Perfect 10 Tactics

Ten years after Nancy Takter started training horses, in the 10th Hambletonian in front of the new Meadowlands grandstand, driver Scott Zeron orchestrated a dream trip from the 10 hole that delivered Tactical Approach to victory in the 98th edition of America's Classic Trotting Race.

by Dave Briggs

Having just used up all the karma to win Saturday's (Aug. 5) $1 million Hambletonian from the 10 hole, Tactical Approach's part-owner Joe Sbrocco suffered the indignity of having his rental car break down in The Meadowlands' parking lot. He was on his way to a celebration dinner at Il Villaggio, long the restaurant of choice for Hambletonian winners.

"He's not handling it too well," Sbrocco's fellow owner John Fodera reported via text while offering his air conditioned car as refuge while they waited for a tow truck.

It was an inconvenience, for sure, but nothing could steal the moment from a Hambletonian that came up all tens for Tactical Approach's team of trainer Nancy Takter, driver Scott Zeron, Sbrocco and Fodera's co-owners John Fielding and Robert LeBlanc and the trotter's breeder Steve Stewart.

KNOW WHEN TO TAKE THE REINS. RESPONSIBLEGAMBLING.ORG

In Takter's 10th year as a trainer, in the 10th Hambletonian held in front of the new Meadowlands grandstand, Zeron orchestrated some serious magic to shoot up the inside in the stretch to win from the far outside post in 1:50.3 at odds of 12-1. Oh Well was one length back in second. Up Your Deo was third, two lengths back of the winner, who improved to 4-0-4 in nine 2023 starts and 6-0-4 in 14 career outings. Lifetime, he has earned $617,989.

It was the first time in the 43 years the Hambletonian has been held at The Meadowlands that the final of this race has been won from the 10 hole. There's a good bet – though not definitively provable at press time – that it is the first time in the race's nearly 100-year history that a Hambletonian winner has come out of the 10-hole.

That the winner of the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks, Heaven Hanover, also came out of post 10 (a year after Fashion Schooner did the same) made the Saturday afternoon card under perfect New Jersey summer skies as delicious and improbable and joyous a harness racing event as one gets these days. The fans turned out in envious numbers to see it – and brought their wallets. Total handle of $7,805,779 was the best total in the 10-year history of the new grandstand and, by far, a 2023 industry high.

Despite getting up on Hambletonian Day absolutely convinced she was going to win the race for the first time, Takter had something of a complicated relationship with the post position all week.

Driver Scott Zeron (shown raising the trophy after winning the first of three Hambletonians in 2016 with Marion Marauder) gave Tactical Approach a masterful steer.

"[Drawing the 10] wears on you a little bit," she said. "I was sitting on an airplane on the tarmac, leaving from Lexington and watching the feed [of the draw], and they said, 'Tactical Approach, 10' and I was just, like, 'Great.' I texted Scotty and said, 'We're going to have to figure it out from the 10-hole.' He said, 'Well, that's not what I would've picked, but it'll be all right.' So, it was."

Watching trainer Marcus Melander win the Oaks two races earlier from the far outside did little to improve the trainer's mood.

"I actually came off the track and said, 'Well, that statistically just ruined our chances that the 10-hole is going to win both the Oaks and the Hambo,'" Nancy said.

Good thing Zeron had her back.

"This was the least amount of pressure I've ever had, just because of having a bad post," he told The Meadowlands' television crew. "I've had a lot of faith in this horse all year, but I've over-driven him in most of his starts. To give him a nice steer, a patient one, he respected it, and he thanked me.

"I just saw everyone protecting the two-wide path in the middle of the first turn. I just knew I was going to be fifth-over, sixth-over. I just elected to go left. For a million dollars, everyone is going to give their horse a chance. I was trying to under-drive mine and get a good portion of it. Turning for home, as close as I was, it was the best-case scenario.

"In the last turn, when I saw where we were situated, I was confident that if I had room, he would give me everything that he had down the lane. It was unexpected, just based on the post, not the horse."

The victory gave Zeron an astounding third Hambletonian win in just seven years. He is only 34.

In 2010, Nancy Takter won a Hambletonian as a caretaker for her father Jimmy Takter's pupil Muscle Massive. On Saturday, she became just the second person to go from winning the race as a caretaker to doing so as a trainer.

Zeron drove Marion Marauder to victory in 2016. In 2018, he drove Atlanta to Hambletonian glory for his father, trainer Rick Zeron, and partners.

Scott is only the 11th driver to win at least three Hambletonians. The other 10 are in the Hall of Fame.

Given all she has accomplished on her own, it's long past the time we need to mention Takter's father, but it's tricky when Jimmy Takter is a three-time Hall of Famer that won the Hambletonian four times.

Saturday, hanging on the edges of a chaotic winner's circle, Jimmy smiled taking it all in and seeing his daughter front and center.

"To me, it felt more special my daughter winning than when I did myself," he said. "You're a father, so you'd know why."

Nancy said she is both unbelievably proud of her father and bothered by the constant comparisons.

"It's a big legacy to carry," she said. "I know he's very proud of me. We had a good hug after the race. Sometimes it's a bit difficult to be in his shadow. I don't think a lot of people always want to give me the credit that I maybe do deserve. There are people that think he does all the work, but he's in Florida all winter when we do the work, so... Like I've said before, obviously he's my dad and he's there when I need him if I ever have a problem or a question. Other people go to Google and I go to my dad."

Nancy was even the caretaker for Jimmy's 2010 Hambletonian winner Muscle Massive. That makes Nancy just the second person in Hambletonian history to go from being a winning caretaker to a winning trainer. Osvaldo Formia was the groom of both Lindys Pride (1969) and Speedy Somolli (1978) and trainer of Probe (1989) and Harmonious (1990).

That Tactical Approach is a son of Tactical Landing (out of Sarcy, sold for $85,000 at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale) adds to the story.

Jimmy Takter trained Tactical Landing and was able to turn a horse with health problems into a Breeders Crown, TVG and Hambletonian elimination winner with earnings in excess of $800,000.

"My dad deserves to be put in the Hall of Fame again for the job that he did with Tactical Landing because it was just amazing," Nancy said. "I saw the transformation because I happened to be on the farm. I was training at a different training centre, but the first day that Tactical Landing came to their farm I happened to be there to see my mom and I watched him train that horse and it was, like, 'Yeah, this isn't going to work.' Then, to see him just blossom through the year is unbelievable.

"[Tactical Landing taught me] that I needed to have patience. I think that people in this game, they are so anxious about racing 2-year-olds... All your owners tell you all winter, 'Oh, don't feel any pressure, we can race late in the year' or 'All the big stakes are at the end of the year' and then baby races roll around and they say, 'Why aren't we racing?'"

On this day, patience clearly paid off.

Nancy said winning as a trainer is, "way more exciting, but there's also a lot more pressure and a lot more expectations from everyone. Being a trainer, just the day-to-day of planning everything. I don't think people always realize just how much trainers actually do in a week... Last night, I had eight horses that raced. Three had to go to a detention barn, one at The Meadows, one at Saratoga and then today just get all the horses here. There's a lot of planning. I write lists all day long. Andrew McCarthy is always saying, 'Oh, Nancy is writing a list.' I write lists all the time. Everybody knows what they are doing."

Asked if she is a little Type A, Nancy laughed. "A lot Type A," she said.

It helps to have a terrific group of owners that once employed her father as trainer. She said she is blessed they put their faith in her and honored she was able to reward that faith with a Hambletonian.

"Tactical Approach has the best group of owners," Nancy said. "They all texted me this morning, just thanking me for the opportunity to be here. That's very special. There was no pressure going into this and they are just elated.

"I've known John Fielding since I was, like, 17 years old or probably even younger. They've watched me grow up. I've taken care of good horses for them when I was a caretaker and worked for my dad and so forth. So, I'm very happy that they've decided to support me in this endeavor and, obviously, it makes it a lot easier to have such a good group of owners."

It doesn't hurt to have an ultra-hot breeder on your side, too. Tactical Approach is the third Hambletonian winner in nine years for Stewart's Hunterton Farm. Steve and Cindy bred 2014 winner Trixton – campaigned by Jimmy Takter – and 2019 champ Forbidden Trade that won for trainer Luc Blais and owner Determination.

All three winners were something of underdogs.

"Forbidden Trade it was all Greenshoe, Greenshoe, Greenshoe," Steve said, "and when Trixton won it, it was all Father Patrick, Father Patrick."

Even better than winning the Hambletonian, the Stewarts have a Walner brother to Tactical Approach to sell this fall.

"The farm lives and dies by what the racehorses do and them doing this is just another feather in our cap," Cindy said. "These are our babies."

"It's one thing to be the buyer and you cheer for them more than anybody, but when you breed them you're the creator," Steve said.

For Fielding (Pinkman, 2015), LeBlanc and Fodera (both Ramona Hill, 2020) Tactical Approach delivered their second Hambletonian. Sbrocco is the only first-time winner of the ownership group.

"I've never had a feeling like this," Sbrocco said. "This is a million-dollar race... It's terrific, unbelievable. It's not just the money, it's the prestige with the Hambo."

"I'll never worry again when I draw the 10-hole as much as I did this time."

Fielding agreed that getting post 10 was a downer.

"Once we drew the 10-hole, we kind of thought we were screwed," Fielding said, "but Scotty drove an unbelievable race and we got very lucky that the seas parted and away we went."

"You try so hard through the years and you keep buying them and buying them and hope you're going to get here – to even get to the race is a big feat, but when you win it, it's pretty special. Very, very special."

Winning the Hambletonian after spending countless millions to own countless numbers of horses is exactly the kind of thing that keeps Fielding in the game.

"It's like Hotel California," he said, laughing. "You can check in, but you can never leave."

LeBlanc, who like Fielding is Canadian, said he started screaming when he saw a hole open up and Tactical Approach shot through in the stretch.

"I knew he could win but until he crossed the line you never know," LeBlanc said. "After he crossed the line I was shaking... Scotty drove him to perfection."

"Winning never gets old. When [Ramona Hill] won it was during the pandemic and no one was there. Being in the winner's circle was amazing."

“Watching the races during the entire day the front end was not hanging on so now hoping for a good trip with cover. As the gates opened, watching the rail open up I gained some confidence and just hoped we would get a chance. At the top of the lane I knew we were full of trot and this became surreal with memories of Ramona Hill.”

The win marks the eighth time in the last 10 years — and third straight — that the Hambletonian winner had at least partial Canadian connections.

Fodera said the fact that the front end was not holding up throughout the day gave him hope for Tactical Approach as they approached the Hambletonian, contested as race 12.

“Watching the races during the entire day the front end was not hanging on so now hoping for a good trip with cover,” Fodera said. “As the gates opened, watching the rail open up I gained some confidence and just hoped we would get a chance. At the top of the lane I knew we were full of trot and this became surreal with memories of Ramona Hill.

“Winning with Ramona Hill was great but it was with COVID and we were so limited wearing masks and not having our entire family there... “I love this business... I’ve won three [Little Brown] Jugs and nothing is more exciting than the Hambo.”

Even if the victory celebration has to wait on a tow truck.

BRUSH AND CRUSH

by DEAN TOWERS

Hambletonian Day minute by minute

by Dean Towers

Saturday's (Aug. 5) Hambletonian Day card is one of our favorite days of the year in harness racing, and I'm again happy to share my thoughts, race by race, minute by minute on this wonderful set of races.

The card kicked off with a bang. Analyst Gabe Prewitt, as did I, wondered if Stonebridge Helios would be ready off a month break and that was answered quickly with an easy blow-out win. Ontario-based trainer John Pentland, who developed this lovely horse, puts a good foundation under his young ones as a rule, so it makes me wonder – at only 4 and looking so sound and sharp, how good can Helios be?

It's not a newsflash, but the drivers at The Meadows are the best in the business. Last week, Brian Sears gained a tactical advantage against Sylvia Hanover with a masterful drive and couldn't beat her. In the Shady Daisy, it was a two-pronged driver attack with Todd McCarthy opening up on the lead, and Joe Bongiorno executing his game plan on Sylvia's back. Again, it didn't matter. She's just a tremendous filly.

I'm beginning to think this Burke fellow might know how to train a horse. M M's Dream could barely function up at Woodbine Mohawk Park, but they regrouped, took the shoes off for the Maturity and slayed the dragon that is Jiggy Jog. Then they returned and did it again in the Steele in a 1:50 smasher. That's some really good work.

If we talk a little betting in the Continental victory, it was a deemed spread race in the Pick 6, with Quick Stop coming off a break for no apparent reason, and Bella Macchiato in similar stead. And that's exactly the way it went. Tactical Mounds, a part of Thestable.ca team, was a popular winner with multiple owners. It must have been a lot of fun for that group to win a stakes race on Hambletonian Day.

Silver Label was sensational in the Lady Liberty. I've followed her since she was 2 and although I've always liked her, I never thought she was an open mare. It sure is nice to be wrong, because owner George Millar has been at this a long, long time, and he's always played the game the right way. Way to go George and trainer Nick Gallucci.

Harness racing is a speed game, but too much speed and we get to witness fantastic finishes like this year's Hambletonian Oaks. The :53.2 half set up a beautiful sweep of the field for the Marcus Melander-trained Heaven Hanover. The daughter of Father Patrick sailed with no shoes in the Del Miller two weeks ago while upsetting Bond, and followed that up with the biggest victory of her career.

In the Cashman, the closer parade continued with a photo finish between winner It's Academic and Venerate. Tim Tetrick, fresh off his Oaks win, controlled the pace nicely with Rattle My Cage to no avail. If we hadn't seen some handy wire to wire winners earlier on the card, we might be thinking the front-end is soft.

As an aside, you may be surprised that neither Venerate or It's Academic ended up as the favorite. Southwind Tyrion, despite being 5-1 throughout the betting, went to 2-1 last flash. As a friend noted to me on text, "it's the power of the computer teams." Even on large handle days like Hambletonian Day they're sending it in.

Tactical Approach won the Hambletonian in the opposite way from earlier this season when he was overpowering them. Scott Zeron was simply tactical.

It was an interesting race where the fractions were nowhere near taxing, which often results in a wire-to-wire, pocket or first-up winner, but that never came.

This was a fascinating Hambletonian run-up, in my view. Tactical Approach was beating his class fairly handily early, but there was always the nagging feeling that better horses were waiting in the wings, ready to move forward to take the Crown. The early season star certainly had something to say about that. A big congrats to Nancy Takter for having this fast colt good for such an extended period of time.

Perhaps Ron Burke and team are thinking they're snake bit. Yannick Gingras had Celebrity Bambino on top in a :56 with no pressure going for a million, and the horse simply didn't fire home. They'll get theirs at some point, and this game isn't for the faint of heart, but it has to be disappointing.

A shout out is warranted to trainer Noel Daley for the sweep of the New Jersey Sires Stakes Finals with Sig Sauer and Buy a Round. I've always thought Noel was a terrific conditioner of young horses and this year's select few who have started have all been firing.

There's been a lot of debate about the Hambletonian poll lately with both Sylvia Hanover and Confederate laying some claim to the top spot, but I wonder if the door may be closed for the filly. In the sport's glamour division I'm not sure we've seen a more dominant colt in some time than Confederate. I thought his Cane Pace victory was jaw dropping. He made some pretty fast pacers look ordinary.

In the second Sam McKee Memorial division Bythemissal got back on track while the speed show of older talent continued. I bet Sam would've loved every second of it.

I hope you enjoyed your Hambletonian Day as much as I did. I'm lighter in the wallet because I didn't hit much, but on days with this kind of harness racing entertainment, it's just fine.

Heaven Hanover (10, Tim Tetrick), lifted off cover to spring a 28-1 upset in the Hambletonian Oaks, collaring Bond (#3) and Righteous Resolve (#4), who finished second and third, respectively, in a blanket finish.

Heaven Hanover rallies to 28-1 Hambletonian Oaks upset

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

For the second year in a row, post 10 posed no problem for Tim Tetrick in the Hambletonian Oaks.

Tetrick guided Heaven Hanover to victory in Saturday's (Aug. 5) $500,000 race for 3-year-old female trotters at The Meadowlands, rallying from the back of the pack to defeat Bond by a neck in 1:50.3 at odds of 28-1. Righteous Resolve finished third as five horses were separated by 1-1/4 lengths at the finish.

Last year, Tetrick won the Oaks from post 10 with Fashion Schooner. Saturday's triumph was Tetrick's fourth in the Oaks, tying him with Berndt Lindstedt for second most in the race's history. Yannick Gingras holds the record, with six.

It was the first Oaks victory for trainer Marcus Melander, who previously finished second twice, with Hypnotic AM in 2020 and Iteration in 2021.

Heaven Hanover got away last in the 10-horse field and was more than 14 lengths behind when leader Railee Something got to the first quarter in :26. Railee Something remained in front to the half in :53.2 and three-quarters in 1:21.3, at which point Heaven Hanover was a three-wide ninth, still more than seven lengths behind.

From there, Heaven Hanover began her charge. She trotted her last quarter in :27.3 – the fastest in the field – and passed four horses down the stretch to get the victory.

“I needed exactly what happened to happen,” Tetrick said. “If there was no speed up front, we were too far back. But those fillies got tired, we had fresh legs, and we got it done. She had to earn it. She got the money and it’s great.”

The win was Heaven Hanover’s third in eight starts this season. She was third in her Hambletonian Oaks elimination last week, two weeks after winning a division of the Delvin Miller Memorial, also at The Meadowlands.

“She’s been racing good all year, to be honest,” Melander said. “We took her shoes off for the Delvin Miller, and she really stepped up. We’ve been racing her barefoot ever since. [The Oaks] was such an open race, and if by going barefoot we can get out five per cent more, that could be enough to win the race. That’s why we do it.”

Heaven Hanover is a daughter of Father Patrick–Hillarmbo owned by S R F Stable, Rick Wahlstedt, Heights Stable and AMG Stable. She was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms. For her career, she has won five of 14 races and earned $429,731.

Melander’s Secret Volo, who started from post 9, finished fourth, beaten by only a length.

Heaven Hanover paid $59.40 to win.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Forty years into the game, Sylvia Hanover has taken owner Tony Infilise to tremendous heights

by Murray Brown

Sylvia Hanover, the No. 1 horse in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll is owned by Hudson Standardbreds, the nom de guerre for the husband-and-wife team of Tony and Betty Infilise. Tony has been involved as an owner in the business since 1980. Although Betty has always been at his side, it is only in recent years when she has taken a hand and a significant interest in being involved in the stable. "That's when the stable evolved from a perennial loser to a money maker," Tony said. Tony and I had a conversation on the eve of Sylvia Hanover's victory in the Shady Daisy on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands.

You've been involved in horse ownership for roughly 40 years now. Where and how did it begin?

"I had gone to the races as a fan and a bettor at Richelieu Park and Blue Bonnets in Montreal. I liked it, but really hadn't thought anything about becoming involved as an owner. Although we are both native Montrealers, Betty and I were living in Toronto where we were working towards building our fledgling company Quadra Chemicals. We had some associates who owned horses. It seemed like fun. I thought I'd give it a try. Now here I am, hundreds of horses later.

How many horses do you own now?

"All told, I would say about 50. That would include 10 broodmares, their foals, seven yearlings, and the rest are racehorses that we either own ourselves or in part."

Are all your racehorses in the Steacy Stable?

"They are right now, but I have also had horses with Dustin Jones, Dr. Ian Moore, Marcel Barrieau, Ben Wallace and others."

How did the association with the Steacy family come about?

"They represent two things that I value quite highly: integrity and family. Of course, their record in racing horses was also excellent. Mark has been in the game for a long time without a single blemish on his record. He is well regarded throughout the business as being a very thorough and capable horseman. I approached him with a view towards having him train some horses for us. He agreed. That was in 2008 and we are still together. It has been a very satisfying relationship. I cannot recall a single cross word ever having been spoken between the two of us."

You've had some good horses before Sylvia Hanover. Has she been the best one?

"The short answer is likely yes. But her book is far from having been completely written. Perhaps we can speak of her a little later. The first really good one, by really good, I mean Grand Circuit quality, was a horse we bred ourselves named Shanghai Phil (p.1.50.2, $545,630). He was a real good 2-year-old, who I believe was destined to become better than he ultimately became but illness prevented him reaching his true potential.

Shanghai Phil has stood stud in Ontario and has been what might be described as a good poor man's sire. The next top one that we had was Sunshine Beach (p.1.47.4f, $971,037). We bought him as a yearling at Harrisburg for $85,000. I suppose one might say that he was the first yearling we really stepped out on. He was close to being a great horse. He might have actually been one, but he had the misfortune of having been born the same year as Captaintreacherous. Then came Sylvia Hanover. Other than being a great filly, Sylvia is far from an ordinary one. She is exceptional in a variety of ways."

How did you come to own her?

"We were looking to buy top quality fillies. Sylvia fit well in that profile. I had always been a great admirer of her sire Always B Miki. He was making waves with his first performers on the racetrack. She came from a great family. She was a sister to a millionaire in Western Fame. I wasn't at the sale, but Mark and Shawn Steacy loved her as an individual. She was big and strong and was without any faults. We thought we would go up to $125,000 on her. I was on the phone with Mark Steacy who was doing the in-house bidding. We bid $125,000. Another person who I later found was Chris Ryder went to $130,000. 'Let's try once more,' Mark said. We did and bought her for $135,000. We took her home and all winter Mark said she was fine, but was also somewhat lazy. Even then, she was showing that she had a mind of her own."

When did you get an inkling that she might be something special?

"Certainly not early in her racing career. James MacDonald drove her in her first baby race. Even though she won, he apparently wasn't overly impressed with her. Neither were we. We thought that we had a nice filly. We knew she had talent, but really didn't dare to think she might be very good until the [Whenuwishuponastar] where, excuse the pun, she really began to shine. James booked off her for her next start and that is when we retained Bob McClure. Bob has been with her ever since. In all his modesty Bob has said that when he sits behind her she becomes the boss. She gets better with every start. She does just what she has to do. In her last two starts I was worried about the ground she had to make up. But she just does her thing and continues to win."

You raised the stakes last year. You went to the sales and bought a filly for $275,000.

"We've been trying to buy a top bred yearling trotting filly for a few years now. The prices have been out of our price range. We went to the sales last year more determined than previously.

"Supporting and encouraging the breeding of Standardbred horses for over 95 years."

“The property of the former Blue Bonnets which is worth millions upon millions has been lying dormant for 14 years now. It’s certainly not because people from Quebec are not involved in the sport. Just look at the training, driving and ownership of the horses racing at Mohawk now. Names like Filion, Roy, Moreau, Tourigny, Baillargeon, Jones, Zeron and others race, drive and own horses that could be racing in Montreal. It’s a darned shame. I’m not smart enough to come up with a solution and sell it to the politicians. But there has to be someone who can seize and build upon an opportunity that a racetrack in Montreal would present.”

~ Tony Infilise

If those were the prices that the market dictated, then so be it. If we found the right filly, we would meet the price. This time we brought in a couple of partners, Nancy and Ozzie Malik and the Landmark group to share the risk. We bought the Walner half-sister to Cool Papa Bell for $275,000, the most, by far that we’ve paid for a yearling. The filly’s name is Cool Ma Belle. She won at Mohawk [Thursday] night in 1:57.2, last quarter in :27.3. We also have a 3-year-old Captaintreacherous filly, Front Page Story, who is in the same race as Sylvia on Saturday. The Steacy’s think quite highly of her. She has already won in 1:49.4 and is getting better with every start.”

You are a successful owner and breeder, but haven’t you also been involved in racetrack management?

“Not really. I was initially involved in the formation of the Quebec Jockey Club which runs the meet at the Trois Rivières racetrack. It’s a small meet which is doing reasonably well despite serious obstacles presented by the politics of the government of the province of Quebec. The major tragedy is that there is not a harness track in Montreal. Here we have a place which at one time was the leading harness center in all of Canada.

“The property of the former Blue Bonnets which is worth millions upon millions has been lying dormant for 14 years now. It’s certainly not because people from Quebec are not involved in the sport. Just look at the training, driving and ownership of the horses racing at Mohawk now. Names like Filion, Roy, Moreau, Tourigny, Baillargeon, Jones, Zeron and others race, drive and own horses that could be racing in Montreal. It’s a darned shame. I’m not smart enough to come up with a solution and sell it to the politicians. But there has to be someone who can seize and build upon an opportunity that a racetrack in Montreal would present.”

Sylvia Hanover a gutsy winner in Shady Daisy

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Harness racing's No. 1-ranked horse, Sylvia Hanover, made it 13 wins in a row Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowlands, capturing the $100,000 Shady Daisy, for 3-year-old female pacers, by a head over Beach Cowgirl in 1:48.3. Bellissima Hanover finished third.

Sylvia Hanover and driver Bob McClure were content to sit in fourth place through the first half of the race as Bellissima Hanover set fractions of :26 and :54.1. As the leader reached the half, McClure had Sylvia Hanover in motion, but she remained nearly four lengths behind at three-quarters, which was reached in 1:21.4.

In the stretch, Sylvia Hanover overtook Bellissima Hanover, but still had to fight off Beach Cowgirl to her inside to get the hard-earned victory. Sylvia Hanover paced her last quarter in :26 while Beach Cowgirl was timed in :25.4.

"You have to give her credit, that other filly raced huge," McClure said. "We came a good last quarter, and she was with us the whole way. [Sylvia Hanover] dug in all the way down the lane. It was a good battle. I'm glad we came out on top."

Sylvia Hanover is a daughter of Always B Miki—Shyaway owned by Hudson Standardbred Stable. The Hanover Shoe Farms-bred filly is trained by the father-son team of Mark and Shawn Steacy. She is 6-for-6 this season and 14-for-15 lifetime. With her win Saturday, she pushed her career earnings to just over $1 million.

"She's got what most horses don't have: the desire to win," Mark Steacy said. "It doesn't matter what type of trip she gets, she wants to get her nose in front at the end."

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite, Sylvia Hanover paid $2.10 to win.

M-M's Dream cruises to Steele victory

by Mike Farrell for the Hambletonian Society

M-M's Dream cruised to a 1:50 victory in the $131,250 Dr. John R. Steele Memorial, the first trotting stakes of the Hambletonian Day (Aug. 5) program at The Meadowlands.

The Steele, for open mares, drew a select field of six that was short on numbers but long on quality. The lineup included 2022 Hambletonian Oaks winner Fashion Schooner and Breeders Crown champion Jiggy Jog S. In the end, the Pride of Indiana prevailed with a dominant pacesetting score in a lifetime best effort.

The complexion of the race changed radically when Fashion Schooner, handled by Tim Tetrick on the rail, broke at the start. That left David Miller and M-M's Dream squarely in control as Jiggy Jog, the 1-5 favorite, settled in fourth with Dexter Dunn at the lines.

Spotted the early advantage, M-M's Dream was not going to be denied.

"The race went nothing like I thought," Miller said. "When Timmy's mare made a break leaving, I thought for sure Dexter would be coming. In the middle of the first turn, I was all by myself. We just took it as easy as we could, and she had lots left."

That was an understatement.

M-M's Dream polished off the unchallenged mile with a :26 final quarter for her 23rd victory in 29 starts for Eleven Star Stables, Frank Baldachino and Hillside Stables. Jiggy Jog S rallied to secure the place spot, two lengths behind, from Warrawee Xenia.

M-M's Dream, a Ron Burke trainee, has now firmly established her credentials outside the Hoosier State. This was her third Meadowlands stakes win this season, along with a leg of the Miss Versatility and the Hambletonian Maturity, the latter of which saw her shock Jiggy Jog S by a neck at 12-1.

"She's been racing excellent," Miller said. "She's really stepped up. It's been a nice surprise."

Bettors were as surprised this time. M-M's Dream paid $9.80 to win as the 7-2 second choice.

Silver Label equals stakes mark in Lady Liberty

by Jay Bergman for the Hambletonian Society

Silver Label and driver Scott Zeron made a powerful move without cover on the final turn and powered to a stakes record-equaling 1:47.3 performance in the $171,400 Lady Liberty, for open pacing mares, at The Meadowlands on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 5).

The 4-year-old by Bettor's Delight out of Hidden Gem, owned and bred by Millar Farms, took home her second major stakes at The Meadowlands with her record-equaling performance coming after she captured the Perfect Sting in July.

The action was hot and heavy in the early stages, and Zeron was careful not to get involved through the opening portion of the race as Max Contract and Andy Miller left boldly with Boudoir Hanover on their outside. Miller forced his rival to take a seat in second through the :26.3 opening quarter. Zeron thought of leaving but settled in sixth, behind second-tier starter Kobe's Gigi, in the opening bend.

After the early dust settled, second choice Grace Hill and Doug McNair made a quarter-pole move and were followed quickly by favored Test Of Faith and David Miller. Those two exchanged the lead, but Test Of Faith was under attack quickly by Kobe's Gigi and Brian Sears. Kobe's Gigi cleared to the lead following the :53.1 half and kept the motor running with a brisk :26.3 third quarter. Zeron had Silver Label moving sharply into that third-quarter sprint and Mikala unsuccessfully tried to follow it, leaving an opening for McNair and Grace Hill to slip out tidily and gain the eventual winner's cover.

With three quarters timed in 1:19.4, the final quarter turned into a one-mare race as Silver Label strode out powerfully to an open-length lead in mid-stretch and held on by three-quarters of a length over runner-up Mikala and George Brennan. Grace Hill settled for third money, with Always B First and Test Of Faith finishing up the top five.

Silver Label, now a winner in seven of 12 starts during her 4-year-old campaign for trainer Nick Gallucci, pushed her career bankroll to $957,369.

"She doesn't mind being first-up," said Zeron in the winner's circle, reflecting on her victory in the Perfect Sting captured in almost identical fashion. "She raced super."

Silver Label equaled Put On A Show's 1:47.3 clocking taken in the 2012 edition of the race.

As a 4-1 shot, Silver Label returned $10.60 to win.

It's Academic reaches in Cashman

by James Witherite / Meadowlands media relations

It's Academic passed all eight of his rivals and found the winning post in time to narrowly nab Venerate in 1:51.2 in the $278,000 John Cashman Memorial Trot – his third consecutive Grand Circuit score – on Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowlands.

Being hampered with the outside post in the field of nine, driver David Miller opted to retreat to last with It's Academic as four horses – Ambassador Hanover, Asteroid, Rattle My Cage and Southwind Tyrion – vied for early contention. Rattle My Cage and driver Tim Tetrick seized control through a :26.4 first quarter before backing the half down to :55 while uncontested up the backstretch. Meanwhile, It's Academic found himself fourth-over in an outer flow led by Asteroid – who re-emerged from third to engage Rattle My Cage on the far turn – and seven lengths off the lead.

"They were waiting on cover, but they still went a good half," said Miller. "I was getting a little concerned being last and stacked up, but in the last turn he felt so good."

Just past the midpoint of the far turn, Asteroid broke stride and the second-over Jujubee stalled once losing cover, forcing Rattle My Cage, who maintained control to three-quarters in 1:23.2 and extended his lead to 2-1/2 lengths off the corner for home, was engulfed in deep stretch as 2-1 favorite Southwind Tyrion knifed through traffic up the pegs, only for It's Academic to cascade down the grandstand side in tandem with runner-up Venerate to win by a nose. Southwind Tyrion was third, beaten only a half-length; Rattle My Cage finished fourth, another 2-3/4 lengths in arrears.

"I felt [Venerate] was the horse to beat, and I just wanted to be close to him," continued Miller of his strategy to ride Venerate's cover as long as possible. "I stayed with Venerate right to the very end, and he got by him. He's an incredible horse."

Confederate vaults to victory in Cane Pace

by Jay Bergman for the Hambletonian Society

Confederate and driver Tim Tetrick exploded in the homestretch and blew away 10 rivals to capture the $315,700 Cane Pace, for 3-year-old colts and geldings, in dynamic fashion, equaling the 1:47.3 stakes record in the process on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 5) at The Meadowlands.

Confederate, returning to the scene of his Meadowlands Pace victory for the first time since the July 15 conquest, was a $35,000 supplemental entry to the Cane. Driver Tim Tetrick drove him with superb confidence, sitting back in the early stages as El Ray and driver Scott Zeron motored to the front at the outset and set a :26.3 opening fraction, putting Christchurch into the pocket briefly as Ammo and driver David Miller moved to gain control after the quarter. As soon as Ammo had cleared the front, Yannick Gingras wheeled Christchurch with power to the front well before the :54.1 half-mile marker.

Confederate sat comfortably off the opening half but was on the move shortly thereafter, flushing the cover of Seven Colors and Dexter Dunn and following them intently. Dunn had Seven Colors moving with purpose on the final turn, and he reached even terms with leader Christchurch as the field hit three-quarters in 1:21.2. In the stretch, a game Seven Colors wore down the pacesetter while, to his flank on the outside, Confederate picked up momentum and shifted into an entirely different gear. With Tetrack virtually still in the sulky, Confederate kicked away from the field in an individually-timed :25.4 final quarter. Seven Colors finished second, four lengths behind, with Christchurch holding onto the third spot. Hungry Angel Boy followed the winner on the final turn but couldn't pace as strongly in the stretch, yet barely held Voukefalas at bay in the battle for fourth.

It was the fifth win in six starts this year for Confederate, a homebred son of Sweet Lou from the A Rocknroll Dance mare Geothermal owned by Diamond Creek Racing. For his career, Confederate has earned $1,131,629.

"That was absolutely a perfect trip for him," said Brett Pelling, who trains Confederate, who returned $2.40 to win as the overwhelming favorite. "He was just cruising."

Owner Adam Bowden deflected talk as to whether Confederate might race in the Little Brown Jug this September.

"This guy's in a league of his own," said Bowden, whose stable also shares ownership in third-place finisher Christchurch.

Bythemissal soars, 'Allywag' rebounds in Sam McKee Memorial

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Both Bythemissal and Allywag Hanover entered their respective divisions of the Sam McKee Memorial, for open pacers, seeking comeback wins; Bythemissal following a spell of sickness and Allywag Hanover on his 6-year-old return. The pair pounced and powered in the stretch to each land victories on Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowlands.

In the $128,750 first division, driver Todd McCarthy motored Allywag Hanover through the first turn and procured the pocket past a :26.3 first quarter as 3-5 favorite Ruthless Hanover rolled to control. The field stayed in order to a :53.1 half while Ruthless Hanover attempted to rev into higher gear through the final turn. Ruthless Hanover clocked by three-quarters in 1:20.2 but began laboring off the bottom corner.

After going winless in his first five starts of 2023, Allywag Hanover (Todd McCarthy) emerged victorious in the first division of the Sam McKee Memorial, for open pacers.

Allywag Hanover loomed out of the pocket spinning for home and punched to the lead as Backstreet Shadow ground into contention on his back. Others from the backfield swooped into action late, but Allywag Hanover had his foes measured by two lengths at the beam to register a 1:47.2 mile in his first win of the season. Lou's Pearlman barreled from last for second with Backstreet Shadow holding third and Whichwaytothebeach rallying for fourth.

"We left out of there hard and I had to do a little more than I wanted to get around, but full credit to the horse," Todd McCarthy said after the race. "He dug so deep down by the wire, and to win in [1:]47 after leaving like he did... that was a tremendous mile."

Bythemissal (Yannick Gingras) edged Tattoo Artist in upper stretch and drew clear at will in the second division of the Sam McKee Memorial.

Having made six starts now in 2023, Allywag Hanover notched his first photograph of the year while adding to a resume now worth $1,772,292 for owner Allywag Stable. The Captaintreacherous—Anderosa Hanover gelding now has 25 wins from 60 starts and returned $8.40 for the victory.

Bythemissal helmed a continuous assault on Tattoo Artist through the final half to take a 1:47.1 track record victory going away and under wraps in the $130,000 second division.

Leaving from post 10, driver Yannick Gingras managed to find a tuck in third to a :26.3 first quarter set by Tattoo Artist. Tattoo Artist rolled up the backside under minimal pressure and strolled to a :53.4 half before Gingras activated Bythemissal.

Tattoo Artist accelerated through the final turn to keep Bythemissal at bay, though Gingras kept a clenched grip on his charge's rein as the duo charged clear of their rivals to three-quarters in 1:20.3. Upon straightening, Bythemissal took flight and sailed away from Tattoo Artist to post a 2-1/2-length victory with Taurasi closing for third and Fouever Boy fourth.

"A hundred per cent, I think he's back now," Yannick Gingras said, since Saturday's race was Bythemissal's second start since scratching sick from the $193,880 Charles Juravinski Memorial on May 21 at Flamboro Downs. "I didn't really want to be on the front with him. I figured anyway with Tattoo Artist — we all know his racing style — he was going to keep the fractions honest. But my horse was tremendous today. We were pacing pretty strong, but when I got to him, I thought my horse would give me a good run in the stretch. Feels good to win one today, anyway."

A 4-year-old gelding by Downbytheseaside, Bythemissal has now won 18 races from 22 starts and banked $1,292,768 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing and Weaver Brussemi LLC. The 1:47.1 mile puts his name onto a divisional track mark first established on June 5, 2021, by Captain Barbossa, and matched by Allywag Hanover in 2021 and Charlie May in 2022. Ron Burke trains the gelding, who paid $7.20 to win.

Hambletonian Day handle up over last year

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Hambletonian Day handle established a new record in the 10-year history of the new grandstand at The Meadowlands, as a total of $7,805,779 was pushed through the windows on the 16-race program Saturday, by far a 2023 industry high.

"We are so pleased and proud of this milestone," said Big M chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemyer. "The handle, the crowd that we had at the track, the national television exposure we got from being shown on FOX SPORTS, all of these things made for yet another great Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands."

A year ago, total handle was $7,656,055. All betting numbers shown reflect North American wagering only.

Betting on the Hambletonian itself was up considerably from a year ago as $1,099,034 was put in play, a 12 per cent increase over 2022.

Betting for the year is ahead of 2021, when average daily handle was just a hair more than $3 million per card. Thus far this year, a total of $203,794,252 has been bet on Meadowlands' races, good for an average per card of $3,234,829.

A LITTLE MORE: Yannick Gingras' 104 wins and Ron Burke's 85 led the driver and trainer standings, respectively, at the Winter-Spring Championship meet, which began on Jan. 6... The Meadowlands will go dark for three weeks before resuming with live harness racing on Friday, Sept. 1... Simulcasting will continue daily.

Eric Baker's legacy continues with trainer Kevin Benn

by Melissa Keith

Eric Baker's name may not be universally known in contemporary harness racing, but that's only because his farm's brand identity is so strong. The venture capitalist began breeding standardbreds at his Long Sault, ON farm Stormont Meadows in 1983-84, assigning them the "Stormont" prefix which has become so familiar across North America.

Last Tuesday (July 25) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Stormont Divide (Justice Hall-Lady Grenville) was a 29-1 winner in a conditioned race for trotters aged 5 and younger. It was a new 1:55.1 lifetime mark for the lightly-raced 3-year-old colt, and testimony to the longevity of the Stormont Meadows name in trotting.

In August 1997, Baker's homebred Lord Stormont (3, 1:53.2m; $901,504) bypassed the Hambletonian, but won the deciding third heat of the World Trotting Derby for Doug Brown over Hambletonian champion Malabar Man. Lord Stormont (Crowning Point-Lady Orbitex) broke his maiden that year at Mohawk and won four in a row there before going to New York to continue his win streak in the Yonkers Trot, Zweig, etc. The gelding would ultimately be voted 1997 O'Brien 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year.

Lord Stormont began his career in September 1996 at Windsor Raceway for Norm Jones, Baker's primary trainer at the time. It was the following year that the gelding would make his mark, starting his 3-year-old season by winning a March 31 qualifier and his April 8 pari-mutuel debut, both at Mohawk with Jones in the sulky. Canadian Hall of Fame driver Doug Brown teamed up with Lord Stormont for the gelding's April victories in an elimination and the final of Mohawk's Tie Silk Series.

Lord Stormont would go undefeated for his next 10 starts, spanning three conditioned races at Mohawk; New York Sires

Stakes at Vernon Downs, Buffalo Raceway, Monticello Raceway and Syracuse Mile; his Yonkers Trot elimination and the final; and the Zweig Memorial at Syracuse. His greatest moment came after his loss to Hambletonian winner Malabar Man in the 1:53.2m first heat of the Aug. 30, 1997 World Trotting Derby at DuQuoin, IL. Lord Stormont and regular driver Brown came back to win the next heat in an identical 1:53.2m over Malabar Man and Yankee Glide, and prevailed in the 2:00.2m two-horse race-off with Malabar Man.

The world champion trotter retired in 2004 after recording 24 wins in 51 career starts.

Almost 30 years after Lord Stormont was foaled, Eric Baker's horses continue to make their mark. "He always breeds about eight mares a year," said Benn, who trains most of the Stormont Meadows trotters today. "He picks the matings himself. He's in his 80s. I just got off the phone with him. He's still very involved in the game and loves harness racing. He's been pretty successful."

Benn said the Stormont focus is producing good stakes horses, competing primarily at Woodbine Mohawk Park and Rideau Carleton Raceway, although also enjoying success beyond Ontario's borders in their aged careers for other owners. "[Baker] races everything he breeds," Benn said. "If they're extra special, he keeps them until they are 4 or 5."

Stormont Ventnor (7, 1:52.4m; $390,991), a full brother to Stormont Divide, is currently racing for trainer Ron Burke at Scioto Downs and Hoosier Park. After early lessons at Kawartha Downs, the gelding started his racing career at Mohawk for Benn and driver Phil Hudon. He was an 2018 O'Brien Award finalist at age 3, with Ontario Sires Stakes Gold victories at Mohawk and Rideau Carleton.

"He's a pleasure to train horses for. He's one in a million. He's got four 2-year-olds with me. I had eight for him all winter long," said Benn, who currently conditions the aforementioned Stormont Divide; 4-year-old Angus Hall—Stormont Fried daughter Stormont Molly (3, 1:53.4s; 47,980); as well as Stormont Cheerio (The Bank—Donna Elvira) and Stormont Happy Day (Muscle Mass—Countess Stormont), both 2-year-old maiden colts racing at Mohawk.

"Stormont Happy Day was second at Mohawk and then third in the [Ontario Sires Stakes] Grassroots at Georgian Downs," said Benn. "He's a nice clean trotter. He doesn't dog-trot and all that stuff."

Grenville Heaven (2, 2:01.3f; $9,918) was a $43,000 Stormont Meadows purchase last year at Harrisburg under original name Heavens Gate Two. The Archangel—Allerage Belle colt was third in his debut baby race July 4 at Mohawk, and recorded his maiden win in OSS Grassroots at Georgian Downs July 30 for Benn and driver Sylvain Filion.

Baker occasionally entrusts his horses to other conditioners, like Rideau trainer/driver Ryan Guy. Kadabra–Tamasin Hall mare Stormont Mabel (3, 1:53.3s; $71,451), now 4, is another, noted Benn.

“Mabel won the [2022 OSS] Grassroots final with Desiree Jones, Norm Jones’ daughter. Norm had trained horses for [Baker] before me, even. He was sending them to Norm and he was sending them to me, guys in eastern Ontario. When Norm was getting up in age, he was sending them to me and [Desiree Jones].”

Benn said he’s grateful for the opportunity to remain at his farm in Napanee, ON, halfway between Woodbine Mohawk Park and Rideau Carleton, while working with Barker’s well-bred trotters. “I can’t even remember all the Stormonts I’ve trained. [Stormont] Tuscany [6, 1:53.3s; $854,055] was my favorite because he was my first big horse and he got me some recognition.” He added that the 1998 O’Brien 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year went on to cut the mile in Goodtimes’ 1:53.3f track record at Rideau Carleton, which was set in 1999 and still stands today.

Another memory: “Stormont Tuscany got beat in the Canadian Trotting Classic by a nose. It took 10 minutes to see who won it,” said Benn.

“If they don’t have the ability, [Baker] wants a better type of horse,” Benn said, explaining the owner typically disperses racing stock if they prove unable to succeed at Mohawk and/or Rideau Carleton.

If a horse has potential, the Stormont Meadows owner/breeder takes his time. “I have another, a Kadabra filly, [Stormont] Friendly, Ventnor’s half-sister,” Benn told HRU. “[Stormont] Divide is a full brother to Ventnor. She’s a nice big filly. She was going to miss most of the season: She had a stress line, so we backed off with her.” He said to watch for Stormont Friendly at Mohawk in the fall.

Stormont Meadows is something of an equine paradise, said Benn. Baker likes to keep his standardbreds turned out in spacious fields with run-in sheds at his farm near Cornwall, ON. “He raises them right. They don’t spend too many days in the barn. He brings them in, trims them and deworms them... they’re strong horses.

“Eric’s office is in the barn. He doesn’t have to drive to Montreal anymore. He’s a venture capitalist, still very involved. It keeps his mind sharp. He knows what’s going on.”

Benn and Baker share a partnership that has been rewarding for both.

“He tries everything and he gives them all a fair shot,” said the 59-year-old trainer/driver. “He listens and he trusts me. I’m honest with him and he appreciates it.”

BREAKING STRIDE

with TREY NOSRAC

The road less traveled

by Trey Nosrac

Yearlings are consigned in the spring, prepped and cataloged in the summer, and sold at a public auction during the fall months. After the sales, buyers send yearlings to professional trainers and, about seven months after the auctions, hope they “got a good one.” This cycle is the standard(bred) operating procedure.

The beaten track is the safest and smoothest route. Nothing wrong with this road. We have followed it in the past. During the week of a sale, I add a few personal touches such as chewing on Valium and, during the live bidding, locking myself in my car to chant mystic mantras until my partner knocks on the window and gives me a thumbs up or down.

Beaten paths with fixed timetables can be boring and have a lot of traffic. A flexible schedule and a trip down the road less traveled are possible, of course, but roads less traveled can lead to dead ends and trouble. Fortunately, our sport has a place for people who want to go rogue and march to a different drum. Participants in the various sections of our sport can wing it. **

This year, we are improvising with a yearling named Miss Unorthodox. The name of the yearling is fictitious. The lunacy is non-fiction.

The lusty month of May was the springboard for this off-road adventure when we wrestled with our annual Hamlet-like choice of “To sell or not to sell” our yearling. Economics and forecasting future market trends always come into play during this choice. Depending on the stud fee, we calculate that the gavel needs to fall between $18,000 and $25,000 to break even on our equine investment. Happily, the first foal from this mare accomplished this goal at a yearling sale last year.

Not so happily, we do not forecast this season’s yearling selling for a profit; although one never knows in the chancy game of yearling auctions. Our current yearling has a few marketplace dings. Miss Unorthodox is a red filly. For some reason, there seems to be a bias against red racehorses. Also, the stallion we choose for this yearling has yet to soar; although the third crop may catch a second wind.

In 2023, email, Facebook, online marketing, online auctions, video clips, and a hundred new inventions are at our fingertips. Why can't Miss Unorthodox's schedule be flexible for marketing? Why do we need to watch the calendar? Why can't we delay our decision to sell or not to sell? We may decide to market her before the sales, after the sales, after qualifying, or not at all.

As very small-timers in the harness racehorse breeding business, we have options that large farms do not. We can skip the sales and keep this filly for racing. Or, and this is the thrust of this little off-road adventure, with the Internet, we can market her privately, whenever and however we wish.

In 2023, email, Facebook, online marketing, online auctions, video clips, and a hundred new inventions are at our fingertips. Why can't Miss Unorthodox's schedule be flexible for marketing? Why do we need to watch the calendar? Why can't we delay our decision to sell or not to sell? We may decide to market her before the sales, after the sales, after qualifying, or not at all.

My mantra is that each baby horse is a story. I enjoy hearing them and telling them. For the beginning of this story, we opted to skip sales and keep her. A couple of factors pushed us in this direction. Her color does not matter to us. As a youngster, she trotted up a storm in the field and seemed confident in her herd of 26 fillies. And while the ability of the first foal in her racing career as a 2-year-old is an unknown, we have good vibes and promising reports.

Our rough plan is unorthodox and risky because many customers may be uncomfortable outside traditional time sequences. But I once bought a 2-year-old deep into training, sold a weaning in February, and bought into a horse during Christmas without incident.

Some wheels for Miss Unorthodox are already in motion. Several ideas are percolating. We are already out of step from our regular yearling sale routine. Instead of having our yearling spruced up for her sales video, we sent Miss Unorthodox to a friendly young fellow down the lane with a nice little farm track for breaking and easy foundation miles under her hooves. We visited her in action much sooner than any horse we have owned.

Then, while most yearlings are loaded onto trailers and heading for the auction ring, Miss Unorthodox will return to the breeding farm for a very long turnout over the winter. She will return to another track for more foundation miles depending on the weather. We are winging it. As always in the yearling game, our hopes are unreasonably high.

Miss Unorthodox will help set her own trotting pace. We are not obsessed with racing at age 2. Miss Unorthodox is not a late foal or immature, but 2-year-old racing is stressful for owners, trainers, and horses. Of course, money is on the table during the 2-year-old racing season. Perhaps we will send her to an established trainer at some point, but hiring a novice is undoubtedly on the table. We may sell her when the potential buyer can examine or take her for a spin. We may purchase a thousand-dollar advertisement in HRU for a private sale. Maybe we will decide to list the horse on Preferred Equine online or onGait at some point. Perhaps we are insane.

Whatever. We turned off the clock. We are having fun, waiting, discussing different scenarios, and watching the story unfold.

\* The expression "wing it" did not evolve from flying birds or throwing baseballs. The term is theatrical. First recorded in 1885, "winging it" refers to an actor studying a role in the wings – the areas to either side of the stage – suddenly called to replace another actor. The term has expanded to other kinds of improvisation based on unpreparedness.*

HHYF receives donation in honor of Chris Wittstruck

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation recently received a significant donation honoring one of the industry's hardest working good guys, Chris Wittstruck, an SOA of NY director, pension trustee and USHWA. The celebration aptly took place at Goshen Historic Track in New York which has served as host and supported HHYF activities for the past two decades.

"Our industry is filled with acronyms, maybe the most important of which is HHYF," Wittstruck said. "You can walk into a sporting goods store and buy baseball bats, soccer balls, footballs, basketballs, hockey sticks and possibly a riding crop. Our sport is different; with ever-dwindling media coverage, youth introduction and exposure to harness racing can only be achieved through passionate mentoring. By teaching the next generation care and respect of the standardbred, dispelling the mystery of our equipment and sharing the sheer joy of race competition the Harness Horse Youth Foundation ensures the continued existence of our game.

"It is because of the inimitable role HHYF plays that I am so very pleased and touched that my client, Far Out Farm, a prominent agricultural operation in Saratoga County, NY, has made today's substantial contribution in my honor."

This is not the first time Wittstruck's goodness has benefited HHYF. In 2016, upon receiving the prestigious Stan Bergstein writing award, he immediately donated the cash prize to HHYF and was subsequently selected as that year's Service To Youth Award recipient. His support over the years has not only provided financial sustainability but his enthusiasm for the HHYF mission is inspiring to others. His association with Far Out Farm LLC is another example of that pay-it-forward type of philanthropy.

HHYF is deeply grateful for the timely and generous gift that has arrived during this pivotal expansion phase for HHYF. As HHYF explores new options for better fulfillment of the mission, the following are already in progress: retrofitting the activity box to enhance its suitability for agriculture education classrooms, complete with engaging and ready-to-roll hands-on activities meticulously coded to meet both Common Core State Standards and National Council for Agriculture Education Standard; establishment of an online learning module; and a collaborative effort to develop a dynamic hands-on internship program. HHYF recognizes that the valuable knowledge imparted during the hands-on camps should include continuous augmentation for the benefit of its young participants.

Executive director Ellen Taylor further explained: "Over the past four decades, our programs have been renowned for their excellence in providing real life horse experiences and educational value. We take immense pride in the transformations they have ignited in the lives of countless individuals. As we embark on this new chapter, we are keenly aware of the shifts in young people's evolving interactions with learning. However, there remains one steadfast constant: the unyielding interest young people possess for horses. Once harnessed into our industry, this passion becomes the life's blood and the very future of the industry we cherish. In the spirit of Far Out Farm's generosity, HHYF extends an invitation to all who share fervor for the sport's future to join in these endeavors. We call upon those who are impassioned and inspired by the prospect of making a difference to consider volunteering as speakers or assistant drivers at our camps, by supporting the camps directly through donations of bedding, hay, grain, fuel, or with monetary contributions which will play a vital role in sustaining and expanding our mission.

"HHYF understands that it truly takes a village to nurture and empower the next generation. We treasure our unwavering supporters and recognize that together, we are creating a brighter future for both these aspiring young minds and the industry we enjoy."

Faraldo on SOA of NY deals with NYRA and NY OTB

In the Sunday July 30 edition of Harness Racing Update a statement appeared blaming the SOA of New York for its role in negotiating with NYRA and the NY OTB's establishing various benchmark revenue protections for the NY harness racing industry. Those protections, were negotiated to insure that NY's revenue stream remained in place, or were added, when NYRA and the NY OTBs wanted to take out of state thoroughbred signal at night. That would have hurt New York harness racing which traditionally operated in the sole New York market – nighttime. All New York state harness track operators and horsemen supported those protections.

Those negotiated deals brought protections in the form of a maintenance of an effort provision from the OTBs and the provision that does not authorize NYRA BETs to take other than NYS harness signals at night. These safeguards are in place, not solely for the benefit of the SOA of NY, but were done, and with the approval of, the NYS harness track operators and upstate horsemen's associations.

The results, brought, over many years, and, continue to bring, tens of millions of dollars split equally between various NYS track operators and NYS horsemen's associations today.

In addition, and as part of an OTB initiative, the NYS harness tracks and their horsemen share in a percentage of a surcharge levied upon all out of state ADWs that take wagering action from NYS residents. That revenue, supplies Yonkers and MGM and other NYS harness tracks and their horsemen, including NYRA, with, millions of dollars. NYRA is not prohibited from taking action from NYS residents and does so through its separately created own out-of-state ADW which is either based in Oregon or Idaho. The NYRA out-of-state ADW, like all others is subject to the levied surcharge, while NYRA Bets, a NYS ADW, would not be. If NYRA Bets were to be relieved of its responsibility to the NYS harness racing industry it would benefit NYRA and The Meadowlands at the expense of NYS harness racing in multiple ways.

I can, from experience, acknowledge that The Meadowlands has connections to NYRA and its Fox Sports network. Last year, Fox Sports indicated an interest, at the request of the SOA of NY, to televise the International Trot (IT), but that was inappropriately tied to the SOA of NY's giving up the protections it helped put in the law, especially to remove the agreed upon protections, and allow NYRA to abandon its commitment to NYS harness racing that funnels money to MGM, Yonkers purses and similarly, all the other NYS tracks and their horsemen at our expense. The SOA of NY alone does not have the right to negotiate or give away other people's money - think Saratoga harness for example - money which helps the NYS harness industry and NYS Agriculture by providing revenue to these harness tracks.

Sadly, The Meadowlands, in lock step with NYRA, saw fit to interfere with an opportunity for that international harness racing event, the IT, to be showcased on Fox Sports TV last year unless the SOA of NY succumbed to giving up every NYS harness tracks benefits, the net result of which would add revenue to both NYRA and The Meadowlands' coffers at New York's expense.

Additionally, and equally as sad, some highly-invested foreign amateurs drivers looking for a much coveted chance to race at The Meadowlands, as was the case in the past, were in the 11th hour summarily excluded and denied that experience, unless those concessions from the SOA of NY, affecting the economic interests of all NYS harness tracks, were made to both The Meadowlands and NYRA. Make no mistake about it, all this took place last year.

The SOA of NY is proud to have played a vital role in negotiating, on behalf of its members and all NYS tracks, things like statutorily protected revenue from VLTs and casinos, as well as minimum race days, something vehemently opposed by one NYS track operator in particular.

It is unfortunate that this was brought up at this time, before the Hambletonian, in last Sunday's Harness Racing Update, but something like this needed to have all the details filled in. I am very sorry to have been forced to respond. I am proud of what has been done over these many years to protect the harness industry in NYS.

Joe Faraldo / president SOA of NY

Gural: Faraldo may be right, but...

I saw that Joe Faraldo had an explanation (published elsewhere) for why it is in the best interests of the horsemen at Yonkers not to allow NYRA Bets to take wagers on out of state harness tracks. To be honest, I was at Saratoga last week and met with the NYRA TV people and they brought this to my attention, and I just assumed their complaint had merit.

As far as I know, Joe may be right, but it does seem a little strange now that we have this strong relationship with NYRA and NYRA Bets that it is in our best interest of the horsemen at Yonkers not to allow them to take wagers on out of state harness racing.

One thing I do know is that when I reached out to the people at Yonkers to see if they would help me catch the drug users and share some of the costs, they told me they were not interested. We already know that Joe's trainer, Richie Banca is in prison and Allard who was the leading trainer at Yonkers is also incarcerated so you would think they would have wanted to help clean it up but that is not the case.

In any case, as far as I know Joe may be correct with his analysis because it is not very important to us at The Meadowlands and, as I said, it just seems foolish now that we have such a strong relationship. The only reason the Hambletonian was on national TV is because of the strong relationship we have with NYRA and NYRA Bets. Obviously, you will not see any stakes races from Yonkers on national TV anytime soon.
