Luke McCarthy wins the inaugural $2.1 million TAB Eureka with the lone mare in the field.

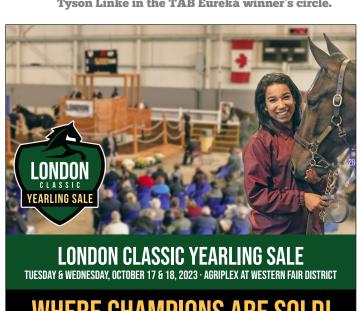

by Adam Hamilton

With his brothers watching from afar, champion driver Luke McCarthy produced a gem of a drive on Encipher, the lone mare in the field, to win the world's richest harness race, the $2.1mil TAB Eureka at Menangle last night.

McCarthy, who won the 2009 World Trotting Derby on Muscle Hill at the DuQuoin State Fair, is best known in the U.S. these days as the older brother of gun drivers Andy and Todd McCarthy. They both got up early Saturday to watch the race at 6.45 a.m. their time.

"We didn't get home from The Meadowlands until about 1 a.m.," Todd McCarthy said on the road to Big M qualifiers. "Andy stayed Encipher (Luke McCarthy) winning the TAB Eureka on Saturday at Menangle.

at my place and we both got up early to watch it. It was awesome."

When the connections of star mare Encipher knew they had to find a replacement to regular driver Kate Gath, who was committed to her own horse Catch A Wave in the TAB

Eureka, they quickly snapped-up Luke, known by many as the "king" of Menangle.

Since Menangle replaced the iconic Harold Park as the home of Sydney harness in late 2010, no driver has had more success or dominated Menangle quite like Luke.

Despite not having driven Encipher before, Luke produced a gem of a steer to land midfield in the running line (one off the market pegs with a trail) and the mighty Emma Stewart- and Clayton Tonkin-trained mare did the rest powering home to gun down Queensland sensation Leap To Fame and win by 1.7m. Encipher was a $34 outsider.

Replay here (select Nswhrc at Tabcorp Pk Menangle – Saturday, 2 Sep 2023 – race 7)

Her breathtaking 1:51.8sec mile rate for the long 2,400m trip took 1.1sec off Anntonia's world record by a mare and was just 0.3sec outside Max Delight's all-comers record in a race 2,400m or longer.

Luke's chance pick-up drive was just part of the pieces which fell into place for Encipher, the lone mare in the 10-horse TAB Eureka, winning and banking $1 million.

Slot holders Aaron Bain Racing & Summit Bloodstock had locked-in the South Australian-owned Cobber, but just days after doing so, he went amiss.

"We've got a really strong South Australian connection, I'm based there, and we wanted our slot to fly the SA flag," Bain said. "So, we quickly switched to Encipher and the rest is now history."

Encipher is bred and owned by hobby horseman Tyson Linke in the tiny South Australian town of Kadina, which has a population of just over 5,000.

The once proud and strong harness racing state of South Australia has dwindled to little more than a cottage industry, driven almost exclusively by hobbyists.

"I can't believe this has just happened," Linke said in tears moments after the win. "I get so nervous. I walked away from the crowd, halfway back up the home straight, and watched it by myself. I was so far away, I wasn't sure if she'd won or not."

Linke got his broodmare, Our Cavort (a daughter of Falcon Seelster), in foal to Captaintreacherous and before the resultant filly was even broken in, he rang champion Victorian training duo Stewart and Tonkin and asked if they would train her.

"I didn't know them," he said. "I'd never met them, I just cold called them because I saw something in this filly and they said they'd take her.

"It was during COVID and she went across before she'd even been broken in. I've still got photos on my phone from Clayton when he was breaking her in. She's literally been with them since the very start."

Fittingly, Stewart and Tonkin took Encipher back to South Australia's Globe Derby track for her first two starts where she won a heat and final of the Group 1 Allwood series.

She was away on a career which has now netted her 27 starts for 17 wins, seven seconds and a third. She's also banked $1,584,479.

"We couldn't believe it took someone so long to snap her up for a slot," Stewart said. "In fact, we were worried she wouldn't even get one. We've always felt she could match it with the boys because we've got so many good ones at home and we know how well she works with them.

"She been great against the mares, but so often done... she only does what she has to, so she never looks that impressive. But we've longed for the day she could sit off the pace in a serious race. She beat the boys at Melton in her final lead-up and then did it again tonight. We just love her and she really deserved this."

Queensland pacing sensation Leap To Fame was crunched into $1.70 favorite (for a $1 bet) and lost no admirers with another massive second after sitting parked outside his main danger and the Miracle Mile winner, Catch A Wave, and paced straight past him.

But Encipher smashed the clock late and gunned him down to win.

"I'm proud of him," Leap To Fame's trainer/driver Grant Dixon said. "He went great. Even when she [Encipher] came at him, he kept finding, but he just couldn't hold her off. All credit to her."

Dixon has the unenviable task of having to make sure he beat his main danger, Catch A Wave, but still keeping enough to fend off the "swoopers" late. He couldn't quite do it. Catch A Wave was the disappointment of the race, tiring late to finish 21.5m from the winner in eighth spot.

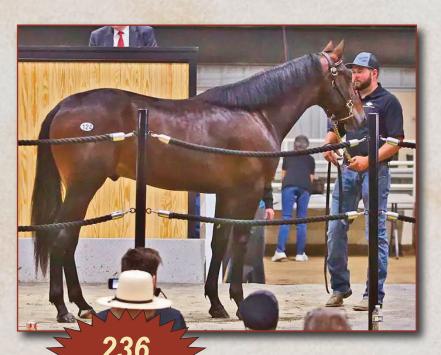

"He was a bit disappointing and just didn't feel his usual self tonight," driver Kate Gath said. "For some reason he didn't handle the retention barn [where all runners go for two days before the race] anywhere near as well as he had his two previous times, but I don't want to sound like I'm making excuses."

The most intriguing runner was one-time TAB Eureka favorite and pin-up pacer, Captain Ravishing, who went into last night's race having not started for six months.

It was an almost unthinkable preparation and owner Hass Taiba revealed he had battled "some really challenging soundness issues." He paced a mighty race for third.

"All credit to my brother, Ahmed," Hass said. "If you knew the struggles he's had with this horse, you'd be amazed he even raced, let alone [finished] third. We're so proud of Ahmed and the horse."

The race certainly delivered its part and the fantastic build-up saw a capacity crowd of what some estimated at 10,000 fill the Menangle track.

It was a gala night with drone light displays, celebrity influencers and well-known rock band Birds Of Tokyo performing a song before the TAB Eureka and a lengthy concert afterwards.

On the eve of the race, Brett Pelling was quoted in HRU as saying: "I mean, this Eureka thing was basically created to stop the world, that's why they're doing it. They've done their job."

Yes, "they" have.

It was a night to treasure for Down Under harness racing and the birth of a race (and an event) the industry can truly hang its hat on.

Crepe Match upsets in Finnish Derby

by Thomas Hedlund

Harri Koivunen-trained Crepe Match (Creatine) had a tough task to solve with a kilometer to go when the $250,000 Finnish Derby was held at Vermo racetrack on Saturday (Sept. 2) afternoon.

Crepe Match, who was defeated after racing in the lead in the elimination, had to attack from a position far back in the final as favorite Callela Nelson controlled the field in front. Callela Nelson was beaten at the top of the stretch and second over trotter Corazon Combo had advantage of the race for a short while.

Crepe Match and driver Olli Koivunen followed third, three wide at the back stretch. In the last turn, Koivunen had to make another move, far outside, trying to catch up to the front horses.

Crepe Match's home stretch was splendid and the 4-year-old Creatine son won easily in a mile rate of 1:58.2 over 1.6 miles.

Pekka Korpi's Corazon Combo, who dominated the Finnish races as a 3-year-old, was second after a second over trip and the bronze medal went to Massimo Hoist.

1:53.4 OVER 1.6 MILES FOR IDAO DE TILLARD

Thierry Duvaldestin's top trotter Idao de Tillard (Severino) continues to perform at a very high level racing in Paris. In the $125,000 Prix Jockey race for 5-year-olds, he showed abilities that will make him being one of the favorites ahead of the 2024 Prix d'Amérique.

It's A Dollarmaker led the race and Idao de Tillard had many lengths to make up as the field turned for home. It looked an impossible task, but Idao de Tillard is a very special trotter, with great speed. Between horses he finished rapidly in the stretch and won safely in an incredible mile rate of 1:53.4 over 1.6 miles.

Replay here.

An unfavorable last half-mile, three- and four-wide didn't stop Jean-Michel Bazire's 4-year-old Joshua Tree (Bold Eagle) in the $125,000 Prix Gaston Brunet. A fifth-over trip ended with paths far outside and when Joshua Tree attacked for real, at the top of the stretch, leader J'Aime Le Foot couldn't defend himself. Joshua Tree won in a mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Bazire also trains the winner of the $140,000 Criterium des Pouliches for 3-year-old fillies. Nicolas Bazire steered the upsetter Kabaka de Guez (Eridan) to victory after a second-over trip and the 3-year-old came home in a mile rate of 1:59 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Koctel du Dain (Boccador de Simm) has been one of the most dominant trotters in the French 3-year-old crop and in Saturday's $125,000 Prix Jacques de Vauloge he set a new stakes record in a mile rate of 1:58.1 over 1.6 miles as he won easily from the lead. Philippe Allaire trains and David Thomain was the driver. Replay here.

Just Love You (Love You) and Alexandre Abrivard won the $125,000 Prix Gaston de Wazieres for 4-year-old mares. Abrivard hit the lead midway into the race and Just Love You held strong, finishing opponents behind her in the finish. It was a stakes record of 1:55.4 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Old friends and French Wine

by Alan Leavitt

I heard from two old friends after my last piece, Joel Kravet and Dino Romano. I salute them both, and I thank Kravet for his usual smart question, i.e. why aren't the full brothers to good sires also successful?

The answer to Kravet's question is that every stallion exists as a complete entity in his own right, with no regard for any similarities to any other horse, including his full siblings.

Although two horses may descend from the same two parents, their genetic make-ups, or genotypes, are totally different. Every mammal's make-ups, including yours and mine, are created at the moment of conception, and each is totally different from all the others.

For us, as breeders, the trick is to figure out which stallions to breed to before they create a record of sire performance. This is especially so when deciding which studs are good bets to breed to in their second, third and fourth years.

Forget about a stallion's pedigree when doing your matings. It's irrelevant. All that counts in this regard is racetrack performances. For me, it's the 2-year-old year at the track that holds the clue to the future success as a sire. As I'm tired of saying, and you're tired of hearing, I'm supported in my 2-year-old belief by the greatest thoroughbred breeder of all time, Frederico Tesio.

There are a few old wives' tales, including one foisted upon us by our parent organization, that need dispelling:

- 1. There is no such thing as a sire of sires. That's my conclusion after watching the sport closely for a few more than a few years. That's not to say that there aren't all kinds of accurate stallion ratings by progeny, age, and sex, and they're valuable. But I've never known any horse to sire so many successful sires that you could call him a sire of sires. And that's because there just aren't that many good sires at any one time in either gait.
- 2. The other misconception is called the Golden Cross. As John Gaines more on him in a minute pointed out, what our sport calls a Golden Cross has no scientific validity because it's too narrow. To be truly meaningful, a study to find a true Golden Cross would have to examine the results of crossing a particular stallion to the daughter of every stallion in the breed.

Perhaps someday the USTA will do such a vast study, but until they do, there's no such thing as a true Golden Cross.

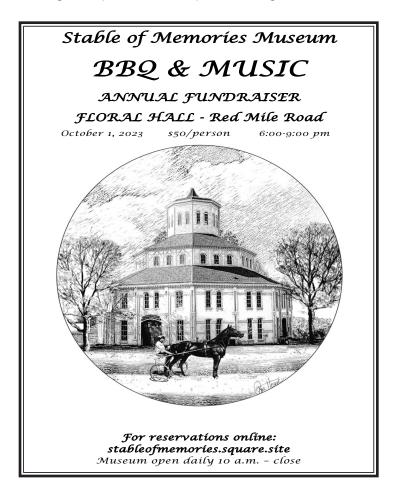

Parenthetically, if there ever is such a scientifically valid study, my bet would be on the crosses that featured some degree of close breeding, i.e. either inbreeding or at least line breeding.

However, in the real world, there is the commercial aspect of our business, which explains why the big dogs among us will be standing what they regard as the best sons of Walner. From the business side of things, that's a wise thing to do. For the rest of us, Oh, to be a big dog.

Now, down to cases, in this case Julie and Andy Miller's French Wine, who just whupped Hambletonian winner Tactical Approach in 1:50 at the Red Mile.

French Wine is by Bar Hopping, by Muscle Hill, and out of Creamy Mimi, by Conway Hall, her second dam Cream Puff, by Pine Chip. You find no crosses in his pedigree closer that 4 by 4 to Valley Victory and another 4 by 4 to American Winner.

That makes French Wine line-bred to those two horses, although it's by the narrowest possible margin.

Gaines, who was one of the smartest men ever to breed a horse, felt that a horse's blood was so diluted from the time it made it through three descending generations as to be a non-factor.

Since a double hit of it is back there, as in French Wine's pedigree, I'm inclined to think it could have an effect.

For those who don't know, Gaines followed his father into the standardbred breeding business with the great filly Kerry Way, which he not only bred but raced to win the 1966 Hambletonian. John then switched to thoroughbreds.

John built Gainesway Farm into one of the leading thoroughbred farms with a great list of stallions, but he did something even more important for their business.

Using the nomination payment plan we've had since at least the early 1920s, John created the thoroughbred Breeder's Cup, which became an instant classic. It was the guide for our instant classic, the Breeders Crown.

Back to French Wine, his open pedigree means a smart breeder can double up on several of his ancestors. One that springs to mind is daughters of Muscle Hill sons.

That sounds more complicated than it is. In essence, the point is to inbreed to something like a 3 by 3 cross, or even 2 by 3. You want to have good individuals who are close to flawless in every respect when you breed close like this, because every quality, good and bad, is enhanced by inbreeding.

Inbreeding is not for the timid, and it's also not for a market breeder, at least not with any yearling he's planning to sell. But it can generate enough sparks to start a full fire when it works. To plagiarize from Serge Godin's former stable name, Synergy is what inbreeding is all about.

And if you want a definition of synergy, try 2 plus 2 equals 8.

My Little Brown Jug memories, Part 1

by Murray Brown

When the first of my three-part article on the Hambletonians I have attended appeared (part 2 here, part 3 here), Jack Darling suggested I do a comparable column on the Little Brown Jugs I have seen. Although I didn't actually get to Delaware, OH until 1962, the 3-year-old class I first became involved with was that of 1960. So that is where I will begin. I'll split these segments as I grow weary of researching them or of taxing my inexact memory to come up with the details.

1960 – Bullet Hanover – I wasn't at Delaware, but I was at Yonkers and Roosevelt to see the first two legs of the Triple Crown; the Cane Pace and The Messenger, where those races represented our three premier races for 3-year-old pacers. Although Bullet Hanover was probably the best in the Jug that year, he was not the best 3-year-old pacer. That honor belonged to the free legged filly Countess Adios who crushed the boys in the Cane and the Messenger. There is no doubt in my mind that she would have done the same in the Jug if she had been eligible.

It was quite a good group of pacers in the Jug. In addition to Bullet Hanover, the race included the first heat winner little Muncy Hanover, Dancer Hanover, Merrie Gesture and Bright Knight. Bullet Hanover made a break leaving in the first heat. His canny pilot and trainer John Simpson could probably have been fifth, sixth or seventh, instead he counted those in front of him to assure himself of the 9-hole behind the rail horse getting himself as good a position as possible without extending Bullet. The race worked to his specifications, although in the final heat it appeared as though Dancer Hanover might have gotten up for the win if not for an unfortunate break about a hundred yards from the wire.

1961 — Henry T. Adios — If ever there was a perfect half-mile track horse Henry T. Adios was probably the one. He could leave like a bullet and then be immediately restrained. The Jug was perfect for a horse like him. This edition of the Jug attracted 19 entrants, the most in the history of the race. The first heat was won by Ohio home town favorite Lang Hanover for Samuel Huttenbauer, driven and trained by Jim Hackett. The second heat was won by the filly Way Wave gamely over Henry T. Adios. The filly was driven by Ralph Baldwin for her owner breeder Castleton Farms. The third heat brought together the two heat winners in addition to six other entrants from the first two heats. It was won by Henry T. Adios in his style, leaving and then reclaiming at the half en route to the win. The fourth heat brought out the three heat winners. As expected, Stanley Dancer driving Henry T. Adios left and controlled the pace. Baldwin and Way Wave came at them to no avail at the 5/8ths, with Lang Hanover in the deuce. HTA drew away in the stretch with Way Wave making a tired break and Lang Hanover getting up for the place. It's somewhat ironic that of all the great world champion sons of Adios, not Bret Hanover, not Adios Butler, not Adios Harry, not Bullet Hanover, but little Henry T. Adios was destined to make the greatest influence on the breed through his son Silent Majority, thence to Abercrombie and to Artsplace and considering all of Artsplace's great sons and daughters. It seems that much like the great sires Adios, Tar Heel and Albatross, Artsplace has yet to produce a great siring son to carry on the male line. But his daughters are without peer in the breeding arena.

1962 — Lehigh Hanover — This race represented my first trip to Delaware, OH. I was 21 years old and not only didn't I have a car, but I also didn't have a driver's license. Moreover, I had no idea how to drive a car. I desperately wanted to go to this place called Delaware, OH, to see America's greatest harness race, the Little Brown Jug. I somehow managed to persuade my friend Eddie Schneerer to make the trip with me. Schneerer not only could drive, but he also had a car. We set out to Ohio. Schneerer of course was to do the driving. It was my job as his navigator to tell him where to go. We drove the first 600 miles from Montreal to Cleveland before pulling over in a rest stop to get some sleep. Get a hotel room? No chance! We had to preserve our betting capital. We arrived at the Delaware County Fairgrounds at daybreak the Wednesday before the big race was to take place. The first thing I recall from that morning was a big crowd gathered in front of the stall of the hometown favorite Ohio-owned Coffee Break. The diminutive colt had both of his front legs immersed in boots filled with ice. I was later to find that the purpose of those ice boots was to treat the two bowed tendons on Coffee Break's front legs. We spent the rest of the day walking the fairgrounds, betting and eating all the junk food available at the fair. I don't remember how well we did at the windows, but we must have done okay since we splurged for a hotel room that night. The next day was Jug Day. Lehigh Hanover won his first heat in overpowering fashion over heavily favored Coffee Break. The next heat was won by Gamecock who I recall having made a bet on. For the final, Lehigh was much the best, winning going away by a length and a half. My money was on Gamecock being catch driven by Joe O'Brien for John Simpson who was driving Thor Hanover. Gamecock made a bad break at the start. The race had some very good colts in addition to Lehigh, Coffee Break and Gamecock, there were Buxton Hanover, Messenger winner Thor Hanover and Meadow Newport (who was to be renamed Adios Mir per the custom of the time).

I found a new hero in the undercard that day. The stakes race for 2-year-old pacing colts, The Standardbred, was won by a colt by Solicitor named Overtrick in jaw dropping fashion. I vowed to return to Delaware the next year to see my new hero win the Little Brown Jug.

1963 — Overtrick — There was never any doubt in my mind that Overtrick was going to win the Jug. The only doubt was how I was going to get there to see him do it. At the time I was what I would call a rolling stone. I was enrolled in college, but most of my time was spent at Blue Bonnets, Richelieu Park or playing hearts in the common room at Sir George Williams University. In my spare time I did some pedigree work for individuals and sales companies. There was a yearling sale being held at Delaware the night before the Jug. There was a Dale Frost yearling being offered who>s pedigree interested me. I managed to get an owner in Montreal interested in the colt. I offered him a proposition. I>d go to Delaware and look at the yearling, or in reality I>d get someone who knew what he was looking at to look at him for me. In return the owner would pay my expenses to and from Delaware.

When I got there, I asked John Patterson to look at the colt for me. He did and turned him down. Even I, with my then uneducated eye, could see that the colt was small, far too small. I believe he sold for $1,600 and nothing of consequence became of him. But I made it to Delaware and I saw my new hero Overtrick driven by my now friend John Patterson as a convincing winner of the Little Brown Jug. Country Don finished a rail hugging second with Meadow Skipper after making an exciting three deep sweep finishing third.

1964 – Vicar Hanover – This was the first Jug where I drove to Delaware for the race. I had just got my first car before I even got my driver's license or, for that matter, before I even knew how to drive. I was working for the Miron Brothers, then the largest and most prominent racing stable in Canada. Mr. Adrien Miron, the stable's patriarch said that it was crazy that the "garcon" had to take a bus the 25 miles or so from Montreal to the Farm and training center in St. Augustin, a tiny dot on the map between Montreal and Lachute. Miron called his friend Paul Sanguinet also a horse owner - of Sanguinet Motors. He told him to get a nice car for me. There was a silver 1965 Pontiac Super Sport waiting for me the next morning. There was a problem though; I didn't know how to drive. I took two spins on the training track and pronounced myself fit to drive. This was in early September of 1964. A few days later, Miron decided that he wanted to own a horse in the little Brown Jug. He told me to find him one. I got on the phone calling owners. I called Jack Baugh in Charlotte, NC, a few days before the Jug. Yes, he would sell Red Carpet to the Mirons. He gave me a price. Miron said he would wire the money that day. Marcel Dostie was the contract trainer/driver for the stable. He wanted to get his best groom to Delaware to take care of Red Carpet for the race. I was to drive the groom, a young man named Gilles Gendron (yes, the same Gilles Gendron recently installed in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame) to Delaware. At the time, Gendron did not speak a word of English and I did not speak much French. I doubt that I had my driver's license much more than a week; how I got it is another story. We were off to Ohio. We managed to get there despite the two speeding tickets received by this neophyte driver. It was a cold dreary day in Delaware. The group of horses were far from the best to compete in the classic race. Combat Time driven by Bruce Nickells won the first heat. Billy Haughton's Vicar Hanover won the second and the final. The only other thing of consequence was that it was the only Juq I've seen where an objection was filed. Red Carpet was pushed three deep by a horse driven by Vernon Dancer where he was hung out to dry. Dostie filed an objection, but presiding judge Bob Steele wouldn't hear anything of it.

1965 – Bret Hanover – This was the Jug that almost never happened. It had poured the day and night before, not letting up until the morning of Jug Day. The track was a quagmire. At about 10a.m. Jug president Hank Thomson and track superintendent Wayne "Curly" Smart huddled to see if they were going to race.

'What do you think Curly?' Thomson said. 'I think we can make it happen,' Smart said incredulously.

Then Curly and his crew went to work. They made the impossible, possible. Despite starting an hour late, they raced and they had a good racetrack. There were only seven starters, the shortest in Jug history. It was likely the presence of the superstar Bret Hanover that chased them all away. The group although small was nevertheless loaded with quality. None of them were as good as Bret Hanover but they were very good nonetheless. They included Bret's rare nemesis Adios Vic (who couldn't handle the turns on a half very well), Rivaltime, Gee Lee Hanover and home town entry Tuxedo Hanover trained and driven by Curly Smart. As expected, Bret Hanover was a comfortable winner over the popular Tuxedo Hanover in the world record time of 1:57h. The track that was considered impossible to race on just a few hours previous yielded a world record performance thanks to two guys named Bret and Smart.

1966 – Romeo Hanover – The Jerry Silverman-trained and George Sholty-driven chestnut son of Dancer Hanover came to Delaware riding a 13-race win streak. His was a truly rags to riches story. Three Brooklyn families pooled their money and came up with $10,000 to buy a yearling at the Harrisburg sale. They bought one for $3,500 and had $6,500 left. Their remaining choice was Romeo Hanover. But he was to bring $8,500. They decided to roll the dice and go for the $8,500 even though they would have to beat the check to the bank to cover the extra $2,000. Their trainer was Bronx native 29-year-old Jerry Silverman. Romeo might have been the first yearling he ever trained. The colt took his first lessons at the unsuccessful Arizona harness track outside of Phoenix. Romeo was to become the 2-year-old pacer of 1965 under the tutelage of Silverman and driver Billy Myer, winning 13 of 16 starts. The colt caught the eye of Morty Finder, who purchased a 25 per cent interest in him for $7,500. The field on Jug Day was an unwieldly 12 for Delaware's half mile track.

In both heats Romeo assumed command before the quarter and cruised home thereafter. It was a relatively average field that he defeated. Good Time Boy finished second in both heats. The filly Bonjour Hanover which was expected to be his greatest competition finished third. There was a colt that barely got a call in the race named Overcall who's light was to shine brightly three years from then going through an undefeated season where he was 22-for-22.

Note: In my column last week I prefaced the article by saying I would add the names of any others I knew who had attended all the Hambletonians at The Meadowlands in addition to John Campbell, Bob Boni and myself. I now have three more: Steve Jones and two elders, Frank "The Elder" Antonacci and Mike "The Elder" Kimelman. The over under of 10 is currently still under.

A tiny tweak for yon fair maidens

by Trey Nosrac

It's a little thing, but I want to toss it out before the best-laid plans of mice and men get laid out for next year's fair racing season. You may agree, you may disagree or you may have a tweak of your own.

Let me paint a scene from last week. Deep into the harness racing season, after plenty of winnowing of trotting and pacing horses, 18 2-year-old colt trotters dropped into the box racing at Podunk Fair racing, all ready to trot (hopefully).

Since the Podunk Fair track is not very wide, the races split into three divisions of six, with the purse money divided into thirds. Each division had at least one monster horse, including some sires stakes trotters, and each race had a pair of trotters that were struggling mightily.

Nothing wrong with this scenario. Every trotter that dropped into the box and paid is eligible and entitled to race. Should the connections of one of the top trotters in the state decide to race at Podunk Fair for a $4,000 purse, that is entirely legit, and the fans will get to watch these beautiful, fast trotters win by 47 lengths, perhaps even lapping a few struggling trotters.

A tiny tweak could change this picture, which may or may not be permitted; I am not an expert on harness racing commission by-laws or anything else. My suggestion is a concept that would help the slow trotters without unduly fiscally harming the excellent trotters. This modification would undoubtedly make an improved product at a fair level.

Broadly, the idea is that, under certain circumstances, handicap the trotters that have entered to create competitive fields at the fair racing level. I'm not exactly sure how to accomplish this fairness, but with some seeding, a division with the proven stars would be a fun, competitive race.

The example above happened at a race in early August. Each fair racing field has six trotters with a couple of sharks and minnows. The three divisional races contained entrants that had won serious money and recorded wonderfully fast times. The three divisional races had at least two trotters with goose eggs across their results in the program.

With the ability and some mechanism to do a little seeding, a seeded division with proven pedestrian hopefuls would be a fun race with a happy winner. Sure, the third-place finisher of the uber-fast division would forfeit a few bucks. For most harness racing participants, certainly not all, this reformed race would be well worth allowing a group of 2:18 trotters a competitive race, a nice check, and a moment in the sun.

Some caveats make this fair seeding concept a rarity.

If only enough horses drop into the box for a single division, seeding the fields becomes a moot point. Early in the fair season, ability levels are unknown, so this concept comes into play only late into the racing season when the draw has multiple divisions.

The big questions are: Who, how, and when can we separate into competitive fields? Time? Money? One idea, maybe the simplest, would be to seed backward, create the weakest group first, begin with any horse who has not earned a dime in a minimum of four starts, then include the horses that never finished in the top three, and then include non-winners until you create a "weak" field.

Very simply, design a mechanism with the ability for fairs to congregate sharks and minnows in certain circumstances. Give fish, big and small, something to think about. Keep some struggling horses in the game.

Fair racing is about fun. When poor performers see the draw and realize winning is hopeless, and a fifth-place check will take some racing luck, this makes a ship of your horse to the fairgrounds very long. Finding a re-engineered division where you have a chance would seem to fit into the spirit of county fair racing.

Good idea? Bad idea? Slippery slope? Too much blowback? Too much human judgment? Is this concept worth bothering with? This idea poses many questions for a somewhat unusual situation.

Who cares about very marginal young racehorses getting a small taste of success?

The answer is some friendly folks who are hanging on by their fingernails. Everybody should care because everyone in this sport is needed.

Geocentric stays perfect at PASS championships

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Geocentric won the battle of the unbeatens in Saturday's (Sept. 2) $252,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship for 2-year-old female pacers, improving to 6-for-6 this season by posting a neck victory over My Girl EJ in 1:50.4 at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania. Lyons Legend, who entered the race perfect in six starts, finished third.

The remaining winners in the $252,000 PASS 2-year-old championships at Pocono were male trotter T C I, male pacer Captain Albano, and female trotter Sierra Girl. The PASS finals for 3-year-olds will be contested today at Harrah's Philadelphia.

In the race for rookie filly pacers, Lyons Legend took an early lead off the gate, but Geocentric, the 1-5 favorite, and driver Tim Tetrick pushed forward on the first turn to take the top spot in a :27 opening quarter.

From there, Geocentric set fractions of :54.4 to the half and 1:22.4 to three-quarters. Lyons Legend looked to make a move in the passing lane in the stretch but was unable to gain ground while 17-1 outsider My Girl EJ applied pressure to the leader on the outside, but Geocentric was resolute.

"It was a pretty tough race; there was three really good horses," winning trainer Brian Brown said. "Timmy thought maybe he got to the half a little bit quick. She was all out at the end, but Geocentric paid $2.60 to win.

Tattoo Artist (Louis-Philippe Roy) won the Canadian Pacing Derby in 1:47.4 on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Tattoo Artist powers up for Canadian Pacing Derby victory

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Tattoo Artist flipped the script to win Saturday night's (Sept. 2) $615,000 Canadian Pacing Derby at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A runner-up last year to Bulldog Hanover, Tattoo Artist finally got his moment in the Pacing Derby spotlight with a thrilling 1:47.4 victory over heavy-favorite Bythemissal. The opening stages saw the expected trio of Allywag Hanover, Linedrive Hanover and Bythemissal all show speed. Linedrive Hanover reached the first-quarter in :26.4, while Allywag Hanover sat outside set to clear as they entered the backstretch. Bythemissal moved out from third entering the backstretch to go after the lead, getting stretched by 'Allywag' to a :53.3 half.

With the early shuffle happening up front, Artist and driver Louis-Philippe Roy sat back in seventh until angling out at the half.

Halfway around the final turn, Linedrive Hanover pulled out from third to push towards the leader, which provided would cover up an advancing Tattoo Artist. Bythemissal reached the three-quarter pole in 1:21.

In the stretch, Bythemissal was able to turn away Linedrive Hanover and had Allywag Hanover blocked behind with no racing room. However, Tattoo Artist was unleashed and charged up after the heavy-favorite, overtaking in deep stretch to win by a neck. I knew that there was going to be a lot of action, said Roy. I knew that if I wanted to race him close, I would have to use him more. I didn't see how I could get a good trip leaving hard, but then I'll be honest with you at the half... I knew I wasn't going to get good cover from there.

"I was hoping leaving the gate maybe [Bythemissal] will have to come a little bit later and I'll catch his cover but then I saw him move pretty early on at the turn and my only hope then was that the horse would have to be so good, and I'm just happy I'm here." Allywag Hanover finished third, while Lous Pearlman was fourth. Linedrive Hanover was fifth.

Doubling up from an explosive victory in his eliminations, Tattoo Artist is now four-for-16 this season and picks up his 34th career victory and largest payday to date. The 6-year-old son of He's Watching—Stylish Artist now has over $2.8 million earned for owners Let It Ride Stables, Frank Cannon, Diamond Creek Racing and Bottom Line Racing.

The 'Pacing Derby' victory came in Tattoo Artist's third crack at the prestigious race. He had previously finished second in 2022 and sixth in 2021. The victory is the first for driver Roy in the event and second for trainer Dr. Moore (State Treasurer, 2015).

"Well, this is the second time around for us and it's just as exciting this time as it was the first time with State Treasurer," said Dr. Moore. "Any horse in that race could've stepped up and won it and I'm just glad it was us. I was kind of concerned leaving that we didn't get away that well and then he came first up I was getting even more concerned, but he caught the late cover... I think that really helped and I knew we were close enough at the head of the stretch that he was going to get around and get it done."

Roy extended his praise for the ability and heart of Tattoo Artist."I just love him. Once you sit behind him, you love him. He's a great animal, he wants to do it, he's just waiting on you to ask him to."A $2 win ticket on Tattoo Artist returned $15.30.

Alrajah One IT returns in record form in Maple Leaf Trot

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Last year's Maple Leaf Trot was far from memorable for Alrajah One IT. On Saturday night (Sept. 2) under the lights and in the spotlight at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the trotting titan was back and better than ever.

A year ago, the Italian-bred powerhouse was scratched out of the race in which he was tabbed as the morning-line favorite due to injury.

With no starts in 2023, the 7-year-old stallion was making his seasonal debut in the $530,000 Maple Leaf Trot final, nearly 13 months after his last race, a two-length win in the John Cashman Memorial on Aug. 6, 2022.

If there was any question as to whether he would have any ring rust, Alrajah One IT, making his first start in Canada, answered the bell with a knockout performance in a star-stacked edition of the race.

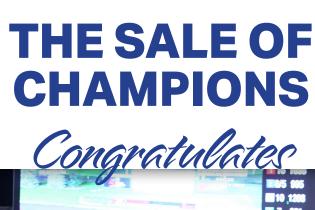

It's Academic, second choice on the tote board, took control early, striking front from post 6 and leading his seven rivals into the first turn, as Dexter Dunn, in rein to Alrajah One IT, settled his charge into fifth.

Cutting an opening quarter in :27, It's Academic was followed by Fashion Frenzie, Logan Park, Venerate and Alrajah One IT. It was status quo through a half reached in :55.1, as Dunn maintained a patient hand on the 4-5 favorite.

It's Academic was still in charge as he navigated the turn for home but Venerate was in hot pursuit and dialed up the pressure on the leader through three-quarters in 1:23. Dunn had Alrajah One IT rolling before straightening for home and began to cut into the lead of It's Academic.

Mid-way down the lane, Alrajah One IT powered by his rival and then crossed the wire a 1 ½-length winner, stopping the clock in 1:50.2, and setting off a trifecta of records, specifically, the stakes, track and Canadian standards. It's Academic held second, Rattle My Cage was third and Fashion Frenzie, who finished fifth, was elevated to fourth after Venerate broke stride late.

"He's some kind of horse, isn't he?" said Dunn. "I fell in love with him last year. I got to sit behind him, and he did amazing things. A little bit like last year, he doesn't really give you a feel on the helmet and when you move him off the helmet, he just takes off. He shows unbelievable speed for a trotter. I was really happy with where I got away."

Alrajah One had qualified twice this summer with trainer Ake Svanstedt in the race bike. On July 22 at The Meadowlands, he was timed in 1:52.2, finishing second. On Aug. 9, this time at Pocono, he was a 21 ½-length victor in the same clocking.

The son of Maharajah—Mariu (by Varenne), who began his breeding career earlier in the year, went three-for-three in 2022, taking the Crawford Farms Trot at The Meadowlands, the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot at Plainridge Park, and the aforementioned John Cashman Memorial at The Meadowlands.

"I've been so lucky I've sat behind some great, great trotters," said Dunn. "When he came over, I didn't know too much about him. Ake was happy with him, and he's done unbelievable things."

Owned by Scuderia My Horse Inc. and bred by Luca Crosetti, Alrajah One IT is now 17-4-6 from 44 lifetime starts and has over $1.7 million in career earnings.

Erin, Sadbirdstillsing score in NYSS action at Batavia

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

The New York Sire Stakes 2-year-old trotting fillies took center stage in split sets at Batavia Downs on Friday night (Sept. 1) for a total of $103,000 in what was the final visit for the top state-bred series for the year.

The first $51,500 division was won by Erin (E L Titan—Blurred) in a romp.

In a field that was scratch-shortened to only four horses, Jim Morrill Jr. pointed Erin down the road and dominated from start to finish. After quarters of :30.1, 1:00 and 1:29, Erin had opened up a nine-length lead heading into the last turn. At the top of the stretch, Morrill sat chilly as Erin was wrapped up and cruising unabated to the line to win in 2:00.3.

It was the first NYSS and lifetime win for Erin ($2.90) who is owned by Ann-Mari Daley, Donald Brenner and Jared Daley. Dan Daley was the winning trainer of Erin, who was bred by Glengate Farms.

The second $51,500 division saw quite an upset as Sadbirdstillsing (Chapter Seven—Fade Into You) caught the previously undefeated Sister Mary Maude at the line to notch her second consecutive NYSS victory.

Jeannie's Action (Dave McNeight III) took the early lead before Sadbirdstillsing (Tyler Buter) overtook her at the :30 flat quarter. As they spiraled out of turn two, Sister Mary Maude (Jordan Stratton) pulled first over from third and brought Seven Year Positions remained the same until the top of the stretch where Sadbirdstillsing found the passing lane and overtook Sister Mary Maude in deep stretch to win by $1-\frac{1}{4}$ lengths in 1.59.3.

Sadbirdstillsing ($9.40) is owned by Crawford Farms Racing and Pryde Stables and is trained by Tony Alagna. Crawford Farms was the winning breeder.

There were also two $20,000 NYSS Excelsior races on the card. The first was won by Barn CJ (Crazy Wow—Fractured Dream) in 1:59.1 and the second went to Barn Dreamer (Devious Man—HB All Our Dreams) in 2:01.1. Stockade Seelster records new career best in OSS Gold win by Kara Martin for Ontario racing communications

Stockade Seelster won the fifth race tonight at Woodbine Mohawk Park, a $158,100 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold division for 3-year-old pacing colts & geldings.

Jody Jamieson kept Stockade Seelster (State Treasurer) off the pace set by leader Moment Is Here (All Bets Off) and driver James MacDonald, through fractions :26.1, :53.2, and 1:21.

In the backstretch, Stockade Seelster overtook Moment Is Here, and Macs Delight (Bettor's Delight) driven by Jonathan Drury, challenged Moment Is Here in the battle for second.

Stockade Seelster crossed the wire first in a time of 1:48.4 to set a new career best.

"He always does nothing but impress," said Jamieson. "I just kind of took my time getting there."

Stockade Seelster is a 14-time winner and has made $1,334,391 over the course of his career for owners Sally MacDonald and Paul MacDonald.

He has also collected $215,721 in OSS earnings this year.

The State Treasurer colt is trained by Dr. Ian Moore and paid $3.10 for the win.

"He just digs back in and goes, he's an awesome horse," said Jamieson.

Runner-up Macs Delight is trained by Shawn Steacy, and his second-place finish doubled his OSS earnings this year to $57,613 for owner John Cancelliere.

The third-place finisher was favorite Moment Is Here trained by Robert McIntosh.

He has collected over $100,000 in OSS earnings this year for co-owners Robert McIntosh Stables Inc, Al McIntosh Holdings Inc, Frank Baldachino, and Mardon Stables.

In race 3, Mist Amber (Betterthancheddar) won the first of two $101,300 Gold divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Sylvain Filion and Mist Amber sat off the pace set by One Last Wish (Bettor's Delight) and eventually found room to fly home and win as they were four across at the line in a time of 1:50.3.

For her first OSS win, Mist Amber collected $50,650 in earnings for owner John Pentland.

Her Gold win paid $34.80.

Lady Get Lucky (He's Watching) driven by Trevor Henry finished in second while favorite One Last Wish piloted by Paul MacDonell rounded out the podium.

The second division of the night for 3-year-old pacing fillies was race 8 on the card, and Savethelastdance (Bettor's Delight) driven by James MacDonald came away with the win crossing the wire at 1:51.3.

The Bettor's Delight filly has made $232,534 over the course of her career for owner Millar Farms.

Ima Doll (Control The Moment) and driver Tyler Borth came in second and Talk Curdy To Me (Betterthancheddar) driven by Louis-Philippe Roy finished in third.

Savethelastdance's upset win paid $50.00.

Sons of Tellitlikeitis sweep Indiana Sire Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sire Stakes action continued at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Friday (Sept. 1) as the 2-year-old pacing colts stepped into the spotlight. Two $67,000 divisions of leg four highlighted the 14-race card, each won impressively with front end victories by sons of Tellitlikeitis in M-M's Bud and Martz Telly.

Drawing the far outside post 7 was no issue for M-M's Bud who dazzled with a front-stepping lifetime best performance to take the first division. Driver Jay Cross hustled M-M's Bud off the gate, quickly crossing over the rail in the early stages to lay down a :27.2 opening-quarter as JD's King James and Jordan Ross settled into the pocket. M-M's Bud remained unchallenged up the backstretch as he maintained his lead to the halfway point in :55.4. The outer flow developed as driver Ronnie Wrenn Jr. gave the race-favorite, Noblesville, his marching orders from fourth, overcoming a few bobbles on the turn to continue his push first over as M-M's Bud led to three-quarters in 1:24.3.

The rookie pacers turned for home with M-M's Bud leading the sprint to the wire with JD's King James and Noblesville in hot pursuit to his outside. Prestigious Prince and LeWayne Miller would split rivals in the lane to provide M-M's Bud one final test, with M-M's Bud prevailing behind the strength of a :26.2 final quarter to secure the victory by three-quarters of a length in 1:51. JD's King James held for third to round out the trifecta, M-M's Bud paid $9.20 for the victory.

Trained by Alvin Miller, who co-owns the gelding along with Ted Comerford and Marvin Schwartz, M-M's Bud picked up his fourth victory in eight career tries. Bred by Mervin Miller, the 1:51 clocking took a full second off of M-M's Bud lifetime best and pushed the career bankroll for the Tellitlikeitis—Climate Hanover gelding to $85,696.

Martz Telly deployed similar front stepping tactics to score his fourth consecutive victory in the second sire stakes division on the card. Wrenn Jr. put Martz Telly into play immediately from post 5, finding themselves to the outside of Rolling Image and Michael Oosting to the first quarter in :28.0. Martz Telly crossed over to the lead up the backstretch where he had things his way on the engine to the half in :56.1. Play Action Pass and Trace Tetrick were the first to move from third as the field entered the final turn, where Martz Telly continued to lead to three-quarters in 1:24.4.

Martz Telly remained strong on the front in the stretch, digging in gamely in the lane to rebuff any challengers. Martz Telly sprinted home in :26.3 to score a convincing victory by just over a length in a lifetime best 1:51.3. Rolling Image got up for the second spot, 2023 Fox Stake Champion, Tellmeitmatters and John De Long rallied for third. Martz Telly returned $4.00 at the windows as the bettor's choice.

The victory was the fifth in six career starts for the Ron Burke trainee. Owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Knox Services Inc, Frank Baldachino and Weaver Bruscemi LLC, Martz Telly's bankroll surged into six-figures now with $122,618 in earnings. Bred by Martz Creek Farm, Martz Telly is a gelded son of Tellitlikeitis out of the Allamerican Native mare, A And Gs Finest.

Frosh fillies frolic at Windsor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

The freshmen filly pacers kicked off a long, four-day holiday weekend at historic Windsor Fair on Friday (Sept. 1) with two $14,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes.

Both winners extended their respective winning streaks to three, as the pair of paces went before the regular card in front of a lively crowd on a perfect day for Pine Tree State harness racing.

The swiftest of the $14,487 splits went to Gowestyounggrace, who used a three-eighths pole move to wear down the leader and take home her third consecutive stakes victory.

Scoring from post 4, driver Dave Ingraham was content to settle into fourth position heading into the first turn while Nick Graffam pushed Mrs Foxy Roxy to the front from post 5.

Setting a swift :29.2 opening panel, Graffam took a breather going to the half in 1:00.2 (:31) giving Ingraham the opportunity to move his filly first over as the field passed the stands for the first time.

Graffam picked up the pace to try and fend off the challenger but the sassy daughter of Western Maverick kept moving forward and had a three-quarter length lead at the 1:29.2 (:29) third panel.

As the field turned for home Ingraham kept Gowestyounggrace going strong and the pair scooted home to win by 1-3/4 lengths in a lifetime best 1:59.3.

Trained and co-owned by Fred Ward Jr. with Sharon Ward, it was the third lifetime victory for the lightly raced distaff. The Wards also bred the filly.

Mrs Foxy Roxy finished second; Ghost Of You (Kevin Switzer Jr., Marc Tardif) was third.

The other division witnessed Who's Perfect stay perfect in her third consecutive outing, scoring in 2:01.3 for driver Heath Campbell and trainer Valerie Grondin.

It was a wire-to-wire walk in the park for the consistent daughter of Western Maverick, who now has four stakes victories this season, with earnings of $37,626. She was bred in Maine by Lynn-Marie Plouffe, who now co-owns with Dick and Patty McKeen.

Drawing off by three lengths at the wire, it was the :28.4 final quarter that distinguished her from the rest of the fillies. Animore Sass (Andy Harrington, Marc Tardif) finished second; Summertime (Steve Wilson) was third.

All the Maine-bred trotters return on Sunday (Sept. 3) with the sophomore filly pacers closing out the meet on Labor Day Monday (Sept. 4).

Aaron Merriman becomes fourth driver with 15,000 career wins

Aaron Merriman collected career win 15,000 Saturday (Sept. 2) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, joining only three others in North American harness history in the 15,000 Club: Dave Palone, Tony Morgan, Herve Filion. Merriman got the milestone victory with So Rockin Ravi in the ninth race.

Merriman was typically nonplussed by his accomplishment.

"It's unbelievable when you think about it," he said, "but if I reflect on anything, it'll be the next race. There will be a time for reflection but not now. I feel that there's work to be done. But it does make me feel like I'm doing the right thing. That keeps me going."

A native of Greater Akron, Merriman learned the business from his father, trainer/driver Lanny Merriman. His mother, who teaches at both Kent State University and Miami University, recently relocated and now lives near her son again.

"It's great to have her around," he said. "Please include that."

Merriman began driving in 1997, got his first win the following year and now has won more than $109.5 million in purses. A big chunk of his wins occurred in the last dozen or so years, when he's commuted between The Meadows and Ohio tracks. In 2017-18, for example, he put together back-to-back seasons of more than 1,000 wins, and he's been the sport's dash champion for eight consecutive years. Just moments after Saturday's milestone victory, he hustled off to MGM Northfield to drive the evening program there.

That sort of breakneck pace can be injurious to a body's health; to say nothing of one's driving record.

"I have zero points on my license, which is a hard accomplishment for me," he said. "No more rushing for me. If I have to miss a race, I'll just take the fine."

As for the bigger questions, such as how long he intends to keep up this pace, Merriman prefers to focus on day-to-day concerns.

"I don't go with any intention," he said. "My intention right now is to take a break here and there but keep the people I drive for happy. So, it's a mixture of those two."

Newsroom the headliner again at Big M

Newsroom continued his winning ways at The Meadowlands Friday night (Sept. 1), as he stayed perfect in four seasonal starts in one of 11 New Jersey Classic eliminations, an event for 2- and 3-year-old horses of each sex and gait.

All eight NJC finals will take place next weekend.

Newsroom had to bring his "A" game, but thus far, that's all the son of Always B Miki—Well Hello There has brought to each of his dances. In the lone elimination for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the pace, driver Dave Miller predictably had Newsroom on the go from post 10 and tucked into the 3-hole around the first turn.

"It looked like it should work out that way," said Miller. "And it did."

Miller was referring to his moving Newsroom to the point well before the half — which was reached in a leisurely :57 — after taking that early seat. Three-quarters was hit in 1:25.2 and it looked like easy gravy from there.

But it wasn't.

Wish You Well, who sat a 3-hole trip most of the way, angled off the rail at the head of the stretch and was gaining quickly on the eventual winner in deep stretch, only to come up a neck short in a mile that went in 1:51.4.

"I might have had him a little too relaxed off the turn," said Miller. "That horse got to him quick. I started to get after him and he got to chuggin' again."

Newsroom, a Joe Holloway trainee, returned $2.20 to win as the 1-9 public choice.

AND THE OTHER WINNERS WERE: There were three divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Emerging victorious were Sunkist Beauty (Six Pack—Orange Bigi) for trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt in 1:54.1 as the even-money favorite; Chaparmbro (Chapter Seven—Armbro Déjà vu) for driver Brian Sears and trainer Trond Smedshammer in 1:54.1 as the 5-2 second choice; and Buy A Round (Walner—On Your Tab) for Andy McCarthy and Noel Daley in 1:54.3 as the 3-5 public choice.

The winning two 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters were Oh Well (Muscle Hill—Fine Tuned Lady) for Tim Tetrick and Marcus Melander in 1:52.3 as the 3-5 chalk and Air Power (Muscle Hill—Beyond Blue) for Mattias Melander and Marcus Melander in 1:52 as the 2-1 second choice.

The pair of 2-year-old colt and gelding trots went to Mr Grant (Tactical Landing—Flos Conch Shack) for Sears and D.R. Ackerman in 1:55.3 as the 6-1 second choice and Sig Sauer (Muscle Hill—Sigilwig) for Andy McCarthy and Daley in 1:55.4 as the 1-2 favorite.

Odds On Steno (Bettor's Wish—Odds On St Lucie) won the first of two 2-year-old filly paces for Andy McCarthy and Tony Alagna in 1:52.3 as the 7-2 third choice while Pulp Fiction (Bettor's Wish—I'm Trigger Happy) won the second for Todd McCarthy and Michael Hall in 1:53.3 as the 3-5 chalk to stay perfect in four lifetime outings.

Quick Stop (Tactical Landing—Falls For You) won the lone 3-year-old filly trot for Tetrick and Anette Lorentzon in 1:54.3 as the 7-2 third choice.

BIG NIGHT AT THE WINDOWS: All-source wagering fell just short of $3 million as a total of $2,972,343 was put in play on the 13-race card, but when compared to a year ago, the uptick is remarkable.

Betting was up over $1.2 million over the corresponding Friday night in 2022, when the total wager was $1,736,206, meaning that action was up 71 per cent.

A LOT OF LITTLE: It was a big night for Dave Little.

The veteran member of The Big M TV team correctly selected his best bet Sig Sauer ($3.00) and value play Odds On Steno ($9.80). In addition, Little had both Pick-4s. On the first, he had a $3 ticket for a total payout of $372.90, and on the second, his $2 ticket returned $110. His total investment of $72 on the two bets returned a profit of $410.90.

In addition, his ice cold "Little's Late Double" saw a $30 wager cash in for $96.

Fans of Little's broadcast partner Gabe Prewitt did just fine as well. Prewitt also had both Pick-4s, with his big hit coming in the earlier wager, when his $4 ticket (a $40 investment) returned $497.20.

A LITTLE MORE: Andy McCarthy led the driver colony with four winners. Svanstedt, Melander, Daley and Alagna all trained a pair to victory lane.

Caretakers in the spotlight today at Hippodrome 3R

For the sixth consecutive year, Standardbred Canada is urging all racetracks in Canada to put forward prominence to harness racing workers such as caretakers for one day. To dedicate to them a day during which their merits are recognized and magnified.

At the Hippodrome 3R, this day will take place today (Sept. 3) with first race post time at noon.

For the occasion, François Carignan, the director of operations at H3R joins the leaders of ATAQ (Association Trot & Pace of Quebec) to make this day a success.

Harness Racing Update

As in many fields, many sports, there are the athletes we see, the athletes whose prowess is praised, the heroes who amaze the gallery and get the headlines. In our sport, these stars are first and foremost the horses, the drivers, the trainers and owners.

It's them that we talk about, it's their records that we highlight and their brilliance that we admire. But it is in the shade, those who many do not speak of and yet play an essential, primordial role. The people, men and women who are, on race days, those who prepare the scene, who pamper the horses that the trainers will see at work. No offense to the stars, these caretakers are clearly the people closest to the horses. Those who can tell you about their different characters, their different habits, their fears sometimes.

A caretaker is someone who several hours before the race, takes care of preparing the equipment and the horse. Each day they have their specific roles and must be well adjusted, otherwise the horse will not perform at its height. Many small details they pay attention to and work with their trainers to hopefully have their horses ready for success. Caretakers play such an important role for every stable. All this is done with love, attention to detail and a reassuring presence.

Today, track announcer Guy Lafontaine will present, in addition to the owner, the driver and the trainer, the caretaker. It has been the case for a few years at H3R to name the caretaker of the winner after the race, but today, they will all be entitled to this presentation before the race in the post parade.

At the race paddock, in collaboration with the ATAQ, there will be meals offered to all these people who are so important to the running of a racing program. On behalf of the leaders of the Quebec Jockey Club, the employees of the racetrack, congratulations to all the caretakers. Today, they will come out of the shadows and their dedication will be recognized.

There are 10 races on today's card at H3R and featured are two preferred-handicap paces, one for the fillies and mares and one for the horses.

The fifth race for the fillies and mares is spotlighted by 3-year-old standouts, Ladycorona (Bettor's Delight), Pocahontas Du Lac (Betterthancheddar) and YS Sensationalcity (Keystone Velocity).

All three fillies have won divisions of the Breeders Trophy Series and next week (Sept. 10) they will all battle again in their $65,000 final on Super Sunday at H3R.

Ladycorona (post 2) is the standout as she goes for her sixth straight win for driver Pascal Berube and trainer Yves Tessier. Her last start saw her romp in the series by 10 and one-half lengths in 1:55.4. She won all three of her starts in the series. Ladycorona was bred and is owned by Sotirios Anastasopoulos of Sainte-Theresa, QC.

Super Sunday will feature eight finals for 2 and 3-year-old trotters and pacers with $500,000 in total purses on the afternoon. The draw of positions for this super day will be in the presence of the public, next Wednesday (Sept. 6), at 2 pm on the second floor of the stage of the racecourse. It will be broadcast live on the Hippodrome 3R Facebook page.

Red Mile has red hot week coming up, Confederate in Lexington, KY's Red Mile, is all set for a rare program under the "stars" tonight (Sept. 3), featuring "stars" on the track, as well, with 26 stakes events during their Sunday-Monday-Tuesday work week.

Confederate (Sweet Lou) and Special Way (Walner) lead the parade of stars this week with all eyes on the up-and-coming stars such as Karl (Tactical Landing) and Better Is Nice (Bettor's Wish), as well.

Tonight's racing program — the first nighttime gig in more almost four years — begins at 5:50 p.m. with 14 races on tap, including two $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series events with 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings under the stars along with 2-year-old pacing fillies.

The trotting feature for the juvenile colts and geldings features the highly regarded Karl, looking to keep his perfect record in tactical fashion after two straight wins to kick off his career, including the fastest performance of juvenile trotters — 1:52.1 — at Red Mile in his last start.

Trained by Nancy Takter, who co-owns with Christina Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing and Bend Sweden, Karl has drawn the outside 7 post in this week's event and will be handled by Yannick Gingras as the even-money morning line favorite.

The pace for juvenile pacing fillies has turned into a wide-open affair with a quartet of evenly matched entrants seeking the even bigger-than-usual share of this $80,000 purse.

Asweetbeachhere (Sweet Lou) has a pair of wins this season in her five starts and a mark of 1:53.1 and is listed at 7-5 on the morning line for trainer Erv Miller, who does the conditioning for owner Douglas Overhiser. Atlee Bender will handle the lines tonight.

Capytreach (Captaintreacherous), trained by Linda Toscano for West Wins Stable, Eric Good and Mark Dumain, already has a record of 1:51.3 and has shown ability to pace final quarters in the :25.3-:25.4 range. This filly is listed at 5-2.

Seeuontheotherside (Captain Crunch) and Gifted One (Captaintreacherous) complete the evenly matched field, both looking for their maiden wins.

In the "better for the bettor" department, the wagering buffet is loaded for the "Send-It-In Army" members with a wide variety of options highlighted by low takeouts and a pair of Pick-4 events — beginning in races 6 and 11 — both with an industry low 12 per cent takeout and the race 6 Pick-4 with a $10,000 guaranteed pool.

On Monday (Sept. 4), the stars will be on-track in the form of Special Way and Confederate; both entered in their respective $80,000 KYSS Championship events.

Special Way is in the 3-year-old filly trot and last year's champion is looking to extend her winning streak this year to four. This is her first pari-mutuel start back after her win in the $240,000 New Jersey Sire Stakes Final at The Meadowlands on June 2 and comes into the action tightened up with a winning qualifier at Pocono Downs in 1:53.3 – 54.4-:27.

Trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt will drive for owners, Brittany Farms, Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld.

Her task will not be easy as Mambacita (Tactical Landing), coming off a 1:51-:26.3 win in last week's KYSS, is looking to extend her winning streak to three for trainer Tony Alagna. Owned by Alagna Racing, Crawford Farms and Pryde Stables, Scott Zeron will handle the lines.

Caviart Gwen (Father Patrick), Mommamia Volo (Tactical Landing) and Walner Payton (Walner) complete the talented quintet.

Confederate, trained by Brett Pelling for Diamond Creek Racing, is in-to-go in the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series having banked $1,281,629 in his 14 career starts at 2 and 3 with $837,929 this semester to go along with a mark of 1:47.

The colt is six-for-seven this year and looks to stretch his current winning streak to five. Tim Tetrick has the driving assignment on Monday.

On Tuesday (Sept. 5), Better Is Nice (Bettor's Wish) heads a sharp field of five in the $80,000 KYSS Championship Series for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings while Allegiant (Tactical Landing) looks for a repeat win in her race for juvenile trotting fillies.

Better Is Nice has ripped off four straight wins in sire stakes action in New Jersey and at Red Mile with a mark of 1:50.4 taken up north on Hambletonian Day and his latest win at Red Mile a week ago was completed in 1:51.3, highlighted by a final panel in :25.4.

Better Is Nice is trained by Tony Alagna for his Alagna Racing, Pryde Stables and Birnam Wood Farms and will have Andrew McCarthy in the bike.

Allegiant, trained by Vernon Beachy for Ryan Smith, achieved her fourth lifetime win in her last start, holding off Volcanic Blue Chip (Walner) and Ake Svanstedt by a neck, the latter's second photo finish loss in a row.

Post time for the Monday and Tuesday card is 1:00 p.m. and, as usual, free program pages are available for each racing program at redmileracing.com.

Dynamical Tad captured the other $9,950 3-year-old trot division in 2:04.2 in line to Kenny Arsenault for owners Bill Kinney and Gary Ford. Vaughan Doyle trains the son of Tad The Stud.

Getting Salty was victorious in her $9,950 Lady Slipper 3-yearold trotting filly division, front-ending to a 2:03 victory for trainer/driver Campbell and owner Blayne White.

Freshman trotter Oceanview Daisy bested her rivals in a $14,450 Lady Slipper 2-year-old trotting filly division with a 2:04.2 clocking from the Jeff Holmes stable. Ken Murphy supplied the winning steer for owner Hardcore Racing of Belfast.

The lone $14,450 Lady Slipper 2-year-old trotting colt division had Rocket Blast land on top with Corey MacPherson in the seat for owner/trainer Carl Bagnall in 2:04.4.

The $2,200 D & G Younker Memorial trot had Glider Man take a pocket ride to victory in 2:00 with Jason Hughes holding the lines for trainer Jennifer Doyle, who had a training double on the card.

Driver Gilles Barrieau celebrated four wins on the night while trainer Ron Matheson also bagged a grand slam from his Charlottetown stable.

Total handle on the card was $134,518.
