Ponda Warrior's Dan Patch upset triggers an improbable series of firsts

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

As the field turned for home in Friday night's (Aug. 11) $310,000 Dan Patch Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino, trainer Jay Hochstetler hoped that his charge Ponda Warrior could just get a piece of the six-figure purse. When the dust settled, driver Kyle Wilfong and the 4-year-old had earned the winner's share using a blistering :25.4 last quarter to stun those in attendance and spring a 1:48 upset. While the winning margin was nearly two lengths, Ponda Warrior's rally in the stretch provided one of the more memorable finishes in the 30-year history of the race.

"I really just wanted a check," Hochstetler said from the Hoosier Park winner's circle. "He kept picking up steam. I started yelling and screaming and people started jumping on my back, and the next thing you know we've won the race. This is incredible."

Ponda Warrior (Kyle Wilfong) uncorked a blistering :25.4 last quarter to stun those in attendance and spring a 1:48 upset in the Dan Patch on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park from post 11.

Ponda Warrior's conditioner and co-owner targeted the track's signature race as a bucket list event to win. However, as he prepared the pacer in Hoosier Park's grandstand paddock, he was not optimistic it would come to fruition with his first Dan Patch starter. And who could blame him? The plan he had mapped out earlier in the year was scrapped when a chip was discovered in Ponda Warrior's ankle. Surgery kept the son of Rockin Image—Sweetnsinful out of competition until earlier this month.

"When he first got hurt, I didn't even have this race on my radar," Hochstetler said. "I didn't think it was going to happen; it would be too much too soon."

Last year, Ponda Warrior won six of 18 starts, capturing the $270,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final before going on to finish fifth in the Breeders Crown final for sophomore pacers. He finished the year with back-to-back wins for the partnership of Hochstetler, Finkelberg Racing LLC and South Of The Tracks Rac Inc in open stakes at Hoosier Park, banking $360,275. Hochstetler had pointed his pupil to the Graduate Series as an early test for his talented pacer this year, but surgery took that option off the table. And while the Dan Patch Stakes seemed a longshot, Ponda Warrior made a compelling argument when he finally stepped on the track.

In his first qualifier, held July 19, he won by a neck in 1:51.2, kicking home in :26 seconds for John DeLong. Ten days later, he won again by a neck, this time flashing a :25.3 last quarter. Making his seasonal debut Aug. 4 in a $22,000 open pace, Ponda Warrior and DeLong won by a neck in 1:48.4.

“When I qualified him, I thought there’s a chance,” Hochstetler said. “Then, when he raced, I said ‘There’s a big chance.’”

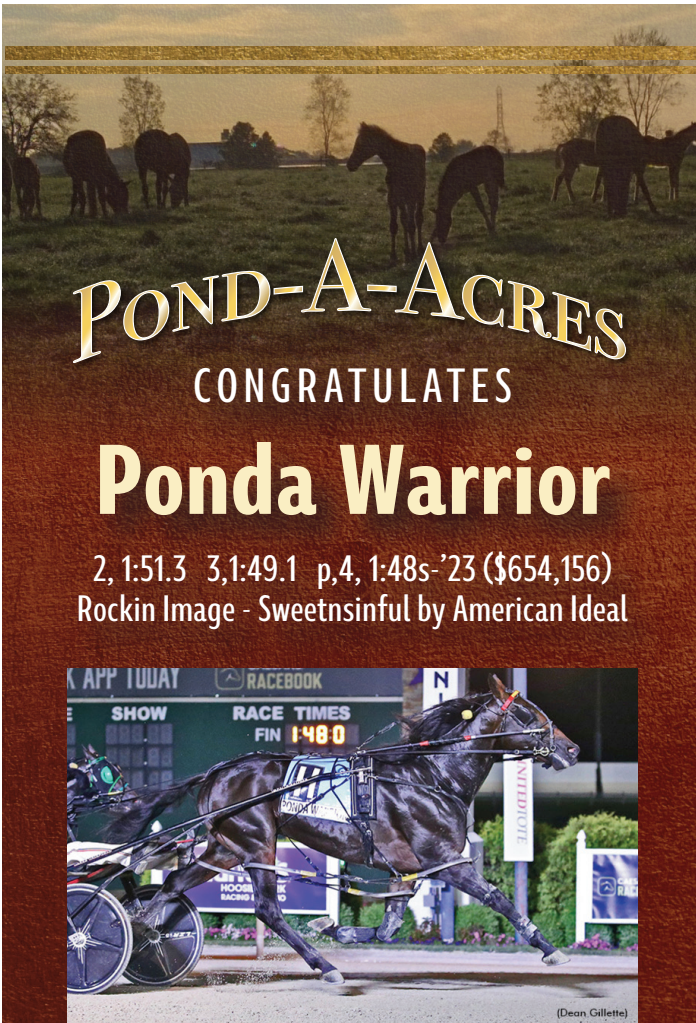

He was set to enter Ponda Warrior in the Gregg Haston Memorial, a $40,000 invitational traditionally part of the Dan Patch undercard. Looking back at more recent editions of both races, Hochstetler noted that the winner of the Haston Memorial often turned in miles on par with Dan Patch champions.

“He’s going to have to race hard no matter which race I put him in, so I might as well take a shot,” he said. “I didn’t even know if I was getting in on lifetime earnings. It might work out where I get my entry fees back and still go in the Haston.”

Ponda Warrior’s $487,475 career bankroll placed him safely within the field of 10 top money earners. Linedrive Hanover, one of the hottest horses in the open ranks, was nominated and entered, but fell less than $30,000 below the earnings of Captain Kirk, leaving him listed 11th. When Scott Peine, Hoosier Park’s director of racing, exercised a clause in the race conditions and extended an invitation to Linedrive Hanover’s connections, it created the largest field in the history of the event. As fate would have it, Ponda Warrior drew post 11, the second trailing position in the race.

“Nobody wants the 11-hole,” Hochstetler said. “At the same time, if you don’t use this horse early, he has such a vicious late kick.”

With Little Rocket Man also entered, the conditioner suspected he may lose DeLong to another hometown favorite the driver regularly steers. He reached out to Wilfong, who has guided several of Hochstetler’s horses to victory this season at Hoosier Park.

"The day before the morning line and the doubles come out, Jay texted me and said that if DeLong would happen to choose Little Rocket Man, you're first choice," said Wilfong, currently sixth in the Hoosier Park driver standings. "Just to get that text was cool. I think all I texted back was 'Awesome.' I couldn't even fathom it for a couple moments."

The odds were not in their favor. Second tier starting position. Second seasonal start against an all-star lineup including the likes of favored Charlie May, Abuckabett Hanover, Linedrive Hanover, Little Rocket Man and the Ron Burke-trained trio of Lou's Pearlman, Southwind Gendry and This Is The Plan. And Ponda Warrior would do so with a driver sitting in the sulky for the first time.

"I was lucky the last race he was in I got to basically watch him, I was right beside him, so I got a firsthand view," Wilfong said. "Just being able to see him. Jay told me some of the quirks that he has. It helps that he's such a classy horse to drive. He's two fingers. Everything is so simple; he's push button."

When the gate folded in the night's 13th race, Wilfong floated 17-1 Ponda Warrior out eighth, dropping in behind DeLong and Little Rocket Man. Lou's Pearlman and David Miller moved to the early lead from post 4, reaching the quarter in :26.1. Favorite Linedrive Hanover brushed to the top to take command on the backstretch before Scott Zeron moved Abuckabett Hanover to the lead from third. As the field marched to a :53.1 half, Brett Miller pulled the right line on Charlie May to start the outer flow, bringing with him Tellmeaboutit, Little Rocket Man and Ponda Warrior.

"I really just wanted a check. He kept picking up steam. I started yelling and screaming and people started jumping on my back, and the next thing you know we've won the race. This is incredible."

"I had hopes of following Little Rocket Man, but the chances of that happening were pretty slim," Wilfong said. "But that's how it lined up. It was the right horse."

Turning for home, Charlie May took the fight to leader Abuckabett Hanover. Wilfong angled out from his fourth-over spot and asked his charge. Ponda Warrior responded.

"Coming around the last turn, I tapped him once and he just swelled up," Wilfong said. "I can't say that I knew that I had it then, but I knew I had a fair shake at it. Coming off the turn and straightening up, I said, 'I've got it. I've got enough horse and I've got plenty of real estate.'"

Unleashing that vicious late kick, the 4-year-old reeled in the leaders and surged past both late in the lane to take the improbable win, the first for an Indiana-sired horse in the Dan Patch. Charlie May edged Abuckabett Hanover for second, with Little Rocket Man a fast-closing fourth. Ponda Warrior paid $36.60, $15.60, and $8.40 with the victory, and his career bankroll now stands at $642,475. The winning time established a new lifetime mark.

The emotions in the winner's circle were equal parts shock and elation. Smiles were abundant, as were the tears. Hoosier Park drivers have captured Dan Patch wins before, but this was different. Two young horsemen, both the next generation from families with deep Midwestern racing roots, claimed the coveted title. And the racing community was happy for them.

"I don't think you can put it into words," said Wilfong, a winner in his first Dan Patch drive. "All week long I've been going through all the bad scenarios that I figured would happen. For the one that we needed to happen come true, it's a dream come true."

Hochstetler did not get the opportunity to showcase his star earlier this season, but that did not matter Friday night. He would gladly give up other events for a Dan Patch win.

"Absolutely," Hochstetler said. "This is the race I wanted to win all year long. If it was just this and nothing else, that would be fine with me."

Hochstetler said the plan is to keep Ponda Warrior at Hoosier Park and race in the opens and invitationals leading up to the Hoosier Park Pacing Derby. The pacer will also have an Indiana Sires Stakes final prior to the Breeders Crown on home soil in late October. In discussing Ponda Warrior's injury back in May, Hochstetler pointed out that the setback may work in the horse's favor.

"It might work out for the best," he said at the time. "For one, we rectified a problem that we didn't really know was there. And two, he's not going to gut himself early on and maybe we'll have the freshest legs when the big money is on the line at the end."

If Friday's victory is any indication, perhaps Ponda Warrior is just getting started.

Should Sylvia Hanover race in the Little Brown Jug?

by Brett Sturman

With The Meadowlands Championship meet concluding last week it marks what could be considered the halfway point in this year's harness racing season. There's already been many twists and turns throughout the season and many more of which are sure to come as the Grand Circuit begins to transition towards its late summer and fall schedule. With that, it's worth exploring how the highest rated 3-year-olds have gotten to this point and what can be expected in the second half of the year.

Starting at the very top, a 3-year-old filly pacer narrowly leads 3-year-old pacing colt Confederate in the most current Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown weekly poll. As always, the horse atop the weekly poll is subjective. It's true that Sylvia Hanover is unbeaten this year, but her past few races have been loaded with anxious moments. On the other hand, Confederate is just a single narrow defeat (in a race where he was the best horse, for what it's worth) from being unbeaten this season himself. And his last two wins have been absolute crush jobs in the Meadowlands Pace and Cane Pace.

I'm sure as the 3-year-old grind continues it's likely that either or both [Sylvia Hanover and Confederate] will experience a bump or two in the road, but what if they both keep winning? How can we differentiate between the two? For Sylvia Hanover, what if she elected to take on male rivals in the Little Brown Jug? Doing so – and winning it – would have far greater implications than a weekly poll, it could stamp her as one of the most memorable 3-year-old fillies ever.

Sylvia Hanover (Bob McClure) winning the Fan Hanover at Woodbine Mohawk Park in June.

I'm sure as the 3-year-old grind continues it's likely that either or both horses will experience a bump or two in the road, but what if they both keep winning? How can we differentiate between the two? For Sylvia Hanover, what if she elected to take on male rivals in the Little Brown Jug? Doing so – and winning it – would have far greater implications than a weekly poll, it could stamp her as one of the most memorable 3-year-old fillies ever.

If it were purely a matchup against Confederate, that doesn't seem like something that would be in the best interest of Sylvia Hanover. However, there hasn't been any indication to date from those around Confederate that supplementing for $45,000 to the now $1 million Little Brown Jug in addition to focusing on the Grand Circuit in Lexington is of particular interest. If Confederate were to not race in the Jug, which seems to be more likely than not, what other 3-year-olds are there that Sylvia Hanover couldn't theoretically go with?

You have to go way back to 1981 to find the last (and only) time a filly has ever won the Little Brown Jug, but there is that precedent for it. Driven by Glen Garnsey, that Jug was won by the immortal Fan Hanover. Though admittedly rare, there have been other instances in signature 3-year-old pacing events where fillies have tried to take on their male counterparts. It's not something out of the question, and just weeks ago after her triumph in 1:48.2 in the ironically named Fan Hanover Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Sylvia Hanover had the look of a filly that matched up well against the sophomore colts and geldings.

In that Fan Hanover final, Sylvia Hanover humbled another sensational filly in Twin B Joe Fresh and continued to beat that rival again next out at The Meadowlands in the Mistletoe Shalee in a race where it didn't look as if things were going to plan. And if there's a knock, it's that the wins such as that one haven't all come easy. For driver Bob McClure, it's been a series of never-say-die drives that have ultimately kept her to task at earlier points in her miles and has gotten her to the front in her miles when it matters most. An eccentric type, there's no denying her talent.

In a release put out by the Little Brown Jug this week, it lists the top 10 contenders (listing only horses currently eligible, not including horses who may be under supplemental consideration) as: It's My Show, Cannibal, Voukefalas, Redwood Hanover, Seven Colors, Hungry Angel Boy, Stockade Seelster, Thunder Hunter Joe, Ammo, and Moment Is Here.

The performances for most of these top 3-year-olds are all well documented and so it raises the interesting question. With all other things including post position being equal, at her very best, couldn't Sylvia Hanover go with those horses? It doesn't seem like an impossible ask. Would it be something worth trying for $1 million and for a chance at racing immortality?

With all of her career races having been at either Woodbine Mohawk Park or The Meadowlands, Sylvia Hanover has never raced on a half-mile track. She is staked, however, to the Jugette, so the thought of her getting around a smaller sized oval is something that must have already been considered by her connections.

Perhaps the largest deterrent is that Sylvia Hanover would presumably need to pay the $45,000 fee to supplement into the Jug. I don't believe there is any flexibility offered in terms of the Jug supplement just because she's already been paid up separately to the Jugette, so that would seem like a valid obstacle.

In the meanwhile, Sylvia Hanover can't be faulted for continuing to do all that she's been expected to do. But there could be opportunities ahead for her to transcend a poll and to truly demonstrate her potential generational greatness. Beating pacing male rivals in a $1 million race would do just that.

Admiral As honored Ready Cash in Åby Stora Pris

by Thomas Hedlund

Daniel Redén-trained Admiral As (Ready Cash) proved best when the $260,000 Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters was held at Åby racetrack on Saturday (Aug. 12) afternoon and what could be more fitting than the fact that a son of Ready Cash prevailed in the group 1-race on the same week the well-known sire died in his home country of France.

The Åby Stora Pris is a challenging race. Three laps requires a strong horse and a driver that disposes the race correctly. So, when Power and Admiral As formed the top duo with 2.5 lap to go, the pace decreased and it was hard for the top horses back in the field to be serious threats for the win.

First-over trotter Admiral As looked strong in the last turn, when Robert Bergh tried to shake off the outside trotter with his Power. As the wire approached, inside runner Bengurion Jet finished quickly in the open stretch, so quickly that he for a while looked to be the winner. But Admiral As not only disarmed Power, but also kept Bengurion Jet behind him at the finish and the 7-year-old gelding won in a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 1.95 miles.

Bengurion Jet was second, Power was third. For Admiral As' owner SRF Stable the past week has been something special. SRF Stable co-owns Hambletonian Oaks winner Heaven Hanover and now Lennart Ågren (SRF Stable) owns a winner in classic Åby Stora Pris.

CAPITAL MAIL BEST OVER THE MILE

Fabrice Souloy-trained Capital Mail (Nad al Sheba) took a safe wire-to-wire win in the $105,000 Criterium de Vitesse de Basse-Normandie in Argentan, France on Saturday (Aug. 12) afternoon. The Criterium de Vitesse de Basse-Normandie is a mile race and that distance is not common place in French races, so Italian-bred Capital Mail was probably not disadvantaged by the mile.

Gabriele Gelormini sat in the bike behind Souloy's trotter and Capital Mail won in 1:52.4, ahead of Happy Valley and Elie de Beaufour.

FRANCESCO ZET FROM POST 1

Daniel Redén's 5-year-old Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) will enter the track again and this time it will be in the $280,000 Margareta Wallenius-Klebergs Pokal over 2,140 meters at Solvalla on Wednesday (Aug. 16) night.

Francesco Zet, who was runner up in the E3 final in August 2021 and is undefeated in 16 consecutive starts after that, will start from post 1 behind the gate in the prestigious 5-year-old race.

Redén-trained Glamorous Rain (Muscle Hill) will start in the $190,000 European Championship for mares also on the menu at Solvalla, but there are several interesting horses in the field that will get attention from the bettors. For example, Alessandro Gocciadoro's Zeudi Amg (Ideale Luis), who raced three wide the entire race when she claimed her last win at Hagmyren on July 29. Post 11 for her part makes the race a little bit more open and there are some really nice mares that will try to be best in Europe.

FRONT WINS FOR GOCCIADORO

Alessandro Gocciadoro visited Ippodromo del Garigliano in Italy late on Thursday (Aug. 10) night and returned with two wins.

The $105,000 Gran Premio Criterium 4 anni, for 4-year-olds, became a comfortable wire-to-wire win for Diamond Truppo (Varenne) in a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.3 miles. Gocciadoro continued to be successful during the card and next up was Daughter As (Father Patrick) in the $70,000 Gran Premio Campionato Femminile, who was pushed to the lead after 500 meters and later came home in a mile rate of 1:58 over 1.3 miles.

The 3-year-old fillies battled in another division of $70,000 Gran Premio Campionato Femminile and the winner, Eloida (Napoleon Bar) was seen on the front in the race for driver Mario Minopoli Jr. and the mile rate for Eloida was 1:58.4 over 1.3 miles. Gocciadoro was second behind the winner with his Ete Jet, so it was a pleasant evening for the dominant Italian trainer.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

The 57 Hambletonians I've witnessed

by Murray Brown

A friend and I were talking last week. In the course of our conversation, I said that last week's Hambletonian was going to be my 57th consecutive one. He said 'That has to be a record. Nobody else has been to that many; certainly not consecutively.' I told him I knew for a fact that Ebby Gerry had been to more. I'm not sure how many more, but his attendance at the race dated back to Titan Hanover's win in 1945 at Goshen.

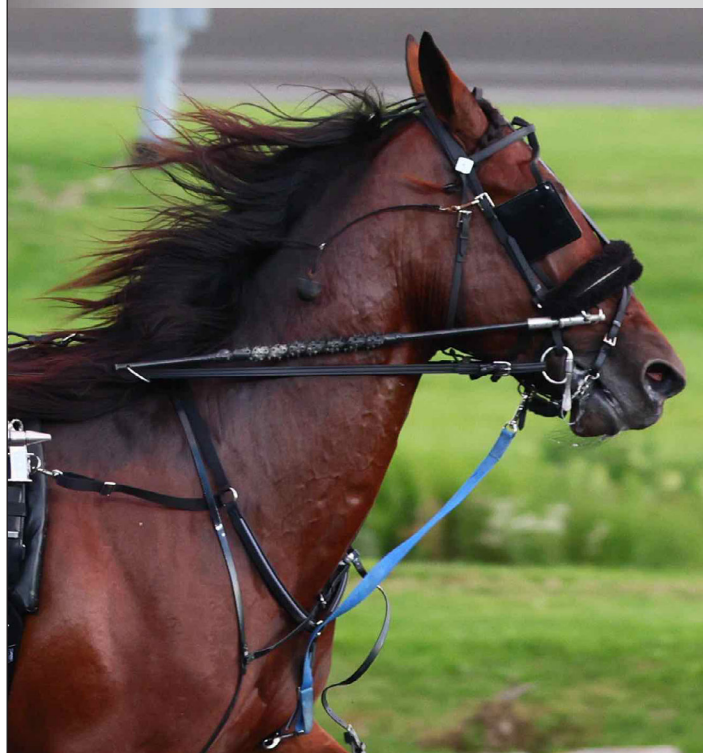

My buddy suggested that my next column should recount the Hambletonians that I've been to and perhaps mention anything of interest associated with each. I said I would give it a try, but that it would certainly amount to more data than in a single column, maybe as many as three columns. I've divided it so that the first one covers the races that took place in DuQuoin, IL, from 1967 through 1980. The second one covers those at The Meadowlands in the remainder of the 20th century from 1981 through 1999. The third column will go from year 2000 to the present.

I'd be remiss in not mentioning that YouTube aided me a great deal. Most of what I speak of comes from memory, but there are a few areas where YouTube helped with things that I hadn't remembered or in correcting items about which I was about to err.

1967 – Speedy Streak – Frank Ervin had the favored entry of Speedy Streak and Speed Model in the race, but he was unable to be there. He was a patient in the hospital. He asked his friend Del Cameron to substitute for him behind Speedy Streak. The other half of his entry, the filly Speed Model, was driven to a third-place finish by Ervin's assistant Arthur Hult.

1968 — Nevele Pride — Even though there was no betting yet at DuQuoin, Nevele Pride was the overwhelming favorite going into the race. He did not disappoint. He virtually jogged on his way to an easy multi-length win. It was the middle win, after the Yonkers Futurity and before the Kentucky Futurity on his route to winning the Triple Crown and Horse of the Year.

1969 — Lindy's Pride — This one held a significant personal touch for me. Lindy's Pride, then named Galahad Hanover, was a pupil in my first yearling class at Hanover Shoe Farms. In my opinion, he was our best yearling and I fully expected him to top the sale. Instead, he brought a disappointing $15,000, not bad for a yearling in 1969, but very disappointing for a colt that I was certain was going to lead the sale.

I felt that Clarence Gaines and K.D. Owen were going to buy him, but found out later that Dr. John Steele had advised them not to because he felt the colt's hocks would not hold up to training and racing. Lindy's Pride went on to win the Triple Crown and what was then called the Big Five, adding the Vernon Gold Cup and the Colonial to the three Triple Crown races.

1970 — Timothy T. — This one also held a personal touch with me. He was from the first crop of Ayres a horse that I admired and loved. Ayres was one of several stallions that I felt could not miss and then did just that. John Simpson, my boss, had purchased him privately from Minnesota drug store owner John Thro for $10,000. He was small, but so was Ayres. He was athletic and sharp in appearance. His price, although cheap today was slightly below average for the time. In 1968 when the sale took place the Hanover Shoe Farms yearlings averaged $18,205, an almost 50 per cent increase over the previous year's record of $12,137. This was the first year at Hanover after the farm's founder Lawrence Sheppard had passed away. The sale of Timothy T. took place before the Harrisburg sale and his price was arrived at using the previous year's average of $12,137 as a guide. Timothy T. was the favorite in the race. Two days before the race Timothy T. came down with what Simpson referred to as 'the sniffles.' I remember him saying that if the race was not the Hambletonian he likely would have scratched. But it was the Hambletonian and he decided to go ahead and race. In my mind's eye I can see both Simpson Sr. and Jr. rubbing Vick's VapoRub into Timothy T.'s nostrils with caretaker Charlie Coleman looking on. Timothy T. won the race driven by Simpson Jr., then the youngest driver to ever win the Hambletonian.

1971 — Speedy Crown — Speedy Crown was bred and raised by his trainer and driver Howard Beissinger. He was sold to the members of the Antonacci and Lomangino families. He was to become their second Hambletonian starter and their second winner of America's Classic Trotting Race. Beissinger raced Speedy Crown lightly at 2. He wasn't near a star as a freshman. Nobody, except possibly Beissinger, would have guessed at how great a 3-year-old, older trotter and monumental sire he would become. I never asked the question of Beissinger, but I suspect that he didn't either. If he had, why would he have sold him?

1972 — Super Bowl — ‘Soup’ as he was affectionately known around Hanover was to become my all-time favorite horse, not necessarily because of his ability on the racetrack which was to become exceptional, but more so because of his kind demeanor and unique character in his time at Hanover. He was a lanky, somewhat immature yearling who Stanley Dancer bought for his then wife Rachel for the bargain price of $15,000. He was not held in the highest of esteem by Stanley throughout his early 2-year-old training. All we heard from Stanley all winter and spring was Stars Chip. Stars Chip was a small racy Stars Pride colt that Stanley had bought for Mac Cuddy, the turkey man from Strathroy, ON. As Stanley was wont to do, until he possibly changed his mind, he thought Stars Chip could become a great horse. Super Bowl and Stars Chip were both by Stars Pride, but with many by that great sire, they could not have been more dissimilar. Stars Chip was smallish, but quick and fast. Super Bowl was big and gangly, often disinterested and just plodded along. In the early 2-year-old stakes races at Brandywine, they lived up to their history. Stars Chip won a division of the General George Washington impressively. In his division Super Bowl finished third to Brownie Hanover, a colt that Stanley's brother Harold won with in 2:10.3. From that point, even through Super Bowl's Triple Crown wins, Harold wouldn't recognize that Super Bowl was a top horse. “He couldn't beat Brownie Hanover, who wasn't much, in 2:10.3,” was a refrain I heard more than once. It was the soft, big, mid-western mile tracks combined with heats that made a new horse out of Super Bowl. The formerly disinterested colt thrived on sunshine and work. On Hambletonian Day at DuQuoin he defeated a pretty good group of trotters, with Delmonica Hanover finishing second and Spartan Hanover third. Often when I think of Super Bowl, I think of Alan Leavitt and how he could have “owned” harness breeding if he hadn't quarreled with Stanley over Albatross. He already had Speedy Crown and No Nukes. Speedy Somolli was in the wings. Add Albatross and likely then Super Bowl to his Lana Lobell Farms roster and people might have said Hanover who?

1973 — Flirth — One of four gelding winners in my 57 years. He was a homebred owned by the Arden Homestead Stable. Shortly after the race he was purchased by the later to be convicted murderer John du Pont, who came from the ultra-wealthy Delaware family of the same name. He had been active in thoroughbred racing as well as other sports. Well known Philadelphia sportscaster Jim Leaming, a great guy and true lover of harness racing had horses with Stanley Dancer and wanted to get his friend du Pont involved in our sport. Soon after the purchase things went sour. Flirth didn't race well and then became lame. Dancer and du Pont didn't get along. Dancer in effect kicked him out of the stable. Du Pont sued Dancer, I believe claiming that his “lack of ability” caused Flirth to go lame. I believe the case was either dropped or settled out of court.

1974 – Christopher T. – This was the first Hambletonian won by Billy Haughton after 16 previous disappointments. In commentary for the race, Stan Bergstein said “the Hambletonian for 3-year-old trotters had escaped and tormented” Haughton. After this race his stable went on to win five more. So, Burke and Gingras, don’t give up! That first one, as well as likely others are out there waiting for you. This particular race is well worth watching on YouTube, since Haughton himself gives commentary while the race is taking place. Christopher T. was the full brother to 1970 Hambletonian winner Timothy T. Breeder John Thro wasn’t about to make the same mistake that he had made with Timothy T. by selling him as a yearling. He kept the colt and entrusted him to Billy Haughton. He was a very good 2-year-old, but had been somewhat disappointing going into the Hambletonian. Nevele Diamond had been the pre-race favorite, and he raced like one in winning the first heat by open lengths for Stanley Dancer. The next heat (different horses) was won by Christopher T., just getting up at the wire. The final was won by Christopher T., while Nevele Diamond was a well beaten favorite fading through the field. One thing quite noticeable was the colors the drivers were wearing. None of them had short sleeves. If you’ve ever been to DuQuoin in late August, you’d know they were needed.

1975 – Bonefish – This was the first time that they had pari-mutuel wagering at DuQuoin. It was a marathon and what a race it was! It went four heats. The first heat went to pre-race favorite Bonefish driven by Stanley Dancer. The second heat went to Yankee Bambino for Walter Ross. The third heat went to Noble Rogue driven by Jimmy Arthur. The final fourth heat, a race off between the three heat winners went to Bonefish, a narrow winner over Yankee Bambino.

1976 – Steve Lobell – This was another four-heat race. It was a race in which tragedy was narrowly avoided, when after having gone four difficult heats, the ultimate race winner Steve Lobell collapsed in his stall and nearly died. The three previous heats were won by Zoot Suit, Steve Lobell and the filly Armbrø Regina. The first heat included a ridiculous 18 starters. By the second heat they were down to 14. The third heat still included 12. Here’s an interesting tidbit from this race. Three of the greatest sires to ever stand stud in Sweden – Pershing, Quick Pay and Zoot Suit – were among its contestants.

1977 – Green Speed – According to present USTA rules, Green Speed the winner of the race was a 4-year-old. Green Speed was born in December during one of the few years where the foaling calendar was pushed back to allow for foals of the previous November and December to be registered as yearlings of the following year. Another huge group had 16 starters. Green Speed was a convincing straight two-heat winner for Billy Haughton, with Texas being second both heats, each heat was timed in a world record 1.55.3. By the way, if you watch the YouTube replays of these races, you cannot help but realize how great a race caller Stan Bergstein was.

1978 – Speedy Somolli – If ever three trotting colts were as closely matched as possible, it was probably the trio of Speedy Somolli, Florida Pro and Brisco Hanover. Ultimately Speedy Somolli proved to be the best of the trio but not by much. It seemed that these three colts were almost always close together in all their 2- and 3-year-old races. The thing I remember most about Speedy Somolli is his dam Somolli who previously bore a Hanover name. She could trot faster than any yearling we had that year, or most any other year. We didn't have a lead pony who could open her up. Howard Beissinger bought her for the account of Robert Mumma. I fully expected her to become a champion, but to my knowledge, she never raced. Beissinger and Mumma had her bred to Speedy Crown and she produced Speedy Somolli; she got the champion, but one generation later.

1979 – Legend Hanover – I can't tell you much about this horse other than he represented a great deal of energy expended in trying to get Dr. Raymond Galt, a major yearling buyer of the day, to come to Hanover and buy one of our yearlings. Previous to his buying this colt, I believe it was the only Hanover yearling that he had ever bought. I remember him coming to the farm one Saturday afternoon with his then trainer Stanley Dancer. He wanted to buy a Super Bowl colt from us. I'm guessing that we had about 10 of them. He had us line them all up alongside each other. It appeared that he was interested in a few, but he didn't show up at Harrisburg, nor did he buy a yearling from us. The next year a fellow by the name of Raymond Tripp showed up at the Fairgrounds. He said he was there to look at all the Super Bowl colts for Galt. He apparently liked Legend Hanover. That was the only yearling that Galt had ever bought from Hanover and he won the Hambletonian with him.

Legend Hanover also has a connection to me. In 1968, shortly after my first year at Hanover, the Mirones, for whom I had previously worked in Canada, asked me if there were any of their mares in which Hanover had any interest. There were two Hoot Mon mares, which caught my fancy, one of which was Laurita Hanover. I believe we bought the pair for $25,000 or thereabouts. Laurita Hanover was a very fast filly in her day, having a 2-year-old record of 2:00.1. When we bought her, she previously had five foals, none had done much of consequence. She was in foal to Tie Silk carrying her sixth foal. The next and first Hanover bred foal was the aforementioned Somolli, the dam of Speedy Somolli. She then waited until her twelfth foal before she had her Hambletonian winning son Legend Hanover.

1980 – Burgomeister – This was the most emotionally charged Hambletonian that I've ever been to. It was the very last Hambletonian at DuQuoin. The Hayes family of DuQuoin had been great stewards of the race and most were sad to see it leave. Peter Houghton had tragically been killed in a car accident the previous winter. His horse Burgomeister which he owned with restauranter Marcello Fiorentino** was the emotional favorite. There were 19 entered and the field was split. The first heat was won by Final Score driven by 23-year-old Tommy Houghton, Peter's younger brother. The next heat was won by Burgomeister after a rough trip on the rim. The final and the race was won by Burgomeister. There was nary a dry eye in the place.

\*If ever you are looking for a great Italian restaurant, perhaps the very best one in South Florida, try Fiorentino's La Sirena in West Palm Beach, now owned and run by Marcello Fiorentino Jr. and his wife Diane. You might thank me.*

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

A further look at the beaten Hambletonian favorite

by Alan Leavitt

Celebrity Bambino, who is by Muscle Hill and out of Celebrity Ruth, by Archangel, is both inbred to Muscles Yankee and linebred to American Winner, which in this kid's opinion has something, maybe a lot, maybe a little, to do with his ability on the racetrack. He was also the beaten favorite in the recent Hambletonian.

As a quick reminder, when the sum of the generations in which the same horse's name appears twice is six or less, the horse so bred is technically described as Inbred.

When the sum of the two generations in which the same horse's name appears twice is seven or eight, the horse so bred is technically described as Linebred.

When no horse's name appears twice in any generations totaling eight or less, any horse so bred is technically described as an Outcross.

What we are describing here RE: Celebrity Bambino is his genotype, or genetic makeup. How powerful it is won't be conclusively known until he enters the stud and has progeny on the racetrack. But for our purposes, as breeders, our goal is to successfully predict a stallion's future success as a sire before he actually leaves the racetrack.

There are two aspects of any horse's composition to consider. They are his genotype, discussed in brief above. The other is his phenotype, which describes the living horse and his success, or lack of it, on the racetrack.

The greatest thoroughbred breeder of all time was the Italian Federico Tesio. He dominated the European stakes for 50 years, and his masterpiece was the undefeated champion Ribot.

Tesio believed that 2-year-old brilliance was the most essential element in forecasting the future sire success of any racehorse. Since he was operating between the First and Second World Wars, records were spotty or even nonexistent at times, but somehow Tesio managed to find stallions that had a bright streak of ability at 2, and when he sent his mares to those horses, even if they were quite obscure, they produced future stakes winners for him to train.

I subscribe to the same belief as Federico Tesio when it comes to predicting a horse's sire potential while he's still on the racetrack: it is 2-year-old brilliance that gives a breeder the best insight into his future success as a sire.

However, today there is a commercial side of our business that also comes into play. Although this kid believes that a stallion's success in the stud is predetermined by his racing ability at 2, the rest of our world puts its weight on the 3-year-old racing season, with the Hambletonian as the Holy Grail.

The major farms turned up their noses at Rebuff, because he was unplaced in the Hambletonian. This despite being dominant at 2 and winning the Kentucky Futurity at 3. So, Rebuff wound up standing in Indiana, at a good farm, but not one with a big, national name.

I predict Rebuff will not only tear the roof off in the Indiana Sires Stakes program, he'll send out top contenders in the Grand Circuit Stakes, even though he wasn't treated to the cream-of-the-crop mares he would have gotten at a major farm. So there.

Back to Celebrity Bambino and his pedigree. He's inbred to Muscles Yankee 2 by 4, and he's inbred to American Winner, 3 by 4. You won't find a lot of stallions with two such close crosses, and I'm sure they play a role in his ability on the track.

*So what does this all tell us in the end?
I don't know about you, but it tells me that Celebrity Bambino will be a top sire, and whoever is lucky enough to stand him, please put Walnut Hall down for a first-year booking.*

The fact that Celebrity Bambino raced hard at 2 and then has come back at 3 in top form is a tribute to his trainer, Ron Burke. Although Burke operates an incredibly large racing stable, he gives his top horses the personal benefit of his good horsemanship.

So what does this all tell us in the end? I don't know about you, but it tells me that Celebrity Bambino will be a top sire, and whoever is lucky enough to stand him, please put Walnut Hall down for a first-year booking.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Amy Cruise Husted – Carrying on a great family tradition

by Victoria Howard

Amy Cruise Husted was born in Oneida, NY, to a renowned harness racing family. Several champion horses were trained and driven by Amy's maternal grandfather, Dick Farrington.

Farrington had superstars such as: Warm Breeze, Tender Loving Care and the gorgeous grey horse, Laag.

Husted's uncle is Hall of Famer and six-time national driving champion, Bob Farrington, who at one time owned a horse that everyone has heard about, Rambling Willie "The Horse That God Loved."

"My mother, Robin Cruise, has been involved in the sport her entire life," Husted said. "She can do it all. Mom helped my father Jimmy Cruise, campaign a lot of great horses, including Magician, who made over $ 3.5 million. Currently, she is working for trainer Carter Pinske at the Red Mile.

"My paternal grandfather, Jimmy Cruise Sr., is also in the Harness Racing Hall of Fame and raced mostly in New York and California. Both of my grandmothers were dedicated hard-working horsewomen who worked alongside their husbands."

Husted started working in the business at an early age.

"I've been in the barn my entire life," she said. "When I was 14-years-old I trained my first horse and never stopped."

In addition to those she worked for in her family, Husted worked for some very recognizable trainers.

"I have worked for some of the best trainers in the business, such as Erv Miller and Tony Alagna," she said.

“I’ve been in the barn my entire life. When I was 14-years-old I trained my first horse and never stopped.”

~ Amy Cruise Husted

It’s obvious Husted picked up the best tips from those top trainers, since last year she won the Hawthorne trainer title.

She met her future husband, horseman Kyle Husted, at a Halloween party in New Jersey. Kyle also comes from a harness racing family for his mother, Pam Coleman, was a trainer, as were his grandfather and great grandfather.

The couple married in 2021, became proud parents of a beautiful baby girl named Emma and relocated to the Midwest to run their stable.

“The first yearling Kyle and I bought together was Fox Valley Exploit,” Amy said.

Today, the 6-year-old mare is the best horse in their stable.

“When we first formed our stable, we had only three horses, but today we have 32 horses that we stable at Joe Putnam’s farm in Indiana,” she said.

The Husteds work together hand-in-hand, toting along their most precious cargo – fifth generation little Emma – who just happens to love being with her parents at the barn.

“Emma began going to the barn with us when she was 4 days old and has been there mostly every day since,” Amy said. “I love to win races, but it makes it even more special that she is with us. Emma absolutely loves the horses and she can pick out her dad on the racetrack and cheers him on. She jumps up and down and claps her hands. And she loves to get her picture taken in the winner’s circle, too.

“Recently I hired a sitter for Emma. [She] is at the stage where she is into everything, but she comes to the races with me almost every evening to cheer daddy on.”

Amy cared greatly for all the horses she’s cared for, but when pressed, she did name a couple of standouts.

“I’ve had so many favorites, but I would have to say it is Fox Valley Exploit, because she really is the one that got my husband and I started,” Amy said. “She has made just shy of a half-million dollars and is undefeated in all four of her sire stakes finals. She really opened a lot of doors for us and is very special to my family.”

Another one of Amy’s favorites would be Caprice Hill who she helped care for while working for Alagna.

“Donna Lee [Alagna’s mother] and I had the best time racing her in Canada,” Amy said. “I learned so much from Donna Lee and really admire her work ethic. She is one tough cookie.”

Caprice Hill is by Kadabra out of the stakes’ winner, Bramasole.

“Caprice was as close to perfect as they come,” Amy said. “During her career she won the Peaceful Way, the Ontario Sire Stakes Super final, the Matron Stakes and was second in the Hambletonian Oaks.

“As far as the fastest horse I have ever taken care of, it would be Dr J Hanover, who set a world record in 1:46.4.”

Today, the Husteds race mostly at Hoosier Park in Indiana, but also ship to Kentucky and Illinois, living out their dream and building a future for little Emma.

Note: Rambling Willie was voted the North American Older Pacer of the Year three times in the 1970s. He was purchased, as a 3-year-old for $15,000 by Bob Farrington for his wife, Vivian, as a birthday gift. Vivian owned 50 per cent and her partner Paul Siebert, owned the other 50 per cent.

Being the daughter of a pastor, Vivian tithed 10 per cent of Rambling Willie’s earnings to his church.

Rambling Willie, the son of Rambling Fury—Meadow Belle was born in Monroeville, IN, never raced at age 2. During his racing career, Willie won 128 races in 305 starts, broke many records and won the U.S. Pacing Championship in 1975.

His lifetime best of 1:54.3 was made when he was seven years old, a world record at the time, and he earned $2,038,219.

Remember this was almost 50 years ago.

What makes this horse so special is that Rambling Willie raced with two bowed tendons.

When his career as a racehorse ended, Rambling Willie lived out his golden years at the Kentucky Horse Park with his pet goat, Billy, until he was euthanized due to laminitis.

If you visit the Kentucky Horse Park, you can see where Willie and Billy are buried, near his paddock at the Hall of Champions.

Heavy favorites dominate Meadows PASS; Palone sweeps stake, wins 7

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Odds-on favorites Once In A Lifetime (1-9) and Saint Louie (1-5) dominated Friday's (Aug. 11) $140,146 Pennsylvania Sires Stake for 3-year-old male trotters at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, each winning a division and cementing a berth in the championship. Just as dominant was Dave Palone, who swept the stake, known as the Super Bowl, among his seven victories on the 13-race card.

The $260,000 (est.) divisional PASS final is set for Sept. 3 at Harrah's Philadelphia.

On paper, Once In A Lifetime looked untouchable. His bank account was more than three times larger than that of any of his three rivals in the scratch-shortened field. Moreover, Jim Campbell, who trains the son of Father Patrick—Sherrys Lady for Sad Frog Farms, was adding Lasix to the colt's arsenal.

In the race, he was just as untouchable as expected, cruising to a front-end score in 1:53.4. Father Stosh was a 1/2 length back in second with Tenforthebigguy third. Once In a Lifetime extended his lifetime earnings to $376,792.

"It was just like a training mile," Palone said. "He got his own numbers. I just asked him at the head of the stretch, and he was off by himself."

Saint Louie had an even easier time of it, springing to the lead from post 4 and never experiencing an anxious moment in his 1:53.4 romp. The pocket-sitting Herodotus was second, beaten 2-3/4 lengths, while Crantini completed the ticket.

"The only thing to say, plugs in, wrapped up," Palone said. "You never want to extend them any more than you have to with the final coming up, so I just kind of trained him around there."

The Father Patrick—Emmylou Who gelding has hit the board in all nine career outings for trainer Ake Svanstedt and owners Ake Svanstedt Inc, Young Guns and Joe Sbrocco.

$40,000 PA STALLION SERIES EVENT – 3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROTTERS

Big Boy Ernest and Crypto Currency captured the splits in Friday's Pennsylvania Stallion Series.

Battin A Thousand held a narrow lead turning for home, but most of his rivals remained in contention. Big Boy Ernest found the path to victory in the Lightning Lane, prevailing by 1/2 length in 1:54.3 for Mike Wilder. Battin A Thousand and Biscoe rounded out the ticket. Norm Parker conditions the International Moni—Woohoo Hanover gelding for Charles Receski, Ed Receski, Todd Brice and Bart Brice.

SHE SHAQ, LOVEYOUBUNCHES WIN MEADOWS PASS SPLITS

Acting anything like a one-race maiden, She Shaq ignored the breakers around her, glided through the slop and captured a division of Thursday's (Aug. 10) $158,146 Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Loveyoubunches took the other split in the event, known as the Delmonica Hanover, for freshman filly trotters.

She Shaq finished second in her career debut, also a PASS leg, but was happy just to follow along. On Thursday, she zipped aggressively to the lead for Dave Palone and trainer Ake Svanstedt, released the hard-used Little Town Road and drew away from her late, downing her by 3 lengths in 1:56. Skyline Seashell completed the ticket.

"I was looking forward to her all day," Palone said. "She came well-advertised. They thought she was a nice filly, and when Ake likes them, I like them. When I moved her at the top of the stretch, she responded like a seasoned horse."

Svanstedt owns the daughter of Southwind Frank—Baby Shaq with Little E LLC and Matt Franklin.

It appeared that Loveyoubunches had lost her battle for the early lead with Cahira Hanover when she retreated to the pocket, but winning trainer/driver Todd Schadel said that was all part of the plan.

"I was not disappointed at all," Schadel said. "I wanted in behind the leader. I was just waiting for Cahira Hanover to go on a little bit because if I'd wanted the front, we'd have had it. She's a well-mannered filly, and she's great gaited."

The daughter of Fordham Road—Lovebeinglucky moved wide for the drive and scored comfortably in a career-best 1:57.4, 2-1/4 lengths better than Insider Trading while Cahira Hanover saved show.

Rich Beinhauer and Regina Beinhauer bred Loveyoubunches and own with Christine Schadel and Todd Schadel.

$100,000 PA STALLION SERIES – 2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROTTERS

Thursday's card also featured five divisions of the PA Stallion Series with Mike Wilder (Happy Chopper, Chimebelle) and Palone (Sambuca Hanover, Upallnight Hanover) enjoying doubles. The other split went to Mon Amie Martine.

Sambuca Hanover moved first over from third and, rather than barreling to the top, wore down Cantabs Big Bang to defeat him by a 1/2 length in 1:57.2. It was the fastest win in the career of the daughter of Bar Hopping—Snow Angel Hanover. Faith Step rallied for show.

"She was well within herself," Palone said. "The filly has plenty of go, just needs to get a little more seasoned. I'm glad I could have her race off a helmet and finish up strong."

Nifty Norman conditions Sambuca Hanover, a $200,000 yearling acquisition, for David McDuffee, Paul Bordonga and Melvin Hartman.

Seaside Diva rolls to fourth straight win

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

Seaside Diva rallied from the back of the pack to win the first of two $55,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-filly pacers at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (Aug. 11). In the other division, Daisy Star held off late challengers to come home victorious.

In the first division, Seaside Diva and Chris Page trailed the seven-horse field as they hit the half-mile pole. Heading up the backstretch, Seaside Diva started to move, going three-wide around the final turn to grab the lead at the top of the stretch. The daughter of Downbytheseaside turned on the gas and pulled away to win by two lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:51.2. It was the fourth win in seven starts for the Ron Burke trainee. Three of her wins have been in Ohio Sires Stakes action. Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services, and Let It Ride Stable, Seaside Diva has earned $139,250.

Rose Run Zoey was second with Flyin Bullets third.

In the other division, Daisy's Star and Sam Widger took the lead just past the quarter pole and fought off late challengers to win by a quarter-length in a new lifetime mark of 1:53.1. Around the final turn, the Racing Hill filly fought off a challenge from Heartofthesea and then held off a late charge from Genetic Edge to claim the win. Trained by Johnson Hill Jr., it was her second win of the year in eight starts. Both wins have come in Sires Stakes action. Daisy's Star has earned $74,376 this year for owner Brent Tartar.

Genetic Edge was second with Beautiful Lather finishing third.

SUGAR INSTEAD GOES 4 FOR 4 IN OHIO SIRES STAKES ACTION

Sugar Instead continues to roll through the Ohio Sires Stakes for freshman filly trotters as she won for the fourth time Thursday (Aug. 10) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Sugar Instead took home the first of two $55,000 divisions, while Roxanna captured her second sires stakes win in the other division.

In the first division, Ronnie Gillespie took Sugar Instead to the lead from the rail to grab the lead. The 3-5 favorite fought off a challenge from Westfiftyfive up the backstretch and then held off Possibility down the stretch to win in a new lifetime mark of 1:56.2. Trained by Virgil Morgan Jr., the daughter of Volstead raised her earnings to $153,625 for owners Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills. Sugar Instead has won four of six starts with two second-place finishes.

Possibility was second while She's Spicy was third.

It was a different story for Roxanna in the second division. The What The Hill filly with Aaron Merriman sat fifth at the half-mile mark, five lengths behind the leaders. Around the final turn, Roxanna went three-wide, grabbing the lead at the top of the stretch and held on to win by a length in 1:57.2. Trained by Chris Beaver, who co-owns with Sandra Burnett, Roxanna has hit the board in three of four starts, winning two, and earning $58,600 this year.

Hot Tea finished second with Ourmomentntime third.

Svanstedt trotters triumphant in NY Sire Stakes at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Ake Svanstedt drove a pair of Chapter Seven colts from his barn – Cecil Hanover and Kierkegaard K – to victories in the two New York Sire Stakes divisions for sophomore trotters on Thursday night (Aug. 10) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Cecil Hanover made it look easy in the first $82,500 grouping as he went to the lead from post 4, opened up a gap on his foes through fractions of :28.4, :58.1 and 1:26.3, and cruised to a 4 1/2 length victory in 1:55 flat. Onion Gum (Jordan Stratton) held second from the pocket over a closing Wild Bill Kelso (Scott Zeron).

Svanstedt also co-owns Cecil Hanover, who was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, with partners S R F Stable, Midnight Sun Partners Inc., and Jorgen Sparredal Inc. This was his fourth career win, and he has now earned $270,955. He paid $2.80 to win as the 2-5 favorite and led a $6.30 exacta and an $11.00 trifecta.

In the second $84,000 split Chapercraz (Joe Bongiorno) went to the top from the pole position and was in front at the :28.1

quarter, :57.3 half and 1:26 three-quarters. Meanwhile, Kierkegaard K and Svanstedt settled in the fourth spot from post 6 and began a first-over bid on the third turn that carried him into second on the final bend.

Kierkegaard K, who won an MGM Yonkers Trot elimination earlier this year, would sustain his two-wide charge through the stretch, wear down and go by Chapercraz, and then hold off Crown (Brian Sears), who found room on the inside from the pocket, to score by a neck in 1:54.4. Chapercraz faded to third.

A Knutsson Trotting Inc.-homebred, Kierkegaard K has compiled a record of 5-2-4 from 16 tries, has now pocketed $311,249, and returned $8.00 to win as the 3-1 second choice. The exacta was worth $48.20 and the trifecta kicked back $69,50.

There were also two $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series races held as non-betting events prior to the pari-mutuel card. Winning those contests were Kingpin Hanover (by E L Titan and bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, in 1:57.2 for driver Jim Pantaleano, trainer Jody Riedel and owner Super Mile LLC. and Seven Over (by Chapter Seven and bred by Crawford Farms) in 1:55.2 for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Per Engblom and owners VIP Internet Stable LLC., Rich Preziotti, Heritage Standardbreds and Timothy Drag.

The New York Sire Stakes circuit returns to MGM Yonkers Raceway next Tuesday (August 15) with two dashes for 3-year-old filly trotters.

MGM Yonkers Raceway currently hosts live racing on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights with post time at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Seven Colors shines in $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Purchased privately following a runner-up performance in the Cane Pace at The Meadowlands, Seven Colors showed his new connections just how good he was with a jaw-dropping world-record victory in the $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial at MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (Aug. 12).

Both Buzzsaw Russ (John De Long) and Redwood Hanover (James MacDonald) left alertly, but Seven Colors (Dexter Dunn) was put into play early as well into the first turn. Dunn played a little bit of hardball as he stretched out Buzzsaw Russ, but the son of Rockin Image worked past Seven Colors as the field entered the backstretch.

"He just couldn't get out of the gate quick enough," said Dunn. "We got away third. We didn't want to be unlucky with him with such a great run last week."

MacDonald, who couldn't find a hole with Redwood Hanover, had to work hard to make the front, putting up a :25.3 first quarter. MacDonald then tried to get a bit of a breather, but Dunn would have none of it as he moved Seven Colors to the outside with Tip Top Cat (Yannick Gingras) on his back.

Getting to the half in a blistering :53.4, Seven Colors began to apply pressure to Redwood Hanover as they entered the clubhouse turn for the final time. Redwood Hanover worked hard trying to fight off his challengers, leading by three quarters in 1:21 up by three-quarters of a length.

"Brian (Brown) did such a good job with this horse. He had him prepped so well," said winning trainer Andrew Harris. "I was pretty confident going to the three-quarter pole."

Seven Colors (Dexter Dunn) set a 1:48.1 world record while winning Saturday's Carl Milstein Memorial at MGM Northfield Park.

Dunn pulled the plugs on Seven Colors midway into the far turn, and the son of Stay Hungry—Rainbowinthedark took off quickly taking the lead from Redwood Hanover with an eighth of a mile to pace. Seven Colors drew off down the stretch to win by a comfortable two-lengths in a track and world record of 1:48.1. Tip Top Cat closed to be second, with Buzzsaw Russ and Redwood Hanover completing the superfecta.

"I just rode up quietly. And then, coming towards the end of the backstretch, he had plenty of go. When James (MacDonald) started to struggle a little bit, I asked him for more, and he kicked on great," Dunn said.

Owned by William Pollock, Bruce Arman, and trainer Harris, Seven Colors has now earned $348,398 with six victories in 17 starts.

"I have to thank Bill Pollock and Bruce Arman for taking this ride with me, it's working out really nice for us. We have some nice horses," said Harris.

For Dunn, it was his second victory in the 10-year history of the Carl Milstein Memorial. He won the 2019 edition with Bettor's Wish.

BURKE SWEEPS UNDERCARD

It's Academic, and Bythemissal continued to assert dominance on Saturday with decisive victories in the $100,000 Tom Aldrich President's Trot and Myron Charna President's Pace at MGM Northfield Park, respectively.

It's Academic (David Miller) kicked things off in the President's Trot with a mighty gate-to-wire victory. Miller defended pylon position well into the first turn, leaving alertly with the son of Uncle Peter—Annapolis, but Refined (Tyler Smith) and Caviar Gold (Aaron Merriman) both left to his outside.

Into the backstretch the first time, it looked like Caviar Gold would be parked to the opening quarter, but when Pappardelle (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) made a break, it allowed him to save ground in third.

With the field in straight alignment, It's Academic reached the opening quarter in :27.1.

Miller worked out a :29.3 breather in the second panel, with the outflow from The Mighty Hill (Dexter Dunn) flushed out by Smoking Jet (Chris Page) breathing down his neck. 1-3/4 lengths was as close as anyone would get to It's Academic, who cruised by three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Midway around the far turn, The Mighty Hill jumped off stride, leaving It's Academic and Refined all alone on the lead. Refined tried in vain to close on It's Academic. The latter made it five in a row setting a new track record of 1:51.4. Caviar Gold dug in to be third, while Joggingtothebank (Brett Miller) rallied to be fourth.

"He's been on top of his game the last couple of months," said Miller. "He's a really nice horse to get along with; he does whatever I ask him to do."

It's Academic is owned by Brad Grant. The Aldrich marked the 29th victory of his career. The 6-year-old stallion pushed his earnings to $1,826,096.

World-champion Bythemissal (Yannick Gingras) overcame post-eight to win the $100,000 Myron Charna President's Pace, missing a track-record by one-fifth of a second.

Odds On Shaggy (Smith), Fearful Intent (Merriman), and Risenshine Seaside (Wrenn Jr.) all left alertly to Bythemissal's inside. Still, Gingras was patient with Bythemissal, settling into fourth around the initial turn. While Odds On Shaggy made the front into the backstretch, he had to brace for an immediate challenge from Risenshine Seaside was able to clear but set a blistering :25.4 pace.

Gingras would wait no longer by the stands for the first time, guiding the son of 2017 Carl Milstein Memorial winner Downbytheseaside out of Dismissal to the outside. Leader Risenshine Seaside had nothing for the big horse, and he cruised by, eclipsing the half in :53.3.

"He got a little keyed up into the second turn, so I made a move instead of fighting with him," said Gingras.

With three-eighths of a mile to pace, Gingras asked Bythemissal for a little bit more, and he responded, opening up to a 2-1/2 length lead heading to three-quarters in 1:21. Turning for home, it turned into a race against time, with the champion drawing off to win by four lengths in 1:48.2.

"He's got plenty of speed; we weren't trying to go after any records tonight," Gingras said.

It was the second victory in a row for the champion pacer, who is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing, and Weaver Brussemi pushed career earnings to $1,342,768.

Live racing resumes tonight (Aug. 13) at 6 p.m. The track will cease live racing following tonight's program for a track regrade project that is expected to last two weeks. Racing is scheduled to resume on Saturday, Aug. 26.

Kentucky Futurity, Filly Futurity to offer guaranteed purse

After years of offering an estimated purse, Red Mile will guarantee purse monies for the 2023 renewal of its marquee event and its filly companion, the Kentucky Futurity and Filly Futurity.

The 2023 Kentucky Futurity will offer a guaranteed purse of $450,000 and the Kentucky Filly Futurity will offer a guaranteed purse of $275,000. Horsepeople are reminded that both futurities are in single-dash format; only one heat, the final, will go to post.

Each race allows no more than 11 horses to compete; if 12 or more drop into the box, the 11 horses with the most purse earnings in 2023 will receive entry preference. Red Mile will also host consolations for both events if at least six horses are available from the box. The Kentucky Futurity consolation will feature a purse of $50,000 and the Kentucky Filly Futurity consolation will feature a purse of $25,000.

A declaration fee will be due at time of entry for both events; a $7,500 fee for the Kentucky Futurity and a $3,500 fee for the Kentucky Filly Futurity. Horses not paid into the futurity events can also drop into the box for a supplemental fee; $75,000 for the Kentucky Futurity and $50,000 for the Kentucky Filly Futurity. No declaration fee will be due for horses competing in the consolation.

Red Mile will host the Kentucky Futurity and Kentucky Filly Futurity on the closing card of its fortnight Grand Circuit meet on Sunday (Oct. 8). The last jewel of trotting's triple crown wraps the day that will also feature the sport's top pacing sophomores in the $400,000 (est.) Tattersalls Pace and $225,000 (est.) Glen Garnsey Memorial, as well as the top aged standardbreds in divisions of the Allager Farms.

For further information regarding the entry box closing for Kentucky Futurity Day, horsepeople should monitor ustrotting.com for race day condition sheets or contact the Red Mile race office at (859) 258-7670 or (859) 258-7623.

Skyway Brittney pulls 20-1 shocker in the Tom D. Tetrick Memorial

Over the course of the Dan Patch Stakes undercard (Aug. 11), The Buckeye, David Miller, was feeling right at home in the Hoosier State, picking up three winners on the evening. The final of those victories came with Skyway Brittney, rallying up the rail at 21-1 to score the upset in the $40,000 Tom D. Tetrick Memorial for filly and mare invite pacers.

Leaving from post 2 in the field of 10, Miller put Skyway Brittney into play early, landing in third as Maggie Rhee and Joey Putnam cut the opening quarter in a hot :26.2. Miller was content to maintain his place third on the rail as The Pantheist A and Atlee Bender jumped to her outside, leading the charge first-up as Maggie Rhee continued to lead through a half of :54.2. The field began to bunch on the far turn as Maggie Rhee began to feel pressure on the front end at three-quarters in 1:23 with Skyway Brittney searching for daylight pinned on the rail in fifth.

The pacing mares turned for home setting the stage for a calvary charge to the finish. With the leader Maggie Rhee drifting off the pylons at the top of the stretch, Miller and Skyway Brittney were poised for a clear shot up the passing lane to victory. Powering home with a :27.0 final quarter, Skyway Brittney took command late in the lane to score the victory by a length in 1:50.3. Elektra A and Kyle Wilfong rallied for place, with The Pantheist A digging in gamely for the show spot.

Trained and co-owned by Zach Miller along with Dessa Miller, Skyway Brittney picked up her fourth victory of the season in her 13th seasonal outing. Bred by Lyle Dean Slabach, the daughter of Rockin Image—Blazing Blaire has now banked $275,685 for her career.

After winning the open pace at Running Aces last week, Crooked Smile returned to Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino and turned in a dominant effort to capture the $40,000 Gregg Haston Memorial Pace in 1:50.1. After being parked for much of the mile, Crooked Smile found a :27 closing kick to put a head in front of Rocks Shining Star and David Miller.

Putnam urged Crooked Smile off the gate but a host of others also left alertly. General Dolan was the first to get a call through the opening panel in :26.4. Unable to find a spot along the rail, Crooked Smile remained parked through the middle splits of :55.1 and 1:23. Turning for home, Rocks Shining Star was able to wear down General Dolan but his biggest threat was still behind him. Putnam tipped Crooked Smile off cover and he surged late to get up in the final strides of the mile.

"He raced huge tonight," Putnam said after the victory. "To win off of that trip is awesome. It's always nice to get a win on a big night like this and this horse deserved that win."

Sister Mary Maude seeks to extend her win streak in NYSS action at Monticello

When race secretary Eric Warner opened the overflowing box for 2-year-old filly trotters, there was no shortage of entries for Monday's (Aug. 14) races at Monticello, with a total of 36. When he put the card together, he had three divisions of New York Sire Stakes (NYSS), worth $34,200, and four Excelsior Series splits.

The action starts right away with a five-horse contest in race 1. Tyler Buter has a pair of place finishes in Saddlebreds (post 3) recent outings in the Kindergarten and a NYSS race at Tioga Downs. Seven Year Itch (Jordan Stratton) has been consistent all season, never missing a check. The daughter of Chapter Seven is the co-favorite. She's trained by Vernon Beachy and will score from post 5.

Race 5 showcases Sister Mary Maude, the queen of the division. The top point earner in her division, she's drawn the rail with Joe Bongiorno handling the driving chores for trainer Ron Burke. The offspring of Crazy Wow is seeking her fourth consecutive win after impressive sire stakes scores at Tioga Downs, Saratoga and Buffalo; she has earned almost $60,000 in her freshman campaign thus far. Moving up in class is Twilight Deo (Jeff Gregory). She made a break in her last outing but prior to that, she finished second in two Excelsior Stakes. Communion Money (post 2) is seeking her second sire stakes win on the year. She scored at Buffalo in 2:00.3 in late June. Jason Bartlett will drive.

In the final sire stakes dash, Seniorita Palema (post 5) has one sire stakes blanket in her trunk after a win at Saratoga three weeks back in 1:57. Since then, she has finished second in her last two starts for trainer Ake Svanstedt. She will be driven by Mark MacDonald. Karolina Solveig (Joe Bongiorno, post 4) sports a two-race win skein to her credit in Excelsior company. After two sire stakes wins earlier in the season, Crowbar Girl is looking to regain her winning ways from post 6 with Dave Miller in the sulky.

Also on the card are four divisions of the Excelsior Series, with each dash worth $20,000. The standout among them all is the undefeated Barn CJ (Jason Bartlett) hailing from post 4. She has recorded impressive wins at Yonkers in a seven-length romp, Tioga Downs, Saratoga and Buffalo Raceway. The daughter of Crazy Wow is trained by Steve Pratt and will be driven by Jason Bartlett. Marcus Melander has Dozen (post 1) with Brian Sears; the Chapter Seven filly was a winner in her last outing in this class at Yonkers in 1:59.1 for owners Diamond Creek Farm.

Steve Pratt has another nice filly: Barn Dreamer (post 6, race 4). In three starts, she has wins at Tioga and Saratoga Raceway in this class and has banked $25,000 thus far in the season.

The track record of 1:57.3 for 2-year-old fillies is held by Lima Novelty and was set in 2017.

Post time for the 10-race card is 12:10 p.m.

Ontario Racing Capital Improvement Program critical to Rideau rebuild

When Rideau Carleton Raceway's paddock burned down on Feb. 15, the Ottawa racing community had to act quickly to save racing in the national capital region.

The team at Rideau Carleton mobilized to renovate an old barn into a paddock, and racing began on April 2, after a minor two-week delay from the March 19 scheduled opening and avoiding a catastrophic cancelled season.

Funded by Ontario Racing's Capital Improvement Program, the renovation took a herculean effort from racetrack staff and local horsepeople to materialize.

Rideau Carleton backstretch manager Al Thibert recalls the cold February evening he was out for dinner with his wife when local horseperson Ted MacDonald called him to say the paddock was on fire.

"We kid around a lot, and I said yeah right, and he goes, 'no, seriously the paddock is on fire,'" said Thibert. "Maybe 10 minutes after that I got a text from [track surface manager] Jeff Taylor who sent me a picture and the [paddock] is on fire. Then I was like holy, I'm devastated."

With the season hanging in the balance, Thibert and Taylor consulted with local horsepeople, and came up with a plan to turn unused Barn D into a paddock. They approached Rideau Carleton general manager Peter Andrusek with the idea just a few days after the fire.

Impressed with the plan, Andrusek prepared a submission to Ontario Racing.

"We put a business plan together, and Ontario Racing was one hundred per cent on board," said Andrusek. "They were prepared to allow us to use the capital that's available and direct it to this essential project."

As part of the Funding Agreement with the Ontario Government, $6 million is distributed annually by Ontario Racing for capital projects at applicable member racetracks.

Each year, racetracks submit a detailed business plan describing uses for capital funds. Examples of previous capital funding projects at Rideau Carleton include state-of-the-art track lighting, HD broadcast upgrades, a new tote board, a first-class starting cart as well as modernizing the entire infield.

"All these investments through Ontario Racing have elevated Rideau so we could be competitive," said Andrusek.

While funding is distributed based on approved business plans, the program has been built with the ability to adjust timelines and spending where needed to respond to urgent scenarios. The potential of a season-ending fire impacting the livelihoods of eastern Ontario horsepeople clearly met the definition of urgent.

With funding secured, work began to transform an unused storage barn into a paddock for Rideau Carleton's meet.

"The only thing that was there was the roof," said Andrusek. "There was no power in it, no water, there was nothing in there. We had to put a stone foundation in and build the stalls. It was just a barn that hadn't been used in over 30 years."

Step one was to clear the three decades of accumulation from the barn.

Rideau Carleton put out a request for assistance from horsepeople through the National Capital Harness Horse Association and the response was overwhelming. Nearly 100 volunteers attended the site and took part in the two-day cleanup.

"The turnout was phenomenal and that gave us encouragement to keep going with it," said Thibert.

The hours were long, and the work was hard, but eventually the paddock began to take shape with Thibert, and Matt Donald leading the charge.

"We're racing today, and we raced pretty well on time because of Al," said Andrusek. "That guy was relentless. In less than five weeks they had the paddock to a level that the AGCO was prepared to approve. The AGCO was incredible to work with as well."

Trainer Robbie Robinson was one of the horsepeople who participated in the cleanup, and continued to volunteer his time helping Thibert once construction was underway.

"It was pretty amazing how quick that everything got done, and the turnaround," said Robinson. "A lot of credit to getting the paddock done on time to Al and Matt. They did a fantastic job."

Thibert was willing to work the long hours because he knew how important racing is to the local community.

"A lot of the horsepeople are my friends, and it affects everyone at the racetrack who has a job," said Thibert. "Everyone from security to paddock judges, there were a lot of people involved and if we aren't racing, there are a lot of people who lose their jobs."

All of the people Thibert, Andrusek, Donald, Robinson and others had in mind during the long hours saving the 2023 racing season came together on April 2 and the camaraderie and pride felt from the opening after just a two-week delay has continued throughout the Rideau Carleton meet.

"People are helping each other, and getting along well," said Robinson. "A lot of people have enjoyed this meet so far, and because of how we are situated, it's more of an old school, grassroots kind of thing,"

Wild Dream Men stays undefeated at H3R

Despite being hung on the outside for half a mile, Wild Dream Men (Kadabra) and trainer/driver Guy Gagnon stayed the course and kept their unbeaten streak alive in winning at the Hippodrome 3R Friday (Aug. 11) afternoon.

Competing in the eighth race $10,000 second round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and gelding, Wild Dream Men did not have things go his way from the start.

It was Vol De Banque and driver/trainer Claude Beausoleil who was first on the lead with race favorite Wild Dream Men sitting in second place. But Gagnon wanted the lead and tried to get it, but was denied by Vol De Banque and Beausoleil, who forced Wild Dream Men back into the 2-hole spot past the first quarter in :30.2.

As they came to the half mile, Vol De Banque was in control in 1:02.4, but Gagnon still had his sights set on Wild Dream Men leading the field and they came back again on the backstretch.

It was a battle for control of the lead and by the three-quarters in 1:32.4, Wild Dream Men finally cleared by Vol De Banque. On the final turn also entering the picture was Drinklikehenry (William Roy) as they were three-wide and gaining ground.

Down the stretch to the wire, Gagnon had Wild Dream Men in full stride and they went on to win by two and one-quarter lengths in 2:03.2. Drinklikehenry was second with Vol De Banque third.

Now undefeated in his first two starts, Wild Dream Men's 2:03.2 triumph was a new lifetime mark. The gelding is owned by Catheline Pelletier and Chantal Gravel and paid $2.80 to win.

Also remaining undefeated in the Future Stars Series is Kenogami Queen (Wheeling N Dealin), who actually made a break at the start of her $10,000 division for the trotting fillies, and was able to rebound to win it all.

The fifth race got underway with Sensi Amnesia (Marie-Claude Auger) taking the early lead with JD Beauty (Robert Shepherd) and then Kenogami Queen in fourth after recovering from her early break at the start.

Then just at the first quarter in :31.2, Sensi Amnesia went off-stride on the lead and that allowed JD Beauty to take the lead and then HP Agathe (Pascal Berube) came on the outside to take command and lead the field to the half mile in 1:03.3.

When the field reached the backstretch, Brosseau made his move with Kenogami Queen but they could not pass by HP Agathe until past the three-quarters in 1:34.4.

From there Kenogami Queen was home free, winning by one length in 2:05.2. JD Beauty was second with Sensi Amnesia finishing third.

It was the second straight win for Kenogami Queen. She is trained by Jean-Francois Maguire, who bred the filly with Marie Claude Reid and they co-own her with Claude Auger. She paid $2.70 to win.

Conquest Seelster (All Bets Off), the lone 3-year-old racing against older horses, tore away from the field on the backstretch for trainer/driver Guy Gagnon in the third race pace and won in a blazing 1:54 romp by 14 and three-quarter lengths. He paid just $2.60 as the race favorite, winning for the third time this season. His time of 1:54 tied his lifetime mark that was taken at Rideau Carleton.

Track Notes: Stephane Brosseau led all drivers Friday with a triple while both Guy Gagnon and Pascal Berube had driving doubles. Both Gagnon and Jean-Francois Reid had training doubles. Live racing resumes at H2R today (Aug. 13) featuring the second round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old pacing colts and fillies. There will be one $10,000 division for the colts and two $7,500 divisions for the fillies. First race post time Sunday is noon.
