

Duke Of Walner, who broke his maiden in his third lifetime start, was followed home by Vocalize (Father Patrick—Speak To Me, Andrew McCarthy) and Longfellow S (Greenshoe—Crysti Dream, Brian Sears) was third.

Duke Of Walner was a $90,000 purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. Owned by Berg Bros. Racing, Joe Sbrocco, Daniel Plouffe and Lucaswallinjafracingmyfab, he is a half sibling to Shake It Off Lindy (Crazed, 1:52.4, $249,236) and Tennessee Lindy (Muscle Hill, 1:55.4, $127,760).

Duke Of Walner paid $5.16 for his victory. He is trained by Lucas Wallin and was driven by Tim Tetrick. The colt has earned $46,000 in purse money and was bred by K R Breeding LLC.

Vocalize paid $10.86 to place and Longfellow S $4.80 to show.

Alamo Mission (Walner—Adios Lindy) hit the line on top in the first $30,000 division of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series in 1:54.1. Dexter Dunn was in the bike for the Domenico Cecere.

The winner paid $5.16 as the top choice. Bright Star (Muscle Hill—Morningstar, Andrew McCarthy, Tony Alagna) provided the public with $8.30 to place. Skydiver (Greenshoe—Arianna G, Brian Sears, Marcus Melander) nailed down the show spot at $3.78.

He competes as a homebred for Lindy Farms.

International Law (International Moni—Love N Lindy) did not allow the 8-hole to deny him a decisive victory in the second $30,000 division of second round Kentucky Commonwealth Series action for 2-year-old trotting males.

Steered by Trace Tetrick, the gelding is owned by his trainer, Erv Miller, Douglas Overhiser, J & M Trading II LLC and John Stefanos.

He was bred by K R Breeding LLC.

Jgs Pal (Tactical Landing—Dressed To Impress), upset favored Militant (Six Pack—Christina M) to take the first $15,000 division of the Goldenrod Series for Scott Zeron and Linda Toscano. He paid $29.76 to win.

Favorites Luke The Spook (Greenshoe—Noblesse Blue Chip, Mathias Melander, Marcus Melander) and Swan Explosion (Swan For All—Explosive G, Peter Wrenn, Melanie Wrenn) took the second and third splits.

Luke The Spook paid $3.96, and a Swan Explosion ticket was worth $7.38.

Red Mile races on a Sunday, Monday, Tuesday schedule with a 1 p.m. EDT post time. Free program pages are available at redmileracing.com in addition to race replays.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Maine's freshman pacers wrap at Cumberland

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Maine-bred and sired 2-year-old pacers re-appeared at Cumberland on Sunday (July 30), where the aptly named Oakleypopsthedeuce acted accordingly to capture the first win of his fledgling career.

Scoring from post 2 driver 'double-digit' Dave Ingraham maintained his position with Oakleypopsthedeuce (8-1) and settled in behind 2-5 favorite Hesjustadelight (Ron Cushing, Heidi Gibbs) to hit the opening panel in a moderate :29.4.

With no movement, and the field in perfect alignment the freshmen pacers hit the half in a relaxed 1:01.2 with Wes's Challenge (Walter Case Jr., Marc Tardif) sitting third. Down the backstretch for the final time Thru The Fire (Andy Harrington, Tardif) moved swiftly passing horses first over and was alongside Oakleypopsthedeuce as the field reached the third stanza in 1:31.

Rolling through the turn in the heat of battle Thru The Fire lost some momentum which gave Oakleypopsthedeuce just enough wiggle room to pop out of the 2-hole and challenge for the lead. Down the stretch the pair matched strides valiantly, but it was Oakleypopsthedeuce that prevailed by a quarter length, getting up in the final steps to break his maiden in 2:01.4.

Trained by Kelly Case for owner Tammy Sowers, the son of Deuce Seelster was bred by Irwin Kaplan. Living up to his Gabe Prewitt-given nickname, Dave Ingraham with Oakleypopsthedeuce paid $19.00 to win the $15,123 Maine Sire Stake for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

Hesjustadelight finished second, Wes's Challenge was third.

Two $14,000-plus divisions of Maine Sire Stakes for freshmen fillies were scheduled for Saturday (July 30), however, one raced and one was postponed until Sunday (July 31).

Ghost Of You took the rescheduled $14,663 event, which was contested before Sunday's regular program, in a maiden-breaking 2:02.1. Driven by Kevin Switzer Jr. for trainer Marc Tardif and owner/breeder Leighton Property, the 2-year-old daughter of Deuce Seelster made every call a winning won, scoring wire-to-wire to grab the first victory in her six-start career.

Zoes Precious RN (Mike Cushing, Sherry Cushing) finished second, My Sweet Revenge (Case Jr., Tardif) was third.

A day earlier Mrs Foxy Roxy picked up her fourth career victory, scoring in 2:05.2 in the $14,486 Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies. Also, by the sire Deuce Seelster, the Mike Graffam-trained and Nick Graffam-driven distaff has assembled an impressive seasonal summary of four wins and a second in six starts.

This was Mrs Foxy Roxy's third Maine Sire Stakes victory for owners Bill McElvain Jr., Diane Dunn and Brad Veilleux and breeders Gary and Kristina Hall. She paid $4.00 to win. Who's Perfect (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) finished second, Gowestyounggrace (Dave Ingraham, Fred Ward Jr.) was third.

The Maine Sire Stakes returns to Cumberland on Saturday (Aug. 5) with all divisions of the 2- and 3-year-old Pine Tree State-bred trotters going postward. The following week the program transitions to the fair circuit with sire stakes racing at Topsham beginning August 7. The third week in August brings the monsters of the midway up to Skowhegan for another full week of Maine harness racing.

Clyde Hirt Journalism Workshop set for Hambletonian Week

The Clyde Hirt Journalism Workshop, presented by the Hambletonian Society, is ready for another successful year in 2023.

Established in 2003 by the U.S. Harness Writers Association, the workshop named for the longtime sports columnist and member of the Communicators Hall of Fame, Clyde Hirt, is for college and grad students interested in journalism. Students majoring in different media-focused studies – TV, PR, photography and newspaper/magazine writing – have all participated in the workshop.

The workshop takes place during one of the most exciting weeks in harness racing culminating in America's Classic Trotting Race, the $1 million Hambletonian on Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowslands. This year's workshop began today (Aug. 2) at The Big M.

Throughout the four-day workshop the students are mentored by professionals in all fields of journalism. The Hirt advisors believe a hands-on approach is necessary when teaching and work one-on-one with students as much as possible.

Attending students have represented colleges and universities throughout the U.S. and Canada and have written stories about the Hambletonian that have appeared in many major publications, including the Los Angeles Times, New York Daily News, Boston Globe, Chicago Sun-Times, Philadelphia Inquirer and The Star-Ledger.

The Hirt advisors have been told that if it were not for the workshop providing stories to some papers, that they would either not cover the Hambletonian or would do so in just a couple of sentences.

The slogan "The Clyde Hirt Journalism Workshop, turning journalism majors into journalists" has proven to be accurate as many workshop graduates have gone on to have successful careers in media.

Win a free trip to the Dan Patch Awards weekend

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is giving away a free trip for two to the Dan Patch Awards banquet, presented by Caesars Entertainment in Orlando, FL, (Feb. 24 and 25, 2024) to the winner of the Scott Alberg Facebook Hambletonian contest this Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowslands.

The trip is the grand prize and its worth more than $3,000. There is also a second-place prize of $250 and a third-place prize of $150.

All contestants need to do is correctly select the straight exacta (first two official finishers) in the $1 million Hambletonian Trot final on Saturday. The contest will officially start at noon on Thursday (Aug. 3) on Scott Alberg's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/scottalberg.3.

The first-place prize includes the following:

Round-trip airfare to Orlando, FL (limited funding depending on departure location outside North America).

Two nights hotel stay at the Rosen Centre Resort in Orlando.

Two tickets to the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, sponsored by Caesars Entertainment.

A $250 Visa Card for airport transfers and food.

Free access to the USHWA hospitality suite on Feb. 24 and 25

Contestants must be age 21 or older to enter. Prize package is not transferable. Current USHWA members are not eligible to enter the contest. Complete rules and regulations are posted on the USHWA website at www.usharnesswriters.com.

"I really hope that some average Joe wins the contest," said USHWA president Barry Lefkowitz. "It would be great for a racing fan, owner, trainer, driver or groom whom would never get a chance to experience what a great weekend this is, to win this prize."

Anyone who is not on Facebook can also enter the contest by emailing their exacta selection to CustomerService@4NJPicks.com.

In the event that there are multiple correct selections, a drawing for the prize winners will take place live on the USHWA Facebook page Saturday (Aug. 5) at 6:30 pm. (EDT).

Batavia hosts NYSS' frosh filly pacers today

For the second consecutive day, the New York Sire Stakes will set up shop at Batavia Downs today (Aug. 2) when the 2-year-old pacing fillies come to town. There are two divisions sporting short and evenly matched fields that will go postward for a total of $110,100 in purses.

The first group will compete for $54,100 and feature three morning line co-favorites.

Camerican (American Ideal—Camille) is the top points and earnings filly of this division and comes in off a big effort in a NYSS event at Yonkers Raceway where she took her lifetime mark of 1:55.2. She has two wins and two seconds in four lifetime starts and has flashed some good finishing speed for trainer Ron Burke. Jordan Stratton is in the bike, starting from post 3.

Similarly, Delightville (Huntsville—D D Delightful) has also won in a lifetime best of 1:55.3 at Yonkers last week and has two wins this year as well, justifying her co-favorite status here. Matt Kakaley will steer for Travis Alexander from post 1.

Also in the mix is Peace Talks (American Ideal—Triple V Hanover) who got her initial career win at Yonkers last week while easily pulling away by 3-1/4 lengths in 1:56. She has not missed the board in three starts and drew well for this start with post 2. Jason Bartlett will drive for trainer Chris Ryder.

The second division is a five-horse field with a purse of $56,000.

Bronx Barista (Huntsville—Apricot Sour) started her year with two wins before a disappointing finish in her last outing at Yonkers, where she finished a distant sixth. The filly qualified at The Meadowlands three days later in a sparkling 1:52.1 mile with a fast last quarter of :26.4. This will be her third start in the last eight days. Mark MacDonald will drive from post 4 for trainer Ray Schnitker.

Blue Point (Huntsville—Amber Blue Chip) has a win and two seconds this year, all in NYSS action, with her only board miss after an unfortunate break three starts ago. That seemed to be an anomaly as she has since taken a lifetime mark of 1:54.3 at Saratoga. Blue Point is sure to get a lot of consideration here as Jason Bartlett will steer from post 5 for trainer Ed Hart.

So Well Dressed (So Surreal—Gotmyreddressonit) currently sits second for both points and earnings in this division behind Camerican, after winning her first two NYSS events of the year. She has not had the best racing luck since then but still finished an impressive third in her last outing. She drew post 2 and driver Jim Morrill Jr. will steer for trainer Chuck Connor Jr.

There are also four $20,000 NYSS Excelsior divisions on the program and those splits are in races 6, 7, 8 and 9. The NYSS races are carded as races 10 and 11. Post time for the first race tonight is 6 p.m.

Ladycorona scores third straight at Hippodrome 3R

Ladycorona (Bettor's Delight) has stamped herself as the top 3-year-old pacing filly at the Hippodrome 3R this season with her third straight triumph, taking a $7,500 division of the Breeders Trophy Series Sunday (July 30) afternoon.

It's the second round of the series for 3-year-olds pacers. Ladycorona started from post 2 in the 10th race second division for driver Pascal Berube.

YS Sensationalcity (Jocelyn Gendron) had the rail and left hard to control the inside as Berube also sent Ladycorona for the lead and those two battled neck and neck through a :27.3 opening quarter before Ladycorona won out.

Berube then backed her off to a half mile in just :59. Entering the backstretch Berube had a stranglehold on his filly going by the three-quarters in 1:28.2, winning with ease by two and one-half lengths in 1:57.3. YS Sensationalcity was second with Mach N Cheddar (David Pilon) third.

It was the fourth win of the year for Ladycorona. She now had two wins in the series for trainer Yves Tessier and owner/breeder Sotirios Anastasopoulos. She paid just $2.10 to win.

The first division of the Breeders Trophy Series for the fillies was the fifth race where race favorite Pocahontas Du Lac (Betterthancheddar) and driver Pierre-Luc Roy did not disappoint the race fans as she wired the field in 1:58.4 by one and three-quarter lengths. Irish Mary (Pascal Berube) was second with Godiva Ice Cream (Robert Shepherd) third.

It was Pocahontas Du Lac's first win in nine starts this year. Last year she was the Quebec Champion. She is trained by David Pilon for owners Louis-Philippe Roy, Pierre-Luc Roy, Maude Larouche and Jean Allaire. She paid just $2.20 to win.

Owner/breeder Guy Corbeil of Mirabel, QC saw both his homebreds sweep the two $7,500 divisions of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers. Both horses were driven to victory by Stephane Brosseau and are trained by Maxime Velaye.

First up was the third race where Fantome En Joie (Shadow Play) was able to wire the field from the start for Brosseau, winning by three-quarters of a length in 1:57.1 over Kansas Panic (Robert Shepherd) with Maximus BG (Jocelyn Gendron) third.

It was the second straight win and fifth win in just seven starts for Fantome En Joie, who did not race as a 2-year-old. He paid $3.10 to win.

Then in the seventh race second $7,500 division it was Brosseau again, wiring the field with the race favorite Attitude (Leader Bayama) in 1:58 by two and one-half lengths in 1:58 over Kingston Panic (Robert Shepherd) with Albert Alpha (Jimmy Gagnon) third.

It was the third win this season for Attitude who paid $3.20 to win.

Guy Corbeil, Maxime Velaye and Stephane Brosseau made it a triple on Sunday as their Aladdin (Shadow Play) wired the field in the 8th race $7,000 preferred pace in 1:55.4. That was the fastest mile on the afternoon.

With his three victories, Velaye is now one win away from leading trainer Marc-Andre Simoneau 15 to 14.

Track Notes: Pascal Berube led all drivers with four winners. Stephane Brosseau had a driving triple and trainer Maxime Velaye had his triple. Due to the Grand Prix Auto Racing in the town of Trois-Rivieres next week, there will be no live racing at H3R next weekend. Live racing will resume on Friday (Aug. 11) with the second round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotters. For more information, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.
