Dexter Dunn and Shane Tritton share thoughts on Leap To Fame

The expats are following the $2.1 million TAB Eureka.

by Adam Hamilton

Dan Costello

A victory in the $2.1 million TAB Eureka on Sept. 2 would put Leap To Fame into the discussion about the best pacers in the world that are currently racing.

DOWN UNDER
with ADAM HAMILTON

Former Down Under stars Dexter Dunn and Shane Tritton will be watching closely as Leap To Fame headlines a stellar field in the world's richest race, the $2.1 million TAB Eureka to be held on Sept. 2.

Dunn and Tritton admit to having been captivated, like so many others, by the Queensland-based Leap To Fame, who has won 23 of his 30 starts (with five second-place finishes) and only been beaten once from 10 starts across almost the past 11 months.

Some of his wins have been so mesmerizing he has drawn comparisons with some of the greatest pacers Down Under has seen.

And he's even had some asking if Leap To Fame is the best pacer in the world right now.

A defeat in the Group 1 Blacks A Fake at Albion Park on July 22 tempered that slightly, but it's hard to know why when you dissect the performance.

Leap To Fame finished second after sitting parked in near track record time, and covered about 30m further than winner, Swayzee, who beat him by 6.2m.

“If you’re looking for a comparison to horses racing in the U.S., there are many, many very fast horses here. Bulldog Hanover is the fastest horse I have ever seen and that’s hands down, but if you asked me who would I rather train Bulldog or Leap To Fame... I would take Leap To Fame in a heartbeat. Horses like Leap To Fame are one-in-a-million, to be so strong, versatile and packs a champion’s will to win.”

~ Shane Tritton

But there’s more, lots more.

Leap To Fame copped a flat tire with 300m left in the race. The tube came loose and wrapped around his wheel, effectively seizing it and turning it into a break.

Would he have won without that happening? Who knows, but it can’t have been much help at all.

Dixon was oozing with pride and described it as the biggest race of Leap To Fame’s career, a horse he has previously said has been “80 years in the making for my family, 50 years for dad [Bill] and 30 years for me.”

As strong as this epic inaugural TAB Eureka field is, Leap To Fame’s resume and aura have him a $1.60 favorite (for a $1 bet) even before the posts are drawn next Wednesday morning (Aug. 30).

Dunn, now firmly established as one of the top drivers in the world, said he’s been watching Leap To Fame’s rise with great interest from the U.S.

“He’s looked like a killer at times,” he said. “Every now and again you see a horse who just stops you in your tracks and Leap To Fame is one of them.

“It’s not just what he’s been winning, but how he’s doing it. He just seems to do it so easily.”

Another former Aussie making his name in the U.S. is Shane Tritton, who admits he still follows the Down Under scene very closely and with strong interest.

Tritton is even more lavish in his opinion of Leap To Fame.

"I remember having a conversation about Leap To Fame with several people in Australia when he won the Victoria Derby [October, last year]," Tritton said. "I said back then that he is without a doubt the best horse currently racing in Australia. My comment before this preparation was that he is a combination of Blacks A Fake and Our Sir Vancelot [two former Aussie greats]. That's how I felt about a year ago. To see him come back to racing the way he has this campaign is exciting to say the least.

"There have been many great horses over the past decade, but for me Leap To Fame has the potential to rewrite what the word champion means. The likes of Blacks A Fake, Im Themightyquinn, Our Sir Vancelot, Lochinvar Art and Lazarus, they all earned the right to be called champions. I'm sure Leap To Fame is on the same trajectory, and maybe, just maybe, he could be something we haven't seen before Down Under."

Tritton sees and races against loads of the best North American pacers and believes Leap To Fame would at least hold his own with any of them.

"If you're looking for a comparison to horses racing in the U.S., there are many, many very fast horses here," Tritton said. "Bulldog Hanover is the fastest horse I have ever seen and that's hands down, but if you asked me who would I rather train Bulldog or Leap To Fame... I would take Leap To Fame in a heartbeat. Horses like Leap To Fame are one-in-a-million, to be so strong, versatile and packs a champion's will to win.

"I believe Leap To Fame would be a champion no matter what part of the world he raced in and not many horses could lay claim to that. My fingers are crossed he continues to be the horse we all believe he is. Harness racing, especially Down Under, needs a champion and I believe Leap To Fame will be that."

He may have to be a champion, or very close to it, to beat the likes of Miracle Mile winner Catch A Wave, Australia's top 3-year-old The Lost Storm and mighty mare Encipher, depending on where he draws and how next Saturday's race is run.

In recent times in Australia, Ride High looked like one right out of the box, but succumbed to injury in his prime.

Then came Captain Ravishing, who, interestingly, returns from a six-month spell in the TAB Eureka. He looked like the next big thing before losing his mojo when second and seventh respectively in the Chariots Of Fire and Miracle Mile earlier this year in Sydney.

Sceptics, rightfully, want to see more of Leap To Fame before anointing him.

But he will love the big Menangle track, eat every step of the grueling and rare 2400m trip at the track and he's got an almost sublime mix of brute strength and turn of foot.

What greater stage for him to make a statement than the first running of the world's richest harness race.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Alex Urbanski is focused on the present while planning for the future

by Chris Lomon

The foundation of trainer Alex Urbanski's success story is built on staying ahead of the game.

It has long been a part of her identity, an uncanny ability to enjoy the moment, while also looking beyond the task at hand.

Case in point, a $6,000 purchase that the third-generation horse person made as a young teenager.

"I bought the mare Uilleann, who was a Chris Ryder horse," said Urbanski, who decided to be home-schooled after her freshman year to spend more time with horses. "I was 14 when I bought her from Gilbert Garcia-Herrera. I cleaned stalls for a whole summer so that I could buy her. I wanted to race her and then have her as a broodmare."

A hard-knocking daughter of McArdle, Uilleann was a $25,000 purchase at the 2011 Lexington Select Yearling Sale who would make 252 starts and earn just shy of $190,000 over her lengthy career.

After a third-place finish at Freehold in her final race on Feb. 28, 2020, Uilleann was retired by Urbanski and bred to Sunfire Blue Chip.

"Right now, I have five horses," she said. "I have Uilleann and a 2-year-old that's getting ready to qualify soon. I have a yearling out of Uilleann and now she's back in foal. I'm trying to build my stable through her. I want the babies, horses that are my own."

It is, in many ways, a perfect example of how Urbanski operates: focus on the present and plan for the future.

Urbanski, who grew up on her family's farm in Jackson, NJ, and earned her trainer's license in March 2019, earned her first training win with Mister Love, a son of Heifetz Hanover she purchased from Maryland owner Marjorie Kazmaier.

“I’m constantly travelling, driving all over the East Coast – Pennsylvania, Maryland, lots of other places, too – to race my horses. Anywhere I can race, I will go there. I’m not afraid to put the work in. Being open-minded is important, taking people’s suggestions... if I have a question I don’t hesitate to ask. I’m not afraid to ask someone who knows a lot more than I do.”

~ Alex Urbanski

Two months after she welcomed the pacer into her barn, the brown gelding cruised to a four-length victory in 1:57.2 at Freehold on Nov. 20, 2019.

In 2021, Urbanski won seven races and posted 37 top-three finishes from 87 starters.

“This sport is all about work ethic,” she said. “You need to put in the time to see the results. That’s something you learn as soon as you become part of this industry.”

Putting in those long hours, in the barn and on the road, is something Urbanski embraces.

So, too, is listening to and learning from more seasoned horse people.

“I’m constantly travelling, driving all over the East Coast – Pennsylvania, Maryland, lots of other places, too – to race my horses. Anywhere I can race, I will go there. I’m not afraid to put the work in. I would also say being open-minded is important, taking people’s suggestions. Whether it’s my dad [John], my uncle [Ned], or drivers, a lot of people have been in this longer than I have, so if I have a question I don’t hesitate to ask. I’m not afraid to ask someone who knows a lot more than I do.”

Alex is also undaunted by having a lot on her plate.

Whether it's training her stable of five, including Princess Glydana, an 8-year-old daughter of Betterthancheddar whom she plans on breeding after the bay mare is retired, or considering an alternative racing path, the 22-year-old is content with a busy life.

"I just finished the judging course at Saratoga," she said. "I went out there for eight days. I passed four of the five tests, and I have to retake one of them. I have that as a backup plan in case I don't want to train horses one day. But I want to stay in the industry. I'm still a student at Ocean County College, but I haven't finished my courses for my business degree yet. Right now, I would like to expand my stable."

Her greatest satisfaction is watching her horses compete throughout the northeastern United States. Watching her pacers and trotters cross the wire first is admittedly a huge thrill, but there are equally, if not more important, outcomes that make her the happiest.

"The most rewarding part is going to the winner's circle," Alex said. "There is nothing better than that feeling, but I love my horses. It's not all about the money. That's secondary for me. You want to win and be successful, but it's getting to work with them, care for them and find them a good home when their racing days are over."

That's the plan for Mister Love.

"I've raced him all year and he has made just shy of $1,500," Alex said. "But I love taking him to the races, being around him and enjoying his company. He's the love of my life. It doesn't matter if he makes money. I just like spending the day with him. I'm already putting something in the works as far as his retirement plans. I contacted some police departments, so there is a possibility he could be doing riding patrol."

All part of the Alex's way of thinking.

As to where this chapter of her career will take her, she's not quite certain.

One guarantee, however, is the support she will continue to receive from her family.

"My mom isn't a horse person, but she loves the horses," Alex said. "We have a great relationship. My father and I are constantly travelling together. If we aren't, it's because I'm going one way and he's going the other way. I'm with him and my brother [John] 24/7. I love working with my family. Same thing with my uncle Ned. He doesn't work in our stable, but we talk all the time, every day. So, it's great."

On this day, Alex was off to Chester for a day of racing at Harrah's Philadelphia.

There was no need for any long-term planning on the drive from her home in New Jersey.

Instead, it was a time to be in the moment, listen to music and sing along to the tunes.

"I enjoy country music," she said. "That's my go-to. Warren Zeiders, he's my favorite country singer. There is also Morgan Wallen, Luke Combs and others I listen to. I'm definitely singing along. I did a karaoke night once and I don't think anyone wants to hear me sing after that performance."

Nothing really to fuss over for the horsewoman who knows what it takes, present and future, to hit all the right notes.

German Derby win for Propulsion son

by Thomas Hedlund

Propulsion, who began his sire career strongly in 2022 with the biggest win in the $800,000 Kriterium in Sweden (Xanthus Harvey), again showed proof of his abilities as a sire as the $290,000 German Derby for 4-year-olds was held in Berlin on Sunday (Aug. 20) afternoon.

Trainer and driver Josef Franzl had his Schampus in the Derby and the talented Propulsion son faced tough opponents in Gio Cash and Y Not Diamant and it was the former who controlled the race on the lead, while Y Not Diamant had to play most of his cards throughout the last turn when he was given the signal to attack, on the far outside for driver Robin Bakker.

Y Not Diamant looked strong at the top of the stretch but in the pocket, Franzl waited for some separation for Schampus and when the opening appeared, Schampus sprinted to a safe win in a stakes record 1:54.4 over the 1.2 miles. Y Not Diamant was the runner up, with Gio Cash third.

Schampus was Propulsion's first winner as a sire. The German-bred trotter claimed a Breeders Crown as a 2-year-old and now he has crowned his career with a Derby victory in his home country.

Harris hopes for calm in Peaceful Way

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Andrew Harris liked Tandem Hanover when he purchased her as a yearling at last fall's Standardbred Horse Sale – he wouldn't have bid $510,000 if he didn't – and the co-owner/trainer remains high on the female trotter as she prepares for Saturday's (Aug. 26) $425,000 Peaceful Way Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Coincidentally, the name of the race is exactly what Harris hopes to see from Tandem Hanover when she gets on the track – a peaceful way.

Tandem Hanover, a full sister to multiple Grand Circuit winner Temporal Hanover out of the family of 2006 U.S. Horse of the Year Glidemaster, won one of last week's two Peaceful Way eliminations and will start Saturday from post 2 with driver Dexter Dunn. She has posted two wins and three thirds in five races this season.

Her 1:54.2 gate-to-wire victory on July 7 in a division of the Kindergarten Classic Series at The Meadowlands is tied for the sixth-fastest winning mile of the year in North America by a 2-year-old filly trotter, and her 1:54.3 off-the-pace triumph in her Peaceful Way elim is the second fastest of the season for a rookie filly trotter on Canadian soil.

"She's a special little filly, she just gets a little excited sometimes," Harris said. "If she stays nice and relaxed, she can do wonderful things."

"[The elimination] was exactly how good she can be when she's behaving. It was awesome to see her come from off the pace and how relaxed she was that day. It was a totally different filly. If we can keep her that way, I think the sky is the limit for her."

Tandem Hanover won her career debut, the aforementioned Kindergarten victory, and then had consecutive third-place finishes in divisions of the New Jersey Sire Stakes. Next came the NJSS Consolation final, where she sprinted to the half-mile point in :55.4 and led into deep stretch before making a break to finish second-placed-third.

"She wasn't right [in her third start]; I think she was a little sick," Harris said. "She came back the next time and was back to feeling good, but she went too fast to the half, which is where she lost the race. She didn't let Dexter go to the half in something like 56 [seconds] and change, she did it in :55 and change. She was getting tired. I think that cost her."

Harris has spent the season tinkering with Tandem Hanover's equipment in an effort to get the filly to relax. After her elim, he believes she might be set.

"She's going to be one of those fillies that we try to teach her to do it rather than just letting her do it," Harris said. "When you let her do it, you can't hold her. It seems like every time I raced her, I learned a little bit more and I'd have to change a little bit more. [The elimination] was the best I've seen her. Dexter was happy with her. I think we've finally got her set up to where I feel confident that I don't have to make any changes this week."

Harris owns Tandem Hanover with William Pollock and Bruce Areman. The daughter of Walner—Think Twice has earned $33,100 this season.

The winner of the other Peaceful Way elimination was Luc Blais-trained Drawn Impression, whose 1:54 triumph makes her the fastest 2-year-old trotter in Canada this year. She will start from post 5 with driver Louis-Philippe Roy. The daughter of Muscle Hill—Emoticon Hanover is 2-for-2 this season for breeder/owner Determination.

Blais and Determination campaigned Emoticon Hanover, who was an O'Brien Award winner in 2018 and two-time Breeders Crown champion (as well as two-time Crown runner-up).

"She raced really big," Harris said about Drawn Impression. "She's a really nice filly out of a really nice mare. It will be a good race. If my filly behaves, I'm pretty confident we have a great shot."

In addition to the Peaceful Way, Mohawk on Saturday hosts the $620,000 William Wellwood Memorial, which was open to all 2-year-old trotters. Winter Soldier, Mars Hill, and T C I captured last week's eliminations. T C I was the fastest of the trio, scoring in a career-best 1:54.1 as he picked up his fifth victory in six starts.

The winner of the William Wellwood Memorial will receive a free slot in the 2023 Mohawk Million on Sept. 23.

SIRES STAKES

Palone, Campbell, Runthetable Stables sweep Meadows PASS; Palone wins 7 overall by Evan Pattak for the Meadows

Standardbred Owners Association

Executive Game and his stablemate, Greenspan, each won a split, giving Dave Palone, trainer Jim Campbell and owner Runthetable Stables a sweep of Saturday's (Aug. 19) $155,160 Pennsylvania Sires Stake for freshman colt and gelding trotters at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Including the PASS sweep, Palone piloted seven winners on the 13-race card, the second time in eight days he's recorded a seven-bagger.

Executive Game had won his last three starts – each a PA Stallion Series division – to clinch a spot in the $40,000 championship, so there was nothing to lose by stepping up to the PASS. As the gate folded, though, it seemed there would be little to gain, as the Bar Hopping—Broadway Jo Ell gelding got away sixth.

However, he was out uncovered at the three-eighths and steadily advanced on the leader, Highly Motivated, edging him by a nose in 1:56 to match his career best. Bird And Grenade was a close-up third in the lightning lane.

"I wanted to race him off a helmet, but he was a little flat footed going out of there," Palone said. "Rather than force the issue, we just took our lumps early. When the brakes came on, I just kind of set him out. I thought he might win a fight through the stretch, but I didn't expect it to be that close."

Greenspan considered an early seat, but when Ordained broke on the lead, Greenspan motored right on to the point. From there, the Greenshoe—Firm To Stay gelding faced no serious challenges, drawing off to triumph by 3-3/4 lengths in 1:56.2. Reformation and Greenback Session completed the ticket.

"It was kind of a tactical thing," Palone said. "It presented itself that I could control the race. I thought if I turned it into a sprint, they'd have trouble getting around this big guy. He was a little immature when Jim brought him over here the first time, but he's beaten a couple horses and matured. He was way, way handier today."

It was Greenspan's second PASS victory, securing his berth in the $260,000 (est.) final.

$60,000 PA STALLION SERIES – 2-YEAR-OLD COLT & GELDING TROTTERS

Two Times The Moni, Smarter Than You and My Bar Tab each captured a division, with Chris Page enjoying a stakes double behind Two Times The Moni and Smarter Than You.

On Aug. 4 at The Meadows, Two Times The Moni took himself out of a stallion series split at The Meadows – and may well have cost himself a ticket to the championship – when he brushed the starting gate and broke stride. Although his driver that day, Anthony MacDonald, blamed himself for the miscue, Saturday's (Aug. 19) performance by the son of International Moni – Creditomyfamily showed how much he's learned.

Rather than rushing or shying from the gate, he timed it perfectly with Page, found a good early seat and closed strongly in the lane to score in 1:57, a lifetime mark. Put Option Hanover was second, beaten a 1/2 length, while 3-5 favorite Usain Hanover settled for show.

"He wasn't bad at the gate today; he was a little aggressive in the post parade," Page said. "Two men and a strong baby couldn't have held him. But in the race, he was a complete professional."

Tim Twaddle trains Two Times The Money and owns with Micki Rae Stables LLC.

Live racing at The Meadows resumes today when the program features a $1,460.53 carryover in the Early Pentafecta (race 4). First post is 12:45 p.m.

Geocentric preserves perfect record at Red Mile

by Kimberly French for Red Mile

On Monday (Aug. 21) Red Mile hosted one $80,000 third round Kentucky Sire Stakes leg, one $30,000 third round leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series and two $15,000 third round legs of the Kentucky Goldenrod Series for freshman pacing fillies. Heavy favorite Geocentric did not disappoint and remains a perfect five-for-five in her young career after hitting the finish line in 1:51 in her respective Kentucky Sire Stakes contest.

Geocentric (Sweet Lou—Geometry) began her mile from post position 3 in the field of six. The filly, in rein to Tim Tetrick, settled in third as Seeuontheotherside (Tony Hall) led the field through a first quarter-mile in :28.3. Geocentric and her driver decided to brush to the lead at the half-mile marker.

After establishing fractions of :56.4 and 1:25.1, the outcome of the race was never in doubt as Geocentric glided home with a :25.4 final panel. Seeuontheotherside held for second and Capytreach (Scott Zeron) was third.

Trained by Brian Brown, Geocentric is the swiftest freshman pacer of the season. The filly was bred by Diamond Creek Farm and was purchased for $55,000 at last year's Standardbred Horse Sale by Milton Leeman, Alan Keith, James Stambaugh and Joe Sbrocco.

Geocentric paid $2.10 to her supporters.

COMMONWEALTH SERIES DIVISION GOES TO FEARLESS BETTOR

Driver Joey Putnam and Fearless Bettor got the best of favorite Flawless (Yannick Gingras) to win by a neck in 1:51.2 in the sole $30,000 third round of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for freshman filly pacers. American Hope (Todd McCarthy) was third.

Trained by Steve Elliott, the daughter of Betting Line—No Fear Dear improved her record to 7 3-3-0 and boosted her bankroll to $76,000.

The filly was bred by Anvil And Lace Farm and was purchased by her trainer and William Salmeri for $35,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Fearless Bettor paid $6.86 to win as the public's second choice in the field of 10.

ANDY MILLER SNARES 10,000TH VICTORY; KARL BLOWS THE DOORS OFF HIS RIVALS AT RED MILE

Driver Andy Miller became the 21st driver in North America to win 10,000 races on Sunday (Aug. 20) at Red Mile. He steered Samwise The Brave to his first career victory in four starts in 1:56.1 in a $15,000 third leg of the Kentucky Goldenrod Series for male sophomore trotters. The card in Lexington featured 10 stakes contests on a 13-race card and demonstrated Karl (Yannick Gingras) is another colt to keep an eye on moving forward after a dominating performance in the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes third round action in his second start.

After recovering from an early break Samwise The Brave took the lead at the half-mile marker from Six Pack Mack (Patrick Ryder) after a first panel in :29.1. It was all him and Miller from there. The son of champions Greenshoe and The Ice Dutchess provided Miller with his milestone triumph.

He set fractions of :57 and 1:26.1 en route to his first victory.

Paying $7.06 to win as the public's third choice, Samwise The Brave is conditioned by Andy's wife, Julie. He was purchased for $150,000 at the 2022 Standardbred Horse Sale by Patrick Hoopes. The colt was bred by Coyote Wynd Farms.

Miller has been a staple in the harness racing industry for decades. He has earned more than $138 million from 64,480 trips to the post.

KARL SERVES NOTICE HE IS A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Karl (Tactical Landing—Avalicious) absolutely rolled to victory from post position 7 for trainer Nancy Takter in 1:52.1 in the Kentucky Sire Stakes division for 2-year-old male trotters as the top choice at the windows.

The colt was a $135,000 yearling purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Christina Takter, her daughter, Nancy, Black Horse Farms Racing, Crawford Farms Racing and Bender Sweden Inc. Karl was bred by Crawford Farms LLC.

He paid $2.56 to win. Topmost (Chris Page) was second and Vocalize (Todd McCarthy) was third.

ALWAYS B NAUGHTY REBOUNDS IN THE BLUEGRASS

Always B Naughty (Dexter Dunn) out-finished favored Strong Poison (Gingras) to win the second leg of the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes for sophomore pacing fillies in 1:48.2.

The daughter of Always B Miki and winner of the $114,777 Adioo Volo at The Meadows on July 29 collected her ninth win from 14 starts and has now earned $224,244 in purse money.

Trained by Nancy Takter, Always B Naughty was purchased by her conditioner, Let It Ride Stables, J L Benson Stables and R.B.H Ventures Inc. at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $44,000.

The filly did not compete as a freshman but has illustrated her ability this season. She paced a :25.2 last quarter-mile to vanquish Strong Poison. Zanatta (Brian Sears) was third.

ZERON SCORES A DOUBLE IN KENTUCKY COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Pilot Atlee Bender and pupil International Law (International Moni—Love N Lindy) remained a perfect three-for-three after triumphing in the third $30,000 leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old male trotters.

Bred by K R Breeding LLC, International Law is owned by Ervin Miller Racing Stable, Douglas Overhiser, D & M Trading It and John Stefanos.

International Law paid $5.42 to win.

Fly By (Zeron) broke his maiden with a 1:53.4 victory for trainer Tony Alagna in the second $30,000 division of the Commonwealth Series for freshman trotting colts. The son of Chapter Seven—Fly Angel Fly paid $8.80 to win.

Bred by Al Libfeld, Marvin Katz and Sam Goldband, Fly By was a $275,000 purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Marvin Katz, Al Libfeld and Pryde Stables.

Merriman doubles up in Ohio Sires Stakes action

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

The fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes wrapped up Saturday night (Aug. 19) at Eldorado Scioto Downs with two $55,000 divisions of 2-year-old colt trotters. Aaron Merriman drove both winners as he piloted Royal Precedent and Spaaaanzano to victory.

In the first division, Merriman took Royal Precedent to the lead heading to the half-mile pole. Royal Precedent held the top spot until the final turn when You Don't Fool Me took the lead. As the two turned for home, Royal Precedent retook the lead and held on to win by a head in 1:56.2. The son of Creatine has won five of six starts for trainer Sam Schillaci, three of the wins coming in Ohio Sires Stakes action. Owned by Claude Gendreau Stable, Royal Precedent has earned $116,500 this year.

Don't Fool Me was second with Deville Hill third.

In the second division, Spaaaanzano and Merriman grabbed the lead heading to the first quarter and made it look easy winning by four lengths in 1:56.2. Trained by Chris Beaver, the Coraggioso gelding has won all five starts this year, three of them in sires stakes action. Beaver co-owns Spaaaanzano with Spaaaartners, Bill Manes, and Leo Fleming. Spaaaanzano has earned $178,250 this year.

Rose Run Zoom finished second with Tennessee Tom third.

Ohio Sires Stakes action resumes with the fifth leg for 2-year-old filly trotters on Thursday (Aug. 24), at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

REPORT

OSS favorites roll at Woodbine Mohawk Park

by Austin Stanton / Ontario Racing Management

Odds on favorites won all three $70,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday night (Aug. 19) at Woodbine Mohawk Park with Funtime Bayama, Chain Gang, and Mirage Hanover emerging victorious.

Funtime Bayama started the night rolling to a gate-to-wire victory in race one with Sylvain Filion at the lines for the first time. Filion's father Yves Filion bred and owns the He's Watching gelding under his Bayama Farms banner. Yves drove him in his first two starts, finishing second on both occasions.

"The last two starts I raced him he showed to me that he could act like a super horse, and he proved it tonight," said Yves. "He won like a champion, and raced like a champion, and that's what he showed me a couple of weeks ago. He proved it tonight."

Sylvain chose to drive Funtime Bayama over Do Better, who he'd guided to five straight wins to begin his career, including a pair of OSS wins, and a sweep of the Battle of Waterloo elimination and final.

"I was sure he was a good horse, but I didn't know how good he was," said Sylvain. "This time around I said maybe I should try him out and see for myself how good he is, and he showed me something else."

Recently minted Hall of Famer Chris Christoforou picked up the drive on Do Better, and engineered a pocket trip for the Bettor's Delight gelding but Funtime Bayama showed another gear, pacing home in :26.4 to win by four lengths in a time of 1:52.

Do Better was bred by Robert McIntosh Stables Inc, C S X Stables, and Al McIntosh Holdings, and is owned by Robert McIntosh Stables Inc, Al McIntosh Holdings Inc, and Mardon Stables. Through just six career starts he has earned over $195,000.

Funtime Bayama has banked $64,730 this season, and paid $3.40 for the win.

In race 3, the second OSS race of the night, Millar Farms homebred Chain Gang continued his impressive juvenile campaign for trainer Nick Gallucci.

James MacDonald positioned the Bettor's Delight colt in fourth out of the gate, as Doug McNair sent Cowboy Cargo to the front in a :27.3 first quarter.

MacDonald made his move in the backstretch and grabbed the lead by the half mile pole, setting fractions of :56.4 and 1:25.3 before stopping the clock in a final time of 1:52.1 and paying $3.10 for the win.

"He just has been developing into a really nice horse," said MacDonald. "Nick was always really high on him, and I can see why. He has a big powerful gait, and he is a big strong horse."

Chain Gang is undefeated in three career starts, with $95,816 on his card as he heads towards his Grand Circuit engagements at Woodbine Mohawk Park this fall.

"I am getting more excited every week," said Gallucci. "I was really happy to see him stretch out a little this week. His last two starts in [1:52]. We have a couple big tests coming up so hopefully he continues to improve."

Tony Alagna trainee Cowboy Cargo finished second, two lengths behind Chain Gang. The Jimmy Freight colt is owned by One Point Six Racing Inc, and Peter Alagna.

The third and final OSS division in race 9 was won by 1-2 favorite Mirage Hanover.

Leaving the gate, Total Stranger, a full brother to Tall Dark Stranger, was sent to the front by Yannick Gingras, and the stage was set for a battle between the sons of Bettor's Delight.

McClure moved Mirage Hanover to the front in the backstretch, and Gingras kept his colt on McClure's helmet the entire way around the far turn, as the pair led the field through fractions of :27.1, :56.1, and 1:25.1.

When the clock stopped at 1:52.2 Mirage Hanover was a length and a half in front of his rival, completing a nice bounce back from his third-place finish in the Dream Maker on Aug. 4.

"You can race him anyway you want," said trainer Scott McEneny. "Last week he was a little sick, afterwards he scoped a little sick. He didn't race bad, he just wasn't kind of himself, but he seems back on track."

Mirage Hanover has $109,110 on his card from five starts for owner Marvin Rounick.

Total Stranger was making his Canadian debut for owners Howard Taylor, Judith Taylor, Caviart Farms, and Chuck Pompey. The Nancy Takter trainee is still seeking his first win, with three second place finishes in four starts.

Thunder Hunter Joe and Huntinthelastdolar win NYSS races at Tioga.

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs welcomed two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old pacing colts & geldings on Sunday (Aug. 20).

Thunder Hunter Joe (Tyler Buter) charged late to capture the $57,000 first division.

American Fling (Mark MacDonald) took the early lead but Hurricane Hunter got by and took over the lead before hitting the quarter first in :27.1. Metal Man (Matt Kakaley) took control with a lap to go and was first to the half in :54.1. Blue Hunt (Wally Hennessey) came first-up to challenge for the lead as they went down the backstretch. Metal Man was first to three-quarters in 1:22.1.

As they made the turn for home Thunder Hunter Joe ($3.10) came flying down the lane and went right on to win in 1:51.2. Livonjaxandqueens (Michael Merton) came up to finish second. Metal Man had to settle for third.

Thunder Hunter Joe is a 3-year-old gelding by Huntsville. Nicholas Devita trains for owners David Hamm, Glenn Phillips, Christopher Giaccio, and Devita Racing stable. He now has five career victories this season.

Huntinthelastdolar (Hennessey) won the $57,000 second division.

Huntinthelastdolar ($11.20) was first to the quarter in :26.4. He slowed things down and used a :29 quarter to be first to the half in :55.4. Peppermint Man (Kakaley) went on the chase going down the backstretch. Huntinthelastdolar shook him off and led to three-quarters in 1:23.4.

As they reached the stretch Goldin Greatness (Jason Bartlett) popped the pocket and came out after the leader. Huntinthelastdolar found another gear and won easily in 1:50.2. Goldin Greatness was second. Tickertape Hanover finished third.

Huntinthelastdolar is a 3-year-old gelding by Huntsville. He is owned by George Kerr, Bradley Grant, and trainer Gregg McNair. It was his fourth win this season. He now has six career victories.

Live racing returns to Tioga Downs on Friday (Aug. 25) starting at 6:15 p.m.

Iron Sharpens Iron, Wisco Tootsie win sired action at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

Iron Sharpens Iron was back in action at Running Aces on Sunday (Aug. 20) in the $18,250 Minnesota-sired sophomore male trot after a three-week layoff and he wasted no time in getting back to his winning ways. Driver Luke Plano sent the sharp son of Banker Volo quickly from the gate from post 4, taking a short lead before yielding to BP'S Lucky Star (Mooney Svendsen) who also left sharply from post 7.

BP'S Lucky Star commanded through quick fractions in :28.3, :56.4 and 1:25.4 while Iron Sharpens Iron tracked intently from the pocket and the top pair drew away dramatically from the rest of the field.

Iron Sharpens Iron tipped out as they rounded for home and had plenty of trot to surge past BP'S Lucky Star and draw clear for a 2-1/2 length tally, stopping the timer at 1:55 for a new career mark.

Longshot Azteca Your Money (73-1, Brian Detgen) picked up third money while beaten just over 30 lengths.

Iron Sharpens Iron ($3.40) now shows six victories in nine outings this season and 17 career wins from 21 starts, with earnings of $181,932 to date.

The winning owners are Jeralene Roland, Devon Arp, and Al Villarreal and the winning trainer is Dan Roland.

Wisco Tootsie (Rick Magee, $4.80) posted a career best effort in the $18,250 sophomore filly trot in 2:00.1 for her sixth triumph of the season. After getting away in the pocket and then traveling in third, Magee launched her to the outside and they swept to the lead.

In the homestretch Stressful (Nick Roland) made a strong late bid but Wisco Tootsie dug in gamely to hold on by a half-length for her third win in a row. Longshot Conway's Pipsqueak (Sean Smithpeters) completed the trifecta.

Wisco Tootsie is owned by The Sandstone Social Club and is also trained by Dan Roland.

STRIDE THE HILL CAPTURES FEATURE WITH RECORD-TYING EFFORT

Stride The Hill (Muscle Hill) added his name to the Running Aces record books on Sunday (Aug. 20) with an impressive gate-to-wire score in the $17,600 open handicap trot.

Leaving sharply from post 6 with driver Kevin Wallis, Stride The Hill was able to secure the early lead from Bringoverthemoney (Mooney Svendsen) and Mind Yown Business (Brady Jenson) who both also left fast. He held a comfortable lead through fractions of :27.3, :56, and 1:25.1 before facing pressure around the far turn from Perlucky (Brad Irvine) who was first-over throughout the affair.

Rock Party (Dean Magee) came from well back in the field to make a sweeping three-wide rally as they rounded for the stretch but Stride The Hill ($7.40) kept to his task and trotted strong to the wire, and was able to hold off Rock Party for a half-length score with Bringoverthemoney a close third in the 1:54.4 mile, which equaled the track mark for 4-year-old geldings.

The victory pushed his career win total to eleven while also sending his career earnings past the $250k mark for owner A Piece Of The Action. Jenni King is the winning conditioner.

Driver Jacob Cutting led the Sunday program with three driving wins, while James Lackey, Luke Plano, and trainers Nathalie Tremblay and Dan Roland recorded doubles.

Maine freshmen shine at Skowhegan

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

The Maine-bred freshmen pacers closed out the week of harness racing at the Skowhegan State Fair in grand fashion, with the distaff sidesteppers going two $14,000-plus divisions on Friday (Aug. 18) and their male counterparts mimicking that pattern on Saturday (Aug. 19).

Marc Tardif's barn swept the 2-year-old colt and gelding paces on Saturday's final day of the racing meet, sending Wes's Challenge and Two Fold Cold to the winner's circle.

In the first $14,487 Maine Sire Stakes non-betting event driver Walter Case Jr. sent Wes's Challenge first over into a soft 1:02 half, challenging stable mate Thru The Fire (Andy Harrington). At the 1:32.4 third panel Gary Hall had gone three-deep with his Justcallmebuck and was able to poke a nose in front of the pacesetter.

But Case had other ideas and sent the son of Deuce Seelster on a bee-line for the finish wire and prevailed in 2:05.1 by half a length. Owned by Leighton Property, ironically Wes's Challenge was bred by Gary and Kristina Hall. It was the colt's second sire stakes victory of the season.

Justcallmebuck held on for second, Thru The Fire was third.

In the second $14,486 colt pace Two Fold Cold driven by Kevin Switzer Jr. shot out for an early lead and never looked back, grabbing his second win in a row in 2:02.4 while equaling his lifetime mark. Owned and trained by Marc Tardif, he was also bred by Gary and Kristina Hall.

Hesjustadelight finished second (Ron Cushing, Heidi Gibbs); Stretch It Donn was third (Case Jr., Tardif).

The fillies enjoyed two divisions on Friday (Aug. 18) with Who's Perfect remaining perfect in her last two outings. In the $14,486 Maine Sire Stake for 2-year-old pacing fillies Who's Perfect was driven by Heath Campbell for trainer Valerie Grondin. The daughter of Western Maverick traded places with initial pacesetter Mrs Foxy Roxy (Nick Graffam, Mike Graffam) and took over at the half and coasted home in 2:01.3, which was a new lifetime best.

Mrs Foxy Roxy was second; My Sweet Revenge (Case Jr., Tardif) finished third.

The final $14,487 division was Friday's opener on the regular card, and witnessed Gowestyounggrace score from off the pace for driver Dave Ingraham and owner/trainer/breeder Fred Ward Jr. with Sharon Ward.

Scoring by two lengths in 2:02, it was a new lifetime record for the daughter of Western Maverick who has also copped her last two starts. She paid $6.20 to win. Wagering favorite Ghost Of You (Switzer Jr., Tardif) finished second; Animore Sass (Harrington, Tardif) was third.

Brian Paquet dies at 78

It is with great sadness that the Quebec Jockey Club learned Sunday morning, the sudden death of horseman and industry leader Brian Paquet, who may be certainly considered a figure emblematic of horse racing in Quebec, Canada. He was 78.

A longtime owner and breeder, Paquet was instrumental as a director of the Quebec Jockey Club in helping to get the Hippodrome 3R back racing again. During his lifetime, Paquet bred, owned and raced hundreds of standardbred trotters and pacers.

Track management held a special moment of silence before the fifth race in his memory.

Track Notes: Jocelyn Gendron, Stephane Brosseau and Pascal Berube all had driving doubles and Maxime Velaye had a training double. There will be no live racing Friday (Aug. 25). There will be live racing Sunday (Aug. 27) at noon featuring the third and final preliminary round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotters and pacers. For more information and free race programs, visit www.hippodrome3R.ca.

Harrah's Hoosier Park announces racing schedule changes due to excessive heat

In consideration of the safety and well-being of our equine athletes, horsemen and women, and patrons, Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino is making adjustments to the racing schedule for the upcoming week. Due to forecasted excessive heat, racing on Thursday (Aug. 24), will be canceled, and post times on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday will be moved to 7:00 p.m.

With the priority of ensuring the health and safety of all involved, Harrah's Hoosier Park believes that rescheduling races during cooler evening hours is the best course of action. This decision comes in response to the anticipated extreme weather conditions, with the welfare of our horses and the racing community at the forefront of concerns. Thursday's Indiana Sires Stake event will now be carded as part of Friday's racing program. Additionally, there will be 14 races carded on Saturday as opposed to 12.

Harrah's Hoosier Park will be implementing its standard precautionary heat related measures throughout the week.

Harrah's Hoosier Park remains committed to providing a high-quality racing experience while prioritizing the well-being of both participants and spectators. We appreciate the understanding and cooperation of everyone involved during this schedule adjustment. For more information on the upcoming racing schedule, please visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Hierro Boko and Bengurion Jet join MGM Yonkers International Trot field

The 2023 edition of the MGM Yonkers International Trot is just a few weeks away on Sept. 9, and two more European horses – Hierro Boko and Bengurion Jet – have accepted invitations to the $1-million race.

Hierro Boko is the fastest trotter in Europe this season and the second-fastest winner of all-time on the continent. He was bred in Sweden, but he will race for Finnish connections. Hierro Boko set his fabulous kilometer rate of 1:08.3 (mile rate of 1:49.4) in the St Michels Race at the Mikkeli track in Finland earlier this summer. After that he finished third in Hugo Åberg Memorial in Malmo, Sweden. It has not yet been decided who will drive Hierro Boko, but it will be one of the top Finnish drivers who have sat behind him recently.

Bengurion Jet is pure Italian-bred, but he races for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro's 40-head stable in Stockholm, Sweden. Gocciadoro also trains fellow invitee, the Napoli-owned Vivid Wise As, who races from the trainer's Italian barn. As Vivid Wise As will be driven by Frenchman Mattieu Abrivard, the trainer himself will drive Bengurion Jet, who has won this year's Sweden Cup over the mile and most recently finished second in the Aby Grand Prix over two miles.

They join three other Europe-based horses: Get A Wish (Denmark), Etonnant (France) and Vivid Wise As (Italy) in the MGM Yonkers International Trot field. In addition to them, Aldebaran Zeus (Australia) and Jiggy Jog S (Sweden) have been invited. Aldebaran Zeus has been in the U.S. since July 31, and Jiggy Jog S has spent her entire racing career in the States.

The plan is to fly at least six European participants to New York. A couple of interesting candidates have fallen out due to injuries, spells and other reasons, but the invites extended to Bengurion Jet and Hierro Boko leave one – maybe two – European candidates to be committed. The aircraft carrying all European horses will leave from Liege (Belgium) on Sept. 3.

The race for older trotters will be the marquee event on a blockbuster program that includes a pair of six-figure invitationals and the $1.8 million New York Sire Stakes Day of Champions to honor the best 2- and 3-year-olds in the state. Post time for the special card is noon.

Yonkers Raceway media

Ohio Sires Stakes moved to Eldorado Scioto Downs

Due to the track resurfacing program at MGM Northfield Park, two divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes will be relocated to Eldorado Scioto Downs.

The fifth leg for 2-year-old colt trotters and 3-year-old filly trotters was scheduled for Sunday (Aug. 27) at MGM Northfield Park. Those two events will now be held Saturday (Aug. 26) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

The Saturday card at Eldorado Scioto Downs will also include the fifth leg for 2-year-old colt pacers and 3-year-old colt pacers.

The first race post time at Eldorado Scioto Downs is 5:50 p.m.

Ladycorona demolishes field in Breeders Trophy Series

Three-year-old pacers were in the limelight at the Hippodrome 3R Sunday (Aug. 20) afternoon with four divisions of the third and final preliminary round of the Breeders Trophy Series.

The top eight point earners will return to H3R for Super Sunday on Sept. 10 when all eight championship finals will be held.

Each of the four divisions Sunday raced for a purse of $7,500.

Ladycorona (Bettor's Delight) and driver Pascal Berube notched their fifth straight win, scoring a major romp in the sixth race second division of the series for the pacing fillies.

Ice Cream (Francis Picard) was first on the lead with Mach N Cheddar (David Pilon) sitting the pocket-seat but then Berube had the 1-9 race favorite, Ladycorona, on the move on the outside. She took over the lead after a :27.2 first quarter.

They went by the half mile in :57.1 when David Pilon took Mac N Cheddar first-over with YS Poisson Davrl (Stephane Brosseau) second-over. But once in the backstretch, Berube let Ladycorona have her way and she took off going by the three-quarters in 1:27.1.

Then down the stretch Ladycorona made it a romp, winning by 10 and one-half lengths in 1:55.4. Mach N Cheddar was second with Godiva Ice Cream third.

It was the seventh win of the year for Ladycorona. She is trained by Yves Tessier for owner/breeder Sotirios Anastasopoulos of Sainte-Therese. She paid just $2.10 to win.

YS Sensationalcity (Keystone Velocity) and driver Jocelyn Gendron brought an end to Pocahontas Due Lac's two-race winning streak in the third race first division for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Leaving from post 1, Gendron sent YS Sensationalcity right to the front with Pocahontas Du Lac and driver Pierre-Luc Roy having to settle for the 2-hole spot.

YS Sensationalcity went to the opening quarter in :28.3 and with no one challenging, went to the half mile in :59.2. Irish Mary (Pascal Berube) then started up first-over and looked to take on YS Sensationalcity, but could not keep up the pace to the three-quarters in 1:28.3.

Then off the final turn, Roy came after YS Sensationalcity with Pocahontas Du Lac, but this time, YS Sensationalcity was ready for the challenge as she outpaced Pocahontas Du Lac to the wire, winning by one length in 1:57.3. Make Bet SBG (Brosseau) was third.

After four straight second place finishes, YS Sensationalcity notched her fourth win of the season. She is trained and owned by Michel Allard and paid $4.50 to win.

The fifth race was the first division of the series for the pacing colts and geldings and from start to finish the race belonged to Attitude (Leader Bayama) and driver Stephanie Brosseau.

They left right out of the gate with race favorite Kansas Panic (Roy) getting the 2-hole trip. Attitude led to the first quarter in :28.4, the half in :58.3. In the backstretch Bets Beach (Berube) came first-over and raced up to the leaders, locking Kansas Panic in the 2-hole past the three-quarters in 1:28.

Around the final turn Attitude controlled the pace, keeping Kansas Panic locked in with Bets Beach on the outside until the top of the stretch when Attitude sprinted home an easy winner by one and one-half lengths in 1:56.4. Bets Beach was third.

It was a lifetime mark for Attitude and his fourth win of the season for trainer Maxime Velaye. Attitude was bred and is owned by Guy Corbeil of Mirabel. He paid $5.90 to win.

The ninth race second division of the series for the colts and geldings saw Pantome En Joie (Brosseau), the 1-5 race favorite, work his way to the lead by the first quarter in :27.3 over a stubborn Maimus GB (Pilon).

Once leading to the half mile in :58.1, Little Diamond (Sportswriter) and driver Jocelyn Gendron came first over with Kingston Panic (Roy) second over.

Little Diamond was relentless battling with Fantome En Joie through the three-quarters in 1:27.1. Then Kingston Panic joined the fray three-wide around the final turn.

They were three across as they started down the stretch as Little Diamond proved to be the best, just holding off Kingston Panic to win by a head in 1:57.1. Fantome En Joie was third.

It was a lifetime mark and the first win in 11 starts this season of Little Diamond. The colt is trained by Guy Roy for owner/breeders Richard Desrosiers and Andre Desrochers. He paid $9.50 to win.

Deadline for Youth Photo Derby and Youth Video Derby fast approaching

Are you a standardbred horse lover that was in grades 5 to 8 in the last school year? Do you like to take photos or videos? We have two contests for you that will give you the chance to win prize money and more!

The Bill Galvin Racing Alliance's (BGRA) Youth Photo Derby and Youth Video Derby deadlines are fast approaching. The deadline for submissions is Aug. 31, 2023.

Winners in each contest will receive $250, second prize will be $150, and third place will take home $100. Both contests are open to Ontario students in Grades 5-8 as of June 1, 2023.

The theme for these contests is anything and everything to do with standardbred horses. Sponsorship for the prize money is thanks to the generosity of distinguished owner and breeder Tom Rankin, who has also extended his support to the Youth Literary Derby and the Youth Art Derby.

Winners in the contests will also receive complimentary registration for online Horse Behavior and Safety courses courtesy of Equine Guelph. There are no junior and senior divisions in these contests.

Contest rules, videos, resources, and other information are available on the BGRA website at bgracingalliance.ca.
