Scott Zeron's tactical move garnered him a Hambletonian hat trick

The driver breaks down how he pulled off an improbable victory with Tactical Approach.

Driver Scott Zeron was as surprised as anyone to be kissing the Hambletonian trophy for a third time.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

In 2022, Scott Zeron stole the show on Hambletonian Day and didn't need a horse to do it. This year, he used a tactical approach to be in the spotlight again, winning his third Hambletonian.

Last year, Zeron co-hosted The Meadowlands' simulcast show for about two hours analyzing a few races, including the Hambletonian and Oaks. Zeron was unable to drive on Hambletonian Day 2022 due to injuries sustained in a bad accident a little over a week prior.

"That's a 180, right?" said Zeron of going from the sidelines to the winner's circle. "You know, that's the cards you're dealt and we overcame and healed up. [Accidents] happen to the best of us, and yes, it's certainly great to be on this side of the fence, especially driving some power."

At the start of his Hambletonian Day, which would end with a victory in "America's Classic Trotting Race" with the Nancy Takter-trained Tactical Approach, Zeron told his parents to "lower their expectations on the whole day," which he obviously surpassed.

According to Zeron, every driver's goal that doesn't have the absolute standout in the race is to be in the mid-pack in the outer flow.

"So, that's why in a lot of the million-dollar races, we are always just protecting that two-wide path in the first turn and making sure that we're trying to be fifth or sixth on the outside," Zeron said. "You know, it's honestly a great trip for a million dollars, because you give your horse every opportunity."

Zeron said when Brian Sears [Ghostly Casper] left from post 9, he knew he couldn't leave over him and he also knew that everyone would stay wide.

"So, everyone protected their lane, which forced my hand to just not be the guy who was sitting sixth over," Zeron said. "So, I thought options were limited, so I just said, 'You know what? I'll roll the dice and go left.' So, I went left and as I'm going left, each and every person just is pulling as they're supposed to be in the mid pack.

"And, you know, Oh Well [Tim Tetrack] is going to be first up and Dexter [Dunn, Winner's Bet] is going to follow him. So, everybody wants to be in that train. And I certainly don't blame them."

Zeron said he was just trying to get his horse somewhere close without having to use him too hard early in the race.

Madison Castro

Zeron and trainer Nancy Takter greeted Tactical Approach with the Hambletonian trophy.

"And, evidently at the half, I was very happy where I was sitting [sixth at the rail]," Zeron said. "Before the three-quarter poll, [Doug McNair's] horse [Osceola] got bumpy before he ran, which gave Ake [Svanstedt] the room to pull to the outside. So then, now Ake moves like he's supposed to because now he's had a great trip with Up Your Deo.

"And then, now I creep up onto [David Miller's] back and I'm assessing the situation and my horse is loaded, you know, he feels like a million dollars, but now I'm back to, I got to get lucky. I'm happy that I'm this close at the three-quarter pole because I have a good horse, but now I have to get lucky."

That luck was provided when Miller pulled Point Of Perfect and Yannick Gingras driving Celebrity Bambino started to drift, which left a small lane on the inside for Zeron.

"Well, step one was getting through, because if you watch the head-on, there's not a lot of room up the inside and I'm not going to go over pylons," Zeron said. "So, yes, I know I was lucky that there was just enough room. I didn't have to slow my horse down, advancing into it so I was able to keep his tempo up.

And then when I got through it, now I reassess to see where I'm at.

Zeron believed that by the time he got enough room to move through at the rail, he would not be close to those on the front but he actually ended up on par with a couple.

"Timmy's two lengths up, but my horse has come unglued," Zeron said with a laugh. "So, as we went further down the stretch, my horse responded so well late in that mile that he was always kind of going to get up, I guess. If I had room, he was always going to get up."

In winning his third Hambletonian, Zeron was so happy for Takter to get her first and for the owners of Tactical Approach, who he said put seven figures into the business every year.

"These connections are a great group of guys," Zeron said. "Robert Leblanc, I've driven a ton of horses for over the last few years for Alagna. John Fodera, everybody loves John Fodera. He's the greatest supporter and coach there is out there, right? John Fielding, my OG owner. John Fielding gave me Alsace Hanover, my first Grand Circuit horse back in the day and then Joe Sbrocco owned Art Speak. That was Sbrocco's first win, which, you know, he's had great horses forever. That was his first Hambo."

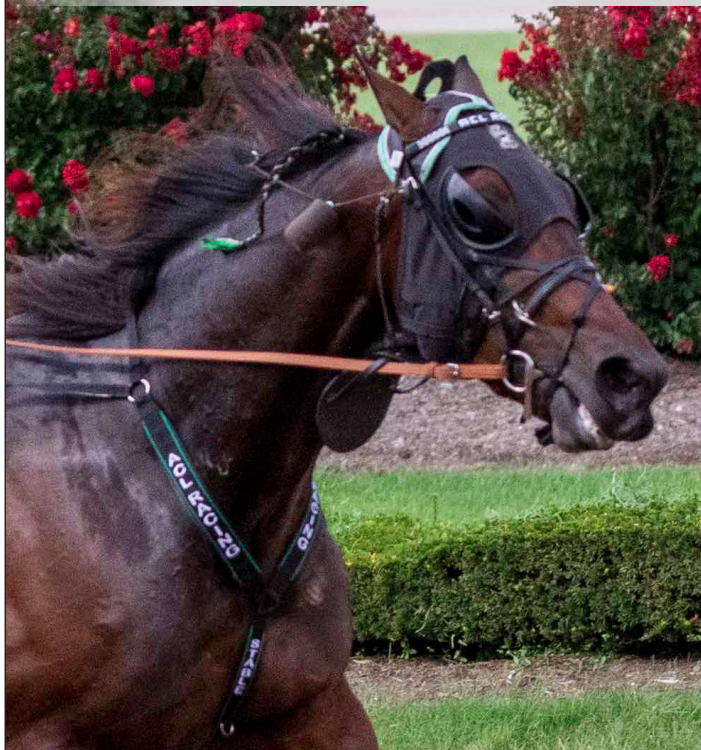

Madison Castro

Zeron said he had just enough room to squeeze through on the inside in the stretch and on to victory.

~ Scott Zeron

Zeron also had a Hambletonian Day hat trick winning a total of three stakes races. In addition to the Hambletonian, Zeron won the Continental victory with Tactical Mounds (23-1, also post 10) and the Lady Liberty with Silver Label (4-1, fourth choice).

When asked early whether he had any power that day, Zeron said he told one reporter that Silver Label was his best shot and he had no shot with anything else.

“And I said, ‘I’ll tell you what, at the end of the day, if you said Scott Zeron had such a great day, I must be God because I can’t even picture who I can win with,’” Zeron said with a laugh. “I couldn’t expect Tactical Approach to win. You know, it was ludicrous.”

The Hambletonian Society, Inc.
Supporting and encouraging the breeding of Standardbred horses for more than 95 years.

Linda Toscano and now Nancy Takter put their names on a very exclusive list in 2023.

There are now five that have won the Hambletonian, Meadowlands Pace and the North America Cup.

Steve Elliott, Blair Burgess and Tony Alagna, you now have company.

BIDING YOUR TIME

Allywag Hanover entered Hambletonian Day an uncharacteristic 5 0-0-0 in 2023, but won his division of the McKee Memorial. In 2017, Pure Country won her first race of the year in the Lady Liberty also on Hambletonian Day. She parlayed that into a division title and was the first female pacer to do so at 2, 3, and 4.

FAVORITE ONE

For the 12th time in 43 New Jersey Hambletonians, post position #1 was the betting favorite. Celebrity Bambino finished fourth this year. The complete slate looks like 12 7-2-0.

The oddity is that of the three times the favorite from post #1 has been off the board, it's happened the last two years. Rebuff was odds on from the pole a year back.

Overall, just two of the last 10 favorites have won the Hambletonian and they were the two right before Rebuff: Captain Corey and Ramona Hill. The first 30 held in NJ were more formful as 15 of 30 chinks rolled in.

IMPORT-ANT HAMBLETONIAN RESULT

For the first time in 12 years, the top three trainers in the Hambletonian were all born in a foreign country.

- 1 – Nancy Takter – Sweden
- 2 – Marcus Melander – Sweden
- 3 – Ake Svanstedt – Sweden

In 2011 it was:

- 1 – Noel Daley – Australia – Broad Bahn
- 2 – Thomas Durand – Canada – Whiskey Tax
- 3 – Jim Campbell – Canada – Opening Night

DYNAMIC YOUTH

Scott Zeron just won his third Hambletonian at age 34. He's the 11th driver to win it three times but a year younger than anyone else.

John Campbell – 35 in 1990 with Harmonious.

POST 10 DOUBLES UP

For the first time, post 10 captured the Hambletonian and the Oaks the same year.

It was the second straight year for the Oaks winner, both times Tim Tetrick. It was the only two times post 10 has taken the Oaks in its history.

It was the first time ever for any NJ Hambletonian winner.

FOUR

Tetrick has now won the Hambletonian Oaks four times, and never been favored.

He paid $59.40 this year with Heaven Hanover.

He had Danae ($24.40) in 2007, Bar Slide ($8.40) in 2010 and Fashion Schooner (first from post 10 as the third choice) last year.

Tetrick also won his fourth Cane Pace, each of which also won the Meadowlands Pace.

FAVORITE LADIES OF THE HAMBLETONIAN, EXCEPT ON THE TOTE BOARD

Three ladies have now been victorious in the Hambletonian, but none were the betting choice.

Paula Wellwood 2016 Marion Marauder $7.00 third choice.

Nancy Takter 2023 Tactical Approach $26.80 sixth choice.

YES SIRE

A first crop stallion took the Hambletonian for just the third time this century:

Tactical Landing (2023) with Tactical Approach.

Muscle Hill (2014) with Trixton.

Andover Hall (2007) with Donato Hanover.

This year also marked the first son of Muscle Hill to sire a Hambletonian winner.

ADAM WOW-DEN

Wow! Adam Bowden's Diamond Creek Farm is tearing it up in 2023 and Hambletonian Day was a continuation of this. Confederate dominated the Meadowlands Pace and now the Cane. Sweet Lou's It's My Show and Confederate on the wire together, 1-2, in the NA Cup, then, Father Patrick redeems himself (somewhat) with his daughter winning the Hambletonian Oaks from the very same post he had in the 2014 Hambletonian, post 10.

MONEY MEN

Zeron is pretty much widely known as the "Money Man" with a knack for stepping up in the big races. Tetrack is on course to smash the long-existing all-time money record. Together, they have been 1-2 in both million dollar races for 2023: It's My Show (Zeron) and Confederate (Tetrack) in the NA Cup and now 1-2 in the Hambletonian with Tactical Landing (Zeron) and Oh Well (Tetrack).

(NON) TRIPS TO WIN:

Races 10, 11 and 12 on Hambletonian Day 2023 saw something never seen on any New Jersey Hambletonian Day. The Oaks, Cashman and Hambletonian saw their winners come from last to first. How rare is it in the Oaks for the horse last at the quarter to win? It's unprecedented. The only filly who hit the board after being last at the first quarter in the Oaks was Celebrity Sweedie in 2006 who finished third. How about the Hambletonian? Only Soul Strong in 2019 got as close as fourth after trailing at the first fraction. Two checks in 40 Hambletonian finals (no race offs). On the filly side, eight of 35 finalists (no race offs) got money heading into 2023.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

For Fannie Saul-Beaulieu the couple that races together, stays together

by Chris Lomon

It was only fitting that Fannie Saul-Beaulieu was on the road when she took the call.

With her husband, trainer Jean Beaulieu, behind the wheel, Saul-Beaulieu was in the passenger's seat as the couple made their way back to Quebec after morning training at Rideau Carleton Raceway in Ottawa.

"We were in Florida and now we're up here in Canada," said Saul-Beaulieu, a co-trainer and caretaker for the couple's racing operation. "We're racing at Rideau, and we stay at the farm of our partners, Philippe Trudeau and Isabelle Labbe, on the Quebec side."

It's the latest adventure for the horsewoman born into a racing life in Florida.

There wasn't any need during those early days for arm-twisting to pique her interest in the pacers and trotters.

"My father was a horse trainer, driver and owner," Saul-Beaulieu said. "My dad was from Florida, so we did most of our racing at Pompano Park. My mother, on her side, my grandfather was a trainer and driver too. He participated a lot at the fairs in Pennsylvania. So, I grew up at the racetrack in Pompano, running around, cleaning stalls and doing buckets."

"Eventually, I started jogging horses and doing other things with dad. After a time, I started training with dad, side-by-side and progressed from there. I worked for a couple of different trainers. I went to Rockingham Park [now closed] in New Hampshire, and when I met my husband, that's when I started coming to Canada."

Her current travel adventures have yielded some winning results.

One of those victories came as a welcome surprise, courtesy of a rookie son of E L Titan that Saul-Beaulieu co-owns with Philippe Trudeau and Isabelle Labbe.

"We bought Safe Choice for $20,000 at the Harrisburg sale this past winter, took him to Florida where we had him broke and started his training," Saul-Beaulieu said. "He has a great attitude and loves his job, so we staked him in New York for the sires stakes. It's just such a thrill to be able to watch him on the track. He wants to chase everybody and then he doesn't want anyone to pass him. We took him up to Vernon and got him qualified. We raced him at Buffalo, which is a tougher track to get around. And he's a big, husky horse, but he got around there okay. Then we took him to Tioga where he had a little mishap, a 2-year-old moment. We decided to bring him up to Rideau to give him a little education."

On July 27, Safe Choice, in rein to Ryan Guy, went off at 27-1, the second longest shot on the tote board. By the end of the mile, he had graduated at the top of his class.

He came into the race with a third as his best finish from three starts.

"First start here at Rideau, he didn't have any chance of winning, but he found a way to do it," Saul-Beaulieu said. "Coming down the stretch, the driver tipped him three wide. He said, 'I just touched him once and he took off. He surprised me.' So, we just got our first win with him, and we'll head back to Vernon for a stakes race coming up. I don't expect him to be a champion. I just like that he's a nice horse and he tries. It's just a great feeling when you start from scratch, and you can see that development end up with that result."

Le Massif, a 4-year-old son of Shanghai Phil owned by Melanie Boulianne, is another Saul-Beaulieu trainee.

The well-traveled pacer, who has a top-three mark of 5-3-11, recently clocked his 50th career racing mile.

"We got him last summer as a 3-year-old," Saul-Beaulieu said. "He was a lanky horse, still growing, so he needed some education. He raced well last year, and he paced in 1:54. He was a little winshy, but always competitive. Coming back this year, he blossomed this summer. He swelled up. He's a big body, big chest horse now. He took a lifetime mark of 1:51.3 at Tioga. He's continued to progress. He's a nice horse and has done really well."

When they aren't participating in races, the couple's daily routine still includes racing.

"How do we unwind?" she said. "If we're at Vernon, we're sitting at the end of the barn with a TV hooked up watching races and usually, we have Uber Hanover in the stall next to us watching the TV with us and pulling the chair."

Another example of how a couple that races together, stays together.

"For us, yes," Saul-Beaulieu said. "We're together 24/7. All our decisions are made thoughtfully, all with the best interest of the horse in mind. We will talk about plans and decisions, go back and forth on ideas, and agree. If we have a tiff, it's for about five minutes and then it's over. We both have the same interest at heart, which is the love of horses and the love of racing. We want the best for the horses. It always starts and ends with the question, 'What is best for our horses?'"

~ Fannie Saul-Beaulieu on working with her husband Jean Beaulieu

It’s the first thing that comes to mind when Saul-Beaulieu walks into her home base barn at Vernon.

“You hear that nickering and whinnying, and everybody is happy that you are there,” she said. “It’s a great feeling and every one of them has their own personality. You really appreciate that individuality. They have their likes and dislikes, their routines, and how they go about their day. They are like children, and they always make you laugh and smile. I adore my job. It’s not really a job for me. It’s fun.”

And it’s also a seemingly never-ending adventure.

From the U.S. southeast to various spots in the northeast, to crossing the border into Ontario, road trips have become commonplace for the racing couple.

“Everywhere we go is an experience and we enjoy it,” Saul-Beaulieu said. “Buffalo, this summer, it’s a beautiful place. The barns are gorgeous, and we received a wonderful welcome package, everything we needed. We go to Saratoga and it’s a welcoming environment. Tioga is wonderful as well. We are stabled at Vernon, and we love it there. It’s just like home. Rideau Carleton, having to deal with the aftermath of the fire [the paddock burned down in February], they are doing a wonderful job to make sure everyone is taken care of who races there. Everyone is helping each other out.”

As for who controls the radio, Saul-Beaulieu delivers a quick response.

“That would be me and we’re usually listening to country,” she said.

Wherever they happen to find themselves and whichever horse they have competing, the husband and wife continue to pursue their shared passion with a smile on their faces.

Win or lose, time spent with their horses, noted Saul-Beaulieu, is always time well spent.

“A successful day or night at the races would mean that everybody went out there, tried their best and picked up a check,” she said. “We’re happy to finish second, fifth... as long as every horse participated, we’re happy. If it didn’t go well, we spend the whole drive home thinking of what we can do next time. We just want what’s best for the horses, to bring out their best, and see them be as successful as possible.”

Gigi Hanover and Royal Filly take New York Sire Stakes at Monticello

Mark MacDonald wins three.

by Shawn Wiles / Monticello Raceway

On Monday (Aug. 7), Gigi Hanover and Royal Filly easily dispatched a field of their contemporaries in the New York Sire Stakes event at Monticello for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Mark MacDonald drove both winners and steered Five Fish Species to a win in the Excelsior Series to bag a driving triple on the card.

The first heat, worth $60,300, had a full field of eight starters. Two of the fillies went off stride before the gate left. On The House (Sarah Svanstedt) left quickly and got the lead. Gigi Hanover, the 2-5 favorite, pulled out of the two-hole before the first panel to grab the lead and control her own destiny. She hit the opening panel in :30.1 and had three lengths on the pack at the half in a soft :59.4.

At the 5/8's marker, Jeff Gregory, driving Canterbury Hanover, was the first to pull and the tempo quickened in 1:29. Gigi Hanover strolled home a length winner in 1:57.3 paying $2.90. Canterbury Hanover was second and stablemate On The House came in third. For Gigi Hanover, it was her second win on the year. The daughter of Chapter Seven—Glad All Over is trained by Ake Svanstedt. She is owned by Melby Gard Inc. of Delray Beach, FL.

The fillies in the second division looked like 2-year-olds. One filly made a miscue going to the gate and two others broke stride when the gate left. Jeans Action got away clean and made the front first with Royal Filly in the pocket, but only briefly as she took command before the first quarter in :29.2 and held control at the half in :59. Down the backside, she began to open up on the field as she was up by five at the next stanza in 1:28.2.

The easygoing 1-9 favorite threw down a :28.3 last panel to win by 10 lengths for Tyler Buter. Destiny's Darling (Jordan Stratton) was second, followed by Midwind Success (Marcus Miller), who took the show position. Royal Filly, the Chapter Seven—Swinging Royalty lass, is owned by Crawford Farms and is trained by Tony Alagna. The win pushed her seasonal earnings to $168,000; she has now won two-consecutive sire stakes.

Excelsior action saw Five Fish Species notch her fourth win on the year with a 1:58 score for trainer Megan Scran with a great steer from Mark MacDonald. Winkys Wow (Gregory) was second, followed by Serendipity (M. Miller).

The second heat saw Bourbon On Ice cut the mile; Seven Bridges Road followed a second behind In Italian, but in the last turn, motored home deep in the stretch to win in 1:59.4.

Daughters of Chapter Seven swept all four divisions. Sire stakes action returns next Monday (Aug. 14) at 12:10 p.m., when 2-year-old trotting fillies take center stage.

'Daley' double with Sig Sauer, Buy A Round in NJSS frosh trot finals

by Frank Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Trainer Noel Daley delivered both winners, Sig Sauer and Buy A Round, in the pair of $240,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Finals for 2-year-olds held Saturday (Aug. 5) at The Meadowlands.

In the colt trot, a patient Sig Sauer won easily. Andrew McCarthy drove the Muscle Hill–Sigilwig colt to his second win in as many career starts, achieving a lifetime mark of 1:53.3.

The colt's main rival in the betting, My Way, took the lead off the gate as the public's third choice, Hankins Hanover, followed after leaving from the rail. After settling in third, McCarthy revved Sig Sauer to the outside up the backstretch and the pair passed My Way and cleared to control nearing the :56.3 half. The pair had no trouble putting the first-over Hankins Hanover away through three-quarters 1:25.1. From there, the public's top trio marched in line with Sig Sauer sailing across the finish line in 1:53.3 a neck in front, My Way floating home second, and Hankins Hanover claiming the show spot.

Sig Sauer paid $4.60 to win.

Daley trains Sig Sauer, whose victory inflated his bankroll to $135,000 in just two starts, for the partnership of Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Allister Stables and Caviart Farms.

"I just wanted to get him out of there unscathed and get away handy enough, and then figure the speed of the race," McCarthy said. "It looked like I could move him to the front. He's still pretty green and gets a little lost up front. I guess he'll get used to it if I keep doing it, right?"

About the competition, he said, "Sounded like [My Way] had a lot of trot on the inside of me. My colt was running out a little bit, but I tried to keep the rail closed to keep him at bay. Sounded like he would've given me a real shake, so I tried to keep it close and have Timmy [Tetrack] take a shot at me on the right. Luckily, my colt was good enough to hold on."

In the filly division, By A Round won for the second time in three starts at 2 with McCarthy haunting Walcango around each turn as that one cut fractions of :27.3, :57 and 1:26 with a meager challenge from favorite Soiree Hanover, who had to go three-wide around the final turn. In the stretch, By A Round put Walcango away and floated to the center of the track on the lead, closing well enough to keep late-charging Sunkist Beauty by three-quarters of a length in 1:55. Soiree Hanover got third.

The Walner—On Your Tab filly paid $11.40 to win.

Frederick Hertrich owns Buy A Round, who has now earned $137,400 in three starts.

"Toddy [McCarthy with Walcango] managed to steal some easy fractions," Daley said. "That was a good place to be today. We didn't have a really good day coming into it. I wasn't sure how we'd be. The only thing I said to [Andrew McCarthy] was 'under-drive' her rather than overdrive her. We couldn't have gotten a much better trip than that."

Ontario

Do Better proves best in Battle of Waterloo at Grand River Raceway

Cheese Party upsets in Battle of the Belles during the annual Industry Day card.

by John Rallis for Grand River Raceway

Bob McIntosh sent out two elimination winners in the $205,200 Battle of Waterloo final for 2-year-old Ontario-sired pacers, presented by Winbak Farm, at Grand River Raceway on Monday afternoon (Aug. 7), and neither one of them disappointed. Do Better, a gelded son of Bettors Delight—West Third Street, guided by Sylvain Filion, delivered as the public's choice to capture the prized event in 1:54.3. Always A Thrill, the second of two homebred rookies for McIntosh, finished second to complete the exacta for the stable.

Off as the 1-9 favorite, Do Better got away fifth off the car from post-position three and inherited the fourth spot after Chalk Hanover jumped it off before the first quarter, which was clocked in :27 by pace setter, Max Patrick. Sylvain Filion sat patiently right behind stablemate Always A Thrill and waited for him to make his move before following his cover. Bob McClure made a first over bid just before a :56.4 half and Do Better followed suit. The two McIntosh homebreds separated themselves from the field at the three-quarter pole in 1.25.3, where Do Better drew away for the score. Enforcer finished third.

For reinsman Sylvain Filion, there was never an ounce of panic.

"I didn't want to get caught up in a speed duel early," said Filion. "When I saw Bob leaving out, I figured he'd be great to follow. It worked out."

For Filion, the win gave him his first Battle of Waterloo trophy, a race he's finished second in four separate times.

"I've been in this race many times and to get into the winner's circle today was very satisfying. He's a very, very nice horse who's done everything right so far."

Dave Landry

McIntosh couldn't be there in person to witness his second Battle of Waterloo title, but co-owner Marv Chantler, of Mardon Stables said he is sure the Hall of Fame conditioner was just as proud.

"Bob and I have a great relationship, for many, many years," says Marv. "We've had a lot of fun, made a lot of money. I'm sad Bob isn't here today, but he's definitely pleased... finishing first and second in this race isn't so hard to take."

Dave Landry
Battle of the Belles winning trainer Kyle Bossence (left, with winner's circle with winning driver Trevor Henry, who drove Cheese Party to victory at 50--1

Do Better remains undefeated through five starts, amassing $181,150 to date. The win gives Filion his first Battle of Waterloo trophy. Do Better paid $2.20 to win.

In the $138,400 Battle of the Belles final for 2-year-old Ontario-sired pacing fillies, things didn't go as many anticipated, with Cheese Party, a daughter of Betterthancheddar—Tea Party Princess, blowing up the tote board to deliver at odds of 50-1. After 1-5 favorite, Pass Line, put in steps behind the gate, the race shaped out for a major upset, with Trevor Henry and the Kyle Bossence trainee there to deliver just that.

Once James MacDonald and Pass Line put in steps behind the gate, the two Luc Blais trainees from the inside, Greatest Pleasure and Collusion Hanover got off the gate first and second. Louis-Philippe Roy opted to remove his elimination winner to take control of the race in a first quarter of :27.3. Leading through a half of :57.4 and a third quarter of 1:26.3, the daughter of Bettors Delight got a little leg weary turning for home, with the backfield coming to life. After getting a second over trip, Henry tipped Cheese Party three-wide before the final turn and managed to hang on by a nose, holding off a hard-charging Pass Line who recovered nicely despite the miscue. The win gave Henry his second straight Battle of the Belles title, but the reinsman admits even he was surprised.

"We were hoping to get a check, more or less," said Henry. "At the start when the favorite ran, then another one did, it set up for her. We got lucky enough to get cover from Dougie and she responded."

Asked if he thought he'd get there, Trevor said he wasn't sure.

"I didn't know whether she'd get there. Worst case scenario, I thought we'd be third. I was worried about James on the far outside coming back on, but my filly got it done. Anything can happen."

The win gave owner/trainer Kyle Bossence his first victory in this event, but even he didn't see this coming.

"I didn't expect to win, I was hoping for a piece going for that kind of money. I said before the race, these are 2-year-olds, anything can happen. You never know. This is the biggest win of my career. All my family is here, Trevor, who is my neighbour is here and it couldn't have happened any better."

The win gave Cheese Party the first of her career and vaulted her earnings to $82,525. She paid $103.20 to win.

The 34th Industry Day card, which featured 11 races, had an all-sources handle of $590,824. That was the biggest handle in the history of Industry Day at Grand River.

Track record for Irish Ray on P.E.I. Colt Stakes Sunday

With trainer Marc Campbell sick and off all 14 of his afternoon drives, Gilles Barrieau jumped up on Irish Ray and sent him right down the road in a $12,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 3-year-old colt trotting division to a 1:57.4 lifetime best performance for owner Three Wisemen Stable of Kingston. The win was number 14 of the trotter's career from as many starts and lowered the former 1:59.1 3-year-old trotting gelding track record set by Waiting On A Woman in 2011 as well as the overall 3-year-old trotting standard of 1:58.3 belonging to Tequila Tuesday from a 2020 race.

Campbell had two wins as a trainer on the day with Gettin Salty winning a $12,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 3-year-old filly trot division in 2:00.4 in line to Jason Hughes for owner Blayne White of Pinette.

Good Omen had the quickest steps on the day, winning a $13,500 2-year-old pacing colt Gold division in 1:55.2 for trainer/driver Paul Langille and owners Ellie Driscoll and Rosanne Langille of Nova Scotia. The mile tied Woodmere Stealdeal's 2-year-old pacing colt track record set in 2020.

Langille tripled up on the day as a trainer/driver, winning with A Girl Named Tom in a $5,700 2-year-old pacing filly grassroots division in 2:01.2 and with Dusty Lane Tito (1:58.3) in a $6,750 2-year-old pacing colt grassroots division.

Joe Baxter doubled up as a trainer winning race 4 with Little Leroy (1:57.4) in a $6,750 rookie colt grassroots split as well as race 5 with Woodmere Luna (2:01.3) with Ken Murphy in the seat.

Murphy turned around and also won race 6 with Mr Andreychuk from his father Cliff Murphy's stable in 2:01.4 for the Harrington driver's 1,000th career driving victory.

Tobins Chester remains undefeated in his career as he won a $13,500 2-year-old colt Gold division in 1:58.1 for trainer/driver Hughes and owner Donald MacRae of Vernon Bridge. The Shanghai Phil colt has won all four of his career outings.

The $11,400 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 2-year-old pacing filly Gold divisions were won by Goodmorning Nova (1:57.3) for driver Barrieau and trainer Duane MacEachern, Saulsbrook Feisty (1:58.4) in line to David Dowling for trainer Carrie Saunders and Chip Of Evil (1:58.1) from the Ed Doucette barn with MacPherson supplying the steer.

Jessiejesorjessica won the $4,600 Island Ocean Trot Mares Series leg, presented by Burkie By The Bay Stable, in 1:57.3 with Dowling in the seat for trainer Jennifer Doyle.

Gettin Topsy was upset bound in her $12,100 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 2-year-old trot filly division, winning at 12-1 odds in 2:04.1 for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan and owner Jamie Whalen of Avondale.

Countyline Babe was the best in the lone $12,100 2-year-old trot division in 2:03.1 for driver Myles Heffernan Sr., trainer Myles Heffernan Jr., and owner Jackie Heffernan of Summerville.
