Mohawk Million slot a hot property in first online sale

by Melissa Keith

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

Trainer Casie Coleman told HRU that the $50,000 (Can.) Mohawk Million slot she had purchased in March had changed hands, and was about to change hands again, this time online. With the Grade 1 race for 2-year-old trotters coming up at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (Sept. 20), one of the 10 coveted slots was available in a new way.

The deadline to apply for a 2025 Mohawk Million slot was Feb. 18, with $25,000 (Can.) due on that date and the second $25,000 (Can.) installment required by June 2. To narrow the field to the maximum 10 entrants, the Woodbine race office conducted a draw from a record 37 slot applicants on March 19. The slots went to owners Bud Hatfield, Diane Bertrand, William Pollock, Brad Grant, Allister Stable, Bruce Northover, Kyle Northover, Hunterton Farms, Coleman, and Kemppi Stable Inc.

Gino Toscani was one of the 27 applicants who did not land a Mohawk Million slot this year. Coleman said she sold hers to the Mount Hope, ON horseman, in hopes that he would have a young trotter ready for the race.

“That was back in April, I think,” Toscani confirmed on Tuesday (Aug. 26). “I had a colt and a filly [by] Captain Corey, and they looked like they were promising, training down.”

The owner/driver said he always believed in the value of the Mohawk Million, although he was disappointed when the price of the slots was lowered last year, leading to a then-record 21 applicants.

“I’ve supported it all along,” said Toscani, who did not have his name drawn for a slot this year. “Yeah, last year was the same thing. It wasn’t like that before. You used to buy a slot for $100,000 [Can.] each [since 2021]. Last year, the slots were $50,000 [Can.] and some people who supported it for the past three years didn’t get a slot... Serge [Godin] from Determination didn’t get a spot last year... I thought that the people who supported it for all these years should at least get a spot. It wasn't fair."

To increase his chances of landing a slot for this year's Mohawk Million, Toscani said he spoke with an industry friend ahead of the draw. He and trainer Desiree Jones go to Sunshine Meadows in Delray Beach, FL each winter with their horses; Casie Coleman is also based there.

"This year, Casie and I both put in," said Toscani. "We sometimes go out to dinner together in Florida. We said we'd buy one [Mohawk Million entry] each and see who got one."

Conditions for the Mohawk Million state that owners are free to sell, trade, or lease their slots to third parties. Toscani said that it wasn't uncommon for horsepeople to get together to improve their odds.

"If you've got three or four friends you can trust, everybody puts in [for a slot], and hopefully somebody's going to get it," he said.

When that approach is unsuccessful, owners looking to acquire a slot can make an offer to slot-holders. The winner of the inaugural (2020) Mohawk Million, Venerate, was entered after Pinske Stables and the Andy Miller Stable were able to make a deal with Brad Grant for his $110,000 (U.S.) slot.

As of Tuesday (Aug. 26), interested parties could bid for a Mohawk Million slot online for the first time, as the slot Coleman originally acquired for Toscani was being offered for sale via onGait.com, with no reserve bid.

"This may be your LAST chance to purchase a slot!" read the comment accompanying the listing. "Slot owners must declare a horse to race in their slot by Monday (Sept. 15) at noon. Woodbine will add $500,000 to maintain the $1 million purse. The change to conditions from last year to 2025 is limiting owners and trainers to declaring a maximum of three horses to the Mohawk Million race. Serious inquiries only, please."

“ I paid $50,000 Canadian [for the Mohawk Million slot currently being sold via onGait], so if I’m getting $50,000 American, that’s around $70,000 Canadian. It’s at $56,000 [U.S. as of mid-afternoon Aug. 26]. It could go higher. I don’t have a horse this year, so everybody’s happy and it all makes sense [to make the slot available online]. With young horses, that’s just the way it is. No guarantees. ”

~ Gino Toscani

Toscani said that he had no choice but to sell the slot, because his two most promising 2-year-old trotters had encountered setbacks.

“The colt, Captain Mikah, he qualified in 1:58.3 [winning going away at Mohawk on June 13],” said Toscani. “He’s a nice colt, but he ended up with some suspensory problems, so we’ll lay him off and race him at 3, that’s the plan.”

Captain Mikah made two starts at Mohawk, finishing fourth in the Tompkins-Geers on June 27 and second in a July 11 conditioned race for 2-year-old trotters, before being scratched sick from leg 1 of the Millard Farms on July 21.

His good filly, Smorgastarta (Captain Corey–Coffeecake Hanover), was a $50,000 purchase as a yearling at the 2024 Lexington sale.

“She got injured in May [and has yet to qualify],” said Toscani.

A prominent owner in previous editions of the Mohawk Million, Toscani said he didn’t envision selling this year’s slot to turn a profit.

“I paid $50,000 Canadian, so if I’m getting $50,000 American, that’s around $70,000 Canadian,” he said. “It’s at $56,000 [U.S. as of mid-afternoon Aug. 26]. It could go higher. I don’t have a horse this year, so everybody’s happy and it all makes sense [to make the slot available online]. With young horses, that’s just the way it is. No guarantees.”

He noted that the slot was attracting attention from plenty of would-be buyers and the simply curious.

“We’ve got 4,200 views and 18 or 20 people who want to bid,” he said.

As for potential buyers, he said he wasn’t sure who was bidding.

“It depends on who’s got a really good horse who’s got a shot,” said Toscani.

One thing was certain, Toscani said he was “not interested” in making a deal with another owner or trainer, “to split the purse or get a percentage of the purse, whatever [the horse] gets. I did that three years ago, and the horse run behind the gate.”

In the 2023 edition, Toscani and trainer Desiree Jones sent two horses into the Mohawk Million: filly Tactical Strike, who set the pace for driver Toscani, only to make a break late in the mile and finish eighth, ahead of fellow breakers Emoji Hanover (ninth) and Drawn Impression (tenth). His colt Top Mast finished fourth for driver Travis Cullen.

“It’s a good race; I think the way they are doing it now is better,” said Toscani, referring to the lowered cost of Mohawk Million slots and the elimination of the slot originally awarded to the winner of the Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial Stake. He noted that he would have liked it better if the original Mohawk Million slot buyers, such as himself and Godin, were given priority over new participants.

“At least the first year, to give the people that supported the race a shot at it, that would’ve been more fair... For three years, I put in $500,000 for slots to support it,” he said. “Me and Serge [Godin] talked about it. We didn’t think it was really fair.”

Determination and Toscani each purchased two $100,000 (Can.) slots apiece for the 2023 Mohawk Million.

Toscani said he wasn’t able to use his 2024 Mohawk Million slot. He had gotten a $50,000 (Can.) slot in the draw, but said he had hoped for early backers of the race to be offered first option instead.

“You get lots of bad luck in horse racing,” said Toscani. “I sold him [Godin] mine, because I didn’t have a horse last year, but that’s not the point. The point is, give the people who supported the race a chance first. It’s too late now. That was supposed to be done the first year. Just tell them, ‘This year, you have a spot because you supported us, but moving forward, this is what we’re doing...’”

Toscani said he had no hard feelings about the decision, moving forward, and would continue to support the race.

“I always buy a few babies, yearlings, mostly trotters,” he said. “It’s the [best] place to race in Canada, but not all horses can go fast enough to race at Mohawk... Some of the babies didn’t make it [to race there] this year; they had a few hiccups.”

As for the removal of the William Wellwood Memorial as a golden ticket to the Mohawk Million, Toscani was in favor.

“I’m happy that it’s gone,” he said. “If you noticed, since they took that slot away, they have less horses nominated to the Wellwood. There were two [elimination] divisions of seven or eight horses each this year... For a lot of Americans, there was no incentive to keep them eligible to this race.”

On Saturday (Aug. 23), Tactical Landing colt Ardonne and driver Scott Zeron captured the $485,000 (Can.) Wellwood final in 1:52.4, matching the stakes record. Toscani said he thought that Ardonne’s connections (owner Philip Steinberg of Weston, FL and trainer Megan Scran) might be among those taking a serious look at his Mohawk Million slot on onGait.com. Bidding was set to remain open until 1 p.m. (Eastern) on Thursday (Aug. 28).

Connections trying to stay grounded as undefeated 2-year-old Beau Jangles dances ever higher

by Dave Briggs

It's too early to know how Beau Jangles will do once he dances with the greats in his division, but there's no denying the legend of the precocious, undefeated Ontario-sired 2-year-old pacer is growing at a rate commensurate with the horse's confidence.

Through five perfect starts – all in Ontario – the imposing son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill already has earnings of $382,125 ($277,930 by USTA accounting). He has posted victories in three $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold events, plus the $227,100 Battle of Waterloo at Grand River Raceway and the $117,150 Nassagaweya in his last start on Aug. 23 at Woodbine Mohawk Park where he is scheduled to contest a fourth Gold event on Friday night (Aug. 29).

Beau Jangles' trainer, Hall of Famer Dr. Ian Moore, is trying to keep all this in perspective. He's had horses before that have been positively meteoric early, only to watch them come back to earth as both their starts and the competition increased.

Still, there's something about this guy that's undeniable.

"He's filling out really nicely – a really thick neck and thick shoulders; very powerful looking," Moore said. "Before, he looked like a big, half-awkward 2-year-old. But now he's starting to change, body wise, and mentally, he's getting kind of cocky here at the farm... When I go to jog him, he'll stand there. It's a funny thing. I've had the good fortune to have a lot of good horses over the years, and a lot of those horses, when you hook them and go to the track, they'll stand and look around. I never see that in the five claimers, but I have seen it in the horses like [$3.2 million winner] Tattoo Artist... And [Beau Jangles] does the same thing, which is interesting. Then, when he gets on the track, he bucks a little bit and swishes his tail."

The day after his Nassagaweya win – a six-length laughter in a career-best 1:50 – Beau Jangles was feeling so good he dragged his caretaker, Riley Noble, to the paddock.

Beau Jangles (Bob McClure) winning his Nassagaweya division on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in a career-best 1:50.

The colt's driver, Bob McClure, hasn't been the least bit reserved when speaking about Beau Jangles.

After Beau Jangles' very first start – a 1:50.1, three-length score in a Gold on July 5 – McClure told Woodbine Mohawk Park broadcaster Chad Rozema: "This colt, he's exceptional. He can leave the gate, he's perfect-gaited, great mouth. You can sit him in the 3-hole, move him to the front and he melts for you... He's got gears that I haven't seen many 2-year-olds have. It's surprising because horses [that large] usually are not perfectly gaited. They're usually growing into their legs. But this guy is an athlete."

After winning his third Gold (and fourth start) on Aug. 14, McClure told Woodbine's John Rallis: "I haven't even had to test him or try him. He's doing it so easily. Obviously, the big tell will be when he gets tired and we'll see what he's got, but he's absolutely incredible. He's got a lot of class, and he's an absolute pleasure to sit behind. He's got a feather of a mouth, a great gait... He's just waiting for you to tell him what to do, and he's happy just to do it. You don't really have to ask him to go. You don't have to tell him to slow down. He's just absolutely perfect. It's like driving a robot that's really fast."

The colt's part-owner Jonathan Roberts, a leading driver at Ocean Downs in Maryland, said he's pumped hearing McClure talk like that about Beau Jangles.

Moore.

"It actually makes me feel really good, because I know Bob doesn't talk too many horses up," Roberts said. "If he's talking up a horse, it means a lot because, generally, Bob's more of a 'Yeah, he's all right' type of a guy."

While Moore and majority owner Adam Ainspan of Virginia have been loath to jinx themselves by heaping too much praise on the young colt too early, Moore said he loves McClure's unfiltered admiration about the pacer.

"I like to have my driver confident; that's for sure," the trainer said. "I don't want the confidence coming from me telling him how well [the horse] trained and how good he seemed. I want the confidence coming from the horse, because that's a lot better than me telling [the driver]. I always try to be humble about it. You can be a trainer of a good horse and you can be a humble trainer of a good horse, and I prefer the latter."

As for McClure, he's lucky to be in Beau Jangles' sulky, Roberts said.

Louis-Philippe Roy qualified Beau Jangles and was set to drive in the colt's pari-mutuel debut. Instead, that race came the same night Roy was driving at The Meadowlands. Roberts, a winner of nearly 5,000 races and $40 million in purses, offered to come to Canada to drive Beau Jangles himself the first time out and then turn the reins back over to Roy. But Moore asked if it was okay if he asked McClure to drive Beau Jangles first. Roberts and McClure agreed and the rest is history.

"I've never gotten an opportunity to sit behind [Beau Jangles], but he looks like a very mature horse for his age," Roberts said.

“He’ll leave and then he’ll sit right down and go slow if you want to. When you move him out of a hole, he’ll come right on and go really fast if he needs to, or he’ll ease right around a horse. It’s something that is very difficult to teach. Horses either have that or they don’t. Sometimes, if you stir them up early, you can’t wrestle them back down. It’s like an on/off switch. Once you flip it on, you can’t flip it off again. And this guy looks like you can flip it on and off as many times as you want, and that’s extremely valuable in a big race, because you never know how it’s going to go, and you might have to go to plan B or C. If you don’t have that option, boy, that can really be to your downfall.”

FROM BO TO BEAU

Bred by Tara Hills Stud in Port Perry, ON where Cattlewash also stands stud, Beau Jangles was originally named TH Bo Jangles – the TH for Tara Hills.

Farm owner David Heffering said, “As a yearling, [Beau Jangles] ruled the roost in the paddock. He was a big boy and I know from talking to [farm manager] Matt [Harrison], he was a little apprehensive towards how he was going to be as a yearling.

“When we brought him into the barn, Matt was thinking that he may lose a battle or two with him. Matt said [Beau Jangles]’ personality was that he knew he was king, but he didn’t just know how big a horse he was and what he could do.”

Ainspan, who like Moore is a veterinarian, owns both standardbreds and thoroughbreds. He said it was Beau Jangles' yearling video that caught his attention.

"He just looked so athletic and folks were telling me that the Cattlewashes were looking good," Ainspan said.

He asked Roberts and Moore to look at him in the Preferred Equine consignment at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA – Roberts because the two of them campaign $1.3 million winning trotting mare and Maple Leaf Trot finalist Call Me Goo together, and Moore because he once took Call Me Goo for them when she was first sent to Canada to race.

Moore said he first looked at Beau Jangles on the Monday the sale started. His major concern was the colt might be too big to keep sound as a 2-year-old. So far, that hasn't been an issue. "We've never done any work on him at all, veterinary-wise, and that's one of his attributes," said Moore.

Moore predicted Beau Jangles would sell for between $40,000 and $75,000. The final price was $65,000 U.S.

Ainspan believed the athleticism he had seen from Beau Jangles in his yearling video would overcome the fact the colt is larger than most.

Though Moore is listed as the buyer, he doesn't own a piece of Beau Jangles who is officially owned by:

- Ainspan and Mary Beth Roberts under the Graham Grace Stables LLC of Clifton, VA
- Anne Hooper and Jonathan Roberts under the Kiwi Stables LLC of La Plata, MD
- Ed, Garth and Philip Bolton, plus John Draper of the Bolton Stables of Clermont, FL

Despite being owned by Americans that can't see Beau Jangles race in person as easily, Jonathan said the fact that the colt is eligible to the Ontario program was a huge bonus.

"It was actually a plus, because I've always liked the Ontario Sires Stakes program," Jonathan said. "It's a phenomenal program. If it's not the best in North America, it's top two or three the way it's structured. If you don't end up with a Gold colt, per se, you have options to race in another level to make money with a horse. So, it gives you a lot of outs. Fortunately, this colt ended up being a Gold colt. But if he wasn't, we would have two or three other levels and different options to race him and still make a lot of money. They all race for pretty good money."

For Ainspan, the first order of business was changing the horse's name.

"We have a dog named Beau that we jokingly call Beau Jangles," Ainspan said. "When I saw [the colt's] name, I said, 'Let's just change it a little bit... and name him after my dog. I do that mainly for my kids. They bond over it. My daughter names almost all of my horses. She's very clever doing it.'"

At first, Moore wasn't sure he would have enough help to take Beau Jangles, but fate intervened when the trainer was approached for a job by one of his former grooms.

Jonathan said it was a perfect match – particularly between Ainspan and Moore.

“Vets are like a club,” Jonathan said. “They all kind of get along. “Not only is Doc Moore a fantastic trainer, he’s a fantastic vet on top of it. So having him train your horses is like having them under 24-hour vet care. He can find little problems before they come and become big ones. That’s a gigantic advantage.”

KEEPING GROUNDED WHILE AIMING FOR THE CROWN

As Beau Jangles gears up for Friday’s Gold start, to be followed, health willing, by starts in the Metro, OSS Super Final and Breeders Crown – all at Woodbine Mohawk Park – his connections are excited, but trying to stay grounded.

“I don’t get too high on them,” Jonathan said. “All winter long, Doc Moore said [Beau Jangles] was in his third group [in Florida], he wasn’t in the top group training down. He worked his way up there. When we were doing stakes payments, Doc Moore had the Metro and Breeders Crown on there. I said, ‘Do we really need to pay for these? Is he really a Metro or Breeders Crown colt? He said, ‘Well, I can’t tell you he’s not that.’

“I watch horses all over creation, in Tioga and Lexington and Indiana. I’m constantly on the computer looking for horses to buy to race either here in Maryland or at Plainridge. I watch all the other 2-year-old colts around the country... and they’re not doing anything this colt can’t do... So, I’m cautiously optimistic.”

Today, Beau Jangles is definitely looking worthy of being competitive at the Grand Circuit level, but, again, Moore has seen this before with mixed results.

“We’ve had a lot of babies come along in the last 15, 20 years that have won their first five, six, seven races and then get beaten at six or seven right when they meet their match,” Moore said. “Eventually, they’ll all get beat, and they’ll meet their match with another horse, another baby. The Burkes have a nice one [Al Papi] that went in [1]:49.1 at The Meadows and that’s a pretty good mile over The Meadows for any class of horse, because that track is not that fast, in my opinion.”

Ainspan said he learned the hard way not to start thinking a horse is invincible.

The third horse he ever owned was a trotter named Great George Two that went on to earn nearly $500,000. In 2005, Great George

“ I was much younger – [Great George Two] was only my third horse – and here I was racing as the odds-on favorite [in the $342,100 Goodtimes final], and he broke stride and came in last. So, I learned early on what it can feel like to get too high. Now, I keep it pretty level and I’m keeping it level with [Beau Jangles]. I know it all can happen. I know he has potential, and we try to be smart with him by not racing too much, but I know nothing is guaranteed, so I’m just enjoying the ride. And that’s what I tell everybody else. ”

Two set a Canadian record of 1:52.1 in the eliminations for the Goodtimes Stakes at Woodbine Racetrack.

“I was much younger – it was only my third horse – and here I was racing as the odds-on favorite [in the $342,100 final], and he broke stride and came in last,” Ainspan said. “So, I learned early on what it can feel like to get too high. I know he has potential, and we try to be smart with him by not racing too much, but I know nothing is guaranteed, so I’m just enjoying the ride. And that’s what I tell everybody else.”

Naturally, he’s also fielding calls to purchase Beau Jangles. For now, he’s considering partners, but not selling the colt outright.

“If he keeps on going and has the potential to become a sire, we’ll have to bring in somebody,” Ainspan said. “I don’t have a farm with broodmares and I don’t have those connections... We need more time. The money’s not really the big issue... It’s just thinking longer term, if there is a longer term. I understand what can happen. Just because he’s been great for five races doesn’t mean too much of anything. I know there is potential there, but we’ll just have to see.”

Moore said after Beau Jangles’ third Gold win, “The colt wasn’t even blowing after... He’s developing a lot of class now on the track. When I go on the track with him, he’s a totally different horse. When he’s at home he wants to play with you a little bit, but when he comes here, he’s all business and knows what we’re here for.”

Jonathan said, “I get excited every time I watch this guy race, just like I get excited every time I watch Call Me Goo race. I really don’t think we’ve seen the best of this guy yet. Hopefully, in about a month from now, we’ll see what he’s actually made of.

“So far, it’s been absolutely wonderful... It really couldn’t be any better.”

Tactical Landing's Summermusic'night S best in German Derby

by Thomas Hedlund

Mariendorf racetrack in Berlin played host to the $195,000 German Derby for 4-year-olds on Sunday (Aug. 24) afternoon and the big favorite Aladin, who came to the Derby with 11 consecutive wins, had to capitulate to Michel Rothengatter's Summermusic'night S (Tactical Landing).

Summermusic'night S took the lead immediately in the 1,900 meter race and favorite Aladin had to settle in first over which proved to be too tough this time. Leader Summermusic'night S and Rothengatter had complete control of the situation and the 4-year-old colt won easily in a mile rate of 1:56.2.

Aladin held on for the silver, while Black Heuvelland finished third after a pocket trip.

The $96,000 German Derby for mares was held at Mariendorf the day before, on Saturday (Aug. 23), and the event ended with success for Uffizle (Trixtion) and Josef Franzl. The duo came to the lead early in the race and Uffizle then bested her crop sisters as she won in a mile rate of 1:57.4 over 1,900 meters.

WORLD RECORD HOLDER JABALPUR SPRINTED TO NEW VICTORY

Jabalpur (Booster Winner) was a real surprise when he claimed the $210,000 Prix Rene Balliere at Vincennes in June. That day, Jabalpur set new world record over 2,100 meters as he won in a mile rate of 1:50.3.

In Saturday (Aug. 23) night's $195,000 Grand Prix du Departement des Alpes-Maritimes in Cagnes-sur-Mer, Jabalpur did it again, but this time he wasn't as big of an upset as in June, but neither as the favorite. Hohneck played the role as first choice, but he couldn't defend the front position from post 1 start, so instead he had to race first over, which became too heavy for him.

“ If we were to go outside of one of Grant and Trista [Dixon]’s, and not take a horse we own, the only one would be Trent Dawson’s 3-year-old French Fries. ~ Kevin Seymour

Six of the 10 slots are gone, but with just 10 days from today (Aug. 27) until the race, intrigue and debate surrounds the remaining slots for the Sept. 6 race at Menangle in Sydney.

Many expected last week’s racing across three key tracks – Melton, Menangle, and Albion Park – to make things clearer, but some upsets and flops only served to muddy the waters.

The six confirmed runners with slots now are: Bay Of Biscay (Soho Standardbreds slot), Fighter Command (Tasracing), Hesitate (John Singleton), Fate Awaits (Cordina Racing), Seathestars (John Singleton), and Call To Order (Racing Queensland).

That leaves the slots held by Kevin and Kay Seymour, Danny and Jo Zavitsanos (Team Zav), Summit Bloodstock/Aaron Bain Racing, and race sponsor, TAB.

What’s clear is the first three of those slots have strong stable connections; Team Zav and Summit/Bain with the powerhouse Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin stable, and Kevin and Kay Seymour with Grant and Trista Dixon.

Both stables are set to dominate the TAB Eureka, at least numbers-wise, between them.

Team Dixon already has two runners – both owned by the Seymours – in Fate Awaits and Call To Order.

There is a huge chance they will have a third with the Seymours considering Path To Greatness, Cool And Classy, and Charge Ahead.

“If we were to go outside of one of Grant and Trista’s, and not take a horse we own, the only one would be Trent Dawson’s 3-year-old French Fries,” Kevin Seymour said. “He was stunning winning his Qbred final last Saturday week and Trent said he’s gone to a whole new level. We’re very close to Trent through our farm [Egmont Park]. We’re looking seriously at French Fries.”

Stewart and Tonkin, who trained former star mare Encipher to win the inaugural 2023 TAB Eureka, set a record for one stable with three of the 10 runners in last year’s race. They finished second (Bay Of Biscay), third (High Above), and sixth (Major Delight).

Although Bay Of Biscay returns and is their only confirmed runner so far, you can take it to the bank Team Zav and Summit/Bain will take Stewart and Tonkin-trained pacers.

Team Zav owns two of the major contenders vying for the remaining slots in exciting 3-year-old Fox Dan and the ultra-consistent and seasoned 4-year-old War Dan Buddy. Both were impressive last start winners.

Summit/Bain could take the other, but will also be looking closely at stablemates Go Miki, an untapped 3-year-old, and the rejuvenated Miki To Success, who stunningly won a key lead-up race, the Racenet Discovery Stakes, at Menangle last Saturday night.

Both slot holders unashamedly admit they rely heavily on the recommendations of Stewart and Tonkin.

“No decision and there probably won’t be until after next weekend,” Stewart said. “Fox Dan and War Dan Buddy will go around again Saturday night [Aug. 30 at Melton], while Miki To Success was fantastic [winning] at Menangle and Go Miki looked good at Melton [winning again].

Harness Racing Australia CEO Andrew Kelly confirmed the final cut-off for slot owners is Monday [Sept. 1].

“Presuming some contenders will race Saturday night, it gives everyone a day to see how they’ve come through before locking things in,” he said.

So, that leaves the TAB slot as the one true “wildcard” as the race draws closer.

TAB, which uses its slots to promote its brand, has usually locked in a runner in all its slot races well before now.

Insiders say they had all but sealed a deal going into last Saturday night’s racing, but their “chosen” pacer didn’t fire and has sent them scrambling back to the decision table.

Going purely on what we saw last weekend, if Miki To Success isn’t “quarantined” for the Summit/Bain slot, it would be a no-brainer for TAB to take the 4-year-old.

His odds to win the TAB Eureka were slashed from $21 to $8 (for a $1 bet) after he sat parked, smashed the clock, and won running away by 16 meters in a career-best performance.

If TAB did take Miki To Success, it would open the door for Stewart and Tonkin to break their own record and have four runners.

One record that has already been smashed is the number of 3-year-olds who will contest the race, which is restricted to Australian-bred 3- and 4-year-old pacers.

Two 3-year-olds ran in 2023 and finished seventh (The Lost Storm), and ninth (Captain Hammerhead), but Bay Of Biscay turned it around last year, when, as the only 3-year-old in the field, he flashed home for a luckless second.

Already three of the six confirmed runners are 3-year-olds in Hesitate, Fate Awaits and Seathestars.

Of the key remaining contenders, three at the very top of considerations, Fox Dan, Go Miki and French Fries, are 3-year-olds.

So, it looks certain at least half the field (five of the 10 starters) will be 3 and it could even stretch to six.

Much of the attraction of taking a 3-year-old is the preferential barrier draws (post positions) they get, but that’s potentially diminished a lot if there are five or six of that age group in the race – meaning they’ll draw anywhere from 1 to 5 or 6.

LADBROKES ULTIMATE DRIVER CHAMPIONSHIP WILL RETURN IN 2026

The hugely successful Ladbrokes Ultimate Driver Championship will return to Brisbane's Albion Park early next year.

And the message is clear to any drivers, especially those based in North America, throw your hat in the ring immediately if you're keen to be part of it.

Applications for slots close on Sept. 12 and prospective drivers need to be in talks with potential slot owners before then.

Some of the best harness drivers from around the world, headed by Dexter Dunn and Yannick Gingras from the U.S. and Swedish great Bjorn Goop, headlined the inaugural series in February, this year.

The star-studded 10 driver line-up sparked record-breaking betting turnover and passionately strong crowds across the two nights and 20 races of the series.

It delivered a career highlight for top young local driver Angus Garrard, the youngest driver in the series, who upstaged his famous rivals to win the title.

Total turnover across the two meetings (Feb. 21 and 22) this year was $6.8 million, an increase of 83 per cent against the same meetings the previous year.

"It was a no-brainer to bring it back," Racing Queensland senior harness racing manager Andrew Clarke said. "We've really landed on something special with this series. The series brought together owners, trainers, drivers, punters, and fans like nothing we've seen before.

"We were swamped with submissions for slots last year, so we increased the cost from $20,000 to $30,000 and boosted the overall prize money of the series from $250,000 to $350,000.

"Given how much the slot owners enjoyed this and how many missed out, we're confident demand will be very strong again.

"The same goes for drivers. Yes, we had an incredible line-up, but we also had drivers from across Australia, New Zealand, the U.S., and Europe wishing they were part of it and saying they'd throw their hat in the ring again next time."

The next Ladbrokes Ultimate Driver Championship, scheduled for Feb. 20 and 21, will carry a $125,000 prize to the winner, consisting of $110,000 cash and a $15,000 Nutrien Equine sales voucher to use at the Sunshine Stars Yearling Sale the day after the series.

Paula Mason wears her heart on her sleeve and elsewhere

by Chris Lomon

Paula Mason's adoration for harness racing can be found on the front of her driving colors.

They are easily noticeable, the two silver hearts, one on the left, the other on the right, that are featured against an eye-catching purple backdrop.

"My dad has maroon and blue as his colors," Mason said. "When I was growing up, I wasn't sure what I wanted my colors to be. When I got to be a teenager, purple just kind of clicked with me. It's a derivative of maroon, so I am kind of sticking with the family pattern there. I wanted to make it my own, but I also wanted something more feminine, so I went with the hearts."

Mason's love affair with racing and horses can be traced back to the days when she took her first few steps.

Her parents, Darryl, who started driving in 1986, and finds himself one shy of 1,200 driving wins, accumulated in his home province and beyond, and Sherri Mason, a trainer with over 500 lifetime victories, are also long-time operators of the largest breeding farm in Manitoba.

It was no surprise that Paula, who earned her training license at 16, was eager to follow in their footsteps.

And it was by no means a longshot that success would follow.

“My parents always emphasized that the horses give you what you give them,” Paula said. “Meaning that the better you treat your horses, the more time you put in, and giving them the best care, it will reflect in your horse’s performance. The horses will race better and they will try harder. They instilled that when I was a little girl, and I live by that to this day.”

Twelve years ago, Paula debuted with a trio of starters on the afternoon of July 14, 2013, at Glenboro, a half-mile oval in the town of the same name.

Her first starter, A Minutes Grace, was third in the first race. Four races later, with her father in the race bike, Justabifaster finished fourth.

In the eighth race, Mystic Maggie, a daughter of Camystic (AB), delivered the young conditioner a milestone victory.

“Obviously, a highlight of anyone’s career is their first win and that happened the first day I was racing as a trainer,” Paula said. “That was one you will always remember.”

Four years ago, Paula added driver to her racing repertoire.

In her rookie campaign, she posted three thirds from 12 starts.

One year later, in 2023, she recorded six wins and 14 top three finishes from 35 starts. In 2024, there were nine winner’s circle trips and 38 podium finishes from 69 starts.

Her most treasured victory to date came this year, on Aug. 9, in an elimination of the Manitoba Futurity, the province’s richest stakes event.

Paula was handed the lines of Pipers Luna, a daughter of Im the Pied Piper (MB) trained, bred and owned by Lorraine Rey.

"It was a mare I had never driven before," Paula said. "I was driving her for good family friends, the Rey family. When I was going into the race, I read the program and saw that she was a very nice filly. She was undefeated at that point, so I felt we had a good chance to win it."

When the starter car sped away, so too did Paula and Pipers Luna.

"I was able to get away from the gate and cut the fractions myself," Paula said. "She made it easy. The second favorite came first over, I popped the plugs, and she just started to cruise away on them."

Paula wasn't about to let her guard down and gave herself an internal pep talk in the final quarter.

"Coming down the stretch, I looked over and there was no one within 10 lengths of me," she said. "I said to myself, 'Don't screw up now.' She was a little bit rough down the stretch, but we held things together and got her across the wire flat."

The chart showed a seven-length score and a 2:01.1 mile.

"In the winner's circle, there were quite a few congratulations and that's when it hit me that it was my first big stakes win in Manitoba," Paula said. "It was a great feeling of accomplishment. You don't win those races every day, so it felt very good."

"It is definitely a confidence booster. I am the only female driver here in Manitoba. I race against the boys all the time, so it definitely gives your confidence a push, as well as knowing trainers have faith in me when they put me with a great horse like that."

Paula isn't only making her mark in the industry on the track – she is also a board member of Standardbred Canada.

Whatever role she finds herself immersed in on any given day, she approaches each one with a singular focus and the same high standard of care.

"The most rewarding part is seeing the horses develop, as a trainer," Paula said. "My family is big into the breeding business, so I have grown up with that way my whole life. I have my own broodmare and I really enjoy foaling the mares out, raising them, breaking them, and getting them to the races. It's a very rewarding process when you can get one of your own to the races."

"I am pretty involved in almost every aspect of the industry. I breed, train, and drive my own. I have also started shoeing my own, too."

Paula, who graduated from Brandon University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and psychology, works full-time as a social worker.

She is also taking care of two young children.

"I am also a foster parent through the agency I work for, so I have two little kids right now, a 2-year-old girl and a 3-week-old boy in my care," she said.

There is also an ice and diamond aspect to her life outside the office, barn and home.

“ [Winning the Manitoba Futurity with Pipers Luna] is definitely a confidence booster. I am the only female driver here in Manitoba. I race against the boys all the time, so it definitely gives your confidence a push, as well as knowing trainers have faith in me when they put me with a great horse like that. ”

~ Paula Mason

“I play hockey and I also play baseball in the summer,” she said. “I like to be busy.”

And she also likes to be driven.

Goals for her standardbred career are not solely confined to the Manitoba racing scene.

“Like everybody, a long-term goal would be to race on the big tracks one day,” Paula said. “I often look at the International Women’s Day races at The Meadowlands and Woodbine – it would be a huge privilege to be in those races and race against some of the top females in the sport.

“In the short term, we are halfway through the season here and I just want to finish the season strong and look forward to breaking some babies this winter, then have a good start to the season next year.”

Paula will also continue to be an impassioned advocate and voice for harness racing in Manitoba.

“We’re not doing it as a career or for the money, per se, we are doing it for the love of the sport and we want to keep the tradition alive,” she said.

The horsewoman in purple and silver – the one who wears her heart on her sleeve and elsewhere – is undoubtedly doing her part.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

It's six straight for Miki And Minnie, Go Dog Go upends Super Chapter at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On a beautiful Monday (Aug. 25) in the Bluegrass, Miki And Minnie maintained her win streak in a geared down 1:50 at The Red Mile in the $80,000 third round leg of the Kentucky Championship Series for sophomore filly pacers. Go Dog Go left favored Super Chapter well behind to return to the winner's circle in 1:53.2 in his $80,000 third round leg of the series for 3-year-old male trotters. The 14-race card also included three $30,000 third round legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series, and four $15,000 third round legs of the Kentucky Golden Rod Series.

now field of four. With Dexter Dunn at the controls, Miki And Minnie settled in second for the first quarter as world champion Looksgoodinloulou (Yannick Gingras) set the split of :28.1.

The daughter of Always B Miki—That's The Ticket forged to the front by the half and established fractions of :56.2 and 1:24.2 before hitting the line with a last quarter in :25.3 well within herself.

Looksgoodinloulou was valiant in defeat with her own :25.3 final panel but the heavy favorite and Kentucky champion was simply best. Champagne Room and Andrew McCarthy were third.

Trained by Chris Ryder, Miki And Minnie has only lost once, and that by a head, since a third-place finish behind Looksgoodinloulou in her Breeders Crown elimination last October. The only other horse to defeat her is Rodeo Drive Deo who was second in that same race last year.

The Dan Patch Award winner competes as a homebred for Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo and Lawrence Minowitz.

The filly's bankroll has swelled to $1.39 million with a resume of 21 15-5-1.

Miki And Minnie provided $2.10 to win for her supporters.

With an uncharacteristic break by Kentucky champion and favorite Super Chapter (Dunn) behind the gate, Go Dog Go and Todd McCarthy took advantage of the moment to sail home in a wire-to-wire score over Gimpanzee Dancer (Andrew McCarthy) and Te Quiero Lindy (Andy Miller).

Go Dog Go jumped right to the lead as Super Chapter trailed the field right as the wings of the gate folded. The son of Greenshoe—Primary Target never relinquished command through fractions of :28.3, :58.3 and 1:27.1.

Te Quiero Lindy sat in second until the drive to the wire, with Gimpanzee Dancer in third until the finish line was in sight. Both horses gave it their all with :26.4 and :26.1 final quarters, but Go Dog Go's :26.1 last split was too strong.

Bred by Wiesman Farms, who owns the colt in conjunction with Al Libfeld, Go Dog Go is trained by Carter Pinske.

The colt is 16 6-2-3 overall and 6 4-0-1 this season with his only off the board finish an eighth in the Grade I Hambletonian after a tough draw.

Go Dog Go has collected $470,218 in purse money and those who wagered on him earned $7.34 as the public's second choice.

FOUND PICKS UP THIRD STRAIGHT IN COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Todd McCarthy guided Found to the winner's circle for the third consecutive time and sixth this season in 1:54.2 for trainer Brett Pelling as the heavy favorite in the field of six in the sole division for 3-year-old filly pacers. The daughter of Always B Miki—Geothermal was in command the entire mile. Hip Shot (Andrew McCarthy) was second and Accede (Gingras) was third.

The Diamond Creek Farm homebred is 12 8-2-1 with $81,000 in purse money.

The filly is a half-sibling to 2023 Horse of the Year and world champion Confederate.

The team of Tony Hall and Anette Lorentzon won the first division for sophomore male trotters with Taipan As by a nose over My Degenerate (Andy Miller) in 1:52.3. Favored Blank (Andrew McCarthy) completed the trifecta.

Winless at 2, the son of Walner—Black Mamba As set a new lifetime mark with his fifth win from nine starts in 2025.

Racing as a homebred for ACL Stuteri AB, the colt is the first foal out of his dam who earned nearly $360,000 on the track.

Herecomesdajudge (Andy Miller) took the field all the way in 1:52.1 to win the second division for 3-year-old male trotters. Big Shoes (Gingras) was second with favorite Global Sensation hitting the wire in third.

It was the second victory from 12 starts this year of the son of Muscle Hill—Designed To Be to bolster his record to 21 4-6-4 and break the $100,000 mark in earnings. The final time was also the swiftest the colt has trotted.

Bred by Al Libfeld and Marvin Katz, Herecomesdajudge is out of world and Pennsylvania champion Designed To Be making him a half sibling to Dan Patch Award winner Greenshoe.

The colt was brought home for $150,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Andy Miller Stable, T L P Stable, Mr. Caroll Huffman, and Patrick Hoopes.

Herecomesdajudge paid $20.10 to win as the fourth choice.

WHISKEY WOW RETURNS TO HIS WINNING WAYS

Favorite Whiskey Wow (David Miller, $4.40) and second choice Grande Via (Gingras, $16.52) won the divisions of the Golden Rod Series for 3-year-old male trotters.

Driver Andrew McCarthy swept the two divisions for sophomore filly pacers with Duchess Deo ($30.18) and Baret ($12.10).

WINNPANZEE, HARRISBURG HEIST CASH IN

On a picture-perfect Sunday Night Lights (Aug. 24) evening, Winnpanzee proved best after a step up in class in the third $80,000 leg of the Kentucky Championship Series for 3-year-old filly trotters in 1:52. Harrisburg Heist completed the exacta for Yannick Gingras and Ron Burke with his triumph in the leg for sophomore male pacers in 1:49.4.

The 15-race card, sponsored by Crawford Farms, also supplied two $30,000 third legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series, and four $15,000 third round legs of the Kentucky Golden Rod Series.

Winnpanzee parlayed a quality trip into her second victory in three starts for Burke since joining his contingent last month. Previously owned by Purple Haze Stables and conditioned by Trond Smedshammer, the daughter of Gimpanzee—Winndevie defeated favored Torrisi (Tim Tetrick) and Voguish (Andrew McCarthy) to procure the victory.

Leaving from post position 1, Winnpanzee and her pilot sat in second as Torrisi assumed command from post position 4. That filly established splits of :28.4, :56.3 and 1:24.4 prior to Winnpanzee given the green light as the field of seven headed for the final bend.

As Torrisi fought on and Stash Some Cash (David Miller) made their own bid to claim second, Winnpanzee left her pocket position, was third by a head at the three-quarters and then trotted home in :27 while moving around her competition with plenty in the tank.

Bred by Ola Yoder, Winnpanzee is owned by her trainer, Bradley Grant and Weaver Brusceci. The filly was winless in five starts as a freshman but broke her maiden in May. She now sports a resume of 11 4-3-2 and collected her first win in Championship Series company after two starts in the Commonwealth Series.

The filly has banked $115,820 and provided her supporters with $12.64 at the windows as the fourth selection.

Harrisburg Heist made it a bit closer for his margin of victory but also visited the winner's circle in his first trip to the Championship Series. The son of Downbytheseaside—Cashaway defeated fellow shedrow member Captain Arturovico (Dexter Dunn) by a head. Crack Shot (Doug McNair) came home third.

Gingras put the pedal to the metal right off the gate from post position 6 in the field of eight as Harrisburg Heist led his rivals through an opening quarter in :27.3. Gingras was content to let his foot off the gas and allow Captain Arturovico to take control through a half in :55.2 as he and his horse sat in second.

Crack Shot unloaded from third to take second after three quarters in 1:23.1 with Harrisburg Heist idling in third. After unleashing a final quarter in :26.1, Harrisburg Heist hit the line first.

Bred by Brittany Farms and Marvin Katz, Harrisburg Heist is the seventh foal out of his dam and was purchased privately by his trainer, Knox Services Inc. and Weaver Brusceci.

The gelding is a half sibling to Queen Of Success (Captaintreacherous, $449,246) and Diamondspearls (Captaintreacherous, $140,059).

Harrisburg Heist won his third consecutive race and like Winnpanzee, won a Commonwealth Series event before taking a leg of the Ohio Stakes on Aug. 16 at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

The gelding has a resume of 21 8-3-3 and more than $200,000 in his bank account.

Harrisburg Heist provided $10.38 to win as the second choice.

DELRAY BEACH, BEST STORY NOSE OUT COMMONWEALTH WINS

Dunn and Delray Beach wired the field to take the division for 3-year-old male pacers in 1:51.1 for trainer Nancy Takter. Favorite Strangerinthenight (Scott Zeron) was second and Boomerang (Tetrick) was third.

Bred by Christina Takter, Marvin Katz and Brixton Medical Inc., Delray Beach is now 22 6-2-5. The son of Tall Dark Stranger out of Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Idyllic Beach has amassed $147,471 in purse money.

He is a full brother to the freshman filly Bahama Momma, who is a top competitor in the Championship Series.

Delray Beach was purchased for $23,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by Black Horse Racing, John Fielding and Morrison Racing Stables.

The gelding paid $20.52 to win.

Andy Miller and Best Story Ever staved off the late advance of favored Kadena (Andrew McCarthy) in 1:52.1 to win the series event for 3-year-old filly trotters. Best Friends Girl (David Miller) rounded out the trifecta.

Trained by Julie Miller, Best Story Ever is a daughter of Chapter Seven—Nixie Volo. The final time was a lifetime best as she improved her record to 11 4-0-2 with $69,072 in her bank account.

The filly was bred by Kentuckiana Farms and Eddie Gran. She was a $185,000 selection for Wiesman Farms LLC., Andy Miller Stable and Carmen Iannacone at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Best Story Ever rewarded her supporters with a payout of $13.54.

FAVORITES ABOUND IN GOLDEN ROD SERIES

Belmont (Dunn, $3.82), Esme (A. McCarthy, $44.38), and Misspanzee (Zeron, $5.16) reigned supreme in the three Golden Rod divisions for sophomore filly trotters.

Racing will continue through Sunday (Oct. 5), following a Sunday through Wednesday schedule. Fans and horsemen can look forward to 5:05 p.m. post times on Sundays, and 1 p.m. post times on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays throughout the meet.

The Red Mile will once again feature industry low takeout on the pari-mutuel side of things while offering fans a full buffet of wagering options including bookend daily double wagering exacta and trifecta wagering, 20 cent superfectas, Pick-3, Pick-4, Pick-5, and Pick-6 offerings, and the Super Hi-5.

Eleven divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

While technically the undercard for Eldorado Scioto Downs' Saturday (Aug. 23) stakes card, 11 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes 2-year-olds went postward racing for a total of $580,000 in purses.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT PACERS

Downbytheseaside colts took two of the three $50,000 divisions for 2-year-old colt pacers.

Lindy Dragonwater took the fastest split under a hand drive in 1:51. Leaving straight for the lead, Chris Page had Lindy Dragonwater comfortably on top through :27.1, :56.3 and 1:24 splits. The pair won by 4¾ lengths over Swelce (Mike Wilder) and Skull N Crossbones (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.).

Lindy Dragonwater was a $100,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Lindy Farms. Trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing, Knox Services, Beasty and Brad Grant, Lindy Dragonwater has three wins in five starts and $108,680 in earnings.

Gentleman's Club (Aaron Merriman) took his split in 1:51.4. Leaving from post 7, Gentleman's Club went straight to the front but at the :26.3 quarter, Chris Page had When Is Parade out and moving from third. That pair took over the lead heading towards the :55.4 half but Merriman had Gentleman's Club out and moving again. Leading the field to the 1:23.4 third quarter, Gentleman's Club was able to put some separation between him and the rest of the field. When Is Parade and Prolific Blend (Austin Hanners) battled for second three lengths back with the former getting up by a narrow margin.

Gentleman's Club was a $120,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Frederick Hertrich. Trained by Aaron Lambert for Anthony Licastro Gentleman's Club is now three-for-four in his young career with $57,000 earned.

The 1-5 favorite Pet Project made it three-in-a-row winning in 1:52.1. After quarter moving at the :27.3 opening split to take over, Pet Project never looked back hitting the beam in :56.2 and 1:25.1. Thunder Jam (Wilder) sat in the pocket after leaving smartly off the gate to be second at 22-1; Caillou Hanover (Noble) was third.

Pet Project is a homebred for JR Stable (Jerry Zosel and Kathy Ratcliff) and trainer Kim Dailey. Out of their standout mare Igottafeelinfran, Pet Project is one of 24 foals out of Pet Rock's last crop of Ohio-sired foals. The gelding now has $84,700 earned in five starts.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACERS

There were only two divisions of 2-year-old pacing fillies, each going for $65,000.

Shehasaway took the first division in 1:53. Sitting back during the :27.3 opening quarter, Brett Miller pulled her second over going towards the :56 half and went three-wide just before the 1:24.4 third quarter. Pacing hard down the stretch, Shehasaway got up for a three-quarters-of-a-length victory over a hard closing Stride For Stride (Justin Irvine); pace setter Zoom Call (Noble) was third.

Shehasaway is by Summa Cum Laude, bred by owner/trainer Steve Bauder and Harold Bauder. Douglas Swihart also owns the filly who now has two wins in three starts and $42,100 in earnings.

She'safirewoman (Luke Hanners) went gate-to-wire to win her fifth-in-a-row in 1:53.1. Setting fractions of :27.4, :57.1 and 1:26.1, the roan filly by Catch The Fire was two lengths the best ahead of Laude Da (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.); Sassy By The Sea (Dan Noble) was third.

She'safirewoman is a homebred for Harry Horowitz. The Mark Winters trainee now has six wins in seven starts and $144,189 in earnings.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT TROTTERS

In Range colts took two of the three $50,000 2-year-old colt trot divisions, but Ready Russell took the cake by setting a new track record for geldings – 1:54.3. Setting fractions of :28.1, :58.2 and 1:26.2, Dan Noble let Ready Russell cruise home to win by five lengths over Eleven Bang Bang (Trevor Smith) and Soulful Saul (Brett Miller).

Ready Russell, by Ready For Moni, was a $37,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Midland Acres. Deborah Swartz trains the five-time victor of $108,800 for Jeff Fought Racing, Brian Carsey and David Fought.

Rose Run Boom (Noble) was the first gate-to-wire winner by In Range, winning in 1:55.1. After setting fractions of :28.1, :56.4 and 1:25.2, Rose Run Boom was able to hold off a late bid by Bitcoin King (Tyler Smith) who finished second; Where Theres Smoke (Mike Wilder) was third.

Rose Run Boom was bred by Rose Run Farm and is owned by Jeff Fought Racing, Brian Carsey, Adam Friedland and Jacob Beard. Steve Carter trains the $47,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase, who broke his maiden with the victory and has now earned $49,500 in six starts.

Big Ranger stayed perfect in his short career, also winning gate-to-wire in 1:55.1. Leading the field through quarters of :28.4, :59.1 and 1:27.1, trainer/driver Ronnie Gillespie tucked his whip coming for home as the duo won by open lengths over Rose Run Banker (Chris Page); Special Moni (Smith) was third.

Big Ranger is owned by Madison Global and was purchased for $25,000 at the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale from breeder Spring Haven Farm. The Next Generation winner now has $153,000 earned in five lifetime starts.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROTTERS

All three $50,000 splits of the 2-year-old filly trot were won in gate-to-wire fashion.

Setyoursightshigh (Mike Wilder) made it five-for-six on the year with her victory in 1:55.2. Holding off a closing bid by pocket sitter Demonic Niko (Dan Noble), Setyoursightshigh won by a head; Charlies Moni (Chris Lems) was third.

Setyoursightshigh was bred by Kentuckiana Farms and is owned by Heights Stable, Mantorp, AMG Stable and K Kjellgren Livs AB. A $50,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase, the In Range filly has now earned $265,000.

Joyofmylife As made her season a perfect four-for-four winning the second division in 1:56.1. Noble set fractions of :28.3, :58.4 and 1:28.2 to win by four lengths over Lindy Princess (Hanners), with Lucky Lady Volo (Tetrack) third. Joyofmylife As is a homebred for ACL Stuteri and Kjell Johansson. The Anette Lorentzon trained filly by Guardian Angel As now has $55,000 in earnings.

Speedbewithyou and Austin Hanners took the last division as the even money favorite in 1:55.4. Getting to the opening quarter in :28.2, Speedbewithyou wasn't challenged until the field went past the :58.1 half, when Divvy It Up and Brett Miller pulled the pocket. By the time the field hit the three-quarters in 1:26.3, Speedbewithyou was clear and won by a length and three quarters over Read Star (Lauren Harmon) who came up the inside; Tom's Babe (Jeremy Smith) was third.

Speedbewithyou, by Mission Accepted, is trained by Todd Luther for Greg Luther Racing and owner/breeder David Wills. The filly now has three wins in six starts and $111,500 in earnings.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Baby trotting colts in Philly PASS action

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

In Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and Stallion Series competition at Harrah's Philadelphia on Sunday afternoon (Aug. 24), 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings contested their fourth and final preliminary leg, racing for $177,378 and adding enough points to make their upcoming rich Championships (the Sire Stakes horses here on Friday (Sept. 5) and the Stallion Series competitors on Monday (Sept. 8) at Pocono).

The three Sire Stakes divisional winners were all sent away as the third choice – and that's quite surprising in the case of Mr Big Spender, who made a break in his last race but had won four stakes in a row before that, including two Sire Stakes legs. On Sunday the Captain Corey–Reilly K colt made it three victories in the PASS, making a move for driver Mike Wilder nearing the :28.2 quarter, getting the lead and a breather to the half in :57.3. He then just overpowered the competition from there, passing the three-quarters in 1:26 and drawing off to an easy 3¼ length win in 1:54.2, just a tick off the divisional track record at Philly set last year by Father TJ, and equaling his mark.

Mr Big Spender now has five wins in seven lifetime starts – the other two stakes wins were in the Arden Downs and Pennsylvania All-Stars – for trainer Norm Parker and owners Bart and Todd Brice. Depending upon the draw, he surely will be among the favorites in his upcoming Championship races.

Opening the card was Minoan, a Bar Hopping–Regal Woman colt who now has a pair of PASS prelim wins after a 1:55 triumph. Johnathan Ahle took the Noel Daley trainee straight to the engine, put up splits of :28.1, :58.3, and 1:26.2, then won by three lengths over favored Mr Penner, who attacked strongly first-over but then could not sustain. Minoan, who also had a second in a PASS prelim, is owned by Patricia Stable, L A Express Stable, Sjoblom Racing, and the trainer.

After a “x6-5-x7” scorecard in the first three Sire Stakes, the International Moni–Legal Lady gelding Oversear put it all together in his third start hopped, breaking his maiden in 1:55.1. Trainer/driver Charlie Norris sat third off early splits of :28.2 and :58, was on the move uncovered well before the 1:26.2 three-quarters, and did not falter to the line in overhauling favored Dublin Hanover for owners Carrie Norris, Max J. Hempt, James Zito, and Dr. James Sautter. An unofficial quick calculation after the day's races showed that the win would carry Overseas into eligibility for his Championship, but all parties should seek out the official totals from the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission, Bureau of Standardbred Horse Racing.

Mr Big Spender's sire Captain Corey also fathered the fastest (by far) of the three Stallion Series winners – Captain Jordan (dam Jordan Blue Chip), who took a new mark of 1:55.2 after controlling the pace under Jim Marohn, Jr.'s handling. Captain Jordan won his purse debut in a PA All-Stars contest, then broke in his last two starts, with Scott Di Domenico adding trotting hoppers at that point. With the new equipment, he has two StS wins as he beat a field which had four other series winners in it for the ownership of Joseph Faraldo and Triple D Stable Inc. (Rico Tubbs, the only horse to have won twice in the first three PA StS prelims, did not race Sunday.) This group's point standings are even tighter than the Sire Stakes, and again the PA Commission should be contacted for final official totals.

Driver Mike Wilder and sire Bar Hopping notched a PASS-PA StS "double" when the two combined with the gelding Glenlivet (dam Ireland), who broke his maiden in 1:59.3 in the only stake of the day won by less than a length. Glenlivet turned away Almost Free by three-quarters-of-a-length, utilizing the inside lane for success for trainer Bill Daugherty, a trotting colt specialist on the state's fair circuit, and owner Susan Daugherty.

The other Stallion Series winner also broke his maiden, after four seconds in his first five career starts (including a pair of deuces in the StS), the Cue Hall–Happy Everything gelding Bayside Cue, who marched to the lead on the first turn and finished out a 1:58.3 winner for driver Brandon Givens, trainer Les Givens, and J M B Ventures.

Philly racing will resume on Thursday (Aug. 28) with a 12:25 p.m. starting time, with the "Trottin' Thursday" usual mix of developing horses and fast-class horses in the feature spotlight. Free Philly program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Outtathisworld Deo (Tyler Borth) winning the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday at Rideau Carleton Raceway.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Outtathisworld Deo posts 18-1 upset in Ottawa

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Outtathisworld Deo went a 1:52 national season's record while posting an 18-1 upset on Sunday (Aug. 24) at Rideau Carleton Raceway in the lone $140,000 OSS Gold Leg 4 event for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

The career-best victory came at the expense of 2024 Canadian Horse of the Year Chantilly, who was sent off as the overwhelming 3-5 favorite, controlled much of the race and then faded badly in the stretch to go down to defeat for the third straight start.

Parked the entire mile and sitting in the middle of the eight-horse field, driver Tyler Borth sent Outtathisworld Deo three-wide in the final turn and won a three-horse, deep-stretch battle to the wire.

Perfectly Chic (Bob McClure) was a half-length back in second, followed by Wicked N Single (Louis-Philippe Roy), Eternal Delight (Trevor Henry) and Millie May Hanover (Jonathan Drury). Chantilly, driven by her regular pilot James MacDonald was sixth.

"That was obviously unexpected," Borth told Rideau Carleton's Glenn Pearson in the winner's circle. "She had been racing really well, and I thought she would be decent, but I thought there were some fillies in there that we couldn't beat. A couple of them didn't race up to their best, and we capitalized on it.

"When I saw Chantilly start to stop – she was actually running out a little bit in the turn – I moved [Outtathisworld Deo] a little sooner than I wanted to, but she kicked home strong and was good."

Outtathisworld Deo paid $18.25.

It was the first career Gold victory for Outtathisworld Deo, a homebred daughter of Bettors Delight that is the final foal out of $2 million-winner Worldly Beauty. Outtathisworld Deo is owned by her breeder Deo Volente Farms of New Jersey and is trained by Chantal Mitchell.

The win improved Outtathisworld Deo to 2-1-0 in 14 starts this year and 5-2-1 in 23 lifetime outings. The filly now has seasonal earnings of $108,180 and lifetime winnings of $153,870.

“She’s a sweetheart,” Mitchell said. “She does everything right. She’s got a good character and she’s just fun to have around.

“She’s the last foal out of the great Worldly Beauty, so the owners, the breeders, they retained her to breed her afterwards, and she’s been tough. She tries hard, she’s just not always had the best of luck. Things haven’t always gone her way, but I was just hoping one day she might get there in one of these races, and here we are.”

Outtathisworld Deo is the third different Gold winner this year in the division. Chantilly won the Golds on May 24 and July 21, but scratched out of the Gold on June 21 won by Perfectly Chic. Lifetime, Chantilly is a six-time Gold winner, including the 2024 OSS Super Final.

GRASSROOTS RESULTS

Also on Sunday’s card at Rideau Carleton were two $25,000 OSS Grassroots Series divisions for sophomore pacing fillies. The winners were:

Macapelo Seelster (Big Jim—Macapelo Rose) in 1:53.4 for breeder Seelster Farms of Lucan, ON, owner Erin Brickman of Sebringville, ON, trainer, Paul Brickman, and driver Tyler Borth. Macapelo Seelster was purchased for $25,000 at the 2023 London Classic Yearling Sale.

All My Wishes (McWicked—Regal Wish) in 1:52.2 for breeder Winbak Farm, owner Louise Guillemette or Trois-Rivieres, QC, trainer Chantal Mitchell, and driver James MacDonald. All My Wishes was purchased for $19,000 U.S. at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Odds On Enigma and Liberty Style take Sire Stakes at Monticello

by Shawn Wiles / Monticello Raceway

The 2025 New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) season came to its conclusion with sophomore filly pacers at Monticello Raceway on Monday (Aug. 25). Drivers Jason Bartlett and Matt Kakaley each won a division of Sire Stakes and Excelsior Series.

The first split of Sire Stakes with a purse of $52,500 was a small field of five starters. After taking the lead past the opening panel from Party Pumps, the favorite Odds On Enigma (Huntsville—Yellow Diamond) was never headed with Kakaley in the bike, and went on to score a scant win over Ideal Beauty Queen (Jordan Stratton) in 1:56.1. Trained by Scott Di Domenico, Odds On Enigma earned her second Sire Stakes victory of the year for owners Odds On Racing.

The second split saw another field of five vying for $52,500 and pitted the top two point earners in the division, Odds On Monetary and Liberty Style, against each other; the betting public made Liberty Style the post time favorite. Going into the first turn, Liberty Style ($4.50) left from post 2 and made the top handily, while Odds On Monetary made a break for the first time in her career entering the first turn and took herself out of contention. From that point, it was clear sailing for Liberty Style and Jason Bartlett as she dictated the fractions and went on to score an easy three-length win in 1:56.3. Liberty Style (American Ideal—Fly In Style) earned her fourth Sire Stakes victory for owners Bonnie Benson and trainer Andrew Stafford.

The first division of the $20,000 Excelsior Series was carded as a full field plus one trailer, but suffered two early scratches. Two Twenty Swift (Jason Bartlett) hung on and fought off She's In The Juice (Mike Merton) for a 1:56.3 score for a new lifetime mark. Two Twenty Swift (Huntsville—Jag Out), trained by Deborah Daguet, scored her second Excelsior win of the year.

Long Shore (American Ideal—Butchie Beach) nosed out Willow's Choice (Jason Bartlett) and defeated the previously unbeaten Patriot Miss, who finished third in the second split. She was driven to the win by Kakaley and is trained by Joe Pavia. She now has five wins in six starts in the Excelsior class with $50,000 earned this year.

Huntsville and American Ideal each sired two winners on the day.

UNREASONABLE AND DANDY IDEAL GET EBC WINS AT TIOGA

Tioga Downs played host to Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) sophomore pacers on Sunday (Aug. 24).

Unreasonable (Marcus Miller) charged late to capture the $200,650 EBC for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Shes A Streaker (Tyler Buter) was first to the quarter in :26.2, and she slowed things down with a :29.2 second quarter going to the half in :55.4. The Last Martini (Jason Bartlett) came first-up to challenge as they headed for the final turn, and Shes A Streaker was first to three-quarters in 1:22.4.

As they made the turn for home, second-place finisher The Last Martini took over the lead, and Unreasonable ($3) made her move first-up heading down the stretch. The Last Martini dug in but Unreasonable kept coming and got by just in time to win in 1:50.2. Shes A Streaker finished third.

Unreasonable is a 3-year-old filly by Huntsville, owned by David Miller and trainer Erv Miller. It was her sixth win this year, and she now has nine career victories.

Dandy Ideal (Jason Bartlett) cruised to an easy win in the $190,650 EBC for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Dandy Ideal ($2.10) darted straight to the front and got to the quarter first in :27.1. He controlled things with a :28.4 second quarter as he led to the half in :56. Courts On Fire (Mark MacDonald) was first to make a move first-over heading down the backstretch, as Dandy Ideal continued first to three-quarters in 1:23.3.

As they reached the stretch, second-place finisher Thirsty Thursday (Tyler Buter) went all out after the leader, but Dandy Ideal was not to be denied as he won in 1:50. Courts On Fire finished third.

Dandy Ideal is a 3-year-old gelding by American Ideal, trained by Hunter Oakes for owners Susan Oakes, Thaddeus Wier, and Alan Johnson. It was his sixth win this season and he now has 11 career victories.

Fragment (Jason Bartlett) won a $112,100 leg of the New York Sire Stakes for 2-year-old colts and geldings.

Knoxville (Mark MacDonald) led to the quarter in :27, and used a :29 second quarter to the half in :56. Hunt Off The Press (Tyler Buter) came first-up to challenge heading down the backstretch, as Knoxville led to three quarters in 1:23.2.

As they reached the stretch, Fragment ($4.30) came flying down the lane like a freight train and blew right on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:52. Hard To Forget (Matt Kakaley) finished second. Knoxville had to settle for third.

Fragment is a 2-year-old colt by Huntsville—The Show Returns, owned by Engblom Stable and Douglass Sipple while trained by Per Engblom. It was his fifth career win.

Jason Bartlett had a driving grand slam on the card.

Tioga Downs returns to live racing on Friday (Aug. 29) with a post time of 6:15 p.m.

Double Deceiver joins MGM Yonkers International Trot field

With the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot fast approaching, a flurry of invitations have been extended and many new faces will be joining the lineup this week. Leading off the parade of new players is top Swedish performer Double Deceiver.

A son of Cantab Hall out of the Donato Hanover mare Sarcy, Double Deceiver was born and raised in the United States where he raced the first two years of his career. The now 6-year-old made over $770K during those years while winning the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship as a 2-year-old and netting a Matron win plus a second in the MGM Yonkers Trot at age 3.

Double Deceiver was purchased for $500,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale in Harrisburg on Nov. 11, 2022 and now races under the banner of Daniel Reden's Stall Zet. He's increased the horse's career record from 11 wins in 25 starts to 22 victories in 42 trips behind the gate.

Most recently in 2025, Double Deceiver has been collecting stakes victories overseas, picking up major wins in the Sweden Cup at Solvalla in May, St Michaels Race in Finland (July), and the Jämtland Grand Prix.

Double Deceiver joins the previously announced Hohneck and Gio Cash as starters in the Sept. 13 MGM Yonkers International Trot. The special afternoon card will also feature a pair of $200,000 Invitationals for older trotters and pacers.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 6:45 p.m. (EDT).

Heavyweight battles headline new week at Mohawk

Record miles in eliminations for the Canadian Pacing Derby (G1) and Maple Leaf Trot (G1) have the stage set for this week's marquee races at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The run of Grand Circuit action at the Campbellville oval continues with another "Super Saturday" program. The $690,000 Canadian Pacing Derby and $630,000 Maple Leaf Trot are joined by the Simcoe Stakes (3-year-old trot and 3-year-old filly trot) on Saturday (Aug. 30).

Aetos Kronos S became the first trotter in Canadian harness racing history to break 1:50 when he won his Maple Leaf Trot elimination in 1:49.4. Dexter Dunn guided the Marcus Melander trained 9-year-old to the Canadian and track record mile.

Over on the pacing side, Bythemissal converted off a perfect 2-hole trip to win his Canadian Pacing Derby elimination in a Canadian and track record-equaling time of 1:46.4 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke. The 6-year-old joins Dr J Hanover, Bulldog Hanover and Warrawee Vital as the fastest pacers in Canadian harness racing history.

The impressive elimination performances put both the Maple Leaf Trot and Canadian Pacing Derby stakes records in jeopardy, as only the clocking in a stake's final counts towards the event's record time.

The Maple Leaf Trot stakes record is 1:50.2, which was established in 2023 by Alrajah One IT. The Canadian Pacing Derby record is 1:46.4, posted by Bulldog Hanover in 2022.

Outside of Saturday's rich card, Friday (Aug. 29) evening's program will see an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg held for 2-year-old pacing colts and 2-year-old pacing fillies. These events should bring in several starters from last Saturday's Nassagaweya and Eternal Camnation Stakes.

The entry box for this weekend's cards at Woodbine Mohawk Park closed Tuesday morning at 10:30 a.m.

Here's a full breakdown of this week's stakes races:

Friday (Aug. 29)

OSS Gold – 2-year-old colt and gelding pace

OSS Gold – 2-year-old filly pace

Saturday (Aug. 30)

Canadian Pacing Derby (G1) – open pace

Maple Leaf Trot (G1) – open trot

Simcoe Stakes (G3) – 3-year-old open trot

Simcoe Stakes (G3) – 3-year-old filly trot

Post time for each night of live racing is 6:35 p.m.

'Lissy' remains perfect after Big M score

Busy Miss Lissy S put up a fourth win in as many starts as the Ake Svanstedt trained and driven daughter of Calgary Games—Hill's Angel S took a $25,000 division of the third leg of the Kindergarten Series for 2-year-old filly trotters in 1:57 Saturday night (Aug. 23) at The Meadowlands.

Busy Miss Lissy S was parked past the quarter as Frattina Diablo S had the lead at that station in :28.1. 'Lissy' then took over and led the field past the half in :59.4 and three-quarters in 1:29.4 before going on to a safe neck win over a fast-closing Denarius. Frattina Diablo S held third.

"She hasn't lost a race yet," said Svanstedt. "When they came around the far turn, she was easy. She has a big heart and proved that tonight."

As the 4-5 favorite, Busy Miss Lissy S returned $3.60 to her backers.

In the $60,000 New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund final for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, the Nancy Takter-trained Top Gun Hanover mowed down his foes after a tough first-over trip to win in 1:53.3.

The son of Walner—Think Twice had gone off-stride in three of his last four outings, so Takter went back to the way things were.

"Nancy made some changes and put him back the way he was," said winning driver Dave Miller. "I felt more confident and the trip went well."

Popping out of the 3-hole just before the half, Top Gun Hanover gradually wore down leader Go Ahead Makemyday, who had led the field past the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:25.4, before holding off Camera Man at the wire by a neck.

Sent to the gate as the 3-1 third choice, Top Gun Hanover paid $8.

OTHER NOTABLE DASHES: The 15-race betting card featured several races of note. Those winners were:

- Race 3: Kindergarten Series third leg for 2-year-old filly trotters; purse $25,000 — Waldon Fashion (Walner—Broadway Donna), driven by Braxten Boyd, trained by Jim Campbell, time for the mile was 1:56.3, paid $4.80 as the 7-5 favorite, now has three wins in five lifetime tries.

- Race 5: Kindergarten Series third leg for 2-year-old filly pacers; purse $25,000 — On Heir (Captaintreacherous—Delightful Dragon), Andy McCarthy, Noel Daley, 1:52.4 in registering her first lifetime win in three tries, $3.80 as the 4-5 favorite.

- Race 7: Renaissance final for 2-year-old filly pacers; purse $45,000 — Perfect Thought (Perfect Sting—Think Pink), Corey Callahan, Megan Scran, lifetime-best equaling 1:54.1 winning for the second time in four lifetime outings, $3.60 as the 4-5 public choice.

- Race 10: Kindergarten Series third leg for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers; purse $25,000 — Watch Em Win (He's Watching—Winners Over), Mark Herschberger, Ron Burke, 1:53.2 to win for the second time in four career starts, $7 as the 5-2 second choice.

- Race 11: New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund final for 3-year-old filly trotters; purse $60,000 — Walspea (Walner—Speak To Me), Trond Smedshammer, Trond Smedshammer, 1:53.2 to ring up her sixth career win from 16 starts, $2.10 as the 1-9 favorite.

BEFORE THE BETTING CARD: Two non-wagering events were conducted before the betting program began, those winners were:

- NB1: Kindergarten Series third leg for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters; purse $25,000 — Mother's Moni (International Moni—Mother Teresa), Miller, Domenico Cecere, time for the mile was 1:56.1, first win in two lifetime starts.

- NB2: Renaissance final for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers; purse $45,000 — Everlast Sting Deo (Perfect Sting—Little Miss K), Boyd, Travis Alexander, 1:53.1, second win in six lifetime starts.

A LITTLE MORE: It was a big night for the husband-and-wife duo of trainer Shane and driver Lauren Tritton, as the pair combined to win three races on the night to lead the trainer and driver colonies, respectively... All-source handle on the 15-race program totaled $2,437,284... Racing returns to the usual Friday and Saturday schedule this week. Post time is 6:20 p.m. There are three weeks left in the harness meeting at The Big M before thoroughbred turf racing comes to the mile oval for a four-week stand.

Judy's Moni scores third BSS win of season in fourth leg for freshman filly trotters at Northfield

Judy's Moni added a third Buckeye Stallion Series win to her resume on Sunday (Aug. 24) as MGM Northfield Park hosted four $20,000 divisions of the fourth leg for freshman filly trotters.

The three BSS wins ties Judy's Moni with Joyofmylife As, who did not race Sunday and was instead entered into the Ohio Sires Stakes at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (Aug. 23) where she won the second division for 2-year-old filly trotters.

Driven by Anthony MacDonald for trainer Jason McGinnis, Judy's Moni won the fourth division in 2:00. She has hit the board in all five seasonal starts with three wins, one second, and one third, and has $41,660 in earnings. She is owned by Thestable Judys Moni.

The Ready For Moni filly left from post 2 and passed the quarter pole in third place as Lacy Lucy (Austin Hanners) led in :29.3. MacDonald promptly took Judy's Moni to the outside and into the lead, and the 3-5 betting favorite remained in front the rest of the way with fractions of :59.4 and 1:29 en route to finishing a length ahead of second-place Lacy Lucy. Dublins Breanna (Luke Hanners), a winner in the second leg, was third.

Chip Shot (Luke Hanners) posted the fastest mile among the four divisions, winning the first split in a lifetime-best 1:58.2 in an upset at 13-1. The Vernon Beachy trainee was in fourth place as Hill Of A Diva (Chris Page) led the field past the first two calls in fractions of :28.4 and :58.1. Chip Shot was more than nine lengths back of the lead at the halfway mark but started to make up ground after moving first over. She was side-by-side with Hill Of A Diva as they passed the three-quarter pole in 1:28 and took over the lead entering the final stretch. The Mission Accepted filly was unchallenged the rest of the way, scoring her third win of the season. Til The End As (Dan Noble), a winner in the second leg and the 4-5 betting favorite, was four lengths back in second, and Charlotte Elise (Trevor Smith) was third. Chip Shot is owned by John Schlabach and Walnut View Farm.

In Range fillies She's In and Lynn Range won the second and third divisions, respectively.

She's In (Tyler Angus) won as a 50-1 longshot, crossing the line in a lifetime-best 1:59.3 for trainer Miles Wollam. Tomboy Strong (MacDonald) was a half-length back in second followed by Capturethephoto (Aaron Merriman) in third. She's In left from post 7 and was in fourth place at each of the first three calls with fractions of :29, 1:00, and 1:29. More than four lengths back of leader Wild As Her As (Noble) at the three-quarter pole, She's In rallied on the outside down the stretch, showing a late burst of speed to edge Tomboy Strong at the line. Owned by Robert Kline, She's In has two wins in four starts this season.

Lynn Range (Emanuel Miller) won in wire-to-wire fashion, besting Read Two (Sandy Beatty) by a half-length in a lifetime-best 1:59.2 with Madam President (Page) in third. She posted fractions of :28.4, 1:00.3, and 1:30.1, and held off a late charge on the outside from Read Two, who was in fourth place entering the final stretch. Lynn Range is trained by Herman Hagerman for owners Hagerman Racing, Lucinda Belcher, and Martin Yoder. She has six wins in eight seasonal starts with $24,179 in earnings.

The Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old filly trotters continues with the fifth leg at Delaware on Sept. 15.

Men Wear Pink breast cancer fundraiser at Plainridge Monday

For the second year in a row, Plainridge Park is teaming up with the American Cancer Society and Men Wear Pink of Boston to raise funds for their Making Strides Against Breast Cancer campaign.

The Plainridge Park event is called Men Wear Pink: A Sulky Social and it will be held on Labor Day Monday (Sept. 1) from 1-6 p.m. on the racing side of Plainridge Park Casino.

Men Wear Pink is a distinguished group of community leaders, determined to raise awareness and money to support a mission to save more lives than ever from breast cancer. When communities unite to fight breast cancer, great things happen. By tapping into the power of pink, Men Wear Pink has raised more than $40 million since its inception which fuels a live 24/7 helpline for answers and support, breakthrough breast research, and so much more.

Plainridge Park Casino's general manager, North Grounsell, is a Men Wear Pink of Boston ambassador and he is stepping up and using the power of wearing pink to raise funds and work to end breast cancer as we know it. Every dollar raised at the Sulky Social will help the American Cancer Society save more lives from breast cancer through early detection and prevention, breakthrough breast cancer discovery and research, and lifesaving patient support.

At the track, you can enjoy delicious food selections from the on-site food truck including specials like rose poached shrimp cocktail and pink vodka lobster ravioli, along with drinks at the bar. But you also have a chance at winning some big prizes. While watching the races at the Sulky Social, you can go to the casino and swipe your Penn Play card to get an entry to deposit at any of the promotional kiosks for a chance to win. Five lucky people will be drawn at 6 p.m. to win up to $250 in Penn Slot Play. Full rules are available at the track.

Every dollar makes a difference in the fight against this disease and horsemen, horsewomen and the horse organizations involved with harness racing at Plainridge Park stepped up to the plate last year to show their support and make a real impact with their contributions. As a strong kick-start towards this year's goal, substantial monetary donations have already been pledged by Plainridge Park, the Harness Horseman's Association of New England (HHANE), the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts (SOMINC) and the New England Amateur Harness Drivers Association.

Last year's total raised was $22,000. This year's goal is $30,000.

The track strongly encourages donations be made by the connections of every horse racing that day. This year it will be a lot easier to do that by simply filling out one of the provided forms prior to your race and indicating the percentage or amount of your purse you want to contribute, and it will automatically be taken out of your disbursement before it's sent to you. Those forms are available at the track or can be downloaded here.

Fans attending the races that day will also have the opportunity to donate during the event.

OHHA to live stream races from Stark and Hancock County Fairs

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association (OHHA) will continue its 2025 Ohio county fair racing season with live-streaming coverage from the Stark County and Hancock County fairs today and Thursday (Aug. 27-28).

Coverage of the two-day Stark County Fair meet in Canton, OH, includes today's 10-race card starting at noon and the nine-race card on Thursday beginning at noon.

Coverage of the two-day Hancock County Fair meet in Findlay, OH, includes tonight's 12-race card starting at 6 p.m. and the 12-race card on Thursday beginning at 6 p.m.

The live streams can be seen on the OHHA's YouTube channel.

The pacing track record for the Stark County Fair is 1:57.2 set by ET's Camille in 2000 and matched by Beedis in 2001, Jomary in 2003, and Southwind Amazon in 2023. The trotting track record is 1:59 set by Victory Is Coming in 2010.

The pacing track record for the Hancock County Fair is 1:56.4 set by Big Booty Rudy in 2021. The trotting track record is 1:59.1 set by Uncle Petes Dream in 2024.

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association will livestream over 125 race cards from 66 county and independent fairs this year.

A complete Ohio county fair racing schedule is available at HarnessRacingOhio.com.

Progressive Claiming Series set to launch at MGM Northfield Park

Back by popular demand, the popular Progressive Claiming Series will begin on Saturday (Sept. 6), at MGM Northfield Park.

The series offers races that have progressive claiming prices and purses. As the series advances, the claiming prices and purses will both rise.

The series will begin with base claiming prices of $8,000, $15,000 and $25,000. The base claiming prices are the same for both pacers and trotters.

No pre-nomination or entry fee is required for the Progressive Claiming Series.

The first draws for the Progressive Claiming Series will take place on Tuesday (Sept. 2), Wednesday (Sept. 3), and Friday (Sept. 5).

Horsemen seeking more information can visit northfieldpark.com, or contact the race office at 330-467-4101 ext. 52300.

Windemere Skye stays undefeated in Lady Slipper Gold; track record for Bless Me Father

The stars of the Joe O'Brien Memorial and Lady Slipper stakes programs delivered Sunday afternoon (Aug. 24) at Red Shores Summerside Raceway, with Windemere Skye protecting her perfect record and Woodmere Kobe springing one of the day's biggest surprises in the Joe O'Brien Memorial Gold.

The headlining $32,800 Lady Slipper Gold division for 2-year-old pacing fillies in race 14 saw Windemere Skye ($4.10) remain perfect in five lifetime starts. Marc Campbell placed the Earl Watts trainee on the front then released rival Fitness First (driven by Corey MacPherson) to the lead past the quarter before rallying up to win in the stretch by three lengths in 1:56.1. Serenity Now (Jason Hughes) closed to complete the triactor. Windemere Farms shares ownership of the winning daughter of Somewhere Fancy with Matt Burke.

Earlier on the card, the lone $28,800 Joe O'Brien Memorial Gold division for 2-year-old pacing colts in race 11 produced an upset when Woodmere Kobe ($20.80) and trainer/driver Kenny Arsenault collared favored Sporty Anthony (Ken Murphy) at the wire in 1:58 for owners Peter Smith and Gerald Morrissey. Zero Two Sixty (Danny Gillis) was third.

The $16,400 Lady Slipper Grassroots divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies were claimed by Elm Grove Uncannie ($3.70) in 2:00 for trainer Joe Baxter and driver Ken Murphy, Fallon ($3.70) in 1:58.4 for trainer/driver Adam Merner, and a double for driver Marc Campbell and trainer Landon Campbell with Hatchling ($3.60) in 1:58.3 and Bayonetta ($2.90) in 1:58.2.

On the colt side, the $14,400 Grassroots divisions of the Joe O'Brien Memorial for 2-year-old pacers went to Disko Bay ($2.20) stopping the clock in 2:00.2 for trainer/driver Paul Langille, Streakantonio ($5.60) wiring the field in 2:00 for driver Gilles Barrieau and trainer Ron Matheson, Rollwiththeward ($2.80) dominating in 1:59 with trainer/driver Corey MacPherson, and St Patricks Morn ($21.10) scoring the upset in 2:01.1 with Ken Murphy steering for trainer Alan MacDonald.

The day also featured the Lady Slipper Stakes for 2- and 3-year-old trotters.

Bless Me Father ($2.10) stamped himself as the fastest trotter in the history of Prince County with a new overall track trotting record of 1:57.1 for driver Marc Campbell and owner/trainer Donna Van Meer in his $20,240 Lady Slipper 3-year-old colt trot. The time lowered the 3-year-old gelding track record of 1:57.4 set by Irish Ray in 2023 and the overall track trotting standard formerly held by Fight Song after his 1:57.3 trip in July.

Little Louis ($2.10) coasted to a 2:04 win in race 2 for trainer Kuri White and driver Corey MacPherson in a $14,600 2-year-old trotting colt dash. West River Karuna ($2.50) won the other rookie colt trot in 2:02.3 for driver Ken MacDonald and trainer Clare MacDonald.

Hallysgurl ($2.10) turned in a powerful 2:00.3 victory in her $14,600 Lady Slipper 2-year-old trotting filly race with Barrieau driving for conditioner Darryl MacLean.

Oceanview Nikki ($4.70) captured the $20,240 3-year-old filly trot in 2:00 for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan.
