TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

I received an email from Howard Pearce the other day. Pearce is a long-time owner and syndicate manager of horses in Mark Steacy's stable. Pearce suggested that I do a column on rivalries among horses that I've witnessed or perhaps been aware of, speaking most specifically of that between the two great mares Sylvia Hanover and Twin B Joe Fresh.

Here are some of the ones that come to mind in reverse chronological order.

I am certain there are some I've left out. There are undoubtedly a few among these that are not rivalries in the truest sense, but are only included because of situations that motivated my including them.

FOALS OF 2020 - SYLVIA HANOVER VS TWIN B JOE FRESH

As of this week, these two are still going at it hot and heavy. The latest in their ongoing battles being won at The Meadowlands in last Saturday's (Aug. 2) Lady Liberty by Sylvia Hanover in 1.48.2. To date, each of these mares has 46 lifetime starts. Sylvia Hanover has been on the board in 40 of those races, winning 27, with earnings of $2,079,354. Twin B Joe Fresh has been first, second or third in 44 of her starts, winning 33 of them and earning $2,634,879.

Verdict: Dominance thus far, would have to go to Twin B Joe Fresh, but the battles are far from over.

FOALS OF 2017 - PAPI ROB HANOVER VS TALL DARK STRANGER

On the racetrack, Tall Dark Stranger holds a very distinct advantage having earned $2,020,195 to Papi Rob Hanover's $927,979. The former was the winner in most of the twosomes major battles including the 2019 Breeders Crown Two-Year-Old Pace where he was placed ahead of Papi Rob Hanover due to interference. However the disparity isn't quite as distinct as the numbers might lead one to think. Nevertheless TDS was the clear winner on the racetrack. This was reflected by their stud fees when each entered the stud barn at Hanover Shoe Farms, with TDS standing at $20,000 and Papi Rob Hanover at half that at $10,000.

Verdict: Dominance, by a lot to Tall Dark Stranger on the racetrack. In the stud barn, the result, although incomplete, seems to be heading in Papi Rob Hanover's direction.

FOALS OF 1998 - BETTORS DELIGHT VS REAL DESIRE

Although Real Desire holds a distinct advantage in earnings – $3,159,814 to Bettors Delight's $2,581,461 – the difference isn't quite as significant as first seen. Although Real Desire won 25 races to Bettors Delight's 15, both horses entered the stud with high expectations, with Real Desire standing at Brittany and Bettors Delight at Blue Chip Farms. In the stud arena, the battle was over. Bettors Delight is the clear winner becoming a dominant sire for the ages, with Real Desire being considered as somewhat of a disappointment.

Verdict: The kudos go to Real Desire on the racetrack, although Bettors Delight was far from lacking in that department. In the stud, it was no contest with Bettors Delight being the all-time leading money producing sire with the winners of $370,512,860 in North America alone, and Down Under winners in the tens of millions of dollars.

FOALS OF 1995 - DRAGON AGAIN VS WESTERN IDEAL

Although Dragon Again holds a distinct money earnings advantage over Western Ideal ($2,343,428 to $1,455,422), it must be remembered that Western Ideal missed all of his rich 3-year-old season and some of his 4-year-old season while recuperating from a serious injury sustained at 2. The battles that these two warriors waged were memorable indeed, almost as much for the ongoing rivalry that two of the greatest reinsmen ever John Campbell (Western Ideal) and Mike Lachance (Dragon Again) were to engage in; reminiscent of their races behind Real Desire and Bettors Delight.

Verdict: Mixed on the racetrack. Dragon Again raced more and had more wins(29 to 17), but in head to head competition Western Ideal won more. In the stud, Dragon Again holds the lead $160,658,583 to $154,310,194. But that number is somewhat deceiving since Dragon Again sired significantly more foals.

FOALS OF 1991 - ARTSPLACE VS DIE LAUGHING VS PRECIOUS BUNNY

Artsplace was the best at 2 setting a world record in the Breeders Crown, then coming back at 4 to go through an amazing, undefeated season. He was the only one of the threesome to race beyond the age of 3. He also leads in money earnings – $3,085,083, to Precious Bunny at $2,281,142 and Die Laughing at $2,164,186. At 3, Precious Bunny was the best in a relatively tight battle at three highlighted by his memorable win in the 1994 Little Brown Jug. Die Laughing was usually in the mix at both 2 and 3.

Verdict: Artsplace was the best of the threesome both on the racetrack and in the stud barn. In the stud he is considered to be among the best sires ever and close to the best, if not the very best broodmare sire ever.

FOALS OF 1990 - AMERICAN WINNER VS PINE CHIP

American Winner was a very fast, but a noticeably unsound 3-year-old sweeping the major stakes through the Empire State Trot at Syracuse in August. Then the wheels came off. He was never the same on the racetrack again. Pine Chip was relatively slow to come around, however once he did he was clearly the best of his crop. He came back and raced exceptionally well at 4 while American Winner was retired to stud at Hanover Shoe Farms.

Verdict: Pine Chip, by a whisker both on the track and in the stud. To these eyes, American Winner was the fastest of the pair. When at least somewhat sound, and sometimes when noticeably lame (at Syracuse), he would throw that lameness away and you would see the true warrior that he was. Pine Chip was slower to come to his speed but raced exceedingly well as time went on. In the stud, both were a little disappointing, with the two major breeding farms in the country, Hanover and Castleton, in effect giving up on them and finding them new homes.

FOALS OF 1969 - SONGCAN VS SUPER BOWL

This one should probably not be on this list because it wasn't even a true rivalry. The rivalry was perpetuated by Leon Greenberg, then the general manager at Monticello Raceway. Greenberg was the attorney for the Slutsky family who were heavily involved in Monticello Raceway as well as Pine Hollow Stud Farm where Songcan was to eventually stand. Greenberg was making all sorts of noise, wanting the Hambletonian Society directors to open eligibility to the race for their horse who hadn't made the sustaining payments. I recall him being quoted as saying that the reason that they wouldn't allow Songcan in, was that they were afraid he would beat Super Bowl. All of that was pure nonsense of course. Songcan was a very good and very fast horse but he wasn't in Super Bowl's league. Super Bowl ended up winning the Triple Crown and upon his retirement at Hanover, became a stallion for the ages.

Verdict: Super Bowl was far and away the better horse both on the racetrack, earning $601,006 to Songcan's $288,969 as well as in the breeding shed.

FOALS OF 1962 - ADIOS VIC VS BRET HANOVER

This is one that also probably shouldn't be on this list. Bret Hanover was far and away the better horse of the two. However on a mile track, on a straight piece of dirt, Adios Vic had a wicked brush and he could occasionally outspurt Bret Hanover. The earnings of the two substantiate this assessment. Bret Hanover earned $922,616, while Adios Vic won $455,896.

Verdict: Bret Hanover was, by far, the better horse of the two, both on the racetrack and in the stud barn. While on the track, Adios Vic could occasionally go by Bret Hanover, as a stallion he never even came close.

FOALS OF 1947 - STARS PRIDE VS FLORICAN

These two present an interesting situation. They were both trained in and were owned in whole, or in part, by the Arden Homestead Stable. There were times were it was thought that the entry might have acted in collusion on the racetrack. There is nothing wrong with that. That's why they raced as an entry. The greatest example of this was in each horse securing their lifetime record. Stars Pride's record was 1.57.1. Florican's was 1.57.2. In Stars Pride's record mile, Florican cut the mile for him and Stars pride sat "in the belly" waiting to pounce. Stars Pride did the same for Florican in his record. In my story in this journal on Stars Pride a few years ago, Ebby Gerry told me that he loved both horses, but that his favorite of the two was Florican. He liked him so much mostly because, in addition to Arden Homestead owning him, they had also bred and raised him.

Verdict: These two were perhaps equal on the racetrack as any pair portrayed here. Their lifetime records are within a fifth of a second of each other. Their lifetime earnings are quite similar, Florican with $152,222 and Stars Pride earned $140,969. It's in the stud where their careers went separate ways. Florican was a very good stallion; Stars Pride was a monumental one. There are some who believe he was the very best ever. Of all his feats, I feel there is one that will never be surpassed. I am fairly certain that there will never be another stallion who sires eight Hambletonian winners.

FOALS OF 1944 - HOOT MON VS RODNEY

These two were a pair of legends, both on the racetrack and in the stud arena. Both were superior racehorses, although Hoot Mon was plagued by lameness, specifically with his feet on the track and in the stud. I'm not sure how many times they faced off, but Hoot Mon won the most important one – the 1947 Hambletonian.

An irony here is that Rodney was Hanover bred and raised, but the one that Lawrence Sheppard secured for his stud barn was Hoot Mon. Rodney went on to race at 4, becoming the Horse of the Year in 1948. It's unfair to compare them on earnings since Rodney had that extra year. But I'll do so anyway. Rodney won $111,176 to Hoot Mon's $74,950.

Verdict: Both horses were great, both on the track and in the stud. But Rodney wins the prize in both. Hoot Mon's male line seems to have run out, while Rodney's continues to dominate trotting. Let me add one note. I mentioned above that Hoot Mon was plagued with bad feet. I suspect that was the reason why Sep Palin, the trainer of the horse, then owned by Castleton Farms, chose to sell him to rival Hanover Shoe Farms. I'm guessing that he feared that he would reproduce those foot problems. Here's another query: Stars Pride and Hoot Mon both stood in the stud at Hanover. Both were known as having bad feet. Logic would have dictated that one's blood be kept as far away as possible from the other. Yet of Stars Pride's hundreds of foals, three of the greatest, Nevele Pride, Armbro Flight and Ayres, perhaps the three greatest, were out of Hoot Mon mares.

FOALS OF 1940 - ADIOS VS KINGS COUNSEL

Both horses were considered to be among the best pacers of that era. It was the case of a horse of perceived royal bloodlines going against one of, at that time, possessing ordinary blood. Kings Counsel was a son of the great Volomite, an excellent racehorse and an ever better sire, known then as the King of Sires. Adios on the other hand was by Hal Dale, at that time a little known runt of a horse who was a maiden until he was a 6-year-old and boasted lifetime earnings of $625. Nobody then even would have thought that this runt of a horse standing at Two Gaits Farm in Indiana would become a horse who's blood would be found in virtually every pacer in the world.

Both horses were born a year before I was. They often raced against each other. Adios was fast, very fast. But he was also thought to be a sulker. There were races where he just wouldn't try. Kings Counsel was a warrior. He did battle every time he raced. Adios was thought to be his equal, but only when he was in the proper mood. Their World War Two earnings reflected their relative ability. Adios earned $33,329, Kings Counsel $44,930.

Verdict: Most would agree that Kings Counsel was the better racehorse of the two. But it was thought that when Adios was in the mood, he might have been as good and occasionally a little better. When they went to stud, there was no disagreement on their relative chances. Kings Counsel was bred and owned by Clarence Gaines and Walnut Hall Farm. He was to stand at Gainesway Farm in Bluegrass country. Yes, that Gainesway Farm, which today is one of the world's greatest thoroughbred farms. Mr. Gaines had gathered a group of select mares that were going to be bred to his prized stallions. Adios had gone through several owners including Hollywood moguls Louis B Mayer and Harry Warner before being bought at auction by Delvin Miller. As often is the case when breeding horses, what people thought would happen, didn't.

Although Kings Counsel wouldn't be considered to be an absolute failure in the stud, he was generally found wanting. Adios on the other hand, aided by the $300 and $500 mares that Delvin Miller was able to secure and make deals on, rose to a status previously unmatched by any stallion ever.

Chantilly defeated in puzzling distaff preferred

The undefeated streak for Canada's 2024 Horse of the Year came to an end on Friday.

by Melissa Keith

On Friday (Aug. 8) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Chantilly made her first start in distaff preferred company. The 2024 Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year entered the race unbeaten following a victory on July 22 in her Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Leg 3 win for 3-year-old filly pacers.

Trainer Nick Gallucci had previously told HRU that he had intended for Chantilly to race in at least one qualifier and possibly a pari-mutuel tightener before OSS Gold event. The Canadian superstar had earlier been sidelined by a lingering respiratory infection that landed her on the short-term Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) vet list after her second-consecutive veterinary scratch on June 21.

Friday's $36,000 filly and mare preferred was Chantilly's last prep race before a likely first meeting with 2024 Dan Patch 2-year-old pacing filly of the year Miki And Minnie, currently the #1 ranked horse in the Hambletonian Society / Breeders Crown Top 10 poll. Last year's Canadian and American divisional champions were finally slated to meet on Aug. 16, in the Grade 1 James M. Lynch Memorial at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

But Chantilly's unblemished record will no longer accompany her. Her win streak was snapped at 13 on Friday and she didn't even hit the board after a puzzling trip that openly displeased some in the online community.

Driver James MacDonald settled Chantilly fifth along the pylons as Glenboro (Travis Cullen) led to the :27 opening quarter. In The Spotlight N went three-wide around the first-over Grit N Grace (Jody Jamieson) soon after that point, making front for Jean-Rene Plante and still in control at the :55.4 half. But all eyes were on the 1-5 favorite, caught in as Caviar And Crackers started up first-over from sixth for Ed Hensley. At three-quarters, Chantilly was in an impossible spot, caught inside of second-over Style For a Mile at the very back of the field.

MacDonald looked for racing room as In The Spotlight N maintained her lead past the three-quarters, reached in 1:23.1. Chantilly fought her way through traffic in deep stretch, which proved only good enough for a fifth-place result behind Plante's 20-1 winner.

AGCO judges ruled that Chantilly made contact with one of Grit N Grace's hind legs while "trying to split horses," so she was placed sixth for interference. MacDonald was requested to attend a meeting with racing officials on Aug. 15, "to discuss his driving strategy and the interference in the stretch." He was unavailable for comment after the race.

Dave Menary trainee In The Spotlight N held off stablemate Style For A Mile by a head in the 1:50.1s mile. She paid $42.40 to win.

Despite the upset, Gallucci remained upbeat about Chantilly's effort and future plans.

"I was disappointed that she didn't get any racing luck, but it happens," he said via text message. "She seems to have come out of the race well from what I can tell at this point [and] if she still seems good we will race her in the next two stakes races coming up."

After the Lynch Memorial, Chantilly's next scheduled race is an OSS Gold Leg 4 event at Rideau Carleton Raceway on Aug. 24.

Woodbine Mohawk Park simulcast host Randy Waples interviewed MacDonald later in the Friday night card, after the latter drove 1-9 Sweet Lovin Lou to victory in the $79,000 Dream Maker final. Chantilly was not mentioned, but MacDonald said he would be taking a little time to decompress from Mohawk.

The four-time Keith Waples Driver of the Year leads Canadian drivers by 2025 purse winnings ($5,003,976 Canadian) and by wins (238 as of Aug. 8, one more than Austin Sorrie). He captured the Hambletonian Oaks with Conversano on Aug. 2 and is also scheduled to represent Canada at the upcoming World Driving Championship this November in New Zealand.

"I'm going [to Prince Edward Island] for five days," MacDonald told Waples. "You know, I missed [Old Home Week] a few years back and I told my mom and dad I'd never do that again, because I was miserable all week up here. It's my favorite time of the year... As much as I love horse racing, you only get one family and one chance to watch your son grow up, so I don't take it for granted... We're going to have a blast next week."

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Perhaps half of the $2.1 million TAB Eureka's field could be 3-year-olds

The richest race in the world, to be contested Sept. 6 at Menangle, is open to 3- and 4-year-olds.

by Adam Hamilton

Exciting young Aussie pacer Bay Of Biscay has changed the face of the world's richest harness race and now he might win it, too.

Until the regally bred colt (by Somebeachsomewhere out of McArdle mare Nike Franco) ran a luckless second in last year's $A2.1 million TAB Eureka, most felt it was folly running a 3-year-old in the race restricted to 3- and 4-year-old Australian-bred pacers.

Perhaps they were too quick to make the call given the race is just two years old.

And the judgment was cast after just the first running when only two of the 10 starters were 3-year-olds and they finished seventh (The Lost Storm) and ninth (Captain Hammerhead), respectively.

It was further fuelled when The Lost Storm, who was the star Aussie 3-year-old of the time, failed to show anything like his best form after the TAB Eureka run.

Some even speculated last year's second running of the race wouldn't have a 3-year-old in it.

They weren't far wrong; there was only one.

 WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

“ I was a bit sceptical about the 3-year-olds, but felt Bay Of Biscay was worth the risk last year because he’s shown how tough he was in some of the Derbys.”

~ Kevin Seymour

There were to be two, but the big, raw and untapped Fighter Command was struck down with a twisted bowel and scratched from last year’s TAB Eureka just days before it.

That left only Bay Of Biscay.

Despite leviathan owner/breeder Kevin Seymour using his slot to secure Bay Of Biscay, he wasn’t given much of a chance at odds of $13 (to win for a $1 bet).

He was buried in traffic while leader and winner Don Hugo dictated terms in front and kicked clear, but Bay Of Biscay rocketed home late to be beaten just 2.2m.

“I think he’d have gone very close to winning had we got out and been able to build momentum when we needed to,” driver Cam Hart said.

In a huge twist of irony, Bay Of Biscay will return this year to Menangle on Sept. 6 as a 4-year-old and many of his key rivals will be 3-year-olds.

Depending on who you talk to, there will be three, four or maybe even five 3-year-olds in this TAB Eureka.

Seymour is one of the many converts.

“I was a bit sceptical about the 3-year-olds, but felt Bay Of Biscay was worth the risk last year because he’s shown how tough he was in some of the Derbys,” he said.

“Sure he had a soft run, but he showed he could’ve won the race with the right luck.

“I left Menangle that night thinking I’d be very happy to run the right 3-year-old in the race again and that’s probably what I’ll end up doing.”

Seymour has star 3-year-old pair Fate Awaits and Path To Greatness right in the mix, not only for his own slot but with interest from others still hunting for a runner.

Harness Racing Australia outgoing CEO and TAB Eureka brainchild, Andrew Kelly, said an important learning from the inaugural TAB Eureka had also helped the cause of the 3-year-olds.

“That first year the race was run over 2,400m, but we changed it to 2,300m after some robust feedback,” Kelly said.

“Now they’ve got the starting point right, the preferential draws are just the advantage you need to run the right sort of 3-year-old.”

~ Emma Stewart

“It was all about the starting point on the track for those two distances. To encourage 3-year-olds to run, we gave them preferential (inside) barrier draws from day one, but the trainers and drivers told us the inside draws were actually a disadvantage at the 2,400m starting point.

“It’s hard for horses to muster speed from the inside draws over 2,400m, but they get a much better run at the gate from 2,300m.”

Champion Victorian trainer Emma Stewart is best placed of anyone to assess the merit of running 3-year-olds in the TAB Eureka.

Not only did she train 4-year-old mare Encipher to win the first year, but she also trains Bay Of Biscay.

Further, Stewart trained The Lost Storm, the 3-year-old who sparked concerns in 2023.

“Now they’ve got the starting point right, the preferential draws are just the advantage you need to run the right sort of 3-year-old,” she said.

Bay Of Biscay, who has Rob Watson’s Soho Standardbreds slot, is Stewart’s only confirmed runner this year.

But she has at least another four genuine contenders racing at the moment and three of them are 3-year-olds: Fox Dan, Go Miki and The Highlight Reel.

“They’re all good enough to run if they can get slots,” she said.

So, how many 3-year-olds can we expect to line-up on Sept. 6?

Of the four slots confirmed so far, only the Luke McCarthy-trained Hesitate (John Singleton’s slot) is 3. The three 4-year-olds assured of runs are: Bay Of Biscay, Fighter Command (Tasracing slot) and Call To Order (Racing Queensland slot).

But seven of the most prominent contenders for the remaining six slots are 3-year-olds.

Along with Stewart’s trio, there are Grant Dixon’s (Kevin Seymour-owned) pair Fate Awaits and Path To Greatness.

Then there is the fascinating Seathestars, a Geoff Webster-trained Victorian 3-year-old, who is named after champion Irish thoroughbred of the same name and owned by one of Down Under’s greatest ever thoroughbred trainers, John Hawkes.

Insiders say he’s close to securing a slot.

There’s still a lot to play out in the three weeks until the field is finalised, but if I was to guess, I would say half the field (five of the 10 runners) will be 3.

Seymour’s business genius could see him find a way to get both Fate Awaits and Path To Greatness in.

Given Stewart’s openly huge wrap on her 3-year-olds, two of Fox Dan, Go Miki or The Highlight Reel should land slots.

And then there is Seathestars who, if the mail is right, will also get a ticket in.

With each 3-year-old, the task of the 4-year-olds gets harder as the best barrier draw they can start from gets wider.

All 10 TAB Eureka runners start across the front row on the spacious 1,400m Menangle track.

The next few weeks and how the post positions pan out promises to be a delicious entrée to the race itself.

Georgian Downs
Driver Brodie Le Cain in the winner's circle after posting his first career driving win on Aug. 2 at Georgian Downs with Barefoot Belle.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Brodie Le Cain savors first career driving win

by Chris Lomon

Brodie Le Cain saved his best for last, in more ways than one, on the evening of Aug. 2 at Georgian Downs.

Four dashes after he earned a bronze with Shemars Lady Lucy in the second race at the five-eighths oval in Innisfil, ON, Le Cain, 24, was in the race bike of Barefoot Belle in Saturday's curtain-closing pace.

His familiarity with the bay mare was somewhat limited.

"This was the first time I drove her in a race," said Le Cain, of the daughter of Betting Line—Barefoot Beauty, trained and owned by Bruno Lacroce. "Starting out, I wasn't thinking too much about the race. We were 15-1 in the morning odds and 11-1 going behind the gate, so my first goal was to give her the best trip possible."

Fifth of eight through the half, Barefoot Belle, who arrived at the race off a sixth one week earlier, was then guided to the outside by Le Cain. After three quarters in 1:26.2, they had improved to fourth.

But there was still work to be done down the lane.

With the finish line drawing closer, Barefoot Belle and Le Cain were gaining, but not quite on even terms with the leader.

When they hit the wire – in 1:56.4 – the young driver wasn't convinced they had got there in time.

"At first, I didn't think we got it. I knew it was extremely close. I was the last one to pull up, just to see if we did get the win."

And then Le Cain found out he had won his first race.

"It felt amazing when our number went up. It takes time to get your first win and there are always ups and downs before you do. I hadn't had a lot of luck leading up to that moment, so getting there with a longshot made it all the better."

So, too, did winning with someone who has been a staunch supporter throughout Le Cain's journey from the barn to the race bike.

“Bruno helped me get my driving license – he gave me four or five qualifiers and also gave me an opportunity to drive for him at Kawartha Downs.

“My girlfriend, Alexane Laroche, and her father, Jean Laroche, gave me my first couple of drives on their horse Savoir Duhas, which really helped get me rolling.”

Lacroce and the Laroches are part of a large group of horsepeople who have been in Le Cain’s corner from day one.

“I am extremely lucky,” Le Cain said. “My dad, Scott, who drove before he was involved in a bad accident, has been a huge part of my development. My first job in the business was working for [trainer] Shawn Steacy when I was in high school. He taught me a lot. Actually, his driving helmet is the one I wear because that was the first helmet I ever got. Shawn and Mark [Steacy] also bought me my first driving colors, and those were what I wore when I won my first race. To win my first race with Shawn’s helmet and those colors was nice – he taught me a lot, to keep my head up and be patient. Shawn will watch my drives and give me helpful feedback.”

As do fellow horsemen Chris Matthews, Anthony MacDonald, Gregg McNair, and Bruce Richardson.

“When I really started to learn and sit in the race bike was when COVID happened,” Brodie said. “I moved to the U.S. to work with Anthony because so many tracks had shut down and there wasn’t much going on. Anthony offered me a job to work for him in Ohio, so I stayed there for four years. He taught me a lot. Win, lose or draw, he’d always give me tips.

“After I left the U.S., I was back in Ontario and started working for Chris and Gregg – they helped me get my feet under me. They look after me, gave me qualifiers, and opportunities.”

It was Richardson, a lifetime winner of 3,675 races as a driver, along with 570 more in the training category, who provided Le Cain with advice that still resonates with the latter to this day.

“The best advice he has given me is, ‘It doesn’t cost you anything to pay attention.’ When you are racing, you are going up against eight, nine or 10 other drivers, and everyone is in their own zone, with their own game plan. It’s competitive. In the blink of an eye, anything can change within the course of a race. Constantly being aware of what is going on around you not only keeps you safe, but it also allows you to react to the flow of the race. I always keep that in the back of my mind when I go out to post parade.”

Widespread support and welcome words of wisdom continue to be integral to Le Cain’s development in the sulky.

Now, not long removed from his first career wins, he is hoping to build on his milestone success.

In this instance, it’s as easy as C, B, A.

“I am a ‘C’ level licensed driver, so I want to move up to a ‘B’ license and eventually, to an ‘A.’ I want to achieve that sooner rather than later. I’d like to start focusing on achieving milestones, 100 wins, things like that. In the long term, I’d eventually like to move to the U.S. and build a career there. But I am also mindful that you have to take things one step at a time. You have to work hard every day and have an open mind.”

That approach keeps Brodie both busy and active.

A sedentary life is not for him – but the driver’s seat most certainly is.

“I like working out and staying in shape for my driving. I don’t like spending time on the couch or playing video games. If I have a night off, I go to the races and hang out with friends and drivers. I don’t like sitting still.”

What he does enjoy is the thrill of the action and the feeling of winning.

It always keeps Brodie coming back for more.

“You want to succeed, but you don’t want to be too hard on yourself at the same time,” Brodie said. “Getting that first win shows you what you are capable of and what you need to do to experience more of those moments and where you can go.”

Hohneck scores in Normandie going the “right way”

by Thomas Hedlund

Philippe Allaire-trained Hohneck (Royal Dream) was the big favorite when the $130,000 Criterium de Vitesse de Basse-Normandie was contested in Argentan, France on Saturday (Aug. 9) and driver Gabriele Gelormini played his cards perfectly on the right-way track.

Hohneck’s merits were outstanding when compared to his opponents and Gabriele Gelormini opted for an offensive tactic behind the 8-year-old colt. A three-wide initial strategy was just a cruising route towards the front position.

Hohneck seemed to enjoy the right-way track, even if it looked like the field of horses ran in a desert or on a sandy beach. He just flew as the field reached the home stretch. Hohneck hit the wire as a winner in 1:51.2.

and form were question marks when the $120,000 Jämtlands Stora Pris was contest at Östersund racetrack on Saturday (Aug. 9).

From post 8 behind the car, driver Örjan Kihlström had one big mission: getting a position in front of favorite Gio Cash, who started behind horses from post 10. Kihlström managed to find second over, first over and second over again when Hades de Vandel attacked three wide at the first back stretch.

Behind Double Deceiver, Gio Cash got great cover in third over. But when Daniel Wäjersten stepped on the pedal with 650 meters to go, Kihlström settled behind Hades de Vandel, trusting that the first over trotter would beat leader Mellby Joker. That did happen, but Double Deceiver didn't look too eager to fight for the win as Gio Cash was strong three wide at the top of the stretch. Gio Cash seemed to sprint towards the wire as a winner, but between horses Double Deceiver found new energy and just before the finish pole, the 6-year-old gelding was first.

Double Deceiver won in a mile rate of 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles. Runner up Gio Cash will now travel to America where he will participate in Yonkers International Trot in September.

FIELD SET FOR ÅBY'S BIG HAPPENING

Åby racetrack outside of Gothenburg, Sweden, plays host to the $300,000 Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters next Saturday (Aug.16) and all 12 invitations have been made.

Önas Prince, Kentucky River, Mellby Jinx and Epic Kronos are some of the most merited trotters among the 12 contenders, and to be fair, Åby Stora Pris seems to struggle attracting the very best trotters in Europe when the purse is $300,000.

In 2024, Åby Stora Pris was named the Åby World Grand Prix and had a purse of $1 million that attracted some of the best trotters in the world. Horsy Dream won, Francesco Zet was runner up.

The race might very well be spectacular next week. Races over three laps often include maneuvers that cost too much in the end of the event and let's hope that Sunday's (Aug. 10) draw will make the Åby Stora Pris an open contest.

DERIEUX PUT ASIDE DUE TO DOPING

Elitloppet winning-trainer Romain Derieux (Dijon 2019, Go On Boy 2025) has been suspended for three months by the French Harness Racing Association and the future of Go On Boy is uncertain. At least, the uncertainty is about who will train the top French horse when some really big races approach later this fall.

Go On Boy is the European leader in the Grand Circuit-race and it would be very strange if the 9-year-old Password son wouldn't show up in the final, a race in which he was victorious in 2024.

Derieux was suspended at the end of July, due to a positive doping test on one of his horses that started in Cagnes-sur-Mer in February. French media Paris-Turf reported in July: "Romain Derieux-trained horses have tested positive twice previously in the last five years and the federation sentences him to a three-month suspension starting July 26 and a fine of 7,500 euros."

The $500,000 final of UET Elite Circuit will be held at Solvalla on Oct. 11. Åby Stora Pris is the circuit's next event, followed by Campionato Europeo in Cesena on Sept. 6 and Grand Prix de Wallonie in Mons on Sept. 20.

In 1978, Toni’s father, Calvin, got a job working for trainer Ron Bateson. Calvin met a woman named Amy – another Buckeye and standardbred advocate who is well-known and well-loved. Back then, when a horsewoman had a baby, that baby was usually brought to work and the barn became their ‘home away from home.’

That was Toni’s origin story.

“I started out working in the barn for my parents along with my two brothers [Carson and Aaron]. I’d harness and bathe the horses; my older brother Carson would clean the stalls and my younger brother Aaron’s job was to clean the horse’s buckets and would help run the [horse] pool when it was opened.

“At nights, unless I was playing softball, I’d help dad in the paddock. We had a system where dad would run the horses through the paddock, and I’d be at the bottom of the hill of the paddock waiting to ‘swap’ the horse – taking the horse that just raced back to our barn to strip and bathe. It went very well and was a family affair.”

When Toni was old enough to be allowed in the paddock, she started to catch-paddock if her father didn’t need her help.

“I paddocked quite a few for trainers Kurt Sugg, Ron Burke and Virgil Morgan,” Toni said.

Toni briefly attended college, but found her heart wasn’t in it. She was back in the barn right away.

“The saying is so true: once you have been bitten by the horse racing bug, you’ll never get out,” she said. “The racing stars were shining down on me for my uncle Brian (Brown) needed help with his stable in Florida. On Feb. 9, 2014, I got on a plane for Florida and got my first group of six horses to care for. In that group were two notable ones: Colors A Virgin and Lost For Words.

Together, Toni and Luther have two daughters – Lainey Blake (4), and Ellie Nona (2). Luther also has a 16-year-old daughter, Skyler.

You certainly were blessed to have taken care of some great horses. Is there one in particular that is special?

“I honestly can’t split the three that I have in my head and heart: Colors A Virgin, Lost For Words and Downbytheseaside. There is certain things about each that make them special. These three horses each brought a lot of ‘firsts’ and I have great memories with each of them.”

Do you own any horses today?

“I don’t personally own any, but my daughter Lainey owns a piece of one with ‘The Stable’ named Mynameswaaney – a 2-year-old Heston Blue Chip filly.”

Since your involvement in the sport is there one special memory that stands out in your mind?

“There’s a lot of great memories that I have – mainly during the time I spent working for uncle Brian. The first would be winning the Jugette with Colors A Virgin. It was uncle Brian’s first Jugette win so that was special enough. I was so excited that when I ran across the infield to the winner’s circle, I fell in a hole dirtying my jeans with grass stains.

“Also, every time Lost For Words raced was exciting. He had the biggest heart for a short fella and always gave 100 per cent. The entire 2017 season was great. And I can’t forget the year that Downbytheseaside turned 3. He took me to every race that I thought I’d ever have a horse in. He is still extra special in his new career as a stallion for he’s very successful as are his offspring.”

Is there one female in the sport that you admire and why?

“Honestly? All of them. Seeing women making a name for themselves and giving the men a run for their money is admiring. Starting with my mother Amy to my aunt Jenny, cousin Jess (trainer), Emily Gaskin, Jessica and Jenna Otten to Lauren Tritton who drives the horses and gives the male drivers a run for their money. The grooms who are the backbone of our sport – Shelly Grieco and Kimmy Calenda – to trainers Linda Toscano, Melanie Wrenn and Nancy Takter; each are all superstars who have impacted our sport in their own way.

Amazon Downs?

by Trey Nosrac

We were five minutes behind schedule for takeoff. A cherubic guy who looked like Newman, the postal guy from Seinfeld, was seated on the aisle. I had the window seat. We were on a flight to Orlando. The plane doors closed for takeoff. Newman and I were happy to find the middle seat unoccupied. We were unhappy when the PA system cackled, and the pilot's voice filled the cabin, "Sorry for the delay, I forgot my keys."

The passengers laughed.

"Seriously, folks, we have a weird red light blinking up here in the cockpit, so unbuckle and tilt your seat back until further notice."

The passengers groaned.

Newman pushed up his armrest and introduced himself as Edgar Felton, a manufacturer's representative from Kingfisher, OK. I gave my name, and we shared a fist bump. He was one of those people you can joke around with, and when I asked him if his nickname was Eggy or Gar, he said, "Either was an improvement."

As often happens when I have a captive audience, I began to preach about the fun, fortunes, and misfortunes of harness horse racing, including videos from my phone. Edgar explained he had never seen a harness race. However, he quickly picked up on my babbling and asked intelligent questions.

When I took a break from my racing dissertation, he asked me an odd question: "Do you know anything about Rivet and Stone and Beam?"

"No, but it's too many letters to be a racehorse."

"It's a furniture line; one of many companies Amazon launched. Some products and services can be high tech and futuristic, but most are old products getting a new face, such as furniture, books, jewelry, newspapers, publishing, or clothing."

"I smell a harness racing parable?"

He smiled. "You can't smell a parable, but you can sense a looming parable."

"Is this a writing class?"

"It's more of a business class." He rotated his hands with his fingers like the letters L to make an invisible picture frame. "Imagine that Amazon decided to go into the business of harness racing."

“Oh, this is a science fiction business class.”

“If Amazon knocks on the doors of, oh, let’s say Alabama, with the news that they are contemplating setting up a gambling business, those doors will swing open.”

“A new track in a new land?”

“You said there are only about a dozen states that race due to gambling laws. I’m guessing state boundaries in a cloud-based world will not hold, and an old product in a new territory would be an advantage for Amazon. They want a clean slate, and they loathe intermediaries. They thrive on being a closed loop between their product and their customers. They use an approach that will seem alien to horse racing gamblers, starting with the customer and working backward.”

“Get real. Why would a big player in the technology marketplace have the slightest interest in a small sport like harness racing?”

“You know the answer, the same reason they make diapers or publish books. Should any big player do the math and project a revenue stream, especially a repeatable stream, that player will be interested. Sports gambling is a product. If Amazon got into racing, they would sell a good product at a good price with great service.”

“A racetrack?”

“Buying land and building a racetrack would not be difficult for a company that builds spaceships. They could build a track indoors if they wanted, and they might do something like make it a studio sport. Securing favorable laws is not difficult for states scrambling for revenue. Setting up gambling sites and online platforms for companies that handle a huge portion of today’s e-economy would be easy.”

I gave a dismissive wave, “You make horse racing seem like building toilet seats or selling insurance.”

Edgar grew enthusiastic and sounded a bit like a maniac. “It’s a new world, Trey, a world that grows newer every day. If Amazon were responsible for servicing gamblers who purchase their racing product, it would make money and harvest essential customer data. If the prospectus is solid, venture capitalists keenly watching online gambling might get in. Horses, horsemen, horsewomen, trainers, a new Track? – If Amazon builds it, they will come.”

I was about to mention several problems with his proposal when the pilot’s voice interrupted.

“Hello folks, we’re cleared for takeoff. I found my keys. They were under the empty beer bottles.”

Sabonis (Dexter Dunn) winning the Dan Patch on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

emerged from a wall of horses to be fourth over Huntinthelastdolar (Andrew McCarthy).

"We were in a tricky spot to start but fired through nicely to get away in a good spot," said Dunn who notched his second career Dan Patch victory. "He was travelling so strong around the final turn, he gave a really gritty effort to dig deep in a great mile."

Trained by Brett Pelling, Sabonis has won two of eight on the year with five third-place efforts for earnings of $306,116 on the season. Owned by Diamond Creek Racing and Pelling Racing, the 4-year-old son of Tellitlikeitis—Gypsy Bellevue has won 19 of 28 lifetime for career earnings of $806,316.

Sabonis paid $8.40 for the victory at the betting windows.

The victory was one of four on the night for Dunn, who ended the 15-race card with a natural hat-trick to match the four wins on the night by leading driver Trace Tetrick. Tyler George led the way on the training side of things, also with four victories on the night.

Sabonis sensational in Dan Patch victory at Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The Hoosier homecoming was a victorious one for Sabonis as the Indiana-bred returned to Harrah's Hoosier Park for the first time in 2025 to score in the $300,000 Dan Patch Stakes presented by Indiana Standardbred Breed Development on Friday, Aug. 8.

Starting in the second-tier post 10 with driver Dexter Dunn, Sabonis, the 3-1 second choice, followed 2-1 favorite Little Rocket Man (Mike Oosting) out of the gate to get away in the fifth position in the field of 11 as Desperate Man (Matt Kakaley) cut the quarter in a hot :26.1. Little Rocket Man wheeled to the top from the pocket on the backstretch before leading to the halfway point in :54.1 when Dunn tipped Sabonis first-over and into fourth. Sabonis charged into second around the final turn and to Oosting's wheel as he began to call on Little Rocket Man for more at three-quarters in 1:22.1.

Sabonis surged alongside Little Rocket Man before putting the favorite away halfway through the lane, but then faced a new threat in Desperate Man who swung off the pylons to take aim at the leader while Bythemissal (Chris Page) picked up steam widest of all. Digging in with a :27 final quarter, Sabonis reached the wire first by 1¼ lengths over Bythemissal who edged out Desperate Man for the place spot. Captain Luke (Todd McCarthy)

Prince Hal Hanover romps in $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Following a disappointing disqualification in The Meadowlands Pace, the connections of Prince Hal Hanover hoped he would rebound.

He did it in a big way.

He followed up the disqualification with a win in the Grade 1 $385,000 Adios Final at The Meadows on July 26 and a powerhouse victory in the Grade 2 $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial on Saturday (Aug. 9) at MGM Northfield Park. He has solidified his place among the top 3-year-olds with back-to-back convincing victories.

Swingtown (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) and Prince Hal Hanover (Todd McCarthy) were both put into play entering the first turn. Smooth Dream (Andrew McCarthy) came away in third and watched the pair duel as the Carl Milstein Memorial field entered the backstretch.

Todd McCarthy allowed Swingtown to clear before a blazing first quarter in :25.4. McCarthy was not content to sit in the pocket as he moved Prince Hal Hanover back to the lead entering the far turn for the first time.

“I didn’t want to turn it into a speed duel early,” said McCarthy. “I was keen to re-move to the lead, I just hoped it wasn’t too much on him. We got a cheap half and that helped us out.”

As the field approached the half (:54.3), Smooth Dream was flushed out by Primo Maschio (Trae Porter). Porter then put Primo Maschio back on the rail allowing Twisted Destiny (Dexter Dunn) to move into second over position and Fast Choice (Scott Zeron) was on his back third-over.

Entering the backstretch, Smooth Dream kept on coming, and as they approached the three-quarters in 1:22.4, the stage was set for a duel through the final quarter of a mile.

Around the final turn, Prince Hal Hanover stepped clear of Smooth Dream. Twisted Destiny tipped off cover three-wide, but as they came through the stretch, Prince Hal Hanover’s lead was insurmountable, as he drew off to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:50.1.

Twisted Destiny paced all out, but had to settle for second and Swingtown finished third.

“Prince Hal Hanover is getting better as the season goes,” said trainer Dr. Ian Moore. “He was very aggressive on me tonight. I wasn’t a huge fan of the fractions and the retake wasn’t that easy either. Todd was able to get a little big of a breather. I was happy about that.”

Owned by Prince Hal Hanover Stable of Ontario, the colt by Captaintreacherous—Percy Bluechip pushed his career earnings to $868,954 with the victory.

Prince Hal Hanover was purchased for $130,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

FERRETTI SCORES IN TOM ALDRICH PRESIDENT’S TROT

Ferretti wasted no time making the lead in the $100,000 Tom Aldrich President’s Trot at MGM Northfield Park on Saturday. He made every pole a winning one in a valiant effort.

Big Box Hanover (Luke Hanners), Longshot (Chris Lems), and Ferretti (Matt Kakaley) fired off the wings, but entering the backstretch Big Box Hanover came away with the lead.

Ferretti was not content to sit and he continued to advance on the leaders, parked through a :27:1 first quarter.

Finally clearing rivals, Kakaley got a major second quarter breather arriving at the half in :56.2.

Longshot started to apply pressure first-over entering the clubhouse turn for the final time.

At three-quarters in 1:24.3, Ferretti clung to a short lead over Longshot who continued to grind away on the outside.

PARIS'S DRAGON DOMINATES MYRON CHARNA PRESIDENT'S PACE

Paris's Dragon scored his third straight victory on Saturday in the $100,000 Myron Charna President's Pace at MGM Northfield Park.

Driver Dan Noble wasted no time getting Paris's Dragon off the wings, leaving alertly and getting control of the pace entering the first turn. Racing Rampage (Matt Kakaley) took position in the pocket in front of Dunkin' (Tim Tetrick) third.

Arriving at the first quarter in :26.3, Noble had a two-length lead entering the far turn for the first time.

As the field approached the half in :55.3, Dunkin' began to apply pressure first over, with Racing Rebel (Chris Page) riding cover second over.

After the three-quarters in 1:22.1, Paris's Dragon pushed ahead of rivals and was no match for his foes.

Through the stretch, Paris's Dragon held off a hard changing Racing Rebel to win by three-quarters of a length in 1:50.2.

Owned by Dennis Owens and Norman Rae Racing of Ohio, the Christi Noble trainee now has career earnings to $499,747.

Its Major Major A, Miki Shan N dominate Gold Cup & Saucer Trials

by Nicholas Oakes For Red Shores

East Coast perfection continued for Miki Shan N with a track-record-tying performance in Gold Cup and Saucer Trial action, while Its Major Major A won his Trial Saturday at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Trial 1 in race 13 saw Its Major Major A ($2.10) live up to his heavy billing with a decisive 1:50.3 score for driver James MacDonald and trainer Rene Bourassa. Rail sitter Malignity (Driven by Paul Langille) stacked up the favourites through the first turn in the $15,000 Trial before releasing Virgo (Billy Davis Jr.) to the lead at the quarter of 27 seconds flat. Its Major Major A (James MacDonald) was cruising on the outside then accelerated to the front to overtake Virgo before the second turn. The Bourassa trainee then strolled through splits of :55, 1:23 and 1:50.3 to win by five-lengths over Virgo, Legion Seelster (Jody Jamieson) and Bee Two Bee (Jason Hughes), who all advance to next Saturday's $100,000 Gold Cup and Saucer Final, presented by Atlantic Lottery. The winning pacer is owned by Daniel Gaudreault of Mont-Joli, QC., and Dr. John Bradbury of Cookshire-Eaton, QC.

Trial 2 in the finale went to New Zealand-bred Miki Shan N ($4.00) in a track-record-tying 1:50.1 mile for trainer Chris MacKay and owners Kap Singh Racing Stable, Stephen Klunowski, Earl Hill Jr., and Donald MacRae with driver Corey MacPherson recording his first ever Gold Cup and Saucer Trial victory. Poseidon Seelster (MacDonald) went to the lead after an early :26.2 tussle at the quarter then tripped fractions of :54.1 and 1:23 before Miki Shan N came with authority to take over in the final furlongs and win by three-lengths for his sixth straight win. Poseidon Seelster was second with Arbitrage Hanover (Davis) third and Fortify (Marc Campbell) fourth to earn their spots in the final. The 1:50.1 mile now ties Miki Shan N with Sintra, YS Lotus and Bee Two Bee as the fastest horses ever on the Eastern Seaboard.

Bright Green (Louis-Philippe Roy) equalled the 1:52 Ontario Sires Stakes record for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park while winning the lone $140,000 Gold event on the card.

Bright Green equals Ontario Sires Stakes record with 1:52 Gold victory

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Bright Green equaled the 1:52 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) record for 3-year-old trotting fillies while winning the lone $140,000 Gold Leg 4 event on Saturday (Aug. 9) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It was Bright Green's first career Gold victory.

Driven by her part-owner Louis-Philippe Roy, the daughter of Green Manalishi S out of Shine Bright, trained by Eric Nadeau, won gate-to-wire in the field of six, posting fractions of :27.1, :55 and 1:22.3 to win by 1½ length over Foxy Ameer (Doug McNair) in a career-best mile. Bright Green was sent off at 11-1 and paid $24.90.

Two-time 2025 Gold winner Sprite Seelster (Tyler Borth) was third, followed by 4-5 favorite Stormont Beautiful (Bob McClure) and Roxie Hart (Travis Cullen).

Watch the race replay here.

Roy told Woodbine broadcaster Chad Rozema that Bright Green, “was good until past the quarter when I wanted to her to relax a bit. She didn’t want to relax... but she did the job. I was just hoping she wouldn’t stop too bad. But I guess everybody else was tired following us.”

The driver said Bright Green’s connections opted to skip the last Gold leg event on July 16 at Grand River Raceway. Instead, Bright Green won a $25,000 OSS Grassroots division on July 14 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“We skipped the last Gold in Grand River because she’s not really good around the turns,” Roy said. “She raced really well in the Grassroots, so we decided to go back [to the Gold]. This week, she trained the best. I went to train her with Eric. I got off the bike, and I said I had never seen her that good and that it might be a good thing for this weekend.”

The win improved Bright Green to 3-2-2 in 10 starts this year and 5-4-4 in 21 lifetime races. She increased her bankroll to $122,996 this year and $172,385 lifetime. The 1:52 mile shaved nearly three seconds off her previous best mile of 1:54.3 set during that Grassroots start on July 14.

Crunchintheodds (James MacDonald) won the first of two $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 3 divisions on Thursday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

ROOKIE TROTTING COLTS CRUNCHINTHEODDS, MIKE ME UP WIN FIRST OSS GOLD EVENTS

Another week, another group of new Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series winners in the 2-year-old trotting colt division.

Thursday night (Aug. 7) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, a pair of former Grassroots competitors, Crunchintheodds and Mike Me Up, were winners in their respective $90,000 Gold events one week after Another Great Mass won the lone Leg 2 Gold at the Milton, ON track.

In the first division on Thursday, Another Great Mass made an early break and finished last in the field of six. That made it Touchedbyanangel's race to lose and the Doug McNair-driven colt was cruising through fractions of :28, :56.4 and 1:25.4 with Crunchintheodds (James MacDonald) sitting comfortably in the pocket. In the stretch, Touchedbyanangel tired and Crunchintheodds took advantage, defeating Strobe Lite (Tyler Borth) by two lengths in a career-best 1:54.2. Tavern On the Green (Louis-Philippe Roy) was third, while Touchedbyanangel and Wolverine Legend (Chris Christoforou) grabbed the final cheques.

Sent off at 12-1, Crunchintheodds (Green Manalishi S—Karoon) paid $27.30.

Watch the race replay here.

"[Crunchintheodds] did everything right," MacDonald told Woodbine broadcaster Chad Rozema. "He was on the bit, trotted great and I was surprised in the last turn, he was kind of chewing on Doug's helmet and when I moved him over, he didn't hesitate at all. He just jumped forward... I'm just really happy with how he raced and the effort he gave me."

Crunchintheodds improved to 2-0-0 in four lifetime starts and improved his earnings to $61,262 for owner Glenn Dyke of Townsend, DE, trainer Blake MacIntosh and breeder Susan Zammit of Hillsburgh, ON. The colt was purchased for $37,000 at last year's London Classic Yearling Sale.

New Image Media

Mike Me Up (Louis-Philippe Roy) won the second Gold division.

In the second division, Mike Me Up and Louis-Philippe Roy went gate-to-wire to win in a career best 1:55. The son of Muscle Mass out of Meghan C put up fractions of :27.4, :56.4 and 1:25.3 to win by three-quarters of a length over The Green Gazoo (Bob McClure). D A Mastermind (Chris Christoforou) was a close third, followed by favorite First Class Mass (James MacDonald) and In The Black (Jody Jamieson).

Watch the race replay here.

Mike Me Up was sent off at 6-1 and paid $14.30.

Trainer Rob Fellows said he wasn't sure if the front end would be Mike Me Up's best trip.

"We raced two on the front end earlier and they both slowed down and stopped at the end of the mile," Fellows said. "We've scoped them and they're both a little sick. So, when this one was on the front end I was thinking, 'Is this happening again?' But he held on. He raced really tough. That's a good record for him."

Mike Me Up was bred by Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON and Glenn Bechtel of Kingston, ON. He was purchased for $17,000 U.S. at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling by Yolanda Fellows of Rockwood, ON, Erna and Blair Corbeil of Leduc, AB and Mike McAllister of Beaumont, AB.

The colt is now 2-1-1 in four career starts and has earnings of $64,500.

That makes four different winners in four Gold events in the 2-year-old trotting colts' division. In The Black won the first Gold event in the division on July 12 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

GRASSROOTS RESULTS

On Friday's (Aug. 8) card at Woodbine Mohawk Park there were three $25,000 OSS Grassroots Series divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts. The winners were:

Trouble With Names (Muscle Mass—Usainy B) in a career-best 1:56 for breeder Andy Miller of Apple Creek, OH, owners Patrick Dillon and Patti Hoskin of Port Hope, trainer/co-owner Paul Reid, and driver Bob McClure. Trouble With Names was purchased for $25,000 U.S. at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA.

Hot Country (Muscle Mass—Feel Invincible As) in a career-best 1:55.3 for breeders Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON, Glenn Bechtel of Kingston, ON and Jon Brinkerhoff of Hilliard, OH, owner Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON, trainer Nick Gallucci and driver James MacDonald. Hot Country was purchased for $110,000 at the 2024 London Classic Yearling Sale.

Great Trickster (Trixtion—Great Dane) in a career-best 1:58.1 for breeder Glengate Farms of Erin, ON, owner, trainer and driver Bruce Richardson of Fergus, ON and his co-owner Joseph Coffey of Orangeville, ON. Great Trickster was purchased for $13,000 at the 2024 London Classic Yearling Sale.

Pennsylvania

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Burke Brigade sweeps PASS events for 2-year-old pacing fillies

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

The only thing that Ron Burke might like better than winning stakes races is winning stakes races with offspring of Sweet Lou. On Friday afternoon (Aug. 8) at Harrah's Philadelphia, two 2-year-old pacing fillies from the Burke Brigade swept the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) third preliminary round during a card where $216,216 was up for grabs in stakes action.

The quicker cut featured a sight fans who go to the races 318 miles away at The Meadows often witness: Ron Wrenn, Jr. vs. Dave Palone in a close stretch battle, with the verdict going to Loua Dipa (dam Looksgoodinaromper), recording a second PASS win, and Wrenn by a head over Spoon Fed in 1:51.1, a new mark. Loua Dipa made favored Imagine Heaven (also already with a PASS victory on her resume) work to get the lead well after a :27.2 opener, then yielded to sit the two-hole in fractions of :55.1 and 1:23.3. Spoon Fed had marched up uncovered to wrest command on the far turn, and Wrenn was able to swing her out behind the new leader and then outfoot that one home for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceemi LLC.

The other PASS division, with Burke and Sweet Lou again combining for a double sire stakes winner, opened the card, as a battle of fillies already with a PASS credit battled through the stretch, with I'm A Lou Lou (dam Benaar) a half-length ahead of Big Weekend at the end of a 1:52 mile. Again, the winner was a pocket rocket, as I'm A Lou Lou, driven by Tim Tetrick, let Big Spender go after opening the action in :27.1, sat in the golden chair through splits of :56.1 and 1:24.4, and then brushed home generating :26.4 speed from the two-hole to win for Burke Racing LLC, Knox Services Inc., Lawrence Karr, and Phillip Collura.

The sire stakes-winning drivers, Tetrick and Wrenn, Jr., also each had a victory in one of four Stallion Series divisions. The only repeat StS winner was the Stay Hungry–Zellweger Blue Chip filly Lyons I Wanna Chip, equaling her mark of 1:53.1 despite the outside post eight for Tetrick (a four-time winner on the day overall), trainer Jim King Jr., and Threelyonsracing.

Grace Zimmers
Miki And Minnie (Dexter Dunn) winning her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday at Harrah's Philadelphia.

The other three Stallion Series winners Friday were all daughters of Papi Rob Hanover, including the fastest one, Papi Knows (dam Strong Opinion), with whom Wrenn got a new mark of 1:53 after a clever steer for trainer Todd Schadel, the latter co-owner with Let It Ride Stables Inc.

The other successful daughters of “Papi Rob” both broke their maidens. Pure Decision (dam Crooked Halo), whom Michael Cole brought home in 1:53.2, won to a mutuel tune of $37.80 as the longest shot on the board (while also helping to trigger a Superfecta carryover in the last race on the card) for co-owners Åke Svanstedt (who also trains), Joe Sbrocco & and JAF Racing. Also visiting the winners circle for the first time was Feisty Hanover (dam Fit To Frame), a 1:54.1 winner for driver Andy Miller, trainer Nik Drennan, and owners Joseph Davino, Brad Shackman, and Drennan Stable LLC.

#1 MIKI AND MINNIE A PASS WINNER AT PHILLY

The 3-year-old pacing filly Miki And Minnie, just named #1 in the Hambletonian Society / Breeders Crown Top 10 Poll, didn't take long to show the talent that earned her that spot, winning the single division of the third preliminary leg of the PASS at Harrah's Philadelphia on Thursday afternoon (Aug. 7).

Going for $109,440, the richest harness purse in eastern Pennsylvania so far this year (a mark which will stand for nine days), the daughter of Always B Miki drew the outside in a field of seven, and driver Dexter Dunn elected to get a seat with Miki And Minnie early as Asphalt took over from Lily White Hanover by the :27.1 first pole.

There was no movement as the field reached the half in :55, but then Time Of The Season came outside, with Rodeo Drive Deo (the only horse to beat M&M this year) on her helmet, and Dunn's hand was forced. His filly was able to launch a giant third quarter uncovered charge to take the lead by the 1:22.2 station near the far turn, and from there the race was for place, as neither Dunn nor M&M looked at all unruffled as they won by 1¾ lengths in 1:49.4. Rodeo Drive Deo finished strongly to edge Time Of The Season for second.

Miki And Minnie's scorecard is now 7 6-1-0-$348,222 for the year and 18 12-5-1-$1,182,308 lifetime for newly-minted Hall Of Fame trainer Chris Ryder and the partnership of Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo, and Lawrence Minowitz.

Possibilities for her upcoming schedule are the Lynch Memorial at Pocono a week from Saturday (where a long-awaited meeting with Chantilly, an eligible rival from the north, is possible), a Sire Stakes prelim at The Meadows on Aug. 29 if needed (a quick check post-race indicated that Thursday's win 'locked' Miki And Minnie in for her Championship, but the PA Horse Racing Commission is the official scorekeeper) or desired, and her $300,000 PASS Championship on Sept. 6, the last two races at The Meadows.

There were also three $20,000 Stallion Series divisions for the sophomore pacing fillies on Thursday. Ballast and Fancy Like Louuuuu joined the absent Always Dawn as two time StS winners, with the Tall Dark Stranger miss Ballast providing the fastest clocking of the three divisions while lowering her mark to 1:50.3. Sweet Odds pushed Ballast to a :26.3 quarter, sat behind her through middle splits of :54 and 1:22.1, then tested her in the drive, but Ballast prevailed by a neck for trainer Travis Alexander and EVM Racing LLC; the victory was the sixth of the day for Philly's leading driver Tim Tetrick.

The Sweet Lou distaff Fancy Like Louuuuu enjoyed a pocket trip behind splits of :26.4, :55.4, and 1:23.3, then gained command in the stretch to win by two lengths while lowering her record to 1:51.4, with closer Pilar Hanover photoing Beyonsay Yankee for second. Dunn added this Stallion Series success to his Sire Stakes score for trainer Sarah Andrews, co-owner with Sandbur Farms.

The Captaintreacherous filly Westwinds, off her game in her last couple, bounced back with a sharp front-stepping score, moving after a :26.3 opener to put down middle times of :55 and 1:22.3 en route to a 1½ length win over Stevie Hanover in 1:51.2. Todd McCarthy drove the Noel Daley-trained sophomore, now a winner in half of her fourteen lifetime starts, for Milton Leeman, Stambaugh Keith Stable, Joe Sbrocco, and Wingfield Brothers LLC.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Dandy Ideal takes NYSS event for 3-year-old pacing colts

by Yonkers Raceway media

Dandy Ideal won for the third straight time in New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) competition when he captured Friday night's (Aug. 8) $174,000 event for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers at MGM Yonkers Raceway in 1:51.3.

Starting from the pole position, Dandy Ideal and driver Jason Bartlett settled in the third position as 65-1 shot Red Blooded (Mark MacDonald) hustled out to the early lead from post seven. Courts On Fire (Yannick Gingras) pressed on two-wide after leaving out from post two and overtook Red Blooded beyond the :27.4 quarter, but Dandy Ideal tracked Courts On Fire's bid and went by him on the second turn.

Once he had command, Dandy Ideal kept it through the half in 56 seconds and the three-quarters in 1:23.4, then cruised home in :27.4 to defeat Courts On Fire by a length and three-quarters. Thirsty Thursday (Tyler Buter) got up for third, followed by Red Blooded and Silky Choice (Ridge Warren).

The second-place finisher in the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes final at Yonkers earlier this year, Dandy Ideal is an American Ideal gelding trained by Hunter Oakes for owners Susan Oakes, Thaddeus Wier and Alan Johnston. Bred by Dr. Stephen Dey III with Dandy Farms Inc., Dandy Ideal has nine victories, four seconds and two thirds from 19 career starts, has earned $359,555 and paid $2.10 to win. He was atop a $4.80 exacta and a $15.80 trifecta.

In addition to his sire stakes victory, Bartlett also swept the two $20,000 New York Excelsior Series divisions for sophomore pacing males with:

- Baleville Bomber (by Huntsville and bred by George, Joann and Heather Zitone, paid $7.60 to win) in 1:55 for trainer Nick Devita and owners David Hamm, Glenn Phillips and Devita Racing Stable Inc.;
- Digging For Gold (by Huntsville and bred by Bamq LLC., paid $4.40 to win) in 1:53.1 for co-owner/trainer George Ducharme and co-owners Jim Winske, David Winske and Dr. Megan Moschgat.

New York Sire Stakes action returns to MGM Yonkers Raceway on Tuesday (Aug. 12) with a $174,000 top level race for 3-year-old filly trotters to go along with two $20,000 Excelsior Series flights.

Chris Tully
Karl (Yannick Gingras) winning the 2024 Hambletonian.

According to trainer Nancy Takter, “Karl’s raw speed, natural talent, and flawless gait are all exceptional qualities any breeder would value in a stallion. But his greatest asset? His intelligence. Karl understood what winning meant – and every time he stepped on the track, he gave nothing less than his absolute best to achieve it.” Hall of Fame driver Yannick Gingras adds: “Best trotting colt I have ever driven. Period. Karl had everything you would want in a racehorse and then some. It’s a shame his career ended early because I believe he could have accomplished some special things.”

Karl will stand at Crawford Farms in Versailles, KY under the management of Dr. J Stallion Management and will be collected at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital. His introductory stud fee is $15,000 live foal. A limited number of shares will be made available for purchase. Interested breeders should contact Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky at drjablonsky@drjstallionmanagement.com or (717) 578-7395 for more information.

Hambletonian winner Karl to stand at Crawford Farms in Kentucky in 2026

Crawford Farms, Christina and Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing, and Bender Sweden Inc. are proud to announce that 2023 2-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year and 2024 Hambletonian winner Karl will stand his first season at stud in 2026.

A brilliant 2-year-old, Karl won two races faster than 1:52 in his freshman season on his way to nine wins from 10 starts, a 2-year-old record of 1:51.2 and $1,041,977 in earnings. Karl’s 3-year-old campaign was highlighted by capturing harness racing’s Crown Jewel, the Hambletonian, in 1:51.3 in a driving rainstorm on a track with a -2 variant. Karl retired with 18 wins, two seconds and one third in 23 lifetime starts, career winnings of $2,424,611 and a lifetime record of 1:50.2. Karl is the only trotter in history to earn $1 million dollars at the age of both 2 and 3.

Meadowlands stallion payment information

A payment equal to 50 per cent of one 2023 breeding fee (or a minimum of $1,000) will be required on those stallions standing in North America for the 2023 breeding season to make their foals of 2024 eligible to be nominated to Meadowlands Early Closers for the life of the horse is due (postmarked by) Sept. 1, 2025.

There is no fee for stallions standing solely outside North America. All payments are in U.S. dollars or the equivalent.

This payment will provide the option for foals of 2024 to make the required Meadowlands Early Closer Participation payment of $400 (due Feb. 15, 2026) and subsequently all required nominating and sustaining payments as written in the conditions for the entirety of their racing careers.

Foals by stallions who are not made eligible to the Meadowlands Early Closer Participation will NOT be eligible for nomination to these races for the entirety of their racing careers and there is no recourse.

Fifty per cent of the total from these stallion payments will be used to increase 2026 stakes purses.

The form to make this payment is attached here and available on The Meadowlands website.

Please send email notice to nsalvi@playmeadowlands.com that includes an image of the form and method of payment when remitted. That email may also be used for any questions/issues.

Amateur drivers donate $5,000

North American Amateur Drivers Association (NAADA) vice-president Alan Schwartz has recommended a donation in the amount of $5,000 to be divided to two extremely worthy causes. Those donations will be made in equal amounts of $2,500 to the American Cancer Society (ACS) and our own New Vocations in NY, a Standardbred Transition Alliance (STA) entity. Both organizations are 501(c)(3) entities.

The work, of both of these organizations is impactful because one supports groundbreaking scientific research, essential patient care and advocacy for public health policies. The ACS has been doing its good work since 1946. NAADA has once before donated to the ACS at the request of one of its drivers, Andrew Adamczyk in memory of his late father, who died at the hands of this horrible disease.

“While New Vocations has only been at its good works since 1992, it is recognized as a national leader in the rehabilitation, retraining and ultimate rehoming of horses to qualified and loving adopters”, said Joe Faraldo NAADA president.

New Vocations has transitioned 9,000 retired racehorses, both thoroughbred and standardbred, to date. NAADA is once again please to repeat its donation to this very, very worthwhile organization and hopes others will consider helping this worthwhile adoption program.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.
