Two Millers on the cusp of entering the 10,000-win club

Both Brett and Andy Miller are approaching 10,000 career driving wins.

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Both Brett and Andy Miller could hit 10,000 on the same day. Brett started Aug. 18 at 9,988 victories the day before he turned 50 (8/19/73). He's looking at a dozen to go to join the exclusive 10,000-win club that currently only has 20 members in it.

Andy Miller started Aug. 18 at 9,996 with just four to go to reach five figures

With David Miller currently at 14,137, there would be three Millers out of the 22 drivers that have exceeded 10,000 victories.

A BRIEF LOOK AT SOME OUTSTANDING MILLERS

- Del Miller was the most prominent person the sport ever had the fortune of calling its own. Horse-wise, he was the first to win the Jug/Hambletonian in the same season (1950). He had record all-time sales with both Adios and Delmonica Hanover. He won a race in a mind boggling eight decades starting in 1929 in Carrolton, OH.
- Andy Miller's brother, Erv Miller, is No. 3 all time in trainer earnings at $103 million..
- Erv's son, Marcus Miller, has a 2016 Breeders Crown to his credit.
- Jim Miller had standouts in the 1970s. A $5,000 castoff named Invincible Shadow that he turned into a top free-for-all. Also, Tijuana Taxi set the half mile track record of 1:56.3 in New York.
- Andy Miller had a Horse of the Year runner-up in Lucky Jim who was 17-for-18 the same year as Muscle Hill year (2009). Andy also has hit the board in the Hambletonian multiple times and a couple of his standouts include Incredible Tillie and My Boy David.
- Andy's wife, Julie Miller, has the record for most starters in the Hambletonian by any female trainer, and her Devious Man at 2-1 in 2017 is the only favorite sent out by a female trainer in the sport's greatest trotting test. She and Andy have been a force on the Grand Circuit for a decade and a half mostly with talented young trotters.

• David's cousin, Brett Miller, drove Always B Miki to a 1:47 score in his HOY season of 2016. He also handles Charlie May and won a 2015 Breeders Crown with Pure Country. His first appearance in the T & P Guide came in 2002 in the midst of three straight 500-win seasons.

• David Miller is the only driver to win five Breeders Crowns in a single year (2015). He's the No. 1 active money-winning driver now past $275 million. Only John Campbell stands in his way of being numero uno. ($299.8 million). The last Triple Crown winning driver with any pacer, 2003 No Pan Intended, still the only horse to win both a Triple Crown and a Breeders Crown. David was the first winner of a million-dollar Breeders Crown in 2000 with Magician.

HOW ABOUT A LITTLE MILLER MATH

Starting Aug. 18, Andy and Brett are a combined $66Gs shy of a quarter billion.

Andy – $138,643,710

Brett – $111,290,831

Total – $249,934,541

Between the three Millers, they are well past half a billion.

The aforementioned $249 million plus $276M for David puts that Miller trio at $525 million.

LADIES' UNPRECEDENTED DOMINANCE IN 2023 CONTINUES

This is the first year where the Adios, NA Cup, and Hambletonian have been won by women.

Are they just getting started?

Linda Toscano's It's My Show just equaled the 3-year-old world record at Red Mile of 1:46.4.

Nancy Takter's Tactical Approach won his Hambletonian win follow-up start at Red Mile.

Let's take a look at the "Big Four," the Pace, Cup, Jug, and Hambletonian and take note of how the ladies have established a foothold not too many saw coming:

Meadowlands Pace

Zero of the first 42 editions to the women. Now two of the last five.

2019 – Linda Toscano – Best In Show

2020 – Nancy Takter – Tall Dark Stranger

NA Cup

Zero of the first 23 editions to the women, but get this, they've won seven of the last 14.

2010 – Casie Coleman – Sportswriter

2015 – JoAnn Looney – Wakisashi Hanover

2016 – Casie Coleman – Betting Line

2019 – Nancy Takter – Captain Crunch

2020 – Nancy Takter – Tall Dark Stranger

2021 – Kathy Ceccin – Desperate Man

2023 – Linda Toscano – It's My Show

Little Brown Jug

The first 49 Jugs, zero women. Now four of the last 28.

In 1995, Caroline Lyon won with Nicks Fantasy. She was the first woman to do so.

In 2012, 2013 and 2016, Casie Coleman won with Michael's Power, Vegas Vacation and Betting Line, respectively

Hambletonian

Zero of the first 86 editions were won by a female trainer. Now? Three of the last 12.

2012 – Linda Toscano – Market Share

2016 – Paula Wellwood – Marion Marauder

2023 – Nancy Takter – Tactical Approach

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

The most significant innovations in standardbred racing

by Alan Leavitt

A quick Mea Culpa about me and trotters.

La Trot has always been my gait of choice. When I was coming up, the best trainers were the ones that won the trotting races. In those days, the trotting gait had not been refined to the point it has reached today, which meant that it took a good bit of balancing, both through shoeing and rigging, plus a good pair of hands, to develop a reliable racing trotter.

This is a good place to digress and recite the most significant events in the evolution of standardbred racing.

The first breakthrough was the invention of the mobile starting gate by Steve Phillips, in New York. Before that, the field would come in a bunch up to the starter, who was stationed on the track at the starting pole.

Before some geniuses made fast, fair betting available, betting was handled by trackside bookies, who operated "hand books." They were pretty much on the level, although occasionally a lone operator who had spread himself too thin would be sneaking out of town as the field hit the seven-eighths pole.

If they were evenly aligned, the starter would drop his raised arm and the race was on. It could sometimes take as long as two hours to get the field off in a fair start. The mobile starting gate greatly elevated the practice of pari-mutuel betting, which was also transformative. Before some geniuses made fast, fair betting available, betting was handled by trackside bookies, who operated "hand books." They were pretty much on the level, although occasionally a lone operator who had spread himself too thin would be sneaking out of town as the field hit the seven-eighths pole.

Also, the invention of the plastic wheel disk was literally a life-saver. That was in the mid-'60s, and I remember Frank Ervin saying he wasn't going to turn Bret Hanover into a circus horse with those "colored do dads" on his wheels.

But of course he did, along with everyone else, and immediately the terrible accidents on the racetrack stopped. Again, I'm relying on my own early days at the track, but it seemed that every program, day or night, a horse would step through the spokes of somebody else's wheel, and the result could be fatal.

The final improvement was the trotting hobble, invented by the great horseman Carl Allen. Allen figured out that the use of a hobble designed to keep a horse on the trot worked better than putting all the weight in the front shoes.

Suddenly, the trotters were no longer making breaks, and the pari-mutuel tracks could card trotting races knowing the punters would bet on them.

Before Allen, the big, nighttime tracks like Roosevelt, Yonkers and Sportsman's offered only enough trotting races to keep the faithful few from driving their racing secretaries crazy with their pleas to write at least a few trotting races a week.

Although the trotters were the more dramatic breed to benefit from the refining of their pedigrees, it was true also for the pacers. Laverne Hanover was the champion Two-Year-Old of his year, but Billy Haughton told me he never hit a pace until January in Florida where Haughton winter trained.

The next giant step forward was on the breeding side of the business. That was the use of Artificial Insemination, which was first popularized by another great horseman, Hal Jones.

Jones was the manager of Pickwick Farms, in Ohio. The farm was owned by Walter Michael, who was also the president of the USTA. Michael liked dealing in large numbers when it came to horses. He once sent Jones a van full of stallions after one of his sales at Northfield Park, which he owned.

One of the studs at Pickwick was Gene Abbe. Here was a horse whose phenotype, meaning the living horse and including his racing performance, would not exactly knock your socks off.

But Gene Abbe's genotype, or genetic profile, was clearly potent. He was a real sire, and bred to either one of Michael's many mares or one of his Ohio's neighbors, inevitably the result was a better class of racehorse.

So Gene Abbe's services were in demand, and Hal Jones provided them with Artificial Insemination, or A.I.

Before Jones came to our rescue, a popular stallion's book was in the neighborhood of 38 mares. After Gene Abbe, the sky was the limit.

In an effort to maintain the diversity of the North American Standardbred, the USTA passed a book limit of 140 mares. However, Standardbred Canada has never followed suit, so if you want to breed your stud to a zillion mares, just stand him in Canada.

I guess you'll just have to wait until next time to find out how the only family with an ancestor who signed the Declaration of Independence would only race free-legged horses, among other interesting tidbits.

Ebbinge holds off Canada's McNair for repeat WDC crown

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The Netherlands' Rick Ebbinge became only the second driver to ever repeat as the winner of the World Driving Championship, claiming his second title Friday night (Aug. 18) before a large crowd at Rennbahn Berlin in Germany.

Ebbinge entered the event's fourth-and-final round Friday with a 33-point lead but was made to sweat by Doug McNair. The Canadian posted two wins, a second, and a third in the first four of five races to vault from sixth to second, just 11 points from the top.

In the last race, McNair finished eighth with a longshot while Ebbinge was sixth. Ebbinge ended the competition with 163 points, 13 points ahead of runner-up McNair and third-place Hanna Huygens of Belgium. McNair won a total of four races in the WDC, one more than Huygens, to receive the higher placing.

Jordan Ross, representing the U.S., finished seventh in the 10-driver competition. Ross was handed longshots throughout the final night but had a second and fourth among his five starts in Berlin. He picked up one victory during the event.

Ebbinge joined Norway's Ulf Thoresen as the WDC's only repeat winners. Thoresen accomplished the feat in 1979 and 1981.

"It means very much to win the title again," said Ebbinge, whose best finishes Friday were a pair of sixths. "[The other drivers] are all so good. I didn't have a really good day today, and if you're racing against such good drivers, it was tight at the end, but still I had some room. I'm very happy."

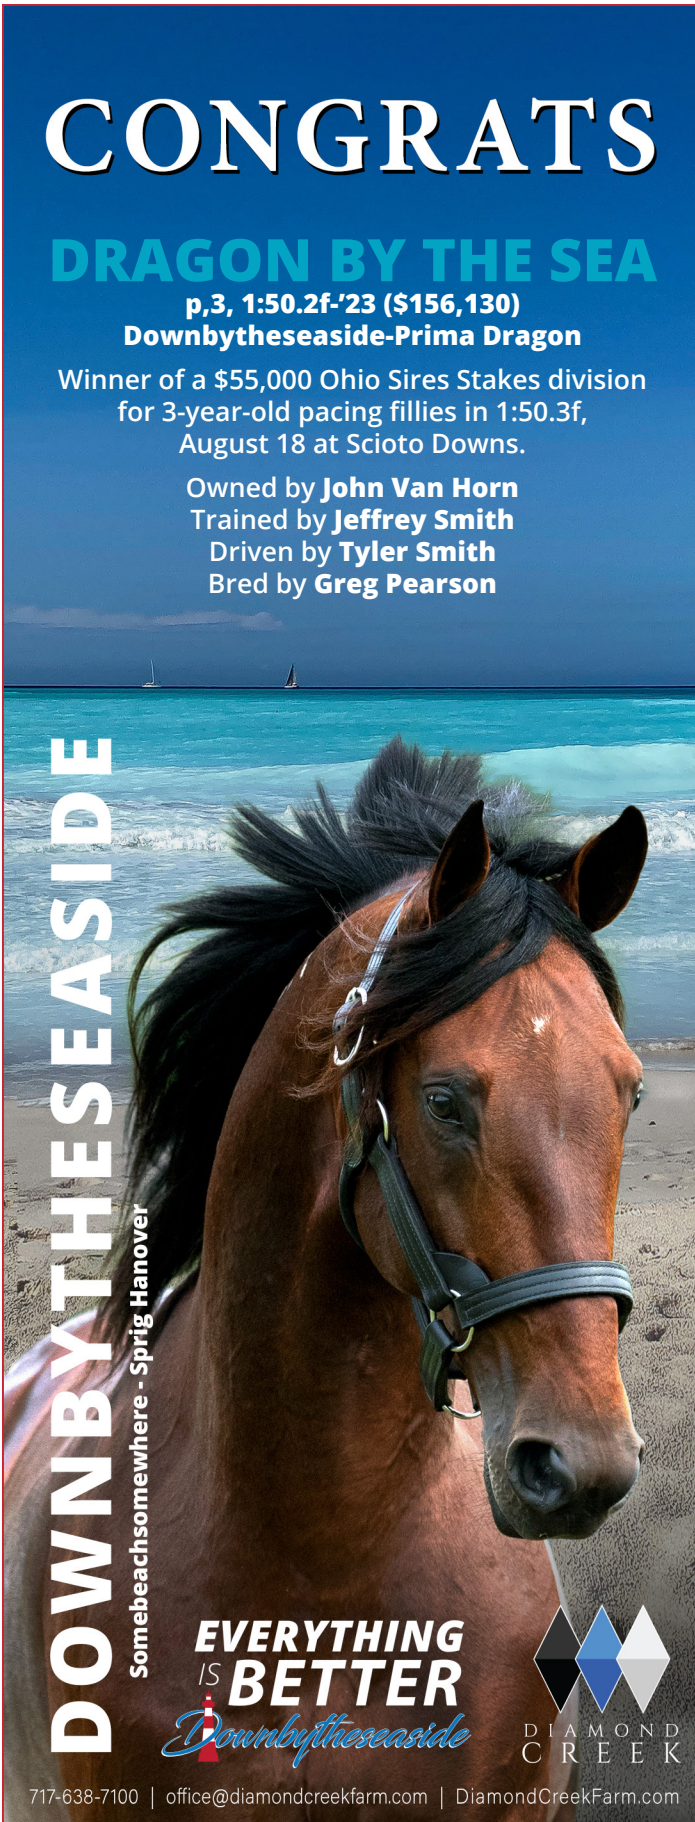

The 30th edition of the World Driving Championship, which was first held in 1970, visited tracks in the Netherlands, Belgium, and Germany during this year's competition.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Fiftyfour and A Teaser best in E3 at Romme

by Thomas Hedlund

Romme racetrack played host to two divisions of the $190,000 E3 on Saturday (Aug. 19) afternoon and the event resulted in two upset winners.

Tomas Malmqvist-trained Fiftyfour (Fourth Dimension) showed his great capacity last year as a 2-year-old when he claimed Sweden's most prestigious freshman race, the Uppfödningslöpningen at Jägersro in November. On Saturday, a high pace favored Fiftyfour as driver Ken Ecce found a spot in fourth over.

Vegas Wania led the race with tough pressure from first choice Expo Wise As and the two front runners were out of gas when the stretch approached. Ken Ecce attacked four wide in the end of the last turn and Fiftyfour reached the wire as a winner in a stakes record of 1:53.4.

Fourth Dimension's good results as a sire were confirmed when Frank S.H. (Fourth Dimension) was runner up ahead of S.G.Dracarys (Bold Eagle).

The E3 division for fillies became a great story for Mattias Djuse, who had four contenders in the race. Erik Adielsson sat behind Djuse family's homebred A Teaser (Flocki d'Urzy) and after a perfect pocket trip, Adielsson managed to give A Teaser the right signals in the stretch. Leader Kinglet Bird (Nuncio) had to defend herself pretty much the entire last kilometer as Alessandro Gocciadoro's Esmeralda Bez put hard pressure on the outside. Mattias Djuse's Larah Westwood attacked quickly in the last turn, got advantage of the race in mid-stretch, but couldn't hold stablemate A Teaser behind her at the wire.

Jubilation for Djuse stable and A Teaser, owned by Djuse brothers parents, won in 1:54, ahead of Larah Westwood and Kinglet Bird.

TOP TROTTERS SHOWED UP IN PARIS

Vincennes' Saturday (Aug. 19) race card included some really strong fields of trotters. Among many impressive winners, 5-year-old Idao de Tillard (Severino) claimed another big title in France's capital.

Clement Duvaldestin steered Idao de Tillard to the front in the $125,000 Prix Louis Jariel and the duo won in a safe mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles.

When the 3-year-olds battled in the $125,000 Prix Abel Bassigny, Philippe Allaire-trained Koctel du Dain (Boccador de Simm) proved the best paired with David Thomain. Thomain pushed his horse to the front midway into the race and Koctel du Dain showed great moral as he fought well and won in a mile rate of 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles.

Jean-Michel Bazire's 4-year-old Joshua Tree (Bold Eagle) will most probably be a serious factor when the 2024 Prix d'Amérique approaches. Saturday's first-over win in the $125,000 Prix Phaeton in a mile rate of 1:54.1 indicates that Joshua Tree is ready for the really big races in the winter.

First over was also a fact for 3-year-old Kana de Beylev when the $125,000 Prix Reine du Corta for fillies was on the menu at Vincennes, but the tough trip didn't bother William Bignon's trotter, who won in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.3 miles for driver Benjamin Rochard.

In the $125,000 Prix Paul Leguerney for 4-year-old mares, Laurent Claude Abrivard-trained Just Love You (Love You) got offensive orders from driver Alexandre Abrivard with 3/4 of a mile to go and Just Love You easily disarmed leader Juliet Papa Bravo and held on to safe win in a mile rate of 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles.

The 57 Hambletonians I've witnessed

Part 2 – The Meadowlands through the end of the 20th century.

by Murray Brown

Part 1 is here.

1981 – Shiaway St Pat — In terms of a great horse race, it was a quality one. In most other ways it turned out to be a massive disappointment. It was very well promoted, by the ultra-competent Meadowlands staff as well as an all-star team that included the two best PR people in the history of the sport, Stanley F. Bergstein and Joseph Herbert Goldstein. So where did it go wrong? Weather, weather and more bad weather. It started raining early that morning and never stopped. What was expected to be the greatest crowd in the history of the event became a rather disappointing one. It was a four-heat race. The group of horses were far from the best in the race's history. It was won by longshot Midwest invader, the Michigan-bred Shiaway St Pat with future Hall of Famer Ray Remmen at the lines; a narrow winner over the Howard Beissinger driven and trained Super Juan.

1982 – Speed Bowl — The two pre-race favorites Mystic Park and Arndon made breaks in the early part of the race leaving it open for Jazz Cosmos and Speed Bowl. Speed Bowl won it by a narrow neck driven by Tommy Haughton over Jazz Cosmos who cut the mile over Speed Bowl who sat the deuce. Haughton at 25, became the youngest driver to win the race. His father Hall of Famer W.R. "Billy" Haughton watched the race from the track dining room. "Tommy gets along with this colt better than I do" said the proud father when asked why he wasn't in the bike on Hambletonian Day.

1983 – Duenna — One of the most heart-rending results in Hambletonian history. It was a filly year with the fillies Duenna and Winky's Gill finishing 1-2 in the race. Stanley Dancer, Duenna's trainer/driver had expected to win the race, but with another horse, Dancer's Crown. A few weeks before the race, Dancer's Crown, a horse that Dancer had likened to his great champion Nevele Pride, had died from colic. Dancer expected to be watching the race from the grandstand. He was persuaded by Norman Woolworth, the owner of both the late Dancer's Crown and the filly Duenna, to enter her in the race. Dancer complied with Woolworth's request and won fairly easily in straight heats over a racetrack that was rated sloppy for the final heat.

1984 – Historic Freight – The fourth gelding to win the Hambletonian during my time in the sport. Lots of records in this one. The richest Hambletonian to that point; the purse was $1,219,000. The race featured the most declared in to race at The Meadowlands with 26 entered. Historic Freight was the only winner who anyone could have owned. He could have been claimed for a tag of $52,500 before winning a claimer a few weeks prior to the big race. Another four-heat battle. Gentle Stroke won the first one. Delvin G Hanover, the sentimental favorite won the second with his namesake 69-year-old Delvin Miller in the sulky. The third was captured by Historic Freight, after his driver Benny Webster put the field to sleep cutting slow fractions before holding off Delvin G Hanover at the wire. Webster weaved his magic in the final, once again holding off Delvin G Hanover at the finish. His owner Arthur J. Brown was the original owner of the Brooklyn Nets basketball team, then called the New York Americans and subsequently the New York Nets and the New Jersey Nets.

On a personal note that I was witness to, Brown and John Simpson Sr. had been friends and colleagues together back in the '50s when Brown had the best horses of his ABC Freight Forwarding Stable residing in the Simpson stable. By 1984, Simpson, who was now totally blind was approached by Brown following the race. 'Hello, Johnny,' Brown said. 'Congratulations, Arthur,' Simpson responded without the slightest hesitation. The two men had not spoken for over 20 years, yet Simpson recognized Brown's voice.

1985 – Prakas – He was the best heading into the race and if it was possible even better after his easy win. Another of my couldn't miss stallion prospects who turned out to become less than adequate in the stud stable. One important lesson learned though. Prakas was less than a perfect individual. Even though he could live with his physical faults, a lot of his sons and daughters could not. He sired a good many individuals who were prone to lameness. That, to a great degree, contributed to his lack of success in the breeding shed.

1986 – Nuclear Kosmos – The first all-Scandinavian win. In actuality, an all-Norwegian win. Trainer Per Henriksen imported his friend Ulf Thoresen to East Rutherford to drive his Hambletonian hopeful Nuclear Kosmos. The limited few who had seen Thoresen drive thought him to be among, if not the very best driver in the world. The diminutive Thoresen certainly did his reputation no harm in securing the win for Nuclear Kosmos. It turned out to be an all-Scandinavian finish, with Royal Prestige finishing second by a neck teamed by Sweden's Berndt Lindstedt.

1987 — Mack Lobell — A truly great horse who won the race cutting the mile and drawing away in a stakes record of 1:53.3. This was a particularly great field which included Mack's nemesis Napoletano, who sometimes, but rarely was able to defeat Mack Lobell. This was the first of John Campbell's six Hambletonian wins. The horse that pushed Mack to his record time was Waikiki Beach who was exported to Italy and sired Varenne, the horse that some consider to have been the greatest trotter ever. Ironically neither Mack Lobell nor Napoletano were near as sensational in the stud barn as they had been on the racetrack.

1988 — Armbro Goal — John Campbell was back for his second consecutive Hambletonian win, once again in easy wire-to-wire fashion for owner Tomas Bertmark who bought the colt on the eve of the race. His trainer of record was Jan Johnson, but in actuality the colt was trained by the Continental Farms trio of Johnson, Lindstedt and Hakan Wallner. In his post-race interview Bergstein makes reference to the perceived Scandinavian "takeover" of American trotting. That continues to this day with Swedish born Nancy Takter the trainer of the 2023 winner Tactical Approach. If ever a horse was destined to become a Hambletonian winner, that horse was Armbro Goal. His sire Speedy Crown was a Hambletonian winner, his dam Armbro Flight was a multiple stakes winner and her dam, Helicopter won the Hambletonian. The undercard that day featured the Hambletonian Oaks which was won by Nan's Catch, a great filly in her own right, but perhaps best known as the dam of the great international champion Moni Maker.

1989 — Probe and Park Avenue Joe — At the outset of the racing year, the previous year's 2-year-old champion Valley Victory was expected to be the favorite coming into the race. But illness or unsoundness, take your pick, maybe even a combination of both prevented him from showing up for the race. To many, but not including me, this was the most exciting Hambletonian ever. Perhaps it was the most mystifying one. Who would have ever thought that trotting's greatest race would end up in a dead heat between two relatively average horses? The Hambletonian Society ruled that Park Avenue Joe was the winner based on his overall standings in the heats. The connections of Probe brought suit saying that was wrong. After some time and I assume the fattening of some lawyers' pockets the case was settled out of court with the original ruling of Park Avenue Joe being the winner accepted. The best horse in the race was the magnificent filly Peace Corps who finished second to Park Avenue Joe in his first heat win. She would go on to win a record four Breeders Crowns.

1990 — Harmonious — This was the richest Hambletonian at that time with a purse of $1,340,000. As history would prove, the second of four consecutive races won by, in relative terms, a relatively ordinary trotter in a rather ordinary group. It was Campbell's third win in the trotting classic and his third in the previous four years. It was also the Antonacci family's fourth Hambletonian winner. The trainer Osvaldo Formia had trained his previous winner of the race the previous year with Probe's dead heat win. Formia had also been the groom of Hambletonian winners Lindy's Pride and Speedy Somolli.

1991 – Giant Victory – A very nice horse who happened to be the best on that day. The race represented trainer Per Eriksson's second Hambletonian victory and the first by driver Jack Moiseyev. There wasn't much to separate Giant Victory and another heat winner M B Felty, another son of Super Bowl who was trained by Ronnie Gurfein. It was the fourth win for a son of Super Bowl.

1992 – Alf Palema – This was the third Hambletonian win for trainer Eriksson and the first for driver Myles "Mickey" McNichol. It was an extremely exciting race featuring a daring three wide move by the filly Armbro Keepsake on the leader King Conch who held on before being narrowly edged out at the wire by Alf Palema who snuck through on the rail. Alf Palema then went on to become a decent sire in Sweden.

1993 – American Winner – The first Hambletonian winner in several years won by a truly great horse, American Winner who in turn defeated another truly great horse in Pine Chip. He was the first Hambletonian winner for trainer Milton Smith, the first for driver Ronnie Pierce and the first for breeder/owner Bob Key. He was the fifth winner for Hanover's Super Bowl. Nobody loved to race more than Bob Key. Under Key's guidance, American Winner won the first 3-year-old trotting stakes event of the year, the Dexter Cup at Freehold and continued unabated through the Hambletonian and then the Zweig Memorial at Syracuse, where he won but appeared to many to be noticeably unsound. Then the proverbial wheel fell off. American Winner was lame and was never again his once great self.

1994 – Victory Dream – The first of Gurfein's three Hambletonian wins and also the first of Mike Lachance's four. Some thought it should have been the second, but for a narrow loss by M B Felty in 1991. It is my belief that Victory Dream was a great horse who history has denied some of the recognition he was due. Perhaps it was because he had fertility problems which compromised him being able to become the great sire that he almost certainly would have become. In his inimitable Gurfein-esque manner, Ronnie once described peanuts as being the size of boulders relative to the size of Victory Dream's testicles. Despite his fertility issues Victory Dream sired a great trotter and a good sire in Self Possessed.

1995 – Tagliabue – Entering the 1995 racing season the Hambletonian, talk centered on a possible match between the previous year's outstanding 2-year-old champion Donerail and that season's great 2-year-old filly CR Kay Suzie. That was not to be. Donerail's return to action was far from what was expected. He raced a few times for Dancer, but without looking like the colt he had been in 1994. Rather than tarnish his reputation, the syndicate that owned him decided to retire him to stud at Hanover Shoe Farms. Carl and Rod Allen's sensational filly came into the race as the overwhelming favorite. She made a break at the onset and finished back. The race was won by Tagliabue for the Campbell brothers, driver John and trainer Jim for owners Jules and Arlene Siegel. It was John's third Hambletonian win and Jim's and the Siegels' first. Tagliabue became the sixth winner of America's Classic Trotting Race sired by Super Bowl.

1996 – Continentalvictory – This was the most exciting Hambletonian of the 57 I have been to, even though I, in effect, came out on the losing end. I was cheering for Lindy Lane. Hanover had been looking for a son of Valley Victory to stand at the Farms. With the aid of Geoff Stein, a syndication deal had been put together for Lindy Lane to stand at Hanover at the conclusion of his racing career. Continentalvictory had also been racing extremely well for the duo of Gurfein and Lachance. But there was a problem. Lachance was the driver of both horses and he would have to choose between the two. People wondered which horse Lachance would choose.

All post times 1pm.

In addition to possibly picking the wrong horse if he chose to drive the filly, he would be giving up lifetime breedings by picking away from Lindy Lane. Nevertheless, he picked Continentalvictory. To this day, I believe he made his choice entirely out of friendship and loyalty to Gurfein. At the time, it was tough to choose between the two. I'm fairly certain that he didn't know that Continentalvictory was destined to become the better. Continentalvictory of course won the race over Lindy Lane. Neither horse was quite as good after the race. Another interesting trotting filly was on that race card. A filly by the name of Moni Maker won the Hambletonian Oaks on the same day, her first major win of many to come.

1997 — Malabar Man — The race was won by a very good, perhaps great, horse over a decent bunch that included the previous year's top colt Yankee Glide. The thought was that Yankee Glide was the best of the bunch. This was not to be Yankee Glide's best day. It seemed he just didn't have much trot. Malabar Man was driven by his amateur owner Mal Burroughs and was trained by Triple Hall of Famer to be Jimmy Takter. The outcome was marred by a bit of controversy when race leader Bowlin For Dollars bore out in the stretch opening the rail for Malabar Man and Burroughs. Bowlin For Dollars' driver Trond Smedshammer was handed a penalty by the judges, which he appealed and which subsequently was overturned.

1998 — Muscles Yankee — A super horse who was destined to become a super sire. Campbell's fifth Hambletonian, trainer Chuck Sylvester's first and the first for a partnership that included breeders Bill Perretti and Herb Liverman. Muscles started fairly slow at 2 and then progressed to the point where he was the best in North America. At 3, he was clearly the best. He was retired to stud at Perretti's Perretti Farms where he assumed a role as one of the premier trotting sires in North America.

1999 — Self Possessed — Once again, the Gurfein-Lachance duo visited the Hambletonian winner's circle at The Meadowlands; both for the third time. In the race, Self Possessed set a world record. He defeated a good group which included Angus Hall and Enjoy Lavec. Self Possessed was an extremely fast colt who, at times, was perceived as lacking in soundness and good manners. As a sire, he sometimes produced horses who shared those traits. His best-known offspring was Cantab Hall, who ironically was a well-mannered and sound colt, who is well known for producing sound and well-mannered horses. Such are the vagaries related to breeding horses.

Solving the puzzle of finding new harness racing fans

by Trey Nosrac

I walked into Nasty Habits Bar and Grill on Sunday morning at 8:45 and saw Linda Roberts standing near the dartboard. I strolled over and handed her an envelope containing $85 in cash.

She resembles Stevie Nicks, circa age 50, but allows grey to pepper her hair and only uses a touch of makeup around her eyes. Linda pinched the envelope between her thumb and index finger, smiled, and said, "Chin up, Trey, it wasn't a total failure. The horse raced a few times, just not fast enough."

"Nah, it's not that our horse wasn't a star or I lost money. Heck, I'm used to that. My problem is that, once again, I failed to spark any interest in the sport. Not one of you showed the faintest interest in harness racing."

She gave a sympathetic tilt of her head, "Well, at least you tried. You took us on a free ride," she said waving the envelope. "More than free, you gave us some of the money your horse earned. At least you know that losing money wasn't why we didn't catch your harness-racing fever."

I spread my hands, "Then what was it? I set up a no-lose proposition. I thought you people would bond into a cult and use me as your guru."

"Sorry." She hesitated, then said, "Want some suggestions from the point of view of a failed test subject?"

"Suggest away."

"I was one of the six people you selected for the horse group, but we were strangers. We were email addresses and people on a text thread. I never felt like part of a group. My time as a pseudo-racehorse owner felt more like an online class. I never got emotionally involved."

She pointed at a group of people milling around the back room of Nasty Habits Bar and Grill, “Maybe you should use the PJP as your model. We are counterculture, but we have been growing. I’m getting a coffee. Want one?”

“Sure.” We headed to the coffee table.

PJP is an acronym for our club, the Pelham Jigsaw Puzzlers. We meet at 9:00 a.m. on the third Saturday of each month except December. Settling on the time and place for our sessions took some trial and error. At first, in each other’s homes on Monday evenings, then on Sunday mornings, and finally settled on Saturday morning at Nasty Habits, a bar at the far end of a struggling strip mall.

Benny, the Edgeman, brings a Keurig for coffee, and the rest of us take turns bringing breakfast sandwiches or pastries. Nasty Habits isn’t open on Saturday mornings, so we pay the owners $50 to use the room. It’s free money for the owners, and since we are not exactly a biker gang, we leave the place cleaner than when we arrived.

What does a jigsaw puzzle club do?

We have fun, and we compete. Today we are playing a solo session. Other times, we have partner events, and twice each year, we puzzle in groups of four against the clock and see how we compare timewise against puzzlers from all over the world.

This morning, nine of us will take identical 500-piece puzzles from a cardboard carton, each box sealed and shaken. Today’s puzzle is of a Paris street scene where a couple shares a bottle of red wine under an umbrella table. We are waiting for the signal to begin. At the command, we open our boxes and begin. In solo events, there is not much talking. In multi-player events, there is plenty of talking.

Now you may believe puzzling is a stupid waste of time. Guess what? New people peeking at harness racing believe the same thing. Only when you look behind the curtains can visitors begin to see the benefits and the charms of our various preoccupations and hobbies.

We occasionally get visitors to the PJP club and some return. A few visitors have organized puzzle clubs of their own. Participation in puzzling is not a stampede, but there is growth. My theory is that a jigsaw puzzle is so far removed from today's technology that more and more people find our puzzle niche is a peaceful oasis from technology. We have a rule that players silence their devices or leave them in their cars. Unlinking from the world is surprisingly tricky the first few times, but not impossible. It's refreshing to put down the phone for a few hours.

As Linda stirred cream into her coffee mug, she said, "Trey, I see big differences between the puzzlers and your harness racing recruitment effort. We are a social group. We meet in person at least once a month, and we chat and text all the time. In puzzling, there is no big gap between the participation ability. And puzzling is less expensive."

I shook a finger, "That puzzle cruise last year was a big-ticket item."

"It was a blast and worth every penny. But getting back to your horse problem, I believe you would have had more success if your recruits interacted daily."

"How?"

"My office has about 10 people at the insurance company where I work. If you had selected your group from those office workers, you would have had more luck. We see each other every day and would be more likely to interact."

I nodded, "Not a bad idea. Anymore?"

She shook her head, "Not really. Finding new harness racing members seems like one of those 2,000-piece puzzles where the pieces are all purple."

I scanned the room and watched Pelham Jigsaw Puzzlers laughing and chatting. I snapped my fingers.

Linda smiled at me briefly and said, "I know what you're thinking."

I raised my hands in victory, "I already have a name for the horse, 'The Final Piece.'"

She laughed and added, "Or maybe Jigsaw Jogger or Pelham Pacer?"

Bennie gave the signal to grab our boxes. A Café table in Paris awaited.

Captain Albano shakes grumpiness, goes stake-fastest 1:51.1 in Meadows PASS

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Captain Albano snapped out of his foul humor just in time to score in a stake-fastest and career-best 1:51.1 in Friday's (Aug. 18) $170,320 Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Also taking splits in the event, known as the Tyler B, for freshman colt and gelding pacers were Gem Quality, Solar Solution and Captain Fear Not. Matt Kakaley enjoyed a stake double behind Solar Solution and Captain Fear Not.

Noel Daley, who trains Captain Albano for Patricia Stable, L A Express and Sjoblom Inc., and Michael Dolan, said the colt was in "a bad mood all day."

"I wasn't sure what to expect," Daley said of the $150,000 yearling acquisition. "He was a complete goof all day, so I didn't know which way he would go, whether he would be on his game or not. He's staked to everything. I don't know if he's a superstar, but he's a very nice horse."

The son of Captaintreacherous—Angelou showed no signs of grumpiness when he moved three wide through the final turn for Todd McCarthy and defeated War Machine by 2-1/2 lengths. T H Tyson finished third while Rose Run Zeke, trying to stretch his career unbeaten streak to six, tired from a tough first-over bid and faded to last.

Gem Quality hadn't raced in nearly a month while recovering from a foot abscess and, to add insult to injury, he blew the final turn. But even with that wider-than-usual rally through the lane, he collected his second victory in as many career outings for Dexter Dunn. Solid Character was second, beaten a neck, with Aintbluenomore third.

"I've always thought he was a good horse," said Chris Ryder, who trains the homebred son of Captain Crunch—Twinkle for Let It Ride Stables, Bottom Line Racing, Brad Grant and Enviro Stables. "Hopefully, we're going to the Metro Pace. I'm very happy with this horse. He's been good all along."

SIRES STAKES
REPORT

Pacing colts impress in ISS action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Emily Ratcliff

A trio of Indiana Sires Stakes divisions for pacing colts and geldings was the featured attraction at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Friday (Aug. 18): two $67,500 divisions for the 2-year-old pacing colts and one $96,000 division for the 3-year-old competitors. It was a good night for sire Tellitlikeitis as his progeny swept all three divisions of the pacing colt action.

The 2023 Fox Stake winner Tellmeitmatters continued his winning ways and captured the first division of the stakes action for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings after converting a pocket trip into a 1:52.1 score. Sent off as the bettors' second choice, Tellmeitmatters, with driver John DeLong in the bike, used a :25.4 closing kick to track down the pace setting Play Action Pass and Trace Tetrack late in the lane and hold off M-M's Bud and Jay Cross on the far outside to get the victory. Tellmeitmatters returned $5.80 at the betting windows.

Trained by Roger Welch, the homebred son of Tellitlikeitis—Art Matters recorded his third win in five lifetime starts. Owned and bred by William P. DeLong and William C. DeLong, Tellmeitmatters pushed his lifetime bankroll to $72,730.

In the second division of the freshmen stakes action, Martz Telly went gate to wire to score in 1:51.4 with driver Ronnie Wrenn Jr. in the bike. Sent off as the heavy betting favorite, Martz Telly moved to the lead down the backside and held off the pocket sitting Prestigious Prince and LeWayne Miller late in the lane to get the win by a head. Warrior For Truth and Ricky Macomber Jr. rallied well late to get up for third. Martz Telly returned $2.80 for the victory. Martz Telly was the fastest divisional winner for the 2-year-olds and established a new lifetime best in the process.

Trained by Ron Burke, the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—A And Gs Finest recorded his third straight victory and has now won four of five lifetime starts. Owned in partnership by Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, F. Baldachino and Weaver Brusceci, Martz Telly now sports a lifetime bankroll of $89,118. The victory was also one of four driving wins on the evening's 14-race card for Ronnie Wrenn Jr. Martz Telly was bred by Martz Creek Farm.

The 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings were up next and they did not disappoint. It was a three-horse battle to the wire with Coach Stefanos splitting rivals late in the lane to come out on top and get the win by a neck in 1:49.1. Sent off as the public's third choice, Coach Stefanos utilized a pocket trip to track down the pacesetter Why Not Now and Miller in the final steps and was also able to keep Buzzsaw Russ and John DeLong at bay.

With the win, Coach Stefanos recorded his fifth win from seven seasonal starts. Owned in partnership by K.W. Duffy, D&M Trading, and Mr. J. Chris Stefanos, the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Watch N Be Watched sent his career purse earnings over the half million-dollar mark with the victory. Coach Stefanos was bred by Victory Hill Farm.

TEELATINI REMAINS UNDEFEATED IN STAKES ACTION AT HARRAH'S HOOSIER PARK

Teelatini continued her winning ways at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino after she captured the featured event of the evening, the $133,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies, on Thursday (Aug. 17). Stopping the timer in 1:51.1, Teelatini recorded her fourth straight stakes win and established a new lifetime best with driver Peter Wrenn in the bike.

Leaving from post 2, Wrenn sent Teelatini away from the gate just enough to grab a pocket seat behind the heavily favored All Jk and Trace Tetrack. All Jk, who was undefeated in three starts, dictated fractions of :26.2 and :54.2 while the rest of the field sorted out early positions. McKira and Joey Putnam were unable to find a spot along the rail and were applying pressure from first over as the field headed toward three-quarters. As the field reached the three-quarters in 1:23.1, Teelatini tipped from the pocket and employed an impressive late closing kick to surge past All Jk. Lets Go Endofanera utilized a ground saving trip and a late closing kick of her own to get up for second while All Jk held on for third. Sent off at odds of 5-2, Teelatini paid $7.20 to her backers at the betting windows.

Trained by Roger Welch, Teelatini has now won four of five lifetime starts. The homebred daughter of Rockin Image—Nightcap is owned by William C. DeLong and William P. DeLong and sports a lifetime bankroll of $150,348. The victory was also one of three winners on the evening's 14-race card for driver Peter Wrenn.

Keep Asking springs upset in the NYSS freshmen trot at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Keep Asking (Scott Zeron) charged late to win the $108,200 leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting colts & geldings at Vernon Downs on Friday (Aug. 18).

Wild Ticket (Brian Sears) and Situationship (Jason Bartlett) battled their way to the first quarter as Wild Ticket reached it first in :26.2. Situationship took the lead as they headed down the backstretch and was first to the half in :55.2. He glided to three-quarters in 1:25.

As they reached the stretch Situationship seemed well in control but started to tire in mid-stretch. It Wasn't Me (Tyler Buter) popped the pocket as Keep Asking ($48.40) came flying three-wide like his tail was on fire. Keep Asking then blew right on by and equaled the track record for 2-year-old trotting colts with a win in 1:54. It Wasn't Me finished second as Situationship held on for third.

Keep Asking is a colt by Chapter Seven—Sensibility. He is owned by WJ Donovan, Joe Sbrocco, Jim Winske, and trainer George Ducharme. It was his first career victory.

John MacDonald and Barton Dalious continue to slug it out for leading driver. "J-Mac" leads with 58 trips to the winner's circle. Dalious is just three behind with 55 wins on the season.

Noble doubles up in Buckeye Stallion Series action

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

For the second time in less than a week, Dan Noble recorded two wins in Buckeye Stallion Series action. Last Sunday (Aug. 13) Noble recorded two wins at MGM Northfield Park. Thursday night at Eldorado Scioto Downs, Noble won two of the five $20,000 races for 2-year-old colt trotters.

Noble got his first win in the third division for freshman colt trotters. Noble raced Tom Swifty to the lead off the gate and never looked back, winning by a length in 2:00.1. Trained by Christi Noble, Tom Swifty has hit the board in five of six starts, winning three. Owned by Sandra Burnett, the Long Tom colt has earned $27,987 this year.

Long Ridge was second with Sir Maverick third.

Noble's second win came in the next division as he went wire-to-wire again to win by a length with No Nap Nash in a new lifetime mark of 1:58.2. Trained by Miles Wollam and owned by Bob Troyer, Martin Wollam, and Norman Rae Racing, the son of Creatine has won two of four starts. No Nap Nash raised his earnings to $27,400.

Sweeney finished second with Mr. WWC third.

In the first division, Irresistible Son with Anthony MacDonald grabbed the lead just past the half and pulled away to win easily by five lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:58.3. It was the second win in five starts for the Triumphant Caviar colt. Trained by Jason McGinnis and owned by Thestable Irresistible Son and Hutchison Harness, Irresistible Son has earned $31,720 this year.

Forever A Lion AS was second in a photo over Thispete'sonfire.

The second division for 2-year-old colt trotters went to Bob Da Bomber and Tyler Smith. Bob Da Bomber grabbed the lead going to the half and fought off a challenge from Be Not Beastly around the final turn. The two battled down the stretch with the Long Tom gelding hanging on to win by a neck. Ty Loy trains and co-owns Bob Da Bomber with David Wills, Richard Coad, and Douglas Gregory. Bob Da Bomber has won four of six starts this year and has earned $40,040.

Dougsmonkeybusiness shines in sophomore action at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces
Casino Hotel and Racetrack

The Thursday evening (Aug. 17) harness racing program at Running Aces was loaded with freshman and sophomore action in the Minnesota-sired program and there were many standout performances throughout the night.

One such effort was seen in the $18,250 sophomore male pace by Dougsmonkeybusiness (Wind Me Up) who rallied impressively up the inside of the track in the lane to capture his sixth win of the season.

Driver Jacob Cutting sent him away quickly at the start and secured the pocket position behind public choice I'm A Skoldier (Mooney Svendsen) while Polar Storm (Todd Warren) landed in third and Ez Why Zee (Brady Jenson) traveled in fourth.

The early fractions were sensible (:28.4 and :58.4) and I'm A Skoldier enjoyed an easy lead before Ex Why Zee came calling with a first-over attack down the backside.

Those two battled around the far turn and into the lane with Ex Why Zee gaining a slight advantage, but Cutting had saved plenty of pace with Dougsmonkeybusiness and he guided him into the passing lane late to surge through for an exciting three-way battle to the wire.

Dougsmonkeybusiness ($7.00) prevailed by three-quarters of a length over Ex Why Zee and I'm A Skoldier in 1:56.1, posting the fastest final quarter in the contest (:29).

The winner is out of the General Aidid mare Moonshinenmonkeys and is owned by his breeders Rick Bertrand and Doug Flores. Bertrand is also the winning trainer.

Deja Vu Babyboo and Apple Juice provided fans with a thrilling display of grit and competition in the $16,000 freshman filly 'A' pace.

Apple Juice (Cutting) immediately went to the front from post 2 while TJB Secreharriet (Svendsen) grabbed the pocket and Deja Vu Babyboo (Dean Magee) paced third.

Heading towards the far turn, Magee launched his filly to the outside and she quickly drew alongside the leader. Apple Juice instantly dug in and the pair traded blows throughout the final quarter mile in a very exciting battle which resulted in a photo finish at the wire.

In the end, Deja Vu Babyboo ($6.00) had gotten up by a head to post her third career victory. The top pair were well ahead of the rest in the 1:55 mile, with TJB Secreharriet holding third over stablemate Little Miss Boss (Jenson).

The winner is by Karpathian Kid and is owned by her breeder Van Otterloo Stables and trained by Bob Lems.

Gotubydashorthairs (Nick Roland, 2.40) picked up her sixth career win in the $18,250 sophomore filly pace in 1:55.3 with a one length score over Wavzeka (Warren).

The winner is a daughter of Wind Me Up, owned by Mark Anderson and trained by Gordon Graham.

El Perrandero Q (Cutting, $12.80) was an impressive winner of the $16,000 freshman male 'A' pace in 1:56.1 for a new career mark. He got home one length better than stablemates Spiritofanoutlaw (Svendsen) and Boom Boom Bullseye (Luke Plano).

The winner is also by Wind Me Up and is owned by Triple Q Stables and trained by Edwin Quevedo.

The other Minnesota-sired event winners included Semicolon (Aracache Hanover) with Plano in the bike, returning $3.40 in the freshman 'C' pace (in 1:58.3) for owner Rick Davelaar and trainer Williams Hernandez, and Heart Of Harvey (Wind Me Up) who took the freshman 'B' pace in 2:00 returning $4.40 with Rick Magee in the sulky for Van Otterloo Stables and trainer Bob Lems.

Cutting led the Thursday program with three wins while Roland and Lems each recorded doubles.

Live Racing returns to Running Aces tonight (Aug. 20) with a nine-race program that will feature a carryover of $10,424.79 in the 20-cent Pick-5 Jackpot. First post at Running Aces is 7 p.m. (CDT).

Svanstedt wins three Sun Stakes; Twin B Joe Fresh takes battle of the titans in Lynch

Up Your Deo wins the Beal, Confederate wins the Hempt, Bond wins the Delmonica Hanover, Allywag Hanover wins the Always B Miki and Southwind Tyrion wins the Sebastian K.

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Twin B Joe Fresh picked up her third win in a row, capturing Saturday's (Aug. 19) $250,000 James M. Lynch Memorial for 3-year-old female pacers by two lengths over Charleston in 1:49.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. Sweet Amira finished third in the race, which saw co-favorite Sylvia Hanover go off stride on the final turn as her 13-race victory streak came to an end.

Twin B Joe Fresh (Dexter Dunn), who shared 4-5 odds with Sylvia Hanover, went to the front from post four and reached the opening quarter in :27.2. Sylvia Hanover, who was fourth, launched a first-over bid with five-eighths of a mile to go and pulled even with Twin B Joe Fresh as the pair raced down the backstretch following a half in :56.2.

The battle continued into the final turn, but Sylvia Hanover's miscue left Twin B Joe Fresh alone on the front. Shawn Steacy, who trains Sylvia Hanover with his father, Mark, said the horse touched a knee in the last turn, which he believes led to her making the break.

Twin B Joe Fresh fended off Charleston from there for her fifth triumph in eight races this season.

"We had a good draw and we wanted to use it," Dunn said. "She's such a versatile filly. You can get her out of the gate, and she will do whatever you want her to do. We did get a good breather (in the second quarter). She came back to me nicely.

"Obviously, we had Sylvia bearing down our back down the backstretch. I guess it was a little lucky for us she made a break, but my filly was still traveling great at the time. She's a powerful girl and she knows her job. It's a great win for her and the team."

Twin B Joe Fresh (Dexter Dunn) won Saturday's $250,000 James M. Lynch Memorial for 3-year-old female pacers by two lengths over Charleston in 1:49.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Twin B Joe Fresh is a daughter of Roll With Joe—Fresh Breeze owned by trainer Chris Ryder, Dunn, Peter Trebotica, and Barry Spak. The Brittany Farms-bred filly has won 13 of 18 career races and earned $911,748.

"It's always different when you own them, especially with Chris and Pete and the team," Dunn said. "It's very special."

The victory was Ryder's third in the Lynch. He won in 2019 with Stonebridge Soul and in 2013 with I Luv The Nitelife.

Twin B Joe Fresh paid $3.80 to win.

Front Page Story won the $125,000 Lynch Consolation I in 1:50.2. High Fashion Star finished second and Racin Hungry was third. Front Page Story was driven by Tim Tetrick for trainer Mark Steacy and owner Hudson Standardbred Stable. The White Birch Farm-bred daughter of Captaintreacherous—Wenditions has won three of 11 races this year and three of 19 lifetime, banking $144,492.

The winner of the $75,000 Lynch Consolation II was Mollop Hanover in 1:51.1. Lisa Lane was second and Treacherous Penny third. The Hanover Shoe Farms-bred daughter of Betting Line—Mayhem Seelster was driven by James MacDonald for trainer Anthony Beaton and owners West Wins Stable, Dumain Haven Farm, and Eric Good. Unraced at age 2, Mollop Hanover has won six of 10 starts and earned $74,850.

UP YOUR DEO RALLIES LATE TO CAPTURE BEAL MEMORIAL

Up Your Deo and trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt used a pocket trip behind Celebrity Bambino and pounced with an inside move in the stretch to win Saturday's (Aug. 19) $300,000 Earl Beal Jr. Memorial for 3-year-old trotters by 1-3/4 lengths over Kilmister in 1:52.3. Kierkegaard K finished third and Celebrity Bambino was fourth.

Oh Well went off stride going for the early lead from post eight, leaving Up Your Deo in front on the first turn before Celebrity

Bambino took the top spot as they reached the quarter in :27.3. Celebrity Bambino got to the half in :56 and three-quarters in 1:23.4, and remained in front into the stretch, but was unable to hold the position from there.

Up Your Deo came home fastest of all over the final quarter-mile, :28.3, to claim the victory.

"I was extremely confident (in the stretch)," co-owner and breeder Mike Gulotta of Deo Volente Farms said. "I saw him coming up the rail and I said it's over. He pulled away by a couple lengths; it was awesome. It's a thrill."

Winless in eight races at age 2, Up Your Deo has won four of seven races this year, including the MGM Yonkers Trot. He has earned $544,487 for owners Deo Volente Farms, Ake Svanstedt Inc., Suleyman Yuksel Stables, and Van Camp Trotting Corp.

"It's a tremendous high," Gulotta said. "He made us proud."

The win was Svanstedt's fourth of the day as a trainer/driver. It also was his third Beal title in the last four editions of the race.

Up Your Deo, a son of Walner—Grand Stand, paid $5.60 to win as the 9-5 favorite.

Black Magic upset at odds of 12-1 to win the $200,000 Beal Consolation I over favorite Crown and Devilish Hill. The colt was driven by David Miller for trainer Steve Cross and owners Richard Gutnick, Tom Pontone, and Joseph Lozito Jr. It was Black Magic's first win in 11 starts this season and sixth in 21 lifetime. The son of Full Count—Glisten Hanover, who was bred by Marvin Raber, upped his career earnings to $317,874.

Little Expensive won the $100,000 Beal Consolation II for driver Andy Miller and trainer Julie Miller. Brace For Landing finished second and Kobe B was third. Little Expensive is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Daniel Plouffe, and Jean Goehlen. The son of Muscle Hill—Seviyorum was bred by Stroy Inc. and has won two of seven races this season and four of 11 in his career, earning $100,762.

Confederate (Tim Tetrick) dominated the $300,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial.

CONFEDERATE STALKS, POUNCES IN HEMPT

After vaulting home with :25.4 closing quarters to win both the Meadowlands Pace and the Cane Pace, Confederate obliterated yet another field of 3-year-old male pacers in Saturday's (Aug. 19) $300,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, soaring off second-over cover to a 1:48.3 win — his sixth in seven tries this season.

The three innermost starters — Christchurch, Hungry Angel Boy and Stockade Seelster — threw down as the gates folded, and Christchurch (driven by Yannick Gingras) threaded up the pegs to secure the top spot through a :26.1 quarter. Despite sustained pressure from the parked Stockade Seelster (David Miller), Christchurch maintained the lead to a :53.3 half, and Confederate, whom Tim Tetrick rated fourth off the early skirmish, moved into the prime second-over striking spot.

"I got away fourth and was happy to be there, and they were racing up front," Tetrick said. "I had to pull at the half to follow Dave's parked horse — Dave's horse raced great, kept fighting all the way. My horse did the rest from there; he's pretty special."

To say that the homebred Sweet Lou—Geothermal colt did the rest from there was an understatement. After Christchurch hit three-quarters in 1:21, Confederate uncorked a three-wide rally turning for home, and he struck the front in the final sixteenth before widening his lead to three lengths at the winning post while in hand throughout. Stockade Seelster protected second after leveling off; Christchurch was a worn-down third.

"He just likes to win and he's super fast," said Tetrick, who has driven the Brett Pelling trainee for Diamond Creek Racing in all of his sophomore starts. "It's worked out that I've been able to race him off cover. He's sharp, and he loves passing horses. As long as the trip allows me to do that, I think the horse will last a lot longer doing that. Usually, these colts are tired by now or getting tired, and I think he's getting fresher and stronger. He loves his work."

Confederate, who paid $2.10 to win, has won 11 of 14 races lifetime and has banked $1,281,629 in purses.

After finishing a traffic-troubled sixth in the Adios and narrowly missing older company in an overnight event last week, Ken Hanover ($2.20) outlasted a bevy of challengers throughout a 1:49 mile to capture the $200,000 first consolation of the Hempt. The Captaintreacherous—KJ's Justine colt dueled wide of pole sitter Command through the entire first turn before clearing for control just past a :26.2 first quarter but found no breathers upon clearing as Ervin Hanover advanced uncovered to force a :53.1 half. As Ervin Hanover began to fade with three-eighths to go, Joemikiyoursofine mounted a three-wide push toward Ken Hanover, but the pacesetter did well to hold his ground to three-quarters in 1:20.3 — all while 20-1 long shot Command bided his time in the pocket. Command found room to take his shot in upper stretch, but Ken Hanover — driven out by Tetrick the length of the lane — clung to the lead by a diminishing neck over the game Command. Joemikiyoursofine saved third despite fading through the final turn.

Trainer Roland "Polie" Mallar co-owns Ken Hanover, now a 10-time winner with $353,395 in career earnings, with Patrick Leavitt, William Jordan and Dennis Osterholt.

Ohio invader Act Fast ($4.00) was a decisive front-end winner in the $100,000 second consolation. After driver Gingras floated Act Fast forward to clear Hungry Man at the end of a :27 first quarter, they traveled uncontested through middle splits of :54.3 and 1:22 before edging 2-3/4 lengths clear of Hungry Man at the end of a 1:49.3 mile. Lyons Surfing collared Lousain Bolt for third up the inside. Ron Burke trains the Act Fast, a Downbytheseaside—Act Like A Diva colt that is now a seven-time winner for Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Rich Lombardo Racing and Beastly LLC.

Bond's victory in the $250,000 Delmonica Hanover was one of four stakes wins on the card for Åke Svanstedt.

BOND AVENGES OAKS DEFEAT IN DELMONICA HANOVER

After losing in a photo finish to Heaven Hanover in the Hambletonian Oaks two weeks ago, Bond turned the tables on her rival in the $250,000 Delmonica Hanover, for 3-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday (Aug. 19) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. Bond took full advantage of a pocket trip behind Heaven Hanover before rallying up the open stretch to score in 1:52.1.

Bond and trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt made the strongest push for the early lead, clearing Blonde Bombshell on the first turn before ceding control to Heaven Hanover (driven by Tim Tetrick) at the conclusion of a :26.3 first quarter. Heaven Hanover stole a :56 half before bracing for a first-over attack from Quick Stop (Scott Zeron), who ascended out of fifth, on approach to the far turn to force the pace to quicken.

After controlling three-quarters in 1:23.4 and being nudged by Quick Stop through the far turn, Heaven Hanover was asked by Tetrick for all she had in the stretch – and Svanstedt dove to the open stretch with Bond. The Southwind Frank–Boccone Dolce filly surged in the final sixteenth to chase down an all-out Heaven Hanover and prevail by a head. Quick Stop finished a detached third after leveling off.

“It was a good horse that came up on the outside of us,” Svanstedt said of Heaven Hanover and the pocket trip she availed Bond. “She was a nice horse to sit behind.”

Of his own filly, Svanstedt was equally succinct: “I’m happy with her.”

Bond, now an 11-time winner from 16 starts with $908,165 in lifetime earnings, is owned by Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E and L Berg Inc. She paid $3.00 to win.

After her last four Plainridge Park appearances all resulted in victories, The Wise One ($26.00) took the show on the road in the $125,000 first consolation of the Delmonica Hanover, rallying out of mid-division to win in 1:54.1. Scott Zeron kept the Muscle Hill–Grandma’s Moni filly in sixth early as 25-1 long shot Kaddari tore through early fractions of :26.4 and :55.2. As both Portulaca and Fashion Annie broke stride up the backstretch, The Wise One inherited fourth before Kaddari hit three-quarters in 1:23.4 and began her bid on the far turn as Heart On Fire pulled the pocket to engage the pacesetter. Heart On Fire struck the front at the top of the stretch, but The Wise One reeled her in with a sixteenth to go and won going away by two lengths. Bella Macchiato chased evenly for third.

Domenico Cecere trains The Wise One, now a six-time winner with $172,475 in career earnings, for owner-breeder Moni Maker Stable.

In the $75,000 second consolation, Soderberg Bloodstock LLC’s Pure Hope S ($2.80) rode the pocket behind stablemate Wild Jiggy S from the bell until the top of the stretch, where trainer/driver Svanstedt hooked the Brilliantissime–Final Hope filly three-wide around dueling leaders to strike the front. Pure Hope S responded instantaneously and sprinted 2-1/4 lengths clear of Check Her Out to win in 1:54.1. Lie In Wait finished third.

SOUTHWIND TYRION BEST IN SEBASTIAN K

Southwind Tyrion won Saturday's (Aug. 19) $100,000 Sebastian K Invitational for older trotters by 1-1/2 lengths over Hillexotic in 1:50.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. On Higher Ground finished third.

Hillexotic took the lead following a first-turn battle with Southwind Tyrion on the way to a :26.4 opening quarter. He remained on top through a :55.4 half and reached three-quarters in 1:23.2 before Southwind Tyrion and trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt made their move and pulled away from the field down the stretch.

Southwind Tyrion is a 5-year-old son of Muscle Hill—Taylor Jean owned by S R F Stable, Ake Svanstedt Inc., Knutsson Trotting Inc. and Brittany Farms and Riverview. The Southwind Farms-bred stallion has won three of six races this season and 11 of 19 in his career, good for $441,123 in purses.

"He had a problem when he was (age) 2 and then didn't race at 3 because he had problems again, so we took it easy and waited until he was done with growing," Svanstedt said. "He had a lot of growth issues. But now he is good. He is starting to fulfill his potential."

Svanstedt trained and drove Sebastian K S, the world-record-setting trotter honored by the invitational.

Southwind Tyrion, the 1-2 favorite, paid $3 to win.

ALLYWAG HANOVER THREE-PEATS IN ALWAYS B MIKI

In the first 60 starts of his career, Allywag Hanover has only ventured to Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on three occasions — for a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event in 2020 and for the Always B Miki Invitational on the Sun Stakes programs of 2021 and 2022, winning all of them. On Saturday (Aug. 19), in his 61st start, Allywag Hanover made yet another triumphant trip into the mountains, winning his third consecutive edition of the Always B Miki, outpacing South Beach Star for a 1:48.4 score in the $100,000 pacing event.

Allywag Hanover and driver Todd McCarthy, widest of three early leavers, circled South Beach Star (driven by Brian Sears) on the first turn before pressing into Tattoo Artist (Tim Tetrack) through a :26.3 quarter and subsequently clearing for control just after straightening off the far turn. Once he cleared down to the pegs, Allywag Hanover was never in doubt, throwing down fractions of :54 and 1:20.4 before shaking free of his six rivals at head-stretch. The 6-year-old Captaintreacherous—Anderosa Hanover gelding sprinted 2-1/2 lengths clear under mild urging to defeat the rallying tandem of South Beach Star and Stonebridge Helios (Dexter Dunn), who were second and third, respectively.

"He's always been a horse that takes a handful of starts to come back into form, but he's certainly back to his best at the moment," McCarthy said of Allywag Hanover, who failed to finish better than fourth in his first five starts of the season before reeling off wins in the Sam McKee Memorial and the Always B Miki.

And while the journey was admittedly tougher than the pocket ride Allywag Hanover secured behind hot fractions in the McKee, McCarthy was pleased with how his charge responded to early exertion:

"It was a pretty tough win for him, working around to the front. He's a horse who likes to do it all the way, but that was pretty brave the way he did it today. He was covering the ground pretty well down the backstretch, and I was happy to let him try to get a head start on the other ones."

Brett Pelling trains Allywag Hanover, whose 26th career win lifted his bankroll to $1,822,292, for the Allywag Stable.

Fields set for Wellwood and Peaceful Way finals

by Grace Martin / Woodbine communications

Rookie trotters took center stage on Saturday (Aug. 19) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with eliminations for the $620,000 William Wellwood Memorial and $425,000 Peaceful Way Finals.

Three eliminations of the Wellwood and two eliminations of the Peaceful Way were contested.

Winter Soldier ($8.70) rallied to win the first Wellwood elimination for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Tony Alagna. The Face Time Bourbon—Jumalay colt went off at 3-1 and bounced back from his only career loss on Aug. 4.

My Way did the work on the front-end through fractions of :27.4, :58 and 1:26.1 before making a costly miscue at the top of the stretch. McCarthy and Winter Soldier elected to stay along the pylons before angling off the pylons to take advantage of a strong closing kick to score in 1:55.2.

Send It Hanover held on for second, while Masstercraft and Finite finished third and fourth respectively.

The Alagna trainee recorded his second career win for owners Peter Alagna and Pryde Stables.

McCarthy and Alagna teamed up again to capture the second Wellwood elimination with Mars Hill ($8.90).

Top Mast fought for the early lead and strolled along through the opening quarter in :29.1 before relinquishing control to Mars Hill (Muscle Hill—Cardinale). McCarthy stepped on the accelerator around the final turn and tripped the three quarters teletimer in 1:27. Mars Hill then stepped away from the field to the easiest of wins in 1:55.1.

Amazing Catch and Top Mast also secured spots in the final, while Jack N Abs finished fourth.

Heavy favorite T C I ($2.40) captured the final William Wellwood Memorial elimination for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke.

T C I got away third before rolling to the top just after the opening split. After a second quarter breather, T C I rolled along through three quarters in 1:25.4. In the stretch, T C I kicked away from competition to win wrapped up in a new lifetime best of 1:54.1.

Soar Higher and Bryant Bros S also guaranteed spots in the final and Thinker Monkey came in fourth.

T C I (David Miller) won the fastest of the three William Wellwood eliminations with a 1:54.1 score on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Drawn Impression (Louis-Philippe Roy) stopped the clock in 1:54 in the first of two Peaceful Way eliminations.

This son of Cantab Hall—Nicoles Promise improved to five for six with the elimination score. The Burke trainee has now earned $115,970 for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services Inc and Weaver Bruscelli LLC.

The top-three finishers from each Wellwood elimination advanced to the final. A single fourth-place finisher, drawn by lot, also advanced to the final. Finite won the draw and will race in the $620,000 final.

The winner of the William Wellwood Memorial will receive a free slot in the 2023 Mohawk Million on Sept. 23.

PEACEFUL WAY ELIMINATIONS:

Even-money choice Drawn Impression ($4.30) captured the first Peaceful Way elimination for driver Louis-Philippe Roy and trainer Luc Blais.

Tactical Strike exploded to the lead off the gate and led the field through fractions of :27.1, :56.4 and 1:25.3. After getting away fourth, Drawn Impression was right lined to pick up the live cover of Cheval Rapide just after the halfway point. Driver Louis-Philippe Roy moved Drawn Impression off cover, and she kicked home in :27.2 to win by an expanding 2 ¼ lengths in 1:54.

Replay here.

Graceful Design was second, while Tactical Strike, Vanjie Blue Chip and Woman of Passion rounded out the top five to advance to the final.

This daughter of Muscle Hill out of Emoticon is now two-for-two in her young career and boasts a bankroll of $23,500.

Tandem Hanover ($13.30) navigated an action filled second elimination to capture the second and final Peaceful Way elimination for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Andrew Harris.

Nautilus B led through a quick opening quarter of :27.3 before relinquishing command to Draw The Line just before the half. Tandem Hanover was right lined going into the final turn and quickly caught up to first up attacker, Go For Gaagaa No. Dunn efficiently moved Tandem Hanover off second over cover just past 3/4s in 1:25.1 and pulled away to romp in 1:54.3.

Willys Home Run closed up for second, while Draw The Line, Cool Ma Belle and Stubborn Chee claimed the remaining spots in the rich final.

The top-five finishers from each Peaceful Way elimination advanced to the $425,000 final.

Prince Edward Island

Covered Bridge and Jordan Stratton prevail in Gold Cup and Saucer 64

The favorite scored from the second tier at Red Shores Charlottetown.

by Melissa Keith

The 2023 edition of the Gold Cup and Saucer featured one of its strongest fields. Race 14 on Saturday night (Aug. 19) at Red Shores Charlottetown, PEI brought together nine top-class pacers that had advanced from last week's Gold Cup Trials (eliminations). With the purse of the final elevated to $100,000 (Canadian) by title sponsor Atlantic Lottery this year, three $12,500 Trials were needed. They were won by PL Ozzy (1:51.4), Funatthebeach N (1:50.4), and Covered Bridge (1:51.2).

Fast conditions after Friday night rain seemed to promise a potential record mile on Saturday night, but headwinds picked up and the temperature dropped as midnight (Atlantic) post time approached.

Track announcer Vance Cameron declared, "Ladies and gentlemen, it's time to get it on!" A past Breeders Crown champion was first off the gate. American History (Dale Spence) blasted to an early three-length advantage, overtaking Lawless Shadow (Tyler Moore) to his inside on the first turn. The 31-1 shot earned a "Boom! Just like that!" from Cameron, but soon paid the price for cutting the :26.1 opening panel.

Still leading by open lengths ahead of next-best Lawless Shadow at the half, American History reached that point in a sharp :53.4. Funatthebeach N, driven by Scott Young, tipped first-over from third on the third turn to challenge the pacesetter, with P L Ozzy (Jody Jamieson) hot on his heels from second over. Roll Em and Marc Campbell soon moved off the pylons from fourth to enter the outer flow, compelling PL Ozzy and also Covered Bridge (Jordan Stratton) to stack up wider to his outside approaching three-quarters.

Funatthebeach N made front as American History gave way, reaching the three-quarters in 1:22.4. A three-wide row of pacers closed in on Young's horse down the stretch, with 2023 Camluck Classic winner soaring past widest of all in a personal :27.3 last quarter for the 1:50.3h victory. His Jeff Gillis stablemate Funatthebeach N held on for place ahead of PL Ozzy and Roll Em.

A beaming Stratton described his winning Gold Cup and Saucer debut as more than a typical Grand Circuit victory: "It's definitely more. When they turn out the lights and everybody's cheering, it's electrifying."

He said the trip had its share of not-so-fun electrifying jolts as well.

Gail MacDonald
Covered Bridge (Jordan Stratton) overcame starting from the second tier to win the 64th Gold
Cup & Saucer on Saturday at Red
Shores Charlottetown in 1:50.3.

"I was a little upset that that one horse got between Funatthebeach and myself. I didn't really want to be third over, but you know, [Covered Bridge] overcame a tough trip, being wide through the backside and through the turn. I looked up and 'Beach' was turning for home, and I was a little nervous. I didn't know if I would get him, but [Covered Bridge] was tough in the stretch."

Stratton's original game plan changed early.

"I didn't know how Jody's horse [PL Ozzy] would handle the first turn," Stratton said. "I kind of wish I got in front of him. As good as [Covered Bridge] was tonight, he could have overcome anything. I really had him in a bad spot, but he got to the winner's circle. That's what good horses do."

Stratton, a Yonkers regular, was filled with praise for his time at Red Shores Charlottetown and at Randy and Donna Van Meers' Mount Herbert, PEI farm, where the two Jeff Gillis-trained horses spent their time between races. It was a very different experience from most modern harness racing, he said.

"First of all, all the fans here, but just all the big excitement leading up to the big race, the eliminations the week before. It's a thrill I hope every catch driver gets to experience."

While Stratton's favorite horse will "always" be the now-retired Bit Of A Legend N (p, 9, 1:49.4h; $2,569,621), he called Covered Bridge a close contender for second.

"He's a 100 per cent professional," Stratton said. "He knows his job. Even after the race, he slowed right down and let people pet him. He's a great animal."

Covered Bridge is a 7-year-old gelding by American Ideal out of Stonebridge Kisses, owned by Mark Ford of Campbell Hall, NY. The Gold Cup and Saucer was the pacer's 13th win from 25 starts this year.

To celebrate before leaving PEI, Covered Bridge (p, 4, 1:48.3m; $957,675) and his stablemate will get to enjoy some actual fun at the beach today (Aug. 20), said Donna Van Meer. It will mark the end of a memorable working vacation for Covered Bridge and Funatthebeach N.

"It's quieter out there because it's off the track. [Covered Bridge] likes it out there," she said. "He got turned out and jogged every day. He likes the paddocks... I think [both horses are] leaving Monday, after they go swimming in the ocean tomorrow."

Covered Bridge paid $3.40 to win.

Also last night at Red Shores, it was announced that for the 35th anniversary of Standardbred Canada's O'Brien Awards, the gala will be returning to Charlottetown on Saturday, Feb. 3, 2024.

Jim Taggart wins six at Monticello

After winning three consecutive races on Wednesday, leading dash winning driver Jimmy Taggart Jr. continued his hot streak at Monticello, winning six out of the eight races on Thursday (Aug. 17) at the Mighty M.

He swept the first three races of the card with Send It In Jerome 1:55.2, $3.60, Little Admiral 1:57.1, $17.40 and KJ Hunting 1:58, $4.40. He then went on to score with YS Sunshine 1:57.1, $2.00 before concluding the day by winning the last two races on the card aboard Tolly Ho 1:57, $32.60 and Cashncam 1:55.2, $8.20 for the finale with trainer Jim Doherty Jr.

With nine wins in two days, the 53-year-old reinsman now has 141 wins on the year and has padded his lead over second place driver Greg Merton, who has 129 wins. His wins have amassed purse earnings of $688,607.

The Honesdale, PA native is no stranger to the winner's circle at Monticello Raceway, as he was last year's leading dash winning driver and has several dash titles under his belt over the years. Taggart also drives at Tioga Downs, where he is currently in fourth place for leading drivers with 38 trips to the winner's circle.

Dawn Lupul joins BC Racebook team at Hastings Racecourse and Fraser Downs Racetrack

With Hastings Racecourse having rounded the turn for its stretch run to the completion of the 2023 thoroughbred campaign, a major addition to the BC racing scene becomes official with the appointment of Dawn Lupul as manager of racing and communications effective Monday (Aug. 28).

"We are thrilled to have Dawn join the team," said Matthew Ruhlman, chief operating officer of BC Racebook. "She is a highly respected professional in the industry, uniquely talented with both breeds and we are excited to bring her fresh perspective to BC as we continue to grow the business."

Lupul will be overseeing numerous key elements of the live racing operations at both Hastings Racecourse and Fraser Downs when the standardbred season opens Sept. 14 with a revamped broadcast in high definition.

"I am beyond excited for the challenges this new role brings," said Lupul. "It is an opportunity to use every facet of my career to help promote the long and storied history of horse racing in BC."

Born in Edmonton, her career includes decades of experience as an owner, breeder and trainer in both thoroughbred and standardbred racing that led to becoming a respected analyst and broadcaster. Lupul was the voice of Woodbine's simulcast broadcasting for 10 years and has appeared in many network television specials, including having been invited to call races at Ascot Racecourse in Perth, Australia.

In her role with BC Racebook, Lupul will apply her vast experience in corporate communications and stakeholder relations in promoting and showcasing live racing at Hastings and Fraser Downs to help elevate both brands.

Hastings Racecourse hosts the third leg of the Western Canadian Triple Crown on Sept. 16 with the $125,000 BC Derby. It follows the $125,000 Manitoba Derby at Assiniboia Downs (Aug. 7) and $200,000 Canadian Derby at Century Mile in Edmonton (Aug. 26).

Scranton man wins trip to Dan Patch Awards

Harold Whymeyer of Scranton, PA, was the grand prize winner of a trip for two to the Dan Patch Awards weekend, sponsored by Caesars Entertainment.

The contest was run by the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) and Scott Alberg.

Whymeyer and Tom Daly of Rockaway, NJ, were the only two people out of more than 400 contestants to correctly select the winning exacta in the $1-million Hambletonian on Aug. 5 at The Meadowlands.

Both winners were entered in the random number indicator spin wheel that was done live on the USHWA Facebook page and Whymeyer was selected the grand prize winner while Daly won a $250 cash card for second place. The third-place prize of a $150 cash card was won by Dragomir Cosanici of Elk Grove, CA.

"I have been playing the contests on Scott Alberg's page for a few years now," Whymeyer said. "I won once before when the prizes were a box of candy bars. This is a little different."

How long has Whymeyer been following harness racing?

"My dad and I have been going to the track since I was a kid," Whymeyer said. "I have always loved harness racing. Been going to Pocono Downs before it became a casino."

Whymeyer's grand prize includes roundtrip airfare for two to Orlando, FL, a two-night stay at Rosen's Centre Resort, two tickets to the Dan Patch Awards dinner on Feb. 25, a $250 cash gift card for expenses and access to the USHWA Hospitality Suite Saturday and Sunday.

"Of course, this is a great trip to win," Whymeyer said. "I look forward to meeting many of the great horse people and the award winners."

Perhaps the most important question was if Whymeyer backed up his contest play. Hambletonian winner Tactical Approach paid $26.80 to win from post 10 and the exacta of 10-2 paid $159.40.

"Of course, I bet it," Whymeyer said. "I even had it to win. Scott [Zeron], 'the money man' always shows up. All and all, it was a great day."

U.S. Harness Writers Association

Upset winner in H3R Breeders Trophy Series

It was only the second time that harness racing driver Guy Gagnon sat behind Tite Beer En Mass (Muscle Mass), but horse and driver seems to get along very well as the 8-1 longshot led from start to finish in the Breeders Trophy Series Friday (Aug. 18) at the Hippodrome 3R.

This is the final preliminary round of the series. Now the top eight point earners will return on Sunday (Sept. 10) for their respective $65,000 finals and Tite Beer En Mass will be a finalist.

The fifth race $10,000 division for 3-year-old trotting fillies saw Tite Beer En Mass and Gagnon leave from post 2 and take the early lead with Kenogami Courage (Stephane Brosseau) sitting in second place as they passed the first quarter in :28.4.

Gagnon was then able to back down the pace going to the half mile in just 1:00 and that flushed race favorite, Don't Treat Me Bad and driver Jocelyn Gendron first-over to challenge. But as they raced down the backstretch, Don't Treat Me Bad had trouble keeping up on the outside against Kenogami Courage while Tite Beer En Mass held the field at bay with a two-length lead going by the three-quarters in 1:30.2.

As they started down the stretch, Tite Beer En Mass held that two length advantage right to the wire in 2:00.3 with Don't Treat Me Bad second and Kenogami Courage third.

It was a lifetime mark for Tite Beer En Mass, who is now trained by Gagnon for the Maguire Stable that bred and co-owns the filly with Jane Francois Maguire and Julie Malenfant. She paid $19.30 to win. It was her first win in eight starts this season.

Unlike Tite Beer En Mass who won for the first time this season, the ninth race $10,000 Breeders Trophy Series leg for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters saw the overwhelming race favorite, Kinnder Motown (Muscle Mass) make it a clean sweep of the preliminary rounds.

Illusioniste Gale (Jerome Lombart) was first on the lead with Auguste (Stephane Brosseau) sitting the pocket trip to the first quarter in :28.1.

Then it was the 1-5 race favorite Kinnder Motown and driver Robert Shepherd coming first-over right at the half mile in :59. They were able to advance and collar race leader Illusioniste Gale in the back and take over the lead right before the three-quarters in 1:28.2 and started to pull away from the field.

Down the stretch no one was going to catch Kinnder Motown as he went on to win by five and one-half lengths in 1:58.4. Timonier (Pascal Berube) was second with Auguste third.

It was the sixth win in just nine starts this year for Kinnder Motown, who is trained by Shepherd's wife, Isabelle Darveau, for owner Rejean Lemieux of Quebec, paying $2.50 to win.

"He trots nice and he's smart," said Shepherd about Kinnder Motown. "He can leave; you can take him back. He does whatever you ask of him. He has a beautiful gait and he's big. He can race from anywhere; he's pretty smart that way."

Track Notes: Shepherd had the hot hands Friday scoring a driving triple while Gagnon had both a driving and training double. Live racing resumes at H3R this afternoon (Aug. 20) with the third and final preliminary round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old pacing colts and fillies. There are four $7,500 divisions, two for the colts and two for the fillies. Post time is at noon. For a free race program, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.
