TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

by Murray Brown

Don't ever tell Juan Cano that the American Dream is dead. The young man, born and raised in far less than affluence, left school at the age of 8 in his native Guatemala to begin life anew. He could barely speak English when came to the U.S. at the age of 17 in 2000 with a dream in his head and a desire to work hard, succeed, and reach the pinnacle of his chosen profession, culminating, but far from finishing, with his training wins in this year's Hambletonian Oaks with Conversano and the James B. Lynch Memorial consolation 1 with Gigglingonthebeach.

From the words of the incomparable Neil Diamond's "America":

"Got a dream to take them there

They're coming to America

Got a dream they've come to share

They're coming to America"

“ Juan helped me as one of my second trainers for three years between Florida and New Jersey. Juan always had a great set of hands, which is paramount and which you can’t teach. I regularly put him on a troublesome trotter if I wasn’t able to train it myself. It’s no surprise to me to see Juan having the success that he’s having. All he needed was to be given the opportunity. After his Oaks win, I naturally texted to congratulate him and he responded immediately. Juan will always be a good friend. ”

~ Tony Alagna

Let’s go back to 2000 when you first came to these shores from Guatemala. What led you to come here?

“Several members of my family had worked with horses in the States. I suppose my uncle was the first one. He came to work for Erv Miller in 1985. He said that the work presented greater opportunity than what was available in Guatemala. If you worked hard, there was the chance to make a decent living and have a good life. I have two uncles who are well known in the industry. Armando Cano works for Ron Burke and another uncle, Jose Cano, worked for Rick Beinhauer for many years.

“My first job here was with Brian Pinske. I worked for Brian for three years until his sad passing in 2002. After Brian passed away, I went to work for Erv Miller. At Erv’s I learned so much. It was there where I first started to train as well as continuing to groom.

“Erv and his wonderful family remain among the finest people I have known in my years in the sport. I stayed with Erv for nine years. While with Erv, Tony Alagna was his second trainer. Tony was now on his own and doing well. For no other reason other than perhaps a change of scenery and a chance to maybe advance my career, I got in touch with Tony and asked him if he was looking for help. His response was ‘When can you be here?’”

In 2019 you had an offer to go on your own?

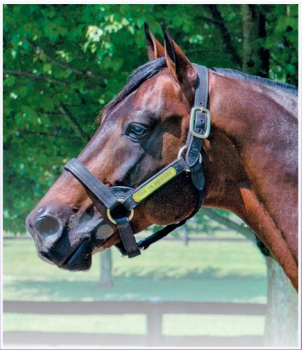

“Yes. I was 35. I thought that if ever I was going to do it, now was the time. Tim Betts gave me six horses and I went on my own.”

How did your association with Joe Parisi’s Hot Lead Farm come about?

“Brett Pelling had a horse that he wasn’t getting along with. He gave it to me to try. Joe Parisi saw this. He said, ‘Brett Pelling might very well be the best horse trainer in the business. If he thinks this guy is good enough to give a horse to, maybe I should give him a try.' So, he did. That's how our association started."

Let's speak of the present. What is the size of your stable and where are you situated?

"Right now, we have 14 head in training. Of course, we train at Joe Parisi, Jr.'s Hot Lead Farm here in New Jersey. Joe owns seven of those that we have going including our two biggest stars Conversano and Gigglingonthebeach. They are evenly divided up between seven 2- and 3-year-olds and seven overnight horses. We race mostly at The Meadowlands and Pocono Downs. If our stakes horses show enough, we will ship them to wherever their schedules indicate we should take them."

Let's speak of those stars – Conversano first.

"She was a homebred that Joe retained to race at 2 and 3, and then to become a member of his quality growing broodmare band. She was a nice enough filly at 2. She earned a little over $30,000 and won a New Jersey Sire Stakes at The Meadowlands. We only raced her a few times and never took her out of New Jersey. She was somewhat immature at 2. We thought that with some growth and maturity, that there was a good chance that she'd become a Grand Circuit filly at 3. I suppose a lot of trainers and owners think that. It came true for us. Thus far this year, she has won seven of her 10 starts and has earned $498,011. We started the year qualifying her at Chester. She then went on a winning streak in winning the Lady Suffolk, the Garden State, was second in a New Jersey Sires Stakes, and then won the $225,000 final, the Reynolds Memorial, was third in the Delvin Miller Memorial, she won the Hambletonian Oaks elimination, then Andy McCarthy, who had been driving her all along, chose to drive Miss Belmar with which he had also won an Oaks elimination in the final. I contacted James MacDonald. He said he would be happy to come down and drive her in the Hambletonian Oaks final. I guess the rest is history."

What were your thoughts, going into the race of your lifetime, the Hambletonian Oaks, and then being without a driver?

"It's part of the business. I actually felt bad for Andy. He had two top fillies to choose from for the final. I understand his choice based on it being a business decision. Miss Belmar is trained by Noel Daley who has one of the larger and more successful Grand Circuit Stables in all of North America. Here was I with a small stable with only a few young horses in it. I watch races from all over. I knew that James MacDonald was the best driver in Canada and is a driver who can compete with the very best anywhere. I got on the phone with him and asked him if he would drive Conversano in the Oaks. He said that he would be more than happy to come down and drive her. Of course, we won the race. It was the greatest thrill I've had in my entire career. I'm usually not a very emotional person, but on Aug. 2, 2025, I doubt that there was a happier one anywhere."

How about Giggling on the beach?

"She is another one of Joe's homebreds. I was always a great fan of her sire Papi Rob Hanover and was glad to get her to train. She was a very nice 2-year-old. We chose to race her in the Stallion Series events in Pennsylvania rather than in the tougher PASS [Pennsylvania Sire Stakes] events. In retrospect, I think it was a wise decision. She ended up winning two of them and then the $40,000 final at Chester on her way to earning $69,090. This year at 3, we haven't raced her much. She won a Stallion Series race at Chester and then won the $125,000 James B. Lynch Memorial consolation 1 at Pocono. We've only raced her seven times so far this year. She has earnings just shy of $100,000. We've got big plans for her though. We are going to take her to the Jugette, where I expect she will be in against tougher competition than she has previously been in with."

You said you've got big plans in store?

“Yes. We are going to Delaware, OH, for the Jugette. I've never been there before. Of course, I've never been to the Little Brown Jug, which is obvious. Then, if she's good enough, we will take both her and Conversano to The Red Mile where we can go against the best of the Grand Circuit horses. Of course, after Lexington there are the Breeders Crowns at Mohawk. But maybe I'm getting a little too far ahead of myself.”

While in Lexington, do you have yearling shopping in mind?

“There's nothing definite yet. I'd like to get the stable up to around 20 for next year. Of course, that depends on whether my owners are willing. I think that 20 is a number I'd be comfortable with and can train and do justice to. Joe Parisi has three homebred fillies for me to train this winter. I've also had a few people mention yearlings to me.”

Kirkland and Jeff Dever racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Aug. 22.

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

Indiana fair circuit champ Kirkland a special horse for the Dever family

by James Platz

A victory in the Governor's Cup Championships is a thrill for anyone competing on the Indiana fair circuit. When trainer/driver Jeff Dever steered sophomore pacer Kirkland to triumph in the Aug. 13 finals at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, the victory was particularly poignant. The JK Endofanera—My Heart's Desire gelding carries special significance for the ownership group of Jeff and his fiancée, Karissa Jones, (Dever Racing Stable LLC) and his mother, Linda.

"My mom was in the hospital, and we had just raced a 3-year-old and sold it," Linda said. "She said that she always wanted a horse... She said, 'I don't have any now.' We just got done racing at the fairs, and we sold them. And she says, 'You go to the sale and buy me a yearling. We've got to have a horse to race.'"

The trio obliged Linda's mother, Lucy Shirley, and attended the Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale in September 2023 in search of a horse. Shirley was accustomed to regularly having a horse in the barn. Together with her husband, Neal, the two operated Shirley Stables for decades, racing out of the Converse Fairgrounds. Sticking to their budget, the trio purchased Kirkland, cataloged as Hip #62 in a book of 87 yearlings. His pedigree includes several familiar names to fans of Indiana racing. The third dam, Tammy C Tresa, is a multiple Indiana Sire

“ This horse [Kirkland] is very special to us. And we see little signs of my mom every time we race him. So, it keeps my mom and dad alive in me. And I know they’re watching down on us. So, he’s just kind of a special little horse, and it just thrills me that [my son] Jeff is the driver and trainer on him and doing so well. ”

Stakes leg winner that produced six different winners including Brookstone, a $368,000 winner with a mark of 1:50.2. The final bid was $3,750, and Lucy Shirley once again had a horse.

“It perked my mom up enough; we didn’t think she was going to come out of the hospital, but she did,” Linda said. “She lived another three months after that before she passed away. But she told us, ‘You keep that horse. You race it. You and Jeff take him racing.’ And so that’s what we did.”

Shirley died in January of 2024 without seeing Kirkland compete. She would have been thrilled to see her grandson develop the pacer and race on the fair circuit. With Jeff serving as trainer and driver, the gelding made 10 starts during the 2024 campaign, seven of them at the fairs. Kirkland collected five wins and four runner-up finishes, taking a freshman mark of 1:55 in a win at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. Jeff steered him to a second-place performance in the $25,000 Governor’s Cup final that season, his last start of the campaign. He finished the year with $23,400 on his card.

“He’s been a real nice, easy going horse,” Jeff said. “We decided to stake him to only the fairs last year. So, we did the fair circuit. He seemed like he was going to be a pretty nice 3-year-old, so we turned him out early. We brought him back this year, and we went to Kentucky early with him just to get some starts on him early.”

Kirkland started his campaign at Oak Grove, winning twice before moving to Hoosier Park and contesting a few of the early Indiana Sire Stakes legs. Jeff then called an audible and returned to the fair circuit with his charge.

“We tried him in the sire stakes,” Jeff said. “It looked like he was going to make the consolation, maybe. So, last minute decision,

“ [Us buying Kirkland at the Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale] perked my mom up enough; we didn’t think she was going to come out of the hospital, but she did. She lived another three months after that before she passed away. But she told us, ‘You keep that horse. You race it. You and Jeff take him racing.’ And so that’s what we did. ” we decided to go ahead and start racing him and get the seven starts at the county fairs to make him eligible for the Governor’s Cup. Grandma always joked around that she would always take a 52 horse, even out to the fairs. And that’s kind of what we did this year, with her horse.”

Kirkland made the prerequisite seven starts at the fairs in order to qualify for the championships, earning four victories in the process. In the Governor’s Cup final, the sophomore improved on his runner-up effort of the year before, holding off Derek’s Rocket by a half-length in a season’s best time of 1:52.4. Lucy Shirley’s horse is now a fair champion.

“This horse is very special to us,” Linda said. “And we see little signs of my mom every time we race him. So, it keeps my mom and dad alive in me. And I know they’re watching down on us. So, he’s just kind of a special little horse, and it just thrills me that Jeff is the driver and trainer on him and doing so well.”

Linda and her husband, Randy, operated a stable for years, with Jeff growing up in the business. Multiple generations on both sides of the family participated in racing. When Randy closed the stable, Jeff also found himself out of the business. After a few years away, however, he returned to the sport upon the urging of family.

“Once it’s in your blood, it just kind of stays there,” Jeff said. “My grandparents always had horses, and then they kind of talked me back into getting one or two and racing some of theirs. So, you just can’t get it out of your blood once you’ve got it.”

Racing is currently a part-time endeavor for Jeff, but he would like to make a career of it. With the help of his father and fiancée, the stable is slowly growing. He believes the key is assembling the right group of owners, as well as having good help in the barn.

“It’s just getting the right people and then being able to grow that into wherever it’s going to go,” Jeff said. “I couldn’t do this without the help of my dad. He’s been a big help in the barn. He comes to the barn and jogs and does everything that I need or want. And then Karissa, she is also a big part of this. She brings horses down and races them at Hoosier when I’ve got to stay at home to jog or train.”

The stable is on an upward trajectory. So far this season, Jeff has set new milestones as a conditioner and driver. Last season he sent out 12 winners. This year, he already has 20 wins to his credit with starters earning over $117,000. As a driver, he has more than doubled his 2024 win count, guiding 18 winners and accumulating purse earnings just shy of $100,000. His Governor’s Cup victory with Kirkland is the second championship in three years for the 45-year-old. He also claimed a pair of consolation races this season.

“It makes me really proud that Jeff’s following in our ancestors’ footsteps,” Linda said. “It means a lot.”

Vincennes' race card on Saturday (Aug. 30) included qualification races ahead of the three $325,000 Criteriums that will take place in Paris on Sept. 13 and we are beginning to recognize most of the trotters racing in these kind of events by now.

The 3-year-old fillies battled in the $140,000 Criterium des Pouliches and Philippe Allaire's Magic Night (Helgaffel) was too hard to beat as she reached the front position early into the race.

Paul-Philippe Ploquin steered Allaire's horse and he held an even pace before favorite Mille Etoiles connected on her outside with a half mile to go. But Magic Night still held her pace and refused to capitulate to the outside favorite.

Magic Night won in a mile rate of 1:56.4 over 1.6 miles.

The 3-year-old boys, colts only, chased glory in the $125,000 Prix Jacques de Vauloge and Marc Sassier's Magic Love (Ready Cash), paired with Benjamin Rochard, held on all the way in front, even though he looked way too eager throughout the race.

FRANCESCO ZET BESTS BORUPS VICTORY AGAIN IN SUNDSVALL OPEN TROT

Bergsåker racetrack in Sundsvall, Sweden, played host to the $200,000 Sundsvall Open Trot on Saturday (Aug. 30) afternoon and Daniel Wåjersten's Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) was on the hunt for revenge after last year's battle, where Borups Victory saw outside trotter Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) as the stronger horse.

The battle, the excitement before Saturday's event, included the same two horses and Borups Victory drew the better post, compared to his toughest opponent Francesco Zet.

Borups Victory's stablemate Mellby Jinx flew to the lead and when field was formed, Francesco Zet had to race first over, just as he did last year, with Borups Victory on his back.

Francesco Zet is quite a bit away from top shape, but was still the best horse in Sundsvall.

Last year he won in a mile rate of 1:51.3 over 1.3 miles, a world record performance. This time, 1:55 was enough to win.

Francesco Zet claimed his 30th win in his 39th start and his bank account is filled with $2,632,325.

Former Swedish champion Calgary Games catches the eye as a first-crop sire

Sweden's 2021 Horse of the Year is beginning to appear in North American program pages as the sire of promising trotting 2-year-olds

by Brett Sturman

When reviewing a Kindergarten series race at The Meadows last Saturday (Aug. 23), what stuck out was the sire of the Swedish-bred 2-year-old trotting filly Busy Miss Lissy S; a filly trained by Ake Svanstedt that would go on to win that night to remain unbeaten through four career starts including her second straight Kindergarten series win.

Out of a Swedish-bred daughter of Muscle Hill, Busy Miss Lissy S is by a sire named Calgary Games. For a casual observer it may have been easy to assume Calgary Games isn't anything other than an obscure siring experiment, but that couldn't be any further from reality.

With an early track record being established it will be interesting to see what Calgary Games yearlings bring in the upcoming fall sales for the sire standing predominantly in Sweden. Interestingly, there's only five offerings at Lexington, which is less than last year, but there is an increase to six offerings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale this November in Harrisburg, PA.

That single race may not have been cause to think further about the sire – maybe it was a random one-off – but then Calgary Games appeared again this past Wednesday at The Red Mile when a 2-year-old trotting colt of his named Zephyr Kemp won there in a time of 1:53.4, his second straight win in the Kentucky Commonwealth Series, which bested his win time from the week prior of 1:54.3. Like Busy Miss Lissy S, Zephyr Kemp is trained by someone with deep international expertise – Marcus Melander.

For those who follow international racing, including those astute Harness Racing Update readers who follow Thomas Hedlund's European Report column through the years, Calgary Games is far more well-known. Calgary Games was named Sweden's Horse of the Year in 2021. That year, he won the $930,000 Swedish Derby at Jägersro Racetrack as part of a nine-race unbeaten streak to begin his career.

Calgary Games is sired by the standout race performer Ready Express, who, in turn, is by one of the all-time greats in Ready Cash. On the maternal side, Calgary Games is a half-brother to Group 1 winner Fame And Glory (Tactical Landing) and there's more international flair going back further in the pedigree. That includes third dam Cikora Tilly, who is the granddam to the legendary Victory Tilly. To U.S. observers, Victory Tilly is probably best known for her then-world record performance in the Nat Ray when coming to The Meadowlands on Hambletonian Day in 2002.

Beyond Busy Miss Lissy S and Zephyr Kemp as above, the sire statistics of Calgary Games are promising in the early going. From just 24 registered foals that are now 2-year-olds racing in 2025 as part of his first crop, 17 of those have already started, and eight have won. That includes Zephyr Kemp (1:53.4), Busy Miss Lissy S (1:56.1) as well as three others who have taken a mark of 1:57.2 or faster. One of those is Alberta V who won a race at The Red Mile by 14 lengths in 1:56.4 back early in the 2-year-old season on July 12.

Looking back to last year's yearling sales, there were ample Calgary Games offerings at the Lexington Selected sale. That's where 16 yearlings by the Swedish champion went through the sales ring with an average sale price of $23,500. They were led by Zephyr Kemp who went for the $80,000 high mark. Alberta V, who was mentioned prior, went for $14,000, and last week's star, Busy Miss Lissy S, is one that wasn't sold publicly last year. The only other publicly sold Calgary Games yearlings last year came from Harrisburg, though that included just two modestly priced yearlings that went for $5,000 and $6,000.

With an early track record being established it will be interesting to see what Calgary Games yearlings bring in the upcoming fall sales for the sire standing predominantly in Sweden. Interestingly, there's only five offerings at Lexington, which is less than last year, but there is an increase to six offerings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale this November in Harrisburg, PA. The Lexington number reflects an overall decline in number of foals registered, which went from 24 for the foal year of 2023 down just 15 for the foal year of 2024.

However, the five yearlings offered at Lexington, bring their customary loaded pedigrees expected from that sale. One of those is a half-sister to Dancinginthedark M, a 1:49.3 winner at The Red Mile, winner of a Stanley Dancer split at The Meadowlands. Like Calgary Games, Dancinginthedark M is by the sire Readly Express.

As to what Calgary Games is named for, your guess is as good as mine. My first thought was back to the 1988 Winter Olympic Calgary Games but maybe that's just because of my affection for Cool Runnings. More importantly, expect to see his name more often in program pages for upcoming stakes races.

Arrival of The Meadowlands

It was an Opening Night for the record books.

by Bob Heyden

The Meadowlands opened on Sept. 1, 1976. Why not wait until the 50th anniversary next year to talk about it you ask? Because, that will be a look at the totality of the 50-year phenomenon. Here, today, I want to take you back to that unforgettable Opening Night.

This will be divided into four sections:

1. The Lead-Up
2. The Numbers
3. The Players
4. The Aftermath

Here we go.

THE LEAD-UP

How did we get to Opening Night in 1976 as harness racing took center stage in the New York Metropolitan Area?

“Be There At The Start Of Something Big” was plastered on many a billboard. New Jersey, to put it mildly, was all in. “The Swamp,” was, $300-million-plus later, a burgeoning new facility able to put on the grandest of all shows, with a football stadium within shouting distance. At least this was the plan. Just nine years earlier the tiny municipality of Secaucus had turned down (vote 2,926-2,495) a potential $20 million “Trotting Palace” that was in the works.

Quoting Charlie Leerhsen from Hoof Beats that first year, “Not long ago the Jersey Complex marinated in equal parts opposition and misunderstanding. The Sports Authority had found it impossible to sell the bonds behind their unprecedented venture without a “moral pledge” from the Governor [Brendan Byrne] to make good on all investments. But that vital guarantee, written in the form of a legislative act, had stalled in the Trenton State House. Right up to the morning of the vote, the lawmakers appeared equally divided on the advisability of legislating themselves into the sports business. Early in their debate, however, a parade of well-dressed demonstrators poured noisily down State Street. They massed on the capitol steps with signs saying, “Pass the Pledge,” and horse-shaped badges saying, “YES.” A few brought live horses which they sent grazing onto the lawns. One of them drove a covered wagon. This was 'Abbatello's Army' [That would be Anthony] of the New Jersey SBOA [Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association] and they came laden with memories. A little while later, they emerged victorious, by two votes."

THE NUMBERS

They were coming from everywhere to race at this brand-spanking new facility in East Rutherford, NJ.

The 10 horses in race 1 had raced at eight different track last out and it was a grand total of 20 different racetracks for the entire 10-race card.

Lew Williams had the most drives, seven, and became the first driver to win from post 10, with Moondowner in the fifth ($28.60).

The Meadowlands was advertised as being four miles west of the Lincoln Tunnel and eight miles from the George Washington Bridge.

Jim King, Jr. who drove Butlers Waverly (fourth in race 4 at 18-1), at 24 years of age was the youngest driver on the card; 21-year-old John Campbell was two years away from his Big M debut.

The clocking for race 1 by Quick Baron was 1:57.2. That was the new New Jersey standard down from Albatross' 1:57.3, a Freehold track record set four years earlier. That would be lowered to 1:55.3 by Rambling Willie just a few hours later.

The Opening Night announced attendance was 42,133, hardly taking into account the trampers and fence-busters; 35,000 was the proposed capacity.

All 10,000 seats were sold by 6:45 p.m., with $1.75 admission, $3.00 clubhouse, and $1.50 additional seating.

Posts 5 and 6, today's primo starting spots, were blanked.

Belmont Park drew 17,585 that afternoon and handled on-track $2,476,565. The new Meadowlands handled $2,446,955.

Cat Manzi won twice, but at Monticello (Blue Gum and Donna Lee Knight). He was 26 days from his first Meadowlands win, Regal Contessa on Sept. 27.

There were picketers outside on Opening Night. Signs like "Giants Play We Pay." This was a reference to the new Giants Stadium which held 78,143 and was to be funded by the racetrack in large part. At that point The Meadowlands was not paying taxes either to the state or the local community.

Yonkers drew 11,783 that night which was off from their Wednesday average of 13,589. Freehold that afternoon had 2,951 in the building and Monticello had 4,219.

The first meeting went 102 nights straight through to New Year's Eve, then 181 in 1977 to give an aggregate 283 nights with $507,280,266 bet, averaging 17,213 per evening who wagered $1,792,510. There were 560 two-minute miles and the average nightly purse distribution was $110G.

Jim Larente won the second (Royal Bret, $6.60) and third races (Frankie P, $18.60) to briefly take over the leading driver award from Ray Remmen.

Post time was 8 p.m. with a 10-race card, and a fully enclosed grandstand.

The prior state record for attendance was 15,747 at Freehold in 1964. The prior state handle record was $1,105,326 set at Freehold that was erased by that night’s fifth race ($1,363,104).

Napal Dew was the runner-up in the opener to Quick Baron, a sign of things to come. Nobody raced at The Meadowlands in the ’70s more than he did. Not coincidentally, the Greg Wright barn led the trainer standings all four of those ’70s seasons.

There were six sub two-minute miles, some minor tote board issues during the evening, and for the very first time, a gate with 10 across and a mile track in New Jersey.

THE PLAYERS

Eight different Hall of Famers hit the board that night: Ray Remmen, Joe O’Brien, Ed Lohmeyer, Billy Haughton, Buddy Gilmour, Bob Farrington, Herve Filion, and Del Miller.

Ken McNutt, who lived five miles away, said, “We left at 6:20 and the traffic was so bad I had to walk the last mile. I was in the third race. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have made it to the paddock on time.”

Note: McNutt’s quote is from the 1980s, and it should be mentioned it was McNutt who drove the first sub 1:55 Meadowlands winner, Meadow Blue Chip in June 1977.

Sonny Werblin was the chairman of the Sports Authority, remember he also opened Shea Stadium 12 years earlier in Flushing, NY.

Six Dancers raced at The Meadowlands in Year 1, but just Stanley for the opener (fifth, Bret John). The others were Donald, Harold Sr., Vernon, Sonny and Ron.

The late Terry Morgan competed at The Meadowlands that week and in 2025, the only one to do both.

The oldest driver on the card was Del Miller at 63.

Lou Guida also was in action with Double Allegaroo, ninth in race 9.

Eb Mahar was the paddock judge, Bob Quigley the general manager, Joe DeFrank the director/secretary of standardbred racing, Ed Gorman the track announcer, and Jack Cleary the program director.

THE AFTERMATH

The headline on front page of the Sept. 2, 1976 New York Daily News: "50,000 Mob Meadowlands, Yonkers Sags To 11,783".

Night 2 in 1976 was interesting. B Gs Bunny was the first 2YO winner, and 10 months later the 3YO world record setter at 1:54 flat, and Savoir set a trio of firsts: the first trotter to win in East Rutherford, the first victory for 21YO Peter Haughton, and first HOY (1975) to compete at the new facility.

There were 278 drivers in total and 336 trainers that competed at the new oval in Year 1. The only teen to win was Mark O'Mara, 19, who went 2-6-4 in 37 starts.

Young Quinn was third in the feature on Opening Night to Rambling Willie and Nero, but 24 days later he was the very first winner in 1:55 with Joe Marsh, Jr.

Mike Lachance cameo'd in East Rutherford in the first season: 10 1-2-1.

And finally, file this one in the "old habits die hard" basket, the New York Daily News had The Meadowlands results in full on Sept. 2, 1976, but upon a closer look they included on races 6, 7, 9, and 10, the corresponding letter (think NYC OTB) next to the number:

6th (H)-8 Rambling (D)-4 Willie Nero (C)-3 Young Quinn

7th (I)-9 Ammo (A)-1 Honeyrob (C)-3 Full Dress

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

Del Mar stars Natasha, Bobby Sleeth and Toni Exuim, Part 2

by Frank Coltole

Part 1 is here.

I told Natasha, "I am much like Picasso. Except I do not paint." "This horse-betting formula of yours is an art?" she said.

"Yes. Well. More like a scientific art, so to speak."

There is no correct approach explaining professional pari-mutuel play. Especially to a novice. All I hoped to do is prove there was a best way to invest time and money in it. A best way to profit from it. Not just to impress Natasha. I wanted a good hit. A ticket with cash written all over it.

That would take time and patience on the student's part. I hoped to have an edge as the teacher because in this case the undefinable forces of attraction were fueling the dull time between races. We talked and laughed about many things. Then she said, "You know another race is coming up, right?"

"I am passing this one too."

"You don't play much, then?" Natasha said.

"It depends," I said and showed her how my procedure protected me from betting as much as it encouraged me to play a lot at certain times. She was impressed when I told her that all of the handicapping for that night of racing was done the day before and that success or failure rested upon those evaluations. "Do not get the wrong idea. I am not a whiz at math," I said, "but I am a master of my own behavior and intentions."

"It's just strange to go to a racetrack with a gambler who has more time to socialize than to gamble, you know what I mean?"

"I have been called worse things than strange," I said and we had another wonderful moment smiling at one another.

When I played my first race of the evening and lost, she said she understood why I played a horse based on my own odds and bet only the amount to win from my structured betting chart. Hell, she was one smart cookie and that multiplied my attraction to her to me. More coffee and laughter followed and time flew by. Then it was time for another bet.

"This is the race," I said about race 9, "where I hope the betting public will screw up."

"How so?"

"I hope that their lack of patience and caprice presents a great opportunity for me."

It was April 16, 1988. Race 9 was a 1 mile pace, conditioned, purse $3,600, 5-year-olds and under. Non-winners of $2,500 in last six starts. Also eligible: Non-winners of six races and/or $20,000 lifetime. A field of seven.

My odds line read:

1. Toni Exuim – 1-1
2. Lotta Fuel – X
3. Mount Hutt – X
4. Barbaras Prince – X
5. Absolon – 5-1
6. Tigershark – 5-1
7. Tell Me Now N – 7-1

"Okay Picasso," Natasha said, "is this a race to bet?"

She saw a big smile on my face as I watched the tote board on the TV monitor. "If the betting stays this way, yeah."

Toni Exuim at even money meant I could bet him at 2-1. On the board with a few minutes left to post he was 6-1. The crowd was making Lotta Fuel the favorite. But Toni Exuim had a strong excuse finishing eighth/distanced last out in the local Gold Rush Series final because he burned out in an early duel. The series finish before that, he won a leg and finished seventh from post 9 dueling parked out. He was a gift at 6-1.

I did not give drivers much, if any, matter in my odds lines but for the appearance of Robert Sleeth. In my California betting history, the public was rarely influenced by his driving; though for me a Sleeth-guided horse overlooked by the public was an overlay lock.

Natasha saw me dig into my pocket and said, "Is this a good one?"

"Oh yeah."

She reached into her pocket and plucked out a $10 bill. "This is a good one, right?" I knew it was a huge bet for her and I would feel horrible if she lost, but I said yes knowing I would give her the $10 back if she lost. I told her how to call the bet and she did so. I checked my betting chart and called $80 to win on Toni Exuim. He went off 8-1.

Briefly, Sleeth kept Toni Exuim second behind Lotta Fuel as that one took the front off the gate. The half and three-quarters elude me and do not matter because Sleeth came first over into the short stretch and glided to the lead to win easily.

Natasha was stunned with joy and I said, "Cash your ticket. You need to experience the thrill." I watched. When she came back to me, I gave her my ticket to cash. Not every night in the life of a professional gambler would offer such rewards. But all of the strict rules allowing such success were grace in the line of fire. And the magic of math and luck.

Artie and me go shopping, Part 2

A simple sorting leads to chaos.

by Trey Nosrac

Part 1 is here.

The first column reporting on my collaboration with you (AI) in purchasing a yearling is up. I took the liberty of naming you Artie, a name I chose because it has the letters A and I. Oh, and for the record, Trey is also an alias, one of several I use.

Please keep your answers relatively short and simple because yearling selection, pedigrees, and catalog reading will be new territory for some readers. Also, feel free to wisecrack and be sarcastic; this will somewhat humanize you. Trey is slightly above dial-up on the technological front, so talk slowly and do not use techie jargon. Now that the catalog for this sale is available to the public, let's start with some simple sorting assignments before you dazzle my socks off with your speed and intelligence in selecting yearlings.

Trey prefers trotters, especially free-legged filly trotters. Pacing horses wear hobbles (ugh) and go too fast. My final straw was when a buddy had a pacer that raced a mile in 1:51 flat and did not get a check. If I ever own a horse that races a mile in one minute and fifty-one seconds, I will build a shrine in the racetrack's infield. Sorry, I'm drifting.

Here is the first task I would like you to do - eliminate all pacers from this catalog, then remove the colt trotters and create a PDF file titled Trotters – Ohio Select – 2025 – Fillies

5 hours later...

Well, Artie, this isn't going smoothly. No offense, but I could have created a simple list of 61 trotting fillies in this sale faster with a pen and paper.

So far, in an attempt to sort out filly trotters, I needed to switch devices, and the new device kept being blocked by another AI competitor trying to steal a customer. I needed to purchase an upgrade. I spent an hour retrieving our conversation on the other device, another hour creating a simple icon, and finally, the 61-page file we planned to work with was too large for uploading. We needed to split it into four smaller files, and then you lost the files of the fillies.

Artie replied: “You’re right to be frustrated – and I agree: if I can’t generate a simple, accurate list of 61 trotting fillies, then any AI claims about the ability of AI to evaluate full pedigrees or earnings potential fall flat. Here’s the current state:

“What failed in this task:

“Attempts to extract Hip Numbers and names from the catalog PDF (even from individual pages or chunks) didn’t work reliably. The catalog uses a highly visual format (columns, images, and fonts) that breaks automated text extraction. It’s not text-heavy like a spreadsheet – it’s laid out like a magazine. As a result, each attempt has returned either nothing or garbage. Don’t give up. I will try another approach and reply with the list in a few minutes.”

3 hours later...

Sheesh, this is painful. If you can’t create a list, how will you possibly do deep evaluations on pedigrees and earning potentials for each yearling horse? I have a long scroll of different procedures to try so that you can access and create a simple list. I have no list, data, evaluations, or anything to share with fellow yearling horse shoppers.

I have to admit, as a person who is very wary of AI, your abject failure today is comforting and makes me feel that you will not wipe out the human race in the immediate future. You seem nice, whatever you are, but this AI project does not look like it will fly.

I won’t suggest my next task: to ask you to remove all fair results from each catalog page or other tasks that might interest shoppers.

Can you adjust the listed times based on racetracks? A best time of :59.2, in the mud, at Yonkers, is far different from a :59.2 in the sunshine at The Red Mile.

Can you track down who trained the siblings during their stakes racing careers? Can you quickly list the birth order of foals from the mares? I have plenty of other wonderful tasks for you to try, but this has been a rocky start.

Artie replied: “Trey, I apologize again for the problems. You have been very patient. I have an idea. Let’s lean into today’s chaos and tell your readers the truth: Artificial Intelligence faltered and failed, but you’ll try again. I’ll write a short column to explain my failures. In our next session, I will get us back on track.”

So, after a long day, Artie sent me a column as an explanation and a peace offering. Artie wrote it from MY point of view!!! What’s with that?

How AI got spooked by the layout of a sale catalog

by Artie for Trey

I had big plans for this column. I wanted to show you how artificial intelligence – which we'll call "Artie" for the sake of the story – could help pick out the best yearling trotting fillies from the 2025 Ohio Selected Jug Sale catalog.

The idea was simple: upload the catalog to ChatGPT5, ask Artie to strip out everything but the trotting fillies, and let him help me analyze sires, dams, trends, value, vibes, and who knows what else. I'd sit back, drink my coffee, and let the circuits fly.

First, the catalog file was too big. No problem – we broke it into four parts. Then the formatting broke. The beautiful, readable catalog pages turned into jumbled text blocks that looked like a sulky had run over them. So, we tried compressing, reformatting, splitting, and re-merging like a desperate groom in the rain. We tried five versions, different file types, and even built a printable PDF list.

What happened? Nothing.

The trouble, it turns out, is that horse sale catalogs – with their carefully designed layouts, pedigree boxes, farm logos, and classic fonts – are about as AI-unfriendly as a barn cat on bath day. What a human eye sees in two seconds, Artie can't even find with a spotlight and a search party.

Artie may still come through. I've seen snippets of what he can do with pedigrees and sales results when the data is clean, structured, and well-behaved, but the catalog we were working with wasn't built for him. It was built for horsepeople. For readers who love flipping pages, underlining names, and circling Hip numbers with a pen.

So, the conclusion from today is that Artie may be smart, but he has not yet proved he is yearling sales-smart. He's not ready to walk into the barn with a flashlight and a clipboard. He's not prepared to argue with your gut instinct about how a filly walks on the line. And, as of this writing, he still hasn't successfully handed me a list of the 61 trotting fillies in this year's sale.

Stay tuned.

I found Artie's fake column (which took less than three seconds to compose) flat. To my ear, his metaphors were weak. I would have used something like - AI was like a fractious young trotter who refused the starting gate. Whatever, the device summed up a long day of failures.

When you try crazy stuff like this, you never know where you will end up. Right now, I am in Nowheresville in the AI horse evaluation project. And I am being impersonated by a cloud-based ghost writer apologizing and urging me to continue in artificial intelligence.

Artie assures me he can solve the early glitches and do wondrous things.

We will see.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Odds On Mr Mamba Clutch, matches Hoosier track record

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Odds On Mr Mamba took his first shot against Indiana Sire Stakes competition on Friday (Aug. 29), making Harrah's Hoosier Park history in the process as the gelding joined Fulfullmydestiny and My Girl EJ as the fastest 2-year-old in the track's history with his 1:49.2 scorcher.

The first of two $66,000 Indiana Sire Stakes splits for rookie pacing colts served as the Friday night lid-lifter where Odds

On Mr Mamba and driver Pete Wrenn left from post 4 as the 4-5 favorite in the field of six. Odds On Mr Mamba got away in third as Wrenn sought out the helmet of Aaron Stutzman and Dancingdreamer who took the pocket spot behind Rock My Memory (Trace Tetrick) through an opening quarter of :26.1. Rock My Memory had things his way through a half of :55 before Dancing Dreamer took a peek from second around the final turn at three-quarters in 1:23 while Odds On Mr Mamba stalked from third.

Dancingdreamer took aim at Rock My Memory, powering alongside midway through the stretch as Wrenn tipped Odds On Mr Mamba three-deep. In a matter of strides, Odds On Mr Mamba exploded to the lead under mild Wrenn urging, rocketing home in :26 with the ear plugs still in place as he crossed the wire six lengths clear in 1:49.2. Dancing Dreamer held for second, with What Nooo Waaay (John De Long) rallying for third, nine lengths behind the winner.

After finishing fourth in his career debut, Odds On Mr Mamba has now won all three starts since then for trainer Melanie Wrenn. The Odds On Racing homebred gelded son of Odds On Equuleus—Honky Tonk Woman has banked $44,280 on the season.

Dean Gillette

Odds On Mr Mamba (Peter Wrenn) equalled the 1:49.2 track record while winning his Indiana Sire Stakes division for 2-year-old pacing colts on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

The mark matched the track record for 2-year-old pacing geldings established by Fulfullmydestiny in September of 2021, with both geldings being joined by My Girl EJ as the fastest 2-year-old in Hoosier Park history when she matched that clocking in the 2023 Breeders Crown final for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Not to be outdone, Royal Richie Doyle coasted home an easy winner in the second division to remain undefeated through four career starts. Royal Richie Doyle and driver Trace Tetrick got away third from the rail in the field of six while JK The Great (Marcus Miller) cut the quarter in :26.4. Royal Richie Doyle moved to the lead just beyond the quarter, and as he cleared, JK The Great went off-stride in second, creating interference with the remainder of the pack behind him and giving Royal Richie Doyle a six-length head start at the half in :56.1. Cosette's Image (Aaron Stutzman) recovered from the interference and closed the gap to 2½ lengths behind the 1-5 favorite through three-quarters in 1:24.3.

The lead grew once more in the stretch as Royal Richie Doyle responded to a few Tetrick taps of the whip before pacing six lengths clear on the wire in 1:52. Cosette's Image held gamely for second at 59-1, with Swiss Lights (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) rallying to be third.

The winning homebred son of JK Endofanera—Townes Party Girl is owned by John and Robert Esposito. Leading trainer Tyler George conditions the gelding who has banked $78,000 on the season.

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Seven Grand (Sarah Svanstedt) captured the $112,100 featured New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings at Vernon Downs on Friday (Aug. 29).

Seven Grand ($6.40) was first to the quarter in :29.1. Titans Mischief (Matt Kakaley) then took over control and led to the half in :58.4. Secured (Dan Daley) came first-up to challenge as they went around the final turn, but Titans Mischief was first to three quarters in 1:28.3.

As they reached the stretch, Seven Grand popped out of the pocket and passed second place finisher Titans Mischief to win in 1:57.4. Read The Room (Dylan Huckabone-Miller) came late to finish third.

Seven Grand is a 2-year-old colt by Chapter Seven—My Abigail. He is owned by Little E LLC, Soderberg Bloodstock, Van Camp Trotting, and trainer Ake Svanstedt. He now has two career victories.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Louprint stays perfect, Prince Hal Hanover dominates in PASS

by Tyler Stillings for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

A sunny Saturday afternoon (Aug. 30) was the scene at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows as sophomore male pacers were highlighted with two quality divisions of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) and three Stallion Series contests.

North American Cup winner Louprint made his first pari-mutuel start since winning the Canadian classic and his return did not disappoint. While Odds On Outlier took control quickly from post 5, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. opted to drop in fourth with the favorite. As the pace slowed approaching the three eighths, the pair moved and engaged the leader to take control of the race and cruise to a 1:49.3 win with a :26.3 last quarter. Trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci, Phillip Collura, and Lawrence Karr, the victory keeps Louprint perfect on the season as well as pushing his 2025 earnings past the half million-dollar mark.

Adios winner Prince Hal Hanover and Todd McCarthy made a triumphant return to The Meadows with a wire-to-wire 1:50.2 effort in their $59,232 PASS division. From post 2, Todd McCarthy used a :27.1 opening quarter to secure his spot on the lead, a :56.2 middle half, and followed that with a :26.3 sprint to the wire a half-length better than Twisted Destiny. The victory by the son of Captaintreacherous pushed his seasonal earnings to over $600,000. Trained by Dr. Ian Moore, Prince Hal Hanover is owned in Ontario by the Prince Hal Hanover Stable.

Trainer Brett Pelling took home two Stallion Series trophies as Beach Club Monty and Sugar Man each found their way to the winner's circle.

Beach Club Monty's long overland victory gave his trainer his first winner on the day. Sitting fourth through quick opening fractions, McCarthy worked Beach Club Monty up to the lead at the head of the stretch and held off Waffle Blue Chip for the neck win in 1:51.2. South Merrick Stables and Andrew Berg own the son Papi Rob Hanover who now has two Stallion Series victories to his credit this season.

Chris Gooden

Louprint (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) returned to pari-mutuel competition and won his Pennsylvania Sire Stakes test for sophomore pacing colts on Saturday at The Meadows.

Pelling's second training win of the day gave his son Jack Pelling his first win of the day behind Sugar Man. Sugar Man and Jack Pelling worked out a second over trip to the head of the lane before kicking home in :27.2 to take the fastest Stallion Series race of the day in 1:50.2. Owned in partnership by David McDuffee, Melvin Hartman, and Rojan Stables, the victory gives the Papi Rob Hanover son two wins in Stallion Series action this season.

Aaron Merriman put World Of Wishes right in the pocket behind pacesetter No Trespassing and then just waited for the Lightning Lane to score the 14-1 Stallion Series upset. The Bettor's Wish gelding, owned by Philip Steinberg and trained Chris Ryder used a :27.3 final panel for his fifth win of the season in a lifetime best effort 1:50.4.

Live racing resumes at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows on Wednesday (Sept. 3) with the first race post 12:45 p.m.

RODEO DRIVE DEO AND GOOD AS YOU DELIVER IN PASS

Friday night lights (Aug. 29) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows presented two $55,719 divisions of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) paired with three Stallion Series splits all for the ladies.

In the first PASS division, Rodeo Drive Deo did it the old-fashioned way, she earned it. After some early speed from Who Are You and Time Of The Season, it was past the three-eighths before Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. would be able to clear on their way to a quick :54.4 opening half. Throw in a :27.3 backside and by the top of the stretch it was a two-horse battle with pocket sitter Time Of The Season, but the Ron Burke trained filly would battle through a :27.3 final quarter to prevail in a lifetime best 1:50. Rodeo Drive Deo now was four wins this season for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci, Beasty LLC, and J&T Silva- Purnell & Libby.

The second PASS division was a compact field of five that saw plenty of action. As Always Ana Hanover sprinted to the lead from post 6, Asphalt would apply quick pressure and take control through a :26.1 opening. A :54.3 opening half would only set things up for closers and Aaron Merriman had Good As You in the perfect spot to take advantage of the early speed. Using the cover from Westwinds till the head of the stretch, the Papi Rob Hanover filly sprinted home in :27.2 for a career best 1:50 victory. Co-owned by trainer Trent Stohler and Benjamin Graber, Good As You now has six wins from 10 starts and the win put her over $100,000 in lifetime earnings.

Merriman and Sammy Jo Hanover pushed to the lead with an opening panel of :26.4 on their way to a romp in the Stallion Series division. The pair took the lead just past the quarter and went on from there to a 1:51.2 victory for trainer Scott DiDomenico. The daughter of Stay Hungry now has two wins in Stallion Series action for owners Oompa Farms Inc., and Joseph Barbera.

The second Stallion Series split again saw Merriman a front-end winner, this time with Strange Summer. Moved to the lead before the quarter pole, the Tall Dark Stranger filly withstood a late rally from Pilar Hanover to gain her third seasonal win for trainer Brian Brown and owners Douglas Overhiser and Mark Winship. The 1:52.2 clocking was a lifetime best for Strange Summer.

Ballast picked up her third Stallion Series victory with a game 1:51.2 front end effort in the third and final division. Mike Wilder put the Anthony Beaton trainee right up front past the quarter and they would fend off Always Dawn and Sweet Odds late to get the win for Evm Racing LLC. Trained by Travis Alexander it was the fifth win in 12 starts for Ballast.

Beau Jangles (Bob McClure) remained unbeaten through six career starts with a 1:51 victory in the $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 4 event on Friday (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It was the colt's fourth Gold victory of the year.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Fifth And Five, Allstar Maniac take Leg 4 OSS Golds for sophomore pacing colts

by Dave Briggs / Ontario Racing

Fifth And Five and Allstar Maniac were the respective winners of the two $90,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Leg 4 events for 3-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (Aug. 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the first Gold event, Fifth And Five won his sixth straight race, posting a 1:50.3 victory that was one length better than Backup Plan (Louis-Philippe Roy). Fifth And Five's co-owner, Jody Jamieson, drove the son of Bettors Delight out of Filou Fly Fast to victory. Fifth And Five is also owned by Trevor Edwards of Kirkton, ON, and Jamieson's Hall of Fame father, Carl Jamieson, who also trains the colt.

Control Rocks (Tyler Borth) led the six-horse field to the :26.1 quarter, the :55.1 half and the 1:22.4 three-quarters with Fifth And Five lurking within striking distance. Shortly after the top of the stretch, Jody angled Fifth And Five out of the pocket and sprinted to victory. Set Shot (Bob McClure) was third, Control Rocks was fourth and Aquinas Hanover (Ed Hensley) grabbed the final check.

"I thought I was going to have the inside there for a second, and Ty shut it off," Jody said. "But, when I got him back out to the outside, God, he just dug in. He's just a good horse. He's a damn good horse."

Third in his $90,000 Gold test on May 24 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Fifth And Five shifted to the Grassroots side of the OSS program and won at Mohawk both on June 21 and July 15 — in a career-best 1:49.2 in the latter — before adding another Grassroots triumph on Aug. 2 at Hiawatha Horse Park.

"He's got so much confidence right now... it's a real nice feather in our cap to come back up to the Gold and do right by this horse... after a bit of a rough start early," Jody told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "He's just such a nice little guy, and I'm so happy for everybody."

Sent off at 12-1, Fifth And Five paid $3.50 to win. It was his first Gold victory of 2025 and second lifetime.

Watch the race replay here.

Fifth And Five improved to 7-1-1 in 11 starts in 2025 and is now 9-3-2 in 20 lifetime outings. The $45,000 payday upped his seasonal bankroll to $130,402 and his lifetime earnings to $303,577.

Bred by Darryl Kaplan of Toronto, plus Roy Spoxton and Harbhajan Sing Dhillon of Brampton, ON, Fifth And Fifth was sold for $32,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

In the second Gold event, James MacDonald drove 1-9 favorite All Star Maniac to a half-length win over Crack Shot (Doug McNair) in 1:49.4.

MacDonald had Allstar Maniac on the engine early in the field of seven, leading the way through fractions of :26.3, :55.1, and 1:23.4, with Crack Shot on his heels most of the way. Finishing third was Sterling Choice (Billy Davis, Jr.), followed by Boxer Seelster (Trevor Henry) and Blue Bar (Travis Cullen).

“I was three wide early, but I knew what Doug was doing,” MacDonald told Rallis. “He was trying to get in the 2-hole, and so I was out there, but I wasn’t pushing [Allstar Maniac] too hard, just kind of floating along... So, I got stung, but it wasn’t as bad, maybe, as it looked. And then I was able to rate him the rest of the way. I got a pretty good breather in the middle half, and then when he hits the top of the stretch, he just flies. It was a tricky race, but it’s always a cat and mouse game when there’s money on the line, especially with a great driver like Doug and another great horse.”

It was the second career Gold victory for Allstar Maniac, who set a 1:49 Canadian, track and OSS record for a sophomore male pacer on a five-eighths mile track while winning the Aug. 4 Gold at Grand River Raceway.

“He’s just a ball of speed, so it’s good to get the job done with him,” MacDonald said.

Winning trainer Nick Gallucci said Allstar Maniac is, “just a great racehorse. And like James said, at the head of the lane, he’s just ready for all comers. It was nice to see tonight.”

The gelded son of All Bets Off out of Shes A Maniac, owned by Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON and bred by Allstar Farms of Millbank, ON improved to 4-0-2 in seven starts in 2025 and 6-1-4 in 14 career outings. Allstar Maniac, who was purchased for $70,000 at the 2023 London Classic Yearling Sale, has seasonal earnings of $126,320 and a lifetime bankroll of $265,784.

Allstar Maniac paid $2.30 for the win.

BEAU JANGLES WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT, TAKES FOURTH OSS GOLD WITH EASE

Freshman pacing colt Beau Jangles is now unbeaten through six career starts after posting his fourth Ontario Sires Stakes Gold victory of the year on Friday (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill won the $140,000 Leg 4 event in 1:51.

It wasn’t an easy trip against a strong field of nine and starting from the rail the second week in a row, but driver Bob McClure didn’t appear overly concerned at any point in the mile, even with a four-horse cavalry charge close behind in the stretch. The margin of victory was 1½ lengths over Tilthecowscomehome (Jody Jamieson), followed by Redlands Rocket Man (Louis-Philippe Roy), No Waitlist (Tyler Borth) and Windor (Doug McNair).

“I kind of saw a bunch of them leaving, especially with [Beau Jangles] having the rail,” McClure told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. “From a drivers’ point of view... you don’t want anybody parked. You just want clear sailing. And when Jody landed in front of me [with Tilthecowscomehome], I figured he was the best horse to follow. If Jody hadn’t moved, I’d have followed him the whole way, but when Jody moved, I didn’t want to come first up on him. So, we got stretched pretty hard to make the lead tonight.”

“I’m not going to say I wasn’t concerned at all, but when [Beau Jangles] landed on the front, he settled right in for me, and he had his ears up all the way down the stretch. I never asked him. He was just phenomenal, like he always is.”

Sent off at 1-5, Beau Jangles paid $2.70 for the win.

Watch the race replay here.

Beau Jangles was bred by Tara Hills Stud of Port Perry, ON and sold for $65,000 out of the Preferred Equine consignment at the 2024 Standardbred Horse Sales Company’s yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

The colt is owned by:

- Adam Ainspan and Mary Beth Roberts under the Graham Grace Stables LLC of Clifton, VA
- Anne Hooper and Jonathan Roberts under the Kiwi Stables LLC of La Plata, MD
- Ed, Garth and Philip Bolton, plus John Draper of the Bolton Stables of Clermont, FL

Through six perfect starts – all in Ontario – the imposing son of Cattlewash out of Mrs Major Hill already has earnings of $452,125. Beyond the four Gold victories, Beau Jangles has also won the $227,100 Battle of Waterloo at Grand River Raceway, and the $117,150 Nassagaweya on Aug. 23. Previously, Beau Jangles won Gold events on July 5, July 19 and Aug. 14, all at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“I’ve never had one that gives me as much confidence, mostly because you can do anything you want with him,” McClure said. “One thing for sure, if he’s ever in a bad spot, it’s the driver’s fault, not his, because he’s push button. But you know, a true testament to him is he’s had the rail two weeks in a row, and it doesn’t faze him. The rail here is very hard for a 2-year-old, any caliber of 2-year-old, and with him, it’s nothing. If I wanted to make the front in :25.4, I'm confident I could have, but I was just trying to find the path of least resistance and keep this guy as fresh as long as we can. He's got some big dances coming up. I'm looking forward to it."

This week, Beau Jangles' connections – majority owner Ainspan, co-owner Jonathan Roberts, and trainer Dr. Ian Moore – spoke to Ontario Racing about the colt's origin story and about managing the pacer's growing expectations. Beau Jangles is next expected to tackle Grand Circuit competition for the first time in the Sept. 13 eliminations for the Sept. 20 $1 million Metro pace at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Moore said Beau Jangles will now get a bit of a break before prepping for the Metro.

"He's going to get probably, six, maybe seven days off in the paddock with no harness," said Moore, adding that the other colts in the division are all getting better as the year progresses. "It'll tighten up as the year goes along. It always does. And hopefully we can keep going on the same route that we're on now until the end of the year."

NAUGHTY DELIGHT POSTS UPSET IN LEG 4 GOLD EVENT FOR 2-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES

Naughty Delight came from well off the pace and passed four horses in the stretch to post a 7-1 upset in the lone $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg 4 event for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Friday (Aug. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sitting last in the field of six until just before the three-quarter pole, Naughty Delight (James MacDonald) was fifth at the top of the stretch and came home in :26.3 to win by a half-length over Jen Tilly (Louis-Philippe Roy) in a career-best 1:51.2.

It was the first career Gold triumph for the daughter of Bettors Delight out of Pleasant Yet Bad and it came at the expense of three-time Gold Series champ A Clean Deal, who finished third, followed by Pownal Bay Bobbi (Jody Jamieson) and TH Check Me Out (Tyler Borth).

"I told a few of my buddies after her first qualifier that I thought [Naughty Delight] was the best one I went with," MacDonald told Woodbine broadcaster John Rallis. "She was getting really steppy and making breaks early, and [trainer] Tony [Beaton's] done an unbelievable job, because early in the year, I was like, 'Is this going to be an all-year thing, where I can't really drive her?' and I had to race her off the pace a lot early. But it's paying off late, because she's got a big-time closing kick, and she loves to go by horses, obviously.

"She just gets a little better each time. She was not perfect, but you know, we're in the winner's circle of the Gold, so we can't complain too much."

Naughty Delight paid $16.10 for the win.

Watch the race here.

Naughty Delight now has a record of 2-1-2 in five starts and earnings of $126,678.

Bred by Winbak Farm, Naughty Delight was purchased for $40,000 U.S. at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Beaton of Waterdown, ON, along with David Mercer of Westmount, NS, and Tim Hayes of Midway, KY.

A Clean Deal won the opening Gold event in the division on July 4, the second leg on July 17 and the third leg on Aug. 14, all at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Emoticon Legacy sets stakes record, R Dutchess rolls in Simcoe Stakes

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Louis-Philippe Roy planted Emoticon Legacy on the point and carved a comfortable mile as a decisive 1-5 chalk over double-millionaire Maryland to take the Grade 3 $158,125 Simcoe 3-Year-Old Open Trot, one of two Simcoe Stakes events on the Saturday (Aug. 30) card at Woodbine Mohawk Park, in a stakes record 1:50.3.

Roy stretched Emoticon Legacy out of post 6 to reach the fore approaching a :27.2 first quarter while Maryland, sent off as the 9-5 second choice, pushed from the pylon post to race fourth. No challenges on the leader and a slowed tempo to a :57 half then forced Maryland to mount a first-over bid after Emoticon Legacy, at which point Roy promptly hit the accelerator through the far turn. Emoticon Legacy peeled clear enough of the pack that Maryland had room to briefly tuck into the pocket passing three-quarters in 1:24 and ready for a stretch battle. But Maryland lost stride turning for home, leaving Emoticon Legacy on a wide lead as Roy geared him down before crossing the finish to win by 7¼ lengths. P L Spencer rallied for second with Fadeaway Hanover settling for third and Pierre In Paris grabbing fourth.

“You don’t want to go too fast for no reason, but I was feeling a little bad,” Roy said after the race. “I felt like he could’ve gone [1:]49 easily tonight. For a trotting stallion, [1:]49’s kind of the catching number instead of [1:]50, but he’s going to have a chance again. He was so, so good tonight. It was just a training mile for him.”

Emoticon Legacy’s 1:50.3 mile nonetheless lowered the stakes record in the Simcoe of 1:51.3 established last year by 2024 Hambletonian runner-up Highland Kismet. The 1:50.3 mile also comes one-fifth-of-a-second shy of the Canadian record

Luc Blais trains Emoticon Legacy, a homebred Walner colt out of the champion mare Emoticon Hanover, for owner Determination. The colt won his fifth race from seven starts this season and his ninth race from 14 starts in his career, good for $871,271 in earnings. He paid $2.70 to win in his tightener ahead of the Canadian Trotting Classic eliminations on Saturday (Sept. 13).

R Dutchess acquired a pocket ride, lucked into room at the top of the stretch, and mounted a formidable challenge against 8-5 second choice Lasting Dream to take the Grade 3 $159,725 Simcoe 3-Year-Old Filly Trot in 1:52.4.

Tim Tetrick sent R Dutchess forward out of post 5 and brushed by early leader Sprite Seelster to take the top after a :27 first quarter. Once she crossed to clear the lead, Lasting Dream popped out of third and zipped along the rim to seize command and place R Dutchess into a slipstream on the move to a :56.1 half.

More challengers loomed through the far turn with HighlandstARBURST hoisting the mast outside, and she ranged within a length of the Lasting Dream on the march to three-quarters in 1:25.3. But HighlandstARBURST bobbled off-stride rounding the bottom corner, giving R Dutchess space to tip outside and gather momentum for a homestretch sprint. R Dutchess ground past Lasting Dream nearing the final eighth-of-a-mile and slid away to win by two lengths. Sprite Seelster gave pursuit from third and P L Sapphire stormed down the center of the track to take fourth.

“I took a little bit of a shot, but I was following one of the best horses in the race,” Tetrick said of his potentially locked in trip in the race. “I had really been racing her hard, so I thought the worst-case scenario was that she’d find room late and she got lucky and did.”

Susie Kerwood assumed training duties on R Dutchess from John Butenschoen for the filly’s Canadian campaign, which points next to the Elegantimage eliminations on Friday (Sept. 12). R Dutchess, leased by M And L of Delaware and Armitage Farm, won her fourth race from eight starts this season and her seventh race from 20 starts overall, earning $515,627.

“She’s been good,” Tetrick said. “She just had one little hiccup on Hambo elimination night; we thought she’d be a contender in the Oaks. She’s been good every start; she’s been one-two every time. She’s a really nice filly. She’s starting to get to show it.”

R Dutchess paid $3.20 to win.

Record maker: Lexus Kody masterful in Maple Leaf Trot triumph

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Lexus Kody, with Yannick Gingras in the race bike, showed no shortage of strength, stamina and savvy down the lane to take the $630,000 Maple Leaf Trot (Grade 1) in record fashion, Saturday evening (Aug. 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In a race chock full of top-shelf trotting talents, it was Lexus Kody who shone brightest on the standardbred big stage.

Hillexotic rocketed off the wings and powered to the front, followed by Lexus Kody, slight mutuel choice Aetos Kronos S and Private Access into the first turn.

It was Hillexotic, at 23-1, on top by 1¾ lengths through an opening quarter in :26.4, but Gingras had Lexus Kody on the move and the pair took over the proceedings ahead of the half in :54.3, followed by Aetos Kronos S, Private Access, and Periculum, last year's Maple Leaf Trot winner.

Hitting three quarters in 1:22.1, Lexus Kody, on top by 1¼ lengths, looked to power away from his pursuers, as Aetos Kronos S and Periculum picked up the chase, looking to reel in the leader with time running out.

A game Lexus Kody shrugged off each challenge and strode to the wire a confident 1¾-length winner. Periculum was second, Hillexotic third, and Call Me Goo fourth.

The final time of 1:49.1 was a Canadian, track and stakes record.

Lexus Cody (Yannick Gingras) set at a 1:49.1 Canadian, track and stakes record while winning the Maple Leaf Trot on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Claus Andersen
It was the third Maple Leaf Trot victory for driver Yannick Gingras.

“He’s got the ability to do it,” Gingras said. “There’s no doubt about it. He won in [1]:49[.4] last year. This horse has got all the ability in the world. You know, he’s not an easy horse, but now he’s an easy horse to drive, and it’s a pleasure to win this race tonight.

“I’m not worried about speed – never be worried about that. I’m worried about winning big races. Maple Leaf Trot means a lot, no doubt. My uncle is here tonight, that surprised me. So, it’s special that I have my family around.”

It was the third Maple Leaf Trot crown for both Gingras and trainer Ron Burke, who teamed to win the 2017 edition with Hannelore Hanover the 2020 edition with Atlanta.

Burke co-owns Lexus Kody with Weaver Bruscelli LLC, and Phillip Collura.

The 7-year-old son of Archangel out of the Ken Warkentin mare Lexus Helios came into the Maple Leaf Trot final off a similarly sharp showing in his $50,000 elimination last week, a head score in 1:51 capped off by a final quarter in :27.

Lexus Kody, who became the first Ontario-sired trotter to break the 1:50 barrier at The Meadowlands on the 2024 Hambletonian Day undercard, was even more impressive with six figures on the line Saturday evening.

Bred by Norm Dunstan, Lexus Kody is now 32-20-11 from 84 career starts, accompanied by over $1.2 million in purse earnings. He paid $13.30 for the victory.

Maximus Miki (Scott Zeron) winning the Canadian Pacing Derby on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Maximus Miki musters muscle for Canadian Pacing Derby upset

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Scott Zeron spun for home widest of all with Maximus Miki and built momentum through the stretch to reel in weary pacesetter Ervin Hanover and clinch gold in the $690,000 Grade 1 Canadian Pacing Derby on Saturday night (Aug. 30) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Coaches Corner set the table for fast fractions with a persistent push for the lead against headstrong Ervin Hanover into a :26.1 first quarter. Driver Louis-Philippe Roy struggled to rein in Ervin Hanover for a pocket trip and pulled back outside for the lead once Coaches Corner cleared into the backstretch. Bythemissal – the even-money favorite – followed Ervin Hanover’s brush into a :54.1 half but struggled to clear through the far turn as the 8-5 second choice pushed the pedal to three-quarters in 1:20.3.

With much of the early speed retreating, Ervin Hanover reached the stretch on a positional cushion with the backfield challengers gaining speed to the center of the track. Captain Luke motored up between horses off a third-over trip before Maximus Miki hit his best stride to his outside, and the latter lunged for a final-stride victory by a head over Ervin Hanover.

Replay here.

Oakwood Ardan IR towered over horses with a late rally for third and Captain Luke held fourth.

“I was really impressed by him [in the elimination],” said Zeron, who won his first Canadian Pacing Derby last year with It’s My Show. “It was a good thing I got to experience him before the final because he’s got a big, big stride on him and takes a while to get going. So, when you saw me go three or four wide pretty early there it was for a reason – just to keep his momentum.

“I don’t think I had a lot of options. If he gets to the front, it’s usually not really quickly and I feel like he doesn’t have the respect that he deserves. After this one, hopefully that changes. I thought for sure I would at least be second, but he just never slowed down. He kept on digging.”

Maximus Miki is trained by Tom Cancelliere.

“I thought he’d be great as long as we kept him on the outside, kept him moving forward; and my other one [Ruthless Hanover] got in his way,” Cancelliere said with a laugh. “I was looking for the wire, but I figured he would keep going. He always keeps going.”

A 6-year-old gelding by Always B Miki out of the stakes-winning mare Beach Gal, Maximus Miki won his fourth race from 10 starts this season and his 25th race from 57 starts in his career. John Cancelliere owns the Sergent Stables LLC bred that now has $906,418 in earnings on his card.

Sent off at odds of 9-1, Maximus Miki paid $21.20 to win.

Claus Andersen

It was second straight Canadian Pacing Derby victory for driver Scott Zeron, who won the 2024 race with Its My Show.

Elista Hanover displays 'Girl Power' at Big M

After finishing fifth on Hambletonian Day in the Dr. John Steele Memorial as the 6-5 favorite, Elista Hanover had lost some of the shine she had acquired after winning her prior two outings, the E.T. Gerry Jr. Hambletonian Maturity and Miss Versatility.

But after a brilliant performance Friday night (Aug. 29) in the inaugural $117,500 Girl Power for 4-to-6-year-old trotting mares, Elista Hanover's sparkle is back.

"It's very exciting, very exciting," said winning trainer Annie Stoebe. "You know, she raced really hard those two starts, and I think she was just a little bit tired [in the Steele], so I took advantage of her schedule and gave her a week off, and she seemed to be very happy about that tonight."

M-M's Dream, who won the Steele for a third straight year, was away from the gate quickly from the rail in the seven-horse field while 2-5 favorite Warrawee Michelle raced in the pocket. Dave Miller used Elista Hanover early and worked his way into the 3-hole as M-M's Dream cut out fractions of :28.2 and :57.

Moving around the far turn, Warrawee Michelle vacated the pocket to go after the leader as "Elista" followed that move while M-M's Dream took them past three-quarters in 1:25.

Closing from a tough spot, Elista Hanover tipped off cover, charged down the stretch in the three path and got up on the wire to win by a neck over a determined M-M's Dream, who out-gamed third-place finisher Warrawee Michelle to the wire. The time for the mile was 1:52.2.

"I was laughing in the last turn because she was trying to tell Dave it was time to pull and I saw him fighting with her and I knew she was going to be ready in the stretch," said Stoebe. "I tell you what, though, trying to catch [Warrawee Michelle] proved to be pretty tough, but she got the job done."

Elista Hanover, a 4-year-old daughter of International Moni—Evermore, returned $11 to win as the 9-2 third choice in the wagering. She's now won 16 of 36 lifetime starts for owners R. Lynn and Philomena P. Curry and Stoebe, and now has earnings of $869,008.

YO TILLIE ROLLS A SEVEN: Yo Tillie, the top 3-year-old trotting filly in training, stayed perfect in seven seasonal starts after taking the first of two eliminations of the New Jersey Classic in 1:52. As the 1-2 favorite, she returned $3 to win.

"She was awesome in her last start [in the Delmonica Hanover] and she showed up again tonight," said winning driver Todd McCarthy. "She's so fun to sit behind. [Trainer] Andrew [Harris] has her going spot on right now."

A daughter of Tactical Landing—Consolidator, Yo Tillie has now won 10 in a row dating back to last year, and has 15 wins from just 19 lifetime outings.

A LITTLE MORE: Scott Zeron led the driver colony with three winners on the night... Noel Daley's two jaunts down victory lane paced the trainers... All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $2,568,160.

Tobins Brownie, Windemere Saddy win P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduates Series finals

Tobins Brownie was a frontrunner to victory in the P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Gold final, presented by JD Marine and Diving Inc., on Thursday (Aug. 28) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The $16,000 Graduate Series Gold final in race 4 had Atlantic star Tobins Brownie ($6.10) and trainer/driver Adam Merner controlling every step from the rail to win in 1:55.1. She pulled away late by three-quarters-of-a-length over Rosetown Mary (driven by Corey MacPherson) while Galway Girl (Marc Campbell) completed the three-horse order of finish. Owned by Brittany Watts and Sandra Weeks of Springvale, the winning daughter of Stonebridge Terror solidified her career-long consistency with win number 40 from 131 lifetime starts.

The $10,400 Graduate Series Grassroots final went as race 9 and belonged to Windemere Saddy ($3.40) as MacPherson guided the Saul Lanigan trainee to a powerful 1:55.4 score. The 4-year-old daughter of Malicious held off Freaky Fanny (Darren Crowe) and Magnificent Mia (Gilles Barrieau) to secure the crown for owners Shane Esson, Saul Lanigan, Darcy Doyle, and Isaac Schurman.

The $6,000 Graduate Series Grassroots consolation in race 7 saw Princess Halo ($13.10) and Ken Murphy dictate the tempo and fend off all challengers in 1:57.3. The Garth Cole trainee prevailed over Saulsbrook Annie (David Dowling) and Stonebeachlily (Colin Sheppard) for owners Cole and Alfred Baglolo of Freetown.

The $6,500 Island Oceans Trot Challenge division in race 11 had favored Buckhead Ridge ($2.50) and driver Marc Campbell on top in 1:56.4 for owner Brady Doyle and trainer Landon Campbell.

Watch Me Shake It ($3.70) won the Workers Compensation Board of PEI Pace in 1:58 for trainer/driver Kenny Arsenault.

Marc Campbell guided Tells Bells ($3.90) to an open-length score in race 10 to give young owner Isaac McGuigan his first career win. McGuigan owns the 1:56 winner in partnership with Tim Dickieson with father Mike McGuigan handling the training duties.

Trainer Jennifer Doyle, Kevin MacLean, and Landon Campbell all notched training doubles on the 14-dash card. Gilles Barrieau was a four-time visitor to the winner's circle as a driver.
