Mike Gulotta is optimistic about harness racing's future in the Garden State

by Murray Brown

Dave Landry
Mike Gulotta at his Deo Volente Farms.

Mike Gulotta is a Brooklyn boy who grew up in a middle-income family. Through hard work and a rigorous education, he earned the highest level of actuarial designation earning a doctorate degree in the process.

He was even once featured on the front page of the Wall Street Journal.

Thanks to his grandfather who first introduced him to harness racing at Yonkers Raceway when he was 12 years old, Gulotta later ventured into the industry, first as an owner and many years later as the founder and CEO of Deo Volente Farms, soon to become New Jersey's last full-service standardbred breeding farm.

Let's start at the beginning. What is an actuary?

"In quite simplistic terms, an actuary is a person in the insurance industry, who, through the use of statistics, determines the probability of events taking place. In reality, it is far more complex than that."

It's somewhat of a twisted road from you being an actuary to becoming the head of arguably the leading breeding farm not only in the state of New Jersey, but being one of the best known in North America and throughout the world. What led you to this status?

"A simple two-word answer to that question would be 'Worldly Beauty.' But the reality is more involved than that. I had discovered the joys involved with owning standardbred

~150 HEAD · ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

racehorses. I had owned a good number of them to varying success. Some were good. Others were not nearly as successful.

"Then Worldly Beauty came along.

"Most of my horse holdings to that point involved buying and owning racehorses. We'd buy proven campaigners and would try to sustain or improve upon their success.

"I hadn't tried the yearling game much. At Harrisburg in the fall of 2000, Joe Parisi's White Birch Farm was selling this very well-bred Artsplace filly named Worldly Beauty.

"She was royally bred, extremely well conformed, and beautiful, but small. Ordinarily she would have been expected to bring a huge price, perhaps $200,000 or even more. But her diminutive size hurt her price. We were able to buy her for $87,000. She became one of the best fillies ever as a 2- and 3-year-old, going on to earn $1,900,255.

"When her racing career was over, we wanted to acquire babies from her. In simplistic terms, that led to the establishment of Deo Volente Farms. It's not quite that simple, however I would say that without Worldly Beauty, Deo Volente Farms probably would not exist. Worldly Beauty is still with us as a retiree on the farm at the age of 27.

"She is the gift that continues to give. She has produced a total of 15 foals. Three of her daughters are members of our present broodmare band. She earned near $2 million and we have sold eight of her yearlings for a total of $945,000. Not too bad for an $87,000 investment."

She earned near two million dollars and we have sold eight of her yearlings for a total of $945,000. Not too bad for an $87,000 investment."*

You've returned to the genesis of your experience in the business as an owner of a high-quality racehorse Bourbonista S, a mare who may very well be the best trotter in North America. How did that come about?

"Actually, we've never stopped owning parts of racehorses. The great ones such as 'Bourbonista' sometimes may be few and far between. I was friends with her breeder and owner Jens Hanson [Panamera Racing]. He had brought her along slowly, racing in Scandinavia. She had reached the level where she was one of the best trotters there. I was speaking with Jens and he mentioned that she would be coming to race in the States. He asked if I would be interested in becoming his partner. Indeed, I was. We bought in. She has been great. She set the world record of 1.48.4 at The Meadowlands. She has won four of her six starts while in the Melander Stable. She has been invited to start in the $1 million Yonkers International Trot. That should be fantastic. She is the kind of trotter owners dream of sometimes having."

Mike Gulotta.

Each year the Deo Volente farms yearlings represented by Preferred Equine Marketing are featured in the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. What should the discerning buyer look for in this year's group?

"We have 14 yearlings in total, 10 of which are solely farm owned and four which are owned in partnership. I think that as a group they are exceptional. But I guess that most breeders will tell you that. We probably shouldn't be breeding horses if we didn't think highly of them.

"You've limited me to one pick at each gait, so here goes:

• My pick of the pacers is Hip #187 Rebel Deo. He's a Confederate colt, out of the 100 per cent producer Miss L A. He's a half-brother to the million-dollar plus winning filly Rodeo Drive Deo.

• With the trotters I really like Hip #327 Lionheart Deo. He's a Chapter Seven colt out of Princess Deo [$459,308] who is in turn a daughter of the world champion Queen Serene [$748,602]."

The decision of Southwind Farms to cease operations will leave Deo Volente as the last full service commercial breeding farm in the state of New Jersey. That and the decision regarding the Hambletonian moving to Indiana leaves New Jersey recently receiving a double-edged whammy. What do you see as the future for breeding and racing in New Jersey?

"I've always been what I regard as an eternal optimist. I'm a big believer that many times after a storm a beautiful rainbow appears. There are several factors upon which the future success of harness racing in New Jersey is based.

"The first and most important in my view is cooperation between the three most important entities regarding harness racing in the state — the legislature in Trenton, The Meadowlands Racetrack and its leader Jeff Gural, and the Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association of New Jersey [SBOANJ].

"Another factor of perhaps equal importance is the retention of the stallions presently at Southwind Farms. There is no farm anywhere in the world that stands a group of stallions comparable to Karl, Legendary Hanover, Tactical Landing, and Walner. It is of prime importance that all of these stallions remain and thrive in our state. I'd be disingenuous if I didn't mention that I thought that Deo Volente Farms would be a great place for them to stand.

"As for the Hambletonian, I regret seeing it move. But The Meadowlands is still the greatest harness track in North America, if not the world. The Jersey program is still an excellent one. With the continued help of the state and the support of The Meadowlands and the SBOANJ it can thrive and grow."

Peaceful Way (4, 1:51.4m; $2,746,240) made the final start of her career at Mohawk Racetrack on Aug. 24, 2007. The 6-year-old star was sent off as the 6-5 betting favorite in her Breeders Crown Older Mare Trot elimination, but jumped it off behind the starting gate and never caught the field. She went winless in six starts that season, frustrating in light of her three going-away victories in three Mohawk qualifiers. and final span the week of their namesake's disappointing last race at her home track.

The 2026 edition of the Peaceful Way is the first since the Canadian (2008) and U.S. (2021) Hall of Fame trotter was euthanized on Oct. 29, 2025. She had lived out her most productive years as a broodmare, as well as her retirement, in Europe. In 2013, Svein Seljord of Slattum, Norway, purchased Peaceful Way from the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's mixed sale.

"When in Harrisburg we looked over Peaceful Way," Seljord told HRU in 2022. "My daughter is a veterinarian, and found her perfect-looking and in good shape. On November 8th, 2013 we bought her for $110,000 [U.S.]. We also bought her weanling Forever Peace for $30,000 [U.S.] and took them to Norway, where we live on a farm 20 minutes outside Oslo.

Trottin' Trevor Ritchie was Peaceful Way's driver for some of her most legacy-defining wins. Their 1:52.4 victory in the June 4, 2005 Classic Oaks leg at Woodbine Racetrack kicked off a six-race win streak that included the 2005 Grade 2 Armbro Flight at Mohawk, equaling her own 1:52.4 Canadian record in the elimination. Ritchie was in the sulky for Peaceful Way's wins in the 2005 Grade 1 Breeders Crown Open Mare Trot at Mohawk, Grade 3 Allerage Farm Mare Trot at The Red Mile, and American National at Balmoral Park. He was aboard when she broke stride due to interference from the starting gate in the 2005 Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot, and for eventual redemption in the 2006 edition. On July 23, 2005, at The Meadowlands, Peaceful Way and Ritchie blazed home from off the pace to match Beat The Wheel's 1:51.4 divisional world record in the third leg of the Classic Oaks.

Their 2006 wins together in the Armbro Flight, Matchmaker division at The Meadowlands, Maple Leaf Trot, and Allerage Farm Mare Trot earned Peaceful Way her second consecutive Older Trotting Mare of the Year title on both sides of the border. She had previously been voted Canada's divisional champion at ages 2 and 3. Aside from qualifiers, the 2006 Allerage win would prove to be Peaceful Way's last. On May 5, 2007, she broke stride on the lead in a Classic Oaks division at The Meadowlands in what would be her final race for Ritchie.

Looking back on his time with Peaceful Way, Ritchie said he wasn't sure how he initially landed the drive on the 2003 and 2004 O'Brien Award champion filly. The Dave Tingley trainee had been driven primarily by Chris Christoforou both years, with John Campbell taking the lines for her American starts. "[Christoforou] did well with her, and I have no idea why they put me on her," Ritchie said. "The [entry] sheet just come out, and boom, I was on her. There was no discussion beforehand. I believe I was surprised when I saw it. I said, 'Okay, well, nice drive to pick up.'"

While Ritchie admitted that he didn't remember Peaceful Way's 18-plus length win in their first Mohawk qualifier together on May 24, 2005, another early memory of his time with the mare came to mind.

> "The announcer was as shocked as I was that [Peaceful Way] won [the Classic Oaks at The Meadowlands], because she was not that good that day around the last turn. I would've moved her sooner, but she just felt like if I'd have tried to move her over before I got to the lane... I might've lost her. I was just sitting there, holding my breath until we got off the turn. Once we got straightened away, I asked her to go, and you didn't have to ask her very much either; she was just willing to do it."
> — Trevor Ritchie

"The first thing I remember was going out on the track with her," said the Canadian (2019) and Halton Hills Sports Hall of Fame (2025) driver. "Going slow, I wouldn't say she was the slickest-going thing. She was kind of a small little mare, and I got thinking to myself, 'Jesus, is this mare okay? Is she 100 per cent sound, or is she tied up a little bit or something?' She just didn't feel real slick-going. But man, oh man, when I turned her in behind the gate, I remember thinking, 'Well, I guess she's okay!'"

Among Peaceful Way's jaw-dropping performances, one stands out to her driver, even now.

"That race was the Classic Oaks at The Meadowlands," Ritchie said. "It was an incredible finishing kick that she had. The announcer was as shocked as I was that she won that race, because she was not that good that day around the last turn. I would've moved her sooner, but she just felt like if I'd have tried to move her over before I got to the lane... I might've lost her. I was just sitting there, holding my breath until we got off the turn. Once we got straightened away, I asked her to go, and you didn't have to ask her very much either; she was just willing to do it."

Ritchie remembered hoping that Peaceful Way might advance from fifth to third down the stretch, as Housethatruthbuilt maintained the lead. Instead, the Canadian mare unleashed the fastest last quarter (:27.2) of any trotter on the card that day, winning by a head.

"That was a real thrill, I must admit, coming through the lane with her that race," he said. "She gave me a lot of thrills, obviously. She was just a special kind of mare."

They repeated in the July 30, 2005 final, trotting a-mile-and-one-sixteenth in 2:01.2 to win by a neck.

Breaking issues that struck at some of the worst times, like the 2004 Hambletonian Oaks final, were just part of the Peaceful Way package.

"She had a mind of her own, and if you tried to get her to do something she didn't want to do, you could lose her," Ritchie said. "You just had to let her get out of there at her own pace. Sometimes she wanted to leave, so I would let her leave. Sometimes she didn't, so I didn't ask her. She'd have you on pins and needles a little bit. For the first maybe eighth-of-a-mile, you just weren't quite sure how the race was going to unfold."

The 2006 Maple Leaf Trot final was another standout effort.

"I remember being at the head of the lane and just saying 'Go,' and she just took off and opened up… There was a pretty good crowd there, and I shouldn't speak for all drivers, but at least me, I usually could not hear the crowd, no matter how loud they were cheering, because you keep your mind focused on your job," said Ritchie. "But because she had opened up by a bit, and she was kind of the darling horse at the time, I do remember the crowd hollering. It really was a thrill to win that race."

Ritchie retired from driving in 2014. Chronic back issues were newly compounded by painful neck spasms that kept him from being able to look around on the track.

"I really wasn't enjoying it anymore, because I was hurting out there, and I felt that I wasn't being safe either for myself or others, so I decided to hang up the silks," he told HRU.

Ritchie has sat behind his 2-year-old pacer Bulldog Xpress "maybe three times." Returning to the sulky for a training mile "isn't nearly as much fun as when I'm in the jogger, let's put it that way," he said.

Bulldog Xpress (p, 2, Q1:59.4s; $17,860) is owned by partners Pryde Stables Inc of North York, ON; Steve Wienick Racing LLC of Delray Beach, FL; Jfoderatritchiecanamerica of Staten Island, NY; and Hyatt Holdings Inc of Milton, ON. The Bulldog Hanover—Thirty X colt is among the array of pacers in which Ritchie has had a stake; Trottin' Trevor owns none of his namesake gait.

"My partners have been buying horses for quite a few years now, and I've always wanted to buy trotters, of course, but none of them were that interested in trotters," he said. "So, I kind of relented and went to the pacers. Having said that, we did buy a trotter one year, a fairly expensive one… and he was no good. That really sealed the deal for the rest of them."

Ritchie described one of his group's horses as "for sure, one of the top five 2-year-old pacing colts in the nation [U.S.] right now."

He quickly added, "I'm being very conservative in saying that."

That colt is world champion Starstruck Dreamer (p, 2, 1:48.4f; $130,500), whom he said will face fellow undefeated rival Shalom Hanover on Sept. 7 for the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championships at Pocono Downs.

"It's very exciting and nerve racking," Ritchie said. "I've driven in my fair share of million-dollar races and never felt the nerves like when I'm sitting there watching."

The Burlington, ON horseman remains involved in the racing game, and not only as an owner.

"I still do a little conformation consultation," he said. "I've done that for Brittany Farms. We've done that, me and [my wife] Gemma, for 15 or 20 years now… The Harrisburg [Standardbred Horse Sales] Company comes around and looks at all the horses that are consigned to their sale. They couldn't get up here that COVID year, because they weren't allowed to cross the border, so their sales manager called me. I guess I was recommended to them by Dr. [Bridgette] Jablonsky, who, at that time, worked for Hanover [Shoe Farms]. They called me and I said no problem, we would do it, and we've continued to do it ever since. We go around and look at all of the horses that are stabled in Ontario that are going to the Harrisburg sale in the fall."

Conformation grading by Trevor and Gemma is used to situate specific horses at an appropriate place in the sales roster. The couple make farm visits from late June into early July.

"As long as they're happy with the job we do, we'll keep doing this," Trevor said.

Peaceful Way's uncanny ability somehow seemed to come from within, rather than from physical giftedness.

"I would say she was 90 per cent freak," Ritchie said. "Now, she did have a very strong hind end on her, but 90 to 95 per cent of horses have that. To be quite honest with you, there's more luck involved in the game than anything else, because if there wasn't, all of the guys with all of the money would own all of the good horses, and they don't… Conformation is just one piece of the puzzle; pedigrees are one piece of the puzzle; and luck is the biggest piece of the puzzle."

Is Trottin' Trevor still a fitting name for Ritchie, in light of his recent success with pacers?

"It's got a nice ring to it, so I don't mind it, even though I'm basically exclusively pacers," he said with a chuckle.

Plan B paying off for Gladden and breeder Duane Miller

by James Platz

Duane Miller is accustomed to rooting for horses bred, raised, and sold each season by his family-owned Legacy Lane Farm. This summer, however, he has had greater interest in a trotting filly battling in the state's top program at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. Temporal Hanover freshman Gladden is in the thick of Indiana Sires Stakes competition, and Miller is not just the breeder, he's a co-owner experiencing the thrills of the game.

"There's more at stake, and I don't know, it nerves me up more," Miller said. "When they post parade or go to the gate, until after the race is over, it's about all I can handle."

> "Jeff [Cullipher] looked at [Gladden], and he said, 'Duane, that [big knee] doesn't bother me a bit.' For whatever reason, I say, 'Hey, I would stay in on half.' I normally don't do that."
> — Duane Miller

Miller's involvement in Gladden's racing career speaks less to his interest in being an owner and more to circumstances beyond his control. In this case, bad circumstances early in the trotter's young life that limited the breeder's options. Had things gone according to plan, the dual-eligible filly would have sold early in last year's Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale, but that plan didn't quite pan out.

Gladden (Atlee Bender) winning her Indiana Sires Stakes event for 2-year-old trotting fillies on July 25 at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"As a weanling, this filly cut her knee right on top of the kneecap on a feeder," he said. "And it healed kind of ugly, like it got scar tissue in it, but not bad. You'd look at it and say it's not bad. Come yearling sale time, I took her down to [Caesars Entertainment Equine Specialty Hospital] and had it x-rayed, and they said it's just scar tissue, it's topical. Nothing that's going to affect the horse. So, I went and entered her in the sale, and prepped her, and a couple days before the sale, I looked at that and said, 'Man, they're going to kill me for that knee.' You know, that first impression, you looked at it, it was a big knee."

Besides being eligible to both Indiana and Kentucky, Gladden is the first foal from Muscle Mass mare Pleaspleaspleas, a sister to near-millionaire Judge Joe and Creme De Cocoa. Miller was not interested in seeing the filly highly discounted at the sale due to the imperfection, but he didn't have a plan B, either. After calling around and speaking with multiple trainers, there were no takers for Gladden. Despite the clean x-ray, few wanted to take a chance on a filly they felt had been injured. Enter trainer Jeff Cullipher.

"After we came home from Harrisburg, Jeff Cullipher was bringing over some horses," Miller said. "We do a lot of turnouts for him. He brought a load of turnouts up, and I asked him, 'You get what you wanted at the sale?' And he said, 'Yeah, pretty much. But I'm still looking for a trotting filly.'"

Miller and Cullipher went to the field to inspect Gladden and her big knee, and in the moment, the breeder went off script.

"Jeff looked at her, and he said, 'Duane, that doesn't bother me a bit,'" Miller said. "For whatever reason, I say, 'Hey, I would stay in on half.' I normally don't do that."

A partnership was born. Now in the Cullipher barn, Gladden trained down over the winter and into the spring, and the breeder/co-owner received promising reports from his partner on the filly.

"Jeff said this filly's the real deal," Miller said. "All winter training down, he told me, this filly's fast."

After successfully qualifying at Hoosier Park, she entered the opening leg of Indiana Sires Stakes, where she made three breaks and finished a distant sixth. In a subsequent qualifier, she also made a miscue, but returned three days later to register a clean line in another qualifying effort. With past performances that showed breaks, Gladden was sent off at odds of 28-1 in a $67,500 division of the second round of INSS action July 25. Steered by Atlee Bender, the freshman raced off the pace early and rocketed home in :26.4 to score a head victory, trotting the mile in 1:56.4.

"With that $30,000 she made, that's probably more than she would have brought at the sale," Miller said. "And I still own the filly."

In the two rounds that have followed, Gladden has collected a pair of runner-up performances and has been race timed in 1:56.1. She enters Tuesday's (Sept. 1) fifth leg with $67,000 on her card and ranks third in divisional points with only two preliminary rounds left before the $250,000 Super Final in October. Tuesday night, Gladden will start from the second tier (post 10) in the $67,500 second split, carded as race 12 on the program. She will be steered by Trace Tetrick, Hoosier Park's leading driver and pilot in her last two attempts.

"It's been a fun little ride, and yeah, we'll see," Miller said. "But Jeff is high on her. He says, 'Duane, I told you, if she just minds her manners, she's fast.'"

This isn't the plan the breeder envisioned for himself or Gladden, but the impromptu plan B might just produce a better result.

Pricey Upgrade is paying off for Bax, Libfeld and Grant

by Matthew Lomon

Arriving at Matt Bax's stable as a $300,000 yearling sale purchase by Al Libfeld and Bradley Grant, Upgrade clearly had the hardware to match her hefty price tag.

It was also evident that the striking black filly's software still needed some fine-tuning.

"She's a great looker, and that's why she was so expensive as a yearling," Bax said. "But, as we found out last year, maturity-wise, she wasn't quite there yet."

While not displaying anything out of the ordinary for a neophyte racehorse, Bax and Co. recognized early on that Upgrade's first professional season was bound to be a developmental one.

The daughter of Green Manalishi S—Uptown Classic made eight starts during her debut campaign, seven of which came in the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots division.

With just one second and one third to show for it, Upgrade's first taste of the Ontario tour didn't pop from a results perspective.

Bax, though, wasn't discouraged.

"She definitely showed flashes of talent, but she was such a big, regal mare, and her body didn't seem to fill out," he said. "She was just a little too gangly at 2 and wasn't able to put the power on the track."

The plan was never to expedite Upgrade's development; like her, it simply needed time.

"Fortunately, the owners [Libfeld and Grant] were patient with her; their patience has gone a long way," Bax said.

"This year, her body has caught up to her and she's kept progressing well throughout the year. Sometimes, that happens where it takes them a year before they can put it all together."

After a winless rookie season, Upgrade has been operating at a different level as a 3-year-old in 2026.

> — Matt Bax

The transformed trotter has already recorded six wins to go along with a second and five thirds from 16 starts, good for more than $99,000 in total purses.

Upgrade has emerged as a considerable force in her second go-round at the Grassroots level, collecting five wins from five starts across Flamboro Downs, Hanover Raceway, and Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Of the commanding quartet of victories, Bax identified the 2¼-length triumph on May 17 at Flamboro as the springboard for Upgrade's ascent.

"That one was probably the most impressive," he said. "She won there, and that felt like the tipping point. The owners were wondering if she was going to turn it around or not, so that win there was huge, and then she just kept on rolling from there."

Upgrade immediately followed up with a 4¼-length decision on May 28, also at Flamboro, before jumping back into Grassroots competition in mid-June at Mohawk, where she powered to a 2¼-length score.

The standout sophomore remained in top form during her July 11 stop at Hanover (one-length win) and her second Grassroots victory at Mohawk on August 9 (1½ lengths).

In the right place physically, mentally, and competitively, Upgrade had finally found her rhythm.

"With some of these horses, when they get a little bit of confidence, I find that goes a long way with them," Bax said. "She's very confident on the Grassroots. Of course, we had thoughts of possibly stepping her up to the Gold, but she's comfortable where she is, and being confident at the top echelon there. I think where we are is the best spot for her."

Even when all is well and good, the mind still does wander.

"The dream was always to be a Gold horse, so that she could maybe start paying off some of her purchase price," Bax said with a laugh. "But we're chipping away at it."

> — Matt Bax

One of the central characters supporting Upgrade's upgrade has been driver Todd Ratchford.

The 2024 O'Brien Future Star Award recipient and Breeders Crown-winning reinsman was in the race bike for Upgrade's professional debut and all six of her wins.

That familiarity between horse and driver — Ratchford has held the reins in 19 of Upgrade's 24 career starts — has been instrumental to the latter's continued development.

"Every driver has their niche or the type of horse they get along with the best," Bax said. "I feel like Todd knows her. He's been with her through both years of her career, and he helps me out at the farm and sees her a lot when they're not racing. So, knowing the horse and having that time together on and off the track definitely helps quite a bit."

With each remaining Grassroots leg more meaningful than the last, Bax is pleased with where Upgrade stands leading into the home stretch and $100,000 final on Oct. 3 at Mohawk.

"Overall, I'm pretty happy with where we are right now," he said. "She gets a little faster each time, and that's mostly all I'm looking for right now. I feel like she's heading into the end of the season, hopefully, peaking at the right time for the final."

But the conditioner, who has excelled by playing the long game with Upgrade, is still committed to taking things one day at a time.

"She's heading in the right direction, and now you want to just stay the course," Bax said. "If she stays strong and confident, she should be good."

U.S. Trustee slams Hawthorne

by Neil Milbert

U.S. Trustee Adam Brief has requested the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of Northern Illinois to either dismiss Hawthorne Race Course's Feb. 27 filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection or change it to a Chapter 7 designation, charging that the current owners cannot manage a successful reorganization and citing "gross mismanagement" and "human cost."

That would strip the Carey family, that owns the 119-acre property at which thoroughbred and harness racing have been conducted, of its debtor-in-possession status.

All 14 of Hawthorne's Suburban Downs harness dates scheduled for January and February were canceled because of insufficient funds and its fall dates in November and December will not be held because the track has gone out of business. The thoroughbred meeting began in April, three weeks later than scheduled, and ended on July 19, almost four months before its scheduled closing.

> "The record demonstrates that there are continuing losses and there continues to be gross mismanagement of the estate, all of which mitigate in favor of dismissal or conversion [of Hawthorne Race Course's filing for Chapter 11]."
> — U.S. Trustee Adam Brief

> "The record is clear that the debtors' [Hawthorne Race Course] gross mismanagement resulted in harm to the horsemen and to contractual counterparts, both of whom the debtors relied on for their operations and revenue. Rather than protecting these necessary relationships, the debtors squandered them [and] have attempted to lay the blame for the chaos they created at the doors of others."
> — U.S. Trustee Adam Brief

The U.S. Trustees' office is empowered to ask a court to take action if it believes Chapter 11 is no longer viable.

Brief's Aug. 26 filing points out that the $90 million Hawthorne is to receive when its sale to the Delaware shell corporation Allimac 23 is finalized at a Sept. 1 closing falls far short of the amount the former thoroughbred and harness track owes its multitude of creditors. The number of creditors is reported to be in the neighborhood of 250 and estimates of the amount owed are as low as $100 million and as high as $500 million.

The request by the U.S. Trustee isn't expected to negate the sale to the shell corporation — that reportedly is representing data center giant Digital Realty of Austin, TX — because it had already been approved by U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge Timothy Barnes. Allimac 23 was the only bidder at the July auction.

If Hawthorne loses debtor-in-position status track president Tim Carey won't have control of the sale proceeds or the remaining assets that might be liquidated to pay creditors.

"The record demonstrates that there are continuing losses and there continues to be gross mismanagement of the estate, all of which mitigate in favor of dismissal or conversion," U.S. Trustee Brief stated.

"For example, the debtors, among other things have (1) repeatedly 'borrowed from Peter to pay Paul,' (2)... ceased almost all operations while taking extraordinary steps to pay professional fees at the expense of other creditors; (3) conducted a largely unsuccessful sale process; (4) upended the lives of the horsemen, their families and horses; (5) applied for a racing license at an unknown cost for the 2027 season."

According to Brief, "Despite the debtors' repeated assurance that there was interest from going-concern bidders and that their assets would be sold on a going-concern basis, no such interest or sale materialized.

"Consequently, hundreds of jobs have been lost, hundreds of people, children, and horses have been displaced from their homes on the backstretch with little meaningful means to relocate.

"Amid the chaos of these cases, the debtors' principals caused the debtors to apply for a racing license for 2027 and may seek to race at a yet-to-be-identified track."

Brief also said that Hawthorne "failed to segregate the purse money due to horsemen or how the funds that were budgeted to pay the horsemen were spent.

"The failure to fund the horsemen's purse account is not the first time the debtors have been accused of failing to properly segregate funds. Both Churchill Downs and Saratoga alleged that the debtors failed to properly segregate and maintain funds from pari-mutuel wagering prior to the petition date and both have filed adversary proceedings alleging that the funds that the debtors were required to segregate are not property of the bankruptcy estate.

"The record is clear that the debtors' gross mismanagement resulted in harm to the horsemen and to contractual counterparts, both of whom the debtors relied on for their operations and revenue. Rather than protecting these necessary relationships, the debtors squandered them [and] have attempted to lay the blame for the chaos they created at the doors of others."

Redén goes 1-2 in Sundsvall Open Trot

by Thomas Hedlund

There was no catching newly-crowned world-record holder Epic Kronos in this year's Sundsvall Open Trot.

And for trainer Daniel Redén, the victory marked his fourth consecutive win in the race.

When the gate folded, Robert Bergh quickly put Get A Wish (Wishing Stone) on the lead. But Bergh had no intention of fighting when race favorite Epic Kronos (Muscle Hill) came calling after approximately 450 meters and was allowed to take over. The pace heated up again shortly thereafter.

Daniel Wäjersten made an aggressive move with Kuiper, looking to clear Epic Kronos and get to the rail, but the leader had no trouble turning back Kuiper's quick challenge after 550 meters.

Once that battle was over, Örjan Kihlström was able to back down the pace somewhat, and Epic Kronos looked terrific as he rolled along on the front end.

Kihlström spent most of the stretch simply keeping an eye on the competition. The biggest late threat came from Epic Kronos' stablemate Kentucky River (Father Patrick), who finished strongly to take second.

Get A Wish held on well for third but never threatened the Redén pair.

"Winning this race four years in a row is unbelievable," Kihlström said. "Epic gets away from the gate on his own and has really good speed. Robert decided to let us go, and then things got pretty quick for a while when Wäjersten tried for the lead.

"To compete at this level, a horse has to have everything, and he does. I don't think he's ever been in better form than he was today, and I assume the Prix d'Amérique will be the target this winter. He's already shown that he likes it there.

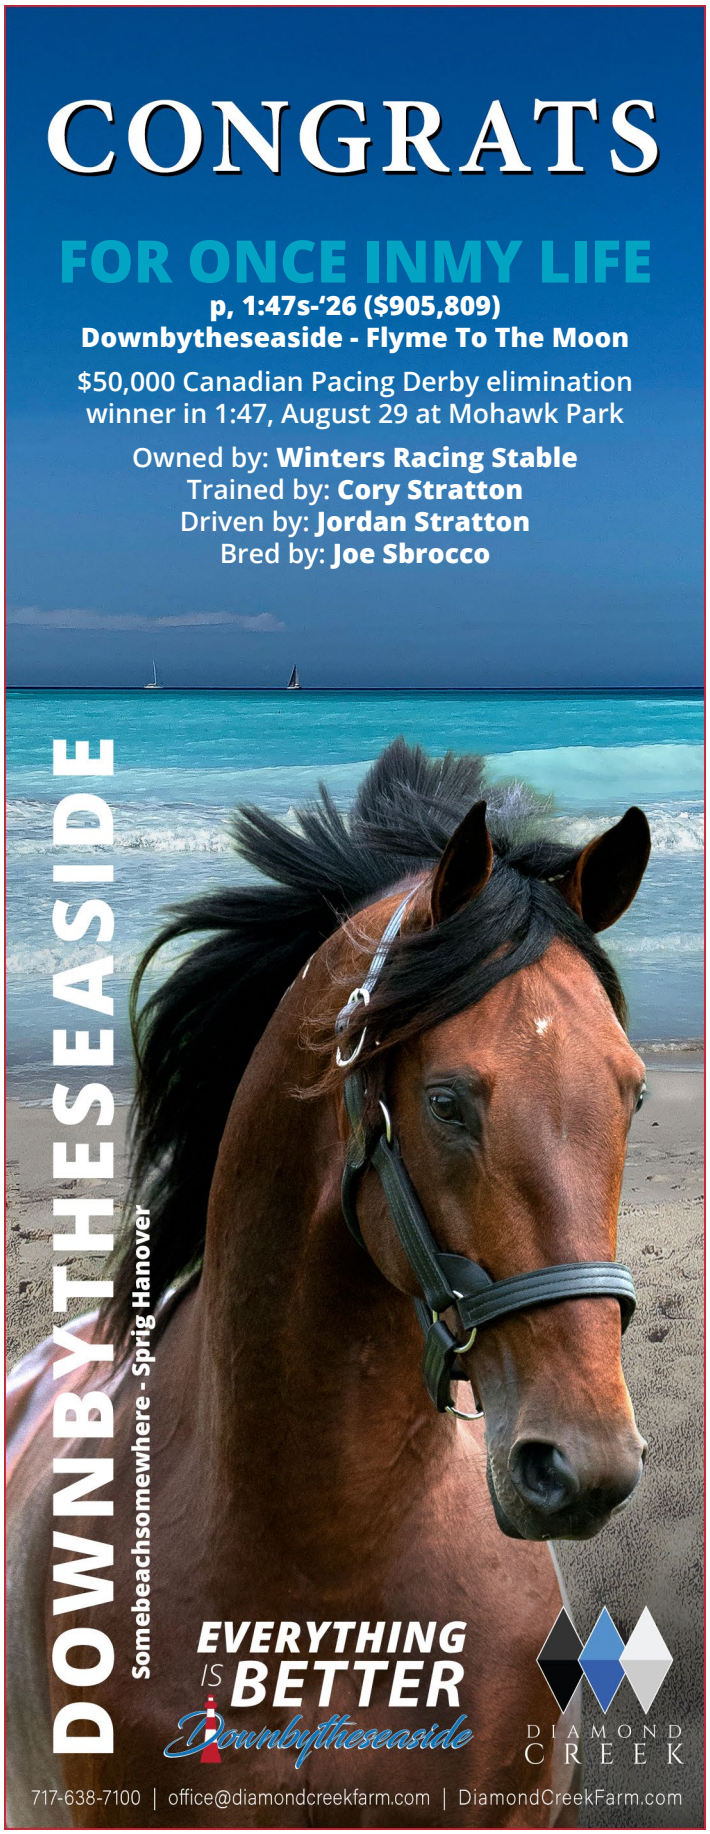
"I wasn't worried when Kentucky River came at us in the stretch. I hadn't even had to pull anything on 'Epic.'"

Epic Kronos captured the Sundsvall Open Trot in a 1:54.3 mile rate for 2,140 meters, with Kentucky River credited with the same time in second.

The victory was Redén's fifth overall in the Sundsvall Open Trot.

He first won the race in 2015 when Delicious (Cantab Hall) set a world record. Hail Mary (Googoo Gaagaa) added another victory three years ago, while Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) was unbeatable in each of the past two editions.

Now Epic Kronos has extended Redén's remarkable streak to four straight.



NOCIVE DU CHOQUEL DOMINATES PRIX ANNICK DREUX

Favorite Nocive du Choquel made easy work of Saturday's (Aug. 29) $145,000 Group 2 Prix Annick Dreux for 3-year-old fillies over a rain-soaked track at Vincennes.

When pacesetter Normandie Niemen made her second break of the race with 1,200 meters remaining, Nocive du Choquel (Face Time Bourbon—Emone Cruz) inherited the lead after having enjoyed a pocket trip.

From there, the outcome was never really in doubt.

François Lagadeuc asked the filly for more in the stretch and Nocive du Choquel quickly opened daylight on her rivals, winning easily in a 1:58.4 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

"She was magnificent," trainer Nicolas Bridault said after the victory.

Nyassa Daxel (Earl Simon) closed strongly for second after launching a three-wide move with 500 meters remaining, while Nikita (Impressionist) finished third after a ground-saving trip in third along the rail.

The victory provided immediate redemption for Nocive du Choquel following her break in the Prix Reine du Corta in her previous start.

Bridault's filly already owns two Group 1 victories this season, the €200,000 Critérium des Jeunes and €200,000 Prix Albert Viel, in addition to victories in the semi-classic €120,000 Prix Une de Mai and €120,000 Prix Gélinotte at Vincennes.

MOLLY MADRIK SPRINGS PRIX GASTON DE WAZIÈRES UPSET

Eric Raffin pulled off an upset in the $125,000 Prix Gaston de Wazières, guiding 16-1 shot Molly Madrik to victory in a tight finish over favorite Madrid Haufor and Magic Night. The Jean-Michel Baudouin-trained Molly Madrik (For You Madrik—Feria Madrik) enjoyed a ground-saving trip behind the favorite before finding room in the stretch.

Once clear, the 4-year-old filly showed her turn of foot and got up shortly before the wire to win in a 1:56 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

Madrid Haufor (Real de Lou) was narrowly beaten in second, while Magic Night (Helgafell) finished third after advancing first-over and putting away pacesetter Mystic des Forges with 400 meters remaining.

MAESTRO VRIE GETS UP IN FIVE-HORSE THRILLER

Five horses were virtually across the track at the wire in Saturday's $125,000 Prix Gaston Brunet for 4-year-old colts, and it was the richest horse in the field who got there first. Mathieu Mottier took a patient approach with Maestro Vrie (Village Mystic), trained by Louis Baudron, settling fourth along the rail after favorite Mentor de Play (Dahlia du Rib) had moved to the lead after 800 meters.

Mentor de Play soon came under enormous pressure from Jean-Michel Bazire and Mellow Speed (Galius), but Franck Blandin had no intention of surrendering the lead. The battle resulted in a blistering 500-meter section through the middle stages of the race.

Despite that pressure, Mentor de Play was still fighting on deep into the stretch. Then the closers arrived.

Maestro Vrie and Magic Man (Prodigious) suddenly appeared on the far outside, while Mellow Speed desperately searched for racing room behind the leader. That opening never came.

Maestro Vrie surged home to take the victory in a 1:56.2 mile rate for 2,700 meters, with Magic Man second and Mentor de Play third.

Maestro Vrie scored by far the biggest victory of his career in January when he shocked much of Europe's leading 4-year-old crop in the €300,000 Prix Ourasi. Saturday's performance offered further proof that he belongs among the leaders of his generation with the $330,000 Critérium des 4 Ans approaching.

All three Critérium championships will be contested at Vincennes on Sept. 12.

LORD DU BASSIN GOES WIRE-TO-WIRE IN PRIX JOCKEY

Lord du Bassin and Alexandre Abrivard found the front early in the $125,000 Prix Jockey, and from there the 5-year-old colt never gave his rivals a chance.

Once in command, Abrivard was able to dictate the pace, leaving the opposition with an impossible task trying to make up ground in the stretch.

The Laurent-Claude Abrivard-trained Lord du Bassin (Royal Dream—Falentina du Gîte), sent off at 12-1, remained comfortably in control and won in a 1:58.4 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

Lionheart (Falcao de Laurma) finished second after a pocket trip, while L'As Desbois (Booster Winner) closed well to finish third.

NAT KING COLE FIRES HOME IN PRIX JACQUES DE VAULOGÉ

Nat King Cole made a strong impression with a powerful stretch rally in Saturday's $125,000 Prix Jacques de Vaulogé at Vincennes.

David Thomain waited until 400 meters remained before turning the Philippe Allaire trainee loose. When he did, Nat King Cole (Ready Cash—Deep Purple) responded immediately. Norman Pierji had no answer when Nat King Cole swept past at the top of the stretch, and Thomain drove his colt clear to a convincing victory in a 1:58 mile rate for 2,700 meters.

Nobel du Rib (Face Time Bourbon) closed strongly to finish second and was credited with the same time as the winner, while Norman Pierji (Face Time Bourbon) held third, one-tenth slower.

LEONORA WINS DANISH FILLY DERBY THRILLER

Leonora did it the hard way in the $85,000 Danish Filly Derby at Charlottenlund, prevailing by the narrowest of margins over pacesetter Lady Zola after spending the race first-over.

Heavy favorite Lipa Wee made a break while leading around the opening turn, allowing Lady Zola to take command. She was soon challenged for the lead, but Flemming Jensen elected to take back and settle into the pocket instead.

That left Leonora (Ens Snapshot—Irony of Fate) and Birger Jørgensen parked first-over.

Around the final turn, Jørgensen made sure that Late Night, trapped along the inside, wouldn't find room too early. When an opening finally appeared near the top of the stretch, Late Night was unable to become a serious factor in the battle for the win. Instead, it came down to Leonora and Lady Zola.

The two fillies fought all the way to the wire, with Leonora getting her nose in front by the smallest possible margin to capture the Danish Filly Derby in a 1:56.4 mile rate for 2,000 meters. Lady Zola (Zola Boko) was a heartbreaking second, with Late Night (Great Challenger) third.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS
with BOB HEYDEN

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of The Meadowlands, Part 2

by Bob Heyden

Part 1 is here.

In this installment, in no particular order, we'll take a look at 15 participants/moments that very much defined the phenomenon known now for a half century as The Meadowlands.

1. Every Horse of the Year from 1977 (Green Speed) to 2024 (Twin B Joe Fresh) competed the very same season at The Meadowlands. No other track comes close.

2. Fifty-eight days after America celebrated its 200th birthday, The Meadowlands debuted on Sept. 1, 1976.

3. Debut years for Big M driving stars: John Campbell (1978), Bill O'Donnell (1979), Ron Pierce (full time, 1987), George Brennan (1994), Dave Miller (1999), Yannick Gingras (2003), Brian Sears (2003), Andy Miller (2006), Tim Tetrick (2007), Dexter Dunn (2011 for a cup of coffee but 2019 full bore).

4. The three most dominant stallions of the first quarter century at The Meadowlands all had their first 2YO crops step onto the track in 1976: Albatross, Super Bowl, and Speedy Crown.

5. John Gotti had his own betting window in Pegasus.

> "[My first $10 million driving season is] a great milestone, but unless you've done it at The Meadowlands it really doesn't matter as much."
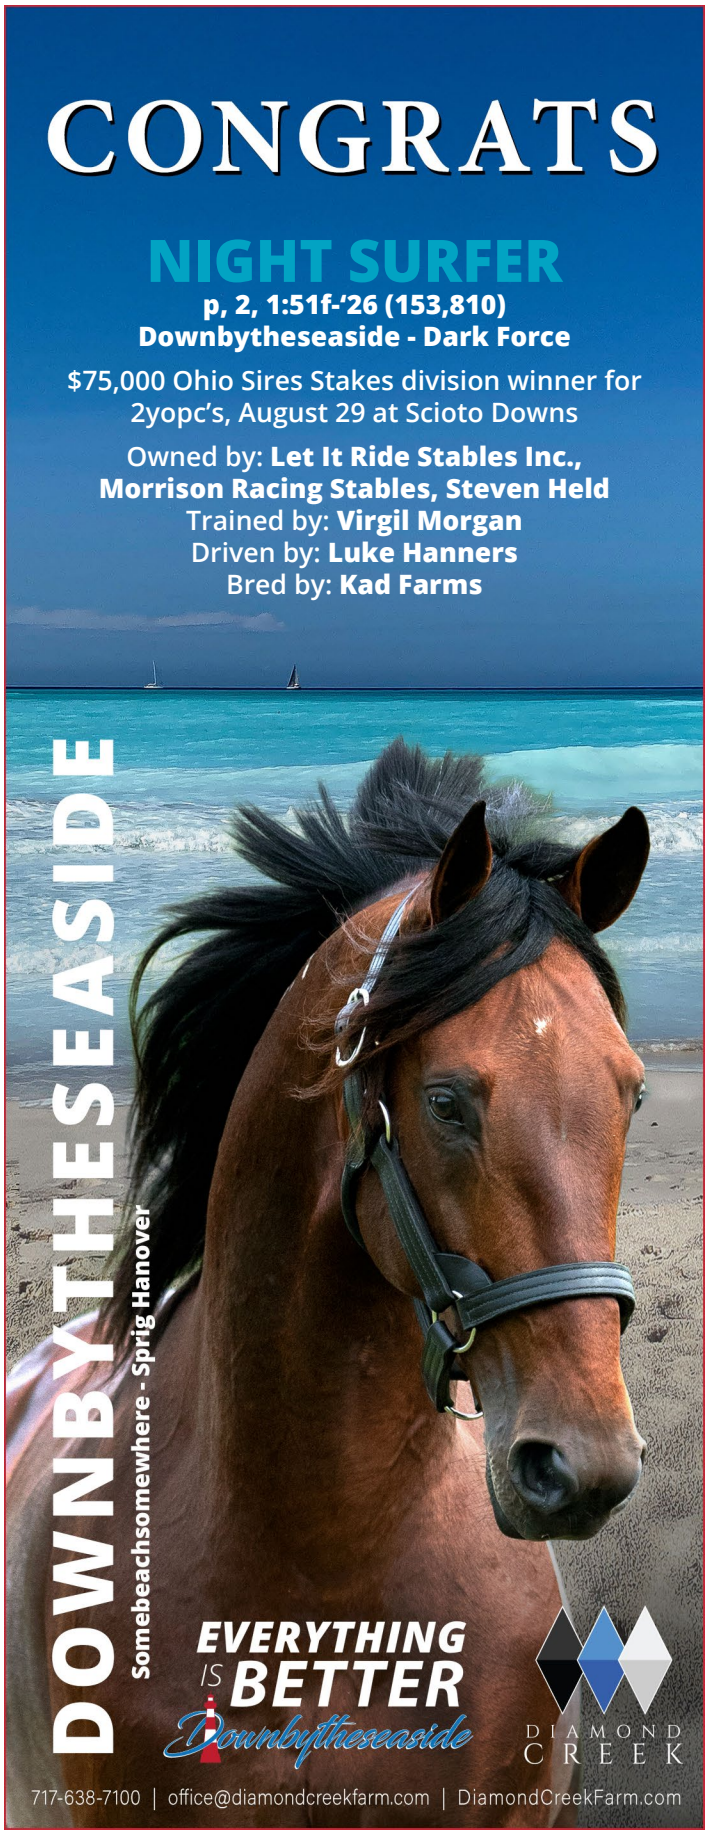
> — Randy Waples



John Gotti had his own betting window in Pegasus.

6. Canadians flourished at The Meadowlands: Ray and Larry Remmen, John and Jim Campbell, Bill O'Donnell, the connections of Cam Fella, Clint Galbraith with Niatross, and the connections of Triple Crown winners Marion Marauder, Blissful Hall, Western Dreamer and Glidemaster.

7. Down Under horses/horsemen seemed to also love it in East Rutherford: Ross Croghan, Brett Pelling, Noel Daley, Mark Harder, Kelvin Harrison, Chris Ryder and Nifty Norman. The first 1:55 winner was Young Quinn under the tutelage of Charlie Hunter.

8. Sweden has had a huge say in the now 50-year history of The Meadowlands: Hakan Wallner, Berndt Lindstedt, Jan Johnson, the Nordins, Per Eriksson, Jimmy Takter, Stig Johansson, and now Nancy Takter and Marcus Melander who've won three of the last four Hambletonians.

9. Norway was kind enough to send us Ulf Thoresen and Per Henriksen to capture the 1986 Hambletonian with Nuclear Kosmos and later Trond Smedshammer with the 2004 Triple Crown winner Windsong's Legacy.

10. World records were the norm at the Meadowlands. Every race milestone from 1:50 down to 1:46 was established there. From Nihilator (1:49.3) on Hambletonian Day 1985 to Bulldog Hanover (1:45.4) in the summer of 2022.

11. The first Campbell to win a race at The Meadowlands, was Bob, a veteran East Coast horseman with At'All.

12. Fifteen of the 16 richest races ever held were contested at The Meadowlands.

13. Six Dancers drove at The Meadowlands in its first full meet (Sept. 1, 1976 through Aug. 1, 1977): Stanley, Donald, Sonny, Harold, Sr., Vernon, and Ron. The Dancer name was easily the most prominent in New Jersey racing history.

14. Who had the most drives at The Meadowlands on night one? Lew Williams (seven starts, one win).

15. About a decade and a half ago Canadian star Randy Waples, son of Hall of Famer Ron Waples, had just recorded his first $10 million driving season. When asked about his accomplishment Randy said, "It's a great milestone, but unless you've done it at The Meadowlands it really doesn't matter as much."

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

Documenting your betting history, Part 2

by Frank Cotolo

Part 1 is here.

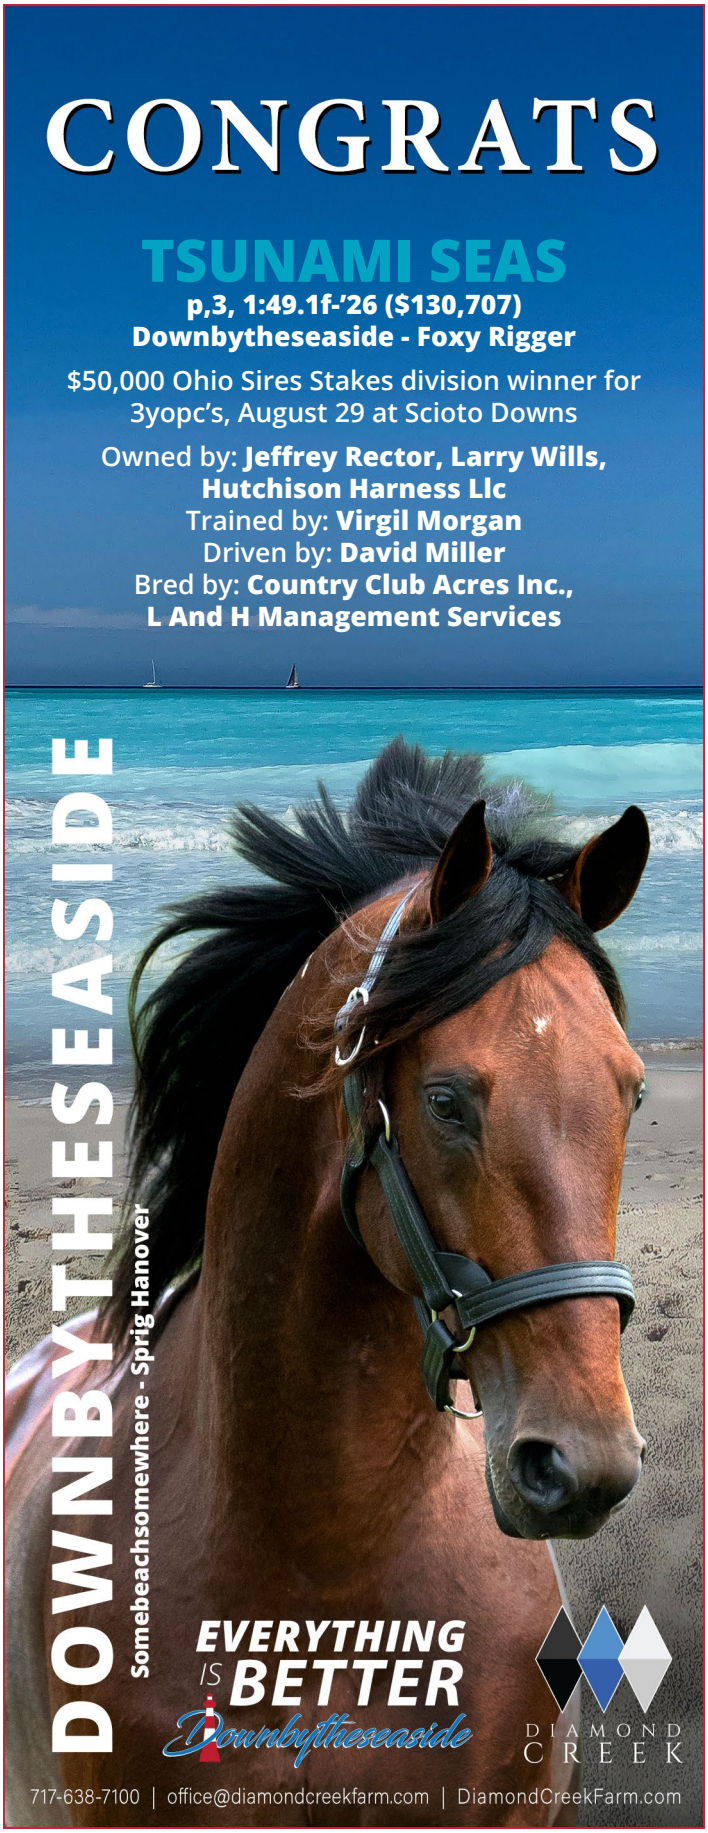
Ike's Marine. I do not remember the sire or the mare or the class of the race. Nor the trainer or driver (although I would swear the driver was Shelly Goudreau). I remember the track (Hollywood Park at its Western Harness Racing meet) and the month and the year (November 1978) when I handicapped two races in which Ike's Marine caught my eye; in the second he deserved my support with a win bet.

More details of the two races are fortunately available 58 years later thanks to a volume of my handicapping and wagering records kept in standard Mead Composition books dated so it is easy to find among the many in my personal library devoted to pari-mutuel activity. In each composition book I can find information on most of my racetrack activities. Statistics and a bankroll ledger and trip notes and personal thoughts on anything related to the current handicapping/wagering campaign are handwritten throughout the books. Sometimes much of the information is moot. Other times the data alone is precious and valuable to the present.

I only wish I kept such records for all of my racetrack history but the learning curve is so steep it takes the player through a painful gauntlet of progress until it becomes necessary to heal the wounds by shedding an amalgamation of garbage disguised as proper approaches to handicapping and wagering; to accept the only road to profiting from pari-mutuel participation is to play like a professional.

It is never too late, however, to start your library and file the important facts and impressions as written evidence to trace the reasons for wins and losses; for mistakes and luck; and for prompting painful and euphoric memories. The value of the information recorded will give you a healthy relationship with all matters of gambling. And there is much to learn from the ways and means of those gambling on anything; certainly, these days when the betting platforms create a wild west show of being shot down in the process.



Most people I talked to tell me the "performance diary," (PD) as one person called it, works for me because I am a professional writer with a long history of creative work. "I'm not going to sit around after a day at the track and do homework," he said. The idea intimidated him and others. I understood. But there are no specific ways to keep a PD and no one is going to grade it. Just simple information is needed. There is no reason to think you are writing a novel. Or anything anyone else would ever read for that matter.

Another great reason for physically writing a PD is longevity. My personal experience proves this. One racing season while living in San Diego I decided to use my thrifty MacIntosh computer to write and store my PD contents. I created Word files for subjects. In the late '80s it was becoming common and efficient to use personal computers for storing data and subjective experiences in all sorts of endeavors. Certainly, for financial records.

It was nifty and comfortable and modern and professional and I entered a great deal of data and information on the same platform where I did my professional writing and creative pieces. The Mac also housed entertainment. I enjoyed playing a baseball game from a program considered an antique in 2026. And I thought it all safe because I backed up my important files on floppy disks. The tools of my life at the time were good. Protected by modern technology.

One day during the ninth inning of the baseball game I played on the Mac there was a flash on the screen. The pitcher in the game began to fire balls to the batter in rapid progression and the batter kept swinging but never hit a ball. I did not panic even though the Mac never behaved in such a manner. It must be the baseball program. Nothing more. All I knew to do was reboot.

I did not want to believe what happened next. The Mac would not reboot. It went on again after shutting down but there were no signs of my folders; the ones housing my information. I tried to reopen the baseball game. No response. Thank goodness I had my floppy disks. I did not care if the baseball program was corrupted out of existence. I cared about my PD files.

The end of this story is my sole evidence for the importance of handwriting crucial information in one's business. None of the floppy disks worked in the Mac. My PD records were kaput. Back to the handwriting board.

From there on I knew keeping records was not just important to the business of handicapping and wagering; keeping them at all was the point. No matter how useful they are to becoming smarter and more successful in whatever the venture.

BREAKING STRIDE

BY A.J. LENCROY

Trotting in three quarters time (a novel), Part 3

by A.J. Lencroy

Chapter 1 is here.

Chapter 2 is here.

CHAPTER 3

The video

Detective Jerry Hooley watched the race replay on a flat-screen mounted on the wall in the media room at the station.

Rosemarie Foster, a quiet, petite woman with a haircut similar to the one on Old Dutch Boy paint cans, was the unofficial technical expert for the Florence police department. After listening to his outline of the potential case, Rosemarie quickly opened her personal horse racing wagering site, logged onto a replay section, and typed the name Assets Accepted.

Before watching the video, Rosemarie, who was usually all business, mentioned she was a fan of the sport. She patiently explained that Assets Accepted was a trotting filly, which meant that she lifted her knees high, almost as if she were pulling Cinderella's coach.

She said the horse of interest would be the one in the yellow saddle pad with the number six. She pushed the play button. The horses approached a starting car. Rosemarie offered commentary during the replay. Most of her commentary was indecipherable to Hooley.

To the surprise of nobody, Assets Accepted won, finishing about six feet in front of the horse in the white saddle pad.

The race was interesting.

The post-race ceremony was astonishing.

The camera angle was from the racetrack towards the grandstands. Assets Accepted jogged back to the area of the finish line, made a U-turn, and Spit Kendricks entered the scene.

Spit unplugged some buckles and a stick from the horse's neck, then urged the horse forward, tugging at the halter. The camera view showed a profile of the horse, the driver standing behind the horse holding reins, and Spit holding onto the horse's head by the halter. A low red brick wall was behind them. There was no audio.

Behind the low wall, watching the little ceremony was a woman in a red wig, almost six feet tall. She was very animated, with both arms extended like a referee signaling a successful field goal.

Slightly behind the red-haired referee, on her right, was a middle-aged woman, at least a foot shorter, wearing a green shawl and a black bonnet, who applauded daintily.

The referee dropped her right arm to her side, but for some reason, in her euphoria, she kept her left arm held high and changed the gesture into a we're-number-one signal. Then she turned her raised finger into an invisible pistol and, using a piston-like motion, began spraying invisible bullets. Hooley read her lips due to a previous discussion - TOLD YOU.

The key event happened in an instant. The referee woman pivoted toward the woman in the black bonnet who was taking a step forward. Somehow, the celebrating woman accidentally launched her fingertip barrel directly into the right eye socket of the lady in the bonnet.

The bonnet lady dropped like a bag of rocks. The video went to a black screen.

Rosemarie was the first to react, "Holy crap, her finger went in up to the second knuckle."

Hooley, eyes bugging, did not say a word.

Rosemarie pushed pause and said, "Thank the Lord the pointer woman did not have Bitch Blades; she could have killed the bonnet woman."

"What kind of blades?"

The question was as if Hooley had touched a treadmill button that sent Rosemarie from a walk to a wild sprint.

"Bitch Blades, super-long fingernails – they're ridiculous. Women can't even pick up a quarter, and then some women slap on those eyelashes like tarantulas, stiletto heels, and pouty painted lips that look like Venus flytraps, and don't get me started on the body work."

Rosemarie suddenly realized she was ranting and tried to land the plane softly, "The wasted time and money could go to better use."

Hooley, still reeling from the video, wondered what sent Rosemarie off the rails, but he did not pry. He looked back at the frozen screen and just said, "Good point."

Composing herself, Rosemarie asked, "You want to see the video again?"

"No, can you save it and send me a copy?"

"Sure."

"Did the woman lose her eye?"

"I don't think so. We called, and they said she was released from the ER. It's early days of the case, but it was clearly an accident."

"I agree, but it looked bad. On the other hand, the trotting filly looked terrific and raced very smoothly. She won that race for fun. Why wasn't the tall pointing woman inside the winner's circle?"

"It's not her horse. It's her husband's horse, at least for now. It's all divorce BS."

"Hooley, that's why you and I are better off single. Marriage can turn a stupid comment into a civil war."

He smiled, "Oh, one more thing. How much did the horse earn in that race?"

She scrolled the tape back to the start of the race and looked at the heading as the field approached the starting gate.

She said, "The purse was $20,000. The winner gets half, but the trainer and driver get a slice. The owners cleared a little under $10,000, but by the looks of that filly, that money will be small potatoes in the future."

Moore sweeps Nassagaweya, Beaton sweeps Eternal Camnation

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Rookie pacers made sure to grab their share of the spotlight on Saturday night's (Aug. 29) packed program at Woodbine Mohawk Park for the Grade 3 Nassagaweya and Grade 3 Eternal Camnation Stakes.

Both events split into two divisions, with the boys in the Nassagaweya racing for $110,000 a division and the fillies in the Eternal Camnation competing for $120,000 a race.

Shalom Hanover kept his perfect record alive with an easy 1:51 victory in the first Nassagaweya Stakes division. The Dr. Ian Moore trained son of Papi Rob Hanover is now five-for-five to begin his racing career.

Driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, Shalom Hanover pushed forward off the wings and would give way to Yes I Am Hanover at an opening-quarter of :27.1. Shalom Hanover and Roy would take their time riding in the 2-hole, as Yes I Am Hanover slowed the tempo to a :56.4 half.

Shalom Hanover would get his cue to move entering the far turn, looping immediately to command and taking the field to three-quarters in 1:24.3. The stretch drive would just be a showcase for the undefeated rookie, as he paced away effortlessly in :26.3 to win by 2½ lengths.

Big D Energy finished second, while Yes I Am Hanover and Th Benedict completed the top four.

Shalom Hanover has now earned over $220,000 in five starts for owners Shalom Hanover Stable. The Moore trainee has wins in the Tompkins-Geers, multiple Pennsylvania Sires Stakes legs, and the Dream Maker to his credit. His latest Grand Circuit win provides a strong tune-up ahead of the upcoming Pennsylvania Sires Stakes championship.

Mascarpone gave Moore and company a Nassagaweya double with a 1:51 win in the second division.

New Image Media

Shalom Hanover (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning one of two Grade 3 Nassagaweya divisions for 2-year-old open pacers on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

New Image Media

Mascarpone (Scott Zeron) winning the other Nassagaweya division.

The son of Stay Hungry and driver Scott Zeron sat fourth throughout before angling on the far turn and wearing down a gritty Billy Hill for a half-length victory. Billy Hill had done the road work after clearing to the lead in the second-quarter, posting clips of :56 and 1:23.2. The fast third-quarter came when the leader was put under heavy pressure by 32-1 longshot Trashnyourdreams, who faded in the stretch.

New Image Media

Twin B Copacabana (Mark MacDonald) winning one of two Grade 3 Eternal Camnation divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

New Image Media

Waves Of Fortune (James MacDonald) winning the other Eternal Camnation division.

L A Captain finished third, while Kerplunk was fourth.

Owned by Mascarpone Stable, Mascarpone is now two-for-five with over $110,000 earned to begin his career. The clocking of 1:51 beat his previous best of 1:51.4.

He paid $5.20 to win.

The Eternal Camnation opened Saturday's stakes action with Waves Of Fortune rocketing from third-over at the head of the lane to win the first division in 1:50.4.

A daughter of Bettors Delight, Waves Of Fortune was sent off as the public's top choice and delivered for driver James MacDonald and trainer Tony Beaton. The Ontario Sires Stakes standout was making her Grand Circuit debut off back-to-back wins and used :26.4 final-quarter speed to sweep by rivals for a two-length score.

Heavens Touch held second after moving to the lead in the second-quarter and facing pressure to three-quarters from Treacherous Nova, who crossed the line third.

The fractions were clocked in :26.2, :55.3, and 1:23.2. The mile of 1:50.4 shaved a-fifth-of-a-second off Waves Of Fortune's previous best.

Winning trainer Beaton shares ownership of the rookie filly with Lisa Lefort, David Mercer, and Teresa Davidson. Waves Of Fortune is now three-for-five with $179,500 earned.

A $2 win ticket returned $4.30.

Twin B Copacabana made it a Beaton barn sweep of the Eternal Camnation with a 1:50.2 score in the second split.

Driven by Mark MacDonald, Twin B Copacabana flashed early speed and had to deal with first turn interference from a breaker. The Beaton trainee worked around the trouble and the leader exiting the first turn, posting clips of :55.2 and 1:22.4.

Twin B Copacabana had pressure at the head of the lane from the 2-hole popping Twin B Mayreau. Those two would be joined by a trio of others for a wild finish that saw the top five separated by just a-length-and-a-quarter.

Twin B Copacabana dug in gamely to reach the wire first, holding off the hard closing Money Carlo by a head and Jersey Bulldog by a neck. Qued Up was fourth by a length, while Twin B Mayreau was fifth.

A daughter of Cattlewash, Twin B Copacabana improved to three wins from six starts to begin her career for owners Copacabana Stable. Her 1:50.2 clocking matched her career best, which she took in her most recent start (OSS Gold on Aug. 17).

Twin B Copacabana paid $6 to win.

Ocean Storm sails to win William Wellwood Memorial

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Ocean Storm swept down the center of the track off a covered ride and bounded to equal the stakes record with a 1:52.4 victory in the $570,000 Grade 1 William Wellwood Memorial on Saturday night (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

With elimination winner Gios Hope breaking stride after the start, Honcho and Free Scottie hustled from wide draws to the fore with Detonater Hanover, the other elimination winner, easing into third through a :26.4 first quarter. Honcho planted on the point into the backstretch, but soon faced pressure as Detonater Hanover tipped out and looped to the lead before a :56.2 half, at which point Top Reacher angled outside from sixth to lead the outer tier to the final turn. Ocean Storm caught cover and followed Top Reacher's tow through the last turn. Driver Yannick Gingras fanned off cover with Ocean Storm just after three-quarters in 1:24.4 and came bearing down on the dueling leaders in the stretch. Ocean Storm surged past his rivals in the final sixteenth and won by three-quarters-of-a-length over Access Now, who split horses late to take second. Top Reacher grabbed third from Detonater Hanover in fourth.

Watch the race replay here.

"I was really impressed with him in the elimination last week," said Gingras, who won for the fifth time in the Wellwood after first scoring in the 2010 edition and winning three straight from 2013 to 2015. "He was loaded with trot, moved from the rail to three high and in a couple of strides stormed home. I kind of liked my spot – I figured maybe Dex would re-move or maybe [I would sit] third over behind two Melander horses. It's just his third lifetime start; I didn't want to do anything too fancy with him. By the seven-eighths pole, I felt pretty confident. I was inching by them and my horse was still trotting. It definitely feels special to win for [Cameron] Capone – his brother is like a second brother to us and we go a long way."

Trainer Cameron Capone said after the race, "He came along great, really nothing wrong with him. We had a bit of trouble once we put the hopples on because he was racing in New York, so I just wanted to put hopples on. But once we took them off, he's been all trot. Top of the lane, second over… we were both licking our chops, I think. It was awesome to have [Yannick] do it because I have a lot of trust in him and so do the owners, so it was great."

Winning just the second race from three starts in his career, Ocean Storm has now earned $302,489 for owners ADH Holding LLC, Paul Kautz, Jeff Gural, and Jean Pierre Barjon. His 1:52.4 mile — a lifetime best — equals the stakes record set by Alarm Detector in 2017 and matched by Ardonne in 2025.

"After start number one, we knew we had something special," said Mike Butler of ADH Holding. "The group came together late; we came into this horse late in the season, and it's been nothing but pleasurable. This horse has really come along, and I don't even think we know what this horse is capable of yet. It's absolutely unbelievable. I knew last week we were going to win tonight; it was no question. We knew we would. Coming into it, we knew we had something special we just didn't know what we had. At the end of that elimination, we knew tonight was going to be our night."

Sent off as the favorite in the betting, Ocean Storm paid $5.50 to win.

Athenas Girl gallant in Peaceful Way final

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Odds-on favorite Athenas Girl grabbed command early and edged away under a hand drive to crush her rivals in the $425,000 Grade 1 Peaceful Way final, for 2-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday night (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driver Dexter Dunn floated Athenas Girl off the wings as City Of Light rushed out of post 9 to cross the field and take an early lead. Athenas Girl steadily marched up to sweep past City Of Light to the top through a :27.2 first quarter and settled on the point. She strode unfazed to the half in :57.2 and gradually gathered speed in the last turn as Loves Passion inched uncovered towards the leader. Past three-quarters in 1:25.3, Athenas Girl straightened and peeled clear of her rivals to cross the finish a geared-down winner by 3½ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:53 mile. Verily snagged second from a ground-saving trip with Dataprivacy rallying down the center of the track for third and Nevis Peak kicking from a pylon trip for fourth.

Watch the race replay here.

"She felt so good last week – a little grizzly out of the gate [this week] and around the first turn, but once she got the front, she was really happy and was cruising the whole way, really," said Dunn, who nabbed his first victory in the Peaceful Way. "She was just completely cruising. She had her ears pricked coming off the last turn and I had a big hold of her, and she cruised up the straight as well. She's a real nice filly. The feeling she gave me tonight, she could've gone a lot quicker. Two-year-olds take a little time to find their groove and find their confidence, but this filly's got it right now."

A filly by Walner—Fashion Athena, Athenas Girl scored her third win from six starts and has now banked $245,106 for owner Brad Grant. The Marcus Melander trainee has also won three straight since adding trotting hopples, which Melander opted to equip after she broke in her first three starts in New Jersey Sires Stakes at The Meadowlands.

"It was frustrating because training down I don't think she made one single break around our half-mile track, not even at The Meadowlands," said Melander, who also won for the first time in the Peaceful Way. "Then she just started with those breaks and it was very frustrating. I didn't think she needed the hopples, but I think she just needed the confidence back after one or two breaks because she's good gaited and a good horse, obviously. Training down she felt like one of our best ones, but we had a bump in the road with all those breaks. We finally got her right."

Athenas Girl returned $2.70 to win.

For Once Inmy Life, Prince Hal Hanover victorious in Canadian Pacing Derby eliminations

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Woodbine Mohawk Park contested a pair of $50,000 eliminations for the Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby on Saturday night (Aug. 29) with For Once Inmy Life comfortably popping to win the first elimination and Prince Hal Hanover clinching a tight victory in the second.

Driver Jordan Stratton secured a pocket ride with For Once Inmy Life and pounced to a lifetime-best 1:47 victory to win the first Canadian Pacing Derby elimination.

Stratton hustled his charge forward out of post 6 and took the lead into the first turn while even-money favorite Best Chip loomed up the rim. Best Chip overtook For Once Inmy Life by a :25.4 first quarter and rolled up the backstretch under no pressure towards a :54.2 half. He remained on the muscle through the last turn, clocking three-quarters in 1:21, and set down for the stretch drive as Stratton angled outside for the attack. For Once Inmy Life motored from the covered trip and darted by Best Chip with ease in the final eighth to spurt clear by 1¾ lengths at the finish while Coaches Corner gave chase in third, Crack Shot rallied from a second-over trip for fourth and Oakwood Ardan IR rallied widest down the track from last for fifth to make the final.

Watch the race replay here.

"He's really sharp right now and he raced really good at Pocono," Stratton said after the race. "The trip worked out tonight. It's not a win on P.E.I., but it still feels good. He got stretched out [in] a couple of miles and seemed to recover from it and raced really good tonight. It's a long stretch, [and] Best Chip is on his toes right now, so I wasn't 100 per cent confident, but halfway down the stretch he felt pretty good."

this season and 24 times from 75 starts in his career, banking $905,809.

"He's just a very nice animal," said Victoria Stratton of Stratton Stables. "He takes care of himself; he jogs like a turtle… you would never know he paces that fast. He's just easy. He's always been there and he just likes the bigger tracks. Keeping him off a half[-mile track] has probably been the best move for him. I'm not surprised at all, honestly."

Sent off as the second choice in the betting, For Once Inmy Life paid $5.20 to win.

Prince Hal Hanover stretched for the lead through a quick first half and held stubbornly for the win in a blanket finish to the second Canadian Pacing Derby elimination.

Leaving from post 9, driver Todd McCarthy nestled Prince Hal Hanover behind odds-on favorite Ervin Hanover as he brushed towards the front in a :26.3 first quarter. Once Ervin Hanover cleared control into the backstretch, McCarthy ground forward and clawed to the lead just past a :53.2 half, but Ervin Hanover began looming from the pocket around the last turn as Calicojack Hanover pushed up the rim with Women Layer in tow. Prince Hal Hanover clocked three-quarters in 1:20.4 and extended into the stretch, but he wavered as his rivals kept charging in the final eighth. McCarthy kept the Doc Moore trainee to task and dug in against an onslaught of late pursuers to hit the beam a nose better than fast-closing Women Layer with Ervin Hanover taking third. Ayeaye Captain Deo stormed over the top for fourth and Lou Hill skimmed the pylons to snag the last berth into the final.

Watch the race replay here.

"I wanted to see how he got off the car – he was feeling pretty good, we were working forward and I took a shot to keep moving there tonight," McCarthy said after the race. "It was a big half, but full credit to Doc and the job he's done with this horse managing him, and to 'Prince Hal' himself. He's an incredible animal and to fight off a field like that down the stretch is just, it's really admirable. It's a pleasure to sit behind him. Off those fractions, I really thought it was going to be hard for him. It was a good group of horses following him. Like I said, he gives me goosebumps. I just love him. I wish every horse could fight as hard as he does. He's just so much fun to sit behind."

After the race, Moore said, "I had to look at the TV a few times. I guess when they call the number first for tests that means you won, so that's when we started walking down. Todd said 'I wish I had five more Prince Hals because he's one of the toughest horses I've ever had in my life.' Every time he goes is just another day for him. He's battling through some issues now, and that's just what he does; he just keeps on going. He loves what he's doing, as Todd said. And he's just so tough to do it, as well. A lot of other horses would falter with what he's dealing with now, but he just keeps going. I'm probably going to go easy on him this week to keep him easy and sound and ready to go for next Saturday."

A 4-year-old stallion by Captaintreacherous—Percy Bluechip, Prince Hal Hanover won his fifth race from 13 starts this season and his 15th race from 44 starts in his career, earning $2,180,168 for owner Prince Hal Hanover Stable. He paid $14.30 to win.

Each elimination winner earned draw protection between posts 2 and 6 for the Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby final, slated as one of the headline races for Saturday's (Sept. 5) card at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Below are the post positions for the final:

1. Women Layer
2. Lou Hill
3. Oakwood Ardan IR
4. Best Chip
5. For Once Inmy Life
6. Prince Hal Hanover
7. Ayeaye Captain Deo
8. Crack Shot
9. Ervin Hanover
10. Coaches Corner

Super Chapter, French Wine win in Maple Leaf Trot eliminations

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Super Chapter matched the track record for older trotting stallions and French Wine returned victorious to the site of his career's biggest win when they won their respective $50,000 eliminations for the Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot on Friday night (Aug. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Marcus Melander trainee Super Chapter swooped up the rim off quick fractions to coast home to victory with a 1:49.4 effort in his elimination.

Driver Dexter Dunn seated Super Chapter into third while Antognoni S looped out of the pocket for the lead through a :27.1 first quarter. Once on the point, Antognoni S maintained his speed to a :54.4 half and kept rolling through the last turn, where Dunn angled off the pylons and sent Super Chapter marching forward. Antognoni S held a diminishing lead past three-quarters in 1:22.3 and gave way in the stretch once Super Chapter surged to the front. Dunn kept his charge to task as he strode in a half-length winner over fast-closing Emoticon Legacy in second. Go Dog Go shook free from a ground-saving trip for third with Up Your Deo coming from third over for fourth and Antognoni S tiring but holding the last berth into the final.

"I think he showed last year that he was one of the better 3-year-olds," Melander said after the race. "The way he's coming back as a 4-year-old has just been great. He has the will to want to be first, and he went first up against these horses again today and won easily. He's a fantastic horse."

A stallion by Chapter Seven—Lifetime Pursuit, Super Chapter equaled the mark for older trotting stallions set by his stablemate Aetos Kronos S when he won his Maple Leaf Trot elimination in 2025. The current all-age track record of 1:49.1 was set in last year's final by Lexus Kody.

Super Chapter, competing for owners Jeffrey Snyder, Arthur Pronti, and Hanover Shoe Farms Inc., has now won four races from six starts this season and 18 races from 31 starts in his career, banking $2,913,843. He paid $2.90 to win.

French Wine (Jason Bartlett) winning the other Maple Leaf Trot elimination.

French Wine, whose last victory came last year at Woodbine Mohawk Park when he rallied for a mild upset in the $822,000 Breeders Crown Open Trot, soared from last to first down the center of the track to win the other Maple Leaf Trot elimination in 1:50.3.

Driver Jason Bartlett took back from the outermost draw in the sextet as odds-on favorite Lexus Kody muscled outside through a :26.3 first quarter to take the lead from Yo Tillie. Bartlett fished cover out of fifth from Aetos Kronos S after a :55.2 half and steadily inched into the action approaching three-quarters in 1:23.1. French Wine lifted off cover spinning for home and powered over the top to win going away by 1¾ lengths. Aetos Kronos S gave chase for second with Private Access rallying from a shuffle for third, Yo Tillie taking fourth and Lexus Kody holding onto the last spot into the final.

"We just had to beat one horse [to make the final] and the way they were mixing it up early was to our benefit going to the quarter," Bartlett said after the race, "and having Dexter in front of us I knew I was going to get a good trip. Going into the last turn I was on a loose line a little bit and I touched him a couple times then he got around Dexter's helmet. Halfway around the last turn I knew we had a good shot because he was actually pulling me and was ready to explode off the cover that we know he can do. No anxious moments down by the wire, he was flawlessly gaited and Nancy's got him good."

Nancy Takter trains French Wine, a 6-year-old stallion by Bar Hopping—Creamy Mimi who won his first race from four starts this season and his 17th race from 53 starts in his career to push his earnings to $1,916,632 for owners Daniel and Jean Christophe Plouffe and One Legend Stable Inc.

"It's been a little bit of a challenge trying to keep him tight," Takter said after the race. "When he raced in the Cashman he hadn't raced since six weeks before and he didn't even race very well. I don't think that he's at the top of his game just yet — hopefully we can get there — but he raced super tonight. I'm really happy with him."

Sent off as the fourth choice in the betting, French Wine paid $13.70 to win.

Each elimination winner earned draw protection between posts 2 through 6 for the Grade 1 Maple Leaf Trot, which goes to final Saturday (Sept. 5) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Al Papi, Toast Of The Town, Sangria Summer headline final Sire Stakes leg at The Meadows

by Tyler Stillings for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

The final leg of 2026 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes action rolled into Hollywood Casino at The Meadows Friday (Aug. 28) with sophomore pacing colts and fillies.

Grade 1 Adios winner Al Papi returned with a wrapped-up 1:50.3 effort in his $54,000 PASS division known as the Tarport Effrat. Papi Rick was hustled to the lead by Justin Irvine through an opening quarter of :26.3, but that lead was short-lived as Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. moved Al Papi toward the front, taking control before an opening half of :55.2. A :28.4 third panel made the final quarter a formality as Al Papi sprinted home in :26.2 to keep Papi Rick a length back in second. Easy Breeze finished third.

The son of Papi Rob Hanover heads into next week's Sire Stakes final with three wins and earnings of more than $600,000 for trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, Lawrence Karr, and Weaver Bruscemi.

Toast Of The Town and Dave Palone set a PASS stakes record in their $54,000 division for sophomore males. Controlling the race from the start through a half of :55, Palone turned the Noel Daley trainee loose for the third panel to the tune of :26.3, creating separation from first-over challenger Melillo. Toast Of The Town finished his career-best 1:48.1 effort with a 26.3 final quarter. Pocket sitter Superchamp Hanover held the place spot, with Melillo in third. Toast Of The Town, a son of Sweet Lou, is owned by Let It Ride Stables Inc., Morrison Racing Stables, Jesmeral Stable, and Alberg Racing LLC.

The featured $103,000 PASS filly event on the card, known as the Romola Hanover, was won by Sangria Summer and Matt Kakaley. Positioned third from post 8, Kakaley moved Sangria Summer just past an opening half of :54.4 and engaged front-runner Hope Hill through a :27.3 third fraction. Gaining the lead at the top of the stretch, the Luc Blais trainee held off the fast-closing longshot Say Goodnight by a neck for a 1:50.2 victory. The daughter of Captaintreacherous is now six-for-12 this season with earnings of more than $300,000 for owner Determination.

In 3-year-old colt PA Stallion Series action, Good Friday and Kakaley controlled the race and held off challengers to the left and right to score a 1:50.2 victory in their division. Tom Shay trains the son of Tall Dark Stranger for owners Howard Taylor and Teena Freibert. It was a career-best effort for Good Friday.

Ghetto Loupastar and Wrenn, Jr. pulled a mild 9-1 upset in the second Stallion Series division. A long first-over move from fifth resulted in the third win of the season for the son of Sweet Lou, this time in 1:51.4. Ghetto Loupastar is trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscemi LLC, and Phillip Collura.

Sandyboots Yankee and Wrenn, Jr. turned in the fastest filly Stallion Series victory with a 1:50 effort. Wrenn used a backside bull rush with the Always B Miki filly to take control and hold off Ok My Way. Trained by Burke, Sandyboots Yankee is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Lawrence Karr and Phillip Collura.

Make It Right made it six wins in 14 starts this season with her Stallion Series victory. Moved first-over past the five-eighths, Tim Tetrick guided the daughter of Papi Rob Hanover through a :27.1 final quarter as Kilauea Hanover closed for second. Gary McCandless, Jo Ann Looney-King and Larry Rathbone own Make It Right, while Jim King, Jr. trains. The 1:50.4 effort was a career best.

Friday's top honors went to Wrenn, Jr. with five wins, while the Burke Brigade sent out five winners to earn top stable honors.

Racing resumes Wednesday (Sept. 2), at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows with a 12-race card. First-race post is 12:45 p.m.

SHES A HOME RUN SETS TRACK RECORD IN PASS AT THE MEADOWS

Hollywood Casino at The Meadows presented a pair of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes divisions known as the Delmonica Hanover, as well as two PA Stallion Series divisions, all for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

The two PASS splits produced two winners for the Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Vernon Beachy combination.

Shes A Home Run was a grand slam in her $54,945 division, setting both a stakes and track record with a 1:53.2 performance. The daughter of Captain Corey used a :27.1 third quarter to seal the deal for owners 518 Group LLC and Ryan Smith. A $25,000 Lexington yearling purchase, Shes A Home Run now has two wins from six starts and earnings of more than $50,000.

The second Wrenn, Jr. / Beachy winner, The Captain's Wife, held off a late challenge to win her $54,945 division. A friendly opening half of :58.1 was the key for the Captain Corey filly. Ops Meares S attempted a late rally to chase down the frontrunner but came up a half-length short in the 1:56.1 mile. Owners 518 Group LLC and Ryan Smith purchased The Captain's Wife in Lexington for $29,000. She now has three wins in six starts.

Belara Bay and Tyler Buter equaled the Stallion Series stakes record with a 1:55.2 victory. The pair used a second-over trip and the length of the stretch to pick up Belara Bay's initial victory. The daughter of Greenshoe was bred and is owned by Tony Holmes and June Zent and is trained by Nifty Norman.

T'wouldmakemesing made it three in a row in Stallion Series action with a wire-to-wire 1:56 victory. Mike Wilder moved the Captain Corey filly to the lead at the three-eighths pole, and from there she trotted to a career-best performance for trainer George Ducharme. T'wouldmakemesing was a $50,000 Lexington purchase for owner FTM Racing Stable of Florida.

Sophomore fillies pace in Ohio Sires Stakes at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Downbytheseaside fillies won both $75,000 Ohio Sires Stakes events for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (Aug. 28) in identical 1:51.3 miles.

Sassy By The Sea (Tyler Smith) took the first division for trainer Herman Hagerman. Leaving from post 4, Sassy By The Sea took the field past the :27.3 quarter, :56.4 half, and 1:24.2 third-quarter to win by a quarter-length over a fast-closing Estuary (Marvin Luna); Odds On Trickster (Luke Hanners) was third.

Sassy By The Sea, out of the Art Official mare Sassy Lady Art, was a $25,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from breeders Spring Haven Farm and Joe Sbrocco. Owned by Hagerman Racing and Charles Reeve, Sassy By The Sea now has five wins in eight seasonal starts with $142,810 in earnings.

In the second division, Seaside Shuffle (Chris Page) got away third off the gate as Vanna By The River (Cory Stratton) took the field to the :27 opening quarter. Page quickly pulled Seaside Shuffle and tripped the beam in :56 for the half and 1:24 for the third-quarter on their way to winning by three-quarters-of-a-length. Sea Me (Hanners) came up the passing lane to be second, with Vanna By The River finishing third.

Bred by William Walters and Joseph McLead, Seaside Shuffle is out of the Santanna Blue Chip mare Hula Shuffle and was a $115,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase. Owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Bruscemi, Knox Services, and R A S Racing, Seaside Shuffle has six wins in 25 lifetime starts with $515,992 earned.

Looking ahead, Scioto will host Ohio Super Night on Saturday (Sept. 12), along with the $270,000 (est.) Jim Ewart Memorial Pace and Charlie Hill Memorial Trot.

The 91-day 2026 Eldorado Scioto Downs regular season runs through Saturday (Sept. 19). Races are held Tuesdays and Thursdays through Saturdays, with a special holiday card on Labor Day instead of the Tuesday card that week and no live racing on Friday (Sept. 18) to accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. The track will then re-open for the Breeders Crown, with eliminations held Oct. 16-17 and the finals Oct. 23-24. More information about all the racing action at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

2-YEAR-OLD TROTTING COLTS IN OHIO SIRES STAKES ACTION

Vernon Beachy seems to have found a magic formula when it comes to racing 2-year-old trotting colts in the Ohio Sires Stakes: team up with Gitup Racing, Ryan Smith, and Todd's Auto to go to the yearling sales, spend just over $20,000 on Ready For Moni colts, enlist Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. to drive, get away third from post 5, make it to the front just after the opening quarter and continue to lead the mile to win in 1:54 and change.

Wrenn, Jr. and Beachy teamed up Thursday (Aug. 27) to sweep the two $75,000 OHSS events at Eldorado Scioto Downs with Mind On My Moni in 1:54.2 and Debt Free in 1:54.1.

"Both raced very good tonight," said Beachy. "Happy with their performances. Need to keep them happy and have a good week heading into the finals and finish the year strong."

The first division saw splits of :28.3, :57.4, and 1:26.2 before Mind On My Moni posted a :28 last quarter to cross the line three-quarters-of-a-length ahead of Obsessed With Me (Brett Miller); Roll'n In Moni (Chris Lems) was third.

Mind On My Moni, out of the Angus Hall mare JJ's Jordyn, was bred by Winbak Farm. Purchased for $21,000 at the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale, Mind On My Moni now has seven lifetime starts, six wins and has earned $161,000.

The second division saw nearly identical fractions as Debt Free made the lead shortly after the :28.3 opening quarter and continued through fractions of :58.2 and 1:26.2. Posting a :27.4 last quarter, Debt Free won by a quarter-length over Iluvmymoni (David Miller); Cool Julio (Tyler Smith) was third.

Debt Free, out of the Chapter Seven mare Feelsofree, was a $23,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase from breeder John Schlabach. Now with four wins in a row in six lifetime starts, Debt Free has earned $152,750.

"It's been a great year, better than I could have imagined" said Beachy. "Nice horses and a great team make that possible. It's been a busy couple of days for sure, but rewarding."

Over the past two days, Beachy has been a perfect six-for-six in Sires Stakes action across three tracks and two states. The 38-year-old trainer from New Philadelphia, OH has had a record year in 2026 with 65 wins in 178 purse starts and over $1.8-million in earnings.

Mr Bear (Marcus Miller) winning the Indiana Sires Stakes event for 2-year-old pacing colts on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Mr Bear, Tell Me It's You dominate in INSS

by Connor Mahoney / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Setting the standard in the fourth leg of the Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers, Mr Bear and Tell Me It's You impressed in uncontested victories in their divisions on Friday (Aug. 28) at Hoosier Park.

It was all business for Mr Bear driven by Marcus Miller for trainer Erv Miller as he cruised to his sixth straight victory to start his career, taking down the first division of the $64,500 INSS 2-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Pace.

Sandwiched in the middle of the field, Mr Bear eased out of post 3 to survey the five-horse field, before firing up to the lead at the first turn in :27.2. Leading the close second Nu Chex To Cash (Anthony Miller), Mr Bear held the field near as the pacers followed single file to the halfway mark in :56.1. The field remained unchanged in the lead up to the turn as Mr Bear set the tone through three-quarters in 1:25. Down the stretch, Mr Bear didn't offer any reprieve focusing on the wire. Nu Chex To Cash offered a burst of pace from second, forcing Marcus Miller to pull out the whip for the first time to guide the post-time favorite through the finish line in 1:50.3 by 2½ lengths. Nu Chex To Cash glided into second, while Another Mile Again (Trace Tetrick) maintained third.

Mr Bear is owned by the Ervin Miller Stable Inc, D &M Trading II LLC, Levi Bontrager, and Laura Perniciaro. The 2-year-old Rockin Image gelding was bred by Mark Adams and Timothy Sullivan. Mr Bear's young bank account stands at $142,500 to go along with a perfect career record.

It was another day at the office for Tell Me It's You driven by John De Long for trainer Alvin Miller as he coasted to a win in the second round of the $65,000 INSS Colts and Geldings Pace.

One off the rail in post 2, Tell Me It's You started strong off the wings to force Capt Peach (Tetrick) to battle along the outside to the lead at the first turn in :27.2. Tell Me It's You took control moments later on the right of Capt Peach. Tell Me It's You took care of the second fraction for a half mile time of :56.2. The field transitioned in behind the leader through the final turn at three-quarters in 1:25. Capt Peach attempted to fight back against Tell Me It's You. The post time favorite never gave Capt Peach another chance as Tell Me It's You punched his winning ticket at the wire in 1:51.1 by 3¼ lengths. Capt Peach grabbed second, while I'm Toohot For You got up for third.

Tell Me It's You secured his third win of the year to climb his career earnings to $88,335. The Tellitlikeitis gelding is owned by Alvin Miller, Twila Harts, and Marvin Schwartz. Tell Me It's You was bred by Oakwood Farms.

SOMEMORE BLUE STRIKES BACK IN INSS FILLY PACE

Meeting once again in just under two weeks, Somemore Blue driven by Marcus Miller for trainer Erv Miller slugged it out with her rival, Whoomp, to secure a statement win in the seventh leg of the $95,000 Indiana Sires Stakes 3-Year-Old Filly Pace on Thursday (Aug. 27) at Hoosier Park.

Drawing post 4, Somemore Blue lined up behind the gate on the inside of the post time favorite Whoomp (John De Long), who rocketed to the front of the eight-horse field stopping the first quarter timer in :26. Looking to control the fractions, Whoomp held firm on the lead with the rest of the field following suit through the halfway mark in :55.3. The pacers stayed consistent as they remained single file on the final turn as Somemore Blue loomed behind the leader with Treacherous Woman (Kyle Wilfong) holding down the fort in third.

Meanwhile, Whoomp cleared the three-quarter turn in 1:24.3. Dueling down the stretch, Somemore Blue saved her best for last as she fired on Whoomp along the outside to win this battle as she smashed the wire in 1:50.2 by a half-length. Whoomp settled for second, while Treacherous Woman held for third.

Somemore Blue is owned by Stepbystep Racing, Kenneth Duffy, Lava Java Stable, and Never 2 Late Stable. The Rockin Image—Misssomebeach Blue filly was bred by Lavon Miller. Somemore Blue collected her fifth win of the season as she filled her bank account of lifetime earnings to $523,566. Somemore Blue paid $4.60 to win. In six meetings this season, the series is now tied at three apiece between Somemore Blue and Whoomp, alternating victories in each meeting.

Reaction to Hambletonian Society vs. Gural

I wrote my previous missive before the official rebuttals from Mr. Gural and Mr. Campbell. Now that both have responded to the poor-and-industry-hurting decision to move the Hambletonian, I felt the need to add. Writing has become my therapy for watching the game I love embarrass itself.

First, I applaud Mr. Gural for not throwing in the towel and vowing to fight on. Personally, I thought he'd just say, "I'm 84 and I'm done with this stuff." He faces a brutal uphill battle now on every front. From the industry to casino opposition to politics, I'm not overly optimistic.

On the other hand, a few things don't add up. Mr. Gural asserts that it was a personal decision in response to his exclusionary policies. Mr. Campbell rebuked that at first saying it had nothing to do with it, but then later declared it became part of the discussion when the bidding opened. Thus, you can't have it both ways. On the flip side, I remember pretty well that Mr. Gural stated that the track would close if the casino ballot failed. I don't remember the issue being "purse subsidies" linked to the new incoming New Jersey administration, although I understand how that would impact the situation since the stake purses would have to be funneled to protect the overnights. Neither Mr. Gural nor Mr. Campbell seemed to be consistent on those two issues. Just my interpretation.

I did find it ironic learning that Hoosier had been sold to an entity that has not mentioned any plans for the future. Mr. Campbell says they have a contract, but that seems just as iffy as The Meadowlands' situation down the road. Just looking up Fertitta shows lots of big-name holdings in casinos, iGaming, and the Houston Rockets, but nary a single mention of horse racing. That seems like a big question mark.

Finally, I think it would be interesting and clarifying for the Hambletonian Society to at least release the final tally [on the vote] for moving the race. I'd be very interested in seeing how close the vote was. I get that an individual's ballot is secret, but like in the past the total outcome can be released without issue. Also, my utmost respect to Gabe Prewitt and the folks in Indiana. Mr. Prewitt is one of the few proven race executives in the country and he has a track record of improving his product. Will the race be as successful handle-wise as The Meadowlands? No. It's just not feasible due to the brand he represents, but I know he will put on a very good product for Hambletonian Day.

This week's fines and suspensions

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.
