Maybe a smaller venue is better and the Gold Cup & Saucer is proof

by John Berry

MANE ATTRACTION

with JOHN BERRY

Mane Attraction columns of the past have suggested that harness racing now belongs in smaller populated arenas, where the sport would mean more to the locals than cities featuring other major sports and venues.

Heck, New York and Chicago are two examples with those cities offering the best in restaurants, shows, shopping, museums, sightseeing, and just about every other thing imaginable to its citizens, and racing struggles to survive, and in the Chicago area, it hasn't.

L.A. is another prime example with Hollywood and stars galore as part of their crowd on a regular basis.

Other large metropolis areas also have failed, like Philadelphia, which also was particularly important as a venue at Liberty Bell Park.

Detroit, too.

Saturday night just proved the point at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park, home of the Atlantic Lottery Gold Cup & Saucer.

Charlottetown is far from the major hubs of our sport but seems to have a knack for producing great horsemen and superior racing, supported by a healthy throng of devoted fans that frequent the driving park in droves.

About 70 years ago, over on Euston Street in that metropolis, a future famous horseman was “foaled” – a horseman that put me onto that great facility many years ago, and one to whom I turn in this modern era to try and find their secrets to success.

Last Saturday night, the 2026 edition of the Grade 3 Gold Cup & Saucer was captured by Fifth And Five, a 4-year-old son of Bettors Delight trained by Mark McKinnon for Pollack Racing LLC of Venetia, PA. In a track record-tying 1:49.4 over the exquisitely manicured racetrack.

While that is significant, driver Jody Jamieson put his performance on the back burner and placed the event, itself, on the front one.

Jamieson is the son of the Hall of Fame Canadian horseman Carl Jamieson, with credentials himself that are Hall of Fame worthy with over 9,000 career wins, $138 million in purses for

~150 HEAD • ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

owners, multi-year winner of the prestigious O'Brien Award, two-time world driving champion, and a winner of just about every major stakes offered in our world of harness racing and more. Yes, Jody was in the bike this night and began his winning journey from the second tier post 9, which was a huge factor in the win.

For the record, Timeisonmyside, with Anthony MacDonald in the sulky, was a half-length away in second and a nose better than the pacesetter and favorite, Sugar Man, handled by Doug McNair, next.

Ammo finished fourth while Jordy Hill picked up the nickel in this world renowned $100,000 event.

In a post-race interview, Jody had high praise for the entire crew hosting this grand event.

"I've been in this industry well over 30 years and I have been fortunate enough to participate in the most prestigious races in the world... and I have to tell you, this one takes the cake," he said.

"I got chills even during the post parade as they brought us into the spotlight and, then, to win it, well, it's the kind of happening that leaves one numb with excitement and joy."

Yes, the race was yet another classic event for Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at Charlottetown Driving Park as Sugar Man left with alacrity to stay out of trouble with Jordy N alongside in somewhat of a battle through the opening turn and to the first quarter in :27.2.

Jordy N had nowhere to hide on the inside as Fifth And Five kept the hole closed in the garden spot while Fifth And Five was forced to be patient for Jamieson through a half in :55.4.

The pace quickened on the backside the final time – third quarter in :26.3 – as Fifth And Five remained snug and patient until the head of the stretch.

That's when Jamieson found room to roam on the inside, got by Sugar Man and held off the fastest closing Timeisonmyside by that half-length margin.

When asked if the draw played a big role in the win, Jamieson said, "The draw was one key factor, for sure, but, as a driver, you have to try and do the right thing, especially when the bell rings [gate opens]."

"[Trainer] Mark [McKinnon] had the favorite [Sugar Man] in there and he had the inside post right in front of me and I really thought that I would have the best chance in following him closely, if I could.

"My horse is very smart and he stayed right on Sugar Man's back and, when I asked him for his best, he gave it to me."

As noted, trainer McKinnon had both Sugar Man and Fifth And Five in the race and, when asked about how he got the drive, Jody explained, "I handled this horse as a 2-year-old and 3-year-old.

"There was an offer to buy him and I really didn't want to sell but, we made a deal – this was last November.

"I said, 'If we do sell him to you, I want to drive him in the Gold Cup & Saucer next August,' and they agreed, and that's how I got the drive here.

"He was real good qualifying for the event the week before [third, beaten a neck] and, when the draw was over, I was thankful that we didn't draw the seven or eight on this half-mile track.

"Kudos to Lee Drake, the track crew and everyone involved that make this the fantastic event it has become – a world class event!"

Charlottetown Driving Park had a double header that day with the Gold Cup & Saucer the 26th and last race on the double header day.

But while this Mane Attraction attempted to highlight his second-tier heroics in winning this event, Jody preferred to put the spotlight on the event, itself.

This race is one of the great traditions in Canadian harness racing and, in recent years, the world, as well.

The track, itself, has a storied history dating back to 1888 and this event has similar markings of our Little Brown Jug, as the event was conceived in 1960 by two businessmen from Charlottetown, E. Frank Acorn (affectionately known as "Duck") and Bill Hancox, who was the publisher of the Charlottetown Evening Post – shades of the Little Brown Jug's Joe Neville and Hank Thomson, publisher of the Delaware [Ohio] Gazette.

The objective was to revive the luster of Old Home Week and the timing was perfect after the Charlottetown grandstand was gutted by fire the year before.

The name was created by combining the names of two established event – England's Cheltenham Gold Cup and Ontario's Cup & Saucer Stakes.

Amazingly, the trophy, itself, eventually became as famous as the race and is considered as the "Stanley Cup" of harness racing.

Over the years, this race became the centerpiece of Old Home Week and began attracting the finest horses and horsemen from North America.

"The atmosphere," Jody said, "is as much a tradition here as all of us are introduced under the lights with the grandstand lights dimmed.

"This was the last race on the double-header card and it's pretty much tradition that it's held a couple of minutes before midnight."

In its early years, the Charlottetown half-mile oval was a slow, clay track with the first winner, Dees Boy, winning a two-heat event in going the first heat in 2:06, Newport Frisco winning the second one in 2:06.3, and Dee's Boy in summary earning the crown.

Dee's Boy also won again in 1962.

The accompanying Gold Cup Parade began in 1962 and, with the parade and Gold Cup & Saucer race, this event turned into one of the Island's greatest events.

“Look at the [Little Brown] Jug in Delaware, OH, the Hambletonian in DuQuoin, and the Gold Cup & Saucer here in Charlottetown. They packed 'em in year after year.”

— Wally Hennessey

Jody reminded me to give credit due to the entire roster of heroes at Charlottetown Driving Park and Red Shores, especially Lee Drake, a veteran broadcaster who is now the manager of racing, brands, and broadcasting and Vance Cameron, the legendary announcer at that venue.

“Mr. Drake makes the wheels go around here,” said Jamieson, “and it’s his heroics and construction of a great team here at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino that keep this event one of the greatest of all events in the harness racing world.”

“Vance is just a fantastic talent back of the microphone.

“He’s probably been calling races for at least a half century and his status is legendary in the industry.

“Many of his phrases have become legendary, as well, as he says, ‘Boom, just like that’ or ‘It’s showtime at Charlottetown!’

“It all adds up to one of the greatest spectacles in our sport.”

By the way, the reference to Euston Street early in this Mane Attraction belongs to Hall of Fame horseman Wally Hennessey, who said it was about an eight-minute walk from his house to the track, where he started his humble beginnings.

Hennessey said, “Look at the [Little Brown] Jug in Delaware, OH, the Hambletonian in DuQuoin, and the Gold Cup & Saucer here in Charlottetown.

“They packed 'em in year after year.”

Anderson, IN is home of the Hambletonian for the foreseeable future.

It’s not Chicago, Los Angeles, or some large metropolitan area, but it’s the next home of another of the sports premier events, and it will be packed.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

The late Greg Sugar's project horse is a fighter

by Adam Hamilton

The late Greg Sugars must be a very proud and excited man as he looks down.

The project horse he and wife Jess Tubbs had such high hopes for, Fighter Command, is starting to show what the pair hoped and always believed he could become.

The big and raw 5-year-old is one of the most exciting pacers in Australia.

Just the mention of Fighter Command stirs waves of emotion. He is the strongest remaining equine connection between Sugars and Tubbs.

He was supposed to be their project horse, but now Tubbs is doing it alone.

"He was actually Greg's project horse," Tubbs said earlier this year.

But what a job Tubbs has done carrying on the job.

It's just over 16 months since Down Under harness racing was rocked by the sudden and shock passing of Sugars.

At just 40 years old, already a superstar and just reaching his prime, Sugars died in his sleep. It was discovered many months later that it was due to a condition called Long QT syndrome, which stops the electrical current to the heart.

The way Tubbs has continued, maintaining a very successful and large stable while dealing with her own huge loss and emotions, has been remarkable.

Fighter Command may have been a help.

He's as big (maybe bigger) than he is talented, but he has defied the modern standardbred and been the ultimate slow burn.

Most of the time, it's been a case of two steps forward and one step back for the past 2½ years.

Just to add another layer, during it all Fighter Command almost died.

About this time two years ago, just days before the world's richest race at the time, the $2.1 million TAB Eureka, Fighter Command was struck down with a twisted bowel.

"We didn't know if he'd pull through, it was touch and go for days," Tubbs said at the time. "It's been a long road back. You're not sure if he'll race again, then when he does, if he'll be as good as he was."

Fighter Command didn't race for about six months and when he did return, it was a low-key 4-year-old campaign of just 11 starts for three wins and three placings.

The "Grand final" was a shot at redemption in the TAB Eureka after being scratched just days before it a year earlier.

But he wasn't himself and failed to beat a runner home.

Not deterred, Tubbs put him away from another long break.

Patience and more patience.

"He's a big, raw baby," Tubbs said. "I'll give him all the time he needs."

After another seven months away from the track, Fighter Command returned with four encouraging Melton runs earlier this year and, after much deliberation and just days out from the series, Tubbs decided to take the gelding to last month's Brisbane Inter Dominion series.

"I'm realistic about where he's at," she said before the series. "It's as much for his development as anything."

What an inspired move.

Fighter Command gave a glimpse of his “freaky” factor when he stormed home from last to win his opening round heat.

The reality check came seven days later when he reminded everyone how far he still had to develop when he basically lost the plot and became undrivable for Jason Lee before eventually galloping in his second-round heat.

Written off for the final, and in one of the best and most brutally run races of modern times, Fighter Command produced a monstrous run from the rear to finish fifth.

A proud Tubbs just shook her head and said “progress.”

“As I said straight after the series, he exceeded my expectations,” she said. “To win a heat and run so well in such a strong final was fantastic.

“He’s come a long way from the big baby he was and shown he is worthy of having a crack at these big races.”

Rather than give him a break like many other Inter Dominion finalists, Tubbs decided to roll with Fighter Command.

“Two reasons,” she said. “The first being how well he came through the racing and the whole Brisbane trip. He thrived on it.

“The other is the fact he’s so big, I didn’t want him putting on too much weight and then having to get it off him again with the Victoria Cup not far away.”

“[Fighter Command] was actually [my late husband] Greg's project horse.”

— Jess Tubbs

Fighter Command stepped out for the first time since the July 18 Inter Dominion final and won at Melton last Saturday night.

It was as much a statement as a win.

While star drivers James Herbertson and Jason Lee have often spoken lavishly about Fighter Command's potential, an even more decorated driver joined the chorus last weekend.

The trailblazing champion Kerry Manning, with a swag of premierships, major victories, and over 4,500 career wins, isn't one to get carried away in the moment.

But after driving Fighter Command for the first time and scoring an arrogantly easy win in good company at Melton, Manning turned heads with her appraisal.

“I haven't driven one with a motor like that for quite a while,” she told thetrots.com.au. “He doesn't feel like he accelerates, he just gets past everybody like they are standing still.

“And to run past those horses of that caliber tonight is a bit scary.”

Fighter Command blew away the likes of eight-time Group 1 winner Catch A Wave and millionaire veteran Bulletproof Boy.

He came from near last and ran the sort of sectional time that only special horses clock.

Tubbs was suitably impressed.

“Based on that performance tonight where he has run his last half in :53.3, it sort of confirms he's come back from the [Brisbane] trip a better horse for the experience,” she said,

“The thing is he has incredible acceleration for such a big horse, he doesn't need to wind up. So, if he's close and handy then he is always going to be in any race he goes in.

“The [Group 1] Victoria Cup is still eight weeks away so we will just keep ticking him over.”

Just the way Sugars would've wanted it.

Hawk brings a lifetime of experience and participation in both motor sports and standardbred horse racing to the table. He has spent more than 35 years in event operations, has numerous levels of involvement in the motor sports world, and currently owns more than 26 standardbreds, including racehorses, broodmares, and yearlings at his Mill Creek Farm in Kannapolis, NC.

“Don’s passion and commitment to harness racing comes through in every interaction that we have,” said John Campbell, president/CEO of the Hambletonian Society. “Combining that with his expertise and success in multiple facets of motor sports we feel gives us a great and unique opportunity to garner support and sponsorships from outside of the standardbred industry.”

The Breeders Crown, a series of 12 championship finals (divided by age, gender, and gait) has been hosted by leading racetracks across North America since 1984. More than $247 million in purse money has been paid over 490 events and the late season honors are vitally important to the sport’s year-end divisional championship titles in the United States and Canada.

“I’m very excited and honored to be named a part of the great team at The Hambletonian Society and the Breeders Crown,” said Hawk. “To have the support of the Society board and the staff is a huge benefit in the way forward.

“The goal is the involvement of corporate America in the promotion, sponsorship, and success of the Hambletonian and Breeders Crown events and races across all of North America.”

This year’s Breeders Crown returns to the iconic Scioto Downs five-eighths mile racetrack in Columbus, OH, for the first time since 1988. Eldorado Scioto Downs became Ohio’s first racino in 2012 and has since grown into a premier gaming, racing, dining, and entertainment destination. The property has expanded its footprint with the addition of a state-of-the-art race paddock and grandstand, celebrity chef Guy Fieri’s Trattoria, Brew Brothers Microbrewery, Caesars Sportsbook, and more than 1,800 of the industry’s hottest games.

The $1 million Hambletonian moves to Harrah’s Hoosier Park in 2027 through 2029. The Hambletonian celebrated its 100th edition in 2025 and remains entrenched as America’s Trotting Classic.

“The Society’s mission includes the support of our host tracks and the sport as a whole,” said Campbell. “We try to provide what resources we can to make sure they flourish.”

Wellwood and Peaceful Way finals main event on stakes-packed weekend at Mohawk

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Top level Grand Circuit action for harness racing's young and veteran performers takes over Woodbine Mohawk Park this weekend.

The Campbellville oval will be major race central for the next five weeks. This Saturday's (Aug. 29) William Wellwood Memorial and Peaceful Way are two of nine Grade 1 finals that will be held from Aug. 29 through Sept. 26. That timeframe also includes several more graded stakes events.

The Wellwood and Peaceful Way are the two main events for this Saturday's card and are complimented by the Grade 3 Nassagaweya, Grade 3 Eternal Camnation, and eliminations for the Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby. The Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot eliminations will take place a night earlier on Friday's 13-race card.

Below is a breakdown of this weekend's William Wellwood Memorial, Peaceful Way, Canadian Pacing Derby eliminations, and Maple Leaf Trot eliminations.

$570,000 GRADE 1 WILLIAM WELLWOOD MEMORIAL – SATURDAY – RACE 9

Last year's winning trainers of Mohawk's million-dollar 2-year-old races will clash in the William Wellwood Memorial for 2-year-old trotters.

Trainer Dr. Ian Moore captured the 2025 Grade 1 Metro Pace with Horse of the Year Beau Jangles and is now front and center on the trotting side with elimination winner Detonater Hanover. Meanwhile, Marcus Melander took home another title in the 2025 Grade 1 Mohawk Million with Apex and now looks to win his third Wellwood trophy with elimination winner Gios Hope.

Detonater Hanover stopped the clock in his elimination in a career best 1:52.3, while Gios Hope moved to the lead in the second-quarter of his split and trotted to a new mark of 1:54.2.

CANADIAN PACING DERBY ELIMINATIONS — SATURDAY — RACES 5, 8

Canada's premier race for open pacers will see 18 heavyweights battling over two eliminations to qualify for the rich Grade 1 final on Sept. 5.

Supplemental entry Best Chip leads the first elimination for trainer Joe Bongiorno. The 4-year-old is currently the fastest horse in North America this season after a sizzling 1:46.1 victory on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands.

Best Chip is taking his biggest step up to date by entering the Canadian Pacing Derby. He holds a seasonal record of seven wins from 12 starts, two being in sub 1:47.

The first elimination also features local favorite Crack Shot for trainer Gregg McNair and 2023 Pacing Derby runner-up Bythemissal for trainer Ron Burke. A top-five finish Saturday would earn Bythemissal his third Pacing Derby appearance.

Powerhouse Ervin Hanover will compete in the second elimination. The Dave Menary trained 6-year-old was runner-up in last year's final and has followed up his award-winning 2025 season with four wins in five starts this year.

Doc Moore trainee Prince Hal Hanover will look to give his trainer a chance at a second Pacing Derby win after Tattoo Artist won in 2023. Lou Hill for trainer Per Engblom is another notable entrant in the second split. He's posted nine wins and five seconds in 16 starts this season.

The fields for the Canadian Pacing Derby eliminations are listed below:

MAPLE LEAF TROT ELIMINATIONS – FRIDAY – RACES 7, 10

Woodbine's marquee races for open trotters has attracted 13 entrants for this Friday's eliminations.

Defending champion Lexus Kody will go forward in the first elimination for regular driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke. The 8-year-old gelding has won three of seven starts this season after a million-dollar campaign in 2025.

The first split also sees Nancy Takter trainee French Wine return to the site of his biggest win. The 6-year-old captured the Grade 1 Breeders Crown Open Trot last October at the Campbellville oval. He has yet to taste victory this season in only three starts.

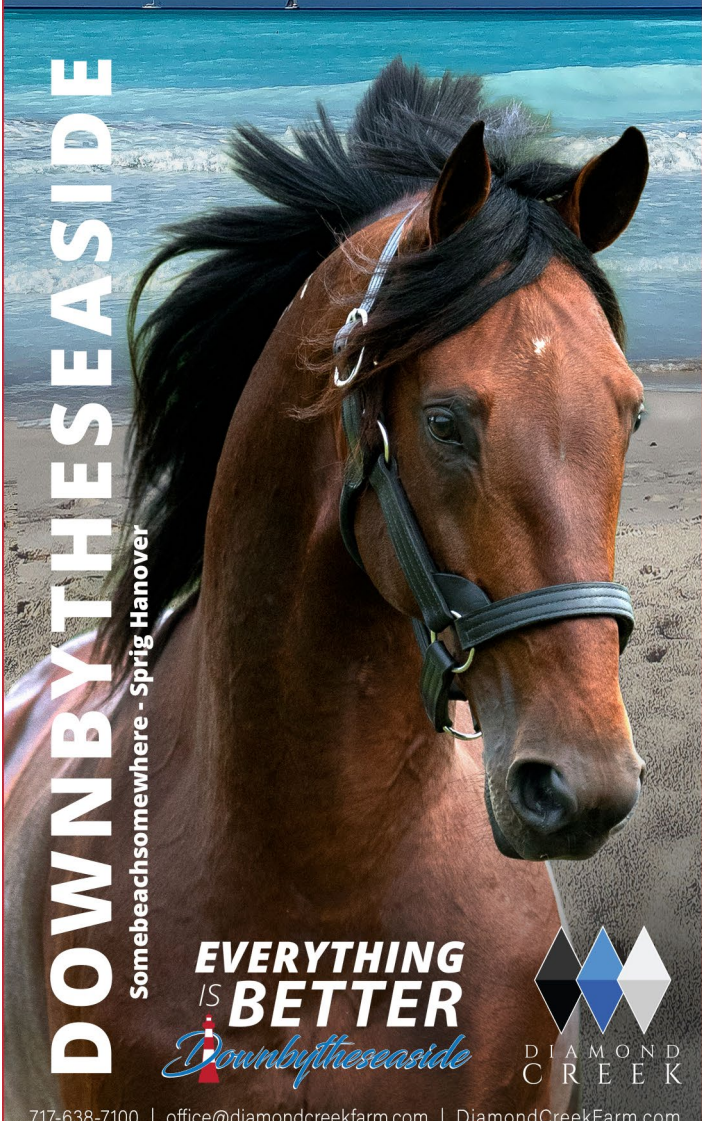

Four-year-old mare Yo Tillie will notably take on the boys in the first Maple Leaf Trot elimination for trainer Andrew Harris. She's won three of seven this season after a near perfect 11 for 12 sophomore season.

The second elimination is a heavyweight tilt with Canada's best open trotters Logan Park and Emoticon Legacy meeting up with U.S. powerhouse Super Chapter and the ultra-consistent Antognoni S.

Kyle Fellows trained Logan Park has won seven of 11 starts this season, while Emoticon Legacy for trainer Luc Blais has met Logan Park in all four of his starts this season, posting a win and three seconds.

The 8-year-old Logan Park will look to secure his fourth Maple Leaf Trot final appearance, while 4-year-old Emoticon Legacy gets his first major challenge against the sport's top open trotters.

The Marcus Melander trained Super Chapter has adjusted well in his 4-year-old season to older rivals. After making his first four starts against trotters his own age, Super Chapter delivered a victory in the Grade 1 Cashman Memorial on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands.

Twin B Joe Fresh leads field of nine for Milton Stakes

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Superstar Twin B Joe Fresh will look for a Milton Stakes three-peat on Saturday (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The $3 million-plus winning Twin B Joe Fresh was one of nine pacing mares entered Tuesday for this year's Grade 2 Milton Stakes. The event moves directly to a final with no eliminations necessary.

From the nine entered, seven will line up in a $50,000 mares open this Saturday at Mohawk Park. Twin B Joe Fresh is one of the entrants for this weekend's prep.

A 6-year-old daughter of Roll With Joe, Twin B Joe Fresh set a Milton Stakes record in the 2025 final, stopping the clock in 1:47.4 to earn her second consecutive win in the event.

The Chris Ryder trainee struggled to start 2026 with disappointing efforts in the Roses Are Red at Mohawk, but quickly turned things around by winning three of her next five starts. Her stablemate Miki And Minnie got the best of her on three occasions this year, but is sidelined for the remainder of the season due to injury.

The full field for this year's Milton Stakes (with trainer) is listed below:

Hooker Berry carries the French flag into International Trot

by Yonkers Raceway media

France will be represented by Hooker Berry in the Grade 1 MGM Yonkers International Trot on Sept. 12. The $1,000,000 event at MGM Yonkers Raceway now has seven confirmed starters representing five different countries.

Hooker Berry comes to the U.S. with a high profile as the 2023 winner of the prestigious Prix d'Amérique at Vincennes in Paris. While he has struggled to find the winner's circle over the last couple of years, he has been competing exclusively in Group I and Group II races against some of the best horses in France. Most recently he was an excellent third after a big first-over charge to the lead in the $165,000 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardère at Enghien in France, perhaps showing a sign that the 9-year-old has more left in the tank.

"Hooker Berry is in great form right now and is rounding into shape after several comeback races, which is why he has been driven conservatively, saving his effort for the home straight," said Aurélie Lhéréte, wife of trainer Antoine Lhéréte, on Hooker Berry's lack of recent success. "In his last race he was driven more aggressively, and it paid off."

Racing mostly in France on larger racetracks, Hooker Berry will get his first taste of the half-mile oval at MGM Yonkers Raceway. The 9-year-old was noticeably awkward on the turns in his last race, but Aurélie Lhéréte said that it wasn't something to be concerned about.

"He always acts that way, but it doesn't stop him from moving forward," said Aurélie Lhéréte about Hooker Berry cocking his head.

Hooker Berry, a winner of approximately $2 million in his career for owner Michel Aladenise, will look to become the first French winner of the MGM Yonkers International Trot since Reve d'Udon in 1990.

"We are seizing the chance since the French program isn't optimal this year," said Aurélie Lhéréte on why Hooker Berry is coming to New York. "It is an incredible opportunity to represent France."

Hooker Berry joins five previously announced European participants — Gio Cash (Germany), Mellby Jinx (Sweden), Diva Ek (Italy), Bourbonista (Sweden), and Powwow (Norway) — in the MGM Yonkers International Trot. The final European shippers will be announced this week and a trio of horses from the U.S. and Canada will be released early next week to create a field of 11 for the first time in recent history.

The $1,000,000 race will be the focal point of a stellar card on Sept. 12 that starts at 11:50 a.m. (EDT) and includes the $2.4 million New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds, as well as a pair of $200,000 Invitationals: the Bob Miecuna Trot and Aria Pace.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently offering live racing on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday through Saturday, with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) every night except Saturday when post time is 3:30 p.m.

Gio Cash seeks clear sailing in 2026 International Trot

by Yonkers Raceway media

Trainer Daniel Wäjersten will have strength in numbers in his quest to win the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot this year after he accepted an invitation to the Grade 1 event for Gio Cash. The 7-year-old joins his stablemate Mellby Jinx as the latest horse to become part of the Sept. 12 worldwide event at Yonkers Raceway.

Gio Cash is no stranger to Yonkers Raceway, having finished fourth while beaten just 1¼ lengths by Lexus Kody in the 2025 edition of the MGM Yonkers International Trot. Wäjersten drove on that day and was locked in the pocket behind the winner.

“You never know, but we had a lot of power left at that moment and certainly think he would’ve been in the photo,” said Wäjersten on if he would’ve won the 2025 edition with a clear trip.

The trainer/driver will not be in the bike this year as he’ll cede the lines to a driver yet to be named from the Netherlands, the home of owner Carpe Diem Stable.

A 17-time winner in 37 starts, Gio Cash has been keeping good company in 2026, racing in an elimination of the Elitlopp and winning the Arjängs Stora Sprinter in Sweden during July. It was the second straight year he was successful in the Sprinter race.

Most recently, Gio Cash was fifth in the Jämtlands Stora Pris on Aug. 8 from a bad post and Wäjersten was happy with the performance.

“He was good and I think he will be in the same shape as last year,” said Wäjersten. “If he performs at his best, he is – in my opinion – one of the best in Europe at short distances. In the Elitlopp he started pacing at the end of the race. It was not a good day for him to have a bad day, but normally he trots easily.”

The son of Victor Gio will begin his journey to the United States next week and fly from Frankfurt about a week before the MGM Yonkers International Trot. Wäjersten reports that Gio Cash is a very calm horse and had no trouble with the journey last year.

One horse that will not be on the flight is the previously-announced Daim Brodda. The mare did not perform well in her last race and the connections have decided to skip the trip. A replacement horse, as well as the final European starter, will be announced later this week.

The current field for the MGM Yonkers International Trot includes Gio Cash, who will represent Germany, his Swedish-represented stablemate Mellby Jinx, as well as Diva Ek (Italy), Bourbonista (Sweden) and Powwow (Norway).

The $1,000,000 race will be the focal point of a stellar card on Sept. 12 that starts at 11:50 a.m. (EDT) and includes the $2.4 million New York Sire Stakes finals for 2- and 3-year-olds, as well as a pair of $200,000 invitationals, the Bob Miecuna Trot and Aria Pace.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently offering live racing on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday through Saturday, with post time at 6:45 p.m. (EDT) every night except Saturday when post time is 3:30 p.m.

Rookie trotting colts repeat in INSS at Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Leg four of Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings mirrored that of leg 3, with the same three winners scoring on Saturday (Aug. 22) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. So Joyful, Nectar Of The Gods, and Swan Good Bi all held up their end of the bargains as heavy favorites to repeat in stakes action.

So Joyful was the first to score in the $46,500 first split, converting a pocket trip into an open length victory with John De Long in the bike for trainer Ernie Gaskin.

Away from the rail as the 4-5 favorite, So Joyful was covered up by Topsy In Vegas (Jordan Ross) who crossed over and cut the opening quarter in :27.3. The field raced in straight alignment in the middle stages, with Topsy In Vegas leading through middle half fractions of :57 and 1:26.4. Once in the stretch, So Joyful tipped from second and made quick work of the pacesetter, cruising home with a :27.2 final quarter to open up by 2¾ lengths on the wire in a career best 1:54.3. Topsy In Vegas held second, with Mendoza Mafia (Atlee Bender) finishing third.

So Joyful has won three of six this season, banking $83,578 for owners All-Wright Racing, Brian Code, and James Nellingner. The son of Rebuff—Skateaway was bred by Luckiana Farm and Aaron Stutzman.

In the $46,500 second division, Nectar Of The Gods overcame the outside post 7 to score at the 3-5 favorite with trainer Mike Micallef in the sulky.

Making quick work of his outside starting spot, Nectar Of The Gods crossed over to the cones in control of the field prior to the first turn before cutting the opening quarter in :27.1. The tempo slowed on the backstretch, with Beaver (Kiwon Waldron) brushing from fifth to take the top spot at the halfway point in :57.4. Nectar Of The Gods moved back to the point around the final turn, opening up on the field at three-quarters in 1:28.1. Sprinting for home in :27.3, Nectar Of The Gods cruised by three lengths to win in a career best 1:55.4. Priceless Help (Marcus Miller) snagged the second spot late from Beaver.

Nectar Of The Gods has won four of six this season for owners Bet The House LLC. The Temporal Hanover—Goddess colt was bred by Steve Jones and sports a bankroll of $99,500 having been no worse than second in his young career.

The $47,000 third and final division went to Swan Good Bi, who remained perfect on the season with Jordan Ross piloting the Henry Graber, Jr. trainee.

Swan Good Bi settled into third on the first turn while Fifty And Famous (Kyle Wilfong) trotted around Temporal Power (De Long) to lead at the quarter in :27.4. Swan Good Bi moved to the lead on the backstretch, trotting to the half into a strengthening headwind in :58.4. Ponda Cheetah (Miller) moved first over and into third around the final turn, while Swan Good Bi moved to three-quarters in 1:29. Transitioning into the stretch, Swan Good Bi and Fifty And Famous separated from the remainder of the field, with Swan Good Bi holding that foe at bay by 1½ lengths in 1:55.3. Let B Express (Kevin Lambricht) got up for the show spot at 29-1.

Now five-for-five to begin his career, Swan Good Bi is owned by Indiana Stables, Frank Baldachino, Michael Rosenthal, and James Zito. Ernie Lambricht bred the Swan For All—Bange Bi gelding who has earned $83,250 lifetime.

Presidente sails; Odds On Chesapeake equals track record in Kentucky Sire Stakes

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Presidente delivered on a 3-2 promise in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Monday (Aug. 24) at The Red Mile, a day that also saw a track record equaled in a non-wagering race before the pari-mutuel card.

In the Monday feature, Presidente (driven by Scott Zeron) seized a brief lead to a :28.4 first quarter before being shuffled to third by Captain Kenny J (Todd McCarthy) and Carbon Fiber (Yannick Gingras), the latter of whom planted onto the point just past a :56.2 half. Zeron lifted his charge from the pylons rounding the last turn and marched to overtake Carbon Fiber by three-quarters in 1:24.4 before muscling down the stretch to win by 4½ lengths. Command Center (Dexter Dunn) rallied from a third-over trip to snag second from Whateverittakes As (Tony Hall), who followed the winner from a second-over seat but settled for third. Captain Kenny J held fourth.

Nancy Takter trains Presidente, a colt by Walner—Grandma's Moni, for owners Black Horse Racing, Moni Maker Stable, Pryde Stables Inc, and Mr. Erik Anderberg. The colt broke his maiden with the win, which came in the fifth start of his career, and boosted his earnings to $69,900. He paid $5.02 to win.

Odds On Chesapeake (Todd McCarthy) converted from a pocket trip off fast fractions to equal the track record for 4-year-old and older pacing mares with a 1:47.3 win in the $35,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes second leg, which was contested as a non-betting race early in the day. McCarthy secured a golden tow behind pacesetter Three Times Bettor (Dunn), who rolled through a clip of :26.3, :54.1, and 1:21.3 before coming under pressure in the stretch sprint. Odds On Chesapeake reached for the finish in the closing strides to nail Three Times Bettor at the beam by a neck while Champagne Room (Gingras) gave chase to the inside in third and Caviart Delight (David Miller) leveled off in fourth.

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains Odds On Chesapeake, a mare by Downbytheseaside—Macaroon, for owner Odds On Racing. Her 1:47.3 mile, a lifetime best as well as her 17th win from 41 starts, equaled the track record for 4-year-old pacing mares set by Sylvia Hanover in October of 2024 and the mark for older pacing mares set by Twin B Joe Fresh in October of 2025. She's now earned $793,555 in her career.

Captain Arturovico (Dunn) coasted to a pillar-to-post victory in the lone $35,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes division for 4-year-old pacing males. Dunn put the Ron Burke pupil on the lead to a :27.3 first quarter and sneaked modest fractions of :56 and 1:23.3 to then sustain in a :25.4 kick for the finish to win by a length in a 1:49.2 mile over Damn The Torpedoes (Tim Tetrick), who pulled from a pocket trip in the stretch but gave chase in second. Whelk Blue Chip (Josh Sutton) gave pursuit down the center of the track for third with Somelousomewhere (Zeron) finishing fourth and Handsome Stranger (Andy McCarthy) last of the quintet.

A 4-year-old gelding by Captaintreacheraus—Tilikum, Captain Arturovico has now won seven races from 16 starts this season and his 19th race from 46 starts in his career, good for $586,819 in earnings. He competes for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Larry Karr, and Phil Collura. Sent off as the odds-on favorite, he paid $2.14 to win.

Monday's card also featured a pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for 2-year-old trotting males. Point Blank (Miller, 1:54 winning mile; $3.50 to win) ripped late from a pocket trip to collar tempo-setter Gustav Vasa (Marcus Melander) to win the faster of the two divisions, while End Result (Dunn, 1:54.2; $12.04) rallied from a second-over trip and held on for a neck win over closing Marino (Todd McCarthy) to give trainer Melander one of his three wins on the day. Melander also won a pair of $15,000 Kentucky Golden Rod divisions with Gagosian (Dunn, 1:54.4; $5.38) and Kaws (Zeron, 1:56; $6.02).

RUMBLE AND SWAY RALLIES FOR KENTUCKY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES WIN

Rumble And Sway uncorked a menacing bid off a helmet to collar his rivals for a 1:51.1 victory in the $80,000 Kentucky Championship Series third preliminary for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Sunday night (Aug. 23) at The Red Mile.

Leaving from post 2, driver Scott Zeron took back to fourth with Rumble And Sway while 6-5 favorite Seine (driven by David Miller) pushed to lead the quintet by the quarter in :28. Seine cruised to a :56.1 half but soon faced a first-up challenge from 7-5 shot Gobstopper (Tim Tetrick) to the last turn with Zeron perching Rumble And Sway onto cover second-over. Gobstopper marched to match strides with Seine by three-quarters in 1:24.3 and edged to a narrow lead in the stretch while Zeron swung Rumble And Sway three wide. Once straightening, Rumble And Sway built steam and swept over the top of the competition to pull away for a 1¼-length win with Gobstopper holding second. Midwind Buxton (Todd McCarthy) skimmed the pylons for third and Seine tired to fourth.

Brett Pelling trains Rumble And Sway, a gelding by Sweet Lou—Apple Of My Pie, for owners Pelling Racing LLC, David Van Dusen, Canamerica Capital Corp, and Pryde & Wienick Racing. The gelding, who debuted with a win in the Golden Rod Series and then stepped up for a runner-up finish in the Commonwealth Series, collected his second win from three starts and has now banked $55,000. He paid $8.04 to win.

Sunday's 14-race card also featured a pair of $30,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for 2-year-old pacing males. The faster division, a 1:50.2 mile, went the way of a dead-heat between Night Agent (Andy McCarthy), who brushed to set the pace past the quarter, and pocket-popping Just Perfect Stuff (Joey Putnam). Dog Dare You (Dexter Dunn) pushed first up through the last turn but chased in third, beaten 4¼ lengths. Joe Holloway trains Night Agent, a Captaintreacheraus colt out of world champion Shebestingin, and Joe Putnam trains Just Perfect Stuff, a Perfect Sting gelding out of the Art Major mare Sand Artist. Night Agent paid $2.10 to win and Just Perfect Stuff returned $3.42. Blazin Lou (Tetrick) won the other Kentucky Commonwealth Series division with a front-stepping 1:51.1 effort and paid $4.14 to win.

Tom Largo won in gate-to-wire fashion Monday, recording fractions of :28.2, :58.2, and 1:26.3 with Chris Lems driving for trainer Scott Cox. TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE IN OHSS AT SCIOTO DOWNS

Ohio Sires Stakes action took center stage at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (Aug. 22) with two impressive gate-to-wire winners.

Jett James (Brett Miller) won the first, and fastest, $75,000 division in 1:51.1. The Mighty Brix (Tyler Smith) got the pocket trip while Jett James set the pace with :27.2, :56.2, and 1:24 splits. Jett James, owned and trained by Adam Short, now has four wins in seven starts and $116,685 in earnings. The Monte Mike gelding out of the Western Ideal mare Albrizzi Hanover was an $8,000 Blooded Horse Sale purchase from breeder Jacob Mossbarger.

Night Surfer (Luke Hanners) also got his race his way, setting fractions of :27.2, :56.4, and 1:25.4 before winning by a half-length in 1:52.2. Don'ttruckwithme (Chris Lems) was second with Atlantic Ivey (Marvin Luna) finishing third. Night Surfer is now a perfect three-for-three with $116,310 in earnings for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. and owners Let It Ride Stables, Morrison Racing, and Steven Held. By Downbytheseaside out of the Bettors Delight mare Dark Force, Night Surfer was a $67,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from KAD Farms.

Three $20,000 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old colt pacers were also held Saturday night.

Into The Blaze (Ronnie Gillespie) won the fastest split in 1:53.3, a new lifetime mark. After leading most of the way to the :28 opening quarter, Into The Blaze then sat in the pocket as ATI Booze Cruisin (Sam Widger) took over towards the :58 half. On Fire (Lems) was flushed out from third at the half and led the field to the 1:25.4 third quarter. Into The Blaze pulled mid-way down the backside and posted a :27.3 last quarter to win by a-length-and-a-quarter over On Fire; ATI Booze Cruisin was third. Gillespie also trains and co-owns Into The Blaze with Adam Friedland and Jacob Beard. The $23,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase by Catch The Fire out of the Western Terror mare Bazooka Terror was bred by Martz Creek Farm. Into The Blaze now has four wins in six starts and $61,057 in earnings.

The last split of the evening went to Passing Gear (Kayne Kauffman) in 1:54. Leaving alertly from post 7, Passing Gear led gate-to-wire tripping the timer in :28.1, :57.3, and 1:25.4. King On Campus (Luna) got the pocket trip to be second; Mental Up (Trevor Smith) was third. The gelded son by Downbytheseaside out of the Jereme's Jet mare My Hare Lady was a $90,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Seven Lick Stables. Trained by Kauffman for owners Redline Racing Stables, Redracer, David VanDusen and Daniel Schrock, Passing Gear now has $29,750 earned in five lifetime starts with two wins.

Sea Monster (Hanners) won the first split in 1:54.4. Monte Python (Marc St Louis, Jr.) was first to the front as the field hit the :27 quarter. Parked four-wide until midway through the first turn from post 7, Sea Monster made the front as the field headed into the second turn. Leading through fractions of :55.4 and 1:24.1, Sea Monster won by a-length-and-three-quarters over Monte Python; Seaside Saint (Page) was third. Trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for breeder Let It Ride Stables along with Wall Bros Stable, Hutchison Harness and Dennis Owens, Sea Monster now has $20,303 earned in five starts this year. Svanstedt, Captain Corey still teaming for stakes success

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

Five years ago, to the week, trotter Captain Corey and horseman Åke Svanstedt teamed to win the Earl Beal Trot up the road from Harrah's Philadelphia at Pocono Downs. Five years on and the pair are still teaming for winner's circle visits, as now-sire Captain Corey and trainer/driver Svanstedt combined to win the two divisions of the fourth and final preliminary leg of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for freshman male trotters on Sunday (Aug. 23) at Philly, which offered $170,842 between the two PASS divisions and three sections of the PA Stallion Series.

The faster of the two sections was the 1:55 mile by Jimdougie Armitage (dam Quick Bet), a $750,000 yearling who recorded a second straight Sire Stakes prelim win. For seven-eighths-of-the-mile things went as they appeared they would on paper, with Dream Shaq, who won his first two Sire Stakes legs, taking the lead after a :28 quarter and going to the half in :57.1, with "Jimdougie" starting an uncovered move midway down the backstretch that saw the two leaders battling at the 1:24.4 three-quarters. Red Andray was staying semi-connected in third, and the rest of the field seemed closer to the Philly Airport than the front of the pack.

The first-over horse looked ready to take the measure of the pacesetter, which wouldn't be unusual since he beat him last week, but then the two hooked up in a fierce battle in midstretch. That too wasn't strange given the quality the two had demonstrated – but what was unexpected was that Red Andray was gaining good ground and two from the far end of the field were similarly narrowing rapidly. The last quarter went in :30.1, with Jimdougie Armitage living up to his pedigree and purchase price by lowering his mark to 1:55. He defeated "Shaq" by three-quarters-of-a-length, with Red Andray only a neck off place and five horses in all within three lengths at the finish.

Jimdougie Armitage is owned by S R F Stable, Knutsson Trotting Inc., Brochart Stable Inc., and Svanstedt & Midnight Sun – and now new Hall of Famer Svanstedt has 15 days to get the colt set before his $300,000 Sire Stakes championship, to be held Labor Day Monday at Pocono.

Things weren't quite as dramatic in the other Sires cut, as Big Time Trot S (dam The Grand Filly) sat second behind Svanstedt stall comrade Red Storm Hanover through fractions of :28.1, :57.2, and 1:26. Big Time Trot S then was set down by Svanstedt and went by to be 1½ lengths good on the money while taking a maiden mark of 1:55.1. Fourth, third, and second in his prior Sires prelims, Big Time Trot S looks to be trending well for most of the same connections as his stablemate: Knutsson Trotting Inc, Double S Stables, S R F Stable, and Svanstedt & Midnight Sun.

We spoke of Pocono and Captain Corey / Svanstedt winning the Beal in 2021 – Pocono also figures heavily in the Stallion Series tale, as the oval's leading driver, Tyler Buter, won all three of the StS legs, a boost for those horses eyeing their $40,000 series championship at The Meadows on Sept. 5. Buter had one Captain Corey winner – the gelding Strapped (dam Borrow And Spend), who has two straight StS victories after tallying in 1:56.2 for trainer Nick Devita and owners David Hamm and Glenn Phillips.

The other Stallion Series success stories were Friday Night Fats, a Cantab Hall–Lovely Liv colt who won his third straight StS race while equaling his mark of 1:57 for trainer Matthew Burkholder and Dark Horse Farm LLC, and the Greenshoe–Tuscany colt Scarpa, also undefeated in two straight Stallion Series races after posting the quickest time of the today in this division, 1:56 (a new mark), for trainer Nifty Norman, whose Enzed Racing Stable Inc shares ownership with Melvin Hartman.

Buter won for three different trainers, but other doublers had a trainer/driver connection: Svanstedt of course as trainer/driver; driver Jim Marohn, Jr. and trainer Scott DiDomenico; and driver Trae Porter and trainer Howard Birney.

Harrah's Philly will be racing on its usual weekly schedule of Thursday and Friday at 12:25 p.m. and Sunday at 12:40. The top attraction of the period will be the final Pennsylvania Sire Stakes / Stallion Series preliminary of the season during the Sunday (Aug. 30) card, when 3-year-old trotting males will be looking to finalize spots in their Sire Stakes championship (Sunday, Sept. 6) at Philly, or the Stallion Series championship (at The Meadows the day before). Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Model Good Looks turns heads again as Jenson bags five winners at Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces Casino, Hotel and Racetrack

Trotting filly Model Good Looks posted a dominating performance for her third consecutive win in the $17,500 Minnesota-sired sophomore filly trot as part of a banner five-win night for her trainer/driver Brady Jenson on Sunday (Aug. 23) at Running Aces.

Jenson got away third initially before making an early move to take the lead just before the three-eighths mark to relegate chief rival SV Shining Star (driven by Rick Magee) to the pocket.

Model Good Looks (by Southwind Cobra) was never in doubt from there and drew away in the late stages for a 5¼ length tally in 1:59 while SV Shining Star held second over a late charging A Spark For You.

The winner is owned by Larry Jenson and Ken Stauffer. She paid $2.20 on top.

Bang Bang Boogie (by New Jersey Viking) rolled to his ninth win of the season in the $17,500 male division with a four-length romp in 1:57 over last week's winner My Little Maverick (Casey Leonard) with longshot Imjumpnjackflash (Scott Cisco) completing the trifecta.

The talented gelding has now earned $80,260 this season for owners Stephanie Anfinson and Ken Stauffer. Rick Magee was the winning pilot and they returned $3 as the race favorites.

Peanutbutterfalcon (by Quality Kemp) took flight late to rally to a career best 1:55.3 victory in the $11,600 top conditioned trot of the night for his third win of the season and his 22nd career tally.

The 2025 Minnesota Horse of The Year closed from fifth at the top of the lane to gun down front-runner escaper with DP Freedoms Chrome getting home in third.

Cisco was the winning driver on the $8.60 winner for Jeralene and Dan Roland.

Jenson swept the first three races on the card before adding two more wins in races 5 and 6 to go ahead by one win in the driver's standings over Casey Leonard, but the lead was short lived as Leonard scored a win in race 9 to draw on even terms. Both drivers now have 70 wins on the Aces 2026 season with 12 nights to go. Jenson has been the leading driver and leading trainer for the past two seasons while this is Leonard's first season at Aces.

Le Blanc, Wearinmysixshooter sweep pacing divisions at Ocean Downs

by Maryland Standardbred Race Fund

Maryland's 2-year-old pacing and trotting colts and geldings returned to Ocean Downs on Monday (Aug. 24) for the second preliminary leg of the Maryland Sire Stakes, with Shootout, Free Shot, and Wings Of Warning collecting victories in three $10,000 divisions.

Trainer Steve Le Blanc and freshman sire Wearinmysixshooter stole the spotlight on the pacing side of the program, sweeping both divisions with Shootout and Free Shot, while Wings Of Warning produced an impressive last-to-first rally in the lone trotting division.

SHOOTOUT FIRES HOME IN :27.4

Shootout kicked off the stakes action with the fastest performance of the three divisions, taking the first pacing split in 1:57.2 for driver Roger Plante, Jr.

Starting from the rail, Plante wasted little time establishing control with the son of Wearinmysixshooter—The New Americana. Shootout led the field through fractions of :28.2, :59.1, and 1:29.3, with opening-leg winner Cash Is Better sitting closest to the leader throughout.

The moderate middle fractions set the stage for a sprint to the finish, and Shootout was ready.

Plante called on his colt entering the stretch and Shootout responded with a :27.4 final quarter, holding Cash Is Better at bay by a length to stop the clock in 1:57.2.

Cash Is Better, the 1-5 favorite, matched Shootout's :27.4 closing quarter but could get no closer, finishing second in 1:57.3.

Octavian turned in a noteworthy effort to finish third. After trailing the leader by 16½ lengths at the opening quarter, he steadily worked his way back into contention and finished in 1:58.4.

Shootout is trained by Le Blanc for owners Glenn Dyke, Leblanc Racing Inc, and James Stuart. The colt was bred by part owner, Glenn Dyke.

FREE SHOT COMPLETES LE BLANC SWEEP

Two races later, Free Shot completed the sweep for Le Blanc and Wearinmysixshooter, capturing the second pacing division in 1:58.4.

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite, Free Shot and driver Jonathan Roberts left alertly from post 2 and moved to command early. Once in control, Roberts was able to rate the son of Wearinmysixshooter—Free Flight Fran through fractions of :29.2, 1:00.1, and 1:29.1.

He's Got Talent tracked the leader closely from second and remained within striking distance entering the stretch.

The two youngsters battled through the final eighth, with He's Got Talent steadily cutting into the leader's advantage. Free Shot had enough left to fend off the challenge, however, reaching the wire a half-length in front in 1:58.4.

He's Got Talent finished second in the same clocking after pacing his final quarter in :29.1. Major Dapper closed in :29 to grab third in 1:59.1.

Only 2¾ lengths separated the entire five-horse field at the finish.

Free Shot is trained by Le Blanc for owners Glenn Dyke and Douglas Johnson and was bred by Winbak Farm.

The victory completed an impressive double for Le Blanc, Wearinmysixshooter and Dyke, who holds ownership interests in both pacing winners.

WINGS OF WARNING SWEEPS FROM LAST TO FIRST

While the pacing divisions were decided largely from the front, the evening's lone trotting division featured a dramatically different trip.

Wings Of Warning and driver Steve Smith came from last to first to capture the $10,000 event in 2:05.1.

Smith was content to settle the son of Wings Of Royalty—Concentration at the back of the six-horse field while Lil Gerald established the pace through fractions of :31.1, 1:03.2, and 1:34.4.

At the half, Wings Of Warning remained sixth and 11¾ lengths behind the leader.

Then Smith went to work.

Wings Of Warning launched his bid on the backstretch, advancing rapidly on the outside and moving from sixth into striking position approaching the final turn. After sitting nearly a dozen lengths behind at the half, he had cut the deficit nearly in half by three-quarters.

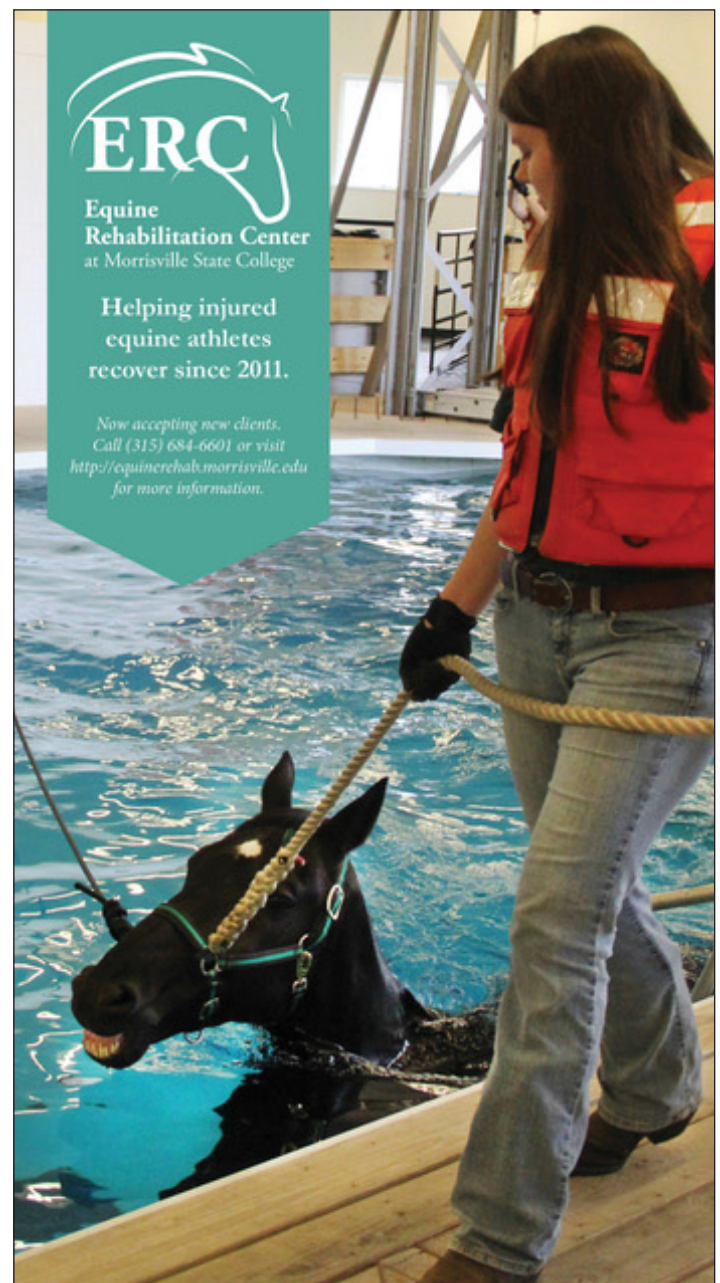

Turning for home, Wings Of Warning continued to build momentum and swept into contention.

Opening-leg winner My Mago, who had tracked the leader throughout much of the mile, battled gamely through the stretch, but Wings Of Warning's late momentum proved too much.

Wings Of Warning trotted his own final quarter in a field-best :29.1, completing the last-to-first rally and defeating My Mago by three-quarters of a length in 2:05.1.

My Mago finished second in 2:05.2, while longshot Doc's Mago rallied to finish third in 2:06. Lil Gerald faded to fourth after setting the fractions.

Wings Of Warning is trained by Dawn Anderson and owned and bred by Raymond Campbell, Jr.

Maine SIRE STAKES REPORT

Frosh pacers close out Skowhegan

by Chris Tully for Maine Sire Stakes

In the final day of Maine Sire Stakes racing at the Skowhegan State Fair on Saturday (Aug. 22) freshman star The Gucci Man was the talk of the town as he took his division in a new 1:58.4 track record for 2-year-old colt pacers.

The group of male rookie sidesteppers was featured in three $17,000-plus splits of Pine Tree State harness horses with a pair of early non-wagering races and a third on the pari-mutuel wagering card. In the first $17,183 division driver Nick Graffam sent Harriman out for an early lead and set a :31 opening panel, and then brought the field back to a 1:03 half, with no outer flow in sight.

Pocket sitting Agent James Bond (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) popped the deuce into a 1:34.1 third panel and was right beside the pacesetter as the colts rounded the final turn. At the head of the lane Harriman went off-stride while Agent James Bond was breathing down his neck. With the miscue the advancer had taken the lead briefly just as Justcallmebuddy and Aaron Hall came flying down the center of the racetrack and caught Agent James Bond to win by a neck in 2:02.2.

Trained by Marc Tardif for owner Leighton Property and Victoria Leighton, the son of Deuce Seelster picked up his first lifetime win in his fifth try and a record to go along with it. Justcallmebuddy posted an impressive :27.4 final quarter, and was bred in Maine by Kristina Hall. Harriman hung on to be third.

To no one's surprise, the second $17,328 division was another dominating circuit by The Gucci Man and Switzer, Jr., which resulted in the colt breaking another track record.

Setting moderate early fractions of :29.3 and 1:00.3, the son of Dude's The Man allowed a give and go to stablemate Rustysonlytreasure (Aaron Hall), but eventually re-took the point and never looked back.

Before the half Duderrific (Dave Ingraham) pulled first over from sixth and had advanced to the saddle pad of the pacesetter The Gucci Man into a 1:30.1 third panel with Rustysonlytreasure gapping in the pocket.

With Duderrific alongside and still challenging, off the final turn Switzer, Jr. chirped to his freshman with the unblemished record and cruised home in 1:58.4, the fastest division of the afternoon and new Skowhegan track record.

Owned, trained, and bred by Marc Tardif, he posted a :28.3 final quarter in his fifth straight score and increased his lifetime earnings to $38,479.

Duderrific finished second; Dudeisadelight (Ron Cushing) was third.

In the third and final $17,329 split it was Painter's Treasure who scampered out for an early lead for driver Andy Harrington. They hit the first two panels in :30.1 and 1:00.3 with Top Notch Treasure (Mike Stevenson) sitting in a tight pocket.

The field maintained a swift tempo into a 1:30.4 third station as One Last Deal (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) tipped to the outside to engage the front end around the final turn. With Painter's Treasure fighting back and Top Notch Treasure splitting foes in the lane, One Last Deal made a furious attempt to catch the leader despite swinging wide off the arc.

Painter's Treasure prevailed by three-parts-of-a-length in 1:59.2, a new lifetime best. Trained by Sara Harrington for owner/breeder William 'Yarmouth Lumber' Phipps, the son of State Treasurer picked up his second win of the season, returning $6.60.

One Last Deal finished second; Top Notch Treasure was third.

The previous day's Friday (Aug. 21) card featured Maine's 2-year-old pacing fillies competing in a pair of $16,000-plus divisions at Skowhegan.

Frosh filly phenom No Small Wonder picked up her fifth consecutive victory in 1:59.4, which was also a lifetime best.

Trained by Kevin Switzer, Sr. for owners KDK Standardbreds, Kathleen Mofield, and Anthony Sivik, Jr., it was the fourth consecutive victory for No Small Wonder. Bred in Maine by Luke and Patricia Varum, the daughter of State Treasurer is undefeated thus far in her inaugural season and has earned $39,426.

Feel The Fury (Aaron Hall) closed strongly to be second and Lillian G (Dakota Niles) was third in this early, non-wagering event.

In the second $16,983 early race it was the second straight score for Wine For The Lady, who led every step of the way in 2:00, also acquiring a new time badge. Taking her third career victory by 3¼ lengths, the daughter of State Treasurer is trained by Marc Tardif for owner/breeder Leighton Property.

Looking ahead, the harness racing action takes a brief week-long hiatus and then returns on Sunday (Aug. 30) when Maine's homegrown standardbreds invade the historic Windsor Fair for another week of America's first sport.

Governor Mike DeWine selected for Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame

State of Ohio

Governor Mike DeWine.

Governor Mike DeWine has been selected as the 41st inductee into the prestigious Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame, an honor presented annually by the Delaware County Fair to individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the historic pacing classic and the fairgrounds that host it.

Raised in Yellow Springs, OH, Gov. DeWine started working in his family's seed company, gaining a firsthand appreciation for agriculture's vital role in Ohio's economy. That early foundation shaped a lifetime of public service and advocacy for Ohio's farming and rural traditions.

In 2018, DeWine was elected to serve as the 70th Governor of the State of Ohio, capping a distinguished career that includes service as Ohio Attorney General, Ohio State Senator, U.S. Congressman, Ohio Lieutenant Governor, and U.S. Senator.

"Gov. DeWine has been a great advocate for the Delaware County Fair and the Little Brown Jug," said Tom Wright, president of the Little Brown Jug Society. "He was instrumental in acquiring the bed tax and capital improvement funds to upgrade our aging facilities.

"Gov. DeWine has been in the winner's circle nearly every year that he has been in office to present the Little Brown Jug trophy. He is a great advocate for our industry and agriculture."

Gov. DeWine said, "I am honored to be included as part of the Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame. The Little Brown Jug has a special place in harness racing and is always a great tradition at the Delaware County Fair."

Gov. DeWine will be formally honored during a private ceremony on Tuesday (Sept. 22), prior to the 81st edition of the Grade 1 Little Brown Jug. He will also be recognized in the winner's circle on Jug Day, Thursday (Sept. 24).

Twisted Destiny convincingly wins Batavia's $50,000 Kane Memorial

The outcome never seemed to be in doubt for the fleet-footed 4-year-old, Twisted Destiny, who commanded the pace throughout the race to win the $50,000 Robert J. Kane Memorial Pace in impressive fashion.

Howlenthedhills (Matt Kakaley) was first off the gate and took the lead coming out of turn one. But Twisted Destiny (Shawn Gray) would have none of that and immediately pulled from second and flew to the front before tripping the timer in :27.2. From there, Twisted Destiny reached the half in :56.1 and as the race made its way to the backstretch, the top two horses began to separate from the field.

Twisted Destiny picked up the pace with a :27.2 split and reached three-quarters in 1:23.3, with Howlenthedhills 1¾ lengths behind and the rest of the field four lengths and more off the lead. Gray sat chilly around the last bend as Twisted Destiny was on cruise control and only Howlenthedhills had a shot in the lane. But that shot was never fired as Twisted Destiny paced home under a high-line and was an easy 2¼ length winner in 1:50.4, off an eye-popping :54.3 back half.

The time of 1:50.4 was the third fastest mile ever paced in the Kane, ranking behind only Captain Albano (1:50.1, 2025) and American Dealer N (1:50.2, 2022).

It was the fifth win of the year for the heavily-backed Twisted Destiny ($3.78), who is owned by Let It Ride Stables, Enviro Stables, Jesmeral Stable, and Richard Freese. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the winner.

Live racing will resume at Batavia Downs today (Aug 26) at 5 p.m. and will feature the New York Sire Stakes 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Free full card past performance programs for every live card of racing at Batavia Downs can always be downloaded at the track's website (bataviadownsgaming.com) under the "Live Racing" tab. And you can watch all the races live as they happen for free on the Batavia Downs YouTube page.
