Churchill Downs wins another legal battle in Michigan

Michigan's Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled TwinSpires can continue to take bets in the state despite an order by the Michigan Gaming Control Board to shut it down.

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

with BOB DUFF

Thanks to Churchill Downs — or perhaps more precisely, the Churchill Downs legal team — Michiganders can continue to bet on horse racing.

The venerable icon of the sport of kings, Churchill Downs, may be old in stature, but it's still got plenty of game. The Kentucky-based company has won yet another legal battle with the Michigan Gaming Control Board (MGCB) to keep its TwinSpires' advance-deposit wagering (ADW) services operating in the Great Lakes State.

Michigan's Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals upheld a lowercourt ruling that allowed the TwinSpires betting platform to continue operating in the state.

MGCB SOUGHT TO SHUT DOWN ADW ACROSS THE STATE

In December of 2024, the MGCB issued a cease-and-desist order to ADW sites operating in Michigan. The order stated that all ADW wagering in Michigan would be considered illegal as of January 1, 2025.

The MGCB, which licenses mobile horse racing betting apps across the state, indicated that Michigan law only permitted ADW sites to operate in the state in partnership with a racetrack that was offering live racing. Northville Downs, the last racetrack in the state, was no longer offering any live racing. The track halted live racing in February 2024.

Churchill Downs had been partnered with Northville Downs. Its Twin Spires operation received a cease-and-desist letter, as did other ADW sites such as DRW Bets, Xpressbet, TVG Network, and NYRA Bets. Each of the other ADW sites followed the letter's demand and opted to cease operating in the state.

However, Churchill Downs chose to defy the order, continuing to offer its Twin Spires services to Michigan bettors. The company filed suit in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan, seeking permission to continue to offer its services to horse bettors in the state.

On February 19, U.S. District Judge Hala Y. Jarbou granted a preliminary injunction in favor of TwinSpires. This ruling enabled the site to continue operating in the Michigan market.

DOES FEDERAL LAW TRUMP STATE LAW?

The legal issue in debate here involves a question of which law takes precedence. The MGCB cites the state's 1995 Horse Racing Law. This law requires that ADW and simulcast operators all need to be partnered with a licensed racetrack in the state in order to be able to offer online wagering on horse racing.

Live harness racing was discontinued in the state when Northville Downs shuttered in early 2024. Michigan has been without live thoroughbred racing since 2018.

Churchill Downs countered by citing that Twin Spires and other ADW sites are covered by the federal Interstate Horseracing Act (IHA) of 1978. The company's lawyers argued in its lawsuit that any in-state partner mandates are in violation of this law.

The lawsuit goes on to note that the US Congress enacted the IHA to "regulate interstate commerce with respect to wagering on horse racing, in order to further the horse racing and legal off-track betting industries in the United States." It further went on to point out that the purpose of the Act is to ensure that states would continue to "cooperate with one another in the acceptance of legal interstate wagers."

Churchill Downs lawyers also argue that the Michigan law is discriminatory against out-of-state operators and thus is in violation of the Interstate Commerce Clause of the US Constitution.

"It is no different than if Michigan required any online retailer to partner with an in-state brick-and-mortar store before it could accept orders from individuals in Michigan," the suit argues. "States cannot condition access to 'local demand' for interstate commerce on economic support for local businesses."

IS A SOLUTION ON THE HORIZON?

It appears that live harness racing is going to once again become part of the Michigan horse-racing landscape.

After a failed bid to relocate to the Fowlerville Fairgrounds, Northville Downs now lists the Barry Expo Center in Hastings, MI, as its location. It was allotted 30 dates in 2025 for live standardbred racing at the Barry County Fair, along with a simulcasting permit. However, in March 2025, Northville Downs submitted a request to cancel 18 live race dates that were granted for April 29, 2025, through June 25, 2025.

The reason cited for the cancellation by Northville Downs was the reduction in revenue due to the loss of ADW. Northville officials indicated the ADW shutdown has caused a 75 per cent decline in revenue. The cancellation request was supported by the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association (MHHA) and approved by the executive director on March 24, 2025.

In May, Northville Downs requested to add eight race dates to its 2025 calendar. This request was approved. Northville Downs is scheduled to contest 20 days of live standardbred racing this year. Live racing began Aug. 12 and will continue through Oct. 15.

Will this be enough to permit ADW sites to be offered again in the state? That matter hasn't been clarified by the MGCB.

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

BDHC players speak up after “Damola” column

by John Berry

After the last HRU Mane Attraction, other BDHC (Broken Down Horse Club) members began to chime in with their comments to be given the same opportunity as the well-educated “Smitty” to express their views on our sport.

To bring you all up to snuff, Red Lobster’s leader, Damola Adamolekun, read and absorbed the complaints from customers to revive that restaurant chain and rally it from the clutches of bankruptcy.

Gary A. is a frequent visitor to the simulcasting venue at The Pomp in Florida and vehemently is opposed to the “agonizing” drag, prevalent in the world of pari-mutuel racing today.

You wanted to complain about the “drag,” which is kind of standard procedure in today’s world of racing.

Gary A.: “Yes, I consider it unnecessary and so does just about every other player, as well. There is no need for it. I could see it in the ‘live’ days of racing before simulcasting, but now that anyone can bet anytime, anyplace, anywhere, it’s not necessary. Players like action and it’s very frustrating to drag and drag and drag. We want our action and the delays frustrate a lot of us. I know they tried to eliminate it at The Meadowlands, but that didn’t last long and they went back to the drag. We don’t like it. And when some races last until 11:30 or 12 at night in some places, our breed, meaning the older generation, doesn’t like to stay up that late.”

So, do you think it’s a wash between squeezing an extra buck or two from the “punter” and losing that wager to those leaving early?

Gary A.: “No, I think they lose handle and the bettors here have a particular track or two that they are married to and don’t like waiting an extra seven or 10 minutes every single race. It gets really old. You know that this is going nowhere with them and things will remain the same and that's too bad. We're a dying breed."

There are a couple of meanings to that statement.

Gary A.: "I never thought of it that way, but yes, we are. Look at the guys here; what's left of us from a few years ago."

And the fields seem to be shorter and, when that happens, the bettor loses value.

Gary A.: "There you go! You proved my point. We only have so much to bet and, when it's gone, it's gone. We all just pray for a hit or two so we can keep at it. I'll tell ya' what I've been doing — playing the thoroughbreds at Saratoga. I don't know much about that aspect of things, but the pools are great."

There are some great tracks featuring harness racing: The Meadowlands, Hoosier, Northfield.

Adolph A. butts in: "The Meadowlands is the KING! Good pools all the way around. A $50 win bet or, even, exacta bet won't budge the odds all that much. Some of these tracks have win pools so weak that it doesn't pay to put $20 or $25 to win because you bet against yourself. Some of these tracks have pools so weak that the purses are much bigger than the pools. When I started in this game, the win pools were 70-80 per cent of the race pool. The game started going downhill when all these exotic bets came in. They steal the money from the other pools and now the win pools are only 15-20 per cent of the handle. Sure, the payoffs are bigger in these newer pools but you've got to remember that, in those pools, let's say that there's a super[fecta] pool of $10 grand and there's two winners, with a 30 per cent rake [takeout], each gets, say $3,500. All that churn is lost. I know I'd be out of business in a hurry if I played that stuff. Go up and down the list of tracks, Tioga, Vernon, you name 'em, pools don't support racing."

We know that, Adolph, and we know racing is supported by casinos and legislation and that's the reality of it all.

Adolph A.: "That's the problem! Everybody is using them as a crutch. They can't stand alone on their own two feet. You don't think the casinos are going to try and get out of a losing proposition? You don't think the politicians are going to try and take from Peter to pay Paul with one of their own pet projects? Can't be naive about this s --- !"

“ I have benefitted from [the world changing over the years], but ours used to be a spectator sport and, when our dough is on the line, that’s all we care about and I – make that all of us players – want to know that we’ll get a bang for our buck. I’ve been a punter for 50 years and I cannot tell one thing that this sport has done to keep us happy and gain new players.”

~ Milt

Everyone seemed so optimistic when the casinos broke through.

Adolph A.: “Let me tell you, this problem started long before casinos. The leaders [of our sport] missed the boat starting 40-50 years ago, harness racing was huge in the three biggest cities – New York, Chicago and L.A. – Roosevelt, Sportsman’s and Hollywood Park. When you have the ‘big three’ closing the doors, there’s a problem for the rest of us. The big boys didn’t see it, didn’t do anything about it, didn’t care about it.”

Do you think land value had anything to do with that? They don’t manufacture land anymore.

Adolph A.: “Without question. When one thing becomes more valuable than the other, it’s bound to happen. Every other sport has brought their sport to the modern era. We have, too, to some extent, but we’ve taken away much of the incentive. When us old guys can bet any track from here or from home, you lose live attendance and harness racing’s geniuses have accomplished that. Nobody goes to a track anymore!”

Anybody else care to chime in?

Eslie Joe: “Yes, but it’ll do no good. Nobody listens.”

The guy from Red Lobster did and they are thriving. We’d like to hear your thoughts.

Eslie Joe: “Too many races, too many separate pools, too much time between races, too much of a drug problem, guys leaning back looking like they are holding back, guys getting claimers to the half in :55 – “5” or “8” claimers – it’s a rodeo out there.”

The sport has changed. It’s become a speed sport now; the breed has changed.

Eslie Joe: “Yes. And the gamblers don’t seem to like it that way and they have left the scene. Actually, now that I think of it, that’s the problem with harness racing; they cater to their own and not the bettors that have kept the sport alive. They could care less about us because their purses are set in stone.”

Anyone else? I am getting ready to close up shop.

Milt G: “Sure, I’ll chime in. I am a long-time fan and have been to some of our bigger races, The Hambletonian, among them. I loved the old format of the Hambo when the horses were known for their durability. I loved the heat racing and marveled at the breed. I’ve read stories, by you in fact, where horses raced into their 20s and there were records for long distances [Conquerer breaking the record for 100 miles in 1853 and Abax racing at age 26 in the early 1950s]. To tell you the truth, in these elimination races, you don’t know who is ‘going’ and who is just looking to get into the top three or four. Tough to bet in situations like that. Maybe they should put a sign on the side [saddle] pad letting us know if they’re going or not. [said with a laugh].”

Yes, things have changed in our world during our lifetime, from medicine, technology, sports, and climate.

Milt: “Yes, and I have benefitted from that, but ours used to be a spectator sport and, when our dough is on the line, that’s all we care about and I – make that all of us players – want to know that we’ll get a bang for our buck. I’ve been a punter for 50 years and I cannot tell one thing that this sport has done to keep us happy and gain new players.”

We have new exotic wagering.

Milt: “You just proved my point. It’s been a little good and a lot bad. The pools have been spread so thin that it has taken away value from the ones we grew up with like the daily double and win. Take the ‘1-2-3-4’ track, Yonkers, maybe add a five sometimes but rarely 6, 7, or 8. Look at those pools and you’ll see what I mean.”

HRU then looked for the highest single race combined wagering pool recently at YR one night – $35,000 and change – featuring betting on win, place, show, exacta, trifecta and superfecta. There was nary one single pool of $10,000 with exacta and trifecta splitting hairs with about $8,500 each with the win pool next at $7,042. The place pool was $2,615 and the show pool $1,659.

Milt: “Any substantial bet – even $20 or $50 – and you’re hurting yourself.”

What’s the solution?

Milt: “First, scrap place and show betting, not worth the trouble. Exacta and Trifecta are good bets, but anything longer than that and you lose too much churn back though the windows. Oh, maybe a super[fecta] at the last race but these Pick-4s and ‘5s’ and ‘6s’ drain the wallets pretty fast, especially when you have only a couple of winners out of many hundreds. Of course, all this is going nowhere because nobody is strong enough to take a stand.”

Guaranteed pools help.

Milt: “Yes they do. That’s one good thing.”

Other BDHC members now want to join the conversation with one “punter,” known as Za-za, saying he has a “dynamite idea” and we will tackle that in an upcoming Mane Attraction. Until then...

Brittany Clarke: harness racing “gets in your blood”

by Chris Lomon

Brittany Clarke can't recall the exact moment it happened – the moment she knew she was there to stay.

She had been around racehorses her entire life, thanks to her family's deep-rooted connection to the standardbred world.

“I was born into the industry,” said Clarke. “My dad is in the business, my mom, my uncle, my grandfather – so I was born and raised in it.”

But early on, she didn't see it as her future.

“It wasn't something I wanted to do early on, so I went to college.”

A life-altering incident would change Clarke's career arc.

"About 15 years ago, I got into a bad car accident. I wasn't allowed to work. I had to have physical therapy on my arm. I was going onto the on-ramp and the person behind me didn't realize it was a stop, rather than a yield, so I got rearended."

How long her physiotherapy would take was a question mark in the early aftermath of the accident.

One thing Clarke did not want to do was remain inactive, both mentally and physically.

That's when she had an idea.

"I started coming to my dad's barn," said Clarke. "Being around the horses kept me busy, so I wasn't just sitting around at home. I was around the horses as a kid. I played with them, brushed them and groomed them, but it wasn't something I wanted to do. I wanted to go to school and do other things. But then it gets in your blood. Once you step in, you're not stepping back out."

A bay son of Four Starzzz Shark helped make that decision permanent.

Bred by White Birch Farm in Allentown, NJ, the gelding was trained and co-owned by her father.

There was a horse – his name was Treasure Hunter – that I was taking care of for my dad. I don't know... we just clicked. I knew

And she has zero regrets.

“It is very hard for any couple to be around each other all day like that – working together and living together. I watched my parents do it.

“ I love putting away horses, looking over them, and making sure they are sound and happy. My boyfriend, who is a driver, tells me I have a good eye, that I can see if a horse has a certain need. My mom was that way. She was like a horse whisperer. She could walk in the barn and see things in a particular way, and I think that is the way I am now. I like being around them and taking care of them as if they are kids. ”

~ Brittany Clarke

The primary goal, for now, is to bring along their two pacers and see them succeed.

If that comes to fruition, Clarke will then look to expand the size and scope of her operation.

“This year alone, we’d like to see our stakes colt develop. I am hoping for a nice stakes colt who can get us ahead, so that we can buy a few more horses. We have had some horses for owners, but we would like to own a few more of our own.”

Words that Clarke never imagined she’d say years ago.

These days, reminders that she’s found the right path are everywhere.

“I love putting away horses, looking over them, and making sure they are sound and happy. My boyfriend, who is a driver, tells me I have a good eye, that I can see if a horse has a certain need. My mom was that way. She was like a horse whisperer. She could walk in the barn and see things in a particular way, and I think that is the way I am now. I like being around them and taking care of them as if they are kids.

“When I pull up in my car in the mornings, they know it’s me and I can hear them nickering. Those are the sounds you love to hear every day.”

Away from the sights and sounds of the stables, Clarke enjoys channeling her TV viewing to a certain channel, and spending time with family.

Canadian harness racing is also on her yearly to-do list.

“I did go to college for criminal justice and psychology, so I watch Court TV like crazy,” she said. “I love being with my family. I also like being outside and travelling. My mom is in Prince Edward Island. I go home every year, near her birthday, which is right around Gold Cup and Saucer week. My dad is from Nova Scotia, and I was born in Edmonton.”

Clarke has also found family-type ties in the industry she is proud to be part of.

“It is such a personally rewarding business to be in. The people are wonderful – it is like a big community.”

She discovered that in the aftermath of driver Hunter Myers’ passing in March.

“When I created the bracelets for the fundraiser for Hunter, I was getting messages from countries who I didn’t think knew about harness racing. I was sending bracelets overseas. It was amazing – people from all over the world reaching out to show they cared. That’s what this industry is all about.”

An industry she walked back into – and has no intention of ever walking away from.

Louprint 'vicious' in qualifying return

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Dan Patch Award-winning male pacer Louprint, who was unbeaten in five races this year before being sidelined in early July, returned to the racetrack Tuesday (Aug. 12) with a 1:52.2 qualifier win by 10¾ lengths at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Regular driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. was in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke.

"He was vicious," Burke said after the qualifier, which Louprint capped with a :26.2 last quarter as part of a :54.3 back half. "I couldn't have been happier."

"I could tell the middle of last week that he was himself again. His weight is back to where it was, his energy level is back. He's back. If he wasn't, he would never have qualified. I wasn't going to force him to do anything he isn't ready to do.

"He was really good."

Burke plans to give Louprint one more tune-up ahead of the final leg of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) for 3-year-old male pacers on Aug. 30 at The Meadows. The PASS championship also is at The Meadows, on Sept. 6.

The next Grand Circuit event on Louprint's schedule is the Grade 1 Little Brown Jug, which will be held Sept. 18 at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in central Ohio.

"Right now, we're leaning toward officially working him out next Tuesday during the card at The Meadows," Burke said. "Then it will be sire stakes, sire stakes, and then the Jug. With how his year shook out, the biggest thing is to have him ready for the Jug. I think he's ready today. He (qualified) so easily."

Louprint has hit the board in all 15 career races, winning 12 and earning $1.18 million. He was the Dan Patch Award winner for best 2-year-old male pacer in 2024.

His victories this year include the Grade 1 Pepsi North America Cup, which was his most recent start on June 14, before seeing his campaign halted because of surgery to remove a testicle on July 7. His top triumph last season came in the Grade 1 Breeders Crown.

A son of Sweet Lou—Rockin Racer, Louprint is owned by breeders Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscelli LLC, and Phil Collura, as well as Larry Karr.

Setyoursightshigh makes it four in a row, Leading Lady rebounds at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

Leaving from the rail, Setyoursightshigh was in third for nearly three-quarters of the mile as Godusa assumed control from post position six, in a field reduced to six after two scratches. Godusa set splits of :30, :59 and 1:27 with Setyoursightshigh only a nose in arrears at that juncture.

Carve and Godusa both posted valiant efforts with :26.3 and :26.4 final fractions, yet Setyoursightshigh kicked home in :26.2 to annex another triumph.

Bred by Kentuckiana Farms, Setyoursightshigh is trained by Marcus Melander. She is owned by Heights Stable, Mantorp LLC, AMG Stable Inc., and K Kjellgren Livs AB Inc and was a $50,000 purchase at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. She paid $3.54 to win and has banked $215,000.

Yannick Gingras steered Leading Lady to a new lifetime mark of 1:53.1 for trainer Nancy Takter in the first division of this event as the public's fifth selection in the field of six after the scratch of Ygritte for illness.

The daughter of Walner—Muscle Dolly sat comfortably in third position after leaving from post position three. Favorite Victorianas Secret (Scott Zeron) led the field through fractions of :29.2, :58 and 1:26.3 with Days Away (Jason Bartlett) tracking in second.

As the fillies turned for home, Gingras supplied his charge with her instructions, and she marched down the stretch with a :26 final quarter mile. Days Away maintained her position for second while Victorianas Secret picked up the show spot.

Bred by Marvin and Lynn Katz and Al Libfeld, Leading Lady atoned for a sixth-place finish in the $225,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Final at The Meadowlands on Aug. 2.

The filly is now 3 2-0-0 and has banked $52,000 for owners Black Horse Racing, Marvin Katz and Herb Livermore.

She was a $110,000 selection at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Leading Lady provided her supporters with $14.62 at the windows.

Opulence was a $300,000 purchase at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and paid $14.74 to win.

Zeron and favored Lainey W held off Zaheera (A. McCarthy) by a nose in 1:54 in the second division. Rani Hanover (Jason Bartlett) completed the top three.

Trained by Marcus Melander, Lainey W is owned by Brittany Farms and Marvin and Lynn Katz. The daughter of Bar Hopping—The Black Beauty was selected for $125,000 from the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

BAHAMA MOMMA SLIDES INTO THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

On Sunday (Aug. 10) Bahama Momma glided to her third triumph in four starts in the $80,000 second round leg of the Kentucky Championship Series at The Red Mile. The 16-race card included two $30,000 second round legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series, three $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod Series second legs and three $10,000 second round legs of the Kentucky Wildcat Series. All events were for freshman filly pacers.

BAHAMA MOMMA REBOUNDS

After finishing second to 65-1 shot Beautiful Memory (Marvin Luna) in their initial meeting on July 29, Bahama Momma (Scott Zeron) demonstrated her ability for trainer Joe Bongiorno in 1:51.3.

The daughter of Tall Dark Stranger—Idyllic Beach wasted no time in wresting command from 91-1 shot Caviart Amore Mio Todd McCarthy after a first quarter in :27.4. The filly, the public's second selection, commenced her mile from post 5 five in the field of 10.

She hit the half-mile marker in :56.3, the three-quarter pole in 1:24.1 and the wire in the aforementioned time.

Favored Caviart Daisy (Andrew McCarthy) gave solid chase to the winner but could not get by in the drive to the finish line. She did leave Seaside Shuffle (Dunn) in her wake after that rival was poised in second heading around the last bend.

Bred by Christina Takter, Marvin Katz and Brixton Medical Inc. The filly was a private purchase by Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing.

Bahama Momma is a full sister to Del Ray Beach ($131,241) and is the fifth foal out her dam, who was the 2-year-old Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner in 2016.

The filly paid $7.34 to her supporters.

BETTOR BE A STAR, HOPE HILL WIN COMMONWEALTH DIVISIONS

Patrick Ryder and Bettor Be A Star overhauled favored Call Me Angelita (Tim Tetrick) in the stretch to take the first division of this series in a lifetime best 1:51.1 for trainer Chris Ryder. Nash (Todd McCarthy) came home third at odds of 53-1.

A daughter of Bettor's Wish—It Can Happen, Bettor Be A Star is now 3 2-1-0. The sole blemish on her record is a second in the first leg of this series after 18-1 Topville Lucky tossed down a :25.3 final quarter panel.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Ready Russell remains perfect in Ohio Sires Stakes company after victory at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Following an uncharacteristic break in the $56,000 Ohio State Fair at Scioto Downs, Ready Russell (Dan Noble) rebounded and decisively won his $50,000 division of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters on Sunday (Aug. 10) at MGM Northfield Park in the evening's fastest of the 3 divisions.

Sent off as the heavy 1-9 favorite, Ready Russell (Ready For Moni—Fortheloveoflindy) took up pocket position behind Max The Mighty (Aaron Merriman) who hustled off the gate entering the first turn.

After making the front, Max The Mighty jumped off-stride allowing Ready Russell to easily inherit the lead as the field entered the backstretch.

Ready Russell trotted to the quarter in :29.2, and to the half in :59.3. He only started to feel pressure entering the backstretch for the final time when Where Theres Smoke (Justin Irvine) made a gallant effort.

At the three-quarters in 1:27.4, Noble stepped on the gas and Ready Russell responded by taking off like a rocket.

Ready Russell won confidently by 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:56.2. Grape Crush (Chris Lems) was second and Where Theres Smoke was third. Ready Russell is owned by Jeff Fought Racing of East Bernstadt, KY, Brian Carsey, of Cambridge City, IN and David Fought, of Nicholasville, KY. The gelding is trained by Deborah Swartz and now has earnings of \$108,800. He has four victories in his first five lifetime starts and three of his victories are in Ohio Sires Stakes action.

In the evening's first $50,000 division, Special Moni (Ready For Moni—Special Invitation) blew by rivals late in the stretch to win convincingly.

Soulful Saul (Carson Conrad) and Pump Action (Justin Irvine) were both sent to the lead off the gate entering the first turn. Pump Action wanted the lead and made an aggressive move to gain his desired position before the :28.3 first quarter.

Entering the far turn, Ur Ride Is Here (Chris Lems), who had been sitting third at the quarter, sprinted to the front. He continued to lead the way through the half in :57.4, while Soulful Saul (Carson Conrad) applied pressure first-over.

The pair duelled into the backstretch until finally Soulful Saul cleared before the three-quarters in 1:26.2.

Turning for home, Eleven Bang Bang (Trevor Smith) tipped outside of Soulful Saul but didn't go by the leader. Special Moni had enough left in the tank to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:56.4. Soulful Saul held on for second and Eleven Bang Bang was third.

Owned by Christopher Beaver, of Radnor, OH, Spaaaartners, of Ballston Spa, NY, and Tim Homan, of Maineville, OH, the Beaver trainee pushed his career earnings to $75,000 with his second lifetime win.

In the second division, Bitcoin King (Uncle Peter—Massive Girl) made a big mid-race move to win his $50,000 split.

There were several good beginnings to the mile with Cash Money Hall (Kayne Kauffman), Water Slide (Aaron Merriman), and Super Mind (Anthony MacDonald) all battling for position. After sorting themselves out, Super Mind made his way to the lead before the :29.3 first quarter.

After a leisurely 1:00.1 first half, MacDonald and Super Mind may have thought they would have things their own way, but they would have guessed wrong, because at the three-quarters in 1:29, he suddenly had a contingent of pursuers challenging him for the lead.

Turning for home, Super Mind began to give way and Bitcoin King (Tyler Smith) stormed down the center of the racetrack to win by 3¾ lengths in 1:58.2.

ODDS ON HIALEAH IMPRESSIVE

Trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. completed the exacta in the lone $100,000 Ohio Sires Stakes fourth leg for 3-year-old filly pacers on Sunday (Aug. 10) at MGM Northfield Park. His trainees finished 1-2 as Odds On Hialeah (Lather Up—Laughandbehappy) scored the victory and Odds On Chesapeake dug in for the runner-up position.

The race was completely turned on its head in the first sixteenth of a mile as Skywalker Sea (Austin Hanners) and Seaside Wishes (Kayne Kauffman) both made breaks while entering the first turn.

Further complicating things, favorites Rose Run Aimee (Dan Noble), and Odds On Hialeah (Brett Miller) were both rough-gaited into the first turn as well.

The early miscues enabled longshot My Hare Legend (Aaron Merriman) to gain control entering the backstretch. Rose Run Aimee, collected herself and made her way to the front during a :27 first quarter.

Pacing by the half in a dazzling :54.4, Rose Run Aimee looked comfortable on the lead, but pressure was coming in the form of Odds On Chesapeake (Luke Hanners) who began to roll first-over.

Racing into the backstretch for the final time, Odds On Hialeah was flushed out by stablemate Odds On Chesapeake. The two tough fillies continued to battle through the final quarter of a mile, after flying by the three-quarters in a demanding 1:23.

Turning for home, Odds On Hialeah had plenty left in the tank and drew off to win by 2¾ lengths in 1:52.1. Odds On Chesapeake dug in gamely to be second and The Word Is Out (Chris Page) rallied to be third.

Odds On Hialeah is owned by Let It Ride Stables, of Boca Raton FL, Odds On Racing, of Boca Raton, FL, and Operation Horsepower, of Edmonton, KY. With the winner's share of Sunday's purse, the 3-year-old has now pushed her career earnings to $491,500.

The Mark Winters trainee won on Saturday (Aug. 9) as MGM Northfield Park played host to two $65,000 divisions of freshman filly pacers and three $50,000 divisions of freshman colt pacers in the third leg of the OHSS.

With Luke Hanners in the sulky, She'safirewoman left from post three in the second division of filly pacers and got away in fourth but quickly moved up through the field along the outside. The Catch The Fire filly was in second place, one length back of leader Rodeo Dancer (Brett Miller), at the :28.1 quarter but led the rest of the way with fractions of :57.3 and 1:26.3 en route to winning by a length in 1:54.2 for her third OHSS victory of the year. Rodeo Dancer was second followed by Vanna By The River (Austin Hanners) in third. She'safirewoman has hit the board in all six starts this season with five wins and one second and has $111,689 in earnings. She is owned by Harry Horowitz.

In the first division, Shacarri (Chris Page) picked up her first OHSS victory of the season, going wire to wire to win in 1:55. Zoom Call (Dan Noble) was more than two lengths back in second followed by Gochujang (A. Hanners) in third. Trained by Ron Burke, Shacarri has three wins and one second in five seasonal starts with earnings of $109,075. The Summa Cum Laude filly was coming off a win in the Ohio State Fair Stakes at Eldorado Scioto Downs. She is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Phillip Collura, and Zippett Racing Stable.

The driver and trainer pairing of Page and Burke also teamed to win the third division of freshman colt pacers with When Is Parade taking the victory by half a length in a lifetime-best 1:53.2. The Summa Cum Laude colt settled in the pocket behind leader Thunder Jam (Mike Wilder) through the first three calls with fractions of :27.3, :56.4, and 1:25.1. Down the final stretch, When Is Parade moved into the passing lane and powered past Thunder Jam for the victory. Odds On Sugar (Dexter Dunn) was third. When Is Parade has two wins and two third-place finishes in four seasonal starts with earnings of $42,080. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Michelle Yanek, and Philip Collura.

Crocodile Station (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) won the first division, also in 1:53.2. The Michael Hitchcock trainee led wire to wire with fractions of :28.1, :57.3, and 1:26.3 en route to winning by more than a length over Sparks N Fire (A. Hanners). Maserati Marv (Miller) was third. Crocodile Station now has two career wins, adding this one to his victory in the Ohio State Fair Stakes. The Downbytheseaside gelding has $69,600 in earnings and is owned by William Hartt.

Pet Project (Trevor Smith) took the win in the second division in 1:53.3. In his first OHSS victory of the season, the Pet Rock gelding came out on top of a seven-horse field that included a pair of first-leg winners in I'llbetyourboots (Page)

$2.3M Sun Stakes Saturday summons stars to Pocono

The lure of $2,300,000 in purses, plus in many cases divisional bragging rights, have attracted a sizable portion of harness racing's stars to Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania this Saturday afternoon (Aug. 16) for its biggest card of the year, Sun Stakes Saturday. The 14-race program, starting at 2:30 p.m., is bringing to the mountain oval many of the best horses in North American harness racing, both this year and in recent campaigns.

The major format of the day is as follows: each of the four divisions of 3-year-olds, separated by sex and gait, are seeded by their money earnings in 2025, with a maximum of eight horses per field. The two stakes for males, the Earl Beal Memorial Trot and the Max C. Hempt Memorial Pace, will race for $300,000, $200,000, and $100,000 in three races for each respective group as sorted by seasonal money-winnings. The James Lynch Memorial Pace and Delmonica Hanover Trot, the companion events for fillies, have $250,000, $125,000, and $75,000 sections, also separated by 2025's earnings.

There will also be $100,000 invitationals for the top older horses on both gaits: the Always B Miki Pace and the Sebastian K S Trot, named after the co-fastest pacer and fastest trotter ever at Pocono.

Here is a brief look at the top horses in the major contests on the Sun Stakes Saturday card, per event – normally, “the boys,” with their bigger purses, would be mentioned first, but there is one filly showdown that has been awaited for months, and so it will be at the top for us:

JAMES LYNCH MEMORIAL PACE ($250,000 division, race 10; $125,000 division, race 6, $75,000 division, race 2):

Everybody's been looking forward to the matchup between Miki And Minnie, #1 in the recent Top 10 poll and Dan Patch Award winner last year, and Chantilly, Harness Horse of the Year in Canada after an undefeated freshman campaign, and they are finally going to see this confrontation Saturday.

Miki And Minnie (post 2, driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Chris Ryder) has won seven times in eight seasonal starts (the only horse to beat her, Rodeo Drive Deo, right here at Pocono by a head, starts just inside her), and has won her last four starts, all stakes, by over 10 lengths combined. She's versatile and determined, and she has a familiarity with the five-eighths-milers.

Chantilly (post 6, driver James MacDonald, trainer Nick Gallucci) ventures away from her home track of Woodbine Mohawk Park for the first time in her career. She has had brilliant success at the Toronto-area oval, winning all nine of her freshman races and the first five races of her sophomore campaign; it will be interesting to see how she bounces back from her first loss, a race against older foes last Friday, in which she had terrible traffic trouble.

DELMONICA HANOVER TROT ($250,000 division, race 11; $125,000 division, race 7, $75,000 division, race 1):

There's another big filly showdown in the Delmonica Hanover, between two misses in the Top 10: Conversano and Yo Tillie. Conversano (post 3, driver James MacDonald, trainer Juan Cano) comes off a victory in the prestigious Hambletonian Oaks, and the methodical miss has come in first in seven of nine seasonal starts.

Yo Tillie (post 7, driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Andrew Harris) was not eligible for the Hambletonian Oaks, but she has been wreaking stakes havoc when she has raced, going undefeated in five starts (she and Conversano have not met this year). Yo Tillie has been showing blistering speed on mile ovals; her adjustment to an outside post on a smaller oval will be a key here.

MAX C. HEMPT MEMORIAL PACE ($300,000 division, race 12; $200,000 division, race 8, $100,000 division, race 4):

In writing about the glamour division, the first word still must be given to Louprint, last year's Dan Patch award winner in this group, and impressive while undefeated in 2025 until being injured and going to the sidelines – at last word he is expected to return.

The two who have best filled the opening left by Louprint are Prince Hal Hanover (post 1, driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Dr. Ian Moore) and Twisted Destiny (post 3, driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Chris Ryder). Prince Hal Hanover has used his gate speed and handiness to take the division's last two major events, the Adios and the Milstein, but Twisted Destiny won the Messenger Pace, has not been far behind “Prince Hal” in his last two races, and gave Louprint all he wanted in a race at Pocono earlier this year.

Captain Optimistic, winner of the Cane Pace, and Dandy Ideal, who was in the photo with Twisted Destiny in the Messenger and has since won four straight, are ignored at your own peril.

EARL BEAL MEMORIAL TROT ($300,000 division, race 13; $200,000 division, race 9, $100,000 division, race 3):

The horses likely to be most fancied in the Beal start from the middle of the gate: Super Chapter (post 4, driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Marcus Melander) and Emoticon Legacy (post 5, driver Louis Roy, trainer Luc Blais).

Super Chapter ripped off five wins in stakes company to start his 2025 campaign, then had to settle for second in the Hambletonian as he was caught behind a tiring pacesetter and could not rebuild momentum quickly enough. Emoticon Legacy rang up four wins, also all in stakes, to start the year before having a subpar day at The Hambletonian, but it wouldn't be hard to see him bounce back and be right in the picture.

SEBASTIAN K S TROT ($100,000, race 5):

Warrawee Michelle, the winner of the 2024 Delmonica Hanover on Sun Stakes Saturday, has an opportunity to perform an impressive double as she starts from post 4 in the Invitational trot. She brings the right connections: the race is named after track record holder Sebastian K S, last year's winner was the great Jiggy Jog S, and both of those horses — and Warrawee Michelle — were handled by Åke Svanstedt.

Security Protected came from eleventh at the three quarters in his last start, the Cashman Trot, to be second to Periculum, but his chances were not helped at the post draw when he was stuck behind the 8-ball.

ALWAYS B MIKI PACE ($100,000, race 14):

Ken Hanover (post 3, driver David Miller, trainer Polie Mallar) has been the "form" horse of the Invitational pacing group, with six wins in eight 2025 starts and a Pocono victory on his resume, and he's likely to be the one to have to go through to win the Always B Miki.

Captain Albano won the Hempt Pace last year, so he has an opportunity similar to the one Warrawee Michelle has, completing a special Sun Stakes Saturday "double." The two inside horses, Abuckabett Hanover and Maximus Miki, also appear to be major dangers in here.

And don't think the "consolation races" for the 3-year-old don't have some firepower, either: for example, the very first race of the day, the third-ranked of the Delmonica Hanover races, has merely this sector's 2024 divisional champion, Champagne Problems, and last year's Breeders Crown winner in this group, Lady Landia.

The Sun Stakes Saturday super card will also have four guaranteed pools in multi-race bets, in conjunction with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Initiative:

Races 10-13: $10,000 guaranteed Pick 4 pool (with the four big races for 3YOs).

Races 1-4: $5000 guaranteed Pick 4 pool.

Races 5-9: $5000 guaranteed Pick 5 pool.

Races 9-11: $5000 guaranteed Pick 3 pool.

The final scratches and driver changes were posted early Tuesday afternoon on the U.S. Trotting Association website. Program pages will be available at some point afterward at www.phha.org.
